NEW RAILWAY DEAL.

CANADIAN NORTHERN ABSORBS GREAT NORTHERN.

Will Give Important Connections in Eastern Canada; With an Outlet at Quebec.

Montreal, Feb. 2.—Mr. J. N. Greenshields, counsel for Messrs. Mackenzie & Mann in the large railway transactions of these gentlemen, is authority for the statement that the Canadian Northern Railway has absorbed the Great Northern Railway of Canada. He is now completing the legal end of the deal and preparing the necessary papers. This will give the Canadian Northern an important connection in eastern Canada, with terminal and port facilities in the City of Quebec. A meeting of the officials of the two roads took place at Quebec a few days ago, when it is understood the deal was arranged.

TROOPS TO KEEP ORDER.

Rioting at Waterbury, Conn., Must Cease.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 2.—Eight companies of the 1st Regiment Connecticut National Guard and seven companies, including two local companies, of the 2nd Regiment, with two Gatling were called to Waterbury last night from Hartford, New Britain, Manchester and Rockville at the command of Gov. Chamberlain, because of the "imperative need occasioned by the rioting about the streets last night, coupled with threats of further disturbances tonight." There was no repetition to-day of the violence of last night, but crowds congregated about the streets and had to be dispersed by the police, while there were rumors of an attack to be made on the car barn, where the non-union motormen and conductors brought here by the Connecticut Railway & Electric Lighting Company are quartered. The troops were called out by the Governor after a conference at noon with Col. Burpee, attorney for the railroad company, General Manager Sowell of the railway company, Mayor Kilduff, the members of the Board of Public Safety and Sheriff Dunham of New Haven. No cars were run last evening after sunset, but during the day all the lines were operated as usual with the non-union trolley men. The cars were not molested

Saturday night there was a general riot, Every car sent out from the barns was greeter with a volley of stones at various points, and no car escaped without broken windows. Thousands of people filled the streets, and the police were powerless to control the mob and were at length forced to require the Connecticut Electric & Lighting Company officials to call in their cars. The request was complied with, and the last car pulled into the barn at 11.15 escorted by the police. One motorman was injured so severely by a stone that a car starter had to take his place. Several other motormen and conductors were less seriously hurt.

CONFLICTING ORDERS.

Collision at Merritton Due to Despatcher Auld's Mistake.

St. Catharnies, Feb. 2.—At Merritton on Saturday afternoon Coroner Goodman resumed the inquest on the body of Charles Waring, killed in the accident near Merritton on Jan. 3. Neither engineers, Buckpit or Duke, who were injured at the time, were present. Doctors' certificates were presented that they were unable to attend. Despatcher John Auld of London, who after the accident admitted he was to blame, could not be found, he having left London immediately after the accident, and his whereabouts being unknown. The evidence showed that conflicting orders had been issue by Auld, one stating that the express was running twenty minutes late, and the other that it was forty minutes late. The latter gave the engineer of the light engine to understand he had lots of time to reach Merritton before the express was due. The jury brought in a verdict that the accident was due to conflicting orders given by Despatcher John Auld of London.

OIL FUEL ON WARSHIPS.

Experiments Being Made By British Vessels.

London, Feb. 2.—Exceptional interest is attached to the departure of the Channel squadron from Portsmouth Friday on a prolongued cruise. For the first time British battleships have been fitted to consume oil as fuel. These experiments have so far been confined to small war vessels, but now both the Hannibal and Mars will use petroleum instead of coal, while the cruisers Duke of Edinburgh and Black Prince are similarly equipped. The oil is carried in tanks stowed in the double bottoms of the ships.

FIRE IN U.S. ASSAY OFFICE.

Books and Bullion Were All Safely Locked Away.

New York, Feb. 2.—Fire, which originated Saturday in a laboratory on the second floor of the United States Assay Office, next door to the sub-treasury, destroyed a portion of the roof and upper story and some apparatus. Chief Assayer Torrey said the loss on the latter probably will not exceed $2,000, and that on the building is nominal. He believed nitric acid, used in testing the bullion brought in for sale to the Government, was the cause of the fire. There was about $40,000,000 in bullion in the vaults, and about $1,500,000 lying outside in various parts of the building. The latter sum and about $100,000 in a melted state, as well as the books, were hastily locked in the vaults. Then the employees hurried out of the building.

TO SELL HILL OF TARA.

The Scene of Numerous Historic Gatherings.

London, Feb. 2.—The Hill of Tara, which is rich in historic memories, shortly will be sold at auction in Dublin. Until the sixth century Tara was the chief seat of the Irish Kings, and a pillar six feet high is still pointed out as the coronation stone. It also later was a university, the druids' headquarters, and the site of King Cormack's splendid court. The last important gathering on the Hill of Tara was in 1843, when a gigantic meeting was held there, under the auspices of Daniel O'Connell, who urged the repeal of the union.

RULERS OF THE WORLD

MEAT EATING NATIONS ARE THE LEADERS IN EVERY BRANCH OF HUMAN ACHIEVEMENT.

The ruling nations of the world are meat eaters and history records that they always have been.

Vegetarians and food cranks may explain this in any way they choose, but the facts remain that the Americans, English, French, Russians and Germans are meat eating nations, and they are also the most energetic and most progressive.

The principal food of the heroic Boer soldier, known as Biltong, is a sort of dried beef, affording a great deal of nourishment in a highly concentrated form.

The weak races of people are the rice eating Chinese, Hindoos and Siamese, regarded since the dawn of history as non-progressive, superstitious and inferior physically and mentally to the meat eating nations who dominate them.

The structure of the teeth plainly indicates that human beings should subsist upon a variety of food, meat, fruit and grains, and it is unhygienic to confine one's diet to any one of those classes to the exclusion of another.

Meat is the most concentrated and most easily digested of foods, but our manner of living is often so unnatural that the digestive organs refuse to properly digest meat, eggs and similar nutritious and wholesome foods, but it is not because such food is unwholesome, but the real reason is that the stomach lacks, from disease or weakness, some necessary digestive element; hence arising indigestion and later on, chronic dyspepsia.

Nervous people should eat plenty of meat, convalescents should make meat the principal food, hard working people have to do so and brain workers and office men should eat, not so much meat, but at least once a day, and to insure its perfect digestion one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be taken after each meal, because they supply the peptones, diastase and fruit acids, lacking in every case of stomach trouble.

Nervous dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, gastritis, sour stomach, gas and acidity are only different names for indigestion, the failure to digest wholesome food, and the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cures them all because by affording perfect digestion the stomach has a chance to rest and recover its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the real household medicine; it is as safe and pleasant for the stomachache of the baby as it is for the imperfect digestion of its grandsire.

They are not a cathartic, but a digestive, and no pill habit can ever follow their use; the only habit Stuart's Tablets induce is the habit of good digestion, and consequently good health.

DESTROYER CUT IN TWO.

DISASTER TO BRITISH VESSEL OFF ISLAND OF CORFU.

Struck by the British Cruiser Pioneer—Fifteen of Her Crew Were Drowned.

Cortu, Island of Cortu, Feb. 2.—The British cruiser Pioneer ran into the torpedo-boat destroyed Orwell near the channel of CorStu, and fifteen persons were drowned. Two bodies have been picked up.

The Orwell was cut through at the conning tower during night naval operations, and her forepart sank in deep water, taking down fifteen men. The after part of the Orwell has been towed here.

SUGAR-MAKING ON SUNDAY.

Lord's Day Alliance Prosecution at Berlin.

Berlin, Feb. 2.—The Lord's Day Alliance has commenced a prosecution against the Ontario Beet Sugar Co. at Berlin, for working on Sunday. Three cases came before the Magistrate on Friday last. Mr. A. E. O'Meara appeared for the Lord's Day Alliance, and Mr. Miller, K.C., had charge of the case for the defendants. The case involves the labor of many hundreds of employees, and has therefore evoked great interest. After some preliminary arguments, the defence practically admitted the facts of the work having gone on. The great question, however, was as to its necessity. It was argued also by Mr. Miller that as the men were working for a corporation, the act did not apply to them, because under its terms corporations are excluded, and the exclusion extended, it was held, to the men. The Magistrate rejected this argument. Arguments were then taken, and conflict arose upon the expert evidence as to the necessity of the work. The case was adjourned until a time when the expert evidence can be presented completely. The three cases chosen were selected with a view to covering all classes of work done on Sunday at the works. If one case should fail, the alliance will still have the others to fall back upon.

Both sides intend to fight the case determinedly to the end. It will, therefore, be before the courts for some time and will probably go through to the Court of Appeal.

BARTON SHOT HIS WIFE.

A Blind River Man's Crime—Commits Suicide.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Feb. 2.—News reached here Friday of a suicide and attempted murder at Blind River, a village a short distance from the Canadian "Soo," early in the week. A man named Hector Barton, formerly of Cheboygan, shot his wife at a boarding house, where she was employed as cook, and afterwards shot himself fatally. The woman is recovering. Barton was 40 years old, and his wife 25. The cause of the shooting is said to have been jealousy. Barton worked outside the village in a lumber camp. The woman was his second wife.

THE SULTAN'S VICTORY.

Moroccan Pretender Was Completely Defeated.

Tangier, Feb. 2.—The Sultan's troops have utterly routed the forces of the Moorish pretender and captured Bu Hamara himself. A special courier brought the news here from Fez. He reports that at daybreak last Thursday the army of the Sultan, commanded by the War Minister, El Menebbi, attacked the pretender's position and inflicted a complete defeat on his followers, at the same time capturing Bu Hamara.

Another courier from Fez confirms the news of the defeat of the rebels, but says the pretender was not captured, and that it is not known that his body was among the great number slain. The Sultan's victory was absolute, almost the entire following of the pretender being either slain or captured. His camp, provisions and ammunition were taken, and the artillery which was lost by the Sultan's army in the battle of December 23rd was recaptured. Even if Bu Hamara escaped it is hopeless for him to seek to retrieve his defeat, as his claim to be a saint is exploded. The pretender's camp was surprised and rushed at dawn

There are great rejoicings here at the Sultan's victory.

London, Feb. 2.—A despatch from Tangier to The Morning Leader mentions a circumstantial report current in that city that Du Hamara was brought to Fez in a cage and exposed to public derision. The despatch adds that it is impossible to ascertain the truth, and attributes the Sultan's victory more to his bribery of the tribes than to military tactics. The bribed rebels suddenly abandoned the pretender's standard.

AGAINST CHILD LABOR.

Second Reading of a Measure in the German Reichstag.

Berlin, Feb. 2.—The Reichstag passed the second reading of the bill prohibiting child labor in factories and shops and prohibiting the employment of children under twelve years of age in some branches of industry and under thirteen in others. The Socialists attempted to extend the prohibitions to agriculture and household work.

SHOT BY UNKNOWN PERSON.

Well-known Pittsburg Contractor Called to His Door and Shot.

Pittsburg, Feb. 2.—C. B. Allison, a well-known electrical contractor of this city, was called to the door of his home at Sheridan, a suburb, yesterday, and shot down by an unknown person. The bullet entered Mr. Allison's left side, but the doctors say it will not be fatal. No reason is known for the outrage.

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back; bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

"Commas and Such Like."

The following from London Spare Moments, has been going the rounds of the press of the Continent, but it is worthy of repetition, if only for the sake of the moral:

Recently a school inspector arrived at a small town in Germany and requested the Mayor to accompany him on a tour of inspection round the schools.

The Mayor, as he put on his hat, muttered to himself:

"I should like to know why that ass has come so soon again," a remark which the inspector overheard, but affected to ignore.

Arrived at the first school, he began to examine the pupils in punctuation, but was told by the Mayor:

"We don't trouble about commas and such like."

The inspector merely told one of the boys to write on the blackboard:

"The Mayor of Ritzelbuttel says the Inspector is an ass."

"Now," he added, "put a comma after 'Ritzelbuttel' and another after 'inspector.'"

The boy did so.

The Mayor is believed to have changed his opinion as to the value of commas.

Who Was the Loser?

An exchange presents the following problem in finance: "A banker, sauntering home, saw a £5 note lying on the curbstone. Of course he picked it up and took the number, in order to find the owner. While at home his wife remarked that the butcher had sent in a bill for meat amounting to £5. The only money he had with him was the money he had found, which he gave her and she paid the butcher. The butcher paid it to a farmer for a calf, and the farmer paid to the merchant, who in turn paid it to the washerwoman, and she, owing the banker £5, went to the banker and paid her note. The banker recognized the note as the one he had found and which up to that time had settled £25 of debt. On a more careful consideration he found the note counterfeit."

Anecdotal.

One of the keenest of journalists and wits, Moritz Gottleib Saphir, had the better of the irate stranger against whom he ran by accident at the corner of a street in Munich. "Beast," cried the offended person, without waiting for an apology. "Thank you," said the journalist, "and mine is Saphir."

A lady was distributing tracts to the patients in a certain military hospital, when she was greatly shocked to hear a soldier laughing at her. She turned around indignantly to reprove him, when he said: "Why, look here, madam, you have given me a tract on the sin of dancing, when I've both legs shot off."

Tennyson invited Henry Hallam to be godfather to his first boy. As they were walking up the churchyard the historian enquired of Tennyson, "What name do you mean to give him?" "We thought of calling him Hallam," said the poet. "Oh, had you not better call him Alfred?" modestly suggested Hallam. "Aye," replied the naive bard, "but what if he should turn out a fool?"

On one occasion, in Manchester, during the performance of "Macbeth," Sir Henry Irving came to the line where he has to say to one of the murderers, "There's blood upon thy face!" The great tragedian stared so hard at the actor who was playing the "murderer" that that worthy quite forgot he was acting upon the boards. "Great Scot! Is there?" he replied, in alarm, and rushed off the stage.

On one occasion the Pope wrote a message to be printed in a New York newspaper, and copies were shown in advance to prominent men by the newspaper, with a request for comment to be printed at the same time with the document. To the request made of him, the late Thomas B. Reed replied: "The overpowering unimportance of this makes me speechless. I have nothing to say."

One of the most beautiful stories in all biographical literature is that told of Wendell Phillips, the great orator. He was passionately devoted to his invalid wife, and one day, after he had lectured his friends urged him not to return to Boston that night. "The last train has left," they said, "and you will be obliged to take a carriage. It will mean twelve miles of cold riding through the sleet." "Ah, yes," he replied, "but at the end of them I shall find Annie Phillips."

The other day a well-known actor was showing a visitor to New York through the Players' Club, where there is a collection of old ale mugs used by distinguished persons. "Here," said the Thespian who was doing the honors, "we have Edwin Booth's mug; and here is Joseph Jefferson's mug; this is Barrett's mug; and here Henry Leslie's mug; here we have Mr. Kendal's mug——" "Thank heaven," interrupted the visitor, "that you haven't Mrs. Kendal's mug!"

Senator Hoar, at the New England dinner that was held recently in Philadelphia, talked about New England hospitality. "It is better now than it used to be," he said, "but it will still stand improvement here and there. I remember how I dined, not long ago, with a Connecticut farmer, a boyhood friend of mine. For dinner there was turkey. It was an excellent bird, and I ate of it heartily. I said: 'John, this turkey will make a fine hash to-morrow.' 'Yes. George, it will,' the farmer answered, 'provided that you leave off now.'"

One of the difficulties of royalties—one of the things that account for the tendency to selfishness which has been considered a weakness of the royal caste—is that they so seldom hear the truth. For instance, when Louis XIV. was once playing at backgammon, a favorite game with him, a dispute arose as to a doubtful throw of the monarch. The courtiers, appealed to by the King, said nothing—not daring to give the verdict against the King, not caring to tell too palpable a lie. The Comte de Grammont entered at this awkward moment, and the King asked him to decide the matter. The witty courtier replied without a moment's hesitation: "Your Majesty is in the wrong." "How," said Louis, "can you decide before you know the question?" "Because," replied the count, "had there been any doubt, all these gentlemen would have given it in favor of your Majesty."

As a junior counsel, Mr. Justice Hawkins was once practising before Lord Campbell. In addressing the jury, he referred to a brougham, and pronounced the word with two syllables—bro'am. "Excuse me," said his lordship, blandly, "but I think that instead of saying 'brough-am' you were to say 'broom,' you would be more intelligible to the jury, and, moreover, you would save a syllable." "I am much obliged to your lordship," quietly replied Mr. Hawkins, and proceeded to bring his address to a close. Presently the judge, in summing up, made use of the word "omnibus." Instantly up rose Mr. Hawkins, and exclaimed: "Pardon me, m'lud, but I would take the liberty of suggesting that instead of saying 'omnibus' your lordship would say, ''bus,' and you would then be more intelligible to the jury, and besides you would save two syllables."

It is related that while in New York, Professor Lorenz one evening at dinner was seated next to a clergyman, who was describing to the great Austrian how deplorable were moral conditions on the East Side. "Why, professor," said the minister, "I heard an eleven-year-old girl over there one day step up to a boy of about her own age, and say, 'I'll lick hell out of you.'" Dr. Lorenz looked puzzled, for he is not familiar with American slang. "Lick," he said; "was ist dos 'lick?'" "Why, 'lick,'" said the clergyman, a little puzzled in return, "'lick' is to kick out of, to stamp out from, to eradicate." "Oh," said the professor, "and 'hell.' I don't know 'hell.'" "Well, 'hell' stands for all wickedness, everything that is wicked." "Yes, I see," slowly responded Dr. Lorenz; "the leetle girl said to the leetle boy she would stamp out, eradicate everything wicked from him. But why should that be so bad?"

Easily Rendered.

"Th' Frinch language," declared Mr. O'Tunder, "is so like th' Irish thot I hev no trouble at all, at all, t'undyshtand it."

"Nonsense," commented Mr. Phleggum.

"No nonsinse about it," asserted Mr. O'Tunder. "I vinture t' say there's no ixprission in Frinch thot may not aisily be ixprissed in Irish, by any wan who is famil-yer wid th' two tongues."

"More nonsense!" was the reply of Mr. Phleggum. "For instance, how would you put 'pardonnez moi' in Irish?"

"Wud ye shpell it fer me?"

Mr. Phleggum did so.

"'Tis aisy," declared Mr. O'Tunder. "In Irish th' sintince wud be shpoken thus: 'Pard-onnez Moike.'"—"Judge."

A Savings Bank.

Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality, Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we ake for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

BETTER GOODS, BETTER VARIETY, BETTER VALUE ARE NOT POSSIBLE, OR WE WOULD HAVE THEM.

INSULTS TO SPRIGG.

Deputations Tell Mr. Chamberlain That They Have No Faith in His Ministry.

Kimberley, Cape Colony, Feb. 2.—Since the arrival here of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and Mrs. Chamberlain a series of demonstrations against Sir John Gordon Sprigg, the Premier of Cape Colony, have occurred. He was publicly hissed on several occasions, and during Mr. Chamberlain's remarks on the situation in Cape Colony, at the banquet given in his honor here Friday evening, cries were raised of "Away With Sprigg," while the members of a deputation which waited on Mr. Chamberlain informed him, in the Premier's presence, that they had no faith in the Sprigg Ministry, which "pampered the Afrikander Bund, and was dependent on it for its existence." Sir John heatedly characterized these remarks as a personal insult.

Mount Forest Cadets Win the Shield.

Mount Forest, Jan. 31.—The Mount Forest High School Cadets to-day won the Beck shield for rifle-shooting by scoring 110 points out of a possible 200, which leads the next highest company, Guelph, by three points. Lieut.-Col. Peters, D.O.C., London, was referee for the shooting here to-day.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Wheat is Lower—Live Stock Trade—Latest Quotations.

Saturday Evening, Jan. 31.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

To-day's business was fairly good at St. Lawrence Market. The stalls were thronged with buyers and a good demand was in evidence for all lines of produce. The condition of the country roads still continues bad and the receipts of grain and hay were light. Only 700 bushels of grain were offered.

Wheat—White wheat is firmer; 200 bushels sold at 72c to 72½c per bushel. Red is easier, and 200 bushels sold at 71c to 71½c; other quotations are unchanged.

Barley—The market is easier at 47c per bushel; 100 bushels sold at this figure.

Oats—The market is firmer and a scarcity of offerings exists; 200 bushels sold at 36c to 36½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—To-day's receipts were light and prices are quoted at a small decline. Prices for choice light weights are $8 to $8.25 per cwt and for heavies $7.50 to $7.75.

Eggs—The offerings were fairly large and in sympathy with the produce markets prices declined somewhat. Quotations are 20c to 25c per dozen for new laid and 14c to 15c for held stock. The demand for the latter stock was small.

Butter—The market continues about steady, with quotations unchanged. To-day's offerings were met by a fair demand, the quality of the stock being fair to good.

Hay—Five loads only were on the market, of which 3 were timothy, and sold at $13 to $14.50 per ton. Mixed or clover sold at $6 to $9.

Straw—Continues steady at $9 to $10 per ton.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Jan. 31.—Cattle—Receipts, 125 head; dull. Veals—Receipts, 100 head; 50c to 75c lower; tops, $8.25 to $8.75; common to good, $5.50 to $8. Hogs—Receipts, 6,000 head; active; 5c higher; heavy and mixed, $7 to $7.05; Yorkers and pigs, $6.95 to $7; roughs, $6 to $6.25; stags, $5 to $5.50. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 9,100 head; sheep steady; lambs 10c lower; top lambs, $5.90 to $6; few fancy, $6.15; culls to good, $4.25 to $5.85; yearlings, $5 to $5.25;

TIMELY TOPICS

That "decidedly cold weather" did not materialize, a fact which nobody is lamenting very much.

The weather prophets are having their inning just now, and have taken as their text that thunderstorm we had last week. One gentleman, who has kept pretty close watch on the weather for a long time, says that thunderstorm presaged six months' frost. Not all at once, he hastened to say, but for six months after that storm we are liable to have frost any night, so people who plant early vegetables had better have earmuffs ready to put on them every evening after the sun goes down. However, all signs fail in dry weather. Candlemas has come and gone and the bear didn't see his shadow, which, as everybody knows, means a short winter. Scoffers, of course, may say that the bear couldn't see anything after the Chief had shot him, but that's only begging the question. The fact remains that there was no sunshine on Candlemas day, which means that, inside of two months, the grass will be growing somewhere.

The good people of Belleville, old and young, are nowadays greatly wrapped up in that noble game, hockey. Coming home from church last night, the writer heard an amusing conversation between two members of the rising generation, which contained some startling features, to say the least.

"The Winnipegs would have won, sure," said one, "only Scanlan got his back broke. He played two hours after that, but, of course, couldn't play his game."

"The Winnipegs should have brought Ernie Lang with them," said the other, "he's a swift player."

"Ah, go on," said the first speaker, "Lang went to London, England, and played for money, and they won't let him play again for four years."

ARBITRATE SOME CLAIMS.

But Dominican Government is Firm On Others.

San Domingo, Feb. 2.—United States Minister Powell and a representative of the Dominican Government signed a protocol providing that the matter of the disputed claims of the San Domingo Improvement Company of New York be referred to international arbitration, and that the Dominican Government pay the improvement company the sum of $4.000.000 for all its rights and franchises. The proposition of arbitration was recently presented to the Dominican Government by Mr. Powell and accepted. The arbitrators, of whom there are to be three, will meet in Washington. One arbitrator is to be selected by the Dominican Government from the Justices of the United States Supreme Court, or the Judges of the Circuit Court of the United States.

The Dominican Government has informed United States Minister Powell that it cannot agree to his request made in the name of the United States Government in the matter of claims of Clyde steamships, and that if this company feels aggrieved at the action of the Government it should seek redress before a tribunal of the United States.

To this communication Mr. Powell informed the Dominican Government that the United States would insist upon redress for its citizens, and the pending cases must be settled by the Government and not through the courts.

The claims of the San Domingo Improvement Company, which alleges that it was unjustly deprived of certain valuable franchises by the Dominican Government, have been in dispute for several years. The Government has strongly resisted any settlement of the case up to the present time.

Back of the Cough

There's more to a cough than the tickling sensation in the throat. There's a cold behind that and a weak spot to be strengthened.

Cough mixtures get as far as the tickling sensation in the throat; that is where their work stops. They may relieve the cough, but they do not cure the cold and certainly will not build up the system. Their action is therefore merely local and of necessity very limited.

Scott's Emulsion does not stop at the throat. It eases that too, but its mission is beyond that. It not only cures the cough, but it cures the cold which is back of the cough. It searches out the real cause of the trouble and corrects the wasting and weakening conditions. In its passage through the body it distributes strength to the worn out tissues, feeds the blood corpuscles and tones up the body. There is nothing better than Scott's Emulsion to build up a run down system after a cold.

We will send a sample free to anyone on request.

PLAYED FOR THE KING.

Susa's Band Well Received—Gen. Miles at Windsor Castle.

London, Feb. 2.—Sousa's band played at Windsor Castle Friday evening by command of King Edward. The concert took place in the Waterloo chamber, in the presence of the royal family and a large house party. The programme, in accordance with the King's wish, was composed entirely of American music. The soloists were Maud Powell, Estelle Liebling and Arthur Prior. His Majesty received Bandmaster Sousa in the most pleasant manner, and expressed his appreciation of the "Imperial Edward March."

London, Feb. 2.—General Miles was the guest of the King and Queen at dinner at Windsor Castle Saturday. The Prince and Princess of Wales and others were among the party. King Edward is in good health.

FLOODS IN SCOTLAND.

Furniture Floating in the Streets of Perth.

London, Feb. 2.—The melting of the snow has caused extensive floods and serious damage in Scotland. The River Tay has overflowed in Perthshire, and many carcasses of deer, cattle and sheep and quantities of household furniture are floating in the streets of Perth. At Inverness, the River Ness has overflowed and the railroad bridges have been damaged. The River Dee has flooded part of Balmoral, and elsewhere has caused great destruction.

SHAMBLEAU ARRESTED.

Kent's Defaulting Treasurer in a Detroit Hospital.

Detroit, Feb. 2.—Alfred T. Shambleau, aged 46 years, former Treasurer of Kent County, Ont., who is wanted at Chatham on three warrants charging theft and forgery in connection with a shortage in the county funds of about $14,000, was to-day placed under arrest at Grace Hospital in this city, and later taken across the river by Ontario officers and started for Chatham. Shambleau consented to go without extradition proceedings being instituted. Under the name of A. W. Fish he was brought to the hospital last night from Pontiac, Mich., suffering from a fractured skull, which, it is said, was received here last week in a fight.

NEW WOLVIN FREIGHTER.

Big Freight Boat of Canadian Line Launched.

Buffalo, Feb. 1.—Fully 1,500 persons thronged the yards of the Buffalo Drydock Company on Saturday to witness the launching of the steel steamer James S. Keele, the first of the fleet of freighters to be turned out from the Buffalo yards for the Great Lakes & St. Lawrence Transportation Company, the new Canadian line in which A. B. Wolvin of Duluth is interested.

At 3 o'clock the last block was knocked out, and the rope confining the new steamer to the ways was cut. She slid down the greased incline easily, and settled buoyantly upon an even keel. Miss May. Dempster of this city christened the new steamer. The owners were represented by Captain Joseph Norcross who is to be mechanical superintendent of the new line.

Sheep—Receipts, 1,000 sheep and lambs steady; good to choice wethers, $4.40 to $5.25; fair to choice mixed, $3.50 to $4.40; native lambs, $4.40 $6.40.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

Montreal, Jan. 31.—The local grain market continues unchanged. The demand for oats for local consumption continues good and, as the offerings are small, the tone of the market is firm at the recent advance in prices. Sales of car lots of No. 2 white were made at 37¼c to 37½c ex-store. Business in oats for export account was quiet but prices were unchanged at 31¼c to 31½ high freights and at 32¼c to 32½c east. The demand for peas was slow, and prices rule steady at 72½c to 73c high freights. Buckwheat remains dull and nominally unchanged at 49½c to 50c east on the Grand Trunk.

In provisions the demand for pork and lard is fairly good, but the trade in smoked meats is rather quiet. Heavy Canadian short cut mess pork, $24; Canada short cut back pork, $23 to $23.50; light Canada short clear pork, $22.50 to $23; finest kettle lard, in 20-lb pails, 12¼c; extra pure lard, in 20-lb pails, 10¾c to 11¼c; choice refined compound lard, 8½c to 9c; Boar's Head brand, in 20-lb wood pails, $1.95 to $2.05; Globe, at $1.75 to $1.85; 20-lb tin pails, ¼c less per lb; hams, 12½c to 14c, and bacon 14c to 15c per lb.

The cheese market continues nominal as to value in the absence of transactions. Holders have very firm views of what the small remaining stock on hand is worth.

Butter is steady and there was a fairly good business in a local way for fresh winter creamery, which holds at 22c to 22½c. Held cold storage dairy remains at 19½c to 21½c, as to quality.

Purified * * by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

"They might find him and they might not," Mother Cameron said. They could try, at all events," and in a few moments the telegraphic wires were carrying the news of Katy's illness, both to the West, where Wilford had gone, and to the East, where Helen read with a blanched cheek that Katy perhaps was dying, and she must hasten to New York.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Wilford could not forget Katy's face, so full of reproach. It followed him continually, and was the magnet which turned his steps homeward before his business was quite done, and before the telegram had found him. Thus it was with no knowledge of existing circumstances that he reached New York just at the close of the day, and ordering a carriage, was driven towards home. All the shutters in the front part of the house were closed, and not a ray of light was to be seen in the parlors as he entered the hall, where the gas was burning dimly.

"Katy is at home," he said, as he went into the library, where a shawl was thrown across a chair, as if some one had lately been there.

It was his mother's shawl, and he was wondering if she was there, when down the stairs came a man's rapid step, and the next moment Dr. Grant came into the room, starting when he saw Wilford, who felt intuitively that something was wrong.

"Is Katy sick?" was his first question, which Morris answered in the affirmative, holding him back as he was starting for her room, and saying to him, "Let me send your mother to you first."

What passed between Wilford and his mother was never known exactly, but at the close of the interview, Mrs. Cameron was very pale, while Wilford's face looked dark and anxious as he said: "You think he understands it, then?"

"Yes, in part, but the world will be none the wiser by his knowledge. I knew Dr. Grant before you did, and there are few men living whom I respect as much, and no one whom I would trust as soon."

Mrs. Cameron had paid a high tribute to Morris Grant, and Wilford bowed in assent, asking next how she managed Dr. Craig.

"That was easy, inasmuch as he believed it an insane freak of Katy's to have no other physician than her cousin. It was quite natural, he said, adding that she was as safe with Dr. Grant as any one. And I was glad, for I could not have a stranger know that affair. You will go up now," Mrs. Cameron continued, and a moment after, Wilford stood in the dimly lighted room where Katy was talking of Genevra and St. Mary's, and was only kept upon her pillow by the strong arm of Morris, who stood over her when Wilford entered, trying in vain to quiet her.

She knew him, and writhing away from Morris's arms, she said to him, "Genevra is not in that grave at St. Mary's; she is living, and you are not my husband. So you can leave the house at once. Morris will settle the estate, and no bill shall be sent in for your board and lodging."

In some moods Wilford would have smiled at being thus summarily dismissed from his own house; but he was too sore now, too sensitive to smile, and his voice was rather severe as he laid his hand on Katy's and said:

"Don't be foolish Katy. Don't you know me? I am Wilford, your husband."

"That was, you mean," Katy rejoined, drawing her hand quickly away. "Go find your first love, where bullets fall like hail, and where there is pain, and blood, and carnage. Genevra is there."

"What God hath joined together let not man put asunder," was the text from which she preached several short sermons as the night wore on, but just as the morning dawned, she fell into the first quiet sleep she had had during the last twenty-four hours. And while she slept, Wilford ventured near enough to see the sunken cheeks and hollow eyes which wrung a groan from him as he turned to Morris, and asked what he supposed was the immediate cause of her sudden illness?

"A terrible shock, the nature of which I understand, but you have nothing to fear from me," Morris replied. "I accuse no man, but leave you to settle it with your conscience whether you did right to deceive her so long."

Morris spoke as one having authority, and Wilford simply bowed his head, feeling no resentment towards one who had ventured to reprove him. Afterwards he might remember it differently, but now he was too anxious to keep Morris there to quarrel with him, and so he made no reply, but sat watching Katy while she slept, wondering if she would die, and feeling how terrible life would be without her. Suddenly Genevra's warning words rang in his ear

"God will not forgive you for the wrong you have done me."

Was Genevra right? Had God remembered all this time, and overtaken him at last? It might be, and with a groan Wilford hid his face in his hands, believing that he repented of his sin, and not knowing that his fancied repentance arose merely from the fact that he had been detected.

Worn out with watching and waiting, Mrs. Cameron, who would suffer neither Juno nor Bell to come near the house, waited uneasily for the arrival of the New Haven train, which she hoped would bring Helen to her aid. Under ordinary circumstances, she would rather not have met her, for her presence would keep the letter so constantly in her mind; but now, anybody who could be trusted was welcome, and when at last there came a cautious ring, she went herself to the hall, starting back with undisguised vexation when she saw the timid-looking woman following close behind Helen, and whom the latter presented as "My mother, Mrs. Lennox."

Convinced that Morris's sudden journey to New York had something to do with Katy's illness, and almost distracted with fears for her daughter's life, Mrs. Lennox could not remain at home and wait for the tardy mail or the careless telegraph. She must go to her child, and casting off her dread of Wilford's displeasure, she had come with Helen, and was bowing meekly to Mrs. Cameron, who neither offered her hand nor gave any token of greeting except a distant bow and a simple "Good morning, madam."

But Mrs. Lennox was too anxious to notice the woman's haughty manner as she led them to the library and then went for her son. Wilford was not glad to see his mother-in-law, but he tried to be polite, answering her questions civilly, and when she asked if it were true that he had sent for Morris, assuring her that it was not. "Dr. Grant happened here very providentially, and I hope to keep him until the crisis is past, although he has just told me he must go back to-morrow."

"Was you a widower when you married my daughter?" she said to him, when at last Helen left the room, and she was alone with him.

"Yes, madam," he replied, "some would call me so, though I was divorced from my wife. As this was a matter which did not in any way concern your daughter, I deemed it best not to tell her. Latterly she has found it out, and it is having a very extraordinary effect upon her."

And this was all Mrs. Lennox knew until alone with Helen, who told her the story as she had heard it from Morris. His sudden journey to New York was thus accounted for, and Helen explained it to her mother, advising her to say nothing of it, as it might be better for Wilford not to know that Katy had telegraphed for Morris. It seemed very necessary that Dr Grant should return to Silverton, and the day following Helen's arrival in New York, he made arrangements to do so.

"You have other physicians here," he said to Wilford, who objected to his leaving "Dr Craig will do as well as I."

Wilford admitted that he might, but it was with a sinking heart that he saw Morris depart, and then went to Katy, who began to grow very restless and uneasy, bidding him go away and send Dr. Morris back. It was in vain that they administered the medicine just as Morris directed. Katy grew constantly worse, until Mrs. Lennox asked that another doctor be called. But to this Wilford would not listen. Fear of exposure and censure was stronger than his fears for Katy's life, which seemed balancing upon a thread as that long night and the next day went by. Three times Wilford telegraphed for Morris, and it was with unfeigned joy he welcomed him back at last, and heard that he had so arranged his business as to stay with Katy while the danger lasted.

With a monotonous sameness the days now came and went, people still shunning the house as if the plague was there. Once, Bell Cameron came round to call on Helen, holding her breath as she passed through the hall, and never asking to go near Katy's room. Two or three times, too, Mrs. Banker's carriage stood at the door, and Mrs. Banker herself came in, appearing so cool and distant that Helen could scarcely keep back her tears as she guessed the cause. Mark too, was in the city, having returned with the Seventh Regiment; but from Esther, Helen learned that he was about joining the army as captain of a company, composed of the finest men in the city. The next she heard was from Mrs. Banker, who incidentally remarked, "I shall be very lonely now that Mark has gone. He left me to-day for Washington."

There were tears on the mother's face, and her lip quivered as she tried to keep them back, by looking from the window into the streets, instead of at her companion, who, overcome with the rush of feeling which swept over her, hid her face on the sofa and sobbed aloud.

"Why, Helen! Miss Lennox, I am surprised. I had supposed—I was not aware—I did not think you would care," Mrs. Banker exclaimed, coming closer to Helen, who stammered out, "I beg you will excuse me, I cannot help it. I care for all our soldiers. It seems so terrible."

At the words "I care for all our soldiers," a shadow of disappointment flitted over Mrs Banker's face. She knew her son had offered himself and been refused, as she supposed; and she believed too, that Helen had given publicity to the affair, feeling justly indignant at this breach of confidence and lack of delicacy in one whom she had liked so much, and whom she still liked, in spite of the wounded pride which had prompted her to appear so cold and distant.

"Perhaps it is all a mistake," she thought, as she continued standing by Helen, "or it may be that she has relented," and for a moment she felt tempted to ask why her boy had been refused.

But Mark would not be pleased with her interference, she knew, and so the golden moment fled, and when she left the house, the misunderstanding between herself and Helen was just as wide as ever. Wearily after that the days passed with Helen, until all thoughts of herself were forgotten in the terrible fear that death was really brooding over the pillow where Katy lay, insensible to all that was passing around her. The lips were silent now, and Wilford had nothing to fear from the tongue hitherto so busy What Wilford suffered none could guess He did not ask that she might live, for if all were well hereafter he knew it was better for her to die in her young womanhood, than to live till the heart, now so sad and bleeding, had grown calloused with sorrow. And yet it was terrible to think of Katy dead, terrible to think of that face and form laid away beneath the turf of Greenwood, where those who loved her best could seldom go to weep

And as they sat there thus, the night shadows stole into the room, and the hours crept on till from a city tower a clock struck ten, and Morris, motioning Helen to his side, bade her go with her mother to rest "We do not need you here," he said; "your presence can do no good Should a change occur, you shall be told at once"

Thus importuned, Helen and her mother withdrew, and only Morris and Wilford remained to watch that heavy slumber, so nearly resembling death

CHAPTER XXXVII.

Gradually the noise in the streets died away, the tread of feet, the rumbling of wheels, and the tinkle of car bells ceased, and not a sound was heard, save as the distant fire bells pealed forth their warning voices, or some watchman went hurrying by. The great city was asleep, and to Morris the silence brooding over the countless throng was deeper, more solemn, than the silence of the country, where nature gives her own mysterious notes and lullabies for her sleeping children.

Before his marriage, a jealous thought of Morris Grant had found a lodgment in Wilford's breast, but he had tried to drive it out, and fancied that he had succeeded, experiencing a sudden shock when he felt it lifting its green head, and poisoning his mind against the man who was doing for Katy only what a brother might do. He forgot that it was his own entreaties which kept Morris there away from his Silverton patients, who were missing him so much, and complaining of his absence. Jealous men never reason clearly, and in this case, Wilford did not reason at all, but jumped readily at his conclusion, calling to his aid as proof all that he had ever seen pass between Katy and her cousin. That Morris Grant loved Katy was, after a few moments' reflection, as fixed a fact in his mind, as that she lay there between them, moaning feebly as if about to speak. Years before, jealousy had made Wilford almost a mad-man, and it now held him again in its powerful grasp, whispering suggestions he would have spurned in a calm frame of mind. There was a clenching of his fist, a knitting of his brows, and a gathering blackness in his eyes,

The Food System the Source of Life

ANY DERANGEMENTS OF THE LIVER OR KIDNEYS THAT INTERFERE WITH DIGESTION AND ASSIMILATION OF FOOD ROB AND DEPLETE THE BODY.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It matters not how good your appetite, how you relish your food or how much you eat, so long as there is anything to interfere with proper digestion and assimilation of the food by the body, strength and vigor will gradually decline and weakness and debility take their place.

The most frequent cause of disordered digestion is sluggish action of the liver, kidneys and bowels. The whole alimentary canal, through which the food passes on its way through the body, becomes choked and clogged, and the system is poisoned and diseased.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have been marvellously successful in exactly this class of disease, principally because they act directly on the kidneys, liver and bowels, regulating and invigorating their action, and restoring them to health.

Mrs. Owen Cummings, Deseronto, Ont., states: "I was in very poor health when I began to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I had been a great sufferer from constipation and stomach trouble, and was weak and run-down in strength. I was gradually growing worse every day, and finally decided that I would have to do something. Hearing of many being cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I began using them, and soon noticed a marked change for the better. I continued this treatment until I was cured of constipation and my stomach was restored to a healthy condition. It only took about three boxes of pills to entirely cure me."

All the known styles of decorations—all the periods we not alone name, but will explain to you—will execute for you if you wish it. We are prepared to execute any decorative work known. Our workmen are the best to be found in large cities, our experience in decorating is not a local one alone, our decorator having had years of experience at Winnipeg, Kingston, as well as in decorating many of the better homes of Ontario.

We are prepared to execute better decorating to introduce correct color schemes, to furnish superior wall fabrics and papers, to supply better mechanics than the citizens of Belleville have heretofore been able to secure, and withal at modest prices.

Selling this month at a discount of 25 per cent. one quarter off, and with ample workmen to execute the work promptly—it is making the January Wall Paper and Decorating very busy with us.

Our idea for making this large discount is to keep our workmen busy during January, which is looked upon as a quiet month in Decorating.

German Dress Reform.

A correspondent writes on the subject of "Dress Reform Made in Germany:"

"A friend of mine who is just back from Berlin tells me that she paid a visit to the Dress Reform Exhibition which was held there, and anyone who is familiar with the ordinary types of Teutonic toilette will certainly agree that reform of some kind is a 'felt want' in the Happy Fatherland.

"Unfortunately, however, in the country where sausages and sauerkraut are more plentiful than a sense of humor, it appears that this exhibition was held strictly on the principle enunciated by 'old-man Aesop' in his fable of the fox that had lost its tail. The object of this Dress Reform Exhibition was not to inspire the dumpy Deutsch ladies with a desire to dress themselves in a rather less dowdy manner, but to convert the rest of the feminine world to the style of costume which earns for the German lady the dictinction of being reckoned the worst-dressed woman in Europe.

"It need hardly be said that the first article of feminine toilette which they propose to abolish is the much-abused corset, though no one would ever discover from personal observation that such a thing had ever been heard of by the female subjects of 'Fidgety Will.' Along with the corset they are anxious to get rid of pointed shoes and tight-fitting kid gloves, the ideal Teutonic Venus being apparently an amorphous, waistless goddess, splay-footed like a Dachshund, and, like the village blacksmith, possessing large and sinewy hands, clad comfortably in clumsy cotton!

"The skirt is to be short and shapeless, and is to be so arranged that all the weight shall fall from the shoulders instead of from the hips. 'Nothing tight-fitting, but everything sloppy and shapeless' seems to be the watchword of this German dress reform. The intelligent traveler, however, will rub his or her eyes and ask, 'Why all this fuss to organize a system of carrying coals to Newcastle?' For all these characteristics are already the leading features of a German woman's costume, and to make her any more dowdy and shapeless would be almost an impossibility. It seems curious that, while Vienna is, in the opinion of many competent judges, the best-dressed city in Europe, owing to the fact that the Viennese ladies pride themselves on the possession of most carefully-trained and perfectly-corseted figures, the ladies of the rival capital pride themselves on the exact opposite, and enjoy in consequence the reputation of holding the record for bad dressing."

Absence of Mind.

"Now be sure not to forget," said a lady, playfully shaking her finger at her husband as he rose to stretch his legs between acts; and turning to a lady friend, she explained, "He is so absent-minded."

"Does he forget to post your letters?"

"Oh, no, indeed! He is so absent-minded I never entrust any to him. But he forgets me. Why, only last week he went out between acts and never returned. I went home and found him placidly smoking his cigar before the fire, quite oblivious of myself and of the theater. I was very indignant, but when I began with tears in my eyes, 'How could you go off and leave me so?' the whole occurrence seemed to dawn upon him. He sprang to his feet, declaring he had been worrying all the evening about something he had forgotten, and so overwhelmed me with loving protestations that I couldn't talk to him very seriously."

"How sad! I wonder if all men are so afflicted!"

"My husband is. Why, I remember one day he arose from the dinner-table, and, feeling a slight uneasiness in his eyes, began operations upon them with his toothpick, nearly destroying his sight."

"How unfortunate!"

"Yes; and one night I asked him to replenish the fuel in the grate, and in a fit of abstraction he brought in a pail of water and poured it on the fire, bringing ruin to everything."

"O-o-h, how perfectly awful!"

"But I hadn't begun to tell you the worst about my husband. Why, it was only a week after our marriage, while walking along arm-in-arm, he so far forgot himself as to imagine he had an extremely burdensome bundle under his arm, and offered a boy a dime to carry it for him.

"'But where's yer bundle, mister?' the little fellow enquired. And will you believe it, my Benedict deliberately handed me over to the small boy, and I was so mortified—"

Her voice was drowned by the orchestra.

Venezuelan Hospitality.

During a recent visit to Caracas, a member of the British Parliament says that he was accorded interviews with several of the leading members of the Venezuelan Government, who showed him every courtesy, and gave a dinner in his honor. That night, shortly after he retired at a late hour, he was awakened from his sleep by a noise in his room, and saw, as he thought, one of his hosts disappear through the bedroom window leading to the veranda. Concluding that this was a polite custom of the country, the visitor returned to sleep, but in the morning he found that he had been robbed. The Englishman went straight to the seat of government, and complained to one of the ministers, who expressed his dismay, and was thereupon informed that the person seen in the room bore a resemblance to himself. "Very strange," replied the minister, "for there is no one alive who resembles me." "In that case," rejoined his visitor, dryly, "you should have no difficulty in securing the restoration of my property." Later in the day the Englishman discovered an anonymous package upon his room table. Opening the cover, he found all the missing articles save his gold-edged cigar-case and one of his fob charms—a little goddess in diamonds and emeralds.

The Irishman's Story.

There were some sporty wheelmen telling stories at a club,
And each one told a better than the last.
One had made "a century" in three hours and a half,
Another said, "That wasn't very fast!"

A Scotchman said he "coasted" down a hill just three miles long,
But Paddy wasn't satisfied with that.
He said that he had "coasted" twenty miles without a stop,
When sailing on a schooner on the Platte.

Interesting Items.

Charles Rothschild has perhaps the most curious museum of any collector in Europe. At Tring Park he keeps thousands and thousands of fleas. The museum is in charge of Doctor Jordan. Every animal and bird has its particular kind of flea. Very many have several different kinds. It clearly follows that the gathering of fleas affords diverse material for the collector. In the Rothschild collection is one mole flea (Hystrichopsylla talpae) a fifth of an inch in length.

The Italian Government has erected along the Swiss-Italian frontier many miles of metallic netting, hung with bells. The object is to prevent contrabandists sending over the frontier dogs and other animals loaded with dutiable goods—a plan that has proved profitable to smugglers in the past, as it was carried on mainly when guards could not see. The dogs are trained to carry their loads to the accomplices of the smugglers on the other side of the line. The netting has not yet been carried the entire length of the frontier, but will soon be completed.

Stockholm claims the largest schoolhouse in the world, which has accommodations for 2,870 children. In the basement are 100 bathrooms, where the children are required to bathe if their teachers think they are not taught habits of cleanliness at home. Soap and towels are furnished free by the city. A wholesome dinner is furnished poor children at noon in all the public schools if they need it, as in Norway, which insures every child at least one warm meal each day. Children whose parents can afford to pay for the dinner are charged a nominal price, and the personal pride and independence of the Swedes compel many people to pay who really cannot afford to do so.

Levin Lake, a citizen of the little village of Oxford, Miss., has certainly made a record for himself as a drummer. He is the oldest active traveling man in the United States, being still in harness at eighty-six. He represents Armour & Co in Mississippi, making towns by day and night trains, and covering an average of 2,000 miles a month. For thirty-four years he has represented this single Chicago house; has made few sales that proved bad accounts; was a traveler on the first railroad train ever run in the United States; never took a drink of liquor, played a game of cards, or tasted tobacco; has not eaten more than two meals a day for thirty years; and is the oldest Mason in Mississippi.

The republication in English of the famous essay of the great French mathematician, Laplace, on the theory of probabilities serves to recall the harm that has resulted from a lack of general information on this subject. The confirmed gambler and the reckless speculator do not know how continually they fly in the face of the teachings of science. A recent reviewer remarks: "If in a game of even chances red turns up twenty times in succession, it is still an even chance whether red or black turns up on the twenty-first time; but no amount of mathematical reasoning will enable the gambler to realize that a previous run of bad luck gives no grounds for the expectation of recovering his losses by a run of good luck in the future." It was partly to combat the superstitions of gamblers and others that Laplace wrote his essay.

Saving the Child.

"'If a person swallows poison by accident or purposely, instead of breaking out into incoherent and multitudinous exclamations, despatch someone for the doctor.'

"That sounds sensible," said Jones, as he read the above advice aloud to his wife one evening.

Then he read:

"'Meanwhile run to the kitchen, get half a glass of water, put into it a teaspoonful of salt and as much mustard, catch a firm hold of the person's nose, and then down with the mixture.'

"There, my dear," said Jones to his wife. "You'd better bear that in mind in case one of the children should accidentally get hold of poison and I shouldn't be at home. But you women fly right off the handle at the very time you ought to be self-possessed and have all your wits about you."

The very next day the servant came running upstairs and gasped out:

"Oh, ma'am! Oh, Mr. Jones! The baby! He's swallowed half a bottle of loddynum, and——"

"Good gracious!" shouted Jones, jumping three feet into the air and yelling like a hooligan. "The child'll be dead in ten minutes. What are we going to do? Run for the doctor! Get some of the neighbors in! Devil take it, are we all going to sit here and see the child die? We must have help! Help! Murder! Can't you think of something to do? Here, what'd I read the other day? I told you to remember it. It said half a glass of salt to a teaspoon of water and a cup of mustard, didn't it? My word! has the child got to die while we all sit here doing nothing? Give him warm water and soda! Run your finger down his throat! Do something! Put your head out of the window and yell for help!"

And while he was doing so himself, and a crowd was collecting in front of the house, Mrs. Jones, who had said not a word, discovered that the child had swallowed nothing but a teaspoonful of vanilla extract.

The Pope's Life.

If the Pope should live until February, 1903, he will not merely have reigned longer than any other occupant of the Pontifical chair excepting St. Peter and Pius IX., but also have reached an age surpassed by only two of his predecessors, who exceeded ninety-three years: St. Agatho and St. Gregory. The Pope is almost a vegetarian. His early breakfast consists of a cup of chocolate or of cafe au lait, the milk being furnished by some goats presented to the Pope on the occasion of his jubilee. Two o'clock is the dinner hour, when the Pope partakes of a bouillon and a couple of eggs cooked in Bordeaux wine. The Pope rarely takes meat, but is very fond of salad—a dish which does not agree with him, but in which he indulges now and then, notwithstanding medical orders. Supper is served at ten, after which his Holiness retires, often working until the early hours in the morning.

"Belle said the other day when she saw you trying to get up such a desperate flirtation with Youngrox she could hardly keep her countenance. "She wouldn't if she could help herself."—

Take No Chances

These days. Don't let Ready-made clothing for little money attract you; there just the kind that makes a man, after he has worn them, think if he wants good clothes he'll have to go to the tailor's the next time and pay him his price for them.

There's a heap of difference in ready-to-wear clothes—all depends on the store's standard for quality—you know what Quick & Robertson's is don't you? If you don't we want to as sure you there's none higher and there is no reason why you shouldn't get your clothes ready-made—you'll get better clothes for your money if you go to the right place for them—just as good and as correct styles and as perfect a fit as any tailor can give you.

Our line of suits and overcoats offers as large and as varied an assortment as any man would want of fabrics that have always been up to last season, exclusive tailors fabrics and they are garments you'll not find elsewhere—why, do you ask? well, they are from W. R. Johnston & Co., who sell only Quick & Robertson in Belleville.

SPORTING COMMENT.

Judging by Saturday night's match, a whole lot of people have another guess coming in regard to the merits of the two teams now battling for the Stanley Cup. It looked, on soft ice, as though youth was bound to be served, but the old-timers and the Vics appear to have had a few tricks up their sleeve which kept the youngsters busy. To-night's game should be a great one.

If all one hears is true, to-night will see a great crowd of visitors in the city for the match between Belleville's lads and the Port Hopes. As everybody knows, a great deal depends on the match. If Belleville wins we will be in line for the semi-finals; if Port Hope wins the teams will be tied, and a sudden death game will have to be played with no unnecessary delay.

However, the local flyers are in fine shape, and, between you and I, we don't think there is any need to worry over that sudden death game. Strange things are always happening, though, and the boys may have their first bump coming to-night. But we don't think so.

St. George's, of Toronto, a senior team, beat Peterboro's O.H.A. intermediate team by 7 to 5 on Saturday night.

The Marlboros of Toronto made a record score on Saturday night against Niagara Falls, 80 to 5.

Varsity will stack up against the crack Wellingtons in Toronto to-night, and if the latter go to sleep on the ice the collegians may possibly win.

Referee Telfer will face the puck to-night at 8.15. There has never been so much excitement over a hockey match in this city. Good luck to the Red and White boys.

HOCKEY.

Trenton Juveniles Badly Beaten.

On Saturday evening a juvenile team of hockeyists from Trenton visited the city and played a game at the rink with the Britannias of this city. There were a goodly number of spectators present, who enjoyed the match, although it was rather one sided. Our boys in every respect outplayed the visitors, who during the hour's play were unable to once place the puck in the Britannias' net. At the conclusion of the game the score was 7 to 0 in favor of the local team. Some of our boys played well, demonstrating that in time they will make first-class hockeyists. Mr. Vernon Armstrong, of Trenton, was referee, and his decisions were fairly satisfactory. The ice was in very good condition.

The teams and their positions were as follows:

Britannias		Trenton
	Goal.
K. Phillips		A. Denyes
	Point.
A. Bird		A. Cummings
	Cover.
M. Stork		N. Campbell
	Rover.
L. Spangenberg		R. Armstrong
	Centre.
W. Allen		K. Burnard
	Right wing.
J. Wallbridge		F. Denyes
	Left wing.
P. Anderson		H. McComb

After the match the boys from Trenton were entertained. A return match will be played in the near future.

Great Game for the Cup.

Montreal, Feb. 1.—The Winnipeg Victorias and the Montrealers will meet to-morrow night at the Arena to decide the Stanley Cup. That has been decided by the trustees, owing to the draw which resulted in Saturday night's match. The first goal will decide whether another match will have to be played. If the Victorias win then another match will be played to-morrow night, but if the Montrealers win the first game they will retain possession of the cup.

There was great excitement at the Arena last night over the second match. The result was a most unsatisfactory one to the followers of the local team in that it turned out a draw, the score standing 2 to 2.

The ice was what the Winnipeg men had been yearning for and they held out their promise to the public that they would show that the score in Thursday night's game could not be taken as a criterion of the merits of the two teams. This can be said, however, the hockey displayed by both teams was only brilliant in spots.

Winnipeg went on the ice with instructions to play their men and it must be said that it was no child's game in the first half. Kean started the rough work, although he was not the first to be punished. Montreal had three men on the fence before the Winnipeggers were penalized, but they were off for tripping, not for roughing it. The Winnipeggers used bodies freely and to advantage, for in the second half, when they tied the score they had Montreal wore down.

A WONDERFUL TONIC AND STRENGTHENER.

Said a druggist to-day, "No doubt about it, the tonic that gives best results is the biggest seller, and that is Ferrozone. It enriches and purifies the blood, restores strength and energy to the feeble and is a scientific reconstructor, that was always popular. In chlorosis, anaemia, tiredness, languor, brain fag, indigestion and dyspepsia its action is prompt and satisfactory, cures always follow. Yes, I recommend Ferrozone to my customers because I believe it is the best tonic and strengthening medicine that money can buy." Large boxes cost 50c. Sold by J. S. McKeown.

CHURCH CHIMES OF YESTERDAY

Archbishop Gauthier Conducted Confirmation Services in St. Michael's.

Rev. Mr. Gilliland on "Conversion and Regeneration"—Other Services.

St. Michael's

For the past two weeks services of a special nature have been held in St. Michael's Church conducted by two Jesuit Priests, Rev. Fathers Devlin and O'Brien. Yesterday these services were brought to a close and they were made of especial interest in that His Grace, Archbishop Gauthier, of Kingston, was present to assist in the services. At early Mass the Archbishop conducted confirmation services, confirming between 60 and 70, principally adults. After the ceremony His Grace gave an address, impressing upon those confirmed the necessity of remaining true to the vows they had taken and attending regularly the church services.

At the three services held during the day the church was filled to the doors, many being compelled to stand. At 10:30 High Mass was celebrated, Rev. Father Picotte, the Curate of St. Michael's being celebrant. Millard's Mass in G was sung by the choir, solos being taken by Misses Mabel Vermilyea, Elsie Price and Florence McInnoch, and Messrs. Peppin and H. McInnoch. Miss Vermilyea in excellent voice, also rendered a solo entitled "Dawn of Redemption." Rev. Father Devlin, one of the Missionaries, preached, his subject being in reference to the duty of the members of the congregation to pray for the souls of those in purgatory. The doctrine of the church, he said, teaches us that there is an intermediate state between heaven and hell, and that place is purgatory. The doctrine of purgatory was misunderstood. It, however, stands on the authority of the infallible church, and on the written and unwritten word of God. It is a place where the soul is cleansed and purified before it goes to heaven, and the prayers of the living are not only asked for but the church enjoins that they shall be said for the souls of those who are in this state. At the evening service Rev. Father O'Brien spoke at some length, referring to the work of the Mission, which had been satisfactory in every respect. At the conclusion of the sermon the Papal blessing was bestowed on the congregation by the Archbishop.

Emmanuel R. E. Church.

At the above church yesterday morning, the Rector, Rev. Mr. Gilliland, preached an interesting and carefully-thought-out sermon on "Regeneration and Conversion," the text being John iii., 3.

"Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God."

The creed of the first followers of Christ, the preacher said, was extremely simple. All that was demanded of the people by the apostles was the recognition of Jesus Christ as the promised Messiah, the saviour of the world. This creed, though simple, contained the fulness of the gospel. As time advanced, however, and the church spread, the different stages or steps in God's plan of redemption were more fully elaborated and we find the various doctrines contained in the Word of God separated and dealt with in detail. It is not surprising to those knowing human nature that the truth should become blended with tradition. The truth had been made known to the people of God, Israel of old, through the teachers and prophets, and yet, when Christ came, they recognized him not, because the truth had been interpreted according to the desire of those who were entrusted with the leadership of the people, and not that God alone might be glorified. Thus we hear Christ saying, "By your tradition ye have made the Word of God of none effect." That history repeats itself and human nature is the same in all ages is fully corroborated by the history of the church since its founding by Christ and the apostles. We can trace the growth of tradition in the exactions of those who were the leaders of the church. The truth became in part withheld from the people on the ground of their not being able to understand it. Terms became confused and doctrines were made to teach the desires of the teachers, rather than the truth itself. The people were gradually taught to trust in services and ceremonials, instead of in the realities thus symbolized. The great Reformation to a large extent reformed this condition of things, but did not wholly eradicate the germs. Hence in these days we find the same conditions. Terms are being confused and doctrines being made to teach what the church does not teach—but what many in the church desire it should teach. The term conversion presupposes regeneration. Regeneration makes conversion possible. I was surprised to read lately the statement that Paul was converted when Jesus met him on the way to Damascus, and regenerated three days afterwards when he was baptized. The drift of such teaching is surely apparent to those who listen. No man was ever converted before his regeneration. Regeneration is the act of God by the Holy Spirit implanting the new life in the soul. Conversion is the act of the soul under the new life turning from self and sin to God and righteousness. Paul was certainly converted when he met Christ near Damascus and Paul was as certainly regenerated, as was made evident by his conversion. The Pharisee becomes a penitent, the persecutor a Christian and the change is accomplished in an instant. The account is brief and shows how rapidly and intelligently the mind of Paul moved, "Who art Thou, Lord?" "I am Jesus." "Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?" and Paul has become a bondservant of Christ. Regeneration is the work of the Spirit of God, as in proven conclusively by His word. In John 3, 6, we read, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." And again, John 6, 44, "No man can come unto me except the Father draw him." The instrument which the Spirit uses is the Word of God, as St. Paul declares in Romans 10, 17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." The regenerate life makes itself known by works of faith. Faith without works is dead, useless. A fruit tree without fruit is but an encumbrance to the ground. When there is true faith, appropriating the life of Christ, works will naturally follow. Part of these works will be the putting away of the things of the world from the heart of the newly regenerate. Day by day a growth into the likeness of Christ will demand changes in the present life. These changes are termed conversions. As they are turning away from one form of life to another they may be so termed, but when such changes take place it is the result of the renewed and changed life within. The Song of Solomon, 1st chapter and 4th verse, describes the regeneration and its result, "Draw me, we will run after thee." Regenerated by the Spirit of God, through His Word by faith, without aid from any outside source, either of form or ceremony. Regeneration is God's act, conversion is ours. Regeneration is a simple act, complete in itself, and never repeated; conversion, as the beginning of a holy life, is the commencement of a series, constant, endless and progressive. But conversion never precedes regeneration. There may be a reforming of the outside life without touching the heart, but to speak of such in connection with the conversion of St. Paul is but trifling with the subject.

Tabernacle.

The special services which have been going on in this church for the past three weeks, with satisfactory results, were brought to a close yesterday. In the morning the Pastor, Rev. J. H. Locke, preached, and in the evening Mr. Buchanan, an evangelist from Winnipeg, preached an impressive sermon, during which Mrs. Buchanan sang. A large congregation was present.

Bridge Street.

Quarterly meeting services were held in this church yesterday, the Sacrament being administered at the close of the evening service. The Pastor, Rev. Dr. Crothers, preached at both services to large congregations. In the evening the choir rendered the anthem "The Lord is my Shepherd," the solo being taken by Miss Mabel Vermilyea. Miss Wheler sang a solo whilst the offertory was being taken.

Baptist.

At both services yesterday the Pastor, Rev. O. C. Elliott, officiated and preached. At the close of the evening service the sacrament was administered.

Notes of Other Services.

During the service at the John St. Presbyterian Church last evening Mrs. Grant sang "Abide with Me." Rev. A. H. Drumm, the Pastor, preached.

At Halloway St. yesterday morning Mr. Buchanan, of Winnipeg, preached, and in the evening the Pastor, Rev. J. R. Real. The Sacrament was administered at the close of the morning service.

St. Andrew's.

At the morning service Miss Nora Lazier sang F. G. Rathbun's "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say." Miss Lazier's voice gives evidence of remarkable improvement, retaining all of its former sweetness, while developing brilliancy and breadth of tone. In the evening a male quartette from the choir sang, with pleasing effect, "There is Rest in Jesus' Arms," by M. L. Bartlett.

Rev. Mr. Heeney Explains

To the Editor of the Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—Allow me space in your valuable paper to make the following correction concerning my relationship to Christ Church and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. The quotation in your issue of Friday from the "Mail and Empire," and several other reports are quite incorrect in important particulars.

The following are the facts of the case: I shall carry on the work of both positions personally until Easter next, devoting spare time only to Brotherhood work; after that date Rev. Professor Howard, B.A., B.D., of the Diocesan College, Montreal, will take charge of my work in the parish of Christ Church, and I shall devote my whole time to organizing the work of my new position until the holding of the next Annual Convention of the Brotherhood in the early autumn, after which I shall return to my work here as I have promised my congregation.

Thanking you beforehand for the insertion of this correction and for the many kind things your "Timely Topics" have said of me,

Yours most truly,
William B. Heeney.

PLEASANT CURE FOR WEAK LUNGS.

The best remedy for sore, weak lungs is the soothing vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and passage of the breathing organs. It treats remote parts that cough mixtures and sprays can't approach, and kills thousands of germs at every breath. Catarrhozone drives away pain, congestion and inflammation; it makes breathing easy and regular, and exerts a marvellous influence on coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, catarrh, deafness and lung trouble. Catarrhozone cures at once, is delightful to inhale, and simple to use. Price $1; small size 25c. Druggists or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston Ont.

Cases in the Justice Shop

A number of cases were down for hearing before the Magistrate to-day, one of which was a rather serious charge namely, perjury.

Drunk.

Nelson Wheeler, for this offence, was allowed to go, as it was his first appearance.

Trespass.

John Cook, a young man who is not mentally strong, was charged with trespassing on G. T. R. property. He was allowed to go after being given a warning.

Reckless Driving.

Simeon Parks was found guilty of driving about the streets on Saturday evening in a reckless manner. He was fined $2 and costs.

Alleged Perjury.

A case of considerable interest was heard to-day. Mr. Alex. Smith, a well-known resident of this city, was charged with having committed perjury. Some time ago he charged John Caton with appropriating to his use a cross-cut saw which he (Smith) claimed as his property. The saw was purchased by Caton from Robert Smith, son of Alexander Smith. In the evidence given at that trial it is alleged that Mr. Smith, sr., swore to statements that were not true, hence the present trial. Mr. Anderson represented the Crown and Mr. W. B. Northrup the accused.

The result of the investigation was that Mr. Smith was committed for trial on the charge preferred against him. He was admitted to bail until such time as the trial might be fixed.

THE GERM THEORY OF CANCER

For many years the medical profession ridiculed the theory of the germ origin of cancer. Eminent German and French Bacteriologists have demonstrated recently however, that cancers are caused by certain germs or microbes, and there are very few physicians now, who do not believe that this is their true origin.

A brochure on this subject, published by Messrs. B. I. Stott & Jury, Bowmanville, Ont., which will be sent to any one interested on receipt of two stamps, tells all about the germ origin of cancer, and the most successful method of treating this dangerous disease without the need of resorting to knife or plaster.

TO RENOUNCE THE THRONE.

Step to be Taken by the Crown Prince of Saxony.

Berlin, Feb. 2.—A curious story widely told in the provincial and Berlin papers yesterday is that the Crown Prince of Saxony is determined to renounce his succession to the throne in favor of his son, George, who is ten years of age, for the reason that the military code of honor does not permit a husband wronged as he has been to remain in the service, and the Crown Prince, as commander of the first army corps of Saxony, and as the future commander of the entire Saxon contingent, must pass upon the findings of military courts of honor, which, in circumstances similar to those of the Crown Prince, requires a challenge or the laying aside of the uniform. The Crown Prince, it is added, is scarcely expected to challenge Professor Giron, the teacher of languages, who eloped with the Crown Princess, but opinion in the army is so rigid on points of honor that the Crown Prince is regarded as ineligible for reviewing the decisions of courts of honor and protecting the honor of the uniform.

The Reinische Courier of Wiesbaden says without reservation that the Crown Prince has renounced his right of succession to the throne, and The Berlin Morgen Post's Dresden correspondent says he already has appealed to the Emperor to relieve him of all military positions.

ALLIES REJECT THE PROPOSALS OF VENEZUELA.

French Claims Pressed—A Demand Made for Equality of Treatment.

Caracas, Feb. 2.—In reply to Minister Bowen's inquiry as to what Venezuela intends to do regarding the demand for preferential treatment made by the allies, President Castro has telegraphed: "The Venezuelan Government desires equal treatment for all the creditor nations in Europe and America, keeping in mind, in addition, its diplomatic conventions and interior stipulations."

The French Legation has notified the Venezuelan Government that in virtue of the convention of 1866 France was allowed to collect directly a part of the revenues of several custom houses in Venezuela as a guarantee for her diplomatic claims arising out of the previous revolutions. France, it is said, renounced forever by the convention of 1885 the exercise of this right on condition that the interest on this debt should always be regularly paid. As this payment has not been made France, without asking the authorization of Germany, England and Italy, intends to revive her right of direct collection. The French Charge d'Affaires Quievreux has paid a visit to the Foreign Minister, and has twice called on President Castro during the past 48 hours. This activity on the part of France is evidently in connection with her intention to revive her rights, and is considered as an answer to the attitude adopted by the allied powers.

Washington, Feb. 2.—It developed Saturday that the answers of the allied powers to Minister Bowen's latest proposition arrived here yesterday, but were not immediately presented to the Minister. The answers were to the effect that the allies cannot consent that France, the United States and the other claimant nations receive the same treatment as the blockading powers, and that they therefore reject in toto Mr. Bowen's final proposition.

Knowing the consequences that were to follow the presentation of this answer, the representatives of the allies took upon themselves the responsibility of withholding the notes of their Governments, and of again cabling, urging a retraction of their preferential demand. Exchanges are still in progress between the Italian, British and German Embassies, but there is no evidence that the allies intend yielding. If they hold out, their representatives must present the joint refusal, and the Washington negotiations will come to a standstill. Baron Sternburg, Germany's new envoy, in his calls at the State Department and the British Embassy to-day found the outlook for a relief of the present deadlock exceedingly gloomy, and he has cabled as much to his Government.

London. Feb. 2.—Austen Chamberlain, Postmaster-General, representing his father, the Colonial Secretary, at the annual dinner of the Jewellers and Silversmiths at Birmingham Saturday night, replied to the toast "His Majesty's Ministers," and devoted the greater part of his speech to Venezuela. He said that after the British Government had decided to seek satisfaction for Venezuelan outrages, and to demand guarantees against their repetition, it had been approached by Germany and requested to co-operate with that country. Courtesy made it impossible for the British Government to decline, said Mr. Chamberlain, and now it would be dishonorable to withdraw. The Government is fully aware of its liability. Every detail was arranged before the action commenced.

THE FERNCH ARMY.

Deputies Say It Should be Maintained on a War Basis.

Paris, Feb. 2.—The discussion of the army budget in the Chamber of Deputies Saturday brought out considerable general debate relative to the strength of the army and the necessity of maintaining it on a strong fighting basis. General Andre, Minister of War; Col. Rousset, a Republican member of the Chamber, and other leaders of the military element, took an active part in defending the army from criticism. M. Messimy (Radical-Serratist) made a long speech on the heavy financial burden the maintenance of the army imposed upon the country, saying this limited industrial and agricultural progress, and took the best years of youth of France for military service.

Col. Rousset pointed out the dangers surrounding France, and declared peace to be at the mercy of a single adverse incident. Amid much enthusiasm he asserted that the part of wisdom for France was to prepare for all eventualities.

Gen. Andre devoted his attention to the desirability of keeping up the army on a peace footing, so that it would readily be transformable to a war footing.

M. Jaures (Socialist) repudiated the statement that Socialists are opposed to the army. He said he considered the army to be one of the strongest arms of the republic, and that its first line and the reserves should equal in strength the German army. He said it was necessary to maintain an effective peace footing, corresponding to the needs of war.

Amid a patriotic demonstration the first chapter of the army budget was finally adopted.

STRIKERS LOOTED SHOPS.

The Raid Was the Result of a Lack of Provisions.

Barcelona, Spain, Feb. 2.—The supply of provisions having failed at Reus, near Tarragona, where a general strike is in progress, the strikers have looted a number of shops, most of which are now closed. Many arrests have been made.

Allready Hats Less Than Half Price

We have a reputation for excellent Millinery values but never before have we attempted anything to approach the offering we make in Ladies' and Children's dress and Ready-to-Wear Hats. The styles and materials are all right—the very newest—but they must not be here when the next season opens. Of course there is a limited number of these so be here with the first and you will reap full benefit from this bargain. Your choice of our Ready-to-Wear Hats, ranging from 75c to $2.50 for 25c

BELTS

Belts will continue very stylish this coming season. We have a fresh supply coming and desire to clear those now in stock. They are not soiled or shop worn—many having been here only a short time, but we desire to close the season without them, they ranged in price from 75c to $1.25, your choice for 50c

NECK SCARFS

We have a few more Gentlemen's Neck Scarfs than we desire to close the season with, of these we have decided to make a quick sale. They include all the popular styles in Ready-to-Wear Satin and Silk and a few Way's Jersey Scarfs. These were regularly $1.00 and $1.25—they will cost you that much next season—your choice now for 75c

SMALL FURS

There is a good balance of the winter to come yet—a Fur Ruff will add much to your comfort and at very small outlay when value is a consideration. We have marked all our small Furs at figures that make them cheap in price—but not in quality.

DRESSING SACQUES

Continuous activity in our Mantle Room is a sign, the offerings we make in this department are appreciated by the Ladies. Our reduced Dressing Sacques are an important feature. Have you seen them? If not you will be interested.

BRIGANDS ARE ACTIVE.

Levying Tribute on Towns in the Caucasus.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 2.—Brigands have been terrorizing the Caucasus recently, levying tribute on towns and holding up trains to an extent hitherto unknown. Even garrison towns have been frightened into paying regular tribute, in return for which the bandits not only refrain from plundering but protect the towns from other marauders. The attempts of the troops to cope with the situation have been generally foiled, owing to the complicity of the inhabitants, who are fearful of the brigands' vengeance, and therefore warn and shelter the latter. Stations and trains on the Vladi Kavkas Railroad have frequently been attacked.

3 MISERABLE MONTHS

South American Nervine cured this severe case of a generally upset nervous system which developed into Neuralgia of the stomach. No nervous trouble that it will not cure quickly and permanently.

William Davidson, of Thedford, Ont., put in three miserable months of very acute suffering from neuralgia of the stomach and a generally disordered nervous system. Doctors failed to find any treatment that would give me any permanent help. A friend, whom South American Nervine had cured of a very stubborn case of stomach trouble, recommended it for his case. He tried it—one bottle greatly benefited and six bottles effected a permanent cure. 90

TIMELY TOPICS.

The London, Eng., special correspondence of the Toronto News sends the following in reference to a former Bellevillian:

"I have interviewed F. R. Lingham, formerly a drover at Belleville, and now called the king of Portuguese East Africa, with headquarters at Delagoa Bay. He is a millionaire timber merchant, ship-owner and cattleman, and is under contract with the British Government to import 10,000 stock cattle into South Africa. He says he must buy Texas cattle, as the Boers think the Canadian cattle are not suitable. Mr. Lingham recently invested half a million dollars of his savings in Dominion securities, and says he hopes to retire to Canada shortly. He considers the Dominion the finest country in the world."

No less than thirteen Belleville men are employed in the head offices of the G.T.R. at Montreal. Unlucky number, that. We'd rather see those fellows living at home.

A Manitoba country editor took a holiday, and thus squared himself with his readers: "The editor goes to St. Paul next week, so the reporter and the devil will be responsible for the paper." Great combination, that!

Crossley and Hunter are going to open revival services in Kingston, and business is practically suspended in the Limestone City while people discuss the question, "Will the editor of the Whig take his seat on the penitent bench?"

Sir William Mulock boasted in a speech delivered in Toronto, not long since, that he had managed the Post Office department so economically that he had a surplus of over $5,000 for the year ending 30th June, 1902." The public accounts, signed by the Hon. Mr. Fielding, Finance Minister, has since been published, and Mr. Fielding gives the postal revenue as $3,918,415, and the expenditure as $4,023,636, which means a deficit of $105,221. Who tells the truth, Mulock or Fielding?

Coal prices are improving. Retailers in New York have announced the sale of anthracite at $7.50.

What the result of this in England may be no one can tell: The Kansas Legislature has been asked to express its abhorrence of the treatment of that goodly loyal man, Col. Lynch, by the British Government. Fortunately, Kansas is so far away John Bull never hears of it.

The Deputy Minister of Finance, Mr. J. M. Courtney, points out in his last report for the financial year 1902, "that in his twenty-five years' connection with the Department the total absolute turnover of cash in the department has advanced from $85,086,954 in 1897, to $228,091,827, and adds "all the work entailed by this expansion has been met without the slightest increase in the cost of the department." This is a remarkable showing, and, besides evidence of Mr. Courtney's zeal and ability, is testimony to the business ideas, as far as their own department is concerned, of the succession of gentlemen who, during a quarter of a century have filled the position of Minister of Finance."

Mr. Thos H. Slush has been appointed postmaster at Thomasburg in the room and stead of Edward Elliott, who resigned owing to enfeebled health. This is not a political move as there are no Grits of any consequence in Thomasburg Mr. Elliott has acceptably filled the position for upwards of twenty-five years.

Cases in the Justice Shop

Trespass

Three boys, named Teddy Mackie, Geo. Littlewood and Lewis Ellis, were charged with trespassing upon the roof of the skating rink. The lads were allowed to go with a warning.

Committed a Nuisance.

Owen McGannell was adjudged guilty of committing a nuisance, and was fined $1.50 and costs.

Alleged Theft.

Joseph Dowden, of Plainfield, was charged with stealing a goose from Benjamin Hawes, and is also charged with being implicated in the theft of honey from Mr. W. C. Wells, of Thurlow. The thefts are alleged to have been committed over a year ago, but Dowden went away shortly after to the States, and upon his return recently was arrested.

Philip Fisher was also on trial charged with being implicated with Dowden in the theft of the goose. Both pleaded not guilty to the charge. Mr. Anderson represented the Crown and Mr. McMahon the accused.

The result of the investigation was that Dowden and Fisher were both acquitted of the charges preferred against them.

I Will Cure You of Rheumatism

ELSE NO MONEY IS WANTED.

Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer.

I am a specialist in Rheumatism and have treated more cases than any other physician, I think. For 16 years I made 2,000 experiments with different drugs, testing all known remedies, while searching the world for something better. Nine years ago I found a costly chemical in Germany, which, with my previous discoveries, gives me a certain cure.

I don't mean that it can turn bony joints into flesh again; but it can cure the disease at any stage, completely and forever. I have done it fully 100,000 times.

I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism, and I will mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure. Take it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is only $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it.

I mean that exactly. If you say the results are not what I claim, I don't expect a penny from you.

I have no samples. Any mere sample that can affect chronic Rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs, and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood.

My remedy does that even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. It has cured the oldest cases that I ever met. And in all my experience—in all my 2,000 tests—I never found another remedy that would cure one chronic case in ten.

Write me and I will send you the order. Try my remedy for a month, as it can't harm you anyway. If it fails, it is free.

Address Dr. Shoop, Box 69, Racine, Wis. Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back; bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

INTELLIGENCER JOB OFFICE For Artistic Work

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

as he listened while Katy, rousing partially from her lethargy, talked of the days when she was a little girl, and Morris had built the play-house for her by the brook, where the thorn-apples grew and the waters fell over the smooth white rocks.

"Take me back there," she said, "and let me lie on the grass again. It is so long since I was there, and I've suffered so much since then. Wilford meant to be kind, but he did not understand or know how I loved the country with its birds and flowers, and the grass by the well, where the shadows come and go. I used to wonder where they were going, and one day when I watched them, I was waiting for Wilford and wondering if he would ever come again. Would it have been better if he never had?"

Wilford's body shook as he bent forward to listen, while Katy continued:

"Were there no Genevra, I should not think so, but there is, and yet Morris said that made no difference when I telegraphed for him to come and take me away."

"Do you think her dying?" Wilford asked, and Morris replied: "The look about the mouth and nose is like the look which so often precedes death."

And that was all they said until another hour went by when Morris's hand was laid upon the forehead and moved up under the golden hair where there were drops of perspiration.

"She is saved! thank God, Katy is saved!" was his joyful exclamation, and burying his face in his hands, he wept for a moment like a child.

On Wilford's face there was no trace of tears. On the contrary, he seemed hardened into stone, and in his heart fierce passions were contending for the mastery. What did Katy mean by sending for Morris to take her away? Did she send for him, and was that the cause of his being there? If so, there was something between the cousins more than mere friendship. The thought was a maddening tone. And, rising slowly at last, Wilford came round to Morris's side, and grasping his shoulder, said:

"Morris Grant, you love Katy Cameron."

Like the peal of a bell on the frosty air the words rang through the room, starting Morris from his bowed attitude, and for an instant curdling the blood in his veins, for he understood now the meaning of the look which had so puzzled him. In Morris's heart there was a moment's hesitancy to know just what to say—an ejaculatory prayer for guidance — and then lifting up his head his calm blue eyes met the eyes of black unflinchingly as he replied:

"I have loved her always."

A blaze like sheet lightning shot from beneath Wilford's eyelashes, and a taunting sneer curled his lip as he said:

"You, a saint, confess to this?"

"Should my being what you call a saint prevent my confessing what I did?"

"No, not the confession, but the fact," Wilford answered, savagely. "How do you reconcile your acknowledged love for Katy with the injunctions of the Bible whose doctrines you indorse?"

"A man cannot always control his feelings, but he can strive to overcome them and put them aside. One does not sin in being tempted, but in listening to the temptation."

"Then according to your reasoning you have sinned, for you not only have been tempted, but have yielded to temptation," Wilford retorted, with a sinister look of exultation in his black eyes.

For a moment Morris was silent, while a struggle of some kind seemed going on in his mind, and then he said:

"I never thought to lay open to you a secret which, after myself, is, I believe, known only to one living being."

"And that one—is—is Katy?" Wilford exclaimed, his voice hoarse with passion, and his eyes flashing with fire.

"No, not Katy. She has no suspicion of the pain which, since I saw her made another's, has eaten into my heart, making me grow old so fast, and blighting my early manhood."

Something in Morris's tone and manner made Wilford relax his grasp upon the arm, and sent him back to his chair, while Morris continued:

"Most men would shrink from talking to a husband of the love they bore his wife, and an hour ago I should have shrunk from it too, but you have forced me to it, and now you must listen while I tell you of my love for Katy. It began longer ago than she can remember—began when she was my baby sister, and I hushed her in my arms to sleep, kneeling by her cradle and watching her with a feeling I have never been able to define. She was in all my thoughts, her face upon the printed page of every book I studied, and her voice in every strain of music I heard. Then when she grew older, I used to watch the frolicsome child by the hour, building castles of the future, when she would be a woman, and I a man, with a man's right to win her. I know that she shielded me from many a snare into which young men are apt to fall, for when the temptation was greatest, and I was at its verge, a thought of her was sufficient to lead me back to virtue. I carried her in my across the sea, and said when back I will ask her to be mine. I went back, but at my first meeting with Katy after her return from Canandaigua, she told me of you, and I knew then that hope for me was gone. God grant that you may never experience what I experienced on that day which made her your wife, and I saw her go away. It seemed almost as if God had forgotten me as the night after the bridal I sat alone at home, and met that dark hour of sorrow. But God was very merciful and sent me work which took up all my time, and drove me away from my own pain to soothe the pain of others. When Katy came to us last fall, there was an hour of trial when faith in God grew weak, and I was tempted to question the justice of His dealing with me. But that too past, and in my love for your child I forgot the mother in part, looking upon her as a sister rather than the Katy I had loved so well."

Morris paused a moment, while Wilford said: "She spoke of telegraphing for you. Why was that, and when?"

Thus interrogated, Morris told of the message which had brought him to New York, and narrated as cautiously as possible the particulars of the interview which followed.

Morris's manner was that of a man who spoke with perfect sincerity, and it carried conviction to Wilford's heart, disarming him for a time of the fierce anger and resentment he had felt while listening to Morris's story. Acting upon the good impulse of the moment, he arose, and offering his hand to Morris, said:

"Forgive me that I ever doubted you. It was natural that you should come, but foolish in Katy to send or think Genevra is living. I have seen her grave myself. I know that she is dead. Did Katy name any one whom she believe to be Genevra?"

"No one. She merely said she had seen the original of the picture," Morris replied.

"A fancy—a mere whim," Wilford muttered to himself, as, greatly disquieted and terribly humbled, he paced the room moodily, trying not to think hard thoughts either against his wife or Dr. Grant, who, feeling that it would be pleasanter for Wilford if he were gone, suggested returning to Silverton at once, inasmuch as the crisis was past and Katy out of danger. There was a struggle in Wilford's mind as to the answer he should make to this suggestion, but at last he signified his willingness for the doctor to leave when he thought best.

It was broad day when Katy woke, so weak as to be unable to turn her head upon the pillow, but in her eyes the light of reason was shining, and she glanced wonderingly, first at Helen, who had come in, and then at Wilford, as if trying to comprehend what had happened.

Eczema and Itching Skin

DEFIED MANY EXPENSIVE REMEDIES, BUT WERE THOROUGHLY CURED BY

Dr. Chase's Ointment

It is a mistake to judge Dr. Chase's Ointment by the results obtained from the use of ordinary salves and ointments, for it is not to be compared with any preparation on the market to-day.

Some of these remedies give temporary relief, but they do not strike deep enough to eradicate disease. You need not be alarmed if Dr. Chase's Ointment causes a little irritation at first. This is necessary in order to root out the disease. When the cure is brought about the skin will be left smooth and clear, without scar or blemish.

Mr. C. Wiley, who is employed as cooper by the Kennedy & Davis Milling Company, Lindsay, Ont., states: "I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for eczema on my little girl some five years ago, and soon brought about a thorough cure. She had suffered for considerable time, and though we tried a great many remedies, Dr. Chase's Ointment was the only preparation to prove effective.

"I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Chase's Ointment, as it certainly effected a prompt and permanent cure in this place.

Miss Levina Diotte, Clarence Creek, Ont., writes:—"I suffered with eczema for a year and a half, and tried all the remedies I could hear of, some of them costing considerable money, and not doing me good. I was enduring great torture, when I read an advertisement of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and resolved to give it a trial.

"I began using Dr. Chase's Ointment, and it has completely cured me. Though I do not need it any more, I keep a box in the house in case of emergency. I hope that people who suffer as I did may read this testimonial, and for this reason you have my permission to publish it. It is only just that such a good remedy for eczema and itching skin should be made known to those who suffer."

Dr. Chase's Ointment 60 cts a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

It sometimes happens that a man of resources is one who has ingenious

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 68 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

Don't feel that the world has no place for you because it fails to recognize you as a genius.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These comes from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

As an all-round musician the organ grinder heads the list.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Coral is a talisman against thunder and evils by flood and field.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Four crops of corn are produced yearly in Cuba. The first crop is planted in December and the fourth crop is harvested in December.

These two desirable qualifications, pleasant to the taste and at the same time effectual, are to be found in Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, Children like it.

It manages to get late very early nowadays.

When all other preparations fail, try Holloway's Corn Cure. No pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it.

When a man wants to talk he nearly always bumps up against some man who doesn't want to listen.

To get relief from indigestion, biliousness, constipation or torpid liver without disturbing the stomach or purging the bowels, take a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills, they will please you.

The proverbial luck of fools is never mentioned by the lucky individual.

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.

Diamonds produce somnambulism and spiritual ecstasy.

They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system.

A man is very apt to be cut by his best friend when he attempts to shave himself.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected ... the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

TIMELY TOPICS

The Prefontaine wing of the Rouge party of the Province of Quebec, not having been able to get the Tarte family to surrender La Patrie, the paper which they say was purchased with money subscribed by the Liberal party, are again asking the faithful to put their hands into their pockets and subscribe funds to establish a paper to oppose the Tarte journal and defend the party against his and other attacks. The promoters have, so says a telegram from Montreal, obtained promises so far for about $75,000 worth of stock, but they wish $150,000 in cold cash before starting the enterprise. Another railway deal similar to that of the Drummond County will, there can be little doubt, secure the required amount. Such is Rouge politics.

CANADIANS THE BEST.

(Kingston Whig.)

"You may talk about the Germans being the smartest people on the face of the earth, but the sample we have here in machinists belie the words," remarked a mechanic last night. "They cannot compete with the Canadian workmen in quantity or quality of work."

There have been twenty-two railroad wrecks on Canadian and U.S. roads since December 29, 1902, seven of them being on Canadian roads. In the seven Canadian wrecks 34 people were killed and 58 injured. In the U.S. wrecks 60 were killed and over a hundred injured.

Just as the above paragraph was penned the following letter from Rev. Dr. Galbraith was received. Does it not begin to look as though the time was coming when the public will feel compelled to demand for the railwaymen that which the Vanderbilts refused? Rev. Dr. Galbraith's letter follows:

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Sir,—In last Saturday's Intelligencer, the question is raised, What is the cause of the numerous railway collisions which have recently occurred? The following incident may throw some light upon this subject: Some years ago 450 locomotive engineers petitioned Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt for the cessation of Sunday labor. Their pleading was one of the most sorrowful I have ever read. They complained that by the drudgery of Sabbathless toil their health was impaired. They were worn out like old men and disqualified to give the best services of which they were capable. Their children were utterly demoralized. They set forth that Sabbath-breaking make men reckless, and multiplied accidents, and in the end brought no financial gain to the proprietors. Selfish greed repelled and refused their request.

In the same connection the following from the Montreal Star is apropos:

"The railway men of this continent appear to have become unnerved. Operators are sending trains into each other right and left; and engineers are piling straight ahead, expecting signals to disappear before them. These look like symptoms of overwork; and this is a point into which coroners' juries might well enquire. Another point is the enforcement of the formal railway rules on ordinary occasions. Do the companies expect their men to live rigidly up to their rules? Suppose that Engineer Davies on the Philadelphia and Reading express had slowed down when he saw the warning signal ahead of him, and had persisted in slowing down for such purposes several times throughout his run, and as a consequence had come in very late, would he have been praised or blamed? These are questions which a coroner's jury might ask; and take drastic means to get an honest answer to them."

In the retirement of Miss Isabella Walker, who has been matron of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb for over thirteen years, the public service of the Province of Ontario loses one of its most efficient and valued members. Duty has always been her law, and how well it has been performed has been evidenced in the condition of the interior economy of the institution, as well as in the wholesome and healthy appearance of the pupils. A large circle of friends regrets that Miss Walker's resignation involves her removal from Belleville. Like her brother, Mr. B. E. Walker, general manager of the Bank of Commerce, Miss Walker possesses, in addition to many other estimable qualities, literary and artistic ability in a marked degree, and those who have shared her friendship in Belleville will deeply regret their loss. We wish her enjoyment of the rest she so well deserves.

TO INTERVIEW MR. WHITNEY.

Conservative Temperance Voters Are Becoming Very Anxious.

Toronto, Feb. 3.—The movement among temperance people in favor of interviewing Mr. Whitney and getting a pledge from him to support legislation favoring further restrictions on the liquor traffic is growing rapidly. The feeling is that the temperance majority in the referendum vote included thousands of Conservatives who earnestly desire amendments to the present law, and that they are anxious to have their leader support any proposed restrictive legislation.

Another proposal from the temperance ranks is that the workers in each constituency, irrespective of party, should endeavor to get the member-elect to agree to support any measure reducing the temptations to over-indulgence in intoxicating liquors. The feeling is that the Government's proposals will only be assailed from the Conservative side of the House, and that therefore great efforts should be made to secure the support of every temperance follower of Mr. Whitney. Several Conservative temperance workers are sanguine enough to believe that from their side of the Legislature there will be an effort made to formulate legislation greatly restricting the traffic, and it is these workers who are anxious to secure a pledge from Mr. Whitney that he will allow his followers to vote as they please on temperance questions, and that he will not repeat the declaration of hostility which he made during the debate on the liquor act.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are prepared from the prescription of Dr. Zina Pitcher (formerly Professor of Materia Medica and Genito-Urinary Diseases, Michigan College of Medicine, Detroit, Mich., U.S.A.), which he used with wonderful success for over twelve years in private practice in the Western Hospital, Detroit.

They contain specific ingredients not found in any other kidney remedy, and it is not surprising, therefore, that they make cures in very many cases where other remedies had proved altogether ineffectual.

We would caution you in purchasing the Tablets to see that the accompanying cut, printed in green ink, and Dr. Pitcher's portrait and signature, are printed on the package. Refuse substitutes and imitations, as these are sure to disappoint.

The price of the Tablets is 50c. a box, or three boxes for $1.25, at all druggists, or sent by mail by addressing the Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

ARRESTED AT MONTREAL.

A United States Official From Manila —$8,000 Shortage.

Montreal, Feb. 3.—Alex. W. Waters, who was arrested here at the instance of the United States Attorney-General, waived extradition and left to-night for Washington in company with a Montreal detective and United States Consul-General Gorman. Waters was the disbursing officer of the Bureau of Coast Guards and Transportation at Manila. When he disappeared from Manila, and the examination of his accounts was made, it is said that they showed a shortage of $8,000. Waters went from New York to Manila in 1901. After leaving Manila he went to Yokohama, where he took a C.P.R. steamer for Vancouver. He had eight hundred dollars in American bills in his possession. He claimed that he had not been guilty of any wrongdoing.

IMMIGRATION AGENTS.

List of Western Farmers Who Will go to England.

Ottawa, Feb. 3.—Mr. James A. Smart, Deputy Minister of the Interior, leaves Ottawa to-day for England to carry out the immigration plan which the department has been arranging for the last month or six weeks. Since it was announced some days ago that it has been decided to take over some 40 or 50 farmers for the purpose of giving personal testimony as to the agricultural resources of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, the Minister of the Interior has received many complimentary expressions of opinion with regard to the matter. The party will be composed of the following gentlemen, who include many of the best known and most successful farmers in the northwest:—J. H. Metcalfe, Westbourne, Man.; James Dale, Baldur; D. R. Noble, Blyth; K. Murchison, Souris; A. T. Whiting, Qu'Appelle; A. Stewart, Moosomin; Rev. J. L. Brown, Manitou; S. L. Head, Rapid City; Wm. A TRIFLE WARM.

Row at a Temperance Meeting at Neepawa, Man.

Winnipeg, Feb. 3.—Intemperate language and disorder characterized a temperance meeting at Neepawa to discuss the by-law now before the people to repeal local option, says a despatch from that town. Mr. Jonathan Hamilton, President of the local Dominion Alliance and a member of Knox Church Session, called Editor Dunlop of The Press a liar and a mix-up was averted by prompt interference of friends.

They had looked soulfully into each other's eyes for some time, but somehow he didn't seem to come to the point. Then suddenly he made a discovery.

"You have your mother's beautiful eyes, dear," he said.

She felt that the time had come to play her trump card. "I have also," she said, "my father's lovely cheque book."

Within 30 minutes the engagement was announced.—Tit-Bits.

A farmer who had arrived in town on business dropped in at the cat show to see puss at her best.

"It's rather ridiculous for a farmer to buy a cat, because I know there's a dozen round the farm, but that's a beauty, and I believe I'll get it for my little girl. Do you suppose it's for sale, porter, and what is the price?"

"A hundred and twenty pounds."

"Great turnips," he gasped, "that's more than I give for a whole waggon-load of pigs!"

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

QUICKLY ELEVATES THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONDITION OF ALL RUNDOWN AND SICK PEOPLE.

In the winter season, when many people, especially women and children, are confined in close and stuffy apartments which lack proper ventilating facilities, the blood becomes watery, pale, sluggish and impure; the nervous system is impaired, the brain is tired, insomnia begins its terrible work, and a general collapse of the whole system ensues.

Our object at this time is to suggest the true means of succor and help for pale, languid, nervous, irritable and weakened women and children. Thousands of such nerveless and frail victims will soon be cut down if help is delayed and time lost.

Paine's Celery Compound is the "life-line"—the sure and tried rescuer that saves and blesses when all other means fail. Paine's Celery Compound is doing the same heaven-blessed work to-day for sufferers that it has so well done in the past. It quickly furnishes the new, pure and fresh blood, which is the foundation of true health; it promotes cell-growth, builds up flesh, bone and tissue, and elevates the constitutional condition of every sick person, and defends them from germ and bacterial dangers. Try Paine's Celery Compound, dear reader, and your efforts will be fully and happily rewarded.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Slight Improvement in British Live Stock Trade—Wheat is Firmer.

Monday Evening, Feb. 2.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

The city roads continue passable only on wheels, and farmers living within short distances of the city are the only ones bringing produce to the markets. Consequently receipts are light and only 900 bushels of grain were offered to-day.

Wheat—White wheat continues about steady; 200 bushels sold at 72c to 72½c per bushel. Red is ½c firmer, 200 bushels selling at 72c. Goose is slightly firmer, 100 bushels selling at 66½c.

Barley—Is steady at last week's decline; 100 bushels sold at 47c per bushel.

Oats—Continue steady at 36½c per bushel, at which figure 200 bushels exchanged hands.

Dressed Hogs—To-day's market was very dull, practically nothing came in and Saturday's prices prevailed. Choice light weight hogs are quoted at $8 to $8.25 per cwt and heavies at $7.50 to $7.75.

Hay—About 20 loads were on the market. No. 1 timothy is quoted lower at $12 to $14 per ton and clover or mixed steady at $8 to $9.

Straw—Is firmer at $10 to $10.50 per ton; two loads were offered.

The Visible Supply.

	Feb.2, '03	Feb.3, '02	Feb.4, '01
Wheat	48,447,000	57,929,000	50,767,000
Corn	8,290,000	11,632,000	14,825,000
Oats	4,030,000	4,351,000	9,929,000
Rye	895,000	2,430,000	1,195,000
Barley	2,137,000	2,120,000	1,873,000

Wheat decreased 608,000 bushels the past week; a year ago it increased 1,442,000 bushels.

British Cattle Market.

London, Feb. 2.—Trade firmer, prices unchanged. United States cattle, 6⅝d; Canadians, 6¼d.

Montreal Live Stocks.

Montreal, Feb. 2.—There were about 350 head of butchers' cattle, 6 calves and 20 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir to-day. The butchers were out in large numbers, but trade was slow, with a slight improvement in prices over last Thursday's market. Prime cattle sold at from 4¾c to 5c per lb, but they were not very choice; pretty good animals sold at from 3½c to 4½c, and the common stock at from 2½c to 3¼c per lb. The calves were small veals, but sold at from 4c to 5c per lb. Sheep sold at from 3¼c to 3⅝c per lb, and lambs at from 4¼c to 4⅝c per lb. Good lots of fat hogs sold at from 6c to 6⅛c per lb weighed off the cars.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

Veals—Receipts, 370; strong, 25c higher; tops, $8.50 to $9; common to good, $5.50 to $8.25. Hogs—Receipts, 15,300 head; active; pigs, 15c to 25c higher; others strong, 5c higher; heavy, $7.05 to $7.10, few $7.15; mixed, $7 to $7.05; Yorkers, $7 to $7.05; pigs, $7.15 to $7.30; roughs, $6 to $6.25; stags, $5 to $5.50. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 19,500 head; sheep steady; lambs strong, 25c higher; top lambs, $6.30 to $6.40; culls to good, $4.25 to $6.25; yearlings, $5 to $5.25; ewes, $4.25 to $4.40; sheep, top mixed, $4.25 to $4.50; culls to good, $3 to $4.15.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—Cattle—Receipts, 22,000; no Texans; strong to 15c higher; good to prime steers, $4.00 to $6.10; poor to medium, $3 to $4.60; stockers and feeders, $2.25 to $4.70; cows, $1.40 to $4.50; heifers, $2 to $4.75; canners, $1.40 to $2.50; bulls, $2.25 to $4.25; calves, $3.50 to $6.75; Texas fed steers, $3.50 to $4.50. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 40,000; to-morrow, 3,000; left over, 7,000; steady to 5c lower; mixed and butchers', $6.50 to $6.75; good to choice heavy, $6.80 to $6.95; rough heavy, $6.50 to $6.80; light, $6.25 to $6.55; bulk of sales, $6.50 to $6.75. Sheep—Receipts, 20,000; sheep steady to strong; good to choice wethers, $4.40 to $5.25; fair to choice mixed, $3.50 to $4.40; native lambs, $4.40 to $6.55.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

Montreal, Feb. 2.—Grain—The market is quiet and featureless. No. 2 white oats sold at 37c to 37½c ex-store and 31c to 31½c high freights and 32c to 32½c east. Peas were quoted at 72½c to 73c high freights and buckwheat 49½c to 50c east on G.T.R.

Flour—There is a fair jobbing demand at steady prices. We quote:—Choice Manitoba spring wheat patents, $4.40 to $4.50; seconds, $4.10 to $4.20; strong bakers', $3.70; winter wheat patents, $3.85 to $4.10; straight rollers, $3.70 to $3.80; do in bags, $1.70 to $1.75; extras, $1.60 to $1.65.

Meal—The market is rather slow at $4.10 to $4.20 per brl and at $1.95 to $2 per bag.

Feed—The tone of the market remains firm. We quote:—Manitoba bran, in bags, $19 to $20; Manitoba shorts, $21 to $22; Ontario bran, in bulk, $17.50 to $18; shorts, $19.50 to $20, and moullie, $23 to $28, as to quality.

Provisions—The market is quiet, and barreled pork has an easier tendency. We quote:—Heavy Canadian short cut mess pork, $24; Canada short cut back pork, $23 to $23.50; light Canada short clear pork, $22.50 to $23; finest kettle lard, in 20-lb pails, 12½c; extra pure lard, in 20-lb pails, 10⅝c to 11¼c; choice refined compound lard, 8¾c to 9c; Boar's Head brand, in 20-lb wood pails, $1.95 to $2.05, Globe at $1.75 to $1.85; 20-lb tin pails ¼c less per lb; hams, 12¼c to 14c, and bacon, 14c to 15c per lb.

Cheese—In the absence of business and the small amount of stock prices are very firm.

Butter—The market is rather quiet at 22c to 22½c for finest fresh creamery; lower grades are not in demand.

Eggs—The only demand is for small lots for immediate requirements. We quote:—Selected, 19c to 21c; candled stock, 18c to 19c; Montreal limed, 16c, in a jobbing way; Montreal limed, 15c, cold storage stock, 13c to 14c, and western limed, 12c to 14c per dozen in round lots.

Pan-Dried

This cloud of steam comes out of Tillson's Pan-Dried oatmeal mills twenty-four hours a day.

It is the moisture driven off the oats by Tillson's own Pan-Dried process.

Tillson's Pan-Dried process takes all the moisture out—leaves the oats crisp, light and wholesome.

Common steam dried oats leaves some moisture in the oats—result is mushy, pasty, sticky, clammy porridge.

Do You Need Glasses?

How do you know? Have your eyes been examined by a competent optician?

Does it tire your eyes to read very long at a time?

Does your head ache, close in to the eyes and nose?

Have your own spectacles done you much good?

The safest way is to have us examine your eyes, and tell you exactly what you need—they may not need anything except rest; and they may be injured if not corrected with glasses. The examination will show what is needed. FREE. No charge for examination.

Our Decorations Paper Hanging

Two, yes, even three years ago, we introduced in Belleville what was then just being introduced in Boston as that which was new in

INTERIOR DECORATIONS.

Certain mechanics criticised the idea because they did not understand art or decoration, even suggesting that we were stuck with papers which could alone be used for such work, for we always have the very newest.

This work was called THIRD WORK, and we introduced it most successfully and thoroughly, notwithstanding the protests of the mechanic who did not know.

To-day THIRD WORK, through our introduction and efforts, are being used very largely, and the same mechanics who protested so when the idea was a new one are now, when it has become old and a back number, sounding its praises and advising it as their own invention and idea.

The facts are that to-day THIRD WORK, QUARTER WORK and HALF WORK are in leading art centres, like Boston and Washington, past and gone, and newer art ideas prevail.

We will tell you of these newer art ideas, the decorative principles now coming to the front, will introduce them on the walls of your home, and you can enjoy the new ideas in decoration while they are still new.

OUR PAPER HANGING—

OUR DECORATING—

OUR PAINTING—

Is all done by the first mechanics, done right and at a reasonable price.

We give 1 yard of border free with each roll of Wall Paper we sell you—a new idea we have arranged for this year.

HAD DYSPEPSIA FOR FOUR YEARS.

Lived for Months on a Light Milk Diet--Became So Thin That Her Friends Feared Consumption.

Then Miss James, of Montreal, Was Induced to Try Powley's Liquified Ozone--From the Very First She Began to Feel Relief.

Now She Is Completely Cured--Eats Any Kind of Food--Has No Pain and Her Digestion Is Perfect---Is Well and Strong and Looks Like a Different Person.

MISS E. J. JAMES,

For over four years I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and indigestion. For months at a time I was forced to live on a light milk diet, and I was a mere skeleton. My friends told me I was going into consumption, I was so thin. I tried all kinds of medicines recommended for dyspepsia, but got no relief. I was finally induced to try Powley's Liquified Ozone, and from the first I began to feel relief. I continued taking it until I had used two large bottles, and I am happy to say I am completely cured. I can now eat any kind of food and I have no distress or pain in my stomach, and my digestion is perfect. I am well and strong and look like a different person, and I know it is due to your wonderful Ozone. I cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from indigestion, and I know it will cure. I would not be without Ozone, as I believe it to be the best remedy known for dyspepsia.

(Signed) MISS E. J. JAMES,

COUNTY COUNCIL

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

Council resumed at 2 p.m.

A communication was read, stating that Mr. S. Haryett had been appointed Police Magistrate for the northern portion of the County, and asking that the Council give him $600 per annum as its share of his salary.—Referred to Ways and Means Committee.

On motion the Ways and Means Committee resumed. Mr. Hanley in the chair.

The petition of Mr. Cleak, that the last quarter of his late father's salary as Police Magistrate of North Hastings be paid to his heir, Minnie B. Cleak, was considered, also the company, which should go to Mr. Haryett's request for $600 per annum as Police Magistrate.

Mr. Haryett was heard in reference to this matter. He was appointed as Police Magistrate in September last. He thought that he was entitled to the last quarter's salary. Owing to the duties of Police Magistrate being increased he asked that the usual stipend of $400 per year be increased to $600.

Dr. Faulkner thought it was clear that the late Mr. Cleak's heirs were not entitled to the last quarter's salary, which should go to Mr. Harryett, who did the work.

Mr. Kirk moved, seconded by Mr. A. Nicholson, that Mr. Haryett be paid the last quarter's salary on the basis of the salary paid to the late Police Magistrate, namely, $400 per annum.

Mr. Parker desired to have this matter deferred until more information was obtained. He moved that it be laid over until Friday, and in the meantime they ascertain what amount of work Mr. Haryett had done. This could be found out from the County Attorney.

Mr. McFarlane supported the motion made by Mr. Parker.

Mr. Clarke thought it would be impossible to get all information from the County Attorney.

No action was taken in reference to the petition re quarter's salary to the heirs of the late J. B. Cleak.

The question of salary to Mr. Haryett was on motion laid over for further consideration.

The following accounts were ordered to be paid:

Geo. Williams	$10.00
Rathbun Co.	194.50
J. W. London	29.35
J. Doust	8.50
Municipal World	7.75

Mr. A. Brown, of Picton, addressed the Council in regard to concrete tile manufactured by him. He gave prices of same.

The matter was referred to the Roads and Bridges Committee.

A communication was read from the Prisoners' Aid Association, asking the Council for a grant to assist them.

Mr. Denyes said that as there were so many demands upon the Council he would move that no action be taken.

Mr. Thompson seconded the motion, which prevailed.

A communication was read in reference to the Council procuring some copies of the Municipal World, which was now ready for distribution. The amount charged was $1 per copy or 75 cents for seven or more copies.

Mr. Mallory moved, seconded by Dr. Faulkner, that the usual number of copies be ordered.—Carried.

PLEASANT CURE FOR WEAK LUNGS.

The best remedy for sore, weak lungs is the soothing vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and passage of the breathing organs. It treats remote parts that cough mixtures and sprays can't approach, and kills thousands of germs at every breath. Catarrhozone drives away pain, congestion and inflammation; it makes breathing easy and regular, and exerts a marvellous influence on coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, catarrh, deafness and lung trouble. Catarrhozone cures at once, is delightful to inhale, and simple to use. Price $1; small size 25c. Druggists or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston Ont.

Take No Chances

These days. Don't let Ready-made clothing for little money attract you; there just the kind that makes a man, after he has worn them, think if he wants good clothes he'll have to go to the tailor's the next time and pay him his price for them.

There's a heap of difference in ready-to-wear clothes—all depends on the store's standard for quality—you know what Quick & Robertson's is don't you? If you don't we want to assure you there's none higher and there is no reason why you shouldn't get your clothes ready-made—you'll get better clothes for your money if you go to the right place for them—just as good and as correct styles and as perfect a fit as any tailor can give you.

Our line of suits and overcoats offers as large and as varied an assortment as any man would want of fabrics that have always been up to last season, exclusive tailors fabrics and they are garments you'll not find elsewhere—why, do you ask? well, they are from W. R. Johnston & Co., who sell only Quick & Robertson in Belleville.

HOCKEY.

Belleville Won Last Night's Game and the Group Championship

O-N-T-A-R-I-O,
When you meet Belleville down you go.

And that's no idle five o'clock tea joke, either. Belleville's crack hockey team beat Port Hope's fast aggregation in the rink last night, in about the most viciously-contested match seen in many a long day. The visitors came down primed up with all sorts of confidence, engendered by their two victories over Peterboro, but they found a better team waiting for them and the inevitable result followed.

Many visitors came to the city yesterday, Port Hope, Cobourg, Trenton and Peterboro sending their quotas. Front street in the afternoon was lined with be-ribboned crowds, who could talk of nothing but hockey. It was strange, but most of the visitors could see nothing in it but Port Hope—but they're wiser now.

The crowd began to gather at 7 o'clock, when the rink doors were opened. Every coign of vantage was eagerly seized, and at 7.45, when the writer got there, the rink was full, with the exception of the reserved seats, which afterwards were crowded. The band was playing cheerfully, and as one looked around and saw the many strange faces he realized that the "white and tans" were not going to be without somebody to do a little shouting for them. A steady stream of people was still coming in, and the reserved seat holders made their way across the ice to their seats. A bunch from Peterboro caught the attention of the crowd upstairs, who playfully shouted a few remarks at them. Chris Graham, one of Peterboro's players, was in the number, and there was a great roar of laughter as he turned around, dived into his inside pocket and brought out a bunch of Peterboro ribbons, which he waved with defiant merriment at the crowd. The writer was seated near some Port Hope ladies and gentlemen, who behaved like Sunday school teachers till the game began; after that you couldn't hold 'em at all. Dear, dear! It's a wonder some of those Port Hope ladies didn't jump the fence and pull McGuire's auburn locks! It was a most unique evening. If you were not there you missed it. The bright lights, the cheering crowd, the waving ribbons, the agile red and brown figures, feinting, dodging and flying here, there and everywhere made a sight never to be forgotten. By general consent there was never so much excitement over a hockey match in this city as over the one last night. So you see it was ordinary excitement boiled down. The rink last night would have been a poor place for anyone troubled with heart disease. One's nerves felt as though they were turned to whipcord as he clenched his hands involuntarily and did his little part towards swelling the chorus of encouragement as the fourteen athletes, with labored breath and set, grim faces, from which the perspiration dropped, fought desperately for the mastery. The ice was soft, but that was about the only soft thing any of the hockey players found last night. One good thing about soft ice is that it always gives the losing team a good excuse. "Oh," they'll say, "if we'd only have had fast ice we'd have made that crowd of lobsters look as though they were frozen to the rink." There is a lot of human nature in hockey, just like anything else. Well, to get down to the game. It was, without doubt, the most stubbornly-contested match seen here for a dog's age. As to the merits of the teams there can be no two opinions. Belleville, though suffering from hard luck, outplayed the visitors, and the local lads won on their merits. The hard luck centred in McGuire, who found, ten minutes after play started, that two screws which held his skate to his boot, had come out, and he slipped around on the ice like a lame duck. Of course that matter should have been seen to beforehand, but perhaps it was the heavy going which made the skate become loosened. Anyhow, Belleville was handicapped by having their star forward playing with a loose skate. The game was delayed a good deal on that account. Eventually the skate broke and McGuire changed it for a dull one, which put him in a little worse shape than ever. However, even with that handicap, the Belleville lads outplayed the visitors, who did not, on the whole, show up so brilliantly as people imagined they would. They played a fast, rough game, and were dangerous all the time, but the Belleville defence had the Port Hope forwards coppered nineteen-twentieths of the time. Great defence, that. Don't let it slip your memory. The much-touted Boney tried many of his brilliant runs, but Brown and Wallace played tag with him, and just when he looked dangerous he lost the puck. Just the same, that young man Boney is a remarkably speedy and skilful player. If there are any medals lying around loose one of 'em should be pinned on Winchester without delay. His work in the last half has never been equalled in this city. Hats off to "Winnie." He stopped a whole lot of shots last night which looked to have a through ticket on them. Belleville's forward line, with the exception of McGuire, were quite up to the mark, but Sandy Burrows surely played the game of his life. The visitors knocked him about a bit, too, but he took it cheerfully and there was always something doing when Sandy had the puck. The heavy ice undoubtedly told on all the boys, some of whom found it hard to go the distance, but they did, though in the latter part of the last half the Ontarios were pressing them hard. It was not a particularly pretty game to look at, for the checking was close and there were many vexatious delays, for which the visitors and McGuire's skate were primarily responsible. We don't mean to say that the visitors were responsible for all the rough play, but they certainly started it. It would take a hockey team with tempers like angels to take that kind of thing and not try to get back. The Belleville boys are not angels, and in the end they mixed it up with the Ontarios and quite held their own. The visitors have a strong, well-balanced team, with one exception. McCarthy, their centre, was hardly up to the standard of the rest of the team, but he was very useful for one thing. He was good to go off to even up matters whenever McGuire's skate played out. Thus you see Belleville's best man went off while Port Hope laid off their worst. However, when all's said and done, the Ontarios were right in the game from start to finish. Had they not started to rough it so fiercely they might have stood a better chance. As it was Belleville held them safe for nineteen-twentieths of the time. In that other twentieth they had the local team, with the exception of Winchester, going. But the red-shirted boys soon braced up again, and the game ended as everybody thought it would. Some of the spectators found fault with the referee, but we believe he did his best to be fair. To be sure, it looked sometimes, when a Port Hope man was the aggressor, hard to see why a Belleville man should go off with the foul player, but the referee is often in a position to see things which the crowd cannot. It was 8.25 when Referee Telfer called the teams to the centre of the ice, and then the Port Hope captain objected to the pads Winchester wore on his feet. The referee ordered him to take them off, which he did. It was 8.30 when the teams lined up this way:

Belleville goal
Winchester
Wallace
Brown
Burrows
Kennedy McGuire Marks
o
McMillan McCarthy Masterson
Boney
Brown
Roach
Mercer
Port Hope goal.

Belleville got the best of the face, and shortly afterwards Marks made a good run up the side, but lost the puck in a mix-up. He did something to displease the referee and went off for a minute. Belleville scored, but it was an off-side. Port Hope's Brown went off for tripping. The puck went down to Belleville's territory and McCarthy was badly "sandwiched." He had "bellows to mend" for some time after that. Marks and his check, Masterson, then began to develop a fondness for putting each other into the boards. Some of the Port Hope man's attempts looked very wicked, but the sturdy little Belleville wing stayed right with him. McGuire's skate became loose and there was a delay. Eventually the referee ordered the game to go on, with six men a side. Belleville made a determined rush, the puck went in on Mercer, who knocked it out, but Burrows secured it and passed to Marks, who made a fine shot which got by the Port Hope defence, and Belleville had first blood, while a great cheer went up. Time, 10 minutes. The remainder of the first half saw no more scoring, though the local team gave Mercer plenty of work to do. Brown made some beautiful lifts, while Wallace's play at point could not have been improved on. Marks was given a rest for bodying Masterson into the fence. The play was about even for a while. Port Hope's Brown went off for tripping, and there was a rather unfortunate circumstance. The puck was behind Port Hope's goal and Marks and Masterson were scuffling for it. Suddenly they went down together and the former didn't get up till he was picked up. He was carried off and the game went on. Boney tried a run and Wallace stopped him, the referee sending both men to the fence for roughing it. Winchester was called on to do a little work, which he did cleverly. The play was after that altogether in Port Hope's territory, and half-time came with the score 1—0 in favor of the local team.

It was 9.25 when the teams came out again. The rest had apparently done them good. Both sides were playing hard, and when Belleville scored in two minutes things began to look bright. There was no further scoring for a long time, but the game was full of incidents. Masterson and Marks had another mix-up. McGuire interfered and the referee sent the three men off. Port Hope now had six men to five, and their chance seemed to have come. But it hadn't. Belleville, though handicapped in numbers, fairly outplayed the visitors, and the battle raged fiercely round the enemy's goal. Brown of Belleville was slashed on the hip, and greatly weakened. Masterson, Marks and McGuire came on again, and the visitors started to make their effort. The play varied from one end to the other, but a good deal of it was in Belleville's territory. Winchester made some remarkable stops, and the Belleville defence cleared time after time, but the Port Hope attack went on, and at last Boney scored after a nice bit of combination. Then the brown and white supporters loosened their voices and shouted to their champions, "You've got 'em going," they said, "it only takes one to tie." But that one was not coming. There were only eight minutes left to play, and, though the Port Hope supporters stood up and waved their ribbons and shouted words of cheer to their team there was no hope for the Port Hopes. Belleville got the puck on the face and the crowd went down on top of Mercer. Burrows scored the fourth game for Belleville in two minutes. Score 3-1, and it looked as though the local boys were going to be champions of this group. The players on both sides were tired, but they played desperately. Masterson was ruled off twice for cross-checking. Just two minutes before time was up Belleville scored again, and the bell rang with the score 4-1 in their favor, and so ended about the hardest fought match in the hockey annals of Belleville.

Caught in the Net.

4-1. Do you hear that, Peterboro? Wouldn't that wrinkle your Raglan?

Keep it up, boys. You've won one championship, and good judges think your hardest fights came first.

What is puzzling a good many people who saw the match last night is, How did that Port Hope team beat Peterboro so handily?

People who had doubts of the local team's ability to win will now have to admit that they have another guess coming.

It certainly does appear that, on good ice, with all the rough tactics cut out, Belleville could easily double any score Port Hope could make.

The officials were: Belleville, goal umpire, John Hanley; timekeeper, Geo. Adams. Peterboro, goal umpire, Mr. Costello; timekeeper, Mr. Brown.

And it all goes to show that, though a team may have a Toronto trainer and a Peterboro trainer, they can't win unless they have the goods to back it up.

The standing in group 2 is now:

	Won.	Lost.
Belleville	4	0
Port Hope	2	2
Peterboro	0	4

The local team were invited to partake of an oyster supper at Mr. Jas. Wallace's restaurant last night, but had to decline his invitation, as they wanted to get to bed, in order to be in readiness for Thursday night's match with Prescott.

Referee Telfer made a record, so far as Belleville is concerned, in ruling off players. Here is the list: Masterson 5 times, Marks 5 times, McMillan once, McGuire twice, Port Hope's Brown 3 times, Belleville's Brown twice, Burrows once, Wallace once, Boney once; total 21 men ruled off.

THE STANLEY CUP MATCH.

Teams Have Now Won a Game Each.

Montreal, Feb. 2.— The Winnipeg Vics defeated the Montrealers in the second game for the Stanley Cup on the Arena ice to-night by a score of four goals to two. It was an exceedingly stubbornly-contested match and the Winnipeggers won clearly on their merits. As a result of tonight's match honors are now even, each team having won one match. The teams agreed to-night that another match should be played on Wednesday night to decide the possession of the cup.

The Game in Pittsburg.

Peterboro Examiner: Mr. George C. Burnham, of Pittsburg, Pa., is home on a week's visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Burnham, Otonabee. Mr. Burnham in a talk with an Examiner representative gave some very interesting facts concerning the grand old game of hockey in the Smoky City.

"The games are all played on artificial ice," said Mr. Burnham, as he pulled with evident satisfaction on the end of a Havana, "but it is not hockey they play over there; it is a sort of catch-as-catch-can chopping match. Everything counts, body-checking, cross-checking, tripping and, in fact, everything excepting deliberate pugilism."

He had actually seen a player kick another with his skate, when the assaulted player was lying on the ice, and the only penalty received was two minutes on the benches.

There is only one rink in Pittsburg but it is a dandy. It is about 90 x 300 feet and has a seating capacity of at least 8,000. As before stated the ice is all made by artificial means and the remainder of the rink is heated the same as an ordinary opera house, steam pipes run along under the seats and it is a sight not unusual to see ladies at hockey matches sitting on the benches in their shirt waists. The attendance at all times is large and the rink fever is not by any means on the wane as some might imagine.

Continuing, Mr. Burnham said there are four teams in the Pittsburg City League and two matches a week are played. The teams are the Bankers, Keystones, Victorias and the Pittsburg Athletic Club's team. Every member of these teams is a Canadian excepting one, viz., Steen, the point player for the "Vics."

Mr. Burnham states that the management of the Pittsburg hockey clubs are very anxious for Canadian players, but so far this season few Canadians have crossed the line.

SPORTING COMMENT.

On all sides one hears nothing but expressions of gratification at the Belleville Hockey team's victory last night. The Intelligencer expressed the opinion, after the Port Hope game, that the group championship appeared to be coming this way. It has arrived, and now its up to the boys to keep up the good work and bring further honours to the city. The team is a fine one, and deserves all the encouragement Belleville people can give it. Hurrah for the Red and White boys; they're the Real Thing.

Well, wouldn't that news about the Stanley Cup games trip you! The old-timers, after apparently being "all in" and down and out for good, take a brace and put it all over the champions. Well, well, well! Hockey is an uncertain game and something the prophets had better leave alone.

Rumor says that, in a financial way, it would have been better for some of our visitors of yesterday if they had not wandered from their own firesides. It certainly would have been better for some of the reputations of the visiting players had they acted with more gentlemanly spirit. Hockey is a grand game, with, of course, a spice of danger in it (no game would be worth playing without that), but it would be better for the game and better for those who play it if people who cannot keep their tempers were told to hang up their skates and sticks for good. This, it may be remarked, is not intended to reflect in any way on the members of the Belleville team, who cheerfully face the hardest propositions and take their medicine without flinching. No properly constituted man will allow himself to be assailed without trying to keep up his end, for, alas! the old Adam is in us all. But the fact remains that the game would be benefited if the foul players were out of it.

However, the first series of games is over and Belleville won handsomely. Some of the boys have bruises to show, but the glory of twice beating teams like the Ports and the Petes will help to make them forget. With the plaudits of the crowd still ringing in their ears they can afford to let bygones be bygones. By the time next season comes round the old enmities will have been forgotten.

SPORTING NOTES.

On Saturday afternoon a match between the Black Tuques of this city and a Picton team will take place here. Both teams are juveniles.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

THE RESULT OF THE PAIN AND IRRITATION FROM HEMORRHOIDS.

Nervous prostration is often the result of neglecting a case of hemorrhoids or piles; the pain and irritation attendant upon this disagreeable trouble, inconveniences and annoys one, but it is possible to go to business and do the ordinary day's work, so the trouble is neglected until the nerves become exhausted and the patient is a victim of nervous prostration.

Hemorrhoids cause a sensation of heat, tension and itching in a region where is located the most sensitive nerves of the human system, and the continual irritation will eventually cause a collapse of the nerves. This would easily have been avoided if the patient had carefully treated the case of piles from their first appearance. No other trouble can be so quickly and safely overcome if treated in an early stage, and even if the case is an old one, there is a remedy which will act with remarkable results if faithfully applied.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is in suppository form and can be conveniently applied to the afflicted parts, the soothing oils and medication reaching the healing and enlarged hemorrhoidal veins of the rectum and acting at once upon the inflamed tissues.

Every sufferer from this trouble should send at once to the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their book on Piles or Hemorrhoids, which will be sent free. The Pyramid Pile Cure is so well known and the hundreds cured by it have so advertised it that the little book is merely sent to give each patient a clearer view of his or her particular case and the proper treatment for it.

A WONDERFUL TONIC AND STRENGTHENER.

Said a druggist to-day, "No doubt about it, the tonic that gives best results is the biggest seller, and that is Ferrozone. It enriches and purifies the blood, restores strength and energy to the feeble and is a scientific reconstructor, that was always popular. In chlorosis, anaemia, tiredness, languor, brain fag, indigestion and dyspepsia its action is prompt and satisfactory cures always follow. Yes, I recommend Ferrozone to my customers because I believe it is the best tonic and strengthening medicine that money can buy." Large boxes cost 50c. Sold by J. S. McKeown.

A PRINCE ABDICATES.

The Ruler of Indore Surrenders His Seat to His Son.

New York, Feb. 3.—The Times has the following special from London:—The Times' correspondent at Indore, Central India, says that the abdication of Prince Holkar, the ruler of the State of Indore, on Saturday last in favor of his son, Tukoji Rao, a bright lad of twelve years, is an event unprecedented in Anglo-Indian annals. On several occasions the paramount power has been compelled to depose native rulers, but never before has a feudatory Prince renounced his throne on his own initiative. At the durbar held in the new palace and attended by the British high officials, the Maharaja briefly alluded to the state of his health, and directed the Munshi to read a set speech announcing his abdication and earnestly exhorting his successor to be loyal to the British Empire, and to fulfill his moral and religious duties. He then surrendered his seat and tendered homage to his son. The young ruler proceeded to the old palace, where the religious ceremony attending the installation was performed. Prince Holkar displayed great dignity throughout. There exists unhappily a hereditary taint in the family, which, since the time of the Earl of Ripon's Viceroyalty, has caused the gravest concern to the Viceroys. But whatever have been his shortcomings as a ruler of his own State, Prince Holkar has always been a loyal feudatory ruler and entertained a special veneration for the late Queen Victoria.

THE ALASKA TREATY.

TERMS OF AGREEMENT SUBMITTED TO SENATE.

No Mention of Skaguay or Dyea—The Whole Question to be Dismissed by Commission.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The President sent to the Senate yesterday the treaty recently concluded between the United States and Great Britain, providing for submitting the Alaska boundary question to a joint tribunal of six eminent jurists. The document had been returned to the President for the correction of some clerical errors. The convention names no concessions on either side as a condition precedent to the consideration of the boundary question by a joint tribunal, and there is no reference to Skaguay or Dyea or other settlements on the coast.

It is provided that the tribunal shall assemble for their first meeting in London, "as soon as practicable after receiving their commissions." The preamble of the treaty sets forth that the United States and Great Britain are "equally desirous of a settlement of the true meaning of certain clauses of the convention between Great Britain and Russia, signed under date of Feb. 28, 1825."

The essential terms of the treaty are found in the fourth article, which reads as follows:—"Referring to articles 2, 4 and 5 of the treaty of 1825, the tribunal shall answer and decide the following questions: What is intended as the point of commencement of the line?

(2) What channel is the Portland Channel?

(3) What course should the line take from the point of commencement to the entrance to Portland Channel?

(4) To what point on the 56th parallel is the line to be drawn from the head of the Portland Channel, and what course should it follow between these points?

(5) In extending the line of demarcation northward from said point on the parallel of the 56th degree of north latitude, following the crest of the mountains situated parallel to the coast until its intersection with the 141st degree of longitude west of Greenwich, subject to the condition that if such line should anywhere exceed the distance of ten marine leagues from the ocean, then the boundary between the British and the Russian territory should be formed by a line parallel to the sinuosities of the coast, and distant therefrom not more than ten marine leagues. Was it the intention and meaning of said convention of 1825 that there should remain in the exclusive possession of Russia a continuous fringe or strip of coast on the mainland, not exceeding ten marine leagues in width, separating the British possessions from the bays, ports, inlets, havens and waters of the ocean and extending from the said point on the 56th degree of latitude north to a point where such a line of demarcation should intersect the 141st degree of longitude west of the meridian of Greenwich?

"If the foregoing questions should be answered in the negative, and in the event of the summit of such mountains proving to be in places more than ten marine leagues from the coast, should the width of the lisiere which was to belong to Russia be measured (1) from the mainland coast of the ocean, strictly so-called, along a line perpendicular thereto, or (2) was it the intention and meaning of the said convention that where the mainland coast is indented by deep inlets, forming part of the territorial waters of Russia, the width of the lisiere was to be measured (a) from the line of the general direction of the mainland coast, or (b) from the line separating the waters of the ocean from the territorial waters of Russia, or (c) from the heads of the aforesaid inlets?

(7) What, if any exist, are the mountains referred to as situated parallel to the coast, which mountains, when within ten marine leagues from the coast, are declared to form the eastern boundary?

The decision of the tribunal is to be final, a majority of the whole number of commissioners to rule. Should the tribunal agree on certain points and disagree on others, the facts are to be fully reported to each Government by its "agent," an official who, under the terms of the present treaty, is to attend the meetings of the commissioners.

LEAVING THE BROTHERHOOD.

Terms of Settlement of the Canadian Northern Strike.

Winnipeg, Feb. 3.—It has just developed that one of the conditions in connection with the recent settlement of the Canadian Northern strike of machinists and other employees is that the Order of United Brotherhood of Railway Employees is to be hereafter totally ignored. All the different branches returning to work have signed an agreement with the company that they will not become members of the Order of United Brotherhood Railway Employees now or hereafter, and many of them have resigned from membership.

Canadian Press Association.

Toronto, Feb. 3.—The Canadian Press Association will hold its forty-fifth annual meeting in the Board of Trade building on Thursday and Friday next. The sessions will open at 10.30 in the morning and 2.30 in the afternoon. A number of excellent papers will be read. On Thursday night a banquet will be held, at which the speakers will be Hon. Geo. W. Ross, J. P. Whitney, M.P.P., Jos. Downey, M.P.P., A. B. Aylesworth, A. E. Ames, John Lewis, John R. Robinson, W. K. McNaught, B. A. Macnab of The Montreal Star and others.

Coal Price Comes Down.

Toronto, Feb. 3.—The agitation against the continued high price of coal has been fruitful of good results, for the independent mining operators have come down. The small dealers of Toronto who have been purchasing from these operators announced yesterday that they are now in a position to purchase coal and sell it at the same price as the dealers who get their supplies from the regular railway companies. The prevailing price now is $8.50 a ton.

LOCAL OPTION CARRIED.

VERMONT GOES BACK ON ITS PROHIBITION RECORD.

Cities and Towns Will Now Decide Regarding Sale of Intoxicants in Their Limits.

White River Junction, Vt., Feb. 4.—The advocates of local option carried the State, and after half a century of prohibition the cities and towns of Vermont will, after March 1, be permitted to decide whether or not intoxicating liquors shall be sold in those communities. The total vote, with the seven small towns missing, is 30.588 in favor of a license law and 28,946 opposed, a majority of 1,642 for the law. The missing towns gave a total vote of less than 300 at the last election. It is a coincidence that Vermont voted for prohibition in 1853 by 1,500 majority. The question before the voters was whether a high license local option law passed by the last Legislature should be accepted or rejected. The law was to take effect on March 1, should the people accept, as they did, and Dec. 1, 1906, should it have been rejected, giving the two Legislatures sitting in the meantime the option of repealing it. The big cities and towns decided the question to-day. The cities of Burlington, Montpelier, Rutland, St. Albans and Barre, with the village of Benington, rolled up a majority of 6,391 in favor of the law, a total that the 200 little communities were entirely unable to overcome.

CALGARY & EDMONTON.

Purchase by C.P.R. Will Probably be Approved of.

London, Feb. 3.—A bondholders' meeting of the Calgary & Edmonton Railway will be held on Friday to consider the agreement to lease the line to the Canadian Pacific Railway for ninety years, at a rental of $220,000 per annum. A bondholder writes to The Financial Times yesterday saying that the prospects of the road are so good that if the Canadian Pacific Railway does not offer £100 of 4 per cent. debenture stock for each £100 bond instead of the 94 1-2 now offered the road should be run independently. There is every prospect, however, that the agreement will be confirmed.

THE KING'S ILLNESS.

HIS MAJESTY'S PROGRESS IS QUITE SATISFACTORY.

He is Confined to His Apartments, but Not Obliged to Remain in Bed.

London, Feb. 4.—Late last night Baron Knollys informed inquirers at Windsor Castle that the King's progress was quite satisfactory. An indication that no anxiety is felt regarding the King's condition may be found in the complete absence of a shoal of inquiries from foreign courts, which was the usual experience on the occasion of his Majesty's previous illnesses. It seems that the King caught a slight cold some days ago. He wore a cumbersome overcoat while planting trees Monday, and the unbuttoning of it to facilitate digging is supposed to have given him a chill. The usual symptoms of influenza, lassitude, pains in the back and head and a slight rise in temperature followed. The King is confined to his apartments, but is not obliged to remain in bed. Queen Alexandra continues her customary drives. There is great disappointment and gloom at Chatsworth, where all the intended festivities except a private theatrical performance have been countermanded. Tons of fireworks have been sent away. The royal servants and baggage have gone, and the guests at Chatsworth are consoling themselves with golfing and motoring.

REBELS DEFEATED.

Splendid Victory Won by Castro's Forces.

Caracas, Feb. 4.—The Government troops under Gen. Alcantara have defeated a force of rebels numbering 900 under the revolutionary Gen. Ducharme on the Gamatagua River (about fifty miles south of Caracas). On the receipt of the news of the victory prices on the Stock Exchange here jumped four points.

Since the rout of Gen. Matos and his army of 10,000 men by President Castro near La Victoria Oct. 18, the remnants of the rebel forces have been dispersed in all directions. These scattered bodies of rebels, believing, as reported by Gen. Matos' committee, that arms and ammunition had landed lately, reunited, and to the number of about 2,500, under Generals Rolando and Ducharme, assembled at Altagracia, at the entrance of the Gulf of Maracaibo, and at Orituco, a village 60 miles south of Caracas.

Gen. Ducharme, with 900 men, advanced up the Camatagua River. President Castro sent a force of 1,000 troops against him, under Gen. Alcantara, who took the rebels by surprise and destroyed them after a seven-hours' fight. Alcantara captured thirty officers and 200 soldiers, 40,000 rounds, and all the rebels' reserve ammunition, and 50 animals. The remainder of Ducharme's army fled in the direction of Orituco.

CANADA'S OLDEST WOMAN.

Death of Mrs. Mary Ann Mills of Blanchard.

Stratford, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Mary Ann Mills, aged 115 years, said to have been the oldest woman in Canada, died at her home in Blanchard Township Tuesday evening. She was born in Fermanagh, Ireland, and up to a few months ago was quite active and bright. She has been a widow for about fifty years. Seven of a family survive.

LITTLE GIRL KILLED.

Gathering Coal in the Grand Trunk Yards at Brantford.

Brantford, Feb. 4.—Elma Smith, the ten-year-old daughter of Mrs. Smith, a widow, who resides at 160 George street was instantly killed by a freight train here yesterday. She and her brother were gathering coal in the Grand Trunk yards, and at the moment that she was crawling under a car the engine shunted, and she was pinned beneath a wheel. Her head was horribly crushed. No inquest was deemed necessary, the Grand Trunk Company having repeatedly warned the children of the danger, and having even prosecuted them for trespassing.

NEW NEWS SERVICE.

Canadian Papers to be Supplied With European Events.

Montreal, Feb. 4.—A project is under way for the establishment of an international news service, with headquarters at Brussels, which will supply Canadian newspaper with news of special interest to Canada. The promoter of the project is Mr. Neil Gron, and he has interested a number of Canadian capitalists and newspapers in the plan. The capital of the new concern will be £1,000,000 and Canadian capitalists have agreed to subscribe £40,000. It is proposed to inaugurate the new service at the end of the present year.

RULERS OF THE WORLD

MEAT EATING NATIONS ARE THE LEADERS IN EVERY BRANCH OF HUMAN ACHIEVEMENT.

The ruling nations of the world are meat eaters and history records that they always have been.

Vegetarians and food cranks may explain this in any way they choose, but the facts remain that the Americans, English, French, Russians and Germans are meat eating nations, and they are also the most energetic and most progressive.

The principal food of the heroic Boer soldier, known as Biltong, is a sort of dried beef, affording a great deal of nourishment in a highly concentrated form.

The weak races of people are the rice eating Chinese, Hindoos and Siamese, regarded since the dawn of history as non-progressive, superstitious and inferior physically and mentally to the meat eating nations who dominate them.

The structure of the teeth plainly indicates that human beings should subsist upon a variety of food, meat, fruit and grains, and it is unhygienic to confine one's diet to any one of these classes to the exclusion of another.

Meat is the most concentrated and most easily digested of foods, but our manner of living is often so unnatural that the digestive organs refuse to properly digest meat, eggs and similar nutritious and wholesome foods, but it is not because such food is unwholesome, but the real reason is that the stomach lacks, from disease or weakness, some necessary digestive element; hence arising indigestion and later on, chronic dyspepsia.

Nervous people should eat plenty of meat, convalescents should make meat the principal food, hard working people have to do so and brain workers and office men should eat, not so much meat, but at least once a day, and to insure its perfect digestion one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be taken after each meal, because they supply the peptones, diastase and fruit acids, lacking in every case of stomach trouble.

Nervous dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, gastritis, sour stomach, gas and acidity are only different names for indigestion, the failure to digest wholesome food, and the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cures them all because by affording perfect digestion the stomach has a chance to rest and recover its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the real household medicine; it is as safe and pleasant for the stomachache of the baby as it is for the imperfect digestion of its grandsire.

They are not a cathartic, but a digestive, and no pill habit can ever follow their use; the only habit Stuart's Tablets induce is the habit of good digestion, and consequently good health.

Here Comes THE Bovril

Will be the joyful cry in many a Canadian home this winter. What so delicious served hot at the noon luncheon? What so reviving after the afternoon walk or drive? What so healthful for the children at any hour, when they ask for food?" And little stomachs are always clamoring. John Strange Winter the author of Bootles Baby says: "More fastidious "children about their appetite than my "own cannot be found. They all take "Bovril eagerly. A Cup of Bovril "with the addition of a piece of toast "makes a thoroughly good meal for "any small child."

LABOR WAR AT DETROIT.

THREATENED STRIKE OF PENBERTHY INJECTOR MAKERS.

They Demand the Discharge of a Non-union Man — Forty-seven Manufacturers United in Resistance to the Union's Demands.

Detroit, Feb. 4.—The following communication, signed by the Brass Workers' Union of the Penberthy Injector Company, casts a shadow of impending trouble over the industrial situation in the city:—

"Penberthy Injector Co., Detroit: Dear sirs,—You have in your employment a man named Walter Wilkins, who is not a member of our Brass Workers' Union, and whom we have urged to join, and he has not done so or given us any positive promise that he will. We, the shop committee, representing said union, demand that he either join our union before Wednesday night, February 4, or that you discharge him. If this demand is not complied with the members of our union will quit work in your factory until the above conditions are complied with."

This is looked upon by the manufacturers of the city as a very serious demand. The Penberthy Injector Company states that its shop is an open one, and that no discrimination is made against union labor. The matter was laid before the manufacturers of the City of Detroit, and forty-seven of them up to last night had signed resolutions pledging their support to the Penberthy Injector Company in the position assumed by it, namely, the right to employ or to discharge from its employment any man regardless of his affiliation with any society.

ENGINE WAS DEFECTIVE.

Startling Evidence at the Plainfield Inquest.

Plainfield, N.J., Feb. 4.—At the inquest here yesterday on the body of one of the twenty-eight victims killed in the recent wreck, the following statement by Engineer Davis, in charge of the express, which crashed into the local train, was read:—"I started from Jersey City, going west at 6.13 p.m., with a leaking steam chest, which had been cracked for a month or so. Steam in large quantities was escaping, and it was necessary for me to shut down the steam to see the tower signals. I said to the fireman, 'We must go carefully in order to see the signals.' We arrived at Elizabeth two minutes late. Between Cranford and Westfield the front injector broke, and, jumping up to put it back, I missed my signal. After passing Cranford, I saw the Westfield station, and the passenger train within sixty feet of it. I applied the emergency brakes, and knew no more until I found myself in the back of the cab, with a car seat upon me and fire all around me. I am 34 years old and have been an engineer for twelve years."

The statement was sworn to by Davis before Dr. Westcott as Commissioner of Deeds. A similar statement, made by Davis to the Chief of Police of Plainfield, was also put in.

David H. Deeter, master mechanic of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad at Philadelphia, testified that he knew there was a leak in Davis' engine, but that the escape of steam was not sufficient to obstruct the engineer's view. The leak, he said, was on the left side of the engine, while the engineer's post was on the right. He said that the engine had been in the shop for repairs, but came out in first-class condition.

Thomas H. Foertsch, foreman of the New York division of the road, testified that the engine had been used to haul a milk train, but was as fast as any engine on the division. He knew there was a crack in it, but did not think it serious. Adjournment was made at this point.

FERRY LICENSES.

Mr. Justice Street's Judgment to be Appealed.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—Mr. Justice Street's judgment, holding that the power to license ferries is vested in the Province, is regarded with much surprise here. The Inland Revenue Department, which issues the Dominion licenses, has asked the Department of Justice for an opinion, but the latter will not make any statement till possessed of a copy of the judgment. The case is, however, almost certain to be appealed.

ANOTHER CIVIL WAR.

Rival Factions in Honduras Are Fighting.

Panama, Feb. 3.—A cablegram received from Honduras announces that civil war has broken out in that country. The date of the revolutionary outbreak (led by Senor Bonilla, recently elected President) is not known.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 3.—Passengers arriving direct from Puerto Cortez report that Americans are fleeing from Spanish Honduras, in expectancy of a revolution, which has been brewing in the republic for the past two months. The trouble arises out of the refusal of President Sierra, the present incumbent, to surrender the Presidential seat to Senor Bonilla, owing to allegations of fraud in his election. Sierra represents the Conservatives and Bonilla the Liberals. Both have a large following. The Conservatives, it is said, are making secret preparations for the fight.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The disturbed conditions in Honduras referred to above have caused certain American commercial interests to appeal to the United States Government for protection from anticipated damages to their properties. Bonilla has taken refuge on Amapalla Island, where he is organizing a force to dispossess Sierra. The turmoil is said to endanger American interests, and the Navy Department, upon notice from the State Department, is about to despatch the Boston, or perhaps the New York, from San Francisco down the west coast.

TO STOP REBATES.

Drastic Measure Passed by the United States Senate.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The Senate today passed without objection or discussion the Elkins bill to further regulate railroad transportation. Briefly the bill imposes a fine not exceeding $20,000 for the giving of rebates on published freight rates by a railroad, and the receiving of a rebate by any person, firm or corporation is also subject to the same fine. The Interstate Commerce Commission is authorized to bring proceedings in United States District Courts to inquire into alleged infractions of the provisions of the law, and to prosecute the cases there. The attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers relating to such transactions are also provided for.

Daily Intelligencer.

FINDING ITS LEVEL

Everything finds its level in this world, and newspapers are no exception. As a proof of this we now see an alleged newspaper, which not long ago tried to hold up the city for some advertising to which it had not a shadow of legal claim, lamenting the fact that its advertisers are leaving it. The wail sent forth is enough to bring tears to the eyes of a wheelbarrow, but hard-headed men do not, as a rule, allow sentiment to enter into their business affairs. When they pay out their good money they want value in return, and it must be admitted that a paper which has nothing but a small circulation and a bad reputation to recommend it is not likely to help the trade of any merchant who advertises in its columns. In this connection we would respectfully ask Intelligencer advertisers to drop in and see the record of circulation kept by our pressman. We feel rather proud of the fact that, from Oct. 16, 1899, when the Daily Intelligencer had a circulation of 835, the record shows a steady increase. At present we print 1340 papers on Saturday and 1200 on the other days of the week. This, everyone will admit, is rather a good showing for a paper published in a place of slightly over 9,000 inhabitants, of whom, judging by the rule in other places, about one-fifth are adults. Last night 1225 papers were printed and we regret that many intending purchasers were disappointed, as the papers were all gone before 5.45. The Intelligencer does not need to throw any bouquets at itself. The above facts speak for themselves.

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back; bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

THE ALASKA BOUNDARY.

From what has appeared in the public press in England, Canada and the United States it is difficult to arrive at a conclusion or form an opinion as to the duties in the Alaska boundary, which the commission that is to be appointed are to perform.

If the statements which appear in United States journals are to be accepted as correct, then the Commissioners appointed under the treaty are only to confirm the claims set up by the United States.

If this be their simple duty it is a waste of time and money to appoint six legal gentlemen to do a duty which any surveyor could do. Though this view may upon its face seem absurd, yet the language of United States Senators and of United States editors, who are in the confidence of the Government, can lead to no other conclusion.

Telegrams from Washington state that the Senate is to report in favor of the treaty, with an amendment, that is with the word "arbitration," which appears in the preamble stricken out, which the committee or the Senate declared should not have been inserted. The telegraph report says:

> "The committee to-day corrected this error and eliminated all reference to arbitration. The award of the tribunal, if it agrees, is to be final. It is to determine solely and only whether the boundary line as described in the third and fourth articles of the Anglo-Russian treaty of 1825 shall be drawn in a line thirty marine miles from the coast, or whether it shall be measured from the coast line of the indentations of the mainland."

The New York Tribune, which is known to enjoy the confidence of the President and his Administration, says, no doubt speaking for them, that the treaty of 1828, between England and Russia, is not to be re-made or re-interpreted, but simply executed.

> "That is, the boundary line should be marked by surveyors in accordance with the prescriptions of the treaty. It should be marked along the ridge of the maritime mountain range, if there is one. If there is not, and there doesn't seem to be, then it should be marked thirty knots inland from the coast and parallel with the windings or sinuosities thereof, swinging at that distance around the heads of Lynn Canal and Glacier Bay and all such indentations of the coast, and confirming to us what we now, rightfully possess—namely, an unbroken strip of mainland coast from Mount St. Elias down to Portland Canal. That is all that now remains to be done; and the proper work of the commission under the pending treaty will be to agree upon the doing of it."

To do this does not require six eminent jurists. Has the Government of Canada consented to such a treaty?

ROSS DEFIES THE PROHIBITIONISTS

BOLDLY ACCUSES THEM OF ACTING UNFAIRLY.

Newmarket, Feb. 3.—In the course of his speech at the Liberal convention here to-day, Premier Ross, in discussing the temperance question, said:—

"We gave you a Liquor Act, which would have been successful had not certain differences of opinion amongst the temperance people themselves prevailed. The Act did not carry. The great bulk of temperance men trusted us and supported us, but some did not do the fair thing, and used their best efforts to defeat the Government that was putting them in a position to get what they wanted. That is not the way to play the game. Had they succeeded in that and defeated the Government, where would they have been? They opposed us, yet did not move to help the temperance cause. If the temperance people don't want me they can vote me out of the Government; that is their privilege. We are going as far as we can to enact such laws as we think best to further public temperance and morality. We are not going to be revolutionary on this or any other question. You may attempt so much as to destroy the temperance cause. I trust we will do right. All that has been done for the temperance cause has been done by the Reform party. We will try and get the happy medium with the same honesty and decision with which we risked our political lives at the last election with the Liquor Act, when the very men who should have helped us opposed us."

Judge Fraleck, of Belleville, presided at Division Court here on Friday last. A number of cases were disposed of.

Messrs. D. E. K. Stewart and A. A. McDonald, of Madoc, were in town on Friday last.

E. P. Brintnell, of Belleville, was through this district last week.

The remains of Charles Bohan, a brother of Mr. John Bohan, of this place, arrived by C.P.R. on Friday last. Deceased met death in a railroad wreck near Minneapolis. He left Tweed about twelve years ago for Michigan.

Several hundred dollars' worth of alsike clover seed was shipped from here this week. Copey Bros., of the Lodgeroom neighborhood, were the largest contributors to the shipment, their cheque calling for $1,313.00. Mr. Andrew Kirk's clover mill has still several weeks' threshing ahead of it.

The funeral of the late Charles Bohan took place from his mother's residence here on Sunday morning to St. Carthagh's church, where mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Gorman, following which the remains were interred at Sugar Island cemetery. The pall-bearers were W. J. McIlroy, Paul Rashotte, John Kelly, John Hatt, Levi Bradshaw and Patrick McIlroy.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

"Have I been sick?" she asked in a whisper, and Wilford, bending over her, replied: "Yes, very sick for nearly two whole weeks—ever since I left home that morning, you know?"

"Yes," and Katy shivered a little. "Yes, I know. But where is Morris? He was here the last I can remember."

Wilford's face grew dark at once, and stepping back as Morris came in, he said: "She asks for you." Then with a rising feeling of resentment he watched them, while Morris spoke to Katy, telling her she must not allow herself in any way to be excited.

"Have I been crazy? Have I talked much?" she asked; and when Morris replied in the affirmative, she said: "Of whom have I talked most?"

"Of Genevra," was the answer, and Katy continued: "Did I mention any one else?"

Morris guessed of whom she was thinking, and answered indifferently: "You spoke of Miss Hazelton in connection with the baby, but that was all."

Katy was satisfied, and closing her eyes fell away to sleep again, while Morris made his preparations for leaving. It hardly seemed right for him to go just then, but the only one who could have kept him maintained a frigid silence with regard to a longer stay, and so the first train which left New York for Springfield carried Dr. Grant, and Katy was without a physician.

Wilford had hoped that Mrs. Lennox, too, would see the propriety of accompanying Morris, but she would not leave Katy, and Wilford was fain to submit to what he could not help. No explanation whatever had he given to Mrs. Lennox or Helen with regard to Genevra. He was too proud for that, but his mother had deemed it wise to smooth the matter over as much as possible, and enjoin upon them both the necessity of secrecy.

"When I tell you that neither my husband nor daughters know it, you will understand that I am greatly in earnest in wishing it kept," she said. "It was a most unfortunate affair, and though the divorce is, of course, to be lamented, it is better that she died. We never could have received her as our equal."

"Was anything the matter except that she was poor?" Mrs. Lennox asked, with as much dignity as was in her nature to assume.

"Well, no. She had a good education, I believe, and was very pretty; but it makes trouble always where there is a great inequality between a husband's family and that of his wife."

Poor Mrs. Lennox understood this perfectly, but she was too much afraid of the great lady to venture a reply, and a tear rolled down her cheek as she wet the napkin for Katy's head, and wished she had back again the daughter whose family the Camerons despised. Of course Wilford chafed and fretted at what he could not help, making himself so generally disagreeable that Helen at last suggested returning home. There was a faint remonstrance on his part, but Helen did not waver in her decision, and the next day was fixed upon for her departure.

"You don't know how I dread your going, or how wretched I shall be without you," Katy said, when for a few moments they were alone. "Everything which once made me happy has been removed or changed. Baby is dead, and Wilford, oh! Helen, I sometimes wish I had not heard of Genevra, for I am afraid it can never be with us as it was once. I have not the same trust in him, and he seems so changed."

As well as she could, Helen comforted her sister, and commending her to One who would care for her far more than earthly friends could do, she bade her good-bye, and with her mother went back to Silverton.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

Wilford was in a most unhappy frame of mind. He had been humbled to the very dust, and it was Katy who had done it—Katy, towards whom his heart kept hardening as he thought over all the past. What right had she to go to his mother's after having once declined; or, being there, what right had she to listen and thus learn the secret he would almost have died to keep; or, having learned it, why need she have been so much excited, and sent for Dr. Grant to tell her if she were really a wife, and if not to take her away? That was the point which hurt him most, for added to it was the galling fact that Morris Grant loved his wife, and was undoubtedly more worthy of her than himself.

"She had no right to complain of me," he thought, forgetting the time when he had been guilty of a similar offence in a more aggravated form. He could not reason upon anything naturally, and matters grew daily worse, while Katy's face grew whiter and her voice sadder in its tone.

When the Lenten days came on, oh how Katy longed to be in Silverton—to kneel again in its quiet church, and offer up her penitential prayers with the loved ones at home. At last she ventured to ask Wilford if she might go, her spirits rising when he did not refuse her request at once, but asked:

"Whom do you wish to see the most?"

His black eyes seemed reading her through, and something in their expression brought to her face the blush he construed according to his jealousy, and when she answered: "I wish to see them all," he retorted:

"Say, rather, you wish to see that doctor, who has loved you so long, and who but for me would have asked you to be his wife!"

"What doctor, Wilford? whom do you mean?" she asked, and Wilford replied:

"Dr. Grant, of course. Did you never suspect it?"

"Never," and Katy's face grew very white, while Wilford continued:

"I had it from his own lips; he sitting on one side of you and I upon the other. I so forgot myself as to charge him with loving you, and he did not deny it, but confessed as pretty a piece of romance as I ever read, except that according to his story, it was a one-sided affair confined wholly to himself. You never dreamed of it, he said."

"Never, no never," Katy said, panting for her breath, and remembering suddenly many things which confirmed what she had heard.

"Poor Morris, how my thoughtlessness must have wounded him," she murmured, and then all the pent up passion in Wilford's heart burst out in an impetuous storm.

He did not charge his wife directly with returning Morris's love; but he said she was sorry she had not known it earlier, asking her pointedly if it were not so, and pressing her for an answer, until the bewildered creature cried out:

"Oh, I don't know. I never thought of it before."

"But you can think of it now," Wilford continued, his cold, icy tone making Katy shiver as, more to herself than to him, she whispered:

"A life at Linwood with him would be perfect rest, compared with this."

Wilford had goaded her on to say that which roused him to a pitch of frenzy.

"You can go to your rest at Linwood as soon as you like, and I will go my way," he whispered hoarsely, and believing himself the most injured man in existence, he left the house, and Katy heard his step, as it went furiously down the steps. For a time she sat stunned with what she had heard, and then there came stealing into her heart a glad feeling that Morris deemed her worthy of his love when she had so often feared the contrary.

BIG BLIZZARD IN WESTERN STATES

WORST IN YEARS NOW RAGING, AND BUSINESS IN MANY PLACES SUSPENDED.

(Special to The Intelligencer.)

Chicago, Feb. 4.—This city is to-day helpless in the grasp of the worst blizzard of the season. A special from Cincinnati, O., says the same conditions prevail there, while from Omaha, Neb., comes a despatch saying that the worst blizzard in many years is raging throughout. Nebraska, South Dakota, and Wyoming. Business of all kinds is suspended to-day. Trains are snowed under, the street car systems are tied up and telegraph and telephone systems paralyzed.

THE INTELLIGENCER is printed and published for The Intelligencer Printing and Publishing House (Limited) by CHARLES JAMES BOWELL, of the City of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, Province of Ontario, at their Office, No. 103 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

It sometimes happens that a man of resources is one who has ingenious

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very billious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the billiousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 68 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

Don't feel that the world has no place for you because it fails to recognize you as a genius.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

As an all-round musician the organ grinder heads the list.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Coral is a talisman against thunder and evils by flood and field.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Four crops of corn are produced yearly in Cuba. The first crop is planted in December and the fourth crop is harvested in December.

These two desirable qualifications, pleasant to the taste and at the same time effectual, are to be found in Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. Children like it.

It manages to get late very early nowadays.

When all other preparations fail, try Holloway's Corn Cure. No pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it.

When a man wants to talk he nearly always bumps up against some man who doesn't want to listen.

To get relief from indigestion, biliousness, constipation or torpid liver without disturbing the stomach or purging the bowels, take a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills, they will please you.

The proverbial luck of fools is never mentioned by the lucky individual.

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.

Diamonds produce somnambulism and spiritual ecstasy.

They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system.

A man is very apt to be cut by his best friend when he attempts to shave himself.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected nd the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. La Patrie of Montreal presents the latest statistics of crime in the provinces, which show that, if the statistics are correct, the habitants of Quebec are the most law-abiding people Canada has. Talking about hockey, the following, from the Montreal Herald, contains much truth, and should commend itself to all who love good, clean, honest sport:

"Hockey is a good game to watch, but unless those in the game give over the later tactics of deliberately punishing recognized good players, hockey is apt to suffer as severely in the eyes of the general public as lacrosse has from the same cause. Both are fast games to play, full of opportunities for the display of individual superiority, and both on that account appeal to the spectator. But lads with any respect for themselves will think seriously before going into hockey practice if they know for certain that the highest honor paid to a good player is to have two heavyweights assigned to bruise and batter him until he is unable to hold up his end. That is what happened at the Stanley Cup games last year, and what is happening again this year. It may decide the immediate issue, but it is very bad indeed for hockey."

PLEASANT CURE FOR WEAK LUNGS.

The best remedy for sore, weak lungs is the soothing vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and passage of the breathing organs. It treats remote parts that cough mixtures and sprays can't approach, and kills thousands of germs at every breath. Catarrhozone drives away pain, congestion and inflammation; it makes breathing easy and regular, and exerts a marvellous influence on coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, catarrh, deafness and lung trouble. Catarrhozone cures at once, is delightful to inhale, and simple to use. Price $1: small size 25c. Druggists or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston Ont.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills cure Constipation.

Criticism Disarmed.

A good instance of the truth of the saying that "a smart answer turneth away wrath" was heard, the other day, in a French painter's studio. The painter in question had a fixed rule that none of his pupils were to be allowed to smoke in his atelier. One day, however, he came into the room, and distinctly saw that one of the pupils had a lighted cigarette in his fingers, which he was endeavoring ineffectually to conceal. With a style of somewhat heavy banter the painter went up to him and remarked: "That is a curious kind of pencil that you have got there, my young friend. May I ask what you propose to draw with it?" "Clouds," was the ready answer, and the roar that went up from the other students plainly showed the artist that the sense of the house was against him.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

WM. REDMOND RELEASED.

Served One-half of His Term of Imprisonment.

Dublin, Feb. 4.—William Redmond, M. P., who was sentenced last year to six months' imprisonment because he refused to give bail in $1,000 for his future good behavior as the result of an alleged incendiary speech at Wexford, and who was arrested at Kingston and taken to Kilmainham Jail November 4, was released yesterday, although he had only served half his term. In an interview Redmond said:—"I do not know why I am released, but I certainly do not thank the Government, who have kept me in jail for three months for really nothing."

Mr. Redmond added that he stood by every word of the speech for making which he was imprisoned and there will be no real peace in Ireland until Dublin Castle shall have been cleared out from top to bottom.

Later in the day the Irish member, John Roche, was liberated from Galway Jail. Mr. Roche was sentenced Sept. 30 to six months' imprisonment with hard labor for inciting boycott of land-owners.

ATTACKED A SOLDIER.

The Rioters at Waterbury Hurt One of the Militiamen.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 4.—Yesterday a privote of Company C, 2nd Regiment, Robert Duncan, was more or less seriously injured in an encounter with rioters. While on patrol duty a stone was hurled at Duncan. Later he was set upon by rioters. He undertook to defend himself with his bayonet, when his assailants seized his gun and struck the soldier in the groin with the stock. The blow was a serious one, and last night the man's condition was such that it was deemed advisable to send him to his home in New Haven.

LARGE VESSEL WRECKED.

Believed to be the French Bark Van Stabel.

London, Feb. 3.—Advices from Bay Head say that a large ship has been wrecked off Duraborg Reef. She is believed to be the French bark Van Stabel, which sailed from Glasgow January 17 for San Francisco. The body of a boy has been found, but the fate of the remainder of the crew is not known.

RAILWAY SCHEMES.

Mr. Mackenenzie in London Denies Some Rumors.

London, Feb. 4.—Considerable attention is devoted to the announcement that the Canadian Northern Railway has absorbed the Great Northern Railway of Canada. Grand Trunk officials here are anxious to make it clear that the purchase has no connection with the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme, while Mr. Mackenzie, who is now visiting England, is also emphatic in his assertions that he has no business here with the Grand Trunk. Nevertheless, it would surprise few if the Great Northern and Canadian Northern ultimately form a part of the Grand Trunk Pacific system for much as Englishmen are impressed with the progress of the northwest it is hardly anticipated that there is room as yet for three transcontinental systems.

Fighting Off Obesity.

The Ebstein dietary for the obes which has been largely adopted Germany, goes on the homoeop thic principle of giving fat to destro fat, on the theory that by consuming f freely a sense of satiety is quickly pr duced and the patient is unable to tak more than a small quantity of food. Th inventor of the system maintained th fat taken into the stomach does no produce body-fat—an hypothesis by n means accepted by medical men gene ally.

Under this system, three meals a da are allowed. Breakfast consists of tw ounces of toast, thickly plastered wit butter. For dinner, soup made of be marrow is given, followed by four ounce of fat meat, smothered with fat sauc A small quantity of green vegetable may be added. Supper consists of a egg, followed by a little very fat mea and an ounce of bread thickly covere with butter. After each meal a cup o tea, without milk or sugar, is given. will be noticed that, notwithstanding th large proportion of fat, this is really very restricted diet.

Oertel's system provides a dietary sim ilar to that first described, though no quite so severe, and adds to it a consid erable amount of hill-climbing—a form of exercise to which the corpulent ar certainly not addicted.

The system invented by Germain Se is that of Ebstein plus the consumptio of vast quantities of fluid, hot tea being specially favored, on the ground that i this way the elimination of waste ma terial is promoted. But life can hardly be worth living on a diet of fat, washed down with huge potations of warm un sweetened tea! Most people would pre fer to remain corpulent.

THE WHEAT REPORTS.

Wheat is Firmer—Live Stock Trade Improving—Latest Quotations.

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 3.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Receipts continue light, and are likely to do so as long as the present condition of the roads continues. What stuff was offered, however, met a fairly good demand, and market conditions generally were fairly good. The total grain receipts amounted to 1,400 bushels.

Wheat—The better grades of white wheat sold firmer at 73c per bushel, while poor stock brought only 69c. Altogether, 300 bushels were sold. Two hundred bushels of red wheat sold steady at 72c, and 200 bushels of goose sold ½c easier at 66c.

Barley—Is a little firmer, the best of the offerings selling at 49c per bushel, while inferior grades sold at 46c, and altogether 500 bushels wer sold.

Oats—Two hundred bushels of oats sold steady at 36½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Trade continues quiet, and prices are quoted firmer. Choice light-weight hogs are scarce and quoted at $8.40 to $8.60 per cwt, and heavies rather more plentiful at $7.75 to $8.

Butter—A fairly good demand was in evidence for good stock, while the offerings were rather scarce, but it was more than supplied by the offerings. Prices are easier at 18c to 22c for pound rolls and 14c to 16c for large rolls.

Eggs—Continue to drop in price. Prices for new-laid to-day were 18c to 22c per dozen, with no quotations for held stock.

Hay—About 30 loads were on the market. No. 1 timothy sold at $13 to $15 per ton, and mixed or clover at $6 to $9.

Straw—Is steady at $10 to $10.50 per ton. Four loads were sold this morning.

Toronto Live Stock.

Trade at the Toronto Cattle Market this morning was only moderately good. The run of cattle was light, and, while the demand did not show much improvement, it was strong enough, however, to take everything in sight and a little more if it had been offered. Quotations generally are unchanged, although in some cases the feeling was decidedly firmer.

Some complaints have been made that accommodation for cattle awaiting shipment is very poor at this market, and that the stalls and byres are generally in a very filthy condition. Cattle men say they are no more so than should be expected at this time of the year, when alternate soft and cold weather, with snow and rain, cannot help but make the uncovered yards too slushy to allow of the cattle lying down. Dealers who have been to Chicago and Buffalo say the yards there are worse in this respect than at the local market. The position of the Toronto Cattle Market is unfortunate in that it is in a hollow, and consequently hard to drain. The opinion has been expressed among dealers that an ideal market could be built on a part of the old garrison common.

To-day's total run consisted of 54 cars, including 747 cattle, 309 sheep and lambs, 470 hogs and [illegible] calves.

Export Cattle—There is plenty of space offering, but dealers are not sending heavy shipments just now. The demand for cattle, therefore, is not brisk. The run of stuff at the market was light, and the quality was medium to poor. Prices were about steady. The best stock on the market brought $5 per cwt, and prices ranged from that figure down to $3.40.

Butcher Cattle.—Trade in this class was fairly good to-day, although the run of stock was light and only of moderately good quality. The demand was fair, and, on account of the shortage in the offerings, there was a firmer feeling in prices, although no quotable change was apparent.

Stockers and Feeders—The fair demand for this class of cattle continues, while the receipts are still light. Prices are about steady; $3.20 was paid for barnyard stockers, and about $3.84 for feeders.

Sheep and Lambs—Trade continues good, with prices advancing from 25c to 75c per cwt for sheep and 35c to 50c on lambs. The run of stock was light, and everything was sold early.

Calves—Trade was fairly good, and the demand for good veals active. Prices are steady at $2 to $10 each.

Hogs—The market is unchanged, but with a weaker feeling. The day's receipts were light and only of medium quality.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 3.—Cattle—Receipts, 400 head; steady. Veals—Receipts, 85 head; 25c lower; tops, $8.50 to $8.75; common to good, $5.50 to $8.25. Hogs—Receipts, 6,200 head; fairly active; pigs, 25c to 35c lower; Yorkers, 10c to 15c lower; heavy, 5c to 10c lower; heavy, $7 to $7.05; medium, $6.95 to $7; Yorkers, $6.85 to $6.90, bulk at $6.90; pigs, $6.90; roughs, $6 to $6.25; stags, $5 to $5.25. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 6,700 head; steady; top lambs, $6.30 to $6.40, few at $6.50; culls to good, $4.25 to $6.25; yearlings, $5.25 to $5.50; ewes, $4.25 to $4.40; sheep, top mixed, $4.50 to $4.75; culls to good, $2 to $4.45.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Cattle—Receipts, 5,000, including 1,000 Texans; slow, weak; good to prime steers, $4.60 to $6.10; poor to medium, $3 to $4.50; stockers and feeders, $2.30 to $4.50; cows, $1.40 to $4.60; heifers, $2.25 to $4.75; canners, $1.40 to $2.60; bulls, $2.25 to $4.25; calves, $3.50 to $7.25; Texas fed steers, 350 to $4.50. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 27,000; to-morrow, 3,000; left over, 5,000; strong to 5c higher; mixed and butchers', $6.55 to $6.80; good to choice heavy, $6.85 to $6.97½; rough heavy, $6.60 to $6.85; light, $6.30 to $6.60; bulk of sales, $6.65 to $6.75. Sheep—Receipts, 12,000; steady to strong; lambs steady to strong; good to choice wethers, $4.40 to $5.25; fair to choice mixed, $3.50 to $4.40; native lambs, $4.50 to $6.30; western lambs, $4.75 to $6.25.

Nervous Prostration

Mrs. Edwards was a mere skeleton of skin and bone, nervous, irritable and weak, had heart palpitation and suffered dreadful pains.

Brantford's best physicians failed to help her.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food built up flesh and weight, restored nerve force and made her strong and well.

An extraordinary case that is worthy of investigation.

MRS. EDWARDS

Mrs. R. W. Edwards, 33 Murray St., Brantford, Ont., describes her case as follows:— "For five years I have suffered more than words can tell from nervous headaches, nervous dyspepsia and exhaustion. The pains in my head would at times almost drive me crazy. I could not sleep nights, but would walk the floor in agony until I fell exhausted and unconscious, and my husband would have to carry me back to bed.

"Sometimes I could take no food for four days at a time, and experienced terrible gnawing sensations in the stomach, had bad taste in the mouth and coated tongue. I was pale, nervous, irritable, easily exhausted, was reduced to a mere skeleton of skin and bone, and my heart would palpitate as though it was about to stop beating. My greatest suffering was caused by the dreadful pains in my head, neck, and back, and all this was in spite of the best efforts of three leading doctors of this city.

"For the past nine months I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and for a considerable time I have not experienced a headache, or any of the symptoms mentioned above. From a mere skeleton this medicine has built me up in flesh and weight, and now I am strong and well, do my own housework, walk out for two hours without feeling tired, and am thoroughly restored to health. Is any wonder that words fail to express my gratitude for this remarkable cure? You can use this testimonial for the benefit of other sufferers."

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

The "Savages'" Banquet.

The following is taken from the columns of The London Chronicle:—In the unavoidable absence of Sir Edward Clarke, K.C., Alderman, Sir William Treloar presided at the 45th annual dinner of the Savage Club. The Chairman, in proposing "Our Guest," regretted very much the absence of Sir Edward Clarke and expressed his fear that his absence was due to his mixing too much in highly civilized society. (Laughter.—Sir Edward was engaged as one of the counsel in the Hartopp divorce case.) The toast he would couple with the name of Sir Harry Johnston.

Sir Harry Johnston said African savagery was fast disappearing under the influence of a not altogether compensating civilization. One of his first African banquets was in a wild part of West Africa. He was a very timid guest, because he had been hauled out of his canoe on the Upper Cross River, and his porters were imprisoned. It was a feast "in honor of ancestors," and he was told that the dinner to some extent consisted of the ancestors themselves. (Laughter.) He asked about the composition of one rather agreeably flavored dish of red paste, and was told it was Man! It was made of triturated relative, which had been previously smoked over a fire of weeds, and had been mixed with palm-oil, red pepper, and salt. Having consumed this entremet, he became a member of the tribe. (Laughter.) His last African banquet was in very different circumstances. It was little more than a year ago. It was an assembly of blacks, but the menu was in French, and the feast was certainly cooked under French influences, so that in this as in other matters Africa was fast losing it's savagery, and would in time become as tame as much of this life seemed to him. But they (the club) were developing a little mild savagery, for they were trying to bring to bear a little more of the real into our artificial life, and perhaps in that aspect of savagery they were doing a very wholesome work. (Cheers.)

The "Spoilt" Child of To-day.

A society paper not long ago asserted that children were "very much the fashion just now." Certain it is that no child ever had so good a time as the modern one, writes "Countess" in the London "Outlook." Petted, spoilt, overdressed, it is in evidence from morning till night. Seated beside its mother it drives in the park, is taken to parties, performs "pas seuls" for the benefit of the "grown-ups" after dinner, drinks champagne and eats lobster mayonnaise at midnight, and when suffering next morning from the inevitable uncomfortable sensations located in the region "under its pinny," is the object of so much solicitude and care that it rather enjoys itself than otherwise. The best rooms in the house are given up to the nurseries, the whole establishment is subservient to the convenience of the children. They eat only what they like, and do more or less what they please. Their cleverness and wit are remarked upon before them by their parents—so much so that not long ago a little girl of six came and sat on my knee and asked me if I had heard any of her "funny sayings," and was quite prepared to give me a series of "collections and recollections" with the slightest encouragement, which I fear she did not get. My small nephew Teddy, who is at Eton, is spending the week-end here. He was supposed to have great literary aptitudes before he went to that seat of learning. So I asked him if he had been reading much lately. And he replied, "There have been such a jolly lot of divorce cases lately in the paper that I haven't had time for much else;" and when I took my small niece Angela, aged seven, to the park after church the Sunday before last she begged me in a piping voice to take her over to the other side, "as people can't see us here." So much for the modern child. But what of its parents and grandparents? We have grown so tender-hearted nowadays that even caning at boys' schools is considered inhuman. But what about the boys of a generation ago, who were thrashed by their fathers, and the girls who were whipped and had their ears boxed by nurses and governesses, if not by their mothers? If whipping did not reduce them to submission, starvation was the remedy next applied. I wonder how many of the fathers and mothers of the present generation remember having gone without their dinner or been sent supperless to bed. I have an aunt who had a rooted objection to mutton fat (a peculiarity I thoroughly appreciate), yet if she left any on her plate at the schoolroom dinner it was served up cold at her supper, and if she did not get through it then, it appeared again on the following day, and so on until she succeeded in swallowing it. Yet no one ever thought of accusing my grandfather or grandmother of inhumanity. It was their idea of uprooting any tendency to "faddiness" in their offspring. Had my aunt been a modern child her appetite would have been tempted with a quail on toast and the doctor called in if she exhibited any symptoms of distaste for her dinner.

The result of all this modern coddling is that, though our children are indubitably happier, it is equally indubitable that they are growing more "muffish." Who twenty years ago bothered if their boys tumbled into the pond and got a ducking? Nowadays if the son and heir gets his feet wet his mother resigns herself to pneumonia. The nurse knows it is as much as her place is worth to allow Miss Elfrida to get hot or Master Bobby to roll in the grass; while to "smack" any of her charges—however much they may require it—is tantamount to instant dismissal. The present golden age of childhood is really due to a reaction after a period of harshness and severity which, whatever its demerits may have been, certainly had the effect of inculcating a spirit of endurance in early youth which was one of the best preparations for the battle of life. But the happiest children to-day are those in whose parents' minds is indelibly recorded a bitter memory of their own unhappy childhood.

"You know there's a belief that when a man is delirious from fever he tells his most cherished secrets."

"Yes, but it isn't so. I could show you——"

"Well, it certainly isn't true in the case of old Polhiggamus. When he was raving in his delirium the other night the watchers supposed he would let out a few facts about his wealth and what he's got it invested in. He not only didn't do that, but I'm blest if he didn't tell more lies about it than if he had been talking to the assessor."—Chicago Tribune.

Mainly About People.

On one occasion, Sir John Avebury was showing the heavens through his telescope to some neighbors and servants, when one exclaimed: "I do not wonder, Sir John, that clever people find out the sizes and distances of the stars and how they move; but what beats me is how you ever could tell their names."

Not long ago a coroner's jury in Ireland delivered the following verdict on the sudden death of a merchant who had recently failed in business: "We, the jury, find from the new doctor's statement that the deceased came to his death from heart failure, superinduced by business failure, which was caused by speculation failure, which was the result of failure to see far enough ahead."

In his "Reminiscences," Frederick Goodall tells a story of Wellington as an art connoisseur. He paid Wilkie six hundred guineas for his "Chelsea Pensioners," and laboriously counted out the amount in cash. When the artist suggested that it would be less trouble to write a check, the great duke retorted that he would not let his bankers know "what a d—n fool I have been to spend six hundred guineas for a picture."

Here is one of the stories told by the late Dr. Whipple, Bishop of Minnesota, whose death took place the other day: "Many years ago," said the Bishop, "I was holding a service near an Indian village camp. My things were scattered about in a lodge, and when I was going out I asked the chief if it was safe to leave them there while I went to the village to hold a service. 'Yes,' he said, 'perfectly safe. There is not a white man within a hundred miles!'"

At the establishment of a certain hairdresser the following scene recently took place, to the joy of those awaiting their turn: Barber (inspecting the victim on the chair)—Your hair is getting very thin, sir. Victim—Yes? That's all right. I've been giving it anti-fat; I hate stout hair. "It's quite gray, sir." "Of course! I'm in half-mourning just now." "But you really should put something on it, sir." "So I do, every day." "Ah! May I ask what?" "My hat!" (Silence.)

A New York clubman, whose reputation as a conceited and insufferable bore was a byword, was once attempting to impress a group of men as being a society pet. "What a hospitable fellow Blank is," he said, naming one of New York's cleverest men; "I dropped in on him the other night, and he and his wife fairly insisted that I stay for dinner. Such a time as I had getting away! Why, when I started to leave, they came right out in the hall and backed up against the front door." "After you'd g-g-gone out?" sarcastically enquired one of his wearied listeners.

Colin Steyn, the fourteen-year-old son of ex-President Steyn of the Orange Free State, was told by some British officers on the ship that was carrying his father to England that he was now a British subject and should rejoice that he belonged to an empire upon which the sun never sets. On this Master Colin demanded if they knew what the Boers were in the habit of saying as to the cause of the sun never setting on the British Empire. At the reply "No," he answered: "It is because God Almighty could never trust the British alone in the dark!"

Do You Need Glasses ?

How do you know? Have your eyes been examined by a competent optician?

Does it tire your eyes to read very long at a time?

Does your head ache close in to the eyes and nose?

Have your own spectacles done you much good?

The safest way is to have us examine your eyes, and tell you exactly what you need—they may not need anything except rest; and they may be injured if not corrected with glasses. The examination will show what is needed. FREE. No charge for examination.

COUNTY COUNCIL

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

On motion the Council went into Committee of the Whole on Roads and Bridges, Mr. Clarke in the chair.

Mr. Hanley moved, seconded by Dr. Faulkner, that Mr. P. P. Clarke be Chairman of the Roads and Bridges Committee for the ensuing year.—Carried.

It was moved by Mr. Parker, seconded by Mr. McFarlane, that a committee composed of Messrs. Denyes, Kirk, Mallory, A. Nicholson and Thompson be appointed to deal with the accounts of the various nominating officers in connection with the recent County Council election.—Carried.

On motion, Mr. P. J. M. Anderson, County Attorney, was heard. He said that his object in appearing before the Council was to make a proposition, namely, that instead of him receiving fees from the County, as in the past, that a salary per year be fixed, the same to be based on the amount he had received for the past year.

Mr. McFarlane moved, seconded by Dr. Faulkner, that the matter be referred to the Committee of the Whole on communications.—Carried.

Council adjourned until 10 o'clock Friday morning.

FRIDAY MORNING SESSION.

Council resumed at 10 a.m. Warden Douglas in the chair.

Thursday's minutes were read and confirmed.

Reports.

Mr. A. McFarlane presented a report recommending that a close board fence be erected at the G.T.R. crossing at Milltown.—Referred to the Roads and Bridges Committee.

Mr. P. P. Clark presented a report showing what moneys had been expended on roads and bridges since the December session.

The report was received and referred to the Roads and Bridges Committee.

On motion the Council went into Committee of the Whole on Roads and Bridges, Mr. Clark in the chair.

A petition was presented from a number of ratepayers of Actinolite, in Elzevir Township, asking that a new iron bridge be erected over the river in that village. The present structure was considered unsafe.

Mr. Vankleek said the abutments were giving way and it was not safe to leave the present bridge there. A new bridge should be built there this year.

Mr. Kirk said the bridge was over a dangerous portion of the river, and if any person should go into the river they would certainly be carried over the dam near by.

Mr. Aylsworth, the Clerk, was of the opinion that a new bridge should be erected.

The report of the special committee recommending that a close board fence be erected at the G.T.R. crossing at Milltown, was adopted.

A petition was presented from the Township Council of Tudor, et al., calling attention to the dangerous condition of Snow road.

The Superintendent was heard in reference to this matter. The road was in a bad state, especially from Millbridge back. But little money had been spent on this road.

Mr. Denyes said he went over the road last summer, and it was not in such a bad condition as was represented.

Mr. A. Nicholson suggested that this matter be left in the hands of the Superintendent.

Mr. Clark stated that he had driven over the road last fall and he was compelled to walk his horses some three miles.

Mr. A. McFarlane moved, seconded by Mr. A. Nicholson, that the matter be left in the hands of the Superintendent.—Carried.

A number of ratepayers from Tweed petitioned the County Council to assume a piece of road about a mile and a half leading out of the village.

Messrs. Kirk and Porter spoke in support of the petition, claiming that it would be in the interests of the County.

Mr. McFarlane said that this might be a deserving case, but the question of assuming any more gravel roads was a serious one.

The matter, after some further discussion, was left in abeyance.

Mr. J. R. Orr, of Madoc, was on motion heard. He said that the County Council had withheld a special grant that was asked for the Madoc Model School. He claimed that this school was doing an excellent work, not for Madoc alone, but for the County. The County, he claimed, was not paying what it should for the service rendered. He asked that the Council reconsider the question.

Mr. Wm. Macintosh, School Inspector, was heard in reference to the matter, and stated that what Mr. Orr had said was correct.

The Warden informed Mr. Orr that the matter would be considered by the Council.

It being after 12 o'clock, the Warden left the chair.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

Upon the Council resuming at 2 o'clock a motion prevailed to go into Committee of the Whole on Ways and Means, Mr. Hanley in the chair.

The communication of Mr. S. Haryett, asking the Council to grant him $600 per annum as a salary for Police Magistrate of North Hastings and $100 for the last quarter, was considered.

Mr. Kirk moved, seconded by Mr. Lancaster, that Mr. Haryett receive $100 for the last quarter of 1902 for his services as Police Magistrate.

Mr. Porter thought that if a salary was going to be paid by the Council to Mr. Haryett, it should be fixed, and the quarter's salary that was due should be paid on the basis of the annual grant made.

Mr. Haryett said that he would be willing at present to accept the same salary as that paid to the late Mr. Cleak, namely, $400. At the June session the members would be better informed as to his duties and if they considered he should receive a larger salary he would be pleased to get it.

The Warden moved, seconded by Mr. Lancaster, that Mr. Haryett's salary be fixed at $400 a year.—Carried.

The motion of Mr. Kirk also prevailed, that Mr. Haryett receive $100 for the last quarter for 1902.

A communication was read asking that a typewriter be placed in the Registry office.

On motion no action was taken in the matter at present.

The following accounts were ordered to be paid;

Belleville Water Works Co....$	2.00
Frankford Electric Light Co .	17.50
E. T. Chefry	38.30
T. S. Carman	52.00
Intelligencer Co.	15.00
W. Alford	152.75
T. Hanley	48.00

A communication was read from Mr. J. Duffin, High County Constable, asking the Council to furnish him with a pair of shackles and also that his salary of $50 be increased to $200 per annum.

Mr. McFarlane said Mr. Duffin was an efficient officer of the County, and he should receive a salary commensurate with his duties.

Mr. P. P. Clark told of a case where Mr. Duffin had saved the County at least $10.

The Clerk said Mr. Duffin was a good constable, and had saved the County during the past year at least $200.

Dr. Faulkner stated that he would be willing to support an increase of $50 per year.

Mr. Denyes spoke in support of an increase to Mr. Duffin. He moved, seconded by Mr. Mallory, that the salary of Mr. Duffin be fixed at $100 per annum.

An amendment prevailed that the matter be left over until Saturday morning, and Mr. Duffin be requested to appear before the Council.

A lengthy discussion ensued as to making an extra grant of $100 to the Madoc Model School.

Mr. Clark spoke at some length in support of the extra grant being made, and made a motion to that effect.

Mr. Parker was decidedly opposed to making any extra grant, as already enough was paid to conduct the school properly.

Mr. McFarlane would not object to giving an extra amount if it was necessary for the advancement of the school, but he did not think it was necessary.

Dr. Faulkner believed in keeping up the schools of the County, but they were costing much money and if the Council could curtail any expenses they should certainly do so.

Mr. A. Nicholson said it was admitted that the Model School was a benefit to the County, and the grant should not be withheld.

Mr. Geo. Nicholson moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Thompson, that a special grant of $50 be made to the Madoc Model School.

The amendment prevailed.

On motion the Council went into Committee of the Whole on By-laws, Dr. Faulkner in the chair.

A by-law to borrow $42,000 from the Merchants Bank was read a second time.

A by-law to appoint one member of the Board of Audit was read a second time. Mr. W. R. Aylsworth was the appointee of the Council. Mr. A. Chard was appointed High School Trustee for Stirling High School; Mr. W. J. Moore was appointed High School Trustee for Madoc High School; Mr. T. H. Nasmith was appointed High School Trustee for Deseronto High School; Mr. John S. Dench was appointed High School Trustee for the Trenton High School.

A by-law to appoint a Board of Examiners to examine candidates for Public Schools was read a first time. The Board named was Messrs. J. J. Johnston, Wm. Macintosh and Fred E. Seymour.

The Committee rose and reported. The report was received and adopted.

Council adjourned until 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

SATURDAY MORNING SESSION.

Council resumed at 9 o'clock, Warden Douglas in the chair.

The Committee of the Whole on Ways and Means resumed. Mr. Hanley in the chair.

A number of accounts were presented and ordered to be paid.

Committee rose and reported. Reports received and adopted.

The Committee of the Whole on Roads and Bridges resumed, with Mr. Clark, chairman, presiding.

A lengthy discussion ensued in reference to assuming a piece of road leading out of Tweed village as a County gravel road, and also assuming a piece of road in Tyendinaga as a gravel road.

A motion prevailed that the matter be laid over until the June session.

The by-laws appointing High School Trustees, a Board of Examiners and a member of the Board of Audit for the Administration of Justice accounts were passed and numbered.

Council adjourned until the second Tuesday of June next.

The Other Half

Half the children in the world actually need Scott's Emulsion. The other half would be benefitted by it. A goodly portion of the latter half have already been helped by Scott's Emulsion. They have been made comfortable and well. They have been supplied with the element of fat that their bodies are constantly in need of. Scott's Emulsion has done even more for them; it has furnished nourishment which their ordinary food has not supplied.

The lack of proper nourishment in a child's food is responsible for its failure to thrive and grow as it should. So long as the important elements of nourishment are not contained in the child's food it will remain thin and lack the plumpness and glow of youth that marks the properly fed child.

What can be done for such children? Give them Scott's Emulsion. It is so palatable and acceptable that children like it. Cream of cod liver oil it could be called, for it resembles cream very closely. Moreover, being predigested, Scott's Emulsion enters the system quickly and with least tax upon the stomach. The delicate digestive organs of a backward child accept and retain Scott's Emulsion when other forms of nourishment are repulsive. It makes up the short-comings of a child's ordinary food and furnishes nourishment and fat in proper proportions and in the proper way.

So-called wines, cordials and extracts of cod liver oil should always be avoided. No matter what the claims may be, they do not contain the value of the whole oil, and hence are worthless in cases where a reliable cod liver oil preparation is necessary. Their sole purpose is to taste nice, and the use of alcohol and strong extracts makes them really harmful in many cases. Scott's Emulsion contains the whole oil carefully prepared, palatably presented, and is a safe and reliable preparation.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

SPORTING COMMENT.

The Port Hope Guide gives, all things considered, a very fair report of Monday night's game, of course from a Port Hope point of view. The few excerpts we give will be read with interest. The Guide says:

"The Ontarios were defeated fairly and squarely, they having only scored one goal to their opponents' four."

That is perfectly correct, and it is gratifying to see our contemporary admit the fact.

Those who saw the game, however, will be rather amused when they hear that the Port Hopers attribute their defeat to hard luck, because Winchester happened to be in the road when shots were made on the net. Belleville people thought "Winnie" played a star game. The visitors seem to think that he just happened to be in the road when the puck came that way. It's the old saying: "Very much depends on the point of view."

However, the series is ended, and, as we remarked before, it is gratifying to see that the Port Hopers are sportsmen and know how to take a defeat gracefully. All the talk about a protest is evidently nothing but wind. The Ontarios have no kick coming. They got a fair show and a fair beating. We doff our hats to them as worthy and skilful opponents, and next year we'll do our best to beat 'em again, in the meantime wishing them all sorts of good luck.

Toronto Telegram: "Ontario, Ontario." The cry grows faint in the distance and Jack Renwick's organ means a weird tune of mourning. Belleville, sleepy Belleville, did it, and the Ontarios are laid away for another season. 'Twas ever thus, the brave and the true get trimmed while some place "that never did amount to nothin' nohow" just steps out in front and gathers all the prunes. Just look how Cobourg acted in junior matters. And who ever heard of Cobourg except as a suburb where Port Hope used to sometimes borrow a rink."

Somebody must have given a large dose of the prunes to "Cully' Robertson, for he's certainly full of them.

HOCKEY.

Monday Night's Game as Seen Through Port Hope Spectacles.

Port Hope Guide: Last night Belleville put the Ontarios out of the championship running, not because the Port Hope boys were inferior players, but on account of hard luck. This expression, "hard luck" is oft times used after a match and many people are led to believe that it is just a mild way of getting out of defeat, but this is not the case this time. The Ontarios were defeated fairly and squarely, they only having scored one goal to their opponents four, but the score does not at all indicate the play. Time and time again would the Ontarios rush the puck down the ice, and when a goal seemed almost sure, they would strike the goal post or place it over the top. However all these things have to be put up with in hockey life and it is now up to Belleville to keep the good work going.

In the first half it was as pretty a game as one could wish to see. The checking was close and although some long lifting was indulged in by both defences, the game never lagged. Roache just struck the goal keeper with that puck about five times but in the net it would not go. In twelve minutes Belleville scored and so the first half ended.

At this stage of the game every Port Hoper in the building felt confident of victory for the Ontarios always play a better game in the second half.

After the ten minute rest the boys were at it again and you could see a look of determination in the face of every Ontario. Belleville started in fast and Roache relieved. An offside was made and from a face-off at the side Belleville scored again. Time 2 minutes.

Mercer stopped a hot one from McGuire and relieved nicely. McCarty sent in a likely looking one, but Winchester nailed it. This was followed by one from McMillan, but it struck Winchester. In a mix-up at the side Masterson, McGuire and Marks were given a rest. Roache was playing on the forward line and the Ontarios put in shot after shot and for several minutes the puck did not go below centre. McCarty shot, but Winchester was in the road. Masterson passed the rubber to Roache, he to Boney, who scored the first for Port Hope in 17 minutes. 2-1.

Belleville carried the puck down from the face off and shot, but Mercer cleared. Brown of Belleville, lifted high and it dropped in the net. Score 3-1.

McCarty made a nice run from centre but when he was going to shoot was tripped. Masterson was given a rest and Roache soon followed him. The Ontarios were then playing five to seven and McGuire scored another. Score 4-1.

There was only a few minutes left to play but the Ontarios never let up for a moment. When Referee Telfer announced full time the Belleville people jumped on the ice and congratulated their boys in a hearty manner and so ended one of the best and most exciting games of the season.

Belleville have a great team and should make a hard fight for the championship. Winchester stopped about twenty shots but he had all kinds of luck.

The game last night was a very hard one to referee, but Telfer was equal to the task. His rulings were at all times strict and impartial, both teams being well satisfied.

A Bouquet for Belleville.

An ex-Stratford man, an enthusiastic sport, writes to The Stratford Herald as follows, sizing up the situation in the intermediate series of the O.H.A.:

"I know the Peterboro team fairly well, and it takes a good team to beat them on their own ice. Belleville and Port Hope did this, and must each be strong, but imagine the former is the strongest, as I know every man in their line-up and there is not a weak spot in the bunch. If they beat Port Hope to-night I pick them to win the championship and you understand that I know the capabilities of Stratford and Paris like a book.

"Stratford is the fastest team, but have not the weight to go up against an evenly balanced team like Belleville, whose defence is a stone wall. Winchester, the old Dominion Bank goalkeeper, in goal; Wallace, Belleville's old point player, who is a second Guy Curtis of Queen's fame and the best man I have seen in his position; Brown, a very effective and close checker and tireless worker, at cover, and all heavy men. The forwards are all fellows a little heavier than Stratford and almost as fast and good shots on goal. Sandy Burrows, their rover, shoots a puck like McLurg of Woodstock, and can shoot in less time and harder.

"They seem to me the best balanced team of the group winners and should win the championship, and will be the toughest proposition Stratford will strike."

Kingston Still in the Ring.

Kingston Whig: The Morrisburg hockey team have notified the K.B.C. Ramblers that they have defaulted the last match of the O.H.A. intermediate series, eastern group, to the Kingston team. This means that Prescott having lost to Morrisburg, Prescott and the K.B.C. Ramblers tie in the round. In that event the local team will ask for a sudden death game in Kingston. The local team has travelled much further than any of the other teams in the group, and are entitled to this consideration from the O.H.A. Then, besides, the Kingston rink is the only one in this district that is of a fair size or properly lighted, and the only one on which a fair exhibition of the relative merits of the two teams could be shown.

SPORTING NOTES.

The employees of Chown & Co. and Marsh & Henthorne will this evening play a game at the rink

The No. 2 School team defeated the Britannias by a score of 5 to 2 at the rink last night.

The Winnipeg Victorias will make a profit, clear of expenses, of $1500 on their trip, even if they don't win the Stanley Cup.

Montreal's Eastern Baseball League franchise is to be transferred to Baltimore.

Referee Quinn has refused to act in to-night's game for the Stanley Cup.

SILICATE BRICK

Public Notice is given that I have acquired the exclusive right to manufacture and sell, within the Province of Ontario, Silicate Brick, made out of sand, lime and other materials, mixed and treated under the invention and process of O. Hugo Anderson, for which Letters Patent for Canada were granted on 10th December, 1901, under No. 74067. Companies have been formed at Montreal, Sydney and Ottawa, to operate under this Patent. The works at Sydney and Montreal will be turning out brick in February, and at Ottawa in April next.

I am prepared to sell rights under the above patent in Ontario and solicit correspondence.

Any person infringing these Patents Rights will be prosecuted. Address,

MEN'S WORKING COATS.

Made of heavy waterproof cloth, color, grey, double-breasted and warmly lined. These are just the thing for a working man. No coat ever invented will give as much wear for so little money. Thoroughly windproof and waterproof and will not catch or hold dirt. At the Oak Hall for $2.00.

COL. BIGGAR PRAISED

SPECIAL COURSE CONDUCTED BY HIM IN KINGSTON PLEASED ALL CONNECTED WITH IT.

Kingston Whig:—The special course for members of No. 3 company, Army Service Corps, conducted during the past month by Lieut.-Col. Biggar, terminated last evening, when those taking the course wrote on an examination on the subject of "Supplies." The papers were taken to Ottawa to-day by Col. Biggar, who will return them as soon as he has checked them over.

The course has been a profitable one to the members of the corps and those of other corps who attended. A vast amount of important information was imparted to those in attendance, and this will be found serviceable during future camps, and the troops will profit thereby. Col. Biggar was most painstaking at all times, and took a deep interest in each one attending the course, and one and all express the pleasure experienced in working under him. His lectures were well prepared, and all knowledge they contained of a technical character was carefully gone into, so that every one present was fully enlightened on the subject, and not allowed to remain groping in the dark.

Col. Biggar will open a course in Toronto for the instruction of the members there, and it is hoped he will meet with the same success as attended his visit here.

DREYFUS CASE MAY BE REOPENED

NEW DOCUMENT ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN DISCOVERED, WHICH EXCULPATES DREYFUS.

Paris, Feb. 3.—There is talk of a revival of the Dreyfus case in a manner aiming at the rehabilitation of the former prisoner of Devil's Island. The fact that the story emanates from the Liberte, a nationalist organ, its object apparently being to throw odium on the Government, prevents its ready acceptance, but the story is attracting considerable attention.

According to the Liberte, the Minister of War, by negotiating with a spy, has obtained a document constituting what is termed a new fact proving the innocence of Dreyfus. The matter will be brought before the Chamber of Deputies by M. Jaures, a Socialist, who intends to produce the document or a copy of it, and Gen. Andre, the Minister of War, will then declare it to be authentic.

A Successful Assembly

A successful assembly was held last evening in the Oddfellows' Hall, under the auspices of Belleville Lodge No. 81, I.O.O.F. A large number were in attendance and a very pleasant time was spent. The I.O.O.F. orchestra furnished the music.

A GOOD QUARTER DOLLAR'S WORTH

Is contained in a bottle of Polson's Nerviline, which cures rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, toothache, headache, cramps, sick stomach and indigestion. Mothers find Nerviline is first-class liniment for children's sore throat, hoarseness, cold in the chest, and taken in hot water before retiring is a splendid remedy for colds. Don't be without Nerviline; it is the most economical, potent and reliable household liniment made, and costs only 25c.

ORANGEMEN IN SESSION

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE COUNTY LODGE OF SOUTH HASTINGS.

The annual meeting of the County Orange Lodge of South Hastings was held yesterday (Feb. 3rd) afternoon in the Town of Trenton. About one hundred delegates, representing the different lodges of the County, were present. All reported the society in their respective localities full of vigor and strength. After the officers' report were received the lodge proceeded to elect officers for the year 1903, with the following result:

County Master—Bro. W. C. Reid, L.O.L. No. 274, Belleville.

County Deputy Master—Bro. Frank Jeffry, L.O.L. No. 206, Bayside.

County Chaplain—Bro. Rev. J. C. Ash, L.O.L. No. 274, Belleville.

County Secretary—Bro. Robt. Dufflin, L.O.L. No. 274, Belleville.

County Treasurer — Bro. F. M. Clarke, L.O.L. No. 274, Belleville.

County D. of C.—Bro. J. Donaldson, L.O.L. No. 206, Trenton.

County Lecturer—Bro. J. Brant, L.O.L. No. 99, Deseronto.

County Deputy Lecturers—Bro. C. Bonisteel, L.O.L. No. 206, Trenton; Bro. J. H. Farrell, L.O.L. No. 3, Wallbridge.

It was decided to hold the next annual meeting in the City of Belleville on the 1st Tuesday in February, 1904.

Each District Lodge in the County has the privilege to celebrate the coming 12th of July as they choose.

THAT OLD PAIN AGAIN

GNAWING, PIERCING PAINS THAT ALMOST MAKE YOU SCREAM.

It is your old enemy, rheumatism, come again with the winter to torture you. These pains, remember, are caused by bad blood, you may ease them by rubbing with liniments and outward lotions, but cannot get rid of them in that way. Rheumatism is caused by bad blood and the only certain way to drive it out of the system is to enrich your blood by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. There is no case of rheumatism Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not cure if given a fair trial. By making new, rich, red blood and strengthening the nerves they strike at the very root of such diseases as rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago. We give one case out of thousands to prove the truth of this statement. Mr. A. G. Lacombe, Sorel, Que., says: "For five years I was a victim to the tortures of rheumatism. At times the pains in my knees, shoulders and hips were almost past endurance. Often I could not dress myself without assistance. I tried many remedies, but I never got more than temporary relief until I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I used altogether eight boxes, and since taking them I have not had a twinge of the trouble, and I feel better in every way than I did for years before. I would strongly advise every rheumatic sufferer to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial." Remember that only the genuine pills will cure—imitations can't cure, therefore see that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is found on the wrapper around every box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent post paid at 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE ICY SIDEWALK

CAUSED MR. WILLIAM PENNY TO BREAK HIS LEG THIS MORNING.

The icy sidewalks this morning were responsible for at least one accident. Mr. Wm. Penny, sr., who resides north of the G.T.R. station, fell and sustained a fracture of the right leg. Owing to the sufferer's advanced years, he will be laid up for some time.

Gone to Ottawa

The civic deputation composed of Mayor Graham, Aldermen Pope, Sinclair and Chown left last evening for Ottawa. Col. Halliwell and other officers of the Fifteenth Regiment also went to the Capital. The object of their visit is to interview the Government in relation to building a new drill shed.

Cases in the Justice Shop

Vagrancy.

Andrew Culbertson, a burly member of the Mohawk tribe, yesterday visited the city and as usual imbibed too freely of fire water. At an early hour this morning he was found by two policemen, lying under a shed, and was taken to the police station. The Magistrate stated that Andrew's absence was more desirable than his company, and he was given two hours to leave the city or in default six months in the Central Prison. He promised to leave town.

Jas. Crysdale was similarly charged, and as his reputation is not of a savory nature the Magistrate gave him a suspended sentence of four months in the Central, and he had but one hour to get out of the city.

Drunk and Disorderly.

James Nicholson, who has been charged upon several occasions with drunkenness, was arrested last night whilst acting in a disorderly manner. Such conduct, the Magistrate stated, could not and would not be tolerated. He was fined $5, or in default 60 days in jail.

TROUSERS FOR MEN.

This is the time of year when you wonder if a new pair of Trousers will help you to finish the service of that good coat and vest. Generally speaking they will, and from Quick & Robertson's stock you can easily select a pair that will please and wear splendidly, they come in dark stripes, checks, mixtures and solid colors, worsteds and tweeds, ready to get into, priced from $1.00 to $4.00. See our leaders at $1.00, $1.50, and $2.00.

Count Von Buelow's Statement in the Reichstag.

Berlin, Feb. 4.—The German Government has decided to readmit the Jesuits, who since July, 1872, have been excluded from Germany. Chancellor Von Buelow in the Reichstag said he would use his influence to instruct the Prussian members of the Bundesrath to support the repeal of the anti-Jesuit law so far as to permit individual German and foreign Jesuits to reside in Germany, but not to allow the founding of Jesuit chapters, which, the Chancellor believed, the confederated Governments would not accept. The Chancellor's announcement caused a sensation.

It was reported early in December last that the Government had promised the leaders of the Centre party that it would no longer oppose the readmission of the Jesuits, provided that party supported the Government's tariff bill. The majority of the Reichstag undoubtedly will support the readmission when the Bundesrath submits the necessary bill.

FOR PERSONATION.

Three Men Sentenced Yesterday at St. Thomas.

St. Thomas, Feb. 4.—His Honor Judge Bell of Chatham has pronounced sentence in the three cases of personation and ballot-stuffing committed here on December 4th in the referendum campaign. Robert Foster, for impersonation, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the common jail, without hard labor, and a fine of $400. Henry Branton and William Walsh were each sentenced to a year's imprisonment for attempted ballot-stuffing. None of the men are in the city.

SETTLEMENT ASSURED.

Venezuelan Trouble Will Soon be Adjusted.

Washington, Feb. 4.—There are as yet no advices from the allied Governments respecting the nature of the next proposal they will submit to Mr. Bowen, Venezuela's representative, for a settlement of their claims, but there is good authority for the statement that the note of Mr. Bowen, addressed to the British Ambassador, will result in an adjustment of the trouble. At the British Embassy the most important conference that the representatives of the allies here have yet held among themselves took place. The conference was called to consider the recommendations which the Italian and British Ambassadors and the German Minister should make, to their Governments as to the next step to be taken. As a result of this conference the Foreign Offices at London, Berlin and Rome are in possession of suggestions which, if adopted, will mean the success of the negotiations and the raising of the blockade. The allied powers have been again requested by their representatives to consent to a priority of the payment of their claims for a limited period only, and equality of all claimant nations thereafter. Mr. Bowen has stated that he is willing that the allies receive preferential treatment for one month, if at the end of that time all the claimant nations be placed on an equal basis as to the proportionate payments.

PERSONATION INQUIRY.

Chancellor Boyd Considering the Nomination of a Judge.

Toronto, Feb. 4.—Chancellor Boyd has now before him the application of Crown Attorney Dewart for the nomination of a Judge to hear the charges in nine cases of personation arising out of the vote on the liquor act on December 4th. The application was made to the Chancellor at Osgoode Hall yesterday, and judgment was reserved.

Baby Farmers Hanged.

London, Feb. 4.—Amelia Sach and Annie Walters, "baby farmers," who were convicted of many infant murders, were hanged at Holloway Jail yesterday. The women were recommended to mercy on account of their sex, but the Home Secretary was unable to grant the reprieve usually accorded. The women walked to the scaffold unaided and displayed remarkable fortitude. No woman had previously been hanged in England since March, 1900.

TO RENEW THE SERVICE.

Hamburg-American Liners For the St. Lawrence.

London, Feb. 4.—The German Frankfurter Zeitung publishes the statement that the Hamburg-American Steamship Company proposes this year to again run its service of passenger steamers to Quebec and Montreal. In consequence of accidents on the St. Lawrence route, especially in the case of the Arabia and Arcadia, the company withdrew from the Canadian passenger traffic five years ago.

Another Splendid Gift.

Calcutta, Feb. 3.—Henry Phipps, a director of the Carnegie Steel Company, who is travelling in this country, has given Lady Curzon of Kedleston, wife of the Viceroy, the sum of $10,000 in support of her Victoria memorial midwifery fund.

A Social Revolution.

Barcelona, Feb. 4.—A meeting of representatives of 23 trades yesterday voted in favor of a general strike in support of the strikers at Reus. Violent speeches were made urging the workmen to be in readiness to destroy authority, pillage and launch a social revolution. The authorities are preparing for trouble.

Relief For Malcolm Island.

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 3.—At last evening's meeting of the City Council Mayor Neelands was authorized to procure any aid necessary to relieve the distress at the Finn colony on Malcolm Island, where in a fire on Thursday night eleven persons perished and seventeen were injured.

POISON-PAINS

Rheumatism is really a poison in the blood, and where there is poison there's disaster in a lesser or greater degree—but there's a cure.

South American Rheumatic Cure neutralizes the acid poison in the blood in a few hours, and hence relieves at once—the complete cure is effected a little more slowly, but surely. When the disease is of only a few years standing, not more than one to three days' time is required to effect a complete cure. When it has been present in the system for 10 or 15 years the acid poison has permeated the flesh and often the marrow of the bones. In such cases, relief is obtained at once, but a cure cannot be secured under two or three weeks. 9a

Conspiring to Lessen Competition in the Coal Business—President Elliott's Letters to the T., H. & B. Management—Agreement as to a Contract.

Brantford, Feb. 5.—Thomas Elliott, the President, and other members of the Executive of the Ontario Coal Dealers' Association were committed for trial by Magistrate Woodyatt this morning on a charge of conspiracy to lessen the competition in the purchase and sale of coal.

The most important evidence submitted at the preliminary hearing was heard yesterday. Mr. W. Widdup, a local coal dealer, who has been a member of the Brantford Coal Company, and who is also a member of the Ontario Association, took up a good deal of time before Crown Attorney Wilkes succeeded in getting him to admit that at a meeting of local dealers held last fall it was arranged that in connection with the supply of coal for the John H. Stratford Hospital the tenders of the other dealers should be higher than his, and that he would, of course, get the contract.

Copies of letters sent by Mr. Elliott to Mr. E. Fisher, General Manager of the T., H. & B. Railway, were read to the court, and they were very interesting. Mr. Elliott complained that the railway company had diverted a car of coal, sold from Hamilton and supposed to be shipped to Dundas, to Brantford, and that they had sold it to the Waterous Engine Works Co. He asked for an explanation of this. Mr. Fisher's reply was to the effect that he was not in the habit of discussing matters that had a direct bearing on the interests of his patrons, but that the circumstances in this connection were so plain that he did not object to explaining them. He had been telephoned to by the Waterous Company, had been told that there was a great scarcity of coal in Brantford, and had been asked if he could not secure a car or two. He had more than he needed, and therefore sent one car to the company. Mr. Elliott replied to this letter by saying that the company could get all the coal it needed from local dealers, and that he did not consider it fair that the railway company should enter into competition with the regular dealers. Mr. Fisher answered that he had no intention of injuring anyone, but he thought that his action was perfectly justifiable. Mr. Elliott again wrote, suggesting that the railway company's explanation would be more satisfactory if it refused to fill any other such orders. The letters were signed by Thos. Elliott, as President of the Ontario Coal Dealers' Association, and one of them stated that as an officer of that association it was his duty to trace all shipments of coal made.

THEY WANT A COMMISSION.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF SHIPPERS AND BUSINESS MEN.

Will Appoint Representatives to Form a Deputation to Wait on the Government May Ask for a Disinterested Tribunal to Deal With Freight Rates.

Toronto, Feb. 5.—An important meeting of shippers and business men was held Wednesday in the Temple for the purpose of strengthening the agitation for a railway commission. It was called by the Farmers' Institute at the instance of Mr. W. L. Smith, and was well attended. An arrangement has been made with the Dominion Government to hear a deputation next Wednesday. The following gentlemen were present last night:—Representing the Board of Trade, Hugh Blain, Peleg Howland, Noel Marshall and Frank G. Morley; the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, J. O. Thorn and R. J. Younge; the Farmers' Institute, C. A. Mallory of Cobourg, J. L. Wilson of Alexandria, J. F. Bean of Black Creek, W. K. MacLeod of Vanneck, and L. E. Annis of Scarboro'; the Cattle Dealers' Association, John Dunn, Thos. Crawford, M.P.P., and Frank Hunnisett; the Fruit Growers' Association, W. H. Bunting of St. Catharines, Harry Dawson of Toronto, D. J. Mackinnon of Grimsby, and D. D. Wilson of Seaforth; the Grangers, Jabel Robinson, M. P., of West Elgin, Harry Grose of Lefroy, and George E. Fisher of Burlington. Mr. W. D. Gregory was also present. Mr. Annis acted as Chairman.

The meeting began with an explanation of its object by Mr. Smith. The Farmers' Institute had passed a resolution in favor of a railway commission, and they invited joint action in an effort to effect that end.

Mr. Thorn and Mr. Younge in behalf of the Manufacturers' Association promised every possible assistance in the movement.

The Farmers' Institute on the deputation will be represented by Mr. Annis and Mr. J. L. Wilson. The Secretaries of the Board of Trade and Manufacturers' Association and Mr. W. L. Smith will prepare a formal statement.

THE RIGHT THING

A NEW CATARRH CURE, WHICH IS RAPIDLY COMING TO THE FRONT

For several years, Red Gum, Blood root and Hydrastin have been recognized as standard remedies for catarrhal troubles, but they have always been given separately and only very recently an ingenious chemist succeeded in combining them, together with other antiseptics into a pleasant, effective tablet.

Druggists sell the remedy under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and it has met with remarkable success in the cure of nasal catarrh, bronchial and throat catarrh and in catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N.Y., says; "When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50 cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I am glad to say that they have done wonders for me and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing.

Mr. Geo J. Casanova of hotel Griffon, West 9th St., New York City, writes: "I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they have given me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried."

A leading physician of Pittsburg advises the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in preference to any other treatment for Catarrh of head, and throat or stomach.

He claims they are far superior to inhalers, salves, lotions or powder, and are much more convenient and pleasant to take and are so harmless that little children take them with benefit as they contain no opiate, cocaine or any poisonous drug.

THE FATHER ARRESTED.

PECULIAR DEATH OF A COLLINGWOOD INFANT.

A. H. Clarke, the Father, Thought It Had Eaten Poisoned Cheese—The Mother Gave It Beer that Made It Sick.

Collingwood, Feb. 5.—A small child of Mr. A. H. Clarke, which was insured for a small amount, died under peculiar circumstances. The doctor who was called to the house by the father found the child cold in death and came to the conclusion that the death had been caused by a convulsion of some kind. The father of the child stated to the doctor that he had placed strychnine on cheese to kill rats and that the child had eaten the cheese and also that he had insured the child's life. The circumstances aroused the suspicions of the doctor, who thereupon performed a post-mortem examination and found cheese in the stomach of the child as stated by the father. The mother of the child stated that she had given the child some beer from a glass from which she had drunk and which had made her deathly sick. The circumstances led to a Coroner's inquest this evening at which the above facts were brought out. Clarke was arrested during the proceedings and is held awaiting further developments. Mr. Aubrey A. Bond has been retained to defend the prisoner. The inquest was adjourned until Monday, when Crown Attorney Cotter will take charge of the proceedings.

PRETENDER CAPTURED.

The Rising in Morocco is Now at an End.

Paris, Feb. 5.—A despatch from Tangier says a special courier from Fez has brought a renewed report that the pretender to the throne, Bu Hamara, has been captured.

While pursuing the pretender's forces the Sultan's cavalry was attacked by the Kiata tribesmen, but the other troops of El Monobhi, the War Minister, came up in time to participate, in the fighting, and the result was another victory for the Imperial army, with heavy losses on both sides. The remainder of Bu Hamara's followers are reported to have been captured.

TROUBLE IN HONDURAS.

Bonill Has Proclaimed Himself President.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The State Department has been advised that M. Sierra has turned over the Presidency of Honduras to a Council of Ministers, and that Bonilla, who claims to have been elected to the Presidential office, has proclaimed himself President at Amapala.

Mare Island Navy Yard, Cal., Feb. 5.—Rush orders have been received from Washington ordering all work now on vessels in the navy yard to be completed with the greatest possible despatch. In view of this order, an extra force of men will be employed at once, and a night force was inaugurated last night to complete the repairs on the United States Steamship Bennington, which is practically ready for service. Several other vessels can be made ready for sea within a short time. Large quantities of stores were shipped to San Francisco to-day, to be transferred to the Boston, New York and Ranger, now lying at anchor in the harbor.

It is expected that the trouble brewing in Honduras is the only reason for the animation now being shown at the navy yards.

MURDERED IN PRISON.

Negro Cuts off the Head of His Cell Mate.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—For the third time in the history of Eastern Penitentiary that institution was yesterday the scene of a most brutal murder. The victim was Jas. Pratt, a negro, who was serving a sentence of twenty years for burglary. The crime was perpetrated by Cornelius Bush, also black, sentenced to two years' imprisonment for assault and battery. The murder resulted from a religious quarrel and was discovered by J. D. Smith, an overseer. The negroes were cellmates. Smith found only Bush in the cell. On investigating he discovered the decapitated body of Pratt wrapped in blankets and sheets lying in a corner. On a small table the head of the murdered man was found tied up in an old shirt. Bush was placed under guard in another cell and the Coroner summoned. To him Bush told the details of the crime. He said Pratt and himself had quarrelled during the night about religious matters. Finally Pratt lay down on his bunk, and after he had fallen asleep Bush crushed his skull with a stool. Then, with a knife that both had used at meal times, he severed his victim's head. After wrapping up the head and body Bush retired and slept soundly until nearly 7 o'clock in the morning.

Eighteen years ago Keeper Doran was killed by an inmate named Taylor, and about eight years ago Keeper Jas. Bloomer was stabbed to death by an insane prisoner.

THE CHOLERA EPIDEMIC.

Over Eighty Thousand Deaths in Philippines.

Manila, Feb. 5.—The United States quarantine officials have declared Manila to be free from cholera, thus ending the quarantine, which has lasted nearly a year. Although the disease has disappeared from Manila, it is still epidemic in parts of the islands. The total of the reported cases since the outbreak is 130,363, with 82,955 deaths. The actual number is probably 20 per cent. more.

ELECTION PROTESTS.

Conservative Petitions Filed in North Perth and North Norfolk.

Stratford, Feb. 5.—A petition was filed with Mr. W. C. Moscrip, Clerk of the High Court, here yesterday, protesting the election of Mr. John Brown as member of the Legislature for North Perth. The petitioner is Mr. John C. Monteith, the defeated candidate, and his solicitors are Messrs. Smith & Steele. The petition charges bribery both on the part of Mr. Brown and his agents—in fact, breaches of all the sections of the election act, and the prayer is for the declartion of the election as null and void, and the disqualification of Mr. Brown. The bill of particulars has, of course, not been filed, as this is not called for until fourteen days previous to the date fixed by the trial Judges

Simcoe, Feb. 5.—(Special.)—Mr. Eric Armour of Toronto filed a petition against the return of Mr. A. H. Little, M.P.P., on behalf of the Conservatives

PERSONATION AND BALLOT BOX STUFFING.

The Toronto Globe has at last wakened up to the fact that ballot-box stuffing and personation, or what is called in Montreal, "telegraphing," are crimes which should no longer go unpunished.

The fact has only dawned upon it, when the exposing and punishing of the criminal will not affect the Ross Government. The infamies perpetrated in West Huron, West Elgin, North Waterloo, Brockville, North Grey and the purchasing of evidence to unseat the M.P.P. for South Oxford, found no condemnation in this organ of the Ross-Laurier party, but now that capital is to be made out of punishing the personators and committers of other crimes at the referendum election, The Globe has become politically virtuous to a degree that has taken its readers by surprise.

The punishing of these evil doers will be popular with the prohibitionists, with whom Ross has lost to a certain degree, caste, hence a commission has been appointed to find out what wrong has been done. The reason for the Globe's new departure is so transparent that it will humbug no one, though it will give the organ of the party that has been kept in power, by just such means as it now condemns, an opportunity of boasting of what it did to punish the criminals.

Sentiments such as are contained in the following editorial article, which we assure our readers, however much they doubt it, is clipped from The Toronto Globe, will be approved by every honest man in Canada. Our readers may be astonished on reading it coming as it does from that source, but they will, nevertheless, approve the advice given and hope that it may be acted upon. Here is what it says:

> "A commission ought to be appointed at once to make most searching inquiry into the charges of personation and other offences in connection with the referendum vote. The department of justice must take this matter seriously. Offences of so flagrant a character, so insulting to the majesty of the law, cannot be lightly treated without damaging public morality beyond repair. It is known, not to the Government alone, but to the whole country, that these crimes have been committed and that reputable citizens stand ready to prove that the criminality was widespread. How can respect be maintained for our institutions of justice if the officers of justice give no heed? To call it an isolated case, and, therefore, of no account, is to trifle with a serious question. Besides, it is not isolated. Personation and bribery are the curse of our political life. They have debased the electorate. Unless action is taken soon, a generation will grow up with Tammany ideas of politics. An occasion is now provided, such as rarely comes in a political contest, in which the Crown can act without the hampering of party considerations. Leniency is excluded when the sacredest interests are at stake, and to wink at offence is to join with the offender. Let the strongest commission be given the fullest powers, so that the ends of justice and public morality may be served.

The investigation which has been going on, and the cases of personation which have been tried in the courts, have resulted in heavy money penalties and imprisonment, ranging from six months to twelve months. It is to be hoped that this will put a stop to these practices, not only at referendum, but also at Parliamentary elections.

SPORTING COMMENT.

There's rather a queer state of affairs in Port Hope. Commenting on Monday night's game, The Guide said "Belleville won fair and square," and now it seems that the so-called sportsmen who compose the Hockey club have protested the match, on the ground that Belleville played with undue roughness, and allowed their manager and trainer to go on the ice and strike and intimidate a Port Hope player. They also allege that Marks, one of the Belleville players, is a professional, having been a member, last summer, of the Pony Baseball club, of Kingston. The latter charge, a private letter from Kingston says, will be easily disproved, for Manager Sutherland, of the Ponies, claims that that club is, and always has been, an amateur organization. Marks, it appears, worked on the Kingston Street Railway last summer, and did play a few games with the Ponies, but claims that he received no pay therefor, and the Kingston officials corroborate him. This would appear to pretty conclusively settle the Marks charge.

As regards the charge that the Belleville manager and trainer went on the ice in order to strike and intimidate a Port Hope player, it may be pointed out that the trainer went on the ice the first time to carry off Marks, after the latter had been rendered insensible by having his head (so it is alleged) dashed twice on the ice by a Port Hope player, he being held by the throat at the same time. Probably when the trainer ran on the ice the second time it was to see that the alleged outrage was not repeated. All Manager Burrell did, when he jumped the fence in the last half, was to order a spectator off the ice and order his own men to break away from the mix-up and play hockey.

The action of the Port Hope men in protesting a game in which they were fairly and squarely beaten looks very much like the baby act. They went down before a better team, after trying their level best to win. We doubt if any unprejudiced spectator can be found who will give as his opinion that any actions of Belleville people affected the final result, except, of course, that the boys played better hockey. These tin-horn protest methods are wearisome, and help to kill many a grand game. However, when the Executive of the O.H.A. hear Belleville's side of the question it is altogether likely that they will dismiss the protest. If they do not, why, the boys will simply have to trim the Ontarios again, and they can do it, on any ice and at any time.

Since the above was put in type we learn that the secretary of the Port Hope club has advised his club to drop the protest proceedings, and has given Manager Burrell a letter pledging the club to that action, in consideration that all the documents and affidavits bearing on the case be returned to him. It is to be hoped that the Port Hope people have come to their senses and that no more may be heard of the matter.

The Stanley Cup, it seems, is not going west again, not just yet. The "Little Men of Iron" outplayed the lads from the Woolly West last night, and the much-coveted mug will stay in Montreal. However, the Vics made a gallant fight for the trophy, and if they didn't lift it they certainly jarred it.

HOCKEY.

Boilers Beat Tinkers in a Fierce Game.

A hockey match took place at the rink last evening, which provided considerable amusement to the goodly number of spectators in attendance. The teams playing represented the W. W. Chown Co. and Marsh & Henthorne's establishment. It was a well-contested match, both sides working hard to secure the victory. The foundrymen proved to be winners by a score of 7 to 3. At the conclusion of the first half the score was 3 to 2 in favor of the Ironworkers, and the tinsmiths worked hard in the second half to land a victory but were unable to do so. At times the game waxed warm, and many of the players measured their lengths on the ice. The referee, Mr. Wm. Huff, was kept busy watching for off sides, but he was unable to detect all of them, although he found a number. His decisions were such that players and spectators alike seemed perfectly satisfied. The teams and their positions were as follows:

Montreal Keeps the Cup.

Montreal, Feb. 4.—The fourth and final match between the Victorias of Winnipeg and the Montrealers for the Stanley Cup was played here to-night in the Arena Rink. The match was played on perfect ice, with both teams in splendid condition. In to-night's match Smith had Blatchford's place in centre, and Bellingham was able to occupy his old place at point. These men materially strengthened the Montreal team. Winnipeg Victorias' team was the same that have played throughout the present series, with the exception that Dan Flett replaced Capt. Cadham at centre during the last 15 minutes, Cadham having become disabled from a cut in the instep. Play started at 8.35 p.m.

Victorias opened the ball with brilliant work by their home and for several minutes they had the Montrealers on the defensive. Boon, Bellingham and Nicholson were equal to the emergency, however, and cleverly repelled each attack. They had many close calls. Victorias had decidedly the best of it, however, and their sympathizers were jubilant. Their team work was of a high order, while Montrealers failed to cover up. This state of affairs lasted for 15 minutes of the first half, when the Montrealers rallied and began to do more effective work on their forward line, and from this on until the gong sounded for half-time, the Montrealers put up a grand game. Truly their combinations were broken up every time by the redoubtable Fletts, but their superiority in stick-handling and their fine shooting resulted in 3 goals to 1 in their favor in the first half.

The second half opened up with fast and furious play, and it was nip and tuck for the first five minutes. It looked as if the hardy westerners would give a better account of themselves than they did in the first half. Hard checking was the feature and men measured their length on the ice every few seconds. Then the play lagged and a series of long lifts from Mag. Flett to Boon and back again went on for a brief spell. Then the Montrealers pulled themselves together and played the Victorias off their feet, and whenever the puck came in their territory they quickly returned. Montreal's defence was impregnable and the Fletts on Victorias' defence saved their goal many a time. It was 26 minutes of the second half before another goal was taken and this went to Montreal's credit, making the score 4 to 1 in their favor. From this out Montreal kept the visitors at bay and no more goals were scored. Chauncey Kirby, of Ottawa, made a very efficient referee.

Thought Crough Was Unsociable.

Toronto Star: The St. Georges had a good laugh at the expense of their manager, "Teddy" Bonnell, at Peterboro on Saturday night.

Mr. Bonnell was goal umpire behind the Peterboro net, and all through the first half endeavored to work up a conversation with Crough, the local goal-keeper. Every time there was a delay or a face-off at the other end the Toronto man would make some pleasant remark to the goal-keeper, but that individual did not pay the slightest attention to him.

At half-time the St. Georges' manager went into the dressing-room in a huff.

"I'll be blowed," he remarked to the team, "if that Peterboro goal-keeper isn't the most unsociable person I ever met. I talked to him all night and he never said a word in reply or even let on he heard me."

Jack Hynes exploded with laughter.

"Why should he?" he asked. "That fellow, Crough's a deaf-mute."

And the manager went outside and kicked himself three times by actual count.

EUROPEAN WAR MAY SOON COME

RUSSIA AND AUSTRIA ARE MASSING TROOPS ON THE FRONTIER —TURKEY THE BONE OF CONTENTION.

London, Feb. 5.—The probability of the maintenance of peace in Europe beyond the next few weeks is less, considerably less, than the probability of war.

It is now well-known that an extensive rising has been planned in Macedonia, the Sultan's atrocious misgovernment of that unhappy country having aroused both the Christian and Ottoman population to revolt. If the conflagration once starts no living man can tell where it will end. The immediate result will probably be the loss to the Sultan of his throne. In the meantime both Russia and Austria are massing troops on the frontier for a campaign which they consider inevitable in the early spring.

The Sultan himself is by no means idle. He is preparing to put down in his usual savage fashion any rebellion in his dominions. There is no doubt of the result, however. If, while struggling with the revolting provinces, Abdul Hamid is confronted by the troops of Russia and Austria, the Turk will at last be driven out of Europe.

But what will be the effect of a Russian seizure of Constantinople? A few years ago it would have been the signal for a general European war. This is less probable to-day, but to quote the Times, a wise man will not pretend to forecast the limits and issues of the questions which would be opened up. Great Britain might now content herself with full sovereignty in Egypt and the Nile Valley. All the powers would strenuously oppose her further aggrandisement, but what about the demands Germany and France would certainly make for a share in the Turk's spoliation?

BY MARY J. HOLMES,

"Poor Morris," she kept repeating, while little throbs of pleasure went dancing through her veins, and the world was not half so dreary for knowing he had loved her. Towards Wilford, too, her heart went out in a fresh gush of tenderness, for she knew how one of his jealous nature must have suffered.

And all that day she was thinking of him, and how pleasantly she would meet him when he came home at night, and how she would try to win him from the dark silent mood now so habitual to him. More than usual pains she took with her toilet, arranging her bright hair in the long glossy curls, which she knew he used to admire, and making sundry little changes in her black dress. Excitement had brought a faint flush to her cheeks, and she was conscious of a feeling of gratification that for the first time in months she was looking like her former self. Slowly the minutes crept on, and the silver-toned clock in the dining room said it was time for Wilford to come; then the night shadows gathered in the rooms, and the gas was lighted in the hall and in the parlor, where Katy's face was pressed against the window pane, and Katy's eyes peered anxiously out into the darkening streets, but saw no one alighting at their door. Wilford did not come. Neither six, nor seven, nor eight brought him home, and Katy sat down alone to her dinner, which, save the soup and coffee, was removed untasted. She could not eat with the terrible dread at her heart that this protracted absence portended something more than common. Ten, eleven, and twelve struck from a distant tower. He had staid out as late as that frequently, but rarely later, and Katy listened again for him, until the clock struck one, and she grew sick with fear and apprehension. It was a long, long wretched night, but morning came at last, and at an early hour Katy drove down to Wilford's office, finding no one there besides Tom Tubbs and Mills, the other clerk. Katy could not conceal her agitation, and her face was very white as she asked what time Mr. Cameron left the office the previous day.

If Katy had one subject more loyal than another it was young Tom Tubbs, whose boyish blood had often boiled with rage at the cool manner with which Wilford treated his wife, when, as she sometimes did, she came into the office. Tom worshiped Katy Cameron, who in his whispered confidences to Mattie, was an angel, while Wilford was accused of being an overbearing tyrant, whom Tom would like to thrash. He saw at once that something unusual was troubling her, and hastening to bring her a chair, told her that Mr. Cameron left the office about four o'clock; that he had spent the most of the day in his private office writing and looking over papers; that he had given his clerks so many directions with regard to certain matters, that Mills had remarked upon it, saying: "It would seem as if he did not expect to be here to see to it himself," and this was all Katy could learn, but it was enough to increase the growing terror at her heart, and dropping her veil, she went out to her carriage, followed by Tom, who adjusted the gay robe across her lap, and then looked wistfully after her as she drove up Broadway.

"To father Cameron's," she said to the driver, who turned his horses towards Fifth Avenue, where, just coming down the steps of his own house, they met the elder Cameron.

Katy would rather see him first alone, and motioning him to her side she whispered: "Oh, father is Wilford here?"

"Wilford be ——;" the old man did not say what, for the expression of Katy's face startled him.

That there was something wrong, and father Cameron knew it, was Katy's conviction, and she gasped out:

"Tell me the worst. Is Wilford dead?"

Father Cameron was in the carriage by this time, and riding towards Madison Square, for he did not care to introduce Katy into his household which, just at present, presented a scene of dire confusion and dismay, occasioned by a note received from Wilford to the intent that he had left New York, and did not know when he should return.

"Katy can tell you why I go," he added, and father Cameron was going to Katy when she met him at his door.

To Katy's repeated question: "Is he dead?" he answered: "Worse than that, I fear. He has left the city, and no one knows for what, unless you do. From something he wrote, my wife is led to suppose there was trouble between you two. Was there?" and father Cameron's gray eyes rested earnestly on the white, frightened face which looked up so quickly as Katy gasped:

"There has been trouble—that is, he has not appeared quite the same since——"

She was interrupted by the carriage stopping before her door; but when they were in the parlor, father Cameron said:

"Go on now. Wilford has not been the same since when?"

"Since baby died. I think he blamed me as the cause of its death."

"Don't babies die every day?" father Cameron growled, while Katy, without considering that he had never heard of Genevra, continued:

"And then it was worse after I found out about Genevra, his first wife."

"Genevra! Genevra, Wilford's first wife! Thunder and lightning! what are you talking about?" and father Cameron bent down to look into Katy's face, thinking she was going mad.

But Katy was not mad, and knowing it was now too late to retract, she told the story of Genevra Lambert to the old man, who, utterly confounded, stalked up and down the room, kicking away chairs and footstools, and whatever came in his way, and swearing promiscuously at his wife and Wilford, whom he pronounced a precious pair of fools, with a dreadful adjective appended to the fools, and an emphasis in his voice which showed he meant what he said.

"It's all accounted for now," he said; "the piles of money that boy had abroad, his privacy with his mother, and all the other tomfoolery I could not understand. Katy," and pausing in his walk, Mr. Cameron came close to his daughter-in-law, who was lying with her face upon the sofa. "Katy, be glad your baby died. Had it lived it might have proved a curse, just as mine have done—not all, for Bell, though fiery as a pepperpod has some heart, some sense—and there was Jack, my oldest boy, a little fast, it's true, but when he died over the sea, I forgave all that, and forgot the chair he broke over a tutor's head, and the scrapes for which I paid as high as a thousand at one time. He sowed his wild oats, and died before he could reap them—died a good man, I believe, and went to Heaven. Juno you know, and you can judge whether she is such as would delight a parent's heart; while Wilford, my only boy, to deceive me so; I knew he was a fool in some things, but I did trust Wilford."

The old man's voice shook now, and Katy felt his tears dropping on her hair as he stooped over her. Checking them, however, he said:

"And he was cross because you found him out. Was there no other reason?"

Katy thought of Dr. Morris, but she could not tell of that, and so she answered:

WHEN OTHERS FAIL WE CURE CANCER

THE NEW CONSTITUTIONAL REMEDY EFFECTUAL AFTER OTHER FORMS OF TREATMENT HAVE PROVED OF NO AVAIL.

The statement made above may be considered a bold one, but the record of cures of cases we possess establishes the accuracy of it beyond all question.

Our New Constitutional Treatment has cured cases after surgical operation has failed—has eradicated the disease, root and branch after it had come back when drawn out by plasters. Could any test of the curative action of a remedy be more conclusive?

Full particulars of many cases illustrative of these statements are to be found in our book "Cancer, Its Cause and Cure," which will be sent to any one on receipt of two stamps. B. I. Stott & Jury, Bowmanville, Ont.

TIMELY TOPICS

Dr. Parkhurst, of New York, says he has an unlimited supply of money with which to place an "ideal" newspaper before the public. This may be another case of, as Mr. Dooley says, "Lading a man to the university, and then failing to make him think." The "ideal" newspaper, as published by Dr. Parkhurst, might print many copies, but it might not be able to give them away. To make the "ideal" newspaper a success it must have an ideal set of readers, and they, we fear, live nearer the Kingdom of Heaven than the City of New York.

Of course, popular ideas of an ideal newspaper may differ. To the publisher, an ideal newspaper will be one which the public buy eagerly and talk about afterwards; to the politician the ideal newspaper is one which supports his party, smoothes over his supporters' speeches for him and generally helps him to gain a position which otherwise he might never have attained, even though he sometimes forgets to come round with his thanks afterwards; to the preacher the ideal newspaper is one which thinks as he does, and refers to [illegible] every other week or so as a brilliant pulpit orator, who, if Demosthenes were on this earth again, would make that old specifier look like a Belleville incandescent street lamp; to the average reader, however, the ideal newspaper is one which tells him what he wants to know, and tells it to him straight, in language which he can understand without looking up a dictionary. And the average man is the fellow the newspapers cater to and will keep on catering to, for out of his pockets come their bread and butter. The average man loves a little bit of spice in his reading, though he has always sense enough to discriminate between the wheat and the chaff. The average man knows what he wants, and he will have it. If one newspaper will not give it to him another will, and the ideal newspaper, we take it, is the one which gives the average man the news that he wants in the least objectionable way, which neither bores him with too much science, saddens him with too much theology or upsets his liver with too much pessimism; which is an enemy to sham and double-dealing, and which without being either a Pecksniff or a Chadband, discourages vice and everything connected with it, at the same time hesitating to condemn a man eternally because a touch of human nature will crop up in him once in a while. That is the kind of an "ideal" newspaper The Intelligencer tries to be, and we don't care who knows it.

TELEPHONE BILL.

Meeting of Municipal Representatives at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Feb. 5.—The deputation that will wait upon the Minister of Justice this morning in regard to the telephone legislation, which, it is understood, will be introduced at the coming session of Parliament, will consist of the following:—Toronto—O. A. Howland, President of the Municipal Union; Mayor Urquhart, F. Dagga and Corporation Counsel J. G. Fullerton. Westmount—W. D. Lighthall, Secretary-Treasurer of the Municipal Union. Ottawa—Mayor Cook, Ald. Ross, Ellis and Champagne, and City Solicitor Taylor McVeity. Hamilton—Ald. Biggar and City Solicitor F. MacKelcan. Peterboro'—Henry Best and Town Solicitor E. H. D. Hall. Winnipeg—C. R. Bethune. Fort William—Joseph Dyke. Belleville—Mayor Graham and Ald. Chown and Sinclair. Sherbrooke—Dr. J. O. Camirand. St. John, N.B., Galt, Halifax and Port Arthur will be represented by proxy. Most of the delegates have already arrived, and held a meeting last night to discuss what recommendations should be made to Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick on the morrow. During the discussion there was a strong expression of opinion that the proposed legislation should make it clear that the control of their streets is vested in municipalities, and that the extension of a telephone system should be in accordance with such terms and conditions and under such restrictions as the municipality might impose. It was also thought that provision should be made for connection with trunk lines by local companies. Some of the delegates favored the acquisition of trunk lines by the Government and the conferring upon municipalities of the power to expropriate local companies. It was decided to remind the Minister of Justice of his promises, made on the occasion of the interview with the municipal representatives last year, including, it was understood, the appointment of a commission to investigate the whole question.

SIGNIFICANT SPEECH.

British Statesman Hints at Imperial Federation.

London, Feb. 5.—Lord Onslow, Under Secretary for the Colonies, who represents the Government in the House of Lords, and is next to Hon. Joseph Chamberlain in colonial administration, made a significant speech at Edinburgh yesterday. He regretted that Australia's desire to make a contribution to the navy should take the form of an Australian squadron for local defence. He added:—"I would suggest to my friends of Australia that if they wish representation, and approach the Government of this country to be admitted to her councils, I think I can answer the sort of reception any such proposal would receive at the hands of the Government."

VIGOROUS AT EIGHTY-THREE.

MR. JAS. WALKER ATTRIBUTES HIS GOOD HEALTH TO DR. PITCHER'S BACKACHE KIDNEY TABLETS.

THEY CURED HIM OF SWELLING OF THE LIMBS, URINARY TROUBLES AND VIOLENT BACKACHE.

Those who desire a hale and hearty old age, full of vim and vigor and freedom from kidney ailments, should take Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. It is simply wonderful how they allay the irritation of the urinary passages, render unnecessary the frequent rising at night and give healthful vigor to the whole system. Many old people write and tell us that they feel ten years younger since taking the tablets.

Mr. Jas. Walker, whose address is Sheldon, Iowa, U.S.A., is one of the old folks who is enthusiastic about Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. Just read what he says and write him for further particulars if you like.

"Along last September I began to be troubled with my urine. It gave me pain at times and I had to go quite often, sometimes having to rise out of bed four or five times during the night. I had a great thirst and a violent backache. My limbs swelled to twice their natural size, and my appetite left me. I happened to get an Ontario paper, "The Lindsay Post," and saw there that Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets were highly spoken of. I determined to try them, and after using them for one week, I got great relief. The pain left my back, and I did not need to get up so often at night. I continued their use, and the results have been wonderful for a man of my age, eighty-three. I am not bothered with that terrible thirst, my appetite is good and the swelling has left my limbs, and I can tell you the Tablets have proved a great boon to me. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way you may choose, as what I say is the truth.

(Signed) JAS. WALKER."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50 cents a bottle or 3 for $1.25 at druggists or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

A HERO'S HARDSHIP.

Pathetic Story Told in Court by a Soldier.

London, Feb. 4.—The Daily Graphic says:—At Lambeth County Court yesterday Frederick George Johnson sued Joseph Freedman, a Walworth draper, to recover 25 shillings, a week's wages, in lieu of notice. The plaintiff stated that on returning from the front, and being unable to obtain his arrears of pay from the War Office, he was starving when the defendant engaged him as a salesman at £1 a week, afterwards increased to 25s. He had received seventeen wounds in South Africa—thirteen flesh wounds and four severe wounds—and had been awarded the Victoria Cross for rescuing two disabled officers from under fire. When in Mr. Freedman's service he was absent one day from the effects of enteric fever, acquired in the Transvaal. For this he was discharged.

Replying to Judge Emden, the witness said he was discharged from the army after seven years and six months' service with an exemplary character. In addition to his Victoria Cross he had three other medals. Men coming home from the front were unable to get their arrears of pay for three or four months, as their papers were in South Africa. He was absolutely starving when Mr. Freedman employed him.

Judge Emden—It is, in my opinion, a most disgraceful thing for any English Government to bring home brave men, to whom we ought all to be deeply grateful, and leave them for three or four months without means of livelihood. We were glad enough of these men's services, and to treat them in the way they have been treated was gross ingratitude.

The plaintiff—Beg your pardon, sir, but if I may say it, we were treated like dogs when we got home. I only wanted my rights; I did not want charity.

Judge Emden—It is a shocking thing, and a disgrace to the country.

The defendant said, after hearing the plaintiff, he would consent to judgment. Judgment was then entered by consent for the plaintiff, Judge Emden stating that there was not the slightest reflection upon Mr. Freedman.

The difficulties of learning and using a new language are many, and the unfortunate Norwegian in this story from Kansas must have felt that his own efforts were particularly unsuccessful.

A druggist was obliged to be absent from his store one day, and his wife took his place. A large Norwegian, who spoke English with difficulty, entered and said:

"Hi owe de firm fifty cents."

"Very well," replied the druggist's wife; "just pay it to me and it will be all right."

"Hi owe de firm fifty cents."

"Yes, I understand. If you are afraid, I will give you a receipt for it."

The man looked at her in astonishment, and walked out without a word. Pretty soon he returned with a fellow-countryman, whose command of English was a little better, and who interpreted his friend's remark by explaining, "He wants fifty cents' worth of iodoform."

Definitions.

The following definitions are fresh from the school-room and are given undiluted in the "World's Work:"

"Apherbility is the state of being an apherbile."

"Afferbility is the state of being insane on one subject only."

"Reverberation is when it is made again into a verb."

"The Te Deum is a grand opera."

"The British Museum is the principal building in Paris."

"Virgil was a Vestal Virgin."

"Julius Caesar was the mother of the Gracchi."

Her Picture.

She—I took this picture with my "kodak" while abroad. He—What is it? She—Well, that building that stands up perfectly straight is the leaning tower of Pisa—those leaning buildings are the perpendicular edifices adjacent.—"Puck."

He—I think she wears a very short golfing skirt. She—Well, why shouldn't she? She has a perfect right. He—Her left looks all right, too.

He—Now look as if you were being kissed. She—Before or after?—"Life."

Your HAIR IS HUNGRY FEED IT

If your hair is turning gray or falling out, it is starving. There isn't life enough in the roots. The remedy is simple: Feed your hair. Feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor.

It will not do impossible things, but it often does wonderful things.

It always restores color, stops falling, cures dandruff, and prevents splitting at the ends. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

MANY LIVES LOST.

xty-Four Men Burned to Death Underground.

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 5.—News is rought by the steamer Empress of China a disaster in Kobe harbor on January , as a result of which between forty nd fifty lives were lost. The steamers okohama, Maru and Genkai Maru were eing repaired and the steam launch layabusa was sent to take their workmen from one steamer to the other. When the launch was near the stern of he Genkai Maru a strong northwest quall swept over the harbor and capized the launch, which foundered in a ew minutes. Some of the men swam o the Genkai Maru, others were rescued by Sampansante launch, but between 40 and 50 were drowned. Twentyight bodies were recovered.

Fire occurred on January 17 in the Jrushiu colliery, Fukuonka Ken, Japan, and sixty-four miners were burned to eath. Two and twenty miners were working in the mine wher a miner accidently ignited a dynam[illegible] fuse and an xplosion followed. Many escaped, but gas formed rapidly, and a [illegible] at the pit's mouth blocked up the mine, imprisoning sixty-four men, who all lost their lives.

The plague is increasing at Takio. It seems that the germs were imported in cotton from Bombay. Doctor Yokota, the quarantine officer, was one of the victims. He succumbed on January 14, On the day of his death the Japanese Emperor bestowed on him the order of the Rising Sun with the sixth order of merit, and 1920 yen has been granted to his family.

As a result of a combat [illegible]tween one hundred fishing smacks o[illegible] the Japanese coast a heavy loss of life has resulted. It was reported that 45 had been killed. The fishermen belonged to villages in Magasaki prefectures.

CHILD SCALDED TO DEATH.

Mr. Herbert Williams of Middlemarch Loses His Daughter.

St. Thomas, Feb. 5.—The twenty-two-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mr[illegible] Herb Williams of Middlemarch fell in[illegible] a pail of scalding water yesterday morning, a[illegible] died at night from the effect of the burns.

Thirty Were Drowned.

London, Feb. 5.—The report received here yesterday from Bay[illegible] that the large vessel wrecked off D[illegible]aberg Reef was believed to be the French bark Van Stabel, which sailed from Glasgow Jan. 17 for San Francisco, is confirmed. Thirty persons who were on board are thought to have been drowned.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

To the Canadian Public:

Quaker Oats makes its bow to you to-day,—as a Canadian product.

As time runs on and you come to know Quaker Oats, you will realize that the word "Quaker" on a package of oats means quality and flavor,—the quality that is truest economy, the flavor that is modest luxury.

If you consider luxury, you will find the flavor of Quaker Oats is much richer and more inviting than other oats.

If you consider economy, you will find that Quaker Oats makes more porridge than other oats, that it costs no more than other package cereals, and gives more nourishment than any other food.

Whether judged from the standpoint of flavor, wholesomeness or economy, you will find the best value for your money in the high-grade but low-priced

Do You Need Glasses ?

How do you know? Have your eyes been examined by a competent optician?

Does it tire your eyes to read very long at a time?

Does your head ache, close in to the eyes and nose?

Have your own spectacles done you much good?

The safest way is to have us examine your eyes, and tell you exactly what you need—they may not need anything except rest; and they may be injured if not corrected with glasses. The examination will show what is needed, FREE. No charge for examination.

Kidney Trouble Quickly Cured

For Four Weeks, Mr. T. J. Coo, of Toronto, Was Confined to His Bed in a Paralyzed Condition, Unable to Move.

Drug Preparations Did Him No Good, But Powley's Liquified Ozone Soon Destroyed the Disease Germs.

The Second Dessert-Spoonful Gave Him Marked Relief—In Two Days He Was on His Feet and in Less Than a Week at Work at His Office.

POWLEY'S LIQUIFIED OZONE CURES DISEASE BY DESTROYING DISEASE GERMS WHEREVER LOCATED.

After the miraculous cure Ozone performed on myself I feel it my duty to you and to suffering humanity to give you my testimonial regarding your most wonderful remedy.

I lay on my back for four weeks with a most acute attack of kidney trouble. I was so ill that I was unable to move in my bed. I was in a paralyzed condition in the region of the Lumbar Vertebra. I employed, whom I consider, one of Toronto's best physicians, but after four weeks' treatment I was little (if any) better.

While in this condition I read an advertisement about a cure of kidney trouble by Ozone, and decided to try a bottle. After the second dessert-spoonful I felt a marked relief. After using Ozone for two days I was able to stand on my feet for the first time in four and a half weeks and the fourth day I was strong enough to walk around. On the sixth day I came to my office and have been attending to my business ever since.

I feel that I cannot find words with which to express what Ozone has done for me, and I will be most pleased to meet any person or persons you may wish to refer to me in regard to the above.

I have the honor to be,

Yours very truly,

(Signed) T. J. COO,

Mechanical Superintendent Creelman Bros.' Typewriters.

MR. T. J. COO.

Kidney Troubles Cannot Exist Where Ozone Is Used. Here Is More Home Proof.

Besides being a most prevalent trouble kidney disease is a most dangerous one. Hundreds of people are suffering from kidney disease to-day and do not know what ails them. They know they are in a languid, half-sick condition, but do not know the exact cause of it. Kidney trouble, besides being dangerous in itself, leads to many other complications, and if neglected the entire system soon becomes disarranged. The most perfect safeguard against kidney trouble and the most certain cure is Powley's Liquified Ozone. As in the case of Mr. Coo, it immediately destroys the germs causing the disease, with the natural result that a speedy and permanent cure is effected. Here are a few of the many Canadians who have been cured of kidney trouble by this great drugless preparation:

COL. PONTON WRITES TO ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

GIVING SOME PRACTICAL VIEWS ON TWO SUBJECTS OF MUCH INTEREST TO CANADIANS.

Colonel Ponton wrote recently to the Alumni Association of Toronto University upon the subject of practical education as a means of bringing the University more in touch with the public. He called attention to two matters which have elicited great interest, and the Executive have arranged for special lectures and articles to be prepared, and the cooperation of outside organizations has been asked in connection with Forestry, Forest Reserves and Fuel, and also with the position of graduates in Commercial life. Colonel Ponton contends that all graduates should take a course at a Business College before going out into the arena of life, and Professional men would then be able to look after their own affairs and help others more than they are able to do now. We give some extracts from our fellow citizen's suggestions:

"With regard to the proposed University of Toronto School of Forestry, I would say that I have had in the past years a most interesting correspondence with Sir Henri Joly de Lotbiniere, who has done good service in preventing the wholesale destruction of one of the natural resources of Canada, and also in giving practical illustrations of laying the foundation of another possible factor in future wealth, viz., The planting of groves of valuable trees the wood of which is used for manufacturing purposes. There is much room for education of the public along this line. It is a well known fact that many farms have been much lessened in value by destructive tenants, who sometimes have no regard for the value of trees, either for purposes of shade, ornamentation, or climatic influence. Everyone who has lived in cities has also, no doubt, at some time, writhed as he witnessed the hands of vandals, often municipal officers, who either abuse or destroy the trees which form part of the residential assets of the municipality. Apart from this, of course, the School of Forestry could take up many theoretic lines, the development of which might lead to a partial solution of the present fuel problem. The Legislatures have recognized the enormous public importance of Forestry by the recent Forest Reserve Act.

Commerce.

With regard to the ways and means of increasing the interest of business men in the work of the University, it may, perhaps, be noted that Montreal business men seem to be, if one would judge from the amount of their endowments, much more awake to the commercial and economic value of the University than are our Western millionaires, liberal as many of them have been, and this too beyond the more technical schools of practical science. The modern process of business has changed the old relationship between employer and employe, so that there is no time now in mercantile establishments for the employer to teach the employe. The clerk is supposed to come to his work fully equipped. No equipment can be sufficient without previous business education of some kind. Our Commercial Colleges with their courses usually limited to four months, are insufficient for this purpose, although they have done much good. Stenography is now essential in all business relations, and no stenographer can possibly hope to rise to the top of the tree without having a thorough foundation knowledge of the English language. But the German clerk is also a linguist, and many Germans, through their education in this respect alone, are now employed in large establishments in Great Britain. Foreign correspondence is now necessary in Canada also, and business men should surely recognize the contributory service of the University in connection with modern languages, and also with that knowledge of life which the University course affords to those who identify themselves in the true sense with it. Railway managers representing the greatest of modern industries, especially want good, live, educated men.

In the above you have for consideration two subjects, the value of which the public will appreciate, and it has always been my urgent argument that the University will never be thoroughly valued by the public unless it identifies itself with every phase of the public and progressive life of the country.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

MR. O'FLYNN IS NEW CHAIRMAN OF BOARD

Inaugural Meeting of Belleville Board of Education Held Last Night.

Standing Committees Struck for Ensuing Year—Not Many Changes Made.

A meeting of the Board of Education was held last evening for the purpose of organizing for the year.

The members in attendance were: Messrs. Wm. Johnson, F. E. O'Flynn, I. Diamond, W. P. Hudson, G. A. Bennett, H. Walker, J. H. Anderson, W. C. Reid, J. Martin, A. McGinnis, P. C. Jones, W. Tennent, J. F. Wills, A. E. Lewis, Col. Ponton and Rev. A. L. Geen.

A communication was read from Mr. W. A. Carson, a member of the Board, stating that he was unable to be present at the inaugural meeting owing to having been called to Ottawa.

The Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. W. J. Diamond, stated that the first order of business was to select a chairman of the Board.

Mr. O'Flynn is Chairman.

Mr. Hudson moved, seconded by Mr. Johnson, That Mr. F. E. O'Flynn be chairman of the Board for the year 1903.

There being no other nominations, Mr. O'Flynn was declared unanimously elected.

The newly-elected Chairman was escorted to the chair by Messrs. A. McGinnis and P. C. Jones, taking his seat amidst applause.

Mr. O'Flynn, in a few and appropriate words returned his thanks to the members of the Board for the honor they had conferred upon him. Had Mr. Hudson desired to have been Chairman this year he certainly would have given way to him, as he was a senior member of the Board and entitled to the position. He hoped that his actions as Chairman would be such as to be satisfactory to the members of the Board, and he also asked the members to work with him in making the year one not only pleasant but profitable in the cause of education.

Mr. Walker moved, seconded by Mr. Bennett, That Mr. W. J. Diamond be re-appointed Secretary-Treasurer for the year at a salary of $400 per annum.

The mover and seconder, and also the Chairman, spoke in a flattering manner of the services rendered the Board by Mr. Diamond.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Diamond thanked the Board for the confidence reposed in him and the kind words spoken in his behalf.

A special Committee, composed of Messrs. Wm. Johnson, I. Diamond, W. C. Reid, W. P. Hudson, A. McGinnis, P. C. Jones, J. Martin, Geo. A. Bennett and H. Walker was appointed to strike the Standing Committees for the year.

The Committee, after consultation for a few minutes, reported as follows:

Finance.

Mr. Hugh Walker, Chairman.
Messrs. Martin, J. F. Wills, Lewis, Anderson, Taylor, Hanley, Col. Ponton, Rev. A. L. Geen and W. A. Carson.

School Management.

Mr. W. P. Hudson, chairman.
Messrs. Morden, Lewis, Diamond, Bennett, Tennent, Johnson, McGinnis, Walker and Reid.

Sites, Buildings and Repairs.

Mr. Geo. A. Bennett, chairman.
Messrs. Diamond, Johnson, Lewis, Wills, Martin, Hudson, McGinnis and Rev. A. L. Geen.

Printing and Supplies.

Rev. A. L. Geen, chairman.
Messrs. Jones, Lewis, Anderson, Martin, Tennent, Walker, Taylor and Col. Ponton.

Queen Victoria and High Schools.

Mr. J. F. Wills, chairman.
Messrs. Johnson, Pringle, Walker, Hudson, Jones, McGinnis, Tennent, Bennett, I. Diamond, Morden, Taylor, Hanley, Carson and Reid.

Octavia Street School.

Mr. I. Diamond, chairman.
Mr. Hudson and Rev. A. L. Geen.

Pinnacle Street School.

Mr. John Martin, chairman.
Messrs. Lewis and Reid.

Grier Street School.

Mr. Geo. A. Bennett, chairman.
Mr. Anderson and Rev. A. L. Geen.

Canifton Road School.

Mr. Henry Taylor, chairman.
Messrs. McGinnis and Carson.

This completed the work of organization and on motion the Board adjourned.

DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION

A CORRESPONDENT WHO DIFFERS WITH REV. MR. GILLILAND, AND THINKS IT DOES NOT.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Mr. Editor,—Will Rev. Mr. Gilliland please explain further for our enlightenment? For it appears by what he preaches that the members of the Church Catholic, including the apostles, have been ignorant of the truth for nearly 1900 years. Mr. G. tells us that regeneration precedes conversion. I have always been taught that conviction of sin and repentance preceded conversion. God's spirit convicts every man of sin and calls him to repentance, and this is Divine hypnotism, and if he yields up his will to God's will and asks the same question that the 3000 asked St. Peter on the day of Pentecost, viz., "What shall I do to be saved?" He will be told to arise and be baptized for the remission of his sins, and he will receive the gift of the Holy Ghost and be regenerate, born anew. A faithful disciple said to the penitant and believing Saul of Tarsus, "Arise and be baptized and wash away thy sins." This is "baptismal regeneration;" or the new birth, whereby we are born anew out of the corruptible family of the old Adam into the incorruptible family of the new Adam, "Christ Jesus." Now, we see that in baptism the soul is purified, washed clean by the indwelling or power of the Holy Ghost, the third person of the Trinity, and the miracle-worker, for it is by His power that all miracles are wrought. Now, to show the ridiculous side of Mr. G.'s argument, he contends that a soul can be regenerate or born anew, without the washing of Regeneration in baptism, or while it is still full of uncleansed if not only original sin, but of acquired or cultivated sin. Oh no, Mr. G., we are not regenerated until our sins are all washed away with (water) and the Holy Ghost. Don't forget the water part, please. For Christ said to Nicodemus "Except a man be born of (water) and the Holy Ghost he cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven," and why? because nothing enters that Kingdom that defileth or is still unclean. It must be cleansed first, hence the penitent and believing Saul of Tarsus had to be cleansed from sin first before he could enter, and baptism, and baptism alone, is the door of entrance into that Kingdom, His Church Catholic and Apostolic, and not a ticket of membership, for a ticket only admits you to the membership of a man made society or so-called church and admits you without purification first. Now Mr. G., you have got repentance and conviction of sin and remorse or sorrow or penitential sorrow for sin as it is called and regeneration or the new birth all mixed up. Conversion is the act of the prodigal in returning to his Father; regeneration is the act of the Father in and admitting him into His house, His Kingdom, His Church Catholic and Apostolic by the purifying ceremony of baptism. Ceremonies are no good, unnecessary many say. Well you can't enter the door of the Divine Society without the initiation ceremony of baptism, no more than you can enter a Masonic lodge or any other lodge, without going through the initiation ceremony. If men would exercise a little common sense when they thought of the visible society of Christ on earth, His Church Catholic and Apostolic, founded on the apostles and prophets, He Himself being the Corner-stone, the oneness of that society would soon dawn on them. I never understood the Church Catholic until I joined the Masonic society, and then, when I went through the three initiation ceremonies, then the beautiful triple initiation of the Church Catholic, with her beautiful ritual and ceremonies, dawned upon me, and I immediately saw how I had gone through her three fold initiation without realizing or knowing the meaning of it. I was baptised, or washed of my sins, regenerated, born anew. Then confirmed by the laying on of hands and received the special outpouring of the Holy Ghost. Then I approached the altar and from the hands of the validly ordained priest received the consecrated bread and wine, the Lord's body and blood, and all this was performed with the beautiful ceremony and ritual of the Anglican branch of the Church Catholic, all done decently and in order; but strange, all this had very little significance to me at the time, and, as I said before, the true meaning of all this did not dawn upon me until I joined that greatest of all earthly societies, so beautiful, with all its gorgeous ritual and beautiful ceremony, then and only then, did I see the beauty of the Saviour's Bride, His Church, the fairest among ten thousand and altogether lovely, with her gorgeous ritual, sublime ceremony, vested priesthood, her three fold initiation, her reverence, her respect for Holy things. Then I saw her with the eyes of the poet who wrote the following beautiful verse:

I love the Church, the Holy Church,
The Saviour's spotless bride,
And oh! I love her palaces
In all the world so wide;
The crossed-topped spire amid the trees,
The Holy bell of prayer (The Angelus)
The echo of my mother's voice
My mother's home is there.

Mr. Editor, I could write thus until your eyes would weary of reading, but I have already encroached altogether too far on your valuable space, so au revoir for the present.

Yours in truth,
ANGLICAN CATHOLIC LAYMAN.

EDITOR'S NOTE.—We give the above a place in our columns, it being the production of an ardent and sincere Anglican. In future all communications of a theological character must be over the signature of the writer. The clergymen whose sermons we report are known and become personally responsible for their teachings. It is therefore but fair that those who criticize their utterances should be known to them.

FRANK SCHULTZ NOW A BANK MANAGER

FORMER BELLEVILLE MAN DROPS INTO A RESPONSIBLE POSITION.

The many friends of Mr. Frank Schultz, formerly of this city, will read with gratification the following from the Baldur, Man., Gazette of Jan. 15:

Mr. H. N Shaw, Supt., of the Union Bank for Manitoba and the N.W.T., was in town till Tuesday this week, perfecting arrangements for the establishing of a branch of their bank here. All details were satisfactorily arranged, and Mr. Frank Schultz appointed manager. The banks quarters will be in the Schultz block. The bank will be hailed with delight, filling as it will a long felt need, and as it is a most popular one throughout our province in its financial dealings, will meet with hearty support from the community. The announcement of the opening of the bank appears in this issue.

ELOQUENT MISSIONARIES

TALKED TO A LARGE AUDIENCE IN BRIDGE ST. CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

It is not often that a large church audience at ten o'clock insists that one who has already addressed them should speak again, but that is what happened in Bridge St. Church last night, the gentleman so honored being the Rev. John McDougall, the famous Indian Missionary, whose influence has been so great that in all emergencies in the Northwest, especially in the Riel rebellions of 1870 and 1885, the Governments of Sir John A. Macdonald and the Hon. Alexander Mackenzie sought his advice and assistance in dealing with the Indian tribes. For nigh half a century the names of "the McDougalls"—father and son—Revs. George and John McDougall, have been synonymous to the Indians with truth, therefore the most principal tribes have trusted them implicitly.

Mr. McDougall is as eloquent as ever, his word picturing as vivid, and his impassioned appeals as irresistible, It is no wonder that his audiences are spell-bound.

Rev. Dr. Woodsworth, the Superintendent of Missions in the Northwest, also gave a fine address, in which he described the development of the missions over which he presides, the marvellous growth of the Northwest and what it will yet be.

The Rev. Dr. Lambly, Rev. J. H. Locke and Captain Chas. S. Clapp, expressed to the two speakers, on behalf of the audience, their thanks for their visit to Belleville and for their addresses.

BROKE THROUGH THE ICE

PRINCE EDWARD YEOMAN LOST A HORSE THIS MORNING.

A yeoman named Fox, who resides in the Township of Ameliasburg, was this morning driving across the bay, en route to this city, when his team broke through the ice near Cow Island. Help was secured after some time and the animals were rescued from the icy waters, but the dip proved fatal to one of the horses, which died soon afterwards. The other horse was fortunately saved. The animal which died was of considerable value.

HORSES THOUGHT THEY NEEDED EXERCISE

LIVELY RUNAWAY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON — HORSES RAN ABOUT FIVE MILES.

A lively runaway occurred on Front street yesterday afternoon and the animals ran for some miles out in the country before they were stopped. The team belonged to Dr. Gibson, and started from his residence about 4 o'clock, ran up Front street, crossed the upper bridge and then proceeded at a lively gait up North Front street and ran up the Madoc road towards Foxboro. They were caught just north of what is known as Ross' Corners, which is some four miles outside the city limits. The cutter was only slightly damaged, but one of the horses was badly injured.

THIS YEAR'S BOARD OF EDUCATION

SOMETHING ABOUT THE GENTLEMEN WHO WILL LOOK AFTER BELLEVILLE'S SCHOOL AFFAIRS THIS YEAR.

The Board is composed of fifteen Conservatives and six Liberals. Nine of them are Methodists, eight Presbyterians, two Anglicans, one Reformed Episcopal and one Roman Catholic.

Five are merchants, four lawyers, three mechanics, two insurance agents, two cival servants, two manufacturers, one clerk, one contractor, one nurseryman. The nestor of the Board is Mr. Wm. Tennent, who for thirty-four years has represented Baldwin Ward. Mr. Wm. Johnson has been elected by acclamation for Ketcheson Ward for thirty years. Mr. Irvine Diamond has sat for Murney Ward since 1875. Mr. Hugh Walker was first elected in 1882 and has since been the junior member for Ketcheson Ward. All the other members have served less than ten years. Messrs. Wm. Johnson, Hugh Walker, Wm. Tennant, I. Diamond and W. C. Reid have been chairmen of the Board.

A WONDERFUL TONIC AND STRENGTHENER.

Said a druggist to-day, "No doubt about it, the tonic that gives best results is the biggest seller, and that is Ferrozone. It enriches and purifies the blood, restores strength and energy to the feeble and is a scientific reconstructor, that was always popular. In chlorosis, anaemia, tiredness, languor, brain fag, indigestion and dyspepsia its action is prompt and satisfactory cures always follow. Yes, I recommend Ferrozone to my customers because I believe it is the best tonic and strengthening medicine that money can buy." Large boxes cost 50c. Sold by J. S. McKeown.

ELECTION IN BURRARD.

Victory for Mr. Macpherson, the Liberal Candidate.

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 5.—Chiefly through the intrusion of former Lieut.-Governor McInnes, who split the labor Conservative vote, Mr. Robert G. Macpherson, the Liberal candidate, held that seat for Burrard for the Liberal party in the bye-election to-day, necessitated by the lamented death of Mr. George R. Maxwell. The majority from Vancouver City and four rural polling stations is 76, and this will probably be increased to 125 or 150 when all returns are in. The election in the city, which contains fully four-fifths of the total vote, was the closest that has ever been recorded, the whole secret of Mr. Foley's strong running being the intensity of feeling in this western Province as to the necessity of drastic measures for the prohibition of Asiatic immigration, which Mr. Foley made his one and only plank. Mr. Macpherson is a vigorous young man, and is pledged to do his utmost to advance Asiatic immigration restriction.

The returns are not yet complete.

Vancouver City and four rural districts give Macpherson a lead of 76, while McInnis' loss of his deposit is certain. The indications are that the Liberal majority will exceed one hundred when all the returns are in.

A C. P. R. press despatch says:—Results of the British Columbia elections for Burrard are:—Macpherson, 1,738; Foley, 1,074; McInnes, 342. Atlin yet to hear from.

The Grangers' Meeting.

Toronto, Feb. 5.—The annual meeting of the Patrons of Husbandry, who are popularly known as the Grangers, began yesterday morning at the Albion hotel. The President, Mr. Jabel Robinson, M.P., West Elgin, was in the chair, and fifty or more members were present. The principal part of the morning's session was Mr. Robinson's address, in which he dealt with the tariff, the Canadian coal fields, taxes, Government lobbying, transportation, and rural mail delivery.

"Free rural mail delivery would be a great boon to the farmers. It might not be a success in some of the sparsely settled districts, but it should be tried in some of the older and thickly settled parts of our country. I know of nothing that would do as much to make farm life enjoyable and help to keep the young and old folks on the farm

A Lynden Girl's Elopement.

Hamilton, Feb. 5.—Miss Sophia Kievel's father and uncle were in the city yesterday seeing if they could not invoke the aid of the law to find Miss Kievel, who is seventeen years of age, and is said to have eloped from the village of Lynden on the night of January 29 with James Murray, a married man, the father of six children. Sophia Kievel was engaged at the residence of Mrs. Firman Clement, wife of the Lyndon postmaster, and Murray, who is an old Lynden boy, had been stopping in the village about a month. His home is said to be at High Bluffs, Manitoba, and it is thought he has taken Miss Kievel to the west with him. Her father consulted the Crown Attorney with regard to laying a charge against Murray of abduction, but he did not receive encouragement in this line. He asked the city detectives to try to locate his daughter.

Big Land Deal.

Winnipeg, Feb. 5.—A large land deal was put through yesterday, by which 40,000 acres of land northwest of Moose Jaw, on the Saskatchewan River, was transferred to the company of which Mr. G. M. Annabel, M.P.P., of Moose Jaw, is the head. The land was purchased from the C.P.R., and the price paid was in the vicinity of $200,000.

Northwest Council Changes.

Winnipeg, Feb. 5.—Dr. Elliott, M.P.P. for Wolseley, is appointed member of the Executive Council of the Northwest Territories, in place of Mr. A. L. Sifton, new Chief Justice. He was sworn in yesterday. Dr. Elliott will be Commissioner of Agriculture, and Hon. G. H. V. Bulyea, the present commissioner, will go to the Bureau of Public Works, formerly occupied by Mr. Sifton. Mr. Elliott in Dominion politics is Conservative. Minor changes will be announced later on. Mr. Bulyea is as present in Montreal, urging the C.P.R. to ship grain southward by the lines that have offered facilities for so doing.

The RITCHIE COMPANY Limited.

The liners St. Paul and Teutonic, scheduled to sail from New York yesterday, were delayed owing to lack of coal. They will sail to-day.

The Schultz Bros. Company of Brantford have been awarded the contract for the construction of the Macdonald residence building in Guelph, the price being $80,000. They had already received the contract for the institute.

G. C. Gregory, a fireman of the Grand Trunk, on engine No. 53, was killed in the Little York shunting yards yesterday morning. He jumped on the tender just before it was to be loaded with coal, and those above, who dumped in the load, did not see him. The whole load fell upon him, crushing him and killing him almost instantly.

MAY NOT PASS TREATY.

BITTERLY OPPOSED BY A NUMBER OF SENATORS.

President and Secretary Hay Abandon Hope—Chairman of Foreign Relations Committee Also Pessimistic—Views of The London Chronicle.

Washington Feb. 5.—Senator Cullom, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, expressed the opinion to several Senators yesterday that the pending Alaska boundary commission treaty cannot be ratified by the Senate. An important conference took place yesterday between President Roosevelt, Secretary Hay and Senator Cullom, and two or three other members of the Senate, on the subject of the treaty, and some of the objections that have been raised against ratification of the convention were discussed. The chief difficulty arises from the stubborn prejudice among several Senators, who declare that the United States has nothing to arbitrate in the boundary matter, and that it is wrong that this Government should make the least concession, even to the extent of submitting the subject to a tribunal of even-numbered membership. Of course these Senators have no alternative to suggest, and it is admitted that the question, unless settled by the proposed commission, is likely to remain in its present unsatisfactory state for some time to come.

There is much inflammatory and irresponsible talk among certain members of the House of Representatives on the subject of the pending treaty, and while the Democrats in both branches are seeking to make as much political capital as possible out of the situation, the Republicans are far from being united in favor of ratifying the convention.

London, Feb. 6.—The news that opposition of the northwestern Senators will probably prevent the ratification of the Alaska boundary treaty is regarded here as very disconcerting. The Daily Chronicle considers that the failure of the treaty will mean the indefinite continuance of the deadlock. Canada, it says, will lose the chance of obtaining a free port in the Klondike district, and most violent friction must arise if gold should be discovered in the territory under dispute. I. N. F.

In view of the situation as presented by the Senate leaders it is understood the President and Secretary Hay practically have abandoned hope of ratification. If it should not be ratified the modus vivendi previously agreed upon by Great Britain and the United States will remain in force.

EMIGRATION TO CANADA.

Growth of the Movement in England and Wales.

London, Feb. 6.—The principal colonial question outside of South Africa is the British emigration movement to Canada. Commissioner Preston tells me that it has already become almost unmanageable, under existing conditions, and that the Canadian Government will need to make special arrangements for supplying a largely increased number of townships in the Northwest Territories, and for taking care of settlers in transit. He admits that the invasion from the western States of the United States has been a convincing argument in favor of the British movement, and asserts that while comparatively few Scotchmen seem interested thousands of English and Welsh emigrants are applying for passage to the new lands which American farmers have pronounced promising.

STRIKE AT MONTREAL.

STREET RAILWAY CONDUCTORS AND MOTORMEN OUT.

About 1,400 Men Employed, Half of Whom Belong to the Union—They Want Increased Pay and Recognition of the Union.

Montreal, Feb. 6.—A strike of conductors and motormen on the Montreal Street Railway was declared at midnight, and the men are running in their cars to the sheds, quitting work, and say that they will not return until the demands made by the union are met. About 1,400 men are employed on the system, of which it is claimed 700 already belong to the union. The officials of the union say that the company has failed to give them any satisfaction, and accordingly the strike has been declared. A mass meeting of the men was held, at which over 1,000 employees were present, and the action of the union was endorsed, and it was decided

The demands the union declare they will insist upon are:

(1) The recognition of the union; (2) increase in wages from one to five years' service in the company, 18 cents per hour, more than five years 20 cents. (3) All men that have been discharged since January 1 without cause must be immediately reinstated. (4) No suspension whatever to be recognized. (5) More men to be employed in operating the system. (6) Increase of wages for men who were employed on sweepers on February 3.

GERMAN FOREIGN POLICY.

A Concise Statement Made by the Chancellor.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—Chancellor Von Buelow, reviewing the political situation in the Reichstag said:—"I showed sufficiently six years ago that I am far removed from a policy of adventure. The Samoa question was settled to general satisfaction. We came out of the Chinese action with undiminished power, in all honor, and with a strengthened position in East Asia. In Venezuela we move on precisely the same lines with England and Italy, upon the path of thoughtful calmness. We only want to secure the lives, property and trade of our people there. In our foreign policy I try to strike the middle course betwen the members of the Left party and Prof. Hess (the Pan-German leader). I am far from following parish politics, whereby our paths would be undermined, but I am just as far from a policy which would extend our sphere of action excessively, and which would be dependent upon ebullitions of feeling instead of being fixed by the well considered, plainest interests of the German people."

The total cost to Germany of the China expedition up to date is $50,250,000, and the further requirements are estimated at $1,500,000.

REOPEN DREYFUS AFFAIR.

Startling Statement Made by Parisian Newspaper.

Paris, Feb. 6.—The Liberte reasserts, in spite of contradictions, that an organized effort will be made to resuscitate the Dreyfus affair. It appears that a document which is expected to throw a new light on the subject is now in possession of the Ministry of War.

Lieut. A. M. Calderon of the Governor-General's Foot Guards, Ottawa, who brought charges against his commanding officer, has been removed from the list of officers of the active militia.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

THE RESULT OF THE PAIN AND IRRITATION FROM HEMORRHOIDS.

Nervous prostration is often the result of neglecting a case of hemorrhoids or piles; the pain and irritation attendant upon this disagreeable trouble, inconveniences and annoys one, but it is possible to go to business and do the ordinary day's work, so the trouble is neglected until the nerves become exhausted and the patient is a victim of nervous prostration.

Hemorrhoids cause a sensation of heat, tension and itching in a region where is located the most sensitive nerves of the human system, and the continual irritation will eventually cause a collapse of the nerves. This would easily have been avoided if the patient had carefully treated the case of piles from their first appearance. No other trouble can be so quickly and safely overcome if treated in an early stage, and even if the case is an old one, there is a remedy which will act with remarkable results if faithfully applied.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is in suppository form and can be conveniently applied to the afflicted parts, the soothing oils and medication reaching the healing and enlarged hemorrhoidal veins of the rectum and acting at once upon the inflamed tissues.

Every sufferer from this trouble should send at once to the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their book on Piles or Hemorrhoids, which will be sent free. The Pyramid Pile Cure is so well known and the hundreds cured by it have so advertised it that the little book is merely sent to give each patient a clearer view of his or her particular case and the proper treatment for it

CANADIAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The Fight Against the Paper Combine—A Marconi Press Service—Use of Pacific Cable—Banquet.

Toronto, Feb. 6.—The business conducted by the Press Association at yesterday's meeting before the largest attendance in its history will make this an eventful convention. When President Dan. McGillicuddy took the chair in the council chamber of the Board of Trade he was surrounded by editors and publishers of the daily, weekly and monthly newspapers and periodicals of all parts of central Canada, and from as far east as Halifax. The feature of the morning was the address of the President, which contained some interesting comments on the relation of journalists to public men, and rejoiced at recent evidences of independence in Canadian journalism. Mr. H. J. Pettypiece, M.P.P., who has long taken an active interest in the association, was elected President for the coming year. It was decided to abandon the contemplated excursion to Great Britain this year, and several alternative projects were left with the Executive for consideration.

Among those present were:—H. J. Pettypiece, M.P.P., Forest Free Press; John A. Cooper, Canadian Magazine, Toronto; J. T. Clark, Secretary Treasurer, Toronto Star; J. Ross Robertson, Toronto Telegram; J. W. Bengough, David Creighton, Toronto; A. H. U. Colquhoun, News, Toronto; Andrew Pattullo, M.P.P., Woodstock Sentinel-Review; James Heverson, St. George; A. McNee, Windsor Record; J. R. McIntyre, Dundalk; H. P. Moore, Acton Free Press; Wm. Ireland, Parry Sound Star; A. E. Bradwin, Blyth Standard; J. C. Walsh, Montreal Herald; J. I. McIntosh, Guelph Mercury; H. T. Blackstone, Orillia Times; Rev. Dr. Withrow, Methodist Magazine, Toronto; D. F. Burk, Port Arthur; J. E. Atkinson, Toronto Star; Rev. J. A. Macdonald, Toronto Globe; Rev. G. J. Bond, Christian Guardian, Toronto; R. D. Warren, Georgetown Herald; W. L. Edmonds, Printer and Publisher, Toronto; B. McGuire, Orangeville Banner; C. H. Mortimer, Electrical News, Toronto; A. S. Forster, Oakville Star; J. A. Lambert, Mount Forest Representative; Acton Burrows, Railway and Shipping World, Toronto; H. A. Vandusen, Tara Leader; S. E. Carman, Belleville Ontario; L. G. Jackson, Newmarket Era; D. B. Taylor, Tweed News; J. H. Rutherford, Owen Sound Times; A. C. Woodward, Chatham News; A. E. Sutherland, Glencoe; C. W. Rutledge, Markdale; R. W. Dillon, St. Mary's; W. H. Keller, Uxbridge; D. H. Price, Aylmer; W. D. McLean, Seaforth; J. J. Bell, Toronto; Jas. A. Tucker, Saturday Night, Toronto; W. E. Smallfield, Renfrew Mercury; J. B. Maclean, Montreal; N. Phelps, North Bay Times; James Acton, Toronto; Rev. Dr. Dewart, Toronto; M. A. James, Bowmanville Statesman; D. Williams, Collingwood Bulletin; W. R. Dunn, Halifax Chronicle.

The report of the Executive Committee referred to the attempt made since last meeting to secure a refund from the Dominion Government of the association's expenses in connection with the inquiry that proved the existence of a combine among the papermakers. A deputation had gone to Ottawa, on sixty publishers signing a petition for a refund and for a reduction in duty on newsprint. The result was the refund of $150 paid by the association to the stenographer for a report of the proceedings. To refund the expenses, the Government replied, would establish a precedent, of which other bodies could take advantage. The Executive had notified the Government that they proposed to renew its application for the costs incurred, as it had undoubtedly a strong moral claim.

At the afternoon session the President read a letter from Sir Sandford Fleming, pointing out that so far not a single press message had been sent over the new Pacific cable, not even between England and Australia, and suggesting that the association urge upon the Government the opening of the cable free to press messages for, say, 500 words daily, for a period of three months, in order to build up a constituency.

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. C. T. Cook of the London (Eng.) Press Club, stating that a company was organizing there for the purpose of serving Canadian newspapers with a press service of interest to Canada, using the Marconi wireless system. It was hoped that press messages duplicated to several papers could be had at less than a halfpenny a word, and that a full morning and evening service could be sold at $10 a week, exclusive of the cost of telegraphing, and for weekly papers at $5 a week.

The annual banquet of the Canadian Press Association last night was one of the most enjoyable of the many pleasant reunions which mark annual business gatherings of the association. The meeting was thoroughly representative in its composition, men from the ranks of the daily, weekly and monthly press, secular, religious and commercial, mingled together and a spirit of camaraderie prevailed. Mr. Daniel McGillicuddy, President of the association, presided, and seated on his right and left were Hon. Richard Harcourt, Minister of Education; Messrs. J. P. Whitney, M.P.P., A. Pattullo, M.P.P., Jos. Downey, M.P.P., Geo. P. Graham, M.P.P., W. K. McNaught, G. R. Pattullo; W. R. Dunn, Halifax, N. S.; R. Matheson, Belleville, and G. C. Creelman. The vice-chairs were occupied by the Vice-Presidents, H. J. Pettypiece, M.P.P., and J. A. Cooper. Stirring songs well sung by Messrs. Sturrock, Gadsby and others were interspersed with the speeches.

INFANT FEEDING.

The first years of our life are the most important in our existence. That is the time to build the foundation for sturdy manhood in the future. Infancy is, therefore, the most vital period for proper nourishing. A baby secures the best possible nourishment from a healthy mother, but unfortunately very few mothers can nurse their children. What, then, is the next best food?

Cow's milk should not be solely depended upon for it lacks a proper amount of what a child needs most—cell-building substance. Moreover, it is said by authorities on the subject, that the frequent handling such milk undergoes, from the cow to the time it is fed to a child, robs it of much of its original value. Its quality varies and its grades are numerous; the stomach of an infant is much too delicate to make up such defects in its food supply. Scott's Emulsion simplifies the food problem for children and counteracts these defects.

The artificial foods that are so largely used very rarely contain milk, hence they imperfectly nourish the child. Even a small amount of Scott's Emulsion, one-fourth to a half teaspoonful, in the child's bottle seems to be of special value in adding a very important element to the food. Its beneficial results are quickly seen.

Scott's Emulsion is based on this true food principle. It provides nourishment for a child in the easiest, quickest and most palatable form. No baby is too young, no stomach too delicate to receive and retain Scott's Emulsion. Even a few drops in a child's milk seems to provide considerable nourishment that cannot be otherwise secured except in a mother's milk.

If a mother whose milk is not furnishing a child with proper nourishment will herself use Scott's Emulsion it will greatly improve the quality of the milk. It benefits the mother as well as the child.

A child of any age will be benefitted by Scott's Emulsion. It furnishes the means to meet and overcome the strain of growing. Being prepared for easy digestion Scott's Emulsion does not tax the stomach or disturb the digestive organs of children.

Its great value as a child's food comes from the nourishment it gives, the ease with which it enters the system, the quickness with which it brings about a change for the better and the permanency of its benefits. The child who is not doing as well as it should needs Scott's Emulsion.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back; bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

PROFESSION VS. PRACTICE.

DEBT INCREASING.

The electors will not have forgotten the professions of economy which were made in almost every speech delivered by Liberal leaders before their advent to power, and they now know how flagrantly all these pledges have been violated.

Let us resurrect one or two of them and then compare those professions and pledges with actual facts as they exist to-day.

Sir Richard Cartwright was one of the loudest and most vehement in his denunciations of what he termed "Conservative extravagance." Among other things he said:

> "A yearly expenditure of $40,000,000 or $38,000,000 is altogether too large for the resources of Canada. I say that it is a disgrace and a shame to the Government that has been entrusted with our affairs that they come down to us and ask for an expenditure of $38,000,000 a year for Federal purposes. Sir, the thing is utterly unjustifiable."

Not to be outdone by one of his lieutenants in pledging economy and a reduction in expenditure, Sir Wilfrid in a speech delivered in Toronto, just before the elections, exclaimed in tones pregnant with an assumed earnestness:

> "Has the expenditure gone down? No, it has gone up. It went up two, three, five, ten millions and more, until it is now thirty-eight millions; and the Conservatives do not shrink from it, but swallow it all. If we come into power we will follow the example of Mr. Mackenzie; and I say that although we may not be able to bring back the expenditures to what they were under him, we can reduce the amount two, yes, three million dollars per year."

How have these boastings of what these two worthy Rouge-Grit statesmen were to do, been carried, out? The public accounts show that instead of a reduction in the annual expenditure of three millions of dollars, the expenditure for the years 1902-3 has swollen from $40,000,000 in 1895-6, the highest figure given by Sir Richard, to $63,970,798; an increase of $23,970,798 in 6 years, or within a fraction of $4,000,000 per annum.

The expenditure, as shown by the public accounts for the year ending 30th of June, 1903, is:

Consolidated fund	$50,759,391
Capital account	10,078,638
Railway subsidies	2,093,939
Other charges	1,038,830
Total	$63,970,798

It should not, in addition to these facts, be forgotten that the people were told on every platform in the Dominion that they were taxed white under "Tory rule." How does taxation compare to-day with that of 1895-6? In these years the amount collected from Customs and Excise was $27,759,285, and in 1902-3 $43,389,111, just an increase of $15,629,826, in one year.

This is the manner in which the promises of reduction in expenditure and taxation has been fulfilled, yet Grits smile and boldly declare that all the promises and pledges made by leaders of the Liberal party have been carried out.

"Said a prominent citizen this morning, "I was not present at the meeting, but from reports I see that on Tuesday night at Sydenham Street Methodist Church the Rev. Mr. Hunter in the course of his remarks said "that in order to catch many Kingston men it was necessary to dive into the mud before nine o'clock in the morning, for after that they would be full of whiskey. Now, is not this rather a bold statement for a stranger to come to this city and make? GREAT WAS THE FALL.

(Port Hope Times.)

The streets have been a little slippery in some places. An incident which occurred the other day has been reported as follows by our sporting editor: "A maiden fair, with sun-kissed hair, came tripping down the street her face serene, her age eighteen; gee whiz! but she was sweet. On the sidewalk, slick, she came down quick, with a jolt that shook her curls; but the word she used must be excused—for she's one of our nicest girls."

The almost daily railroad collision furnishes the newspapers with material for many articles. One of the best of these we have seen appears in the Montreal Witness, and, if the only religious daily's statements are correct, a queer state of affairs, indeed, is shown. "It would seem that," says the Witness, "according to the American standard rules which have recently been adopted on the Grand Trunk Railway in place of the former code, under which many of these accidents would be impossible, each conductor is furnished with what information may be available, and is expected to use his own judgment about whether he can or cannot reach a certain point without a collision. He must simply guess whether a train that is reported behind time may have made up time or gone further behind; and, as one engineer says, he goes it blind. Confusion rules alike in the despatcher's box and in the driver's cab. All the pressure from officials is in the shape of demands that time shall be made at all cost."

Investigation in the United States into the causes of the railway disasters that have come to be of daily occurrence there has led to the suspicion that it is customary with engineers to disregard signals, and that while the whole blame is laid on them for doing so when an accident results, their doing so is well known and in fact expected. In one case where twenty persons were killed and fifty injured, the engineer confessed that he ran past the stop signal. He had no personal object in breaking the rules and risking the lives of the passengers, but it was said in his defence that he was influenced by the fact that an engineer must bring in his train on time or be censured, fined or perhaps dismissed. Do not these conditions, taken in connection with the daily accident, suggest the need of legislative interference to protect the lives of men? When, in the absence of plain fixed rules, judgment has to be used the increased danger caused by being off time may in individual cases be invoked as an excuse for taking some risks to keep up with the timetable. But, fond as people are of rushing, whether upon their business or their pleasures, and much as they chafe at delay when they do not know the cause, we are convinced that the public would approve of a rule which would, as in Britain, make collisions practically impossible, even though that rule should involve slower travel, though it does not do so in Britain. Apart from legislation such a rule would surely have its advantages for the railway that should adopt it. Besides the saving of property, the line which never had an accident would have an assured clientele of its own. We think the condition of things which prevails just now all over the continent calls for some more responsible investigation than that of a mere coroner's jury. Action on the part of the Railway Committee of Parliament would seem to be in order."

MR. WHITNEY AT THE PRESS BANQUET

PAYS A HIGH TRIBUTE TO THE PRESS AS AN UPLIFTING POWER.

At the Press Association banquet, held in Toronto last night, Mr. J. P. Whitney, Opposition leader, spoke as follows:

He said at the outset that he was there is a receptive mood, and would only make a "short talk." He had stipulated on coming that any remarks he would be called upon to make would be brief. Two thoughts had struck him to-night. The first was the immense power of the press. The second was that every occupation and group in this country had its influence, and he was pleased to say that wherever the press circulated it made for the advancement and uplifting of the people.

Some few years ago in an election campaign he had particularly noted the peculiar power of the press. He had occasion in a locality in which he was well known to deny some silly story about himself. His denial was believed, but a young man got up and said: "But, Mr. Whitney, I saw it in the paper." He was heartily in accord with the work of the press, and with all its power he was sure that it had never abused that power. He had this acknowledgment to make to the press. While hard blows had been given and taken, he was bound to say that, as a public man, he had no cause to complain of anything that had left a sting behind it.

How to Get Rich:

Take a quantity of silica costing one-fourth the price of oil; mix it with oil, and sell the compound to the public at the price of pure oil; offer "prizes" with the compound to make it sell. It is such a compound the public get when they buy common soaps. In Sunlight Soap—Octagon Bar—the public buy a pure and well-made soap. Sunlight Soap reduces expense by prolonging the life of the articles washed with it, which is much more profitable to the public, than common soaps with "prizes." 204

LAME BACK

CURED BY

O.R. KIDNEY CURE

Trent Bridge, Ont., Jan. 8, 1903.

THE O. R. MEDICINE CO., LTD.,—

Gentlemen,—About four months ago I was completely prostrated being laid up with lame back, pains in shoulder, hip and back of neck. I suffered very much, and was unable to do any work. My wife had to look after everything as we could not secure any help.

I tried the best Doctor available; also several remedies without getting any benefit. A friend advised me to try the O. R. Kidney Cure, and before I had taken half a bottle I was well enough to start ploughing. I am now completely cured, and can with the greatest confidence recommend O. R. Kidney Cure.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN H. SCOTT, Farmer.

Thought He Was a Bookie.

Since the appearance of W. A. Fraser's novel of the racecourse, "Thoroughbreds," he has become the subject of many jokes devised by his fellow sportsmen whenever he appears at the tracks, at all of which he is well known as a horseowner and racer. Recently, as he was standing in the enclosure, a man, who was obviously a recent arrival from England, approached him and said, politely:

"My dear sir, I'd like to place a bet."

"Well, I've no objections," said Mr. Fraser.

"I want to put a fiver on Getaway to win. What odds do you offer?"

"I don't offer any odds," said the horseman, somewhat surprised, "What you want is a bookmaker."

"Aren't you a bookmaker?"

"See here," said the author, beginning to get exasperated, "I don't know what you mean by this extraordinary performance, but if you're trying to be impertinent——"

"My dear sir! my dear sir!" cried the other in distress, that was obviously genuine, "I meant no offence. Those gentlemen directed me to you as the man who made the best book that was ever made about the track."

Looking in the direction indicated, Mr. Fraser beheld three of his friends convulsed with glee.

"All right," he said, sadly; "that's one more on me."

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

"There was—but please don't ask me now. I can't tell, only I was not to blame. Believe me, father, I was not to blame."

"I'll swear to that," was the reply, and father Cameron commenced his walking again, just as Esther came to the door with the morning letters.

There was one from Wilford for Katy, who nervously tore off the envelope and read as follows:

"Will you be sorry when you read this and find that I am gone, that you are free from the husband you do not love,—whom, perhaps, you never loved, though I thought you did. I trusted you once, and now I do not blame you as much as I ought, for you are young and easily influenced. You are very susceptible to flattery, as was proven by your career at Saratoga and Newport. I had no suspicion of you then, but now that I know you better, I see that it was not all childish simplicity which made you smile so graciously upon those who sought your favor. You are a coquette, Katy, and the greater one because of that semblance of artlessness which is the perfection of art. This, however, I might forgive, if I had not learned that another man loved you first and wished to make you his wife, while you, in your secret heart, wish you had known it sooner. Don't deny it, Katy; I saw it in your face when I first told you of Dr. Grant's confession, and I heard it in your voice as well as in your word, when you said 'A life at Linwood would be perfect rest compared with this.' That hurt me cruelly, Katy. I did not deserve it from one for whom I have done and borne so much, and it was the final cause of my leaving you, for I am going to Washington to enroll myself in the service of my country. You will be happier without me for a while, and perhaps when I return, Linwood will not look quite the little paradise it does now.

"I might reproach you with having telegraphed to Dr. Grant about that miserable Genevra affair which you had not discretion enough to keep to yourself. Few men would care to have their wives send for a former lover in their absence and ask that lover to take them away. Your saintly cousin, good as he is, cannot wonder at my vexation, or blame me greatly for going away. Perhaps he will offer you comfort, both religious and otherwise; but if you ever wish me to return, avoid him as you would shun a deadly poison. Until I countermand the order, I wish you to remain in the house which I bought for you. Helen and your mother both may live with you, while father will have a general oversight of your affairs; I shall send him a line to that effect.

"Your Disappointed Husband."

This was the letter, and there was perfect silence while Katy read it through, Mr. Cameron never taking his eyes from her face which turned first white, then red, then spotted, and finally took a leaden hue as Katy ran over the lines, comprehending the truth as she read, and when the letter was finished, lifting her dry, tearless eyes to Father Cameron, and whispering to herself.

"Deserted!"

She let him read the letter, and when he had finished, explained the parts he did not understand, telling him now what Morris had confessed—telling him too that in her first sorrow, when life and sense seemed reeling, she had sent for Dr. Grant, knowing she could trust him and be right in doing whatever he advised.

"Why did you say you sent for him—that is, what was the special reason?" Mr. Cameron asked, and Katy told him her belief that Genevra was living—that it was she who made the bridal trousseau for Wilford's second wife, she who nursed his child until it died, giving to it her own name, arraying it for the grave, and then leaving before the father came.

"I never told Wilford," Katy said. "I felt as if I would rather he should not know it yet. Perhaps I was wrong, but if so, I have been terribly punished."

Mr. Cameron could not look upon the woman who stood before him, so helpless and stricken in her desolation, and believe her wrong in anything. The guilt lay in another direction, and when, as the terrible reality that she was indeed a deserted wife came rushing over Katy, she tottered toward him for help, he stretched his arms out for her, and taking the sinking figure in them, laid it upon the sofa as gently, as kindly, as Wilford had ever touched it in his most loving days.

Katy did not faint nor weep. She was past all that; but her face was like a piece of marble, and her eyes were like those of the hunted fawn when the chase is at its height, and escape impossible.

"Wilford will come back, of course," the father said, "but that does not help us now. What the plague—who is ringing that bell enough to break the wire?" he added, as a sharp, rapid ring echoed through the house, and was answered by Esther. "It's my wife," he continued, as he caught the sound of her voice in the hall.

"You stay here while I meet her first, alone. I'll give it to her for cheating me so long, and raising thunder generally!"

Katy tried to protest, but he was half way down the stairs, and in a moment more was with his wife, who, impatient at his long delay, had come herself, armed and equipped, to censure Katy as the cause of Wilford's disappearance, and to demand of her what she had done. But the lady who came in so haughty and indignant was a very different personage from the lady who, after listening for fifteen minutes to a fearful storm of oaths and reproaches, mingling with startling truths and bitter denunciations against herself and her boy, sank into a chair, pale and trembling, and overwhelmed with the harvest she was reaping.

But her husband was not through with her yet. He had reserved the bitterest drop for the last, and coming close to her he said:

"And who think you the woman is—this Genevra, Wilford's and your divorced wife? You were too proud to acknowledge an apothecary's daughter! See if you like better a dressmaker, a nurse to Katy's baby, Marian Hazelton!"

He whispered the last name, and with a shriek the lady fainted. Mr. Cameron would not summon a servant; and as there was no water in the room, he walked to the window, and lifting the sash scraped from the sill a handful of the light spring snow which had been falling since morning. With this he brought his wife back to consciousness, and then marked out her future course.

"I know what is in your mind," he said; "people will talk about Wilford's going off suddenly, and you would like to have all the blame rest on Katy; but, madam, hear me: Just so sure as through your means one breath of suspicion falls on her, I'll blurt out the whole story of Genevra. Then see who is censured. On the other hand, if you hold your tongue, and make Juno hold hers, and stick to Katy through thick and thin, acting as if you would like to swallow her whole, I'll say nothing of this Genevra. Is it a bargain?"

"Yes," came faintly from the sofa cushions, where Mrs. Cameron had buried her face, sobbing in a confused, frightened way, and after a few moments asking to see Katy, whom she kissed and caressed with unwonted tenderness, telling her Wilford would come back, and adding, that in any event no one could or should blame her. "Wilford was wrong to deceive you about Genevra. I was wrong to let him; but we will have no more concealments. You think she is living still—that she is Marian Hazelton?" and Mrs. Cameron smoothed Katy's hair as she talked, trying to be motherly and kind, while her heart beat more painfully at thoughts of a Genevra living, than it ever had at thoughts of a Genevra dead.

Wilford's leaving home so suddenly to join the army, could not fail, even in New York, to cause some excitement, especially in his own immediate circle of acquaintance, and for several days the matter was discussed in all its phases, and every possible opinion and conjecture offered, as to the cause of his strange freak. They could not believe in domestic troubles when they saw how his family clung to and defended Katy from the least approach of censure. Juno taking up her abode with her "afflicted sister," Mrs. Cameron driving round each day to see her; Bell always speaking of her with genuine affection, while the father clung to her like a hero, the quartette forming a barrier across which the shafts of scandal could not reach.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

When Wilford left Katy so abruptly, he had no definite purpose in his mind. Like most angry people, he forgot wherein he had been in fault, but charged it all to Katy as he went down Broadway that spring morning, finding on his table a letter from an old classmate, who was then in Washington getting up a company, and who wrote urging his friend to join him at once, and offering him the rank of First Lieutenant. Here was a temptation—here an opportunity to revenge himself on Katy, against whom he wrote a sad list of errors, making it sadder by brooding over and magnifying it until he reached a point from which he would not swerve.

"I shall do it," he said, and his lips were pressed firmly together, as in his private office he sat revolving the past, and then turning to the future, opening so darkly before him, and making him shudder as he thought of what it might bring. "I will spare Katy as much as possible," he said, "for hers is a different nature from Genevra's. She cannot bear as well," and a bitter groan broke the silence of the room as Katy came up before him just as she had looked that very morning standing by the window, with tears in her eyes, and a wistful, sorry look on her white face.

But Wilford was not one to retract when a decision was reached, and so he arranged his business matters as well as his limited time would allow; then, after the brief note to his father, wrote the letter to Katy and then followed to the Jersey ferry a regiment of soldiers who were going on to Washington that night. Four days more and Lieutenant Wilford Cameron, with no regret as yet for the past, marched away to swell the ranks of men, who, led by General McClellan, were pressing on, as they believed, to Richmond and victory. A week of terrible suspense went by, and then there came a letter to Mr. Cameron from his son, requesting him to care for Katy, but asking no forgiveness for himself. There were no apologies.

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

It sometimes happens that a man of resources is one who has ingenious

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the billiousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 66 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

Don't feel that the world has no place for you because it fails to recognize you as a genius.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Coral is a talisman against thunder and evils by flood and field.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality, Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

BETTER GOODS, BETTER VARIETY, BETTER VALUE ARE NOT POSSIBLE, OR WE WOULD HAVE THEM.

TIMELY TOPICS

The letter on "Civic Offices," from the facile pen of Col. Ponton, which appears in another column, will, we are sure, be appreciatively read, even though everyone may not entirely agree with its sentiments. With all due respect to the Colonel, for whom as an aggressive and progressive citizen we have unlimited respect, we cannot exactly see eye to eye with him on one or two points ourselves. To begin with, he gives it as his opinion that "in rendering the tenure of public office in this city so precarious and of so little stability," the Council may soon find itself unable to secure men to fill its positions of trust. Is not this inference somewhat far-fetched? If the engagement of each civic servant terminated on the last day of February in each year, would those officials not be as painstaking and efficient as they are at present? Suppose the Board of Education is taken as a criterion. In last night's Intelligencer our readers saw where the secretary-treasurer of that body was re-appointed on a motion duly moved, seconded and voted on. Why would not a rule of that kind work as well in the Council as in the Board of Education?

The fact that "almost every newspaper in Canada has commented on the Council's action," to quote the Colonel again, does not by any means prove that the act was ill-advised; neither does it prove that it was right. To our mind, if it proves anything, it proves that the Council made a rather radical move, which need not necessarily have alarmed nor offended anybody, inasmuch as it was expressly stated that the object of the Council was to bring about a readjustment of duties and a proper location of responsibilities, something which, if reports are to be believed, have not been any too strictly defined lately.

Colonel Ponton appears to think that the Council is looking for new men to fill the civic offices. We do not, of course, know what sources of information he may he is mistaken. One thing is sure, the popular sentiment of Belleville will not endorse any legislation looking to the discharge of any old and tried servant of the city unless an excellent reason for the same is given. That, we may as well say right here, is The Intelligencer's stand upon the question. But if, after being weighed in the balance, any of them are found wanting, why, as they say in Lancashire, "right's right, and right wrongs nobody." That much of course, is admitted by Col. Ponton himself.

As regards the question of remuneration, The Intelligencer has always held that for a municipality to attempt to run its affairs "on the cheap" was simply to invite disaster. The best man available is none too good, and his salary should be fixed according to his abilities, standing and responsibilities. But the best man available, after he has been engaged, should be told plainly and firmly what his duties are, and given to understand that any neglect of or violation of them will subject him to punishment fully as severe as he would receive if working for a private company. And now let us possess our souls in patience, and we shall see what we shall see.

INSURGENTS BRIBED.

Reports Regarding Action of U. S. Naval Officers.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Senator Morgan introduced a resolution asking the Secretary of the Navy to supply the Senate copies of any correspondence that may have occurred between the naval officers of the United States and persons on shore in Colombia during the recent stay of American vessels in Colombian waters. Mr. Morgan's purpose in introducing the resolution is to ascertain whether there is truth in the report that the American naval officers made an offer of $3,000,000 to the revolutionists to desist. He calls attention to the fact that the first treaty which the United States sought to negotiate with Colombia for the construction of the canal called for a payment of $7,000,000, whereas the treaty really negotiated calls for $10,000,000, the difference between the amount involved in the reports concerning offers to the insurgents.

THE TYPHOID EPIDEMIC.

Forty New Cases Reported at Ithaca, New York.

Ithaca, N.Y., Feb. 6.—Forty new cases of typhoid fever and one death were reported to the city health authorities. The total number of cases is now 340. Dr. C. F. Curtis of the State Board of Health is here investigating the situation. He agrees with the city authorities that the cause of the epidemic is the city water supply. Water for drinking purposes at present is being brought from wells in surrounding towns. Many of the fever patients are students at Cornell University.

RULERS OF THE WORLD

MEAT EATING NATIONS ARE THE LEADERS IN EVERY BRANCH OF HUMAN ACHIEVEMENT.

The ruling nations of the world are meat eaters and history records that they always have been.

Vegetarians and food cranks may explain this in any way they choose, but the facts remain that the Americans, English, French, Russians and Germans are meat eating nations, and they are also the most energetic and most progressive.

The principal food of the heroic Boer soldier, known as Biltong, is a sort of dried beef, affording a great deal of nourishment in a highly concentrated form.

The weak races of people are the rice eating Chinese, Hindoos and Siamese, regarded since the dawn of history as non-progressive, superstitious and inferior physically and mentally to the meat eating nations who dominate them.

The structure of the teeth plainly indicates that human beings should subsist upon a variety of food, meat, fruit and grains, and it is unhygienic to confine one's diet to any one of those classes to the exclusion of another.

Meat is the most concentrated and most easily digested of foods, but our manner of living is often so unnatural that the digestive organs refuse to properly digest meat, eggs and similar nutritious and wholesome foods, but it is not because such food is unwholesome, but the real reason is that the stomach lacks, from disease or weakness, some necessary digestive element; hence arising indigestion and later on, chronic dyspepsia.

Nervous people should eat plenty of meat, convalescents should make meat the principal food, hard working people have to do so and brain workers and office men should eat, not so much meat, but at least once a day, and to insure its perfect digestion one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be taken after each meal, because they supply the peptones, diastase and fruit acids, lacking in every case of stomach trouble.

Nervous dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, gastritis, sour stomach, gas and acidity are only different names for indigestion, the failure to digest wholesome food, and the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cures them all because by affording perfect digestion the stomach has a chance to rest and recover its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the real household medicine; it is as safe and pleasant for the stomach-ache of the baby as it is for the imperfect digestion of its grandsire.

They are not a cathartic, but a digestive, and no pill habit can ever follow their use; the only habit Stuart's Tablets induce is the habit of good digestion, and consequently good health. [illegible]

INSANE MAN'S DEEDS.

Tried to Murder Sister and Then Drown Himself.

Glen's Falls, N.Y., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Samuel Kugel, a Russian, was murderously assaulted by her brother, William Silverman, and will die. The woman kept a store, which was a starting point for peddlers. Silverman said he was sick, and refused to go out, but his sister gave him his pack and pushed him into the street. He attacked her with a flatiron and threw her down the cellar stairs. He followed, and finding she was still alive struck her with an axe, fracturing her skull. Silverman then ran hatless and coatless to the Hudson River, a mile distant, where ice men were at work, and jumped in. He was hauled out, and told his rescuers that he had killed his sister. The police were notified, and took him into custody. Silverman came here from Chicago a year ago. Relatives say he was confined in an insane asylum in that city. He is thirty-five years old, and his sister fifty.

SETTLEMENT BLOCKED.

New Turn in the Venezuelan Negotions.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Irritated by the note of Minister Bowen, the Venezuelan representative addressed to the British Ambassador Monday last, refusing to accept the allies' proposal for a scheme of preferential payments, by which Great Britain, Germany and Italy were to receive 20 per cent. of the Customs receipts of La Guaira and Port Cabello, the allied powers have instructed their representatives here to submit the question of preferential treatemnt to President Roosevelt, and in the event he declines to act as arbitrator, to take this, and positively the entire Venezuelan controversy, to The Hague for settlement, thereby breaking off the negotiations with Mr. Bowen.

Glanders in Horses.

Bolton, Feb. 5.—(Special.) — Two horses were affected with a peculiar disease on the farm of Patrick Kenefick, Lloydtown, King Township. Mr. J. G. Gibson, V.S., was called, and diagnosed the disease as glanders. Both horses were promptly destroyed by order of the court.

OUR WHEAT IN GERMANY.

Could Not be Proved That it Was Mixed With American.

Berlin, Feb. 5.—The customs controversy regarding American wheat, which, it was claimed, contained a mixture of Canadian wheat, has been settled by the refunding of the extra duty. The committee of Hamburg and Berlin grain experts who were called in by the customs authorities. reported that it was impossible to prove cases where Canadian wheat was mixed with American. It is believed by the German shippers that the recent agreement with the American exchanges that Canadian wheat certificates must be marked "Bonded" will remove all causes for disagreements in the future.

ADA M'KENZIE'S DEATH.

Young St. Thomas Woman Takes Carbolic Acid.

St. Thomas, Feb. 6.—Miss Ada McKenzie, 23 years old, daughter of Mrs. Delia McKenzie of this city, died about 2 o'clock yesterday in the Amasa Wood Hospital from the effects of a dose of carbolic acid. Miss McKenzie for the last ten months has been employed by Mrs. W. Mickleborough, Centre street. About 12.30 she was found in her room, suffering great pain, having taken a dose of carbolic acid, it is supposed, in mistake for other medicine.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Grain is Lower—The Live Stock Trade—Latest Quotations.

Thursday Evening, Feb. 5.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Receipts at St. Lawrence Market continue light, with business generally rather quiet. The total grain receipts amounted to 1,200 bushels.

Wheat—White wheat shows a considerable advance in price and 400 bushels sold at 72½c to 74½c per bushel. Red is steady at 72c, 200 bushels selling at that figure. Goose shows 1½c to 2c advance, 200 bushels selling at 67½c to 68c per bushel.

Oats—The market is slightly easier; 400 bushels sold at 36½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Trade is quiet and quotations are unchanged. Choice light weight hogs are quoted at $8.40 to $8.60 per cwt and heavies at $7.75 to $8.

Hay—Receipts amounted to 20 loads. Prices of No. 1 timothy are easier at $12 to $16 per ton. Mixed or clover is steady at $6 to $9.

Straw—The market is easier at $9 to $10 per ton. Two loads were received.

Toronto Live Stock.

Trade at the Toronto Cattle Market this morning was a little dull. The run of cattle was only fair in quality and was not large. Quotations are generally unchanged, although prices for export cattle have a weak tendency and those for butcher cattle are a little firmer in feeling. The total run was 54 cars, including 695 cattle, 526 sheep and lambs, 931 hogs and 29 calves.

Export Cattle—The British embargo on Argentine cattle has been removed and Canadian dealers say that Canada's export trade in cattle will suffer accordingly. There was very little buying at the market today, as dealers say that do not want much stock at the present time. The run was of rather poor quality, and some of the stuff remained unsold. Prices are about steady, but with an easier feeling. About $5 per cwt was paid for the best stock on the market.

Butchers' Cattle—The trade was fairly brisk, with a firmer feeling in prices. The run of cattle was light, while the demand for medium butchers' showed a little improvement, and as a consequence prices were a little firmer in feeling. About $4.50 per cwt was paid for the best stock offered, while small lots of extra fine stock brought a little better prices.

Stockers and Feeders—The market is about steady, with a fair demand for this class of cattle. About $3.15 to $4 was paid for mixed stock.

Sheep and Lambs—Trade was fairly good and everything was sold early. The quality of stock was, however, rather poor and the run was light. Prospects for the sheep and lamb trade are about steady.

Calves—The market is steady and trade quiet. Prices are unchanged at $2 to $10 each and 4½c to 6c per lb.

Hogs—Prices continue steady, with the trade somewhat dull and featureless.

Montreal Live Stock.

Montreal, Feb. 5.—There were about 400 head of butchers' cattle, 35 milch cows, 12 calves and 50 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir to-day, and about 200 other cattle and a number of sheep and lambs were sold here yesterday. Trade was rather slow, but everything good was held at firm rates. There were no prime beeves on the market to-day, and the best cattle did not bring over 4¾c per lb; pretty good sold at from 3¾c to 4½c and some very fine calves were bought by Mr. Richot for $30, or at the rate of 5½c per lb.; the other calves sold at from 4c to 5c per lb. Sheep sold at from 3¼c to 3¾c and lambs at from 4¼c to 4¾c per lb. Good lots of fat hogs sold at 6c to 6¼c per lb, weighed off the cars. The demand for milch cows was not very brisk and prices ranged from $25 to $60 each.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 5.—Cattle—Receipts light; feeling stronger. Veals—Receipts, 150 head; 25c higher; tops, $8.50 to $9.25; common to good, $5.50 to $8.25. Hogs—Receipts, 4,300 head; active; 10c to 15c higher; heavy, $7.10 to $7.20; mixed, $7.10 to $7.15; Yorkers, $7 to $7.10; pigs, $7; roughs, $6 to $6.25; stags, $5 to $5.50. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 8,100 head; steady; top lambs, $6.40 to $6.50; culls to good, $4.25 to $6.35; yearlings, $5.25 to $5.50; ewes, $4.25 to $4.40; top mixed sheep, $4.50 to $4.75; culls to good, $2 to $4.40.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—Cattle—Receipts, 6,500; steady and strong; good to prime steers, $4.60 to $6.15; poor to medium, $3 to $4.50; stockers and feeders, $2.30 to $4.50; cows, $1.40 to $4.50; heifers, $2.25 to $4.75; canners, $1.40 to $2.60; bulls, $2.25 to $4.40; calves, $3.50 to $7.25; Texas fed steers, $3.50 to $4.35. Hogs—Receipts, 24,000; mixed and butchers', $6.60 to $6.90; good to choice heavy, $6.90 to $7.05; rough heavy, $6.65 to $6.85; light, $6.40 to $6.65; bulk of sales, $6.60 to $6.80. Sheep—Receipts, 14,000; sheep steady to strong; good to choice wethers, $4.50 to $5.25; fair to choice mixed, $3.60 to $4.50; western, $4 to $5.25; native lambs, $4.50 to $6.35; western lambs, $4.75 to $6.50.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

Montreal, Feb. 5.—There is a fair local and export demand for oats. No. 2 white sold locally at 37c to 37½c ex-store and at 31c to 32c east for export.

Peas—Are quoted at 72c to 72½c high freights.

Buckwheat—At 49c to 49½c east on Grand Trunk Railway.

Flour—The demand for most grades is light, but prices are firm. We quote:—Choice Manitoba spring wheat patents, $4.40 to $4.50; seconds, $4.10 to $4.20; strong bakers', $3.70; winter wheat patents, $3.85 to $4.10; straight rollers, $3.70 to $3.80; do in bags, $1.70 to $1.75; extras, $1.60 to $1.65.

Meal—The demand is chiefly of a jobbing nature, with prices steady at $4.10 to $4.20 per barrel and at $1.95 to $2 per bag.

Butter—There is a good jobbing trade in best creamery at 22c to 22½c.

Eggs—The market is dull and unchanged. Quote selected eggs, 18c to 20c; candled stock, 15c to 16c; Montreal limed, 14½c to 15c; cold storage, 12½c to 14c, and western limed, 12c to 13½c per dozen.

Provisions—The market is moderately active, with a steady undertone. We quote:—Heavy Canadian short cut mess pork, $24; Canada short cut back pork, $23 to $23.50; finest kettle lard, in 20-lb pails, 12¼c; extra pure lard, in 20-lb pails, 10¾c to 11¼c; choice refined compound lard, 8½c to 9c; Boar's Head brand, in 20-lb wood pails, $1.96 to $2.05; Globe, at $1.75 to $1.85; 20-lb tin pails, ¼c less per lb; hams, 12½c to 14c, and bacon, 14c to 15c per lb.

British Markets.

Intestinal Indigestion

Cannot be reached by stomach medicines or digestants because the LIVER AND KIDNEYS ARE DERANGED and the bowels are constipated. MR. BERNHARDT'S case is a good example of what thousands are suffering.

By far the most important part of digestion takes place in the intestines, as has been repeatedly shown in cases where the stomach has been removed and the patient has lived and digested food without the aid of the stomach.

MR. BERNHARDT

It frequently happens that people who continually dose the stomach for indigestion and use pepsin and various kinds of digestive tablets and powders can obtain no relief from such treatment, because the real trouble is in the intestines, the liver and the kidneys.

There is fullness and pains after meals, coated tongue, headache, loss of appetite, pains in the limbs and in the back and shoulders, flatulency and constipation, frequently alternating with diarrhoea.

There has yet to be a remedy discovered that is so prompt and thorough in curing intestinal indigestion as DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS, and as this is the most common and severe form of indigestion it can well be claimed that DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS are the most successful treatment extant for indigestion and dyspepsia.

Mr. Hubert Bernhardt, George Street, Galt, Ont., states:—"I was troubled for years with kidney and liver derangements and stomach disorders, and suffered a great deal from pains in the back. My digestion was very poor, gas would form on my stomach, and I would often feel great distress after meals. Ordinary medicines did not seem to suit my case at all, but I found that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills were both prompt and thorough in their action. They have entirely cured me of my old troubles, my digestion is excellent and I do not know what it is to have a pain in my back now. I can heartily recommend these pills as a splendid medicine for kidney and liver troubles and indigestion."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

It is not unusual for persons who have long been suffering from chronic indigestion, biliousness and constipation to be thoroughly cured by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS, which have by far the largest sale of any similar remedy. You may be skeptical, as others have been before you, but a single trial of DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS will convince you of their unusual medicinal value. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box. At all dealers, or EDMANSON, BATES & CO., Toronto.

Married at Melrose

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lazier, at Melrose, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, January 28th, when their sister, Miss Mary A. Thompson, was united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Fusee to Mr. Wm. Marshall, of Kingston. The bride was gowned in pale blue silk crepaline, trimmed with cream chiffon and applique, and was assisted by Miss Flora May Embury, who was attired in cream silk. Both carried bouquets of roses. Little Miss Florence Lazier was maid of honor. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. J. Marshall. At the conclusion of the ceremony the guests to the number of about fifty, sat down to a sumptuous repast. The popularity of the bride was shown by the many beautiful and valuable presents. The bride's going away gown was of brown broadcloth, with black velvet picture hat and sable furs. The wishes of a large circle of friends for a happy future follow the bride and groom to their home in Kingston.

SPRINGBROOK.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Sam Mumby is worse again. His many friends hope to hear of his recovery soon.

The quarterly service was conducted on February 1st by Rev. Mr. Banfor and Rev. Mr. Hough at 10.30 a.m. There was a large attendance. Rev. Mr. Banfor and Rev. Mr. Hough attended the Sunday School in the afternoon. The grand address that was given to the children by Mr. Banfor will never be forgotten by the children, neither the older people. The anniversary sermon was delivered in the evening by Rev. Mr. Banfor and Rev. Mr. Hough, the church being well filled.

The reports are we will have a large gathering this evening, Feb. 2, at the tea meeting, as everyone is trying to make everything as pleasant as possible. The choir has devoted much time in practicing, so as to render good music for the occasion.

Corticelli SPOOL SILK

For dressmaking and family sewing Corticelli Silk is the best silk made. For hand or machine use it has no equal.

Corticelli Silk runs smoothly in the needle; it is always even in size, and always full length and full strength. Ask your dealer for "Corticelli," and politely, but firmly, refuse all substitutes, which some clerks may say are "just as good." You may be sure they all lack the many excellent qualities of the genuine Corticelli Silk.

SMALLPOX SCARE OVER IN DESERONTO

A DRUMMER'S HASTY ACTION IN A HOTEL.

All danger of an epidemic of smallpox at Deseronto now seems about over and the residents of that town are gradually recovering from their alarm. The Deseronto House, in which the case occurred has been thoroughly fumigated and will re-open for business again in a few days. On the Reservation there is still a number of cases but fences have been erected between it and the town, and guards are constantly on the alert and allow no one to pass. In connection with the scare some very amusing stories are told. One commercial traveller who was staying at the Deseronto House, when he heard that the proprietor had been taken with the disease, rushed up to his room, and in his eagerness to get his effects out of the hotel, threw his trunk through the window, carrying away sash and all.

DEPUTATION RETURNS

MINISTER OF MILITIA WILL GIVE DRILL SHED MATTER "HIS CAREFUL CONSIDERATION.

Some members of the civic deputation which went to Ottawa, in reference to the erection of a new drill shed, have returned home. The deputation were cordially received by Sir F. Borden, Minister of Militia, who heard the arguments set forth in support of a substantial drill shed being erected in the city. The Minister, of course, promised the deputation that the matter would receive due and careful consideration. There is no doubt, it is thought, that a drill shed will be erected, but its capacity or cost can only be guessed at.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

PLEASANT CURE FOR WEAK LUNGS.

The best remedy for sore, weak lungs is the soothing vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and passage of the breathing organs. It treats remote parts that cough mixtures and sprays can't approach, and kills thousands of germs at every breath. Catarrhozone drives away pain, congestion and inflammation; it makes breathing easy and regular, and exerts a marvellous influence on coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, catarrh, deafness and lung trouble. Catarrhozone cures at once, is delightful to inhale, and simple to use. Price $1; small size 25c. Druggists or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston Ont.

Hilton's Revival

One of the most stirring revivals of the twentieth century is being conducted at Hilton by the Pastor, Rev. G. E. Ross. I am sure that the people at Hilton have never experienced such an outpouring of God's spirit as they have received during these last few weeks. In fact, that is what the people say themselves. During the few weeks that the meetings have been going on over forty have surrendered themselves fully and wholly unto God. The reason of such great success is owing to the devotedness, harmony and unity of the Pastor and people. They are all working together for the salvation of sinners. They are experiencing a little of heaven on earth, and they have the old-time Pentecostal power in their meetings. We wish them every success as the meetings continue.—Com.

A WONDERFUL TONIC AND STRENGTHENER.

Said a druggist to-day, "No doubt about it, the tonic that gives best results is the biggest seller, and that is Ferrozone. It enriches and purifies the blood, restores strength and energy to the feeble and is a scientific reconstructor, that was always popular. In chlorosis, anaemia, tiredness, languor, brain fag, indigestion and dyspepsia its action is prompt and satisfactory cures always follow. Yes, I recommend Ferrozone to my customers because I believe it is the best tonic and strengthening medicine that money can buy." Large boxes cost 50c. Sold by J. S. McKeown.

Literary Notes.

FASHION HINTS FOR SPRING.

Novelty suitings show a variety of styles; the Scotch mixtures, having bourettes of lustrous angora mohair are among the smartest.

The shirt-waist costume has attained a prominent place among the fashionable modes, the amount of variation possible in constructing adding materially to its popularity.

The blouse jacket continues to enjoy favor, and many of the smartest modes are of this shaping.

Skirts fit smoothly about the hips and flare at the bottom, though some pleasing modes show shirrings and tucks at the hips.

An attractive decoration for the sleeves off the new tailor gowns is achieved by slashing them at the back and lacing them across with silk cord on small buttons.

Points are a feature in skirt decoration that will not easily lose their popularity.

Embroidery is as popular as it has been for several seasons—From The Delineator for March.

Spring's coming is anticipated in The Designer for March, in which toilettes and millinery appropriate for this most beautiful season of the year are becomingly set forth in dainty colors, as well as in black and white. Of great practical value are the "Lessons in Millinery" and "Points on Dressmaking," and scarcely less so are "Helps Along the Way," "Etiquette Hints," "In Motherland." "Toilet Table Chat" and "The Kitchen Kingdom." "What Women are Doing" gives many interesting paragraphs in this issue. "Doilies in Filmy Lace" shows some beautiful pieces of fancy work, and many clever poems for old and young are given in "Selections for the Recitationist." "Floriculture" and "Book Notes," also an illustrated article on "Lingerie" are likely to be found in this month's Designer.

MASSASSAGA.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Snider, of Toronto, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Lent and other relatives in this neighborhood for a few days during the past week.

Mrs. Seeley, of Sidney, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Catberall, this week.

Considerable interest is being manifested by the people of this place about building a new factory for the manufacture of cheese. A meeting was recently held at the school house to talk over the matter, and although a majority favored sending their milk to a stock factory in preference to an individual, the bone of contention was as to the site. Some favored having it where the Mountain View factory now stands, whilst others wanted it more centrally located near the premises of Wilbert S. Mabee. A vote of those present was taken and a small majority favored retaining the factory at the present site. Since then, however, some of the patrons of the factory have circulated a paper asking for subscriptions for stock and already nearly six hundred shares have been subscribed, the new factory to be near W. S. Mabee's corner.

Last summer, during the absence from home of Mr. Charlies Skinkle, a cultivator mysteriously disappeared from his premises and later on in the early fall a neighbor, Mr. James Halliday found himself suddenly minus a plough. For a long time the whereabouts of the missing articles was a complete mystery, but recently imagining that they had a clue as to where they might be found, they consulted legal authority and were contemplating taking out a search warrant. On Tuesday morning, however, it was found unnecessary to invoke the strong arm of the law to aid them in recovering their property, for lo! whilst on their way to their way to the barn to attend to their morning chores, what should they find but the missing agricultural implements in front of their respective drive sheds coated over with paint of a different hue from that which adorned them previous to taking their midnight trip last summer. They had evidently been put to use by their new owner as they came back considerably the worse of wear, and we venture to say that if the party will show up, and has anything to trade, Charlie will give him a "deal" and let him have it to use again this summer.

Belleville's Best Clothiers

Sports and Pastimes.

The sporting fraternity of Kingston is, to use a homely expression, very sore, and the following, from the Whig, will tell you all about it:

"Port Hope Intermediate Hockey Club has protested the Belleville matches, alleging that the latter played a professional, John Marks. The ground taken is that Marks played with the Kingston Pony baseball team last summer, and, therefore, became professional. The Port Hope skin-deep sporting fraternity, of the tin-horn variety, might have saved themselves their money and time, as they will gain nothing by their complaint to the O.H.A. Belleville defeated their team twice, and can do so as many times more.

"But an interesting story must be told in regard to the protest. Yesterday morning two young men called upon a prominent citizen, saying they were from Toronto. They wanted to help Marks, they said, to get a good baseball position in Toronto, but required an affidavit that he had played with the Ponies. The citizen was a bit suspicious at first, but on being pressed, consented to give the affidavit, at the same time declaring that if it was to be used against Marks, the two young men would hear from him again (and so they will). In the afternoon, it developed that the strangers were from Port Hope, and that the affidavit was to be used in the protest against Belleville. The president of the latter club was immediately informed by telephone, and offered every aid in blocking Port Hope's contemptible action.

"Of course the affidavit was of no consequence, there being nothing to hide about Marks having played with the Ponies, and Kingston sporting fraternity will lend Belleville every assistance in fighting the case. Marks did play several matches with the Ponies when "Chaucer" Elliott was unable to catch, but he is no professional. Even if Marks had been in reality a professional, Port Hope would gain nothing, because he has not been declared one, and according to O.R.F.U and other precedent, he would not be professional until the declaration is made. And further, the matches in which he took part would stand, as was the case with "Chaucer" Elliott when he played rugby."

Everyone, of course, will feel grateful to The Whig for its kindly words, and will readily absolve the Kingston sports of any intention to injure the team of this city. Still, we don't wonder that the Limestone City people feel a little warm over the underhanded way in which they were tricked. However, the protest seems to be dropped, and now here's hoping the Kingston Ramblers win their round. Nothing would please us better than to see them as the next opponents of the local boys. If they do come we'll give them a fair show and, we hope, a fair beating. But, in any event, we won't forget the graceful words of our old enemy The Whig.

There's no denying it, a little bit of sport is a great thing to keep things moving. Quite a few dollars found their way into the city as a result of the two championship matches played here. Many people benefited, and just look at the quantity of red and white ribbon the dry goods men sold! Yes, sir, a little bit of good healthy, honest sport is all right, when not carried to excess, and in this connection it will be gratifying news to many to learn that Belleville's lacrosse players intend to enter a team in the O.L.A. next summer, and thus keep alive the sporting spirit, which will not, as in the past, be allowed to die out when the good old summer time comes. The boys should be encouraged, and everything in reason done to aid them.

HOCKEY.

How The Telegram Sees It.

Toronto Telegram:—A Stratford critic picks Belleville to win the Intermediate O.H.A. championship and his pick appears to be a pretty fair one, though with Barrie, Paris, Stratford and the Marlboros and others still in the running it's not easy to say what might happen before spring. Paris have been confidently picked to beat Stratford, but their performance against London last night was hardly up to expectations. To be sure, they tied the Cockneys on the latter's ice, but they showed symptoms of an aerial flight in the first half that would have proved disastrous in faster company.

What Barrie can do when they come further south remains to be seen, but they have been travelling in pretty fast company up where they are and they may surprise even Belleville. While the Marlboros were good enough to pile up a record score against Niagara Falls and, with such men as Earls and Birmingham in their ranks, must be counted with. It's a long way to the finish yet and big, strong and fast as Belleville are they only have to falter once to be out of it.

STREET RAILWAY STRIKERS SEVERELY BEAT A NON-UNION MOTORMAN.

(Special to The Intelligencer.)

Montreal, Feb. 6.—In accordance with the decision reached at midnight, the conductors and motormen of the Montreal Street Railway went on strike this morning, and as a result not a wheel is turning.

An attempt was made to run a car out of the Cote St. sheds at 4.30 this morning, but the strikers were in an ugly mood and would not permit the car to go out.

A motorman named Costigan was beaten by the strikers, and is reported to have sustained serious injuries.

The police are out in force to prevent trouble.

Horse Ran Away

Runaway horses appear to be somewhat plentiful at present in this section of the country. Last evening Mr. George Elmey, who resides in the first concession of Thurlow, called into this office to receive his paper, leaving his horse in charge of a boy. The animal became frightened and turning around quickly upset the cutter and off it started down street at a good fast gait. After making a tour of Bridge and George streets the animal struck out on the Kingston Road towards home which it soon reached. The boy was fortunately not hurt and the only damage sustained was to the cutter.

COL. PONTON WRITES INCISIVELY ON THE COUNCIL'S RECENT ACTION.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Sir,—I have no intention or desire to enter into any controversy with the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Belleville, and I feel sure that they will not object to an interchange of views on public matters. I simply desire to point out, that in my opinion, as a citizen, they do not really represent the will or the wish of the people of Belleville, in rendering the tenure of public office in this city so precarious and of so little stability, that soon no good man will be found who will desire to subject himself to the constant danger of change, the constant necessity of pleasing successive boards of control. There will always be found, of course, in every community, a certain number of office-seekers, to whom permanence is not an essential, and who can use city offices as step-gaps, but it cannot be pretended that the city could expect from them the best public service. We have, of course, no fault to find with the Council disciplining an official, who does not do his duty, but if there be any such in Belleville can his dereliction, by any possibility, be made a justification for wounding the feelings, injuring the standing and rendering doubtful the position, of all those good and tried servants of the city who for many years have identified themselves with the city's interests, and given every evidence of good citizenship, both in and out of office. I do not believe that the Mayor and the Council could have realized when they passed their sweeping resolution declaring all civic positions vacant, what the injurious results would be, not merely to the incumbents of the offices, but also, as many think, to the city as a whole. Technically the Council have the power, but practically they should only exercise it along the lines of public opinion, and to meet public requirements. Will anyone say that any large percentage of the public of Belleville have asked the Council to take this action? I do not believe with the "Globe" that it is a case of "public office open to private tender," nor with the "World" that it is a case of "to the victors belong the spoils"; nor with the Kingston papers that "Belleville is necessarily either asleep or volcanic, and that this is a case of volcanic eruption", but the mere fact that almost every newspaper in Canada has commented upon the extraordinary nature of the measure introduced, ought, apart from the comments of our own citizens, to call a pause, and I trust that the members of the City Council will listen to the voice of conservative prudence and will reconsider the general question involved, apart altogether from individual instances. In looking for new men let us not forget the long services of the older men, and while offering and giving generously bonuses to outsiders, let us not grudge a few, well-earned dollars to our own public servants, who have, in their own quiet way, perhaps, done as much to help bring about the present prospects of prosperity in our city as those of us who have been more frequently heard from, both in speech and through the press. On the eve of civic prosperity why should we change? Why should we grudge and make the larger share of our burden fall upon a few?

It has been urged in Council that we should this year have an "Old Boys' Day" to welcome back and endeavor to induce to settle among us again the many old boys—whether prosperous or prodigals—whom Belleville, as a radiating centre, has sent out to fight life's battles, all over the continent. What will be said of us if we only remember them, and forget the old boys at home, some of whom have spent the best years of their life in our service, and none of whom on the salaries we have paid them, have been able to accumulate even a maintenance for old age. Apart from this sentiment, however, (a sentiment, nevertheless, which is part of the city's life), there is the broader question of the city's interests, and those interests many believe cannot be served by rendering the tenure of all public office dependent upon the relations of the occupants to the City Council, nor upon the changes of our elective representatives, but it should be dependent only upon the faithful and efficient performance of their duties. It has been suggested that because aldermen change or are subject to change, civic executive positions might also be expected to be transitory. But would this be a true economic business principle to act on? Then with regard to the grudging of liberal remuneration; the calibre of the man who fills the office and his qualifications and experience are of more importance than the few paltry dollars by which his present salary may exceed that of his possibly inefficient successor. While gauging the work, let us not forget the responsibilities involved. Experience teaches. Let us not try to imitate certain phases of the life of our neighbors to the South. Moreover, new officials appointed at a low salary usually have their salaries increased to the old figure within twelve months. So new men in the end cost more than the old.

I offer these suggestions in no spirit of criticism but with the earnest hope that influenced by what I believe to be public opinion, the members of the Council will require and satisfy themselves as to whether or not they really are—even with the best intentions—acting in a manner calculated to effect the best ultimate results for the city in this connection. Surely a re-arrangement of offices—if either necessary or advisable—could be made without indiscriminately degrading or decapitating our trusty public servants, and forcing them to enter into public compewhen the results justify it, but meanwhile we contend that municipal problems are not solved nor municipal reforms effected, by severing old ties, by disheartening occupants of office, and by arbitrarily vacating the chairs of those whose status it should be our desire to improve, both as fellow-citizens and as officials of a city of which in the past they have been proud, and in promoting whose best welfare they have on the whole efficiently and earnestly co-operated. We are, or should be, all one, aldermen, officials and citizens, and this year of all years we should support one another, and keep the vital spark of executive administration glowing—all working together—without attempting too many doubtful reforms, which tend to create mutual distrust and unrest. Via trita, via tuta.

Of course, I fully recognize that in public matters there are always two points of view.

Yours, &c.,
W. N. PONTON

DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION

MR. J. J. HAINES TAKES ISSUE WITH "ANGLICAN CATHOLIC LAYMAN."

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Sir,—In reference to some articles appearing recently in your paper, I would say: Regeneration occurs but twice in the scriptures. It is often confounded with the new birth. But both terms are totally distinct. Regeneration is an OUTWARD change (Titus 3; 5. Matt. 19; 28). New birth is an INTERNAL state. The former is objective; the latter subjective—as to the teaching of John 3; 5. The expression "Born of water," we believe, in no way means baptism. The new birth is the Saviour's theme, without which no man can SEE or ENTER into the Kingdom of God. It was not yet come visibly—"not with observation"—but it was there among them, as God's new sphere of power and blessing. Flesh cannot perceive this Kingdom. Christ had not come to teach and improve the flesh, as Nicodemus seemed to think, but that man might be partaker of a Divine nature which is imparted by the Spirit. No mere external rite admits to the Kingdom. There must be a new nature or life suited to the new order of things; "and Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God." Then the Lord shows Nicodemus the only way of entering into the Kingdom. "Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God." Water is here used as the symbol of the cleaning and purifying power of the WORD of God; as in Peter, "seeing that ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit." Here the truth is spoken of as the instrument and the Spirit as the agent, in the new birth as he goes on to say, "Being born again not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the WORD of God." Two things are necessary—the Word and the Spirit, 1 Peter 1;22, 23. The passage obviously means the application of the word of God in the power of the Spirit—operating in the heart, conscience, thoughts and actions—and thereby bringing in a new life from God, in which we have His mind, and His thoughts about the Kingdom. The following passages will make it still plainer: "Of his own WILL begat he us with THE WORD OF TRUTH" (James 1; 18.) "That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of WATER BY the word" (Eph. 5; 26). "Now ye are clean through the WORD which I have spoken unto you" (John 15; 3.) Here we have the moral cleansing or purifying of the soul, by the application of the word through the Spirit which judges all things, and which works in us new thoughts and affections, suitable to the presence and glory of God.

As a question of interpretation then, we see no allusion to baptism in John 3; 5. Baptism may set forth that which is conveyed by it, as in Acts 22; 16, but baptism itself conveys nothing. On the other hand—according to the inspired commentaries in the Epistles—baptism is the sign of death, not of giving life, as the Fathers uniformly affirm—"Know ye not," says the Apostle, "that so many of us as were baptised into Jesus Christ were baptised into His death? Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into death." (Rom. 6; Col. 2; 1 Pet. 3).

Besides it is perfectly plain that Nicodemus could not possibly have known anything of proper Christian baptism, as it was not instituted by our Lord till after He arose from the dead. As to the Apostle Paul, no doubt conviction came home to his darkened soul by the Holy Spirit through the powerful sermon of Stephen (Acts 7), and when by faith he got a look at Jesus, as his sin bearer, on his way to Damascus (Acts 9,) he was born again—for life comes in a look (as the Bishop of Huron clearly shows in his book entitled "Life in a Look")—then he immediately shows his faith by his works—he owns Jesus as Lord—and he arose and was baptised—not by an Apostle, Bishop or Clergyman, as Anglican Catholic tells us, but by a "certain disciple" (Acts 9; 10.)

His baptism was the outward manifestation of what had inwardly taken place.

D.D.G.M. F. E. O'FLYNN MADE HIS OFFICIAL VISIT TO THE BELLEVILLE LODGE.

Bro. F. E. O'Flynn, D.D.G.M., last evening officially visited The Belleville Lodge, A.F. & A.M., of this city. In addition to a large number of the members of that lodge being present, many were in attendance from other local and outside lodges. At the conclusion of the lodge business the District Deputy and visitors were entertained in the banquetting hall in the Masonic building. With addresses and songs a very pleasant evening was spent.

Abused His Wife.

George Hunt was charged with abusing his wife, and the latter in giving her evidence stated that Hunt did abuse her, but qualified the statement by saying that he would not have done so had he not been intoxicated. On the other hand Hunt claims that he only found fault with his wife because she would not take proper care of the house, claiming that she spends too much time smoking the pipe. The Magistrate, after hearing the case, advised Hunt to live peacefully with his wife and maintain her in such a manner that she will not have to go out to work. He dismissed the charge.

Amusements

The Hamilton Herald, one of the most exacting critics of theatrical performances in Canada, had the following to say of Quinlan & Wall's Minstrels, which appear here on Monday evening: "It is one of the best minstrel shows ever seen here and far and away the best ever seen in Canada. The first part is original in make-up, the singing is good and the jokes new and bright. The olio is made up of high-class acts, the principal one being Jimmy Wall's singing and talking turn. Wall must be numbered among the cleverest minstrels of the day, and in his own peculiar line it is doubtful if he has a superior anywhere." advt

DOES IT MATTER?

How many people in buying a suit of clothes take the trouble to notice how it is made. The Oak Hall are very particular about the details, every suit must be made right and the trimmings must be good. When Bigamy is Not Serious.

Toronto, Feb. 6.—Mary Crawford, with an infant in her arms, and Henry D. Finlayson stood together in the dock at the Police Court yesterday charged with bigamy. It had been shown in evidence that the woman had known that the man had a legal wife still living, and in view of that Magistrate Denison said that the offence was not so serious as it would have been had the woman been ignorant of any previous marriage. The Crown Attorney contended that the law had been violated just the same, but the Magistrate held that its intention was to shield innocent women, and therefore in this case had not caused any serious disturbance, as the real wife had been aware of what was taking place. The two prisoners were sent to jail for sixty days.

TELEPHONE DEPUTATION.

VIEWS OF HON. CHARLES FITZPATRICK STATED.

Chairman of Foreign Relations Committee Also Pessimistic—Views of The London Chronicle.

Ottawa, Feb. 6.—It transpired at yesterday's interview between Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick and the representatives of Canadian municipalities that the Minister of Justice on Jan. 20th last wrote to Mr. W. B. Lighthall, Secretary of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, setting forth his opinions on the telephone question, and inviting suggestions, with a view to arriving at a practical, well-thought-out and complete scheme, which would commend itself to the collective wisdom of the municipalities. Mr. Fitzpatrick points out in the letter referred to that the bill of last session was withdrawn on the understanding that this year another more carefully considered and more satisfactory measure would be brought forward. He regarded the matter as one of the greatest importance, which presented many difficulties, and the more he had examined it the more complex and difficult of solution did the numerous problems connected with it appear.

Mr. O. A. Howland, President of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, introduced the subject by giving a recital of what had occurred since the previous interview in May last. He read a resolution passed by the association of which he was the chief executive officer, declaring amongst other things in favor of municipal control of local franchises and Government control of long-distance connection.

Mr. Fitzpatrick asked what was meant by Government control of long-distance transmission, and was told that the expression was so worded as to cover Government possession or Government control.

As to control of local franchises, Mr Howland added, the underlying principle was that municipalities, at all events urban municipalities, should have the right to make any reasonable regulation with reference to the occupation of their streets. Having that right, they could make terms and stipulations.

Mayor Urquhart—It has been questioned whether we have the jurisdiction over our streets, because the Bell Telephone Company argue that they have the right to enter and erect poles or put down conduits with practically no consultation with the local municipality at all.

Mr. Fullerton, Corporation Counsel of Toronto, drew attention to Mr. Fitzpatrick's promise at the previous interview, that if it was not clear that municipalities had the control of their own streets, the law would be made more specific.

Mr. Fitzpatrick, while seemingly of opinion that section 90 of the railway act conferred that right, concurred in this statement.

Mr. Fullerton pointed out that under the Conmee law in Ontario municipalities were empowered to expropriate water, light and gas companies, and suggested an extension of this power to telephone companies.

Mr. Dyke of Fort William related the unsatisfactory experience that his town and Port Arthur had with the Bell Telephone Company, which resulted in the decision by both places to install a system of their own. The Bell Company never asked for consent to use the streets, and none was given. Legislation on the lines proposed should be granted, so as to protect the people from oppressive conditions.

Mr. Hall of Peterboro' emphasized the point that the municipalities should have the control of their own streets, and make such regulations as they thought proper.

Mr. Bethune, in the interest of the City of Winnipeg, said that in any legislation enacted the rights of the municipalities to control their own highways should be respected.

In reply Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick said that he would report all that had taken place to his colleagues, after which he would communicate with Secretary Lighthall, and state as far as he could what were the intentions of the Government. "I might say," he observed, "that, speaking for myself, my opinion has not changed in the slightest degree with respect to the rights of municipalities to control their own streets. I think that is an essential requisite to proper municipal existence. It is absolutely inconceivable to me that the streets of a municipality should be under any authority or control other than that of the municipality." Mr. Fitzpatrick added that vested rights must also be considered. The men who were investing their capital and building up the country were deserving of consideration.

MR. MACKENZIE'S DENIAL.

Not in England to Negotiate With Grand Trunk.

London, Feb. 6.—Mr. Mackenzie of Mackenzie & Mann, interviewed by The Star correspondent, again emphatically denied the report that his visit had anything to do with the transfer of the Canadian Northern Railway to the Grand Trunk. He said:—"No negotiations whatever are afoot." When asked whether the report that he came to England to secure concessions in Venezuela and Mexico, and with an offer to construct a railway across Australia, was true, Mr. Mackenzie laughed.

FIGHT WITH ROBBERS.

Desperate Battle in an Indiana Postoffice.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 5.—A desperate battle occurred between a posse headed by Postoffice Inspector S. C. Kile and four robbers in the little postoffice at Huntingburg, Ind., which the men attempted to rob. About seventy shots were fired, and it is believed two of the robbers were shot. However, all four made their escape. The search is still in progress.

The fight was the culmination of a six days' chase by Inspector Kile after the robbers, who have within the past few weeks entered several postoffices in southern Indiana.

QUARRELLED OVER WOMEN.

COLORED MAN MAY DIE FROM BULLET WOUNDS.

Louis Goldsmith is in the Hospital and Walter Romaine, His Assailant, is a Prisoner—Women Also Held.

Toronto, Feb. 7.—Hovering between life and death in a ward in the Emergency Hospital lies Louis Goldsmith, a colored man, who conducted a small tailoring establishment at 102-104 Victoria street. The cause of the patient's serious condition is three bullet wounds inflicted at a late hour last night by his business partner, Walter Romaine, also colored. Romaine is under arrest, and is held for the present on a charge of shooting with intent to kill. If Goldsmith dies the charge will be changed to one of manslaughter. Goldsmith and Romaine are well known in Hamilton, where they lived before coming to Toronto. Alice Goldsmith, wife of Louis Goldsmith, and Annie Jackson, who were present at the time of the shooting, are also detained as material witnesses.

Goldsmith and his assailant since last September have been carrying on what is known as the New Process Cleaning & Pressing Company, and were fairly successful. Romaine is unmarried, and made his home with his partner. All lived at the Victoria street address. The parties were on good terms till about a week ago, when they quarrelled over some business matters. The quarrel was not of sufficient importance to cause the two men to dissolve partnership, so they continued to do business in the usual way.

There were in the place at 11 o'clock, the hour of the shooting, Romaine, Goldsmith, his wife and Annie Jackson. The prisoner, who was lying on a couch in the corner, started the quarrel when he made some remarks regarding the two women. Goldsmith resented a reference to his wife, and one word led to another, till a fight was imminent. Romaine brought matters to a climax when he exclaimed, "I have just enough bullets in this revolver to kill the bunch." Goldsmith, it is said, then rushed at him with a pair of shears, and at the same time a shot was fired, the bullet lodging in the ceiling of the room. The two men clinched, and three more shots were fired in rapid succession. All three bullets took effect, and Goldsmith fell on the floor helpless.

Realizing what he had done, Romaine ran out, revolver in hand, and tried to escape. Cries of murder attracted the attention of Walter Lindsay and another man who were passing. They gave chase and caught Romaine, holding him till Policeman Nelson arrived. Lindsay wrenched the revolver from his grasp.

Romaine was taken back to the scene of the shooting, and by this time Goldsmith had been assisted to a chair by the two women over whom the quarrel commenced. The moment Romaine was brought in the victim of the shooting picked up the lamp and dashed it at the head of his assailant. The lamp struck the wall, and, exploding, set fire to the premises. The blaze was extinguished, and to prevent further trouble Romaine was taken to No. 2 station.

The victim of the shooting was removed to the hospital in the ambulance, and upon examination three bullet wounds were found. One bullet had lodged in the left hand, one in the forehead, and the third in the left side. The doctors say the wound in the side is likely to prove fatal, especially as the bullet penetrated the wall of the stomach.

AFTER THE "DEADHEADS."

Ontario Editors Demand Pay for Advertising.

Toronto, Feb. 4.—"Deadhead" advertisers, postal regulations, country correspondents, trade unions and other shop talk occupied a busy session at the Press Association convention yesterday, which concluded shortly after noon. The meeting has been a most successful one, and a forward membership campaign was planned for the coming year.

Mr. M. A. James of Bowmanville complained that the Toronto Exhibition expected too much free advertising from the weekly papers. They had sent about $25 worth of material to him, accompanied by $4. "I do not think I will ever come again to the Exhibition as long as they treat the newspapermen as they do. I think we are a consummate lot of fools if we continue to give them so much free advertising. They are in it for money, and we are not in it for our health." (Applause.)

Mr. John A. Cooper defended the Toronto Exhibition as an institution that had a large deficit, made no effort to pay a dividend, and as the finest Exhibition in North America it deserved support. If the weekly papers would agree to exclude or restrict the free advertising sent to them, American and Canadian, the advertisers would pay the money.

The President thought concerted action should be taken with regard to the Industrial Exhibition's advertising methods, and on his suggestion a committee consisting of J. F. McKay, Woodstock; M. A. James, Bowmanville; J. T. Clark, Toronto, were appointed to interview the Exhibition management and to consider the general question of securing a more uniform advertising rate.

The Executive Committee, for which nominations had been made the previous day, were elected as follows:—A. H. U. Colquhoun, News, Toronto; D. Williams, Bulletin, Collingwood; W. E. Smallfield, Mercury, Renfrew.

Toronto was decided upon as the next place of meeting.

A Buffalo Tragedy.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 7.—While a gang of about twenty-five workmen were engaged in tearing down one of the buildings of the Strauss tannery plant at William street and Fillmore avenue, the coverings of a number of archways in the lower part of the building collapsed and buried several men. An hour later three dead bodies had been recovered from the ruins and three wounded.

WAR HAS COMMENCED.

BRAZILIANS AND BOLIVIANS COME TO BLOWS.

Forces of the Former Have Captured Puerto Alonzo in the Disputed Territory of Acre.

Rio Janeiro, Feb. 6.—The Acre dispute between Brazil and Bolivia is becoming more serious. Despatches received here from Manaos (on the Rio Negro, a branch of the Amazon) say the Brazilian forces, under Colonel Ibanez, have captured Puerto Alonzo, in Acre, where Bolivia heretofore maintained a custom house. The Brazilians took 300 prisoners, who were carried to Manaos, where they were released by the Governor.

The correspondence on the subject of Acre published here, consisting of letters exchanged between the Brazilian Foreign Minister and the Brazilian Minister to Bolivia, indicates that an offer of arbitration was made by Brazil to Bolivia, but President Pando of the latter country declared that the only arbitration possible was the marching of troops to Acre. Brazil, therefore, determined to send a strong force of troops southward and occupy the disputed region, after first notifying Peru, which also claims a part of Acre.

CASTE IN FRENCH NAVY.

Strong Remarks by the Minister of Marine.

Paris, Feb. 7.—In the Chamber of Deputies M. Pelletan, the Radical Socialist Minister of Marine, explaining and defending his policy, said:—"I have always kept in mind the naval reserves of 1870, when the German ships were able to station themselves at the mouth of the Gironde. I have wondered what was the use of the millions of francs spent on the navy. I will struggle unceasingly against the tendency to separate the military portion of our people from the mass of the nation, and to create a detestible military particularism. I respect all men's convictions and ask of none what are the political ideas. I will not tolerate that an officer, because he is a Republican, be barred from promotion. I have sought to distribute promotion equally between officers who have risen from the ranks and those who have issued from the naval school. There exists in the navy not only a distinction of rank, but a distinction of caste. I have sought to suppress this state of affairs. There should be no superiority except that of rank due to the value of the officer."

At the close of M. Pelletan's speech the naval budget was adopted and the Chamber adjourned.

C. P. R. WANTS NEW LINE.

Said to Have Secured Option on Maine Railway.

Bangor, Me., Feb. 7.—Rumors are current here that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company has secured an option on the lease of the Somerset Railway and is negotiating for the purchase of the Wiscasset, Waterville & Farmington narrow gauge, otherwise known as the Wiscasset & Quebec. Should the Canadian Pacific get the Somerset line, that road, it is said, would be carried through from its present terminus at Bingham, on the upper Kennebec River, to Greenville Junction, on the shore of Moosehead Lake, there to join the Canadian Pacific line across Maine.

UNIONIST MEMBER ELECTED.

C. C. Craig Goes to the British House of Commons From South Antrim.

Dublin, Feb. 7.—C. C. Craig, Unionist has been elected to represent South Antrim in the House of Commons by a majority of 949 over Dr. Keightley, the farmers and laborers' candidate. The Irish Nationalists supported Dr. Keightley, who was assisted by Thomas W. Russell, Liberal-Unionist member o Parliament for the south division of Tyrone.

The campaign was fought on the land question, Dr. Keightley supporting compulsory sale.

The vacancy was caused by the appointment of William G. MacArtney, the [illegible] Deputy-Master of the Mint.

Saltpetre Killed Him.

Aurora, Feb. 6.—Charles Townsend took on Tuesday what he supposed was a dose of Epsom salts, but what was in reality saltpeter. As soon as the mistake was discovered medical aid was called in and everything possible done to save the man's life, but with no avail, as he died shortly before noon.

PROTEST IN BURRARD.

Mr. Foley's Supporters Not Satisfied With Mr. Macpherson's Election.

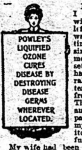
Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 7.—Mr. Chris. Foley's supporters have decided to protest the election of Mr. Robert G. Macpherson on the usual grounds. Mr. Foley's agent stated to the press that one thousand dollars had been volunteered to forward proceedings in the court by one generous friend of labor. The Foleyites have also complained to the Attorney-General's Department with respect to the active part taken in the contest by Police Magistrate Russell, who, although a Conservative, was one of Mr. Macpherson's most energetic lieutenants. They have also threatened proceedings for perjury against Mr. D. C. McGregor, a leading business man, who was permitted to vote on taking oath that he had been omitted from the voters' list wholly through disqualification for the Provincial franchise as a Provincial civil servant.

Had Eczema Twenty Years

Leg Was Swollen Three Times Its Natural Size and Mortification Had Apparently Set In.

Itching Was Frightful, But Powley's Liquified Ozone Killed the Disease Germs and Eradicated Every Trace of the Disease.

To-day He Is Sound and Well and Mr. Banks Is Strong in the Belief That Ozone Saved His Life.



For twenty years I was troubled with eczema in my left leg. My leg was swollen three times its natural size and apparently mortification had set in. The skin had broken in several places and matter was oozing from the ulcers. The leg was black and rawish-red in parts right up to my hip and the itching was frightful.

My wife had been much benefitted by Ozone, so I decided to give it a trial. It was not long before I noticed an improvement in my blood. The humors began to disappear and soon my leg had resumed its natural healthy tone.

I believe that Ozone has saved my life, and I give this testimonial for the benefit of others. Ozone also cured me of bad kidney disorder and a most painful eye trouble.

J. B. BANKS.

To Get Rid of Blood and Skin Disorders You Must Get at the Root of the Trouble.

You cannot cure blood and skin disorders by treating the symptoms. You must find the cause and remove it. Medical science has demonstrated that these disorders are due to disease germs. Powley's Liquified Ozone destroys these germs wherever located, and it is due to this fact alone that it is the grandest remedy for the treatment of disease that the world has ever known. If but one person or a dozen bore testimony to the fact that they have been cured it might be reasonable to think all were mistaken, or that they simply "happened" to get better, but when the number runs into the thousands, and all are alike in being most positive and enthusiastic, it becomes proof of the most convincing kind that Ozone will do all we claim for it—destroy disease germs wherever located.

The number of persons cured of blood and skin disorders by Powley's Liquified Ozone is far too great to attempt to publish them here. We give a few, however, to show that the good work is not confined to any particular part of the country:

John Smith, Cataraqui, Ont., salt rheum.

MONTREAL STRIKE.

THE CITY WITHOUT STREET CAR SERVICE FOR A DAY.

Conference Agreed to—Mediation of the Civic Committee Successful—A Complete Tie Up of the Street Railway.

Montreal, Feb. 7.—The strike of the Montreal Street Railway's motormen and conductors is practically over, and the men will go back to work as soon as the decision of the conference between the street railway officials, a committee of the City Council and the strike leaders can be communicated to the strikers. The service will be resumed to-day without doubt, and by night its normal condition will be instituted.

The official statement given out at 11 o'clock after the conference above referred to was as follows:—"A deputation from the City Council, consisting of the Mayor, Ald. Laporte, Ames and Valliers, met in conference the directors this afternoon, at which they promised to use their influence to get a deputation of five of the Street Railway Company's employees to meet the directors of the company to discuss their grievances. The men, having consented to this arrangement, agreed to go back to work. We hope that this will lead to an amicable settlement of the difficulty."

As a matter of fact, however, the terms of settlement were in the main agreed to by the strikers at this conference.

The company will grant the increase in pay demanded.

It will reinstate the men dismissed since Jan. 1.

It will recognize the right of the men to form a union.

It will not, however, treat with the union in its present basis, because the officials of the union are not employees.

When the civic committee left the conference it went to a mass meeting of the strikers in Hochelaga. There the decision will be laid before the men, the strikers' deputation who were present at the conference will approve of it, the men will accept it, and the interrupted service will be resumed as soon as possible. The employees' committee of five, having been appointed, will meet the directors of the street railway, and the details of the agreement will be finally agreed upon.

This has been the most exciting day in the history of Montreal for a long time. When the great mass of wage-earners turned out at an early hour, hoping to get a street car to take them to their daily work, they found only snow-clogged rails, and news at every corner that the much-dreaded street railway strike was an actuality. It had been threatened for two days, but as Montreal has never before known a street railway employees' union, with all that that may mean, the majority of citizens refused to believe that the threatened tie-up would amount to anything. How much they were mistaken was forced home to them in a most unmistakable manner. Old union men and others who have passed through strikes in cities in Ontario and the United States declare that there never was a more complete tie-up. With the exception of a very feeble attempt to run two cars out of the Cote street barns at about 4 o'clock, the company abandoned every effort to fulfil the terms of the charter.

The men who were taking the two cars out were quickly driven off, two windows in the foremost car were smashed, the trolley broken, and then the cars were left standing. There they have been throughout the day. It may be said that with the exception of a little pelting of ice at supposed sympathizers with the company, and the gathering of hundreds of men, who hooted and yelled maledictions at the officers of the road at their building on Craig street, there was no lawlessness. All day long little crowds of uniformed men marched with flags at their head, singing the "Marseillaise," "Rule Britannia" and "We Won't Go Home Till Morning." The latter song had been commenced just after the strike was declared about 1 o'clock in the morning, and it was well carried out, for literally hundreds of men never saw their homes. One of the great fears was that the men would become intoxicated, and that rioting would follow. They all carried from $10 to $25 of their own money, which was for change, and a great part of this was spent in saloons. There were many cases of intoxication, but fortunately the troublesome ones [illegible] ing serious is reported, beyond the beating of a man named Cortig, who, it is said, invited trouble.

SHOOTING WAS ACCIDENTAL.

Galician Acquitted at Winnipeg of Killing a Girl.

Winnipeg, Feb. 7.—Wasyl Humenzi, a Galician, charged with killing Hanka Klyin, a Galician girl, was declared not guilty of manslaughter. The parties lived near Teulon, northwest of the city. The prisoner is quite a young man. On the day in question he had a gun with him, and said he was going to shoot at the grindstone. Deceased was standing near, and said, "Don't do that; shoot at a tree." Prisoner then fired off the gun, and the bullet entered the girl's head, when she fell dead. She never spoke. At the preliminary inquiry the prisoner said:—"I turned round, and don't know how it happened, but the gun went off. I had no wish to hurt the girl, and had the same regard for her as I would have for my own sister."

Several important details of the momentous conference of Monday last hav leaked out, and these are substantiat by negotiators present. It seems whe the British Ambassador, who took th lead at this conference, had finish reading the cablegram of Lord Lansdowne containing his last propositi for a 20 and 10 per cent. division of th custom receipts of Porto Cabello and L Guaira between the allies and the oth claimant nations respectively, Mr. Bowen at once remarked in an emphati tone that the proposition was but an other scheme to trick Venezuela int abetting an alliance against her for a years, and probably longer. He adde that he would not consent to any schem for continuing the triple alliance one da longer than he was forced to. He charged that Great Britain was endeavorin to continue her alliance with German which was resented by the British Ambassador, although he showed no ill-fee ing at the conference. Afterwards, is said, he sent a cablegram to Londo stating that he was displeased with th conduct of Mr. Bowen, and that if were left to him to decide he would n continue negotiations with him. He expressed to his conferees of the diplom tic corps the greatest indignation th an Ambassador from the Court of S James should be so treated.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.

YUKON DISTRICT $170,000 DEFICIT.

During the eight years from July, 1894, to July, 1902, there was collected in the Yukon District $8,267,823. This revenue was collected from the following sources: Gold Royalties $5,229,887, Customs $2,640,284, Post Office $85,845, Public Works $280,266, Marine Department $11,168, and Justice Department $20,372.

The expenditure during these eight years has been $8,437,597, or $170,000 more than the income. Of this outlay $6,624,807 is called ordinary and $1,812,789 is charged to capital.

Down to the fiscal year 1897-98 the Yukon revenues and expenditures were unimportant. In 1898 the revenue was $1,088,878, and the expenditure $720,180, leaving a net revenue of $368,000. In 1899 the revenue had increased nearly $700,000.

This large expenditure may be accounted for on the ground that the Government sent a small army into the Yukon, on the pretext that the country was to be invaded by Yankee filibusters, to capture the country, all because the Senate blocked the railway scheme, which would, if the Bill had become law, have placed the whole Yukon country, comparatively speaking, under the control of a few railway contractors. This stupid movement cost the country $890,018, and the net revenue was only $54,000.

In 1900 the revenue increased to $1,804,286, the Government having moved half the army out of the country, but the Yukon expenditure exceeded the revenue only $4,000. In 1901 the revenue increased to $2,015,130, and the total expenditure was $1,671,085, leaving a considerable surplus.

Down to June, 1901, the balance in favor of the Yukon was nearly three-quarters of a million. But last year turned the scale the other way. The gold output fell off a third or more and the revenue from customs was reduced, for the reason that the increase of importations into that portion of the country were goods and food supplies brought from other portions of the Dominion, and not from the United States, as formerly. The total income was only $1,550,259, or some half million less than the year before. At the same time, under Siftonian rule, the expenditure increased, passing that of any pre-

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back; bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

so called, was $769,535, making a total of $2,474,219 and a deficit of $913,000.

What the deficit will be in the future under Sifton's rule and management, it is difficult to foretell. Judging from the past it may fairly be predicted that it will be quite as large, if not larger. Professed economists know not what the word economy means.

Have we not a faint recollection of seeing, in the Mayor's inaugural message, something about letting outsiders know what good claims Belleville had to be classed as an ideal summer resort? Yes, surely we have. Still, here is a whole week gone in the second month of the year and nothing, to our knowledge has so far been done. This matter, of course, should have dealt with by the Board of Trade, but alas! that body has not even turned over, let alone, wakened up, for many moons, so it seems to be up to the City Council.

Would it not be a good idea to spend a little time and a few dollars in printers' ink in order to let people know what ideal boating and fishing and scenery and fresh air we have in Belleville? Think it over, gentlemen. The plan has worked wonders in other places, why not here?

A report issued by the Militia Department of Canada, gives the amount expended by Canada as her contribution to the South African war. It consisted of a force of 8,372 of all ranks at a total cost of $2,830,265. The expenditure on the contingents was $1,996,867, the sum of $834,097 was paid out in connection with the Third Special Service Battalion at Halifax. Of the total force of 7,368 that went to South Africa 224 died and 252 were wounded, making in all 476 casualties. The number of killed was 63. Thirty-one died of wounds, 127 succumbed to disease, one was accidentally drowned and two were reported missing and believed to be dead. Of the deaths from disease 93, or over 73 per cent. were due to fever.

CUTTING TEETH

A TRYING TIME TO BOTH BABY AND MOTHER.

There is no time when baby requires more attention than during the teething period. At that time the little one is always cross and fretful, subject to stomach disorders and sometimes convulsions. Often mothers are absolutely worn out caring for baby, and the whole household is in a condition of anxiety. This condition can be easily remedied by the use of Baby's Own Tablets, which cool the sour little stomach, allay the inflammation of the gums and give the little one healthy natural sleep. A mother's word can always be depended upon where the health of her little ones is concerned, and thousands of mothers praise this medicine. Mrs. R. L. McFarlane, Bristol, Que., says:—"In my estimation, Baby's Own Tablets have no equal as a medicine for children. They are invaluable at the teething period, and I would not be without them as they keep my baby healthy and happy."

The Tablets relieve all the minor ailments of little ones; are guaranteed to contain no opiate or poisonous "soothing stuff," and may be given with absolute safety to a new born babe. Sold at 25 cents a box by all druggists, or sent post paid, by writing direct to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y.

It's too late to spare when all is spent.

TROUSERS FOR MEN.

This is the time of year when you wonder if a new pair of Trousers will help you to finish the service of that good coat and vest. Generally speaking they will, and from Quick & Robertson's stock you can easily select a pair that will please and wear splendidly, they come in dark stripes, checks, mixtures and solid colors, worsteds and tweeds, ready to get into, priced from $1.00 to $4.00. See our leaders at $1.00, $1.50, and $2.00.

JOYOUS EVENING.

Six Hundred of them Entertained at Bridge St. Church Last Night.

Music, Song, Refreshments and Good Advice for Happy Girls and Boys.

One of the Most Successful Entertainments Ever Held in This City.

There was the most successful affair of the kind in Bridge Street Church last night you ever saw. For some years past the above church has made a practise of holding an At Home about this season and inviting thereto all the students of the various colleges. Those who accept the invitation are entertained with music, refreshments and good advice. Who knows how many lasting friendships have been formed at Bridge Street's Annual At Homes? Probably Cupid could tell you, and between you and I, Cupid must have shot away a lot of his arrows there last night, for the young ladies and their cavaliers seemed to behave as though the time was passing pleasantly. It was about ten minutes to 9 when the writer joined the happy throng, and really the sight was an inspiriting one. There were old boys and young boys, good-looking boys and boys who were absent when the good looks were handed out; old girls and young girls, good-looking girls and girls who were not quite as good-looking, but who made up for it in evident sweetness of disposition, all talking and laughing in a free and easy fashion. A young lady at the piano was turning out sweet music (not with a crank, of course), and the younger portion of the gathering were promenading and talking about the weather and one or two other things, perhaps. The platform was prettily decorated with flags and pictures of the King and Queen, while hockey sticks, festooned with red and white, bore silent tribute to Belleville's victorious hockey team. This was an idea of Mr. William Johnson's, who is nothing if not original. The writer was given a seat among a group of sedate people, like himself. Enquiry elicited the fact that there were about a thousand people present, over six hundred of whom were students. The writer began to wonder where the viands were coming from to feed the gathering. Just then a lady let fall a remark: "Well, we've got 142 cakes and some other things." That statement, coupled with the fact that the fragrant smell of 40 gallons of coffee was permeating the room, satisfactorily settled the refreshment question. "How long have those young people been promenading?" said the newspaper man to Col. Hendricks, the U. S. Consul. The Colonel said he thought he had noticed one couple make seventeen circles of the room. One would have thought they would have been tired, but bless your heart, they were as fresh as daisies, and looked quite able to go round the room seventeen more times at least. Just then Rev. Dr. Crothers rang the bell and they were off—hold on, there, we've been so used to hockey talk lately that one unconsciously drops into it. Rev. Dr. Crothers, as we said before, rang the bell and announced that the time had come to start the programme. He asked all present to stand and join in a prayer common to all denominations, and the voices rose in "Our Father, Who art in Heaven." Then the Rev. Doctor, in a characteristic and witty speech, welcomed all who had accepted the Church's invitation. In introducing each number the Rev. gentleman made a few happy remarks, and, in fact, proved himself an ideal chairman. First came the Albert College quartette, who sang, effectively, "Lead Me Gently Home." One could not help thinking that a few of the audience might possibly object to being led home before the cake and coffee hove in sight. The next number was a pretty song by Miss Ida Corten, "Good-by." The refrain was "What are we waiting for?" and again that cake and coffee look came into the young fellows' faces. Next followed a reading by Miss Ettie Lake, which was very well done, indeed.

"We will now," said the chairman, ship the Mayor, and the audience applauded vigorously when our Chief Magistrate rose to respond. Canada's national song, "The Maple Leaf," was sung in honor of Belleville's ruler.

The Mayor thanked them for the hearty reception they had given him. He felt inspired by the flags and decorations, and noted the hockey emblems, which reminded him that just at present, perhaps, Belleville was more noted for its hockey team than anything else. (Laughter and applause). The citizens of Belleville were proud of their colleges, thankful for the revenue which accrued from them, and also because they gave our people a chance to swap our boys and girls for other people's boys and girls. (The audience took this very kindly, indeed.) In conclusion, His Worship advised them all to live not only for this world, but the next, and heartily welcomed them to the prettiest city in the world, hoping they would carry away nothing but pleasant recollections.

Mr. S. Burrows sang, in his own inimitable style, "Her Own Boy Jack."

The chairman then called on U. S. Consul Hendrick, who, he said, had consented to give a little address because many young men from across the line had attended and were still attending our commercial colleges. The Consul smiled at the audience while Miss Mabel Vermilyea played "Yankee Doodle."

Col. Hendrick was glad to be present at such a happy gathering, and he was sure from their appearance they were ready to carry out the divine injunction, "Love One Another." (As a student of human nature, the Colonel is in a class by himself.) During his residence in Belleville he had observed with much gratification the good deeds of Bridge St. Church. He congratulated the congregation on their pastor and the pastor on his congregation, and concluded a happy little speech by wishing them a long continuance of their present prosperity.

Misses Elsie Price and Queena Watson sang a duet, "Last Night," very nicely, and Miss Stella Hamilton gained well-deserved applause by a reading.

fice to that of Premier of Canada, and, the speaker believed, had always been an honest politician, whom he was proud to have as a member of his congregation. The audience then stood up and sang "Rule Britannia."

Sir Mackenzie Bowell said the chairman flattered him too highly, but he could say that he had always tried to do what was right. He had put in the best years of his life in a printing office, and had started as a printers' devil. Some politicians, he feared, thought some of the characteristics of his early days still clung to him. (Laughter.) He had been shown by Mrs. Flint an old document which proved that he was a member of Bridge St. Sunday School in 1834, and he hoped that, sixty-eight years from now, hundreds of those present would be able to say that they had been a member of that organization as long as he had. Sir Mackenzie congratulated Rev. Dr. Crothers on his broad-mindedness, and was glad to see the Union Jack and Stars and Stripes hanging side by side. He hoped they would ever continue to do so. When the young people before him left Belleville he hoped they would carry with them many pleasant recollections. They must remember that there was no royal road to success. They must never hesitate to perform whatever duties came to their hand, and perform them well. If they would master their occupations, let liquor alone, be industrious and honest, they could, in this country, rise to any position they might desire. He wished them all success and godspeed.

Miss Lucy Holden sang very pleasantly, as did also Miss Elsie Price.

Then Mr. William Johnson made a few happy allusions to Belleville's hockey team, many of whom were present.

Mr. O'Flynn was the last speaker, and he surely made the hit of the evening. The audience listened breathlessly while Mr. O'Flynn announced that a concert was to be held in the near future, the profits of which would go towards the repair of the old Dundas St. burying ground. Tremendous applause followed the announcement.

This concluded the programme. Recherche refreshments were then served. Everybody ate, drank, laughed and talked to their heart's content, and it was not far from midnight when "God Save the King" was sung, and the audience dispersed, voting the students' at home of 1903 one of the most pleasant functions they had ever been fortunate enough to attend.

NOTES.

It was the tenth annual Students' At Home.

A reception committee of 24 looked after the guests.

There are no less than 616 students in this city at present.

The Marvellous Agent That Brings Happiness and Joy to Sad Homes.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

FULL OF VIRTUE AND POWER, SAVES LIFE WHEN EVERYTHING ELSE FAILS.

Fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters should all be interested in making home happy and joyous. Home cannot be a bright spot while some loved one is laid low by disease and suffering. Too often, the efforts of physicians are vain and fruitless, and the iron hand of death snatches away some loved one, and we are left to mourn.

To-day, thank Heaven, there is a strong and mighty helper that we can bring into our homes for the rescuing of our dear ones. It is Paine's Celery Compound, the precious prescription of one of the noblest physicians that ever lived. No living mortal can form an estimate of the blessings that Paine's Celery Compound has carried into the dwellings of our country. It has revived spent hopes, banished fears, brought smiles to the faces of sad ones, because it has saved lives at the eleventh hour. Thousands of bright, strong and thankful letters of testimony continually pour in, telling of perfect restoration to health after years of suffering. Miss J. Valliere, Dorchester St., Montreal, says:

"I think it is my duty to advise you of what Paine's Celery Compound has done for me. I was terribly afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism. I tried a vast variety of medicines, but all proved failures; I also spent much money with doctors, but never got any relief. I took the advice of a friend, and used four bottles of Paine's Celery Compound, with the result that I am now perfectly cured. I think it is the best remedy in the world".

Deseronto Doings

Deseronto, Feb. 6.

The annual meeting of the East Hastings Liberal-Conservative Association will be held at Roslin next Friday. The meeting is called, to convene at 2 p.m., and a full attendance is requested. The association is in a flourishing condition, many new members having been taken lately.

The pupils of the public schools in Deseronto contributed $24.10 to the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto. A kindly letter of thanks has been received by Mr. Luck in acknowledgment of the contribution.

Chas. F. Bristol, of the Rathbun Co.'s office, left last Saturday for Montreal, where he has accepted an excellent situation.

Misses Lily and Annie Dalton are in Toronto, taking a course in piano at the Conservatory of Music

At the meeting of the Deseronto Board of Trade last Friday evening M. Moore, of Chatham, addressed the members on the advisability of establishing a canning factory here, as no place in this vicinity has such good shipping facilities, both by rail and water.

On Saturday Alford Bailey, a resident of the west end, was summoned by the Public Health Officer before the Police Magistrate for refusing to have his children vaccinated. His Worship imposed a fine of $1.00 and costs.

Purified by Suffering
BY MARY J. HOLMES.

no explanations, no kind words for Katy, whose eyes moved slowly over the short letter, and then were lifted sadly to her father's face as she said:

"I will write to him myself, and on his answer will depend my future course."

Meanwhile at Silverton there was much anxiety for Katy, and many doubts expressed lest something was wrong. That Wilford should go away so suddenly, when he had never been noted for any very great amount of patriotism, seemed strange and Uncle Ephraim at last made up his mind to the herculean task of going to New York to see what was the matter.

Presuming upon her experience as a traveler, Aunt Betsy had proffered sundry pieces of advice with reference to what it was best for him to do on the road, telling him which side of the car to sit, where to get out, and above all things not to shake hands with the conductor when asked for his ticket.

Uncle Ephraim heard her good-humoredly, and stuffing into his pocket the paper of ginger-snaps, fried cakes and cheese, which Aunt Hannah had prepared for his lunch, he started for the cars, and was soon on his way to New York.

In his case there was no Bob Reynolds to offer aid and comfort, and the old man was nearly torn in pieces by the hackmen, who, the moment he appeared to view, pounced upon him as lawful prey, each claiming the honor of taking him wherever he wished to go, and raising such a din he turned away thoroughly disgusted, telling them—

"He had feet and legs, and common sense, and he guessed he could find his way without 'em. Blessed to you, gentlemen, but I don't need you," and with a profound bow the honest looking old deacon walked away, asking the first man he met the way to Madison Square, and succeeding in finding the number without difficulty.

With a scream of joy Katy threw herself into Uncle Ephraim's arms, and then led him to her own room, while the first tears she had shed since she knew she was deserted rained in torrents over her face.

"What is it, Katy-did? I mistrusted something was wrong. What has happened?" Uncle Ephraim asked; and with his arm around her, Katy told him what had happened, and asked what she should do.

"Do?" the old man repeated. "Go home with me to your own folks until he comes from the wars. He is your husband, and I shall say nothing agin him; but if it was to go over I would forbid the banns. That chap has misused you the wust way. You need not deny it, for it's writ all over your face."

Mr. Cameron knew that Katy would be happier at Silverton, and he finally consented to her going, and placed at her disposal a sum which seemed to the deacon a little fortune in itself.

To Mrs. Cameron and Juno it was a relief to have Katy taken from their hands, and though they made a show of opposition, they were easily quieted, and helped her off with alacrity, the mother promising to see that the house was properly cared for, and Juno offering to send the latest fashions which might be suitable, as soon as they appeared. Bell was heartily sorry to part with the young sister, who seemed going from her forever.

"I know you will never come back. Something tells me so," she said, as she stood with her arms around Katy's waist, and her lips occasionally touching Katy's forehead. "But I shall see you," she continued; "I am coming to the farm-house in the summer, and you may say to Aunt Betsy that I like her ever so much, and ——" Bell glanced behind her to see that no one was listening, and then continued: "tell her a certain officer was sick a few days in a hospital last winter, and one of his men brought to him a dish of the most delicious dried peaches he ever ate. That man was from Silverton, and the fruit was sent to him, he said, in a salt bag, by a nice old lady, for whose brother he used to work. Just to think that the peaches I helped to pare, coloring my hands so that the stain did not come off in a month, should have gone so straight to Bob!" and Bell's fine features shone with a light which would have told Bob Reynolds he was beloved, if the lips did refuse to confess it.

"I'll tell her," Katy said, and then bidding them all good-bye, and putting her hand on Uncle Ephraim's arm, she went with him from the home where she had lived but two years, and those the saddest, most eventful ones of her short life.

CHAPTER XL.

There was much talk in Silverton when it was known that Katy had come to stay until her husband returned from the war, and at first the people watched her curiously as she came among them again, so quiet, so subdued, so unlike the Katy of old that they would have hardly recognized her but for the beauty of her face and the sunny smile she gave to all, and which rested oftenest on the poor and suffering, who blessed her as the angel of their humble homes, praying that God would remember her for all she was to them. Wilford had censured her at first for going to Silverton, when he preferred she should stay in New York, hinting darkly at the reason of her choice, and saying to her once, when she told him how the Sunday before her twenty-first birthday she had knelt before the altar and taken upon herself the vows of confirmation, "Your saintly cousin is, of course, delighted, and that I suppose is sufficient, without my congratulations."

Perhaps he did not mean it, but he seemed to take delight in teasing her and Katy sometimes felt she should be happier without his letters than with them. He never said he was sorry he had left her so suddenly—indeed he seldom referred to the past in any way; or if he did, it was in a manner which showed that he thought himself the injured party, if either.

Katy did not often go to Linwood, and seldom saw Morris alone. After what had passed, she thought it better to avoid him as much as possible, and was glad when early in June he accepted a situation offered him as surgeon in a Georgetown hospital, and left Silverton for his new field of labor.

True to her promise, Bell came the last of July to Silverton, proving herself a dreadful romp, as she climbed over the rocks in Aunt Betsy's famous sheep-pasture, or raked the hay in the meadow, and proving herself, too, a genuine woman, as with blanched cheek and anxious heart she waited for tidings from the battles before Richmond, where the tide of success seemed to turn, and the North, hitherto so jubilant and hopeful, wore weeds of mourning from Maine to Oregon. Lieut. Bob was there, and Wilford, too; and so was Captain Ray, digging in the marshy swamps, where death floated up in poisonous exhalations—plodding on the weary march, and fighting all through the seven days, where the sun poured down its burning heat and the night brought little rest. No wonder, then, that three pairs of eyes grew dim with watching the daily papers. But the names of neither Wilford, Mark, nor Bob were ever found among the wounded, dead, or missing, and with the fall of the first autumn leaf Bell returned to the city more puzzled, more perplexed than ever with regard to Helen Lennox's real feelings toward Captain Ray.

The week before Christmas, Mark came home for a few days, looking bronzed from exposure and hardship, but wearing a disappointed, listless look which Bell was quick to detect, connecting it in some way with Helen Lennox. Only once did he call at Mrs. Cameron's, and then as Juno was out Bell had him to herself, talking of Silverton, of Helen and Katy, in the latter of whom he seemed far more interested than her sister. Many questions he asked concerning Katy, expressing his regret that Wilford had left her, and saying he believed Wilford was sorry, too. He was in the hospital now, with a severe cold and a touch of the rheumatism, he said; but as Bell knew this already she did not dwell long upon that subject, choosing rather to talk of Helen, who, she said, was "as much interested in the soldiers, as if she had a brother or a lover in the army," and her bright eyes glanced meaningly at Mark, who answered carelessly:

"Dr. Grant is there, that may account for interest."

Mark knew he must say something to ward off Bell's attacks, and he continued talking of Dr. Grant and how much he was liked by the poor wretches who needed some one like him to keep them from dying of homesickness if nothing else; then, after a few bantering words concerning Lieutenant Bob and the picture he carried into every battle, buttoned closely over his heart, Mark Ray took his leave, while Bell ran up to her mother's room as a seamstress was occupying her own. Mrs. Cameron was out that afternoon, and that she had dressed in a hurry was indicated by the unusual confusion of her room. Drawers were left open and various articles scattered about, while on the floor, just as it had fallen from a glove-box, lay a letter which Bell picked up, intending to replace it.

"Miss Helen Lennox," she read in astonishment. "How came Helen Lennox's letter here, and from Mark Ray, too," she continued, still more amazed as she took the neatly folded note from the envelope and glanced at the name. "Foul play somewhere. Can it be mother?" she asked, as she read enough to know that she held in her hand Mark's offer of marriage, which had in some mysterious manner found its way to her mother's room. "I don't understand it," she said, racking her brain for a solution of the mystery. "But I'll send it to Helen this very day, and to-morrow I'll tell Mark Ray."

Procrastination was not one of Bell Cameron's faults, and for full half an hour before her mother and Juno came home, the stolen letter had been lying in the mail box where Bell herself deposited it, together with a few hurriedly written lines, telling how it came into her hands, but offering no explanation of any kind.

"Mark is home now on a leave of absence which expires day after to-morrow," she wrote. "I am going round to see him, and if you do not hear from him in person I am greatly mistaken."

Sleep Disturbed

BY SUDDEN STARTINGS AND JERKING OF THE LIMBS—RESTLESSNESS AND WAKEFULNESS SYMPTOMS OF NERVOUS EXHAUSTION.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Twitchings of the muscles of the face, sensitiveness to light, sound and motion, grinding teeth during sleep, continual moving or tapping of the fingers, neuralgic headache, sparks before the eyes, disorders of sight and hearing, and feelings of discouragement, languor and despondency are other indications of a weak and exhausted nervous system.

Plenty of people put up with these symptoms, in the vain hope that they will pass off and that old-time health and vigor will return. Alas, nervous disorders do not right themselves.

Nervous prostration and collapse, epilepsy, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, and even insanity itself are but further developments of nervous exhaustion. The symptoms mentioned above come as a warning to you to rebuild the wasted nerve cells, and rekindle the vital spark of nerve energy, which is fast becoming depleted.

Mrs. Woodstock, East Moira street, Belleville, Ont., states: "I was so very nervous and my system so exhausted that at times I would take severe dizzy spells, which made me stagger and at other times I had splitting headaches. In fact my health generally was being undermined by my trouble. I got a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after having used this preparation for some time I am pleased to say that my nerves are strong and steady, the dizziness is gone and the headaches are a thing of the past."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is composed of nature's most powerful restoratives and nerve invigorators; 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very billous habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 2 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the billiousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 68 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These comes from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. TIMELY TOPICS

A correspondent writes: "Mr. Editor, For Heaven's sake don't encourage the creation of any more religious sects in the country. Your columns have contained this week enough theological hair splitting to furnish casus belli for a prolonged conflict. If you permit the stirring-up of the odium theologicum you will have such an experience as will make rest in the old d.a.b.g. gladly welcome. With no "Timely Topics" what would this community do? Do be careful, Mr. Editor."

It seems that Mr. T. M. Kirkwood is advertising a Rolling Mills for lease in one of the U.S. trade papers. What this means, of course, can only be surmised, but it seems fair to assume that Mr. Kirkwood has about given up his idea of personally running the Belleville Rolling Mills. Perhaps he can find a purchaser for the mills who will carry out the contract and put the mills in operation by April 1st, though it must be admitted the time is growing short. If he does not, and fails to operate them himself, the Council should immediately take steps to see that the forfeit money finds its way into the City Treasury, where, no doubt, it would be welcome. However, there is at present nothing to show that Mr. Kirkwood does not mean to carry out his contract except the fact that he is advertising the Mills for lease. If, when the proper time comes, either he, or his heirs or assigns, do not fulfil their legal obligations, the Council should at once take steps to secure the forfeit money, which will pay the city fairly well for al. the trouble taken.

Prentice Boys' annual concert will be held in the City Hall, Friday, 27th Feb. Admission 25 cents.

At the Philharmonic Concert next Thursday, in addition to our local soloists, J. M. Sherlock, of Toronto, will sing. His voice is a pure tenor and he is a favorite oratorio singer, being in constant demand by the vocal societies of our cities and towns. Mdlle. Derrey, the Swiss pianist, is a brilliant performer and her playing will be a great treat. The Cantata is by a gifted Canadian composer and Belleville is to have the honor of giving it the first performance in Canada. Varley Roberts, Mus. Doc., of Magdalen College, Oxford, England, sent an unsolicited letter to the composer, complimenting him on the beauty of his composition. Seats are now selling at W. B. Riggs'.

The Melrose Oil Well

Mr. Eaton, president of the Melrose oil well syndicate, informs us that boring has not yet recommenced, the new driller having been so far occupied in cleaning out the well, mending casings, etc. It is expected that drilling will recommence some time next week.

H. M. S. PINAFORE.

The clever juvenile performers who have been rehearsing "Pinafore" the past two weeks have almost reached perfection and the little ones in the leading parts could not be excelled in any city. There is not the least doubt that a great surprise is in store for all who attend the first performance. A subscription list for seats has been opened at Riggs' Music store, where patrons are requested to leave their names as early as possible. Subscribers will have first choice of seats.

The Market

To-day's market was one of the best that has been held for some time, both sellers and buyers being present in large numbers. Prices were good, being as follows: Butter 20 to 22c, eggs 25c per dozen, chickens 50 to 90c per pair, and a few turkeys sold at about 13c per pound. Potatoes were $1 to $1.10 per bag.

Picton Team Proved Victorious.

A hockey match was played at the rink between the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock yesterday between The Black Tuques of this city and a team from Picton, which resulted in a victory for the visitors. Our lads were rather light in comparison to their opponents, some of the latter being young men. In the first half the Tuques were ahead one goal, but in the second half the Pictonians took a decided lead. The score at the conclusion was 6 to 3 in favor of the Picton team. Mr. H. Brown as referee was all right.

Kingston's Good Wishes.

Several affidavits were supplied to the Belleville club from Kingston as to Marks' amateur standing. Now, Belleville, go ahead, even if you have to lick the K.B.C.-Ramblers.

A Funny Mix-up.

Whig:—"Chancer" Elliott, who refereed the Morrisburg-Prescott game in the former town, tells a good story concerning that match. While the puck was at one side of the rink and the play was very exciting a lady dropped her purse. The players got mixed up with the purse and the puck, one fellow taking the purse and skating the whole length of the rink, took a shot on his opponents' goal, but missed. "Chancer" says he took after the fellow with the purse.

Belleville Bankers Beaten.

The Bankers Hockey team of this city went up to Brighton last night and were beaten 3-2 by the rather speedy Thistles of that village. Following were the teams:

Bankers—Broley, goal; Hamilton, point; Peterson, cover; Steele, rover; Belt, centre; Lipscombe, Tasse, wings.

Thistles—Coyle, goal; Scripture, point; Morden, cover; Garratt, rover; Sprentall, centre; Jacobi, Lockwood, wings.

A Dampener.

A young man bashfully approached a popular official a few days ago and said:

"Judge, I have come to ask your advice. You have always been like a father to me, and I have now come to you in a very important matter. I am thinking of getting married"—

"Well, young man," interrupted the judge, "if you are thinking of getting married go do it right away. Don't wait, because the girl might not be willing this time tomorrow."

"But, you see," protested the youth, "I'm afraid I'm not able to take care of her."

"Tut, tut," deprecatingly retorted the judge. "Why, when I got married I was twenty-one years old and $1,300 in debt."

"Is that so?" exclaimed the other, with happy encouragement gleaming from his eye. "And I suppose you must now be worth about"—

"And now," concluded the judge, "I'm only $3,000 in debt."

The young man has not yet married.

A Costly Perfume.

Attar of ylang ylang, which rivals the attar of roses as an exquisite perfume and sells at $40 to $50 or more a pound, is the product of an Asiatic tree that reaches its highest development in the Philippine Islands. The tree grows to a height of sixty feet, when three years old begins bearing long greenish yellow flowers and at the age of eight may produce yearly 100 pounds of these flowers, blossoming every month. The attar is obtained by simple distillation of the choicest petals with water, no chemicals being used. Besides its value as a perfume for hair and toilet waters the product is prized among the natives as a medicine, being credited with curing toothache and numerous other pains.

Health Hints.

A healing soap is made by melting a small cake of pure toilet soap with an equal quantity of mutton tallow and half as much cornmeal. It should be well mixed and let cool. If the hands are washed with it they will never chap.

Insomnia is often caused by worry upsetting the stomach, for indigestion will inflate the blood vessels of the brain. Recognizing this, doctors are now prescribing hot water internally and externally. Before going to bed the person so afflicted should put the feet into hot water. The object of this is to draw the blood from the head, for when the blood vessels are inflated they press against the skull, the result being fears, apprehensions and wakefulness.

A Lucky Meeting.

Some years ago a young London solicitor, in order to win the girl of his choice, carried out a task which all but those of unusual courage would have shirked. The lady rejected his attentions on the ground that she would only marry the man who undertook to find her brother, who had left home some years previously, and restore him to her mother.

As the runaway had been last heard of in a South American copper mine, the solicitor had no important clews to aid him in his work. Nevertheless, pocketing a photograph, he gave up his business and set out only to return to England in despair when two years were over and he had come to the end of his resources without success. But just as he was leaving a London terminus a man passed him in the street who bore a small resemblance to the photograph, and he inquired his name. Judge of his astonishment when the stranger replied that he was the individual in question, and the reunion of the family was followed shortly afterward by the admittance of the solicitor as a fully qualified member.

Freaks of Language.

A peculiar kind of blundering known as "folk etymology" is responsible for some of the queerest freaks of language. An easy example will make this clear, says Harper's Magazine. Our American word "carryall" for a kind of vehicle is not a compound of "carry" and "all," but a slight distortion of the French "carriole," a diminutive car. The change was made in obedience to the universal tendency to assimilate the unknown to the known, to make words mean something by associating them with others which they resemble in sound. Often there is no etymological relation between the words associated, as when sparrow grass is made out of asparagus. This particular corruption was once in such good colloquial use that Walker, the lexicographer, wrote, "Sparrowgrass is so general that asparagus has an air of stiffness and pedantry."

A Precedent Established.

A Methodist clergyman in the upper portion of the city encountered a Celt one recent rainy Sunday standing close to the wall of the church in an effort to utilize the coping as a shield from the storm.

"Come inside," said the clergyman cheerily. "You'll be out of the wet, and you can have a seat while you're waiting for it to clear."

"No, thank yez," said the Celt emphatically. "Oi'll not go inta th' house uv me inimies!"

"Well, that's rather harsh," answered the clergyman. "When our Lord was on earth, did he not go among his enemies?"

"Yis; he did that," assented the Celt with growing warmth, "and yez didn't do a t'ing to him, ayther!"

High Temperature.

Tommy had had pneumonia, so had been for some time in hospital, where they treated him so well that he was much averse to the prospect of being discharged as "cured."

One day the doctor in charge was taking his temperature, and while Tommy had the thermometer in his mouth the doctor moved on and happened to turn his back. Tommy saw his chance. He pulled the thermometer out of his mouth and popped it into a cup of hot tea, replacing it at the first sign of the medico turning.

When that worthy examined the thermometer, he looked first at Tommy, then back to the thermometer and gasped:

"Well, my man, you're not dead, but you ought to be!"

Nature His Hired Man.

It was in the far south.

"How's times?" asked the tourist.

"Pretty tolerable, stranger," responded the old man who was sitting on a stump. "I had some trees to cut down but the cyclone leveled them and saved me the trouble."

"That was good."

"Yes, and then the lightning set fire to the brush pile and saved me the trouble of burning it."

"Remarkable! But what are you doing now?"

"Waiting for an earthquake to come along and shake the potatoes out of the ground."

Darned Stockings.

Tender feet are often made so by the use of much darned stockings. Wear light woolen stockings and let them be of the cheap kind, that you will not mind discarding directly they become worn. To harden the skin it is a good plan to rub the soles of the feet with methylated spirits every day or to wash them over with salt water.

Happily Not So Sure of It.

Raynor—This fortune telling business is all humbug. One of these professors of palmistry told me a little while ago to look out for a short, blond man.

Shyne—I don't know about it's being all humbug. I'm blond and I'm short. Lend me a ten, old fellow, will you?

To Sell the Pretender.

Paris, Feb. 7.—A despatch from Tangier says the Moorish pretender, Bu Hamara, is a prisoner in the hands of the Riata tribesmen, who have offered to sell him to the Sultan. El Menbhi, the Moorish Minister of War, is now negotiating with the Riata tribe, and it is believed that the pretender will be brought to Fez.

his fingers. He shrugged his shoulders and writhed in his chair. He fairly gnashed his teeth as he growled, "Bah! It makes me ill to read such things."

Mrs. Tellit looked around slowly, for her mouth was full of hairpins and her switch was only half fastened on, and she did not want to "do it all over again," because she was already late for the start for the theater.

"What did you say, dear?" she asked.

"I say, it makes me ill to read such things," replied Mr. Tellit, making angry dabs at the paper with one finger. "Such things as are printed here."

All Mrs. Tellit could see was a large picture representing "Honorable Somebody-or-other" and some black-face type announcing, "Says he was cured in one month after ten years' lingering illness."

"Don't read them, then," she advised. "Miss Murray, the psychological teacher, says th-t much of our bodily discomfort is caused by auto-suggestion, and——"

"There's a whole lot of it caused by automobiles, for that matter," interrupted Mr. Tellit, "but that isn't the kind of illness I mean. I mean such things as this."

And he waved the page before her eyes, pointing feverishly at a brief article which stated that a successful foreign musician—a man—had been mobbed by an audience of young women.

"Oh," mumbled Mrs. Tellit, twisting away at her back hair, "that'f noffing. Lotf of girl go crafy about pianift."

"If you are going to talk to me, take those hairpins out of your mouth and quit sputtering as if your wires were crossed. I think it's a good deal more than nothing, if that is what you were trying to argue."

Mrs. Tellit removed the hairpins from her lips and placed them on the dresser.

"I said," she remarked, "that there was nothing surprising about such actions on the part of those young women. It is simply another manifestation of psychological autohypnosis, as Miss Murray explains it. Just as I said a few minutes ago. In the case of these young women, they were not impressed to any extent by the pianist, but they were lifted out of themselves——"

"Their fathers ought to lift them out——"

"Why, Henry!"

"I'll bet if it was a girl of mine——"

"Wait one moment, dear, until it is explained to you. These young women are wrought upon psychologically by the mysterious influence of the music, until their subliminal selves are brought into dominant control of their material consciousnesses, and they seek to manifest their delight by paying homage to the visible exponent of the art which has enraptured them."

Mr. Tellit stared long and earnestly at his wife. He picked up the paper again, looked over the article once more, then roared.

"Wrought upon psycho——! I'd show 'em how to be wrought upon! Suppose I and a lot of other men would get our subliminal damphoolishness lifted to the dominant lunatic chords of our beings, and would make a V-rush for the stage to-night, and seek to kiss the fair cheek of the lady who does the trembling heroine stunt! Suppose we should grab her by the hair and yell honeyed nothings at her, and show our general hysterical get-up! Huh! Away to the police-station with us! And you'd be right there at the desk when the little blue wagon dumped us out before the sergeant, to tell him my real name and address, and advise him to get me a good long sentence, as I was a dangerous man and a menace to society! Huh!"

And all the way to the theater Mr. Tellit kept muttering to himself, with an occasional "huh!" that made his wife snicker in a most un-Delsarte manner.—W. D. Nesbit in "Judge."

Curious Bits of News.

The religious census, taken recently in New York (Manhattan borough) yields the following significant figures: Residents, 1,931,162; church-goers, 451,631, of whom 317,454 are Roman Catholics and 134,177 Protestants.

During the three years of its continuance the war in South Africa resulted in the killing from wounds and disease of 22,000 British soldiers. During the same three years the railways of the United States, engaged in peaceful pursuits, killed 21,847 people.

The "Jim Crow" street cars in New Orleans have turned out a failure, because the conductors could not decide half the time who were white and who [illegible] colored among the passengers, owing to the large creole population, which [illegible] so very light in color. So the law has been bundled out of the way by the local court as unconstitutional.

The New York "Evening Post" thinks that "Innocuous News for the Nervous" would be an appropriate title for a newspaper which is shortly to be started in Vienna. This journal is to present great calamities of all sorts in a way to produce a minimum of shock. A catastrophe like that at Martinique will be described as a mysterious but merciful dispensation of a kind Providence, and especial pains will be taken to write cheerfully of bank failures and stock market panics.

Mr. R. B. Adam of Buffalo has a collection of Burns manuscripts sufficient to make the mouth [illegible] water. Mr. Adam, a [illegible] of the manse, is a quiet- [illegible] who pursues the tenor of his [illegible]st with great thoroughness [illegible]rance. Criticism Disarmed.

[illegible]ood instance of the truth of the [illegible] that "a smart answer turneth [illegible] wrath" was heard, the other day, [illegible]rench painter's studio. The painter [illegible] question had a fixed rule that none [illegible] pupils were to be allowed to [illegible] in his atelier. One day, however, [illegible]me into the room, and distinctly [illegible]at one of the pupils had a lighted [illegible]te in his fingers, which he was [illegible]oring ineffectually to conceal. Now, What is Pan-Dried?

"Pan-Dried" is the Tillson way of making the best oatmeal in the world.

Tillsons have the only "Pan-Dried" process in the world. It is Tillson's and Tillson's only.

"Pan-Dried" o[illegible] dried without steam heat—without smoke—without scorch.

Ever eat porridge that tasted clammy, mushy, insipid—that seemed to fill your mouth with paste—put you in mind of a bill poster's bucket?

Most likely that was a mess of "steam heat" results. Steam heat is liable to make the oatmeal that makes that kind of porridge.

Ever "taste" your porridge three or four hours after you'd eaten breakfast?

Faugh! horrible, isn't it?

And you thought it was indigestion—weak stomach—you said oatmeal didn't agree with you, didn't you?

Well, it wasn't weak stomach, but it might have been indigestion—takes a good strong stomach to digest coal or wood smoke.

Now, the old-fashioned oatmeal mill that does not use steam heat, and must not use Tillson's Pan-Dried system, uses the "smoke-and-scorch" system.

Tillson's Pan-Dried method heats pure air in one place, filters it after it is heated, scientifically applies it to the oats, and turns out oatmeal that is not mushy or smoky—that cooks up smoothly and deliciously. The kind that "jellies up" around the edge of the bowl.

Old-time Scotch millers knew how to make that kind of porridge, but they could not make any but the smoked-ham variety.

Consequently many folks have labored under the impression that porridge wouldn't agree with them when it was not porridge but smoke that caused the trouble.

There is no smoke in Tillson's Oats.

And there are no specks, no hulls, no dust, no dirt—nothing but good, clean, digestible oatmeal in Tillson's Pan-Dried Oats.

The corner-stone of the new Campanile will be laid April 22, 1903, and the Venetian authorities are projecting much ceremony for the occasion. At present the courtyard of the Doge's palace is entirely occupied by fragments of statues and bas-reliefs saved from the ruins. Some of them will be employed in rebuilding the Campanile, while the others are destined for a museum. The subscriptions from all sources so far aggregate $295,000. The restoration will cost $500,000.

The new civilization of the plains is pictured by a recent incident ten miles from a Kansas town. A farmer, riding under an awning on a sulky plow, met, at the end of his furrow, the rural mail wagon. The driver tossed the farmer a bundle of mail, and as the team took up its steady course back across the half-mile field, the farmer unfolded the daily paper, printed that morning two hundred miles away, and read the happenings in China and the news of the political campaign.

An energetic statistician contributes the following table showing what President Roosevelt has done since his vacation commenced at Oyster Bay on July 3: Miles walked, 125; miles ridden, 200; miles rowed, 35; hours given to sleep, 393; hours devoted to official business, 89; hours devoted to semi-official business, 40; number of callers, 593; times he has shaken hands, 770; entertainments, 5; special dinners, 20; special luncheons, 12; speeches, 6; trees cut down, 8; cords of wood cut, 4; shooting at target, 8; sets of tennis played, 30; sets beaten, 14; days at Sagamore Hill, 45; wrestling matches with children, 8; times beaten, 1; and cigars smoked, 47.

Germany is reported to publish about 23,000 books in a year. Great Britain is credited with between 6,000 and 7,000 a year, of which about 1,500 are new editions. France turns out 13,000 new books and Italy 9,500 in the same time. The year's total new books is 70,000. Many of the modern books, the London "Express" reminds us, are written for the moment only. "They are merely enlarged magazine articles. If there is a revolution or a big disaster, or a war, the men on the spot promptly rush out a volume apiece. Of course, these works do not last; but they pay at the time. Not 10 per cent. of one year's books continue to sell or to be remembered a twelvemonth later."

Charles Fere calls attention, in the "Revue de Medecine," to the fact that the skin possesses a certain odor, which varies according to the individual, the age and the race. Says the "Medical Century," in an abstract of Fere's paper: "The nervous system seems to exert much influence over the odor of the cutaneous secretions. Hammond cites the case of a woman who always gave out an odor of pineapple when she was in a temper, and another who smelt of violets when suffering from an hysterical attack. The special point to which the writer desires to call attention is that certain odors are inherited, or may even extend to side branches of the same family. Dogs are always able to recognize this odor even when it is so subtle as to escape the observation of man."

Two German aeronauts, Doctor Miethe and Lieutenant Hildebrandt, recently had a remarkable experience in the heart of a thunderstorm. They ascended from Tegel at three o'clock in the afternoon, and, passing through a mist, came suddenly into a thunder-cloud. From a height of 650 feet the balloon was shot a mile upwards, and then as suddenly it dropped half a mile. They made the curious statement that, although they did not see the lightning, they were deafened by the thunder, while pelted with rain, hail and sleet. The balloon leaped and plunged so swiftly that at times the car was on a level with the gas-bag, and the tow-rope was above their heads. After about half an hour of this experience the balloon fell from a height of 7,200 feet, descending upon a thick wood of beeches, branches of which broke the fall and saved the lives of the adventurers.

In a little schoolhouse in the north of Scotland the schoolmaster keeps his boys grinding steadily at their desks, but gives them permission to nibble from their lunch-baskets sometimes as they work. One day while the master was instructing a class in the rule of three, he noticed that one of his pupils was paying more attention to a small tart than to his lesson. "Tom Bain," said the master, "listen to the lesson, will ye?" "I'm listening, sir," said the boy. "Listening, are ye?" exclaimed the master. "Then ye're listening wi' one ear an' eating pie wi' the other."

In Scotland, when an infant is to be baptized, the father is bound to show some kind of speaking acquaintance with the shorter catechism. One day a collier went to his minister to bespeak him for the christening of his child. "How many commandments hae ye?" asked the minister. "Twenty," rejoined the collier, who was forthwith sent back to pursue his studies in elementary theology. On his way he met a brother miner, who was going to the minister on a similar errand. "How many commandments have ye, Jock?" asked the first. "Ten." "Oh, you needn't trouble him wi' ten. I offered him twenty the while, but he wasna satisfied."

A Conscientious Sabbatarian.

A commercial traveling man landed at Edinburgh, Scotland, one Saturday night, too late to get out of town for Sunday. The next day he found that there was actually no form of amusement in the whole city to assist him in whiling away the day. He went to the proprietor of the hotel to see if he could suggest a way of passing the remainder of the day. The landlord took pity on the stranger and took him to one of the rooms in the house in which a number of Scotchmen were playing a game called nap, which is a sort of modification of seven-up. They were playing for a shilling a point, so that the game was a pretty stiff one.

The stranger got in the game and played very cautiously, for he was quite sure that the players, or at least some of them, were cheating. One solemn-faced Scot, he was especially sure, he caught cheating a number of times. He began whistling a part of some vagrant tune. The Scot who had been cheating arose from the table and threw down the cards.

"What is the matter?" the other players asked.

"I'm gangin' awa'," the Scot answered, glaring at the stranger. "I'll play cards wi' no mon that whustles on the Sabbath."

What Did He Mean?

Mr. Fussilove's mother-in-law remarked pathetically the other day, "I don't suppose that I have more than another ten years to live, yet I would give two years of my existence at this moment for a nice melon." Mr. Fussilove left the room with great alacrity, and shortly afterwards returned bearing a large parcel which he placed politely on the table before his respected relative by marriage. On opening it she found it contained five melons!—Ex.

admirable "Alexandre Dumas: His Life and Works" than that of Dumas' deserted sick bed. It is so pathetic, so droll and so entirely Dumasesque! And it goes to show that genius can afford to go to almost any length of eccentricity in dress and behavior:

"One day in 1868 (writes Mme. Mathilde Shaw), I found Dumas in bed—in his study converted into a bedroom—and very sorry for himself. He was very poorly and unable to take anything but a decoction of lime-juice and barley-water. The servants had all gone out and left him alone. 'I have been calling in vain for Nathalie to bring me some barley-water,' he complained, and begged me to get him some. The kitchen was deserted and the fire out. However, I managed to make up some fire, and brought him what he wanted. He drank it, and was very grateful to me. His face was in a sad state—some skin eruption, which made it all swollen and shiny. But he informed me he had to get up and go to a reception at some ambassador's that evening. I could hardly believe that he was serious, and told him that, in his present condition, he was not fit to meet anyone. 'Nonsense,' he said, 'just look in that chest of drawers and see if you can find me some linen and a white tie.' I looked, and searched thoroughly; the total contents were two nightshirts, a black waistcoat, a pair of flannel drawers and a red tie. 'It is monstrous,' he exclaimed, 'the way they neglect me when I am ill! How on earth am I to get dressed?' Then, after reflection, he added, 'Just look, child, in that writing-desk,' indicating the drawer where he used to put his gold when he had any. I looked, and found it completely empty. To convince him, I brought the drawer, and showed it to him. 'Ah,' he said, with a sigh, 'yes, I remember.' Then he asked me if I had any money with me, and could lend him a little. 'Just enough to get me a dress shirt,' he explained, 'and if you would be so very kind as to take a cab at once, and go buy me one. But be sure and don't come back empty-handed.'"

But in the few shops open at that hour Mme. Shaw failed to find a white shirt large enough for the portly Dumas. Indeed, the only shirt procurable was one whose white ground was used merely to throw into relief "bright red demons jumping about in flames of yellow fire," intended as a striking design for some "bal costume" of the Quartier Latin:

"I opened the parcel. Dumas gazed for a few moments in blank horror upon those scarlet devils and those yellow flames. Then, as the storm follows the calm, he burst into one of his frantic passions, but subsiding soon to the necessity of the case, he recalled me from the door, and, saying curtly, 'Well, I shall have to wear it,' he bade me wait, and went into the dressing-room to make his toilette. Before long he reappeared clad in his dress suit, the low waistcoat him asking the lady to call, as he had much to tell her. On arriving she found him recovered and radiant:

"'You would hardly believe it,' he said, 'but my costume was an immense success. Everybody thought that it was an original idea of my own. They all thronged round me and made much of me.' 'What about the red necktie?' 'Oh, that was another success! It was supposed to be a souvenir of my friendship for Garibaldi. On the whole, I had a most delightful evening.'"

Trouble Ahead in Royal Families.

It does not much matter whether or not the eldest son of the German Emperor wants to marry an "American" girl. The problem which is reported as being presented to the German Emperor will demand solution within the next quarter of a century. The leading factors in such a problem are distinctly visible. There are thrones in Europe and there are rich "American" girls whose eyes are fixed on these thrones. The trouble began when the daughter of a rich "American" gentleman married into the Churchill family. The Churchill family was not one of the oldest or most illustrious in England, but it was of sufficient importance to establish a precedent. Since that time rich "American" girls have found it comparatively easy to marry into the noble families of England. And if into noble families, why not into royal families? In many respects the noble families of England are socially superior to royal families in Europe. They have larger incomes and on their estates exercise nearly all the powers of a sovereign.

Money is the talisman that has opened the semi-regal thrones of England to the untitled "American" girl. See what the Vanderbilt millions have done for the Duke of Marlborough! When Consuelo Vanderbilt exchanged her millions for the ducal title, the Duke was held in small esteem in his native land. Now he takes rank with the first of the British nobility. Examples of this character are too numerous to mention. There are hundreds of "American" girls moving in the highest social circles in Europe. Some of these days one will make a dash for a throne. Miss Deacon aimed rather high when she fixed her eyes upon one of the very first thrones in Europe, but she opened the eyes of other rich "American" girls to the fact that thrones are not above their reasonable aspirations.

Very Sad.

"Yes, it's very sad." "How is that?" "Why, he always held that, to train a wife properly, you should catch her while she's young. So he did." "Well?" "Well, it seems that she had the same idea about a husband, and now there's a crisscross of training ideas that is simply nerve-wrecking."—Chicago "Post."

ALMOST A MIRACLE IN BOWMANVILLE

An Aged Resident Cured of Agonizing Kidney Trouble from Which He Suffered for Many Years.

EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS OF AGE NOT TOO OLD FOR DR. PITCHER'S BACKACHE KIDNEY TABLETS TO EFFECT A COMPLETE CURE.

MR. DAVID HUMBER.

The case of David Humber, of Bowmanville, Ont., must certainly bring home the conviction to every reader of this paper that Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are without doubt the most effectual remedy in the world for kidney ailments.

Mr. Humber is a man in his eighty-seventh year, and although somewhat crippled by an injury he received a number of years ago, is able to get around remarkably well and still retains the mental vigor of one of much younger years.

He is a member of the Methodist Church and has for twenty years been a resident of Bowmanville, and is known to all as an honorable, upright and conscientious man.

MR. HUMBER'S OWN STATEMENT.

When spoken to recently about his ailments he gladly gave the following statement of his case:—"I suffered for a great many years from my kidneys and bladder, latterly that trouble had become serious and I would have to walk the floor for hours before I could make any water, and then it would only come a drop at a time. After it got started, though, I would often have to get up many times during the night, and thus my rest was greatly disturbed.

The water I passed looked like blood, and I suffered great pain in the bladder. I tried all sorts of patent medicines and treatment from local doctors, but it did not seem to help me in the least. Some months ago I was recommended to try Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and from the very first I found them doing me good. I have taken in all several bottles and I consider them the most wonderful kidney medicine made.

I can now make my water freely and regularly without any straining or pain. I sleep well at night, as my rest is no longer disturbed. I consider the action of the remedy in my case, especially, to be remarkable, as I am in my eighty-seventh year and have been affected a long time.

Any one who wishes to know anything further about how Dr. Pitcher's Tablets have helped me, need only write me and I will be pleased to answer them.

(Signed) DAVID HUMBER."

WHAT MRS. HUMBER SAYS.

Mrs. Humber, when spoken to, said that her husband had derived decided and wonderful benefit from Dr. Pitcher's Tablets. She said he used to pace the floor nights in great pain on account of his kidney trouble, but now he could rest quietly all night.

A BOON TO AGED PEOPLE.

No other remedy has proven itself such a blessing to old people as Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They relieve all pain, distress and irritability of the bladder, cure frequent rising at night, and going often during the day. They strengthen the weak kidneys, bladder and urinary organs, take the severe pain out of the back and hips, and practically give old folks a new lease of life.

The tablets are 50 cents a bottle, or 3 for $1.25, at Druggists, or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

SPORTING COMMENT.

It is now settled that the local boys will have the Prescott team as their next opponents on Tuesday night next, the sudden death game in Iroquois, between Prescott and the Ramblers of Kingston, having resulted in favor of the former by a score of 4 to 3. The Prescott team appear to be strong finishers, and should make it interesting for the Red and White fellows.

The Port Hope Guide copies The Intelligencer's remarks about the proposed protest, but makes no comment on them; neither does it attempt to deny them. The Guide should guide its sporting men into better paths.

Plucky little Cobourg, after being beaten in Kingston 9—4, turned the tables on their own ice last night, defeating the Kingstonians 6—1, thus making a tie of it. Why not play it off at Belleville?

What's become of the City League? Have they dropped the schedule? Get in the game, boys. You can't expect the O.H.A. team to furnish all the interest.

"There is considerable disappointment because the Kingston Ramblers went down and out last night. People would have taken great interest in the next round if the boys had been opposing a team from the dear old Limestone City. Then, again, there would have been better rink accommodation."

A correspondent asks what a foul player gains by trying to injure an opponent in hockey. The answer is that a foul player's object is to intimidate his check and thus prevent his playing to the best of his abilities. The average lad plays the game fair, and does not care to run chances of broken bones by mixing with an opponent who would as soon lay him out as not. The quicker those assault and battery fellows are thrown out of the game the better it will be for hockey.

MET LAST NIGHT

Assessment Commission's Bills Meet With Another Protest From Some Aldermen.

To Move the Crusher—The Public Library—Renewing Accident Insurance.

The various civic committees met last evening. The members present were: Mayor Graham, Ald. Cooper, Chown, McFee, Galbraith, Marsh, Green, Sulman and Sinclair.

PUBLIC WORKS.

In the absence of Ald. Panter, Chairman, Ald. Marsh presided over this committee.

The accounts passed were as follows:

Pay Sheet No. 3	$12.65

Ald. Green stated that Ald. Panter had requested him to speak in reference to the Council procuring what cement was necessary for the coming season at an early a date as possible.

The opinion of the Aldermen was that it was too early in the season to know what amount was required.

On motion the Street Surveyor was authorized to obtain quotations for 500 or less barrels, to be delivered when required.

To Move the Crusher.

The question of removing the crusher was brought up by Ald. Green.

Ald. McFee suggested that if it was to be moved it should be taken to Zwick's Island.

The Mayor spoke in support of removing the crusher to the island, especially if a filtering basin was to be made there. He suggested that a committee be appointed.

A committee composed of the Mayor, Ald. Panter, Marsh and Cooper and the Street Surveyor was appointed to investigate the matter and report.

Defective Drains.

The Surveyor called attention to a drain which had been built by the County from Shire Hall, and the water was overflowing on to Campbell street.

On motion the Solicitor was instructed to notify the County to make proper connection and remedy the defect which now exists; also that the officials of St. Andrew's Church be notified that there is a defect in a drain leading from that church, which should be remedied.

FIRE.

Ald. McFee, Chairman, presided over this committee.

A communication was read from Mr. Jas. McCurdy, engineer, detailing what his duties were at the fire halls.

The communication was received and referred to the Executive Committee.

LIGHT.

Ald. Cooper, Chairman, presided.

An account from the Trenton Electric Company was presented, but was not passed, as the Chairman had been unable to check it over. It was referred to the Council.

WATER WORKS.

The Chairman, Ald. Galbraith, presided, and the Secretary of this Committee, Ald. Sulman, read a report of a meeting held some evenings ago, which report was unanimously adopted.

The report recommended the payment of some accounts, that Mr. Wm. Mallock's salary as chief engineer at the pump house be restored to $45 per month, and that the matter of a trunk sewer on Dundas street be considered and reported upon at the next meeting.

MARKET.

Ald. Sulman, Chairman, presided.

The accounts passed were as follows:

N. Allen	$25.90
J. Lewis & Co.	4.75

Two tenders for placing a lavatory in the city building were received, being as follows:

W. McGie	$78.00
J. Lewis & Co.	76.00

On motion the matter was left in the hands of the Chairman, with power to act.

Ald. Sinclair, in the absence of Ald. Pope, presided over this committee.

The accounts passed were as follows:

Rathbun Co.	$8.43
J. W. Walker	32
C. P. Holton	15.45

EXECUTIVE.

Ald. Chown, Chairman, presided.

The Assessment Commission.

An account of $258.64, presented from the Assessment Commission, caused considerable discussion.

A number of the Aldermen desired to know how many more accounts of a like nature were to be presented, and some also objected to paying $3 a day to Mr. H. P. Thomas as an assistant commissioner.

The Mayor said there would probably be two more accounts such as was presented. Two wards, namely, Bleecker and Foster, were completed, and the work in the other wards nearly so. The work has of necessity been expensive, but it was being thoroughly done; in fact it has been found that there was some property in the city which had never been assessed. If the committee thought it advisable to dispense with the services of the assistant commissioner, he (the Mayor) would so order it, but he had done some good work and found out matters which would prove invaluable.

Ald. Chown said it would no doubt be a good assessment when it is completed.

Ald. Marsh and Galbraith thought that $3 a day was too much for the doing of clerical work, if such alone was being done.

The Mayor said he was aware that Mr. H. P. Thomas was doing more than clerical work.

On motion the account was ordered to be paid.

Other accounts passed were as follows:

C.P.R Telegraph Co.	8 75
J. Lewis & Co	5.55

Accident Insurance.

A communication was read from Mr. W. H. Campbell, stating that the Ontario Accident Insurance Company were prepared to renew their accident insurance with the city for $700 per annum.

In answer to an enquiry Ald, same price as last year, namely $650.

The Public Library.

The directors of the Public Library presented a communication stating that they would guarantee that the $800 given by the Council, would be sufficient, with other revenues, to place the library out of debt at the end of the year. They were also in favor of the Council appointing two of its members upon the Board.

On motion Aldermen Sulman and Marsh were selected as members to represent the Council upon the Board.

This completed the work and the Committees adjourned.

PALE AND LISTLESS

A CONDITION THAT AFFECTS VERY MANY WOMEN.

The Appetite Fails—Strength Departs and the Sufferer Feels that Life is Really a Burden.

From The Topic, Petrolea, Ont.

It is impossible that a medicine can be so widely known and used as are Dr. Williams' Pink Pills without striking results frequently becoming known and the merits of this great remedy for the common ailments of man and womankind being published. Mrs. Thos. Kettle, of Petrolea, Ont., is a case in point. Mrs. Kettle is an old resident of this district and is well known. Chatting with a reporter of the Topic the other day, the conversation drifted on the subject of medicines, when Mrs. Kettle spoke in the highest praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which, she said, had cured her of a long illness. Our reporter, being naturally interested, made further enquiries, when Mrs. Kettle gave him the following particulars; "I am the mother of twelve children and in spite of the constant strain and worry the raising of so large a family entailed upon me, in addition to my housework, I was for many years blessed with splendid health. However, after the birth of my last child my strength seemed to fail me, and I felt that my health was gradually going. I consulted a doctor and continued under his treatment for some months, but the only result that I could see was that I grew steadily worse. I could not name any particular ailment that I suffered from, but I was all "run down." My appetite failed me, my strength seemed all gone and I became pale and listless, scarcely able to drag myself around, and much of the time in bed. I became alarmed at my long continued ill-health, and as doctors' medicine had done me no good I determined to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I purchased a box and thought it did me some good, so I got six boxes more, and before I had finished taking the second I felt a lot better, and by the time I had finished the seven boxes I had perfectly regained my health, had gained weight and felt better than I had for some years. I consider the pills a splendid medicine, a real Godsend to weak and ailing women, and have frequently recommended them to my friends and used them with my children, always with good results." Judging from Mrs. Kettle's healthy appearance to-day none would imagine she had ever known what a day's illness meant.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a positive cure for all diseases arising from impoverished blood, or a weak or shattered condition of the nervous system, such as epilepsy, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis, rheumatism, sciatica, heart troubles, anaemia, etc. These pills are also a cure for the ailments that make the lives of so many women a constant misery. Sold by druggists or sent by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

REMARKABLE SEAMANSHIP

BRITISH CAPTAIN WHO BROUGHT HIS RUDDERLESS BATTLESHIP INTO PORT AFTER A SIX DAY'S TRIP.

New York Sun: Capt. Lowry, commanding the British battleship Hood, completed a remarkable feat of seamanship on the last day of October, when he brought his rudderless vessel into Plymouth harbor after a six days' trip from Gibraltar. The Hood damaged her steering gear at Argostoli, but made her way to Malta, where it was found that the rudder was broken, and that a new one would have to be cast and brought from England. Instead of waiting for this Capt. Lowry had the broken rudder unshipped, and on Oct. 21 sailed for Gibraltar under the convoy of two cruisers. He left Gibraltar on Oct. 25, running first into a fog and then into a gale, but holding his course and making the voyage at a speed of between 12 and 13 knots an hour. The entire distance from Malta is 2,085 miles.

Nearly seventy years ago, in 1835, the Pique of the British Navy, commanded by Capt. Rous, ran ashore on the coast of Labrador and lost her rudder. Being floated once more, Capt. Rous headed her for home, and got there, too. The two cases are not wholly parallel, as the Pique was a sailing vessel and the Hood a twin-screw ship, but the more recent instance shows that seamanship has been only modified, not destroyed, by steam, and that the sailormen of to-day are as clever in their way as were those who manned the old-time wooden ships.

GRADUATES OF DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTE ASK FOR CHANGE, WHICH WILL NOT BE GRANTED.

(Mail and Empire.)

Any hopes that might have existed in the minds of the ex-pupils of the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb at Belleville, that the institution would be placed under the management of the Minister of Education, instead of the Provincial Secretary, have been dashed to the ground. The thirty-second annual report of the school, which was issued yesterday, contains the views of Inspector Chamberlain on the matter. They are adverse to any change being made, and his recommendation will undoubtedly be carried out.

The reason why a change in management has been asked for is that the ex-pupils claim that the institution is classed with asylums, prisons, and places of charity, and a wrong impression of it is thereby created. Mr. Chamberlain, however, says that this reason does not exist, and he advises those advocating the change in management to remember that if the institution is placed under the supervision of the Education Department, the annual reports which are now issued and contain so much interesting information, will not be published, and they will have to be satisfied with a bare mention with the other schools of the province in the Minister of Education's annual report.

Work of Institution.

Referring to the work of the institution, the report says that the past year has been one of progress. The number of pupils for 1901-2 was 253, ranging from seven to twenty years of age, and no better class of children could be found in any public schools. In addition to literary and industrial work, the pupils receive a strict moral training, and the boys, when they have graduated, have, with scarcely an exception, made a good living for themselves and families.

The institution spent last year $42,962.76, making the average cost per pupil $169.81, as compared with $47,523.29, or an average cost per pupil of $184.92, in 1901.

Good Intentions.

"Our minister did not take any vacation this summer," said Brown, with a smile. "Why not?" asked the other man. "Circumstances over which he had no control forced him to stay at home," replied Brown.

"He intended to go away and had made his arrangements, when several enthusiastic members of his congregation—my wife was among them, and the others were all women, too—took the matter out of his hands, and told his wife 'confidentially not to pinch and save for his outing, because the members of the church had hit upon the happy idea of raising a sum especially for his vacation.'

"As the minister has a large family and his wife finds it hard to make both ends meet, she was only too glad to spend the vacation money in other ways.

"Well, the women held several 'affairs,' and managed to get something over fifty dollars together. Then they decided to make the presentation a gala event, and give all the members of the church a chance to speed the parson on his way with good wishes.

"It occurred to them that a little music would add to the occasion, and so they engaged some musicians. One member of the committee thought that if there was music, light refreshments would be in order, and she took it upon herself to see that they were provided. A third hit on the plan of having the church decorated for the occasion, and hired a man to do the work.

"Early in the evening when they met to compare notes they discovered that their expenses had not only eaten up the amount that they had raised for the minister, but left them a matter of two or three dollars in debt.

"Oh, yes, the evening was a pleasant one to some, but there wasn't any presentation. On the way home I asked my wife who was going to square the debt.

"'Why, Joseph,' she said, 'what a question! The minister, of course. It was all done in his interest.'"

A WONDERFUL TONIC AND STRENGTHENER.

Said a druggist to-day, "No doubt about it, the tonic that gives best results is the biggest seller, and that is Ferrozone. It enriches and purifies the blood, restores strength and energy to the feeble and is a scientific reconstructor, that was always popular. In chlorosis, anaemia, tiredness, languor, brain fag, indigestion and dyspepsia its action is prompt and satisfactory cures always follow. Yes, I recommend Ferrozone to my customers because I believe it is the best tonic and strengthening medicine that money can buy." Large boxes cost 50c. Sold by J. S. McKeown.

Over 40,000 trees, representing 100 different varieties are to be set out in Riverside Park, New York.

The Wisdom of Lorenzo.

The Theorist put on his wisest look. "Orlando, my friend and brother," he said, "let me advise thee. Because a maid is passing fair thou must not cast thy heart before her. Thou shouldst steel thy heart against smiles; but, no, thou winkest like a jester. Gadzooks! 'twill never do. Think of thy family, of thy great ancestor who held the keys of a King's wine cellar. Think thou of him and let thy pride bear thee up. Thou must beware the pitfalls and the snares, else will all be lost and thou bound, yea chained, in wedlock to a maid below thy station.

"Orlando, my friend and brother, let me tell thee how to pick a wife. As thou knowest, men call me Lorenzo the W[illegible] and 'tis a name that by the saints I deserve. By that name, which I [illegible] precious, by that name, I say, will I reveal to thee the secret of true [illegible]ness. Thou must use reason. Fools tell thee that Love and Logic are enemies and would have thee dash into courtship like a knight into battle. It is for thee to reconcile these enemies, for Love without Logic is honey without bread and thou wilt soon be sickened. Do I not know how I myself have suffered? Did I not wed a woman with the temper of a Tartar, and am I not bald and broken?

"When thou seest a maid that strikes thy fancy, study her well, Orlando. Ask thyself if it be really love that has come upon thee. Prithee, mistake it not, good Orlando. 'Tis a strange disease, but if thou art truly stricken bring thy reason to thy aid. Assure thyself that her temper be sweet. Remember wedlock is not for a day. Perhaps thou shalt be compelled to see that oval face grow peaked, that brow wrinkle, and those eyes lose lustre. Wilt thou love her then, Orlando? Thou canst not be too cautious. Learn if her tastes be like thine, for that is all-important, good Orlando. Then, thou must not forget what I have said about marrying beneath thy station. If her father be a plain man, an unfortunate without ancestors, a fellow who cannot say, 'My grandsire was cupbearer to a drunken King,' thou must give her up, even though thy heart shall pain thee like an aching tooth. That is my counsel, Orlando. I have said my say. Ponder it well, my friend and brother, and future years will find thee blessing the memory of Lorenzo the Wise."

Orlando smoothed his ribbons and twirled his cane. In truth he was something of a fop, and, having the conceit of his class, seemed little impressed by the words of the good Lorenzo. "Art through, Sir Wisdom?" he asked haughtily. "[illegible] so let the wise Orlando have a single word, nay two. Forget it."

Lorenzo sadly went upon his way, and the twain came not together until years had passed. Orlando had been away to the wars, and had come back with a great stock of reminiscences, a taste for strange vintages, and something else. They met one day upon the highway and after the greeting Lorenzo asked:

"Orlando, my friend and brother, how hast thou fared?"

"Thou meanest how have we fared," responded Orlando. "I would have thee to know that I have taken unto myself a wife."

"Gadzooks!" ejaculated Lorenzo. "And didst thou study her well?"

"Yea, and the more I studied her the more was I lost in wonderment."

"What was her station, good Orlando?"

"Breathe it softly, if thou lovest me. An innkeeper's daughter."

"Again Gadzooks! Doth she possess learning? I wot not."

"There thou art in error. She knoweth little of books, but few excelleth her in a knowledge of the wiles of love."

"Thy rashness runneth back for years, I venture!"

"Full seven years."

"The wiles of love groweth wearisome, and man longeth for the sight of a fresh face. Orlando, my friend and brother, I fear thou hast ruined thy life. Why didst thou not remember thy great ancestor?"

"A man's ancestors be dead and his sweetheart liveth."

"She hath tastes like thine?"

"Nay. She hateth Greek, liketh the play, and goeth wild when mountebanks performeth in the market place."

"Thou art vastly different. Thou canst have no peace in thy household."

"Canst, didst thou say? Thou art wrong, Lorenzo. Look thou upon a man who is deliriously happy. Thou gavest me advice, and I pondered it well. Then did I reject it bit by bit, and as the light heart often giveth the best counsel I heeded its promptings and found happiness. Thou sought to make me miserable, Sir Wisdom, and now I say, 'Have done with thee!' Back to thy cave!"

And once again Lorenzo went sadly upon his way.—John Taylor Waldorf.

Reports of Senate Opposition Cause Disappointment.

London, Feb. 7.—Disappointment is expressed at the opposition to the Alaskan treaty. The Westminster Gazette says it is a pity that so serious a quarrel between the two great friendly English-speaking powers cannot be amicably settled, and then remarks:—"If, as seems likely, the United States each year extends the scope of her diplomacy, her Ministers will find themselves increasingly hampered by the power which the constitution gives to the Senate." Liberal organs characterize the breakdown of the negotiations, the success of which was trumpeted with such vigor by the Ministerial press, as "another shock to the prestige of the Foreign Office."

The Daily News says that "most insecure fabric, British popularity with the Americans, has sustained a damaging blow in connection with the Venezuelan affair." Foreign Secretary Lansdowne is urged to study the history and national character of the United States "before embarking on his next transatlantic venture."

ROBBED MANY GRAVES.

Sensational Evidence Given at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 6.—In the trial of Dr. J. C. Alexander, in the grave robbery cases, two shrouds found by the detectives in the Central College were introduced. A seamstress identified one as having been made for Mrs. Catherine Doehring, whose body was stolen from the German Catholic Cemetery. Samuel Martin, a negro, was the first witness, and testified that he met Dr. Alexander at the latter's office in June, 1902. The doctor told him he wanted from seventeen to twenty subjects for dissection, and would pay $30 each. Martin said at this meeting that Dr. Alexander told Cantrell, the leader of the gang, that he would watch the death returns at the Board of Health and notify him. The first trip was in July, when with Cantrell and the others he went to the Anderson Cemetery, and secured the body of Glendore Gates and handed it over to the Central College. The next day Alexander paid him $10. When the second body was secured he said Dr. Alexander told him it was not a good one, because it was mangled by the cars. He received only $5. Witness detailed the sale of several more bodies to the doctor. On one occasion the gang went to a cemetery, but failed to get a body because they were chased away.

At yesterday's session, Cantrell, the chief witness, said that Dr. Alexander made arrangements with a livery stable to let him have a rig, and whenever a body was to be stolen he went to this stable and got out a horse and waggon. Dr. Alexander also gave him money with which to buy revolvers, but warned him "not to shoot anybody unless it was absolutely necessary to protect himself." The witness testified to numerous midnight excursions to country graveyards, and gave the names of many persons whose bodies he had stolen, and also the date on which the graves were robbed. Though Dr. Alexander is being tried on but one charge, the testimony included the names of some thirty persons whose bodies had been stolen and delivered to the college, and for which Dr. Alexander, it was asserted, paid the witness the contract price.

AGAINST THE MULLAH.

Preparations for British Advance Delayed.

London, Feb. 7.—The Daily Graphic's correspondent at Berbera says:—Once more it has been found necessary to postpone the general advance against the Mad Mullah. The necessity of supplying the Obbia column with a thousand camels and mules taxes heavily the small staff of officers here. There are absolutely no facilities for the shipment of animals, and this state of affairs is aggravated by the small number of bluejackets available for the work. Notwithstanding very great efforts, only twenty camels were embarked on a transport yesterday. Besides the difficulties of shipment, the scarcity of the animals themselves is a source of embarrassment. For the few in the market the Somalis are asking exorbitant prices. Officers' servants, too, are as difficult to obtain as camels. the na-

THE RIGHT THING

A NEW CATARRH CURE, WHICH IS RAPIDLY COMING TO THE FRONT

For several years, Red Gum, Blood root and Hydrastin have been recognized as standard remedies for catarrhal troubles, but they have always been given separately and only very recently an ingenious chemist succeeded in combining them, together with other antiseptics into a pleasant, effective tablet.

Druggists sell the remedy under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and it has met with remarkable success in the cure of nasal catarrh, bronchial and throat catarrh and in catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N.Y., says; "When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it; I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50 cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I am glad to say that they have done wonders for me and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing."

Mr. Geo. J. Casanova of hotel Griffon, West 9th St., New York City, writes: "I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they have given me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried."

A leading physician of Pittsburg advises the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in preference to any other treatment for Catarrh of head, and throat or stomach.

He claims they are far superior to inhalers, salves, lotions or powder, and are much more convenient and pleasant to take and are so harmless that little children take them with benefit as they contain no opiate, cocaine or any poisonous drug.

Hello communication with Bohotle (the advance post) is interrupted by cloudy weather. The convoys are, however, proceeding thither unmolested.

The Mullah is reported at Galadi, in the Dudub district. Reports from Hargeisha state that the Ogaden tribes are incensed against him in consequence of the murder of thirty of their people by his emissaries. The Mullah appears to be moving towards the Webbe Shebele.

Col. Rochfort and Capt. Cobbold have left here to take up their appointments as military attaches with the Abyssinian force which is to co-operate with us from Harrar. They were accompanied by Captain Martin of the Royal Army Medical corps and an escort of twenty men of the Somali Camel Corps. They are proceeding via Hargeisha to Harrar, where Ras Makonnen (King Menelik's chief General) awaits them.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Live Stock Continues Dull—Wheat Advancing—The Latest Quotations.

Friday Evening, Feb. 6.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Business was a little brisker at St. Lawrence Market to-day and receipts of produce were rather heavier. The total grain receipts amounted to 1,100 bushels.

Wheat—White is steady at 74½c per bushel, at which figure 200 bushels were sold; 200 of red sold a little firmer at 72½c and 300 of goose sold steady at 65c.

Oats—Prices are steady; 300 bushels sold at 36½c per bushel.

Barley—One load of damaged barley sold at 46½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Offerings were more plentiful this morning, and a fairly active trade was done on the street. Prices are steady at $8.40 to $8.60 per cwt. for choice light weight hogs, and $7.75 to $8 for heavies.

Hay—About 40 loads were received. Prices for No. 1 timothy are easier at $13 to $14 per ton, and $5 to $9 is quoted for mixed or clover, most of this class offering being of poor quality.

Straw—Is about steady at $9 to $10 per ton. Two loads were offered.

Toronto Live Stocks.

Trade conditions at the Toronto Cattle Market this morning were about similar to those of yesterday, with the export trade dull and that for butcher cattle fairly brisk. Trade in other lines of cattle was about steady, and conditions in the sheep and lamb market, and in that for live hogs, showed no change. The total run was 84 cars, including 868 cattle, 912 sheep and lambs, 2,136 hogs and 23 calves.

Export Cattle—The export trade was quiet, with the weakness in prices still in evidence. The demand for cattle was dull and, fortunately, the receipts were rather light. Dealers offer a number of reasons for these conditions. The demand for cattle in England is at present dull and plenty of cattle are crowding into that country from other countries. Here a number of dealers find it more profitable to buy cattle at Chicago and to ship direct. It is also said that, now that Argentine cattle will be admitted to England, the English farmers will anticipate the arrival of cattle from that country and will flood the market with stock which they have been holding. Canadian dealers are therefore reluctant to send shipments until the market there has settled to more normal conditions. Local prices have declined about 25c per cwt. The best stock on the market to-day brought about $4.75 per cwt. There was no very choice stock offering and if there had been it is doubtful if it would have brought as high as $5. It is said drovers are still paying too much for stock in the country. An instance of this is the case of one man who paid $5.15 for cattle which he had to sell at $4.80.

Butcher Cattle—The run of stuff was light and of medium quality. The demand for local killing was fairly brisk and hardly filled by the stuff offering. Prices consequently had a decidedly firm feeling, although there was no quotable change. Dealers say this condition of affairs is dependant upon a continued short supply, and that a large run of cattle will have a tendency to ease prices. The best cattle on the market sold at about $4.30 per cwt.

Milch Cows—The market is fairly steady. About 25 fairly good cows were offered and sold at steady prices. The demand for good milch cows continues fair. Quotations are about $29 to $55 each.

Stockers and Feeders—The market continues about steady, with a fair demand for the medium to better grades. Quotations are unchanged.

Sheep and Lambs—Trade was fairly good, with prices steady. Prospects for sheep are about steady and for lambs slightly dull.

Calves—Good veals continue scarce, with a fair demand. Prices are steady at $2 to $10 each and 4½c to 6c per lb.

Hogs—The receipts were large and trade was about fair. Prices continue steady with an inclination to weakness.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 6.—Cattle—Receipts, 75 head; steady. Veals—Receipts, 250 head; 50c higher; tops, $9.25 to $9.75; common to good, $5.50 to $9. Hogs—Receipts, 5,1000 head; active; Yorkers, 5c to 10c higher; others steady; pigs, $7 to $7.05; heavy, $7.15 to $7.20, few $7.25; medium, $7.10 to $7.15; Yorkers, $7.10 to $7.20; roughs, $6 to $6.25; stags, $5 to $5.25. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 8,400 head; sheep steady; lambs, 10c to 15c higher; top lambs, $6.55 to $6.65; culls to good, $4.25 to $6.50; yearlings, $5.25 to $5.50; ewes, $4.25 to $4.50; top mixed sheep, $4.50 to $4.75; culls to good, $2.25 to $4.40.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Chicago, Fev. 6.—Cattle—Receipts, 2,500; good to prime steers, $4.50 to $5.75; poor to medium, $3 to $4.40; stockers and feeders, $2.30 to $4.50; cows, $1.40 to $4.40; heifers, $2.25 to $4.00; canners, $1.40 to $2.50; bulls, $2 to $4.25; calves, $3.50 to $7.75; Texas fed steers, $3.50 to $4.25. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 24,000; to-morrow, 18,000; left over, 4,000; mixed and butchers', $6.65 to $7; good to choice heavy, $6.95 to $7.12; rough heavy, $6.70 to $6.90; light, $6.40 to $6.65; bulk of sales at $6.60 to $6.80. Sheep—Receipts, 5,000; sheep and lambs steady to strong; good to choice wethers, $4.50 to $5.50; fair to choice mixed, $3.50 to $4.50; native lambs, $4.50 to $6.50; western lambs, $4.75 to $6.25.

Maybe you think them unstylish and shop-worn—a close inspection will convince you to the contrary—they are dependable qualities.

Half price values such as these do not last long—you will want to see them as soon as possible.

PRINTS

We would impress the benefits derived from buying your prints at the earliest opportunity. With our assortment just to hand and the range of pretty new patterns complete choosing is easy—you will be prepared for warm weather when it comes.

Quantities of these are sold each day—of course the most desireable go first. Be among the ones that get this choice.

HALF PRICE

You can profitably spend a few minutes at our Wash Goods Counter. Desirable remnants of MUSLINS, PRINTS, GINGHAMS, selling at half the remnant price—that means less than half the original price. Ask to see these.

SUITS

That the superior STYLE and EXCELLENT WORKMANSHIP of our ready-to-wear suits has been appreciated by the ladies is evinced by the constantly increasing numbers we sell from season to season.

We will have a larger and handsomer assortment this season than even before. Styles that are exclusive with us—styles you will want to see. Watch for announcement of their arrival.

JACKET STYLES

Our buyer writes from the continent of great changes in jackets. Short loose styles will prevail for spring mostly in Tweed effects, with a few plain cloths.

Ideal buying conditions enable us to bring ours direct manufactured to you—that insures RIGHT PRICES and styles. These will be in our mantle room shortly.

ALTERATIONS

Our men's department is badly upset at present, but we ask you to bear with us for a short time. When through we will have a department that will be a credit to ourselves and also to the city.

Our new ready-to-wear clothing will be here as soon as the workmen have finished. The showing we will make in all lines of Men's and Boys' Clothing will be exceptionally well assorted, and we will follow the principles that have brought us such success in all other branches—STRICTLY ONE PRICE FOR CASH—THE LOWEST PRICE.

The keeper in attendance on a guest at a Norfolk shooting party recently looked on with disgust at the gentleman's erratic marksmanship. He was banging away here, there and everywhere, but no birds fell.

"Aim 'igher, sir," advised the keeper.

Still the birds flew untouched.

"It ain't the gun, sir, and it ain't the cartridges," remarked the Norfolk man. "Try shuttin' your right eye instead of the left, sir."

But not a pheasant fell.

The keeper scratched his head.

"The birds is very strong on the wing this year," he remarked, "but there's one more chance. If I was you, sir, I should 'ave a pop with both eyes shut."—Answers.

At a twenty-first birthday party the other day, says "London Answers," a mother was praising the talents of her son, and, being anxious to make him appear at his best before the company present, asked him to show the company the prizes he had won.

One of the guests, picking up the best article, said: "And what did he win this prize with?"

"Oh, that was for running," said the proud mother.

"And who presented it to him?" asked the guest.

"We did," said the mother.

"How was that?" asked the guest.

"Why, you see," said the proud mother, "he'd have won, but he didn't hear the pistol go off."

A DRUGGIST TESTIFIES

Here's an honest statement from people who are in the best position to give an unbiased opinion of any remedy and they in the strongest terms yield the palm to Dr. Agnew's Ointment as a certain cure for all ailments of the skin.

The Eureka Drug Company, of Mauch Chunk, Pa., writes:—"Please send at once two dozen Dr. Agnew's Ointment. It has given great satisfaction in cases of skin disease and piles, and is one of the best sellers in that line we ever handled." Price, 35 cents. 93

Ald. Pope was chairman.

The Executive Committee's report was passed without change.

report was being considered the Surveyor said the new grano-

olved that no action n in the St. Agnes' for two weeks, that nce with Mrs. Ling-
ing for all granolithic walks to be laid outside the trees in future caused a long discussion, and most of the Aldermen aired their views on the matter. At last the words "where practicable" were added, and the clause passed.

The Market Committee's report was adopted.

The matter of Mr. McCamon's crossing was left in the hands of the special Crossings Committee, with power to act.

The matter of Mr. C. Bishop's account was left in the hands of the Water Committee.

The invitation to visit St. Agnes' School was accepted, the date being fixed for Friday next at 10 a.m.

In accordance with the advice of the City Solicitor, a committee consisting of Ald. Chown, Galbraith and Pope was appointed to deal with the 300 appeals which had been dealt with by the Court of Revision.

The Street Rails.

The letter from Mr. Glass to Mr. Walter Fanning, re Street Railway, was taken up, and Mr. Fanning was heard in reference to it.

Mr. Fanning said that Mr. Glass was a Detroit broker, who was interested in mines in Kaladar, where he (Mr. Fanning) had become acquainted with him, and had apprised him of the circumstances in connection with the Belleville railway. It might be possible for Mr. Glass to obtain the charter for a railroad to Tweed, which had been granted by the Government some time ago, and which carried with it Government aid. A man would be here the latter part of this week to look over the ground in Mr. Glass' interests, and he thought action re taking up the rails might well be deferred.

Ald. Pope pointed out that the charter for a road to Tweed was for a steam road. The Government had never granted aid to an electric road.

Ald. Panter said the charter in question had been obtained a long time ago by Mr. H. Corby, ex-M.P. It had expired, and might not be renewed.

All the Aldermen expressed themselves as favorable to aiding the prospective road by all means in their power, but could not get around the fact that they had promised Mr. McNab, two weeks ago, that, unless some definite proposition turned up in the meantime, they would, at the next regular Council meeting, receive a proposition for the rails from the Cement people.

Ald. McFee said that, if it would not inconvenience the Cement people, he would vote to lay the matter over. If it would inconvenience them he could not see his way clear to cast such a vote.

Ald. Marsh moved that the matter be laid over for two weeks. He was much averse to seeing the rails taken up while there was any prospect at all of the road's being operated.

Mr. McNab, who was present, was asked whether the deferring of the matter would inconvenience his company. He said they had purchased 175 tons of rails, with the option of increasing that order to 300 tons at the same price. The increased order would depend on whether or not they got the Belleville rails. The option expired on July 1st, so the Council could see the position they were in. He did not think the Council had any definite proposition before them, but did not desire to do anything to prejudice the street railway. His company, however, would make them a better proposition. They would give $10 per long ton for the rails, spikes, fishplates, etc., and $250 to help repair the street, and, in the event of anyone operating a street railway in Belleville, or to Tweed, or to Point Ann, they would give $750 more.

After considerable further discussion,

Ald. Panter moved in amendment to Ald. Marsh's motion that Mr. McNab's offer be accepted.

Ald. Sinclair seconded the motion. He thought that, by selling the rails and obtaining the $1000 from the Cement people, the city would be in a position to offer $3000 to any parties who would operate the road, which would be much better than giving them the rails.

Ald. McFee supported the amendment. The rails were not suited for street use, anyhow.

Ald. Marsh did not think it was in the general interests of the city to sell the rails. It would take $3000 to repair Front St. after the rails were taken up.

Ald. Sinclair retorted that the condition of Front St., since the cars had stopped running, had been a disgrace to the city.

Ald. McFee asked Mr. McNab if, providing they got the rails, they would run cars up and down Pinnacle St., to carry their employes to and from Point Ann.

Mr. McNab said that was their intention, if they could make suitable arrangements with the Grand Trunk people.

Ald. Chown wanted to know how long Mr. McNab's offer of the $750 would hold good.

Mr. McNab said he thought five years would be fair.

Ald. Marsh (to Ald. Chown)—"Well, you seem to be afraid the city will be too well treated. He said nothing about any fixed time. Why should you?"

Ald. Galbraith was sorry to see the matter rushed through.

Ald. Pope thought the $3000 would be better for the promotion of the railway than the rails as at present contributed.

Ald. Chown pointed out that if they got the money for the rails they might have to go to the people before they could turn it over to anybody who would operate a street railway.

Ald. Panter asked Mr. McNabb if he would be willing to let the rails stay where they were for another week, providing the amendment was passed, in order that it might be seen whether there was anything definite in the Glass matter.

Mr. McNab said he would be willing, and Ald. Panter's amendment was changed so as to come into effect on Monday, July 6.

The amendment was carried, Ald. Marsh only voting against it.

The Lumber Piles.

Mr. Thompson's letter re lumber piles came up.

Ald. McFee thought a by-law should be passed prohibiting the piling of lumber in the city. He would like the Aldermen to talk with the firemen on the subject.

Ald. Chown did not think it would be fair to order people to take their lumber away and perhaps drive manufacturers out of the city. The lumber piles made no difference to the insurance rates in the vicinity.

The time of the Council was extended for one hour, and Ald. Sinclair went home.

After a lot of talk the matter of the lumber piles was referred to a special committee composed of Ald. Galbraith, Marsh and Salman.

The Committee of the Whole rose.

The Cow Herders.

Inspector Arnott was heard in reference to complaints which had been made in regard to cows which were not properly herded. He said he had investigated the complaints. Eight cows from Sidney were herded in the city on the commons.

The Aldermen unanimously decided that this must be put a stop to.

Enquiries.

Ald. McFee asked about the broken sidewalk on Queen St. Had Mr. Arnott prosecuted the party who broke it, as ordered?

Mr. Arnott said the guilty party had gone to Kingston with the soldiers. When he returned he would be prosecuted.

Some other unimportant enquiries were made.

Motions.

Ald. Galbraith asked the suspension of the rules for the introduction of a motion remitting the taxes on the Y.M.C.A. rooms.

It was pointed out that the Council had no power in the matter. The motion was changed so as to recommend the Court of Revision to remit the taxes, and was carried.

Ald. McFee moved that the resolution passed forbidding the building of any granolithic walks this summer be rescinded.—Referred to Public Works Committee.

Ald. Chown moved that the treasurer of the Waterworks pay $2500 to the general account of the city, the same to be used in paying interest on waterworks bonds.—Carried.

The Rolling Mills.

Ald. McFee moved that the $2500 forfeit money be withdrawn from the bank and placed to the credit of the general expense fund.

The necessary two-thirds majority to suspend the rules was not obtained.

Ald. Pope wanted the rules suspended in order to have the Public Bath Committee's report again taken up, but it was twenty minutes to 12 and the Aldermen looked at the clock and said "Nay, nay." It stands as a notice of motion.

Tax Collections.

Under the head of "Orders of the day" Ald. Chown presented the following statement of collections by the different officials from June 1st to 29th:

J. H. Starling, roll of 1901......$274.43

foliage has been undertaken by the new United States Bureau of Plant Industry. Some of the results obtained by Albert F. Woods, the physiologist of the bureau, are thus detailed in the "Sun" (New York):

"The color of a leaf, says Mr. Woods, is furnished by minute grains of pigment within its cells. What we see in the fresh leaf is not simple green, but a combination of many pigments, which when mixed appear as solid green.

"Red is one of the color elements of fresh leaves. Reddish coloring matter is usually in liquid form, within the sap contained in the leaf cells. Yellow, another normal color element, when combined with green, is the natural shade of the grains of pigment within each cell. Brown is the normal color of the walls of the cell.

"To explain the leaf cell, Mr. Woods says that he would exhibit a very thin rubber ball filled with the white of an egg mixed with water. He would add to this liquid sufficient red dye to dissolve and color the entire solution. He would add also Paris green, whose minute grains will not dissolve. Yellow grains of some powdered substance, likewise insoluble, he would mingle with the green. The rubber ball itself would be brown, corresponding to the normal color of the leaf cell's walls. Holding the ball up to the light, the combination of the colors in its texture and interior substance would be the green tint of plant life.

"To demonstrate the autumnal changes in leaf tints he would spread upon a table hundreds of green beads, interspersed with others of brown, yellow and red. Then he would take out all of one color, then all of another, and so on, the general shade or tint of the entire mass undergoing a change all the while. Just so in the autumn leaf—when any of its elementary colors disappear the general effect of those remaining clustered in any particular area is altered.

"If an autumn leaf turns entirely red, this tinting is due to the fact that only its red pigment is left. If it is yellow, all of the other coloring has been destroyed, except the minute yellow grains. If the leaf turns brown it can be safely diagnosed as dead. All living tints have disappeared, leaving only the brown walls of the cells. The brown leaf is a dingy ruin, within which every spark of life has been extinguished.

"There has long been a controversy as to the cause of the autumn leaf's coloration, said Mr. Woods. Some botanists have attributed it to frosts. We are finding that light frosts, not sufficient to kill leaves, greatly facilitate their coloration by causing an increase within them of a normal chemical ferment, which attacks the color compounds or color generators in the cells. We are finding that the oxidation of these color compounds by this ferment causes the various shades of color, especially the purples, oranges, etc. The yellows are normally present in the leaf.

"Autumn leaves containing sugar, such as the maples, sumacs, gums, etc., easily oxidise, and thus form the rich reds, purples and violets so beautiful to the eye. That is why these, especially the hard maples, give the most beautiful autumn leaves. Autumnal oak leaves do not attract admiration because they contain much tannin. The oxidation color of tannic acid is dirty brown. Leaves which die quickly never give autumnal colors.

"The most gorgeous autumn leaves, according to Mr. Woods, are produced by a long-drawn-out fall, whose days gradually cool from summer heat to winter snow. But if the frost should come early and the weather should be uneven this fall we need not expect the true autumnal splendors. A heavy, sudden and early frost would kill all leaves alike and turn them to a monotonous brown.

"Crimson and scarlet autumn leaves, the most beautiful of all, are more abundant in the cooler parts of this country than elsewhere in the world."

Carlyle and Disraeli.

MAGNANIMITY superior to his own could shame even the dogmatic Carlyle. The man whose arrogance of opinion never permitted him to take anything back once had to confess that a Jew had disarmed his bigotry and changed his insulting prejudice into gratitude and respect.

Disraeli, whom he had often reviled in speech and in print, had every reason to know how bitterly Carlyle despised him and his race; and after he had become the most powerful man in England he took his revenge. It was the vengeance inflicted by a great man who could forget his personal antipathies upon a great man who could not.

Recognizing the commanding intellect of the surly philosopher and the lustre it conferred upon his country, the Prime Minister offered him the knighthood of the Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath, and the "good fellowship" pension once accepted and enjoyed by Dr. Samuel Johnson and also by the poet Southey.

Carlyle declined the title as being out of keeping with the tenor of his "poor existence," and the pension because he was not in needy circumstances; but the fact of the offer and the generous language in which it was conveyed startled and subdued him. He wrote frankly to Disraeli:

"Allow me to say that the letter, both in purpose and expression, is worthy to be called magnanimous and noble; that it is without example in my own poor history, and I think it is unexampled, too, in the history of governing persons toward men of letters at the present or at any time; and that I will carefully preserve it as one of the things precious to memory and heart."

Subsequently he wrote to his friend, the Countess of Derby:

"Mr. Disraeli's letter is really what I called it, magnanimous and noble on his part. It reveals to me, after all the hard things I have said of him, a new and unexpected stratum of genial dignity and manliness of character which I had by no means given him credit for. It is, as my penitent heart admonishes me, a kind of 'heaping coals of fire on my head,' and I do truly repent and promise to amend."

One needs no better evidence of the real greatness of Carlyle than the promptness with which he recognized this magnanimity, and the manliness with which he acknowledged it.

WAVES AND HURRICANE.

MORE THAN A THOUSAND PEOPLE KILLED.

A Terrible Story of Death and Disaster From the Society Islands—People Tuuk Refuge in Cocoanut Trees, Which Finally Gave Way—Hundreds Swam Out to Steamers and Were Saved.

San Francisco, Feb. 9.—News of a fearful loss of life in a destructive storm that swept over the South Sea Islands last month reached here yesterday by the steamer Mariposa, direct from Tahiti. The loss of life is estimated at 1,000 persons. January 13th last a huge tidal wave, accompanied by a terrific hurricane, attacked the Society Islands and the Tuomotu group with fearful force, causing death and devastation never before equalled in a land of dreaded storms. The storm raged several days, reaching its maximum strength between January 14th and January 16th. From the meagre news received at Tahiti up to the time of the sailing of the Mariposa, it is estimated that 1,000 of the islanders lost their lives. It is feared that later advices will increase this number.

The first news of the disaster reached Papeete, Tahiti, January 26th by the schooner Eimeo. The captain of the schooner placed the fatalities at 500. The steamer Excelsior arrived at Papeete the following day with 400 survivors. The captain of the Excelsior estimated the total loss of life to be 800. These figures comprised only the deaths on the three islands of Hao, Hikuera and Makokan, whose ordinary population is 1,800. On Hiquera Island, where 1,000 inhabitants were engaged in pearl diving, nearly one-half were drowned. On an adjacent island 100 more were washed out to sea. Makokan and Hao are depopulated. Conservative estimates at Tahiti place the number of islands visited by the tidal wave and hurricane at 80. All of them are under the control of the French Government at Tahiti.

The surviving inhabitants are left destitute of food, shelter and clothing, all having been swept away by the storm. The French Government upon receipt of news of the disaster took prompt measures to relieve the distressed districts, and despatched two warships with fresh water and provisions. The Italian man-of-war Calabria accompanied the French vessels on their errand of mercy. As the supply of fresh water and provisions on the islands was totally exhausted during the storm, it is feared that many lives would be lost before the relief ships could arrive. As far as is known eight white people were among the drowned. Included in these were Alexander Brander, N. P. Plunkett of Oakland, T. D. Donnelly, formerly a fireman on the steamship Australia, and the local agent of C. Coppenrath, a merchant of Papeete. Added to this number was an unknown woman, who committed suicide from fright.

Sought Refuge in Trees.

As the islands were barely twenty feet above sea level, and were not surrounded by coral reefs, it was necessary for all the inhabitants to take to the cocoanut trees when the tidal wave began to cover the land. These trees grew to an immense height, many reaching an altitude of 100 feet. All of the lower trees were covered by the raging seas, which swept with pitiless force about and over them. The natives on the taller trees were safe until the cocoanut roots gave way, and then they too were swept out into the sea.

The four hundred survivors brought by the Excelsior to Papeete gained the ship's side by swimming three and four miles from the tops of cocoanut trees. The Eimeo, though badly damaged by the storm, also brought off as many persons as could swim to her sides, she, like the Excelsior, being unable to run close to the shores because of the violence of the ocean swells, which continued to run abnormally high for a week after the tidal disturbances. Another schooner, the Gaulois, from the Maquesas Islands, 600 miles from Tahiti, encountered the hurricane while on the way to the latter place, and only the timely action of the captain in having the cargo, consisting of 30 head of cattle, 35 pigs and [illegible] tons of cotton, jettisoned, saved the little craft from destruction. Even with this precaution the life of one man was lost by waves sweeping the decks.

One of the many acts of heroism reported is that of a woman who climbed one of the tall cocoanut trees and lashed her babe to the branches, hanging to the body of the tree beneath the little one as best she could. There they remained for ten hours, suffering great torture until finally rescued.

Thousands of tons of copra, the dried kernel of the cocoanut, and more than 200 tons of mother of pearl shells are known to have been lost. The pearl shells are valued at $1,800 per ton, and many valuable pearls may now be lost to the world forever, as these were considered some of the best pearl islands in the world.

MONTREAL STRIKE OVER.

THE STREET CAR SERVICE RESUMED ON SUNDAY.

The Terms Agreed To—Looks Like a Favorable Settlement for the Men.

Montreal, Feb. 9.—The strike of the employees of the Montreal Street Railway is over, and everyone has returned to work. It was a most peculiar affair. It was entirely unexpected, for the employees were supposed to be unorganized and without money. It turned out that both suppositions were erroneous. The cars started to run yesterday, and the service is now satisfactory.

The conditions signed by Senator Forget, the President of the company, are as follows:—

(1) None shall be dismissed without full and equitable reason.

(2) The company will give an equitable hearing to any employee against whom a complaint has been made. An appeal may be made to the highest officer, be it the Superintendent, the Manager, or even the President.

(3) The company will maintain the same scale of wages to sweepers as they had in force on Feb. 3.

(4) The company will on demand show to a deputation of its employees the reports that shall have been made against recently-dismissed employees.

(5) The company will grant a general increase of salary, equivalent to 10 per cent. on the scale of wages in force on Feb. 3.

(6) The company shall recognize the right of their men to belong to any union or benefit association of their own that they may see fit. In case of any difference arising between the company and its employees, the management will at all times be ready to discuss such grievances with the men in its employ, and attendance upon any deputation to lay views of the men before the management will in no wise be prejudicial to the employees composing the same. The company cannot undertake to discriminate among its employees nor to grant any difference of treatment to those who are members of such union or those who are not.

(7) All men discharged since Jan. 1, 1903, may have their cases considered by the directors, and, in case there is dissatisfaction with the verdict, their case may be, on the demand of either party, submitted to a board of arbitration, composed of one representative named by the men and one person by the company, and a third by agreement between the two thus named, each party agreeing to be bound by the final verdict.

The settlement was reached after a series of conferences between the committee representing the City Council with the company's officials and the representatives of the strikers. The company's main objection was to a formal recognition of the union, but finally the President, Senator Forget, on behalf of the company, agreed to recognize the union. The agreement was then signed.

BRITAIN'S FOOD SUPPLY.

What Might Be Expected to Happen in Case of War.

London, Feb. 9.—The influential committee headed by the Duke of Sutherland, Lord Strathcona, Lord Charles Beresford and a number of members of Parliament, Admirals and other prominent men, which was formed Feb. 1 to agitate the question of the scarcity of Great Britain's food supply in time of war, has issued a statement in which the opinion is expressed that in the event of Great Britain becoming involved in an European war the country must be prepared to see bread at practically a famine price. Various reasons are given as the basis for this opinion. The chief reasons are that the greatest source of Great Britain's food supply is the United States, where the price of wheat can be raised artificially, and that the corn trade on both sides of the Atlantic would expect to make profits on a scale commensurate with the war risks.

ANOTHER ALLIANCE.

Italy and Germany Have An Understanding.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Disclosure of a secret alliance between Germany and Italy constituted the most important development in the Venezuelan situation. This fact has been made known to the British Ambassador, and it will put all the negotiators more closely on their guard in the drafting of protocols, which they hope to submit to Minister Bowen during the next few days. The German-Italian alliance was old news to Mr. Bowen, the fact having leaked out in Caracas before he left there. Generally speaking, the alliance is intended to secure to Italy the same treatment in the allies' settlement with Venezuela, as that received by Germany and Great Britain. Mr. Bowen has made it plain both to the British Ambassador and the German Minister that he cannot affix his signature to any protocols they may present to him which are not substantially of the same character as that to be submitted by the Italian Ambassador, Signor Mayor Des Planches.

CAUGHT IN A SPRING BED.

For Three Days John Chase Struggled to Extricate Himself.

New York, Feb. 9.—John Chase, 81 years old, at one time a prosperous manufacturer of Manhattan, having lost his money, lived alone at Hempstead, L.I. Not having been seen for several days, friends went to look for him and found him unconscious in his room. His foot had been caught in a spring bed, and in endeavoring to extricate it the old man had partly fallen out of bed and struck his head, which rendered him unconscious.

For three days, half frozen, he had vainly endeavored to extricate his foot. Had he not been found by his friends he would have died from starvation. He was removed to the Alms House.

A GRAVE CHARGE.

Standard Oil Co. Blocking Anti-trust Bills.

Washington, Feb. 9.—It can be said by authority that unless anti-trust legislation at least reasonably satisfactory to the Administration is enacted at the present session, President Roosevelt, on March 5, will call an extraordinary session of the LVIIIth Congress. The President himself has told members of Congress of his desire and his determination. It is understood that the announcement was direct and unqualified. It is further said that the determination of the President was reached only after careful consideration of the strenuous efforts that are being made to defeat any anti-trust legislation by Congress. These efforts have covered a wide range. They were characterized today by one prominent Republican leader, to quote him directly, "as the most remarkable of which I have had personal knowledge during my public life." These efforts culminated in the last thirty-six hours, it is now declared, in direct appeals from the Standard Oil Company, through its President, John D. Rockefeller, to members of the Senate not to enact any anti-trust legislation at this time.

No less than six United States Senators have received telegrams signed "John D. Rockefeller," urging that no anti-trust legislation be enacted. It has not been possible to obtain a copy of these despatches, which, it can be said, are practically identical. Substantially, they read as follows:—

We are opposed to any anti-trust legislation. Our counsel, Mr. ——, will see you. It must be stopped.

As stated, these telegrams (and it must be clear that only the substance and not the exact wording is here given) were signed "John D. Rockefeller."

Col. Kinloch's Retirement.

London, Feb. 9.—The most interesting topic in drawing-rooms and clubs has been the compulsory retirement of Colonel Kinloch from the command of the Grenadier Guards in consequence of his neglect to prevent or to investigate the "ragging" or hazing of the sons of three Peers by their companions in the messroom. There are a dozen versions of the ignominious treatment to which the sons of the Duke of Wellington and Lord Belhaven and the nephew of Lord De Saumarez were subjected, and half a dozen accounts of the negotiations of their titled relations and numerous ladies of smart society with Lord Roberts. The result alone is definitely known. One of the most gallant officers in the South African campaign was held responsible by an officers' mock court-martial, compelled to retire on half pay after a futile appeal to the King, and condemned to a forfeit of $1,000 a year for the remainder of his life in his retiring pension.

POWER ATTRACTS MONEY.

HAMILTON COMPANY INCORPORATED WITH $5,000,000.

Imperial Paper Mills to Take Over Sturgeon Falls Pulp Co.—A Large Coal Concern—Large List of New Corporations.

Toronto, Feb. 9.—The incorporation of another large power concern, the Hamilton Cataract Power, Light & Traction Company, is announced in The Ontario Gazette. The authorized capital is $5,000,000, and the provisional directors are Hon. J. M. Gibson, James Dixon, J. R. Moodie, J. W. Sutherland of Hamilton, John Dickenson, M.P.P., Glanford Township, and J. A. Kammerer, Toronto, several of whom are now connected with a company of a similar name. Mr. Kammerer stated last night that the new company's relation to the old one would be determined at the annual meeting of the latter at Hamilton to-day. The capital of the old company was $4,000,000 stock, besides bonds. The idea was to extend the existing plant two miles south of St. Catharines, where 5,000 horsepower was now developed. The new company is given the usual rights to acquire by lease, purchase or otherwise, and to utilise and develop water powers and other powers, etc.

The Imperial Paper Mills of Canada is incorporated, with an authorized capital of $5,000,000, head office, Toronto, with authority to carry on a pulp, paper and lumber business, and to take over as a going concern the pulp, timber, waterpowers, pulp and paper mills and mill-sites, assets and concessions of the Sturgeon Falls Pulp Company. The provisional directors are:—L. G. McCarthy, M.P., Toronto; William Rantoul, jun., Sturgeon Falls, and G. C. Loveys, Toronto.

The Eastern Canada Coal Company is incorporated with $2,000,000 authorized capital, and power to acquire and develop coal lands and mines. The provisional directors are H. J. Wright, John Payne, Richard Credicott, W. J. Gilchrist and Henry Toybee, all of Toronto, where the head office will be.

"Moose Mountain, Limited," is the modest title of an $100,000 company, incorporated with head office at Sault Ste. Marie, doubtless with the object of handling the Hutton Township iron deposit, the directors being Chas. S. Osborn and Otto Fowle, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and John McKay, W. H. Hearst and Jas. L. Darling, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

Other new companies incorporated are as follows:—Western Ontario Portland Cement Company, Atwood, $500,000; Industrial Agency, Limited, Toronto, $250,000; Belleville Packing Company, meat packing, $250,000; Point Edward Elevator Company, grain elevating and flour milling, $200,000; James Jolley & Sons, Hamilton, saddlery, $100,000; J. F. Brown Company, Toronto, capital increased from $80,000 to $200,000; Kawartha Lakes Navigation Company, Lindsay, $50,000; Barton Building Company, Hamilton, $40,000; St. Mary's River Navigation Company, Sault Ste. Marie, $40,000; Richards Pure Soap Company, Woodstock, $50,000; Midland Coal Dock Company, $50,000; Renfrew Nurseries Company, Renfrew, $40,000; Canadian Automatic Light Company, Walkerville, $40,000; Joseph McCausland & Son, Toronto, $40,000; Manitou Fish Company, Toronto, $40,000.

MORE MARCONI PLANS.

To Publish Daily Newspapers on Ships.

London, Feb. 9.—The courts to-day granted to the Marconi Company leave so to amend its memorandum of association as to enable it to cope with what counsel described as "potentialities beyond the dreams of science." In support of the application counsel mentioned that Marconi expected shortly to encircle the earth with wireless messages, and hoped to apply his system to heating, to traction and to publishing daily newspapers on board ship.

SMALLPOX AT DETROIT.

Over Six Hundred Cases This Fall and Winter.

Detroit, Feb. 9.—Detroit has been having an epidemic of smallpox, in which the death rate has been surprisingly low. Only six deaths are reported out of over six hundred cases. Two of those who died were grown men, while four of them were infants who had no chance against the disease. The epidemic commenced on Sept. 9. Since that date there have been just 614 cases. In September there were 29 cases; in October, 50; in November, 161, and so far in February there have been 28. That the number of cases decreased in January from the December record, and promise not to increase much, if any, in February, is regarded as a good sign for the speedy extinction of the disease, as January and February are the two worst months for smallpox.

Another Case in St. Thomas.

St. Thomas, Feb. 9.—One more case of smallpox developed yesterday, Mrs. Thomas, wife of Mr. George Thomas, is now ill with the disease in the Isolated Hospital. This case is traceable to the source of all the cases, the Columbia Hotel. The other ten patients are convalescent.

Daily Intelligencer.

THE SENATE VACANCIES.

In Saturday's issue of The Intelligencer was given a telegram from Ottawa, announcing the rumor that our own over-worked Fishery Inspector, Mr. Hurley, was to receive the seat in the Senate made vacant through the death of the Hon. John O'Donoghue. A statement now comes from St. Catharines that Mr. Thos. Conlan, of Thorold, is to be the lucky man. As a reason for this selection, it is said, "the marine men "have long felt that they should have "a representative in the Senate." It is also said that Mr. Conlan is a lumberman and supported by "the Ontario Lumbermen's Association." It will be interesting to learn what special qualifications a lumberman has to legislate in the interests of mariners or to deal with questions of marine. It will be a long time before the Senate has a member who understands that question better or as well as the late Hon. Lachlan McCallum.

The late Speaker of the House of Commons, Hon. Mr. Bain, it is said, is likely to be appointed to fill the seat in the Senate made vacant by the death of Hon. A. T. Wood. Mr. Bain is an old Parliamentarian, having been first elected in 1872 and retained his seat until he retired in 1891.

A Hamilton correspondent says that "the two most likely names for the Senatorship are those of T. H. Macpherson, ex-M.P., Senator Wood's old running mate, and Jas. Dixon, an old worker in the Liberal cause. Hamiltonians think the Senatorship should go to a city resident." Mr. Macpherson's name was brought under the was an applicant, but he generously declined, on the ground that Mr. Wood's claims were greater than his.

The struggle for the seat of the late Senator Clemow is between Mr. Frost, of Smith's Falls; Mr. Bates, of Ottawa, and Mr. Edwards, M.P. for Russell.

The Montreal Gazette puts in a good word for Mr. James Innes, formerly M.P. for South Wellington, who, it says, is reported to be an aspirant for one of the vacant Ontario Senate seats. Mr. Innes has a record of long and successful service for his party, and the regard of almost every man who has come within the influence of his kindly personality. These, however, are rather back number qualifications now. The chances are the honor will go to some fellow, who can find $10,000 when he shoves his hand into the pocket he carries his wad in.

"Events," a weekly publication published in Ottawa, edited by our old Belleville friend Mr. Arnott J. Magurn, under the heading of "Some Unsolicited Advice," suggests that the Government should recompense the "English-speaking portion of the press" with a Senatorship or two, and adds that "this reproach" might be "removed" by the appointment of that most amiable of all editors, Mr. Gardiner, of the Hamilton Times. Should this advice be taken it is certain his speeches in the Senate would not be of that vitriolic character which characterize his editorials.

Failing in this selection, he suggests Mr. James Innes, of Guelph, and then consoles himself with the reflection that "the appointment to the Senate of the average newspaper man would at least make it impossible for the Opposition to attach to a seat in that body the stigma of $10,000, paid down, for no newspaper man is ever guilty of having $10,000 all at once." In the latter respect Mr. Magurn knows whereof he speaks.

If these rumors, or any of them, are correct, the chances of our own Nathanael, or of our indefatigable Jeremiah, of the much-coveted elevation, are slim. Live on in hopes, dear friends, vacancies are rapidly occurring.

One of the Quebec vacancies in the Senate was filled by the appointment of Joseph Hormisdas Legris, member for Maskinonge. Mr. Legris was first elected to the Commons in 1891.

Why are the Ontario vacancies not filled? Is the scramble for the seats too violent and acrimonious to enable a decision?

The Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, has gone to Japan by the way of San Francisco. Why was not the Pacific Railway route selected? It appears that these gentlemen always select the time when Parliament meets to take their outings. What a howl there used to be in all the Grit papers in old times if a Minister should absent himself for a few days, during a session. Times have changed and so have Grits.

The priests of South Austria have signed a petition praying the Archbishop of Vienna to allow them to wear beards, for the reason "that sometimes they are mistaken for strolling mountebanks, instead of ministers of the Gospel." This is rough on smooth faces. Long beards will, however, give them a patriarchal appearance, not characteristic of "mountebanks."

"Marry or go to jail." Such is the decision of Judge Morgan, of Toronto. The Star of that city says the Judge had before him the other day "two female shoplifters," who he let off on "suspended sentence," upon condition that "they should get married." It is quite evident that the Judge has a spite against unfortunate old bachelors, or he would not condemn them to a life of torture with shoplifters. Our own Police Magistrate, who deals in suspended sentences occasionally, would not be so cruel as that.

Sir Charles Mansfield Clarke, quartermaster of the British army, testified before the War Enquiry Commission that 349,728 horses and 53,339 mules and donkeys were lost in the South African war, exclusive of 15,960, which were lost on the voyage to South Africa. The bulk of the war loss was owing to the use of the animals before they became acclimatized.

The rumor is abroad that Hon. Edward Blake is to leave the Irish party and once more take up his residence in Canada, at the same time re-entering Canadian politics. The rumor may or may not be true, of Mr. Blake might make the Grit party better, but he could not, so far as insincerity, chicanery and political dishonesty are concerned, make them any worse. So we rise to move a warm welcome to the Hon. Edward.

The editor of the Kingston Times, when he wrote the following article, was not exactly seized of all the facts in connection with the subject which he discusses, but there may be municipalities where this suggestions would be hailed as timely:

Belleville Council is attempting greater economy in the administration of the city's business. In order to do this, it had dismissed some employees, and in re-engaging these or employing new ones, proposes to cut down salaries generally. The Intelligencer discusses the question and speaks to the point when it says:

> "The Intelligencer has always held that for a municipality to attempt to run its affairs 'on the cheap' was simply to invite disaster. The best man available is none too good, and his salary should be fixed according to his abilities, standing and responsibilities. But the best man available, after he has been engaged, should be told plainly and firmly what his duties are, and given to understand that any neglect of or violation of them will subject him to punishment fully as severe as he would receive if working for a private company.'"

The fact is that public officials are apt to take liberties in the use of time which they would not think of taking if doing their own business, and would not be allowed if employed by other private parties. Instead of beginning work, say at 8 and ending at 6, they begin at, say 9 or 10, and quit at 4. And when at work each official will put forth much less exertion than is done in the private walks of life. The Kingston Council of last year hence did a commendable thing when they lengthened the office hours of the city employees. But there may be room yet for changes by which the city business will be done as well by fewer salaried officials.

ANOTHER SERIOUS FIRE IN TRENTON

HEAVY DAMAGE CAUSED BY A SUNDAY MORNING BLAZE.

For the second time within two weeks the Town of Trenton was yesterday visited by a serious fire. Between the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock on Sunday morning the Gents' Furnishing establishment of Mr. Geo. Nolan, situated in the Hawley Block, east side of Front street, was found to be on fire, and before the flames were extinguished the block was badly burned. When discovered the fire had gained considerable headway and a strong wind was blowing at the time, which fanned the flames in their work of destruction.

Nolan's place was completely gutted and the stock all destroyed. Mr. Hawley's liquor store adjoining, Mr. Blakeley's jewellery store and the telephone office in the block were more or less damaged. Mr. Henry Bonter occupied apartments over Nolan's store, and was burned out, saving but little of his effects. On the same floor is the I.O.O.F. hall, which was partially destroyed, with the greater portion of the paraphernalia. The heat from the burning building was so intense that plate glass windows in the stores of Mr. A. W. Hawley and Mr. R. A. Barber, across the street, were broken.

The loss upon the buildings and stock is considerable, but the amounts could not be ascertained. Insurance was carried by the occupants.

FORMER BELLEVILLIAN PASSED AWAY IN THE LONE STAR STATE.

Mr. John Martin received a telegram on Saturday from his oldest daughter, Mrs. Wm. Forster, stating that her husband had died the day before. The sad news was not unexpected, for Mr. Forster has been in poor health for nearly a year, suffering from a complication of diseases. Mr. Forster resided here for several years, having been a teacher in Ontario Business College and also employed by Messrs. Hodgson Bros. He was highly esteemed for his upright life and consequently won the confidence of many of our citizens. On the 20th of January, 1892, he married Miss Edith E. Martin, and having been offered a responsible position by a former Bellevillian in Texas, he and his bride went there to reside. He had been a member of the Methodist Church from boyhood. Much sympathy will be extended to the widow in her bereavement and loneliness.

THE DAY OF MIRACLES NOT PAST.

A Toronto "Star" reporter investigated the case of Mr. Geo. Warner, and found that after thirteen years of almost total deafness, he had been cured by inhaling Catarrhozone.

This proves that where Catarrhozone treatment is employed, impaired hearing and deafness can be cured. Catarrhozone always brings quick relief, and is warranted to give lasting satisfaction. All sufferers from impaired hearing, deafness, head noises and ringing in the ears are advised to inhale Catarrhozone and derive the great benefit it is capable of affording. The recent outbreak of smallpox in the Town of Deseronto was the cause of a case in the police court to-day. Andrew Culbertson, a member of the Mohawk tribe, was the first afflicted with this dread disease, and, after his recovery, according to his story, he was engaged by Dr. Newton to look after some others who were afflicted. He alleges that he was to be paid $1.50 per day and has not been paid. He brought an action to recover $40 from Dr. Newton for services performed. The case was in progress this afternoon.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

DIVIDED THEY CANNOT STAND

Duty of Christian Men and Women to Confess Christ Before Men and to Be Witnesses For the Truth of Religion—Testimony For the Gospel Will Exorcise Many Evils.

Entered according to Act of Parliament of Canada, in the year 1903, by William Baily, of Toronto, at the Dep't of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—In this sermon the preacher shows that the pew is no less responsible for spiritual stagnation than the pulpit and that a dumb pew makes a dead church, while a live, cordial, co-operating and Christ confessing pew makes an effective pulpit and a triumphant church. The text is John ix, 16, "There was a division among them."

One day Lepaux, the great French infidel, came to Napoleon. He said. "Your majesty, I have evolved a new religion which I call Theophilanthropy. I know that it is a better gospel than Christianity, but the French people will not believe nor accept it. What is the matter? What shall I do?" The great French emperor turned and smiled. Then he raised his arm and placed his hand kindly upon his friend's shoulder as he answered: "Lepaux, there is one trouble about your religion—you have no witnesses. Go and open a few blinded eyes. Unstop some deaf ears. Straighten some crooked limbs. Raise the dead. Be crucified and buried. Raise again from the grave. On the third day appear unto them who put you to death. Then the people will accept your religion and believe in you as they believe in Jesus Christ. Lepaux, it is by your witnesses that your new religion must win its way into the hearts of the people, not by your theories." Napoleon was right. The gospel of Jesus Christ is to be carried to the farthermost parts of the world by the power of gospel testimony, not by theories, not by arguments, not by a brilliant collection of metaphysical or polemical dissertations.

An illustration of this statement is furnished by the scene of my text. There was great excitement in the ecclesiastical world of Jerusalem. The pharisees, the members of the sanhedrin and the priests had conclusively settled it with themselves that Jesus Christ was a fraud, a charlatan, an absurd pretender. But one day there was brought into their presence, seeing, a man who had been born blind. In all probability they knew him, for he had been one of the beggars who took their stand near the temple gate. Every one who went to the temple knew him. "Who opened your eyes?" one of the learned doctors asked in surprise. "No man ever lived before who, having been born blind, received sight on this side of the grave." When the young man answered "Jesus," the priests and their hirelings were beside themselves with rage. They threatened him. They browbeat him. They excommunicated him. At last they entirely lost their reasoning faculties and common sense. They practically cried aloud: "We do not believe that Jesus opened those eyes! Away with this fellow called Jesus! Away with him! Away with him!" But some of these learned pharisees could not be put off by any superficial condemnation. Methinks I can hear a learned doctor say to some of his friends: "I do not know about this. Perhaps this new teacher after all is the promised Messiah Certainly no other human being could ever work such miracles." "And there was a division among them." The same kind of a division which will occur among worldly men to-day if the bombshell of consecrated Christian testimony can only be hurled among them.

A practical application of this principle is now facing us, one and all Are we Christian men and women ready to give our gospel testimony wherever we go? Are we ready to tell what Jesus Christ has done for us? Ready, even though it may bring upon us sneers and ridicule? Ready, though it should involve persecutions and ostracism? Ready, as the young man of old was ready, who stood up and witnessed before the priests and the pharisees, when he made a division among them?

Would that the dumb spirit would come out of the lay members in the Christian churches! Everywhere we hear the question being asked. "What is the matter with our churches? Is it that the pulpit is losing its power?" Oh, no, the pulpit is not losing its power. There are more consecrated ministers to-day than ever before. More brilliant and well developed heads and hearts are yearly being trained in our theological seminaries than ever before. More eloquent sermons are being preached from the sacred desk on this Sabbath than on any Sunday of any other generation that ever lived. What, then, is the matter? The pulpit has not lost its old power, but the pew has abandoned its duty. The great defect of the church to-day is that the pew has relegated to the pulpit nearly all its public duties, of preaching as well as public praying, as it has depended on the choir for its singing. The result is that when the pew ceases to speak the message of the pulpit is neglected The pulpit of the Lord Jesus Christ is to-day groaning under the weight of the infinite load which the pew has piled upon it. No church is to-day a consecrated evangelistic church unless it has in its pews men who by life and testimony are preaching evangelists as well as gospel ministers who stand behind the sacred desk. Jesus Christ is to-day speaking to the silent pews in the same way as he spake unto the dumb devil of old that was cursing, the life of a young child. He said unto him, "Thou dumb and deaf spirit, come out of him and enter no more its power to listen.

John Wesley, one of the greatest men who ever lived, no matter how you take him, realized, and profoundly realized, that a dumb pew invariably meant an ineffective pulpit and a dead church. What did he do? John Wesley, by divine inspiration, made his pulpit one of the mightiest thrones of the ages when he kindled the pew into articulate life. John Wesley also harnessed to the pulpit the power of Christian song. He started his brother Charles writing hymns. He gave those hymns to the people, the common people, and, like David, he cried: "Praise ye the Lord; praise ye the Lord from the heavens! Both young men and maidens, old men and children; let them praise the name of the Lord!" Then John Wesley took the old Bible, the Bible of Martin Luther. He took that Bible out of the chancel and the cloister. He gave it to the people, the common people. He said to them as Paul said unto young Timothy: "Preach the word. Be instant in season, out of season. Reprove, rebuke, exhort!" Then John Wesley placed his hands upon the commonest of men in ordination. He took the cobbler from off his stool, the miner from the dark caverns of the earth, the farmer from the field and the clerk from the store. He said unto these men who had been studying the word of God: "Brethren, you do not need a theological training. Preach Jesus Christ; preach; everywhere preach, preach, preach!"

The older denominations of England at that time sneered at the Wesleyans. In derision they called them "Methodists" because they did everything unmethodically. What was the result? Was Wesley's a foolish plan? Oh, no. When Charles Wesley started the people singing instead of relegating that duty to a trained choir, as many of our churches do to-day; when John Wesley started his people praying and pleading in the barns, in the homes, on the street corners, Charles and John Wesley, by the power of the pew, roused all England for Christ. And to-day the greatest danger of the Methodist church is that she is developing too much an intellectual pulpit instead of a pleading, praying, testifying pew.

Would that the tongue of the dumb spirit of Christian testimony might be unloosed and begin to speak for Christ in the homes! I am not now alluding to the Christian testimony which ought to be heard among our children by our own fireside. I am referring to the word of gospel invitation, which should be addressed to the sinful and godless homes in the midst of every Christian community.

Now, my Christian friends, while I rejoice in foreign missions and would not abate your interest in them I want to ask you this pertinent question: Do you think we should allow our concern for souls 10,000 miles away to monopolize our efforts? While we are seeking them do not let us overlook the danger of those who are living in sin by our own door. Do you think that the Samoans and the Australasians and the Maoris and African negroes should be any more precious in God's sight and in ours than the man or the woman about whose personality you never care until you see a black crape hanging upon the opposite door? Oh, man, if you had the true love of Jesus Christ in your heart, you would act differently toward your unknown neighbor You would enter his home for Jesus' sake, with at least the same intensity as a life insurance agents hunts up men and women for his insurance company. You would enter the strangers' home, near to your door, with at least the same earnestness as if you had to sell a few books in order to buy your babies some bread. No man can truly love his God with all his heart and soul and mind unless at the same time he loves his neighbor as himself, and no Christian man can truly love his neighbor unless he is personally interested in his neighbor's eternal salvation.

Would that we might be willing to enter the homes of our neighbors in the service of Jesus Christ. Such an effort on our part not only is essential to their salvation, but it affects our standing in the kingdom of Christ Do you not remember that he said, "Every branch that beareth not fruit he taketh away?" Yet how indifferent most of us are in reference to the salvation of those sinners who are nearest our own doorstep. Some years ago an American missionary was preaching in the streets of Calcutta. As the American clergyman was talking a Mohammedan priest stood near and began to inveigh against the inconsistencies of the professors of the Christian religion. Then the Mohammedan priest opened the Bible, and while he read he pointed to a drunken English sailor near by. He read out loud those beautiful and solemn words of Corinthians, which we repeat at the holy communion. "And after the same manner also he took the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me." Then the Mohammedan priest sneeringly and tauntingly said: "There is the white man's religion. There is the white man drunk. Will ye have any such religion as that?" Oh, my brother, we rightly send forth our missionaries into foreign lands to testify of Jesus Christ. Shall we not also try to carry the testimony of Jesus to the drunken and dissipated white men at our own doors that they may be living witnesses of the power of the gospel and not a reproach to it. Shall we not also carry the gospel to our neighbors, to those who may be living farther away from Christ than the cannibals or the Eskimos? Shall we not be willing to kneel in prayer in our neighbors' parlors as well as send missionaries to preach standing upon the muddy banks of the Ganges?

Would that the dumb lips of Christian testimony might be opened in the store and on the street, in the factory and by the cashier's desk; opened when you are bidding the little cash-girl good night; opened when you are giving the last instructions to your foreman; opened in the same way as were the lips of a poor old one armed black man who, while he cleaned my shoes on Pennsylvania avenue, in our natinal capital, taught me one of the mightiest lessons of trust and faith in God I ever learned!

"Oh," says some man or woman sitting before me, "I could not speak a word for Christ in the store. It would not be appropriate. Such a course as that would be resented not only by my employers, but also by the employes." Would it, my brother? I think such a course would often be gladly welcomed in the store instead of being resented. I have had a great deal of experience with Christian workers. All of them have told me that when they speak a word for Christ on the street or in the store almost without exception they have been listened to kindly, respectfully and thankfully. Rev. Dr. I. I. Gorby, the present assistant pastor of this church, who has worked a great deal among the factories and the stores, has told me that the most respectful and grateful audiences he has ever addressed were those clad in overalls and which listened to him while he talked from a table or a barrel among the machinery or near the blast. Many employers welcome such efforts, knowing well that they profit by their employes becoming Christians. Some years ago H. L. Cregier of Washington, Ind., the head of a great stave and heading factory, placed a gospel minister upon his pay roll. He wanted this evangelist to make it his business to speak a word for Christ to every one of his employes "because," said Mr. Cregier, "outside of the spiritual results it pays when I have such a gospel worker among my men. There is less drunkenness, less rows, less crimes, less indolence and slothfulness, and my men are happier and more faithful." Now, my Christian friends, with such a testimony as that before you, do you not feel encouraged to speak a word for Christ in the store and in your place of business?

Would that the dumb lips of Christian testimony might be unloosed by our own firesides among our loved ones, as well as among the strangers dwelling outside the four walls of our home. I place this spiritual obligation upon my own heart and life as well as upon yours. There is many a minister who is so anxious about the souls of his congregation that sometimes he overlooks the souls' destinies of his own children and brothers and sisters and parents. Some time ago I buried a noble man of God named Rev. William E. McCrea. In conversation with me one day he said that the sweetest moment of all his life, not excepting his own conversion, was when he was able to lead his own venerable father to the foot of the cross. His father was a moral and, from a worldly standpoint, a good man, but not a professing Christian, and, though he had a son in the ministry, yet no one for years had ever asked the father to give himself in love to the Lord Jesus Christ. But one day Rev. Mr. McCrea, after he had been five years in the ministry, came to his father and said: "Father, do you not want to become a Christian? Do you not want to take mother's Christ and my Christ as your Christ? Do you not want me to pray with you now?" The tears started from the old man's eyes; his lips quivered. He shook with emotion as he answered: "Yes, Willie, I do. Oh, Willie, I have been waiting so long for some one to ask me to come to Christ! Why did you not do it before?" So to-day let us start to plead everywhere with Christian testimony; let us begin right in our own homes. Let us begin first and at once among those who are closest to us, as Andrew first sought his own brother to bring him to Christ

My friends, members of Jefferson Park Church, I here and now consecrate my life to a new work. I am going back to the days and life which I used to live when I first entered the ministry. In those old days I did not seek so much to comfort and please the members of my church as to win souls. My only desire was to reach out for those who were outside of the church and who never had confessed the name of Jesus. Before I entered my pulpit I would get down on my knees and say, "Oh, God, let me speak the right word for that young man and woman whom I may never see again until I meet them at thy throne!" Such is my purpose now; such is the purpose of my new assistant. Brothers and sisters, we have been too long dwelling together in selfish fellowship. We have enjoyed each other's society well. But to be happy together is not enough. Will you here and now clasp my hand in a holy purpose? Will you here and now move forward with me to seek out the strayed lamb which is lost upon the mountain of sin? Will you go forth with me out into the storm, perhaps to battle against derision and sneers? Will you go in the name of Jesus Christ? Will you promise here and now to carry the gospel message to the great unchurched and to the sinful men and women who are living under the shadows of our own doors?

How to Measure a River.

Anybody can measure approximately the breadth of a river without a surveyor's compass or any mechanical means whatever. The man who desires to make the experiment should place himself at the edge of the stream, then stand perfectly still, face the opposite bank and lower the brim of his hat until it just cuts the opposite bank. Then let him put both hands under his chin to steady his head and turn slowly round until the hat brim cuts some point on the level ground behind him. Mark the spot where the hat brim cuts the ground, then pace off the distance, and it will be found about the breadth of the river.

nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very Bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the billiousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 68 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

Don't feel that the world has no place for you because it fails to recognize you as a genius.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

Diamonds produce somnambulism and spiritual ecstasy.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Coral is a talisman against thunder and evils by flood and field.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER, Belleville.

A Savings Bank.

Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality, Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

TIMELY TOPICS

There seems to be reasonable assurance of pretty good sleighing for some little time to come.

Having found his way to church twice yesterday the Topics man is feeling rather puffed up to-day. As the boys would say, he was puffed out yesterday.

Talking of snow, now, perhaps it is because a certain professional gentleman has so many patients that the civic authorities have so much patience with him. His sidewalk is always the last to be cleaned.

We regret to state that many of the leading members of city churches fell by the wayside yesterday.

Some irreverent Philistines are wondering if it was the theological discussion which brought on the snow and wind storm. Of course not. The discussion is waxing warm enough to melt the snow before it reaches the earth.

Next to a clear conscience, a nice, light, well-balanced snow shovel is about the most useful thing a man can have these days.

The Baptist churchyard was a pretty place last night. It looked like a scene on a Christmas card.

General satisfaction is expressed over the fact that the old d.s.b.g. campaign is commencing early this year. Mr. O'Flynn and his gallant band have already organized for the good work, and it appears likely that when the good old summer time comes we will see the desolate old place changed into a quiet bower of beauty. So mote it be!

Under the heading of "Sugar Beet Industry," our otherwise well-informed contemporary, The Toronto World, tells its readers that "George W. McMullen, ex-M.P., of Picton, has perfected an invention for evaporating applicable to the beet sugar industry, which dries the water out of the beet, reducing the weight 80 per cent., leaving only the sugar and dry pulp." The invention, if this statement be correct, root sugar manufacturers. Geo. W. McMullen is not, however, an "ex-M.P." never having sat in Parliament. His name became famous in Canada in 1872-3, in connection with what was known at the "Pacific Scandal," and the letters which disappeared mysteriously from the safe of the late Hon. Sir John C. Abbott.

It is also stated in the same article that "Dr. Wylie, the beet sugar expert of the United States Department of Agriculture, agreed that it is the most important development that American genius has given to this great industry now being successfully established in Canada and the United States." This is truly characteristic of United States officials. If a valuable discovery is made by a Canadian, it is invariably spoken of as the outcome of "American Genius," but if the invention be by a citizen of the United States, it is sure to be so described. Canadian journals should avoid this mode of ignoring Canadian genius.

Dog Worship.

If there exists a man or a woman who can own a pet dog without degenerating in intellect, I have got to meet the exceptional person, writes a contributor in an exchange. There is about these canine toys a mysterious force which is as occult in its origin as it is exasperating in its effect. If a fool becomes possessed of one of the little beasts he develops into a bigger fool than ever; if the owner is a person of brains he almost infallibly, and very rapidly, sinks several points in the intellectual scale. There is a certain house in which I was once a welcome dinner guest. My host was a fine talker, his wife a most intelligent woman. A veritable Paradise! But the serpent was at hand. It did not look particularly ophidian on its first appearance. It was simply a pug puppy, a comic and ridiculous little barrel-like body supported on four limp and staggery legs. I rather liked it at first, but as it grew my affection diminished. Within a week or two of its advent it became the principal interest of my hostess' life. Books, art, sport, politics—no subject I could start had a chance at that table any more; the once delightful Sunday afternoon was given over to a by no means brief abstract and chronicle of the adventures of "Poddles" during the past week. It was the first case of dog-mania I had met and I thought it might pass, and give rational conversation a chance again. But it didn't pass—it spread, and infected the husband; and the week-to-week biographies of Poddles, instead of a solo became a duet. Sometimes, in fleeting moments of sanity, when Poddles was out of the room, never if he was present the talk would become rational, but it was infallibly checked in mid-career by the beast's waddling, grunting entrance hailed by a yell—I can use no milder word—of besotted admiration from wife husband, or both: "Oh, look at her! Isn't she lovely!" and followed by a gabble of ungrammatical and mispronounced expressions of endearment supposed to be suited to her understanding.

My suffering from Poddles is no longer active. It has taken the negative form of avoiding the once-pleasant roof which shelters her. For at last—even the worm will turn sooner or later—I objected, openly and plainly, to the tyranny of Poddles. She was placed by her mistress on a cushion on the top of a whatnot at the window. "because she likes to bark at the cabs." It is a well-frequented street, and cabs are frequent. When, after an hour and a half of nerve-destroying yelping I—politely, I hope—intimated that we had had perhaps enough of Poddles for that afternoon, my hostess was genuinely amazed at me. "She's only barking at the cabs," she explained; and, in answer to my—again, I hope, courteous—retort, said something to the effect that I must not interfere with "the mistress of the house," meaning, not herself, but Poddles. The phrase was meant as a humorous exaggeration but it was the statement of a plain fact I had been too blind to see. Poddles was, and is, really the mistress of the house. I pass that way sometimes, but the door of my whilom Paradise is forever closed against me.

ONLY A SUGGESTION

BUT IT HAS PROVEN OF INTEREST AND VALUE TO THOUSANDS.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest and that food should be albuminous or flesh-forming food, like eggs, beefsteak and cereals; in other words the kinds of food that make flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bill of fare.

But the trouble is that while we eat enough and generally too much, the stomach, from abuse and overwork, does not properly digest and assimilate it, which is the reason so many people remain thin and under weight; the digestive organs do not completely digest the flesh forming beefsteak and eggs and similar wholesome food.

There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs.

If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice of taking, after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain the natural peptones and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to regain its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of flesh-forming food, meat, eggs, bread and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up, strengthen and invigorate thin, dyspeptic men, women and children.

Invalids and children, even the most delicate, use them with marked benefit as they contain no strong, irritating drugs, no cathartic nor any harmful ingredient.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most successful and most widely known of any remedy for stomach troubles because it is the most reasonable and scientific of modern medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by every druggist in the United States and Canada as well as in Great Britain, at 50 cents for complete treatment.

Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make thin, nervous dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

Stories of Sam Steele.

Crimean veterans recall General Sir George Brown, who commanded the Light Division, as the typical representative of old-fashioned "pipe-clay" traditions. Sir George's extremes though, were not a whit more extravagant in the one direction than (so report insists) Colonel Sam Steele's have been on the other. Colonel Steele, it may be remembered, led the Strathconas in the late war. Though probably half the stories told about him are inventions or exaggerations, his name is still a household word among colonials in South Africa. One day a British officer complained to Steele that he met troopers of the Strathcona Horse who did not salute him. "Why, confound them," was the answer, "they won't even salute me!"

It is acknowledged that Sam Steele knew his men thoroughly and got an immense deal of good work out of them. Still incidents like the following do not make for military discipline. They are attested by a Toronto man lately back from South Africa:

"They say General Buller was annoyed at him, but soon got over it. Steele, in his shirt sleeves and smoking his famous short clay pipe, would sit at the door of his tent when Buller and his staff came riding past. The first time this happened everybody was petrified except Colonel Sam, who was quite at his ease. 'Well, General,' he said, 'anything doing today?' General Buller politely stated that nothing special was being done. 'Well," said Colonel Steele, 'I think you should send a bunch of the boys off to the right there. The blankety blank Boers are fiddling round over there all right enough.'"

It was Colonel Sam Steele, too, who, being invited by Lord Milner to Government House at Capetown, declined the invitation on the ground that "things of that kind weren't in his line."

The Tramp Reasons.

Owner of Property (sternly, to tramp reclining on a mossy bank)—Don't you see that notice—"Trespassers will be prosecuted?"

Tramp (calmly)—No, I don't see it, for I can't read.

Owner of Property—Well, you know what it is now, so go!

Tramp—Hexcuse me, mister, but I don't know wot it is. I've only got yer bare word fer it, and you're a puffect stranger to me. Fer what I know to the contrary, the notice may be "New milk sold 'ere," or "Cherries tuppence a pound," or "Welkim, weary wanderer!" Don't you lay your hands on me, mister, or I shall 'ave to see whether my stick is really good old oak, or only a sugar stick!

"Education."

Oh, the stuffed little boy is a wonderful boy,
He's so very precocious and bright;
He has tutors and teachers, blind, misguided creatures,
Who stuff him from morning till night.
And this marvellous youth, still a baby, in truth,
By this wonderful brain-cramming plan
Has such wisdom acquired he is almost as tired
As if he were truly a man.
—From "In Merry Mood," by Nixon Waterman.

Wife—I am going down town this morning to try to match a piece of silk. Husband—Very well, my dear, I'll tell the cook to save some dinner for you, and I'll put the children to bed myself.

"How about references?" enquired the mistress. "Oh, I loike yer looks, mum," said the applicant for the position of housemaid, "an' I won't ask yer fer references."

Sunday as a Social Holiday.

In all the larger cities of the United States there is nowadays no other social holiday equal to Sunday. There are some sorts of diversion that are still forbidden on Sunday by social conventions. Nobody ever heard, for instance, of a cotillion on Sunday or a tea to introduce a debutante. But there are gallons of informal tea poured in drawing-rooms every Sunday afternoon, and there are dinners on Sunday night—formal dinners at home and dinners at fashionable restaurants. Many hostesses prefer the latter, and as a result Sunday night is the most difficult time of any to find tables at a popular restaurant. In New York the vogue of the restaurant is even more pronounced, and it is very difficult for people to get tables at Sherry's, Delmonico's, or the Waldorf-Astoria. At these places a certain number of tables are always kept for guests who agree to come there to dinner every Sunday during the winter, or let the waiter know during the afternoon that they will not. "Then, on Monday," one manager informed a New York "Sun" writer, "the orders for tables for the next Sunday begin to come in. If there happens to be a large party—six or eight—we sometimes get word two or three weeks in advance. That is necessary. Then, throughout the week the orders come in until by Saturday the two dining-rooms are filled, and we could seat twice as many persons. The orders continue to come in all day on Sunday, and we set tables in the hall. That leaves no place for the casual guests who are certain to come without taking the trouble to telephone in advance. They make up almost half the attendance, and there must be room for them. So we bring down tables and chairs from the ballroom upstairs and spread tables in the men's cafe. Then, with only room enough to pass between the tables, every inch of available space is taken. This continues from the middle of October until May. And during the past five years that I have been in this restaurant, I have noticed the Sunday night crowd getting bigger every winter."

Devery's Warm Vocabulary.

"Big Bill" Devery has succeeded in having the Superior Court issue an order restraining the executive committee of Tammany Hall from taking any action until the leader of the Ninth Ward has been admitted to its fold. When he was barred out the other night at the organization of Tammany Hall's executive committee for 1903, because a protest was made that his election as district leader of the "Fighting Ninth" was secured by fraud and corruption at the primaries, Devery was enraged, and said: "Who threw me out? Why, the big four. There's Grand Central Plunkitt, the truth about him would poison the air; Pennsylvania Charley (Murphy), who held up the tunnel; Dago Dan, with his waxed moustaches (McMahon); and Big Tim, who tries to skin the New York Central and the Pennsylvania at the same time. Do they think they can put up such a job on me? I'm no railroad to be held up, and no farmer to take the big mitt and slide home. Before I'm done with them I'll make them dance a Liverpool hornpipe. I'll go to court, and I'll win. They can't keep me out. These jumping-jacks are not grafting a franchise when they take hold of me. They've got a live one to deal with. I've got the law with me, and I'll fight, fight, fight. I feel disgusted enough with the gang to start an independent Democratic labor party over our way. But I'm going to fight. I want to fight. I'll fight every minute."

BOERS REBUKED.

They Presented Chamberlain With An Insulting Address.

Bloemfontein, Feb. 9.—Colonial Secretary Chamberlain had a two-hours' conference with a deputation of Boers of the extreme party, including Christian Dewet. The deputation presented an address, which, it is understood, Mr. Chamberlain rejected, at the same time rebuking the delegates for presenting it. He regarded it as insulting, inasmuch as it impugned the good faith of himself and the Government.

Christian Dewet accused the Government of contravening the terms of the Vereeniging agreement, especially as regards the amnesty, and he requested that the terms of peace should be incorporated in a law. The feuds between the Boer parties have become very strong, particularly between the brothers Christian and Piet Dewet. The latter headed a deputation of loyalist Boers to the Colonial Secretary. Christian Dewet holds steadily aloof from the loyalist section. He is credited with wanting to tear up the Vereeniging treaty and begin afresh.

Bloemfontein, Orange River Colony, Feb. 9.—The conference here Saturday between Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and about forty Boers of the extreme party has further widened the breach between the Boer factions. Christian Dewet, who spoke after Mr. Chamberlain, prefaced his statement with saying that his remarks would "come like mustard after meat," and concluded with asserting that no co-operation of the Boers was possible so long as Piet Dewet and Christian Botha represented the people. The country would not be ruled by them, but would rule them. He (the speaker) would not rest until he had caused a rebellion, not an armed rebellion, but a rebellion of agitation and discontent against the Government.

Miners' Wages Increased.

Indianapolis, Feb. 9.—The miners and operators of the competitive bituminous districts agreed to-day upon a scale of wages for the ensuing year. Briefly the miners in all of Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and western Pennsylvania are to receive an increase averaging 12½ per cent. The new wages will form a basis for all other bituminous mining districts, and it is thought that the increase all round will run from 8 to 10 per cent.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Grain is Higher—The Live Stock Trade—Latest Questions.

Saturday Evening, Feb. 7.

Toronto St. Lawrence Markets.

Trade at the St. Lawrence Market was fairly brisk to-day. The roads are in somewhat better condition and receipts are heavier. The total grain receipts amounted to 1,600 bushels. In the market building trade was a little quiet, and the dealers complain that they are too much out of the way of trade.

Wheat—White wheat is a little easier, 200 bushels selling at 73½c per bushel; 200 of red sold steady at 72½c, and 300 of goose sold a little firmer at 68c to 68½c.

Barley—Is firmer; 300 bushels sold at 48c to 50c per bushel.

Oats—Are about ½c easier, 500 bushels selling at 36c per bushel.

Rye—Advances ½c, 100 bushels selling at 52½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Yesterday's late receipts were heavy, as also were those of this morning, and the market accordingly dropped about 15c per cwt. for choice light-weights. Quotations for light weights are $8.25 to $8.45 per cwt., and for heavies $7.75 to $8.

Butter—Receipts at the market were fairly liberal, while the demand was a little dull. Prices, however, are about steady at 20c to 25c for pound rolls, and 18c to 22c for large rolls. The butter inspector to-day confiscated from two dealers 55 pounds of butter, which had been found under weight. The shortage was from ½ oz. to 1 oz. per lb. In making up pound rolls it is difficult to get exactly the right amount to the pound, and shortages are generally the result of a mistake than of a desire to cheat.

Eggs—The market was fairly active and prices were maintained. New laid are quoted at 20c to 22c per dozen, and held stock at 14c to 16c.

Hay—No. 1 timothy is quoted firmer at $12 to $16 per ton, and clover or mixed is also higher at $5 to $9. About 30 loads were offered.

Straw—Prices are steady at $9 to $10 per ton. Four loads were sold.

East Buffalo Live Stock.

East Buffalo, Feb. 7.—Cattle—Receipts light; steady to strong; veals 50c lower; tops, $9 to $9.25; common to good, $5.50 to $8.75. Hogs—Receipts, 5,700 head; slow; heavy, $7.10 to $7.15; mixed, $7.10; Yorkers, $7.05; pigs, $7; roughs, $6 to $6.30; stags, $5 to $5.50. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 7,800; export ewes 15c higher; others steady; top lambs, $6.55 to $6.65; culls to good, $4.25 to $6.50; yearlings, $5.25 to $5.50; ewes, $4.50 to $4.65; tops, mixed sheep, $4.50 to $4.75; culls to good, $2.25 to $4.40.

Chicago Cattle Markets.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Cattle—Receipts, 200; good to prime steers, $4.50 to $5.75; poor to medium, $3 to $4.40; stockers and feeders, $2.50 to $4.50; cows, $1.40 to $4.40; heifers, $2.25 to $4.60; canners, $1.40 to $2.30; bulls, $2 to $4.25; calves, $3.50 to $7.75; Texas-fed steers, $3.50 to $4.25. Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

The next day a series of hindrances kept Bell from making her call as early as she had intended, so that Mrs. Banker and Mark were just rising from dinner, when told she was in the parlor.

"I meant to have come before," she said, seating herself by Mark, "but I could not get away. I have brought you some good news. I think—that is—yes, I know there has been some mistake, something wrong somewhere. Mark Ray, yesterday afternoon I found—no matter where or how—a letter intended for Helen Lennox, which I am positive she never saw or heard of; at least her denial to me that a certain Mark Ray had ever offered himself is a proof that she never saw what was an offer made just before you went away. I read enough to know that, and then I took the letter and——"

She hesitated, while Mark's eyes turned dark with excitement, and even Mrs. Banker, scarcely less interested, leaned eagerly forward, saying:

"And what? Go on, Miss Cameron. What did you do with that letter?"

"I sent it to the rightful owner, Helen Lennox. I posted it myself. But why don't you thank me, Captain Ray?" she asked, as Mark's face was overshadowed with anxiety.

"I was wondering whether it were well to send it—wondering how it might be received," he said, and Bell replied:

"She will not answer no. As one woman knows another, I know Helen Lennox. I have sounded her on that point. I told her of the rumor there was afloat, and she denied it, seeming greatly distressed, but showing plainly that had such offer been received she would not have refused it. You should have seen her last summer, Captain Ray, when we waited so anxiously for news from Potomac. Her face was a study as her eyes ran over the list of casualties, searching not for her amiable brother-in-law, nor yet for Willard Braxton, their hired man. It was plain to me as daylight, and all you have to do is to follow up the letter with another, or go yourself, if you have time," Bell said, as she rose to go, leaving Mark in a state of bewilderment as to what he had heard.

Who withheld that letter? and why? were questions which troubled him greatly, nor did his mother's assurance that it did not matter so long as it all came right at last, tend wholly to reassure him. One thing, however, was certain. He would see Helen before he returned to his regiment. He would telegraph in the morning to Washington, and then run the risk of being a day behind the time appointed for his return to duty.

"Suppose you have three children when I return, instead of two, is there room in your heart for the third?" he asked his mother when next morning he was about starting for Silverton.

"Yes, always room for Helen," was the reply, as with a kiss of benediction Mrs. Banker sent her boy away.

CHAPTER XLI.

There was to be a Christmas tree at St. John's, and all the week the church had been the scene of much confusion. But the work was over now; the church was swept and dusted, the tree with its gay adornings was in its place, the little ones, who had hindered so much, were gone, as were their mothers, and Helen only tarried with the organ boy to play the Christmas Carol, which Katy was to sing alone, the children joining in the chorus, as they had been trained to do. It was very quiet there, and pleasant, with the fading sunlight streaming through the chancel window, lighting up the cross above it, and falling softly on the wall where the evergreens were hung with the sacred words, "Peace on earth and good will towards men." And Helen felt the peace stealing over her as she sat down by the register for a moment ere going to the organ loft where the boy was waiting for her. Not even the remembrance of the dark war-cloud hanging over the land disturbed her then, as her thoughts went backward eighteen hundred years to Bethlehem's manger and the little Child whose birth the angels sang. And as she thought, the Child seemed to be with her, a living presence to which she prayed, leaning her head upon the railing of the pew in front, and asking Him to keep her in the perfect peace she felt around her now. For Mark Ray, too, she prayed, asking God to keep him in safety wherever he might be, whether in the lonely watch, or in some house of God, where the Christmas carols would be sung and the Christmas story told.

As she lifted up her head her hand struck against the pocket of her dress, where lay the letter brought to her an hour or so ago—Bell's letter—which she had put aside to read at a more convenient season.

Taking it out, she tore open the envelope, starting suddenly as another letter, soiled and unsealed, met her eye. She read Bell's first, and then, with a throbbing heart, which as yet would not believe, she took up Mark's, understanding now much that was before mysterious to her. Juno's call came to her mind, and though she was unwilling to charge so foul a wrong upon that young lady, she could find no other solution to the mystery. There was a glow of indignation—Helen had scarcely been mortal without it—but that passed away in pity for the misguided girl, and in joy at the happiness opening so broadly before her. That Mark would come to Silverton she had no hope, but he would write—his letter, perhaps, was even then on the way; and kissing the one she held, she hid it in her bosom and went up to where the organ-boy had for several minutes been kicking at stools and books, and whistling Old John Brown by way of attracting attention. The boy was in a hurry, and asked in so forlorn a tone, "Is we going to play?" that Helen answered good-humoredly, "Just a few minutes, Billy. I want to try the carol and the opening, which I've hardly played at all."

With an air of submission Bill took his post and Helen began to play, but she could only see before her, "I have loved you ever since that morning when I put the lilies in your hair," and played so out of time and tune that Bill asked, "What makes 'em go so bad?"

"I can't play now; I'm not in the mood," she said. "I shall feel better by and by. You can go home if you like."

Billy needed no second bidding, but catching up his cap, ran down the stairs, and out into the porch, just as up the steps a young man came hurriedly.

"Hallo, boy," he cried, grasping the collar of Bill's roundabout and holding him fast. "Who's in the church?"

"Darn yer, Jim Sykes," you let me be, or I'll——" the boy began, but when he saw his captor was not Jime Sykes, but a tall man, wearing a soldier's uniform, he changed his tone, and answered civilly. "I thought you was Jim Sykes, the biggest bully in town, who is allus hectorin' us boys. Nobody is there but she—Miss Lennox—up where the organ is," and having given the desired information, Bill ran off, wondering first if it wasn't Miss Helen's beau, and wondering next, in case she should some time get married in church, if he wouldn't fee the organ-boy as well as the sexton. "He orto," Bill soliloquized, "for I've about blowed my gizzard out sometimes, when she and Mrs Cameron sings Te Deum."

Meanwhile Mark Ray, who had driven fast to the farm-house in quest of Helen, entered the church, and stole noiselessly up the stairs to where Helen sat in the dim light, reading again the precious letter withheld from her so long. She had moved her stool nearer to the window, and her back was towards the door, so that she neither saw nor heard, nor suspected anything, until Mark, bending over her so as to see what she had in her hand as well as the tear she had dropped upon it, clasped both his arms around her neck, and drawing her face over back, kissed her fondly, calling her his darling, and saying to her, as she tried to struggle from him:

"I know I have a right to call you darling, by that tear on the letter, and the look upon your face. Dear Helen, we have found each other at last."

Pains in the Small Of the Back

BAD DIGESTION AND RACKING HEADACHES — CURE WAS BROUGHT ABOUT BY

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

"Pains in the small of the back" is the way hosts of people describe their sufferings, not knowing that the pains are in reality in the kidneys. Pains in the back, weak back, lame back, backache—these are the first indications of kidney trouble. They are the warning which nature gives you. If you heed at once you can be cured. Neglect will soon put you at the mercy of the most painful and fatal of diseases.

Women as well as men have kidney disease and may well feel anxious when the kidney pains make themselves felt in the small of the back.

Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills give you prompt relief from backache it is well worth your while to take them. But they do more than this. They regulate and invigorate the action of the kidneys, and insure a return to health of these important organs.

Mrs. F. Henthorn, whose husband is of the firm of Marsh & Henthorn, founders and machinists, and who lives at 286 Ann street, Belleville, states: "Some years ago I was taken with a pain across the small of the back, caused no doubt from deranged kidneys, and my system generally was very much run down. I began using Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills, and I must say I found relief from my trouble at once. They proved thorough and effective in action, and soon brought about a complete cure. We have also used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in our family and found them very helpful."

THE "WHY" OF IT.

Why does the body fail at times to get necessary nourishment from ordinary food?

Because the digestive organs are not strong enough to perform their proper functions.

Why should these organs be aided in their work?

Because the digestion of ordinary food is more than they can accomplish when they are in a weakened condition. It is necessary that some aid in the form of an easily assimilated nourishment be provided.

Why does the nourishment supplied in Scott's Emulsion feed the body when ordinary food does not?

Because being scientifically emulsified it is rendered much more easily digested and the whole system gathers nourishment with much less effort. There is less tax upon the whole digestive tract.

Why is the nourishment contained in Scott's Emulsion assured proper distribution?

Because the emulsion is easily and naturally taken up and utilized by the system.

Why is the good effect of Scott's Emulsion soon noticeable?

Because the ingredients represent the very form of nourishment needed. The stomach requires a change and rest from ordinary food and hence the good effects of the emulsion are quickly seen.

Why is Scott's Emulsion a food for the whole system?

Because every part of the emulsion—oil, hypophosphites and glycerine, is adapted to some special need of the body when a wasting condition exists.

Why is it necessary to nourish the whole body when only one part is affected?

Because the blood, nerves, bones and muscles must all be considered and provided for in restoring waste and establishing uniform health. Scott's Emulsion gives nourishment to all, collectively and individually.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

Legislation on Osculation.

Kissing will have to be done surreptitiously in Virginia, or those who kiss may be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine of five dollars for each smack—that is, if a bill recently introduced in the Virginia Legislature becomes a law. The author of the unique measure in question is Dr. R. B. Ware, a physician in good standing, who, like many other doctors, is firmly convinced that osculation spreads disease. Briefly, the provisions of the bill require that persons who insist upon kissing shall obtain a physician's certificate pronouncing them free from all contagious and infectious maladies. The text of the bill is as follows: "Whereas, kissing has been decided by the medical profession to be a medium by which contagious and infectious diseases are transmitted from one person to another, and whereas the prohibiting of such an offence will be a great preventive to the spreading of such diseases as pulmonary tuberculosis, diphtheria, and many other dangerous diseases, therefore, be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, that it shall be unlawful for any person to kiss another unless he can prove by his family physician that he hasn't any contagious or infectious disease. 2. If physician testifies that the defendant has weak lungs he shall be found guilty of a misdemeanor, and the same penalty shall be imposed as if he had some contagious or infectious disease. 3. Any person violating the provisions of the first and second provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not less than one dollar nor more than five dollars for each offence." Commenting on this unique bill, the New York "Sun" says: "Dr. Ware seems to regard kissing as a masculine indulgence. But kissing loses half its satisfaction if not reciprocated. As well smack a Parian statue as a lass who would not kiss back. The learned doctor must know this, and therefore he will amend his bill to cure the oversight. As it stands now, the gentle sex may osculate at will regardless of hygiene, but man must refrain. Fathers must not kiss their children or lovers the maidens of their choice, unless they are free from the suspicion of infectious or contagious disease. We see Cupid in tears with his arrows broken, and the occupation of the amatory poets gone."

Blunders in Public Speaking.

Mr. Joseph Malins, in the "Prize Reciter," says: "A well-known public man was lately assured by the chairman that the assembly welcomed him 'with no unfeigned pleasure,' at which the visitor was so embarrassed as to say, 'I—I'm always glad to be here—or anywhere else.' Those at the recent Birmingham town's meeting, on the bill touching the municipalization of the tramways, probably err in asserting that it was the mayor who ordered an interrupter to 'sit down and go out!' He was not as polite as a suburban councillor who delicately intimated that an opponent was 'doubtless afflicted with a slight impediment in his veracity.' Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, when Mayor of Birmingham, was less polite when he denied the 'allegation' of an opponent and repudiated the 'alligator.' In our presence a Gloucestershire speaker suggested that the pending proposition 'be postponed to the future—or some other time.' The recent appointment by a Midland authority of a lady as medical officer brought a protest 'against women becoming medical men;' which reminds one of the convening of a meeting of 'women of every class—regardless of sex or condition.' Sir Francis Scott, who commanded the late expedition in Ashantee, in subsequently reviewing his troops, said that 'if there had been any fighting there would have been many absent faces here to-day.' This reminds one of the scantily attended meeting at which we heard the chairman say, 'I am sorry to see so many absent faces here.'"

The Germ of Laziness.

The newspaper report of the recent address of Dr. Stiles, a zoologist of the Department of Agriculture, before the Sanitary Conference of American Republics, about the hook-worm disease, has been received with impassioned interest by thousands of more or less afflicted readers. Dr. Stiles is the discoverer of this malady, which he has named uncinariasis. He has just come back from studying it in parts of the South where it flourishes. He says it is a bad disease, little understood, and almost always confused with malaria. It is what is the matter with many of the poor whites in the Southern States. Their laziness is abnormal, Dr. Stiles says. Their pitiable condition, due immediately to laziness and to their inferior physical and mental development, is more remotely due to the presence of this hook-worm disease among them for generations past. The clay-eaters and pickle-eaters of North Carolina owe their abnormal appetites to uncinariasis. The lazy crackers who send their infant children to work in mills have got it, too, but the children themselves, Dr. Stiles thinks, profit by the change in their environment. He says that the disease can be cured, but that the physicians in the sand districts where it abounds most must be taught to know its symptoms and how to treat it.

A newspaper, in telling of Dr. Stiles' discovery, cries in headline type that the germ of laziness has been found. That expresses the feelings of the general reader and accounts for his enthusiasm over the discovery. Every man, remarks "Harper's Weekly," feels the germs of laziness working in him, and would like to have them killed out of him by treatment from the outside if possible. He is glad to lay the defects in his energy to the hook-worm. But Dr. Stiles' hook-worms seem not to be available for general use. They are real microbes, and so far as appears, they only flourish in districts, and under conditions favorable to their development. It is no wonder that they have been confused with malaria, for the symptoms of malaria and the symptoms of sin are very much alike, and the hook-worm symptoms resemble both. We want to hear more about the hook-worm. If he can be extirpated in the cracker with good results a wonder will have been done. The South American delegates who were told about him think he exists in their countries, too, and are going to search for him when they go home. Maybe he exists in the Philippines also. A traveller lately returned from those islands says that the islands are beautiful and their possibilities enormous, but that the Filipinos won't work, and that industrial development can only come with the introduction of Chinese labor. That sounds like hook-worms.

SPORTING COMMENT.

Things appear to be slightly mixed in the hockey situation. It was announced on Saturday that Belleville and Prescott were to play here tomorrow night, the Prescott men having beaten Kingston Ramblers on Friday night last. Now it seems that the Ramblers protested the game on the ground that their opponents played two Cornwall men. If this be true (and there seems to be no doubt of it) the Prescott team will be flung out of the O.H.A. and the Ramblers given the championship of group 1. We are told that the Prescott team has acknowledged the corn, so it is now settled that Kingston will be Belleville's next opponent, and that the game will be played either on Thursday or Friday night next, in this city. Good. Of course the games with Peterboro and Port Hope were interesting, and we wanted to win them, but if there is one place more than another we love to stack up against, it's dear old Kingston!

Kingston Whig: The Belleville Intelligencer editor has buried his hatchet (for a few days) in view of the coals of fire heaped by the Whig upon the heads of the Belleville hockey club. If a Kingston team goes up there, he promises to let them off lightly, with but a small-sized licking.

Nay, nay, Pauline. The size of the licking will depend upon the quality of the team sent up.

Mr. E. H. Telfer refereed the game at Niagara Falls on Friday night last, between the Falls team and the Marlboros of Toronto. He says the Falls people made a deliberate attempt to steal the game, the umpires allowing Niagara Falls five goals which did not go into the net, and refusing to give the Marlboros three goals which they scored. The latter, however, won the round by 23 goals, so the crooked work was useless.

We are promised a glimpse of Junior O.H.A. hockey here on Wednesday night, when the Cobourgs and Frontenac-Beechgroves of Kingston will play off their tie on local ice. Each one of the teams seems to be nearly invincible at home, and on neutral ice ought to be about even. May the best team win.

Toronto Telegram: The teams still in the O.H.A. series are just turning into the stretch, and the finishes promise to furnish all kinds of excitement. The senior is pretty well conceded to the Wellingtons, who of course have to visit the Soo, and then beat Cornwall a couple of times. But in the intermediate you pays your money and you takes your choice. Belleville, Paris, Galt, Stratford, Marlboros, etc.—there's a field that ought to furnish a finish. It will be easier picking a winner a month hence.

SPORTING NOTES.

A team of hockeyists representing the G.T.R. employees are anxious to arrange a match with the employees of Marsh and Henthorne.

The Junior hockey team connected with W. W. Chown & Co.'s beat the Cigar Factory team on Saturday afternoon by 2 to 1.

Toronto Varsity beat Queen's on Saturday night by 6 to 5. This was a case of the unexpected happening.

The trustees of the Stanley Cup have decided that Toronto Wellingtons have the next chance to lift the mug.

The Canadian football team closed the tour on Saturday at Reading, defeating the Berkshire Wanderers by 16 to 11. They have played 24 games, of which they won 8 and lost 14.

Several apparently well-founded complaints of dishonesty on the part of goal umpires have been made this season. One case, from the east, has been taken up by the O.H.A. and will be heard of later.

When the Winnipeg Vics. left Montreal there were cheers for the Vics. and for the Shamrocks, but none for the Montrealers.

When age brings a woman wisdom she begins to sit with her back to the light.

WARMING THEM UP IN THE LIMESTONE CITY.

REVS. CROSSLEY AND HUNTER THROWING HOT SHOT INTO KINGSTON PEOPLE.

Revs. Crossley and Hunter are now conducting revival services in Kingston, and The News of that city thus reports some recent utterances of Rev. Mr. Hunter:

"Another verse says, "Honor thy parents." Do you hear that, young people? Don't put the old man at a side table to eat! Do not let him be turned out like some old animal. I am proud of my old mother. Right now while I am in Kingston talking she is praying for me. And old people, do not be in a hurry to sign your money away! Do not say, "O, it will be all right with my boy." It may not, and he may marry. That boy of yours may some time soon marry some "high flyer." There are too many women of that sort. There are many of them right in this city to-night, who are, I think, at the Devil's Show. God pity the man that gets a girl who will walk the streets while her mother is home at the wash tub! Look out for them. Remember I say young man to respect and honor your parents! They took care of you when you were small, when any one else would have thrown you out into a snow bank. Don't be in a hurry old people, to leave your money to your sons or to your son-in-law, either. Mr. Crossley had a fortune left him and spent every cent of it before he was 23 years old, but it was but $20. (Laughter)

"I heard the name of the Lord taken in vain both yesterday and to-day on the streets of Kingston—blasphemy of the Maker! It is terrible, terrible. I will never forget an infuriated hotel-keeper who at one place we were shouted on a Sunday "Whiskey will be sold here when Crossley and Hunter are in hell!" That man was dead inside of forty-eight hours. A Baptist minister there said it was a judgment of God. I believe it was. Young man, I warn you not to blaspheme against God. A Brantford physician said in a boastful fashion, "There is no case of diphtheria that God can send that I cannot cure." I will tell you that in one week five of that man's children were dead. Above all things, do not blaspheme!"

Alleged Perjury.

Mr. Alexander Smith, of this city was on trial to-day before Judge Lazier on the charge of perjury. It is alleged that the defendant, in a recent trial at the police court here swore falsely, hence the present charge. Mr. Anderson represented the Crown and Mr. Northrup appeared for the accused.

The result of the investigation was that Mr. Smith was acquitted of the charge.

OF YESTERDAY

Rev. Mr. Gilliland Replied Yesterday Morning to "Anglican Catholic Layman."

Notes of Services in Other Local Places of Worship Yesterday.

Emmanuel R. E. Church.

At the above church yesterday morning, the Rector, Rev. Mr. Gilliland, preached on "Regeneration and Baptism," and incidentally paid his respects to "Anglican Catholic," whose letter appeared recently in The Intelligencer. The text was Matt., 28; 19:

> "Go ye and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

The divisions of the visible church, the preacher said, have ever been the subject of much controversy, due mainly to a false notion of what constitutes true unity. Christianity deals with great problems, therefore it is not strange that the disciples of Christianity have travelled different roads of thought, or arrived at different conclusions. Thus have grown up the different evangelical communions, each one jealous of the truths it holds, and rightly seeking to keep bright the pillar of the temple of the Gospel it has assumed. The Reformed Episcopal Church claimed no monopoly of the whole truth, but was averse to any doctrine which did not find its authority in the Bible. The R. E. Church holds that baptism is neither regeneration or that it is absolutely necessary to salvation. That baptismal regeneration is taught in the Episcopal-Anglican Church is sufficiently testified in the letter which appeared in The Intelligencer of the 5th inst., and allowed to pass without a word of censure by the followers of that church. It is also taught in the church ritual. Dr. Pusey, the leader of the Ritualistic party, always laid great stress on the absolute necessity of baptism. The preacher quoted largely from Dr. Pusey's writings to prove what he had said. If the above doctrine, as taught by the Puseyites, is true, and regeneration is necessary to salvation, then it is very clear that the doors of heaven is shut against all who have not received the baptismal rite at the hand of some "validly ordained priest," as "Anglican Catholic" styles them. This was startling. The most extreme Calvinist never dreamed of a theory which was so sweeping in its exclusion from heaven. I may, however, the preacher said, remark here that I cannot comprehend how any person can be in possession of all the virtues claimed to be imparted to the baptized, and also of the special outpouring of the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands in confirmation, and the strengthening received from partaking of the consecrated elements from the altar—the body and blood of Christ, and yet, according to "Anglican Catholic," not understand anything about it. Again, when among the vast multitudes condemned to eternal darkness by this strange doctrine, very many are found who were illustrious for their faith, their devoutness, their purity, their beneficence, their charity, their heroic defence of truth and freedom, their love for the Saviour and the race He came to save, we more than suspect the divinity of a dogma which suggests that such men are lost, or, if saved, are saved by some scheme other than the Gospel. The fruits of the spirit are detailed in the New Testament with a minuteness and a fulness which enable us to form a fairly correct conception of what is meant by a "perfect man in Christ Jesus," and when we find these fruits growing upon men who have never been baptized by a validly ordained minister, and then think of the assertion of "Anglican Catholic," that it is possible to be regenerated in baptism and yet not know it, we are constrained to think very lightly of that regeneration which baptism is supposed to operate. Christ says: "By their fruits ye shall know them." The doctrine advanced by "Anglican Catholic" was not taught in God's Word, and the preacher quoted copiously to prove it. The atrociousness of "Anglican Catholic's doctrine is seen in consigning all unbaptised children to eternal darkness. St. Augustine and the Puseyites give no hope of these little ones. Two years ago I was called to lay away the body of a child two years old, who had never been baptised, over whom these theorists had refused to read the burial service. A week or so ago I laid away another, whose mother had been informed by some "Anglican Catholics" that the child was lost and no one would give it a Christian burial. Christ says "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." The degrading theory of baptismal regeneration is rebuked by every incident in the New Testament in which conversion is clearly alleged to have taken place. "Anglican Catholic" in his article says there is only one door into the Kingdom, and that is baptism. Christ says in John 10; 9: "I am the door," and in 10; 1: "He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold—the church—but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber." Ritual of church cannot save, baptism cannot save, and if "Anglican Catholic" is depending upon that there is danger ahead for him.

St. Andrew's.

At both services yesterday the Pastor, Rev. M. W. Maclean, preached to fair congregations. In the evening the Rev. gentleman's discourse was an able and practical one, his text being from Romans, 14th chapter and 7th verse:

> "For no man of us liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself."

The principle enunciated by the Apostle, the Rev. gentleman said, is seen and set forth not only by individuals but by nations. No man or even nation liveth by himself or itself. Time and again has history recorded the recognition of this truth. In life we are certainly dependent upon each other, and nations are dependent upon each other. In the commercial world it is only by cooperation that men become wealthy. In nations, commercially, they are dependent upon each other in the articles they manufacture and the products that are raised. One country sells to another. This is a law that no man can defy. The fact that we notice and critizize one another is another evidence that we are of one family and have a common interest in each other. We should help each other as God had given us the opportunity. We should not only help each other, but love each other as the Lord Jesus Christ did. His love for us was such that He gave His life. We are accountable to God for the influence we exert over our fellow-men, whether that influence be for good or evil. It is our bounden duty to live such lives that others will be benefited by us. It is our privilege and duty to love God with all the intellect we possess and the intensity of our hearts. By doing this we not only save our own souls but assist humanity. We should help, cheer and strengthen the weak, and speak words of encouragement to those who are downcast. By living for Christ we will grow in grace and after we have passed away our influence will go on. The influence of a good life and noble career will bring a blessing and reward. We shall then at last hear the Lord say, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of one of mine ye have done it unto me; enter ye into the joy of your rest."

Other Church Notes.

At Holloway St. Church yesterday, Rev. Geo. Bowler, whose home is in the United States, preached at both services, and his sermons were much appreciated. At the morning service Miss Mabel Vermilyea rendered a solo.

At Christ Church yesterday the Rector, Rev. W. B. Heeney, officiated. At the evening service Miss Mabel Vermilyea sang a solo entitled "The Dawn of Hope," with very pleasing effect.

BOUGHT STOLEN SHEEP

POLICE ARE LOOKING FOR TWO MEN WHO DECEIVED ALD. GREEN.

On Saturday Ald. Green, butcher, purchased two sheep which turned out to have been stolen. They were procured from two men who brought them to Mr. Green's place and after they had been killed the owner, a Mr. White, who resides in Tyendinaga, identified them as his property by certain paint marks on the wool. It appears that the sheep were taken some time on Friday night from Mr. Thos. McGurn's place, where they were being kept for the winter. The parties who sold the sheep have been described to the police and County constabulary and every effort is being made to locate them.

THE WINTER'S WORST STORM

A MILD BLIZZARD STRUCK THE CITY YESTERDAY.

The storm which set in at an early hour on Sunday morning, and prevailed all day, was the severest of this winter. At 6 o'clock in the morning it commenced to snow hard, accompanying which was a heavy wind, blowing the snow about in all directions, causing roads and walks to be badly drifted. Some of the country roads are in such a condition that it will be some time before they are in good shape again for travel. Those who ventured out last evening found it very difficult to navigate, as the snow on some walks was piled up to a considerable depth.

On the line of the Grand Trunk Railway the snow ploughs were out and the track kept well cleaned. In consequence the passengers trains which usually run on Sunday, were but a few minutes late.

CANON BURKE IMPROVING

IS NOW ABLE TO SIT UP, READ AND CHAT.

The many friends of Rev. Canon Burke in this city will be glad to read the following paragraph from the Carleton Place Central Canadian; "Rev. Canon Burke, now a month and more suffering from his fall, sits up for his meals, so far so good. He is recovering, a condition that suffuses the whole town with pleasure. He sleeps pretty well and eats pretty well, while he can read and chat as of old. Rev. Mr. Elliott, who has mechanical zeal, has arranged a rolling chair, so that the patient can be moved from window to window, to enjoy the panorama of the street."

Died at Good Old Age

Mr. Jacob Rikely, an aged and respected resident of the Township of Sidney, died yesterday in his 83rd year. Deceased had for many years resided in the township and was favorably known. He had been ill for some time. Mr. Rikely had been for many years a member of the Methodist Church, occupying high positions in church work. Some three years ago Mrs. Rikely died. A family of sons and daughters survive.

Anxiety Created

On Saturday three lads from the city visited Trenton and considerable anxiety was created in their families, as they failed to return home in the evening. It transpired they were unable to return until the parents had provided the means to pay their passage on the train. They skated up to Trenton, but owing to being fatigued were unable to skate back and were without money to bring them.

Died in Trenton

Mr. Robert Sanson, a well known contractor, living in Trenton, died yesterday. Deceased had been for a long time a resident of the Town and was one of its prominent citizens. He was a Mason and Oddfellow.

Russia Said to be Determined to Strike Soon.

Paris, Feb. 9.—Official advices have been received here confirming the report that the Sultan of Turkey has ordered the immediate mobilization of 240,000 troops for a military demonstration in Macedonia. This step is regarded with apprehension by the French officials as being likely to involve complications between Turkey and Austria.

It is said that the Russian and Austrian Governments have agreed on a firm note to the Sultan, which will be presented within the next few days, insisting on administrative and financial reforms in Macedonia. Although France will not be a party to the note, she will approve of it. It is considered that the Sultan's mobilization of such a vast army is clearly an effort to forestall the presentation.

The mobilization of so many troops is here regarded as unwise and dangerous, especially, as it is said, the soldiers who are to be brought into Macedonia from Asiatic Turkey, are semi-barbarous levies and are hostile to Christians, which will tend to inaugurate another series of massacres. It is understood the powers are exchanging views as to the course to be pursued towards the mobilization of Turkish troops.

"The war will be a duel between Russia and Turkey, but please do not imagine that the result of such a war is a foregone conclusion. Whatever may be inefficient in Turkey, the army is efficient. It is a far better army than 25 years ago, and even then it was quite good enough to have won if the Generals had had a free hand. The Russian army may be bigger, but there will hardly be more fighting men in the line so far from the base, while the only Russians for whose fighting qualities the Turks have any respect are those of the Imperial Guard. The main difference between the conditions then and now is that then Turkey had command of the sea. Now Russia has it, but unless Russia can carry the Bosphorus by a coup de main, which, in view of the fortifications, is improbable, the difference will not have much practical importance. The sea power will not enable the Russians to land an army in the vicinity of the capital. There are no harbors available, and rocks and shoals abound. Failing the darkening of counsel in the palace, the war will more likely end in a stalemate than in any other fashion."

THE ANTI-TRUST BILL.

Passed in U.S. Congress by Unanimous Vote.

Washington, Feb. 9.—By a unanimous vote the House has passed the anti-trust bill. The closing chapter was devoid of excitement The bill as passed requires any corporation "hereafter organized" to file returns covering its articles of incorporation, financial composition, condition, etc., with the Interstate Commerce Commission on penalty of being restrained from being allowed to engage in interstate commerce, and prescribes penalties for false returns, etc." The commission is given authority, in its discretion, to call for similar returns from existing corporations doing an interstate business. The commission is given power to compel the answer to questions and a fine of not to exceed $5,000 is imposed for failure to obey the commission in this respect. Rebating by carriers is made punishable with a fine of not less than $1,000, and corporations violating the provisions of this section are forbidden the use of the instrumentality of interstate commerce. Carriers are prohibited from knowingly transporting the articles produced, manufactured or sold in violation of this act. In cases of prosecutions no person is to be excused from testifying on the ground that such testimony would tend to incriminate him, but for such testimony the witness is not to be prosecuted. The Federal circuit courts are given jurisdiction in cases of violation, and it is made the duty of the district attorneys to institute proceedings to prevent violations, and individuals damaged by violation are given authority to sue.

HON. MR. DAVIS RESIGNS.

The Document Received by the Clerk of the Legislature Saturday.

Toronto, Feb. 9.—The resignation of Hon. E. J. Davis as member for North York was received Saturday by Colonel Clarke, Clerk of the Legislature. This is in accordance, of course, with the previous intimations by Mr. Davis in his addresses before his constituents.

The writ for a new election in North York and in Centre Bruce as well, where Mr. Hugh Clark, Conservative, was unseated, was promptly issued. The date, as previously hinted in The Globe, will be Thursday, February 26th, with nominations on the 19th. This leaves only one seat open in which the writ has not been issued. That is North Renfrew, but as the Liberal convention will be held there on Tuesday it may be expected that the election will be held before very long.

CANNOT FILL THE ORDER.

Mr. Clergue Relinquishes Temiskaming Rails Contract.

Toronto, Feb. 9.—A meeting of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway Commission was held on Saturday morning, at which Mr. Theodore C. Search, Vice-President of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company, was present to state the position of his company in regard to the contract under consideration for steel rails for the Temiskaming Railway.

Mr. Search stated that the blast furnaces of the Algoma Steel Company were still incomplete, and while there were promises that they would be ready in April, yet the fact that the blowing engines were not ready for delivery rendered the situation so uncertain that positive delivery, such as the commission desired, could not be relied upon. Mr. Search also stated that their supply of Bessemer pig imported from the States had been exhausted, and notwithstanding the company had every desire to accept the commission's contract, they felt it was unwise to do so so long as the element of disappointment in making prompt delivery seemed so imminent. On the whole the company thought a frank statement of the situation declining the order would be received by the commission with satisfaction. The company expressed their desire to bid upon any future orders that might be needed, as it was the intention to put the plant into complete service as quickly as possible.

The commission have therefore determined to call for new tenders at once. One of the members said last night that he anticipated no delay in the construction of the railway by reason of Mr. Clergue failing in his contract. The rails were to have been delivered May 15, and it is now thought that tenders can be asked from some of the European makers, and still have the rails here by that date. The original contract was for 8,200 tons of 80-pound rails at $32 per ton, which would be sufficient to lay 60 miles of the main line and five miles of sidings.

SHEEP-STEALING CHARGED.

Two Farmers Committed For Trial at Simcoe—Mistake Probable.

Simcoe, Feb. 9.—Jacob Brown and Chas. Jones of Vittoria were committed for trial for stealing ten sheep from farmers in Windham. It seems that Mr. Brown and Mr. Jones had lost ten sheep, and, finding a flock in Windham, they claimed them and drove them home. Afterwards they returned them to Mr. Daniel Burnham, he having claimed them, and this prosecution is the result. Mr. Brown and Mr. Jones are respectable farmers of Charlotteville Township, Mr. Jones being a brother of the Reeve of that Township. This case has excited considerable interest in the county, but, judging from the respectability of the men involved in the dispute it is considered to be a case of mistake in identity of the sheep. The defendants are on bail. Y. R. Slaght, K.C., Crown Attorney, for the prosecution; W. E. Kelly, Simcoe, defended Mr. Brown and Mr. Jones.

Reduce Irish Representation.

London, Feb. 9.—The Government has determined to reduce Ireland's representation in Parliament. A Cabinet Minister has foretold the advent of another redistribution bill, and, as he is the son of the Colonial Secretary, it is obvious that he knows what he is saying. The hands of the Cabinet will be quite full this year, with the Irish land bill, the London education act, and a redistribution scheme.

The January statement of the British Board of Trade shows a decrease of $19,579,000 in imports and an increase of $3,172,500 in exports.

The Shawinigan Water & Power Company has completed its transmission line, and is now delivering power to Montreal, a distance of 85 miles.

The deposits of $1,000 to insure the bona fides of the election petitions filed in North Norfolk and North Perth have been made at Osgoode Hall.

The Government has decided to abolish the close season for fish in the Detroit River to place Canadians on an equal footing with United States fishermen.

A. W. Cressman's and Robert Fair & Co.'s dry goods stores at Peterboro' were damaged by fire. Mr. Cressman's loss is $40,000, with $35,000 insurance. Fair & Co.'s loss $15,000 or $20,000, also well insured.

"BROKEN" STOMACHS

Fermentation is the first blow in the shattering of mental and physical force. Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets will ward it off and prevent the onslaught of disease.

Trace the trouble to its source and in ninety-nine cases in a hundred where mental and physical wreck is the climax, you'll find food-ferment the starting point. Dr. VonStan's pineapple tablets forestall this precursor of trouble. They keep the stomach sweet—they keep the nerve centres well balanced—they stimulate the digestive organs. If you're threatened with a "broken down" stomach, one dose will give relief. Sixty tablets, 35 cents. 96

FLOOD AT CORNWALL.

ICE JAMMED AT THE LOWER END OF THE TOWN.

Fires Quenched in the Boilers of the Canadian Colored Cotton Mill and the Employees Have to Make a Hasty Retreat.

Cornwall, Feb. 10.—Cornwall has for the second time been visited by a flood, which, although not so serious as the big flood of sixteen years ago, did considerable damage, and drove a large number of families from their homes, which are now partly submerged. During last night the water started to rise, but subsided before morning. At 10 a.m. yesterday it had again risen to a point higher than any previous mark since the flood of 1887. At 3 p.m. yesterday the bay ice from the vicinity of the Longue Sault Rapids began to come down the river in great force, and the water gradually rose to within a couple of feet of overflowing the canal bank. The ice jammed at the lower end of the town, and the water rose very rapidly, until it had reached a depth of two feet in the finishing room of the Stormont branch of the Canadian Colored Cotton Company's mill. The fires in the boiler-house were put out and the mill closed down.

A few minutes after speed had gone down, and before the help in the finishing room, the machine shop and boiler-house had got out, the water came in with a rush, and a number of the help were compelled to flee without their clothing, while others were forced to jump out through the windows of the cloth room. The water gradually began to recede, and very little damage has been done to the mill stock as yet, but the danger is by no means over, as should another body of ice break loose from above the result would be very serious, the ice being jammed at the point below Cornwall, in a manner that is giving the citizens much concern.

At the eastern portion of the town the result is far worse. The machine shop of the Canada mill is flooded, as is also the carding room, but no serious damage has yet been reported.

In Lorenville, the extreme portion of the town, a dozen houses are pretty much damaged, and the occupants were forced to flee from their homes, which were in a short time partly submerged. The contents of a wood yard belonging to a man named St. Laurent in that section were carried down the river. His will be considerable. Fourteen gasoline buoys, belonging to the Government, and used in Lakes St. Francis and St. Louis, were carried away from lock seventeen. Nine of them circled around in the eddy and were secured. Five were, however, carried down the river and may be destroyed. They are said to have cost fifteen hundred dollars each.

There was a number of vessels in the Cornwall dry dock at lock seventeen, when the water backed over the old lock with great force and nearly all the vessels, some ten in number, were soon afloat and being jammed about by the ice. The steamer Princess Louise was sunk, but will likely not be very seriously amaged. The lockmen at lock seventeen were compelled to vacate their homes in a hurried manner.

What prevented a serious loss of property was the fact that when the improvements to the Cornwall Canal were being made a few years ago the banks were raised some four feet from the head at Dickinson's Landing to the foot at Cornwall, some twelve miles in length. Had this not been done the bank would have been overflown from the river, and the result would have been serious. Mr. S. Greenwood, Manager of the cotton mills, stated to-night that should the water not rise during the night the mills will likely start to-day. The weather is now moderating, and this will lessen the danger.

ON MURDER CHARGE.

Man and Woman Arrested on French Liner.

New York, Feb. 10.—The immigration authorities last night detained as prisoners on the French Line steamer La Bretagne two second-cabin passengers, at the request of Coudert Bros., lawyers, acting for the French Minister of Foreign Affairs. They are Henry Thiboeuf, a Frenchman, and Marie Pietto, a young woman who comes from Belgium. Their names appeared on the list of the ship as M. Mongodin and Mme. Jouanne. The man is held on suspicion of murder and robbery, and the woman is charged with having been his accomplice. On December 1 last a middle-aged woman, living at Bois de Colombee, near Paris, was found murdered. She was known as Madam Tusseau, and was considered well-to-do. According to the brief cabled report she was found in a room in the house, stabbed to death. There was evidence of a search, but how much money was taken is not known. The police discovered that two men, both well dressed, had called at the house, on pretence that they wanted to hire an apartment. One of these men is believed to have been Thiboeuf. Thiboeuf, who is 28 years of age, good-looking and well-dressed, took his arrest coolly, and denied all knowledge of the crime. The woman, who is about 23 years of age and rather good looking, was equally unconcerned. Thiboeuf said that he was a deserter from the French army, and for that reason he had to come to this country under the name of Mongodin, which, he said, was the name of a friend of his.

Creditors Get Nothing.

Toronto, Feb. 10.—The conclusion of the examination in connection with the failure of the Anderson private bank at Oakville has brought with it the knowledge that there will not be any return to the depositors of the bank. Mr. E. R. C. Clarkson, the liquidator, said yesterday that they would receive nothing on their claims, as there was little hope of assailing the position of the Bank of Hamilton, which appeared to be perfectly secure. The statement which will be forwarded to the creditors will show that about $40,000 was lost in bad investments. At the meeting on Tuesday next the creditors will decide what action to take with reference to the Bank of Hamilton. Mrs. Anderson is secure in her dower, amounting to about $15,000.

The announcement from Ottawa that the close season for fishing had been abolished, so far as the Detroit River was concerned, came as a great surprise to the Ontario Fisheries Department, as it will tend to render useless the plan recently inaugurated here to secure a uniformly high protection of fish on both sides of the great lakes

A DAILY NUISANCE.

A SIMPLE REMEDY WHICH WILL INTEREST CATARRH SUFFERERS.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucous, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements, and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine, as they are composed of such valuable remedies as blood root, hydrastin, red gum and similar cleansing antiseptics, which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth; in this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching and local application and further says that probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full-sized packages. Ask your druggist, and if he is honest he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

POISONING CASE.

EVIDENCE TAKEN BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE.

Mrs. Clark Gave Her Evidence at Her Home—Clark Repeats the Story That He Put Strychnine on Cheese to Kill Rats.

Collingwood, Feb. 10.—The adjourned inquest into the death of Jeanette H. Clark, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Clark of Collingwood, was continued yesterday, before Coroner A. R. Stephen, and again adjourned for a week. The contents of the child's stomach are still in the possession of Dr. Ellis of Toronto, who has been unable to complete his analysis. This will be finished before Monday next, and will then be presented to the jury, when it is expected the inquest will be concluded. The prisoner was admitted to bail in one surety of $1,000.

In addition to the inquest a Magistrate's court was held at the prisoner's home, where his wife's evidence was taken. The day's proceedings included the evidence of the prisoner and of Mrs. Foulis and Mrs. Thompson, neighbors of Mrs. Clark, who saw her at different times on the day of the child's death and subsequently. The stories of these women agreed in many particulars, but were radically opposed to one another on several important matters. The prisoner's evidence was given in a straightforward manner, and made a plausible defence for the charge of murder under which he stands before the Magistrate.

The prisoner's story was as follows:—He brought home a bottle of porter on the night of Friday, Jan. 23, at about half-past 11 o'clock. His wife prepared a supper of oysters, which they eat, and then they had the porter. He opened the bottle, while Mrs. Clark brought two glasses, which he filled. Mrs. Clark drank some, and said it was bitter. He replied that it was bitter because it was cold, and he then drank about half of her glass. She gave her child two or three mouthfuls, and finished the balance herself. He finished his own glass and then started for bed in the next room. Mrs. Clark put the remains of the supper away, and the child followed her into the pantry. On the Monday previous, Clark said, he bought some styrchnine, and put it upon three pieces of cheese to kill rats. These he placed on a shelf about two and a half feet high in the pantry, and hid each piece behind an empty basket, so that the child would not see it. Clark watched his wife putting away the supper, and, after she left the pantry, the child remained behind for a few moments. Soon the child came out, and they all went to bed. Shortly after going to bed his wife became ill. She got up for a few minutes and vomited, and then returned and went to sleep. In the morning Clark slept late. When he awakened, about half past 10 o'clock, he put out his hand to rouse the child and found her cold in death. The child had been lying between them all night, and neither he nor his wife had felt it stir. He went out as soon as he could for the doctor. When he went to the pantry he found that the cheese had all gone, and the three baskets had been pulled down. He had told his wife about the poisoned cheese.

Mrs. Clark gave her evidence at her home, where her husband was brought and was charged with murdering his daughter. She said: On the night of Friday, January 23, her husband came home about 6 o'clock and they had supper, part of it being cheese. She had not been feeling well for several days. He then went out and returned again after 11 o'clock. Then they had a supper of oysters and beer. She told the same story as he did about the drinking of the beer. She then went to bed, she said, as she was feeling dizzy. She denied telling Mrs. Foulis there was poison in the beer or that she fell unconscious on the floor. She also contradicted several of the minor points in Mrs. Thompson's evidence. She complained that these women and Mrs. Redmond had nagged her and asked her so many questions that she did not know what she was saying, as she was weak and got mixed up. She denied saying that her husband had tried to force the child to take castor oil during the night. When questioned concerning the insurance on herself, she said she had it issued because she thought it her duty to do so. It had, however, been cancelled now, as she did not want any more trouble. She said that she had not vomited at all. She also testified to the love of her husband for the child. He was always kind and good and true. Mrs. Clark tried not to answer some of the questions, as she was afraid of becoming mixed up and prejudicing her husband's case. Her testimony, however, was ample and apparently straightforward.

Growth of Methodism.

New York, Feb. 10.—Rev. Dr. J. H. Buckley, editor of The Christian Advocate of this city, caused a sensation at a meeting of the Methodist preachers yesterday. The previous speaker, D. D. Thompson, editor of The Northwestern Christian Advocate of Chicago, had spoken in a most enthusiastic way, declaring that there had been a million and a half converts made by the Methodist Church in the past four years. Dr. Buckley disputed the accuracy of these figures. He declared that statistics showed Methodism actually is declining, in some of the eastern Conferences at any rate. He believed in looking at the facts, and he declared it was a grievous mistake to take an over-optimistic view. His statements were vehemently opposed by other members of the meeting.

For scrofula, anæmia, stomach and bowel disorders, and wasting diseases, Angier's Petroleum Emulsion with Hypophosphites is prescribed by physicians. It is pleasant to take and agrees with the stomach.

It prevents and corrects disordered conditions of the stomach and intestines, checks fermentation, cleanses away foul mucus, destroys or counteracts poisonous matter in the blood, alleviates the irritation and heals the diseased membranes. It also aids digestion, improves nutrition, regulates the bowels, and helps create firm, healthy flesh. Ask your druggist for it.

I am using Angier's Petroleum Emulsion whenever and wherever I can, and with universal success. It is such an excellent preparation that it must force itself to the front as almost a specific in throat, lung and stomach troubles.—Albert Atkinson, M. D., Baltimore, Md.

TAKES A GLOOMY VIEW.

James J. Hill Sees Disaster Approaching.

New York, Feb. 10.—After briefly discussing the anti-trust law and the proposed department of commerce, James J. Hill, President of the Northern Securities Company, said:—

"As labor unions killed industrial England, so are they destined to bring about a grave financial reverse in the United States, and the country is swiftly approaching that crisis. It may come in a year; it may be deferred until the Presidential year, but it is bound to come."

Mr. Hill denied flatly, but deprecatingly, that, as the average person believes, the United States is the leading manufacturing nation, and is rapidly gathering to its bosom the markets of the entire world. This misapprehension, he averred, is the result of the fact that over one industrial victory the country sets up a louder shout than England, Germany or France makes over a dozen.

"There seems to be too much confidence in the ability of the country to walk right ahead of all other countries in manufacturing," continued Mr. Hill. "The country can do it, but not without trouble and not without changing its present course. It is indeed a grave crisis we are approaching, although few seem to appreciate it. A few years may see the closing of many factories and the throwing out of work of hundreds of thousands of men. We have been reaping the harvest, and the reverse is coming. How quickly we recover from it will depend largely on who is at the head of the country when the break comes."

About Drainage

You know the deadly consequences if a house is badly drained. Only a madman or a criminal would himself incur the risk, or subject others to it, for one unnecessary minute.

But do you realize the danger of a badly drained body? Are you aware that it poisons the blood, the very fountain of life?

Daily Intelligencer.

WHICH IS RIGHT?

The Globe's Ottawa correspondent declares that the stories about Sir Wilfrid's ill health was started by the Conservative press and is a concocted scheme to represent Sir Wilfrid's health as desperate, in the hopes of making political capital, and then declares that "the Prime Minister while not in robust health, has no cause to complain, and he is in very high spirits."

Hon. Mr. Tarte, who is supposed to know, writes as follows, in La Patrie of the 2nd inst: "The entire country regrets with us the illness of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The urgencies of politics, often so cruel, keep the first Minister at his post."

Is not the Globe playing this game and "concocting schemes" to deceive the people as to the actual facts. Or does the Globe and its correspondent think Conservatives are playing the same role that the Grits did when they kept constantly declaring that Sir John Macdonald was too ill to continue to perform his duties as Premier. Conservatives are not so heartless.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Considering the way the Aldermen trimmed the civic salary list one might almost say they are full of prunes.

But we notice that practically all the saving is made in the case of one individual, the City Treasurer. Is that fair?

Come to think of it, though, we hear that the Council, by appointing a Waterworks Superintendent, reof the duties which formerly fell to him. So perhaps it may work out all right.

Anyway, the Council has fixed the salaries, and on the 2nd of March they will fix the new (or old) officials in their positions. Not having seen the schedule of duties to be assigned to each official, we cannot discuss that end of the matter, but the fact remains that the Council proposes to make a saving in civic salaries of $410 per year, and if they can do that and not impair the efficiency of the various officials, why good luck to them, say we.

• • •

A comparison between the salaries now fixed and those formerly paid will be of interest to our readers. Here it is:

	Salary as now Fixed	Former Salary
City Clerk	$ 700	$ 800
City Treasurer and Waterworks Accountant	900	1275
City Solicitor	400	500
City Surveyor, $700, also $300 as Waterworks Superintendent, making a total of	$1000	800
City Engineer	450	510
Fire Chief	200	200
Asst. Fire Chief	100	100
Medical Health Officer	100	75
	$3850	$4260
		3850
Proposed saving		$ 410

It is refreshing to see the Council interesting itself in the Trent Valley Canal. There's nothing too hot nor heavy for the Belleville City Council to take a fall out of. Surely between Peterboro and Belleville we can defeat the ridiculous claims of Port Hope. The natural outlet for the canal is the River Trent. Everybody knows that.

It was rather disappointing that nothing came up about the Rolling Mills. Has anybody asked Mr. Kirkwood for an explanation of that advertisement re the leasing of the mills? An interesting reply might be received.

The many admirers of the Bishop of Ontario in this city will be interested in the following clipping from the Kingston Whig. It shows that he practices as well as preaches: "Bishop Mills not only exhorts but sets the example. Again this year he has given $500 of his stipend back to Ontario diocese for the benefit of its Home Mission Fund."

The big snowstorm has put many oldtimers in a reminiscent mood. "In the year 1870," said a gentleman last night, "we had a snowstorm that would make this look like a bit of a flurry. The doctor came to my house and walked right over the top of a five-foot fence. You wouldn't know the fence was there. To show you how bad the railroad was blocked, a friend of mine left for Toronto on Monday morning and didn't reach his destination till the next Monday morning." It is to be hoped nature will not repeat herself this winter. A storm of the 1870 kind is snow joke.

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

I Will Cure You of Rheumatism

ELSE NO MONEY IS WANTED.

Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer.

I am a specialist in Rheumatism and have treated more cases than any other physician, I think. For 16 years I made 2,000 experiments with different drugs, testing all known remedies, while searching the world for something better. Nine years ago I found a costly chemical in Germany, which, with my previous discoveries, gives me a certain cure.

I don't mean that it can turn bony joints into flesh again; but it can cure the disease at any stage, completely and forever. I have done it fully 100,000 times.

I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism, and I will mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure. Take it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is only $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it.

I mean that exactly. If you say the results are not what I claim, I don't expect a penny from you.

I have no samples. Any mere sample that can affect chronic Rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs, and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood.

My remedy does that even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. It has cured the oldest cases that I ever met. And in all my experience—in all my 2,000 tests—I never found another remedy that would cure one chronic case in ten.

Write me and I will send you the order. Try my remedy for a month, as it can't harm you anyway. If it fails, it is free.

Address Dr. Shoop, Box 69, Racine, Wis. Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

SPORTING COMMENT.

Peterboro hockeyists have at last won a game. Their bankers' team beat the Imperial bank team of Toronto by 6 to 4. Home and home games between the Bankers of Belleville and Peterboro should draw well.

All the would-be hockey players in town are after the Marsh & Henthorne team. The Bakers now want a chance at them, and are willing to bet lots of dough on the result.

Toronto Star: The Queen's team would look like nice going after the Stanley Cup. Wouldn't it? The forwards shoot like little school boys.

One thing about that game to-morrow night is that Belleville people can watch it without caring who wins or loses, which will be a decidedly new sensation.

The biggest hockey surprise of the season was pulled off in Toronto last night, when the Varsity team, which had been touring Ontario, getting thrashed as regularly as the sun went down, did up the speedy Wellington's, prospective champions of the O.H.A., and next in order to play for the Stanley Cup. The Varsity team must have improved a lot lately, or there are several false alarms on the Iron Dukes.

The game was refereed by Roy D. Schooley, and The Globe in its report says: "Referee Schooley was not as strict as he might have been. He allowed many questionable checks to go, and numerous trips escaped his vigilance." That's what a lot of people thought about his work in this city.

That intermediate team of Barrie's appears to be a warm one. They put it all over Newmarket last night by a score of 12 to 2. There will be something doing when the Busy B.'s, Belleville and Barrie, come together.

Varsity beat the Wellingtons by close checking, and that is what lowers the colors of many a team which looks, on paper, like a dead sure thing.

HOCKEY.

Varsity Team Champions of Toronto.

Toronto, Feb. 10.—For three long hours the Wellingtons and Varsity battled desperately at the Mutual Street Rink, and at the end the collegians were the winners by a score of 11 to 6. Varsity won on their merits, completely outplaying the Iron Dukes at all points. The Wellingtons could not negotiate the sticky going with any degree of success, while the students seemed to be right at home. In the first half Varsity scored half a dozen times as compared with one for the O.H.A. seven.

The game was anything but a first-class exhibition. The Wellingtons appeared stale and lacked their usual energy. Their checking was off-color and the forwards missed many chances. All through they passed and shot badly, and Chadwick and McLaren overran the puck on many occasions. On the other hand, the Varsity team put up a really splendid argument. Their forwards, unlike the Wellingtons, combined well and seemed to be always on the puck. McLean, the big 204-pounder on the wing, was the most effective man on the ice. He broke through the Wellington defence at will, and McLaren could not begin to hold him.

It was the first defeat that the Wellingtons have sustained in Toronto for over two years.

SPORTING NOTES.

Scotland defeated Wales in the international Rugby football match.

Point-player Worts Smart of the Toronto Wellingtons, had his collarbone broken last night, and will not be able to play again this season.

The Canadian football team will sail for home on Thursday. Farrell has been given a commission in the West African Field Force, and will not return to Halifax.

The Canadian curlers won the international match at Winnipeg from the United States. The Scotch curlers leave Winnipeg to-day.

The free-for-all race on the ice at Ottawa was won by Looking Glass, after Deveras had taken two heats. Birdie Hayes won the named race.

Toronto will have a new rink, with an artificial ice plant, costing $75,000, which, it is claimed, will be built before next winter.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

It was so unexpected that Helen could not speak, but she let her head rest on his bosom, where he had laid it, and her hand crept into his, so that he was answered, and for a moment he only kissed and caressed the fair girl he knew now was his own. They could not talk together very long, for Helen must go home; but he made good use of the time he had, telling her many things, and then asking her a question which made her start away from him as she replied. "No, no, oh! no, not to-night—not so soon as that!"

"And why not, Helen?" he asked, with the manner of one who was not to be denied. "Why not to-night, so there need be no more misunderstanding? I'd rather leave you as my wife than my betrothed. Mother will like it better. I hinted it to her, and she said there was room for you in her love. It will make me a better man, and a better soldier, if I can say 'my wife,' as other soldiers do. You don't know what a charm there is in that word, Helen. It keeps a man from sin, and if I should die, I would rather you should bear my name, and share my fortune. Will you, Helen, when the ceremonies are closed, will you go up to that altar and pledge your vows to me. I cannot wait till to-morrow: my leave of absence expires today. I must go back to-night, but you must first be mine."

Helen was shaking as with a chill, but she made him no reply, and wrapping her cloak and furs about her, Mark led her down to the sleigh, and taking his seat beside her, drove back to the farm-house where the family were waiting for her. Katy, to whom Mark first communicated his desire, warmly espoused his cause, and that went far towards reassuring Helen, who for some time past had been learning to look up to Katy as to an older sister, so sober, so earnest, so womanly had Katy grown since Wilford went away.

"It is so sudden, and people will talk," Helen said, knowing when she said it how little she cared for people, and smiling at Katy's reply.

"They may as well talk about you a while as me. It is not so bad when once you are used to it."

After Katy, Aunt Betsy was Mark's best advocate. It is true this was not just what she had expected when Helen was married. The infair which Wilford had still declined was still in Aunt Betsy's mind; but that, she reflected, might be yet. If Mark went back on the next train there could be no proper wedding party until his return, when the loaves of frosted cake, and the baked fowls she had seen in imagination should be there in real, tangible form, and as she expressed it, they would have a "high." Accordingly she threw herself into the scale beginning to balance in favor of Mark, and when at last old Whitey stood at the door, to take the family to the church, Helen sat upon the lounge half bewildered, while Katy assured her that she could play the voluntary, even if she had not looked at it, that she could lead the children without the organ, and in short do anything Helen was expected to do except go to the altar with Mark.

"That I leave for you," and she playfully kissed Helen's forehead, as she left the room, looking back when she reached the door, and charging the lovers not to forget to come in their absorption of each other.

St. John's was crowded that night, the children occupying the front seat, with looks of expectancy upon their faces, as they studied the heavily laden tree, the boys wondering if that ball, or whistle, or wheelbarrow was for them, and the girls appropriating the tastefully dressed dolls, showing so conspicuously among the dark green foliage. The Barlows were rather late, for upon Uncle Ephraim devolved the duty of seeing to the license, and as he had no seat in that house, his arrival was only known by Aunt Betsy's elbowing her way to the front, and near to the Christmas tree which she had helped to dress, just as she had helped to trim the church.

Aunt Betsy elbowed her way up the middle aisle, her face wearing a very important and knowing look, especially when Uncle Ephraim's tall figure bent for a moment under the hemlock bows, and then disappeared in the little vestry room, where he held a private consultation with the rector. That she knew something her neighbor's didn't was evident, but she kept it to herself, turning her head occasionally to look up at the organ where Katy was presiding. Others too, there were, who turned their heads as the soft music began to fill the church, and the heavy base rolled up the aisles, making the floor tremble beneath their feet and sending a thrill through every vein.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

To Those of Sedentary Occupation. —Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to disorders of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question the most efficacious on the market. They are easily procurable, easily taken, act expeditiously, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

It manages to get late very early nowadays.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia.

He Has Tried It.—Mr. John Anderson, Kimloss, writes: "I venture to say few, if any, have received greater benefit from the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, than I have. I have used it regularly for over ten years, and have recommended it to all sufferers I knew of, and they also found it of great virtue in cases of severe bronchitis and incipient consumption."

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality, Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

ment, says his colleague, Mr. Davis, will be re-elected for North York by 900 majority. It will be surprising if he is not re-elected by a large majority. The constituency is numerically Grit, and will therefore look upon Davis' resignation and the payment by him of $800 of his opponent's costs, rather than run the risk of disqualification, and exposure of the corrupt acts of his friends, as patriotic and commendable. There was a time when such an acknowledgment of corruption would have driven the party into political oblivion. Now, Gritism has become so demoralized that it revels in all kinds of political corruption; hence Mr. Davis' return may be looked upon as certain.

RACE WAR STARTED.

Result of the Whipping of Three Negroes.

Fayette, Mo., Feb. 10.—A race war has been started here as the result of the public whipping of three negroes on the Court House steps Friday night. A committee of the Law and Order League took the negroes from their homes and whipped them publicly for alleged misconduct. Two of them were women. Since then the negroes and white people have been in open enmity, and it is said 25 negro families have been frightened into leaving the vicinity. The only negro man who was whipped Friday night made a desperate resistance. It took several men to carry him to the post. He cursed his captors as the lash was applied, which resulted in the whip being wielded only the more vigorously. When the ordeal was ended the negro was so weak from loss of blood that he was put to bed, instead of being driven from town. The women, who were not whipped severely, were taken to the outskirts and told to go. There is much excitement here, and a clash is feared.

FIRED INTO THE CROWD.

White Men Kill and Wound Inoffensive Negroes.

Weycross, Ga., Feb. 10.—Meagre details of a riot which occurred between two white men and a crowd of negroes at Beach's Still, in Coffee County, has reached this city.

Two negroes are said to have been killed and nine others wounded, one of them mortally. Three of the wounded were women, but their injuries are not serious.

The shooting was done while a negro festival was in progress, about 11 o'clock Saturday night.

The report is that two white men, well-known in that section, went to the festival, and after having a little difficulty with some of the negroes, locked the two doors of the building in which the negroes were dancing, and commenced firing into the crowd with shotguns. The house was quickly cleared of all except some of the wounded, and the men are said to have entered the building and tied the wounded and dead negroes together.

FEET SWELLED.
BACK ACHED.

Dr. Pitcher Completely Cured a Young Lady Subject for Years to Serious Kidney Trouble.

There are many young women at the present time earning an honorable livelihood as clerks in stores, operators in factories, dressmakers, bookkeepers; typewriters, etc., whose occupation, from its very nature, renders them more or less susceptible to pain in the back or side, frequent headaches, constipation and many other ailments resulting from disordered kidney and sluggish liver.

Any young lady suffering from the effects of kidney trouble will find no other remedy prove so effectual as Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They are small and pleasant to take, and their action, while thoroughly curative, does not disturb the weakest system.

MISS. L FRANCIS.

Miss L. Francis, whose address is 14 St. Patrick Street, Toronto, Ont., after being cured by the Tablets, gave the following statement:—"I procured Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets two weeks before Christmas, and they worked like a charm in my case. I was a victim to kidney trouble and weak, painful back for a number of years, and have taken a great many patent medicines, but while some gave temporary relief, others made me worse, and I never expected to get anything to cure me this side of the grave. Dr. Pitcher's wonderful Kidney Tablets, however, have done me a world of good. They have taken away that awful pain in the small of the back that used to bother me so, especially in damp, cold weather. The swelling of my feet which worried and inconvenienced me greatly, has left, and I am in better health now than I have been in the past two years."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a bottle, at all druggists, or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

Tired Out Tired when you go to bed, tired when you get up, tired all the time. Why? Your blood is impure. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and be quickly cured. If the bowels are constipated, take Ayer's Pills. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Science on the Road.

Tramp—Say, mister, gimme a tanner. I want to git a drink. Person Accosted—Drink water. Tramp—That's just it, yer honner. I want the tanner to buy a filter so as I can swaller the water without the risk of being poisoned by microbes.

Is There a Weak Spot That is Likely to Develop Disease?

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

QUICKLY REACHES THE AFFECTED PARTS, FORTIFIES THEM AND IMPARTS NEW LIFE TO THE BLOOD.

Are you conscious of a weak spot in connection with any of the great organs of the body? Do your kidneys bother you? It may be that you experience pain in urination or pain in the small of the back. You perhaps find the skin dry and harsh, the urine high colored or a deposit in it. Any of these symptoms point to kidney trouble.

Is your liver doing its great work properly? If you have vomiting, nausea, furred tongue, constipation or disordered vision, there is a weak spot in the liver. This demands instant attention.

Is the network of muscular fibres of the stomach in a healthy condition, or are the nerves weak, irritated or inflamed? Is digestion poor? Have you dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, waterbrash or flatulence? Any of these troubles are forerunners of suffering and ill-health.

Does your blood as it courses to all parts of the body carry nourishment and life, or is it filled with impurities and poisons? Unless you have a full and vigorous supply of pure blood your life is daily in danger.

Eminent medical men and the tens of thousands made well and strong by Paine's Celery Compound will tell you that this marvellous medicine is your sure deliverer from all the troubles we have mentioned. Paine's Celery Compound quickly and promptly reaches the weak and suffering parts, fortifies them, gives new life to the blood, nourishes the nerves, builds muscle and tissue, and makes you rejoice in a condition of health that will be permanent and lasting.

BIG IRRIGATION SCHEME.

C. P. R. May Accept 2,500,000 Acres in the Arid Belt.

Ottawa, Feb. 10.—The Government, it is understood, has under consideration a proposition from the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in regard to the selection of the 3,300,000 acres of its original main line land grant which remains to be allotted. The company expresses its willingness to accept 2,500,000 acres in the arid belt between Calgary and Medicine Hat, conditionally upon being allotted the remaining 800,000 acres in what is called the Manitoba & Northwestern Reserve. This reserve consists of about 1,200,000 acres, which formed part of the land grant made to the Manitoba & Northwestern Railway Company, but reverted to the Government when the company failed to earn it. The arid land which the C.P.R. desires to obtain is of course useless at present, and can only be rendered fit for cultivation by irrigation on an extensive scale, which means the investment of a large amount of capital. It is deemed to be indispensable that the grant of 2,500,000 acres be made en bloc, the company holding that a large or comprehensive scheme of irrigation is impossible if the land is granted only in alternate blocks. Moreover, under the alternate block system, it is argued, other persons without themselves incurring any outlay would benefit from the enormous expenditure which the C. P. R. would have to make. The C.P.R. estimates that the cost of irrigating will be from $3.50 to $4 per acre, or an aggregate expenditure of from $8,750,000 to $10,000,000. The necessary water supply would be drawn from the Bow, Saskatchewan and other rivers, and under its benign influence what is at present a dreary desert would be made to "blossom like the rose." The transformation of a waste of 2,500,000 acres into cultivable land would, it is estimated, create homes for 10,000 farmers. This would probably mean a purely agricultural population of at least 50,000 persons, whilst the location of this number of persons in the arid belt would necessitate the establishment of other industries to minister to their needs. Friends of the C.P.R. admit that the company would get a reasonably good thing out of the proposition, but they say that the country would benefit to a much greater extent. The arid belt lies alongside the C.P.R. main line, and at present yields no revenue to the company.

FLOODS IN SCOTLAND.

River Clyde Inundates the Industrial District.

Glasgow, Feb. 10.—The River Clyde burst its banks above Glasgow yesterday and inundated the industrial district of Rutherglen, where a dozen extensive works were flooded to the depth of several feet. The main road was ten feet under water and many houses were rendered uninhabitable. Several residential districts south of Glasgow also were flooded. The damage done was very heavy. The rain-swollen rivers have submerged miles of the country. Elsewhere in Scotland traffic on the railroads has been stopped, bridges have been swept away and houses have collapsed. Thus far no fatalities have been reported.

THE C. P. R. DIVIDEND.

Directors Make no Change in the Amount.

Montreal, Feb. 10.—The Canadian Pacific directors met yesterday, with Sir Thomas Shaughnessy in the chair. Considerable speculation has been indulged as to the course of action to be pursued by the C. P. R. Executive with regard to the half yearly dividend. It was said on one hand that the prosperity of the company had been so marked that it would not be unreasonable to suppose that an increased dividend would be decided on. Speculation was set at rest when a dividend of 2 per cent. on preferred and 2 1-2 on common stock was declared for the half year ending December. The surplus for the half-year, after the payment of dividends, was $3,202,007. Among those present at the meeting were: Messrs. R. B. Angus, C. R. Hosmer, E. B. Osler and G. H. Harris of Boston. The statement which was submitted is said to be the best in the history of the company, the revenue for the year showing an increase of $5,500,000 over 1901. The additional 195,000 shares which were issued by authority of the shareholders at the special general meeting on the 27th of last March rank for dividend with existing shares for the half-year ending December, 1902, making the common stock 845,000 shares of the par value of $100 to receive a dividend. The whole of this additional stock was taken up at par by the holders of the ordinary capital stock, in the proportion of 30 per cent. of their respective holdings. It was in five payments of 20 per cent., or $20 a share, the last payment having been made on the 24th of December last. The gross earnings for the year, it is said, will be over $42,000,000, while the land sales will be over 2,000,000 acres, nearly double those of last year.

The manager of a concert given in a small town, instead of putting "not transferable" on the tickets, posted a notice on the door: "No gentleman admitted unless he comes himself."

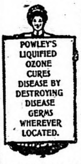
Dyspepsia Cured To Stay Cured.

Mr. J. Gibbs, of Toronto, Suffered Intense Agony--Was So Bad That Food Would Not Remain on His Stomach Half an Hour.

Powley's Liquified Ozone Soon Improved His Condition—In a Short Time He Was Able to Eat Every Kind of Food.

To-day He Is a Well Man---By Killing the Germs, Ozone Eradicated the Disease and He Is Cured to Stay Cured.



I suffered the most insense agony from dyspepsia and found it impossible to get a cure from physicians or patent medicines. Anything I would eat would not digest and my stomache would become distended with the sour fermentation. Great gusts of belching would sometimes nearly choke me. I was so bad that food would not remain on my stomach half an hour, and I suffered intense pain and depression.

I started taking Ozone and it made a difference in a very short time. I was soon able to eat all kinds of food without any after distress. I have had no return of this stomach disorder, and to-day am a well man through Ozone. I visited Nova Scotia occasionally and found that my dyspepsia would leave me. When I returned to Toronto my trouble would come back as badly as ever. In the light of my recent experience I feel satisfied that my relief in Nova Scotia was due to the Ozone in the atmosphere.

Yours very truly.

SIR GILBERT PARKER

COL. PONTON HANDLES ONE OF HIS CRITICS IN A TRENCHANT AND ARTISTIC WAY.

Not long ago The Montreal Herald contained an article, written by one H.F.G., which contained many supposedly clever and certainly uncalled-for slurs on Sir Gilbert Parker. This naturally roused the ire of our fellow-citizen, Col. Ponton, who wrote to The Herald in defence of Sir Gilbert. The letter appeared in last Saturday's Herald, and is here reproduced:

Editor Herald:

Sir,—A column of what was no doubt intended to be biting satire, but which really evinced bitter envy, was reprinted in your issue of the 28th inst., from the Toronto Star, and debited (I do not say credited) to H.F.G. Why a certain section of the press appears to be hostile to Sir Gilbert Parker, or desirous of belittling this most successful journalist, this loyal son of Canada, this broad-minded and representative Imperialist, one is at a loss to understand. Probably you have to appeal to many minds, and some of your readers possibly appreciate a sort of incisive cleverness and undeniable brightness which characterizes H.F.G.'s cerebral secretions, when attacking the Seats of the Mighty from beneath with the paper pellets of his brain. The object of the attack in this case being a public man, and reliant upon the warm and high place he holds in the hearts and minds of his fellow-Canadians, will not writhe or worry one little bit at the biter; but may not his friends protest, may not all who have colonial interests at heart protest, against the ungrateful and ungracious manner in which Canadian newspapers are allowed to become the vehicles of such wanton attempts to dishearten and discourage one whose life's work is, with others, to maintain and elevate the prestige, the true worth, the permanent good of Canada and Canadians. Few have such opportunities as Gilbert Parker, few such whole-hearted devotion to the cause, few such clear-sighted vision of the potentialities of the future awaiting only the proper time for fruition. The personal friend and associate of the leaders of thought where the heart of the Empire throbs, persona grata with those in authority, endowed by nature and by fortune with power of will, grace of diction, and ability to perform, why should any Canadian be found small enough to disparage one who adds to these faculties and facilities, so true hearted and manly a love for his fellow Canadians. Not in Belleville alone, where the old homestead is kept guarded by his tender care, can it be said of him that "those who know him best, love him most." Yet, here specially, while proud of his career as literary pioneer of new paths, as one who in public affairs has passed beyond his books, here we know him, as filial and devoted son, as good brother, as true friend, as discriminating benefactor, and as public-spirited citizen—ever ready, willing and able to do all that man can do at home and abroad to aid and serve his fellow men. Many institutions, many families, have experienced his unostentatious generosity, and he never forgets. We may be pardoned, therefore, if we, his friends, are always ready to "stand by" when we see or hear a sneer or a slur in connection with his name or his citizenship. He needs no defence, but we in the Bay of Quinte District, and if I mistake not, all true Canadians, do not wait till a man is dead to express our good opinion of him. We prefer to keep the living touch, and we do not sit silent in the corridors of time waiting for eternity and posterity. When H.F.G. next chooses a subject on whom to pour out of his volatile vials his tincture of astringent irony, let him choose a man who has isolated himself in selfish prosperity, in whose armor there are rusty holes, and not one who, like Gilbert Parker, holds and uses his gifts of grace and genius in trust for the public good and for his ideal of civic duty.

W. N. PONTON.

CIVIC SALARY LIST

City Council Proposes to Cut Down Pay of Several City Officials.

New Duties Added to Position of City Surveyor—Library By-law Passed

Council Puts Itself on Record re Trent Valley Canal—A Short Session.

At the Council meeting last evening the business was conducted with despatch, but little discussion taking place. The most important matter under consideration was the report of the Executive Committee in reference to the civic officials.

When Mayor Graham called the Council to order at 8 p.m. all the members were in attendance.

After the reading and confirming of the minutes of the last regular meeting the following communications and accounts were read:

From Mr. Jos. Templeton, on behalf of the Public Library Board, stating that the Board would guarantee that the $800 granted by the Council, with other revenue, would place the Library out of debt at the end of the year. Also agreeing that two members of the Council should be placed on the Board.

From Mr. W. H. Campbell, stating that the Ontario Accident Company would insure the city against accidents for the sum of $700 per annum. The old policy lapsed on the 30th ult.

The following accounts were presented:

W. P. Clarke	$ 3.00
Trenton Electric Co.	334.23
Rathbun Co.	2.24
Greenleaf & Son	12.00
F. D. Diamond	27.30
T. Thomson	75.00

From Mr. W. H. Campbell, Chief of the Fire Department, asking that two additional call bells be procured at $6 each; also that a pair or two of nippers be provided for the brigade for use in cutting wires if necessary.

From Mr. F. D. Diamond, stating that he had completed the audit of the rolls of 1899 and 1900, which had been placed in his hands.

A voluminious document was presented from Messrs. T. Thomson and W. C. Mikel, being their audit of the accounts, etc., for the year 1902.

Reports.

Reports were presented from the various committees, which met on Friday evening, and which have already been published.

The Civic Offices.

A report was presented of a special meeting of the Executive Committee, in reference to the salaries to be paid to the civic officials and what duties they were to perform. The report recommended that the salaries be as follows.

City Clerk, salary to be $700 per annum.

City Solicitor, salary to be $400 per annum.

City Treasurer to receive $700 from the Council and $200 additional from the Waterworks Department.

City Surveyor to receive $700 for corporation work and $300 as Manager of the Waterworks.

Chief Engineer of the Fire Department $450 per annum.

Chief of the Fire Department $200 per annum and Assistant Chief $100 per annum.

The committee also recommended that the duties of the various officials be defined by the Council.

On motion the Council went into Committee of the Whole on Reports, Ald. Cooper in the chair.

The Executive Committee's report was first taken up and the various items of expenditure passed with little discussion.

The reference to appointing two members of the Council on the Library Board caused Ald. Marsh to enquire if it would in any way affect the position of the Aldermen to be placed on a Board which was receiving aid from the city.

The Solicitor said it would not in any way affect their position as Aldermen.

The Public Works, Market, Waterworks, Light and Fire Committees' reports were unanimously adopted.

The report of the Executive Committee re civic offices was taken up and unanimously adopted after a brief discussion.

Ald. Panter said he was not at the meeting when the report was drafted, and he wanted to know what the extra duties of the City Surveyor would be.

Ald. Cooper said the duties would be defined later by the Council.

The various recommendations were adopted.

The request of Chief Campbell, of the Fire Department, asking for two more call bells and also that a pair of nippers be procured, was taken up.

On motion the matter was referred to the Chairman of the Fire Committee, with power to act.

Trent Valley Canal.

A communication from the Town Clerk of Peterboro was read, stating that a meeting was to be held at Peterboro on Monday next, re Trent Valley Canal, and asking the Council to send one or more delegates to said meeting. Also asking the Council to endorse a memorial which was to be presented to the Government in reference to the continuing of work on this water course.

On motion of Ald. Sinclair the Mayor was authorized to sign the memorial on behalf of the City. The Alderman said if the Government intended spending some more of our good money on this project an effort should be made to secure some of it in this section of the country.

The Mayor said he would like to have the locks built on the Trent river which would make excellent water power. There would be constructed some five or six large locks. The outlet of this water course should also be secured for this district if it was at all possible, and not allow it to be at Port Hope or some other place.

On motion the Mayor was authorized to attend the meeting to be held at Peterboro on Monday next.

The various accounts presented were ordered to be paid.

On motion the Committee rose and reported. The report was received and adopted.

Introduction of By-laws.

Ald. Chown introduced a by-law to grant aid to the Public Library.

On motion the Council went into Committee of the Whole on By-laws, Ald. Marsh in the chair.

The by-law recommended that a grant of $800 be made to the Board; that it be paid in monthly instalments; that the Board of Management guarantee that the Library will be free of debt at end of the year, and that two members of the Council be appointed upon the Board.

Ald. Pope thought that a guarantee should be made to the city that no debts would remain at the end of the year and that the City should be guaranteed that the Library would remain open as a free institution for the year.

On motion the Solicitor was instructed to prepare such a guarantee.

Ald. Marsh and Sulman were named as members of the Council to serve on the Board.

The by-law was then read a second and third time and numbered 1068.

A Timely Suggestion.

Under the head of unfinished business. Ald. Sinclair called attention to the danger arising from falling snow and ice from some roofs of buildings on Front street. The police should notify the owners to have the same

The police will be requested to attend to this matter at once.

The Street Surveyor was also authorized to notify Mr. Arnott to remove the bank of snow on Pinnacle street, facing the skating rink.

Mayor Graham asked Ald. Chown when the Executive Committee would be called to consider the duties of the various civic officials.

Ald. Chown—"It being too early to go home we could meet to-night after the Council meeting."

This met the views of the members and the Council adjourned, the Executive Committee immediately afterwards going into private session.

VITAL FORCE

IS CRUSHED BY CHRONIC TROUBLES.

One of the most weakening, undermining troubles which mankind is heir to is hemorrhoids or piles. The victim is careless and neglectful of the disease at first, because the pain is slight and the bleeding may only occur occasionally, or he may be reassured by the occasional disappearance of the symptoms. And yet, if at the very start he had found a rational remedy to soothe the inflammation he would probably never have had a return of this irritating malady.

Piles may develope at any season of the year and at almost any age of the victim; the abuse of cathartics often causes this trouble, and a period arrives when the dread of pain at stool becomes so great that the sufferer begins to neglect the calls of nature and the bowels are either forced to retain the feces, or are only partially cleared, on account of the suffering attendant upon a thorough movement.

Before you reach this stage use a remedy which removes the cause, thereby eradicating the disease, and that is the Pyramid Pile Cure, which is sold by all druggists at fifty cents a package; it is in the form of a suppository, is applied directly to the parts affected and brings about a complete cure, quickly and painlessly. A valuable little book on the cause and cure of piles is published by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., and we advise every sufferer to send for a copy of it.

People who have suffered from piles for years are often astonished at the instant relief experienced from the first application. Another important advantage is the fact that anyone can use the remedy without detention from business or interference with daily occupation.

"I feel it my duty to recommend the Pyramid Pile Cure, for after suffering ten years with a most distressing form of piles, I am entirely cured, thanks to this remedy. Anyone doubting this can write to Margaret Brady, 150 Whitman St., Cleveland, Ohio."

A Slight Blaze

A slight fire occurred about 12 o'clock last night at the residence of Mr. Thos. Carter, South Church St., but no alarm was given, as the blaze was extinguished by Mr. Carter with a few pails of water. About $30 would cover the damage sustained.

BELLEVILLE'S COLLEGES

MR. THOMAS HANLEY OFFERS SOME PERTINENT SUGGESTIONS.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—I have on several occasions written and spoken on the vast benefit the various Colleges and the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb is to this City. Apart from the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, I understand there are in the three Colleges, that is, Albert College, Ontario Business College and Belleville Business College, at the present time between six and seven hundred students. They come here from every point of the compass and from many climes. There are in our midst today representatives from almost every State of the Union as well as from most of His Majesty's possessions and from South America. And when we meet these good looking young men and women on the streets, carrying books and papers, we can be assured it is not the everyday ordinary boy and girl we meet, but the clever and the ambitious ones, who are destined to make their marks in the world, and be useful members of society. They come here to equip themselves for the battle of life, and avail themselves of the superior facilities our Colleges afford, the clever young man or woman, to gain the mental training necessary for a successful career in life.

We have been devising various schemes and we have been putting our hands deep into our pockets, for the purpose of promoting industries, but so far without success; but the Colleges we have always with us, and they have cost us nothing. And the influence they have for good in our midst, few of us, I fear, properly appreciate. They bring here annually thousands of the flower of the youth of the American continent— the very thing we have been trying to do, by a system of ever increasing taxation, which has proved a failure. What our water power and other advantages have failed to accomplish the Colleges have succeeded in doing, and what is more they have advertised us throughout the length and breadth of the American continent, and in the islands of the sea.

I often think that something more could be done than has been done in the past, by individuals and societies, to make the stay of the numerous students, male and female, pleasanter while amongst us. Many of them are entire strangers within our gates, and no doubt often grow lonely and homesick, by reason of their isolation from friends and home. A little effort on the part of societies, congregations and individuals, would do much towards brightening many uncomfortable hours and driving away that unpleasant feeling which perhaps we have all sometime in our lives felt and which can best be described by the word "homesick."

The authorities of Bridge Street Methodist Church should be highly commended for the efforts they have made in this direction, and I am sure that many a student, when he or she returns home, will remember, with gratitude these evidences of kindness. But the members of Bridge Street Church cannot be expected to do all that should be done in the way of entertaining. Let others go and do likewise, and thus give to our citizens generally a name for hospitality that will be an encouragement to others to come amongst us.

DIED FROM HIS WOUNDS.

LOUIS GOLDSMITH PASSED AWAY IN THE HOSPITAL.

Walter Romaine Will be Arraigned To-day on Murder Charge—Ante-mortem Statement.

Toronto, Feb. 10.—Louis Goldsmith, the victim of the Victoria street shooting affray, died at 2.15 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Emergency Hospital. Death was directly due to the bullet wound in the left side. The other two wounds, in the forhead and in the left hand, were superficial injuries. Coroner Arthur Jukes Johnson was instructed by Crown Attorney Dewart to conduct an inquest, and the investigation will be commenced at 7.30 o'clock this evening at the hospital.

Walter Romaine will be brought up in ally arraigned on the charge of murder. the Police Court this morning and form- The evidence of Millie Goldsmith, wife of the deceased, and Lucy Jackson, the two eye-witnesses of the shooting, will in all probability be taken, and an adjournment made till the inquest is concluded. Romaine was visited at the jail yesterday afternoon by his counsel, T. C. Robinette, K.C., and was told of the death of Goldsmith. Although not surprised, Romaine expressed his regret at the outcome of a quarrel which seemed at first to be a trivial affair.

By means of the anti-mortem statement taken at the Emergency Hospital last Saturday afternoon by R. W. Eyre and Alexander Downey, the Crown will seek to establish premeditation for the shooting. In his version of the events leading up to the tragedy the dying man claimed that the quarrel he had with Romaine last Friday night was not the first. He claimed that on a previous occasion they had some words, and Romaine threatened to kill him. The trouble on Friday night originated from remarks made by Walter Romaine regarding Mrs. Goldsmith. Goldsmith, according to the statement, resented the insult, and told the prisoner to shut up. Romaine said he wouldn't, at the same time picking up the tailor's shears which were lying on the table. Goldsmith rushed towards him and succeeded in getting possession of the shears. As he was walking away Romaine, it is alleged, fired the first shot, which grazed Goldsmith's forehead. The men clinched, and while Romaine had his opponent's head down he fired the remaining two shots.

Romaine's statement of the affray does not agree in any of the important points with the dying man's version. Romaine said that his opponent picked up the shears and drew the revolver first, and in the struggle Goldsmith was shot.

GRAVE-ROBBING CASES.

The Defence Outlines Its Plan of Action.

Indianapolis, Feb. 10.—In the trial of Dr. J. C. Alexander, charged with being implicated in the grave robbing cases, the defence outlined its evidence when court opened yesterday. Counsel Spann said he purposed showing that Dr. Alexander is of good moral character, while the persons who testified against him are disreputable and unworthy of belief, that when Cantrell and Martin went to Dr. Alexander's office they asked employment to clean up the college; that Dr. Alexander consulted several members of the faculty, and was told that he might employ Cantrell and pay him $30 for the work. On the second trip, counsel said, Cantrell told Alexander he was furnishing dissecting subjects for other colleges, and should like to furnish some for Dr. Alexander. The latter replied that if he could get the bodies legitimately he would pay for them. While Cantrell was before the Grand Jury, counsel asserted that he received $55, and had telephoned Dr. Alexander to have no fear; that he (Cantrell) was being paid for what he was doing. Mr. Spaan said the defence will show that a man afflicted as Cantrell was, as shown by his discharge from the army, is a mroal monster, and has no conception of right and wrong.

GALT CONSTABLES FINED.

Galt, Feb. 10.—Peter Myers and Albert Wolfe, two special constables acting as quarantine guards, were fined $5 each today for neglect of duty. Early Sunday morning the Medical Health Officer, passing a house which is under quarantine, found that the guard was not at his post. On further investigation, he discovered that two other guards were also missing, and he then enlisted the services of a policeman and instituted a diligent search. The three men were found in the furnace-room of the Town Hall, warming their feet. The third man was Wm. Ableson He escaped a fine because he had not taken the oath of office. None of the inmates of the houses which the guards forsook were suffering from smallpox, but the Police Commissioners, before whom the three appeared, considered the dereliction of duty serious.

DEATH OF SIR G. DUFFY.

The Remarkable Career of a Remarkable Man.

London, Feb. 10.—Sir Charles Gavan Duffy died yesterday at Nice, aged 86. Nearly sixty years ago he was a rebel Irishman, and was tried on a charge of treason and felony, but was not sentenced. Even when he arrived in Australia he announced himself as an Irish rebel to the backbone, but he lived to be Prime Minister of Victoria, and to accept a title from the Crown against which he had rebelled in his hot youth. The Daily Chronicle says he leaves a name of which Australia and the empire are proud.

CLAIMS OF THE WEST.

IMPROVED RAILWAY AND MAIL SERVICE REQUIRED.

Board of Trade Representatives From Several Centres Met at Berlin—Inequalities in Freight Rates Call For Immediate Action.

Berlin, Ont., Feb. 11.—A meeting of representatives from the Boards of Trade of Galt, Guelph, Berlin, Waterloo and Stratford was held in the Walper House parlors yesterday for the purpose of uniting in protesting against the discrimination against these towns in coal freight rates, and also to make an effort to secure bettter railway and mail accommodation. Among those present were Messrs. R. O. McCulloch, George E. Goldie, J. Brownlee, A. G. Donaldson, Galt; John White, Andrew Johnson, George H. Douglas, Stratford; R. Roschmann, Waterloo; R. G. Torrance and C. A. Beam, Guelph, and Robert Smyth, S. J. Williams, G. M. Debus, D. B. Detweiler and C. K. Hagedorn, Berlin.

Mr. R. O. McCulloch of Galt was elected Chairman. The discussion regarding coal freight rates showed that Brantford seems to be favored above all other places, its rate being 70 cents per 2,240 pounds in both hard and soft coal, and 62 cents for 2,000 pounds. Galt, Guelph, Berlin, Waterloo and Preston pay $1 a ton of 2,000 pounds on hard and 90 cents a ton on soft coal. It was shown that places like Windsor and London, where the haul is much greater, get a lower rate. The former place pays 70 cents per ton on soft coal, 2,240 pounds, and the latter 90 cents. A resolution was unanimously passed urging the Boards of Trade of western Ontario to take steps to obtain revision of the freight tariff so as to secure for Galt, Guelph, Berlin, Stratford, Waterloo and intervening points, which are discriminated against, a uniform rate of 80 cents per ton on 2,000 pounds for both anthracite and bituminous coal.

The conference discussed the present train service on the main line of the Grand Trunk, when Guelph, Berlin and Stratford delegates put on record their opinion that the time had arrived for this company to reorganize its service by placing earlier and faster trains on the main line. A resolution making the following suggestions was unanimously passed:—

(1) A fast mail and passenger train to leave Toronto at 7 40 a.m., carrying eastern mail, and giving connection with Lehigh Valley express at London or the Tunnel.

(2) A fast mail and passenger train leaving Stratford at about 8 o'clock a.m., reaching Toronto at 10.30.

(3) That the train now leaving Toronto at 5.25 p.m. be converted into a fast mail and passenger train to Stratford, to leave Toronto at 7 p.m., and the train now leaving at 4 p.m. to be continued through from Guelph to Stratford.

The conference decided that the only method of having these suggestions carried out was to interest General Manager Hays in the matter, and a deputation will be selected from the Boards of Trade and Town Councils of all the places interested to wait upon Mr. Hays in Montreal and submit the recommendation contained in the above resolution.

A resolution was passed authorizing Secretary Beam of the conference to forward a petition to Sir William Mulock, drawing his attention to the unsatisfactory condition of the mail service to and from the eastern States, and also the mail service from Montreal, the latter reaching Toronto at 7.15 and lying until 8.30.

The conference was very satisfactory and unanimous, and judging from the spirit of the meeting the towns in western Ontario are determined to have the best railway facilities possible and cheap coal freight rates. At the conclusion of the meeting the delegates were driven to the sugar refinery and other industries.

THE MANUFACTURERS.

A Private Interview with the Government.

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—Messrs. Robert Munro, Montreal; Frederic Nicholls and R. J. Young, Toronto, representing the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, waited upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. William Paterson. The interview was private, at the wish of the delegation, who asked that the matter should be treated as confidential. It is said, however, that the manufacturers wished to ascertain whether any tariff changes would be made at the coming session of Parliament, and, if so, what character they would assume. The manufacturers would then be in a position to formulate demands for readjustment in accordance with their wishes. Of course it was wholly out of the question for the Government to comply with the request, and the manufacturers will have to wait for the desired information until the budget is brought down. The deputation [illegible] discussed in a general way the necessity of protection, and to the statements a patient hearing was accorded. It is not known whether the manufacturers will now submit any applications for tariff changes to the Government. The difficulty seems to be that the manufacturers as a whole cannot find a basis for common action. What is one manufacturer's finished product is another man's raw material, and when consideration of the tariff is entered upon in detail differences of opinion develop, which tend to prevent unity of purpose. Moreover, a number of the manufacturers are said to hold the view that the tariff as at present framed is well adapted to the needs of the country.

GOLDSMITH MURDERED.

Coroner's Jury Says Romaine Did the Shooting.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—Isaac Walter Romaine, the colored stovepolisher, charged with the murder of Louis Goldsmith, sat in the dock at the Police Court yesterday for four hours and listened to witnesses relate to Coroner Arthur Jukes Johnson's jury the details of the shooting affray which occurred at 102-104 Victoria street last Friday night. The Crown did not put in evidence deceased's anti-mortem statement, nor was the prisoner placed on the stand. About midnight a verdict of murder was returned by the jury, who were less than half an hour considering the evidence.

Milly Goldsmith, wife of deceased, was the most important witness examined during the sitting. She told of the business relations existing between her husband and the prisoner. They were in partnership from January 1st last. Mrs. Goldsmith then related the circumstances leading up to the shooting. She was in the house about 11 o'clock, when Mrs. Lucy Jackson rapped at the door and was admitted. Romaine called Goldsmith, who in a few moments was heard to say, "I wish you would leave me alone, I have enough trouble on my mind." There was some more loud talking, and then the two men got into a struggle on the prisoner's cot. Mrs. Goldsmith went to the men, and her husband had a pair of shears, with the point away from the prisoner, who was lying down. Goldsmith, in response to her request, gave the shears to his wife and she laid them on the table. Almost immediately Romaine cried out, "If you don't let go I'll pull the trigger." The prisoner then had his hand near his hip pocket. Goldsmith did let go, and was about nine feet away when the first shot was fired. Getting frightened, he ran into his bedroom, put the lamp out and got behind a folding bed. Romaine followed up the attack and said to Mrs. Goldsmith, who was standing between the two men, "I'll shoot you to get at your husband." The woman stepped to one side, and then she heard two shots in rapid succession. Mrs. Goldsmith said that Romaine always carried a revolver to protect himself from a man who also lived on Victoria street, and who was known to be armed with a razor. The woman also explained to the jury that Romaine, just after the quarrel had begun, made use of the statement that he had just enough bullets to kill the bunch.

The evidence of Mrs. Goldsmith was corroborated by Mrs. Lucy Jackson, the other eye-witness of the shooting. When the two men were wrestling on the cot Romaine said, "Louis, let me up." Goldsmith replied, "I won't," and the prisoner said, "Give your wife the shears and I'll call it square."

The jury's verdict is as follows:—"We find that Louis Goldsmith came to his death in the City of Toronto on the 9th day of February, 1903, from bullet wounds, inflicted on the 6th day of February by one Isaac Walter Romaine, and that the said Isaac Walter Romaine did unlawfully kill and murder the aforesaid Louis Goldsmith."

OAKVILLE'S LOSS OVER $8,000.

Deficit of the Late Town Treasurer Howarth.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—A report has been received by Mr. J. B. Laing, Provincial Municipal Auditor, from Mr. T. G. Williamson, who has completed an audit of the books of the late Treasurer of Oakville, Thomas Howarth, who took his own life a couple of months ago. The report shows that Howarth owed the town at the time of his death $7,848.40, to which must be added $206.25, deposited in the Anderson Bank after his suicide and there lost, making in all $8,054.65. During the weeks immediately preceding his death Howarth received $8,785 from the tax collectors and deposited it in the Ontario Bank in Toronto, under the firm name of Andrew & Howarth, who subsequently assigned.

Mr. Williamson says that the result of the examination does not disclose anything to warrant such a desperate act as suicide. The condition of the cash books and accounts, he says, might reasonably be held to indicate that he had suffered from worry, as he had not entered anything since August 1st last. The auditor suggests the issue of $11,000 new debentures to supply immediate needs, which would bring the total bonded debt of the town up to $38,500, which he does not think is out of proportion to the status of the town.

Sentence on Anarchist Who Tried to Kill King Leopold.

Brussels, Feb. 11.—Gennaro Rubino, the Italian Anarchist, who has been on trial here since Feb. 6, charged with attempting to assassinate King Leopold, November 15, by firing three shots at his Majesty while the latter was returning from the cathedral after attending a Te Deum in memory of the late Queen Henriettta, was found guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment for life at penal servitude.

ALLEGED KIDNAPPING.

Embezzler Waters Shipped to the Philippines.

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 11.—Unable to extradite Alex. W. Waters (alias W. Wilson), who is wanted at Manila on the charge of embezzling $8,000 belonging to the Coast Guard and Transportation Department, and who was arrested at Montreal some days ago, United States Special Agents D. R. Dwyer and C. E. Herron kidnapped him on board the Oriental Liner Athenian, which sailed from here yesterday.

Waters decamped with $8,000, though his defalcations are said to be most extensive, and went to Hong Kong, where he took passage on the Shinano Maru, left the steamer at Moji and entrained for Yokohama, whence he came to Victoria on the Athenian. The detectives missed him [illegible], owing to the description being faulty, but, learning that he had telegraphed to a sister at Montreal, they telegraphed to the police to hold him there.

He was brought up in a Montreal police court and waived extradition. He did not know that he could not be extradited, that United States or Canada had no extradition treaty with the Philippines, and that, on this being shown at Washington, a treaty was prepared, and was to have been signed to-day by President Roosevelt. However, in order to avoid legal proceedings, Waters was held closely by the detectives and allowed to see no lawyers. He was quietly hurried to Washington, and thence to Chicago and St. Paul to Seattle, where he was placed in jail for the night and brought to Victoria this afternoon, he being told that he would be able to catch the San Francisco-bound steamer Senator and get to San Francisco. Instead of the Senator, he found the steamer he arrived on at the dock, and was quickly hustled on board by the officers and held fast until the steamer pulled out.

Papers on Canada.

London, Feb. 11.—The Countess of Aberdeen read an animated and entertaining paper yesterday on "The Women of Canada" before the National Section of the Society of Arts, paying a high tribute to their homely virtues and intellectual resources. She began with glimpses of the romantic history of the foundation of Quebec and Montreal, read letters from women living in the loneliness of the Northwest Territories, referred to the activities of the Federation of Women of the Dominion, and described their efficiency in the household, in society, on School Boards, in missionary work, and in the hospitals. Leonard Courtney divided his compliments between the French-Canadians and the Scotch, Commissioner Preston proclaimed the progress of the emigration movement, and Mrs. Bonner made a lively address, with comical allusions to divorce and woman suffrage, and a warm eulogy of the Countess of Aberdeen's work in Canada.

Complaint Against a Broker.

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—Commissioner Sherwood of the Dominion Police has been asked to investigate broker with respect to policies upon the lives of Canadians who died in South Africa. Several communications have been received at the Militia Department, drawing attention to the letters bearing the signature of the gentleman in question, in which the next of kind of deceased Canadians were told that there was reason to believe the son or mother or nephew, as the case may be, was insured for $1,000, and that in return for one-third of this sum, or $333, the balance of $666 remaining would be paid over to the person entitled to receive it. In some cases, it is said, a bargain to this effect was actually made.

Floods Coming.

Morrissey, B.C., Feb. 10.—It is becoming more apparent each week that the breaking up of winter this year will bring unprecedented floods, and this will mean disaster all along the Crow's Nest branch. The company is doing all in its power to prepare for the contingency when it may arise, but human power cannot cope with the force of mountain floods.

Consumption is Like a Plant.

No matter how much corn falls on a bare rock, it wont grow there. Neither will consumption germs grow in perfectly healthy lungs. But if the lungs become weak and inflamed they are good soil for consumption germs, and if these enter they may take root and grow.

There is no medicine that will directly weed them out. The thing to do is to make the lungs so healthy that the germs will have to stop growing because there is nothing for them to thrive on.

The lungs must be nourished with plenty of good blood, kept pure by breathing pure air. There must be more sleep; less work and worry. Perhaps some medicine. The doctor will know.

The most important thing is nourishment. When the body is weakened by consumption, the digestive powers cannot obtain from ordinary food enough of the elements needed to make good blood. The lack is best supplied by the use of Scott's Emulsion. It is extremely rich in the substances which make good blood, and it also helps the digestion to obtain nourishment from ordinary food.

Scott's Emulsion is a food-medicine; not a stimulant; not a mere "extract" or so-called "wine" of cod liver oil. It contains the whole oil perfectly emulsified, which is the only way of preserving its valuable properties. These are united with hypophosphites of lime and soda into a combination which rapidly builds healty tissue throughout the whole body, and particularly in the lungs.

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? LOSSES BY THE FIRE—RESPECTED RESIDENT DEAD.

Trenton, Feb. 10.

It is estimated that the losses sustained by the fire on Sunday morning, which partially destroyed the Hawley block, were about $20,000. All who suffered were more or less insured.

The funeral of the late Mr. Robt. Sanson took place this afternoon and was very largely attended. The members of the Masonic Order and I.O.O.F., of which the deceased was a member, turned out in large numbers.

Death has been very busy of late in our midst, and to-day another well known Trentonian passed away in the person of Mr. Alphonso Parent, who was for some years proprietor of the Central Hotel. Deceased had been ill for some time. He had been for many years a resident of the town and was once a member of the Town Council. He was a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

THE SWISS BELL RINGERS.

The Eckardt family of Swiss Bell Ringers gave an entertainment in the Bleecker St. Methodist Church last night, and delighted the large audience present. The family gave evidence of great skill and advancement in musical culture, and each of the six can swing the bells in a charming and graceful way. The trick violin playing was also melodious and worthy of comment. The musical glasses, also, were productive of sweet music. Mr. Eckardt's lecture was highly instructive, he explaining the system by which the bells were rung, etc. Master Burnard's songs were pleasingly rendered, and the entertainment as a whole was a musical treat, which could hardly fail to be an inspiration to those who heard it.

Mr. Jack Henderson

Theatre-goers will have next Tuesday, Feb. 17, at the Carman Opera House, an opportunity of seeing the brilliant young comedian, Mr. Jack Henderson, who is one of America's most popular comedians, in the latest and greatest New York sensation "El Capitan," which is one of the best theatrical properties in America. It is proving a veritable gold mine to him, for the theatres everywhere have been filled to overflowing. The engagement of "El Capitan" in Toronto is a record breaker in point of receipts. The coming of "El Capitan" to Belleville has been a long looked-for event, and no doubt will be received here as it has everywhere, by a packed house. Mr. Jack Henderson is a Belleville boy and there is no doubt he will get a warm welcome here.—Adv.1t

Assay Office Notes

The laboratory report of the work done at the assay office, which is conducted by the Bureau of Mines as an aid to prospectors and the development of mineral lands, shows a total of 359 samples received for examination during the last quarter of 1902.

The assays and analytical determinations aggregated 636, each checked off by a duplicate to avoid error in issuing certificates. Of these 215 were for gold, 81 for silver, 6 for platinum, 23 copper, 9 nickle, 10 zinc, etc.

The Bureau of Mines required 111 determinations on which no fees were collected; while 525 were done for the public, on which $346.05 in fees were collected, the custom work for the public being done at cost.

63 samples were received for identification and report as to probable commercial value, on which fees amounting to $13.50 were collected. 14 samples of limestones and clays were examined as to suitability for the manufacture of cement.

17 samples of iron ore were received for partial analysis as to smelting qualities. Several of these were titaniferous ores from North Hastings. The smelting of titaniferous ores has received some attention in recent discussions in The Mining and Engineering Journal, which tend to show that these ores can be used successfully in furnace operations.

10 samples of raw and briquetted peat, from various parts of Ontario, were analyzed as to quality for the manufacture of peat fuel.

Most of the gold ore samples were sent in from the Rainy River District, where there is renewed activity in prospecting and mining for this metal.

SILICATE BRICK

Public Notice is given that I have acquired the exclusive right to manufacture and sell, within the Province of Ontario, Silicate Brick, made out of sand, lime and other materials, mixed and treated under the invention and process of O. MR. HOWEY ADVISES CHEESE MAKERS TO TAKE A COURSE AT THE DAIRY SCHOOL.

Instructor Howey, of Belleville, presented the following report at the Dairymen's convention held at Ottawa last month:

I take pleasure in presenting to you my eighth annual report as instructor at cheese factories for the Dairymen's Association of Eastern Ontario.

The district assigned to me was in former years, namely, part of East, West and North Hastings, Prince Edward, and part of Northumberland Counties. This is called the Belleville section and is, I believe, one of the oldest dairy sections in Canada. The first cheese factory was built in 1867, and the first cheese board inaugurated in 1882.

I commenced my duties on the 3rd of May, and completed my work on December 15th.

I received application from 66 factories for instruction and inspection and have classed them as follows: 10 as first class; 17 as second class; 32 as third class, and 7 as totally unfit for the manufacture of first-class cheese.

Regarding the cheese-makers, I can assure you we have a large number of first-class men in my section, but why we have some of those careless, indifferent fellows that go about their work dressed in an untidy manner is a mystery to me, and they are sometimes bold enough to refuse milk not in a proper condition for the manufacture of first-class cheese, but I believe their time is limited.

Only one of the factories that I visit pays by quality, and you will all agree with me that this is the right and proper way.

Regarding the disposal of whey, 57 of the number of factories visited returns the whey home in the milk cans, the balance is fed at the factory.

The water supply for three of these factories for washing utensils, was very impure, caused by bad floors and improper drainage.

In all cases where I found defects such as bad water, poor whey tanks, and bad drainage, I called upon the directors and in every case but one, they were set right.

This was a factory owned by a private individual. I called on the owner, and he stated he had not the time to remedy this year, but would see that everything was in good running order another year. After our conversation, I called on the cheese-maker, and he stated that he would notify the manufacturer in writing that he would not under these conditions be responsible for the quality of the cheese. This, I believe, brought the remedy.

The improper washing of milk cans gave me more trouble this year than all the deteriorated milk that I found. There are a number of patrons that are very careless and indifferent in this matter.

The quality of the milk and cheese was far superior the past season than any previous year, no doubt the favorable season had a great deal to do with it.

I examined all milk delivered with the Lactometer and all suspicious samples with the Babcock test, and found fifteen patrons that were deteriorating their milk. Eleven of these paid fines to the factory to the amount of $252, the remainder settled with the officers of the factories. The amount contributed for my services from factorymen was $403.00, making a total to the Association of $529.00.

In conclusion, I am grateful to all those who have assisted me in the work, but before concluding my report, I strongly advise all cheesemakers to take a course at the dairy school, also join the dairy association, attend all conventions, and profit by whatever suggestions may be offered.

Notes.

Mr. R. G. Murphy, secretary of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association, has issued a number of circulars giving instructions to cheese manufacturers who intend employing instructors for the coming season.

The circular is in part as follows:

First—Every instructor appointed is to have charge of only twenty-five or thirty factories. Thus limiting the number he will be able to visit every factory about once every two weeks during the entire season. The instructors will, as far as possible, act as milk instructors.

Second—No factory will receive instructions of any kind unless it contributes $15 to the association. There is to be no free visiting or inspecting this year. If you come into the syndicate you must put up $15.

Third—The instructors are to be engaged by a committee of the association. Every man so appointed is to be approved by General Instructor Publow. The committee will meet at the department, Toronto, in a short time to make the appointments, and in selecting will, as far as possible, meet the wishes of the various sections. You may depend upon it that only good, reliable men will be engaged.

Fourth—The association has arranged with Superintendent Hart of the Kingston Dairy School, for a short special course for the instructors under Mr. Publow before beginning the season's work. No instructor will be appointed unless he agrees to take this course. This will tend to provide uniformity of instruction.

If you wish to come into this work, to be one of a syndicate, it will be necessary to write to the secretary not later than the 15th day of February. We may not be able to cover the whole of Eastern Ontario, but we propose to do thoroughly and satisfactorily whatever we undertake. It will pay you to come in, but to get in and have a share in this, you should decide and write at once.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

It was a skilful hand which swept the keys that night, for Katy played with her whole soul—not the voluntary there before her in printed form, nor any one thing she had ever heard, but taking parts of many things, and mingling them with strains of her own improvising, she filled the house as it had never been filled before, playing a soft, sweet refrain when she thought of Helen, then bursting into louder, fuller tones when she remembered Bethlehem's Child, and the song the angels sang, and then as she recalled her own sad life since she knelt at the altar a happy bride, the organ notes seemed much like human sobs, now rising to a stormy pitch of passion, wild and uncontrolled, and then dying out as dies the summer wind after a fearful storm. Awed and wonder-struck the organboy looked at Katy as she played, almost forgetting his part of the performance in his amazement, and saying to himself, when she had finished:

"Guy, ain't she a brick?" and whispering to her, "Didn't we go that strong?"

The people had wondered where Helen was, as, without the aid of music, Katy led the children in their carols, and this wonder increased when it was whispered round that "Miss Lennox had come, and was standing with a man back by the register."

After this Aunt Betsy grew very calm, and could enjoy the distributing of the gifts, going up herself two or three times, and wondering why anybody should think of her, a good-for-nothing old woman. The skates and the smelling bottle both went safely to Sylvia and John while Mrs. Deacon Bannister looked radiant when her name was called, and she was made the recipient of a jar of butternut pickles such as only Aunt Betsy Barlow could make."

"Miss Helen Lennox. A soldier in uniform from one of her Sunday school scholars.

the words rang out loud and clear, as the rector held up the sugar toy before the amused audience, who turned to look at Helen, blushing so painfully, and trying to hold back the man in a soldier's dress who went quietly up the aisle, receiving the gift with a bow and smile which turned the heads of half the ladies near him, and then went back to Helen, to whom he whispered something which made her cheeks grow brighter than they were before, while she dropped her eyes modestly.

"Who is he?" a woman asked., touching Aunt Betsy's shoulder.

"Captain Ray, from New York," was the answer, as Aunt Betsy gave to her dress a little broader sweep, and smoothed the bow she had tried to tie beneath her chin, just as Mattie Tubbs had tied it on that memorable opera night

It was not in Aunt Betsy's nature to keep her secret till this time, and as the exercises were about to close, she whispered it to her neighbor, who whispered it to hers, who whispered it to hers, until nearly all the audience knew of it, and kept their seats after the benediction was pronounced.

At a sign from the Rector, Katy went with her mother to the altar, followed by Uncle Ephraim, his wife, and Aunt Betsy, while Helen, throwing off the cloud she had worn upon her head, and giving it, with her cloak and fur, into Billy's charge, took Mark's arm, and with beating heart and burning cheeks, passed between the sea of eyes, fixed so curiously upon her, up to where Katy once stood on the June morning, when she had been the bride. Not now, as then, were aching hearts present at the bridal. No Marian Hazelton fainted by the door; no Morris felt the world grow dark and desolate as the marriage vows were spoken, and no sister doubted if it were all right, and would end in happiness.

The ceremony lasted but a few moments, and then the astonished audience pressed around the bride, offering their kindly congratulations, and proving to Mark that the bride he had won was dear to others as well as to himself. Lovingly he drew her hand beneath his arm, fondly he looked down upon her as he led her back to the chair by the register, making her sit down while he tied on her cloak, and adjusted her fur about her neck.

"Hardy and gentle as a woman," was the verdict pronounced upon him by the female portion of the congregation, as they passed out into the street, talking of the ceremony, and contrasting Helen's husband with the haughty Wilford who was not a favorite with them.

Four hours he had to stay, and they were spent in talking of himself, of Wilford, and of Morris, and in planning Helen's future. Of course she would spend a portion of her time at the farm-house, he said: but his mother had a claim upon her, and it was his wish that she should be in New York as much as possible.

Swiftly the last moments went by, and a "Merry Christmas" was said by one and another as they took their seats at the plentiful repast Aunt Betsy had provided, Mark feasting more on Helen's face than on the viands spread before him. It was hard for him to leave her; hard for her to let him go, but the duty was imperative, and so when at last the frosty air grew keener as the small hours of night crept on, he stood with his arms about her, nor thought it unworthy of a soldier that his own tears mingled with hers, as he bade her good-bye, kissing her again and again, and calling her his precious wife, whose memory would make his camp life brighter, and shorten the days of absence. There was no one with them, when at last Mark's horse dashed from the yard over the creaking snow, leaving Helen alone on the doorstep, with the glittering stars shining above her head, and her husband's farewell kiss upon her lips.

"When shall we meet again?" she sobbed, gazing up at the clear blue sky, as if to find the answer there.

But only the December wind sweeping down from the steep hillside, and blowing across her forehead made reply to that questioning, as she waited till the last faint sound of Mark Ray's bells died away in the distance, and then, shivering with cold, re-entered the farm-house.

CHAPTER XLII.

Merrily rang the bells next day, Helen's heart was very sad as she met the smiling faces of her friends, and Mark had never been prayed for more earnestly than on that Christmas morning, when Helen knelt at the altar rail, and received the sacred symbols of a Saviour's dying love, asking that God would keep the soldier husband, hastening on to New York, and from thence to Washington.

"Married.—On Christmas Eve., at St. John's Church, Silverton, Mass., by the Rev. Mr. Kelly, Capt. Mark Ray, of the —th Regiment, N.Y.S. Vols., to Miss Helen Lennox, of Silverton."

Such was the announcement which appeared in several of the New York papers two days after Christmas, and such the announcement which Bell Cameron read at the breakfast table on the morning of the day when Mrs. Banker started for Silverton.

"Here is something which will perhaps interest you," she said, passing the paper to Juno, who had come down late, and was looking cross and jaded from the effects of last night's dissipation.

Taking the paper from her sister's hand, Juno glanced at the paragraph indicated by Bell; then, as she caught Mark's name, she glanced again with a startled, incredulous look, her cheeks and lips turning white as she read that Mark Ray was lost to her forever, and that in spite of the stolen letter Helen Lennox was his wife.

"What is it, Juno?" Mrs. Cameron asked, noticing Juno's agitation.

Juno told her what it was, and then handing her the paper let her read it for herself.

"Impossible! there is some mistake! How was it brought about?" Mrs. Cameron said, darting a curious glance at Bell, whose face betrayed nothing, as she leisurely sipped her coffee and remarked: "I always thought it would come to this, for I knew he liked her. It is a splendid match."

Whatever Juno thought she kept it to herself, just as she kept her room the entire day, complaining of a racking headache, and ordering the curtains to be dropped, as the light hurt her eyes, she said to Bell, who, really pitying her now, never suggested that the darkened room was more to hide her tears than to save her eyes, and who sent away all callers with the message that Juno was sick—all but Sybil Grandon, who insisted so hard upon seeing her dear friend that she was admitted to Juno's room, talking at once of the wedding, and making every one of Juno's nerves quiver with pain as she descanted upon the splendid match it was for Helen, or indeed for any girl.

"I had given you to him," she said, "but I see I was mistaken. It was Helen he preferred, unless you jilted him, as perhaps you did."

Here was a temptation Juno could not resist, and she replied haughtily:

"I am not one to boast of conquests, but ask Captain Ray himself why I did not marry him."

Sybil Grandon was not deceived, but she good-naturedly suffered the young lady to hope she was, and answering haughtily: "I can't say I honor your judgment in refusing him, but you know best. However, I trust that will not prevent your friendly advances towards his bride. Mrs. Banker has gone after her, I understand, and I want you to call with me as soon as convenient. Mrs. Mark Ray will be the belle of the season, depend upon it," and gathering up her furs Mrs. Grandon kissed Juno affectionately and then left the room.

The Camerons and Sybil Grandon were not alone in calling upon the bride. Those who had liked Helen Lennox did not find her less desirable now that she was Helen Ray, and numberless were the attentions bestowed upon her and the invitations she received.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia. (Signed),

TIMELY TOPICS

"I notice," said a gentleman, "that the local Grits held a meeting one day last week and elected a new set of officers for the coming year. What is their idea in doing that? They stand no more chance of electing a candidate in West Hastings than they do of transforming their organ into an honest journal, yet they meet and elect officers and pass resolutions for all the world like the nine tailors of Tooley street. Queer people, the Grits."

If the gentleman quoted above is as green as his remarks would make him appear he had better build a barbed wire fence around himself next summer, or the cows will surely eat him. Bless your innocent heart, the Grits have no more idea of electing a candidate in West Hastings than Mrs. Lydia Pinkham has of growing side whiskers. Nine out of every ten who attend their meetings are looking for Government jobs for either themselves or their relatives. When election time comes round they lie awake nights devising schemes, not to elect but to bleed their candidate, who himself coughs up his money in the hope of one day getting a fat office and being able to superintend the distribution of the "patronage." Patriotism and patronage are synonymous terms with the Grits.

An enterprising town up west circulates a very neat card which reads thus: "Do you know that the Town of —— sells electric energy at $16 a horse power per annum; 24 hours to the day. Light and Water proportionately cheap." We do not know that the town in question has all that it claims, but we do know that until Belleville makes some move towards getting cheaper power it can hardly hope to induce industries to settle here. Talk is cheap, but electric energy at $16 a horse power is cheaper. If our people chatted less about our beautiful bay and city and set themselves to conserve the water power in the Moira they would be doing something practical. Other places sell power, light and water cheap. Belleville has in the past had nothing to offer but wind, yet some people wonder why we haven't kept up with the industrial procession, and the same people who do the wondering button up their pockets when asked to take a little stock in a local industry which would be a sure winner if people would support it as they ought. Climb down off your beautiful scenery perch, gentlemen, and look after the practical things of every day life, that's the way to make a town grow.

On the 9th inst. Mr. Tarte editorially wrote of the candidate selected by the Conservatives to contest the County of Terrebonne, in the following strain: "Henri Masson has not played a political role up to the present time, but if his fellow-citizens place their country's mandate in his hands, he will only have to follow the steps traced out for him by one whose name he bears in order to walk in the path of honor."

Mr. Henri Masson is the son of Senator Masson, who for many years represented the County of Terrebonne in the House of Commons, and was Minister of Militia in the Sir John A. Macdonald Cabinet. If, as Mr. Tarte points out, the son "only follows the steps "traced for him by one whose "name he bears, he will walk in "the path of honor." Capital punishment seems to be in favor with the Grit organ in Nova Scotia. The Minister of Justice, having commuted the death sentences of Higgins, of St. John, and Cook, of Halifax, the Chronicle states that if the life of the Syrian pedlar, who committed murder in Hants, had been spared, "it would have been tantamount to a declaration that capital punishment was abolished." And then it declares that "at the "present time we are in need of "an execution in the Maritime Provinces." The best thing the Chronicle can do is assist in decapitating the political heads of the Grit party in that province. Such an "execution in the Maritime Provinces" would be a marvellously beneficial thing for the Dominion. Much more so than the hanging of an unfortunate Mohammedan.

In a letter to The Times Rear Admiral Cochrane gives a sensational account of the "ragging" of young officers of the Grenadier Guards.

Mr. John K. Galbraith of Bowmanville has resigned from the Town Council, having been elected at an evening meeting, which is said to be illegal.

ONLY A SUGGESTION

BUT IT HAS PROVEN OF INTEREST AND VALUE TO THOUSANDS.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest and that food should be albuminous or flesh-forming food, like eggs, beefsteak and cereals; in other words the kinds of food that make flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bill of fare.

But the trouble is that while we eat enough and generally too much, the stomach, from abuse and overwork, does not properly digest and assimilate it, which is the reason so many people remain thin and under weight; the digestive organs do not completely digest the flesh forming beefsteak and eggs and similar wholesome food.

There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs.

If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice of taking, after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain the natural peptones and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to regain its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of flesh-forming food, meat, eggs, bread and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up, strengthen and invigorate thin, dyspeptic men, women and children.

Invalids and children, even the most delicate, use them with marked benefit as they contain no strong, irritating drugs, no cathartic nor any harmful ingredient.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most successful and most widely known of any remedy for stomach troubles because it is the most reasonable and scientific of modern medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by every druggist in the United States and Canada as well as in Great Britain, at 50 cents for complete treatment.

Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make thin, nervous dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

A FIENDISH CRIME.

A YOUNG GIRL'S EVIDENCE AGAINST HER MOTHER.

The Woman Shot Her Husband, Cut the Body Into Pieces and Burned Them.

Monticello, N.Y., Feb. 11.—The hearing in the Taylor murder case was begun in the Monticello court house. Mrs. Kate Taylor is charged with having murdered her husband, Lafayette Taylor, at their farm house near Centreville station, Sullivan County, on the night of January 27. The crime was discovered through a remark of Mrs. Taylor that she had put her husband out of the way. She was arrested and brought to the Monticello jail on Sunday night. A fourteen-year-old daughter, Ida May Dekay, by Mrs. Taylor's first husband, was the only witness of the crime. She was arrested and brought to Monticello. The only witness examined was the daughter. She testified that her stepfather came home drunk, and that she retired while he and her mother were quarrelling. A short time after she heard a shot, and, running into the kitchen, saw Taylor lying on the floor, and saw her mother shoot him again. Mrs. Taylor then seized an axe and cut off his head and right arm, both of which she placed in the stove. The remainder of the body was cut in four pieces and put in a sack in the pantry, and during the two succeeding days parts of the body were burned until it was all consumed. The clothing was placed in a wash tub and later burned. The tub, which became stained from the clothes, was scraped and burned on the inside with kerosene to remove the stains, and places on the wall, which had been stained when the body was being chopped up, were repapered. The axe handle was afterwards burned.

The daughter is attractive and intelligent looking. During her daughter's recital of the story Mrs. Taylor showed no sign of nervousness. The hearing was adjourned until Wednesday, when Mrs. Taylor will be examined.

ATTACKING THE UNION.

Argument of Counsel Before Strike Commission.

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—The United Mine Workers of America as an organization was severely scored by counsel before the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission. The non-union men, through their attorney, John T. Lenahan, presented their side of the controversy, and demanded consideration at the hands of the commission, claiming the legal right to earn a livelihood as they might elect, without the consent or dictation of the union. During his presentation of the case Mr. Lenahan denounced the union as a fomentor of crime and anarchy. The main feature of his argument was the claim that the union had no legal or moral right to coerce miners into membership or to arrogate to itself the authority to fix the wages of mine-workers.

James H. Torrey, counsel for the Delaware & Hudson Company, claimed that the question of recognition of the union was not an issue before the commission, but he devoted considerable time to the consideration of that demand. He asserted that violence and intimidation were agencies selected for the promotion of the purposes of the mine workers. Regarding the demand for an eight-hour working day, Mr. Torrey said that evidence showed that for various reasons the breakers did not average more than eight hours a day, so that the physical effects of long hours were not felt.

Major Everett Warren of Scranton, counsel for the Pennsylvania Coal Company and the Hillside Coal & Iron Company, who followed, concluded by saying:—"Whatever may be the motive on the part of the union, the evidence is overwhelming that the result is a restriction on the part of the industrious miner, limiting the amount of work and the consequent wages, shrivelling his powers and reducing him to the dead level of his lazy and indifferent associate. This cannot be blotted from the record. Socialism proposes to establish an equality among unequal men by reducing them to the dead level of this possible majority. Instead of allowing everyone to determine for himself what he wants to do, it is to be done for him.

A Thackeray Letter.

An amusing rhymed letter from Thackeray to Miss Kate Perry and her sister Mrs. Elliot (Jane Perry), is included in a set of manuscripts to be sold at Sotheby's in London this month. It runs as follows:

"Well, I thought as sure as sure could be, should find a letter from kind J. E. Pray, why doesn't she write to me? I'd like to know, and if not she, where's her sister, Miss K. P.? One or other is surely free to send a line to double you tea. What is the reason? I have often said Are Kate and Jane both ill in bed? Is that little shivering greyhound dead? or has anything possibly happened to Fred? or have they taken a friend instead, of that old fellow they've often fed (along with Venables, Clem, and Sped) with a broken nose and a snowy head? Tell me, how shall the riddle be read?"

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 10.

Toronto St. Lawrence Markets.

Business on the street was quite lively today, but in the new market building things were rather quiet. Produce receipts were fairly large, the grain on the market amounting to 2,500 bushels.

Wheat—White wheat is 1c easier, while red shows a steady market; 200 bushels of white and 500 of red sold at 72½c per bushel. Goose is about steady at 68c, 500 bushels selling at that figure.

Barley—The market is slightly easier on the poorer grades; 800 bushels sold at 47½c to 50c per bushel.

Oats—Continue steady; 500 bushels sold unchanged at 36c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Quotations show a decline of about 20c to 25c per cwt. To-day's receipts were fairly liberal, and this, together with the decline in the prices of live stock, is responsible for the drop. Choice light weight butcher hogs are quoted at $7.85 to $8.25 per cwt and heavies at $7.50 to $7.75.

Butter—Business was rather quiet, not many farmers being at the stalls. Prices are easier at 18c to 20c per lb for pound rolls and 16c to 18c for large.

Eggs—The market is about steady, with not much new laid stock coming forward. Quotations for both new laid and held stock are unchanged.

Hay—About 30 loads were on the market. Prices for No. 1 timothy are firmer at $12 to $13 per ton, and mixed or clover is higher at $5 to $10.

Straw—One load only was offered, and quotations are a little easier at $9 to $10 per ton.

Toronto Live Stock.

Trade at the Toronto Cattle Market today was rather quiet, with the movement in the principal lines of cattle only fair. The run of stock was light, but of fairly good quality. The receipts amounted to 53 cars, including 970 cattle, 670 sheep and lambs, [illegible] hogs and 14 calves.

Export Cattle—Trade in this line of cattle was rather dull, there being very little stock on the market and a demand more or less limited. A feature of the market was the presence of about 20 loads of cattle from Chicago, waiting to be shipped through to the coast, whence they will be sent on to England. These cattle are bought in Chicago much cheaper than they can be bought here, for which state of affairs dealers give but one reason. The corn crop in the northern States has turned out unfit for export, and is being fed to the cattle, with the result that the latter are easier finished, better nurtured and more plentiful than Canadian cattle, or even than United States cattle were last year. The dealers say that the cattle there for which 7½c per lb was paid a year ago can now be bought for 4½c, and that they are cheaper and of better quality than Canadian stock.

Local prices to-day showed an easier feeling, but there was no quotable change. About $4.50 to $4.75 was paid for the best stock on the market, while extra choice picked stock might bring a little more.

Butcher Cattle—Market conditions were about the same as those of last week. The run of stock was not large, although ample enough to fill the fairly good demand evident. Prices were unchanged, with a firm feeling which, however, would be dissipated by a large run of offerings. The best stock on the market brought about $4.40 per cwt. There was no very fine stuff offering and quotations are unchanged.

Milch Cows—There is a very fair demand for good stock. About 15 cows were offered to-day and all sold readily at prices ranging from $25 to $52 each.

Stockers and Feeders—The demand for good animals still continues and prices are about steady. To-day's offerings were a little heavier and of fairly good quality. About 4c per lb was paid for the best on the market.

Sheep and Lambs—The market is about steady at quoted prices, and prospects are for continued steadiness in the market. Trade was good and everything sold fairly early.

Calves—The demand for veal calves continues fair and prices are steady and unchanged.

Hogs—Trade is dull and a drop of about 10c per cwt is noted on all lines. Prospects are for a dull market, with possibly still lower prices.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 10.—Cattle—Receipts, 225 head; steady; veals steady; tops, $9.25 to $9.75; common to good, $5.50 to $9. Vertigo or Dizziness

Accompanied by sick, nervous headache, irritability, nervous exhaustion, stomach troubles and sleeplessness is the forerunner of

PARALYSIS, EPILEPSY AND INSANITY

No ailments are so horrible to contemplate and none cause such misery as those which end in Mental and Physical Helplessness.

Suddenly the victim of vertigo is thrown to the ground as though struck with a blow, and though not unconscious he is unable to help himself. He may have been warned by confusion of vision and thoughts and by the sight of objects apparently moving around him, by sparks before the eyes or a rising and falling motion like the swell of the ocean; he may have been subject to indigestion, liver disorders, constipation, pain or oppression after meals, nausea, heartburn, belching of wind, nervousness, headache and sleeplessness, but the first stroke of vertigo or dizziness may come on him unexpectedly at his work or on the street.

As the sufferer from vertigo or dizzy spells comes to realize that his trouble is likely to end in paralysis, locomotor ataxia, epilepsy, insanity or some dreadful form of helplessness he becomes morose, irritable, suspicious and melancholy and it is only with patient and persistent treatment that he is restored.

As the direct cause of vertigo and the accompanying symptoms is an exhausted and depleted condition of the brain and nerve cells, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is by far the most satisfactory treatment that can possibly be obtained. This statement is endorsed by scores and hundreds of people who have been cured by this great food cure.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Not only restores to the brain and nerves full control of the body and its various organs but also builds up flesh and tissue and instils new vigor and vitality into every nerve and every muscle. By weighing yourself while using it you can prove this beyond dispute. It creates new, rich blood and nerve cells and is bound to do you good. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. INDIAN SHOOTING CASE.

Two Detectives Have Gone to St. Regis Reserve.

Cornwall, Feb. 11.—Provincial Detective McCaskill of Montreal and Detective Giroux arrived in Cornwall yesterday and immediately proceeded to the St. Regis Indian reserve to try to effect the arrest of an Indian named John Sewatis, who, it is said, becoming jealous of his nephew, Jake Sewatis, shot the latter at a dance given by a red man named Cook in the Village of St. Regis a few weeks ago. The nephew and his uncle were both at the dance, and John is alleged to have pulled a revolver from his pocket and levelled it at the nephew. The young man immediately grappled with the uncle, and during the struggle the revolver was discharged and the ball passed through the young Indian's hand. The uncle immediately fled across the border to the American Village of Hogansburg. The matter was placed in the hands of the Indian agent here, Mr. G. T. Copeland, and was reported to the Indian Department at Ottawa, with the result that the detectives were placed on the case.

Mr. Rose Whalen, formerly of Winnipeg, has fallen heir to $200,000 by the death of his grandmother in Nova Scotia.

Mr. Michael McCarthy of St. Thomas, M.C.R. engineer, was struck by another engine while oiling his own and killed.

Montreal labor unions are in an active state, and it is expected that many demands for better pay will be made shortly.

Mr. T. L. Ross of London, Ont., aged eighty years, was thrown from his buggy and received injuries that may prove fatal.

At Constantinople two of the assassins of the Armenian Patriarch Ormanian were sentenced to death, and two others to life imprisonment.

A Canadian Nobleman.

The English papers contain particulars of one of the most remarkable cases of fraud that have occupied the time of the law courts for some years, and which has just been brought to an end at the Leeds Assizes, when James Albert Marson, a clerk, was convicted of obtaining £3,127 10s by false pretenses, and was sentenced to three years' penal servitude.

In 1898 there appeared in a weekly paper an article headed "The Coming Richest Man in the World." It described how a San Francisco multi-millionaire hermit willed all his possessions to his male successor, who would be found in England. Lawyers misapplied the vast estate and were imprisoned for the crime, and then the rightful heir was discovered and the hermit's mansion explored. Down a trap-door into a mysterious passage the way led to a large room lined with gold ingots, to another filled with bags of gold dust, and to a massive iron door which bore a warning that a person forcing it was liable to death. The door was opened by chemicals, the death-trap—a deep pit—was bridged, and further on was found a gold mine of countless worth.

The article went on to say that the heir was "still scratching with his pen, but shortly would enter upon a large estate in Devonshire which had "been secured for him by the Government," and that the Queen had "already intimated her intention of making him a peer of the realm as soon as the world was acquainted with the information."

The prospective Croesus was James Albert Marson, at that time earning 30s a week as a merchant's clerk in a Sheffield house. A tall, handsome, fairly-educated man, he found no difficulty in acting the part of the owner of millions. He showed to his friends copies of the will and documents purporting to entitle him to a fabulous yearly income, an estate in "Ontario, United States," half the size of Ireland, and vast quantities of diamonds and rubies.

He told them he was entitled to boundless wealth, signed letters "Albert, the future Lord Syerston" and "Marson, K. G.," wore a ring which he said had been sent as a token of good will by Lord Minto, the Governor-General of Canada, pretended to be purchasing a £12,000 steam yacht, and showed them a draft of £5,000,000 and a bill of exchange for £50,000,000, this money, according to his statement, having been forwarded by his Canadian agents. He retired from business, installed a telephone, a valet, a private secretary, bought horses, guns and fur-lined coats, and was attended by a retinue of favorites anxious to please. To some of them he promised "staff" appointments—the boots at the largest hotel in the city was to have the position of butler at £2,000 a year, and his doctor was to have £1,500.

All this meant money, and to keep off his creditors he borrowed on the strength of his "expectations." Sums from £5 to £250 were lent freely by his friends, who believed his promises implicitly. One man advanced as much as £3,120, another £420, and many lent smaller sums. The largest creditor, Mr. Thomas Eastwood of Chesterfield, once received from Marson cheques for £10,000 and £150,000, but he was asked to return them for "re-endorsement." Marson's accounts showed a deficiency of £5,307, and he had been living at the rate of £1,000 a year.

One of the most curious points about the story is the methods by which Marson duped Eastwood. On one occasion he wrote: "Rest assured that for every pound I have had from you the same will be repaid at the rate of £5,000 for every pound, and an annuity to each of your children of £10,000 to accumulate to their years of discretion."

Later, Marson wrote: "I have already signed half a million a year for your natural life, irrespective of your stipend, while in my service."

Marson lived in a house of which the rent was 6s per week, yet Eastwood believed him when he said that the Home Secretary and the Duke of Norfolk were coming to dine at his house.

The judge, in passing sentence, said prisoner had been convicted on clear evidence. Whatever the original story was, he took advantage of it and made untrue statements to Eastwood, who was a gentleman easily taken in.

Last Year's Violent Crimes.

The Chicago "Tribune" has again prepared a list of general statistics gleaned from the happenings of 1902 in Uncle Sam's country. Among these are crimes of violence, which embrace murders, suicides and lynchings. The figures, being compiled from the daily press, are not official, and probably not complete, since a number of occurrences in each class may easily have been missed. Sufficient, however, has been gathered to make an examination of it interesting.

The number of murders during the twelvemonth indicates a recurrence of the wave of homicidal tendencies which was prominent in the statistics between 1894 and 1897, and which receded after the latter year. There were nearly 1,000 more murders in 1902 than in 1901, when the number recorded was 7,852.

Last year there were also 1,000 more suicides than in the previous year, when 7,245 were reported. The pistol and the poison routes were chosen by two-thirds of those who sought a path to self-destruction, and carbolic acid was the favorite poison. Despondency, based on disappointment in love or domestic unhappiness, was the cause generally assigned. Only 67 suicides were ascribed to failures in business. It has generally been conceded by statisticians that the proportion of suicides as to sex is about four males to one female. Last year the figures formed a strong contrast with previous records. Three times as many women committed suicide as in 1901. The figures given are 5,032 males, 3,099 females. Lynchings show some sign of decreasing in number. In the Southern States there were 17 more legal executions and 21 fewer lynchings than in 1901. It is to be presumed that many of the negroes lawfully executed last year would have been lynched a few years ago in preference. The whole number of executions in 1902 were 144, as against 118 in the previous year, showing that punishment is keeping up with the increase in murders. Of the whole number of men hanged 88 were negroes.

Two Lion Stories.

Sir Charles Warren, in his recently published "On the Veldt in the Seventies," tells two capital lion stories that he heard while surveying between the Orange and Vaal rivers. "A man," he writes, "was driving in his bullock wagon one dark night along a road in the interior, where there were big game, but he was not fearsome, because he had several large, fierce dogs with him that barked at everything they met. On a sudden the oxen stopped, and, whip them as he would, they would not go on, but as the dogs did not bark, he did not think of danger. His native 'leader' called out that there was a mule lying in the road in front, and he went forward and saw what he thought was a strange ox lying in front of them. Getting angry at finding his way stopped, he rushed at the beast and gave it a good kick, shouting 'Foot sook!' (get away). Then arose a majestic animal, which slunk with a roar into the bush. It was a lion, just deliberating how he could make his spring upon one of the oxen, but the sudden onslaught of the man so disconcerted him that off he went. When the driver went back to his wagon he found all his brave dogs lying skulking under the wagon; they could not bark for fear. The moral of this story is to put a bold front on matters and dangers will flee away. I rather distrust this story," adds Sir Charles, "as improperly told. . . . Another version I have heard is that the driver did not go up and kick the lion, but gave it a good lash with his whip; that seems to me more probable."

The second story is as follows: "Some Korannas, when out hunting, came upon an elephant just as they were passing a lion's lair. The elephant, when he saw them, made after them, and they, in their alarm, ran close up to where the lion was, and he also was disturbed. Looking round they saw the lion running, also, but not after them; he was running with them, away from the elephant. After a time they all got into a narrow path, where there was little room, and by that time the Korannas had got so used to the lion that one of them was bold enough to give him a push, and say, 'Give me more room to run.'"

For the Farmer.

Sheep cannot be kept in damp locations without being liable to foot rot. Their quarters should be dry, but they will thrive in an open shed that faces the south.

Any farmer can try the experiment of inoculating the soil with the necessary bacteria for promoting the growth of a crop. Should the soil seem unadapted to clover it will be found of advantage to procure a few bushels of earth from a field upon which grew a luxuriant crop of clover, broadcasting the earth over the field and seeding to clover, the possibility being that a good stand of clover will be obtained.

All kinds of early crops that are to be grown from seed in the spring may be hastened by starting them in a hotbed. Some may then be transferred to cold frames, such as lettuce and cabbage. For the family garden such work will not be laborious if attention is now given the early crops. The advantages of having all kinds of vegetables early are that they will escape the dry season, to a certain extent, and may be followed by later crops. Peas may be seeded in the open ground quite early, if the ground is warm.

Yes and fine stationery at reasonable prices—right prices.

In addition to above, we have now two bargain tables of commercial and private stationery, and these tables are attracting a deal of attention.

You'll find there official envelopes worth 15c per package, regular now for 5c per package. You'll find 100 envelopes for 10c, and if you will take a thin envelope we can give you 100 for 5c—pretty cheap stationery, but who could sell stationery cheap if the big buyer, the specialist, could not?

Better stop in and have a peep at our bargain tables of fancy goods, or your friends will have the bargains.

Our Picture Framing trade goes merrily on—it has grown to manhood now, can support itself and three mechanics nicely. We certainly turn out satisfactory work—turn it out promptly and at prices pleasing to our customers, else they would not return with so many additional pictures for framing.

Decorating Paper Hanging Painting

In all its branches.

We have our own staff of paperhangers, the best workmen in the city, thus our customers have the triple alliance of the best to be had in Wall Papers, the best workmen to execute work and an experienced decorator to design and execute the work.

You would scarcely expect to build a new, modern house without consulting an architect and have him submit a design.

So it should be with decorating if of a pretentious order you should have a decorator, one who can give you drawings in color of your interiors that you can see it complete before it is commenced. We will do this for you and without extra cost.

Our Wall Papers are at least 25 per cent. below regular prices, as we furnish the boarders free—a yard of border with each roll of paper—without cost.

A Pretty Wedding

One of those common, yet very pleasant events that transpire in the form of weddings took place at the beautiful residence of Mr. Adam Rushnell on Wednesday, 4th of February, on lot 5 concession 3, Huntingdon, being the marriage of his third daughter, Lottie, to Mr. Frank Kellar, of the same township. The bride looked charming, being beautifully dressed in white organdie, and wore the bridal veil, with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Myrtle Wiggins, of Belleville, who was also dressed in white organdie, and carried a bouquet of red carnations. Little Miss Flossie Ashley, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. The groom was ably assisted by Mr. Fred Rushnell, brother of the bride. The bride entered the drawing-room leaning on the arm of her father, while Miss Ada Hagerman played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. M. Pope under an arch of evergreens, most artistically arranged. The gift of the groom to the bride was a valuable set of China dishes and to each of the waiters a costly gold pin. There were present one hundred and forty guests. After ceremony and congratulations were over, all sat down to a most elaborate and sumptuous repast, the tables groaning under good things. The esteem in which the young people were held was shown by the many valuable, costly and useful presents which they received. We noticed among the guests there were some from Toronto, Belleville, Tweed, Stirling, Madoc and Eldorado. We all join in wishing the young people every success and happiness through the journey of life.—Com.

CANCER OF THE BOWELS

Positively Cured by the Constitutional Treatment When Operations Are Impossible.

There is no form of Cancer where our treatment has been so successful as in cancer of the bowels and internal organs.

Even if it were conceded that operations were helpful in cancer, these cases, from the very nature of the location of the disease, usually render operation an utter impossibility.

Till the advent of our treatment persons suffering from internal cancers were given morphine to ease the pain until death ended their sufferings.

Now all that is changed. Our constitutional remedy gets at the cause of cancer—the cancer germs—destroys them, and completely cures the disease. Send Messrs. B. I. Stott & Jury, Bowmanville, Ont., 2 stamps for book on cancer and full particulars.

SPRINGBROOK.

At the annual meeting of the Conservative Association of Rawdon, Mr. T. C. McConnell was elected president for 1903. The choice was a wise one as Mr. McConnell is an energetic worker. It was a very enthusiastic meeting, the Association being much alive to the political situation.

The anniversary of the Methodist church tea meeting and social was held on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of Feb., with the usual success attending the gathering. Rev. Mr. Bamforth, of Rednersville, preached morning and evening on Sunday, and in the afternoon addressed a mass meeting of the Sunday School. The tea meeting on Monday evening was well attended in spite of the inclement weather, as also was the social on Tuesday evening. Proceeds amounted to over $112.00.

Rev. D. S. Houck assisted by Rev. J. W. Kidd, commenced revival services here on Sunday last.

HOW TO BEAUTIFY THE COMPLEXION.

To have a soft, smooth skin, free from eruptions and pimples, the blood must be healthy and pure. Ferrozone invigorates enfeebled blood, and cleanses it of all impurities and poisons; it brings color to the lips and cheeks, brilliancy to the eyes, whitens the teeth and sweetens the breath. No tonic compares with Ferrozone in rapid action and permanent results. Try it. Price 50c at druggists or J. S. McKeown's.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills cure Headache.

ONLY A SLIGHT COLD

YET IT MAY LEAD TO CONSUMPTION AND AN EARLY GRAVE.

If your blood is poor or watery, a touch of cold or influenza will settle in your lungs, and the slight cough of to-day may turn to the racking consumptive's cough of to-morrow.

Weak lungs are caused by weak blood; weak blood is an open invitation for consumption to lay upon you the hand of death.

Stop that cough by enriching your blood and strengthening your lungs with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They make new, rich, red blood. They add resisting power to the lungs. They have saved hundreds from a consumptive's grave. Here is a positive proof that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure where other medicines fail. Miss Katie Henry, Charlottetown, P.E.I., says:—"Some months ago I got caught in a rain storm, and the wetting was followed by a cold. At first I paid but little attention to it, but as the cold clung to me and finally developed into a hacking cough, I became alarmed and consulted a doctor who gave me a bottle of medicine. Unfortunately, it did not help me, and I began to grow pale, lost in weight, and my appetite completely left me. I was now regularly under the care of the doctor, who told me my lungs were affected, and that I was threatened with consumption. The doctor's treatment did not seem to benefit me in the least. I steadily grew weaker, and finally was compelled to remain in bed. At this time a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and even brought me three boxes before I finally consented to take them. I have reason now to bless my friend's persistence, because I felt better before all the pills were gone, and I gladly continued the treatment, and was soon able to be out of bed and take a walk each day. I am now in the best of health, and weigh ten pounds more than I did before I took sick. I feel that I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and hope my experience will benefit some other sufferer."

All diseases which come from poor blood or weak nerves can be driven from the system by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which may be had from any dealer in medicine, or will be sent post paid at 50c per box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writing direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Remember that substitutes and medicines said to be "just as good" do not cure.

WALLBRIDGE.

Miss Sarah McMecham and brother, of Deloraine, Man., are visiting their sister, Mrs. George Nicholson.

The quarterly service at the Methodist church was held Feb. 1st. We were pleased to have Rev. A. L. Decker with us.

Mrs. Martin Foster, of Northport, is visiting her mother, Mrs. John Caverley.

Mr. John Hogg wears a broad smile these days. It is a son.

Mrs. S. Jacobs, of Neepawa, Man., is visiting in our vicinity.

Miss Pearl Sexsmith has returned having spent a few days with friends in Belleville.

Mrs. L. Ross and Miss Mabel Chisholm have returned home after spending a few days with friends at Lonsdale.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. H. B. Chisholm has concluded to remain in our midst.

Miss Emma Shorey was "At Home" to a number of her friends on Friday evening last.

The last quarterly official board of the Sidney circuit met at Wallbridge church, Jan 31st. After the meeting opened the Rev. Tonkin and Recording Steward gave addresses of welcome to the lady members who were present for the first time. The addresses were responded to in a few well-chosen words from Mrs. L. Mussey. After the business had been considered the pastor was requested not to close the meeting and Thomas Oliver, supported by D. M. Ketcheson, read the following address:

To Rev. E. A. Tonkin, Pastor,—

We, the Official Board of the Sidney circuit, on behalf of the members of our various churches embrace this opportunity of expressing to you our appreciation of your untiring zeal on this circuit for the extension of the cause of our Master. If your labors in all instances have not been rewarded with that success for which you strove and prayed, we appreciate the fact that the cause of such mitigated success lay beyond the reach of any effort of yours. We have found you a fearless, eloquent exponent of the Divine truth; a wise counsellor; an indefatigable worker, thoroughly orthodox and abreast of the times. These traits of character, which are but an indication of the calibre of the man, excellent as they are would have failed to arouse that deeper feeling, which we have toward you (but which we have not as yet expressed), the cause for which feeling is manifest in your life. It is your daily communion, the spirit filled connection, with your Master, which has made you the pastor, yea, father in Israel. You have been to many if not all of us, a relation which we are loathe to have broken and a relation the memory of which shall long be cherished as one of the blessings of Providence of thus having as pastor and instructor, a true man, the noblest work of God.

Were it in accordance with the rules of our church our wish would be that the present relation continue; as we believe that cannot be, however, our prayer and belief is that God will raise up for you and your family in your new field of labor true friends and co-operative workers, and that your labors may be crowned with success.

The Rev. Tonkin replied feelingly, and assured the Official Board that he appreciated all the kind remarks; he hoped and prayed that in all future years he would have still the kindest remembrances of the people of Sidney circuit.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

"DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSTION ?"

REV. DR. LAMBLY HANDS OUT A FEW REMARKS TO "ANGLICAN CATHOLIC LAYMAN.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Sir,—It is not my purpose to become an apologist for Rev. Mr. Gilliland. He is abundantly able to answer for himself. I wish, however, to call the attention of your readers to the unscriptural assumptions contained in a communication which appeared in your issue of Thursday, the 5th inst., under the above caption.

When one reads this letter to its close he is not surprised that the author, ashamed to attach thereto his real signature, hides himself behind the fictitious, but significant "nom de plume" of an "Anglican Catholic Layman." A few gems of gospel truth are therein presented. But they are so imbedded in palpable error and so overlaid with unscriptural dogma that the light he sought to diffuse has become utter darkness. The question at the head of his communication is not intelligible, inasmuch as he does not define the meaning of the word conversion. As everybody knows, this word bears a variety of significations. A man may be converted from prohibition to high license, from Mohammedanism to Mormonism, from Anglicanism to Romanism, and not be regenerated. But conversion in its scriptural and legitimate sense, is simultaneous with regeneration. So St. Peter teaches, Acts, III., 19, "Repent, ye, therefore and be converted that your sins may be blotted out." Conversion is our act, turning from sin to God. Regeneration is God's act, applying the blood of Christ to the penitent, believing soul. This is the only kind of regeneration taught in the Word of God. Baptismal regeneration is the figment of an apostate church, long since exploded. If the waters of baptism could renew the sinful heart, then there would be two processes of regeneration taught in the Word. For Paul says, Tit. III., 5, 6, "According to his mercy he saved, not by works of righteousness which we have done (and Christ calls His own water—baptism a work of "righteousness"), but by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ, our Saviour." "Anglican Catholic Layman" says water is the renewing agent. Paul says the Holy Ghost is the renewing agent. I believe Paul rather than "Layman."

Speaking of the Lord Jesus, the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews says, "By Himself purged our sins," and again, "Having obtained eternal redemption for us by His own blood," and once more, "How much more shall the blood of Christ purge your conscience from dead works?" And St. John says, "Unto Him that loved us, and washed us in His own blood." The blood of Christ is the only power that can cleanse from sin. The Holy Spirit is the only agent that can apply that power to the human heart.

It is marvellous that men with "common sense" and an open Bible will still cling to this fiction of the "Church Catholic and Apostolic," which they call "baptismal regeneration." Water—baptism is a divine command, but it is in no sense a saving ordinance. If it were, then has Christ died in vain? Baptism with water is only symbolic. "It is the outward sign of an inward and spiritual grace." That inward grace is the cleansing by the Holy Spirit. But the application of water and the cleansing by the Spirit are not always simultaneous. Simon, the Sorcerer, was baptized, but not regenerated. The company in the home of Cornelius were regenerated by the Holy Ghost before they were baptized, Acts X. If your correspondent finds baptism in John III., 5, he is compelled to find three births, born of the flesh (natural birth), born of water (baptism), born of the Spirit (regeneration). If this is the correct exigesis of the passage, then Christ should have said to Nicodemus not "Ye must be born again," but "ye must be born twice more." Nowhere else in the scriptures is baptism spoken of as a birth. Christ teaches but two, that of the flesh and that from above—(Margin.) "Anglican Catholic Layman" says truly the ceremony of baptism admits one into the "Church Catholic and Apostolic." But that does not of necessity admit him into the Kingdom of God, because the Church Catholic and Apostolic and the Kingdom of God are not coincident. Men with "common sense" and a fair knowledge of the word can but pity this "Anglican Catholic Layman," because his church so hides the scriptural doctrine of union with Christ, through spiritual regeneration, behind its false dogmas, "Gorgeous ritual and beautiful ceremony, that he could be a member thereof for years, and not "know the meaning of it." A sad confession surely for "Layman" to make, that he had to pass through the initiatory rites of a human institution to learn what his "Church Catholic" had failed to teach. If this boasting "Church Catholic and Apostolic," with "its gorgeous ritual, sublime ceremony, vested priesthood" and spectacular services, fails to inform the mind with the truth of God's word, and feed the heart-hunger with "the bread of life," then ichabod may be written over its portals, for its glory is departed. Alas for the church that puts baptismal waters in the place of the cleansing blood and exalts the sacraments instead of the Saviour.' Water baptism, even though administered by a "vested priest," never regenerates. This is accomplished only by the application of the blood of Christ to the repentent, believing soul. Union with the Anglican Catholic Church cannot save. Union with Christ does. Therefore, whoever repents and forsakes his sins and by a living faith accepts the proferred mercy of God in Christ Jesus, becomes a member of the Kingdom of God, whether he is a member of the Anglican or any OTHER branch of Christ's visible church.

The Indian's Case.

The case of Andrew Culbertson against Dr. Newton, of Deseronto, was continued before the Magistrate to-day. The plaintiff claims that $40 is due him for assisting in looking after a smallpox patient at Deseronto. The defendant, on the other hand, alleges that Culbertson has been paid in clothing, etc., for the work done.

Sports and Pastimes.

SPORTING COMMENT.

A team of lady hockeyists in Peterboro wrote to a young lady of this city asking for home and home games. But there's nothing doing. Belleville has no bevy of pretty girls chasing the puck this year, and the Peterboro challenge had to be declined. The girls liked the game, but after the horrid way the Kingston papers talked about them last year they decided to let hockey alone for the future.

Considerable interest attaches to the game between Cobourg and the Frontenacs - Beechgroves to-night. Whichever team wins stands a good chance of capturing the O.H.A. Junior championship. According to the papers, each team will bring a good-sized crowd of supporters with it. It looks like a good game and the winner hard to pick.

As was expected, the Prescott team has been thrown out of the O.H.A. and the K.B.C. Ramblers declared winners of the Group 1 series. The Ramblers will ramble down this way on Friday night, and the locals will play the return match in Kingston next Monday. Once more the interest quickens.

If the O.H.A. doesn't begin pushing things a bit the end of the intermediate series will never be reached this winter. There are a lot of games to play before even the semi-finals are reached, and good ice will soon be a very uncertain thing. The O.H.A. executive should try to push things along a little faster.

Won't somebody please give the Belleville bakers a game? They are trailing their Raglans and daring the Boilers and the Tinkers to step on their coat tails. If somebody doesn't hurry up and accommodate the dough boys they'll be challenging the O.H.A. team.

The K.B.C. Ramblers, Belleville's next opponents, complain that they don't get enough time to practise. The Kingston people should give their intermediate team every opportunity to get into good shape. They'll need to put their best foot foremost when they clash with Manager Burrell's men. The Ramblers, however, would certainly have won their group easily had they not been in hard luck in the matter of having to play on small, badly lighted rinks, before unfair, partisan crowds. They will likely give the local team a hard battle, and the latter can afford to take no chances. Quite often the unexpected happens. Look at the Varsity-Wellington game.

In other places lacrosse is already being talked up. The annual meeting of the O.L.A will be held on Good Friday, and it is none too early for the boys to commence planning for the coming season. By all accounts, Belleville will have an intermediate lacrosse team fully as good as their O.H.A. team, and its up to everybody to help the boys along.

CURLING.

Scotch Curlers Left in a Huff.

Winnipeg, Feb. 10.—Owing to recent occurrences in Winnipeg, which the touring Scotch curlers consider almost direct personal insults, it is not at all likely that the visitors will regret when the time of departure from Canada arrives. The majority of the Scotchmen seem much displeased with references that have been made to their alleged intemperance as regards intoxicating liquor on their part, and the climax was reached on Friday night here at an entertainment given by St. Andrew's Society, when four of their number arose and indignantly left the hall while Prof. Patrick Principal of Manitoba College, was making an address, in which he made some references to the drinking habit in Scotland. Principal Patrick, who has been out from Scotland only a few years himself, said in his address that he believed Canada was far in advance of Scotland in the way of temperance, and that on one occasion the fact had been deeply impressed upon him when he arrived at Leith, from Germany, and noticed the preponderance of drunks in direct contrast to the state of affairs in Canada. While Patrick was speaking there were cries of "Libel" and murmurs of resentment, and then four Scotchmen snatched up their coats and left the hall. One of these was to have contributed to the programme. When Prof. Patrick concluded Rev. W. Kerr, captain of the Scotch team made a warm reply, resenting the imputation of intemperance and justifying the action of those who left the hall. He said that if there were more drinking in Scotland people were not hypocrites, a characteristic which he had noticed much in Canada. He cited the instance of asking a Montreal clergyman to have a drink with him, but the latter refused to go into a bar, though intimating that he would take one in a room.

Principal Patrick closed the incident by stating that he had meant no personal reference to the Scotch team. Scots seem annoyed at the action of the press here, which has used a lot of chestnut references to alleged Scottish tendency to drink liquor, and the fact that a commercial institution of national fame has fences covered with posters advertising their brand of whiskey by the use of figures of the curlers has not pleased them either.

SPORTING NOTES.

Mr. James McCabe, of Peterboro, will referee the Cobourg-Frontenac Beechgroves game to-night.

Prescott has informed Secretary W. A. Buchanan, of the O.H.A., that they will not defend the protest lodged against them by the Kingston Ramblers. They admit having played two ineligible men. They say that they have defeated the Ramblers three times, and characterize the action of the latter as cheap.

Before Falconbridge C.J., Street and Britton, J.J.

Toronto, Feb. 10.

Smith vs. Bloomfield—H. M. Mowat, K.C., and J. McD. Mowat (Kingston), for defendant, appealed from the judgment of the County Court of Hastings. The action was brought by the plaintiff for damages for wrongful dismissal. On 8th July, 1902, the defendant hired the plaintiff as a sailor to work upon the Caspian, one of the vessels of the Lake Ontario and Bay of Quinte Steamboat Company, for a trip from Belleville to Somerville, in the United States. When the vessel reached the Murray Canal the plaintiff alleges that the defendant, without any notice to him, and without any lawful excuse, ejected the plaintiff from the vessel, and discharged him from the service. The judgment at the trial awarded to the plaintiff the sum of $110 damages. From this judgment the defendant now appeals. H. L. Drayton, for plaintiff, contra. Judgment reserved.

The case of Burrell vs. Lott was still being argued to-day.

Work Began This Morning

A number of men were this morning set at work near Point Ann, working on the branch line of the railway that is to run from the contemplated Cement Works to a point on the G. T.R. main line. No difficulty was experienced in securing the required number of workmen.

PROCEEDINGS COMMENCED IN LAST OF THE "THREE NORTHS."

Toronto, Feb. 11.—Protest proceedings in the last of the "Three Norths" were definitely commenced yesterday, when the petition against the election of A. G. MacKay in North Grey was filed with the local registrar at Owen Sound. George M. Boyd, the defeated Conservative candidate, is the petitioner.

The thousand dollars security for costs will be deposited at Osgoode Hall to-morrow, the last day for that formality. When this is done the petition must be served upon Mr. MacKay within five days.

A COMMISSION NOT REFUSED.

Hon. J. M. Gibson on the Prohibitionists' Petition—Decision Deferred.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—Hon J. M. Gibson was asked yesterday regarding his position toward granting a commission for investigating charges of corruption, as petitioned by the Prohibitionists, in connection with the recent referendum vote in Toronto. It had been stated by Rev. Dr. Chown at the Ministerial Association meeting that the Attorney-General had refused to take the responsibility of granting the request. "There certainly never was any decision arrived at either to grant or not to grant a commission. It was thought in the meantime that it would be proper, as well as useful, to let the prosecutions take their course to see what the outcome was. Those prosecutions are now under way, and several people have been sentenced."

Asked if he could say what the action would be in the future, Colonel Gibson replied that he could not say;

WRECK OF THE MADIANA.

WENT ASHORE OFF THE ISLAND OF BERMUDA.

The One Hundred Passengers on Board and All the Crew Landed in Safety.

New York, Feb. 11.—A. E. Outerbridge & Company, local agents of the Quebec Steamship Company, have received cable advices from Hamilton, Bermuda, confirming the Associated Press report of the wreck of their steamer Madiana. According to their advices the ship went ashore on the reefs off this oisland about 3 o'clock. The passengers and crew were landed without loss of life.

The steamer Madiana was built in Glasgow in 1878 and is of 1,983 tons net burden. She is 344 feet 8 inches long, has 39 feet 4-inch beam and is 29 feet deep. The steamer is owned by the Quebec Steamship Company and hails from London.

The Madiana has on board about one hundred passengers. The list of the passengers does not include any Canadians.

A later despatch says:—The Madiana listed heavily in the night, and when morning broke lay broadside to the wind. The passengers, many still scantily dressed, were huddled together on the hurricane deck, and the sea breaking over the steamer drenched them to the skin. As soon as the news of the wreck became known here Government and other tugs proceeded to the scene to endeavor to render assistance. A heavy sea, however, was running, and they dared not approach too closely to the reef on which the Madiana was pounding. For some time no communication with the Madiana was possible. The tug Gladysfen stood about a mile off awaiting an opportunity to assist, but it was not until 11 o'clock this morning that it became possible to effect a rescue.

The crew of the Madiana launched a boat, but it could not live in the sea then running and was dashed to pieces against the steamer's side. A second and more successful attempt was made a little later, and some of the passengers were lowered into it, and after much exertion the boat succeeded in reaching the Gladysfen. The Madiana's other lifeboats were then launched in succession, and the remainder of the passengers and the captain and crew gained safely the salvage tug. By the prompt action of Engineer Nelson, who had the Madiana's bulkheads broken through, the mails and the passengers' light baggage were taken out and brought in the last boats to the Gladysfen, which landed the passengers, crew, mails and baggage here this afternoon. The weather moderated somewhat during the morning.

Russian Reservists Warned to be Ready.

London, Feb. 11.—It is announced in a despatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg that all the officers of the Russian army reserves have been notified to hold themselves in readiness to rejoin their regiment in twenty-four hours, in the event of mobilization orders being issued. The measure, it is added, appears to be connected with fears of trouble in the Balkans.

Paris, Feb. 11.—The officials here are not disposed to accept the Porte's assurances that Turkey has no intention of mobilizing a large force of troops. When the Turkish denial was brought to the attention of the officials here who have access to the Government's sources of information the following reply was made:—"We have received similar pacific assurances from Turkish sources, but our own information is positive and specific that orders for the mobilization have been actually issued. This was three days ago, and we are unable to say whether the execution of the orders are withheld, in view of the effect they have produced among the powers who are seeking to enforce reforms in the Balkans. Our advices further show that the mobilization would affect 240,000 troops."

The French Government's policy appears to be shaping on its own advices, without reference to the quieting Turkish assurances.

POOR MR. ROCKFELLER, JUN.

He is Not Rich When it Comes to Paying Taxes.

New York, Feb. 11.—John D. Rockefeller, jr., supposed to be about the richest young man in America, owes $400,000, and has only $30,000 worth of personal property, according to the statement filed with the Department of Taxes and Assessments. Mr. Rockefeller was assessed at $500,000. Mr. Rockefeller called at the tax office and stated that he had $400,000 in debts and that his personal property above his debts was worth only $30,000, but he was willing to pay taxes on an assessment of $50,000. The commissioners accepted Mr. Rockefeller's figures.

TO START THE REVOLT.

MACEDONIAN LEADER LEAVES FOR THE MOUNTAINS.

The Bulgarian Government is Contemplating the Calling Out of Two Army Divisions.

Vienna, Feb. 11.—Considerable interest has been aroused here by a despatch from Sofia to the effect that Boris Sarafoff, the famous Macedonian leader and former President of the Macedonian Committee, has already gone to Macedonia to start a revolt. Sarafoff has the reputation of being a capable and desperate leader, having unequalled knowledge of the mountain passes.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 11.—The Government is contemplating calling out two army divisions, Sofia and Philippopolis districts furnishing one each. The concentration of Turkish troops on the Bulgarian frontier is given as the reason for this partial mobilization.

London, Feb. 12.—The Macedonian question remains the most important European issue. The revolutionists are making strenuous efforts to secure the condemnation of the Austro-Russian proposals of reform before the text has been submitted to the Sultan or published in any continental capital. There is an evident desire on the part of the Balkan agitators to produce an unmanageable situation, and drag first Bulgaria and Servia, and finally Russia, into war with Turkey. The work which preceded the Russian campaign of 1877 was conducted with secrecy and subtlety, whereas the present operations are noisy, and reveal plainly the methods of the professional agitators.

Some of the closest observers are convinced that the Czar is as anxious as the Emperor of Austria-Hungary to prevent an outbreak of hostilities, and that the Russian Minister of Finance is not prepared to supply money for a decisive campaign. Lamsdorff and Goluchowski (respectively the Foreign Ministers of Russia and Austria-Hungary), according to this view, have prepared a moderate scheme of reforms, which the German Emperor will strongly advise the Sultan to accept, and the Macedonian agitators are apprehensive lest the Sultan may forestall their well-organized movement by a prompt acquiescence in the wishes of the European powers. An early outbreak of hostilities is favored by the open weather in the Balkans, and Bulgaria and Servia may be carried away by infectious excitement.

TO CHECK SCARLET FEVER.

Regulations by Provincial Board of Health.

London, Feb. 12.—The seriousness of the smallpox and scarlet fever epidemic and the effectual check afforded by vaccination against the former were the outstanding features revealed at the quarterly meeting of the Provincial Board of Health, which opened in the office of the Secretary, Dr. P. H. Bryce, yesterday. Dr. Vaux, the Chairman, presided, the other members present being Dr. Oldright and Dr. Cassidy, Toronto; Dr. Kitchen, St. George; Dr McCullough, Owen Sound, and Dr Douglas, Cobourg. The absolute necessity of prompt and energetic measures to check the spread of scarlet fever was recognized by every member of the board, and at the afternoon session stringent regulations were adopted providing for isolation and disinfection in scarlet fever cases, similar to those which have proved efficacious with respect to smallpox and diphtheria.

In his quarterly report Dr. Bryce said the public health had remained fairly good as regards contagious diseases, with the exceptions of scarlet fever and smallpox. Both had existed in a more severe type than we had had for some time. Of smallpox the statistics showed there had been 2,500 cases in the Province during 1902, resulting in ten deaths. Of scarlet fever there were 3,119 cases and 266 deaths.

The entire afternoon session was taken up in the discussion upon the regulations for control of cases of scarlet fever, the various phases of the subject being thoroughly threshed out. The new regulations, as adopted, are comprehensive in their scope, and their enforcement will, it is anticipated, be effective in checking and controlling a serious menace to the public health of the Province. Many of the provisions with respect to the reporting and isolation in hospitals specially provided for the purpose of cases of scarlet fever, with the precautionary measures regarding quarantine of persons who have been exposed, and disinfection of clothing, etc., are similar to those which have proved so efficacious in the treatment of smallpox and diphtheria. In fatal cases the funeral must be private, and specific instructions for the guidance and protection of the undertaker and his assistants are included. The maximum period of incubation of the disease is fixed at one week, and it is also provided that every person ill with scarlet fever and the surroundings of such person shall be considered infective until the process of desquamation has been completed and all infective discharges have ceased, and in no case shall the period of infection be considered to have ceased in less than six weeks from the commencement of the illness.

Another clause provides that when the disease occurs in a school the Medical Health Officer shall direct that an examination of all exposed persons, whether in the classroom or absentees in the home, shall be made daily by physicians until the period of incubation is past.

LYE IN THEIR FOOD.

Death of Three Children Near Laurier, Manitoba.

Winnipeg, Feb. 12.—Three children, members of a French family, by name of Mousette, living near Laurier, Man., on the Dauphin branch of the C. N. R., died a horrible death a few days ago. The mother of the children went out to wash at a neighbor's and left the little ones at home to shift for themselves. It appears that Mrs. Mousette was in the habit of using Gillett's lye in preparing beans for the table, and the little ones undertook to follow her example. The trouble was that they did not limit the quantity of lye they placed on the beans, and when they partook of them death resulted shortly after by paralysis of their throats.

It is reported at Ottawa that a bill for increasing the pay of soldiers in the permanent force as well as militiamen when they turn out at camps of instruction is likely to be introduced at the coming session of Parliament.

A DAILY NUISANCE.

A SIMPLE REMEDY WHICH WILL INTEREST CATARRH SUFFERERS.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucous, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements, and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine, as they are composed of such valuable remedies as blood root, hydrastin, red gum and similar cleansing antiseptics, which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, in this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching and local application and further says that probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full-sized packages. Ask your druggist, and if he is honest he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

THE EMPIRE'S FUTURE.

BASED ON CO-OPERATION WITH THE MOTHER COUNTRY.

Mr. Chamberlain's Speech at Grahamstown, Cape Colony—The Expenditures of Great Britain.

London, Feb. 12.—Mr. Chamberlain's speech at Grahamstown, Cape Colony, on Monday was evidently intended for a wider audience, for it constitutes the clearest indication of the general Imperial policy. He declared that the mother country would defend its heritage to the last man, but that the colonies had their share of the responsibilities of the empire. Last year England spent £60,000,000, besides the war debt.

He was addressing the colonies when he said they were not doing what they ought to in regard to their obligations to the empire.

The increased vote of Cape Colony for the fleet was not sufficient to keep for six months the warship Good Hope. He would agree that the first duty was at home, but all hope for the empire's future was based on co-operation with the mother country. He said he was anxious that the colonial aspiration should be to be partners in the empire, whose mission was justice, freedom and equality.

He added: "Who knows when the next blow will fall? We, by remaining one people, shall prove the empire is founded on a community of sacrifice."

LIFE INSURANCE FRAUDS.

The Clever Scheme Carried on by Italians.

New York, Feb. 12.—An exposure of the methods of the conspirators in the recently-discovered Italian life insurance frauds was made by the confession of one of the men concerned to Assistant District Attorney Krotel. According to the confession, the frauds have been in operation for ten years, during which time the insurance companies have been defrauded of hundreds of thousands of dollars. In one instance a company paid out $10,000 on one fraudulent risk. The head of the conspiracy, Mr. Krotel says, was Bartolomeo Girrino, recently arrested and released under bail. Girrino is said to have disappeared.

The usual plan of operations was to make an application for insurance in the name of some person in a practically dying condition, a healthy substitute being presented for medical examination. In cases where the original "risk" lingered too long to satisfy the conspirators, a substitute body was used on which to collect the amount of the policy. These bodies are said to have been furnished by Jos. Tripan, an Italian undertaken, who is now awaiting trial in the Toombs. In some instances false death certificates were presented, said to have been signed by Girrino, or by two Italian doctors, who are now under heavy bail. So well organized was the scheme, Mr. Krotel says, that there was a regularly appointed Board of Directors that used to meet each week to discuss the payments of premiums falling due, and pass upon the matter of the substitution of bogus bodies in the case of "risks" that did not die until the payment of premiums became too heavy.

HORSE STEPPED ON HIM.

James McRae, an Aged Glenmorris Farmer, Fatally Injured.

Galt, Feb. 12.—Jas. MacRae, a farmer near Glenmorris, fell under his horse and was trampled on, sustaining injuries from which he will die. He was about to take the horse into the lane leading to his farm and slipped and fell. Some young men returning from Paris to Galt discovered him lying by the side of the road, and his horse some distance further along. The horse's hoof left its imprint on the man's face, breaking his nose and nearly gouging out his left eye. His chest was also crushed. He was 75 year of age, and has always driven spirited horses. Four years ago he was rolled down an embankment with a horse and rig.

FIGHTING BELL TELEPHONE CO.

The Town of Fort William Obtains an Injunction.

Fort William, Feb. 12.—The Town Council has taken steps to restrain the Bell Telephone Company from extending its system in the town, and an injunction has been issued.

C. P. R. LAND TAXATION.

The Case Entered in the Northwest Court.

Winnipeg, Feb. 12.—The first step has been taken at the instance of the Dominion Government to determine the liability of the C. P. R. to taxation on their land grant. Messrs. Howell, Mathers & Howell, by direction of the Dominion Government, have filed three statements of claims against the C. P. R. The statements are filed on behalf of the municipalities of North Cypress, Argyle and the school district of Springdale, N. W. T. The question to be argued differs slightly in each of the three cases, but the main question is the same, the plaintiffs alleging that the lands are liable to taxation and the C. P. R. contending they are not. At the sitting of the court Mr. Howell, K. C., stated to Mr. Justice Richards that statements of defence had been put in on behalf of the C. P. R., and certain maps and orders in Council had been admitted, so that there would be no evidence to be heard, and he accordingly moved for a formal judgment, so that the matter could be brought before the full court this present term, and if possible carried to the Supreme Court at Ottawa at the May sittings. His Lordship thereupon entered a formal order, and subsequently before the full court it was decided that the matter should be heard this term.

AUTHORIZING TEXT BOOKS.

Amendment to Regulation of October Last.

Toronto, Feb. 12.—An order in Council was passed on October 11 last in reference to the authorization of text-books, requiring that before application is made for the authorization of any text-book the book must have been in circulation for at least six months for examination by teachers, inspectors and other educationists.

At the last meeting of the Cabinet Council this order was amended as follows:—"Subject to the preceding subsection, the Minister of Education may, when a change in text-books is deemed desirable, submit to a committee of the Educational Council for examination and report any or all books for which such authorization is sought. In the case of text-books to be used in the public schools the hereinbefore mentioned committee shall consist of not more than five members, two of whom shall be the public school representatives on the said council, and one a public school inspector. In the case of text-books to be used in high schools and collegiate institutes, the committee shall consist of not more than five members, of which the high school representatives on the said Educational Council shall be members."

Sudden Death at Woodstock.

Woodstock, Feb. 12.—Ex-Ald. Chas. G. Clarke, King street, died suddenly at an early hour yesterday. He had been suffering from a cold and got out of bed some time after midnight to heat some water. He went to the gas stove, turned on the gas, and was evidently just about to light it when he fell backwards. Some time afterwards Mrs. Clarke went downstairs and found the kitchen full of gas and her husband's lifeless body on the floor. Death was, it is thought, due to heart weakness, but possibly the escaping gas contributed to it. Mr. Clarke was fifty-seven years old, and had served at different times in the Council, and for one term on the Water and Light Commission. He was up till six years ago a hardware merchant, and before that conducted a grocery. He leaves besides his wife two daughters, Mrs. C. Harry Beard of Montreal and Miss Verna at home.

STOCK-BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION.

CHARGES OF FRAUD.

It appears from what transpired at a recent meeting of the Stock-breeders' Association of the Dominion, held in Toronto, that the crime of fraud is not confined to elections but has entered into the competition for prizes among cattle breeders. At that meeting Colonel McGillivray is reported by the Farmers' Sun, of Toronto, "as having referred to the "growing tendency to defraud in "the prize rings, and said that at the "last Winter Fair at Guelph this irregularity had reached what might "be called a scandal. Its tendency "was bad, and if allowed to continue "would degrade and corrupt all live "stock shows."

The Hon. Mr. Dryden, Commissioner of Agriculture for Ontario, supplemented this scandal with an equally strong indictment; at the same meeting he is reported as saying "that deliberate frauds had been reported in "connection with pedigrees — that "pedigrees had been attached to animals which belonged to other animals altogether. As Mr. Dryden "said, there is a great difference in "the value of pedigrees. Take two "animals of equally good individuality, one with a pedigreee showing a "distinguished line of ancestry for "generations, and the other an almost unknown ancestry, and the one "animal will probably sell for two "or three times the price of the "other. To change pedigrees is, "therefore, precisely on the same "chequr. It would be just as honest for a man who receives a $25 "cheque in payment of a $25 account "to change the figures to $250, and "secure the larger sum at the bank, "as it would be for another man to "take a pedigree intended for one "animal and attach it to another. "Still, if the Sun is correctly informed, this sort of thing has been done "(not in one or two isolated cases), "but in a more or less wholesale "way."

These are serious indictments laid against cattle-breeders, and deserve more than a passing notice.

Not only should those who practice these frauds be exposed, but should be prosecuted, as they are guilty of no less a crime than forgery. It may well be asked why Mr. Dryden has not taken steps to have the guilty parties punished. If the Government wink at these crimes by allowing the guilty parties to go Scot free, they become parties to the wrong.

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

TIMELY TOPICS.

In our statement, showing the difference between the salaries formerly paid civic servants and those now fixed by the Council, we omitted to take into consideration the fact that Mr. J. P. Thompson, City Treasurer, pays an assistant $150 per year. Under the proposed scale of wages, this would reduce Mr. Thompson's salary to $750 per year, providing, of course, that he retains his office. People may well ask themselves, is $750 per year sufficient remuneration for an official with the heavy duties and responsibilities which attach to the position of City Treasurer and Waterworks Accountant? The appointment of a Waterworks superintendent, we are informed, will not in any way lessen the City Treasurer's duties, nor his responsibilities; nor, so far as we can learn, will it lessen those of any other official.

It is to be presumed, that the Councillors have thought these matters out, but the fact remains and should not be forgotten, that in the past Belleville has suffered by having "cheap" men in her employ, men who bungled the City's affairs and caused heavy losses, the effects of which have not yet passed away. Is it worth while to repeat the experiment? The Intelligencer mentions this matter in no carping spirit, but simply as a suggestion in what it believes to be the City's interest.

OF COURSE HE IS.

(Kingston Whig.)

The Deaf and Dumb Institute in Belleville is classed with the asylums, and the Principal wants it classed with the schools and supervised by the Education Department. The man is right.

The Kingston Whig thus deals with a matter which concerns many other places. If a city of 20,000, like Kingston, cannot raise eight companies, how can other places of much less population be expected to do it:

> "Some officers of the 14th Regiment are not overly pleased with the recent order of the militia, placing the regiment on an eight company basis. They argue that it was difficult enough filling ranks of six companies, and they cannot see where the men are to come from to make up the other two companies. Another difficult matter to overcome is to keep up the supply of officers, of which there is a constant shortage; two more have left the city within the last few days, and so far there are not any applicants forthcoming to replace them."

Now a Brockville man has died from shovelling snow, thus making the second case of the kind this winter. No wonder people long for the good old summer time.

However, the law of compensation is not entirely lost sight of this winter. We've had less coal than usual to shovel.

Speaking of the criticism to which the Scotch curlers were subjected in Toronto and Winnipeg The Toronto Telegram hands out the following sensible remarks: "It would thus appear that there has been a certain jarring in connection with the Scottish visit. Scottish ways are not Canadian ways, nor are Canadian ways Scottish ways. Still no one can be blamed. The Canadians had to be hospitable and the Scots had to show their appreciation of that hospitality. And as the visit has only happened once, people might have the good taste to let our guests enjoy themselves while they may."

We regret to learn that, at the end of this month, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watson and Miss Queena Watson will leave our city. Mr. Watson will sever his connection with the Massey-Harris Co., for which company he has been the District Superintendent, to take an active part in a successful manufacturing company in Windsor, of which he has been a member for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Watson's neice, Miss Queena, will return to Winnipeg. Her removal will be a distinct loss to musical circles, and especially to Bridge St. Church choir, of which she has been a leading and valued member.

POSSIBILITIES OF THE GREAT CANADIAN WEST.

A SURE AND ABUNDANT SOURCE OF WEALTH—WHEAT RAISING TO RIVAL THE GOLD MINES OF THE EMPIRE.

We advise our readers to notice the subscription offer which will be made in this paper in a few days of the British-Canadian Wheat Raising Company, which has been organized for the purpose of raising wheat in a wholesale way, on ten thousand acres of the best farm land in Assiniboia, North-West Territories. This land is the property of the Company, who propose to raise wheat at the lowest possible cost by employing the most modern steam machinery, etc.

The success of this Company is assured. It will be noticed that its Directors are composed of some of our leading citizens, some of whom are connected with the leading Railroads, and the Canadian Government; some are members of the bar and some merchants. The affairs of the Company are in the strongest hands, and backed by financial interests that will enable the Company to broaden out from year to year.

The shares of the British-Canadian Wheat Raising Company present an opportunity to the investor that cannot be equalled by any other commercial enterprise in the British Empire. The agricultural year just closed with a record of the greatest wheat crop in proportion to acreage ever grown on unfertilized soil. The conditions of the region are such as to make practically certain a uniform yield As Canadian hard wheat is of the best quality produced in the world, it commands the best markets and highest returns. A good deal of capital has already been invested both in land enterprises and in the actual industry itself. Companies like the British-Canadian Wheat Raising Co., Ltd., are preparing to operate farms comprising thousands of acres.

Only a limited amount of the Company's Treasury shares will be offered to the public at the present time at their par value of $5.00 each. These shares will undoubtedly command a high premium in a very short time, on account of the great earning capacity of the Company, which expects to start out by paying dividends of fif- sellers; [illegible] annually, and leave a and March, 2[illegible] the Treasury. These rury, 28s 9d se[illegible] on the various Ex- 28s 6d sellers. The profits to be made are practically assured, as the market for the Company's wheat product is the same as for gold—it is unlimited. There will be a constant appreciation of the Company's lands, and a constantly increasing amount of product for the market, and unlike gold mining, or similar enterprises, the resources are unexhaustible.

It is the policy of the directors to increase the acreage of the British Canadian Wheat Raising Company, from year to year, so that it will ultimately be the largest Wheat Raising Company in the world. This Company will be the largest in the British Empire, and is now only second to the famous Dalrymple farm, located in North Dakota, U. S. A.

The property of this Company is located almost alongside the tracks of the Canadian Pacific Railway, where the Company proposes to have its own elevator to deposit their grain, and secure the highest market prices from time to time. On account of the large product this Company will have yearly, it will receive every assistance and facility from the various Canadian railroads, for the transportation of its grain to the seaboards.

Prospectus, with colored maps, giving full particulars of this Company, may be had free on application, by addressing the Trusts and Guarantee Company, Ltd., 14 King street, West, Toronto, Ont.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

But with few exceptions Helen declined the latter, feeling that with her husband in so much danger, it was better not to mingle in gay society. She was very happy with Mrs. Banker, who petted and caressed and loved her almost as much as if she had been her own daughter. Mark's letters, too, which came nearly every day, were bright sunspots in her existence, so full were they of tender love and kind thoughtfulness for her. He was very happy, he wrote, in knowing that at home there was a dear little brown-haired wife, waiting and praying for him, and but for the separation from her he was well content with a soldier's life. Once Helen thought seriously of going to him for a week or more, but the project was prevented by the sudden arrival in New York of Katy, who came one night to Mrs. Banker's, with her face as white as ashes, and a wild expression in her eyes as she said to Helen:

"I am going to Wilford. He is dying. He has sent for me. I ought to go on to-night, but cannot, my head aches so," and pressing both her hands upon her head, Katy sank fainting into Helen's arms.

CHAPTER XLIII.

Georgetown, February—, 1862.
Mrs. Wilford Cameron:

Your husband cannot live long. Come immediately.

M. Hazelton."

So read the telegram received by Katy one winter morning, and which stunned her for a few minutes so that she could neither feel nor think. But the reaction came soon enough, bringing with it only the remembrance of Wilford's love. All the wrong, the harshness, was forgotten, and only the desire remained to fly at once to Wilford. Bravely she kept up until New York was reached, when the tension of her nerves gave way, and she fainted, as we have seen.

At father Cameron's a telegram had been received, telling of Wilford's danger. But the mother could not go to him. A lung difficulty, to which she was subject, had confined her to the house for many days, and so it was the father and Bell who made their hasty preparations for the the hurried journey to Georgetown. They heard of Katy's arrival, and Bell came at once to see her.

"She will not be able to join us to-morrow," was the report Bell carried home, for she saw more than mere exhaustion in the white face lying so motionless on Helen's pillow, with the dark rings about her eyes, and the quiver of the muscles about the mouth.

"It is very hard, but God knows best," poor Katy moaned, when the next day her father and Bell went without her.

"Yes, darling, God knows best," Helen answered, soothing the bright hair, and thinking sadly of the young officer, sitting by the campfire, and waiting so eagerly for the bride who could not go to him now. "God knows what is best, and does all for the best."

Katy said it many times that long, long week, during which she staid with Helen, living from day to day upon the letters sent by Bell, who gave but little hope that Wilford would recover. Not a word did she say of Marian, and only twice did she mention Morris, who was one of the physicians in that hospital, so that when at last Katy was strong enough to venture on the journey, she had but little idea of what had transpired in Wilford's sick-room.

Those were sad, weary days which Wilford first passed upon his hospital cot, and as he was not sick but crippled, he had ample time for reviewing the past, which came up before his mind as vividly as if he had been living again the scenes of bygone days. Of Katy he thought continually, repenting of his rashness, and wishing so much that the past could be undone. Disgusted with soldier life, he had wished himself at home a thousand times but never by a word had he admitted such a wish to any living being, and when on the dark, rainy afternoon which first saw him in the hospital, he turned his face to the wall and wept, he replied to one who said to him soothingly:

"Don't feel badly, my young friend. We will take as good care of you here as if you were at home."

"It's the pain which brings the tears. I'd as soon be here as at home."

Gradually, however, there came a change, and Wilford grew softer in his feelings, half resolving to send for Katy, who had offered to come, and to whom he had replied, "It is not necessary." But as often as he resolved, his evil genius whispered, "She does not care to come," and so the message was never sent, while the longing for home faces brought on a nervous fever, which made him so irritable that his attendants turned from him in disgust, thinking him the most unreasonable man they ever met with. Once he dreamed Geneva was there—that her fingers threaded his hair as they used to do in the happy days at Brighton—that her hand was on his brow, her breath upon his face, and with a start he awoke just as the rustle of female garments died away in the hall.

"The nurse in the second ward has been in here," a comrade said. "She seemed specially interested in you, and if she had not been a stranger, I should have said she was crying over you."

With a quick, sudden movement Wilford put his hand to his cheek, where there was a tear, either his own or that of the "nurse," who had recently bent over him. It was not Katy, and if not, who was it that twice when he was sleeping, came and looked at him, his comrades said, rallying him upon the conquest he had made, and so exciting his imagination that the fever began to increase, and the blood throbbed hotly through his veins, while his brows were knit together with thoughts of the mysterious stranger. Then, with a great shock it occurred to him that Katy had affirmed, "Genevra was alive."

What if it were so, and this nurse were Genevra? The very idea fired Wilford's brain, and when next his physician came he looked with alarm upon the great change for the worse exhibited by his patient.

"Shall I send for your friends?" he asked, and Wilford answered savagely:

"I have no friends—none at least, but what will be glad to know I'm dead."

And that was the last, except the wild words of a maniac, which came from Wilford's lips for many a day and night. When they said he was unconscious, Marian Hazelton obtained permission to attend him, and again the eyes of the other occupants of the room were turned wonderingly towards her as she bent over the sick man, parting his matted hair, smoothing his pillow, and holding the cooling draught to the parched lips which muttered strange things of Brighton, of Alnwick and Rome—of the heather of the Scottish moors, and the daisies on Genevra's grave, where Katy once sat down.

"She did not know Genevra was there," he said; "but I knew, and I felt as if the dead were wronged by that act of Katy's. Do you know Katy?" and his black eyes fastened upon Marian, who soothed him into quiet, while she talked to him of Katy, telling of her graceful beauty, her loving heart, and the sorrow she would feel when she heard how sick he was.

"Shall I send for her?" she asked, but Wilford answered:

"No, I am satisfied with you."

This was her first day with him, but there were other days when all her strength and that of Morris, who, at her earnest solicitation, came to her aid, was required to keep him on his bed. He was going home, he said, going to Katy; and like a giant he writhed under a force superior to his own, and which held him down and controlled him, while his loud outcries filled the building, and sent a shudder to the hearts of men, who at first had occupied the room with him, were well enough to those who heard them. As the two leave for home, Marian and Morris both begged that unless absolutely

Many Coughs and Bad Colds

THE RECENT COLD SNAP RESPONSIBLE FOR MUCH SICKNESS—RELIEF AND CURE IS OBTAINABLE BY THE USE OF DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE.

The first cold I have had this "fall," you hear people say, as they cough violently. And to hear the coughing you would think comparatively few people have escaped it."

The sudden changes of temperature at this season, when people are not clothed to protect themselves, are almost sure to bring trouble, and one can never tell where a cold is going to end.

It may wear away, but is more likely to hold on and be added to by cold after cold, until some serious ailment is developed—perhaps consumption or pneumonia, perhaps kidney disease or liver complaint.

The wise plan is to nip the trouble in the bud by promptly curing the cough and cold before it fastens itself on the vital organs, and in this connection we suggest Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

Not that there is any scarcity of cough mixtures, but because this preparation is more than a mere cough cure, has stood the test of time, and never had such an enormous sale as it has to-day. This we consider the strongest evidence of its worth as a treatment for coughs and colds.

Composed as it is of linseed, turpentine and half a dozen other ingredients of known virtue in the cure of colds, this remedy is far reaching in action, and positively cures the cold as well as giving prompt relief to coughing, hoarseness, sore throat, etc.

There are many imitations of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, so be careful when buying and look for the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase on the wrapper. This is the strongest guarantee any medicine can have.

Children delight to take Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and it is a positive cure for croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, coughs and colds; 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A Sure Cure for Headaches.—Bilious headache, to which women are more subject than men, becomes so acute in some subjects that they are utterly prostrated. The stomach refuses food, and there is a constant and distressing effort to free the stomach from bile which has become unduly secreted there. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a speedy alternative, and in neutralising the effects of the intruding bile relieves the pressure on the nerves which cause the headache. Try them.
methods of contracting liabilities.

It sometimes happens that a man of resources is one who has ingenious

Will be Found an Excellent Remedy for sick headache. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Thousands of letters from people who have used them prove this fact. Try them.

Don't feel that the world has no place for you because it fails to recognize you as a genius.

The Well Known Strengthening Properties of IRON, combined with other tonics and a most perfect nervine, are found in Carter's Iron Pills, which strengthen the nerves and body, and improve the blood and complexion.

Holloway's Corn Cure is the medicine to remove all kinds of corns and warts, and only costs the small sum of twenty-five cents.

Coral is a talisman against thunder and evils by flood and field.

There is nothing equal to Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator for destroying worms. No article of its kind has given such satisfaction.

The proverbial luck of fools is never mentioned by the lucky individual.

Some persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, dysentery or diarrhoea, and have to use great precautions to avoid the disease. Change of water, cooking, and green fruit, is sure to bring on the attacks. To such persons we would recommend Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial as being the best medicine in the market for all summer Complaints. If a few drops are taken in water when the symptoms are noticed no further trouble will be experienced.

A man is very apt to be cut by his best friend when he attempts to shave himself.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

When a man wants to talk he nearly always bumps up against some man who doesn't want to listen.

Will positively cure sick headache and prevent its return. Carter's Little Liver Pills. This is not talk, but truth. One pill a dose. See advertisement. Small pill. Small dose. Small price.

As an all-round musician the organ grinder heads the list.

To Those of Sedentary Occupation.—Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to disorders of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question the most efficacious on the market. They are easily procurable, easily taken, act expeditiously, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

It manages to get late very early nowadays.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia. (Signed),

Here are two points of view; which do you think is the correct one:

An elderly gentleman, who has travelled over much of this earth's surface, and mixed with all classes of people, said: "I regret very much to see theological matters discussed in the public press. Such a discussion is too often carried to the point of acrimony and in the end does more harm than good."

Here is the opinion of a clergyman, one who, it may be stated, was not in any way mixed up with the discussion which is now engaging public attention: "I regard a theological discussion in the press as an excellent thing, I mean, of course, when not carried to the lengths of personality and abuse. It makes people think more of spiritual things, and enables them to give a reason for the faith that is in them."

One of the Kingston boys was looking so happy yesterday afternoon that a passer-by felt constrained to ask him the reason. However, one paragraph in the President's address, which was read at the annual meeting of the company, may be of interest to people in this locality, namely: "Then, regarding the question of over-production, I don't think we need in the slightest be alarmed on this head. At all events, not for many years to come, when we consider the enormous area to be satisfied; the rapid growth in agricultural, commercial and mining developments, together with railway construction, throughout this great area extend from Atlantic to Pacific, will consume all the high grade Portland cement that can be thrust upon the market for several decades in the future."

A WIFE'S CONFESSION.

Killed Husband and Fed Chickens With His Bones.

Monticello, Feb. 12.—At the hearing in the case of Mrs. Lafayette Taylor, charged with the murder of her husband, Peter Yerkins, an uncle of Mrs. Taylor, testified yesterday that she told him the shocking details of the killing of her husband and the burning of his body as calmly as though she was speaking of the killing of a chicken. Yerkins said she came to his place at Ulster Heights on February 1 to sell him a horse, as she wanted the money to pay a bill. She said: "I am going to leave Taylor and go to work in a boarding house at Woodbourne. You need not fear Taylor any more, for I have fixed him with the red dog."

Yerkins exclaimed: "You don't mean to say you have murdered him, do you?" to which she replied, "He came in drunk and raising trouble. I shot him once and the ball glanced off. I shot him again and he fell on the floor. I then burned his clothing and put new paper on the wall. I burned the body and fed the bones to the chickens."

According to Yerkins' testimony, Mrs. Taylor told him that she had read of a family that did not get along very well and that the woman killed her husband and burned the house. She also told Yerkins that she burned the carpet and all of her clothes that were spotted. She also asked Yerkins for some paint to paint over some stains.

The hearing ended to-night, and Mrs Taylor was ordered confined in jail to await the action of the Grand Jury at the May term.

Baker's Backache.

Working long hours in over-heated and poorly ventilated rooms, exposure to extremes of heat and cold, these and many other things incident to a baker's occupation, bring on backache and kidney disorders. In fact there seems to be no class of men more prone to kidney trouble. When you find your back beginning to bother you, the urine to scald or leave a sediment, if you are running down in health and scarce know why, it is time to start taking Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. Kidney troubles are too serious to neglect and too dangerous to experiment with. When you take Dr. Pitcher's Tablets you know you are having the best kidney treatment a skilled specialist can give you, and can feel assured of a certain and speedy cure.

BAD BACK FOR 3 YEARS.

Mr. Geo. Bell, baker and confectioner, River Street, Paris, Ont., made this positive statement: "My back has been in bad shape for three years, and at 64 years of age we do not expect too much. I lay the trouble to an attack of inflammation of the back which left the back painful and the kidneys weak. I have tried all sorts of medicine with no relief until I got a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets at Paul L. Scott's drug store, and so rapid and great was the relief that I quit on one-half bottle, and have no symptoms of any trouble at all since. I am, so far as I can see, completely cured. This is wonderful to me."

THE PREMIER AND MR. TARTE.

An Alleged Interview With Mr. M. K. Cowan, M.P.

Montreal, Feb. 12.—The statement attributed to Mr. M. K. Cowan, M.P., that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in an interview, had spoken slightingly of Hon. J. I. Tarte, was shown that gentleman yesterday. "Parliament is convened for the 12th of March," said Mr. Tarte, in reply, "and it is customary, under English Parliamentary law, for the Ministers to explain the dismissal or withdrawal of one of their colleagues. I am keeping very quiet just now, and following this wise custom of awaiting the Ministers' explanation. I do not believe Sir Wilfrid ever said this, and until I have confirmation of it I don't care to speak. But when Parliament meets you may be sure the very least I will do will be to defend myself. I have been so often made to say what I never dreamed of saying, that I would rather wait until I know Sir Wilfrid actually made such a statement, and I am inclined to think that the member for South Essex has been misreported. Anyhow, I am following the wise English custom of waiting for the explanation of the Ministers at the commencement of the session as to the reasons for the retirement or dismissal of a Minister. Then I will have something to say."

"What do you think of the rumored withdrawal of the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme, in view of the opposition it is meeting with?"

"I gave my views on that subject a few days ago. I said Mackenzie & Mann were masters of the situation. I don't want to say any more just now."

GERMANY'S DEMAND.

Wants a Large and Immediate Cash Payment.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Germany has ignored her previous agreement, made Bowen last night by Baron Speck Von Quadt-Wykradt Isny, her Charge d'Affaires, and has insisted on a cash payment of $340,000, or a lien on the customs receipts of one of the Venezuelan ports until this amount is paid. This information was communicated to Mr. Bowen to-night by Baron Speck Von Sternberg, the German Minister. Mr. Bowen immediately informed the German Minister that he refused to yield the receipts of any port prior to The Hague's decision, saying that would be preferential treatment. As to the cash payment of $340,000 demanded, Mr. Bowen left that matter to the German Minister to determine, saying to him that if Germany can afford to make a public confession that it does not stand by agreements signed by its duly accredited diplomats, he (Mr. Bowen) is willing that they shall receive on the day the protocol is signed the total amount asked in the original ultimatum. CRITICIZED THE UNION.

Argument Continued Before the Miners' Commission.

Philadelphia, Feb. 12.—Counsel for the coal operators yesterday continued to arraign the miners' union in their arguments before the anthracite strike commission. Independent operators of the Lehigh, the Wyoming and the Lackawanna regions held the attention of the commissioners for the greater part of the day, the proceedings concluding with the presentation of the Reading Company's argument by Simon H. Wolverton, the company's chief counsel. In nearly every case the attorneys charged President Mitchell with responsibility for the alleged lawlessness during the strike, and the union was characterized as an irresponsible organization, whose members were beyond the control of the leaders. Mr. Wolverton strongly urged the incorporation of the union, and charged that it was unfit to control the anthracite industry, because boys are numbered among its members.

Nearly $2,000,000 Damage Done at a Blaze at Rock Island, Ill.

Rock Island, Ill., Feb. 12.—Shop "A," the principal issue storehouse at the Rock Island Government arsenal, was destroyed by fire with its contents. The latter included cavalry and infantry equipment of every description and one million rounds of Krag-Jorgensen smokeless ammunition. The contents were worth $1,500,000. The building was a massive structure, three stories high, erected twenty years ago at a cost of $400,000.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Grain is Lower—The Live Stock Trade—Latest Quotations.

Wednesday Evening, Feb. 11.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Trade at St. Lawrence Market was rather dull to-day, the bad condition of the roads being responsible for the light receipts of produce. The total grain receipts amounted to 1,300 bushels.

Wheat—White wheat was firmer; 300 bushels sold at 72½c to 73½c per bushel. Two hundred bushels of goose sold easier at 67½c per bushel.

Barley—The market is about steady; 400 bushels sold at 47c to 50c per bushel.

Oats—Receipts were fairly large, 400 bushels selling at 35½c to 36½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—The movement in dressed hogs this morning was rather slow. Receipts were light and prices continue unchanged. Quotations are $7.85 to $8.25 per cwt for choice light weight butcher hogs, and $7.50 to $7.75 for heavies.

Hay—Receipts amounted to about 30 loads, with prices for No. 1 timothy a little easier at $12 to $14 per ton. Mixed or clover is steady at $6 to $10 per ton.

Straw—None was offered. Prices are steady at $9 to $10 per ton.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 11.—Cattle—Receipts, light; steady; veals steady; tops, $9.25 to $9.75; common to good, $5.50 to $9. Pickwick up to Date.

(Mr. Jingle's Elopement.)

"They're gone, sir—gone clean off, sir!" gasped the servant.

"Who's gone?" said Mr. Wardle fiercely.

"Mister Jingle and Miss Rachel—started off in a motor hired ten minutes since, and—"

"Quick!" shouted Mr. Wardle, "my car, at once! John, Harry—some of you—go and get the petrol! Tom, my respirator and spectacles this instant! Come along, Pickwick, we'll catch 'em in less than no time—out of the way, Winkle, out of the way! Here we are—jump in, Pickwick. Stand clear there!"

And in less time than it takes to describe the event the two intrepid old gentlemen had started on their chase. Away they went, down the narrow lanes, jolting in and out of the cart-ruts and bumping against the hedges on either side.

"Is it—is it safe?" mumbled Mr. Pickwick behind his respirator, as he peered anxiously through his goggles into the surrounding darkness.

"Hope so," replied Wardle, fumbling with the speed-gear. "Wish I understood this blessed machinery better, though. Only had a motor a week, and—"

A violent cannon against a signpost cut the remark short.

For a while there was silence. Then Mr. Pickwick, who had been sniffing uneasily, broke the silence once more.

"My dear good friend," he gasped, "what is this abominable smell?"

"Acetylene," rejoined Mr. Wardle abruptly. "Something gone wrong with the lamp. Look out, sharp corner here—and now we go downhill. Sit tight!"

But to comply with this direction was impossible. Mr. Pickwick was thrown up and down in his seat like a cork. His goggles were jerked from his nose, his cap blown like a feather towards the sky, his whole body converted into one tremendous bruise.

"Ah, we're moving now," cried Mr. Wardle exultingly—and indeed they were moving. Fields, hedges and trees seemed to rush from them with the velocity of a whirlwind. Suddenly Mr. Pickwick exclaimed with breathless eagerness: "Here they are!"

Yes, a few hundred yards ahead of them was a motor, on which the well-known form of Jingle was plainly discernible. It was traveling quite slowly, and Mr. Wardle increased his speed yet further with a shout of triumph. "We have them, Pickwick, we have them!" he cried, while the car flew like a streak of lightning. And then suddenly—a bump—a crash—and Mr. Wardle and Mr. Pickwick found themselves seated in the middle of the road, which was strewn with fragments of their machine. Two members of the constabulary were coiling up a rope which, stretched across the highway, had procured their downfall. A third policeman licked his pencil, and produced a notebook.

"Thought our rope would spoil your little game. Thirty-seven miles an hour, I make it. Names and addresses, please?"

Jingle's car had stopped a short way ahead. "Ta-ta, Pickwick," he shouted, "good-bye, Wardle—measured mile—scorching a mistake—police waiting—twigged 'em directly—slowed down. If lucky—option of fine—probably imprisonment. Well, so long!" and restarting his machine, he disappeared.—"Punch."

Satan to Blame.

"Lightning knocked the church steeple down," someone said to Brother Dickey.

"Yes; Satan's eyes always flash fire when he sees a church steeple gwine up."

"And here's a colored brother killed another at a camp meeting."

"Yes; Satan goes ter meetin' 'long wid de res' er dem, en sometimes shouts de loudes'."

"And a preacher was drowned in the river last week."

"Oh, yes; Satan's in de water, too. He 'bleege ter go dar ter cool off."

"So you blame everything on Satan, do you?"

"Bless God," was the reply, "ain't dat what he's fer?"—Atlanta "Constitution."

Many a man's self-conceit is due to his ignorance.

"MARKET ACTIVITY IN CREASING"

It would appear as if there was a revival of speculation at hand, stocks are again waking up and becoming more active while prices are hardening. Most issues are now selling at exceedingly attractive prices, warranting purchasing. An increase in volume of business at present brings higher prices.

WE WILL BE PLEASED TO NOTATE UPON REQUEST, THE MOST DESIRABLE ISSUES FOR IMMEDIATE PURCHASE.

For an account with us amounting to $100.00, we will purchase and carry for you 20 shares of any active stocks, 2,000 bushels of grain or 100 Bales of cotton; larger amounts, in proportion. We solicit your investment, banking or speculative account. Let us send you for a while our

Yes, and fine stationery at reasonable prices—right prices.

In addition to above, we have now two bargain tables of commercial and private stationery, and these tables are attracting a deal of attention.

You'll find there official envelopes worth 15c per package, regular now for 5c per package. You'll find 100 envelopes for 10c, and if you will take a thin envelope we can give you 100 for 5c—pretty cheap stationery, but who could sell stationery cheap if the big buyer, the specialist, could not?

Better stop in and have a peep at our bargain tables of fancy goods, or your friends will have the bargains.

Our Picture Framing trade goes merrily on—it has grown to manhood now, can support itself and three mechanics nicely. We certainly turn out satisfactory work—turn it out promptly and at prices pleasing to our customers, else they would not return with so many additional pictures for framing.

Decorating Paper Hanging Painting

In all its branches.

We have our own staff of paperhangers, the best workmen in the city, thus our customers have the triple alliance of the best to be had in Wall Papers, the best workmen to execute work and an experienced decorator to design and execute the work.

You would scarcely expect to build a new, modern house without consulting an architect and have him submit a design.

So it should be with decorating if of a pretentious order you should have a decorator, one who can give you drawings in color of your interiors that you can see it complete before it is commenced. We will do this for you and without extra cost.

Our Wall Papers are at least 25 per cent. below regular prices, as we furnish the boarders free—a yard of border with each roll of paper—without cost.

A Dinner at Ilagnevs'.

My friend Van Amberg worries me to death sometimes on the subject of food. He is a crank. If he were a chimpanzee at the Zoo, or some equally valuable exotic animal, he could not be more fanciful over dietetical matters. When he hears of a new form of breakfast oats he is not happy till he tries it, nor, when he has tried it, is he happy till he has tried all his friends with the story of its indigestibility.

His real disease is two thousand a year and nothing to do. He has made a hobby of his stomach, and his hobby has made him a frank, whole-souled and perfect bore.

I was sitting over the fire the other evening waiting for dinner and re-reading "Trilby" when Van Amberg, who inhabits the rooms below mine, came in and told me to rise up and follow him, as he had discovered a positively miraculous cafe, and wanted to take me there to dine. To escape a cold leg of mutton which had haunted me for two evenings, and which I knew my landlady was at that moment "laying" only that it might appear before me in the more frightful form of a hash, I took my hat and followed Van Amberg.

"I will give you a dinner such as you have never eaten before," said he as we got into a hansom. "You know the state of my health and that I only live on sufferance, so to speak; sugar, without any metaphor, is death to me, and I love it. I have sometimes thought of going into Fuller's and ending my wretched existence in one wild debauch. I always take the other side of Oxford street when I am passing Buszard's, for the place has an attraction for me which I can only liken to the attraction of a precipice. I can't eat veal, I can't eat pork, I can't eat anything I want to eat. I sometimes pass the Carlton with a pocket full of sovereigns; but I no more dare go in there and dine than the man who sweeps the crossing just below; but at this new place Ilagnevs' I can eat anything. He is the wizard of the kitchen. You wait and see."

We dismissed the cab at the Oxford street end of Wardour street. We walked down Wardour street through Old Compton street and down an alley; at the door of a dismal-looking third class restaurant he stopped. "This is Ilagnevs'."

"Surely," I said, "you are not going to dine in a place of this description."

Without replying he entered, and I followed. The place was arranged inside in the old-fashioned English manner—loose boxes with a table in each. Van Amberg chose the box nearest the door which was vacant, and up came M. Ilagnevs in person to enquire what he could do for us. He was a tall man with long black hair and piercing black eyes; an ideal brigand, a man of energy, too, for in less than no time our dinner was served.

Ah! what a dinner that was, from the lobster-red crawfish soup to the pale-green curious-tasting ice. What a dream!

"A very great violinist is dining here to-night," said M. Ilagnevs as he served us with coffee himself; "no less a person than Herr ——. You will hear him play." I heard a fiddle being tuned, and then from a back room of that disreputable restaurant came music. Ah! that was music indeed; music to live for, music almost to die for.

When it ceased my friend arose wearily, and, placing the amount of the bill on the table, turned towards the door. "Come," he said; "let us go."

"Well," I said when we were in the alley, "I must compliment you on your discovery."

Van Amberg laughed. "What have you had for dinner?" he asked. I enumerated the courses and he laughed again. Then he said, "You won't be angry if I tell you something?"

"Perhaps not—go on."

"Well, that dinner was all a fake: all those wonderful courses were simply dry bread and cold water. Do you think I could have eaten those things? I ate them in my imagination whilst my body ate bread. Ilagnevs is a hypnotist; his guests are hypnotized. At his place one can eat and drink anything and enjoy it without harm to oneself—the fat man can revel in sugar, the man with indigestion can eat pork. Is not that the greatest discovery of the age?"

"But he did not hypnotize me; he did not touch me."

"Do the Indian fakirs touch the crowds they hypnotize, the crowds that watch them climbing ladders that hang with no support in the air and stabbing children in wicker baskets?"

"But the violin player?"

"Oh! he is an old fellow Ilagnevs gets in for eighteenpence and a glass of grog; he plays the tune the old cow died of, and under the spell of hypnotism it becomes the music of the spheres."

As he said this he suddenly vanished, the street collapsed and I woke up in my armchair by the fire just as my landlady entered the room bearing the hash. It was a dream—not the hash, but the dinner at Ilagnevs'—and I think it was caused partly by "Trilby," which I had just been re-reading, for when I examine the name "Ilagnevs" it seems very much like "Svengali" spelt backwards. It was a dream, but when one thinks over the matter there seems a good deal in that dream.

I have seen men mesmerized and made to believe that they are eating pineapple when, as a matter of fact, they are devouring a turnip, and if hypnotism can turn a turnip into a pineapple what might not hypnotism do for English cookery?

If it could, even in a dream, turn the "tune the old cow died of" into the music of the spheres, what might it not do for English music?—Henry de Vere Stacpoole in London "Outlook."

The "Nose For News."

An interesting incident is told in the New York "Times" of the exploit of an office-boy connected with that journal. The telegraph editor and members of the staff had gone home in the early morning of a day last fall. Their work was done, and the paper had gone to press. The office-boy, tired and sleepy, sat at his desk finishing up some little task preparatory to going home.

Just as he was leaving the room one of the carriers used to bring messages through the tube from the Associated Press office leaped out into the receptacle. Mechanically the boy stepped over to the tube, and, lifting out the envelope, tore it open. Hastily glancing down the page, he saw that it was a bulletin of most important news. He

BANISH YOUR RHEUMATISM

W. A. Andrews Banished His When He Was So Bad That He Had Lost Twenty-five Pounds and Was a Complete Wreck.

Hobbling Around on Two Canes He Commenced to Take Powley's Liquified Ozone, Which Instantly Destroyed the Disease Germs.

In Two Days His Appetite Returned, His Sleep Was Natural and Restful, His Pains and Aches Vanished and He Threw Away His Canes.

"Last August I was attacked with severe muscular rheumatism. So bad was this attack that I called in my doctor, who had to administer injections to allay the pain, after which he put me through the sweating system. He attended me well and faithfully for five weeks. When I got up I was compelled to use two canes to get around the house. During all this time I lost about twenty-five pounds in weight; in fact I was a complete wreck. My appetite and sleep left me. I tried a number of good tonics to brace me up and give me an appetite, but none of them helped me.

"About this time my daughter commenced taking Ozone for a chronic sore throat and quinsy, from which she had suffered for years. In a short time she was completely cured of this troublesome disease. So effective was the preparation in her case that I commenced taking it myself, and in two days' time my appetite returned and my sleep became as good as ever. All the pains and aches had vanished by the time I had started on the second bottle, and I threw away my canes. Ozone toned up my system and I became a new man. I gained rapidly in flesh, as all my friends can testify. I look well and enjoy as good health now as ever I did in my life.

Ozone Acts Rapidly and Thoroughly.

It is conceded by medical men that the cause of nine-tenths of the disease from which people suffer is disease germs. Powley's Liquified Ozone acts rapidly because it immediately attacks this cause. It acts thoroughly, because it eradicates every trace of it.

In a nutshell, Powley's Liquified Ozone cures disease by destroying the disease germs that cause it. It is especially beneficial in cases of rheumatism and will give relief and effect a permanent cure in the very worst cases.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is sold only by reliable dealers—never by fakirs or peddlers. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. Our book on Rheumatism free on receipt of name and address.

Bethel, Not Plainfield

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—I noticed in your valuable paper of last week's issue an article concerning one Mr. Wells and his clients of Bethel, about some honey scrape, of which the accused were innocent. Now, Mr. Editor, if Mr. Wells would kindly correct the mistake and give the place of theft as Bethel instead of Plainfield, the community at large would feel satisfied, and the residents of Plainfield would feel more proud of their quiet little village and would wipe away the stain that has been thrown on it for the first time in years. I remain, yours,

J. THOMPSON.

The Thomasburg Postmastership

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Mr. Editor,—Will you please allow me a small space in your valuable paper to correct an item in your issue of the 3rd Feb., stating that "Mr. Thomas H. Slush has been appointed Postmaster at Thomasburg, in room and stead of Edward Elliott, who resigned owing to enfeebled health. This is not a political move," etc. Let your readers hear the true facts of the case and then judge for themselves whether it is a political move or not. In the first place, Mr. Elliott, resigned on the 31st Dec., 1902, recommending Mr. C. S. Fennell (his assistant for the last five years), a gentleman of experience and very reliable in every way, as his successor, but soon every Grit understrapper in the village (there are only two) were astir, offering the office to every one without regard to abilities, who would promise to vote Grit. There were two such offers made, even before he resigned, which can be proved conclusively, but it was the 23rd Jan. before they could find some one to take this little office. Yet forsooth there was no politics in it.

"ANGLICAN CATHOLIC LAYMAN" ONCE MORE

TAKES UP HIS TRENCHANT PEN AND REPLIES TO HIS CRITICS.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Mr. Editor,—I never take up my pen except in defence of the old Catholic and Apostolic Church of Britain; the old church who converted our forefathers, who were heathens and cannibals, and made them Christians; the old church that gave the first British martyr for the cause of Christianity, viz., St. Alban; the old church that fought the spiritual battles of the nation century after century, until singly and alone and unaided, she fought for 300 years the awful struggle of the Reformation, and produced thereby such glorious martyrs as Cranmer, Ridley, Lattimer, Wycliffe and others; the same old church that has made the British nation the most righteous, as well as the greatest the world has yet seen. Remember I did not invite this discussion and would like to remind the author of the sermon which compelled me to write in defence of the Church Catholic that his two predecessors in office in the "Deformed" Episcopal Church here in Belleville, both men whose mental capacity fully equals his own, as all will attest who have heard him, as well as they, "that they very soon saw the error of their ways and came back into the bosom of the old church, the spiritual mother of the Anglo-Saxon race. And now a word or two to that venerable and aged preacher who wrote so "charitably" last evening. I would like to tell him that the British Church is like her Lord, "the same yesterday, today and forever." She changes not and teaches the same truths to-day that she has always taught and does not change with every shifting wind, teaching one thing one century and another another century, for she has her Book of Common Prayer and Doctrine, and clothes it in black and white always. But I am going to say no more about her doctrines, as I will not encroach upon the space in the papers and it would do no good if I did, as her doctrines cannot be understood by the rebellious hearted and stiff-necked, but by the humble and the simple. Christ said, "I will give light and understanding to the simple." What I have said of her doctrines I have said and it will some day, no doubt, bear fruit, as what I have said has evidently struck hard and deep, and that is the best evidence that it will bear fruit, and now, Mr. L., in conclusion, let me ask you a fair and square question. You are an old man and can, no doubt, remember when you and the rest of your preachers used to preach what a sin it was for your women to wear a feather in their bonnets, or a particle of trimming on the dress, or a bit of jewellery on the hands or anywhere else, and when they were even compelled to cut the hair off short and not wear it done up in style. Do you remember this? Well, do you think it a sin now that your people dress in the height of fashion, unsurpassed by any denomination of Christians in Belleville to-day to wear jewellery and diamonds galore, and have their homes likewise adorned? I ask is it still a sin? God has not changed one iota. He is the same God now as then. What do you you, Mr. L., think of it? When we see the poor, miserably-dressed and poverty-stricken men and women, old and young, going to God's house on the Sabbath day, led there by the Spirit, desirous of meeting God in His house, to bow down before Him on their "bended knees," to do Him homage and worship, and ask for His blessing; where are they going? I will tell you. The chances are ninety-nine in one hundred that they are going to the Church Catholic, where the humblest and lowest and most degraded of God's creatures are encouraged to go and compelled to go, if you like. Mr. L., are your people one iota better in true manliness and womanliness, in true humility and meekness and all the other Christian graces and in common honesty than the members of the Church Catholic, are they? And now, Mr. Editor, I would like to ask this rabid old gentleman, this one of the venerable generation of fighters that is fast passing away. "God bless them," why he has tried to jump on my neck. I did not say anything against him or his to invite such an onslaught. The only reason I can imagine for this uppercut of his is the Spirit of Self-righteousness that inflates his soul, and makes him imagine that he is holier and made of better clay than common members of the Church Catholic, like myself, who are always willing to acknowledge ourselves miserable sinners publically each and every Sabbath we attend the house of God. I never take up my pen for notoriety and will now lay it down for good, unless compelled to take it up again in defence of the British Church, that so many Britons despise.

Yours truly,
D. H. ACKERILL,
Anglican Catholic Layman.

SPORTING COMMENT.

Peterboro and Port Hope intermediate hockey teams will play home and home matches for a trophy. How would a leather medal do?

If the Kingston Juniors can play such a swift game, their intermediate men ought to give our boys quite an argument to-morrow night. That looks reasonable, doesn't it?

We stop the press to remark that a Peterboro hockey team has won a game, defeating Lakefield by 5 to 2.

The Kingston Whig rather boastingly says: "The result of the Varsity-Wellington match proves that Queen's is the best hockey team in Ontario, with the possible exception of Ottawa." To which the Mail and Empire gently replies: "What about Belleville?" Sure! What about Belleville, which beat Queen's and every other team it played with this season, while Queens have been licked twice.

When last heard from the Bakers had not yet got on a game with any team. If they'll wait till the weather gets a little warmer the Printers will play 'em.

HOCKEY.

Kingston Lads Made a Garrison Finish.

Cobourg and Kingston sent good-sized crowds of supporters with their teams yesterday, when they came here to play off their tie in the second round of the Junior O.H.A. There were about fifty up from Kingston, while the number from Cobourg would probably reach nearly 250. Very enthusiastic they were, too, of course. Some of the visitors came in early, and they walked the streets during the afternoon, flaunting their ribbons and making suitable remarks about the weather. The Cobourg men were very confident, and the Kingston people said: "Well, we think we can win if we get a fair show." A "fiercer" night for a hockey match could hardly have been imagined. It was raining, the sidewalks were covered with puddles of water and slush, and the conditions, no doubt, kept many away, and it may be remarked that those who did stay away missed one of the neatest and cleanest games of hockey ever played in this city. The ice was a trifle soft, of course, but it was not nearly so bad as it might have been; in fact, it was surprisingly good under the circumstances. The major portion of the crowd was composed of visitors. The Kingston contingent took up their position on the south side of the rink, the railing in front of which they had decorated with light blue and white ribbons. The Kingston men were great "rooters." All night long they kept up their war cry, defiant and encouraging when their team was behind and losing, exultant and triumphant when it was ahead and winning. The Cobourg men, of course, were not a whit behind. They greatly outnumbered the Kingstonians, and in the early part of the match, when things were coming Cobourg's way, the shouts of the western men could easily be heard on Front street. They quieted down considerably in the last half, though. The Kingston youngsters looked very neat in their white suits, and seemed well trained and able to go the distance in good style. When our old friends from Cobourg came out of their dressing rooms, however, they looked like a dangerous bunch. McKenna and McCallum, last year's stars, were there, and they and the rest of the boys looked very fit. It was evidently going to be a good match. It was about 8.20 when Referee McCabe called the boys together for a heart to heart talk. Good clean hockey was what he wanted them to play, and they did it. This was the way the teams lined up:

Cobourg.		Beechgrove-Frontenacs.
McKenna	Goal	McDowell
T. Walker	Point	C. Robinson
R. Floyd	Cover	H. Clarke
McKinnon	Rover	Potter
A. Bentley	Centre	Herb Clarke
Bond McCallum	Wings.	Kidd Williams

The Cobourg boys at once assumed the aggressive. The play was in Kingston territory nine-tenths of the time, and there were many shots on McDowell's stronghold. The Kingston defence did not seem able to hold the Cobourg forwards, and in fact, the whole Kingston team seemed disorganized. When the western boys scored after fourteen minutes play it was simply what everybody expected. Just as this game was scored a great crowd of Cobourg people, who had just arrived by special train, entered the rink, and their shouts encouraged the Maroon and White boys, who played with great vim and dash. Kingston, however, was showing symptoms of improvement, and McKenna had some nice shots to stop. However, Cobourg scored again in ten minutes, and repeated the trick one minute later. Score 3-0, and the first half nearly over. The boys from the east stuck gallantly to their task, and by a neat bit of combination scored the fourth game. Half-time came with the score 3-1, and it looked a 10 to 1 shot that Cobourg would win out if they could stand the pace. All sorts of Cobourg money was in sight at odds of as high as 4 to 1, with no takers.

The second half started and there was a surprise coming to nearly everybody. "What kind of finishers are your boys?" said the writer to the Kingston time-keeper. "Pretty good," he said cheerily, "it's anybody's game yet." And so it was. The rest and council of war must have done the Kingston lads good. For the first three or four minutes of the second half the Cobourg boys did all the pressing, and then a change came o'er the scene. The youngsters from dear old Kingston began to outfoot their opponents, their defence was working like clockwork and steadily and surely they were taking matters into their own hands, scoring in seven minutes. They did the trick again in half a minute, and the score was tied. The unexpected had happened, and the Eastern lads were fairly playing the Cobourg boys to a standstill. Kingston scored again in two minutes. The Cobourg supporters were silent now, but the Kingston crowd made noise enough for everybody. The Kingston centre, Herb Clarke, was doing some brilliant work, and was being well backed up. The Cobourg boys were fighting desperately, but they seemed no match for their speedy and slippery opponents, who scored three times more, the match ending 7-3 in their favor. The dash and combination of the Kingston boys in the last half would have beaten many a good team, and if they can keep up that pace they should come mighty close to landing the O.H.A. championship.

Caught in the Net.

Only two men were ruled off; Kidd, of Kingston, and McCallum, of Cobourg, the first for tripping and the latter for slashing.

The officials were: Cobourg: timekeeper, Mr. McCallum; umpire, D. Haines. Kingston: timekeeper, W. Mills; umpire, E. Hartrick.

Some of the Cobourg boys seemed to fade away in the last half, but they were surely up against a hard proposition.

The Kingston boys displayed some pretty combination in the second half. It would please you to see the forwards break away and come down four abreast.

It may be a mistake, but it looks as though, if the Cobourg men had been able to keep up the pace they set in the first half, they would have been returned the winners.

Go ahead, Kingston, and get the Junior championship. We'll do our best to land the Intermediate.

SPORTING NOTES.

At the Syracuse Horse Show George Pepper, of Toronto, won all the prizes in the class for hunters and jumpers with Myopia, Squire, Pearl and Redfellow.

All bets were declared off in the sixth heat of the 2.25 pace at Ottawa on account of Abbott's bad driving of the favorite, Babeline, of Kingston.

Ottawa hockey team has a good chance of winning the Eastern championship, which includes the Stanley Cup. All will depend on the result of its meeting with Montreal on the latter's ice on Saturday, Feb. 21.

Mail and Empire: It was rumored yesterday that "Rod" Flett, of the Winnipeg Victorias, who remained in Montreal after the Stanley Cup games, might be moved to Toronto. If he comes here the Wellingtons would be only too glad to welcome him to fill the vacancy caused by Smart's unfortunate accident.

FAILED TO ELICIT GOVERNMENT VIEW

MANUFACTURERS GET NO LIGHT ON TARIFF QUESTION — ARE BITTERLY DISAPPOINTED.

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—It is learned in a reliable quarter that the chief mission of the delegates of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association to Ottawa was to learn the disposition of the Government toward their plea for higher protection. This they would like to know before submitting their demands. But the Ministers have a habit of letting the visitors do most of the talking on these tariff deputations, so all that the manufacturers have is an assurance that any representations they submit will meet with due consideration.

The deputation does not disguise its disappointment. They had hoped to get pointers as to the lines upon which they might draft a successful memorial, but the Government was sphinx-like.

THE TRENT VALLEY CANAL

CONTROVERSY ON THE SUBJECT BETWEEN PORT HOPE AND PETERBORO PAPERS.

As the Belleville City Council recently placed itself on record in regard to the Trent Valley Canal and its terminus, the following article from the Peterboro Review will be of timely interest:

The Port Hope Guide returns to the charge in its attempt to destroy the Trent Valley Canal, displaying while doing so its ignorance of the object of the projected route and of inland navigation generally:—

The Guide says:—

"The Peterboro Review undertakes to discuss the outlet of the Trent Canal from Rice Lake into Lake Ontario, and in doing so clings to the mistake that the small barges brought over the canal, must be taken all the way to Montreal, a distance of 330 miles, there and back, requiring about a week to make the journey, evidently overlooking the fact that the St. Lawrence Canals have been deepened to 14 feet, and that large vessels can come right into Port Hope's magnificent harbor and transfer freight without delay. We contend that we have ample accommodation for all the shipping likely to come over the canal for years, and when necessary can easily get more, besides we are only about 33 miles from the Murray Canal. If the Review would advocate a deep waterway from Port Hope to Rice Lake, then Peterboro would have the advantage of the water front—and in the matter of coal alone would effect quite a saving, as the coal barges would come direct from Oak Orchard, which is only 35 miles from here. Let us by all means have an up-to-date canal, and if the Government will have an independent survey of the Port Hope route made, we will be quite satisfied to have the question of outlet settled on its merits."

The very object of the Trent Valley Canal is to provide economical and safe barge navigation from the upper lakes to our ocean ports, and this its main purpose would be destroyed by its exit into storm-ridden Lake Ontario. What the Guide calls small barges are more than double the tonnage of those on the Erie Canal, and every one who has made himself acquainted with the subject knows the enormous public benefit that has been derived from the Erie Canal not only from the amount of grain it has carried, but because it has affected the freight rate of every bushel conveyed by the railways. And the Trent Valley is far superior to the Erie in the greater capacity of its barges, its adaptibility to speedier navigation, and its abundance of water, feeding its summit level, in which the Erie is sadly deficient. In the United Kingdom, and all over the continent of Europe barge canals are largely employed and properly valued.

If ocean-going steamers are willing to come up freely to Port Hope, which we doubt, how many could be accommodated at once in the harbor there, while transferring the cargo from the fleet of barges? If our contemporary means that they would not be ocean-going vessels, though larger than barges, this would involve another transfer at the sea-port, the very thing that it is designed to avoid.

We must decline to join with the Guide in advocating that Peterboro should become an ocean port, for nature forbids it. We are content to develop and utilize our great natural advantages, without grudging to Montreal or Quebec their position as ocean ports, or to Port Hope its position as a fine port on a great lake.

Collected Pay Twice

A lady this morning went into the police station and stated that she had a complaint to make. It was to the effect that on Saturday last she bought a bag of apples on the market and paid 50 cents for them. When the seller delivered the apples the lady was not at home and he again collected 50 cents. An effort will be made to find out who the party was that sold the fruit.

THE HUMBERTS ON TRIAL.

Opening of Case Against the Famous Swindlers.

Paris, Feb. 12.—Therese Humbert, Frederic Humbert and Maria Daurignac, charged with gigantic swindles, made their first bow to the Parisian public yesterday, at the Ninth Police Court Chamber, in the little curtain-raiser that precedes grand comedy on the bills for after date. Therese appeared in smart back astrakan jacket, and every few moments put a bottle of smelling salts to her nose. She was pale, haggard and worried, and spoke in a short, snappy voice, pitched in a high, whining key. At times her diminutive eyes glared ferociously. Frederic, her artistic husband, was forlorn and pathetic; Maria Daurignac, common-place and teary. The impression was that of an ordinary police trial, vulgar and uninteresting. Cattani, the Egyptian banker, one of the chief victims, whom Therese Humbert charges with usury, is also unpicturesque and common-place. There was general disappointment at the colorless and undramatic aspect of these personages, especially as the audience comprised a number of literary men and playwrights in search of theatrical material. Among those present I noticed Gaston Deschamps, Henri Bataille, Alfred Capus, Marcel Prevost, Jules Claretie, Madame Gyp, Madame Fred Gresac, Tristan Bernard and other leading men and women of letters. THE TREATY RATIFIED.

THE SENATE APPROVES OF THE ALASKAN AGREEMENT.

No Delay in Taking Action on the Matter and No Decided Opposition Developed.

Washington, Feb. 12.—In an executive session, which lasted only an hour and a half, yesterday, the Senate, in addition to confirming a large number of nominations, ratified the Alaskan boundary treaty.

There was no delay in securing action on the treaty, and very little opposition to it was manifested. Senator Teller said that he considered the Alaskan boundary so well determined as to make it not a matter of dispute. Therefore, while he would not delay it, he would not vote for it. The ayes and noes were not called, but there were several voices heard in the negative when an informal expression was called for. The ayes were so much more numerous, however, that the decision of the chair to the effect that ratification had prevailed was not challenged.

Ottawa, Feb. 12.—(Special.)—His Excellency the Governor-General received a telegram from Sir Michael Herbert, British Ambassador at Washington, to the effect that Congress ratified the Alaska treaty. It is thought here that Lord Alverstone and Sir Francis Jeune will be the two members of the judicial tribunal to be appointed by the British Government. The Canadian representative has not been selected, and perhaps will not be for some time yet. If former association with the dispute is not regarded as an insuperable obstacle, Sir Louis Davies' intimate knowledge of the facts relating to the controversy should call for his nomination. There seems to be an impression, however, that those who have taken a pronounced stand upon the boundary matter will be barred from sitting on the tribunal. In such an event a choice must be made elsewhere, and in this connection the names of Mr. Justice Armour and Sir John Boyd are mentioned.

FILIPINOS SHOW FIGHT.

The Outbreak in Luzon Has Become Serious.

Manila, Feb. 12.—The concentration of the insurgents from Laguna, Batangas and Cavite, in the provinces of Rizal and Bulacan, is strengthening the local bands and the district is being terrorized. The railroad to the north of Manila is evidently beyond the control of the scattered constabulary posts. Gen. Allen has hurried reinforcements to the north and has taken advantage of the Congressional action by placing the Philippine scouts in the field.

Numerous commands are now patrolling the province of Bulacan. They have frequent skirmishes with the insurgents, but it is not likely that they will capture the principal leaders, who will probably escape to the hills of the neighboring provinces. The present outbreak is the gravest on the Island of Luzon since the original revolution. Alarmists say that it is the beginning of a second insurrection, because the movement is so widespread.

MINERS ALMOST KILLED.

Were Cut Off by a Fire in an Iron Mine.

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 12.—A special from Eveloth, on the Mesaba Iron Range, says:—Eleven miners were imprisoned by fire which broke out yesterday in No. 3 shaft of the Spruce mine, owned by the United States Steel Corporation. Dense smoke rolled out of the shaft, and it was feared the entrapped men might be suffocated before the fire could be subdued. The blaze was in an oil house in the second level, and shanties and timber in that part of the mine burned fiercely.

Later the flames were subdued and the men were rescued. All were half suffocated, but will recover.

THE MINERS' UNION.

BAER DECLARES THAT IT IS A MONSTER MONOPOLY.

Mr. Darrow's Defiance—Operators Bound to Recognize the Organization—A New Wage Scale Offered.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—Before an audience that filled every inch of space in the United States Circuit Court room, President Geo. F. Baer of the Reading Co. made his closing argument for the coal operators before the Strike Commission, and Clarence S. Darrow, chief of the counsel for the miners, began the summing up for the men. The greatest interest was manifested in Mr. Baer's appearance before the commission to plead the case of the mine owners. There were many prominent persons present to hear him, among them being President Truesdale of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad; Archbishop Ryan, Judges of the Federal and local courts. State Senators, and many mining officials from the coal regions, and President Mitchell. Mr. Baer concluded his address. President Baer grew sarcastic as he told in detail of the negotiations before the Civic Federation. The operators pocketed their pride, he said, and met in a church building, where were present some distinguished men. "Some were Bishops, and some dressed like Bishops." He pictured the members of the federation sitting around, "puffing good cigars," and not saying a word, while he and Mr. Mitchell tried to get together. He arraigned the federation for not giving the operators' and the miners' representatives the "small courtesy" of hearing the report of the committee appointed by these two sides, nor did it have the "manly courage" to further help the parties in contest.

During the course of his remarks Mr Baer said the operators conceded to organized labor the same rights they claimed for organized capital, but each must keep within the law. He contended that the miners' leaders were legally and morally responsible for the strike, from which violence and crime resulted. Continuing, he said:—

If we are overanxious about the effect of the mere possibilities of monopoly, what must be the measure of anxiety as to placing the control of the fuel of the country in one organization, and that, too, an organization without capital or responsibility? We are not left to conjecture. The facts are before us. The United Mine Workers have created a monster monopoly. They did shut up the anthracite mines for more than five months. They taxed the bituminous miners and all laborers over whom organized labor had control to support the strike. The owners of bituminous mines, some in self-defence, others in the hope of gain, contributed to the strike fund. All over the land, except in the districts that could be supplied by the great anthracite coal companies, the poor, the honest workman and the well-to-do suffered for want of fuel.

After reviewing the "old sliding scale wage system" Mr. Baer presented this proposition:—"That the rate of wages now paid shall be the minimum basis for the next three years; that from the first of November, 1902, to the first of April, 1903, all employees, other than contract miners, shall be paid an additional five per cent.; that on and after April first, 1903, for each five cents in excess of $4.50 per ton on the average price realized for white ash coal in the harbor in New York on all sizes above pea wages shall be advanced one per cent., the wages to rise or fall one per cent. for each five cents' increase or decrease in prices; but they shall never fall during the next three years below the present basis.

Mr. Darrow, for the miners, followed Mr. Baer. In opening he made a complimentary reference to the patience of the commission, reviewed the strike and all the sufferings it entailed, and said:—"I shall apologize for none of the mistakes of the men, but I do say it does not come with grace from their accusers to call them criminals." Mr. Darrow went on to tell of the operators refusing to give the men more money, and said:—"As a consequence of this act 147,000 men laid down their tools of trade, and we have 750,000 men, women and children reduced to want and starvation for six long months. We have seen the President of the United States appoint the commission to settle the difficulty, and then this afternoon, in the last hours of the proceedings, the man more responsible than any other comes before this commission and says he will do exactly that which these men demanded nine months before, and which they, in their blindness, their ignorance and their stupidity, refused. Why did not Mr. Baer go to Mr. John Mitchell nine months ago as he came to this commission to-day?

"You can do just as you please about recognizing the union. If you do not recognize it it is because you are blind and you want to bump against it some more; that is all. It is here to stay, and the burden is on you; and not upon us. There is neither the power nor the disposition in this court. I take it, to destroy the union. And if these agents of the Almighty cannot see the union they had better blunder along still a few more years, and possibly, after a while they will know it is here and recognize it themselves."

Passing to the wage statements handed to the commission, Mr. Darrow said the operators have been deceived by their accountants, and that when Mr Baer informed the Senators of this State, the President of the United States and the commission of how much wages his men were getting he gave them information at least 30 or 40 or 50 per cent. beyond any facts that really existed. "If at the end of all this time and labor he is willing to give us 5 or 10 per cent. upon the figures that he says correctly represent our earnings," Mr. Darrow said, "we will be very glad indeed to take it."

The Guards Conroversy.

London, Feb. 13.—The Guards controversy now includes as a side issue a remarkable increase in desertions among the non-commissioned officers and men of the Scots Guards. This is attributed to overwork and bullying. If the charges are well founded it will be an open question whether subalterns who are licensed to flog one another are not brutal disciplinarians to the men under them. There is a current report that when Grenadier Guards subalterns execute the sentences of the mess room court-martials, the victims, whether the sons of Peers or not, are stripped, hoisted upon a whipping horse and flogged. The prestige of these regiments cannot be restored until the truth is known about the methods of "ragging."

ONLY A SUGGESTION

BUT IT HAS PROVEN OF INTEREST AND VALUE TO THOUSANDS.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest and that food should be albuminous or flesh-forming food, like eggs, beefsteak and cereals; in other words the kinds of food that make flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bill of fare.

But the trouble is that while we eat enough and generally too much, the stomach, from abuse and overwork, does not properly digest and assimilate it, which is the reason so many people remain thin and under weight; the digestive organs do not completely digest the flesh forming beefsteak and eggs and similar wholesome food.

There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs.

If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice of taking, after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain the natural peptones and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to regain its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of flesh-forming food, meat, eggs, bread and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up, strengthen and invigorate thin, dyspeptic men, women and children.

Invalids and children, even the most delicate, use them with marked benefit as they contain no strong, irritating drugs, no cathartic nor any harmful ingredient.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most successful and most widely known of any remedy for stomach troubles because it is the most reasonable and scientific of modern medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by every druggist in the United States and Canada as well as in Great Britain, at 50 cents for complete treatment.

Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make thin, nervous dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

VERY CONVENIENT JAIL.

A BURGLAR USES IT AS HIS HEADQUARTERS.

Got in and Out Through a Hole Under His Bed—Committed Robberies and Stored the Plunder in His Cell.

Bathurst, N. B., Feb. 13.—Thursday afternoon while the authorities were investigating the robberies at Mr. Hinton's store, which took place ten days ago, and Holdenraber & Rosenberg's on Monday last, they got the information that Fred. Thibadeau, who is at present in jail awaiting trial for breaking into Landry's jewellery shop about a month since, was the man they wanted. On going to the jail the constables found he had cut a hole through the floor in his cell under the bed, through which he had been getting in and out of the jail at will. In his cell was found a lot of plunder which was stolen from the two stores mentioned. Two other arrests were made. Thibadeau was brought before Justice O'Brien and remanded until Monday.

STRIKE AT FERNIE.

Mining Operations Completely Suspended.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 13.—A special from Fernie says:—Mining operations are tied up. The present crisis has been pending for some time. The district union, embracing representatives from the local unions, had been in consultation with Mr. J. Baker, British Columbia representative of the Western Federation of Miners, last week, but it is thought that he did not sanction the strike. The miners are very secretive, and refuse to tell their grievances, on the ground that they intend to wait until General Manager Tonkin approaches them. They demand that the company recognize the union, and that Mr. Tonkin refuses to do. The grievances are said to chiefly concern Morrissey, where the men are paid only 40 cents a ton, while here they get 60 cents.

The company cannot supply local coal orders, and an intense cold snap is already beginning to cause suffering.

Mr. Tonkin says the company will not give in, and that he is prepared to close the mines for eight months. The Slav element, which is strong, for a long time refused to favor the strike.

Business men are in a peculiar position. They cannot learn the men's grievances, and yet if they do not agree with them they are censured. The men cannot stand a long strike without outside aid, and many are not recovered from the effects of the last strike.

Mr. Tonkin has arrived at Fernie, but refused to confer with the men collectively. He offers to deal with them individually.

MUTINEERS SENTENCED.

Three to be Hanged and Twenty-Eight Imprisoned.

Manila, Feb. 13.—Thirty-one members of the crew of the inter-insular steamer Dos Hermanos, who mutinied in August last, at Port Virac, Island of Catanduemes, and murdered the chief engineer, steward and carpenter of the vessel, and wounded the captain, the mate, the second engineer and one of the passengers, all Spaniards, were convicted of murder yesterday. Three were sentenced to be hanged, and twenty-eight were condemned to imprisonment for life. The mutiny was plotted under the leadership of a native boatswain of the vessel. The mutineers purposed to steal $150,000 which they supposed to be on board. The officers of the steamer were dining when they were attacked. The steward and the carpenter of the ship were murdered while defending the officers. During the fighting the steamer ran aground, and a force of constabulary, which went to the rescue of the officers, killed three of the mutineers, and captured 31 of them, whom they conveyed to Albay, Island of Luzon.

AGITATORS RELEASED.

Nationalist Members Are Set at Liberty.

Dublin, Feb. 13.—William Duffy, Nationalist member of Parliament for South Galway, and three others who were imprisoned under the coercion act, were released from Galway jail. Mr. Duffy, who is Honorary Secretary of the United Irish League, was sentenced on November 18 at Galway to three months' imprisonment for conspiracy and incitement to commit crime.

John O'Donnell, the Nationalist member of Parliament for Southern Mayo, was released from jail to-night. He was sentenced under the crimes act to three months' imprisonment for intimidation and inciting to boycotting. Dennis Johnson, one of the organizers of the United Irish League, was also liberated to-day.

THE FUTURE OF IRELAND.

Optimistic Speech by the Earl of Dudley.

Dublin, Feb. 13.—The Earl of Dudley, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, at the annual dinner of the Royal College of Surgeons here, made a very optimistic speech, during which he declared that the prospects for the future of Ireland were very encouraging. Agitation has been largely abandoned, and he hoped earnestly that those who were responsible for the government of Ireland never again will be compelled to enforce the exceptional treatment which they had been obliged to impose early in 1902. He believed the recent land conference will prove an epoch in Irish history, the mainspring thereof being toleration, moderation and co-operation, and with these principles there is nothing Ireland cannot accomplish.

THE BRITISH RACE.

Mr. Chamberlain Deals with the Subject.

London, Feb. 13.—Mr. Chamberlain in his speech at Port Elizabeth pursued the theme of colonial responsibilities towards the empire. He said: "When the war began the great Dominion of Canada and the Commonwealth of Australia sprang to the assistance of the mother country and made your cause their own. They were not directly concerned, but felt that your cause was just. They felt that the honor and the interests of the empire were at stake, and showed a readiness and anxiety to have their share of the responsibilities of the great empire whose privileges they enjoy." Mr. Chamberlain added:—"The British race throughout the world is one people. No one in the dominion of the King can be touched or harmed without a thrill of indignation passing through the whole empire."

A BIG WAR IN SIGHT.

Honduras and Other Republics Involved.

Panama, Colombia, Feb. 13.—Advices which reached here yesterday from San Jose, Costa Rica, say that a diplomatic mission from the Republic of Salvador arrived at San Jose on February 6, bringing secret proposals for the formation of a triple alliance between Salvador, Honduras and Costa Rica, against Guatemala, and to further the plans for the proclamation of the union of the Central American republics. According to these advices the whole of Central America may be involved in war, as the political conditions are most critical. The civil war in Honduras continues, and Guatemala is aiding the adherents of Bonilla, the elected President of Honduras, who is unable to assume office owing to the opposition of General Siererra, the President of the republic, whose term has expired. Nicaragua and Salvador are understood to be co-operating against Guatemala, and to be furnishing the enemies of the Guatemalean Government with arms and ammunition. About 3,000 Salvadorean troops are reported to be near the frontier of Guatemala.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The State Department has been advised by United States Minister Merry that the President of Salvador has informed him complete tranquility prevails in Salvador, and that the rumored declaration of war is false.

BURNED HIM IN EFFIGY.

Demonstration of Laval Students in Montreal.

Montral, Feb. 13.—A large crowd of Laval students marched to the residence of Recorder Poirier of St. Hubert street yesterday carrying an effigy of that official on a stretcher, which they burned in front of the house to the accompaniment of a great deal of noise. The cause of the demonstration was the fining of Luis Mathieu, a Laval student, earlier in the day for assaulting a policeman who arrested him.

COWAN — LAURIER — TARTE!

Somebody has been talking too much, at least so Sir Wilfrid Laurier will think. Mr. M. K. Cowan, M. P. for South Essex, who had been on a visit to Ottawa, probably urging his claim for a County Judgeship, which it is said he is longing to secure, was interviewed when in Toronto and expressed the "opinion that the absence from the Cabinet of the Hon. "J. I. Tarte was no weakness to the "Liberal party. It was rather a "strength."

Mr. Cowan also added that in an interview with the Premier they discussed the "dismissal" of Tarte from the Cabinet, and the effect it might have upon the party, when Sir Wilfrid snapped his fingers, and said:—"Not that it hurt us; we are better "to-day without him." Continuing, the Premier, says Mr. Cowan, stated that the people of Quebec regarded Mr. Tarte's move as a piece of treachery. They could not endorse it. They might consider Mr. Tarte a good organizer, and a strong politician, but his conduct towards Sir Wilfrid while the latter was absent has completely turned them against him. Mr. Cowan considered that Sir Wilfrid did not exaggerate the feeling in Quebec, and as for Ontario, there was no question but that Mr. Tarte had entirely lost ground. Mr. Tarte would find himself utterly disappointed if he depended on Ontario.

Mr. Cowan's opinion of Mr. Tarte, or what Ontario may think of Tarte's conduct, is of little consequence. But that Sir Wilfrid should have stated such an opinion of the man of (whom he declared when the Prefontaine wing of the party was demanding his removal from the Cabinet, "that nothing was too good for Tarte," will surprise those who know not of the ways of the Grit-Rouge combination.

As might have been expected, this reported statement of Sir Wilfrid's has put Mr. Tarte upon the defence, but like the wily politician that he is, he declines to express an opinion, replying to the newspaper interviewer, that "Parliament is convened for the "12th of March, and as it is customary, under English parliamentary "laws for the Ministers to explain "the dismissal or withdrawal of one "of their colleagues, I am keeping "very quiet just now and following "this wise custom of awaiting the "Ministers' explanation. And then he added: "I do not believe Sir Wilfrid ever said this, and until I have "confirmation of it I don't care to "speak, but when Parliament meets "you may be sure the very least I "will do will be to defend myself. "Anyhow I am following the wise "English custom of waiting for the "explanation of the Ministers at the "commencement of the session as to "the reason for the retirement or "dismissal of a Minister, then I will "have something to say."

So the matter stands at present. When Parliament meets, perhaps before, the little tempest in a tea-pot will be calmed down by Sir Wilfrid denying that he ever made such a statement as that attributed to him by Mr. Cowan, and Mr. Cowan will solemnly affirm that he was misreported; or perhaps Sir Wilfrid may, if it be necessary, not to antagonize Mr. Cowan, who is an ardent and faithful supporter, give the answer he did to the charge made against him of having declared in a public speech, "that if he came to power he would have no Orangemen in his Cabinet or among his supporters"; that people knew him well enough not to believe he ever used such an expression, Though it will be remembered two or three of his own political reporters, so reported him, and that his party organs published the report.

A few denials will set matters right and those interested will not, judging from their record, hesitate to make them.

GRITISM THE SAME EVERY-WHERE!

The unseating of a member of the Legislature of New Brunswick is attended, as in all the Provinces, with great expense, no matter how flagrant the election crimes may have been. Mr. Hazen, the Conservative leader in that Province, desirous of improving this state of things, moved in the House of Assembly the following resolution, demanding "such "changes in the law as to render it "easy and less expensive for the prosecution of election trials, as it is "important to discourage bribery and "corrupt influences at elections, and "as the machinery of the court for "prosecuting violations of the election "law is now expensive, cumbersome "and effective."

It is needless to say every Liberal and Grit in the House voted No!

TIMELY TOPICS.

"A new Church Chant," which somebody sends us from Toronto, is not a bad hit, and displays some poetic talent. But the author forgot to give his name, and, as he deals in a decidedly caustic way with a theological teacher, and in a manner which might be considered personal, we must decline to publish his effusion.

Here is a specimen of the practical arguments used by Grit-Rouges in election contests: "An Opposition member could not obtain anything from the Government," exclaimed the Laurier candidate for re-election in Two Mountains, for which constituency he had been unseated on account of corruption at the general election. Principle is not a factor in his contest, the platform is "what I can get for you."

"It is true that Providence has given you good crops since 1896, but it is not Providence who has crossed the sea and obtained markets for you; it is Laurier. If you vote against me you vote against Laurier!" This is the kind of rubbish that Rouge candidates deal in, when addressing those whose votes they want, presuming, of course, that their hearers are as ignorant of public affairs as they are dishonest. The unseated candidate for Two Mountains knew when he uttered the sentence that "Laurier had crossed the sea and obtained markets for you," meaning the farmers, that he was drawing upon his imagination. No new markets have been obtained; on the contrary, Germany has, on account of the Laurier trade policy, practically shut her markets against our agricultural products. This Mr. Ethier knows, yet he talks such rubbish.

Well put. The Mail and Empire in commenting upon the prevarication and deception practiced by Premier Ross and his colleague Davis, in relation to the latter's resignation, asks "If the time has come in this province when a Minister of the Crown can wantonly trifle with the truth, how long will public life be tolerable to truthful and straightforward men?"

In North Grey during the last bye-election the agents of the Ross Government paid as high as $30 each for votes. Several polling divisions had the distinction of revealing more votes cast than there were voters who had gone to the polls. It was another West Elgin, and a repetition of the plebiscite vote in the Province of Quebec. Truly we are degenerating.

The Montreal Gazette says the fact that Township Treasurers in Ontario receive from $35 to $50 a year for their labors, and that when the responsibilities of Treasurers are weighed against the remuneration the honesty of Township Treasurers must be attributed to their excellent "bringing up." Of course it is!

PREMIER AND IRISH QUESTION

CAPT. SHAWE TAYLOR GETS ENCOURAGEMENT FROM SIR WILFRID.

Ottawa, Feb. 12.—Capt. Shawe Taylor, of County Galway, organizer and secretary of the recent Irish Land Conference, was in the city to-day, and called upon His Excellency the Governor-General. Subsequently he had an interview with the Prime Minister, who told him that he considered the final settlement of the land question would be a great boon to Ireland and to the whole Empire.

A resolution favoring a settlement on the lines of the recent conference is to be introduced into Parliament by Mr. Costigan at the coming session of Parliament. Capt. Shawe Taylor leaves for Toronto on Saturday, thence he goes to Chicago.

The Cuyahoga (Ind.) Telephone Company of Cleveland, having made application to the City Council for the right to increase its rates and been refused, now proposes to go ahead with the increase without permission of the Civic Government. The officials of the Company stated before the Council that they must get higher rates or go out of business. The proposed increase is for residence $36 to $44, and business $48 to $60 per annum. These rates are interesting to Canadian Telephone users who have been getting service at less rates than the above without the expense and nuisance of competition.

To Recognize Purity.

Adulteration has grown to such a fine art, that it is almost impossible for a woman now-a-days to detect the false from the true; but a chemical analysis will always detect adulteration. Prof. W. Sheep Thieves Also Stole Chickens.

From investigation made it appears that the two men who sold two sheep to Ald. Green, which were stolen, had been pursuing their thieving operations quite extensively in this district. Not only have sheep been stolen, but a number of fowl are now missing and as these men disposed of considerable quantities of dressed fowls to butchers, and even to hotelkeepers, it is surmised that they had stolen them. At a livery stable where they procured a horse they gave their name as Hall, but this was no doubt a fictitious name. No trace of them has been found since Saturday last.

CANCER OF THE BREAST.

CURED WITHOUT OPERATION BY THE NEW CONSTITUTIONAL TREATMENT.

There is a large percentage of women in this country suffering from cancer or tumor of the breast.

First it may commence as a little lump, then it grows until the nipple is drawn in. Doctors usually recommend operation, but no woman cares to lose her breast especially when experience teaches that even after she has gone through the terrible suffering of an operation, there is a probability of the disease returning.

The new constitutional treatment saves the breast, saves a woman from the terrible suffering of a hopeless operation, and, in short, saves her life.

In our book, "Cancer, Its Cause and Cure," there are many cases recorded of permanent cures. Sent to any address on receipt of 2 stamps, B. I. Stott & Jury, Bowmanville, Ont, necessary, no other one should be sent to that small apartment, where all the air was needed for the patient in their charge. And thus the room was left alone for Wilford, who grew worse so fast that Marian telegraphed to Katy, bidding her come at once.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

* * * *

Slowly the wintry night was passing, the fifth since Marian's message was sent to Katy, and Morris sat by Wilford's cot, when suddenly he met Wilford's eye fixed upon him with a look of recognition he could not mistake.

"Do you know me?" he asked so kindly, and with so much of genuine sympathy in his voice, that the heavy eyelids quivered for an instant, as Wilford nodded his head, and whispered:

"Dr. Grant."

"You have been sick," Morris said, anticipating the question Wilford would ask. "You are very sick still, and at the request of your nurse I came to attend you."

A pressure of the hand was Wilford's reply, and then there was silence between them, while Wilford mastered all his pride, and with quivering lips whispered:

"Katy!"

"We have sent for her. We expect her every train," Morris replied, and Wilford asked:

"Who has been with me—the nurse, I mean? Who is she?"

Morris hesitated a moment, and then said:

"Marian Hazelton."

"I know—yes." Wilford replied, having no suspicion as to who was standing outside his door, and listening, with a throbbing heart, to his rational questions.

In all their vigils held together no sign had ever passed from Dr. Grant to Marian that he knew her, but he had waited anxiously for this moment, knowing that Wilford must not be shocked, as a sight of Marian would shock him. He knew she was outside the door, and as Wilford turned his head upon the pillow, he went to her, and leading her to a safe distance, said softly:

"His reason has returned."

"And my services are ended," Marian rejoined, looking him steadily in the face, but not in the least prepared for his affirmative question.

"You are Genevra Lambert?"

There was a low, gasping sound of surprise, and Marian staggered forward a step or two, then steadying herself, she said:

"And if I am, it surely is not best for him to see me. You would not advise it?"

She looked wistfully at Morris, the great desire to be recognized, to be spoken to kindly by the man who once had been her husband overmastering for a moment all her prudence.

"It would not be best, both for his sake and Katy's," Morris said, and with a moan like the dying out of her last hope, Marian turned away, her eyes dim with tears and her heart heavy with a sense of something lost, as in the gray dawn of the morning she went back to her former patients, who hailed her coming with childish joy, one fair young boy from the Granite hills kissing the hand which bandaged his poor crushed arm so tenderly, and thank her that she had returned to him again.

* * * *

"Mr. J. Cameron, Miss Bell Cameron," were the names on the cards sent to Dr. Grant late that afternoon, and in a few moments he was with the father and sister who asked so anxiously for Wilford and explained why Katy was not with them.

Wilford was sleeping when they entered his room, his face looking so worn and thin, and his hands folded so helplessly upon his breast, that with a gush of tears Bell knelt beside him, and laying her warm cheek against his bony one, woke him with her sobs. For a moment he seemed bewildered, then recognizing her, he raised his feeble arm and winding it about her neck, kissed her more tenderly than he had ever done before. He had not been demonstrative of his affection for his sisters. But Bell was his favorite, and he held her close to him while his eyes moved past his father, whom he did not see, on to the door as if in quest of some one. It was Katy, and guessing his thoughts, Bell said:

"She is not here. She could not come now. She is sick in New York but will join us in a few days."

There was a look of intense disappointment in Wilford's face, which even his father's warm greeting could not dissipate, and Morris saw the great tears as they dropped upon the pillow, the proud man trying hard to repress them, and asking no questions concerning any one at home. He was too weak to talk, but he held Bell's hand in his as if afraid that she would leave him, while his eyes rested alternately upon her face and that of his father, who, wholly unmanned at the fearful change in his son, laid his head upon the bed and cried aloud.

Next morning Bell was very white and her voice trembled as she came from a conference with Dr. Morris, who told her that her brother would die.

"He may live a week, and he may not," he said, adding solemnly, "As his sister you will tell him of his danger, while there is time to seek the refuge without which death is terrible."

"Oh, if I could only pray with and for him!" Bell thought, as she went to her brother, mourning her misspent days, and feeling her cottage giving way when at last she stood in his presence and met his kindly smile.

"I dreamed that you were not here after all," he said, "I am so glad to find it real. How long before I can go home, do you suppose?"

He had stumbled upon the very thing Bell was there to talk about, his question indicating that he had no suspicion of the truth. Nor had he; and it came like a thunderbolt when Bell, forgetting all her prudence, said impetuously:

"Oh, Wilford, maybe you'll never go home. Maybe you'll——"

"Not die!" Wilford exclaimed, clasping his hands with sudden emotion. "Not die—you don't mean that? Who told you so?"

"Dr. Grant," was Bell's reply, which brought a fierce frown to Wilford's face, and awoke all the angry passions of his heart.

"Dr. Grant," he repeated. "He would like me removed from his path but it shall not be. I will not die. Tell him that. I will not die," and Wilford's voice was hoarse with passion as he raised his clenched fists in the air.

He was terribly excited, and in her fright Bell ran for Dr. Grant. But Wilford motioned him back, hurling after him words which kept him from the room the entire day, while the sick man rolled, and tossed, and raved in the delirium, which had returned, and which wore him out so fast. No one had the least influence over him, except Marian Hazelton, who, glided to his side, and with her presence and gentle words soothed him into comparative quiet, so that the bitter denunciations against the saint, who wanted him to die, ceased, and he fell into a troubled sleep.

With a strange feeling of interest Mr. Cameron and Bell watched her, wondering if she were indeed Genevra, as Katy had affirmed. They would not ask her; and both breathed more freely when, with a bow in acknowledgment of Mr. Cameron's compliment to her skill in quieting his son, she left the room.

That night they watched with Wilford, who slept off his delirium, and lay with his face turned from them, so that they could not guess by its expression what was passing in his mind.

All the next day he maintained the most frigid silence, answering only in monosyllables, while Bell kept wiping away the great drops of sweat constantly oozing out upon his forehead and about the pallid lips.

Just at nightfall he startled Bell by asking that Dr. Grant be sent for.

"Please leave me alone with him," he said, when Dr. Morris came; then turning to Morris, as the door closed upon his father and his sister, he said abruptly:

"Pray for me, if you can pray for one who yesterday hated you so for saying he must die."

Earnestly, fervently, Morris prayed, as for a dear brother; and when he finished, Wilford's faint "Amen" sounded through the room.

"I am not right yet," the pale lips whispered, as Morris sat down beside him. "Not right with God, I mean. I've sometimes said there was no God; but I did not believe it, and now I know there is. He has been moving upon me all the day, driving out my bitterness toward you, and causing me to send for you at last. Do you think there is hope for me? I have much to be forgiven."

"Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow," Morris replied, and then he tried to point that erring man to the Lamb of God who taketh away the sins of the world, convincing him that there was hope even for him, and leaving him with the conviction that God would surely finish the good work begun, nor suffer this soul to be lost which had turned to Him at the eleventh hour.

Wilford knew his days were numbered, and he talked freely of it to his father and sister the next morning when they came to him. He did not say that he was ready and willing to die, only that he must, and he asked them to forget, when he was gone, all that had ever been amiss in him as a son and a brother.

"I was too proud, too selfish, to make others happy," he said. "I thought it all over yesterday, and the past came back again so vividly especially the part connected with Katy. Oh, Katy, I did abuse her!" and a bitter sob attested the genuineness of Wilford's grief for his treatment of Katy. But, after I am gone, and the duties of the world have closed up the gap I shall leave, I see a brighter future for her than her past has been; and you may tell her I am——" He could not say "I am willing." Few husbands could have done so then, and he was not an exception.

Wholly exhausted, he lay quiet for a moment, and when he spoke again, it was of Genevra. Even here he did not try to screen himself. He was the one to blame, he said. Genevra was true, was innocent, as he ascertained too late.

"Would you like to see her, if she was living?" came to Bell's lips; but the fear that it would be too great a shock, prevented their utterance.

He had no suspicion of her presence; and it was best he should not. Katy was the one uppermost in his mind; and in the letter Bell sent to her next day, he tried to write, "Good-bye, my darling;" but the words were scarcely legible, and his nerveless hand fell helpless at his side as he said:

A Sure Cure for Headaches.—Bilious headache, to which women are more subject than men, becomes so acute in some subjects that they are utterly prostrated. The stomach refuses food, and there is a constant and distressing effort to free the stomach from bile which has become unduly secreted there. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a speedy alternative, and in neutralizing the effects of the intruding bile relieves the pressure on the nerves which cause the headache. Try them.

Some persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, dysentery or diarrhoea, and have to use great precautions to avoid the disease. Change of water, cooking, and green fruit, is sure to bring on the attacks. To such persons we would recommend Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial as being the best medicine in the market for all summer Complaints. If a few drops are taken in water when the symptoms are noticed no further trouble will be experienced.

A man is very apt to be cut by his best friend when he attempts to shave himself.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

To Those of Sedentary Occupation.—Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to disorders of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question the most efficacious on the market. They are easily procurable, easily taken, act expeditiously, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia. (Signed), T. S. McINTEE.

He Has Tried It.—Mr. John Anderson, Kinloss, writes: "I venture to say few, if any, have received greater benefit from the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, than I have. I have used it regularly for over ten years and have recommended it to all sufferers I knew of, and they also found it of great virtue in cases of severe bronchitis and incipient consumption.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. TIMELY TOPICS

Congratulations to Prof. V. P. Hunt, Mrs. (Col) Campbell and the other talented ladies and gentlemen who compose the Belleville Philharmonic Society. No more delightful musical entertainment was ever presented in this city by local talent (and that's saying a good deal, mind you), than that given in the City Hall last night. Too much credit could hardly be given to either the projectors of the concert, for their public spirit and devotion to art for art's sake, or the rank and file who, by faithful and steady application, made it possible for Prof. Hunt to have under his baton such a perfectly responsive chorus, with its wealth of tone color and sympathetic, magnetic, correctness of interpretation. Belleville should be proud of its Philharmonic Society, for, faith, you'll travel many a mile before you hear a better company of singers than those who woke sweet echoes last night.

The Peterboro Review hands the Council of this good city the following bunch of violets:

"Belleville City Council has made a reduction in the salaries of a number of its civic officials, among those affected being the City Clerk, who has filled that office for nearly 25 years; the City Treasurer, and others. Altogether a saving of $1,000 (!) has been made, which will probably save the ratepayers occupying average houses 15 to 20 cents a year. Belleville evidently wants cheap service, or has become so hard up that it cannot pay for services rendered. The city has been talking much lately of progress, but its advance seems to be crab-like."

When our worthy Mayor goes to Peterboro next Monday he might explain matters a little to the villagers who are so ready to criticize. Just the same it may do the Council no harm to see how their action is viewed in other places.

"The election in North Ontario," says the Star, "is not to be hurried on for fear the returning officer will not be ready. There will be cynics who will fancy that the real ground for delay is to give the deputy returning officers time to get ready. Duncan Bole is probably not available now." No, he is not; he is now in one of the Pacific dependencies of King Edward VII., in the interests of the Manufacturers' Life Association, of which the Hon. George Washington Ross, Premier of Ontario, is President. The Star should know that the Boodlers of Ontario are always taken care of by their employers, and Bole is the chief of them.

"One Gilroy," says the Montreal Gazette, "for personation in the recent Burrard election, has been fined $50, sentenced to six months' imprisonment, and will also be prosecuted for perjury. The idea of treating an election crook as any other thief or forger would be treated originated in Montreal, and it is spreading in a most wholesome manner." True, but it must not be forgotten that Quebec gives us a Minister of Justice who pardons the worst of the crew when convicted. If the Vancouver rascal is to be treated as was the Montreal one by the Minister of Justice, he will be let out of jail in a short time.

AUSTRIA PREPARING.

Reserves Warned and Leave of Absence Cancelled.

London, Feb. 13.—A special despatch from Rome says:—Italy was fully consulted in the course of the Lamsdorff-Goluchowski conference on Macedonia and promised to support the proposed action. The scheme for reforms includes a demand for the assembling of an international congress to adjust the details. This will be supported by a demonstration of European warships off Salonica, where they will remain while the congress is in session. Orders have been given to the Austrian Lloyds Steamship Company at Trieste to be prepared at short notice to furnish sufficient transports to convey a large army to Dalmatia. Leave of absence has been cancelled; the reserves have been warned and the railroads have been notified to be ready to deal with large bodies of men and supplies.

Constantinople, Feb. 13.—Fourteen battalions of redifs (emergency militia), of the third army corps, whose headquarters are at Salonica, have been ordered to join the colors. According to official statements these troops are intended to replace the reserve battalions called out to quell the Macedonian outbreak last autumn. The latter are still under arms and it is generally believed they will be kept with the colors.

Rome, Feb. 13.—General Ricciotti Garibaldi (one of the sons of the great patriot), who raised a force of Italian volunteers for Greece during the Graeco-Turkish war, is organizing a volunteer expedition to assist the Macedonians in the rising against Turkish rule which is believed to be impending.

MR. SLEEMAN'S POSITION.

The Big Guelph Brewer in Difficulties —Traders' Bank Action.

Guelph, Feb. 13.—For years past it has been known to a few that Mr. George Sleeman, the well-known brewer of Guelph, has been financially involved. Some three years ago he put his business into a joint stock company, retaining the management. Being unable to carry it on he was compelled to retire, the business being insufficient to liquidate his liabilities. He was then called upon by his creditors for a statement of his personal and other assets. His failure to furnish this is presumably the cause of an action taken by the Traders' Bank. Since Mr. Sleeman retired from the management of the old brewery, Sleeman Bros. erected a new brewery in the city, which his sons are now managing. The creditors are anxious to know where the money came from to build this brewery and also to find out the whereabouts of a valuable collection of coins, formerly in his possession, said to be one of the best and most valuable on the continent. Outside of his business of brewing, Mr. Sleeman was engaged in other enterprises, such as silver mines and the building of the Guelph street railway. The railway is now under option to parties who propose to extend it to Hespeler and other points, for which purpose a bylaw was passed the other day granting financial aid to the extent of $25,000. Ten years ago or over Mr. Sleeman built a magnificent mansion, costing about $40,000, this, with the large amount of money invested in the railways, etc., being no doubt instrumental in causing his financial difficulty. It is rumored that Mr. Sleeman's indebtedness will foot over $300,000. He has recently been supposed to be worth half a million. His large and well-equipped brewery, together with the large amount of real estate he owns in the city, would lead to the conclusion that his liabilities must be very large.

VITAL FORCE

IS CRUSHED BY CHRONIC TROUBLES.

One of the most weakening, undermining troubles which mankind is heir to is hemorrhoids or piles. The victim is careless and neglectful of the disease at first, because the pain is slight and the bleeding may only occur occasionally, or he may be reassured by the occasional disappearance of the symptoms. And yet, if at the very start he had found a rational remedy to soothe the inflammation he would probably never have had a return of this irritating malady.

Piles may develope at any season of the year and at almost any age of the victim; the abuse of cathartics often causes this trouble, and a period arrives when the dread of pain at stool becomes so great that the sufferer begins to neglect the calls of nature and the bowels are either forced to retain the feces or are only partially cleared, on account of the suffering attendant upon a thorough movement.

Before you reach this stage use a remedy which removes the cause, thereby eradicating the disease, and that is the Pyramid Pile Cure, which is sold by all druggists at fifty cents a package; it is in the form of a suppository, is applied directly to the parts affected and brings about a complete cure, quickly and painlessly. A valuable little book on the cause and cure of piles is published by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., and we advise every sufferer to send for a copy of it.

People who have suffered from piles for years are often astonished at the instant relief experienced from the first application. Another important advantage is the fact that anyone can use the remedy without detention from business or interference with daily occupation.

"I feel it my duty to recommend the Pyramid Pile Cure, for after suffering ten years with a most distressing form of piles, I am entirely cured, thanks to this remedy. Anyone doubting this can write to Margaret Brady, 156 Whitman St., Cleveland, Ohio."

THE HUMBERT TRIAL.

Accused Frequently Interrupted a Witness.

Paris, Feb. 13.—The trial of the suit brought by M. Cattani, a banker, against the Humbert family, which began in the Ninth Correctional Chamber Wednesday, was resumed yesterday. There were large crowds inside and outside the court room. The prisoners maintained the same defiant attitude, Mme. Humbert and her husband frequently interrupting the witnesses with angry contradictions.

With the hearing of Senator Cremiux's testimony the taking of evidence closed, and counsel for both sides addressed the court. M. Rodolph-Rousseau spoke lengthily on behalf of the plaintiff, Cattani. Maitre Henri Roberts defended Mme. Therese Humbert and Frederick Humbert in a brief and witty speech. Maitre Chenu said a few words on behalf of Maria Daurignac, and the case was then postponed until next week for judgment.

Madrid, Feb. 13.—The French Embassy here has paid a lawyer, Senor Emilio Cotarello, $5,000 reward for revealing the hiding place of the Humberts in this city. Cotarello handed over the money to a charitable organization.

All Kinds of Kisses.

A serious book, on a frivolous subject, by an eminent scholar—such is "The Kiss and Its History." It has been translated into English from the Danish of Dr. Christopher Nyrop, professor of romance philology in the University of Copenhagen, by William Frederick Harvey of Oxford, and, according to the preface, has also been translated into German, Swedish and Russian, and has gone through two editions in Denmark. Verily, the history of the kiss is a matter of universal interest. Dr. Nyrop presents in the volume but little personal opinion; rather he contents himself with weaving together proverbs of all peoples of all times on the subject of kissing, and gives, in addition, quotations from the poets who have rhymed of kisses—and they are no small number! For his quotations he has hunted in out-of-the-way places, and has sought them among the masses as well as the classes. For instance, the ladies of Germany have the poetical saying that "a kiss without a beard is like Vespers without the Magnificat," but the milkmaids of Jutland express a like idea by the rough-hewn proverb that "kissing a fellow without a quid of tobacco and a beard is like kissing a clay wall." That kisses are naughty the Italians deny, saying "that a mouth is none the worse for having been kissed," while the French proverb runs: "Bah! two kisses. What of that? They are exchanged like bullets that miss the mark, and honor is satisfied," and even cooler-blooded races agree to that, saying "a kiss can be washed off," though to this proverb there is a corollary which runs: "A kiss may indeed be washed away, but the fire in the heart cannot be quenched." Of stolen kisses there are many proverbs. "One returns a stolen kiss," say the honest Germans, and the Spanish have the same idea: "Dost thy mother chide thee for having given me a kiss? Then take back, dear girl, thy kiss, and bid her hold her tongue." The learned author casts a glance at the proper number of kisses that ought to be bestowed at one time, and a page or two lightly touches the doubtful subject of "the topography of the kiss." Again, the various kinds of kisses—those cool and tender, or ones like those of Hafiz, whose mistress was afraid that "his too hot kisses would char her delicate lips," or those which leave marks behind, against which Arethusa warned Lycas in a letter—"Oh, suffer no young girl to print the mark of her teeth on your neck"—these are all treated. Of such tenor is the book, exhaustive almost, it would seem, of the possibilities of the subject—on paper.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Little Change in the Live Stock or Grain Trade—U. S. Holiday.

Thursday Evening, Feb. 12.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Business showed an improvement to-day, receipts in some lines being a little heavier. The total grain on the market amounted to 1,800 bushels.

Wheat—White wheat was sold ½c easier, 300 bushels going at 72½c to 73c per bushel. Red was steady, 300 bushels selling at 72½c, and 100 bushels of goose sold 1c off at 67c.

Barley—Prices are about steady, with a firmer feeling; 500 bushels sold at 47½c to 50c per bushel.

Oats—The market is steady, 500 bushels selling at 33½c to 36½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Trade continues quiet, with little stuff coming forward. Quotations are about steady at $7.85 to $8.10 per cwt for light-weight butcher hogs and $7.50 to $7.75 for heavies.

Hay—About 35 loads were offered. No. 1 timothy selling steady at $12 to $14 per ton, and mixed or clover easier at $6 to $9.

Straw—About six loads were on the market, and brought $6 to $9 per ton.

Toronto Live Stock.

Trade conditions at the Toronto Cattle Market to-day were generally unchanged from those of last Tuesday. There was no improvement in the tone of the business done there, and prices kept about steady. The total run was 64 cars, including 1,001 cattle, 615 sheep and lambs, 744 hogs and 52 calves.

Export Cattle—Trade was dull, the demand not being heavy and the offerings moderate. The quality of the stuff was only fair, but nearly everything was sold fairly early. The dealers say there is space offering, and, therefore, a demand for cattle, but that drovers pay too much for the cattle in the country and expect to get rather more than the quality now warrants. Choice export cattle brought about $4.75 per cwt, and for fancy lots as high as $4.85 was paid.

Butcher Cattle—The run of offerings was a little more liberal, but there was no change in prices or in market conditions. All the stuff offering was sold, the best on the market going for about $4.40 per cwt. The demand for stuff is not improving, and dealers say a heavy run would have a tendency to lower prices.

Milch Cows—The run of stock was light to-day, and most of it was of poor quality. The demand for good stock still exists, but the best on the market to-day only brought $45.

Stockers and Feeders—Quotations show no change, and the market for all kinds of feeding cattle is reported fairly good. The inquiry continues good, while receipts are light.

Sheep and Lambs—Sheep are steady, while an advance of 20c to 25c per cwt is noted in lambs. To-day's market was fairly good, and all the offerings sold well.

Calves—Prices are unchanged, and the market continues steady, with a fair demand for good veals.

Hogs—There is no further drop in the price of hogs. The run was fairly large to-day, and prices had an easy tendency, although quotably unchanged.

Montreal Cattle Market.

Montreal, Feb. 12.—There were about 250 head of butchers' cattle, 20 calves and 10 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir to-day, and a considerable number of cattle were sold here yesterday. The butchers were present in large numbers, but trade was not very brisk, as the prices of cattle were about ¼c per lb higher than they were last week. Prime beeves sold at from 5¼c to 5½c per lb, pretty good animals at from 4c to 4¾c and the common stock at from 2¾c to 3¾c per lb. Mr. Richot paid $22 for two prime calves, or nearly 6c per lb; the other calves sold at from $2.50 for small bobs to $7 for good veals. Sheep sold at from 3¼c to 3¾c per lb, and lambs at from 4¼c to near 5c per lb. Fat hogs sold at from 6c to 6¼c per lb weighed off the cars.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 12.—Cattle—Receipts, 75 head; slow, barely steady. Veals—Receipts, 150 head; 25c higher; tops, $9.50 to $10; common to good, $5.50 to $9.25. Hogs—Receipts, 4,300 head; strong to 5c higher; heavy, $7.20 to $7.25; mixed, $7.15 to $7.20; Yorkers, $7.10; pigs, $7; roughs, $6 to $6.35; stags, $5 to $5.50. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 10,100 head; sheep steady; lambs 10c lower; top lambs, $6.35 to $6.65; culls to good, $4.25 to $6.50; yearlings, $5.25 to $5.75; ewes, $4.50 to $4.65; top mixed sheep, $4.50 to $4.75; culls to good, $2.25 to $4.40.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—Cattle—Receipts, 8,000; slow, steady; good to prime steers, $4.80 to $5.50; poor to medium, $3 to $4.25; stockers and feeders, $2.25 to $4.50; cows, $1.40 to $4.40; heifers, $2 to $4.50; canners, $1.40 to $2.50; bulls, $2 to $4.25; calves, $3.50 to $8; Texas fed steers, $3.50 to $4.25. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 32,000; to-morrow, 20,000; left over, 6,000; opened 5c to 10c lower and closed strong; mixed and butchers', $6.60 to $7; good to choice heavy, $6.90 to $7.12½; rough heavy, $6.60 to $6.85; light, $6.35 to $6.60; bulk of sales at $6.55 to $6.80. Sheep—Receipts, 10,000; sheep and lambs steady; good to choice wethers, $4.75 to $5.35; fair to choice mixed, $3.50 to $4.75; native lambs, $4.50 to $6.40.

The Dry Cough of Bronchitis
The Distressing Asthma Gasps

The chest pains and soreness, the tightness and desperate struggle for breath, with recurring and increased violence, drive many to despair who have not yet learned of the efficiency of

Dr. Chase's Syrup of LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

Bronchitis and Asthma are very similar in nature and frequently go hand in hand. They require similar treatment, for in both diseases the distressing symptoms result from contraction and closing up of the bronchial tubes and hence difficult breathing, coughing and expectoration.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine not only affords prompt relief, which in itself is considered sufficient reason for its use, but actually cures these ailments and prevents their recurrence. This great prescription should not be compared with ordinary cough mixtures, for it is entirely different, acting, as it does on the whole system and entirely overcoming disease.

BRONCHITIS

Or "cold on the chest," as it is known to many, is marked by chest pains and soreness, which become more severe on taking a long breath and are aggravated with coughing. The cough is at first dry and harsh and and there is little expectoration. As the disease continues the cough becomes looser and expectoration more profuse and less painful, being frothy, viscid and often streaked with blood.

Bronchitis is most dreaded because it has a tendency to become chronic and return again and again until the patient becomes worn out or falls an easy prey to consumption or pneumonia. Only the most robust constitutions can throw off bronchitis. Aged people, children and all who are in delicate health or have weak lungs have every reason to fear this ailment.

Because it is mistaken for an ordinary cold bronchitis is too frequently allowed to fasten itself on the system. Just as soon as there is a feeling of tightness in the chest or soreness on taking a long breath you have reason to fear bronchitis and any delay at this point is dangerous to say the least.

ASTHMA

Occurs in paroxysms and usually at night. The patient awakens with a feeling of suffocation; he is unable to lie down, but finds relief in sitting with his elbows on his knees, head thrown back and mouth open. Breath is drawn with the greatest effort and air is expelled from the lungs with a wheezing sound. The face is pale, the skin cool, perspiration is profuse and the countenance exhibits anxiety and distress.

There is considerable coughing with asthma and expectoration of mucus, but this varies according to the amount of accompanying bronchitis. That there is relief and cure for asthma is attested by all who have used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for this ailment. The great remedy gives relief by clearing the bronchial tubes, making breathing easy and soothing the excited nerves.

Language fails to express the gratitude which asthma sufferers feel for the discoverer of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine when it has freed them from one of the frightful paroxysms, and many state positively that it is a permanent cure as well as a prompt relief.

Be Suspicious of the Substitutor

When you decide that Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine will be of benefit to you do not allow your dealer to persuade you to accept something said to be "just as good." No substitute is just as good as the article it is made to take the place of or why should it not sell on its own merits. Any dealer who would substitute another remedy in place of what you ask for would not hesitate to substitute one drug in place of another in the prescription you give him to fill. Insist on seeing the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase on the bottle you buy. No medicine can have a stronger guarantee. 25c. a bottle, family size, three times as much, 60c., at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

What Botanists Do Not Know.

How water, commonly called sap, necessary to the life of a tree, passes from the roots to the topmost leaf and evaporates is a problem not yet solved by botanists. It is known that the ascent is made chiefly in cavities in the sapwood only, the heart and bark serving other purposes. That is the extent of our knowledge of the matter. Beyond is mere conjecture, and every theory yet advanced has failed to stand the test of experiment.

The Cast Was Made.

"Do you cast things here?" inquired a smart youth the other day as he sauntered into a foundry and addressed the proprietor.

"Yes, we do."

"You cast all kinds of things in iron, eh?"

"Certainly. Don't you see that is our business?"

"Ah, well, cast a shadow, will you?"

He was cast out.

Intellectual.

"Just fahncy, Weginald, I've forgotten ma cahrd case."

"Nevah mind, deah boy, I'll lend you some of mine."

"But—ah—the name would be different, you know."

"Bah Jove, so it would! What a head you have, Algy!"

Discontent.

Most men spend one-third of their lives trying to make the world different, another third in learning to live in it as it is and the remainder in explaining how much better it used to be.

The last few hours before a funeral the clock in the house strikes with a tone never noticed before and never apparent again, except on similar occasions.

Over the Coffee Cups.

Mrs. Henpeck—Well, anyhow, your brother Tom isn't as big a fool as you are.

Henpeck—You bet he isn't. He's a bachelor.

Too Old a Story.

He—Are you fond of fiction, darling?

She—Yes, darling, but don't tell me I am the only girl you have ever loved.

Corticelli SPOOL SILK

For dressmaking and family sewing Corticelli Silk is the best silk made. For hand or machine use it has no equal.

Corticelli Silk runs smoothly in the needle; it is always even in size, and always full length and full strength. Ask your dealer for "Corticelli," and politely, but firmly, refuse all substitutes, which some clerks may say are "just as good." You may be sure they all lack the many excellent qualities of the genuine Corticelli Silk.

Yes, and fine stationery at reasonable prices—right prices.

In addition to above, we have now two bargain tables of commercial and private stationery, and these tables are attracting a deal of attention.

You'll find there official envelopes worth 15c. per package, regular now for 5c per package. You'll find 100 envelopes for 10c, and if you will take a thin envelope we can give you 100 for 5c—pretty cheap stationery, but who could sell stationery cheap if the big buyer, the specialist, could not?

Better stop in and have a peep at our bargain tables of fancy goods, or your friends will have the bargains.

Our Picture Framing trade goes merrily on—it has grown to manhood now, can support itself and three mechanics nicely. We certainly turn out satisfactory work—turn it out promptly and at prices pleasing to our customers, else they would not return with so many additional pictures for framing.

Decorating Paper Hanging Painting

In all its branches.

We have our own staff of paperhangers, the best workmen in the city, thus our customers have the triple alliance of the best to be had in Wall Papers, the best workmen to execute work and an experienced decorator to design and execute the work.

You would scarcely expect to build a new, modern house without consulting an architect and have him submit a design.

So it should be with decorating if of a pretentious order you should have a decorator, one who can give you drawings in color of your interiors that you can see it complete before it is commenced. We will do this for you and without extra cost.

Our Wall Papers are at least 25 per cent. below regular prices, as we furnish the boarders free—a yard of border with each roll of paper—without cost.

BONE FOOD

The bones of a baby are soft—so very soft that at first they can scarcely be called bones. They grow hard in time, but the period of their growth is a critical one. Loose joints, bow-legs, enlarged head and hip disease are evidences of rickets. If not checked they lead to deformities of a permanent character. This is the natural result of improper bone nourishment during the period of bone development.

The child needs mineral substance to harden the bones and this is plentifully supplied in the hypophosphites of lime and soda contained in Scott's Emulsion. The cod liver oil provides the element of fat needed to reinforce the child's ordinary food.

Thus Scott's Emulsion offers in a perfect combination the very principles of proper bone and flesh nourishment most needed by a young child. The action of the Emulsion is so mild that the most delicate stomach will accept and retain it. This makes Scott's Emulsion of particular value to weak children and very young babies who are in absolute need of a mild yet effective food-medicine.

Pale-faced children show they are not getting what they ought to get from their food. They need Scott's Emulsion to enrich their blood and give them strength to start on the right road to a healthy growth.

If a child is thin, backward in growth, or slow in development it will be found that Scott's Emulsion will quickly help it. There is nothing better for babies and growing children than Scott's Emulsion.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

STEPS TO CHECK SMALLPOX

PROVINCIAL BOARD OF HEALTH WANT COMPULSORY VACCINATION.

Toronto, Feb. 13.—The Provincial Board of Health yesterday, after thorough discussion, approved a draft bill which will be introduced at the next session of the Legislature, making more effective provision for the prevention of the spread of smallpox. By this measure it is hoped to nip the disease in the bud by a more thorough vaccination, commencing in the schools, and in the homes. By the bill, as approved by the Board, the Secretary of every local Board of Health is required to supply to the Medical Health Officer of the municipality a list of all children whose births are registered in each year after the passage of this Act, in order that he may offer vaccination of such child to the parents at their home within six months of the birth of the child without cost to the parents and at the expense of the municipality.

The Medical Health Officer is also authorized to offer vaccination to any other unvaccinated person found in such home in the same manner. The Medical Health Officer of each municipality is appointed public vaccinator to carry out the provisions of the Act. He is required to notify the Provincial Board of Health of any neglect on the part of the local Board of Health and also to make an annual return of the result of vaccination of each person. The secretary of a local Board of Health is also required to notify the Provincial Board of Health when his Board neglects to appoint a Medical Health Officer.

The responsibility is placed upon Medical Health Officers of obtaining from every child attending any school within the municipality a certificate of successful vaccination. Unvaccinated children are prohibited from attendance at schools, and any school which fails to exclude such children upon notice from the Medical Health Officer forfeits the Government grant. Parents who neglect to comply with the terms of the act are also penalized, and the existing regulations for compulsory vaccination are made a part of the act.

Upon motion of Dr. Cassidy, the bacteriologist of the Board will report upon the practicability of the adoption in Ontario of the method which has been in use in Chicago of assisting practitioners to combat the spread of scarlet fever by furnishing the means of laboratory experiment for identification and detection of the bacilli of the disease.

At the afternoon session the Board considered amendments to the regulations relating to diphtheria. The regulations as amended provide for a more exact diagnosis of the disease, and for a more accurate determination of the time when patients may be set free as convalescent. In case of suspected diphtheria, or in any case where there is a doubt regarding the nature of the sore throat, the new regulation provides for the separation of the patient from the rest of the family until a swab taken from the nose and throat indicate either the freedom or the presence of the germ of the disease. With regard to the period of detention on convalescence the minimum is fixed at four weeks, except where bacteriological examination of a swab from both the nose and throat proves the absence of the disease germs. In cases where discharges from the nose or other organs are present, the regulations direct that even after four weeks bacteriological examination of the swab must indicate freedom from the disease, as statistics indicate that 30 per cent. of diphtheria cases show the presence of the disease germs even after four weeks.

SPORTING COMMENT.

The game to-night should be well patronized. It may possibly be the last championship game played here this season. The boys are out to win by as large a score as possible, and will make the Ramblers travel at a fast clip if they want to keep up. Go to the match and encourage the boys. They're thoroughbreds and deserve it.

The Kingston Whig says Belleville has a larger sheet of ice than they have in the Mutual street rink, Toronto. One thing sure, no rink in Ontario has as good ice as Belleville in soft weather, and that's no joke.

Isn't it touching, the way the sporting people of Belleville and Kingston are falling on each other's necks these days. The Whig, in its report of the recent hockey match, says: "The Kingston team and their supporters were warmly received in Belleville, whose sporting fraternity favored them strongly. Even the dear Belleville maidens decked themselves with blue and white ribbon." When the Belleville boys go to Kingston next Monday they may be received with bouquets, which will be better than bricks, anyway.

Mr. E. H. Telfer, of Collingwood, will referee the match to-night, which is a guarantee that everybody must play the game according to the rules or ornament the fence. Belleville has no kick on Mr. Telfer. He gave the boys an even break, and that's all they are looking for.

Mail and Empire: Varsity III. and the Beechgrove-Frontenacs will likely play a sudden-death game at Belleville in the Junior O.H.A. series next Wednesday night.

And they couldn't find a better or fairer place to play it. This is a banner season for hockey in Belleville, sure enough.

The temperature is going down, and the spirits of hockey enthusiasts are going up in sympathy.

ICE TROTTING.

Champion Cresceus at Ottawa,

Ottawa, Feb. 12.—To-day was Cresceus Day at the Ottawa Ice Trotting Association meet, and, although a big thaw and rain had left the track in bad shape and there was considerable doubt as to whether the big horse would appear, about 3,000 people were on the track. Those present included Lord and Lady Minto, Major and Mrs. Maude, Capt. Bell, A.D.C., Mr. Guise and others from Government House, and Hon. Clifford and Mrs. Sifton.

The exhibition by Cresceus was disappointing to the public, but as good as Mr. Ketcham could be expected to give. A portion of the stretch was scraped and was in fair condition when the champion trotter of the world, accompanied by a running mate, Mike The Tramp, got the word. It had been announced that, owing to the condition of the track, he would not be sent for a record, and it was soon seen he was not trying for one. He passed the quarter pole in .36 4-5, the half in 1.14, the three-quarter in 1.54, and then he was let loose and made the mile in 2.27, the last quarter in 33 seconds, showing that, all well, he has lots of speed on ice. On Saturday he will be out again, when he will go for the Canadian ice record, 2.18 3-4, made by Jewel in Ottawa on a half-mile track.

FORMER PROMINENT POLITICIAN DEAD

MR. A. W. DUDLEY PASSED AWAY AT COLBORNE, ONT.

Colborne, Feb. 12.—Mr. Albert White Dudley, for many years a resident of this town, and an extensive apple exporter, died last evening, at his residence, Prospect Place, of heart failure, in the 65th year of his age. He was a Liberal in politics, and a member of the Methodist church. The funeral, with Masonic honors, will take place on Friday afternoon, from his late residence to Union Cemetery. His widow, two daughters and two sons survive.

The above gentleman was well-known in this city, he having been prominent in political matters in days gone by. He was a relative of Mr. F. E. O'Flynn.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

THE PHILHARMONIC CONCERT.

The City Hall was packed to the doors last night with a representative audience, which had assembled to hear Belleville's Philharmonic Society give their first concert of the season. For a considerable time the society has been rehearsing, and the concert, for various reasons, had been much talked about and therefore eagerly looked forward to. The first part of the programme consisted of a Cantata, 'David's Lament,' for soli and chorus, composed by Mr. Angelo M. Read, of St. Catharines, followed by a programme of miscellaneous music. The stage was nicely decorated, handsome curtains on the north windows of the hall giving a refined effect sadly needed before. The stage chairs were arranged in tiers, and if the chairs in the auditorium had been treated in the same way one might have been able to see over the few ladies' hats which their owners left on. It was close to 8:30 when the members of the society mounted the stage, the feminine portion looking very "fetching," indeed, in their handsome toilettes. The cantata was not the only work of art on the stage last night, Not by several bakers' dozens. The society filled the stage quite comfortably. Mrs. Campbell and Prof. Hunt, when they appeared, were received with hearty applause. Mrs. Campbell was charmingly costumed, carried a bouquet, and looked very graceful and debonair. Mr. J. M. Sherlock, the visiting tenor, came out and took his seat "Rat-tat-tat," went the conductor's baton, the big band of singers rose to their feet, and the concert was on. Following a good old precedent, the programme began with the National Anthem, and right here it may be remarked that the male chorus had a narrow escape from being charged with high treason, for it looked once as though they tried to murder the second verse of "God Save the King." The change of key was no doubt responsible. However, things straightened out instantly, and, as the novelists say, "all ended happily." Then came the "piece de resistance," of the programme, the cantata, with the following cast:

Mrs. A. Parker	(Adora)	Soprano
Miss M. Wilson	(Michal)	Alto
J. M. Sherlock	(David)	Tenor
J. P. Pratt	(An Amalekite)	Bass

Chorus of Israelitish Men and Women.

The Cantata, as might be surmised, depicts the great love of King David for Jonathan, the son of Saul, and the beautiful imagery of the Biblical words are fitted to striking, lofty and thrilling music. The composer does not rise to any very great heights; he does not float among the stars; one could not truthfully say that he gets within the shadows cast by the Great Masters, but he certainly has turned out a work replete with beautiful themes, noble ideas and well-conceived, magnificent choruses. It is one of the Bible's saddest and sweetest stories wedded to modern conceptions of music, and well fitted. It is a work which would grow on one, and shows plainly the high ideals of the composer, even though he may not have quite reached them as yet. Perhaps the most striking feature of the cantata were the splendid musical accompaniments, and it may be remarked just here that one could not imagine a more sympathetic and correct rendition of the very difficult accompaniment than was given by Mrs. Campbell last night. It was a most striking bit of thought-compelling work.

The Cantata opened with a quartette and chorus, "Let God Arise," by Mrs. Parker and Miss Sutherland, Messrs. Vermilyea and Chown. Very seldom, indeed, does one hear more delightful effects, than were produced by the ladies and gentlemen mentioned. Then in came the chorus with a crash, thrilling, exalting, grandly harmonious. The choruses all through were finely sung, and there was room for only one little bit of criticism: In three or four instances the sopranos rather overbalanced the remainder of the chorus These were isolated cases, be it understood. For the most part the balance was nearly perfect, the attack and retreat all that one could wish for and the shading nothing more nor less than delightful. Don't run away with the idea that we are trying to damn the performance with faint praise, for be it understood that, in the memory of the writer, nothing has ever been put on in this city, by amateurs, which even began to equal the part singing of last night, but the entertainment may perhaps be repeated, and if Prof. Hunt could but slightly moderate the volume of that splendid set of sopranos he would come a little closer to perfection, which we know he is always aiming at. Following the first chorus came a solo by Mrs. Parker "But let the Righteous be Glad." Mrs. Parker was in excellent voice, and her artistic singing left nothing to be desired. The alto recitative and solo by Miss M. Wilson came as a surprise to even those who have heard that young lady before. Her voice was rich and full, and her interpretation most sympathetic. The chorus for tenors and basses was well sung, and the chorus which followed, "O, Magnify the Lord," brought out some grand glimpses of tone color. Next came a recitative and bass (or baritone solo) by Mr. J. P. Pratt, "The People are Fled from the Battle." Mr. Pratt is one of our most promising local vocalists, and his reputation did not in the slightest degree suffer by his work last night. He seems to improve with each successive appearance. Certainly the most captious critic could not ask for (from an amateur) a better rendition of the stirring and difficult solo than was given by Mr. Pratt last night. The dirge which followed, "Then David Mourned," was a most effective bit of musical painting, and was sung in a manner which could not help make a deep impression on any audience with even the veriest smattering of musical culture. Up to this time Mr. Sherlock, who was to sing "David," had had nothing to do, but his time had come, and people waited expectantly. Mr. Sherlock is not a Mockridge, but he is a good singer among good singers, and he rendered the solo, "Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their Lives," in an ideal way. Excellence of method, perfection of enunciation and almost entire purity of tone characterized the gentleman from Toronto. His rendition of the theme, "The beauty of Israel is slain upon the High Places," is haunting many a listener to-day. Miss Sidna H. Browne played a violin obligato very pleasingly. As an oratorio tenor Mr. Sherlock is entitled to a high place. The final chorus was excellently sung, the only fault being that the sopranos once or twice slightly overbalanced the remainder of the company. So ended the cantata, and people sat back to compare their views. "Best thing ever put on in Belleville," seemed to be the popular verdict.

Next came the miscellaneous music, and to many this was the most pleasant part of the programme. However, there was an opportunity for everybody to be pleased, both lovers of oratorio and lyric music. The part song "He that Hath a Pleasant Face," was the first number, and when one saw that Hatton was the composer he realized that that goodly band of singers, with his music to render, were going to give us something good. And they did. There was an archness and catchy harmony which put the audience in a merry mood.

Next came the solo pianist, Mlle. Decrey, who played a "Rhapsodie" by Brahms, and the "Magic Fire Scene" from Wagner's "Die Walkure." The lady had admirable technique and a brilliant touch, the last number mentioned being played in a highly artistic way. Mlle. Decrey received a well-merited encore. Then followed another part song, "The River Floweth Strong, My Love," in which the male voices showed to advantage.

Mr. Sherlock followed with the favorite song, "Sunshine and Rain," by Blumenthal. Somebody ought to dub this composer the Dickens of lyric music, for surely what The Master was among novelists he is among composers. Mr. Sherlock gave the beautiful song an ideal interpretation, and many considered it (outside of the choruses) the gem of the evening. Mr. Sherlock received a hearty encore. Then the chorus fairly covered itself with glory by singing "Scots Wha Hae" in a way which thrilled everybody, even though neither he nor his forefathers hailed from the "Ither side o'Tweed," as Mr. James Fax says.

Mlle. Decrey played again, and added to her laurels, after which Mr. Sherlock gave us another Blumenthal number. Being vociferously encored he sang "The Standard on the Braes o' Mar," in a manner which made everybody sit up. Still the audience would not let him go, and Mr. Sherlock put the finishing touch on his conquest of the audience by singing the "Creole Love Song" in a perfectly captivating manner, Mrs. Campbell playing the unique accompaniment in a most charming way. Then followed a chorus for ladies voices, "Rock-a-Bye," which was sung with a daintiness and beauty almost unsurpassable. The ladies evidently liked the song, and there is no doubt that the audience did.

The performance closed with a stirring, rhythmic part song, "Sir Knight, Oh Whither Away," with a swinging, dashing refrain which fairly carried one along with it. All the parts were excellently sung, but the tenors certainly carried off the palm in this number. It was very inspiring, and a fitting close to a musical entertainment which should be a source of pride to all who took part in it. The talented and enthusiastic conductor, Prof. Hunt, is receiving many encomiums to-day, and he cannot receive too many. His artistic personality was apparent in all the local efforts, and no one, we are sure, will grudge him his well-earned meed of praise. The Philharmonic concert is over, but it will long live in the memory of every one who heard it.

THE CIVIC OFFICES

MR. WALTER ALFORD CRITICIZES THE ACTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—As a large tax-payer, I desire to give my view of the plunge our City Council have thought fit to take in the matter of arranging the civic offices. It is the old story, many changes are made, but few improvements. Our Waterworks Department I wish to make a few remarks on, because experience gives me the privilege of knowing as much as any other citizen here about its management, and as we have more capital invested in this department than all others, it is very important that every move we make should be towards its ultimate success. I see our late Council has decided to combine the duties of Street Surveyor and add the management of the Waterworks to his duties. Now, sir, I have no hesitation in saying that it will be a failure, because the manager of the Waterworks should be acquainted with every service, as well as with all the mains, gates, etc., to have supplies on hand for contingencies, etc., also to be always on the look-out for new services. The very existence of the department depends on additional new services, and I am confident there is work enough for the brains of any one man, the best you can obtain, for that department only. There may not be much to look after on our streets, sidewalks, etc., if I know anything about them. I would say many dollars have been squandered in that department in times past, so you may take it for granted that by combining the two offices one or both will suffer. Look at Brockville and Kingston. How are they managed so successfully, by MANAGERS who give their whole attention to that department only.

Some may say why did you not adopt that system at first, when you were in the position to do so? The reason is we were led away by that rotten cry, "Economize and do the work yourselves." We tried it and made a mistake. So, sir, to prevent the mistake from being repeated, print these few remarks.

Yours truly,
WALTER ALFORD.

SIX PERSONS TO APPEAR.

CHARGED WITH PERSONATION AND MISCONDUCT.

The Names of the Persons Who Have Been Already Summoned For Trial Before Judge McCrimmon.

Toronto, Feb. 13.—Five persons have already been summoned to appear before Judge McCrimmon of Whitby next Tuesday on different charges in connection with the referendum in Toronto. They are as follows:—

Robert Rayner of 149 Ontario street, known as "Bob," of the steamer Chippewa, charged with having personated Robert Robinson of 7 Maitland street.

John D. Coulter of 29 Wood street, charged with having procured Rayner for the purpose of having him personate.

Daniel Cohen of 162 York street, charged with having personated Jacob Cohen of 112 Elizabeth street.

Martin Healey of 164 William street, who was the deputy returning officer at poll No. 66, 59 William street, charged with misconduct in his official capacity. The poll books showed that 168 votes had been cast, while 177 ballots were taken from the ballot-box, nine of which bore no initials. It is alleged that Healey insisted on counting every one, and declined to examine them.

M. S. Doyle of 594 Queen street west, who was the deputy returning officer at poll No. 82, 10 Baldwin street, is also charged with misconduct. The poll book showed 118 votes cast, but there were 126 ballots in the box. It is alleged that Doyle counted all of them, knowing of the disagreement.

A summons is out for Thomas Caven of 67 Yonge street, who was the deputy returning officer at poll No. 26, 222 King street east. There are several charges of misconduct against him. In general it is alleged that he counted six ballots more than the poll book called for, that he refused to admit a temperance scrutineer, and that he did not perform his duty in allowing three men to personate Rev. Fathers Cassidy, McCarthy and Mahoney of the De la Salle Institute.

Charges are being laid against five others, but the summonses have not yet been served. These names are withheld by the solicitor, Mr. Alex. Mills, and Crown Attorney Dewart.

The referendum portion of the liquor act of 1902 provided that all charges against persons not arrested in the polling booth shall be tried by a County Judge from some other county than the one in which the alleged offences take place, and it is under this provision that these proceedings are taken.

SOUVENIR-HUNTER IN TROUBLE

This Man Had a Lot of Silverware in His Trunk.

Toronto, Feb. 13.—William Birchall, a young Englishman, fashionably dressed, who has been a utility man with Mrs. Patrick Campbell's Theatrical Company was Thursday morning arrested at his lodgings on Wellington street by Constable Crowe, charged with stealing a silver knife, spoon and a pickle tongs from the Grand Union Hotel. Birchall got a late supper there Monday night, and after he left the silver was missed. When the officer searched Birchall's trunk he found several articles of silverware, table napkins and towels stamped with the names of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, the Navarre and other hotels. Birchall in the Police Court said he had taken the things at the Grand Union for souvenirs, but had been drunk when he did so, and intended to return them. The things from New York, he said, were given to him. The Magistrate sent Birchall to jail for twenty days.

Charles Miller was convicted of breaking into the residence of James Smith in the Queen's Park and stealing a gold watch and chain and a clock. As he had a bad record Magistrate Denison sentenced him to Kingston Penitentiary for four years.

NEW BRUNSWICK NOMINATIONS

Thirteen Government Candidates Placed in the Field Yesterday.

St. John, Feb. 13.—Thirteen candidates of the Local Government were nominated. Two members of the Government were included, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Attorney-General, and Hon. L. P. The saw-off in Charlotte County, arranged by party leaders for the election of two on each side by acclamation, was overruled by the Liberal convention deciding to nominate four candidates.

FIGHT IN MADAGASCAR.

Village Destroyed and Residents Murdered.

London, Feb. 13.—A despatch to a news agency from Paris announces that mail advices received there from the Island of Madagascar give details of a serious outbreak which occurred recently in the southern part of Madagascar. A force of rebels attacked and destroyed a village and murdered its inhabitants. Detachments of troops pursued the rebels and killed a hundred of them, but during the fighting the French sustained serious losses.

MUST PRODUCE BALLOTS.

ORDER MADE AT INSTANCE OF JUDGE M'CRIMMON.

Scope of Referendum Investigation Outlined—Warrants For Persons Who Fail to Appear.

Toronto, Feb. 14.—His Honor Judge McCrimmon of Whitby was in the city yesterday, and completed arrangements with Crown Attorney Dewart and Alex. Miller for the opening next Tuesday of the investigation into the charges arising out of the referendum in Toronto. The scope of the investigation will be very wide, and will, it is understood, include a scrutiny of the ballots.

An application was made at Osgoode Hall during the afternoon for an order calling upon the Clerk of the Crown to produce in court next Tuesday all ballot papers, poll books, books and other documents relating to the referendum vote in South Toronto. The order was made.

Sheriff's Officer Severs is not meeting with much success in his work of serving the persons against whom charges have been preferred. But five have been served so far, and in the case of those who cannot be found summonses will be left at their homes, and if they do not appear next Tuesday bench warrants will be applied for. Crown Attorney Dewart stated yesterday that Thomas Caven, who was deputy returning officer at 222 King street, had not yet been served.

VIENNA PRESS VIEWS.

Austria Said to be Sincerely Desirous For Peace.

New York, Feb. 14.—The Herald has the following from Vienna:—The principal papers comment lengthly upon the situation in the Balkans. A careful perusal leaves the impression that confidence is still unshaken in the power of diplomacy to meet the crisis which is unanimously admitted to exist. Nor have some publicists lost hope in the tranquilizing capabilities of the Austro-Russian project of reforms, though in some quarters the cry goes up, "How long will this project still be delayed?"

The Wiener Journal, in a temperata article intended to prove to the world Austria's entire good faith, sincerity and desire for a continuance of peace, remarks:—"The allegations that Austria-Hungary entertains ulterior motives regarding Turkey are to be emphatically denied. The fact that various reforms are planned for our military system, that Austrian rentes are to be converted and that specie payments are to be resumed cannot be construed into preparations for war. The Porte would do best not to allow itself to be influenced by covert misrepresentations into resorting to measures which would only tend to precipitate a catastrophe."

The Wiener Allgemeine Zeitung, under the significant heading, "Vae Soli," repeats the foregoing, warns Bulgaria that if a conflict is precipitated she will have to fight single-handed, and draws a historical parallel between the agitation in Bulgaria and that which flung Greece into war with Turkey. "The result will be the same should hostilities ensue," is the conclusion drawn by this paper as bearing out a contention for Bulgaria's isolation.

The same journal publishes a statement that the Greek Government has confidentially approached the Porte with a proposal to act in concert against Bulgaria should any aggressive action be taken by the latter.

LARGE STOCK OF POISON.

Found in Possession of Two Reform School Girls.

Salt Lake, Utah, Feb. 14.—A special from Ogden says:—As a result of the investigation brought about by the recent attempt of certain inmates of the State Reform School at Ogden to burn the buildings, the authorities have unearthed a conspiracy among some of the girl inmates to poison the teachers and others in authority at the school. It is known that at least two girls are concerned and that poison enough to kill a thousand people was found in their possession. The girls, it is said, got hold of a quantity of bichloride of mercury tablets recently purchased by the school authorities for disinfecting purposes. The conspirators, it is alleged, planned to put this poison in the coffee at breakfast.

MR. MUNNS IN THE FIELD.

Issues An Address; to North York Electors.

Toronto, Feb. 14.—Mr. William Munns, who has announced himself as the independent temperance candidate in North York, has issued an address to the electors, in which he says in part:—

"The victory of Dec. 4, by which upwards of 200,000 electors expressed themselves in favor of the act of 1902 for the abolishing of the bar and liquor shops of the Province, demonstrates the fact that the temperance cause has come to the realm of practical politics for settlement.

"The time has come when the temperance men must unite in electing candidates who will pledge themselves, independent of party, to stand by the principles of prohibition, men who will not fall into line at the crack of any party whip, nor allow any individual to stand in the way of the triumph of the cause, but who will, independent of party, stand by the principles of righteousness and truth in public, as well as private affairs, and make no compromise with wrong.

"The two party candidates who are asking your support have had the prohibition pledge submitted to them. They have both ignored it, notwithstanding that the old banner County of York, at the recent vote, declare for the 'prohibition of the bar' by a majority of 1,963.

"Very properly the Hon. the Premier, in reply to the temperance deputation that recently waited upon him at the Parliament buildings, emphasized the fact that the 'Government could move only as fast as the Legislature would allow it' for the enactment of further temperance legislation. Sir John Macdonald gave expression to the same opinion when he said: 'You can obtain prohibition when you send pledged temperance men to Parliament.' It is precisely on this principle that I am asking the support of all earnest, true, temperance people of North York."

In reference to the report that Rev. Dr. Chown, Superintendent of Temperance and Moral Reform of the Methodist Church, would support Mr. Munns' candidature on the platform, The Evening Telegram last night said:—"Rev. Dr. Chown, speaking to The Telegram, denies the statement that he was going into North York to speak in behalf of the Prohibitionist candidate. He says the whole thing was a complete surprise to him, as he was not consulted. He adds that he is opposed to putting a third candidate in the field in North York."

BOLIVIA YIELDS.

All the Brazilian Demands Have Been Acceded To.

La Paz, Bolivia, Feb. 14.—The Bolivian Government has delivered its reply to the ultimatum presented by the Brazilian Minister. Bolivia accepts unconditionally, but under protest, all the Brazilian demands. The Bolivian expedition commanded by Gen. Pando, the President, will not cross the southern boundary of the contested territory. Therefore, it is most improbable that any collision between the Brazilian and Bolivian forces will occur. It is generally supposed here that the Acre revolutionists will surrender their arms to the Brazilian troops immediately.

A GRINDING KIDNEY PAIN

PROSTRATED MRS. READON, SIMCOE, ONT., SO THAT SHE WAS UNABLE TO ATTEND TO HER WORK.

A Bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets Completely Cured Her.

In the town of Simcoe, Ont., there are many people who have a good word to say on behalf of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets—a remedy which has done wonders curing backache and serious kidney, bladder and urinary troubles.

Mrs. Jennie Readon, who lives on Agricultural Street of that town, writes as follows:

"For more than six months my back has bothered me a great deal. I have had to get some one to do my work at times (ironing and washing). The pain was of the grinding variety. I laid it to overstrain and the kidneys. Pain in the side was also very bad. I got a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets from J. Austin & Co.'s drug store, and I am very much pleased with them. I do my own work now, and can scrub if necessary without trouble. The pain is a thing of the past. I found the Tablets gentle in action and am pleased to recommend them."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are chocolate coated and easy to take. Price 50c a bottle, or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists, or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

THE U. S. COMMISSIONERS.

ROOT, LODGE AND TURNER HAVE BEEN CHOSEN.

Will Uphold the Case of the United States on the Alaskan Boundary Commission.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The distinguished lawyers who will represent the United States on the commission to settle the Alaskan boundary are Elihu Root, the present Secretary of War; Henry Cabot Lodge, United States Senator from Massachusetts, and George Turner, United States Senator from Washington. These names are known to have been decided on by President Roosevelt, and he will send the nominations to the Senate as soon as the exchange of ratifications of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain is made.

If the language of the original treaty had been retained these men would have formed, with the British and Canadian members, a "high court of judicature," but that term was eliminated in the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs, and the expression "impartial jurists of repute" substituted. All three members selected to represent the American side fulfill this title. Mr. Root bears a high reputation as a distinguished lawyer, and Mr. Lodge is a jurist of broad learning and a scholar of wide repute. Mr. Turner is one of the best lawyers in the Pacific northwest. Some surprise will be caused by his appointment, for the reason that he has, as a Democrat, opposed bitterly some of the Republican Administration's policies. He was highly recommended to the President, however, by some of the most distinguished of his colleagues on the Republican side of the Senate.

Who will be appointed as the agent or counsel of the commission is not known, but former Secretary of State John W. Foster is prominently mentioned. Secretary Root will probably resign from the Cabinet late in the spring.

LYNCHING IN RUSSIA.

Horse Thieves Beaten to Death in the Market Place.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 14.—The German National Committee, which is opposing the colonization of eastern Prussia, is successfully recalling the German settlers in South Russia by offering them land under easy conditions around Posen. Two thousand German families, according to The Volyn, are preparing to leave Khitomir in the coming spring. Hundreds left last year.

An instance of lynch law by Russian peasants has just occurred in a suburb of Kiev, which had long been terrorized by a band of thieves. The peasants armed themselves with clubs, unexpectedly attacked the thieves, while the latter were drinking and beat a number of them to death. The absent members of the band escaped to neighboring villages, but were hunted down and subjected to the same fate.

Another case of lynching is reported from Stavropol, where four men were arrested for horse-stealing. After the local Chief of Police had examined the accused, he stepped into the market place and invited the assembled peasants to take the law into their own hands. Three of the thieves were killed on the spot, and the fourth had to be taken to a hospital. The Chief of Police was arrested.

GERMANY DECLINES.

Will Not Buy Battleship Built for Argentina.

Berlin, Feb. 14.—The German Navy Department, after considering the proposal that Germany purchase the four battleships being constructed for Argentina and Chile in England and Italy, has decided not to do so for two reasons:—First, because, the Government is not willing, in view of the present state of the Imperial finances, to ask the Reichstag for the $17,500,000 required. Second, because, the general staff of the navy does not wish to incorporate into the German navy guns of different calibres and turret machinery and other essential features of warships which are not similar to those in use on board German-built vessels. It is pointed out that the present homogeneity of the navy would be impaired were the four warships to be acquired by Germany, as the gunners can now be changed from ship to ship without loss of their efficiency. But if the four foreign-built vessels were taken over with their armaments and separate stocks of ammunition, differently drilled crews would be necessary.

NOT GUILTY OF MURDER.

Jury Held Fatal Shot Was Fired in Self-defence.

Monroe, Mich., Feb. 14.—A jury yesterday returdned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Lynett Bloodgood, charged with the murder of Joseph Labarge. On August 29 Labarge was shot and killed by Bloodgood, who was in a crowd that was pursuing Labarge in the mistaken belief that he had committed an assault. The defence established the fact that Labarge when brought to bay advanced towards Bloodgood with an open razor and that the latter fired the fatal shot in self-defence.

BRITAIN FORCED TO ACT.

VENEZUELAN QUESTION VIEWED BY PREMIER BALFOUR.

The Situation in the Balkans is Now Causing Some Anxiety in Britain and Europe.

London, Feb. 14.—Speaking at a reception here last evening, Premier Balfour announced that he had received a communication from the Foreign Secretary, Lord Lansdowne, saying all the difficulties regarding the Venezuelan question had been removed, and that no hitch whatever need delay the final settlement any time.

In the course of a speech at a luncheon given by the Conservative Club during the day the Premier declared the British Government had no choice but to take action against Venezuela. The Ministers had shown no undue haste, no greed for money, and no inhumanity. The United States Government had been taken into the confidence of his Majesty's Government at every stage of the proceedings. The Monroe doctrine had no enemies in this country. It would be a great gain to civilization if the United States should more actively concern itself with arrangements to prevent the constantly recurring difficulties between the European powers and the South American Governments, by getting the latter to observe the principles of international courtesy.

Continuing, the Premier said there was no ground for Lord Rosebery's criticism with respect to British relations with either the United States or Germany. Some arrangement with the latter for joint operations was the most reasonable step possible for enforcing their several claims. Mr. Balfour ridiculed the suggestion that the alliance with Germany over Venezuela was settled at the time of Emperor William's visit to King Edward at Sandringham. He declared that the whole story was a mare's nest. International animosities, said the Premier, were a great source of international weakness.

Great Britain was supposed to be greatly disliked on the continent, but no country was stronger for disliking Great Britain or showing animosity, nor would Great Britain be strengthened by harboring animosity. If the peace of Europe were to be preserved and the cause of civilization go forward without fatal shocks it must be by the increasing use of co-operation between the European powers. The Balkan States are now giving anxiety, and the question can only be solved by common action upon the part of the great civilized powers. European concert is clumsy, he said, but it is better than isolated action. Mr Balfour implored all those who had any command over the source of public opinion to refrain from indulging in the easy task of embittering the relations between nations, and creating pealousies, so easily formed and so difficult to allay.

Referring to Lord Rosebery's proposal that Lord Kitchener should be invited to leave his command in India and become War Minister, Mr. Balfour characterized it as the wildest which had ever emanated from a man who had held, and who doubtless was destined to again hold, administrative posts. All politicians could understand that Lord Rosebery's sole plan was to attain efficiency but his suggestion was both opposed to the British constitution and absolutely impracticable. Lord Kitchener was a great soldier, but he had not been trained for the work of a Cabinet Minister, who was required to defend the proposals of his Government in Parliament.

ATLANTIC FREIGHT LINE.

Negotiations Between Elder-Dempster Co. and C.P.R.

London, Feb. 14.—Regarding the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's purchasing the Elder-Dempster steamers for a fast Atlantic freight service, I understand that the present position is as follows:—The Elder-Dempsters are willing to sell, and the Canadian Pacific Company is willing to buy. The Elder-Dempster Company, however, want the best possible obtainable price. The Canadian Pacific people are now having the steamers surveyed, as they reach British ports, so as to ascertain a fair market value, and this process is necessarily somewhat slow.

Rumors are current here to the effect that the Beaver Line steamships have been acquired by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. It is stated that an official announcement in regard to the matter will be made in a few days.

A CURE FOR LOCKJAW.

St. Louis Doctors Are Using Carbolic Acid.

St. Louis, Feb. 14.—Fireman William Wand, who is being treated at the City Hospital with carbolic acid for lockjaw, was able to open his jaws yesterday. Wand is now regarded as having fair prospects of recovery by City Hospital physicians. The administration hypodermically of carbolic acid, it is believed, will save his life. Dr. W. J. Clark, who has charge of his case, said:—"We are administering twenty cubic centimeters of anti-tetanus toxin, just twice the usual amount. We are using chloral bromides and carbolic acid. The acid administered is a 4 per cent. solution, of which the patient is given two drops every three hours. In cases of this kind the crisis is usually passed the fifth day. This is Wand's sixth day, and he is better, therefore, we have sanguine hopes of his recovery."

PRACTICAL TEMPERANCE REFORM IN ENGLAND.

Legislation in England upon the question of licensing houses for the sale of beer and spirituous liquors is having a marvellous effect in the right direction. "England," says a writer upon the question, "probably, never will adopt prohibition, but is now engaged in a serious national effort to make men sober by Act of Parliament. What is most surprising is that it is making it at the bidding of the brewers and publicans. The new Act not only is keeping the habitual drunkard in terror; it is stimulating the magistrates all through the country to reduce the number of licensed houses. The insurance rates against the non-renewal of licenses have gone up from 33 to 100 per cent., and since November twenty-two well known London and suburban licensed houses, which have been offered for sale, have failed to find purchasers. Five years ago they would have been bought eagerly at 50 per cent. above the present reserve prices. In Birmingham, Mr. Chamberlain's brother, as a leading magistrate, is working out a scheme by which the brewers shall combine voluntarily to surrender licenses in conference with the magistrates, each remaining license-holder taxing himself to compensate the dispossessed holders after the valuation. At Liverpool a reduction in the number of licenses resulted in a permanent reduction of the police force by one hundred, leaving two hundred in all. It would be not the least of the vagaries of politics, if, after upsetting Ministries and vexing Parliament for decades, the greatest obstacle to reform, namely, the compensation question, should thus quietly settle itself."

This is indeed practical legislation, deserving the earnest consideration of Legislators. It is in the line of the policy laid down by Mr. Whitney, which he would push to adoption. There is no use in grasping at the impossible.

Lord Roberts has, in addition to the provision of the Statute, suggested an organization pledging its members not to drink spirituously unless at meals. This, from newspaper report, seems to have caught the popular idea of temperance, for it is said thousands are wearing the button indicating membership.

TIMELY TOPICS.

They were talking of the uses and abuses of liquor, and one of the party advanced the opinion that liquor was an excellent thing in its place, and, of course, he told a story to prove it. "When I was soldiering at Amherstburg in '65," he said, "the other officers I was associated with were rather partial to John Barleycorn, while I never tasted liquor at all. One day we went out shooting, having to drive about eight miles to the shooting grounds. It was in March, and on the way we all got our feet and lower limbs wet. The water, of course, was icy cold, and some of my associates urged me to indulge a little, as they did, to ward off the effects of the wetting we had received. I declined their invitation, but took two glasses of whiskey and poured one into each boot. In a short time my feet were in a glow. We went back to our quarters and changed our clothes. The next morning I had not a sign of a cold, and the other fellows were laid up for two or three weeks. Yes, sir, since then I am quite satisfied that whiskey is a splendid thing—in its place."

A SURE DELIVERER WHEN SICKNESS AND DISEASE THREATEN LIFE

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

SAVES THE LIFE OF A MONTREAL LADY.

Stomach difficulties and distresses are varied in character and demand prompt attention. In the majority of cases the troubles originate from a morbid condition of the nerves of the stomach. If you suffer from dyspepsia, indigestion, inflammation of the stomach or gastric derangements, the use of Paine's Celery Compound will assuredly banish your tormenting enemies. Paine's Celery Compound quickly tones and strengthens the stomach and its particular nerves, so that your food will enrich the blood and make solid flesh, bone and muscle. Mrs. Lefebvre, Iberville St., Montreal, cured at the eleventh hour by Paine's Celery Compound, says:

"For five years I suffered from dyspepsia, dizziness, stomach weakness and constipation to such an extent that physicians failed to relieve my terrible sufferings. The reality loomed up before me that I was dying. One day I heard of Paine's Celery Compound, and I resolved to buy six bottles. After using the compound I am strong, appetite good, constipation banished, and I am perfectly cured. I would specially recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all women, as it is a grand health restorer."

Principal Milburn, of the High School, presented his report for the month of January, which showed an enrollment of 196 pupils, with an average daily attendance of 126. There was a decided improvement in punctuality, although there were a few pupils who were habitually late. In every other respects the school was first-class. The pupils of the school asked to have the privilege of being dismissed on Tuesday afternoon of next week at 3 o'clock to attend an entertainment.

The Board went into Committee of the Whole on Reports, Mr. A. McGinnis in the chair.

The Finance Committee's report was first taken up, and the various items of expenditure were passed without much discussion.

An account of $13.04, as the Board's proportion of payment of examination papers used by the County and the City, was referred to the Printing and Supplies Committee, after some of the members had spoken in support of the proposition.

The report of the High School pupils to have the school closed at 3 p.m. on Tuesday next, to attend an entertainment, was granted.

Inquiries.

Under this head Col. Ponton asked if Mr. Wm. McKeown was the only supernumerary teacher on the roll.

He was informed that such was the case.

Col. Ponton said if such was the case more supernumerary teachers were required. Classes were being dismissed and children allowed to run the streets for the want of a teacher. This was not as it should be, and as a Board they were not doing their duty to allow it to continue. The various classes should be kept going during school days as it was detrimental to a scholar to allow breaks in his studies to occur.

Mr. J. F. Wills said that this was an important matter and should certainly be attended to. There had been of late a number of teachers absent days and half days, owing to illness, and Mr. McKeown had taught and Miss Hitchon was at present teaching for a teacher who was compelled to be at home.

The Chairman stated that in order to have this matter discussed properly a motion would have to be made

Col. Ponton moved, seconded by Rev. A. L. Geen, That an additional supply of experienced teachers be provided by this Board for the purpose of filling the place of teachers who may be necessarily absent through illness, so that the continuity of instruction of the classes may be secured, and that this be referred to the School Management Committee, with power to act forthwith.

Col. Ponton spoke strongly in support of the motion, as it was a matter of necessity and should be attended to at once.

Mr. I. Diamond said he was in hearty sympathy with the motion. Perhaps if the teachers had to pay for a substitute there would not be many cases of absence on the part of the teachers.

Mr. Walker stated that whilst he was in sympathy with the motion as to the supplying of teachers, he did not wish the Committee to have full power to act. In speaking of teachers being absent he said that some years ago it was necessary for a teacher to provide the Board with a doctor's certificate in case of sickness, which was not at present being done. In many cases the teachers absent themselves and do not notify Mr. McKeown or any other person of their absence.

Mr. Hudson was in favor of the matter being referred to the Committee named, but did not altogether favor the idea that the Committee should have power to act forthwith in the matter.

Rev. A. L. Geen said he seconded the motion in order to have it discussed and he was in favor of the Committee's investigating the matter. It was not right that children should be out of school as often as is reported.

Col. Ponton thought that it was not reasonable that any teachers should be allowed to absent themselves without any reasonable excuse, and he was not in favor of the teachers having to pay for a supply. They were not getting such a large salary that they could afford to do this.

Mr. McGinnis suggested that the latter portion of the motion be expunged.

Mr. J. F. Wills moved an amendment, seconded by Mr. McGinnis, that the Committee on School Management investigate this matter and report back to the Board.

After some further discussion the amendment prevailed.

This concluded the business and the Board adjourned.

This Way Will Cure

Else I'll Pay Your Bill Myself.

I will cure you—as I have half a million others—and take all the risk myself.

I will furnish you the utmost medicine can do; and unless it succeeds it shall be absolutely free.

Simply send me this coupon or write me a postal, stating which book you need. I will then mail you an order—good at any drug store—for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. You may take it a month on trial. If it succeeds the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I will pay your druggist myself, and your mere word shall decide it.

You see this offer everywhere, all the time; and thousands every week are accepting it. And you must realize that I am curing those thousands, else the offer would ruin me.

You who are hesitating are wronging yourselves. You can have health for the asking. And I know from a vast experience that most of you must get help to get well.

The reason is that my Restorative strengthens the inside nerves. It is the result of a lifetime's study in learning how to bring back this power that operates all vital organs. It gives the weak organ power to do its duty, and power is all that weakness needs.

The remedies that merely doctor the organs cannot bring results that last. Many of you know that from long and discouraging experience. The results from my Restorative are permanent. It reaches the cause that must be cured, whether the trouble is little or severe. The facts in my book will convince you that I am right.

FORT BLUNDER

UNITED STATES FORT ON BRITISH SOIL.

(Exchange).

Curious, indeed, is a United States fort which was built on British soil. How many can guess what fort it is and where located? The name is Fort Montgomery, and the location is on an island near the foot of Lake Champlain about half a mile northeast of Rouse's Point, N.Y.

A short time ago, when travelling in that part of the country, I saw this fort and asked the name of it. "Why, that is Fort Blunder," said my informant. "Did you never hear of it?" I confessed ignorance, and he explained matters.

It seems that after the war of 1812 the Government of the United States became convinced that the entrance to Lake Champlain should be guarded by a fort strong enough to engage any British fleet which might attempt to force an entrance to the lake. And so Fort Montgomery was constructed, at a cost of nearly $500,000. It was an immense fortification for those days, and was arranged for three tiers of guns.

Just about the time it was completed the joint surveyors fixing the line between the United States and Canada came along, and, after doing a good bit of figuring, announced that Fort Montgomery was on Canadian soil. The northern boundary of New York state was the forty-fifth parallel, and this fort was several hundred yards over the line. Work on the fort came to an immediate standstill, and the matter was made the subject of a special treaty.

It was decided that in view of the fact that the United States had not intentionally encroached on Canadian soil the forty-fifth parallel should be bent a little out of its course at this point so as to include the fort. That is why the fort is called "Fort Blunder."

It was never armed and has never been occupied by more than one or two men. At present a sergeant of marines is stationed there, and his sole duty is to raise and lower the flag at sunrise and sunset.

HOW TO BEAUTIFY THE COMPLEXION.

To have a soft, smooth skin, free from eruptions and pimples, the blood must be healthy and pure. Ferrozone invigorates enfeebled blood, and cleanses it of all impurities and poisons; it brings color to the lips and cheeks, brilliancy to the eyes, whitens the teeth and sweetens the breath. No tonic compares with Ferrozone in rapid action and permanent results. Try it. Price 50c at druggists or J. S. McKeown's.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

"She will never know the effort it cost me, nor hear me say that I hope I am forgiven. It came to me last night; and now the way it not so dark, but Katy will not know."

CHAPTER XLIV.

Katy would know; for she was coming at last. A telegram had announced that she was on the road; and with nervous restlessness Wilford asked repeatedly what time it was, reducing the hours to minutes, and counting his own pulses to see if he could last so long.

"Save me, Doctor," he whispered to Morris, "keep me alive till Katy comes. I must see Katy again."

And Morris, tenderer than a brother, did all he could to keep the feeble breath from going out ere Katy came.

The train was due at five; but it was dark in the hospital, and from every window a light was shining, when Morris carried, rather than led, a quivering figure up the stairs and through the hall to the room where the Camerons were, the father standing at the foot of Wilford's bed, and Bell bending over his pillow, administering the stimulants which kept her brother alive. When Katy came in, she moved away, as did her father, while Morris too-stepped back into the hall; and thus the husband and wife were left alone.

"Katy, precious Katy, you have forgiven me?" Wilford whispered, and the rain of tears and kisses on his face was Katy's answer as she hung over him.

She had forgiven him, and she told him so when she found voice to talk, wondering to find him so changed from the proud, exacting, self-worshiping man to the humble repentant and self-accusing person, who took all blame of the past to himself, and exonerated her from every fault. But when he drew her close to him, and whispered something in her ear, she knew whence came the change, and a reverent "Thank the good Father," dropped from her lips.

"The way was dark and thorny," Wilford said, making her sit down where he could see her as he talked, "and only for God's goodness I should have lost the path. But he sent Morris Grant to point the road, and I trust I am in it now. I wanted to tell you with my own lips how sorry I am for what I have made you suffer; but sorriest of all for sending Baby away. Oh, Katy, you do not know how that rested upon my conscience. Forgive me, Katy, that I robbed you of your child."

He was growing very weak, and he looked so white and ghastly that Katy called for Bell, who came with her father, and the three stood together around the bedside of the dying.

"You will remember me, Katy," he said, "but you cannot mourn for me always, and sometime in the future you will cease to be my widow, and, Katy, I am willing. I wanted to tell you this, so that no thought of me should keep you from a life where you will be happier than I have made you."

Wholly bewildered, Katy made no reply, and Wilford was silent for a few moments, in which he seemed partially asleep. Then rousing up, he said:

"You said once that Genevra was not dead. Did you mean it, Katy?"

Frightened and bewildered, Katy turned appealingly to her father-in-law, who answered for her. "She meant it—Genevra is not dead," while a blood-red flush stained Wilford's face, and his fingers beat the bed-spread thoughtfully.

"I fancied once that she was here—that she was the nurse the boys praise so much But that was a delusion," he said, and without a thought of the result, Katy asked impetuously: "If she were here would you care to see her?"

There was a startled look on Wilford's face, and he grasped Katy's hand nervously, his frame trembling with a dread of the great shock which he felt impending over him.

"Is she here? Was the nurse Genevra?" he asked. Then, as his mind went back to the past, he answered his own questions by asserting "Marian Hazelton is Genevra."

They did not contradict him, nor did he ask to see her. With Katy there he felt he had better not; but after a moment he continued: "It is all so strange. I thought her dead. I do not comprehend how it can be. She has been kind to me. Tell her I thank her for it I was unjust to her. I have much to answer for."

Between each word he uttered there was a gasp for breath, and father Cameron opened the window to admit the cool night air. But nothing had power to revive him. He was going very fast, Morris said, as he took his stand by the bedside and watched the approach of death. There were no convulsive struggles, only heavy breathings, which grew farther and farther apart, until at last Wilford drew Katy close to him, and winding his arm around her neck, whispered:

"I am almost home, my darling, and all is well. Be kind to Genevra for my sake. I loved her once, but not as I love you."

He never spoke again, and a few minutes later Morris led Katy from the room, and then went out to give orders for the embalming.

* * * * *

In the little room she called her own, Marian Hazelton sat, her beautiful hair disordered, and her eyes dim with the tears she shed. She knew that Wilford was dead, and as if his dying had brought back all her olden love she wept bitterly for the man who had so darkened her life. She had not expected to see him with Katy present; but now that it was over she might go to him. There could be no harm in that. No one but Morris would know who she was, she thought, when there came a timid knock upon her door, and Katy entered, her face very pale, and her manner very calm, as she came to Marian, and kneeling down beside her laid her head in her lap with the air of a weary child who has sought its mother for rest.

"Poor little Katy!" Marian said; "your husband, they tell me, is dead."

"Yes," and Katy lifted up her head, and fixing her eyes earnestly upon Marian, continued: "Wilford is dead, but before he died he left a message for Genevra Lambert. Will she hear it now?"

With a sudden start Marian sprang to her feet, and demanded: "Who told you of Genevra Lambert?"

"Wilford told me months ago, showing me her picture, which I readily recognized, and I have pitied you so much, knowing you were innocent. Wilford thought you were dead," Katy said, flinching a little before Marian's burning gaze, which fascinated even while it startled her.

It is not often that two women meet bearing to each other the relations these two bore, and it is not strange that both felt constrained and embarrassed as they stood looking at each other. As Marian's was the stronger, so she was the first to rally, and with the tears swimming in her eyes she drew Katy closely to her, and said:

"Now that he is gone I am glad you know it. Mine has been a sad life, but God has helped me to bear it. You say he believed me dead. Some time I will tell you how that came about; but now, his message—he left one, you say?"

Carefully Katy repeated every word Wilford had said, and with a gasping cry Marian wound her arms around her neck, exclaiming:

"And you will love me, because I have suffered so much. You will let me call you Katy when we are alone. It brings you nearer to me."

Marian was now the weaker of the two, and it was Katy's task to comfort her, as sinking back in her chair she sobbed:

"He did love me once. He acknowledged it at the last, before them all, his wife, his father and his sister. Do they know?" she suddenly asked, and when assured that they did, she relapsed into a silent mood, while Katy stole quietly out and left her there alone.

Nerve Disorders of Women

ACCOMPANIED BY NEURALGIA, IRRITABILITY, SLEEPLESSNESS AND DEPRESSED SPIRITS.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

The feminine organism requires an enormous quantity of blood not only to sustain the network of nerves which are found in the womanly system, but also to make good the periodical loss which so weakens the body.

Consequently it happens that just as soon as the blood gets weak and watery or is deficient in quantity the nervous system suffers, and in woman the effects are more severely felt in the form of irregularities and weaknesses of the feminine system.

At the beginning of womanhood, at child birth, during the nursing periods and at the change of life, calls are made for an extra supply of blood, and as a result nervous disorders are exceedingly common at these times and the health and happiness of the remainder of life may depend on the care of the system.

Because Dr. Chase's Nerve Food actually forms new blood and creates new nerve force, it is the most effective preparation ever used by women to build up the system and restore vigor and strength go the body.

Mrs. John Hogan, Strachan street, Belleville, Ont., states; "I have used several boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and as a result I have been restored to good health. I used to suffer a great deal with headaches, dizziness, nervousness and weak, fainting spells. By the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food these ills have been entirely overcome and I feel like a different person. My nerves are steady, I have no headaches and the dizziness and fainting spells have entirely left me. I can speak most highly of this medicine as an excellent tonic.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia.

He Has Tried It.—Mr. John Anderson, Kinloss, writes: "I venture to say few, if any, have received greater benefit from the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, than I have. I have used it regularly for over ten years, and have recommended it to all sufferers I knew of, and they also found it of great virtue in cases of severe bronchitis and incipient consumption.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER, Belleville.

A Savings Bank.

Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality. Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

BURRARD ELECTION—CORRUPTION.

The late contest in Burrard, B.C., to fill the vacancy created in the Commons by the death of Mr. Maxwell, partook of the same tactics that have of late disgraced elections in Ontario. So flagrant have these acts of corruption become, that honest Liberals are beginning to revolt.

It appears that Mr. McPherson, the gentleman just elected, was a Liberal "Machine" nominee. The manner in which he secured the nomination shows that even in their private gatherings the Liberals are not to be trusted. At a meeting held in the interests of one of the candidates, it was openly charged that delegates to the party convention were brought up. The following partial report of the proceedings shows the methods resorted to by the "Machine" in all parts of Canada:

"Mr. W. O. Murray's remarks were a point blank denunciation, or rather an exposure of the Liberal tactics as operated in Burrard. In opening Mr. Murray stated that he was a Liberal. As yet he has not turned his coat, but if things continued to be run by the party as they are at present, he would cease to be a supporter of it. In 1898 and for years after, the corruption in the Conservative party had been the great cry, but he could say he had never seen greater corruption than that practised in Vancouver to-day. The Liberal primaries, it was safe to say, had cost the victorious party a large sum and with such an exhibition of corruption at the outset, was it not high time for some one to "break away" and make an effort to bring the men responsible for these things to time?"

The marvel is that honest men have not cut themselves apart from these scheming corruptionists long ere this.

THE CONSERVATIVES OF EAST HASTINGS

HELD AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT ROSLIN YESTERDAY—THE NEW OFFICERS.

The Conservatives of East Hastings met in annual convention yesterday at Roslin, and there were a large number in attendance from all portions of the Riding. It was not only a harmonious but an enthusiastic meeting.

Mr. John Stokes, of Hungerford, President, occupied the chair and stated the object of the gathering.

The first business taken up was the election of officers for the year, which resulted as follows:

President—Mr. John Stokes.

Vice-Presidents—Messrs. A. Grant, Tweed; A. McFarlane, Tyendinaga; H. K. Denyes, Thurlow; and Dr. Newton, Deseronto.

Secretary-Treasurer—Mr. W. J. Malley, of Deseronto.

After the officers had been elected addresses were delivered by the following gentlemen: Messrs. W. B. Northrup, M.P.; W. P. Hudson, ex-M.P.P.; A. A. Richardson, A. McFarlane, W. C. Mikel, H. K. Denyes and J. Stokes.

The meeting closed with cheers for the King, the Conservative leaders, Mr. Northrup and Mr. Richardson.

We beg to call the attention of our readers to the subscription offer, published elsewhere in this issue, of the British-Canadian Wheat Raising Company. It will be observed that the Company consists of some of the leading men in Canada, and that the financial standing and earning capacity of the Company are something seldom seen in an issue of shares. This Company's future is absolutely assured, and it is predicted by men who know that these shares will undoubtedly command a high premium in a very short time. It is the intention of the Company to have the shares listed on the various exchanges shortly after the subscription for the same is closed.

Inasmuch as only a limited amount of these shares will be offered to the public, it is confidently expected that they will be largely over-subscribed, but we are given to understand by the Treasurer that those subscribing first will be given the preference.—Advt.

SPORTING COMMENT.

The game last night doesn't require much comment. The score speaks for itself. But it should have been larger on Belleville's side, and the reason it wasn't larger can be summed up in two words—Selfish play. The same thing that nearly got the boys beaten in Peterboro, and which will get any team beaten that tries it. This is a job we don't like, for the boys as a whole have played brilliantly and have caused Belleville's praises to be sung all over Ontario, but the object of all this play, we take it, is to land the championship, and if the team is going to land the championship it must use its head as well as its feet. Now, there's one of the Belleville forwards, he's a grand player, his superior never struck this neck of the woods, but he can't play the game all by himself, and he tried to do it last night. Get in the game, old man. Give somebody else a chance. There are three other forwards in the game besides you. A little cheap applause from the crowd, after an individual try that fails, doesn't weigh a quarter of an ounce compared with the knowledge that by a quick pass you have been instrumental in adding another notch to the score. Results are what count.

The Port Hope Guide takes a joke very seriously, as the following will show:

"Belleville laughs at the proposal of Peterboro and Port Hope to play for a cup and The Intelligencer has the following to remark—"Peterboro and Port Hope intermediate hockey teams will play home and home matches for a trophy. How would a leather medal do?" We might just inform The Intelligencer man that whatever the trophy may be it will be well worth competing for and when we wish Bellevill's advice as to the nature of a trophy we shall ask for it. The eastern town had better look after its own seven or they may finish the hockey season not even leather medalists."

We'll be good in future.

The Kingston Whig man has dug up the hatchet again, as the following painful paragraph will show: "If colors and howling will win, Belleville hockey team should have a walkover the K.B.C. Ramblers. The people of Intelligencerville deck themselves like physiogs, in red and white, and with tiny hockey batons create a lively time." Who would have thought, after the nice things we've said about Kingston lately, that our esteemed contemporary would hand us one like that?

Wee Dainty Miss Wise

A Hamilton Little One Who Was Afflicted With Eczema For Over Two Years.

Every Known Remedy Was Tried But Without Success Until One Happy Day Her Mother Tried Powley's Liquified Ozone.

The Disease Germs Were Soon Destroyed, and After Taking Four Bottles Little Miss Wise Was Entirely Cured and in Perfect Health.

LITTLE MISS WISE.

Hamilton, January 16, 1903.

THE OZONE CO., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Gentlemen,—It is with heartfelt gratitude I write you of the wonderful cure your remedy (Powley's Liquified Ozone) has effected in my little daughter's case.

My daughter had been afflicted with eczema for over two years, and we had tried all the different remedies known for eczema—various patent medicines and also doctors' prescriptions, but nothing that we tried did her good.

We finally tried your Powley's Liquified Ozone and we are happy to tell you that after using four bottles our little one is entirely cured and is in perfect health, as you can see by her picture we are sending you.

You are at liberty to publish this in any papers you wish and to use my daughter's picture to confirm my statements. We thank you for your wonderful remedy and attribute our little daughter's recovery to Ozone alone, as no other remedies did her any good.

We have recommended Ozone to others, who have used it and been wonderfully benefitted by it.

(Signed) MRS. H. J. WISE,
Corner Barton street and Smith avenue.

Many Eczema Cases Cured by the Infallible Ozone.

Eczema is recognized as being one of the most stubborn diseases that medical men have to contend with. No halfway measures are possible with it. It must be rooted out entirely. Powley's Liquified Ozone does this by destroying the germs that cause it. Not in simply one case has its efficacy been proven, but in hundreds, until to-day it stands unrivalled as a remedy for this painful malady. The following are brief extracts from the testimonials of a few of the many who have been cured:

RODGER PILSON,

Downsview P.O., Ont., says: "For eight years I suffered with eczema and spent hundreds of dollars in medicines, but could get nothing to help me until a friend advised me to try Powley's Liquified Ozone. I did so and before I had entirely used three large bottles I was completely cured."

WALTER KNOWLTON,

87 Brunswick avenue, Toronto, says: "When our little boy was two years old a rash broke out on his face. The following Fall it became worse and we were much alarmed, as we feared the child would be disfigured for life. The doctor said he could do nothing. A neighbor advised Powley's Liquified Ozone. I had no faith in it, but eventually decided to do so. At first he grew worse, then better, and the disease seemed gradually to dry up. In a short while he was in perfect health, with a skin as soft and smooth as velvet."

W. DORSEY,

22 Sultan street, Toronto, says: "I had a very severe attack of eczema in my left leg. It became very angry and sore, and seemed to eat right into the flesh. This gave me such great pain that I was nearly out of my mind. Different friends advised me to try Powley's Liquified Ozone. I bought three bottles and by the time I had taken them every trace of the disease was gone."

MRS. F. SCULTHORPE,

72 Cobourg street, Ottawa, says: "I was terribly afflicted with eczema, which broke out on nearly every part of the body. The irritation was almost unbearable and my life was a misery. I commenced to use Powley's Liquified Ozone and after using nine fifty cent bottles there is no trace of the disease left."

DR. MECKLENBURG,

corner Craig and Bleury streets, Montreal, says: "For over twelve years I was a great sufferer from eczema. My hands and limbs were so bad that blood would ooze out of my skin, and I had a very bad sore on my right leg at the knee. In was so painful I was unable to walk and at times my hands were so bad I could not attend to my practice and I was compelled to wear silk rubber gloves. I was treated by leading specialists on skin disease, but got no relief. With hope almost gone I finally decided to try Powley's Liquified Ozone. I noticed an improvement almost immediately and continued until I had used eleven bottles, when I was completely cured. My skin is as clean and smooth as a baby's."

WARNING In buying be sure to get Powley's Liquified Ozone. As a safeguard to your own good health it will pay you to exercise this precaution. Powley's Liquified Ozone is sold only by reliable dealers and is never peddled. Price, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Better Demand for Live Stock—Hogs Are Lower—Drop in Grain Prices.

Friday Evening, Feb. 13.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Business at St. Lawrence Market was fairly active to-day and receipts were more plentiful. The total amount of grain on the market was 2,600 bushels.

Wheat—White wheat was steady, 400 bushels selling at 72½c to 73c per bushel. Red was unchanged, 300 bushels selling at 72½c. Goose was firmer and 600 bushels sold at 67½c to 68c.

Barley—The market feeling is firmer, but quotations are unchanged. Eight hundred bushels sold at 47c to 50c per bushel.

Oats—Prices have an upward tendency and the market is generally firmer. Five hundred bushels sold at 36c to 36½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—In sympathy with the live stock markets the price of dressed hogs showed a decline to-day. Quotations are $7.75 to $8 per cwt for choice light weight butcher hogs and $7.50 to $7.75 for heavies.

Hay—No. 1 timothy is firmer at $12 to $15 per ton and mixed or clover is steady at $6 to $9. The receipts amounted to about 35 loads.

Straw—Quotations are steady at $9 to $10 per ton. About two loads were on the market to-day.

Toronto Live Stock.

Trade at the Toronto Cattle Market today showed some improvement over that of the previous days of the week. The run of stuff was light and some dealers had orders to fill, and so created a demand rather more than equal to the supply. Prices had, therefore, a firmer feeling, but quotations generally remain unchanged. Hog prices are quoted 10c per cwt easier. The total run of offerings amounted to 48 cars, including 580 cattle, 487 sheep and lambs, 1,482 hogs and 18 calves.

Export Cattle—The demand for cattle was very little better and showed little improvement, but the offerings were light. The quality of the stuff was only moderately good and prices showed practically no tendency to stiffen. About $4.75 per cwt was paid for the best stuff on the market and there was little or no fancy stock offering to fetch better figures.

Butchers' Cattle—Prices for this line of cattle were pretty well maintained, although the demand was no better than at recent markets. Doubtless the light run helped to keep prices in their place. The best cattle sold at about $4.40 per cwt.

Stockers and Feeders—Some stock was on the market to-day and sold at fairly good prices. The demand for good feed cattle of all kinds continues good and prices are about steady.

Sheep and Lambs—There was a fairly large run to-day and trade was generally good. Quotations continue unchanged, with prospects steady.

Calves—Good veal calves continue in good demand and prices are steady at $2 to $10 each, or 4½c to 6c per lb.

Hogs—The run was fairly heavy, with the demand light. Prices declined 10c per cwt for all grades of stock.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 13.—Cattle—Receipts, 75 head; strong, 10c lower. Veals—Receipts, 420 head; steady; tops, $9.50 to $10; common to good, $5.50 to $9.25. Hogs—Receipts, 6,100 head; active and steady; heavy, $7.20 to $7.25; mixed, $7.15 to $7.20; Yorkers, $7.10 to $7.15; pigs, $7; roughs, $6.10 to $6.40; stags, $5 to $5.50. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 14,800 head; sheep steady; lambs, 10c to 15c higher; top lambs, $6.75 to $6.85; culls to good, $4.25 to $6.60; yearlings, $5.25 to $5.75; ewes, $4.50 to $4.75; top mixed sheep, $4.50 to $4.75; culls to good, $2.25 to $4.40.

NEW CLOTHING, NEW HATS.

New goods have been hustling into the Oak Hall this week. New boys' and men's suits, new trousers and more new spring hats. In buying, you may as well have the latest, it won't cost you more than buying out of season styles. See the "new thing" in broad brim hats that we are showing.

BROTHERHOOD OVERALLS.

We have just received a big shipment of the H. S. Peters' Brotherhood Overalls. All sizes from 32 to 60. These Overalls are undoubtedly the best manufactured and can be procured only at QUICK & ROBERTSON'S, Belleville's Best Clothiers.

Opera Tuesday Night

The plan for Sousa's great Opera "El Capitan," which opened at Riggs' this morning is going fast, and indications point to a crowded house on Tuesday evening. This opera has been received with tremendous success wherever shown, and comes to this city highly recommended by both press and public. The principal comedy part is taken by Mr. Jack Henderson, an old Belleville boy, and pronounced one of the leading men in comedy roles. Altogether the company is composed of the leading lights in the dramatic profession, and Tuesday's performance will doubtless add to the triumphs already scored by this company. Prices range from 25c to $1.00, and should be secured immediately.—Advt.

PROPERTY OF THE COMPANY.

This Company has secured 10,000 acres of the choicest wheat lands in Assiniboia, Canada, having paid to the owners in addition to cash 60,000 shares of its Capital Stock, for which the owners are completely equipping the property with all the necessary buildings, steam plows, steam threshers, drills, wagons, tools, fences, and everything necessary to operate the said 10,000 acres. In addition, the Company is to pay to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and the other vendors of the said lands $50,000 in yearly installments of $10,000 each, being the balance of the purchase money.

These lands are capable of producing, at a fair estimate, 30 bushels to the acre of the best wheat produced in the world, or a total capacity of 300,000 bushels per year. Owing to the rich, prolific nature of the Northwestern Canadian soil, this product can be duplicated each year indefinitely. The Company's property will always be equipped with all the latest improved steam plows, drills, threshers, and necessary machinery to produce wheat at the lowest cost. It is the intention of the Company to have its own elevator, of a capacity sufficient to store its entire production, thus enabling them to take advantage of the highest market prices from time to time. The market for wheat is the same as for gold—it is unlimited.

The Company also has an option on 10,000 additional acres of the same character of wheat land as the 10,000 acres above mentioned, the property being located seven miles from the Canadian Pacific Railway, where large elevators are ready to receive the product.

This is an investment that will enhance in value as time goes by, not only from the large production of wheat, but the increased value of the Company's lands from year to year.

APPROXIMATE EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY

Are Estimated as Follows:

The average yield of wheat in Western Canada varies but little under all conditions. In some years the average has been over thirty-five bushels per acre. Many individual cases report as high as forty-five and even fifty-five bushels to the acre. But, taking the lowest average, there is no industry that will produce better profits. Owing to the modern steam machinery and economical methods employed in cropping, harvesting, threshing and marketing, as well as the especial ease with which in the prairie country of Western Canada, wheat is produced, there is always a splendid profit. The cost of raising an acre of wheat, being placed by farmers and experts at about $5.00 per acre, there have been cases in the past few years where as much as $35.00 has been realized, less the cost of $5.00, leaving a net profit of $30.00 per acre.

A safe and conservative estimate of the Company's earnings, taken much below the above figures, is herewith given:

APPROXIMATE YEARLY STATEMENT.

10,000 ACRES AT 30 BUSHELS OF WHEAT PER ACRE—300,000 BUSHELS, WORTH ON THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY, 60c. PER BUSHEL $180,000

To pay Dividends of 15 per cent. per annum				82,500
Estimated Surplus, after payment of Dividends				37,500
				$180,000

ESTIMATED NET PROFITS PER YEAR.

It will be seen that, after paying the expenses of raising wheat on 10,000 acres, amounting to $50,000 each year, and paying $10,000 per year to the Canadian Pacific Railway (for 5 years) as yearly payments on the property, it is estimated there will still remain a profit of $120,000 per year, or over 20 per cent. per annum on the stock issued.

TREASURY ASSETS.

The Company now have, after paying the 60,000 shares to the owners for the lands, improvements and equipment, 140,000 shares still in the Treasury, the same being set aside as a Treasury Fund. 50,000 of these shares are now being offered for subscription in Canada and England, and are to be sold for the purpose of taking up the option, and acquiring the 10,000 acres of new wheat territory, and the equipment of the same, together with working capital.

By acquiring the additional 10,000 acres, making 20,000 in all to be owned and operated by the Company, the profits will be more than doubled or over 40 per cent. on the 110,000 shares of stock issued.

The balance of 90,000 shares will be held as an asset of the Company, which can be sold when required for extending the operations of the Company.

DIVIDENDS.

Dividends of, say, 15 percent. per year, it is estimated, can be paid semi-annually, December 1st and June 1st of each year. Outside of the amount paid in dividends, the surplus earnings will be accumulated, and will either be divided among the shareholders as extra dividends, or used to purchase new wheat territory; or be otherwise employed as may be hereafter determined.

WESTERN CANADA

is fast becoming the Eldorado of Great Britain. Its wheat lands will create more wealth than all the gold and diamond mines of the Empire. The failure of a crop is unknown. (See the report of Hon. Clifford Sifton, Minister of the Interior, Canada, extracts of which are published in the prospectus of this Company.) The wheat of Western Canada is well known to be extremely Hard No. 1, the best quality grown in the world; the yield also being considerably more per acre than in the United States. The sub-soil throughout the intense heat of summer is kept moist by the slow melting of the deep winter frosts, the moisture ascending to the surface and moistening the roots of the grain, thus stimulating growth and producing a bountiful crop.

DEMAND FOR WHEAT.

The demand for wheat from England alone is over 160,000,000 bushels per year, and from other European countries about 250,000,000 bushels, most of which is obtained from the United States, but of a poorer quality than can and will be furnished by Canada. The Canadian Pacific Railway runs within easy hauling distance of the property and is doing everything in its power to increase wheat raising.

A RELIABLE INVESTMENT.

This Company has an advantage over other industrial enterprises thro[illegible] the fact that while the Company's earnings from its wheat products will be [illegible]stantly growing, and advancing the price of the Company's shares, the [illegible] of the Company is continually enhancing in value, creating a double source of values.

There is no business in the commercial world so profitable as raising wheat, and the investment is as safe as first-class Railroad Bonds, for the reason that the land and improvements of the Company are always a security for its shares, besides its ability to raise immensely profitable crops. The possibilities of this Company are unlimited, as the surplus earnings can be devoted to the acquisition of additional wheat lands, thereby increasing the earning capacity of the Company and lowering the average cost of production.

Owing to the intrinsic value of the property of this Company, and its estimated vast earning power, a rapid advance in the price of these shares will doubtless take place, and we confidently expect that this issue of 50,000 shares will be largely over-subscribed.

SUBSCRIPTION TERMS.

The full amount of $5.00 per share must accompany the order. The right is reserved to allot a smaller number of shares than the amount subscribed for, in which event the balance of the money will be returned with the shares allotted.

Application will be made for a settlement of these shares on the London, Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges in due course.

MONEY MAY BE SENT BY POST OFFICE ORDER, EXPRESS, REGISTERED LETTER, OR BY CHEQUE.

WATERS'

A Languid Japanese Lady.

In a recent address in Tokyo a prominent Japanese educator said: "The indolence of Japanese ladies is something amazing. I know a daughter of a certain peer, but a brand new one, and this young lady's indolence is really beyond the idea of ordinary mortals. She will not even open her mouth of herself. As soon as the time to retire to her bed arrives she issues her order, 'Now I will retire,' and at once three or four maids spread the underquilts, help her, or, rather, make her, for she simply stands like a doll, to change her clothes, and at last the girl, swaddled in her night garment, is put to bed just like a person suffering from a serious illness, and so the poor thing goes to sleep and releases her maids from their trouble till the morning, when the daily routine is resumed. First of all she issues to the maids waiting in her anteroom this extraordinary order, 'I shall get up now,' and then the process exactly the reverse of that of the night before is forthwith commenced by the girls. Day after day this routine is gone through, and the spoiled child of the proud upstart peer forces herself from her mistaken notion as to dignity to lead the life of an invalid and to cripple the normal development of her body."

Fish Proverbs.

"I have other fish to fry" one says in declining a task. "A pretty kittle of fish," says another in designating a pretty bad mess. The "kittle" is the tackle of the fish boom, which may easily get into a sad snarl. "There are other fish in the sea," says the rejected suitor. "Mute as a fish." "Dead as a herring." "As uneasy as a fish out of water," "To fish for compliments," are among the best known figurative expressions referring to the finny tribe. "Very like a whale" we may refer at least to Shakespeare's time ("Hamlet," iii, 2). "White as whalebone" was coined when walrus ivory was taken for whale's bone. "The shark flies the feather" is a sailor's saying, indicating the fact that this voracious fish will not touch a bird. The use of the term "land shark" is not confined to seamen by any means. Shakespeare makes use of another nautical expression in "Twelfth Night," i, 8.

True Literature.

We are inclined on the whole to believe that the stimulus to literary production exists within and not without the man. It is not external circumstances, poverty or riches, sickness or health, greatness or humbleness, that determine the productions or output of genius. It is the characteristics of the man that determine not what he shall learn or what he shall think, but what he shall do. A stimulus from without, such as poverty, may start production, of course, but that is merely the physical awakening of a disposition that in any circumstances would have been awakened in some way at some time. True literature is the voice of the soul calling from the windows of the house of clay in response to those things of life that touch the nature of the soul that speaks.

No Charge.

A group of representatives were one day telling stories of their experience in court when one of them contributed this incident from Arizona, says a western newspaper:

Out in one of the border towns a case was in progress, one of the lawyers being an eastern man who was new to the country.

"Will you charge the jury, your honor?" he asked when the evidence had been submitted.

"Oh, no; I guess not," replied the judge. "I never charge them anything. They don't know much anyhow, and I let 'em have all they can make."

A Costly Bible.

The most costly book in the Royal library at Stockholm is a Bible. It is no wonder that it is considered precious, for there is not another like it in the world. In weight and size alone it is unique. It is said that 160 asses' skins were used for its parchment leaves. There are 309 pages of writing, and each page falls but an inch short of being a yard in length. The width of the leaves is twenty inches. The covers are solid planks four inches thick.

An Explanation.

"I suppose you will be glad to get away from congress and get a little rest."

"My friend," answered the statesman, "you misinterpret the situation. When a man goes to his own state, he has got to look after elections night and day. He goes home to hustle. If he's lucky, he gets to congress, where is a chance to rest."

Like Father, Like Son.

"I'm determined to call the dear little fellow Marion," said Mrs. Henpeck.

"But think, my dear," protested Mr. Henpeck, pere, "if he should grow up like me, to marry a—er—strong woman and push a baby coach himself and wash dishes, how easy it would be for people to change Marion to Mary Ann."

Love In the Museum.

"Will nothing move you?" pleaded the ardent wild man, who was as adept at lovemaking as he was at eating raw beef.

The fat lady glanced at her corpulent self and smiled. "Yes," she chuckled; "a derrick."

Their Glasses Differ.

"The glasses that I use hurt my eyes and cause me trouble."

"The glasses that I use affect my eyes till I see double."

A woman can kiss a woman without knocking her hat off, but a man can't. —Atchison Globe.

HOCKEY.

Belleville Handed the Ramblers a Goose Egg.

The first game between Belleville and the Kingston Ramblers was played last night, and the local boys turned them down to the time of 7-0. It was a rather one-sided match, though not by any means tame at any stage. The Kingston men played hard all the way, and gave the Belleville defence a whole lot of work to do. Winchester in goal, as usual, made some remarkable stops, and people who had bet that Belleville would have a lead of six goals can thank "Winnie" for saving their money. The Ramblers are a rough lot of players, and kept the referee busy between ruling them off and warning them. To put the matter simply and in a sentence, they have neither the speed nor the skill to cope with the Bellevilles. Still, they displayed occasional glimpses of good combination, and whatever faults they had, weakening was not one of them, for they died hard, very hard. The Belleville team last night was not in a position to do itself justice, and this is intended in no way as a reflection on Allen, the new man. He played hard and played well, but there was a mix-up in positions, which at some stages of the game resulted in disorganization. Allen played centre, while McGuire went to Marks' old position at left wing. Occasionally he forgot that he had a new job and left the wing all alone to look out for itself, the result being anything but entirely satisfactory. Kennedy was in great form, and put up his best game of the season. The visitors evidently had instructions to watch McGuire, for the way they tripped and cross-checked him was a shame. No wonder he got tired of it in the end, and told one of the Kingston men plainly that that kind of thing had to stop. Sandy Burrows was a hard proposition for the Ramblers. He is fast and heavy, and not averse to a mix-up; the man who has to check him has no picnic, and as a shooter—look out. Many of the Kingston boys have sore spots on their anatomy to-day as a result of accidentally stopping Burrows' shots. The Belleville defence worked hard, and sometimes it had quite a lot to do. The Ramblers' forward line followed up fairly well, and several times the Belleville defence seemed rather slow in clearing, a fault they must overcome before they tackle any of the swift western teams. It is a pretty safe bet, however, that a better point and cover than Brown and Wallace are not kicking up their heels in intermediate hockey to-day. The Red and White boys have tore off their fifth consecutive victory, and the team which will trim them is not yet in sight. Certainly it doesn't dwell within the gates of dear old Kingston.

The ice last night was a trifle soft in the first half, but in the second, after the cuttings had been scraped off, there was as fine a sheet as one could wish for. Mr. E. H. Telfer, of Collingwood, was referee, and he was as strict and impartial as a referee could be. Belleville should have had two more goals, for the puck was netted twice and called back on account of fouls committed by Kingston players. However, the score was 7-0, and that's a pretty robust lead, if anybody asks you.

It was 8.25 when Referee Telfer rang his dinner bell and the men faced each other in this way:

Kingston goal.
Hiscock
Tett.
VanHorne.
Oldrieve.
Powell Ashley Scale.
o
Kennedy Allen McGuire.
Burrows
Brown
Wallace
Winchester
Belleville goal

Belleville captured the puck and carried it into the enemy's territory at once. Before the game had been in progress half a minute the referee sent a Rambler to the fence for tripping, who was followed by another about a minute later. Both were penalized for short terms, and both were back on the ice when Belleville scored the first game, after outplaying the visitors all the way. The next game had barely started when the Referee rang his bell and read the Riot Act to a Rambler. He didn't rule him off, but one could see that the Collingwood gentleman was very much in earnest. They were off again and Kennedy was the next to climb the fence. He was mixing things up too strenuously. The Ramblers were now playing very hard, and the play was on Belleville ice. Both teams were at it hammer and tongs for eight minutes, with honors about easy, when McGuire secured the puck, dodged three Kingston men and scored amid a regular whirlwind of applause. Play started again and the Kingston forwards made a rush, which Wallace broke up, but in doing so he displeased the referee, who sent him to keep the timekeepers company. Then Kennedy and a Kingston man got into a collar and eyebrows wrestling match, which resulted in their both going to the fence. There was no bad blood; the boys were both too eager, that was all. Wallace came on again and the puck went down to the Limestone fortress, and Belleville scored after a fine, dodgy run by Sandy Burrows. So far the enemy had equalled our lads in aggressiveness, but otherwise they were like the label on the bottle. Play started again and shortly afterwards another Kingston man was sent off for chopping. When he came on again Kingston pressed hard. Winchester was called on to exert himself, and he was always there when wanted. Once a Rambler got within six feet of "Winnie" and let go a shot which looked as though it had a through ticket. The Belleville goalkeeper chopped at it with his stick and everybody shouted when they saw the puck go to the side. It was a most remarkable stop. Belleville then had all the best of the play till the puck was scrimmaged into Kingston's net, time six minutes. The next game was distinguished by a dashing run and fine shot by Kennedy, who scored in two minutes. Shortly after the next face Brown was given a rest for playing too strenuously to suit Mr. Telfer, and half time came with the score 4—0.

When the second half started the only question was how big a score the local boys were going to pile up; the result was a foregone conclusion. "About ten to nothing will do," said some of the local prophets. But they had another think coming. The Ramblers were more dangerous in the second half than in the first, and several times looked like scoring. But the Belleville defence was a little too good for them, though they certainly stayed right with their men and fought hard every inch of the way. Belleville scored the sixth game in one minute. Burrows shot from the side. Hiscock stopped it, but Allen was right on top of him and knocked it into the net. The next game was the hardest-fought one of the whole match, and it took the local boys twenty-four minutes to score. A Kingston man was ruled off for giving McGuire a nasty trip, which it was a wonder did not break his bones. There was a mix-up in Belleville territory and Brown went over to see the timekeepers. Play had hardly started again before Wallace went to keep him company. The Kingston man came back and Belleville was playing five against seven. This appeared to be the visitors' opportunity, and they dashed in to make the most of it. But the Belleville boys rose nobly to the occasion and the red-shirted five more than held up their end with the Kingston seven. Kennedy was surely playing the game of his life, while the other three forwards played with a vim and dash which electrified the spectators. There were several close calls for Kingston, but the boys couldn't score. Brown and Wallace came on again, a Rambler went to the fence and at last Belleville scored again in 24 minutes. Kennedy tackled a couple of Kingston men too fiercely and went over to see his old friend George Dulmage. Play started again and suddenly McGuire got a fall which must have taken a lot of steam out of him. The referee rang his bell and had a little talk with the Rambler he had warned in the early part of the match. "You can go to the dressing-room, young fellow," he said, "your services won't be necessary any more to-night." However, there was only a minute or so left to play, and the game ended 7—0. The teams cheered each other heartily, and though they had played roughly and stubbornly it was good to see that there was no bad blood.

Caught in the Net.

The officials were: Belleville, time-keeper, Geo. Dulmage; umpire, Harvey Beatty. Ramblers, time-keeper, J. Hunter; umpire, J. Francis.

Allen was rather small for the company he was up against, but stuck to his work manfully. He drew the rubber nine times out of ten.

McGuire had his skates riveted to his boots last night.

Referee Telfer was master of the situation at all times. He ruled off ten Kingston men and seven local men, one of the former for the balance of the match.

With Queen's licked in Kingston and the Ramblers beaten in Belleville, dear old Kingston didn't get many hockey honors last night.

It begins to look as though the Busy B's—Belleville and Barrie, will have to fight it out for the O.H.A. championship.

Three cheers for Belleville's hockey team, the best that ever represented this city. And three more and a tiger for the manager, who knows how to manage and encourage the boys, and make them play their game.

DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION

MR. GEO. PERRY THINKS ONE OR TWO POINTS ARE NOT YET CLEARED UP.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Sir,—I have read with much interest the various articles in your paper in connection with regeneration and conversion, and have no doubt whatever that Anglican Catholic honestly believes what he writes.

While on some points he has been answered, yet I think there are two or three points not yet dealt with, and to which I would like to refer, feeling thankful that we live in a land where one may openly contend for the truth as it is in Jesus.

A. C. refers to Acts, 2, 38, in which Peter told the JEWS, to whom he was speaking, to repent and be baptized, and they should receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

Notice v. 37, which tells of their conviction and asking what they should do, and v. 41, which says they received his word. Now by what power were they convicted and led to receive the word and turn to God? Surely only by the power of the Holy Ghost working in them, but not until they were baptised were they indwelt by the Holy Ghost and sealed. On this point A. C. is quite right. Previous to this they were in the same position as the Old Testament saints, who were not indwelt by the Holy Ghost, and from whom He might depart. David prayed, take not thy Holy Spirit from me—a prayer which no child of God need use in this dispensation, for He has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you."

But turn to Acts, 10th chap., up to which time the Gospel had been preached to Jews only, the same apostle goes to the Gentiles in v. 44, while he spake to them "The Holy Ghost fell on them which heard the word." After that, v. 47, Peter said, "Can any man forbid the water that these should not be baptized which have received the Holy Ghost," the reverse of the order in chap. 2, in connection with the Jews, and from that time onward that was God's order, first believe and be saved and then be baptized, in accordance with the Lord's command, in Matt. 28, 19 (R.V.) Make disciples of all the nations (Jew and Gentile), and then baptize them (the disciples). The Philippian jailor asked same question, as in Acts 2, and was told "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." He was baptized after. Rom. 5, 1, says, "Being justified by faith;" Eph. 1, 13, "In whom having also believed, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit."

The Jews as a nation had crucified the Lord Jesus, and this Jewish gathering (Acts 2, 22, Ye men of Israel) had to acknowledge by going down into the waters of baptism in that once despised name, that they were fit only for burial, and deserving of that which they had done to Him, before God would dwell with them, but since the gospel was preached to the Gentiles (Acts 10). The word to both Jews and Gentiles is (Acts 13, 39) "By Him every one, that believeth is justified from all things."

Now as to Saul's baptism that A. C. refers to. Notice Acts 9, 17, 18—Saul received his sight, was filled with the Holy Ghost and was then baptized. Could anything be plainer? In Acts 22 Paul narrates his conversion, in v. 16 Ananias tells him to be baptized and wash away his sins. Now, it does not say and Christ shall wash your sins. This had been done when he had a meeting with Jesus on the way to Damascus and could say Lord, and Ananias could call him brother, but it was something Saul was to do, and why?

The reason was that by the act he was to confess his death, burial, and resurrection with Christ, to whom he was once and forever joined, and as a dead man (in Christ) gave himself up for burial (that is what is generally done with dead people) and by so doing takes sides with God against himself as worthy of death and burial out of sight, but as a justified man in Christ he comes up again to walk in newness of life.

A. C. describes his regeneration, but it contains nothing but what I and the priest did. Like Cain's sacrifice, it was bloodless, and God could have no respect to it—there was neither life nor blood in it, unlike Abel's, who, realizing that his life was forfeited because of sin, offered up the life of another as a substitute, and God had respect to his offering. But does not Peter say, I. Peter, 3, 21, "The like figure whereunto, baptism doth now save us." Surely that is plain. Yes. But whose and what baptism in water? My baptism in water? Alas, no, but the baptism of the Lord Jesus, who on my behalf was baptized beneath the wrath of God. All thy waves and thy billows went over me (of whom the ark is a type). It went through the waters of judgment, poured out on a guilty world, carrying with it safely eight souls, closed in by God, a like figure of Him, by whose baptism beneath the wrath of God every believer is safely carried through judgment and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death into life. Hoping A. C. will soon find shelter beneath the blood, I am yours.

GEO. PERRY.

Rev. Dr. Lambly Is Brief

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Sir,—If the "Book of Common Prayer" teaches the doctrine of "baptismal regeneration," it teaches a doctrine contrary to the "Book of God." But as Mr. D. H. Ackerill makes no attempt to discredit the proofs given or the arguments contained in my previous communication concerning this fiction of the dark ages, but has excitedly launched into matters altogether irrelevant to the question under discussion, nothing more needs to be said.

O. R. LAMBLY.

Rev. Mr. Heeney Deplores the Discussion.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Mr. Editor,—It is not my intention to enter into the unfortunate discussion which has lately arisen upon the sacred subjects, "Conversion and Regeneration." I steadfastly and always decline to take part in such theological warfare when carried on through the columns of the press, and this for the simple reason that good seldom accrues from such argumentations, even to the disputants themselves. Strife between those who are preachers of peace has done more to weaken the hold of Christianity upon the minds of men than all the writings of the unbelieving world. Surely in the face of the momentous problems, which in these days call to the Christian Church for solution, the last thing which clergymen or laymen should do is to stir up strife and bitterness between those who, as Christ's disciples, should be known by their mutual love. Love is the most precious fruit on the tree of life, the greatest thing in heaven or on earth, it is the fulfilling of the law, and love manifests itself in toleration, not in strife. If we cannot see eye to eye in matters theological let us be tolerant, in the hope that some day we may understand each other better. In conclusion I venture to suggest—and this is the object of my writing—that those who are really desirous of knowing what the Anglican Church does or does not teach upon the subjects under discussion should consult, not the literature of this controversy, but the formularies of the church, as set forth in the Book of Common Prayer, and interpret the statements of the church in the light of Holy Scripture, as the sixth article practically directs keeping in remembrance, also the more extensive teachings of the great Anglican Reformers. I am afraid my venerable friend Dr. Lambly has taken quite another course.

Yours most truly,
WILLIAM B. HEENEY.

CROSS BABIES.

HOW TO MAKE THEM BRIGHT, GOOD NATURED AND WELL.

A crying baby is an unwell baby. The little chap is not cross for the fun of it. He cries because that is the only way he has of expressing the fact that he is either in pain or discomfort. Most of his little troubles are due to some disorder of the stomach or bowels and if Baby's Own Tablets are given both the trouble and resulting crossness will disappear. You can take a mother's word for it, and Mrs. John T. Sutherland, of Blissfield, N.B., says; "I think Baby's Own Tablets the best medicine in the world for little ones. My baby was very cross and used to keep me awake half the night before I got the Tablets. Now she sleeps soundly, is good natured and is growing splendidly." You can give these Tablets with perfect safety to a new born babe. They are guaranteed to contain no opiate or poisonous sleepy stuff, and are a sure cure for all the minor ailments from which little ones suffer. Sold by medicine dealers or sent post paid at 25 cents a box by writing direct to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Western Fuel Company's Miners Go Out on Strike.

Victoria, Feb. 14.—A meeting of miners employed by the Western Fuel Company was held in the Opera House, Nanaimo, yesterday, and was attended by upwards of six hundred men. The mines are now idle, and the steamer Wyfield, which is taking on a cargo at the company's wharf, is unable to obtain coal. As the meeting was secret, it is not known what decision was reached.

Mr. James Baker of Nelson, representing the Western Federation of Miners, is here, and it is thought his presence will assist in a satisfactory settlement of the present difficulty. The difficulty between the miners and the Western Fuel Company arises out of the extra allowance for men using safety lamps having been cut off by the new company. It was contended on the part of the men that the use of safeties interfered with their getting out as large tonnage as would be the case with ordinary lamps. The new Vancouver Coal Company allowed an extra remuneration of 25 cents a day to those using these safeties. Upon the taking over of the collieries by the Western Fuel Company this was cut off, it being announced at the same time that new lamps were to be introduced, which, on account of their improved character, would not lower the amount capable of being mined by those using them. The arrival of Mr. James Baker was awaited by the men to settle the difficulty.

Coal Strike Commission Adjourns to Washington.

Philadelphia, Feb. 14.—The anthracite coal strike commission, after being in public session for more than three months, closed its open hearings with an all-day argument by Clarence S. Darrow, who also spoke Thursday in behalf of the miners. It will meet in secret in Washington next Thursday and begin the consideration of its award. The announcement is expected by the end of this month. If an increase in wages is determined upon it will date from the first of last November. Mr. Darrow took up the entire time of both sessions—five and one-half hours. He touched upon almost every phase of the strike, and when he closed he was greeted with long applause, which Chairman Gray did not suppress. President Mitchell was in court all day.

At the afternoon session Mr. Darrow, speaking on the question of violence, said there could be no great strike without occasional violence, and that it was a wonder, if the operators had insolently and cruelly rejected the requests of the men, that there was not more violence among the latter. He paid a tribute to foreigners in the coal regions, saying they were a warm-hearted, emotional, sympathetic, religious people.

Mr. Darrow then spoke of evictions, and in strong language pictured the eviction of a sick wife and of a blind woman 100 years of age, which, he said, exceeded in cruelty and violence anything done by the miners. Speaking of so-called "scabs," he said that sometimes they were good men, often they acted from necessity, but that they were traitors to their class. They are men, he continued, who are used by the capitalists to destroy the rights and aspirations and the hopes of the working men. Continuing, Mr. Darrow arraigned "scabs" most severely, saying they would be despised, mistrusted, hated and reviled by all men who love liberty and who love their fellow-men and who have the point of view of the organized laboring man. He said that the wages proposition made by Mr. Baer yesterday was an unfair one, and, continuing, contended that arbitration was the only means by which industrial peace could be maintained.

BOER GENERALS REFUSE.

Object to Serve on the Executive Council.

Pretoria, Feb. 14.—It is announced that the Government offered seats in the Executive Council to Generals Botha, Delarey and Smuts. The Boer Generals unanimously refused to accept, giving as their reason the manner in which the Council was formed, which, in their opinion, was not in the best interests of the country.

Austen Chamberlain's Letter.

London, Feb. 14.—Austen Chamberlain has pleased his father's colonial admirers by his cordial letter of sympathy with the British emigration movement to Canada, which was read yesterday at Birmingham. He wrote: "To people these great areas with men of British birth, and to secure their early and fruitful development, is a task full of promise, alike for the settlers themselves, the Dominion and the empire."

DAILY NUISANCE.

A SIMPLE REMEDY WHICH WILL INTEREST CATARRH SUFFERERS.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucous, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements, and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine, as they are composed of such valuable remedies as blood root, hydrastin, red gum and similar cleansing antiseptics, which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth; in this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching and local application and further says that probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full-sized packages. Ask your druggist, and if he is honest he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

A LIFE IN PERIL

STORY OF A GIRL SAVED BY A NEWSPAPER ARTICLE.

She Suffered From Headaches, Dizziness and Night Sweats — Her Friends Feared She Was Going Into Consumption.

From L'Avenir, St. Jerome, Que.

Among the thousands of young girls who bless Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for safely carrying them through that most perilous period of their lives when they step from girlhood into the broader realm of womanhood, there is none more enthusiastic than Miss Gabrielle Thomas, a young lady known to most of the residents of St. Jerome, Que., and greatly esteemed by all her acquaintances. To a reporter of L'Avenir du Nord, Miss Thomas said: "From the time I was fourteen until I was eighteen years of age my health was very bad. I was very weak; had no appetite and could do no work. At night I perspired greatly and frequently slept but little. I suffered from headaches, dizziness and could scarcely move about without becoming breathless, and I finally reached a stage when my friends feared I was going into consumption. I was under the care of doctors, but their treatment did not help me. I then tried several advertised medicines, but with the same poor results, and I had come to think I could not get better. One day I read in a newspaper the statement of a young girl whose symptoms were almost identical with my own, who was cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I then decided to try this medicine and have reason to bless the day I did so. I had only used the pills a few weeks when I began to get better, and in a couple of months every symptom of my trouble had disappeared and I was as strong and healthy as any girl of my age. I have since always enjoyed the best of health and I shall be glad indeed if my experience proves helpful to some other suffering girl."

The happiness of health for both men and women lies in the timely use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which act as a nerve tonic and supply new blood to enfeebled systems. They have cured many thousands of cases of anaemia, 'decline,' consumption, pains in the back, neuralgia, depression of spirits, heart palpitation, indigestion, rheumatism, sciatica, St. Vitus' dance and partial paralysis. But substitutes should be avoided if you value your health; see that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is on every box. Sold by all dealers or sent, post paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SHOT TWICE BY A BURGLAR.

Tonawanda's Chief of Police Fired at Four Times.

Buffalo, N.Y., Feb. 14.—Charles Diedrich, Chief of Police of Tonawanda, was shot twice by a burglar yesterday. He had attended a ball with his wife. As he opened his front door he was met by a man who fired four shots at him, two taking effect. It was stated at police headquarters later that his injuries were not of a fatal character, and that he was resting easily. No arrest has been made.

KILLED IN MISTAKE.

Man Called to His Door and Shot Dead—Probable Mistake.

Jackson, Tenn., Feb. 14.—Robert E. McCaw, whose home is said to be in Rochester, N.Y., was shot to death last night by a man who presumably mistook McCaw for another who, already having a wife, married the daughter of the man who fired the shot.

The marriage of Albert Bilderback and Miss Lucy Hudgins, a member of a prominent family, took place yesterday. Later in the day a warrant was sworn out by Samuel Hudgins, father of the bride, charging Bilderback with bigamy. At midnight McCaw answered a ring at the door of the house where he lived and was shot without warning. Hudgins was arrested.

THE SESSION SUSPENDED.

Uproar in the French Chamber of Deputies.

Paris, Feb. 13.—The sitting of the Chamber of Deputies was suspended amid an uproar precipitated by charges brought by Maurice Binder, Nationalist, against the Premier and other Ministers in connection with the Humbert case. M. Binder refused to withdraw or apologize, and was censured and the sitting was suspended, but M. Binder remained in possession of the tribune until the House reassembled. He then refused to leave the tribune until threatened with expulsion.

PROTOCOLS SIGNED.

Venezuelan Dispute Will Now be Arbitrated.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The British protocol with Venezuela for raising the blockade and reference of the matter of preferential treatment of the allies' claims to The Hague was signed at 11 o'clock last night. Signature of the Italian and German protocols followed immediately afterwards.

Punished For Taking Bribes.

New York, Feb. 13.—Max Charles Benisch, probationary patrolman, charged with having accepted a bribe of $400 on the promise to get a man appointed fireman, was to-day sentenced to serve twenty days in prison and pay a fine of $500.

BEAUTIFUL RUG DESIGNS

BREAKING UP COMMITTEE.

MACEDONIAN LEADERS ARRESTED IN BULGARIA.

Agitators Bound to Raise the Torch of Rebellion—Angry Albanians on the March.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 16.—President Michaelovski, of the Central Macedonian Committee; Gen. Zoutcheff, the Vice-President; President Stancheff, of the Sarafoff Macedonian Committee, and many others have been arrested.

It is officially announced that the Government has decided to dissolve the Macedonian Committees in Bulgaria, and place a strong military cordon along the Macedonian frontier, thus demonstrating Bulgaria's readiness to fulfil her international obligations.

Dr. Danew, the Premier, announced in the Sobranje (national assembly) the measures which lead to the arrest of the chief officers of the Macedonia Committee, and added that they had been seized and all their papers confiscated. He said the dissolution of the Macedonian branch committees in the province have been accomplished without opposition.

Vienna, Feb. 16.—The rumor to the effect that owing to the difficulty of obtaining the consent of the other powers or for other reasons, the Austro-Hungarian demands of reforms in Macedonia have been greatly attenuated since Count Lamsdorff drafted them, is practically confirmed by the official Fremdenblatt, which states that the demands are carefully framed so as not to overstep the limits prescribed by respect for the Sultan's suzerain rights, and that being confined to comparatively modest bounds, they are more likely to attain the desired end than if they were more pretentious. They will not, however, says the official organ, succeed if Macedonia is made the theatre of a guerilla war.

A despatch to The Neue Freie Presse from Belgrade says:—"Three thousand Albanians, after meeting to protest against the introduction of reforms, marched upon and occupied the Town of Ipek (Turkey in Europe), which is now completely isolated. It is said that the Albanians intend proceeding to Mitrovitze to expel the Russian Consul there.

Paris, Feb. 15.—A meeting of four thousand persons, presided over by Baron Constant d'Estournelles, and supported by numerous prominent men, was held to-day in connection with the Macedonian situation. A resolution was adopted calling on the Government to work energetically to procure the enforcement of the Berlin treaty and to put an end to Turkish misrule in Macedonia.

Constantinople, Feb. 16.—In official circles it is asserted that the Porte has received from the powers assurance regarding Bulgaria's pacific intentions, and that it has been greatly relieved thereby. At the same time the Military Council has completed the plans for the mobilization of the 2nd and 3rd army corps, and has decided that in the event of it becoming necessary to take the field in Macedonia Marshal Edhem Pasha, the Generalissimo in the Graeco-Turkish war, will have the supreme command of the quarter of a million of men which would be available there.

London, Feb. 16.—The correspondent of The London Daily Mail at Vienna says he learns that Austria has mobilized two army corps and has concentrated an extra 40,000 men on the Balkan border. Military men, adds the correspondent, believe that an armed intervention is inevitable. Field Marshal Rheinlander will command the force.

INDIA'S HIDDEN WEALTH.

Lord Curzon Urges the Natives to Invest It.

New York, Feb. 16—The Sun has the following special to-day from London:—In an address before the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, Lord Curzon of Kedlestone, the Viceroy of India, stated that it was his belief that the natives of India possess, besides the money in circulation, 825 crores of rupees, which is hoarded and mostly buried. Reckoning a rupee at 18 pence, this would mean nearly £62,000,000 sterling. Doubtless the Viceroy is speaking from the authority of financial experts, who are guided by the trade returns. His estimate is, therefore, probably under rather than over the mark, for all classes of the people have a quantity of ancient ornaments representing cash which would not be included. Lord Curzon urges the natives to bring out this wealth and invest it, especially in industrial enterprises, and in that way themselves reap the profits which British capitalists are slow to appreciate in the possibilities of the development of India, which they have been neglecting right along.

The Standard, commenting on this speech, says:—"It is a relief to note that the members of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, to whom these words were addressed, do not belong to the classes which hoard the money. Very few natives who have a pot of gold in some secret place heard the appeal. That is a lucky thing for us, but some day, no doubt, India will be able to dispense with European manufacturers."

TEXT OF SETTLEMENT.

LIABILITY TO CLAIMS ADMITTED BY VENEZUELA.

Andrew Carnegie Offered to Lend the Money to Meet the German Demand For Cash.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The Venezuelan protocols have been made public. The British document, omitting the preamble, is, in part, as follows:—Article I.—The Venezuelan Government declare that they recognize in principle the justice of the claims which have been preferred by his Majesty's Government on behalf of British subjects.

Article II.—The Venezuelan Government will satisfy at once, by payment in cash or its equivalent, the claims of British subjects, which amount to about £5,500, arising out of the seizure and plundering of British vessels and the outrage on their crews, and the maltreatment and false imprisonment of British subjects.

Article III.—The Venezuelan and British Governments agree that the other British claims, including claims by British subjects other than those dealt with in article VI. hereof, and including those preferred by the railway companies, shall, unless otherwise satisfied, be referred to a mixed commission.

This commission is to consist of one British and one Venezuelan member. In each case where they agree their decision shall be final; in case of disagreement the claims are to be referred to an umpire nominated by President Roosevelt.

Article V.—The Venezuelan Government, being unwilling to provide a sum sufficient for the payment within a reasonable time of the claims specified in article III., and similar claims preferred by other Governments, undertake to assign to the British Government, commencing the first day of March, 1903, for this purpose, and to alienate to no other purpose, 30 per cent. in monthly payments of the customs revenues of La Guaira and Porto Cabello. In the case of failure to carry out this undertaking, Belgian officials shall be placed in charge of the customs of the two ports, and shall administer them until the liabilities of the Venezuelan Government in respect of the above mentioned claims shall have been discharged.

Article VIII. reads:—Immediately upon the signature of this protocal arrangements will be made by his Majesty's Government, in concert with the Governments of Germany and Italy, to raise the blockade of the Venezuelan ports.

His Majesty's Government will be prepared to restore the vessels of the Venezuelan navy which have been seized, and, further, to release any other vessels captured under the Venezuelan flag, on the receipt of a guarantee from the Venezuelan Government that they will hold his Majesty's Government indemnified in respect of any proceedings which might be taken against them by the owners of such ships, or of goods on board them.

With few exceptions the German and Italian protocols correspond with that of Great Britain. Germany, it is provided, is to receive $340,000, to be paid in five monthly instalments, beginning on March 15, whereas Great Britain and Italy are to receive $27,500, the former the day the protocol is signed, and the other sixty days from that date.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie, upon hearing of Germany's action in demanding a cash payment of $340,000, instead of the £5,500 previously promised her, sent the following message to Mr. Bowen, dated Feb. 12:—"I shall be glad to hand you over at once $360,000 ($20,000 more than was needed) to meet the German demand, if Venezuela desires it." In announcing Mr. Carnegie's offer Mr. Bowen said that many banks and financial syndicates had all along been anxious to lend money to Venezuela, and had sent representatives to see him with this object in view, though these offers were, of course, of a business nature, whereas the offer of Mr. Carnegie was made without any reservation or mention of security for the return of his money.

La Guaira, Feb. 16—The blockade has been officially raised. The commander of the British cruiser Tribune, the only warship here, sent an officer ashore yesterday with the announcement that the Tribune would leave in the afternoon for Trinidad. The populace is wild with joy.

EMIGRATION TO CANADA.

Deputy Commissioner Smart to Supervise Campaign.

London, Feb. 16.—Mr. James A. Smart, Canadian Dputy Minister of the Interior, after conferring with Commissioner Preston, will make a tour of the industrial centres of Great Britain and impart increased momentum to British emigration to Canada. He finds the machinery of the emigration offices well oiled and running smoothly, and expects great results from the visits and explanations of the farmers of Manitoba and the Northwest, and forecasts an unparalleled exodus of British colonists of the best working stock.

A MINISTER'S WORDS.

During a Sermon He Bitterly Denounced the Southern Negroes.

Schenectady, N.Y., Feb. 16.—In a sermon before the local post of the G. A. R., the Rev. Fred. Winslow Adams, pastor of the State Street Methodist Church, denounced the southern negroes, saying, "They are low, bestial, degraded, ignorant and diseased. You may think these are strong words for a minister to use, but if you were to go south and see them you would use stronger language."

The sermon was listened to by over 1,500 people.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

A St. Eustache Farmer Found Shot in His Barn.

Montreal, Feb. 16.—Antoine Seguin, a highly respected farmer, aged 60, living about a mile from St. Eustache, was found murdered in his own barn on Friday morning, and there is not yet any clue to the murderer. On the previous day he came into St. Eustache for his mail, and having received it started home. He was observed by a neighbor to go to his barn, as was his custom, and that was the last seen of him alive. Being a bachelor, he lived with his brother-in-law, Theophile Belanger, and as he did not return Belanger started out next morning in search. Knowing his custom, Belanger and a neighbor named Limoges went to the barn, where they found Seguin with the top of his head shot off. They at once notified Dr. Lecavalier, who sent word to Mr. Hector Champagne, M.P.P., a cousin of the murdered man, and to the Attorney-General, who wired Chief McCaskill of Montreal to go out on the case. It was found that the shot had been fired downwards, evidently from a heap of hay near by, but the shotgun could not be found. A piece of the wadding was, however, picked up, and may lead to a clue. Seguin was in the habit of carrying $25 or $30 in a purse, but this was gone. It is believed, however, that the motive was not robbery, but vengeance, for Seguin was prominent in political and municipal affairs, and much given to argument. He had been Mayor of the parish for 23 years, and Reeve of Two Mountains County for 24 years.

THEY DEMANDED WORK.

A Meeting of London's Unemployed Held in Trafalgar Square.

London, Feb. 16.—A much-advertised mass meeting of the unemployed passed off quietly at Trafalgar Square Saturday. About 2,000 unemployed were there, but the assemblage was entirely dwarfed by the aggregation of police and spectators. Resolutions were adopted demanding work, and declaring that the proposed investigation into the national food supply in time of war shall not be undertaken until the Government relieves the famine now existing in time of peace.

A HUMAN PARCEL.

A London Man Expressed to His Destination.

New York, Feb. 16.—The Sun has the following special from London:—A city man discovered yesterday one of those hidden resources of the London Postoffice, which has hitherto been suspected by very few people. The city man called at the General Postoffice to consult the directory as to a certain private address of a customer who lives in a remote part of Balham.

He mentioned casually to the man in charge of the express parcel counter that he did not know the locality, but it was necessary for him to see the customer immediately. He received this reply: "I will send you there if you like, sir; the fee is threepence per mile."

The city man accepted the offer, and in telling the story says: "Then in response to a bell a smart youth came to my side, and, tapping me on the arm, said, 'Are you express for Belham, sir? This way, please.' The youth carried in his hands a small printed slip with a description of myself under the heading of an article required to be delivered. I was detained on the street through meeting my partner. The youth, saluting me respectfully, said in a reproachful voice, 'You are express, sir,' and I thereupon resumed my journey. The youth delivered me safely, and my customer signed a document testifying to the safe receipt of the article consigned."

James M. Fraser of Gore Bay, Manitoulin, has been appointed Local Registrar, Clerk of the District Court and Registrar of the Surrogate Court for the Provisional Judicial District of Manitoulin. W. M. Charlton of Brantford and Harry Vigeon of Toronto are made notaries, and Benjamin L. Phillips of Emo, Rainy River District, is appointed Clerk of the Second Division Court of the District of Rainy River.

DR. E. H. SMYTHE'S DEATH.

A Well-Known Public Man of Kingston Called Suddenly.

Kingston, Feb. 16.—On Saturday night Dr. Edward H. Smythe, M.A., LL.D., K.C., left home at 8 o'clock for Queen's University, where he was to act as judge in a debate between the students of Queen's and Varsity. He had not proceeded more than a couple of hundred yards when he was overcome by faintness, and was assisted into the dwelling of Mr. Richard Waldron. A physician was summoned from the General Hospital, one block distant, but he arrived too late. The deceased was a native of Wymondham, Leicestershire, England, where he was born 58 years ago. He was the eldest son of the late Rev. W. H. Smythe, was educated in the North London Collegiate Institute and London Grammar School. He graduated from Toronto University, where he received the degrees of M.A. and LL.D. He was also a graduate of Toronto Law School, and stood high in the learned profession, having been called to the bar in 1870. The late Dr. Smythe was a prominent figure in local politics, having been President of the Kingston Conservative Association for several years. He thrice opposed Hon. Wm. Harty for the Ontario Legislature, and once defeated him by one vote, but lost the election protest which followed. He was an ex-Alderman, an ex-Mayor and ex-President of St. George's Society, besides being prominent in the Masonic Order. He was a member of the congregation of St. George's Cathedral, and took an active part in Ontario Synod work. The deceased is survived by his wife, a daughter of the late Mr. G. M. Wilkinson, and ten children. His eldest son, George, was a partner in the law business with his father. The late Mr. Smythe served with the University Rifles in 1866, and was in the Limeridge action in that year. He also held the rank of Major in the 14th Princess of Wales' Rifles.

THE CATTLE DISEASE.

Fresh Outbreaks in the New England States.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Another outbreak of the foot and mouth disease near Chester, Vt., has been reported. A herd in that locality was found infected some time ago, but it was thought the disease had been entirely stamped out. Dr. D. E. Salmon, the chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, who will go to Boston Monday to investigate the recurrence of the outbreaks, said that he did not think there was danger of a great increase in the number of cases, but the situation was rather uncertain.

The recrudescence of the disease in Massachusetts is at Needham and Medfield, twenty miles southwest of Boston. Summary action has already been taken.

KILLED BY PNEUMATIC TUBE.

Peculiar Accident in New York Resulted in a Fatality.

New York, Feb. 16.—One man was killed and another seriously injured by the rupture of a pneumatic tube used for the passage of mail between the postoffice and the Grand Central Station. Michael Garrity and Hugh Hart were engaged in repairing a slight break in the tube at Eighteenth street and Fourth avenue when four heavy pouches were shot through the tube as a test, it being believed that the repairs had been completed. As the pouches struck the weak spot the air pressure burst the tube, a portion of which struck Garrity, inflicting injuries from which he died in a few minutes, and seriously wounding Hart.

William Ward, a G. T. R. switchman, was fatally injured in the yard at London, Ont.

ALL KICKING TARTE.

Hon. J. Israel Tarte has served notice on Liberals, that he will be present in Parliament to resent the insults offered him by the Liberal press. Mr. Tarte was never as bitterly and systematically assailed by his most avowed enemy, as he now is by his erstwhile friends. Ernest Pacaud, whose thefts of thousands of dollars from the people of Quebec furnished the money for some of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's campaigns, has mercilessly assailed Mr. Tarte. As Mr. Pacaud is bosom friend and confidential editorial writer to Sir Wilfrid, the friendship dating from the time of Mr. Pacaud's robberies, it will be seen that Mr. Tarte has little to expect from the man whom he placed in the First Minister's chair. The Liberal press following Mr. Pacaud's inspired lead have joined in the vituperation heaped on the ex-Minister of Public Works. It is a shameless spectacle this mud slinging at a former invaluable friend of Sir Wilfrid's. But it is true to the Liberal tradition, that only useful things and men are not to be tolerated.

boot has invaded this country, but it is not to have everything its own way. In more than one boot shop window Londoners may, at the present moment, see it dissected and held up to scorn. A little crowd was gathered yesterday outside such a window in a leading thoroughfare. The entertainment to the people consisted of half an American boot, and half a British boot, and they were asked to compare them. Attention was drawn to the sheep lining, which would give out in three days, of the American article: to its 'iron waist,' needed to keep the structure together: and to its 'cardboard' sole filling. Then the qualities of the British boot was set out—its oak-bark tanned sole, its best felt filling, and its creosoted canvas to prevent creaking. Naturally judgment as between the two products, both costing the same on the London market, it was explained, was quite decisive."

A contemporary, Newspaperdom, a journal for newspaper men, thus discusses a matter often lost sight of by people everywhere. There are, of course, isolated exceptions to the rule laid down by our contemporary, and unfortunately, one need not cross the seas to find them, but the article is worthy anyone's perusal and consideration:

"There seems to be a feeling among some business men that a newspaper has no business to make money. Why not? It is the most exacting business in the world, the most trying in every way. It means long hours and the greatest care in its conduct. The newspaper has the entire public to deal with. It is criticized on all occasions. It has to deal with all the cranks in the community, and to do this successfully requires judgment and patience. It has power, and that power, to the credit of journalism, is nearly always yielded for public good. No question of vital concern to the home people fails to find a strong support from the home newspaper, and this, too, without remuneration. The publisher spends his money to further those projects and the community never gives a thought to the matter of cost to him. It is not paid out of the public pocket."

The recent action of the Belleville City Council has furnished many newspapers in Canada with texts to preach on. Some of the sermons are good, some bad, others worse, but they all contain food for thought. This is how the Peterboro Examiner views the matter:

"The Belleville City Council have done an act of questionable wisdom, in adopting what seems to be a very parsimonious scale of salaries for its city officials, and all to effect a saving of only $410 a year. It is a question whether the saving will not be more apparent than real, and whether ineffective service may not result in loss of good money amounting to far more than $410 a year. As a rule, a service or an article is worth what is paid for it. A cheap suit at $7, is worth $7, and a good Scotch or Canadian tweed suit, costing $20 is, as a rule, worth $20. A civic official who is supposed to do $1,000 worth of work for $500, is not likely to earn more than $500. Good service deserves good pay, in either civic, commercial, financial or other spheres. There is a temptation to a civic official, resting under a sense of doing for less money the same work that similar officials do, and get, elsewhere, to gauge his services to his remuneration, or else speedily begin to button-hole aldermen for an increase of salary. Mr. J. B. Laing, Provincial Auditor, has expressed his surprise that municipal treasurers remain as true as they do to their trust, in view of the temptations of miserably small salaries, and the frequent inefficiency that comes from such small salaries. Mr. Laing holds that these officials should be protected from the greed of municipal councils.

"If Belleville's cheese-paring experiment succeeds one of the objections to Peterboro's incorporation as a city, will be removed. It is urged that if we become a city our expenses will be increased—we shall have to do things on a larger scale. But if we can get a city clerk at $700 a year and other civic officers in proportion, we shall make money by becoming a city; but we would have to be a "one-horse" city, and there would be very little money in that, after being the best town in the Dominion."

SPORTING COMMENT.

There will be a double event in the rink to-night, when the fast teams in the City League will clash. The Mayflowers and Bankers will try conclusions first, and after them the Colts and O.B.C. There will be good ice and a lot of swift hockey for the price. In addition to that, the telegraph will keep the crowd informed of the result of the game between the Bellevilles and Kingston Scramblers.

Dr. Weatherhead, of Brockville, will referee the game at Kingston to-night, and between you and I we don't envy him his job. The Scramblers were a rough bunch on Belleville ice, goodness knows what they'll be like at home!

The Kingston Whig says Oldrieve of the Scramblers was the fastest man on the ice last Friday night. Oldrieve, it will be remembered, scored all the goals for Kingston.

Toronto Telegram:—A Woodstock man who was in town the other day bet his best three dollar hat that if Paris met Belleville the latter would straightway return to that long sleep from which it has but lately awakened. However, most of the referees still think that the eastern team has a little red ribbon attached to the trophy.

The following teams are still left in the intermediate series of the O.H.A.:

Belleville or Kingston Ramblers.
Port Perry or Marlboros.
Barrie.
Orangeville.
Gravenhurst.
Paris.
Galt.

If our boys win in Kingston to-night they will play either the Marlboros of Toronto or Port Perry on Thursday night next, on the ice of the winner of to-morrow night's game between the above clubs, their opponents coming to Belleville a week from to-night. A line on the coming games may be obtained from the fact that Peterboro played a draw with the Port Perry team at Markham, so the local lads will have their work cut out if they meet the Ports. Then again, Port Perry only beat the Marlboros by one goal on their own ice. It looks at this distance as though the Toronto boys had the best chance of meeting the Red and White boys. Things are getting down to cases now. By a week from to-morrow the boys will be either within sight of the championship or down and out for this season. Will they make good? Why, of course they will. Just watch 'em!

Cobourg has protested the game won by the Kingston Juniors last Wednesday night, and the protest will be decided to-night. The Kingston papers laugh at the protest, and say the Cobourgers haven't a leg to stand on. Anyhow, the team which wins the protest will play Varsity Third here next Wednesday night, and it ought to be a neat game, too.

ICE TROTTING.

Cresceus Made a New Ice Record.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 14.—A new ice racing record was established to-day, when Cresceus, Geo. H. Ketcham's champion, covered the Ottawa Ice Racing Association's track in 2.15. The horse did it easily. The fastest mile previously made over a mile ice track was trotted yesterday by Guesner in 2.15 3-4. Cresceus' time by quarters was: .34 1-4, 1.07 3-4, 1.42 1-4, 2.15.

SPORTING NOTES.

The O.H.A. Executive suspended three London players on charges of improper conduct in a match.

Louis Cure, the French champion, beat Geo. Sutton, formerly of Toronto, in the first match for the international billiard championship

Varsity and St. George's will play in Toronto to-night for the city championship.

Oxford beat Cambridge at football by 1 to 0.

The Scotch curlers won by 42 shots in their games at Chicago.

At the Boston indoor games on Saturday night Alex. Grant won the two miles A.A.U. championship in 9.55 4-5. R. E. Williams of Princeton was second and W. E. Schutt of Cornell third. Dr. Mulligan won the three standing jumps from scratch with 34 ft. 7 in.

H.M.S. PINAFORE.

"Those who witnessed the earlier productions of Pinafore, after the lapse of a score of years, can enjoy it to-day with old-time relish, while to a new generation the gentle satire and sparkling music are a delightful revelation. It is quite safe to say that no previous presentation of Pinafore in this city possessed the same interest for a Guelph audience as did that of last night, given by children. The audience were aroused to enthusiasm."—Guelph Mercury, May 9th, 1902.

AMATEUR WORK.

A Decorative and Dignified Dog-house For the Garden.

Descending from the loftier things with which the amateur home carpenter and cabinet maker is wont to trifle, a suggestion, welcome no doubt to many suburbanites, is presented herewith for the construction of a dog kennel. We might, if we had a mind, trace in a cursory fashion the history of dog kennels in general, from the time of Diogenes downward, but we think that a glance at the sketch will convince any one that the suggestion is worth carrying out for its intrinsic beauty, to which we must add that such appliances fulfill a useful and necessary purpose, and we may therefore allow the historical dignity of the kennel to be treated of by some more leisured or interested writer.

NEW DESIGN FOR A DOG KENNEL.

There is, unfortunately, not sufficient space to give in this column full size working drawings for the carpentry part of this undertaking, but the box can easily be made by any one who is tolerably skillful at the bench, and the arrangement of the roof is sufficiently indicated by the sketch. The columns at the side will be applied after the box is complete, as will also the turnery and cut through work above. The top of the kennel might, if desired, be covered with felt, which is often seen on such things, but if the joints were securely filled with putty the roof would probably be watertight without any other addition. The color of the kennel might be of green or lead color. This will depend, however, largely upon the tint of the fence or wall near which it is to be placed. The sides of the kennel are composed of a number of strips of match boarding not quite so substantial as the pieces in use for the front and the roof. A ring or staple to which the chain of the dog can be attached is not shown because with a kennel of this size—and, although it could be made in various dimensions, it is hardly ever likely to be large enough to be of great weight—it is useless to attach the animal to its habitation, since a little extra vigor exerted will result in the kennel being dragged about, the garden damaged and the dog practically at liberty. A staple or long iron screw, like those used for tennis nets, should be driven into the ground in front of the kennel, and the chain of the dog could then be attached to this.

A Dainty Summer Dessert.

For the imperial blancmange here illustrated Table Talk gives the following recipe: Scald one pint of milk in a double boiler. Dissolve three tablespoonfuls of cornstarch in a little cold milk, turn quickly into the hot milk and stir until thickened and smooth; add one-quarter of a teaspoonful of salt and three tablespoonfuls of sugar, cover and cook for twenty minutes.

Whip the whites of three eggs to a stiff, dry froth, add to the cooked cornstarch with one teaspoonful of vanilla and mix thoroughly together, then turn into wetted molds. When chilled, turn the cornstarch out on individual dishes, pour round each several spoonfuls of the sirup from canned raspberries and garnish with a few candied cherries. Ripe fruit and whipped cream may take the place of the sirup.

RUNNING INTO DEBT

PREACHER ARRAIGNS THE CAUSE OF MANIFOLD MISERIES.

TEXT: OWE NO MAN ANYTHING

Debt One of the Most Distressing Moral Diseases of the Race—Horace Greeley's Famous Advice—Strong and Drastic But Very Wholesome—The Round of Life With the Tyrant and Master Debt.

Entered according to Act of Parliament of Canada, in the year 1903, by William Baily, of Toronto, at the Dep't of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—In this sermon the preacher deals with the widely prevalent vice of running into debt as a result of social and domestic extravagance and a false standard of living and arraigns willful debt as the cause of manifold miseries. The text is Romans xiii, 8, "Owe no man anything."

One day a famous scholastic clergyman was talking to a noted practical preacher. "How is it," said he, "that you can collect such great audiences to hear you preach? I have one of the best private libraries in the world. I spend at least ten hours a day in my study with my books, and yet the people prefer to hear you preach instead of me. They want to hear your sermons, although you do not work a third as hard upon them as I do. Half of your days are spent in calling and in wandering about the streets and in the stores." "Ah," answered the practical minister to his scholastic friend, "the difference between us is that you read books, while I study the stuff out of which books are made. You breathe the atmosphere of musty tomes; I, by close association, study the hearts of the men and women with whom I come in contact. You translate epitaphs of dead men; I analyze the troubles and temptations and sins of living men; I sit with them at the table; I go with them into their stores; then, when I begin to discuss their trials and temptations they naturally want to come and hear me preach."

Paul was a practical minister and not one famed for mere intellectual attainments. His rostrum was more often the ropemaker's bench than the synagogue's pulpit. As a practical gospel physician he in my text today diagnoses one of the most distressing moral diseases of the human race. He saw that the men and women of his time were living beyond their means and struggling in the quicksand of debt just as many people are doing in the twentieth century; therefore he gave in his Roman epistle the same advice that Horace Greeley once wrote: "Never run into debt. Hunger, cold, rags, hard work, suspicion, unjust reproach, are disagreeable, but debt is infinitely worse than them all. Avoid pecuniary obligations as you would a pestilence or famine. If you have not more than 50 cents and can get no more for a week, buy a peck of corn, parch it and live on it rather than owe any man a dollar." "Owe no man anything."

Debt is generally the offspring of pride. The bare necessaries of life are very small. Nearly every man can make enough money to provide for these necessaries, if he will only work hard, do his best and not waste his income on useless extravagances. Henry Ward Beecher once made the declaration that a man could feed himself and wife and a family of growing children upon $1.50 per week. For making this statement Mr. Beecher was sharply arraigned by thousands of critics. Many newspaper editorials affirmed that the Plymouth pastor was advocating the reduction of the laborers' salaries to 25 cents a day. He was not attempting any such thing. What Mr Beecher tried to prove was this: The bare necessaries of life are very small; therefore most people can provide for their actual needs if they will only be energetic and at the same time be frugal.

But this frugality, in many cases, pride will not permit them to practice. Pride, with the smiling, supercilious face and bediamoned finger, usually comes to the young man's home with such insinuating words as these: "My friend, you have no right to rear your family as you are doing. You should not allow your wife to stand behind a counter or to live in the back room of the store with her two babies, as your mother once did. This is a different age from that in which your father started out. If you do not let your children grow up in a respectable neighborhood and go to refined and expensive private schools, then their youthful associates will be bad, and refined people will have nothing to do with them." So the young man, who was making a humble income and was on the highroad to ultimate financial success, hires a private home on the boulevard. He moves his family away from the neighborhood of his store. He hires a clerk to do the work formerly done by his wife, while he himself is visiting the wholesale departments. The income, small before, becomes less and less; the expenses of the family sustenance are doubled and quadrupled; a haunted, worried, anxious look comes over the young man's face. Instead of there being a balance in the bank, now there is a deficit; instead of the wholesale stores allowing the young man all the credit he wishes, now they begin to push him, and one day debt, the offspring of pride, calls at the store to see how the young man is getting along, but instead of debt now coming with the obsequiousness of a visitor he strides into that young man's store and home with the mien and the heavy step of a tyrant and a master.

Then I see Debt call out to a veiled figure who is standing in the doorway. He says: "Come in, mother, come in. You need not be afraid; come in." Then the female figure throws back the veil from off her head, and I see that she is the old hag Pride, with a painted, withered, sneering, scornful face. Then Debt takes Mother Pride through the aisles of the store and through the rooms of the young man's home as he says: "Mother, these goods—they will soon all be mine. Those pictures upon the walls, and those carpets upon the floor, those dishes in the closets—they shall soon all be mine, and I will make the young man drop his life insurance policy when he dies. I will literally strip his widow of everything. Aha, that young man did not realize what a keen, shrewd, farseeing, satanic planner I could be when I told him to increase his outgo over his financial income. I am well worthy to be called they child, mother. I carry misery and woe wherever I go." Such is nearly always the outcome of every man's life when pride and debt go hand in hand and are allowed to sit down by the domestic fireside.

Debt is not only the offspring of pride, but is often the parent of a large family of criminal children. The study of genealogical tables is among the most interesting of studies. Certain families nearly always have good children; you can trace them down from generation to generation. Other families nearly always have bad children; there is apparently something in their blood that is diseased and contaminated. As the waters falling down the cascades near Duluth show the discolorations contracted in passing through forests of cedar and tamarack miles away, so the blood of some children is tainted with criminal tendencies, inherited even before they are born. They are born with a propensity for lying, for stealing, for inebriety, which they are seldom able to eradicate. But, though those children may not be able to overcome their evil tendencies in their own strength, they can overcome them by the help of a supernatural power, which is offered to all who are tempted.

Willful debt is that kind of debt into which many allow themselves to run through useless and sinful extravagance. While the young man is being financially ground to pieces by the upper and nether millstones of this kind of debt what is often the most natural thing for him to do? Ask that young collector who is taking some of his employer's money to win, as he foolishly thinks, a fortune at the gambler's wheel. He is not at heart a bad young man. He intends to pay that money back. He expects to use it only for a little while and then return it with interest after he has escaped from the clutches of merciless debt. Ask that young embezzler who has just felt the heavy hand of the law placed upon his shoulder. Did he ever expect that the late suppers, the theatre tickets and the attendance at the races would yet end in a prison cell? No, no! He was led as a lamb to the slaughter by the evil worryings of debt, accumulating debt. Ask that wildcat speculator in Wall street. Did he ever think for one moment that he would lose the estate confided to him in trustee form when he began to run into debt? No, no. These men are being destroyed by debt in the same way that the learned Lord Bacon was led to accept bribes.

Crookedness, gambling, wildcat speculation and a betrayal of one's best friends are often found among the malformed offspring of a hideous parent debt. But without doubt the greater number of the children of this infamous progenitor are those with the fatal marks of perjury stamped, Cain-like, upon their brow. "Lying always rides upon debt's back" once wrote Benjamin Franklin. "The second vice is lying; the first is running into debt."

When a man needlessly and willfully runs into debt, he opens the sluice gates of falsehood. He professes his willingness to clasp hands with deception and deceit. The debtor says to his creditor, "I have no money this morning, but I will pay you next week." His words are false; he has no intention of paying next week. The debtor says: "I am now trying to sell some land. The deal is almost closed; then I will send you a check." The debtor knows he is a falsifier; he has no land to sell.

One of the dearest friends I ever had by this curse of running into debt became a moral degenerate. He went to another friend and borrowed $600 and gave as security some cattle which he professed to own at that time in Kansas. In fact, he did not own a horn or hoof in all the world. So the perjury habit, which is often the offspring of debt, will creep into a man's heart as a worm tunnels its way into the heart of a great tree and leaves there nothing but death and corruption and filth. "All liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death." Beware, O man, how you nourish this destroying child of perjury, which is often the offspring of accursed debt!

Willful debt is the fiend who cares not how many helpless and innocent victims he may destroy in his own annihilation. The pirates of old used to raise their black flags and prey upon the ancient shipping. The robbers of Scotland used to place false lights upon the shores so that the ships would be decoyed upon the rocks and the wreckers could collect the broken cargoes. The man who willfully runs into debt is a human vampire who is sucking the lifeblood out of his butcher and baker, his tailor and landlord, his friend and his enemy alike. He cares not how he gets money so long as he gets it. He cares not who has to suffer so long as his present desires are satisfied. What is the natural and inevitable result? There have been thousands of small retail merchants driven into bankruptcy because their customers, supposed to be honorable men, would not pay their bills. There have been hundreds and thousands of poor widows and orphans and aged and helpless depositors of small sums in the banks who have lost all merely because the cashiers have become defaulters and cared not whom they dragged down with them to their own moral and spiritual destruction. It is a contemptible act for a man to steal from a millionaire. It is infinitely meaner for a woman to steal from her poor dressmaker, her cook or her washerwoman, or for a man to rob his groceryman or iceman or his coachman or the gardener who sells to him his flowers. It is meaner because those who are robbed under such circumstances must perhaps lose their all and be driven to starve and die.

But if it is fiendlike for the willful debtor to steal from his butcher and baker, how much more criminal is it for him to destroy the spiritual and moral life of his own children! There is many a man who is rearing his children after the exalted style of a millionaire's children, who when he dies will leave to them not one cent. In other words, he is instilling into the hearts of his boys and girls unnatural desires, and then, when he is gone, those boys and girls, in order to gratify those desires, may be led to plunge into a life of dissoluteness and crime. To illustrate, I would introduce to you a young man who was once a companion of my youth. He was the son of the president of a large life insurance company in the east. He came to my home some time ago. "Why, Joe," I said to him, "I have not seen you for years. Where did you come from?" "From poverty and want and drunkenness and from nowhere," he answered gloomily. "I have come to you for help. Will you help me?" What was the cause of that young man's downfall? The extravagant life his father led and the life he allowed his children to lead.

Willful debt is often a well dressed villain who pretends to be an honest man. In olden times if a man could not pay his debts he was looked upon in the same sense as a thief and sent to jail. Under the old Roman law, after spending a certain time in jail, if he was still unable to pay his creditors, he was sold into slavery and had to pass his life as a serf. Some one might say that such a condition is very hard and unjust, and so it is. But, in many cases, when a man will deliberately enter a store and run up a heavy bill, which he has no intention of paying, he is just as much a robber as the sneak thief who rushes into the bakery and steals a loaf of bread, and he should have little mercy shown to him. The debtor not only steals the groceryman's goods, but he steals his time and service.

Many a man who for years has deliberately run up all the debts he can is to-day walking around our streets claiming that in the sight of the law he is honest. After deliberately swindling all the men he could he puts the little money he had left in his wife's name. Then he enters the bankruptcy court and asks the judge to free him from all these financial obligations. Now, I care not what the bankruptcy court may say in such cases, no honest man, in the sight of God or man, can ever be morally freed from a financial debt until that debt is paid. It is a man's business to pay what he owes, no matter how the bill was contracted. One of the first signs of Zaccheaus' real conversion was when he turned to the Saviour and said, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation I restore to him fourfold." In other words he said, "If I have cheated any man out of his just dues, I am ready not only to restore to him the full amount of money taken, but I will restore to him double and treble and quadruple that which I have taken." And no man, in the sight of God, can be a Christian until he first signifies his intention to repay to the utmost of his ability all the money borrowed by him and to cancel his full obligations to every one of his financial creditors. You cannot love God and at the same time signify a willingness to cheat your fellow men.

In closing I would like to ask my hearers a pertinent question—Is not the chief reason why you are unwilling to publicly profess Christ because you have not been living right with your fellow men and trying to pay your honest debts? Dr. Wilbur Chapman, I think it was, once told this incident in a great evangelistic meeting. For some weeks there was among the audience to whom he had been preaching a man who would not confess Christ. Dr. Chapman could not understand why. But one night this man came to his hotel room and said: "Doctor, is there help for me? I am a defaulter. I stole so many thousand dollars from my employers many years ago. They have never found it out. What shall I do?" Dr. Chapman told the man to go back to his old employers and to confess, and fully confess, what he had done. Then Dr. Chapman told that man to give up all his property to liquidate part of the debt and to pledge himself to pay back the balance as soon as he could. The man did as he advised. In trying to undo the past wrong he removed the obstacle which had kept him from realizing that Christ was ready to forgive him. My friends, is the awful realization that you have been financially unjust to your fellow men keeping you away from the love of Christ? Will you not try to undo that wrong? Will you not follow the command of Paul, who tells us to "owe no man anything" the same Paul who tells us to "press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus?"

It may only take a small speck of dust in the eye to blind the sight and shut out the light of the noontide sun. It may only take one bill which we refuse to pay to our neighbor to shut out all the glories of heaven. Paul does not ask of us an impossibility, but he does demand that we, one and all, should not only love God with all our souls, but also love our fellow men enough to be financially just to them as well as merciful.

No Monroe Doctrine for Him.

"I just hate this old Monroe doctrine," said the beautiful heiress.

"Why?" asked the count.

"Its purpose is to stop foreigners from coming over here and annexing things."

He then took the hint and made her happy.

A Sure Cure for Headaches. — Bilious headache, to which women are more subject than men, becomes so acute in some subjects that they are utterly prostrated. The stomach refuses food, and there is a constant and distressing effort to free the stomach from bile which has become unduly secreted there. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a speedy alterative, and in neutralizing the effects of the intruding bile relieves the pressure on the nerves which cause the headache. Try them.

It sometimes happens that a man of resources is one who has ingenious

Will be Found an Excellent Remedy for sick headache. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Thousands of letters from people who have used them prove this fact. Try them.

Don't feel that the world has no place for you because it fails to recognize you as a genius.

The Well Known Strengthening Properties of IRON, combined with other tonics and a most perfect nervine, are found in Carter's Iron Pills, which strengthen the nerves and body, and improve the blood and complexion.

The proverbial luck of fools is never mentioned by the lucky individual.

Some persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, dysentery or diarrhoea, and have to use great precautions to avoid the disease. Change of water, cooking, and green fruit, is sure to bring on the attacks. To such persons we would recommend Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial as being the best medicine in the market for all summer Complaints. If a few drops are taken in water when the symptoms are noticed no further trouble will be experienced.

A man is very apt to be cut by his best friend when he attempts to shave himself.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

When a man wants to talk he nearly always bumps up against some man who doesn't want to listen.

Will positively cure sick headache and prevent its return. Carter's Little Liver Pills. This is not talk, but truth. One pill a dose. See advertisement. Small pill. Small dose. Small price.

The best wheel of fortune is honest labor.

To Those of Sedentary Occupation. —Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to disorders of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question the most efficacious on the market. They are easily procurable, easily taken, act expeditiously, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

It manages to get late very early nowadays.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia.

He Has Tried It.—Mr. John Anderson, Kimloss, writes: "I venture to say few, if any, have received greater benefit from the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, than I have. I have used it regularly for over ten years and have recommended it to all sufferers I knew of, and they also found it of great virtue in cases of severe bronchitis and incipient consumption

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER, Belleville.

A Savings Bank.

Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality, Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

THINK IT OVER

SOMETHING YOU CAN SEE IN ANY RESTAURANT OR CAFE.

A physician puts the query: Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at lunch or dinner time the large number of hearty, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from 60 to 80 years; many of them bald and all perhaps gray, but none of them feeble or senile?

Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation or comment, but, nevertheless, it is an object lesson which means something.

If you will notice what these hearty old fellows are eating you will observe that they are not munching bran crackers, nor gingerly picking their way through a menu card of new fangled health foods; on the contrary they seem to prefer a juicy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.

The point of all this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and plenty of wholesome food and not upon dieting and an endeavor to live upon bran crackers.

There is a certain class of food cranks who seem to believe that meat, coffee and many other good things are rank poisons, but these cadaverous, sickly-looking individuals are a walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digestive juices in sufficient quantity any wholesome food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do so, and certain foods cause distress one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty, because they supply just what every weak stomach lacks, pepsin, hydro-chloric acid, diastase and nux.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not act upon the bowels, and in fact are not strictly a medicine, as they act almost entirely upon the food eaten, digesting it thoroughly, and thus gives a much-needed rest and giving an appetite for the next meal.

Of people who travel nine out of ten use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, knowing them to be perfectly safe to use at any time, and also having found out by experience that they are a safeguard against indigestion in any form, and eating as they have to, at all hours and all kinds of food, the travelling public for years have pinned their faith to Stuart's Tablets.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents for full sized packages, and any druggist from Maine to California, if his opinion were asked, will say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most popular and successful remedy for any stomach trouble.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Live Stock Dull—Wheat is Easier—The Latest quotations.

Saturday Eve., Feb. 14.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

St. Lawrence Market was a busy place this morning, with crowds surrounding the stalls in the new market building and with the receipts of produce on the street unusually heavy. The bright weather was responsible for the large number of buyers present, and the fairly good condition of the country roads accounted for the heavy delivery. The total grain receipts amounted to 2,500 bushels.

Wheat—Prices all round are about steady; 500 bushels of white sold unchanged at 72½c to 73c per bushel; 300 of red sold at 72½c, and 200 of goose sold at 67½c.

Barley—The receipts were fairly large and prices show a firmer feeling. Five hundred bushels sold at 48c to 50c per bushel.

Oats—The market is steady, 500 bushels selling at 36c to 36½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Today's receipts were rather light, and trade was a little dull. Prices are firm at yesterday's decline. Quotations are $7.75 to $8 per cwt. for choice light weight butcher hogs, and $7.50 to $7.75 for heavies.

Eggs—New laid stock continues in good demand, and the offerings are more plentiful. Prices continue unchanged at 20c to 22c per dozen for new laid and 14c to 16c for held stock.

Butter—To-day's offerings were fairly large and generally of good quality. Quotations are steady at the prices of last market day. Pound rolls are quoted at 18c to 20c, and large rolls at 16c to 18c on the market.

Hay—Quotations for No. 1 timothy are easier at $12 to $14 per ton, and mixed or clover is steady at $6 to $9. About 30 loads were on the market.

Straw—The market is quoted $1 easier, at $8 to $9 per ton. Two loads were sold this morning at those figures.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 14.—Cattle—Receipts, 200 head; slow; general feeling easier. Veals—Receipts light: tops, $9.25 to $9.75; common to good, $4.50 to $9. Hogs—Receipts, 51,100 head; active, strong and 5c higher; heavy, $7.25 to $7.30; a few at $7.35; mixed, $7.20 to $7.25; Yorkers, $7.15 to $7.25; pigs, $7.05 to $7.10, mostly at $7.05; rough, $6.25 to $6.40; stags, $5.25 to $5.75. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 11,100 head; sheep steady and lambs 10c lower; top lambs, $6.65 to $6.75; culls to good, $4.25 to $6.60; yearlings, $5.25 to $5.75; ewes, $4.50 to $4.75; mixed sheep, tops, $4.50 to $4.75; culls to good, $2.25 to $4.40.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Cattle—Receipts, 300; good to prime steers, $4.40 to $5.50; poor to medium, $3 to $4.25; stockers and feeders, $2.25 to $4.50; cows, $1.40 to $4.40; heifers, $2 to $4.50; canners, $1.40 to $2.50; bulls, $2 to $4.25; calves, $3.50 to $8; Texas fed steers, 3.50 to $4.25. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 12,00; Monday, 38,000; left over, 4,500; strong to 10c higher; mixed and butchers', $6.70 to $7.10; good to choice heavy, $7.10 to $7.25; rough heavy, $6.70 to $7; light, $6.45 to $6.70; bulk of sales, $6.70 to $7. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 1,000; sheep and lambs steady; good to choice wethers, $4.50 to $4.75; fair to choice mixed, $3.50 to $4.75; western lambs, $4.75 to $6.50.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

Montreal, Feb. 14.—Grain—The demand of both local and export buyers is limited. We quote:—No. 2 white oats, 37¼c to 37½c ex-store, 31½c high freights; peas, 72c high freights; buckwheat, 48½c to 49c.

Flour—There is a fair jobbing trade without any change of prices. We quote:—Choice Manitoba spring wheat patents, $4.40 to $4.50; seconds, $4.10 to $4.20; strong bakers', $3.70; winter wheat patents, $3.85 to $4.10; straight rollers, $3.70 to $3.80; do in bags, $1.70 to $1.75; extras, $1.60 to $1.65.

Meal—The market remains quiet, with prices unchanged at $3.90 to $4 per barrel and at $1.85 per bag.

Feed—The market is very firm owing to the small offerings and good demand. We quote:—Manitoba bran in bags $19 to $20, Manitoba shorts $21 to $22, Ontario bran in bulk $18, shorts $20, and moullie $23 to $28, as to quality.

Butter—The export demand has fallen off, and as fairly large stocks are held the market has an easier tendency. Finest winter made creamery is selling at 22c to 22½c, held creamery at 21c to 21½c, finest 20c to 20½c and western dairy in rolls at 17½c to 18c.

Provisions—There is a fair demand at steady prices. We quote:—Heavy Canadian short cut mess pork, $24; Canada short cut back pork, $23 to $23.50; light Canada short clear pork, $22.60 to $23; finest kettle lard, in 20-lb pails, 12½c; extra pure lard, in 20-lb pails, 10¾c to 11¼c; choice refined compound lard, 8½c to 9c; Boar's Head brand, in 20-lb wood pails, $1.95 to $2.05; Globe, $1.75 to $1.85; 20-lb tin pails ¼c less per lb; hams 12½c to 14c and bacon 14c to 15c per lb.

Eggs—There is a fair demand for small lots at steady prices. We quote:—Montreal limed, 11c to 12c; cold storage, 10c, and western limed 10c per dozen.

A COLD-BLOODED MURDER.

Pennsylvania Young Woman Shot Through the Head.

Lebanon, Pa., Feb. 16.—Mrs. Ira Barker, aged 22, was shot dead on the streets of this city last night, in full view of scores of persons, and in resisting arrest the murderer killed a policeman before he was landed in jail. Mrs. Barker was standing on a street corner with her husband and several friends, when a man, who at the time was recognized, stepped up to her and shot her in the head. The assassin escaped. The husband suspected David Shaud, aged 25 years, who was convicted, but was out on bail, pending application for a new trial, for robbing Mrs. Barker's step-father of $350. She was the principal witness against him. The police at once instituted a search, and at midnight Shaud was located. He resisted arrest, and during a desperate struggle with the policeman he killed Cyrus Schaffer, one of their number. He was finally landed in jail without further trouble.

While Sir Oliver Mowat will be unable to open the Legislature, inquiry at Government House indicates that there is no immediate anxiety as to the Lieutenant-Governor's health. A few weeks ago his Honor had a fall, a serious matter to one of his years, but other than a cut on the forehead and a general shaking up no immediately injury was apparent.

Ex-Mayor H. Pedwell, lumber merchant of Thornbury, has purchased the estate of the late Geo. W. Allan on Kempenfeldt Bay for $25,000. The property consists of 600 acres, with the finest timber on Lake Simcoe. It has a frontage of two miles on the bay not far from Allandale, and there are three residences upon it. The deal was closed on Saturday with the executors.

Privileges in Preference to Rights.

Josephine Dodge Daskam, one of the most popular of the younger writers of the day, is not in sympathy with woman suffragists, and thinks the girl of to-day ought to be eager to hang on to her many privileges and let her rights go. "If you cannot in this generation get your vote, you always can get your voter. Women have always influenced man, and I don't see but what that's just as good. There is some danger of women getting what our brothers call the 'big-head.' If the young girl isn't careful her brother may turn like the worm. Whatever we do, we should leave him two things. One of these is the conviction that he knows and can do more than we can (as, for instance, looking up our trains for us), and we should leave him his bank-book. He may give us everything else, including his latch-key. I think there is a great deal of unnecessary twaddle these days about the increasing strenuousness of the young girl. I don't think she has changed so much. I don't think these little fads of the modern girl and modern woman, such as physical culture, or vegetarianism, or Greek grammar, to which she must devote at least a morning a week, have changed the woman underneath. She has no more mind. She may use her mind a little differently, but it's the same old mind, the same energy that she uses. There are two things which women must always have had since the creation to be successful, and those two things are the same in the far-off islands of the Pacific and in the high school in Massachusetts. A woman to be successful must be good and she must be charming. You may think of her charm as her parliamentary ability, her oratorical power, or her excellent canning of peaches, but she has got to have it. And if she is not good, the world can't progress. There may be something interesting in the bad woman, but she can't perpetuate nations, and, after all, that was the main purpose of our creation, I think. If a woman is good and nothing else, she will be as dull as anything the world ever made, but if she can be good and charming, her heritage and posterity can ask absolutely nothing better." Miss Daskam proved her sincerity and fearlessness by including the above remarks in a paper which she read before the Pilgrim Mothers, at their recent two hundred and eightieth anniversary of the landing of the "Mayflower," for most of the members of the league are woman suffragists. Naturally they were somewhat surprised and disappointed with her point of piew.

Engagement Extraordinary.

George Francis Train ("Citizen" Train) gives, in his recently published "Reminiscences," a very amusing account of his courtship, and shows the indomitable pluck and assurance which characterized his youth. When he was twenty-one he started for a journey west. At Syracuse he was struck by the appearance of "a lovely girl" bidding good-by to a half-dozen students. He turned to his traveling companion.

"Look at that girl with the curls," I said.

"Do you know her?"

"I never saw her before, but she shall be my wife." Whereupon I snatched up my satchel, rushed over to the train and the car which the girl had entered, and dropped into a vacant seat opposite her. An elderly gentleman was her companion. My chance came sooner than I expected. The elderly gentleman tried to raise the sash of the window, and could not move it; it had, as usual, stuck fast. I sprang lightly and very quickly across the aisle, and said: "Permit me to assist you," and, adding my youthful strength to his, raised the window. Both he and the young lady thanked me. The old gentleman went further, and asked me to take the seat directly opposite him and the young lady, on the same side of the car. I did so, and we entered into conversation immediately. I continued my speculations as to the relationship that existed between them. The gentleman seemed rather elderly for her husband, and she too young to be married at all. He did not look exactly as if he were her father.

It turned out that he was an old friend of the family, escorting the young lady to her home in the West. Their immediate destination was Oswego, where they would take a boat. Says Mr. Train:

"I immediately exclaimed that I was also going in that direction, and was delighted to know that we should be fellow-passengers. In such matters—for love is like war—quickness of decision is everything. I would have gone in any direction if only I could remain her fellow-passenger. And so we arrived at Niagara Falls together. Dr. Wallace was kind enough to permit me to escort his charge about the falls, and I was foolish enough to do several risky things, in a sort of half-conscious desire to appear brave—the last infirmity of the mind of a lover. I went under the falls and clambered about in all sorts of dangerous places, in an intoxication of love. It was the same old story, only with the difference that our love was mutually discovered and confessed amid the roaring accompaniment of the great cataract. We were at the Falls forty-eight hours, and before we left we were betrothed."

A Parisian Duel Averted.

"Pardon, monsieur, but were you addressing me?"

"No, monsieur, I was not addressing you."

"Then why not? Think you I am a man to be ignored?"

"Monsieur is pleased to be impertinent. But let him beware! I warn him."

"He warns me! How he is droll. It is the flea which warns the elephant!"

"Canaille! Turn away your face. It offends me."

"Bah! You are making of your chapeau a telephone through which to speak. Take care lest I forget that I am a gentleman!"

"There is no danger. One can scarcely forget that which has never taken place."

"Pig of a pig! Come hither, and with the smallest finger of my left hand I will crush your fat bulk and grind it to a powder!"

"Oh, meanest of beasts that crawl, approach, that with a single breath I may blow you from the surface of the earth you pollute!"

"Enough, monsieur! My friends will wait upon you!"

"Pardon me; I think not. I am somewhat particular in my choice of restaurants."

"Monsieur pleases himself to be witty; but, perchance, ere long I shall tickle his ribs with a little jest of my own. I beg, monsieur, that you will do me the favor to present me with your card."

"Your solicitude is irresistible. Behold it!"

"What! Surely I am not addressing M. Prevost, the world-renowned manufacturer of pneumatic-tired baby carriages?"

"It would be useless, monsieur, for me to conceal my identity. But why do you weep?"

"Because, monsieur, I am myself a father. Alas! that I should have wished to kill the benefactor of my darling child!"

"Wretch that I am! To think that I had almost put an end to the existence of an honored patron!"

"Monsieur, my head swims with pride at having made your acquaintance."

"And I, monsieur, am delirious with joy at the thought of numbering you among my friends! Come, let us celebrate our meeting in a glass of absinthe!"

Work and Sleep.

It is by no means the case that the more one sleeps the more one works. Some of the greatest workers of modern days have done with much less than the usual eight hours' sleep. Dr. James Legge, professor of Chinese, in the University of Oxford, who died at the age of eighty-two, was, it is said, in the habit of rising at 3 a.m., and allowing himself only five hours' sleep. Brunel, the famous engineer, for a considerable part of his life worked nearly twenty hours a day. Sir George A. Elliott, afterwards Lord Heathfield, who was in command throughout the great siege of Gibraltar, which lasted four years, never during all that time slept more than four hours out of the twenty-four. He lived to the age of eighty-four. "As I get old," said Humboldt, "I want more sleep—four hours, at least. When I was young, two hours' sleep was quite enough for me." On Professor Max Muller hinting that he found this rather hard to believe, Humboldt said: "It is quite a mistake, though it is very widely spread, that we want seven or eight hours' sleep. When I was your age, I simply lay down on the sofa, turned down my lamp, and after two hours' sleep I was as fresh as ever." He lived to be eighty-nine.

Artist—Well, sir, what do you think of this—"Ajax Defying the Lightning?"
Patron (something in the city)—Ah—um—yes; not at all bad, not at all. But—er—don't you think the—er—um—the arm's a little out of the prospectus?—"Judy."

Purified  by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

Half an hour later and a female form passed hurriedly through the hall and across the threshold into the chamber where the dead man lay. There was no one with him now, and Marian was free to weep out the pent-up sorrow of her life, which she did with choking sobs and passionate words poured into the ear, deaf to every human sound. A step upon the floor startled her, and turning round she stood face to face with Wilford's father, who was regarding her with a look which she mistook for one of reproof and displeasure that she should be there.

"Forgive me," she said; "he was my husband once, and surely now that he is dead you will not begrudge me a few last moments with him for the sake of the days when he loved me."

There were many tender chords in the heart of father Cameron, and offering Marian his hand, he said:

"Far be it from me to refuse you this privilege. I pity you, Genevra; I believe he dealt unjustly by you—but I will not censure him now that he is gone. He was my only boy. Oh, Wilford, Wilford! you have left me very lonely."

He released her hand, and Marian fled away, meeting next with Bell, who felt that she must speak to her, but was puzzled what to say. Bell could not define her feelings towards Marian, or why she shrunk from approaching her. It was not pride, but rather a feeling of prejudice, as if Marian were in some way to blame for all the trouble which had come to them, while her peculiar position as the divorced wife of her brother made it the more embarrassing. But she could not resist the mute pleading of the eyes lifted so tearfully to her, as if asking for a nod of recognition, and stepping before her she said softly:

"Genevra."

That was all, but it made Genevra's tears flow in torrents, and she involuntarily held her hand out to Bell, who took it, and holding it between her own, said:

"You were very kind to my brother. I thank you for it, and will tell my mother, who will feel so grateful to you."

This was a good deal for Bell to say, and after it was said, she hastened away while Marian went on her daily round of duties, speaking softer if possible to her patients that day, and causing them to wonder what had come over that sweet face to make it so white and tear-stained. That night in Marian's room Katy sat and listened to what she did not before know of the strange story kept from her so long. Marian confirmed all Wilford had told, breathing no word of blame against him now that he was dead, only stating facts, and leaving Katy to draw her own conclusions.

"I knew that I was handsome," she said, "and I liked to test my power; but for that weakness I have been sorely punished. I had not at first any intention of making him believe that I was dead, and when I sent the paper containing the announcement of father's death, I was not aware that it also contained the death of my cousin, a beautiful girl just my own age, who bore our grandmother's name of Genevra, and about whom and a young English lord, who had hunted one season in her father's neighborhood, there were some scandalous reports. Afterwards it occurred to me that Wilford would see that notice, and naturally think it referred to me, inasmuch as he knew nothing of my cousin Genevra.

"It was just as well, I said—I was dead to him, and I took a strange satisfaction in wondering if he would care. Incidentally I heard that the postmaster at Alnwick had been written to by an American gentleman, who asked if such a person as Genevra Lambert was buried at St. Mary's; and then I knew he believed me dead, even though the name appended to the letter was not Wilford Cameron, nor was the writing his, for, as the cousin of the dead Genevra, I asked to see the letter, and my request was granted. It was Mrs. Cameron who wrote it, I am sure, signing a feigned name and bidding the postmaster answer to that address. He did so, assuring the inquirer that Genevra Lambert was buried there, and wondering to me if the young American who seemed interested in her could have been a lover of the unfortunate girl.

"I was now alone in the world, for the aunt with whom my childhood was passed died soon after my father, and so I went at last to learn a trade on the Isle of Wight, emigrating from thence to New York, with the determination in my rebellious heart that some time when it cut the deepest, I would show myself to the proud Camerons, whom I so cordially hated. This was before God had found me, or rather before I had listened to the still, small voice which took the hard, vindictive feelings away, and made me feel kindly towards the mother and sisters when I saw them, as I often used to do, driving gaily by. Wilford was sometimes with them, and the sight of him always sent the hot blood surging through my heart. But the greatest shock I ever had came to me when I heard from your sister of his approaching marriage with you. Those were terrible days that I passed at the farm-house, working on your bridal trousseau; and sometimes I thought it more than I could bear. Had you been other than the little, loving, confiding, trustful girl you were, I must have disclosed the whole, and told that you would not be the first who had stood at the altar with Wilford. But pity for you kept me silent, and you became his wife.

"I loved your baby almost as much as if it had been my own, and when it died there was nothing to bind me to the North, and so I came here, where I hope I have done some good; at least I was here to care for Wilford, and that is a sufficient reward for all the toil which falls to the lot of a hospital nurse. I shall stay until the war is ended, and then go I know not where. It will not be best for us to meet very often, for though we respect each other, neither can forget the past, nor that one was the lawful, the other the divorced wife of the same man. I have loved you, Katy Cameron, for your uniform kindness shown to the poor dressmaker. I shall always love you, but our paths lie widely apart. Your future I can predict, but mine God only knows."

Marian had said all she meant to say, and all Katy came to hear. The latter was to leave in the morning, and when they would meet again neither could tell. Few were the parting words they spoke, for the great common sorrow welling up from both their hearts; but when at last they said good-bye, the bond of friendship between them was more strongly cemented than ever, and Katy long remembered Marian's parting words:

"God bless you Katy Cameron! You have been a bright sun-spot in my existence since I first knew you, even though you have stirred some of the worst impulses of my nature. I am a better woman for having known you. God bless you, Katy Cameron!"

CHAPTER XLV.

The grand funeral which Mrs. Cameron once had planned for Katy was a reality at last, but the breathless form lying so cold and still in the darkened room at No. —, Fifth Avenue, was that of a soldier embalmed—an only son brought back to his father's house amid sadness and tears. They had taken him there rather than to his own house, because it was the wish of his mother, who, however hard and selfish she might be to others, had idolized her son, and mourned for him truly, forgetting in her grief to care how grand the funeral was, and feeling only a passing twinge when told that Mrs. Lennox had come from Silverton to pay the last tribute of respect to her late son-in-law. You can Test The Kidneys

AND FIND OUT FOR YOURSELF WHETHER OR NOT YOU ARE BECOMING A VICTIM OF PAINFUL, FATAL KIDNEY DISEASE.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It is not necessary for you to consult a specialist on kidney disease to find out if you are a victim of this dreadful derangement. You can test your kidneys at home and satisfy yourself on this point.

Allow some urine to stand in a glass for twenty-four hours, and if at the end of that time you find sediment in the bottom of the vessel you can be sure that your kidneys are diseased.

Pains in the small of the back, and smarting when urinating, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, loss of flesh and strength, are other marked symptoms which indicate kidney disorders. Make this test for yourself. Consider whether you have any of these symptoms, and if you conclude that your kidneys are out of order begin at once to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They will bring prompt relief and will thoroughly cure you.

On account of their direct action on the kidneys, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cure ailments of the kidneys when ordinary kidney medicines fail. They have proven their efficacy in many thousands of cases, and are endorsed by more people than any other kidney medicine extant.

Mr. John L. Hickey, now caretaker of the Public and High Schools, Trenton, Ont., states:—"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills and found them the greatest medicine I ever tried. I used them when in the lumber camps, and believe by keeping the kidneys and bowels regular and the general health good that they protect a person from catching contagious diseases which are so common in the camps.

"I have seen hundreds of men using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the lumber camps. They buy them by the dozen when going in, and to show how much faith they have in them they buy them when they could get their medicine for nothing by going to the hospital camp. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills keep my liver, kidneys and bowels regular, and my health good. I would not think of being without them."

Those Pale Girls

How many pale girls there are! Girls who have the will, but not the power to bring out their vitality. Doctors call it anaemia, which means poor blood. They are thin, delicate and nervous. Their digestion is usually poor, the appetite not all that it should be and they do not even get all the nourishment that is in the food that they do eat. They linger between strength and weakness with no certainty as to what change a day will bring forth.

Scott's Emulsion is for all such girls. The hypophosphites combined with the cod liver oil will tone up the system, give the blood new life, improve the appetite and help digestion. Above all it gives nourishment.

Girls are more liable to anaemia than boys; this is because the blood of women contains fewer red corpuscles, more water and less albumen and salts than the blood of men. Scott's Emulsion seems to be the very thing to discount these differences. It helps all pale, thin girls when nothing else will.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

Where Amber Is Found.

The largest quantity of amber is found on the southern shore of the Baltic between Memel and Konigsberg, where it is cast up by the action of the ground swell after the northerly gales. It is also found on the coast of Sicily, on the shores of the Adriatic, on the English beach of Norfolk and Suffolk and at Cape Sable in Maryland. Mining for amber in beds of brown lignite or wood coal is carried on in Prussia, and it is found in excavations all over Europe.

The Aromatic Clove Tree.

A peculiarity of the clove tree is that every part of it is aromatic, though the greatest strength is in the bud. Besides the buds, the stems are gathered and form an article of commerce commanding one-fifth the price of cloves and having about the same percentage of strength. To this is due the fact that ground cloves can be purchased in the home market at a lower price than whole cloves.

Mark Twain on Christian Science.

There is a deal of thoroughness about Mark Twain. When he sets out to relieve his mind he is apt to relieve it fully. He stops not at the end of the page, nor at a convenient point, but when he gets through. When that happens it is usually found that he has made a mark that will stick. The reader may differ with his views, but he does not forget them. They are too well pounded in for that.

Mark is publishing in the "North American Review" a series of discourses on Christian Science and the future before it. These discourses were written in Europe in 1899, and have been seasoning for three years. This month's chapter is mainly devoted to the amazing profitableness of Mother Eddy's monopoly. Mark insists that the old lady will be worshipped in due time by her following; meanwhile he guesses how much money she must have made, and what are the financial prospects of what he calls the Boston Christian Science Trust. He can find no evidence that this trust ever gives anything away. It sells many things—the great Eddy book, hymnals, manuals, miscellaneous writings of Mrs. Eddy, and the like, "always at extravagant prices, and always on the one condition—cash, cash in advance." From end to end of the Christian Science literature, says Mark, "not a single (material) thing in the world is conceded to be real except the dollar. But all through its advertisements that reality is eagerly and persistently recognized."

Mark has a keen scent for money-changers in the temple, as readers may recall. The trust, he finds, now collects a fee of three hundred dollars for a finishing course of seven lessons at its metaphysical college in Boston, and a tax of one dollar a head, annually, from all members of Christian Science churches. He thinks its revenues from all these sources—books, souvenir spoons, fees and taxes—must already be very large, and bid fair to be enormous. And he cannot find that it has any serious expenses, or that it supports any charities. He is very deeply impressed by Christian Science as a commercial enterprise in the hands of a small trust, not accountable to anyone for its receipts. He insists that it is destined to win an enormous growth. He guesses there will be ten million Christian Scientists in America in 1910, and that they will be a political force. He guesses that they will be politically formidable in 1920, and in 1930 "the governing power of the republic—to remain that permanently." "And I think it a reasonable guess," he adds, "that the trust will then be the most insolent and unscrupulous and tyrannical politico-religious master that has domineered a people since the palmy days of the Inquisition."

As for the curative branch of Christian Science, Mark declares that the power which a man's imagination has over his body to heal it or to make it sick is a force which none of us is born without. But because, if left to himself, a man is likely to use only that half of the force which invents imaginary ailments, it takes two imaginations, his own and some outsider's, to help him.

The outsider must imagine that he is doing the work, and the patient must imagine that this is so. "I think," says Mark, "that it is not so at all; but, no matter, the cure is effected, and that is the main thing." The outsider's work, he says, is unquestionably valuable. He likens it to the work done by the engineer when he turns on steam and starts the engine. The power is in the engine, but if left alone the engine would never start of itself. Whatever you call the engineer—Christian Scientist, Mind Curist or Hypnotist—he is simply the engineer, and turns on the same old steam and the engine does the work. The reason why the Christian Scientist engineer beats all the others is partly, Mark thinks, because he has the takingest name and wears religious overalls, but chiefly because he has organized the business, backed it with capital, and concentrated it in Boston in the hands of a small and very competent trust. It is on the existence of this trust that Mark has based his expectation of the vast spread of Christian Science. If it were loosely conducted, as such enterprises usually are, it would do no better than "unorganized great moral and commercial ventures" usually do. "But I believe," he says, "that so long as this one remains compactly organized . . . in a trust, the spread of its dominion will continue."

How Carnegie Greeted the King.

The visit which King Edward paid Andrew Carnegie at Skibo Castle was a complete surprise to the philanthropist, the King merely telegraphing him a few hours beforehand that he would arrive at a certain time. Mr. Carnegie happened to be asleep when the "wire" came, says a correspondent of the Philadelphia "Press," and it was not handed to him until he awoke. The correspondent relates the incident that followed:

Then there was considerable excitement. The King was due in five minutes, and Mr. Carnegie was in despair at the thought that not a single arrangement for his reception had been made. Then he had an inspiration. At Skibo there is an immense pipe organ which Mr. Carnegie had put in some time ago for his own pleasure. An organist is a permanent member of the millionaire's household. Mr. Carnegie determined that the organ should thunder out "God Save the King" as his Majesty entered the castle. But when he sent for the organist, the reply came back that the musician had gone down to the neighboring swimming-pool.

"Have him out of the water, then!" roared Mr. Carnegie.

And so they had him out. Actually dripping and clad only in a blanket, the wretched man was brought back to the castle on the run, borne into the concert-room and plumped down on the organ stool. It was just time, for the word passed that the King's carriage was coming up the driveway. An immense screen had been dragged in front of the organist, now innocent even of his blanket, so that he was shielded from view, and thus, the water dripping from his hair, his fingers and his shoulder-blades, the shivering musician played "God Save the Queen," while one servant rubbed him with a coarse towel and another gave him brandy. The King was delighted with his musical reception, and when Mr. Carnegie told him the circumstances under which the National Anthem had been performed his Majesty laughed till his sides ached.

The Store that Never Disappoints

DEFEAT DUE TO GRIT DISHONESTY

MR. A. A. RICHARDSON SO TOLD EAST HASTINGS CONSERVATIVES.

At the annual meeting of the East Hastings Liberal-Conservative Association, held in Roslin on Friday last, Mr. A. A. Richardson, of Deseronto, in referring to the last Provincial election, stated that his defeat was due partly to the unexpected sickness with which he was afflicted right in the heat of the campaign, but chiefly to the unfair, dishonest, and contemptible tactics resorted to by his opponents. There had been bribery with money and with promises, intimidation, coercion, and even perjury.

Mr. W. C. Mikel, of Belleville, in a forcible address, laid great emphasis upon organization, especially among the young men.

Mr. W. G. Northrup, M.P., spoke of the excellent prospects of the Conservative party in so far as Dominion politics were concerned. They were even brighter than in the province. He referred to his recent trip to the Pacific, and in eloquent language described the wonderful resources of the West. He regretted that the Government had brought into that country such an undesirable type of citizen as the Doukhobor and Galician. He referred to the large number of Americans who had been coming in, and said that there was only one way in which they could be made good citizens, namely, by obtaining their loyalty through respect for the Government. We must show them that we had a Government free from corruption and, better than that under which they formerly existed. So long as the present Government remained in power this would be impossible.

A Lively Runaway

On Saturday afternoon a team of horses attached to a delivery sleigh, belonging to Wm. Thompson & Co., ran away on Front street making things lively for a few minutes. They ran out of the yard in rear of the store and when coming out of the gangway left the conveyance by breaking the whippletrees. At the corner of Campbell street one of the animals fell causing both to be stopped. Fortunately the damage done was slight.

IMPROVEMENTS TO THE CITY BUILDINGS

WHICH WILL BE MUCH APPRECIATED BY MANY PEOPLE.

To Ald. Salman, chairman of the Market and City Property Committee, is due to a large extent some improvements which are being made about the City building. The lavatory is being constructed in No. 3 cells of the police station for use of the City officials and attendants upon the market, which will be much appreciated.

A new covering has been placed over the weigh scales situated on the south side of the market building, and the doors of the large scales used for weighing hay, coal, etc., are being repaired so as to close the scales top when not in use.

The flag staff over the building was taken down on Saturday and a new rope bent on so that the flag can be hoisted if necessary.

A Valentine Dance

Cupid was holding High Court Saturday evening, when Master Lundy Carre entertained his young friends at a dance, given in honor of St. Valentine. The invitations were issued in heart-shaped booklets and were practical, all being different. Each guest was requested to bring an original, practical valentine, for which prizes were offered, the winners being the Misses Dora Lee, Muriel Sills and Antoinette Parker. The efforts of the boys, although highly commendable, were totally eclipsed by those of the girls. The prizes were also heart-shape. St. Valentine's post office created great fun as each one on calling at the wicket received some witty souvenir. Dancing was kept up until near midnight.

TURNING DOWN THE DOCTORS.

The marvellous cures of Catarrhozone are being much talked about. Thousands are daily recognizing the exceptional merit of this simple inhaler treatment, and instead of running to the doctor with their winter ills they protect themselves by Catarrhozone; it kills colds in the head in ten minutes, quickly relieves Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Lung Troubles, and cures even though all other remedies have failed. Catarrhozone is very pleasant, safe and convenient to use. Its best recommendation is its enormous sale; try it today. Price $1.00; small size, 25c., at druggists.

DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION?

ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT BREAKS INTO THE DISCUSSION—HE THINKS IT DOES NOT.

Belleville, Feb. 16th, 1903.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—I have been reading the letters that appeared in your valuable paper — "Baptismal Regeneration," and I must confess that I was somewhat amused at the various ideas presented by the several writers. The first letter that appeared was from Mr. D. H. Ackerill, in which he confessed that he did not understand the great teachings of the church of which he is a communicant until he had joined the Free Masons, which brought to him the inward light of the teachings of that church. In this connection I would ask, has he since that time been, and is he now, a consistent member of the Free Masons?

Now, sir, kindly grant me a little space to present the Bible views along the lines: Does regeneration precede conversion? I believe the scriptures answer "no!" First faith, then repentance. I was on the broadway which leads to destruction, the Word of the Lord directly or indirectly showed me my danger, believing the same and turning from that life which is repentance, then going forward in the narrow way in obedience to Christ's commands, which is Bible conversion or regeneration, characteristically, prove of same. (See Acts 3—19) "Repent, therefore, and be converted." For what purpose? Answer—That your sins may be blotted out. Also Ezekiel, 14, 6, "Therefore say unto the house of Israel, thus said the Lord God." Repent and turn yourselves from idols and turn away your faces from all your abominations. Also Ezekiel, 18, 30, last clause, "Repent and turn yourselves from all your transgressions, so iniquity shall not be your own."

We also find in 1st Samuel, 15; 21, To obey Him is better than sacrifice and hearken, than the fat of rams. Now, if we are honest seekers after truth and wishing to profit thereby at the coming of the Lord, who shall judge the quick and the dead? Mark the time, at his appearing and his Kingdom, 2nd Tim. 4; 1. Therefore we should place ourselves in the position of the great Apostle Paul when he was convicted on his way to Damascus, and say "Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?" and the Lord's answer in Matt. 28; 19 and 20. Through his apostles, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you there we may claim the promise, "and lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." Amen. Also Mark 16; 15, 16, and he said unto them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature; he that believeth and is baptized, but he that believeth not shall be damned." And Acts 2; 38, Then Peter said unto them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." Here our Lord teaches us what to believe and what to do to be saved, for in these passages as well as many others that might be quoted, we see a threefold duty of man to his God, and how sad to find so many of the professed followers of Christ practically ignoring the same. I ask, is not one promise just as obligatory as the other? Coupled as they are by the Great Teacher Himself; for proof see the following scriptures, 1st Peter, 2; 21. Christ also suffered for us leaving us an example that we should follow his steps, not only in suffering but in all things; also see Matt. 3; 13, 17, "Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John to be baptized of him, but John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee and comest thou to me. Jesus answering, said unto him, "Suffer it to be so now, for thus it becomes us to fulfil all righteousness or right doing." See Matt 7; 24 to 27. Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them, security is established, the reverse of destruction. Now let us hear what the Great Master says, John 15; 14: "Ye are my friends if you do whatsoever I command you." Also Luke, 9; 26: "For whosoever shall be ashamed of Me and of My words of Him, of him shall the Son of Man be ashamed when he shall come in His Own glory and in His Father's and of the Holy Angels." For the words of the Lord are, Gal. 3; 27: "For as many of you as have been baptized unto Christ have put on Christ."

Therefore it would be wisdom in us to obey the command given by Paul, 2nd Tim., 4; 2, To preach the Word. Believe and do it.

Thanking you, sir, in advance for space in your valuable paper, I am,

Yours respectfully,

JOHN HARRISS.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

CHURCH CHIMES

NOTES OF SERVICES IN PLACES OF WORSHIP YESTERDAY.

Bleecker St. Methodist.

At Bleecker Avenue Church yesterday morning the Pastor, Rev. M. J. Eates, officiated and preached, and in the evening Mr. J. Buchanan, of Toronto, gave an evangelistic address. During the evening service appropriate hymns were sung by Mrs. Buchanan.

John Street.

At the John Street Presbyterian Church yesterday large congregations were present, and the discourses by the Pastor, Rev. A. H. Drumm, were able efforts. In the evening the Rev. gentleman's subject was, "The healing of the Nobleman's Son." Whilst the offertory was being taken the choir rendered an anthem, the solos in which were taken by Mrs. Jas. Grant and Mr. Geo. Ashley.

Emmanuel R. E. Church.

A very good congregation was present in the above church yesterday morning, the Rector, Rev. Mr. Gilliland, preaching an interesting sermon from the text.

"And the disciples were first called Christians at Antioch."

The name Christian, when first applied to the disciples, meant more than it means to-day. Then it meant the willingness to suffer anything and give up everything in order that the person so called might follow in the footsteps of the Saviour. What was needed nowadays was that those who called themselves Christians should study the Word of God closely and try to show by their lives, as did the disciples of old, that they were worthy of the name.

Baptist Church

At the Baptist Church last evening, the Pastor, Rev. O. C. Elliott, preached an able sermon, his subject being "The Threefold View of the Lord Jesus Christ." His texts were from St. John, 1, 29; 19, 5; 19, 14.

Tabernacle

The Pastor, Rev. J. H. Locke, yesterday officiated in the Tabernacle Church, and his discourses were much appreciated. In the evening the subject discussed was "The Pleasures of Sin for a Season." During the service Mr. J. P. Pratt sang "Rest for the Weary."

Bridge Street.

At Bridge Street Church yesterday large congregations were present at both services, and the sermons by the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Crothers, were able efforts. In the evening the subject was "The First Pilgrim Fathers," and the congregation were treated to some novel and interesting ideas concerning the early pilgrims. The choir sang the anthem "I am the Alpha and Omega," Misses Wheler and Vermilyea taking the solos.

St. Thomas'.

At St. Thomas' Church yesterday, Rev. W. W. Burton, Rector of the Madoc Anglican Church, preached at both services, his sermons being in behalf of the Diocesan mission fund. Good congregations were present and the music furnished by the choir was pleasing.

THE LIP

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY THE NEW CONSTITUTIONAL REMEDY WITHOUT THE NEED OF KNIFE OR PLASTER.

Cancer of the lip is often spoken of as "Smokers' Cancer," due to the frequency with which it attacks habitual users of the pipe.

The disease usually starts as a crack or ulcer and spreads until it affects the surface of the lip and often extends to the jaw bone.

Cutting the cancer away or drawing it out with the plaster are methods of treatment that have been in vogue for generations and while painful in the extreme, do not effect a cure, as the disease soon returns.

The only safe, painless and permanent cure is to be found in our constitutional treatment which rids the system of all cancer germs and poisons, promotes the absorption of the lump or growth and causes healthy flesh to form in place of the sore. The Bible Study Club meets for tea in the Secretary's room on Thursday at 6.30; study from 7—7.50.—Com.

THE AGONIZING PAINS OF RHEUMATISM.

Swollen, aching joints, muscles are stiff and sore, every movement accompanied by pain. The most potent remedy is Polson's Nerviline, which has five times the pain-subduing power of any other preparation. Apply the Nerviline copiously, rub it on well and then bind in a hot flannel bandage. This will cure the worst cases in a short time. Try Nerviline for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica or Lumbago—it's all right and only costs a quarter.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT.

Paul Shaver of Seaforth the Victim—Badly Hurt.

Seaforth, Feb. 16.—A most unprovoked and brutal assault was committed upon Paul Shaver of this town, while on his way home about 8 o'clock on Saturday night, by a young man, supposed to be Jack Maxwell of Goderich. Shaver was struck by his assailant over the eye and nose with a piece of board, rendering him unconscious. His nose was broken, and he will lose the sight of the eye. Maxwell was arrested at the Grip House two hours after the assault, while sleeping in one of the boarder's rooms.

SUBURBAN TO CONNECT JUNCTION AND EAST TORONTO.

Balmy Beach Park to be Taken Over—Ottawa to Acquire Its Street Railway—New Radial Lines.

Toronto, Feb. 16.—The indications are that there will be a large amount of private legislation before the Legislature at the approaching session. So far 69 applications have been received and the House has not yet been called. The current issue of The Ontario Gazette contains the announcement of several interesting bills.

The Corporation of East Toronto has given notice that it will apply for an act vesting the Balmy Beach Park or promenade, on the shore of Lake Ontario and within the town limits, to hold in trust for the residents on "plan 406," and the residents of East Toronto as a park and place of recreation.

The Toronto Suburban Railway will apply to extend its line from some point on its Davenport road branch easterly to some point in East Toronto or Little York.

The North Lanark Railway Company wants to extend its line eastward to Ottawa, and westward to some point on the Madawaska River.

A company wants incorporation and power to build an electric railway from Stratford through Sebringville to Mitchell; from Stratford to St. Mary's, also to Embro on the C.P.R.

The City of St. Catharines asks for power to appoint a board of commissioners to manage the St. Thomas Street Railway, authority to issue debentures to improve the system and for its extension to Port Stanley.

The City of Ottawa requests authority to build, equip and operate a street railway through the city and the adjoining municipalities, and to acquire by purchase or expropriation existing lines, also permission to spend $24,850 to purchase a site and furnishing a free library.

Confirmation will be asked for of an agreement between the Hamilton Electric Light & Cataract Power Co., and the Hamilton Cataract Power, Light & Traction Co., providing for the transfer of the undertaking and assets of the former company to the latter company.

Deseronto wants its debt, $96,000, consolidated. This sum includes $34,103 for a new public school building and the remodelling of the old building.

The County of Lanark asks confirmation of a by-law authorizing the issue of $65,000 debentures for improvement of highways and purchase of toll roads.

The Huron, Bruce & Grey Electric Railway Company asks to have its original charter amended, so as to change the name to Ontario West Shore Electric Railway Company, and its route to be defined as follows:—Dungannon to Lucknow, to Walkerton, also to Wingham to connect with the C. P. R.; also to London and from Parkhill to Sarnia.

Solicitors for the Clergue interests at Sault Ste. Marie ask for legislation consolidating under the Ontario laws the various auxiliary companies, into the Lake Superior Company.

The Middlesex & Elgin Inter-Urban Railway wants power to enter into an agreement which shall be binding upon the St. Thomas Railway Company, now in possession of the city on a mortgage, and to enable the applicants to make traffic arrangements with other lines.

SWINDLER'S SUICIDE.

Robbed One of His Clients and Was Jailed.

St. John, Feb. 15.—An aged man calling himself Paul Gray, palmist and fortune teller, came to St. John a couple of months ago and set up business in a hotel. He did a rushing trade, especially among the women. Many men, too, visited him, and rumor had it he could give them sage advice on business transactions. Among the credulous men who called upon the soothsayer a few days ago was a man named Victor Dykeman. Gray told him a roseate story about getting a legacy, but in order to procure it a spell had to be worked, and money was the talisman. Gray asked for $900 to work upon, but Dykeman had only $450. Gray concluded that amount would answer the purpose. He told Dykeman that the money must be purified by him, otherwise the spell would not work. A couple of times the money was placed in Gray's hands and handed back. On Saturday afternoon the final purifying was to take place, and the money was again handed over to Gray, who worked a hocus pocus act over it and then apparently handed back again the roll of bills, nicely tied up, told Dykeman perfect silence was essential, and also to put the money under his pillow and dream on it. Some time after Dykeman had left the fortune-teller he became suspicious, took out the roll and opened it, when instead of the purified bills he found a roll of brown paper. He quickly wended his way back to the hotel, but the spell-worker had fled, taking a train for the United States. The power of the police was invoked, the wires used and Gray was caught at Vanceboro' and held. Last night Gray cut his throat and his wrist, and died later from his wounds.

DESPERATE STOWAWAYS.

Threatened to Attack Officers with Knives.

Algiers, Feb. 16.—The Austrian steamer Margherita, from Trieste and Girgento, February 5 for New York, put in here to-day and landed eighteen Sicilian stowaways, who smuggled themselves aboard at Palermo. Maddened by thirst, the stowaways had armed themselves with knives and appeared on the deck, where they threatened to attack the officers. Muskets were dealt out to the crew, who succeeded in overawing the Sicilians. The steamer then headed for Algiers, where the stowaways were handed over to the Italian Consul. The Margherita proceeded on her voyage two days late.

MURDER AT WINGHAM.

DEVELOPMENTS SINCE THE DEATH OF MR. SMITH.

A Prominent Merchant Found Lying on the Sidewalk—First Thought to Have Fallen—His Skull Fractured and Money Missing.

Wingham, Feb. 17.—A prominent hardware merchant, resident here for thirty years past, named Mr. J. Smith, a member of the firm of Smith & Pethick, was found some nights ago lying on the sidewalk unconscious, with his skull crushed in. It was first supposed to be the result of a fall on the ice and snow. He was carried to his home nearby, and Drs. Chisholm and Agnew of Wingham and Gunn of Clinton were summoned, and did everything they could for the terribly injured man but he never regained complete consciousness, and died early on Sunday morning.

The doctors all now express the opinion that he was the victim of foul play. The unfortunate man had started back to his store from his house, where he had just had supper, a curious fact being that he had counted over the money he had with him at the table before going out, amounting to $114 in bills, which it seems he had neglected or forgotten to deposit in the bank. Very shortly after he was found only a few rods from his door, lying face down on the pavement, and with his soft felt hat still drawn over his head, and all his money gone. As soon as an operation could be attempted severe fractures were discovered extending across the skull, which must have resulted from a severe blow or blows of some heavy, blunt weapon.

It is stated that when a large blood clot was removed from the brain suppuration had occurred, and just as he was trying to rally from the effects of the chloroform he was heard to call out the word "murder," and muttered some words in the nature of a request to send for Charlie, his son.

The tragedy, occurring at such an early hour in the evening, and in a populous part of the town, has caused great excitement, and the general opinion appears to be that in the interests of justice a searching investigation should immediately be made, and such a despicable crime, if so it proves, as appears now to be the case, should not go undiscovered or unpunished.

The deceased was a quiet, law-abiding and respected resident of the town and it would appear that robbery was the motive of the crime. A wife and one daughter at home, and a married son, accountant in the Bank of Hamilton here, survive. It is reported that an inquest has been ordered.

GRAVE CHARGES MADE.

U. S. Officials at Caracas Leagued With Castro.

London, Feb. 16.—A blue book on the Venezuelan dispute was issued last evening. The most interesting despatch in the book is an official letter from the former British Minister at Caracas, W. H. D. Haggard, to Foreign Minister Lansdowne, dated Trinidad, December 30, concerning the alleged illegal detention of the British schooner Harry Troop by the Venezuelan Government in an unhealthy place from May to November, 1902, whereby the crew were decimated by dysentery. Mr. Haggard says in this letter: "I regret to say that it would appear that I placed too much faith on the complete accuracy of the statements of the Secretary of the United States Legation, W. W. Russell, as to the improvement in the conditions of the Harry Troop, etc., when he saw her. These statements may probably be accounted for by the facts, which appear undoubted, that Mr. Bowen was most anxious, for reasons best known to himself, to report the conduct of the Venezuelan authorities in the most favorable light possible, and that he had inspired his subordinate in the same direction. To put it briefly, Mr. Russell did not dare to say a word outside the Legation contrary to President Castro's mode of procedure."

Another noteworthy despatch is Sir Michael Herbert's report to Minister Lansdowne on his disagreement with Mr. Bowen, dated Jan. 29.

REDMOND STILL LEADER.

Irish Parliamentary Party Re-elect Him.

Dublin, Feb. 17.—At a meeting of the Irish Parliamentary party yesterday John Redmond was re-elected leader, and a resolution was passed to the effect that, in view of the rumored intention of the Government to depart, in the text of the new land bill, from the terms adopted by the recent land conference, the party places itself on record as announcing that these terms are the lowest the tenants could accept.

GAMEY'S CONSTITUENTS.

MEETING AT GORE BAY OF CONSERVATIVE EXECUTIVE.

The Member States His Reason For Supporting the Ross Government—Course Condemned, but Not Asked to Resign.

Gore Bay, Feb. 17.—A meeting of the Conservative Executive, fairly well attended was held, at which the action of Mr. R. R. Gamey, as outlined in the recent interview with The Globe, was discussed.

Mr. W. H. Williams, who recently returned from Toronto, was asked to give his views as from the outside Tory party. He strongly condemned the course taken by Mr. Gamey and charged that serious rumors were afloat as to the motive for that course. He did not produce one particle of evidence.

Mr. T. Robinson, a delegate from the country, took the ground that Mr. R. R. Gamey had promised to take an independent stand during the campaign last spring if the Government were sustained, and that he had received a great many Liberal votes on that account.

Mr. E. Battye did not understand any such stand to have been taken during the campaign.

Mr. Gamey attended and explained his position in a clear and careful manner, alleging that his duty was to his constituency first, and that he had only done what he considered in the best interests of his constituency. He particularly asked them to suspend judgment for the present. He also expressed an opinion that the executive had no power to ask him to resign, and said that he would be pleased to have a convention called and abide by their decision, as he knew from letters and interviews the great majority of the people were well satisfied with his recent action.

A strongly-worded resolution endorsing Mr. Whitney and condemning the recent interview was passed, but no attempt was made to introduce a resolution asking for Mr. Gamey's resignation. The majority of the delegates personally favored Mr. Gamey, and have still confidence in him doing the best for the riding. Quite a number of voters were around the town, expecting to hear a public debate, but there was no public meeting.

The almost unanimous opinion expressed by those voters was favorable to Mr. Gamey.

WOULD BUY BATTLESHIPS.

A Resolution to Raise a Canadian Naval Force.

Toronto, Feb. 17.—At the meeting of the Young Men's Liberal Club yesterday a notice of motion was given by Mr. W. J. Elliott, reciting that Canada enjoys the protection of the British navy without cost, and urging "that the Dominion Government raise a Canadian naval force, under the provisions of the militia act, to be composed exclusively of seamen, sailors and persons whose usual occupation is upon any steam or sailing craft navigating the waters of Canada, and that the whole expense thereof should be borne by the Government of Canada, and that they also cause to be purchased or built two first-class batleships, and present them to the British Government."

H. Dickenson gave notice of motion favoring a railway commission, and expressing the view that the granting of subsidies should cease, and a uniform system of municipal taxation be adopted for all railroads.

An informal discussion of the transportation question took place, after the subject had been introduced by Dr. Thompson of Alberta. Views were expressed by Messrs. B. Davis, R. J. Gibson, A. C. Thompson, H. Dickenson, and others.

PROGRESS AT THE SOO.

First Blast Furnace to Start by April 1.

Toronto, Feb. 17.—In a letter received at the Parliament buildings Monday Mr. F. H. Clergue writes from Sault Ste. Marie concerning the activities of the company's various industries:—"Our large sawmill is running, employing from 50 to 75 men; our veneer plant, employing the same number, starts up on March 1; our pulp mills are producing more than ever before, employing over 200 men; our car shops are working on an order of 500 cars from the Canadian Pacific Railway; our charcoal plant just coming into operation, employing in the woods and works 500 men; our first blast furnace starts up on April 1, our second on May 1, and by July 1 we shall have 2,500 men in the woods cutting forest products for these different works, and this number will be required all the year round. The employees around our works will at that time also amount to 2,000 people.

"We have now applications for all of the settlers' land we have surveyed, and I am nearly ready to send our maps down to the Crown Lands Department for the assignment of our land grant. We shall have no difficulty whatever in putting in twice as many settlers as our contract calls for."

WILHELMINA MAY CHOOSE.

Likely to Select Umpire in Disputes Over Venezuelan Claims.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands may be required by the Washington Government to name the umpire who shall pass on the claims of the United States against Venezuela, in the event that the persons named by the United States and Venezuela cannot agree.

STEAMER MINTO STUCK.

Fast in the Ice Off Arisaig, Nova Scotia.

Halifax, Feb. 17.—A telegram received here last evening stated that the steamer Minto, which went to the rescue of the Stanley, has been caught in the ice eleven miles off Arisaig, on the Nova Scotia coast. The Stanley has been sighted fast in the ice three miles from Arisaig.

MAY RUN FOR GALWAY.

Charles Devlin, Canadian Agent at Dublin, a Probable Candidate.

London, Feb. 17.—The name of Chas. Devlin, the Canadian Government agent at Dublin, is favorably discussed as the Nationalist candidate for Galway, where the seat is vacant, owing to the imprisonment of Colonel Lynch. Mr. Devlin holds that Ireland is entitled to a modified system of self-government based on Canadian lines. If elected he would make the seventh Canadian in the Imperial House.

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Nathan Doras a diamond broker of Philadelphia, was robbed of $7,000 worth of diamonds on a street car ten minutes after his arrival here from Cincinnati to-day.

A Woman's Suicide.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Feb. 16.—Edith Sims, aged 33, committed suicide at French River last night. She placed a loaded gun against her side and pulled the trigger, the charge entering her body and death followed seven hours later. She had been melancholy for three years.

NO ARGUMENT NEEDED

EVERY SUFFERER FROM CATARRH KNOWS THAT SALVES, LOTIONS, WASHES, SPRAYS AND DOUCHES DO NOT CURE.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy, which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics, scientifically known as Red Gum, Blood Root and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt, of Rochester, N.Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty-cent box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily, until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask, and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved, until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion aids digestion, improves nutrition, and increases weight and strength. It is pleasant to take, and agrees with the stomach.

Thousands of well-fed people cannot digest and assimilate their food. They therefore get insufficient nourishment, and are slowly starving. Angier's Petroleum Emulsion with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is for such. It helps digest and assimilate the food, cleanses the stomach and bowels, improves nutrition, tones up and invigorates the entire system and thus increases health, weight and strength. Physicians prescribe it for persons who are recovering from any illness that has left them in a weak, "run-down" condition. Get a small bottle, take according to directions and watch results.

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is sold by druggists everywhere. Remember the name and insist on getting Angier's. Large size, $1.00. Small, 50c.

MISS M'LEAN'S DEATH.

Inquest at London on an Ingersoll Girl.

London, Ont., Feb. 17.—An inquest was begun in the case of Berth McLean of Ingersoll, who died here late on Saturday after three days' illness. The evidence of John McLean, a brother of the deceased, was taken, also that of William Ryman of Ingersoll, who had been paying attention to the young woman. Ryman stated that he had been keeping company with deceased for about a year and a half. He was with her at the skating rink at Ingersoll on the Tuesday evening before she came to this city. Deceased had not complained to him of being unwell, but said that she was coming to London to visit an aunt. The brother of deceased stated that he was not aware of his sister's illness, but he knew she was going to visit in this city. Coroner Ferguson adjourned the inquest until Friday evening. It appears that at the boarding house where she was stopping Miss McLean gave the name of Mrs. Moore. A gold watch of hers was found in her room, on which her name was inscribed. The police here then telegraphed to Ingersoll and found that her home was there. The young woman while staying here had her meals brought to her room. Mrs. Williams, with whom the young woman boarded, said that the deceased went out for a short time the first night she was here, and the next time she went out was as a corpse. Mrs. Williams said she had learned through a brother of deceased that the latter had been married when she was fifteen years of age, but that her husband had deserted her.

The Board of Examiners for Ontario Land Surveyors having concluded their session on the 14th inst., the following gentlemen were granted certificates as Ontario land surveyors:—Messrs. Howard Dixon, Eglinton; L. O. Clarke, London; W. B. Anderson, Ottawa; Howell Bigger, Ottawa; R. A. Barrett, Pembroke. The following passed the preliminary examination successfully:—Messrs. E. R. Bingham, Toronto; R. D. McCaw, Welland; Walter Smith, Woodville.

HOW THE GRITS "REDUCED" TAXES.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, in his annual statement of the Public Accounts of Canada, devotes the usual column to "taxes." From Confederation down to the present day "taxes" have occupied a prominent place in the pages of the Finance Minister's statement. The Liberals, led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, pledged themselves to reduce these "taxes," but instead of doing so have increased them by nearly 50 per cent. in six years.

From 1884 to 1890 the Conservatives collected $169,675,994. From 1890 to 1896 the same party called upon the people to pay "taxes" to the amount of $168,865,363, thus effecting a reduction of $810,631, as compared with the corresponding period immediately preceding.

Sir Wilfrid then came into power with his pledges of economy. From 1896 to 1902 his Government has taken from the people in "taxes" $213,558,036, or an increase of $44,693,673 as compared with the last six years of Conservative rule. It was urged for a time that the great development of the country necessitated the increase. The census returns completely exploded this theory, the growth of population from 1891 to 1901 being less than from 1881 to 1891.

Only one explanation can be offered for the enormous increase in taxation. It is due to a reign of unprecedented extravagance on the part of men who staked their right to the confidence of the electorate on their ability to lessen the public burdens.

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back; bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

TIMELY TOPICS.

We would respectfully commend to our theological correspondents the beauty of that axiom which says "Brevity is the Soul of Wit." The Intelligencer cheerfully publishes the letters received, but would gently ask the epistolary gentlemen to keep within reasonable bounds. Letters to newspapers and sermons may fairly be classed in the same category—it isn't the length so much as the breadth of them that counts.

Saturday Night makes an exposure of a low theatre in Toronto which is given up to immoral performances, "a shorthand report of which would be unlawful to print." Yet this theatre flourishes in defiance, or with the connivance, of the police. It is said in explanation of this immunity that the Police Benefit Fund once owned the property, and still holds a mortgage on it. And this in Toronto the Good! However, as people in Belleville remark sometimes, it's good to have something warm in a theatre, one's feet preferably.

The Brantford Expositor, a Grit paper, hands out the following backhanded compliment to Sir Wilfrid Laurier:

> "There is no greater master of the art of keeping silence, or the still more difficult art of talking without saying anything, than the Prime Minister is, as Mr. Tarte ought by this time to know."

Rather a frank admission, that, for a friend to make. But it is heavily freighted with truth. A coiner of meaningless phrases; an opportunist who sets his sails to catch any breeze; one who can say gilded nothings or be as mum as an oyster when people are waiting eagerly for an important pronouncement — these are the claims to "statesmanship" of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION.

(Montreal Gazette.)

"Is the Manitoba School question dead?" is a question asked by the Kingston Whig. So far as the Liberal conscience is concerned it does not seem to be. Each time it is mentioned some Liberal shows signs of inward emotion such as might have disturbed the Iscariot's rest before he did away with himself.

Sheep Thieves in Cobourg

The two sheep and fowl thieves who operated in this locality a couple of weeks ago have been carrying on a similar business at Cobourg and vicinity. This morning Chief Newton received a post card from Chief of Police Ruse, of Cobourg, notifying him to be on the look-out for two men who had been stealing sheep and fowls and selling them to the butchers in Cobourg. They gave their names as James Alexander and John Hamilton, and had evidently carried on quite a business in a short time.

I Will Cure You of Rheumatism

ELSE NO MONEY IS WANTED.

Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer.

I am a specialist in Rheumatism and have treated more cases than any other physician, I think. For 16 years I made 2,000 experiments with different drugs, testing all known remedies, while searching the world for something better. Nine years ago I found a costly chemical in Germany, which, with my previous discoveries, gives me a certain cure.

I don't mean that it can turn bony joints into flesh again; but it can cure the disease at any stage, completely and forever. I have done it fully 100,000 times.

I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism, and I will mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure. Take it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is only $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it.

I mean that exactly. If you say the results are not what I claim, I don't expect a penny from you.

I have no samples. Any mere sample that can affect chronic Rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs, and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood.

My remedy does that even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. It has cured the oldest cases that I ever met. And in all my experience—in all my 2,000 tests—I never found another remedy that would cure one chronic case in ten.

Write me and I will send you the order. Try my remedy for a month, as it can't harm you anyway. If it fails, it is free.

Address Dr. Shoop, Box 69, Racine, Wis. Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

TALKED ON A SUBJECT CLOSE TO HIS HEART

MR. WILLIAM JOHNSON LECTURED ON "BELLEVILLE" LAST NIGHT.

A largely attended meeting of the Epworth League in connection with Holloway Street Methodist Church was held last evening, presided over by Miss Martin, President of the League. After devotional exercises an address was given by Mr. Wm. Johnson, his subject being "Belleville." The speaker gave an admirable address, relating to the early history of the City of the Bay and its growth up to the present time. At the close, on motion of the Pastor, Rev. J. R. Real, seconded by Rev. Mr. Martin, a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Johnson.

Rollicking Robert Reardon

Robert Reardon, who claims Wellington, Prince Edward County, as his home, was arrested last night for drunkenness. This morning the Magistrate allowed him to go. Reardon claims that in the early part of last evening he was attacked in a gangway by two men and relieved of a sum of money. His story, however, is not believed by the police, as he mentioned three different sums being taken from him, namely, $10, $25 and $50.

TURNING DOWN THE DOCTORS.

The marvellous cures of Catarrhozone are being much talked about. Thousands are daily recognizing the exceptional merit of this simple inhaler treatment, and instead of running to the doctor with their winter ills they protect themselves by Catarrhozone; it kills colds in the head in ten minutes, quickly relieves Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Lung Troubles, and cures even though all other remedies have failed. Catarrhozone is very pleasant, safe and convenient to use. Its best recommendation is its enormous sale; try it today. Price $1.00; small size, 25c., at druggists.

Educational Matters

A meeting of the School Management Committee of the Board of Education was held yesterday afternoon, presided over by the Chairman, Mr. W. P. Hudson. Amongst other matters discussed was that of supplying extra supernumerary teachers. It was decided not to engage permanently any more such teachers, but teachers who are compelled to be absent are requested to notify the Chairman immediately who is instructed to provide a supply.

DOMINION OIL CO., LTD,

Chartered Under the Laws of Ontario,

PAID-UP CAPITAL $850,000,

Has pleasure in announcing that the Directors have, WITHOUT COST TO THE SHAREHOLDERS, AND WITHOUT DRAWING A DOLLAR FROM THE RAPIDLY ACCUMULATING TREASURY FUNDS, secured to the Company "360 acres" of oil leases, situated in the Wheatley district, twenty-four miles southwest of the Company's holdings in the Raleigh Oil Fields, and adjoining the several wells recently drilled and operated by the Union Gas & Oil Co. The Directors consider this a very valuable acquisition for the Company, the property having been acquired by them upwards of a year ago for personal development. The contracts are now being made for active development upon this property.

The Gurd Gusher is steadily producing about 100 barrels of oil per day, and the President states:—"I have every reason to expect, as soon as we can make improvements by the installation of an air compressor, that the production will be increased to from 400 to 500 barrels per day."

Owing to the courtesy of the Standard Oil Co. having, without expense to the Dominion Oil Co., Limited, installed a pipe line from the Gurd Gusher, the Company possesses exceptional facilities for marketing this product, which is bringing THE HIGHEST PRICE OF ANY OIL ON THE NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT.

A limited amount of the Treasury Stock is procurable by public subscription for a short time only at

35 Cents Per Share,

(par value $1.00, full paid and non-assessable), the proceeds being devoted to the immediate development of the properties.

A monthly dividend of ONE PER CENT. upon par equalling the rate of about THIRTY-SIX PER CENT. per annum on the investment at the current price, will be paid "March 1st" to all shareholders of record SATURDAY, FEB. 21st, at which date the books close.

Address all inquiries for full information regarding this very profitable investment and make all checks, drafts and orders payable to the

Ever True and Unfailing Are The DIAMOND DYES.

Old friends who are ever ready and able to help us in our time of need are indeed true friends.

Diamond Dyes are the old home friends of our Canadian people, and have proved blessings in thousands of homes. When the heart craved for a new dress, skirt, blouse, jacket, opera shawl, fresh, bright ribbons or feathers at times when economy had to be observed, the Diamond Dyes quickly transformed old and faded garments and materials into new creations, thus saving a large amount of money in the home. If you would have the best results in your dyeing work, always use the Diamond Dyes.

Send your address to The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, 200 Mountain St., Montreal, P.Q., and you will be supplied with new Dye Book, 45 dyed samples and artistic designs of the Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Patterns.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES,

little comfort it was to have her boy lauded as a faithful soldier, and to hear the commendations lavished upon him during the time he lay in state, with his uniform around him; but when the whole was over, and in the gray wintry afternoon her husband returned from Greenwood, there came over her a feeling of such desolation as she had never known—a feeling which drove her at last to the little room upstairs, where sat a lonely man, his head bowed upon his hands, and his tears dropping silently upon the hearthstone as he, too, thought of the vacant parlor below and the new grave at Greenwood.

"Oh, husband, comfort me!" fell from her lips as she tottered to her husband, who opened his arms to receive her, forgetting all the years which had made her the cold, proud woman, who needed no sympathy, and remembering only that bright, green summer when she was first his bride, and came to him for comfort in every little grievance, just as she came to him now in this great, crushing sorrow.

With Mr. Cameron the blow struck deeper, and his Wall Street friends talked together of the old man he had grown since Wilford died, while Katy often found him bending over his long-neglected Bible, as he sat alone in his room at night. And when at last she ventured to speak to him upon the all important subject, he put his hand in hers, and bade her teach him the narrow way which she had found, and wherein Wilford too had walked at the very last, they hoped.

For many weeks Katy lingered in New York, and the June roses were blooming when she went back to Silverton, a widow and rightful owner of all Wilford's ample fortune. They had found among his papers a will, drawn up and executed not long before his illness, and in which Katy was made his heir, without condition or stipulation. All was hers to do with as she pleased, and Katy wept passionately when she heard how generous Wilford had been. Then, as she thought of Marian, and the life of poverty before her, she crept to father Cameron's side, and said to him pleadingly:

"Let Genevra share it with me. She needs it quite as much."

Father Cameron would not permit Katy to divide equally with Marian. It was not just, he said; but he did not object to a few thousands going to her, and before Katy left New York for Silverton, she wrote a long kind letter to Marian, presenting her with ten thousand dollars, which she begged her to accept, not so much as a gift, but as her rightful due. There was a moment's hesitancy on the part of Marian when she read the letter, a feeling that she could not take so much from Katy; but when she looked at the pale sufferers around her, and remembered how many wretched hearts that money would help to cheer, she said:

"I will keep it."

CHAPTER XLVI.

The heat, the smoke, the thunder of the battle were over, and the fields of Gettysburg were drenched with human blood and covered with the dead and dying. The contest had been fearful, and its results carried sorrow and anguish to many a heart looking so anxiously for the names of the loved ones who, on the anniversary of the day which saw our nation's independence, lay upon the hills and plains of Gettysburg, their white faces upturned to the summer sky, and wet with the rain drops, which like tears for the noble dead the pitying clouds had shed upon them. And nowhere, perhaps, was there a whiter face or a more anxious heart that at the farm-house, where both Helen and her mother-in-law were spending the hot July days. Since the Christmas eve when Helen had watched her husband going from her across the wintry snow he had not been back, though several times he had made arrangements to do so. Something, however, had always happened to prevent. Once it was sickness which kept him in bed for a week or more; again his regiment was ordered to advance, and the third time it was sent with others to repel the invaders from Pennsylvania soil. Bravely through each disappointment Helen bore herself, but her cheek always grew paler and her eye darker in its hue when the evening papers came, and she read what progress our soldiery had made, feeling that a battle was inevitable, and praying so earnestly that Mark Ray might be spared. Then, when the battle was over and up the northern hills came the dreadful story of thousands and thousands slain, there was a fearful look in her eye, and her features were rigid as marble, while the quivering lips could scarcely pray for the great fear tugging at her heart. Mark Ray was not with his men when they came from that terriffic onslaught. A dozen had seen him fall, struck down by a rebel ball, and that was all she heard for more than a week, when there came another relay of news.

Captain Mark Ray was a prisoner of war, with several of his own company. An inmate of Libby prison and a sharer from choice of the apartment where his men were confined. As an officer he was entitled to better quarters; but Mark Ray had a large, warm heart, and he would not desert those who had been so faithful to him, and so he took their fare, and by his genial humor and unwavering cheerfulness kept many a heart from fainting, and made the prison life more bearable than it could have been without him. To young Tom Tubbs, who had enlisted six months before, he was a ministering angel, and many times the poor homesick boy crept to the side of his captain, and laying his burning head in his lap, wept himself to sleep and dreamed he was at home again. The horrors of that prison life have never been told, but Mark bore up manfully, suffering less in mind, perhaps, than did the friends at home, who lived, as it were, a thousand years in that one brief summer while he remained in Richmond.

At last, as the frosty days of October came on, they began to hope he might be exchanged, and Helen's face grew bright again, until one day there came a soiled, half-worn letter, in Mark's own handwriting.

It Is The Trusted Friend of Millions

MEN AND WOMEN OF ALL RANKS OF SOCIETY POINT TO

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

AS THEIR RESCUER FROM DISEASE AND DEATH.

Millions on this North American continent know that Paine's Celery Compound makes sick people well.

Paine's Celery Compound is to-day the popular medicine in the wealthy and humbler homes of our vast country. The press has given this wonder-working prescription more note, prominence and praise than has ever been given to any other remedy, and physicians of all schools prescribe it daily.

Paine's Celery Compound has become popular and trusted because its results exceed its promises. It is victorious over sickness and disease. It offers hope and cheer to those pronounced incurable by physicians; it saves such from the grave. It is the one medicine, unfailing and all-powerful that promptly brings true joy and gladness to hopeless victims and their anxious relatives and friends.

It is well to remember that one or two bottles of Paine's Celery Compound will, in the majority of cases, banish tired feelings, weary and clouded brain, headache, debility, constipation, nervousness and sleeplessness, which, if allowed to run unchecked, give rise to serious ailments and diseases. If you are rundown, overworked, have defective digestion and poor circulation, you will obtain blessed results from this grand system-building medicine. Each dose carries new life to all the weak and torpid organs of the body.

When a man wants to talk he nearly always bumps up against some man who doesn't want to listen.

A GUARANTEED CURE

For All Forms of Kidney Disease

We, the undersigned Druggists are fully prepared to give the following guarantee with every 50 cent bottle of Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets, the only remedy in the world that positively cures all troubles arising from weak or diseased kidneys:

"Money cheerfully returned if the sufferer is not relieved and improved after use of one bottle. Three to six bottles effect astonishing and permanent cures. If not relieved and cured, you waste no money."

A blotched, pimply, disfigured face, feeling of exhaustion, wracked nerves, headache and a dull brain. The proper cure is one Ferrozone Tablet after each meal. Ferrozone clears and beautifies the complexion by making rich, pure blood. It restores the enfeebled brain and unstrung nerves to a healthy, vigorous condition. It invigorates all the physical and mental powers, and brings strength and ambition to the depressed. Refuse a substitute for Ferrozone—it's the best tonic, rebuilder and invigorator known. Price 50c., at druggists or J. S. McKeown.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities, which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

A woman never knows where the match box is.

HAD LA GRIPPE.—Mr. A. Nickerson, farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months, when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

The land area of Hawaii is 4,000,000 acres.

Their gentle action and good effect on the system really make them a perfect little pill. They please those who use them. Carter's Little Liver Pills may well be termed 'Perfection.'

When one gets hopping mad his reason goes on a crutch.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 212 to 112 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

Signed, JEAN VALCOURT,

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly, subdues the pain and disease.

Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing these troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

Pride is a sign of the worst poverty—ignorance.

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in the pills. They affect the nerve centres and the blood in a surprisingly active way, and the result is almost immediately seen.

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes; "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

TIMELY TOPICS

We are fast losing faith in that yarn about Candlemas Day and the bear.

* * *

Every day seems to bring its troubles for the man behind the snow shovel.

In conversation with an Alderman last night a representative of The Intelligencer learned that the proposed saving in connection with the civic offices is more than we have yet stated. It seems that, in addition to the $410 already credited by us, the Council proposes to dispense with the services of Mr. Lewis Soule, thus saving $500 per year, and also proposes to compel the City Clerk, whoever he may be, to perform the duties of Police Court Clerk free, gratis, for nothing. This arrangement, if carried out, will make the saving in salaries $1110 per year.

It has been admitted by everyone who ever sat on the Board of Water Commissioners that Mr. Soule was a very valuable man to the Corporation. His mechanical ability in connection with waterworks matters has never been questioned. The Council's idea, it seems, is to have no permanent expert mechanic to look after the waterworks service, but to let the Superintendent (who will also be Street Surveyor) look after the matter and hire expert help as he needs it.

This plan may work successfully, but people who, like Mr. Walter Alford, through association with the Waterworks department should be in a position to judge, say it will not work at all. The duties of Street Surveyor, they say, are quite onerous enough to require the individual attention of one man in the summer, and that, in short, half-management of the Waterworks would be equivalent to mismanagement. In the winter time the Street Surveyor would have ample time to look after the Waterworks, but if anything went wrong he would have to hire a mechanic to do whatever work was necessary, whereas Mr. Soule has always done the work himself.

There is no getting around the fact that a very large sum of money has been invested by the City on the waterworks, and in order to get a fair return the works must be properly managed and properly run. Perhaps the Council have outlined the best scheme in connection with them, but they are certainly going contrary to the views of most of the gentlemen who have before been connected with the management of the works.

As to the salary of the Police Court Clerk, The Intelligencer was told some time ago that that position was in the gift of the Board of Police Commissioners, and that the Council had nothing to do with it. It now seems (according to the Alderman above quoted) that Mr. J. J. B. Flint, chairman of the Board of Police Commissioners, is quite willing to fall into line with any plan proposed by the Council as to saving in salaries, so in future the gentleman who acts as City Clerk and Police Court Clerk will receive $700 per year.

* * *

It cannot be denied by anyone that a saving of $1110 per year is a very good showing. We congratulate the Council, at the same time sincerely trusting that there may not be also a decided saving in that great desideratum—efficiency.

CLARK BABY'S DEATH.

The Inquest at Collingwood Resumed.

Collingwood, Feb. 17.—The Coroner's inquest into the death of the infant child of Alex. H. Clark was resumed at 2 p.m. before Coroner Stephens. Upon the opening of the court Crown Attorney Cotter announced that Mr. John Birnie, K.C., had been retained by the Crown, and would conduct the examination of the witnesses.

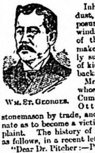
The first witness called was Rev. Mr. Grant, pastor of the Baptist church here. He remembered the interview he had with Mrs. Clark after the death of the infant, when she told him that shortly after drinking the beer she was taken with a violent fit of vomiting and afterwards fainted, and remained in an unconscious condition all the night, and when she woke up found the baby lying in the bed dead.

The next witness called was Mrs. Clark, wife of the prisoner. She is a rather pretty woman, with good features and complexion, and entirely self-possessed. She was subjected to an extremely rigid examination by Mr. Birnie, which brought out several new points. She occasionally contradicted herself, although she deliberated long after each question. She related how her husband brought home the oysters and the beer, of which they partook about 9 o'clock in the evening. She gave the baby some of the dregs of the beer. She said before the beer was drunk her husband put some white sugar in it, out of the sugar-bowl. She did not know there was any poison in the house or any cheese with poison on it till after the baby was dead. She afterwards said to Mr. Birnie that the cheese with the poison in it was in the corner of the pantry, on the floor. When her attention was called to the fact that her husband said it was on the shelf she was confused, and refused to answer. She denied that she had been vomiting through the night or had fainted or remained unconscious, as related by Rev. Mr. Grant. She must have been mixed when she told him that. She also denied telling Mrs. Foulis or Mrs. Thompson that her husband had put the baby in the night at the foot of the bed after it was dead, or that her husband had tried to give it castor oil. She characterized these statements as lies, and said the neighbors were trying to "chip" her. She several times refused to give any more evidence, and it required considerable coaxing to get her to resume. She said her husband loved her and the baby, and always treated them well. It was at her instigation that the insurance was put on her life and the child's. Although the beer she drank was very bitter, she did not think there was anything wrong with it, but it was just old, as her husband said. When asked by Mr. Birnie how she and her husband could quietly sleep with a baby lying between them dying of strychnine poison, which would produce strong convulsions, she made no answer, and after a two-hours' searching examination she left the box without having said anything that would absolutely commit her husband.

The analysis of the contents of the child's stomach by Prof. Ellis was then read to the jury. It was to the effect that strychnine and alcohol were found in the stomach.

AN OTTAWA MASON AGAIN AT WORK.

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets completely cure him of a serious attack of Kidney Trouble and Backache.



Wm. St. Georges.

Inhalation of fine dust, heavy lifts, exposure to chilling winds—these are some of the things which make masons generally subject to attacks of kidney trouble and backache.

Mr. Wm. St. Georges, whose home is 651 Cumberland Street, Ottawa, Ont., is a stonemason by trade, and was so unfortunate as to become a victim of kidney complaint. The history of his case he gives as follows, in a recent letter:

"Dear Dr. Pitcher:—Permit me to write and thank you for your Backache Kidney Tablets which have done me so much good.

"I suffered for two long years from weak back and kidney trouble. Last year I was completely used up so that I lost all courage, and had no hope of recovering. No one could do anything for me.

"During the first week of April last, I met with a friend of mine and he advised me to take your Kidney Tablets. I thought I would try one box, and after I had finished this I felt so much better that I continued the Tablets until I had used in all six boxes. Every box I took made me feel better and stronger till now I am perfectly cured.

"I am now as strong and healthy as ever I was in my life and can attend to my work, which is very heavy, as I am a stonemason. I feel confident from the benefit I received that anyone suffering from lame back or kidney trouble will not be disappointed if they take your Tablets.

Yours truly,
Wm. St. Georges."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are the most effectual remedy known to science for promptly relieving and permanently curing backache, lame or weak back, swelling of the feet and legs, scalding or irritation of the urine, sediment, brick dust deposits, neuralgia, rheumatism, specks floating before the eyes, pain in the head, torpid liver, kidney troubles of old people, bed-wetting of children, and all forms of kidney, bladder and urinary diseases. Price 50c. a bottle or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto.

NORT YORK CAMPAIGN.

Messrs. Davis and Lennox Address a Joint Meeting at Aurora.

Aurora, Feb. 17.—The first joint meeting in the North York campaign passed off without riot or bloodshed. It was, in fact, a distinctly orderly and good-natured meeting, at which strong partisans stood for four hours tightly wedged against one another without losing their temper. The two candidates were the only speakers. Mr. Davis spoke first, dealing admirably with the administration of the Ross Government. Mr. Lennox dealt exclusively with the settlement of the protest, and Mr. Davis replied to him on that question. The audience gave each a candidate a fair hearing.

Mr. Lennox renewed his challenge and offer to resign if Judge Morgan would state that the $800 costs was fixed by him after cutting down both bills of costs as the excess of Mr. Lennox's cost over Mr. Davis'. He said that the amount represented all of his costs. He read a formal statement to this effect, and, drawing a Bible from his pocket, swore that what he said was true. In reference to the employment of alleged detectives by him, Mr. Lennox said that it was through one of these detectives that he had learned that Mr. Davis had paid a hotelkeeper's wife $5 to promote temperance.

Mr. Davis in opening his reply said that one speech such as they had listened to, delivered on the floor of Parliament, would kill any member's usefulness in that body for all time to come. He (Mr. Lennox) had spoken for an hour and twenty minutes without referring to a single public question. He had not discussed a single public question. Mr. Davis explained fully the circumstances attending the publication of the item in The Globe, describing the differences in the make-up of the first and second editions of The Globe, which caused the absence of the item in the second edition. Mr. Davis insisted on the accuracy of his telegrams and of Judge Morgan's statement. As to Premier Ross' interview, in which he said that no member of the Government had resigned, Mr. Davis said that he was present when Mr. Ross gave the interview for The Telegram reporter. Mr. Ross did not say that no member of the Cabinet intended to resign. Mr. Ross was familiar with the arrangement that had been made. He had consulted Mr. Ross, as he had the other members of the Cabinet who were available, in regard to the settlement.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

British Live Stock Trade Firmer—Grain is Higher.

Monday Evening, Feb. 16.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

The receipts of grain and other produce on the street market here to-day were light. The demand was fair and prices were generally steady. As the fall of snow last night and this morning was light in this section of the country and the roads are getting into a better condition, the offerings to-morrow should be larger.

Wheat—Was steady, 100 bushels of white selling at 72c and 200 bushels of goose at 67½c.

Barley—Is steady; 200 bushels sold at 47c to 50c.

Oats—Were steady, 300 bushels selling at 36c to 36½c.

Hay and Straw—The receipts were not large, but apparently sufficient to meet the demand, and prices were steady, 20 loads of hay selling at $12 to $14 for timothy and $8 to $9 for mixed, and three loads of straw at $9 to $10.

Dressed Hogs—There were none offered, but prices were nominally unchanged at $7.50 to $7.75 for heavy and $7.75 to $8 for lights.

The Visible Supply.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

Montreal, Feb. 16.—Grain—Business continues very slow in all lines, but prices are firm owing to the limited supply. We quote:—No. 2 white oats, 37¼c to 37½c ex-store, 31¼c high freights; peas, 72c high freights; buckwheat, 48½c to 49c east on the G.T.R.

Flour—The market is quiet and unchanged. We quote:—Choice Manitoba spring wheat patents, $4.40 to $4.50; seconds, $4.10 to $4.20; strong bakers', $3.70; winter wheat patents, $3.85 to $4.10; straight rollers, $3.70 to $3.80; do in bags, $1.70 to $1.75; extras, $1.60 to $1.65.

Meal—There is a small jobbing trade at $3.90 to $4 per barrel and at $1.85 per bag.

Feed—The market is fairly active at firm prices. We quote:—Manitoba bran firm prices; Manitoba shorts, $21 to $22; Ontario bran in bulk, $18; shorts, $20, and moulle $23 to $28, as to quality.

Cheese—The market is quiet and easy, with prices nominal at 13¼c to 13½c for finest.

Butter—The market is dull and weak. Finest winter made creamery is selling at 22c to 22½c, finest held creamery at 21c to 21½c, fine at 20c to 20½c and western dairy in rolls at 17½c to 18c.

Eggs—There is a fair jobbing trade at steady prices. We quote:—Montreal limed, 11c to 12c; cold storage, 10c, and western limed 10c per dozen.

Provisions—The market is quiet, but prices are steady. We quote:—Heavy Canadian short cut mess pork, $24; Canada short cut back pork, $23 to $23.50; light Canadian short clear pork, $22.50 to $23; finest kettle lard, in 20-lb pails, 12¼c; extra pure lard, in 20-lb pails, 10¾c to 11¼c; choice refined compound lard, 8¼c to 9c; Boar's Head brand, in 20-lb wood pails, $1.96 to $2.06; Globe, $1.75 to $1.85; 20-lb tin pails, ¼c less per lb; hams 13½c to 14c and bacon 14c to 15c per lb.

Porridge--
a la Chimney

Your chimney is heated (dried) by the same principle as the common "direct heat" process dries oats.

The smoke and soot have their innings on the oats equally with the heat, —theory is that the oats are taken out just after the hull loosens and before the smoke gets at the kernel.

But like many other theories, the practice is different— results in smoke-and-soot flavored porridge.

Tillson's Pan-Dried process heats pure air without contact with smoke, filters it and applies it scientifically to the oats.

There is no other Pan-Dried oats but Tillson's.

Yours for the asking and a little more.

Before taking stock February 28 we wish to close out a goodly portion of our much too heavy stock of Fancy Goods—comprising China, Art Pottery, Brass Goods, Lamps, Vases, Candlesticks, Candle shades, Pictures, Jardinieres, Leather Goods, etc.

We will make the inducement doubly tempting that all who wish may have and may buy abundantly.

To this end we open fire with the publication of this advertisement and offer all Fancy goods at the mammoth discount of 30 per cent. from regular prices.

This means $10 of goods for........................ $7
$1 of goods for........................ 70c

YES, and we will go one better—Will give you 40 per cent. off if you accept a due bill for the discount, same due bill being good at any time for any goods in our store, including Wall Papers, Picture Framing, Paper Hanging, Stationery, Books, etc. This means 10 dollars of goods for 6 dollars.

AGAIN—to this sale we add the balance of our 1902 wall paper stock at the same discounts—30 per cent. regular.
40 per cent. due bill.

We mean in this way to close out every roll of last year's papers, and have nothing but 1903 papers for our customers.

HOW TO BE CURED OF PILES WITHOUT PAIN.

First: Change from sedentary occupation to wisely chosen, more active work.

Second: From indoor to outdoor life.

Third: From wrong to right clothing.

Fourth: From unhealthy, rich living, to a mild hygienic diet.

Fifth, sixth and last, use Pyramid Pile Cure regularly, and according to directions, for it is the right cure for the trouble, and will cure you as it has hundreds of others.

Don't wait until you are a helpless invalid, for a seemingly simple case of hemorrhoids, or piles, may, if neglected, rapidly lead to worse. The unnatural formations become tumorous and permanent, and the inflammation grows until abscesses form; the disease burrows into the tissues, forming tubular growths which discharge pus; cancerous conditions, and general gangrenous degeneration appear.

What is needed at the start, or at any stage, is something to soothe this inflammation, reduce the swelling and distention, at the same time restores the diseased parts to normal condition. These three things are accomplished perfectly by the Pyramid Pile Cure. It checks all progress of the disease, and rapidly returns the affected parts to health, besides relieving at once the pain and fearful irritation.

"I began using Pyramid Pile Cure, and in order to make sure of a cure bought five packages; for the past six weeks I have not been troubled in the least, and I had been bothered for thirty-five years, and had spent more than fifty dollars for different remedies; this is the first permanent help I have had, and no one could feel more grateful than I do."—L. M. Williams, Conneaut, Ohio.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists generally for fifty cents a package, and we urge all sufferers to write Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their valuable little book describing the cause and cure of piles.

Court Quinte Booming

Court Quinte, No. 7586, of the Ancient Order of Foresters, held their regular meeting last evening in the Foresters' Hall. In spite of the inclement weather a very good turnout resulted. One of the features of the evening was the initiation of three new candidates into the mysteries of Ancient Forestry. Thirteen new propositions were received and are to be balloted for at the next regular meeting. It was a pleasure to see Bro. Bateman back in his old place in Court Quinte, after nearly a year's sickness. Songs and recitations were given by various members, and at the conclusion refreshments were served.

A Prominent Labor Man of Toronto Speaks of the Great Benefit He Received Through the Use of O. R. Kidney Cure.

Toronto, Nov. 16, 1902.

To the O. R. Medicine Co., Limited:

Gentleman,—I certainly owe you a letter of thanks for the benefit I have received through the use of your O. R. Kidney Cure and Liver Pills. I am a carpenter, and have been greatly handicapped in my work through being troubled with lame back and sore kidneys. I doctored without receiving any benefit, and would be compelled to quit work for a week at a time. I was very bad, and could hardly walk when I heard of the O. R. Kidney Cure. I procured a bottle and in less than one hour after taking the first dose I was relieved of the pain, and in three days I was at work, and have been at work every day since. I followed up the Kidney Cure by the use of the O. R. Liver Pills, taking one after dinner, and have never felt better than at the present time. I believe that I am permanently cured.

Sincerely yours,
M. A. MERRITT.

Died in Toronto

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, formerly of this city, now of Havelock, heard with regret some time ago, that their little daughter, Mona, was suffering from diabetes and was in Toronto under the care of a specialist. It was said that the little one was improving, but to-day the news was received of her death, which occurred yesterday afternoon. The deceased child was of a bright, sunny disposition, and many in this city will sympathize with the bereaved parents in their affliction.

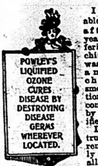
Choking With Bronchitis.

Madame Gauthier, of Montreal Suffered for Two Long Years Before She Obtained Any Relief.

Then She Tried Powley's Liquified Ozone—The Disease Germs Were Speedily Destroyed and She Was Better.

She Is Now Completely Cured and Pronounces Ozone a Truly Marvelous Remedy.



I rejoice to be able to state that after two long years of great suffering from bronchitis, in which I was the victim of a most distressing choking and smothering sensation, I have been completely cured by Powley's Liquified Ozone.

I consider it a truly marvelous remedy and warmly recommend it to all.

(Signed) MME. T. GAUTHIER,
701 St. Paul St., Montreal, P.Q.

MADAME GAUTHIER.

The following are brief extracts from the letters of a few of the many hundreds of persons who have been cured of bronchial affections by Powley's Liquified Ozone:

JOHN M. SMITH,

225 Wellington street, London, says: "I suffered from chronic bronchitis from childhood. I tried every remedy I could hear of, but got no relief until I got Ozone. I consider it a great boon to humanity, and hope the public soon learns to appreciate it."

MRS. B. HENDREN,

53 St. Clarens ave., Toronto, says: "For four or five years I suffered terribly from bronchitis and asthma. I tried all kinds of remedies but got no better. Ozone helped me at once. Since commencing to take it I have gained 20 pounds in weight, have much greater vitality and sleep splendidly, something I could never do before."

J. W. KIRKUP,

[illegible] St. Urbain street, Montreal, says, "I had taken but two bottles of Powley's Liquified Ozone when I was cured of a very serious attack of bronchitis, and to-day I am entirely free from this trouble. I consider this remedy the greatest discovery of the age for curing disease."

Ozone Is a Healer and Cannot Injure.

Many drug preparations used to alleviate the symptoms in pulmonary and bronchial affections give a certain amount of temporary relief, but at the same time prove injurious to different organs of the body. This is especially true in the case of persons with weak stomachs. Powley's Liquified Ozone contains no drugs, and instead of irritating a delicate stomach, soothes and heals it. In fact it is impossible for Ozone to prove anything but beneficial to every organ of the body. It simply cures disease by destroying the disease germs that cause it.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is sold only by reliable dealers—never peddlers. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. Our free book on receipt of name and address.

DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION ?

REV. MR. FRASER DEALS EXHAUSTIVELY AND COMPREHENSIVELY WITH THE QUESTION.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—Men are born into the world in a state of loss, of sin and condemnation, through their natural birth in the line of Adam (in 3, 6, Rom. 5, 12—21, &c.) and they universally prove themselves sinners by their actual transgressions as they grow in years. They need a forgiveness from heaven, implying also help against the civil state into which their first birth brought them. This is provided in Christ, the second Adam. (See Rom., 5, 12, &c.) Now St. Peter, Christ's apostle, on the Day of Pentecost, told those who were "pricked in their hearts" for their sin, and asked what they should do, how the needed blessing was to be entered into. "Repent," he said, "and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost, for the promise is unto you and to your children, &c. (Acts, 2, 37—39). Corresponding to this was the urgent word of God's messenger to Saul, who had been miraculously converted to Christ, "And now, why tarriest thou? Arise and be baptized and wash away thy sins, calling upon the name of the Lord," (Acts, 22, 16), as if he would say "there is no time to be lost; do not delay to secure, by the appointed means this great benefit which Christ has provided for you." This would be clear enough from the plain words of scripture if men had not formed systems which required the plain words to be explained away. From the beginning it was not so. These words were taken in their plain, natural sense through all the ages till these latter days. And now as regards the terms "being born again," "regeneration"—the same in the Greek—as the evil state of men came to them with their first birth into the world in the line of Adam, the introduction into the better state through Christ, the second Adam, (which was so preached on the day of Pentecost by St. Peter to the multitude, and afterwards to St. Paul by God's messenger, Ananias, as being by baptism), could with great propriety bear the name of a new birth of water, and the Spirit, and our Lord, who intended to institute this baptism would naturally describe it so, in speaking to a Master of Israel to whom a baptism, under the name of a new birth, would be familiar, in that baptism which the Jews practiced upon heathen proselytes to their religion. It was of this baptism He intended to institute, that He spoke in those terms. When our Lord said to Nicodemus (M.. 3, 3.) "Except a man be born again (or from above) he cannot see the Kingdom of God," "see" being explained afterwards as used in the sense of have a part in, "enter into." Nicodemus, not understanding, asked an explanation (v. 14). Now if our Lord had meant to speak of some kind of spiritual birth entirely apart from water, He surely would have said "Beware of associating this new birth with water, as in the case of the new birth which the Jews speak of, which the proselytes undergo. The birth I now speak of differs from that in being entirely dissociated from water. It is a new birth in which the Spirit acts without any material instrumentality. Except a man be born thus of the cleansing spirit from above he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, &c. Instead of anything like this, however, our Lord's explanation brings in the "water" along with the "Spirit," thus suggesting to Nicodemus himself and to all our Lord's own disciples for long ages, a wonderful baptism with water inwardly efficacious by the action of the Spirit therein upon the soul. On the supposition that He did not refer to Christian baptism, what a strange explanation for Him to give! One not as plain as the original saying and sure to lead to misunderstanding and error. On the supposition that He did mean Christian baptism when He spoke of being "born again," we can easily see how His adding the word "water to the "Spirit" would throw light on the subject and show Nicodemus what He was speaking of—it would be really an explanation, as the words "enter into" were an explanation of the word "see," while otherwise it would be only an invitation to error. These words of our Lord in St. John III., were anciently always understood of Christian baptism with the blessing which the apostles and first teachers of the gospel taught accompanied it. As the "judicious" Hooker said, appealing to the knowledge of those who were in his time suggesting a different meaning, "Of all the ancients there is not one to be named that ever did otherwise, either expound or allege the place than as implying external baptism. Shall that which hath always received this and no other construction be now disguised with the toy of novelty." With your permission, Mr. Editor, I shall in one or more succeeding letters speak of the passages of the New Testament which refer to "the word" in connection with the new birth and and of other significant indications there of the truth of "Baptismal Regeneration," as well as deal with some objections raised to that doctrine. As your space, I am sure, would not permit of my including in one letter all that I should like to have said together I shall now only refer to some things which have been brought forward by Dr. Lambly and Mr. Gilliland. St. Paul speaking to Titus (Titus 3; 5) says, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done (rather 'which we did ourselves.' See Rev. Vers.), but according to His mercy He saved us. (See Jude 3, compared with 1st Cor. 10; 1, 2.) by the washing (or laver) of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost." (M. 3; 3, 5, Acts 22; 16, Eph. 5; 25, 26). With all due respect to Dr. Lambly our Christian Baptism is not a "work of righteousness which we did ourselves," even if we were baptized as adults, but a work of the Holy Spirit which we submitted to (1 Cor. 12; 13). Faith is more truly in a sense a 'work of righteousness' which we did ourselves (M. 6; 23, 29). As Dr. L. says "Regeneration is God's act applying the blood of Christ to the penitent believing soul." True, but we would say, by way of amendment, "to the penitent believing soul in the case of adults," and add in Holy Baptism, His own appointed way (M. 3; 5, Acts 2; 30, Rom. 6; 3). St. Peter did not teach that conversion and regeneration are "simultaneous" when he said Acts 3; 19, "Repent ye therefore and be converted that your sins may be blotted out." Had those to whom he preached asked how he would have said in effect "By God's application of the blood of Christ to your souls in the "washing of regeneration," in Christian Baptism, in accordance with his answer on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2; 37, 39. And this "washing of regeneration" is not only for "penitent and believing" adults, but for the little children born into this sinful world. If they are to be baptized at all they MUST receive regeneration, for baptism cannot be an essentially different thing to the infant and adult; and Christ taught that it was His will that infants should be regenerated in Holy Baptism, for He taught that they had a claim to a place in the Kingdom of God to be set up by Him on earth (Mk. 10; 14). He declared that entrance into it was only by the new birth in baptism (M. 3; 5), except a man be born of water, etc., which in the Greek is, "Except anyone, etc." He taught also that the reason for this new birth being necessary was one which applied to all who had part in the first birth from Adam (M. 3; 6) "That which is born of the flesh is flesh," etc., and He taught further that infants who had a claim to a place in His Kingdom were capable of receiving a blessing from Him, the second Adam (Mk. 10; 16). And why should they not receive the blessing of the new birth offered in Holy Baptism, through the Second Adam, in unconscious infancy, when in the same unconscious infancy they are inheritors of the evil from the first Adam which the second came to remedy? For those and other reasons found in Holy Scripture we are sure that infants not only ought to be baptized but that they have regeneration from God in Holy Baptism, as well as penitent and believing adults. Adults, indeed, must be conformed in a measure by God's Grace, to the likeness of infants if THEY would have it (Mk. 10.; 15). Christ's making the water of Baptism necessary to any of our race entering the Kingdom of God on earth and appointing it as the means of their being received into the state of salvation, does not mean that infants dying unbaptized must "perish everlastingly." Christ's rule for us in such a matter does not necessarily bind HIMSELF. I think, however, He would have us fear loss for our children if we neglect His will for children DO suffer both temporally and spiritually for the faults of their parents, and the guilt we bring on ourselves is certainly great if we neglect so simple and easy a means of bringing Christ's blessing to our children (Mk. 10; 14). As for adults dying unbaptized, for those who have had a full and fair and sufficient opportunity of knowing and believing and receiving the appointed means, we can have little hope but we attempt not to judge who may or may not belong to this class; and as for those Holy, Christ-loving men and women of whom mention is made who have lived and died unbaptized, if there are any such, it must have happened through no fault of their own, and we need not doubt that as God gave them faith, the tithe, He did not fail to bless and save them in some way through His dear Son, both in this world and the other. In fine, WE may not hurry to make exceptions to an appointed rule of God FOR US but HE may make as many as He pleases. Belief in our Lord Jesus Christ is held by all Christians to be an appointed means of salvation. Who says that all who hold that must hold ALSO that all in all circumstances who fail to believe in Him must "perish everlastingly?" Be as fair to those who believe in Baptism as an appointed means. We all hold that the Lord of all the earth will do RIGHT.

Yours,
J. F. FRASER.

SPORTING COMMENT.

The boys won their game in Kingston last night, as was expected, and, also as expected, ran up against a "rough house" of the most strenuous kind. Many of them are nursing bruises to-day, and Brown, the plucky and clever cover point, is still suffering from being struck, by a spectator, with a hockey stick, or axe, or offensive weapon of some description. It's lucky a Kingston man didn't get used that way in this city. The Whig man would have been throwing fits and turning handsprings for a month. However, the boys came home with the long end of the score, also about 75 bruises, more or less, and, as the respectable people of Kingston gave them fair treatment they are not doing any complaining. But why doesn't the Whig hypnotize those coyotes and compel them to use a visiting team properly?

Well, the lads have played eight straight games (counting the exhibition games) and have not yet met a defeat. What will they do on Thursday night? Ask us something easy. The excitement is just commencing. We have a kind of a notion that the boys will win the next round in much the same way they did the first. Good luck to them, anyway, will be the wish of everybody.

The Toronto Wellingtons are going to do the baby act and default to Cornwall because the O.H.A. wouldn't change its ruling to suit them. Thus the Cornwalls, if they can win the O.H.A. senior championship (which seems likely) will be the next to play for the Stanley Cup. At this distance it looks as though the Iron Dukes, though good hockey players, are poor sportsmen.

HOCKEY.

The Boys Were Up Against it in Dear Old Kingston, but Won Their Game.

About thirty enthusiasts accompanied Belleville's intermediate O.H.A. team to Kingston yesterday, and saw them trim the Ramblers neatly and decisively by a score of 6 to 2, the local lads thus winning the round by a score of 13 to 2. The teams were the same as those which played in Belleville on Friday night last, and the game of just about the same description. The Ramblers played a consistently rough game, and the referee, Dr. Weatherhead, of Brockville, ruled many of them off. Most of the Kingston men did not seem to know what clean hockey consisted of, and appeared to think that everything went except biting. The referee tried to be fair, but appeared to be slightly afraid of the rough element in the bleachers. The match had an unfortunate ending. Brown, of the local team, being struck on the head and knocked senseless by a spectator who had rushed out on the ice. He soon recovered, however, and is no worse for the incident. The better portion of the crowd appeared to sympathize with the Belleville team, but the coal-heavers and dock wallopers had blood in their eye. They had their thumbs up all the time. In the first half the Red and White fellows scored twice to the enemy's once. They were taking things easy and avoiding mix-ups as much as possible. In the last half, however, they got busy and scored four goals to the Ramblers' one. The latter roughed it viciously in the last half, and the referee ruled several of them off for five minutes at a time. The final score was 6 to 2. Just about a minute before the game concluded Kennedy's check (who had been fouling him all night) deliberately slashed Belleville's wing man over the hand so that he could not hold his stick, and they got into a mix-up, in which nobody was being badly hurt, when three of the spectators jumped the fence and rushed to the assistance of the Kingston player. Brown butted in to see that Kennedy was not maltreated, when one of the spectators, who had no right on the ice, handed Belleville's cover point a beauty on top of the head with a hockey stick. He went down and out, and Sanford, the trainer, carried him up to the dressing room, where he soon recovered, and is now, barring a cut on top of his cranium, not much worse for the incident. The better portion of the Kingston people were extremely mortified and sorry, and "Jim" Sutherland, one of the leading hockey men, threatens to have the party who struck Brown arrested if he can find him. "Chic" Herald, son of Dr. Herald, was very kind to the Belleville boys, and was unremitting in his attentions to Brown after the assault.

The Belleville team was in good form. McGuire stuck to his position and fairly played his check to a standstill. Wallace and Kennedy were also stars and the whole team played hockey which gained them liberal applause from the fair-minded portion of the spectators. The boys are naturally in high spirits over winning in the face of such conditions, and promise to do their best to keep up their winning gait when they tackle either Port Perry or the Marlboros on Thursday night.

Good Games in the Rink Last Night.

Two matches took place at the rink last evening between the teams of the City League. There were a goodly number of spectators present, who thoroughly enjoyed the sport provided:

Mayflowers vs. Bankers.

The Mayflowers and Bankers were the first teams to line up for action, and from the commencement to the finish it was a hard-fought game, resulting at last in a victory for the Mayflowers by a score of 7 to 3. At half-time the winners had scored 3 to 0. During the early part of the game Adams received a hard knock upon the knee, which laid him off some time, and Cook also received a bad cut on the right ear. At times there were some funny mix-ups, much to the delight of the spectators. The teams were composed of the following players:

Mayflowers.		Bankers.
	Goal
Dolan		Browley
	Point
Bullis		Bremner
	Cover point.
Belair		Patterson
	Centres.
Cook		Steele
Adams		Bell
	Wings
Spangenberg		Lipscombe
Weller		R. Hamilton

Goal umpires—S. Harte and L. Hyman; time-keepers, Messrs. H. Burrell and A. Vandervoort.

Colts vs. O.B.C.

The second game was between the Colts and O.B.C. This proved to be the hardest-fought game, both teams working hard to secure a victory. When half-time was up the score was 1 and 1, and both teams were confident and full of fight. Shortly after the second half of the game had started the Colts secured a second goal, and scored again 2 minutes before time was up. Although the college boys made some good rushes and shots on goal, they were unable to get the puck into the net. At the finish of the game the score was 3 to 1 in favor of the Colts. The players and their positions were as follows:

Colts		O.B.C.
	Goal
W. Hamilton		Boyle
	Point
Wilson		Leclair
	Cover.
Acton		Smith
	Centres.
Brennan		Grady
Hanley		Manning
	Wings.
Hough		Bennett
Thompson		Pringle

Goal umpires—L. Hyman and Geo. Wilson.

Mr. Wm. Burke refereed both games and his decisions were generally satisfactory.

During the progress of the games the result of the contest at Kingston was announced and the news that our boys were ahead was received with loud acclaim, the final score being hailed with much delight.

SPORTING NOTES.

Cobourg has dropped the protest against the Kingston Juniors, who will play Varsity Third here to-morrow night.

Vignaux (French) badly defeated Slosson (American) in the second game of the International Billiard Championship Tournament.

Napanee beat Deseronto last night by 12 to 4, on the former's ice.

The return game between the Marlboros and Port Perry in the intermediate O.H.A. series will be played at the Mutual Street Rink, Toronto, to-night. Port Perry won at home by 7 to 6, but the Marlboros, who played a draw game, six all, with the St. Georges Saturday night, are confident of beating Port Perry in the series. The winners will tackle Belleville in the next round. E. H. Telfer will referee the game.

THE FIRE RECORD.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM A WALLACEBURG HOTEL.

The Johnson House Destroyed by Fire—Blaze at Mount Brydges and the Occupant of the House Missing—Blaze at Hamilton.

Wallaceburg, Feb. 17.—The Johnson House, owned and occupied by B. A. Johnson, was completely destroyed at an early hour yesterday. The fire had gained so much headway before being discovered by one of the guests in the hotel that there was no possibility of saving the building or contents. The inmates were aroused as quickly as possible and all got out, a number losing nearly all their clothing. Loss on building and contents about $4,000. Partly covered by insurance.

London, Ont. Feb. 17.—The residence of Frank Kindred on the Adelaide road at Mount Brydges was burned yesterday. Mr. Kindred kept house alone, and as nothing was seen of him by the persons coming to town, who discovered the ruins of the house, the conjecture has arisen that he perished in the flames.

Hamilton, Feb. 17.—Fire started in the rear parlor of Mr. W. A. Douglas' residence, 16 King street west, about 6.30 a.m. yesterday, in a manner unknown, and damage to the extent of nearly $1,000 was done. Considerable excitement prevailed for a while, there being several boarders in the house at the time, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas received some burns in trying to extinguish the blaze and save the furnishings. The department was called out, but the parlors were left a wreck. Two pianos, one of which belonged to Mr. Alfred Tory, were damaged. Mr. Douglas was attending to the furnace when his wife ran down to the cellar and cried out that the parlor was on fire. Mrs. Douglas was in the room when the fire started.

THE WHITE PLAGUE.

The Treatment of Tuberculosis in Germany.

Berlin, Feb. 17.—Yesterday the Chancellor sent to the Reichstag a memorandum on tuberculosis treatment, showing that out of 1,000 deaths in Germany of persons between the ages of 15 and 60, 316 die from tuberculosis alone. The mortality of the whole population averaged 242 per 100,000 yearly. The health officer found that consumption can best be treated in special hospitals. The statistics of 1896 to 1901 showed that on the average out of a hundred cases treated 87.7 were dismissed as cured or improved, 8.8 as no better, 3.1 as worse, and that 0.4 died.

A BRANDON FORGERY.

Banks Swindled Out of Several Thousand Dollars.

Winnipeg, Feb. 17.—Quite a sensation has been created at Brandon by the discovery that a number of banking institutions, notably the British North America and the Imperial, have been swindled to the extent of several thousand dollars by the operations of a smooth young farmer named L. S. Paterson. It appears that young Paterson some time ago discovered how easy a matter it would be to raise money on warehouse receipts. Blank warehouse receipt books were generally left about the offices of elevators and grain warehouses. A number of blanks were torn out, and the names of the warehousemen forged thereon. Then the receipts were taken out to the bank and large amounts of money raised on them. In one or two cases the name of J. Crawford, warehouseman for Mr. E. O'Reilly, was forged, and the money raised at the banks. One or two other elevator people were victimized in the same way. Some time ago the same game was successfully worked at Wapella. No arrest has yet been made, as the supposed guilty party has decamped.

FARM LABOR PROBLEM.

The Government Adopts Practical Measures.

Toronto, Feb. 17.—The scarcity of farm labor in Ontario was the subject of a conference Monday between Premier Ross and a deputation representing the County Councils of York, Ontario and Simcoe Counties. Mr. C. E. Lundy of Newmarket headed the party, which included Councillors Johnston, Kirby, Pugsley, Hill and Rogers, and Clerk J. A. Ramsden from York; Councillor Alex. Hardy from Ontario and Warden Broomfield and Councillors Graham and Mowbray from Simcoe County. Mr. Thomas Southworth, Director of Colonization, was also present.

The Councillors asked that the Province take some distinct step toward securing for old Ontario the men now leaving England, pointing out that the tendency was for them to go to new Ontario and the Northwest, where they become farmers on their own account.

Mr. Southworth told of the demand for labor through his department, and said he believed 10,000 men could be placed this year.

Mr. Hill suggested sending agents to the ports of entry, but this was thought to be ineffective, as the men were usually ticketed through to the west.

The Premier expressed his hearty sympathy with the aim of the deputation, and said that while it was too late to do much for this season, he would at once cable the Ontario Immigration Agent at Liverpool, Mr. Thomas Byrne, and Mr. W. T. R. Preston, Dominion Agent, at London, of the urgency of the situation. He also favored the commencement next fall of an active propaganda in the old country on the part of Ontario to secure farm help.

Garfield's Son Appointed.

Washington, Feb. 16.—It was announced at the White House to-day that the President would appoint Jas. R. Garfield of Ohio Commissioner of Corporations under the act creating the new Department of Commerce. Mr. Garfield is a son of the late President James A. Garfield, and is at present a member of the civil service commission.

"PUT OUT THE FIRE"

Dr. Agnew's Ointment will relieve and cure any skin disease just as surely as it cured this soldier's Erysipelas—the first application kills the "sting."

Lieut. Bucknam, National Soldiers' Home, in Grant County, Indiana, had a very acute attack of Erysipelas. His face and head were in torment with burning and itching sensations. A druggist recommended Dr. Agnew's Ointment as the quickest relief and cure. He bought a box and found it as good as it promised, and a few applications, to use his own words, "put out the fire and less than a box entirely cured me." Price 35 cts. 7

THE WORK OF PARLIAMENT.

IRISH LAND QUESTION WILL BE DEALT WITH.

The King Present and Opened the House—A Brilliant Assemblage Witnessed the Ceremony.

London, Feb. 18.—Taxation is the word which sums up the programme of the new session of Parliament. Fifteen years ago the owners of Irish lands would have accepted a twenty years' purchase with a feeling of relief. They are now counting upon a twenty-five years' purchase, and are expecting cash payments. Their anticipations may not be fulfilled literally but the intervention of the State in the transfer of the land will be an expensive process. Economy is whistled down the wind in the King's speech when an increase in expenditures for the empire is inevitable. London taxpayers are singled out for increased burdens. The new education bill implies a higher school rate in the metropolis, and the London docks bill, while essential to the prosperity of East London, will involve largely increased local taxation. The famous cream horses, with their gorgeous trappings, may precede the State chariot on the opening day of Parliament, but when the King's speech is read the long-suffering taxpayer identifies himself with Issachar couching under his burden, and longing for rest.

The ceremonial parade from Buckingham Palace to Westminster has become so familiar a spectacle that it excites only languid interest. It was well managed in consequence of frequent rehearsals, and the Foot Guards lined up in the Mall and in Whitehall with unwonted brilliancy, the weather being clear and the sky cloudless. The crowds of spectators were large, but not markedly demonstrative, as the royal carriages and the State coach passed slowly by with an escort of Horse Guards. The Duke of Portland's was the only missing figure. The other Court functionaries were in their usual places, and the procession was splendidly horsed and dressed. The Duchess of Buccleuch, the Countess-dowager Lytton and Miss Knollys were handsomely gowned, but the Queen, in purple and ermine, with a wonderful lace veil and a small diamond crown, was unrivalled in grace and beauty.

The scene in the House of Lords was more brilliant than when the last session of Parliament was opened by the King and Queen. Peeresses were present in full force, many wore the coronation robes which were seen at the Abbey, and all had beautiful laces and jewels. The tableau formed by the King and Queen, the pages and Court functionaries, the heralds, pursuivants, sword-bearer and the Lord Chancellor, was arranged more artistically than before, and the crown diamonds flashed from a sumptuous cushion. There were hitches in the ceremonial, for while the Duke of Devonshire knelt correctly and the Marquis of Londonderry posed well with his magnificent sword, somebody blundered, and there was an awkward pause before the Black Rod was despatched to summon the Commoners.

The King read his speech in a full, clear voice, without a sign of physical weakness. He looked extremely well, and did not require prompting at any turn of the proceedings. The House of Lords, with masses of crimson in the Peers' and Peeresses' robes, and with a blaze of gold brocade and the quarterings of the Court officials' robes, was a splendid spectacle. The Queen has seldom looked so handsome, nor the King possessed of an air of greater distinction.

Both Houses reassembled at 4 o'clock for the debate on the address, and in the Lords there was a large attendance. Among the early arrivals was Lord Salisbury, who made his first appearance at Westminster since he dropped the mantle of the Premiership upon the shoulders of his nephew. The Prince of Wales followed Lord Salisbury, and the new Archbishop of Canterbury was introduced and signed the roll as the Primate of all England.

The address was soon agreed to in the House of Lords, and in the lower House the debate would have been dull enough but for the slashing attack on the Government made by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman. The Liberal leader was particularly merry at the expense of Lord Cranborne, whom he described as "inheriting the habit of blazing indiscretion," and he went at great length into the Venezuelan and other foreign questions, putting a formidable string of interrogations on those subjects to the Prime Minister He pointed out that there was no mention of Germany in the King's speech and gravely attributed the omission to a printer's error. Loud Opposition cheers greeted his protest against the German alliance. Where he parted company with the Government, he said was in the adamantine bonds with which it bound this country to Germany in regard to Venezuela.

Wasting Away.

Lack of fat in the food is the beginning of a wasting condition. So many people that we meet are thin and keep getting thinner. Perhaps there are some in your own family. Look for the cause and it is more than likely you will find that such people do not eat the fatty portions of their food. They either will not or cannot eat fat, and yet it is the absence of this element in their ordinary food that causes a wasting condition.

For such people we offer Scott's Emulsion as containing in the most palatable and easily digested form the element of fat they need. It supplies, and more than supplies, the lack of fat in ordinary food. A small quantity (a teaspoonful for a child and a tablespoonful for an adult three times a day) will enable the body to get the strength and proper fat supply that it needs.

Scott's Emulsion is cod liver oil so prepared that all of it is utilized by the system. Raw cod liver oil is not only repulsive to the taste but only a part of it is taken into the system the weakened organs being unable to digest it all.

The emulsion passes almost immediately through the stomach and into the blood. The stomach is scarcely aware of its presence there. It shows itself first in the nourishment it affords and the new strength that it gives. The weight gradually increases and the flesh becomes firmer. It is the return to health; the stopping of the wasting condition. Scott's Emulsion has supplied the elements of fat that the body needed.

It is not a question of how much you eat or can eat or even of appetite. It is rather what becomes of the food. Does it contain the proper nourishment and the right proportion of fat? If the food does you no good it does you harm, for digestion is work, and when the body is in a wasting condition the stomach must work to some purpose. Scott's Emulsion saves a great deal of this work, and what is more makes it effectual.

We place on every package of Scott's Emulsion our trade mark label of a man with a big fish on his back. It is our personal guarantee that the emulsion is right in every respect. If this label is missing you are not getting the genuine Scott's Emulsion, which means that you are not getting the full value of the oil or the kind of a preparation you need.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

C. P. R. TO HAVE A FLEET.

SIR WM. VAN HORNE MAKES DEFINITE ANNOUNCEMENT.

Negotiating With Elder-Dempster Company For the Purchase of Twelve or Eighteen Ships.

New York, Feb. 18.—Sir William Van Horne, Chairman of the Board of the Canadian Pacific Railway, arrived from Havana.

Sir William Van Horne was asked whether it was correct that the Canadian Pacific was negotiating for the North Atlantic fleet of the Elder-Dempster Line. He replied :—"I have been away from home for some time, and I do not know whether or not the negotiations have been concluded. I do not know just how far the matter has gone, but we have been negotiating with the line for the purchase of from a dozen to a dozen and a half of their ships for some time. I cannot say just what number we have been figuring on, but it is somewhere between those figures."

"As I have said before," he continued, "Canada has for some years been raising the sides of her hopper without enlarging the spout. We are simply trying to do our share of enlarging this spout. This move is in no way an effort to compete with the Morgan combine for business, or to divert any traffic from New York. The Canadian Pacific has plenty of business for a line of its own across the ocean. Our object is to have our own ships to accommodate our own business, and not have to run around dickering for ships to carry our freight. We are getting old on our legs, and are not as spry as some of the younger people, and are apt to get left in chartering vessels when we need them most, so we propose to have our own."

When asked what the Canadian Pacific had offered for the Elder-Dempster fleet, Sir William said :—"We have not told anyone what we offered to pay, or what our limit would be in the matter of price. If we did that the other side would have a sure thing to go on. As a matter of fact there have been offers and counter-offers going on between us for months. When they are consummated I may be able to say more on the subject."

FOR THE COMMONS.

North Grey Candidates Nominated at Owen Sound.

Owen Sound, Feb. 18.—The nomination of candidates to contest the riding of North Grey in the bye-election for the Dominion House, to be held Feb. 24th, took place at noon at the Court House yesterday. The usual formalities were gone through. The proclamation and writ of election were read by Sheriff Charles H. Moore, returning officer, and nominations called for. Mr. Matthew Kennedy of Owen Sound, iron founder, was nominated as the Liberal candidate. Although only 25 names are required by law to appear on the nomination paper, about two hundred electors, including many well-known merchants, manufacturers, farmers and workingmen, prominent Liberals of the riding, signed Mr. Kennedy's nomination.

Mr. T. I. Thomson of Owen Sound, merchant, was the Conservative nominee. The statutory deposit of $200 was made in each case, and Mr. W. J. Hatton, barrister, was named as financial agent of Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Thomas Vicars, merchant, agent for Mr. Thomson.

To-night in the Town Hall Mr. D. C. Fraser, M.P., of Guysboro' and Hon. Peter Macdonald of Wingham addressed a large meeting of the electors in the interests of the Liberal candidate.

THE ROYAL TEMPLARS.

Meeting of the Grand Council at Cobourg.

Cobourg, Feb. 18.—The Grand Council of Ontario Royal Templars of Temperance began its annual meeting here yesterday. About 150 delegates were in attendance to-day, more being expected to-morrow. Grand Councillor J. A. Austin, in his annual report, dealt with the referendum. The result, he said, showed the unfairness of the arbitrary standard the temperance people were asked to attain. However, he said, we have gained a position for ourselves and the cause which can never again be ignored, and it is acknowledged even by the friends of the trade that its days are numbered, and it cannot be many months before the licensed liquor traffic will be swept completely and, we hope, forever from this Province.

During both forenoon and afternoon much time was taken by the sessional committees, and the sessions of the Grand Council were short. In the afternoon, after considerable discussion, a resolution was passed expressing sympathy with the efforts of the Women's Christian Temperance Union to induce the Dominion Parliament to legislate against the cigarette. There was no difference of opinion as to the gravity of the evil. The only question was how best to secure the needed action. Some attention was given to the details of the sick and funeral benefit department.

In the evening a public meeting was held in the Baptist church. Rev. Mr. Marshall presided and the delegates were welcomed by Mrs. Isaac Wilson, upon behalf of the County W. C. T. U., Mr. A. R. Lee, Select Councillor, of Union Council, and Major Snelgrove, Regent of the Royal Arcanum. Replies were made by Grand Councillor J. A. Austin, Grand Past Councillor; Frank Buchanan, and Grand Chaplain Rev. W. J. Pady of Toronto Junction.

BROKE UP IN DISORDER.

Mr. Munns' First Meeting in North York.

Newmarket, Feb. 18.—The opening meeting of Mr. Wm. Munns' campaign as a Prohibition candidate in North York was abandoned as an impossibility after two hours of disorder such as has seldom been witnessed in Ontario. The meeting was held in the Temperance Hall, which was crowded to suffocation. The small gallery contained a howling crowd of men, evidently divided in their politics, and it was impossible for any of the speakers on either side, except Mr. Munns himself, and Mr. S. Holland of Aurora, Grand Worthy Patriarch of the Sons of Temperance of Ontario, to obtain a hearing. Attempts to speak were made by Mr. John A. Nichols of Montreal, Rev. Dr. Eby of Alliston, who occupied the chair, Mr. Courtney Fessey, and Mr. Duncan Marshall of Owen Sound, but none of them were successful. The cause of the trouble was Mr. Munns' refusal to state under whose auspices he was running, this question being put to him from the gallery first, and then formally by Mr. Walton, Secretary of the Grand Division of Ontario Sons of Temperance. Mr. Munns would give no answer to the question, and from that time on there was no peace except for brief intervals. The Mayor of Newmarket was appealed to to maintain order, and he asked the crowd to give a fair hearing, but his appeal was useless, and the meeting was abandoned in disorder. Liberals and Conservatives were alike guilty for the disturbance, Mr. Marshall's interruptions being as noisy as Mr. Munns'. Mr. Walton publicly stated that Mr. Munns was repudiated by the North York Alliance, the North York Sons of Temperance, the North York Royal Templars of Temperance and the North York Prohibition Alliance.

SEVENTEEN DROWNED.

River Steamer Struck by a Cyclone and Sunk.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 18.—A cyclone struck the passenger steamer Olive, which plies between Franklin, Va., and Edenton, N. C., at 9.30 o'clock and sent her to the bottom of the Chowan River. Seventeen people were drowned, and others who were rescued are in a serious condition. The whirlwind, when it struck the Olive, threw her on her beam ends. When she righted it was only to sink on account of the water she had taken in. A majority of the passengers and crew were below at the time, and had no opportunity to reach the pilot house of the vessel, which alone remained above water. Captain Withy and five others saved themselves by standing all night in the pilot house in water up to their waists. At 6 o'clock the river steamer Petit hove in sight and rescued the almost frozen survivors.

SHIELDING HIS FRIENDS.

Canada will probably suffer irreparable losses in South Africa, as the result of the damaging inspection of canned meats shipped from this country. All classes of trade will feel the effect of the disclosure, however innocent the shippers may have been. Unfortunately, putrid canned meats have been forwarded to South Africa from Canada on more than one occasion and the shippers were protected by the Government.

In 1901, the Government, acting for the War Department, purchased supplies for the troops in South Africa. Of course friends of the Administration filled the orders, and some of the canned meats sent gave rise to a scandal. When the matter was brought up in Parliament, Hon. Sydney Fisher sheltered the firms who sold bad meat for the army, under the pretence that the War Department was alone involved in the case. The interests of the farmer were ignored by Mr. Fisher. Every cattle raiser in this country had a just right to demand the investigation of a transaction which must seriously affect our canned beef sales abroad. But Mr. Fisher had friends nearer home, and the agriculturist was sacrificed. It is safe to say that had Mr. Fisher done his duty fearlessly in the first instance, no more rotten beef would have gone to South Africa. The Minister of Agriculture is zealous enough when it comes to compelling the farmer to pack his apples properly, and in this he is acting for the public weal, but is this not the strongest possible argument in favor of making the supervision of our export foodstuffs a general and even-handed one? Too much dog biscuit, turnip marmalade and rotten meat has been allowed to go to South Africa, and although the Minister of Agriculture has ample evidence of the frauds in his possession, he deliberately throws down the farmer and shelters his friends, the shippers of unsound produce.

TIMELY TOPICS.

It is to be sincerely hoped that there will be no offensive demonstration to-night against the members of the Kingston hockey team which plays here. On their former visit the Beechgroves and their supporters showed themselves to be gentlemen; they were not in any way responsible for the disgraceful occurrences in Kingston on Monday night—in fact they did all in their power to secure for the Bellevilles a fair show—and it would be nothing short of deplorable if any impulsive boys or young men were allowed to tarnish the good name of this fair city by any inhospitable act towards the visitors. Everybody, young or old, should bear this in mind.

Nowadays, when people are not talking of theology or hockey, they are discussing the proposed changes in the Waterworks staff. Most people appear to think that the Council will make a grave mistake in dispensing with the services of Mr. Lewis Soule. The Intelligencer had a conversation with Mr. J. W. Johnson this morning, and the article in last night's paper came up.

"I can't understand," said Mr. Johnson, "the Council's object in dismissing Soule, a man who could not be replaced. I may tell you that last summer the Water Commissioners found it necessary to "set up" the boilers at the pump house, necessitating a rearrangement of almost the entire apparatus, and taking considerable time. Who do you suppose we had to get to do the work? Soule. And that was the reason he asked for an increase of pay, and that was the reason we granted it to him. He contended that if he had to do the work properly belonging to the position of Chief Engineer of the Waterworks, why, he should be paid in proportion, and we thought the same as he did. I do not think the positions of Street Surveyor and Waterworks Superintendent can be successfully combined. If the Council dismisses Soule, the new Superintendent, whoever he is, will have to hire expert help when any repairs are needed, and such help comes high, something like $4 a day, I think. Yes, I think the Council will be making a big mistake if they dismiss Soule. No, I have no wish to say anything else in connection with the Waterworks. Good morning."

THE POINT OF VIEW.

(Toronto Telegram.)

A Liberal Member of Parliament has just left Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and says, that his honored leader is an intellectual giant and an athlete who eats six meals per day, and can thump Hon. J. Israel Tarte quicker than summer time would melt a snow ball.

A Conservative Member of Parliament has just seen Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and reports that he is but the shadow of his former self, and is altogether in a sad way.

GREAT WHEAT CROPS

WESTERN CANADA THE MOST ATTRACTIVE TO THOSE LOOKING FOR A PERMANENT INVESTMENT.

An opportunity to make money! That's what Western Canada stands for to-day. The awakening to her great future, as "the wheat field of the world," is so recent that the speculator does not have to hunt his opportunities but finds them waiting for him. Manitoba no longer marks the limit of Canada's Commercial West. Authorities say that for three hundred miles west of that province the prairie is equally as fertile and the strenuous efforts of both the Canadian Pacific, Grand Trunk and Canadian Northern Railways are making it equally as accessible. For years the plains of Western Canada have been regarded as a wilderness. The experience of the past few years have revealed the real facts to the ignorant, however, and the fame of her great wheat crops, which averaged 25 to 35 bushels per acre, and amounted to 68,000,000 bushels in the past year, has assured her future in the mind of the agricultural world. The best conditions for raising the best wheat in the world, good climate and all requisites for a rapid development make Western Canada very attractive, not only to the man who would send his money there although he cannot go himself, but to the settler who is looking for a future home. The great corporations, such as the British-Canadian Wheat Raising Co., which are being organized for the purpose of raising wheat on an extensive scale, are practically certain of the large returns they are looking for.

Sports and Pastimes.

SPORTING COMMENT.

Neither of the Kingston papers devote much space to a report of the match between Belleville and the Ramblers, but there is a wide difference between the methods used. The Whig, as might have been expected, is decidedly unfair; the News says nothing about the game but denounces, in strong terms, the coward who assaulted Brown; the Times is mum on both the game and the assault. Here is the Whig's report:

"Had the K.B.C. Ramblers played hockey in the second half of last night's match with Belleville, as they did in the first half, there was a good chance of them winning out. But instead, their tactics were to worst Belleville, which they did, while the visitors scored goals, the score resulting to 6 to 2. At half-time it was 2 to 1 in favor of Belleville.

"Ramblers suffered severely in retirements, especially in the second half, when at times they would be playing four or five men against Belleville's seven. They had no chance of winning the round, and didn't care about the result of the match so long as they used Belleville up a bit. The latter team added one more match to their long list of victories. Just before time, there was a mix-up on the ice and Brown was struck on the head with a hockey stick, no one knows how. The wound required a couple of stitches. At the start, the round was conceded to Belleville, as Ramblers were not their equals; therefore, no one is surprised at the result."

And the Whig, which pretends to be Kingston's leading newspaper, has not one word of condemnation for a team which it acknowledges had no chance of winning, but which went on the ice with the deliberate intention of "using Belleville up a bit." Is it not about up to the O.H.A. to bar the door against such a club. The Scramblers knew the Bellevilles were in line for the championship, they knew they could not beat them, and so, with the instincts of true sportsmen (!!!) they deliberately tried to use them up, in the endeavor to spoil their chances of winning out.

However, it is gratifying to see that the Conservative organ of Kingston, The News, is manly enough to condemn the brutal assault made on Brown. It deals with the matter in the following style:

"Last night during the Belleville-K.B.C.-Rambler game there occurred a fracas at the rink which caused much annoyance to the management and to every one present. There was a mix-up among a couple of the players and the spectators quickly swarmed the ice. One cowardly ruffian struck Harry Brown, the cover-point of the Belleville team, on the head with a hockey stick, inflicting a cut that had to be stitched. The visitor was knocked senseless. Those among the spectators who like to see fair play prevented the man from doing further injury. Brown was attended by Grafton Herald, a medical student, who, in company with two other Kingstonians, carried him to the dressing-room, where Doctors Weatherhead and Hanley looked after his injuries. The members of the K.B.C. Ramblers and their many friends who were at the rink last night deplore the action of the coward who struck the blow. He was unknown to those at the rink. If the management can secure his name they will try to negotiate with Magistrate Farrell to have him break stones in the county jail for a few months. The offender is described as a short, thick set man, with a black moustache and wore a black overcoat and stiff hat. Dr. Hanley put a stitch in Brown's head at the hotel. It is hoped that he will be able to play next Thursday in the game against the winners of the western group. The Belleville team have the good will of the sporting men in this city for their future games."

As we expected, the speedy Marlboros put it all over the Port Perrys last night, and down in this direction no one is sorry. Not that we are biased at all in favor of Toronto, but in a big city the boys are not so liable to run up against a partisan crowd of spectators and may reasonably look for a fair show. The Marlboros are a fast crowd, sure, and the worst of it is the Red and White boys got such a chopping and battering on Monday night that they will hardly be able to show their true form. However, they were all fit practise last night, and if they have to go down before the Marlboros they'll go down with colors flying, you can bet your Sunday hat on that.

The winner of to-night's match between Varsity Third and the Beechgrove-Frontenacs will be in the junior O.H.A. finals with the junior Marlboros of Toronto. The Kingston lads look like winners.

The Port Hope Guide gently touches up its stars in the following style:

The Juniors and Seniors were out for practice last night, and as the ice was very hard a fast work-out followed. But the Senior forward line were all playing an individual game and this little foolishness will get the best team in the province beaten. It is of course, very pretty to see a player rush past several of his opponents, but it is much nicer to see him make a neat pass to one of the other forwards and let him score. It matters not a whit who scores the goal, but the players who are instrumental in doing the trick are the ones who should and who always do receive the praise. We have no desire at all in calling the team down, but a winning seven always indulge in combination work.

Well Made.

Pure flour and pure yeast do not necessarily mean good bread. It may be spoiled in the making. Just so: material is not everything. Prof. W. Hodgson Ellis, Official Analyst to the Dominion Government, after a number of analyses, reports that "Sunlight Soap is a pure and well-made soap." "Well made" means more than you think. Try Sunlight Soap—Octagon Bar—next wash day, and you will enjoy the benefits of a "well-made" soap, and will see that Prof. Ellis is right. No one should know better than he. 214

SPORTING NOTES.

Toronto Marlboros beat Port Perry last night by 8 to 1.

Mail and Empire: It looks like Paris and Belleville in the finals for the O.H.A. intermediate championship. Orangeville, Galt, Marlboros, Barrie, and Gravenhurst may have something to say, however.

The Toronto Wellingtons have changed their minds, and will not default to Cornwall, but play out the games for the senior O.H.A. championship.

Dundas won the Ontario Tankard, which carries with it the provincial curling championship, beating Lindsay in the final by five shots.

The Canadians won the Gordon International medal in the Utica, N.Y., curling bonspiel.

George Sutton defeated Slosson in the International billiard match at Paris.

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back; bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

DOMINION OIL CO., LTD,

Chartered Under the Laws of Ontario,

PAID-UP CAPITAL $850,000,

Has pleasure in announcing that the Directors have, WITHOUT COST TO THE SHAREHOLDERS, AND WITHOUT DRAWING A DOLLAR FROM THE RAPIDLY ACCUMULATING TREASURY FUNDS, secured to the Company "360 acres" of oil leases, situated in the Wheatley district, twenty-four miles southwest of the Company's holdings in the Raleigh Oil Fields, and adjoining the several wells recently drilled and operated by the Union Gas & Oil Co. The Directors consider this a very valuable acquisition for the Company, the property having been acquired by them upwards of a year ago for personal development. The contracts are now being made for active development upon this property.

The Gurd Gusher is steadily producing about 100 barrels of oil per day, and the President states:—"I have every reason to expect, as soon as we can make improvements by the installation of an air compressor, that the production will be increased to from 400 to 500 barrels per day."

Owing to the courtesy of the Standard Oil Co. having, without expense to the Dominion Oil Co., Limited, installed a pipe line from the Gurd Gusher, the Company possesses exceptional facilities for marketing this product, which is bringing THE HIGHEST PRICE OF ANY OIL ON THE NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT.

A limited amount of the Treasury Stock is procurable by public subscription for a short time only at

35 Cents Per Share,

(par value $1.00, full paid and non-assessable), the proceeds being devoted to the immediate development of the properties.

A monthly dividend of ONE PER CENT. upon par equalling the rate of about THIRTY-SIX PER CENT. per annum on the investment at the current price, will be paid "March 1st" to all shareholders of record SATURDAY, FEB. 21st, at which date the books close.

Purified * * by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES,

It was the first word received from him since his capture in July, and with a cry of joy Helen snatched it from Uncle Ephraim, for she was still at the farm-house, and sitting down upon the doorstep just where she had been standing, read the words which Mark had sent to her. He was very well, he said, and had been all the time, but he pined for home, longing for the dear girl-wife never so dear as now, when separated by so many miles, with prison walls on every side, and an enemy's line between them.

"But be of good cheer, darling," he wrote. "I shall come back to you some time, and life will be all the brighter for what you suffer now. I am so glad my darling consented to be my wife, even though I could stay with her but a moment. The knowing you are really mine makes me happy even here, for I think of you by day, and in my dreams I always hold you in my arms and press you to my heart."

A hint he gave of being sent further south, and then hope died out of Helen's heart.

"I shall never see him again," she said despairingly; and when the message came that Mark had been removed, and that too just at the time when an exchange was constantly expected, she gave him up as lost, feeling almost as much widowed as Katy in her weeds.

Slowly the winter passed away, and the country was rife with stories of our men, daily dying by hundreds, while those survived were reduced to maniacs or imbeciles. And Helen, as she listened, grew nearly frantic with the sickening suspense. She did not know where her husband was. He had made several attempts to escape, and with each failure had been removed to safer quarters, so that his chances for being exchanged seemed very far away. Week after week, month after month passed on, until came the memorable battle of the Wilderness, when Lieutenant Bob, as yet unharmed, stood bravely in the thickest of the fight, his tall figure towering above the rest, and his soldier's uniform buttoned over a dark tress of hair, and a face like Bell Cameron's. Lieutenant Bob had taken two or three furloughs, but the one which had left the sweetest, pleasantest memory in his heart, was that of the autumn before, when the crimson leaves of the maple, and the golden tints of the beech, were burning themselves out upon the hills of Silverton, where his furlough was mostly passed, and where with Bell Cameron he scoured the length and breadth of Uncle Ephraim's farm, now stopping by the shore of Fairy Point, and again sitting for hours on a ledge of rocks, far up the hill, where beneath the softly whispering pines, nodding above their heads, Bell gathered the light brown ferns and said to him the words he had so thirsted to hear.

Much of Bell's time was passed with Katy at the farm-house, and here Lieutenant Reynolds found her, accepting readily of Uncle Ephraim's hearty invitation to remain, and spending his entire vacation there with the exception of three days, given to his family. Perfectly charmed with quaint Aunt Betsy, he flattered and courted her almost as much as he did Bell, but he did not take her with him in his long rambles over the hills, or sit with her at night, alone in the parlor till the clock struck twelve—a habit which Aunt Betsy greatly disapproved, but overlooked for this once, seeing, as she said, that—

"That young leftenant was none of her kin, and Isabel only a little."

Those were halcyon days which Robert passed at Silverton; but one stood out prominently before him, whether sitting before his camp fire or plunging into the battle, and that the one when, casting aside all pride and foolish theories, Bell Cameron freely acknowledge her love for the man to whom she had been so long engaged, and paid him back the kisses she had before refused to give.

"I shall be a better soldier for this," Robert had said, as he guided her down the steep ledge of rocks, and with her hand in his, walked slowly back to the farmhouse, which, on the morrow, he left to take again his place in the army.

There were no more furloughs for him after that; and the winter passed away, bringing the spring again, when came the battle in the Wilderness, where, like a hero, he fought until, becoming separated from his comrades, he fell into the enemy's hands; and two days after, there sped along the telegraphic wires to New York:

"Lieutenant Robert Reynolds captured the first day of the battle."

Afterwards came the news that Andersonville was his destination, together with many others made prisoners that day.

"It is better than being shot and a great deal better than being burned, as some of the poor wretches were," Juno said, trying to comfort Bell, who doubted a little her sister's word.

CHAPTER XLVII.

[illegible] had served out his time as surgeon in [illegible], had added to it an extra six months, and by his humanity, his skill, and [illegible] kindness, made for himself a name which would be long remembered by the living to whom he had ministered so carefully, while many a dying soldier had blessed him for pointing out the way which leadeth to life everlasting; and in many a mourning family his name was a household word, for the good he had done to a dying son and brother. But Morris's hospital work was over. He had gone a little too far, and incurred too much risk, until his own strength had failed; and now in the month of June, when Linwood was bright with the early summer blossoms, he was coming back with health greatly impaired, and a dark cloud before his vision, so

The Dread of an Operation

STARES MANY PILE SUFFERERS IN THE FACE—THE SAFEST AND SUREST CURE IS

Dr. Chase's Ointment

Possibly you are a sufferer from piles and have been disheartened and discouraged because your physician has told you that nothing short of an operation will cure you.

You dread the thought of a surgical operation, for, besides the expense and strain on the nervous system, there is the risk of life itself. It is only a few months since a member of the Ontario Legislature lost his life as the result of an operation for piles. The risk of an operation is too great, and, besides, it is unnecessary.

Dr. Chase's Ointment has frequently cured piles after surgical operations have failed. It is every-day curing cases which physicians have stated to be incurable by any treatment short of an operation.

If you could read a few of the letters we receive from persons who have been cured of piles by using Dr. Chase's Ointment you would soon be convinced of its wonderful control over this frightfully common disease.

Rev. S. A. Duprau, Methodist minister, Consecon, Prince Edward County, Ont., states: "I was troubled with itching and bleeding piles for years, and they ultimately attained to a very violent form. Large lumps or abscesses formed so that it was with great difficulty and considerable pain that I was able to stoop. At this severe crisis I purchased a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but I had little or no faith in it, as I had tried various remedies before and to no purpose.

"Now, imagine how great and joyous was my surprise to find that just the one box cured me, so that the lumps disappeared and also the external swelling. I feel like a different man to-day, and have not the least doubt that Dr. Chase's Ointment saved me from a very dangerous and painful operation and many years of suffering. It is with the greatest pleasure and with a thankful heart that I give this testimonial, knowing that Dr. Chase's Ointment has done so much for me. You are at perfect liberty to use this testimonial as you see fit for the benefit of others similiarly afflicted."

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

A woman never knows where the match box is.

HAD LA GRIPPE.—Mr. A. Nickerson, farmer, Dutton, writes; "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months, when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

The land area of Hawaii is 4,000,000 acres.

Their gentle action and good effect on the system really make them a perfect little pill. They please those who use them. Carter's Little Liver Pills may well be termed "Perfection."

When one gets hopping mad his reason goes on a crutch.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 219 to 119 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

Signed, JEAN VALCOURT,
Wotton, P.Q. General Merchant

If thy friend is honey, do not lick him up altogether.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly subdues the pain and disease.

Wedding rings in St. Kilda used to be made of worsted.

Use the safe, pleasant, and effectual worm killer, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; nothing equals it. Procure a bottle and take it home.

Do not live near a pious fool.

Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing these troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

Pride is a sign of the worst poverty—ignorance.

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in the pills. They affect the nerve centres and the blood in a surprisingly active way, and the result is almost immediately seen.

Over 250,000 copies of Charles Dickens' novels are sold annually.

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes; "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

Attend no auctions if thou hast no money.

No one knows better than those who have used Carter's Little Liver Pills what relief they have given when taken for dyspepsia, dizziness, pain in the side, constipation, and disordered stomach.

Iridium, which costs $780 per pound, is the hardest metal known.

Do not despair of curing your sick headache when you can so easily obtain Carter's Little Liver Pills. They will effect a prompt and permanent cure. Their action is mild and natural.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER, Belleville.

A Savings Bank.

Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality. Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

MUNICIPALITIES UNITE.

Conference at Berlin Decide to Ask Government to Undertake Electrical and Power Transmission, and Failing That to Empower Municipalities to Co-operate.

Berlin, Feb. 18.—Not in many years has there been held a meeting fraught with greater import to the municipalities of Ontario than that of municipal and manufacturing representatives assembled here to the number of over ninety to discuss ways and means of insuring to all consumers cheap electrical energy. The municipalities represented were Toronto, Stratford, St. Thomas, Hamilton, Guelph, Ingersoll, St. Catharines, London, Galt, Dundas, Waterloo, Brantford, Berlin, Bridgeport, Woodstock, St. Mary's, and in addition there were present representatives from several Boards of Trade of the shire municipalities, and a deputation from the Toronto branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. The meeting decided by a large majority to urge the Government to undertake through a commission the transmission of power to municipalities, and as an alternative, if not willing to undertake the work itself, to empower the municipalities to co-operate, and, by means of a commission, develop or buy, transmit and sell electric energy, and an influential deputation, representing all the municipalities, was appointed to urge that course upon the Government. The opposition to that course was based on the claim that there was not before the meeting sufficient information; that electrical transmission was in its infancy and its future uncertain, and the cry was also raised that Toronto was trying to get special advantages over other municipalities and "hog the whole thing." The principal exponents of the course adopted were Chairman E. W. B. Snyder of St. Jacobs; Mayor Urquhart and Ald. Spence, Toronto; Mayor Maxwell, St. Thomas; Mayor Beck, London, and Ald. Carter, Guelph.

MANITOBA LEGISLATURE.

Debate on the Address in Reply has Commenced.

Winnipeg, Feb. 18.—In the Manitoba Legislature yesterday the debate on the speech from the throne commenced, the mover and seconder of the address in reply being Mr. Hugh Armstrong, Portage la Prairie, and Mr. S. W. McInnis, Brandon. Mr. Greenway followed, criticizing Premier Roblin on transportation matters, and called him to account for his protectionist utterances at the Monk banquet in Montreal. He quoted instances in which the tariff had been lowered by the Federal Government, showing how western Canada would suffer if changes were made on the basis of the United States tariff, advocated by Mr. Roblin. He did not believe that the people of this country wished further to contribute to the wealth of the manufacturers, and "pay a little more," as Mr. Roblin represented. Mr. Greenway also spoke on the reduction of interest on the school lands funds from 6 to 5 per cent., made by the Dominion Government, showing it did not amount to much.

Mr. Roblin followed in a strong protectionist speech, saying he was glad of the opportunity to repeat what he formerly said. He denied that he had made the statement in Montreal that the people of Manitoba were willing to pay a little more, but he did say they were in favor of the National Policy. He reiterated that he believed in protection, and if the United States had built up a great nation by their tariff, we could not pay them a higher compliment than by copying it.

THINK IT OVER

SOMETHING YOU CAN SEE IN ANY RESTAURANT OR CAFE.

A physician puts the query: Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at lunch or dinner time the large number of hearty, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from 60 to 80 years; many of them bald and all perhaps gray, but none of them feeble or senile?

Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation or comment, but, nevertheless, it is an object lesson which means something.

If you will notice what these hearty old fellows are eating you will observe that they are not munching bran crackers, nor gingerly picking their way through a menu card of new fangled health foods; on the contrary they seem to prefer a juicy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.

The point of all this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and plenty of wholesome food and not upon dieting and an endeavor to live upon bran crackers.

There is a certain class of food cranks who seem to believe that meat, coffee and many other good things are rank poisons, but these cadaverous, sickly-looking individuals are a walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digestive juices in sufficient quantity any wholesome food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do so, and certain foods cause distress one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty, because they supply just what every weak stomach lacks, pepsin, hydro-chloric acid, diastase and nux.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not act upon the bowels, and in fact are not strictly a medicine, as they act almost entirely upon the food eaten, digesting it thoroughly, and thus gives a much-needed rest and giving an appetite for the next meal.

Of people who travel nine out of ten use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, knowing them to be perfectly safe to use at any time, and also having found out by experience that they are a safeguard against indigestion in any form, and eating as they have to, at all hours and all kinds of food, the travelling public for years have pinned their faith to Stuart's Tablets.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents for full sized packages, and any druggist from Maine to California, if his opinion were asked, will say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most popular and successful remedy for any stomach trouble.

Colds How will your cold be tonight? Worse, probably. It's first a cold, then a cough, then bronchitis. Colds always tend downward. Stop this downward tendency quickly with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

CLARK BABY'S DEATH.

The Jury Find Culpable Negligence on the Father's Part.

Collingwood, Feb. 18.—The Coroner's inquest on the body of Janet Clark was resumed yesterday. The jury found that "her death was caused through strychnine poison, but as to how the strychnine found its way into the stomach is to them unknown. The evidence shows culpable negligence on the part of the deceased child's father in placing poisoned cheese within her reach. They also take this opportunity of strongly condemning the rapidly growing practice of insuring the lives of young children, and would suggest that legislation [illegible] enacted at an early date prohibiting this class of insurance."

The child's father has been discharged from custody.

KENT COUNTY TREASURER.

Settlement Effected With the Sureties and Shambleau Released.

Chatham, Feb. 18.—After a long star chamber session Kent County Council decided to accept eight thousand dollars from the sureties of defaulting Treasurer Shambleau, and released the sureties from further liability. The names of the sureties are J. H. Fraser, J. S. Fraser and D. A. Gordon. Shambleau is to be released at once. His physical condition is still poor.

SHOULD COME TO CANADA.

Work For Those Who Are Not Afraid Of It.

London, Feb. 18.—The Deputy Minister of the Interior, J. A. Smart, who has arrived here on an emigration mission, occupied all day Monday receiving journalists who were eager for the latest information about Canada. Several interviews appeared in the evening journals. Mr. Smart insists that Canada wants first and foremost the help of British people in building up a strong right arm for the mother country. He emphatically denies all suggestions that the new American settlers in the northwest may prove disloyal. Mr. Smart is preparing a scheme for large emigration of army reservists who have returned from South Africa. Canada originally asked the War Office to pay these men's passage, but the War Office argued that Canada should pay it. The Government scheme now is to suggest a compromise. Lord Dundonald urgently supports the proposal in view of the addition of effective soldiers the scheme would give the Canadian militia.

Other interviews with the Deputy Minister of the Interior of Canada, Mr. J. A. Smart, are published to-day in The Daily News. Mr. Smart cordially welcomes London's unemployed to Canada, and says the only necessary condition is ability and willingness to work. The Daily News asks for patriotic philanthropists who, as a first step, are willing to lay out $5,000 to rescue 200 persons from London's squalor and want and put them on the high road to wealth and prosperity. Mr. Smart anticipates that 100,000 new settlers will enter Canada this year. He says, "We want half that number from Britain."

Gounod's Button.

An anecdote is told of Gounod which is decidedly French!

It appears that Gounod had inspired a number of high-born ladies with a mystic love. On one occasion, when on a visit to a countess, he let a button fall upon the carpet—a prosaic trouser button. The countess picked it up and had it encased in the most beautiful locket that the most skilful jeweler in the Rue de Paix could make. This memento she constantly wore about her neck. Later the countess paid a visit to the wife of the composer, who went into ecstasies over the medallion. "Yes," said the countess, "it is pretty, but it ought to be prettier to be worthy of what it encloses. Look!" The locket was opened, and Madame Gounod saw, to her astonishment, a trouser button. "It belonged to M. Gounod, my dear," said the infatuated countess.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Live Stock Looking Up—Wheat is Higher—The Latest Quotations.

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 17.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

The receipts of grain and other farm produce on the street market here to-day were light, owing to the cold weather. Prices were generally steady at previous quotations.

Wheat—Was steady, 200 bush of white selling at 72½c to 73c, 300 bush of red at 72½c, and 300 bush of goose at 67½c to 68c.

Barley—Was steady, 500 bush selling at 49c to 50c.

Oats—Were firmer, 400 bush selling at 36½c.

Butter—The receipts were light, there was a moderate demand only, and prices were steady.

Poultry—The offerings were small, the demand for choice fresh killed stock was fair and the market was steady.

Potatoes—The offerings were small, owing to the cold weather, and the prices were unchanged.

Eggs—Were in moderate supply, the demand for new laid was somewhat slow and the prices were steady.

Hay and Straw—The receipts were not large, the demand was not active, and the market was steady, 20 loads of hay selling at $12 to $14.50 for timothy and $6 to $9 for mixed, and two loads of straw at $9 to $10.

Dressed Hogs—The offerings were not large, the demand was only fair and the market was steady at $7.50 to $7.75 for heavy and $7.75 to $8 for light.

Toronto Live Stock.

The offerings at the cattle market here to-day were fair. Buyers were operating quite freely in some lines, and the general tone of the market was fairly satisfactory. Exporters still complain that prices of cattle are too high to allow of fair profits on shipments. The receipts were 60 cars, including 965 cattle, 481 sheep and lambs, 422 hogs, and 18 calves.

Export Cattle—Were in good demand, and prices for the best lots were steady. One very choice load brought $4.75. This was an exceptionally choice lot, and weighed 1,350 pounds. The general run for export was $4.30 to $4.40. Most of the export cattle were in fact bought up for butcher purposes, the supply of good butcher cattle being on the short side.

Some dealers in export cattle were handicapped by the fact that the steamer Lake Champlain, which was to have sailed from St. John with cargoes on February 27, has been put into dry-dock at Liverpool. She ran aground off Newfoundland on her last trip to England, and damaged herself to such an extent that she will be laid up for three or four weeks, and local exporters with cattle bought are unable to get other shipping space.

Butchers' Cattle—The offerings of prime beeves were light, there was a good demand, and prices were firmer at $4.30 to $4.40 for the best.

Stockers and Feeders—Were quiet.

Sheep and Lambs—There was a good demand, and all offered sold readily at good prices.

Hogs—Were easy at previous quotations, choice bacon bringing $5.30 and heavy and light fats $5.55.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 17.—Cattle—Receipts, 1,000 head; butchers' grades steady; heavy, nothing doing. Veals—Receipts, 200 head; 25c lower; steady; tops, $8.25 to $9.75; common to good, $5.50 to $8. Hogs—Receipts, 9,100 head; light slow; others strong, 5c higher; heavy, $7.40 to $7.45; few, $7.50; mixed, $7.30 to $7.40; Yorkers, $7.20 to $7.30; light, mostly $7.25; pigs, $7.10 to $7.15; roughs, $6.25 to $6.50; stags, $5.25 to $5.75. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 15,100 head; sheep steady; lambs, 5c to 10c lower; top lambs, $6.75 to $6.80; culls to good, $4.25 to $6.70; yearlings, $5.25 to $5.75; ewes, $4.50 to $4.75; sheep, top mixed, $4.75 to $5; culls to good, $2.50 to $4.65.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Cattle—Receipts, 5,000; good to prime steers, $4.40 to $5.50; poor to medium, $3 to $4.25; stockers and feeders, $2.30 to $4.50; cows, $1.30 to $4.30; heifers, $2 to $4.50; canners, $1.30 to $2.60; bulls, $2 to $4; calves, $3.50 to $8; Texas-fed steers, 3.50 to $4.25. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 31,000; mixed and butchers, $6.90 to $7.25; good to choice heavy, $7.25 to $7.50; rough heavy, $6.95 to $7.25; light, $6.50 to $7; bulk of sales, $7 to $7.30. Sheep—Receipts, 12,000; sheep and lambs, strong and higher; good to choice wethers, $5 to $5.75; fair to choice mixed, $3.60 to $4.75; native lambs, $5 to $7.

PROPERTY OF THE COMPANY.

This Company has secured 10,000 acres of the choicest wheat lands in Assiniboia, Canada, having paid to the owners in addition to cash, 60,000 shares of its Capital Stock, for which the owners are completely equipping the property with all the necessary buildings, steam plows, steam threshers, drills, wagons, tools, fences, and everything necessary to operate the said 10,000 acres. In addition, the Company is to pay to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and the other vendors of the said lands $50,000 in yearly installments of $10,000 each, being the balance of the purchase money.

These lands are capable of producing, at a fair estimate, 30 bushels to the acre of the best wheat produced in the world, or a total capacity of 300,000 bushels per year. Owing to the rich, prolific nature of the Northwestern Canadian soil, this product can be duplicated each year indefinitely. The Company's property will always be equipped with all the latest improved steam plows, drills, threshers, and necessary machinery to produce wheat at the lowest cost. It is the intention of the Company to have its own elevator, of a capacity sufficient to store its entire production, thus enabling them to take advantage of the highest market prices from time to time. The market for wheat is the same as for gold—it is unlimited.

The Company also has an option on 10,000 additional acres of the same character of wheat land as the 10,000 acres above mentioned, the property being located seven miles from the Canadian Pacific Railway, where large elevators are ready to receive the product.

This is an investment that will enhance in value as time goes by, not only from the large production of wheat, but the increased value of the Company's lands from year to year.

APPROXIMATE EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY

Are Estimated as Follows:

The average yield of wheat in Western Canada varies but little under all conditions. In some years the average has been over thirty-five bushels per acre. Many individual cases report as high as forty-five and even fifty-five bushels to the acre. But, taking the lowest average, there is no industry that will produce better profits. Owing to the modern steam machinery and economical methods employed in cropping, harvesting, threshing and marketing, as well as the especial ease with which in the prairie country of Western Canada, wheat is produced, there is always a splendid profit. The cost of raising an acre of wheat, being placed by farmers and experts at about $5.00 per acre, there have been cases in the past few years where as much as $35.00 has been realized, less the cost of $5.00, leaving a net profit of $30.00 per acre.

A safe and conservative estimate of the Company's earnings, taken much below the above figures, is herewith given:

APPROXIMATE YEARLY STATEMENT.

10,000 ACRES AT 30 BUSHELS OF WHEAT PER ACRE—300,000 BUSHELS, WORTH ON THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY, 60c. PER BUSHEL				$180,000

To pay Dividends of 15 per cent. per annum			82,500
Estimated Surplus, after payment of Dividends			37,500
				$180,000

ESTIMATED NET PROFITS PER YEAR.

It will be seen that, after paying the expenses of raising wheat on 10,000 acres, amounting to $50,000 each year, and paying $10,000 per year to the Canadian Pacific Railway (for 5 years) as yearly payments on the property, it is estimated there will still remain a profit of $120,000 per year, or over 20 per cent. per annum on the stock issued.

TREASURY ASSETS.

The Company now have, after paying the 60,000 shares to the owners for the lands, improvements and equipment, 140,000 shares still in the Treasury, the same being set aside as a Treasury Fund. 50,000 of these shares are now being offered for subscription in Canada and England, and are to be sold for the purpose of taking up the option, and acquiring the 10,000 acres of new wheat territory, and the equipment of the same, together with working capital.

By acquiring the additional 10,000 acres, making 20,000 in all to be owned and operated by the Company, the profits will be more than doubled, or over 40 per cent. on the 110,000 shares of stock issued.

The balance of 90,000 shares will be held as an asset of the Company, which can be sold when required for extending the operations of the Company.

DIVIDENDS.

Dividends of, say, 15 percent. per year, it is estimated, can be paid semi-annually, December 1st and June 1st of each year. Outside of the amount paid in dividends, the surplus earnings will be accumulated, and will either be divided among the shareholders as extra dividends, or used to purchase new wheat territory; or be otherwise employed as may be hereafter determined.

WESTERN CANADA

is fast becoming the Eldorado of Great Britain. Its wheat lands will create more wealth than all the gold and diamond mines of the Empire. The failure of a crop is unknown. (See the report of Hon. Clifford Sifton, Minister of the Interior, Canada, extracts of which are published in the prospectus of this Company.) The wheat of Western Canada is well known to be extremely Hard No. 1, the best quality grown in the world; the yield also being considerably more per acre than in the United States. The sub-soil throughout the intense heat of summer is kept moist by the slow melting of the deep winter frosts, the moisture ascending to the surface and moistening the roots of the grain, thus stimulating growth and producing a bountiful crop.

DEMAND FOR WHEAT.

The demand for wheat from England alone is over 160,000,000 bushels per year, and from other European countries about 250,000,000 bushels, most of which is obtained from the United States, but of a poorer quality than can and will be furnished by Canada. The Canadian Pacific Railway runs within easy hauling distance of the property and is doing everything in its power to increase wheat raising.

A RELIABLE INVESTMENT.

This Company has an advantage over other industrial enterprises through the fact that while the Company's earnings from its wheat products will be constantly growing, and advancing the price of the Company's shares, the land of the Company is continually enhancing in value, creating a double source of values.

There is no business in the commercial world so profitable as raising wheat, and the investment is as safe as first-class Railroad Bonds, for the reason that the land and improvements of the Company are always a security for its shares, besides its ability to raise immensely profitable crops. The possibilities of this Company are unlimited, as the surplus earnings can be devoted to the acquisition of additional wheat lands, thereby increasing the earning capacity of the Company and lowering the average cost of production.

Owing to the intrinsic value of the property of this Company, and its estimated vast earning power, a rapid advance in the price of these shares will doubtless take place, and we confidently expect that this issue of 50,000 shares will be largely over-subscribed.

SUBSCRIPTION TERMS.

The full amount of $5.00 per share must accompany the order. The right is reserved to allot a smaller number of shares than the amount subscribed for, in which event the balance of the money will be returned with the shares allotted.

Application will be made for a settlement of these shares on the London, Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges in due course.

MONEY MAY BE SENT BY POST OFFICE ORDER, EXPRESS, REGISTERED LETTER, OR BY CHEQUE.

THE INTELLIGENCER is printed and published for The Intelligencer Printing and Publishing House (Limited) by CHARLES JAMES BOWELL, of the City of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, Province of Ontario, at their Office, No. 403 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

Here is Your Opportunity

Yours for the asking and a little more.

Before taking stock February 28 we wish to close out a goodly portion of our much too heavy stock of Fancy Goods—comprising China, Art Pottery, Brass Goods, Lamps, Vases, Candlesticks, Candle shades, Pictures, Jardinieres, Leather Goods, etc.

We will make the inducement doubly tempting that all who wish may have and may buy abundantly.

To this end we open fire with the publication of this advertisement and offer all Fancy goods at the mammoth discount of 30 per cent. from regular prices.

This means $10 of goods for........................ $7
$1 of goods for........................ 70c

YES, and we will go one better—Will give you 40 per cent. off if you accept a due bill for the discount, same due bill being good at any time for any goods in our store, including Wall Papers, Picture Framing, Paper Hanging, Stationery, Books, etc. This means 10 dollars of goods for 6 dollars.

AGAIN—to this sale we add the balance of our 1902 wall paper stock at the same discounts—30 per cent. regular.
40 per cent. due bill.

We mean in this way to close out every roll of last year's papers, and have nothing but 1903 papers for our customers.

WOMEN'S ILLS

PROMPTLY RELIEVED AND CURED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are woman's best friend. They enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and strengthen the vital organs to perform their functions regularly. They bring the rosy cheeks and shapely forms that tell of good health and happiness. To the growing girl they are invaluable. To the mother they are a necessity. To the woman of forty-five they mean relief and ease. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best medicine that science has devised for women at all periods of life. These pills succeed when all else fails. Thousands of grateful women endorse the truth of these statements. Mrs. John White, Sabanatien, Ont., says: "It gives me pleasure to bear testimony to the great value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a cure for the ailments that afflict so many women. I suffered greatly and the periods were very irregular, but thanks to these pills, I am now quite well and free from the pains that make my life almost a burden. I cheerfully give my experience for the benefit of suffering women."

Remember that substitutes cannot cure and see that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is on the wrapper around every box. If in doubt send direct to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and the pills will be mailed, post paid, at 50c per box, or six boxes for $2.50.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

HAD A SUCCESSFUL YEAR

ANNUAL REPORT OF SUN AND HASTINGS SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY.

Mail and Empire: The annual report of the Sun and Hastings Savings and Loan Company, which has just been issued, gives a gratifying account of the company's business during the past year. The assets now amount to $1,001,825.10, the subscribed capital to $1,888,060, and the paid-up capital to $787,650.39. During the year a dividend upon the capital stock of the company at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum was paid in half-yearly instalments.

The net earnings, after paying all the expenses of management, etc., were $56,410.68, and the Reserve Fund now totals $31,904.34. At the close of the year the deposits stood at $145,826.53, and this, together with the large increase in the capital stock during the year, is a splendid indication of the healthy condition of the company.

There is a limited amount of capital stock for sale at a premium of $5 per share of $100, drawing a dividend of 6 per cent. per annum, and the company has also for sale debentures which are yielding from 4 to 5 per cent.

NEW GOLD STRIKE EQUALS KLONDIKE

MINERS STAMPEDING TO THE YUKON VALLEY — OVER 600 CLAIMS RECORDED.

Tacoma, Feb. 17.—Federal officers on the Yukon River confirm the story that a gold strike equalling the Klondike has been made in the Lanama Valley. Two thousand miners are stampeding thither from Nome, Dawson, Eagle and Rampart. Some of them will probably perish, as the weather throughout the Yukon Valley has been most severe. The stampeders are taking only enough supplies to last them on the journey. This may endanger the lives of all, since provisions are very short in the new camp. United States Commissioner Claypool writes from Circle that six hundred claims have been recorded in the new district, which is officially known as Fairbanks, being named after Senator Fairbanks. Fifty-three creeks have been staked. Bottles of coarse gold have been brought to Commissioner Claypool, fully confirming the richness of the strike. Pedro, Cold Stream and Pine Creeks are the richest streams, running from twenty-five to fifty cents per pan.

SOME RESULTS OF IMPURE BLOOD

A blotched, pimply, disfigured face, feeling of exhaustion, wracked nerves, headache and a dull brain. The proper cure is one Ferrozone Tablet after each meal. Ferrozone clears and beautifies the complexion by making rich, pure blood. It restores the enfeebled brain and unstrung nerves to a healthy, vigorous condition. It invigorates all the physical and mental powers, and brings strength and ambition to the depressed. Refuse a substitute for Ferrozone—it's the best tonic, rebuilder and invigorator known. Price 50c., at druggists or J. S. McKeown.

The record of cures the new constitutional treatment for cancers and tumors is making is little short of marvellous.

Persons whom operation and plasters have failed to benefit have been completely restored to health. There can no longer be any doubt of the efficacy of this remedy. Investigation will convince the most skeptical of its merits. For full particulars of treatment and history of cases cured, send two stamps to B. I. Stott & Jury, Bowmanville, Ont.

A YOUTHFUL CULPRIT

WHO HAS BEEN HELPING HIMSELF TO THINGS IN THE Y.M.C.A.

During the past few days and evenings money, articles of value, etc., have been taken from clothing left in a room in connection with the Y.M.C.A., by members who were engaged in the gymnasium. On Monday evening about $4 was taken out of a pocket of clothing belonging to Dr. M. J. Clarke, and a ring was taken from the clothing of another party. Yesterday a lad reported to the police that his overcoat had been purloined. It was, however, subsequently found, having been folded up and stowed away behind some boxes. Suspicion rested upon a lad named Harland Hulley, who was seen about the premises, and these suspicions proved to be correct. Last evening Officer Hayes arrested the boy and he acknowledged taking the money and some other articles. He had spent some of the money, but had nearly $3 left when arrested. The parents were notified and the boy was not locked up but was allowed to go to appear at court this morning.

Hulley appeared before the Magistrate and pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing $3.25 from Mr. Clarke's clothing and said he had spent 15 cents of it. As neither of the parents were in court the Magistrate remanded the boy until to-morrow, so as to consider what action he will take in the matter.

MARRIED IN RAWDON

NUPTIALS OF MR. J. W. RYLOTT AND MISS EDITH M. THOMPSON.

On Wednesday, the 11th inst., a wedding took place at the residence of Mr. J. Thompson, of Rawdon, when his second daughter, Miss Edith M., was married to Mr. J. W. Rylott, of Belmont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. H. Howard, of Havelock, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride was attired in a dress of white organdie, trimmed with white satin ribbon. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Thompson, who was similarly attired. Mr. Russell was groomsman. After the ceremony a bountiful spread was partaken of. The bride received a large number of handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Rylott are at present spending a few days in this city with friends.

Conservative Convention

On Thursday, the 26th inst., the Conservatives of North Hastings will meet in convention at Bancroft for general business. A number of prominent Conservatives will be in attendance and deliver addresses, amongst them being the following: Messrs. H. Corby, ex-M.P., E. G. Porter, M.P., A. W. Carscallen, M.P., J. W. Pearce, M.P.P. and T. W. H. Leavitt, the Conservative organizer. The prospects are that it will be one of the largest gatherings ever held in this northern part of the County.

OLDEST MAN IN COUNTY OF HASTINGS DEAD

WILLIAM BURLEY HAD SEEN THE SNOWS OF ONE HUNDRED AND FOUR WINTERS.

Hungerford township lost its oldest resident on Friday, 13th inst., when William Burley, of Moneymore, passed away.

He was 104 years of age, perhaps the oldest man in the County of Hastings. The funeral was held at Thomasburg on Sunday. His wife to whom he was married 67 years ago, still survives as well as a large family.

Mrs. O. Hudson, Mrs. W. F. Campbell, of Belleville, and Mr. Jno. Allan, of Marlbank, are daughters of deceased, and John Burley, postmaster at Moneymore, and W. J. Burley, of Marlbank, are sons.

In religion deceased was a Methodist and in politics a staunch Conservative.

"Hiawatha"

The Ojibway picture play of Longfellow's "Hiawatha" was presented in the City Hall yesterday afternoon and evening. It was under the auspices of the High School, and at both performances the attendance was good. The various stereopticon views were clearly shown and explained. At intervals Miss A. Waltz sang with pleasing effect.

JUST ONE FUR COAT.

Now we have just one fur coat left at the Oak Hall and we have no desire to carry it over. Irish frieze outside, lined with first-class rat, and having a good Persian lamb collar. This coat is worth $50, and we will sell it for $39. It is only a medium size coat. No large man need apply.

Water Damages Clothing

At an early hour this morning Police Officer Hayes discovered water dropping upon the clothing in Quick & Robertson's store. Upon investigation it was found that the cold snap had caused a water pipe on the second floor to burst. The proper authorities were notified and the water turned off. The damage done was fortunately not serious.

THE AGONIZING PAINS OF RHEUMATISM.

Swollen, aching joints, muscles are stiff and sore, every movement accompanied by pain. The most potent remedy is Polson's Nerviline, which has five times the pain-subduing power of any other preparation. Apply the Nerviline copiously, rub it on well and then bind in a hot flannel bandage. This will cure the worst cases in a short time. Try Nerviline for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica or Lumbago—it's all right and only costs a quarter.

ACCIDENTS ON RAILWAYS

A GLOBE CORRESPONDENT WRITES AN INTERESTING LETTER.

To the Editor of The Globe: In the many suggestions to account for the cause of the now too frequent fatal accidents on railways, there is one that has seemingly been omitted—the work outside their duties as railway officials—that so many of them are engaged in before, during and after the hours for their railway employment. Some 25 years back if railway officials engaged in any work outside their duties for their company they had to give the extra work up or leave the company's employment. It is a well known fact that under this rule a late President of the (old) Northern R.R.—Col. Cumberland—had to resign his seat in the Commons for Algoma, and several other instances may be mentioned, one of an employee at a small station between Toronto and Belleville, because his wife, who kept a small store, sometimes got her husband after his railroad work was over to assist her in it. A second was that of one of the clerks in the Belleville station who had accepted the honorary post of librarian to a young men's society. This principle is right when lives and property are under risk. The companies should be compelled to pay a fair living wage to their employees and command a fair portion of their time and the whole of their attention and services. Persons who have any other affairs to engage their minds outside their railway work cannot be expected to give such fixed attention to their duty as those who have none, and when railroad officials are permitted to be engaged in Secretaryships of fraternal or provident societies, auditors of municipal and company accounts, chairman of mining companies, boards of health or as members of school boards or municipal Councillors, or other matters of a like description that require their time and energy, it must detract from that undivided attention that should be demanded from every person engaged in the handling of trains in which so much property and so many lives are at risk. This is a matter that should be controlled by sharp legislation, and not left for the railway companies only to enforce. Railway accidents are now getting far too frequent, and the travelling public have a right to demand that the utmost care and attention should be used in the service of the railroads, which cannot be given if the officials have outside duties.

Nearly Caught a Burglar

A despatch from Kingston states that on Sunday night when Mr. and Mrs. James S. Johnston, Gore street, returned home from visiting a neighbor they found a burglar going through the house. Mr. Johnston summoned ex-Ald. Toye, residing next door, and the two gave chase. Mr. Toye grappled with the burglar and downed him, but had his left arm badly hurt and lost his hold on the thief, who was chased several blocks. He ran into an alley leading off West street and eluded his pursuers by jumping through the rear window of a vacant house and out by a front window, carrying both sashes with him. The thief secured about $100 worth of jewellery, including several of Mrs. Johnston's wedding gifts. As ex-Ald. Toye was for some years a resident of this city the foregoing will be of interest to a number of our readers. They will not be surprised at the pluck displayed by Mr. Toye.

DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION?

REV. MR. HUTTON APPROVES THE THEOLOGICAL DISCUSSION, AND CONCLUDES HIS LETTER WITH SOME BROAD-MINDED SENTIMENTS.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Mr. Editor,—Would it not simplify matters if your correspondents on this subject could realize that there is but one NEW BIRTH, and that there are several kinds of conversion in the Christian life?

The NEW BIRTH establishes a new relationship, viz.: Sonship, with Our Heavenly Father; Conversion, establishes a new attitude. Conversion, therefore, both pr[illegible] and follows regeneration, or the New Birth, according to circumstances.

E. G. (I) In case of an adult (pagan or unbeliever), knowledge, conviction, repentance, and the "Lord what wilt Thou have me to do?" i.e., conversion, must precede the washing away of sins and the New Birth, which latter are simultaneous. No one who has any knowledge of the Christian teaching will suppose for one moment, or charge any other organized religious body with teaching, that the application of water at the hands of any man will wash away sins; but we believe and teach that the outward washing is a symbol of the inward cleansing which latter is the work of the Holy Ghost, promised and secured to us through the meritorious work of Jesus Christ Our Lord. But let us not forget that the outward washing, inasmuch as it has been commanded by Our Lord, is a necessary part of the circumstances attending the New Birth. Therefore, if for no other reason than that our beloved Saviour has commanded it, a fact which all your correspondents seem to agree upon, we should obediently admit its necessity. The wisdom and utility of this part of the Sacrament should be obvious to all who understand human nature and who prayerfully seek the truth.

(II). Again: Take the case of one who falls away after the New Birth, whether regenerated, BORN AGAIN, in infancy or in maturity, and who adopts an attitude of rebellion against his Heavenly Father but later awakens to a knowledge of his sinful and alienated condition and is thereby led to say, like the prodigal son in the parable, "I will arise and go to my father and say unto Him, Father I have sinned against Heaven and before Thee and am no more WORTHY to be called Thy Son"; here regeneration or the New Birth precedes conversion. Note here, The Sonship was established when the prodigal was born unto His Father's house, the natural birth in this case corresponds with the New Birth in the Christian life, the relationship did not change during the period of his riotous living. He was his father's son when he left his father's house; He was his father's son when sunk in the depths of vice; He was his father's son when he turned his face towards his father and home, but he acknowledged his unworthiness to be so called. But his attitude had changed from that of a dutiful son to a wayward profligate; and then again he was converted from his fallen and rebellious attitude to an attitude of loving obedience.

(III). There is also a conversion which is continuous in the lives of God's most faithful servants, for we are all, through our own weaknesses and the force and subtility of temptation, constantly sinning and turning against Him, therefore, we have to be daily TURNING TOWARDS Him and asking Him to pardon our sinful attitudes and to restore us to His Divine favor. The New Birth, of course, precedes this kind of conversion, which gradually makes towards perfection in the Christian life.

I ask you to insert these few suggestions, hoping they may throw a little light on the subject of the controversy, as the point which they seem to me to explain has been lost sight of by your correspondents.

I do not deplore this controversy, neither the public channel through which it has been conducted. I think, if those who have been appointed to teach and preach the Gospel differ on important points of doctrine and practice, the public ought to know of these differences, for they affect the interest of humanity, both for time and for eternity. I also think that the discussion ought to lead the teachers and preachers of theology to realize that there must be something radically wrong with some of the systems of theology when so many loyal men and true teach and preach so differently on the fundamental principles of the Christian faith; and also it should lead these teachers and preachers to use every effort to discover THE TRUTH, that they may not be responsible for teaching error and so perpetuating divisions in the BODY OF CHRIST. (We should all pray that we may be guided and strengthened to yield our own peculiar or pet theories, and to give up our theological fads and fancies when they are opposed to Divine revelation.

C. J. H. HUTTON.

Belleville, Feb. 16th, 1903.

Rev. Mr. Fraser Defends Dr. Ackerill

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—When I wrote in my letter of yesterday "and now as regards the terms 'being born again,' 'regeneration'—the same in Greek," I meant that the English term by which we speak of what our Lord spoke of as a birth "from above," i.e., "being born again," was the same as the Greek term for "regeneration" and so, that these terms might be used interchangeably in this controversy. In several places my abbreviation for John in referring to Scripture passages is printed M. and in one place near the end "tithe" is printed for "title"—through my fault.

I do not think your correspondents were justified in referring as they have done to D. F. Ackerill's "new light from Masonry." Did not our Lord convey light on the spiritual things of the Kingdom by parables about secular things? And do we not ALL, if we read the things about us with Christian eyes, get new light on spiritual things which, perhaps for long, we have seen but dimly? A charitable and fair contruction of Dr. A's letter would have prevented these strictures, and surely charity and fairness ought to be conspicuous in a "religious controversy."

Yours, etc.,
J. F. FRASER.

THE TRENT VALLEY CANAL

HOW MAYOR GRAHAM HANDLED THE SUBJECT AT PETERBORO.

The Peterboro Review thus reports Mayor Graham's utterances on the above question, at the convention held in that town on Monday:

Mr. Graham, Mayor of Belleville, said he regarded it a pleasure to attend the meeting of the Association, although he was not as conversant as some present with the subject under discussion. The principal object Belleville had in being represented was to ascertain, if possible, the position in regard to the outlet. There was some talk of the outlet being at Port Hope, but he judged from what had been said that the Government had decided to adopt the Trenton route, and Belleville, he said, would be very sorry to see the outlet upon the open lake, as it would in the Port Hope route. It would spoil the effect of the Trent Canal. He had heard it mentioned that one of the difficulties in connection with the Trenton route was the vested rights on the Trent river. There was another route, near the river, through the Township of Sidney into the Bay of Quinte that might be feasible. While Belleville would not derive any direct benefit from the canal, the city recognized that it was a great national highway, an outlet for the trade of the West and returns from the East, and should be built up. He was pleased to hear the Trenton representative confess that the Conservative party was one of progress. Probably the Conservatives would have something to do with the completion of the work which they started, and which probably had not advanced so speedily as it might have.

Mr. Dumble did not see that the route spoken of by Mr. Graham would help Belleville any. Engineers had reported on the routes and the most feasible should be pretty well understood by this time. The Government would be influenced by the practibility of the river route.

Mr. Graham said he did not suppose that it made much difference to Belleville as Mr. Dumble had suggested. He did not think the Government knew about the route he spoke of.

TWO SERIOUS FIRES.

WINNIPEG SUFFERS A LOSS OF OVER $100,000.

Banfield Carpet Establishment Gutted—Another Big Blaze—Quebec Firemen Injured by Falling Walls.

Winnipeg, Feb. 18.—Fire completely gutted the five-story stone block occupied by Banfield's carpet establishment on Main street yesterday. It was a bitterly cold day, and as the fire had secured good headway the firemen could do little to check the fury of the flames. The substantial character of the block prevented any damage to adjoining buildings. Mr. Banfield's loss on stock will be in the neighborhood of $90,000, while the building was damaged to the extent of $20,000. Above the carpet establishment the rooms were occupied by Messrs. Robert Boyd, agent; J. F. & W. F. Taylor, dental surgeons; Jos. Greenfield, architect; W. D. Pettigrew, agent; the Albertus & Schich Land Company; Miss Adelaide Cawston, dressmaker; Miss Austin, Christian Scientist; the High Court of Foresters. All the contents of the rooms were destroyed. The insurance on the building, amounting to $20,000, was held as follows:—Guardian, $2,000; Quebec, $5,000; Royal, $10,000; Union, $3,000. The insurance on the stock, amounting to $46,500, was placed as follows:—British American, $3,000; Caledonian, $5,000; Commercial Union, $3,500; Hartford, $2,000; Manitoba, $2,000; Canadian, $1,500; North American, $2,000; North British & Mercantile, $2,500; Northern, $2,500; Phoenix of London, $2,000; Quebec, $1,000; Queen, $2,000; Royal, $2,500; Scottish Union & National, $1,000; Sun, $4,000; Union, $4,000; Equity, $1,500.

Quebec, Feb. 18.—At 4.45 a.m. yesterday a double alarm was sounded for a fire in La France's book bindery and Mercier's printing office at the foot of Mountain Hill. The fire spread to the adjoining building, occupied by Geo. Belleau, wholesale dry goods, and the office of the Canadian Express Company. The two buildings and contents were totally destroyed. Firemen had a hard job owing to severity of weather to keep the fire from spreading further.

The losses are estimated at $90,000, and there is insurance to the amount of about $50,000, as follows:—On the building belonging to Mrs. Wheeler, $13,000, in the Caledonian Company; G. N. Belleau Company, on stock, $32,500, as follows: Insurance Com. of North America, $12,500; Commercial Union, $5,000; Phoenix of Hartford, $2,500; Alliance, $5,000; Atlas, $5,000; National, $2,500. Total $32,500. J. E. Mercier, on printing outfit, Royal, $1,000; Ottawa, $1,000.

The Neptune Inn, owned by Thos. Levallee, has been damaged to the extent of $2,000. He is insured for $13,000. Geo. E. La France had no insurance.

About 5 o'clock a portion of a brick wall collapsed suddenly and three firemen, named Michael Stepleton, Moses Murphy and J. B. Dubuc, were seriously injured.

THE ALASKA COMMISSION.

Canada Pressing to Have Two Representatives.

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—The Dominion Government desires that two of the three British representatives who are to sit on the Alaska judicial tribunal shall be Canadians, and is urging that view upon the Imperial authorities. It is not known how the British Government regards this proposal, but it is hoped that his Majesty's advisers in London will agree to carry out Canada's wishes. Until the point has been settled nothing will be done

In the event of Canada's application being acceded to, the question of selecting two jurists of eminence would arise. There is no question but that, if circumstances permitted, the Prime Minister would be best qualified to represent the Dominion. But an important session of Parliament is about to open, which will render it necessary for the Premier to remain in Ottawa for some months. Then there is the great personal inconvenience which a journey to London and a prolonged stay in the British capital would involve. There seems to be a strong impression, however, that if Canada is given two representatives Mr. Justice Armour will be one. The employment of counsel will be necessary, and Hon. Edward Blake is almost certain to receive a brief as leader. A scientific expert will probably be appointed to advise the British section of the tribunal, and doubtless this honor will fall to the lot of Mr. W. F. King, Dominion Astronomer. Washton despatches have made it appear that the United States jurists will be Hon. Elihu Root and Messrs. Lodge and Turner. No official notification of the appointment of these gentlemen has reached Ottawa, or had not up to a very recent period, and there is a disposition to cast doubt upon the genuineness of the Washington announcement.

C. P. R. Boats Run to Windsor.

Windsor, Ont., Feb. 17.—The "Soo" Line steamers, run in connection with the Canadian Pacific Railway, will make Windsor their railway terminal point this season, instead of Owen Sound, as formerly. Such was the purport of a communication that Samuel Buchanan, the Windsor agent, sent to the City Council last night. Mr. Buchanan's letter was in the form of a petition for electric lights on the C. P. R. docks. It hinted that the intention of the company was to divert much of the traffic which is now being handled through Owen Sound to this city. Thirty-five thousand dollars will be spent in building warehouses and other improvements for handling the freight. A weekly increase in salaries of $500 is accrued.

MR. MUNN'S MOBBED.

DISGRACEFUL SCENE AT AN AURORA MEETING.

The Third Candidate in North York Refused a Hearing and Very Roughly Handled by the Mob—Several Times Knocked Down.

Aurora, Feb. 19.—Mr. Wm. Munns, the third candidate in the field for the riding of North York in the Provincial bye-election, who claims to represent the temperance cause, went through an experience last night which has seldom been paralleled in Canadian annals, and which reflects no credit upon the participants in the disorder. The meeting at Newmarket was rough enough, but Aurora's performance last night eclipsed it completely. The commencement of the meeting promised well, but soon the disorder began. Mr. Munns succeeded, however, in saying a few things, and then gave up because of exhaustion.

Mr. J. M. Walton, Secretary of the Grand Division of the Ontario Sons of Temperance, made a brief speech, showing that Mr. Munns was not supported by any responsible temperance organization, and that the Dominion Alliance had that afternoon passed a resolution regretting that Mr. Munns was in the field. Mr. Walton was the only one to obtain a fair hearing.

When the meeting had broken up as a result of Mr. Munns' failing to tell who had brought him out as a candidate he was roughly handled. A dead skunk was thrown at him from the hall, and a rush was made for the platform that upset everything, benches, chairs and tables. Upon the platform the mob formed a ring about Mr. Munns while he put on his coat and rubbers. Some one then was shoved forward, and soon the luckless candidate was standing at bay in a corner of the wall. Next he was buffeted about and shoved off the platform.

Slowly he made his way to the door, being pushed about and hit at from all quarters, while the young girls in the audience stood up on their chairs, waved their handkerchiefs and shouted. The mob followed along the street, laughing, hooting and flinging derisive epithets at Mr. Munns.

As they neared the hotel Mr. Munns ran a few steps. The crowd doubled up, some jostled him and knocked him down several times. On the steps of the hotel one of the mob jumped upon him and dragged him down the steps, and others piled on. For a moment the situation appeared dangerous, but a few cooler heads interfered, and Mr. Munns was permitted to enter the hotel and go to his room.

For an hour or more the men crowded the hall, hoping for a further chance to molest Mr. Munns, but it was not presented, and in the end peace was obtained.

Mr. J. A. Nicholls of Montreal, who appeared on behalf of Mr. Munns, also had a difficult time, but managed to find safety with Mr. Walton. As the crowd dispersed many threats were made about the morrow.

ON RUSSIA'S ADVICE.

Suggested That Turkey Make Preparations.

Vienna, Feb. 19.—In explanation of the somewhat sudden change in the attitude of the Bulgarian Government it is reported that Russia has replied to the Bulgarian note, protesting against Turkey's mobilization, saying that Russia cannot intervene at Constantinople, more particularly as the Porte is only following Russia's advice to prepare for every eventuality. This reply, it is asserted, was a decided shock to Bulgaria, and considerably modified her views as to a possible conflict.

It is semi-officially stated that the mode of procedure in informing the Porte of the intentions of the signatory powers with regard to reforms in Macedonia will be the presentation of a note by each Ambassador to the Porte. The notes, if not identical in terms, will be so in effect. They will state that the powers join in the Russo-Austrian proposals.

TOO MUCH CHLOROFORM.

Death of E. L. Ebbels, a Kingston Druggist.

Kingston, Feb. 19.—Kingstonians were shocked yesterday when the tragic death of E. L. Ebbels, the young King street druggist, became known. He was addicted to the use of chloroform to obtain immediate sleep, and retiring Tuesday placed a handkerchief saturated with the liquid over his face. Fellow-boarders later on removed the handkerchief, as they had often done before, but the young man seems to have inhaled too strong a dose of the fumes. Not appearing for breakfast, an investigation was made, when his lifeless body was found. He hailed from Port Perry, Ont., and was aged 27 years.

THE INSURANCE FRAUDS.

Promise to Startle the City of New York.

New York, Feb. 19.—Assistant District Attorney Krotal says that the insurance fraud case now under investigation in this city promises to develop into one of the most startling in the criminal history of the city. "I should not be surprised," he said, "if it were proved that the conspirators even went so far as to murder in cold blood, in order to get bodies for the purpose of collecting the policies. The fate of Sarah Weber was but a single instance. We have found that twenty-three substitute bodies were passed off on one insurance company alone. As soon as the plotters are indicted these will be exhumed. The investigation has hardly begun. We have made no great advance, because we have been shadowing some of the guilty ones, and did not care to go too far until they had been arrested, but now the search for supposed victims will be pushed vigorously."

According to stories told by her relatives, Sarah Weber was tortured in order to compel her to aid in the frauds. When the girl left home she had rosy cheeks and was the picture of health. When her family found her she was a shadow of her former self. She told her brother she had been beaten, starved and slashed with knives to force her to help those engaged in the conspiracy.

A NEW ARGUMENT.

C. P. R. Not Exempt From Taxation in the Territories.

Winnipeg, Feb. 19.—The argument in the Canadian Pacific Railway land tax exemption cases was continued before the full court. Mr. Harvey, the Deputy Attorney-General of the Territories, was present to watch the proceedings. The counsel for the plaintiffs, Mr. H. M. Howell, who is acting in reality under instructions from the Minister of Justice, has brought into the discussion an argument hitherto unheard of, that has created a great stir in legal circles. It is in effect that the Dominion Parliament, in granting in 1888 powers of taxation to the Territories, failed to safeguard rights of the Canadian Pacific Railway to an exemption from taxation on its lands, in consequence of which oversight the Territorial Government has been free since that date to levy taxes on the lands of the company.

NO ARGUMENT NEEDED

EVERY SUFFERER FROM CATARRH KNOWS THAT SALVES, LOTIONS, WASHES, SPRAYS AND DOUCHES DO NOT CURE.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy, which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics, scientifically known as Red Gum, Blood Root and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of this new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt, of Rochester, N.Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty-cent box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily, until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask, and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved, until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

COMING BY THOUSANDS.

BOOKING OF BRITISH EMIGRANTS FOR CANADA.

Ten to Fifteen Thousand Expected to Settle in Saskatoon Within the Next Twelve Months.

London, Feb. 19.—Already the proposed all-British colony in Saskatoon is growing steadily. There are 1,850 emigrants booked for the Lake Manitoba, sailing March 25th, and 1,000 leave on the Lake Simcoe on the 21st. In the party are about 400 young women and children. One lady of large means sends out fifteen young men, for whom she has set aside £15,000, to start them as farmers. Rev. Mr. Barr, the leader of the colony, expects from ten to fifteen thousand British people to settle in the Saskatchewan valley before the spring of next year.

Rev. Mr. Barr's emigration project has reached such proportions that he has asked the Dominion Government to reserve forty additional townships for the British colony, and offers to pay entry fees for the colonists at once and locate them within six months. He has secured strong financial support, having on deposit half a million pounds sterling at his immediate disposal. This request will involve a concession from the Dominion Government of more than two million acres of land. This emigration movement to Canada from Great Britain is most remarkable, occurring, as it does, at a time when the South African mine owners are powerless to attract workmen, and Rhodesia remains a land of undeveloped resources.

TO KILL THE KAISER.

Story of Man Pledged to Commit the Crime.

Barcelona, Feb. 19.—The newspapers publish an account of an Anarchist meeting recently held here, at which a German engineer, who had been in Barcelona a fortnight, and who has started for England, declared he pledged himself to make an attempt on the life of Emperor William of Germany.

NEW STEAMSHIP LINE.

Will Run Between Rotterdam and Montreal.

London, Feb. 19.—Thomas Ronaldson & Co., of Rotterdam, announce that the firm has concluded arrangements with Wm. Petersen of Newcastle-on-Tyne to run a regular line of steamers under the title "Canadian Ocean Inland Line," between Rotterdam and Montreal. Vessels will call at Quebec, when sufficient cargo makes it necessary. The company will take goods on through bills of lading to all interior points in Canada. The first sailing from Rotterdam is on April 15th.

Topics of Toronto.

Toronto, Feb. 19.—The Board of Control has practically accepted the Carnegie offer.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Association of Fairs and Exhibitions is in progress.

Hospitals are preparing to make a joint request for an advance of 40 to 50 cents for the per diem allowance for city patients.

The Executive of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance passed a resolution disapproving of Mr. Wm. Munn's candidature in North York.

The mining convention passed resolutions favoring the appointment of a Minister of Mines, the repeal of the duty on coal and the division of the Province into mining districts.

CURLING.

PARKDALE'S GOVERNOR'S PRIZE.

One of the big curling trophies will remain in Toronto this year, the Parkdale Club yesterday winning the Governor-General's prize, which ranks next in importance to the Ontario Tankard. Parkdale got into the finals by defeating Southampton, last year's winners, and Oshawa. In the final Collingwood gave Parkdale a hard fight for the honors, although the local curlers were always ahead. Skip King of Parkdale lost to Wynes of Collingwood by one shot, but clever Charlie Snow defeated the veteran C. Noble by five shots, giving Parkdale a majority of four. King won nine of the thirteen ends and Snow captured twelve of the 22. Noble got away with a five-end on the 21st end, and Wynes scored in the last four, making the finish rather exciting. The closest game of the competition was played in the morning between Collingwood and the Toronto Caledonians, the former club winning by the scant margin of one shot. Sauer of the Caledonians only won one of the last nine ends, and on the final lead he had a chance to pull the game out, but his stone was swept through. The scores:—

THE ROYAL TEMPLARS.

Close of the Convention at Cobourg Resolution Adopted.

Cobourg, Feb. 19.—The Grand Council of Ontario of the Royal Templars of Temperance, which concluded its annual session at an early hour yesterday, passed a resolution which advised the members to look to their political parties for the advancement of prohibitory legislation, and ignored the suggestion of a strictly Prohibition party. The convention barely discussed the political situation in North York, and no motion that the Grand Council should take action with regard to it was made, the feeling of the gathering being that the introduction of independent candidates would be an unwise move. Toronto was selected as the permanent place of meeting of the Grand Council, and the following officers were elected:—Grand Councillor, J. A. Austin, Toronto; Grand Past [illegible]cillor, Frank Buchanan, Toronto; Grand Vice-oCuncillor, Mrs. J. C. Coveney, Toronto; Grand Chaplain, Rev. W. J. Pady, Toronto Junction; Grand Secretary, W. M. McMillan, Hamilton; Grand Auditor, L. C. Peake, Toronto; Grand Medical Referee, Dr. William Crawford, Hamilton; Grand Herald, R. A. Seaman, Listowel; Grand Trustee (one year), K. McKenzie, Picton.

IN THEIR NIGHT APPAREL.

Escape of Guests of St. Clair Hotel, Port Huron.

Port Huron, Mich., Feb. 19.—The St. Clair Hotel, one of the largest hostelries of this city, was burned yesterday. Yardman Worthy is missing. Milton Campbell, a fireman, was fatally crushed under falling walls. Three firemen were slightly injured. All the hotel guests made their escape. Many fled in their night clothes when they awoke to find the house filled with a dense smoke. Loss, $100,000.

Daily Intelligencer.

BRITISH ARMY OFFICERS.

Scores of times, in recent years, have the officers of the British Army come in for a good deal of criticism, not always fair and not always intelligent. The record of the British army officer, like that of the British private, is such that he can stand criticism without being much disturbed. Criticizing the British army is about as useful an occupation as twisting the Lion's tail. It may not be amiss to remark, however, that the right of the public to criticize officials may well be measured by what the public does for those officials. The Ottawa Citizen, whose editor, Capt. Morrison, enjoys probably the highest reputation of any newspaper man in Canada as an authority on things military, offers some very pertinent facts and comments on this side of the question. The Citizen says:

"The ever-ready critics of the British officer seem to forget one important point—that is, that the public itself is responsible for the very condition of affairs it so indignantly denounces. Of all classes of the public service military service is the one which the public does not pay for adequately, yet expects the highest qualifications and ability on the part of those who take its money. A lieutenant in the British service is paid $1.58 a day, the wages which would be earned by an accomplished day laborer in this country, and for that pittance the public expects the services of a man who must be an educated gentleman, with preparatory training of a technical character superior to that of the average professor in a college, beside superior mental and physical qualifications calculated to enable him to exercise that training in instructing those under him and leading them to the best advantage in war. In what branch of public service, from an excise officer to a Superior Court judge, is so much expected in return for such a pittance of public outlay?

"Coming down to a hard common-sense, business basis, Great Britain is lucky to have enough young men of means who are content to accept positions in the army and devote their private incomes to the extent of anywhere from $1000 to $10,000 a year to supplement a pay of a position, in addition to all the preliminary expense of training to qualify for this munificently salaried public office (for that is what it is), which carries with it the joyous possibility of dying of dysentery on the Gold Coast, of cholera in India, a slug from the rifle of some unwashed Boer granger or a jab from the broad-bladed spear of a colored brother in some obscure native war? Suppose all the officers who are supplementing their annual pay with their private means to the extent of $1,000 to $10,000 a year resigned from the army to-morrow, what class of men would the commissions attract with the munificent stipend of $1.58 per day attached to them. A subaltern in the American service gets $5 a day. For such expenditure the public has a right to expect a good return and the holders of the commissions must feel a corresponding responsibility to the public. For the amount expended by the public of Great Britain for trained professional officers we think the public gets the full value of its money and a great deal more. If the British army was officered by men who would be content to accept $1.68 a day for their zealous and undivided attention to the duties of the position the British army would not long have the standing it has to-day."

All of which goes to show that the British army is not run on a business basis, and until that is done the public can keep on criticizing and the British officer will, as the old Englishman said, "keep on never minding it." The day will come, though, when the matter will demand serious attention, both in Great Britain and the Colonies.

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back; bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Rev. Mr. Hunter, the evangelist, in a recent address, said truthfully, that "next to evangelists and ministers no man work as hard as those engaged in newspaper business." And the Rev. gentleman said he knew he was right, for he spoke from experience.

M. K. Cowan, M.P., of Windsor, says the Toronto World, is in the city. He declines to be interviewed. No one will be surprised at the gentleman's refusal to be interviewed, after the exhibition he made of himself in the last interview, in which he boastingly related the conversation he had had with Sir Wilfrid Laurier in re Tarte, and the "snapping of fingers" incident. There is not an M.P. who knows the gentleman and his talking propensities will believe he was misreported.

• • •

The Grit papers are no longer singing the old refrain:

"Hurrah for Tarte,
So bright and smart,
Hurrah for Mulock, too,
Hurrah for McGillicuddy,
And everybuddy
That fights the Tory crew."

No, no, they "snap their fingers" at him now and denounce him as a traitor. Such is Grit life.

The old scheme of forming water connection between Montreal and New York by means of a fourteen foot canal from some point on the St. Lawrence River to the head of Lake Champlain, thence to the Hudson River by a similar channel is again being agitated. This scheme has been before the public for the past 50 or 60 years. Our facilities for reaching United States markets are ample now. What Canada wants, is all that can be secured to reach the sea board through our own Dominion, and that, too, at reasonable rates. There has been too much looking southward instead of eastward.

Hon. Mr. Tarte, through La Patrie, is out dead against the Preferential clause in the Tariff Act, and advocates its repeal, on the ground that England says it's no good to them, and gives nothing in return.

Many are wondering why the bye-election in North Ontario is not to be held on the same day as those of North Grey and others. The reason is easily explained. The other bye-elections being over, the whole force of the boodling brigade will be free to work in North Ontario, into which constituency they will be dumped to work the "machine" for all it is worth. By that time Premier Ross can bring his agent, Bole, from the South to work the West Elgin scheme over again, with the assistance of Capt. Sullivan.

MUST SETTLE BOUNDARY FIRST.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Reply to Senator Fairbanks.

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has recovered from the slight cold which confined him to the house for the past two months and was once more at his office yesterday.

The Prime Minister has received a letter from Senator Fairbanks suggesting that the Joint High Commission should resume its sittings and naming a date early in March for the first meeting. Sir Wilfrid has replied, taking the ground that it would be better to defer going on with the Joint High Commission until the Alaska boundary question is out of the way. A second reason assigned is that, although the sittings of Congress will shortly terminate, thus releasing American politicians from their Legislative labors, the Dominion Parliament is just about to enter upon a session which may be very protracted. It is unlikely, therefore, that any of the members of the Government will be at liberty to participate in the Joint High Commission until late in the coming summer.

The Globe's statement that Hon. Edward Blake would be leading counsel for Canada was verified to-day, when it transpired that the Premier had asked for his appointment. If the precedent of the Bering Sea arbitration is followed there will be four Canadian counsel.

Former Resident Dead

On Sunday morning at seven o'clock the death occurred of Miss Almira Clark, University avenue, Kingston, after an illness of a month of rheumatism of the heart. She and her sister recently moved from Napanee to Kingston to reside. The late Miss Clark attended Queen Street Methodist Church. Miss Clark was a resident in this city for several years, and has several times since then been a visitor here. While here she made many friends. She was an earnest worker in Bridge St. Methodist Church, and a teacher in its Sunday School. When here she resided with her brother, Mr. Frank Clark, who was the accountant in the Merchants Bank.

The Mail and Empire of Toronto says under the heading "Our Petroleum Industry":

"For several years past the average value of production has been about one and three-quarter million dollars per annum. With the large development now being actively pushed by the Dominion Oil Company, Limited, a Canadian corporation chartered for the purpose of acquiring a new discovery, known as the Raleigh Oil Fields, near Chatham, and which own an interest in the now far-famed Gurd Gusher, the largest well ever discovered in the Dominion, the value of the output should very shortly be doubled."

The Chatham Daily News of Jan. 20th says: "The Gurd Gusher is again at work, and demonstrating the fact that she is not a freak well, but a good, money-making proposition. The oil is all going to Sarnia, and so far the Petrolea refinery has not had a show. The good price paid and the compensation for the output prove the great demand for crude oil. The Dominion Oil Company has acquired interests in the Gusher and taken over the leases held by the Gurd Company."

The president of the Dominion Oil Company states, in regard to the production of the Gurd wells, now about 100 barrels of oil per day, that he expects through the installation of an air compressor that the production will be increased to 400 or 500 barrels per day.

This product is now bringing the HIGHEST PRICE OF ANY OIL ON THE NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT.

The company has also just added to its holdings by securing leases on 360 acres additional in the Wheatley district, a very valuable acquisition, and contracts are now being made for active development upon this property. This has been done WITHOUT DRAWING A DOLLAR FROM THE RAPIDLY ACCUMULATING TREASURY FUNDS.

An early advance in the price of this stock is probable, and investors should secure it now while there is time. Remember that the books close Saturday, February 21st, for the March 1st dividend.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

that he could not see how beautiful his home was looking or gaze into the faces of those who waited so anxiously to welcome their beloved physician. Blind some said he was; but the few lines sent to Helen, announcing the day of his arrival, contradicted that report. His eyes were very much diseased, his amanuensis wrote; but he trusted that the pure air of his native hills, and the influence of old scenes and associations would soon effect a cure. "If not too much trouble," he added, "please see that the house is made comfortable, and have John meet me on Friday at the station."

Helen was glad Morris was coming home, for he always did her good; he could comfort her better than any one else, unless it were Katy, whose loving, gentle words of hope were very soothing to her.

"Poor Morris," she sighed, as she finished his letter, and then took it to the family, who were sitting upon the pleasant piazza, which, at Katy's expense and her own, had been added to the house, and overlooked Fairy Pond and the pleasant hills beyond.

"Morris is coming home," she said. "He will be here on Friday, and he wishes us to see that all things are in order at Linwood for his reception. His eyes are badly diseased, but he hopes that coming back to us will cure him," she added, glancing at Katy who sat upon a step of the piazza, her hands folded together upon her lap, and her blue eyes looking far off into the fading sunset.

Katy had never been prettier than she was now, in her mature womanhood, and to the poor and sorrowful whose homes she cheered so often, she was an angel of goodness.

They would miss her at the farmhouse now more than they did when she first went away, for she made the sunshine of their home, filling Helen's place when she was in New York, and when she came back proving to her a stay and comforter. Indeed, but for Katy's presence, Helen often felt that she could not endure the sickening suspense and doubt which hung so darkly over her husband's fate.

"He is alive; he will come back," Katy always said, and from her perfect faith, Helen, too, caught a glimpse of hope.

If Katy thought of Morris she never spoke of him when she could help it. It was a morbid fancy to which she clung, that duty to Wilford's memory required her to avoid the man who had so innocently come between them; and when she heard he was coming home she felt more pain than pleasure, though for an instant the blood throbbed through her veins as she thought of Morris at Linwood just as he used to be.

The day of his return was balmy and beautiful and at an early hour Helen went over to Linwood to see that everything was in order for his arrival, while Katy followed her at a later hour, wondering if Wilford would object if he knew she was going to welcome Morris, who might misconstrue her motives if she staid away.

"He will be tired," she said. "He will lie down after dinner," and she laid a few sweet English violets upon his pillow, thinking their perfume might be grateful to him after the pent-up air of the hospital and cars. "He will think Helen put them there, or Mrs. Hull," she thought, as she stole softly out and shut the door behind her, glancing next at the clock, and feeling a little impatient that a whole hour must elapse before they could expect him.

Poor Morris! he did not dream how anxiously he was waited for at home, nor to the crowd assembled at the depot to welcome back the loved physician, whose name they had so often heard coupled with praise as a true hero, even though his post was not in the front of the battle.

"I smell the pond lilies; we must be near Silverton," he said, and a sigh escaped him as he thought of coming home and not being able to see it or the woods and fields around it. "Thy will be done," he had said many times since the fear first crept into his heart that for him the light had faded.

Just then the long train stopped at Silverton, and, led by his attendant, he stepped feebly into the crowd, which sent up deafening cheers for Dr. Grant come home again. At the sight of his helplessness, however, a feeling of awe came over them, and whispering to each other, "I did not suppose he was so bad," they pressed around him, offering their hands and inquiring anxiously how he was.

It was very pleasant that afternoon, and Morris enjoyed the drive so much, assuring Uncle Ephraim that he was growing better every moment. He did not seem stronger when the carriage stopped at Linwood, and he went up the steps, where Helen, Katy and Mrs. Hull were waiting for him. He could not by sight distinguish one from the other, but without the aid of her voice, he would have known when Katy's hand was put in his. She forgot Wilford in her excitement. Pity was the strongest feeling of which she was conscious, and it manifested itself in various ways.

"Let me lead you, Cousin Morris," she said, as she saw him groping his way to his room, and without waiting for his reply, she held his hand again in hers, and led him to his room, where the English violets were.

"I used to lead you," Morris said, as he took his seat by the window, "and I little thought then that you would one day return the compliment. It is very hard to be blind."

The tone of his voice was inexpressible sad, but his smile was as cheerful as ever as his face turned towards Katy who could not answer for her tears.

Towards the middle of July, Helen, whose health was suffering from the anxiety concerning Mark, was taken by Mrs. Banker to Nahant, where Mark's sister, Mrs. Ernst, was spending the summer, and thus on Katy fell the duty of paying to Morris those acts of sisterly attention such as no other member of the family knew how to pay. In the room where he lay so helpless Katy was not afraid of him, nor did she deem herself faithless to Wilford's memory, beacuse each day seen her at Linwood, sometimes bathing Morris's inflamed eyes, sometimes bringing him the cooling drink, and again reading to him by the hour, until, soothed by the music of her voice, he would fall away to sleep and dream he heard the angels sing.

"My eyes are getting better," he said to her one day towards the latter part of August, when she came as usual to his room. "I knew last night that Mrs. Hull's dress was blue, and I saw the sun shine through the shutters. Very soon I hope to see you Katy, and know if you have changed."

She was standing close by him, and as he talked he raised his hand to rest it on her head, but, with a sudden movement, Katy eluded the touch, and stepped a little farther from him.

When next she went to Linwood, there was in her manner a shade of dignity, which both amused and interested Morris.

In his great pity for Katy when she was first a widow, Morris had scarcely remembered that she was free, or if it did flash upon his mind, he thrust the thought aside as injustice to the dead; but as the months and the year went by, and he heard constantly from Helen of Katy's increasing cheerfulness, it was not in his nature never to think of what might be, and more than once he had prayed, that if consistent with his Father's will, the woman he had loved so well, should yet be his. If not, he could go on his way alone, just as he had always done, knowing that it was right.

A Critical Time in Woman's Life

THE WONDERFUL BENEFIT TO BE OBTAINED BY THE USE OF

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

When you meet with pale, weak women who complain of lack of vigor and vitality and suffer more or less in a feminine way you can be almost sure that they did not have proper care at that critical period in their lives, when the functions of womanhood were developing.

These physiological changes usually take place when girls are bending every effort to succeed in their school work, and are depriving themselves of the outdoor exercise, rest and sleep, which is so important at this time, in order to keep up good health in the face of the strain which is put upon the whole system.

When your daughter gets pale and listless, seems to lose interest in her surroundings, and suffers with stomach pains and headache, you may be sure that her nerve force is being exhausted more rapidly than is being created, and that her nerves and body generally are crying out for more blood—for rich, pure, life-sustaining blood.

As a treatment for growing girls, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has the highest endorsement of all who have tested its virtues. It is successful because it actually forms new, red corpuscles in the blood—increasing the quantity of the blood—and creates new nerve force. Blood and nervous force are consumed at a tremendous rate during this trying time, and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food keeps the supply in excess of the demand.

Miss N. Bone, 29 Alexander street, Belleville, Ont., states:—

"For some time past I have been troubled with nervousness, which was probably due to close confinement at school, and as a result of the nerves being affected I was often quite dizzy. After having taken a course of treatment with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I can say that I am completely restored to health. This preparation seemed to have an upbuilding effect on my system and I am no longer bothered with dizzy spells."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food 50 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

A woman never knows where the match box is.

HAD LA GRIPPE.—Mr. A. Nickerson, farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months, when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

The land area of Hawaii is 4,000,000 acres.

Their gentle action and good effect on the system really make them a perfect little pill. They please those who use them. Carter's Little Liver Pills may well be termed 'Perfection.'

When one gets hopping mad his reason goes on a crutch.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 219 to 119 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

Signed, JEAN VALCOURT,
Wotton, P.Q. General Merchant

If thy friend is honey, do not lick him up altogether.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly, subdues the pain and disease.

Wedding rings in St. Kilda used to be made of worsted.

Use the safe, pleasant, and effectual worm killer, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; nothing equals it. Procure a bottle and take it home.

Do not live near a pious fool.

Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing these troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

The best wheel of fortune is honest labor.

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in the pills. They affect the nerve centres and the blood in a surprisingly active way, and the result is almost immediately seen.

Over 250,000 copies of Charles Dickens' novels are sold annually.

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes; "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

Attend no auctions if thou hast no money.

No one knows better than those who have used Carter's Little Liver Pills what relief they have given when taken for dyspepsia, dizziness, pain in the side, constipation, and disordered stomach.

Iridium, which costs $780 per pound, is the hardest metal known.

Do not despair of curing your sick headache when you can so easily obtain Carter's Little Liver Pills. They will effect a prompt and permanent cure. Their action is mild and natural.

The transient trader problem is one that all places have to deal with. Perhaps the method adopted in Brockville might not suit the views of people who live in other places, but a statement of the fact will be interesting. It seems that an outsider desiring to open business there must first deposit with the Town Treasurer, as a guarantee of good faith, $2.50. This money the town retains for three years, when it is returned if the merchant remains, and he is still a rate-payer of the town. Remarking on this the Kingston Whig says: "This may keep away a sincere intending merchant, but for everyone lost that way it yields a double blessing, inasmuch as it keeps out fake-merchants, who do incalculable harm to the merchants who pay taxes and help to keep the wheels of the municipal machinery in motion."

POLITICAL FINESSE.

Veneuela's Increase in the Import Duty.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The action of Venezuela in declaring as a war measure an increase of 30 per cent. on all imports is regarded here as a keen stroke of political finesse, for practically it amounts to placing the indemnity which Venezuela is to pay the powers wholly upon the shoulders of the foreign merchants, who conduct all of Venezuela's imports. The increase mentioned, 30 per cent., is the same figure as the percentage of custom dues at La Guaira and Puerto Cabello to be assigned to the claimant nations (including the United States).

Saleslady's Backache.

There is many a young woman serving behind a counter who can hardly stand on her feet on account of the excruciating pain that catches her in the small of the back.

Must be cheerful and obliging, though the back be ready to break, the head almost bursting and the whole body racked and worn.

Constant standing affects the kidneys, disturbs their blood filtering functions, then the back aches, the head throbs and you feel unfit for work or pleasure.

It is wonderful in these cases how a few boxes of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets start the kidneys acting properly—they carry off the poisons from the blood, then the back ceases to pain, the head stops aching, and you feel yourself an altogether different woman.

SURPRISING BENEFIT.

Miss Lizzie Nix, whose address is 332 Adelaide Street West, Toronto, Ont., says: "When I commenced to use Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets I was tired of doctoring, for my troubles were severe and of several months' duration, and every previous treatment I took proved unavailing. I had a weak back and kidney trouble, and was nervous and run-down. At first I was skeptical about obtaining any benefit from Dr. Pitcher's Tablets. To say that I was surprised at the results that followed their use is putting it mildly. I was astonished, for from the first few doses I commenced to improve, and to-day finds me a well woman. Every trouble has disappeared, and with my general improvement in strength and weight I consider myself in sound health."

ST. EUSTACHE MURDER.

Suspicion Directed Against Theo. Belanger.

Montreal, Feb. 19.—There is no arrest yet in connection with the St. Eustache murder, but there seems at least to be a clue. A pail or more of bloody snow was found at the barn of Theophile Belanger, the brother-in-law of murdered Antoine Seguin. The find was made at the time the premises were being searched by Detective McCaskill in virtue of a search warrant obtained at Ste. Scholastique, authorizing the detective to search the house and barns of Belanger. He claims the blood is that of a pig.

The inquest was continued. Only two witnessses were heard. One of them, the son of Belanger, did not corroborates the evidence given by his mother yesterday as to the quarrels which existed between the murdered man and his brother-in-law. These were not very serious, but they were quite frequent towards the last.

Inquiries made among the neighbors, who seemingly know as much of the man's affairs as he does himself, bring the information that Belanger has not killed any pigs for a long time. Some of the neighbors also state that within the last few days Belanger has asked a couple of people whether there was any visible difference between human blood and the blood of a pig or any other animal. The search of the premises is being continued.

RACE ANTAGONISM.

Has Now Become Chronic, Says Mr. Chamberlain.

Cape Town, Feb. 19.—Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and his party arrived here yesterday and met with a hearty reception from a crowd of about 10,000 persons awaiting them in Green Market Square. A number of addresses were presented to Mr. Chamberlain. During the reading of one of these Prime Minister Sprigg arrived on the platform and was hooted with much vigor.

Mr. Chamberlain, in the course of his speech, made a powerful appeal for the union of the races. He admitted, however, that since his arrival in Cape Colony he had become less hopeful of immediate satisfactory results from his visit, as he found the antagonism of the two races had become chronic. Rebellion was exalted into heroism, and loyalty was discountenanced and ostracized, even the pulpit joining in the propaganda tending to intensify the separation of the races.

On leaving the platform, Premier Sprigg again was made the subject of a hostile demonstration.

VERDICT FOR SPAIN.

Recovers Big Damages From a Scotch Shipbuilding Firm.

Edinburgh, Scotland, Feb. 19.—The Court of Session has awarded the Government of Spain $337,500, in the action begun here January 20 by the Spanish Minister of Marine, Sanchez Toca, to recover $375,000 from the Clydebank Engineering & Shipbuilding Company because of the company's failure to deliver in contract time four torpedo-boat destroyers which had been intended for use during the Spanish-American war. Lord Kyllachy, the presiding Judge, said he thought it more than probable that if Spain, even in the spring of 1897, had been in a position to establish a really effective blockade in Cuba against the unloading of munitions of war the insurrection might have been crushed and American intervention have been avoided. He, therefore, allowed Spain $2,500 a week for the 135 weeks' delay to which she was entitled under the contract.

He Sat Down.

The curtain had gone down on the first act, when a bullet-headed man, who had come in ten minutes late and disturbed a dozen people to get to a seat, got up. It was time for refreshments. He had been in there twenty-two minutes by the watch, and was suffering untold agonies for a glass of bitter. He started to put on his overcoat, when the strange lady at his side enquired:

"Going out?"

"Yes, madam."

"Coming back after you've had a drink?"

"Ye-yes, madam."

"Well, I came prepared. I have two bottles, one containing Scotch and the other beer. Which will you take?"

"W-w-what!" he stammered, as he looked down upon her with bulging eyes; and gradually his arms fell, and he dropped into his seat with a thud that jarred everybody in the row.—"Pick-Me-Up."

His Maiden Speech.

It is related that when the Earl of Rochester in the reign of Charles II. rose to make his maiden speech in the house of lords he said: "My lords, my lords, I rise this time for the first time—the very first time. My lords, I divide my speech into four branches." Here there was an embarrassing pause of some seconds. "My lords," the earl then ejaculated, "if ever I rise again in this house you may cut me off, root and branches and all, forever."

The Chinese King.

The king is the favorite musical instrument in Chinese temples. In its most perfect form it consists of a number of large flat stones of different shapes and tones. The sound is that of a chime of bells and is singularly clear and musical. The stones are said to be a peculiar variety of basalt found in the mountains to the north of China.

Scotch and Norwegian.

The lowland Scotch are Norse, with a difference. They tell me that broad Scotch would carry one through Norway. I don't believe it. But a Scot could, from the resemblance of his dialect to the Norse, learn the latter in a shorter time than an Englishman.

One of Curran's Witticisms.

Curran, says a writer in the Green Bag, once had as colleague in a case a remarkably tall and slender man, who had originally intended to take orders. When the judge observed that the case involved a question in ecclesiastical law, Curran said, "I can refer your lordship to the high authority behind me, who was once intended for the church, though in my opinion he is fitter for the steeple."

Our prices are as reasonable as our work is superior.

Here Is Your Opportunity

Yours for the asking and a little more.

Before taking stock February 28 we wish to close out a goodly portion of our much too heavy stock of Fancy Goods—comprising China, Art Pottery, Brass Goods, Lamps, Vases, Candlesticks, Candle shades, Pictures, Jardinieres, Leather Goods, etc.

We will make the inducement doubly tempting that all who wish may bave and may buy abundantly.

To this end we open fire with the publication of this advertisement and offer all Fancy goods at the mammoth discount of 30 per cent. from regular prices.

This means $10 of goods for.. .... $7
$1 of goods for..................... 70c

YES, and we will go one better—Will give you 40 per cent. off if you accept a due bill for the discount, same due bill being good at any time for any goods in our store, including Wall Papers, Picture Framing, Paper Hanging, Stationery, Books, etc. This means 10 dollars of goods for 6 dollars.

AGAIN—to this sale we add the balance of our 1902 wall paper stock at the same discounts—30 per cent. regular.
40 per cent. due bill.

We mean in this way to close out every roll of last year's papers, and have nothing but 1903 papers for our customers.

Never Too Old To Get Well.

Stricken With Paralysis at Eighty-Eight Years of Age, Mr. F. A. Knapp Comes Very Near Death's Door.

Without Hope of a Cure He Tried Powley's Liquified Ozone and Was Pleasantly Surprised With Beneficial Results.

Gradually He Improved, Day by Day Growing Stronger, Until Every Trace of This Usually Fatal Disease Was Eradicated.

POWLEY'S LIQUIFIED OZONE CURES DISEASE BY DESTROYING DISEASE GERMS WHEREVER LOCATED.

It is with great pleasure I add a few particulars of the perfect relief of a somewhat dangerous and very disagreeable ailment with which I have been afflicted for about three years past.

The several consultations I have had on the nature of this complaint doubtlessly convinces medical men that I was suffering from paralysis, and the only advice possible to give under the circumstances was to keep quiet, without any hopes of a perfect eradication of the disease itself.

In order to exhibit to you a more detailed synopsis of the usual operation of the disease I will relate how the last attack proceeded in its course. On May 14, 1902, while spending the day with friends at Shannon street, the first symptoms appeared in the third finger of the left hand, very similar to a gentle shock of electricity. In this manner it crept up the arm, reaching the brain, when all power of articulate speech ceased and a comatose state supervened, lasting about four hours, when sensation gradually returned. Since that time very slight symptoms of ptylism have been experienced, but at present no remains exist.

Now, in order to account for so sudden a total cure of such a generally fatal affliction, we have to refer to two causes, either the interminate counsels of Higher Powers or the result of happily having taken the contents of a small bottle of Powley's Liquified Ozone, taken, not with the hope of curing paralysis, but to try its effect on the system.

I have since seen wonderful results from the use of this remedy, and earnestly recommend its application to all sufferers.

I am, yours sincerely,
(Signed) F. A. KNAPP,
98 Huntley st., Toronto, Ont.
Toronto, Oct. 25, 1902.

MR. F. A. KNAPP.

The Reason Why Ozone Cures.

"How is it," enquires a correspondent, "that Ozone cures Rheumatism as well as Consumption, Asthma as well as Kidney Trouble, and Catarrh as well as Dyspepsia? These diseases are not at all similar, and a medicine that would cure one of them would probably be useless with the other."

The answer to this is: Powley's Liquified Ozone is not a medicine. It contains no drugs, but simply cures by destroying disease germs wherever located. Medical men are unanimous in stating that nine-tenths of all disease is caused by disease germs in some form. It has been conclusively proven in hundreds of different cases that Ozone destroys these germs and that when they are destroyed the patient invariably gets well. It is for this reason that Ozone effects cures that seem almost impossible and it is also the reason it cures so many different diseases.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is sold only by reliable druggists—never by peddlers. The price is 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. Our free booklet on receipt of your name and address.

HOLLOWAY.

The weather at present is delightful. The electrical storm that passed over this vicinity on Jan. 29th brought us fine weather, as some of our old people mentioned at the time, would be the case.

Our school is progressing favorably under the careful training of Miss Gowsell. Ethel seems to be a general favorite.

Wood hauling seems to be the order of the day, as most of our farmers are taking advantage of the good roads.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilson spent a couple of days in Stirling a short time ago.

A number of young men took advantage of the glorious night on Monday last and escorted a number of young ladies to the Plainfield ball.

Mr. Robert Francis Elliott and Miss Welch were joined together as man and wife on Wednesday evening. We all join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Two little visitors have arrived in the form of baby girls, one at the home of Mr. James McMullin and the other at Mr. Robert Smith's.

Mr. S. Dafoe, who had his leg so badly fractured, is able to be out again.

Mr. Harry Dafoe's baby has been on the sick list.

Mr. O. Mackelroy has secured a position as cheese-maker back of Tweed.

We are informed that a large price has been offered for April cheese, as high as 13c, which will no doubt make the farmers smile.

PICTON MAN MARRIED IN OIL CITY, PA.

ART AND FASHION LIBERALLY REPRESENTED AT THE HEPBURN-KELLY NUPTIALS ON WEDNESDAY LAST.

(Oil City Derrick, Feb 12.)

A largely attended and beautifully appointed wedding and reception took place at the parlors of the Arlington last evening when Miss Blanche M. Kelly, daughter of the proprietor, William F. Kelly, was married to John de Congalton Hepburn, of Picton, Ontario.

The bride occupies a prominent position in the social circles of Warren, her former home, as well as in Oil City and Franklin, and the ceremony had much more than ordinary interest. It took place at 9 o'clock and was performed by Rev. A. R. Taylor, D.D., rector of Trinity Episcopal church of Warren. The attendants were Mrs. E. D. MacKenzie, of Toronto, Can., as matron of honor; little Miss Helen Fawcett as flower girl and Wallace King and Donald McOuen as ribbon bearers. B. R. Hepburn, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride's gown was of white satin point d'esprit, with satin roses appliqued and pearl trimming. Her veil was caught at the forehead with a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. MacKenzie wore white lace and chiffon and carried a bouquet of white roses. The flower girl's gown was of white silk mull and she carried a basket of pink carnations.

A feature of the ceremony was the elaborate and artistic nature of the floral decorations. The service was performed in the southern half of the large double parlors of the hotel, which last night were thrown into one room and were decorated throughout with palms, ferns and white roses, the color scheme in the decorations being green and white in all of the rooms. The large open fireplace was banked high with palms and white flowers and in front of it was a white bear skin robe and two white satin pillows, upon which the bride and groom knelt during the blessing.

The impressive and solemn Episcopal ritual service was carried out with ring. The ribbon bearers entered the room and with wide satin ribbons formed a lane from the door to the temporary altar and were immediately followed by the groom and best man, who took their places at one side. The matron of honor, preceded by the flower girl, was followed by the bride, supported upon the arm of her father.

The reception hall ends in a large plate-glass mirror that extends from ceiling to floor and is of the same width as the hall. The sides of this were concealed by a drapery of roses, carnations and smilax, and the effect was that of a long corridor, the number of guests and the hall illuminations being duplicated, making it one of the most effective portions of the general arrangements.

The dining hall has repeatedly been the scene of many large and brilliant gatherings and its decorations have been remarked upon by the guests present in the past, but those of last night seemed the acme of artistic effect. The pillars and chandeliers were draped in vines so placed that their lines were as graceful as in nature and there seemed no studied effect.

The bride's table had places for 16. At each end was a candelabrum of cut glass, with silver shade holders. Overhead, the ends of four ropes of smilax were caught in a common center and the other ends draped away to each of the four corners of the table. In this canopy was constructed a pyramid of lilies of the valley, the choicest roses and a few carnations. Close at its side was a small beautifully decorated table set apart for the little attendants.

Fessenden's full orchestra furnished appropriate music previous to and during the ceremony, during the reception to the bride and groom and throughout supper, which was of an elaborate nature.

The formal reception took place at 9.30 o'clock. There were about 300 guests present. The costumes of the lady guests were beautiful, and with the brilliant illuminations of the rooms and their wealth of flowers and vines, the scene was strikingly beautiful.

There was one room to which only a few of the most intimate friends were invited, the room set apart for the display of gifts to the bride. They were beautiful in material and design and were numerous enough to completely fill the room, and it was not a small one. The following is a partial list of the out-of-town guests:

Pittsburg—Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Weart, Mr. and Mrs. George H. King.

Warren—Rev. A. R. Taylor, D.D.; Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Printz, W. B. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J. DeFreese, G. N. Parmlee.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Hepburn, Picton, Ont.; O. B. Bennie, Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. MacKenzie, Toronto, Ont. There were quite a number from Franklin as well as of Oil City.

Following their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hepburn will make their home at Picton, Ont. Mr. Hepburn has general management of the forwarding of the freight of one of the large steamship lines carrying lake freight and makes Picton his headquarters.

A Prominent Labor Man of Toronto Speaks of the Great Benefit He Received Through the Use of O. R. Kidney Cure.

Toronto, Nov. 16, 1902.

To the O. R. Medicine Co., Limited:

Gentlemen,—I certainly owe you a letter of thanks for the benefit I have received through the use of your O. R. Kidney Cure and Liver Pills. I am a carpenter, and have been greatly handicapped in my work through being troubled with lame back and sore kidneys. I doctored without receiving any benefit, and would be compelled to quit work for a week at a time. I was very bad, and could hardly walk when I heard of the O. R. Kidney Cure. I procured a bottle and in less than one hour after taking the first dose I was relieved of pain, and in three days I was at work; and have been at work every day since. I followed up the Kidney Cure by the use of the O. R. Liver Pills, taking one after dinner, and have never felt better than at the present time. I believe that I am permanently cured.

Sincerely yours,
M. A. MERRITT,
1227 Queen St.

O.R. Kidney Cure will cure all diseases of the kidneys and rheumatism. For sale by druggists; 50c per bottle, or by mail, postage free,

COLD JOB FOR FIREMEN

BLAZE IN A HOUSE ON NORTH MOIRA ST. LAST NIGHT.

Last night was a rather severe one to be turned out of a home unceremoniously, but such was the luck which befel one family in this city. Shortly after 9 o'clock fire was discovered in a house on North Moira street, occupied by Mr. Randall Sandford. The blaze was in the roof and had considerable headway when seen. Despite the severe cold the firemen worked heroically and saved the building. The roof and upper portion were however, badly damaged. The property is owned by Mr. Hy. Hunt, and the loss is covered by insurance. Mr. Sandford's loss is covered by an insurance of $500 in the Metropolitan. It is supposed that the fire caught about the chimney.

THE AGONIZING PAINS OF RHEUMATISM.

Swollen, aching joints, muscles are stiff and sore, every movement accompanied by pain. The most potent remedy is Polson's Nerviline, which has five times the pain-subduing power of any other preparation. Apply the Nerviline copiously, rub it on well and then bind in a hot flannel bandage. This will cure the worst cases in a short time. Try Nerviline for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica or Lumbago—it's all right and only costs a quarter.

SPORTING COMMENT.

The result of the Belleville-Marlboro hockey match will be announced between the acts at "Pinafore" to-night. Half-time and full-time.

The battle-scarred hockey boys are fairly fit for their game to-night with the Marlboros, and may be depended on to give a good account of themselves. The team left on the flyer at 1.50, both Allen and Marks accompanying them. It is not yet known which of them will play. The friends of the boys would feel more confident if they had fewer cuts and bruises to take with them, but the lads will do their best, and the best team in the world couldn't do any more. An Intelligencer representative accompanied the team, and, if the train doesn't run off the track or hit something, our readers will get a full account of the match in tomorrow night's paper. Mr. E. H. Telfer will referee. He's good enough for the Red and White boys.

Kingston Whig:—It is declared by a well-known citizen, who witnessed the Belleville-K.B.C.-Ramblers' match here, that the person who hit Brown, of Belleville, did not belong to Kingston. He informed the rink authorities immediately afterwards that the man was a stranger.

Tell that to the marines.

Toronto Star:—Mr. E. H. Telfer, who gave such excellent satisfaction in last night's O.H.A. game at the Mutual Street Rink, will leave next week for Winnipeg, where he will reside in future. Mr. Telfer hails from Collingwood, and has been a prominent figure in sporting circles for some years, his specialties being curling and hockey. Mr. Telfer will travel west from Winnipeg for a wholesale grocery firm and will carry a side line of valuable information about Ontario hockey.

HOCKEY.

Kingston Kids Won the Game.

There was a very small crowd, indeed, in the rink last night to see Varsity Third and the Beechgrove-Frontenacs play their sudden death game. The ice was very fast, the checking close and the score a tie at the end of the second half. In the play-off the Kingston lads won out, the final score being 5-4, though Varsity claimed another, saying the puck went through the net, thus making the score a tie. However, the goal umpire did not allow it, and when the argument was raging at the conclusion of the match, he had taken to the woods. It cannot truthfully be said that the best team won, for the Varsity boys did fully three-fifths of the attacking, but their shooting was weak, the puck gliding along the ice and being easily stopped, whereas a shot a foot higher would have been a sure goal. The College boys played a hard game, their point and goal-keeper especially distinguishing themselves. The Kingston boys did not display anything like the form shown in the last half of their match with Cobourg here, though perhaps they were checked too close for any brilliant play. The Kingston defence worked well, and the little goal-keeper was a tower of strength to his team. There was a lot of slashing and swiping, and at times the game was more like shinny than up-to-date hockey. Taking the game altogether, it must be admitted that the Kingston Kids played a fairer game than the Collegians. The latter indulged in a lot of body-checking, and used rougher tactics than the Beechgroves. However, there was very little deliberate dirty play on either side, and Referee McCabe had a fairly easy job. The teams were:

Beechgrove-Frontenacs — McDowell goal, C. Robinson point, Harold Clarke cover point, Herb. Clarke centre, Potter rover, Kidd and Williams wings.

Varsity—Roberts goal, Fletcher point, Broadfoot cover point, Stewart centre, Montague rover, Corruth and Robertson wings.

Kingston scored the first goal after 24 minutes hard play, and that settled the scoring for the first half. In the second Varsity pressed hard and had all the better of the play, the Kingston lads being on the defensive most of the time. Kingston got an easy goal on a lift from cover point. The puck bounced over the Varsity cover's stick and rolled easily past the point and goal-keeper into the net. Then Varsity scored one by a nice bit of combination, and just before time was up got another, leaving the score a tie at the end of time. The teams had a rest and then played two five-minute ends. Strangely enough, more goals were scored in the ten minutes than had been in the first hour. Kingston got the fifth game and Varsity the sixth, the Beechgroves capturing the seventh and eighth. After five minutes rest they were at it again. Varsity scored another, and also claimed to have scored another which tied the score, but the goal umpire did not allow it, the referee's decision being 5-4 in favor of Kingston. Varsity, however, will protest the game, and have the affidavits of no less than twelve reputable gentlemen who affirm that they saw the disputed goal scored. It is likely the O. H. A. will order the match to be played over.

MANY CEMENT MEN IN THE CITY TO-DAY

CONTRACTS FOR MACHINERY AT WORKS TO BE AWARDED AT MEETING THIS EVENING.

Hotel Quinte register this morning contained the autographs of many gentlemen interested in the proposed works at Point Ann. Among the names we noticed the following: Messrs. W. Pinkerton, W. R. Mead, Alf. Essex, Thos. Ansley, Geo. W. Gowanlock, Chas. Lyon, B. Gibson and J. C. Armstrong, of Toronto; John McGowan, M.P., of Elora; W. Williamson, and John McNab, of Guelph. It was learned that several others are also in the city in connection with the cement question. An Intelligencer representative learned that the party had gone out to Point Ann to inspect the company's property there, but will return this afternoon, when important meetings are to be held.

A call at the company's business office, on Bridge St., lately occupied by Mr. H. Corby, resulted in the information being obtained that at a meeting to be held to-night the directors of the company will award contracts for much of the machinery to be used in the works. No less than fifteen foundrymen and manufacturers, we were told, are in the city prepared to bid for the contracts. The matter will be fully reported tomorrow.

The Bridge St. building has been entirely rearranged since the Cement Company took possession, and handsome new carpets, furniture and decorations meet the eye. The directors of the Belleville Portland Cement Company evidently mean to do things up in style.

Work in connection with the railway at Point Ann, we were informed, is progressing satisfactorily, some fifty men being employed.

Suspended Sentence.

The lad Harland Hulley, who pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing some money from the pocket of a garment at the Y.M.C.A., was brought up this morning. The Magistrate, after dealing out to the culprit a severe reprimand, imposed a suspended sentence of one year in the Reformatory.

Alleged Assault and Robbery.

James Marlow, Fred McHugh and Fred Day were charged with assaulting John Connors and stealing $5.75 from him. The plaintiff on Saturday last went over the bay to remain over Sunday with Horace Dickson who lives in a shanty on what is known as Young's Island. During Saturday three young men visited the place and assaulted both Connors and Dickson, and the three charged are alleged to be the guilty parties. Another young man who was charged was honorably acquitted. The case was in progress this afternoon. Mr. Anderson represented the Crown, Mr. Carnew for Marlow and Mr. McMahon for McHugh and Day.

TRAVELLING ART EXHIBIT OF GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM.

Arrangements have been completed by the passenger department of the Grand Trunk Railway System whereby its annual travelling picture exhibit, that has created such favorable comment throughout the United States, will start out on a three months' tour commencing February 1. The itinerary of the trip covers some of the principal Southern and Middle States, and includes the following cities: Atlanta, Ga.; Birmingham, Montgomery and Mobile, Ala.; New Orleans, La.; Houston, San Antonio and Dallas, Texas; Memphis, Nashville, Chattanooga and Knoxville, Tenn.; Richmond, Va.; Elmira, Binghampton and Utica, N. Y. The tour is so arranged that the exhibit will be on view at New Orleans, La., during the "Mardi Gras" festival, which will take place February 22-4. The exhibition will be composed of more than 100 of the large advertising pictures, illustrating the several summer resort districts located on the line of the railway, and including the regions in the "Highlands of Ontario," the several resorts in the White Mountains of New England, and the bathing beaches on the coast of Maine. In addition to these there will be a series of mounted fish native to the waters of Canada, including black bass, maskinonge, wall-eyed pike (dore), brook trout, and other varieties. A representative of the Grand Trunk will accompany the exhibit, and handsome illustrated descriptive publications will be distributed gratuitously at each point.

Harmonic Revivalists

The Harmonic Revivalists have been holding special services at the Salvation Army barracks since last Friday evening, with considerable success. The troupe consists of Adjt. and Mrs. Kendall and Capt. Owen, Capt. Ash; in all their services there are plenty of music and singing. They continue their meetings every night until Monday next, when they will farewell with a singing battle. All are cordially invited to all the services.

TURNING DOWN THE DOCTORS.

The marvellous cures of Catarrhozone are being much talked about. Thousands are daily recognizing the exceptional merit of this simple inhaler treatment, and instead of running to the doctor with their winter ills they protect themselves by Catarrhozone. It kills colds in the head in ten minutes, quickly relieves Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Lung Troubles, and cures even though all other remedies have failed. Catarrhozone is very pleasant, safe and convenient to use. Its best recommendation is its enormous sale; try it today. Price $1.00; small size, 25c., at druggists.

G.T.R. EXPRESS TRAIN DITCHED.

Several Passengers Cut And Badly Bruised.

The Official Report Says None Seriously Hurt.

Within the past few weeks a number of accidents have occurred along the line of the Grand Trunk Railway between this city and Toronto, and this morning another was added to the list.

At about 10 o'clock rumors were flying about the street that an express train had been ditched near Oshawa and a number of passengers killed and injured. Enquiries being made, it was ascertained that a serious accident had occurred, but the report in reference to killed and injured was greatly exaggerated. The accident did not take place near Oshawa, but about half a mile east of Whitby station. The facts of the accident as far as could be ascertained were as follows:

No. 3 express, or better known as the International express, is due to arrive here at 4.05, leaving 5 minutes later. This morning it was nearly two hours late in arriving here and left shortly before 6. The train was proceeding along at a high rate of speed near Whitby, when the engine struck, it is alleged, a broken rail, causing it to leave the track, followed by the baggage car and passenger coaches. The latter were derailed and sent some distance off the track, and it seems miraculous that no person was killed, but such was the case. Several passengers were cut by broken glass and others were badly shaken up and bruised by being thrown violently about the coaches. The official report of the accident stated that none of the passengers or the employees were seriously injured.

As soon as the message reached the G.T.R. authorities here the auxiliary was called out and left in a few minutes for the scene. Attached to the wrecking train were four passenger cars. Dr. Gibson, from this city, went with the auxiliary to the scene. Physicians from Whitby, Oshawa and other places were also despatched to the wreck. The engineer on the express was Edward Ireland, of Toronto, and the fireman was also from the Queen City.

Official Report.

An official report sent from Montreal of the accident says:

Reports so far received at headquarters are to the effect that there were no fatalities and only a few passengers sustained slight injuries. Conductor Stuart, Baggageman Lappage and Brakeman Cusack were hurt, last named having a leg broken and a shoulder injured. The cause of the accident is not yet known.

From parties who arrived in the city this afternoon from the west, and who had an opportunity of viewing the wreck, the opinion was expressed that it seemed a miracle that a number were not killed, as some of the cars went over quite an embankment. The engine remained on the road bed.

At least one well-known young Bellevillian was on board the train, namely, Mr. Lester Riggs, who last evening accompanied the Varsity hockey team to the city. It was a relief to his parents here when they learned that no one was seriously injured.

PERSONAL ...AND... SOCIAL.

The Intelligencer invites all its readers to contribute to this column all items of a personal nature, such as the arrival or departure of guests, the movements of well-known people, business men, etc. All that is required is to send a post card to or telephone the Intelligencer.

Mr. Geo. Pretty, Cedar St., is confined to the house suffering with pneumonia.

Mr. Wm. McIntosh was in Montreal yesterday on business and will also visit New York before returning home.

Miss German, of Tyendinaga, has returned home after visiting Mrs. Fisher, Pine street. She was accompanied by Mrs. Fisher, who will also visit friends in Napanee before returning to the city.

The Hon. David Wark, Senator, of Fredericton, N.B., is 99 years old today, and travelling on to the hundredth. That he may reach and exceed it is the prayer of all. He attended the last session of the Senate in full vigor of health.

STARVING TO DEATH.

Assyrian Murderer in Cornwall Jail on Verge of Collapse.

Cornwall, Feb. 19.—Halil Perhome, the Assyrian murderer, awaiting trial in Cornwall jail, is slowly starving himself to death. For the past two months Perhome has partaken very little of the prison fare, and recently he has become more obstinate and refuses to speak to anyone. Only occasionally at the noon meal will he partake of any of the victuals placed before him. He is gradually growing weaker and his mental faculties, which have all along seemed to be weak, are becoming worse, and he seems to be on the verge of a collapse.

KILLED FOR A BEAR.

THE SHOOTING OF ROBERT JOHNSON OF TORONTO.

His Comrades, by Whose Unfortunate Mistake He Was Killed, Sent For Trial on a Charge of Manslaughter.

Bracebridge, Feb. 19.—On Thursday of last week Robert Johnson of Toronto was shot on the long swamp road, three-quarters of a mile from Utterson, in the district of Muskoka. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict that Johnson came to his death from wounds received from a Martini rifle in the hands of Edward Hunter of Wyevale, and that Henry Guest of Wyevale, Edward Dunn nad Albert Laking of Utterson and Samuel Burely of Orillia were equally culpable.

The preliminary investigation was concluded before Police Magistrate Spencer of this place last evening, and all of the prisoners were committed for trial on a charge of manslaughter. Mr. O. M. Arnold was counsel for Hunter and Mr. T. Godson for the other defendants. It appeared from the evidence that the defendants and the deceased were engaged in a lumber camp near Utterson. Johnson left the camp the morning of the 11th after breakfast, and went to Utterson, where he became intoxicated. About 5 o'clock in the evening he started up the north road towards the camp. No one saw him alive to speak to him after that. About 7.30 in the evening the defendants Laking and Dunn left the camp for Utterson, and as they came to the end of the long swamp road they saw what they took to be a bear lying at the edge of the track. They hurried back towards the camp and met the other three boys, and told them there was a bear in the road, and asked Hunter to get his gun. He went back to the camp, and in a short time returned with the rifle. The five then proceeded along the road until they came within about thirty yards of the supposed bear. It had not yet moved. They all still supposed it to be a bear, and three shots were fired, two of which penetrated the body. They then approached and ascertained that it was their comrade, Johnson, whom they had shot.

They surrendered themselves at Utterson, and had the body brought there, where the post-mortem was held the next day. They were all good friends with the deceased, and familiarly called him "Old Dad" in the camp.

MR. COLMER RESIGNS.

Secretary in High Commissioner's Office Joins a Banking Firm.

London, Feb. 19.—It will be publicly announced to-day that Mr. J. G. Colmer, C.M.G., has resigned his position as Secretary in the office of the High Commissioner for Canada, a position which he has held for twenty years, to become a partner in the well-known Anglo-Canadian financial house of Coates, Son & Co.

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—The resignation of Mr. Colmer was not unexpected. The salary of the position is $3,300. Mr. Colmer's retirement is likely to be followed by a reorganization of the staff.

SALARIES REARRANGED.

New System Adopted in the Civil Service.

Toronto, Feb. 19.—The Provincial Cabinet spent a busy afternoon on the estimates yesterday, and it is expected this work will be well in hand when the House meets. In nearly all the departments of the service a graded scale of clerkship is being adopted, on the lines followed at Ottawa, as outlined in The Globe several weeks ago. This has resulted in increases in salaries being provided in quite a number of cases, which is considered quite in accordance with the increased cost of living. Under this plan there will be a minimum and maximum salary for each grade, and the increase will be more or less automatic, consistent with good behavior.

Died From Smallpox.

Stratford, Feb. 18.—(Special.)—One of the South Easthope smallpox patients, Mr. Henry S. Bean, died today. He was about 55 years of age and contracted the smallpox about two weeks ago. The Board of Health of the Township of North and South Easthope have ordered a general vaccination. No children in either township will be allowed to attend school until vaccinated.

The Ice-bound Steamers.

Halifax, Feb. 18.—No definite report regarding the position of the steamers Stanley and Minto could be obtained this afternoon. Thick weather prevails, and it is impossible to see the steamers from the shore.

TELEGRAPH BREVITIES.

Mr. James Scott has been appointed postmaster at Clinton.

William Burley of Hungerford, Hastings County, is dead at the age of 104 years.

Mr. John Davis of Hagersville was killed in a collision on the M. C. R. at Perry Station.

Three hundred employees of the McLaughlin Carriage Company at Oshawa are out on strike.

Prince Komatsu, who was the envoy of Japan at the coronation of King Edward, died at Yokohama from an affection of the brain.

Mr. W. L. Mackenzie King, Deputy Minister of Labor, will leave for British Columbia in order to try and bring about a settlement of the coal miners' strike.

Premier Balfour's supporters admit that he is not in good form. He shows signs of physical weakness and nervousness, hesitating and stammering in making replies to the Opposition bench.

WHITEWEAR SALE

We are going to ask a favor of you—we think it in your interests as well as our own but you will at least be favoring us greatly by waiting until our Whitewear showing arrives before making your purchases.

These we ordered—as we thought—in plenty of time but owing to rush of business the manufacturers have been unable to make delivery. They will be here very soon, however, and you will be amply repaid for your indulgence in our behalf.

Successful Whitewear depends on three things, Right Styles—Right Workmanship—Right prices.

We are confident of our ability this season to surpass all previous records. STYLE and WORKMANSHIP are as usual THE BEST and superior buying conditions—for the first time available and only by us, in this district—enable us to show values that have never been equalled here. But we await your opinion. We will let you know when they arrive.

SUITS

We extend a cordial invitation to all the ladies to inspect our spring suit showing whenever convenient. It's a pleasure to show such pretty things, and we know, the best advertisement is in the opinion you will carry away.

The RITCHIE COMPANY Limited.

Chesley, Feb. 19.—The convention at Glammis to-day decided not to bring out any third candidate in Centre Bruce, but a resolution was passed appointing Rev. P. M. McEachren and Thomas Pickard a deputation to attend the nomination at Chepstowe today and ask the candidates to sign a pledge to support temperance legislation in the House, and out of it, and to support the candidate giving such pledge or either if both should give a pledge. It is understood that the Liberal candidate has already given satisfactory assurances.

GOVERNMENT CLERK.

A. MARTINEAU CHARGED WITH STEALING MILITIA FUNDS.

Sum May Exceed $30,000—Had Several Thousand Dollars When Arrested—Startling Affair at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Feb. 20.—A. Martineau, junior clerk in the accountants' branch of the Militia Department, was arrested yesterday, charged with theft. No particulars were given in the police blotter, but it is alleged that the prisoner has misappropriated a considerable sum of money belonging to the Government, and it is stated that the total may exced thirty thousand dollars. Martineau's duties in the Militia Department required him to check the vouchers for expenditures made by the department. The authorities will furnish no explanation as to the alleged method of procedure, but it is said that Martineau made out checks in his own favor, and got them cashed at the Sovereign Bank. For some time past Mr. Borden, the accountant of the department, suspected that something was going wrong, and secretly made inquiries. The result was to establish the fact that serious irregularities had been in progress. Mr. Borden had an interview with his Minister, Sir Frederick Borden, and laid the whole matter before him. The latter authorized Lieut.-Col. Sherwood, Commissioner of Dominion Police, to conduct an investigation. The Commissioner of Police, accordingly, sent for Martineau, and catechized the latter, with respect to the alleged irregularities. Martineau is said to have made statements tending to throw responsibility on the bank. Colonel Sherwood then said that Martineau had better come along to the bank and clear the thing up. The two walked down from the eastern block to the Sovereign Bank in the Russell House block on Sparks street. On reaching the entrance of the bank Col. Sherwood turned to go in, when Martineau darted away. Instantly the commissioner jumped into a sleigh, and pursued the fugitive, who was overtaken before he had gone far, hustled into the conveyance, and brought to the eastern block. There he remained until about 6.45, when he was removed to the city police station, and a charge of theft registered against him. Martineau has been in the Government's service about twelve or eighteen months. Previous to that he is said to have worked with a commercial agency at Montreal. He was passionately fond of speeding on the bicycle and motocycle, and is said to have won a championship match at Manhattan Gardens. There are also rumors that he has been speculating in stocks. He has always been well thought of, and his friends are loth to believe that he has been guilty. Martineau is said to have had $11,000 or $15,000 in his possession when arrested.

IN CENTRE BRUCE.

Prohibitionists Will Support Dr. Stewart, Liberal.

Chepstow, Ont., Feb. 20.—Dr. J. M. Stewart, Liberal, and Major Hugh Clark, Conservative, were nominated here to contest Centre Bruce for the Ontario Legislature. The election will take place on Feb. 26.

The temperance delegation submitted a number of questions to the candidates. To these Dr. Stewart answered yes. Mr. Clark refused to give a definite answer, and in accordance with these resolutions the Prohibitionists of Centre Bruce promised their support to Dr. Stewart.

Mr. G. P. Graham, M.P.P., was present, and delivered a strong address upon the public questions of the day.

DEATH OF MRS. MACLENNAN.

The Wife of Justice Maclennan—Devoted Her Life to Good Works.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—In the death of Elizabeth McGill Strange, wife of Mr. Justice Maclennan, which occurred at her home, 10 Murray street, yesterday, the community suffers a great loss. Mrs. Maclennan was a woman possessed of sterling qualities, and one of whom it may be said she devoted her life to good works. She was a daughter of John Maxwell Strange of Toronto, who died in 1854, and her mother's maiden name was Margaret Ewart. Both the Strange and the Ewart families have been prominent in Toronto's history, deceased's grandfather being the late John Ewart The only surviving brother of Mrs. Maclennan is Mr. C. O. Strange of Osgoode Hall. J. S. Ewart, K.C., of Winnipeg, is a cousin. Deceased was a niece of Sir Oliver Mowat, from whose house she was married. Mrs Maclennan devoted much time to work for the Industrial Refuge and the Aged Women's Home. She was an active worker in St. Andrew's Church, and had been General Treasurer of the Women's Missionary Society for years She also took a deep interest in the work of the Atlin Hospital. The funeral takes place on Saturday afternoon and will be private.

THINK IT OVER

SOMETHING YOU CAN SEE IN ANY RESTAURANT OR CAFE.

A physician puts the query: Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at lunch or dinner time the large number of hearty, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from 60 to 80 years; many of them bald and all perhaps gray, but none of them feeble or senile?

Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation or comment, but, nevertheless, it is an object lesson which means something.

If you will notice what these hearty old fellows are eating you will observe that they are not munching bran crackers, nor gingerly picking their way through a menu card of new fangled health foods; on the contrary they seem to prefer a juicy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.

The point of all this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and plenty of wholesome food and not upon dieting and an endeavor to live upon bran crackers.

There is a certain class of food cranks who seem to believe that meat, coffee and many other good things are rank poisons, but these cadaverous, sickly-looking individuals are a walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digestive juices in sufficient quantity any wholesome food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do so, and certain foods cause distress one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty, because they supply just what every weak stomach lacks, pepsin, hydro-chloric acid, diastase and nux.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not act upon the bowels, and in fact are not strictly a medicine, as they act almost entirely upon the food eaten, digesting it thoroughly, and thus gives a much-needed rest and giving an appetite for the next meal.

Of people who travel nine out of ten use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, knowing them to be perfectly safe to use at any time, and also having found out by experience that they are a safeguard against indigestion in any form, and eating as they have to, at all hours and all kinds of food, the travelling public for years have pinned their faith to Stuart's Tablets.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents for full sized packages, and any druggist from Maine to California, if his opinion were asked, will say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most popular and successful remedy for any stomach trouble.

DOWN AN EMBANKMENT.

G. T. R. EXPRESS WRECKED AT WHITBY JUNCTION.

A Broken Rail Caused the Accident—Miraculous Escape of the Passengers—Only One or Two Seriously Injured.

Whitby, Feb. 20.—The frost caused a rail to break in the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway half a mile east of Whitby. The first train to pass over the track, the Chicago express from Montreal, tumbled thirty feet into the field below. Six cars followed each other over the steep embankment just east of the junction, and rolled down the hill, all but one overturning. The following were the more seriously hurt:

Michael Cusack, brakeman, 72 Bathurst street, Toronto, left leg, left shoulder and three ribs broken, suffering from shock; at St. Michael's.

Geo. H. Helleur of Montreal, traveller for Lailey, Watson & Bond, John street, seriously injured about the chest; at 32 John street.

George Lappage, baggageman, 6 Arthur street, Toronto, cut and bruised about head, face and left hand; at St. Michael's Hospital.

Conductor C. Stuart, 47 Robert street, Toronto, cuts in the head; street, Toronto, cuts in the head, and badly shaken up.

L. E. Dunlop of Westford, Vermont, cuts and bruises on the head; at the Emergency.

Archibald Mains, 528 Adelaide street west, Toronto, cuts on the head.

David L. Carver of Bangor, Maine, foot cut; at the Emergency.

Lathan Speck, Chelsey, Maine, ears torn and hand cut.

Henry Lindsay of Fox Lake, Wisconsin, forehead slightly cut and knee injured.

John M. Spencer, Manager of Evans & Sons, Toronto, leg injured, and shaken up.

Victor Ross, Globe reporter, Toronto, cut on the head.

G. Gowquint, Los Angeles, injurie to spine.

H. Carrington, Pullman car porter, Montreal, scalp wounds.

Joseph H. Langille, 49 years old, miner, 12 Gordon street, Waltham, Mass, internal injuries; at General Hospital.

Mrs. Bessie Langille, wife of J. H. Langille, 43 years old, right hip fractured; at General Hospital.

Miss Ethel Fraser, step-daughter of J. H. Langille, 23 years old; at General Hospital.

Miss Ellen Danforth, 50 years, teacher, 11 Loring street, Lowell, Mass., left eye injured and face bruised; at General Hospital.

Ambrose Allan, 47 years old, gardener, 11 Loring street, Lowell, Mass., left leg injured and bruised; at General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Sleeper, Lexington, Ill., bruises and cut about head and face; at Walker House.

Mr. and Mrs. Fogg, Port Huron, Mich., bruised and cut about head and face; at Walker House.

E. A. Wilson, express messenger, injury to chest and shoulder.

Miss B. Wood, 7 Murray street, head cut and bruised and left arm bruised.

A. Laprail, 386 Berkeley street, shoulder bruised, eye cut.

Mrs. E. D. Holden, Lowell, Mass., left hand badly crushed.

Train No. 3, the express, was two hours late, and was running immediately ahead of a local train, and on the local train's time. Engineer Ireland, the driver, had just slackened speed for Whitby Junction, when he felt the hind trucks of his Mogul engine leave the tracks. He tried to stop the train, but the engine rushed on, dragging car after car from the rails. The faulty rail was at a sharp switch, and, instead of following the tender, the baggage car shot over the rails and down the embankment. The second-class coach, which was filled with immigrants, followed and then each coach went over in turn, until all were piled in a heap at the bottom.

The rear coaches had been carried along for nearly two hundred yards by the momentum of the train, but the passengers knew that an accident had occurred and were clinging to their berths when the terrible slide down the hill began. The great engine itself kept its position on the track by its sheer weight, but the light baggage car shot out and, turning completely over, lay on its top. The second-class car also overturned and lay at a right angle to the baggage car, and following it was the first-class coach which was the single car on the train not overturned.

The three Pullman coaches suffered the worst, and they were piled about like great toys, two of them lying on their sides with their trucks interlocked, and the other lying on its top behind them.

After the slide down the hill the overturning of the cars produced a scene of terror, and men and women fought for the doors and windows. The train had been crowded with passengers, and the screaming of women and children was heartrending. Conductor Charles Stuart smashed a window in the vestibule of a Pullman coach and crawled out, being followed by his brakeman. While the latter ran back to flag the local train, which was just behind, Stuart secured the assistance of the passengers in the first-class coach and began the work of relieving those in the other cars. The occupants of the Pullman sleepers had just risen, and they were dragged in their night clothes out of windows and through the doors of the unturned cars into the snow. Miss Langille of Waltham, Mass., whose hip was dislocated, had to be pulled through a car window and was terribly cut, and other passengers had similar experiences.

STONED THE GENDARMES.

Religious Disturbances in Brittany Village.

Paris, Feb. 20. — There was a revival of the religious disturbances which characterized the closing of the Congregationist schools in Brittany last summer. The nuns having reopened their school at the village of Saint Meen, near Lesnevan, a police commissary accompanied by gendarmes proceeded to serve the order to close the school. When he arrived the church bell sounded the tocsin, and 300 peasants gathered, shouting "Death to the commissary." Showers of stones greeted the gendarmes, who, however, forced their way through the crowd and into the school. The commissary read the order to the lady superior, who promised to depart within a week.

THE DOMINION BYE-ELECTIONS.

The usual diversity of Ministerial utterances of opinion on the trade question are being exhibited in the contests now going on in Terrebonne and Two Mountains in the Province of Quebec.

At meetings in Terrebonne La Patrie reports that "the Ministerial speakers spoke little of politics but invoked the name of M. Laurier without ceasing. They represent that the Prime Minister is sick, and that it is necessary not to do anything which would cause him worry or chagrin," and then adds:—

"The only Ministerial speaker who touched upon politics was Mr. Cherrier (M.P.P. for La Patrie), who declared himself in favor of free trade, or at least of as low a tariff as possible."

At a meeting of Ste. Agathe on Sunday, Mr. Michel Campeau, who represented the Government, declared that the policy of the Government was free trade.

On the other hand, the Hon. Mr. Prefontaine was a little more reserved on the trade policy. He was away from his Montreal constituency, where the manufacturing interests are large, and thought he could play with the subject a little, hence he touched the subject gingerly. A consistent lot they are truly.

While the Grits in Ontario are declaring that the stories of Sir Wilfrid's illness are Tory inventions, the Rouges in the bye-elections in Quebec are appealing affectionately to the electors for support, on the ground that the Premier is "sick" and the defeat of his candidate would "worry him." As usual, which is right, and which tells the truth?

J. ARTHUR MARSH.

Among other damaging things, La Patrie states "that it is rumored in "the county that Mr. D. D. Mann, "of Mackenzie & Mann, has signed "a cheque for $6,000, to redeem de"bentures of Ste. Sophie, a redemp"tion promised in the most formal "manner by Mr. Prefontaine."

Is this price for the votes of the parish of Ste. Sophie? And is Mr. Dan Mann the money bag from which the Minister, Mr. Prefontaine extracts the cash to enable him to bribe and redeem a pledge made by him to the parish?

This is how Ministerial bye-elections are carried.

Nothing like temperance in everything, provided it does not interfere with New Liberalism.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

Mrs. Bertha Cushing Child, the famous American contralto, will appear on Tuesday, 24th Feb., at the City Hall with her company, before one of the largest and most brilliant audiences that has been seen there for years. She appears in Canada under the direction of Mr. W. Spencer Jones, who has brought to Belleville Mr. Watkin Mills, Mr. Parlovitz, the Polish pianist; Mr. Harold Jarvis, Mr. Owen A. Smily and other artists. She sang two weeks ago on Sunday in New York, and the "Musical Courier" says, "Mrs. Childs sang in beautiful style, and was the only singer new to this congregation. She made a deep impression, for she is sincere and intelligent and of the most refined type. Her singing was a feature of the service, and of late no soloist has so stirred this congregation."

Mrs. Childs and her company are appearing under the auspices of the young men of Mr. O'Flynn's Bible Class of Bridge St. Methodist Church, the proceeds being for the improvement of the old Dundas St. Burying Ground, which they have undertaken to do.

"PINAFORE" WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Clever Children Sang the Charming Opera in Really Capital Style

Cast an Excellent One—Those who Took Part—Repeated To-Night

Gilbert and Sullivan's well known opera, H.M.S. "Pinafore, was last evening presented in every detail at the opera house by 150 juvenile performers. Those who had the instruction of the youngsters and the carrying out of the programme are certainly to be congratulated upon the success which attended their efforts. The costumes were beautiful, the spectacular effects all that could have been desired, and the I. O. O. F. orchestra were never in better form. The attendance was large and the hearty applause which greeted the various performers, attested to the satisfaction felt. It is safe to say that no previous presentation of "Pinafore" in this city possessed the same interest for a Belleville audience as did that of last night given by Belleville children. The youngsters were trained by Mr. H. R. Telgmann, of New York, and he certainly drilled them well.

Master Frederick Kyle, portrayed in perfect style, the Right Honorable Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B. He carried out his part with a good voice and distinct pronunciation. Evalyn McCarthy as "Little Buttercup" could not have been excelled. She exhibited real talent both in voice and in the execution of her part. She is the possessor of a sweet voice and it was heard to the best of advantage last night. Arthur Henthorne, made an ideal Captain of the crew. His task was rather hard, but he was certainly equal to it. The long and somewhat difficult part of Josephine, the Captain's daughter, was taken by Gwyneth Mackie. Unfortunately she was suffering from a severe cold, which had the effect of muffling her voice. Her gestures and acting were however, good, and in accord with the part.

Russell Bell, as Ralph Rackstraw, a common mariner in love with Josephine, took his part in capital style. He has a fine voice which was never heard to better advantage, his enunciations being particularly distinct. The Dick Deadeye of Stanley Littlewood could not have been improved. His every gesture was in keeping with the part he had to play. His make-up was good, whilst he has a fine voice, which he was not afraid to use. The Boatswain was well taken by Willie Cochrane, and he was admirably supported by Maurice LaVoie as Mate. Ellis Burrell made an amusing Midshipmite, and Belle Ellis, as Hebe, Sir Joseph's first cousin, was all right. Little Nellie Wall, a wee Flower Girl, was, to use a familiar expression, cute.

The choruses were well rendered, the children singing with remarkable unison. The universal expression of the audience was that it was in every respect a grand success, and the children are certainly to be congratulated upon their efforts in endeavoring to entertain their parents and friends. At the close the National Anthem was sung lustily by the children and audience.

"Pinafore" was a success, and those who did not avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing it presented last evening should attend to-night when it will be repeated.

Mr. Telgmann is deserving of especial mention for the conspicuous success of the opera, as he had labored faithfully to bring the children to a state of proficiency. The orchestra was assisted by Mrs. (Prof.) Denmark at the piano.

The cast was as follows:

The Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B.	Frederick Kyle
Capt. Corcoran	Arthur Henthorne
Ralph Rackstraw	Russell Bell
Dick Deadeye	Stanley Littlewood
Boatswain	Willie Cochrane
Boatswain's Mate	Maurice LaVoie

How Would You Like It

What would you do, if you were a big clothier, and had more stock on hand than you could sell this season. Would you keep your money tied up until next year—let the stock get rusty—let your salesmen get tired of showing it—get tired of it yourself—start next season with a half new stock? or would you say—We made some money last fall—we'll lose a little now; get our money back; bring in some people who have not been buying from us; make them happy; and when they come next year show them something they have never seen before here or anywhere else? You've answered our question. We're after you—not for to-day alone, but for as long as you live. Let us show you some prices that we believe will move the stock. Get your share.

DOMINION OIL CO., LTD,

Chartered Under the Laws of Ontario,

PAID-UP CAPITAL $850,000,

Every shareholder of record Saturday, Feb. 21st, participates in the next monthly dividend, payable March 1st, of ONE PER CENT ON PAR.

This is practically THREE per cent on the investment at the present price of stock.

35 Cents Per Share,

(par value $1.00, fully paid and non assessable). All mail applications for stock must in order to secure this dividend, bear date and postmark not later than FEB. 21st.

The Mail and Empire of Toronto says under the heading "Our Petroleum Industry":

"For several years past the average value of production has been about one and three-quarter million dollars per annum. With the large development now being actively pushed by the Dominion Oil Company, Limited, a Canadian corporation chartered for the purpose of acquiring a new discovery, known as the Raleigh Oil Fields, near Chatham, and which own an interest in the now far-famed Gurd Gusher, the largest well ever discovered in the Dominion, the value of the output should very shortly be doubled."

The Chatham Daily News of Jan. 20th says: "The Gurd Gusher is again at work, and demonstrating the fact that she is not a freak well, but a good, money-making proposition. The oil is all going to Sarnia, and so far the Petrolea refinery has not had a show. The good price paid and the compensation for the output prove the great demand for crude oil. The Dominion Oil Company has acquired interests in the Gusher and taken over the leases held by the Gurd Company."

The president of the Dominion Oil Company states, in regard to the production of the Gurd wells, now about 100 barrels of oil per day, that he expects through the installation of an air compressor that this production will be increased to 400 or 500 barrels per day.

This product is now bringing the HIGHEST PRICE OF ANY OIL ON THE NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT.

The company has also just added to its holdings by securing leases on 360 acres additional in the Wheatley district, a very valuable acquisition, and contracts are now being made for active development upon this property. This has been done WITHOUT DRAWING A DOLLAR FROM THE RAPIDLY ACCUMULATING TREASURY FUNDS.

An early advance in the price of this stock is probable, and investors should secure it now while there is time. Remember that the books close Saturday, February 21st, for the March 1st dividend.

Address all enquiries for full information regarding this very profitable investment and make all checks, drafts orders payable to the

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

Such was the state of Morris's mind when he returned from Washington, but now it was somewhat different. "I cannot lose her now," was the thought constantly in Morris's mind as he experienced more and more how desolate were the days which did not bring her to him. "It is twenty months since Wilford died," he said to himself one wet October afternoon, when he sat listening dreamily to the patter of the rain falling upon the windows, and looking occasionally across the fields to the farm-house, in the hope of spying in the distance the little airy form, which, in its waterproof and cloud, had braved worse storms than this at the time he was so ill.

"Surely, she would some day be his own," and leaning his head upon the cane he carried, he prayed earnestly for the good he coveted, keeping his head down so long that, until it had left the strip of woods and emerged into the open fields, he did not see the figure wrapped in waterproof and hood, with a huge umbrella over its head, and a basket upon its arm, which came picking its way daintily toward the house, stepping occasionally, and lifting up the little high-heeled Balmoral, which the mud was ruining so completely. Katy was coming to Linwood. It had been baking day at the farm-house, and remembering how much Morris used to love her custards, Aunt Betsy had prepared him some, and asked Katy to take them over, so he could have them for tea.

"The rain won't hurt you an atom," she said as Katy began to demur, and glance at the lowering sky. "You can wear your waterproof boots and my shaker, if you like, and I do so want Morris to have them to-night."

Katy made no reply, and walked away, while Aunt Betsy went back to the coat she was patching for her brother, saying to herself:

"I'm bound to fetch that round. It's a shame for two young folks, just fitted to each other, to live apart when they might be so happy, with Hannah, and Lucy, and me, close by the see to 'em, and allus make their soap and see to the batchin', besides savin' peneryle and catnip for the children, if there was any."

Aunt Betsy had turned matchmaker in her old age, and day and night she planned how to bring about the match between Morris and Katy. With no suspicion whatever of the good dame's intentions, Katy picked her way to Linwood, and leaving her damp garments in the hall, went at once into the library, where Morris was sitting near to a large chair kept sacred for her, his face looking unusually cheerful, and the room unusually pleasant, with the bright wood fire on the hearth.

"I have been so lonely, with no company but the rain," he said, pushing the chair a little towards her, and bidding her sit near the fire, where she could dry her feet.

Morris had done well to wait if he could win her now. Perhaps he thought so, too, and this was why his spirits became so gay as he kept talking to her, suggesting at last that she should stay to tea. The rain was falling in torrents when he made the proposition. She could not go then, even had she wished it, and though it was earlier than his usual time, Morris rang for Mrs. Hull, and ordered that tea be served as soon as possible.

"I ought not to stay. It is not proper," Katy kept thinking, as she fidgeted in her chair, and watched the girl setting the table for two, and occasionally deferring some debatable point to her as if she were mistress there.

"You can go now, Reekie," Morris said, when the boiling water was poured into the silver kettle, and tea was on the table. "If we need you we will ring."

With a vague wonder as to who would toast the doctor's bread and butter it, Reekie departed, and the two were left together. It was Katy who toasted the bread, kneeling upon the hearth, burning her face and scorching the bread in her nervousness at the novel position in which she so unexpectedly found herself. It was Katy, too, who prepared Morris's tea, and tried to eat, but could not. She was not hungry, she said, and the custard was the only thing she tasted, besides the tea, which she sipped at frequent intervals as to make Morris think she was eating more than she was. But Morris was not deceived nor disheartened. Perhaps she suspected his intention, and if so, the sooner he reached the point the better. So when the tea equipage was put away, and she began to speak of going home, he said:

"No, Katy, you can't go yet, till I have said what is in my mind to say," and laying his hand upon her shoulder, he made her sit down beside him and listen while he told her of the love he had borne for her long before she had known the meaning of that word as she knew it now—of the struggle to keep that love in bounds after its indulgence was a sin; of his temptations and victories, of his sincere regret for Wilford, and of his deep respect for her grief, which had made her for a time as a sister to him. But that time had passed. She was not his sister now, nor ever could be again. She was Katy, dearer, more precious, more desired even than before another called her wife, and he asked her to be his, to come up there to Linwood and live with him, making the rainy days brighter, balmier, than the sunniest had ever been, and helping him in his work of caring for the poor and sick around them.

"Will Katy come? Will she be the wife of Cousin Morris?"

There was a world of pathos and pleading in the voice which asked this question, just as there was a world of tenderness in the manner with which Morris caressed and fondled the bowed head resting on the chair arm.

"It cannot be—oh, Morris, it cannot be," she sobbed, when he pressed her for an answer. "Don't ask me why—don't ever mention it again, for I tell you it cannot be. My answer is final; it cannot be. I am sorry for you, so sorry! I wish you had never loved me, for it cannot be."

She writhed herself from his arms which tried to detain her, and rising to her feet, left the room suddenly, and throwing on her wrappings, quitted the house without another word, leaving basket and umbrella behind, and never knowing she had left them, or how the rain was pouring down upon her unsheltered person, until, as she entered the narrow strip of woodland, she was met by Aunt Betsy, who exclaimed at seeing her, and asked:

"What has become of your umberell? Your silk one, too. It's hopeful you haven't lost it. What has happened you?" and coming closer to Katy, Aunt Betsy looked searchingly in her face. It was not so dark that she could not see the traces of recent tears, and instinctively suspecting their nature she continued, 'Catherine, have you gin Morris the mitten?"

"Aunt Betsy, is it possible that you and Morris contrived this plan?" Katy asked, half indignantly, as she began in part to understand her aunt's great anxiety for her to visit Linwood that afternoon.

"Morris had nothing to do with it," Aunt Betsy replied. "It was my doin's wholly, and this is the thanks I git. You quarrel with him and git mad at me, who thought only of your good. Catherine, you know you like Morris Grant, and if he asked you to have him why don't you?"

"I can't, Aunt Betsy. I can't, after all that has passed. It would be unjust to Wilford."

"Unjust to Wilford—fiddlesticks!" was Aunt Betsy's expressive reply, as she started toward Linwood, saying, "she was going after the umberell before it got lost, with nobody there to tend to things as they should be tended to. Have you any word to send?" she asked, hoping Katy had relented.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

A woman never knows where the match box is.

HAD LA GRIPPE.—Mr. A. Nickerson, farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months, when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

The land area of Hawaii is 4,000,000 acres.

Their gentle action and good effect on the system really make them a perfect little pill. They please those who use them. Carter's Little Liver Pills may well be termed "Perfection."

When one gets hopping mad his reason goes on a crutch.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 219 to 119 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

Signed, JEAN VALCOURT,
Wotton, P.Q. General Merchant.

If thy friend is honey, do not lick him up altogether.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly, subdues the pain and disease.

Wedding rings in St. Kilda used to be made of worsted.

Use the safe, pleasant, and effectual worm killer, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; nothing equals it. Procure a bottle and take it home.

Do not live near a pious fool.

Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing these troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

The best wheel of fortune is honest labor.

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in the pills. They affect the nerve centres and the blood in a surprisingly active way, and the result is almost immediately seen.

Over 250,000 copies of Charles Dickens' novels are sold annually.

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes: "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

No one knows better than those who have used Carter's Little Liver Pills what relief they have given when taken for dyspepsia, dizziness, pain in the side, constipation, and disordered stomach.

Iridium, which costs $780 per pound, is the hardest metal known.

Do not despair of curing your sick headache when you can so easily obtain Carter's Little Liver Pills. They will effect a prompt and permanent cure. Their action is mild and natural.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER, Belleville.

A Savings Bank.

Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality. Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

What May We Eat?

Says the "Family Doctor:" "If all we read be true there is nothing one can safely eat. Bread is not to be thought of as an article of diet. It is a treacherous compound, consisting largely of alum and potatoes, and concocted in some insanitary cellar; it is teeming with microbes, and is, so we are told, totally unfit for food. What, then, are we to look to? No careful man will surely touch beef, mutton or lamb, owing to the number of tuberculous carcases which are constantly being placed upon the market. Piggy is tabooed because he may have died of swine fever. Butter and milk are poisoned with boracic acid and other noxious preservatives, to say nothing of the artificial coloring matter which is frequently added. Eggs are dangerous because so many of them are packed in lime to keep them good, and recently, too, a foreign bacillus has found his way through the shell. In addition to other drawbacks, cheese helps to ruin digestion. Root vegetables are to be avoided, because of wireworms. Tomatoes induce cancer, and cabbages may become poisonous by the action of improper fertilizers. Raw fruit helps along cholera. Fish, although possessing highly nutritious qualities, should be avoided owing to the large quantity which is sold in an unfit state for human consumption and the difficulty of obtaining it really fresh. Poultry, if fresh, appears to be the most wholesome sort of dish, as there is only a vague, undecided, and eminently backboneless microbe to its account. Therefore, duck and green peas appear to be the dish to make a stand upon, but let the peas be fresh. Still, when you come to think of it, you cannot always get duck, and you certainly cannot always get fresh peas. It is really a shocking prospect!"

A wealthy widow in Berlin, anxious for a title, married an impecunious Count. Three weeks after marriage she obtained a divorce on the ground that the Count wore a wig. At a bald pate, even with a handle to his name, she had to draw the line.

A legal decision has been given in the State of New York, that the children of a woman who had married in that State, after having been divorced by the Canadian Parliament were illegitimate, the marriage not being a legal one. This is certainly a new feature in the marriage laws of the State of New York, where marriage is looked upon more as a civil than a religious contract.

On the strength of mortality statistics prepared by the Government of the Province of Ontario, it is claimed Ontario is the healthiest place in the world. The death-rate last year was 13.6 per 1,000. But most of the deaths are of infants and elderly people. The death-rate of the great class between infancy and fifty-five years of age is only six in the thousand. There is a death-rate for the working period of life lower than that of any other country in the world.

DID CARLISLE PERSONATE?

Gave a Wrong Name But Did Not Get the Ballot.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—F. B. Carlisle of 340 Victoria street was tried before Judge McCrimmon yesterday afternoon at the court house on a charge of having personated Peter Gallagher of 90 Jarvis street, a dead man, on Dec. 4, and judgment was reserved until this morning. The question in doubt is, did Carlisle request a ballot? If he did, he is guilty of personation, so the Judge considered. Messrs. T. C. Robinette, K.C., and Jas. Haverson, for the defence, contended that Carlisle merely gave the name of the dead man to make a practical joke. Both the Crown and the defence agreed as to Carlisle's actions directly bearing upon the charge. The accused went into poll 24, 128 Church street, on Dec. 4, gave the name of Peter Gallagher, and just as the deputy returning officer, J. P. Pamphilon, was reaching for a ballot, the scrutineer in the temperance interests. Mr. G. G. Mills, challenged the applicant. The oath was about to be administered when the would-be voted quit the room.

The claims of the defence were that he did not ask for a ballot, and that, as it was a practical joke, if he had been allowed to proceed he would have refused the ballot upon presentation by the officer; that there is no offence of attempting to personate, and that there can be no conviction of personation, because the very most that the Crown established was a prima facie case of attempt.

HOW TO BE

CURED OF PILES WITHOUT PAIN.

First: Change from sedentary occupation to wisely chosen, more active work.

Second: From indoor to outdoor life.

Third: From wrong to right clothing.

Fourth: From unhealthy, rich living, to a mild hygienic diet.

Fifth, sixth and last; use Pyramid Pile Cure regularly, and according to directions, for it is the right cure for the trouble, and will cure you as it has hundreds of others.

Don't wait until you are a helpless invalid, for a seemingly simple case of hemorrhoids, or piles, may, if neglected, rapidly lead to worse. The unnatural formations become tumorous and permanent, and the inflammation grows until abscesses form; the disease burrows into the tissues, forming tubular growths which discharge pus; cancerous conditions, and general gangrenous degeneration appear.

What is needed at the start, or at any stage, is something to soothe this inflammation, reduce the swelling and distention, at the same time restores the diseased parts to normal condition. These three things are accomplished perfectly by the Pyramid Pile Cure. It checks all progress of the disease, and rapidly returns the affected parts to health, besides relieving at once the pain and fearful irritation.

"I began using Pyramid Pile Cure, and in order to make sure of a cure bought five packages; for the past six weeks I have not been troubled in the least, and I had been bothered for thirty-five years, and had spent more than fifty dollars for different remedies; this is the first permanent help I have had, and no one could feel more grateful than I do."—L. M. Williams, Conneaut, Ohio.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists generally for fifty cents a package, and we urge all sufferers to write Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their valuable little book describing the cause and cure of piles.

SMALLPOX RAGED FIERCELY.

There Were Thirty-one Cases in Wilmot Township.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—Dr. Bryce received the monthly bulletin of the Michigan State Board of Health yesterday, from which it appears that the epidemic of smallpox has not yet been stamped out. No less than 190 new outbreaks have been reported during the month of January. From 60 final reports of original cases received during the month it appears that there were 308 cases and three deaths from those centres of infection covered by the reports. Great difficulty is still experienced in checking the spread of the disease.

There have been 32 cases of smallpox in Wilmot Township, Waterloo County, since the first of the year, and one of the patients died. One new case is reported from Portland Township, Frontenac. The cases in Galt and Brantford are reported to be convalescent, and with prospects of no further outbreak.

THE NOTE PRESENTED.

The Sultan Must Protect Christian Subjects.

Paris, Feb. 20.—The Russian Foreign Ministers, Count Lamsdorff, has communicated to the French Government the fact that Russia received the last of the adherences of the European powers to the joint note to Turkey on the subject of reforms, thus making the action of the powers unanimous. He accordingly directed M. Zinovief, Russian Ambassador at Constantinople, to proceed in company with Baron Von Calice, the Austrian Ambassador, to the Sultan, and present the joint note. It was at first intended to present the Austrian note first, but this was reconsidered, in order to give added force to the joint personal presentation. It also was desired to secure the full adherence of Germany, which was somewhat conditional at first. The unanimous action decided upon yesterday includes that of Germany. The note as finally framed strikes out all references to Macedonia, as it was considered that the designation of one part of the country by name would increase the anti-foreign agitation which the powers are seeking to check. The note is generalized so as to cover all the localities where Christians reside, the only locality specified being three villages in northern Turkey, in which most of the Christians reside. The protection of the lives and the complete safeguarding of the interests of the Christians form the chief features of the note.

Mr. Currie received a serious injury to his head and a compound fracture of his leg. His condition is critical.

Indian Jailed For Having Liquor.

Brantford, Feb. 19.—Joshua Miller, an Indian, was to-day tried at the Police Court for having liquor in his possession at the pagan feast on the Indian reserve in January last. He was found guilty and fined $25 and costs or ten days in jail. Miller, having no money to pay the fine, was sent to jail.

Rather Have the Money.

The business methods of insurance companies are not at all to the liking of a shrewd old German farmer with whom a certain agent had some dealings. The house of the farmer, insured for a thousand dollars, had burned down, says the St. Louis "Globe-Democrat." The privilege of replacing a burned house is reserved by insurance companies, and the agent, having this in mind, said to the farmer:

"We'll put you up a better house than the one you had for six hundred dollars."

"Nein!" said the farmer, emphatically. "I vill haf my one tousand dollar or notings! Dot house could not be built again for even a tousand."

"Oh, yes, it could," said the insurance man. "It was an old house. It doesn't cost so much to build houses nowadays. A six-hundred-dollar new house would be a lot bigger and better than the old one."

Some months later, when the insurance man was out for a day's shooting, he rode up again to the farmer's place.

"Just thought I'd stop while I was up here," he said, "to see if you wanted to take out a little insurance."

"I got notings to insure," said the farmer—"notings but my vife."

"Well, then," said the insurance man, cheerfully, "insure her."

"Nein!" said the farmer, with determination. "If she die, you come out here und say, 'I not gif you one tousand dollar. I get you a bigger und a better vife for six hunded.' No, sir, I dakes no more insurance oud!"

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Live Stock Trade Better—The Grain Markets Show Little Change.

Thursday Evening, Feb. 19.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Trade at St. Lawrence Market was quiet again to-day owing to the continued light receipts. Only 500 bushels of grain were offered.

Wheat—Prices of all grades are steady: 200 bushels of white sold at 72½c per bushel and 200 of goose sold at 67½c.

Oats—Prices are steady; 100 bushels sold at 37½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs — Trade continues quiet and prices are steady at yesterday's advance. Light weight hogs are quoted at $8 to $8.25 per cwt and heavies at $7.50 to $7.75.

Hay—The market is easier and the offerings are only moderately good. No. 1 timothy is quoted at $10 to $12.50 per ton and mixed or clover at $6 to $9. Twenty-five loads were offered.

Straw—Four loads were on the market and prices are steady and easier at $8 to $10 per ton.

Toronto Live Stock.

Trade at the Toronto Cattle Market today was fairly active, although not large in volume. The run of cattle was rather light and only of moderate quality. Prices generally were pretty well maintained. A number of cattle shipments for the market were storm-bound, and this, together with the fact that drovers find some difficulty in buying cattle from the farmers at low enough prices to enable them to realize a margin on their sales, is responsible for the short run of offerings.

The run was 54 loads, with 817 head of cattle, 364 sheep and lambs, 564 hogs, and 17 calves.

Export Cattle—Trade in this line was a little better, the demand for stuff showing some improvement. Prices in Chicago yesterday advanced from 10c to 25c per cwt, and shippers are showing a tendency to turn to Canadian cattle, which have lately become cheaper. There is also more shipping space offering. Prices, however, showed no change. Choice cattle sold at about $4 to $4.50 per cwt, while a few fancy picked lots brought as high as $4.75.

Butchers' Cattle—There was not much stuff on the market and prices were about steady, with a slightly easier feeling. As prices stand at present the ordinary run of butchers' cattle are quoted as high as ordinary exporters, which state of affairs, the dealers say, is likely to continue for some little time. Most of the offerings sold at about $4 to $4.25 per cwt, while as high as $4.40 was in some cases given for fancy picked lots.

Stockers and Feeders—There is very little stock of this kind coming forward, although the demand for all kinds of feed cattle is fairly good. Quotations continue about steady.

Sheep and Lambs — Export ewes are about 25c higher; bucks show an advance of 25c per cwt, and lambs are firmer. To-day's trade was fairly brisk and the prospects are for a steady market.

Calves—Are steady. The demand for good veals continues and prices are unchanged at $2 to $10 each and 4½c to 6c per lb.

Hogs—The offerings were fairly light and the market continues steady, with prices unchanged.

Montreal Cattle Market.

Montreal, Feb. 19.—There were about 300 head of butchers' cattle, 20 calves and 60 sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir to-day, and a considerable number of cattle and calves were sold here yesterday. The severe cold weather seemed to have a depressing effect on the sales, and but few were made during the early part of the day, while the prices asked were in advance of the ruling prices on Monday's market. Prime beeves sold at from 5c to 5¼c, and $5.40 for 100 pounds was refused for a choice steer. Pretty good cattle sold at from 4c to 4¾c, and the common stock at from 2¾c to 3¾c per pound. The calves on the market to-day were small veals, and sold at from $3 to $8 each. Sheep sold at from 3¼c to 3¾c, and lambs at from 4¼c to 4¾c per pound. Good lots of fat hogs sold at from 6c to 6¼c per pound off the cars.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 19.—Cattle—Receipts, light; steady. Veals—Receipts, 81 head; steady; tops, $9.25 to $9.75; common to good, $5.50 to $9. Hogs—Receipts, 3,250 head; active, 10c to 20c higher; heavy, $7.65 to $7.70; mixed, $7.55 to $7.65; Yorkers, $7.50 to $7.60; pigs, $7.25 to $7.35; roughs, $6.45 to $6.65; stags, $5.50 to $6. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 8,200 head; sheep steady; lambs 10c higher; top lambs, $6.90 to $7; culls to good, $4.50 to $6.85; yearlings, $5.25 to $5.75; ewes, $4.25 to $4.75; sheep, top mixed, $4.75 to $5; culls to good, $2.25 to $4.65.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Cattle—Receipts, 10,000; steady; good to prime steers, $5.60 to $6; poor to medium, $3.25 to $4.50; stockers and feeders, $2.85 to $4.50; cows, $1.40 to $4.40; heifers, $2 to $4.60; canners, $1.40 to $2.50; bulls, $2 to $4.25; calves, $3.50 to $8; Texas fed steers, $3.50 to $4.25. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 28,000; to-morrow, 25,000; left over, 5,500; opened 5c to 10c lower; close active, strong; mixed and butchers', $6.85 to $7.20; good to choice heavy, $7.20 to $7.40; rough and heavy, $6.85 to $7.15; light $6.45 to $6.90; bulk of sales, $6.95 to $7.20. Sheep—Receipts, 12,000; sheep and lambs strong to 10c higher; good to choice wethers, $5 to $5.75; fair to choice mixed, $4 to $5; native lambs, $4.75 to $7.10.

Montreal Grain and Provisions.

Montreal, Feb. 19.—Grain—The demand for all lines on both local and export account keeps very dull, and prices show no change. We quote :—No. 2 white oats, for local use, at 37¼c to 37½c store and at 31c to 31½c high freights, peas at 71½c to 72c high freights, and buckwheat at 48½c to 49c east on the Grand Trunk.

Flour—The demand is chiefly for small lots at steady prices. We quote :—Choice Manitoba spring wheat patents, $4.40 to $4.50; seconds, $4.10 to $4.20; strong bakers', $3.70; winter wheat patents, $3.90 to $4; straight rollers, $3.60 to $3.70; do in bags, $1.70 to $1.80; extras, $1.55 to $1.60.

Meal—The market is quiet, with prices unchanged at $3.90 to $4 per brl and at $1.85 per bag.

Feed—The market is fairly active and firm. We quote :—Manitoba bran, shorts, $21 to $22; Ontario bran, in bulk, $18; shorts, $20, and mouille, $22 to $28, as to quality.

Cheese—The market keeps dull and featureless, holders asking 13¼c to 13½c.

Butter—The market is dull and easy at 22c to 22½c for finest creamery, 21c to 21½c for finest held creamery, 17½c to 18c for western dairy in rolls.

Eggs—There is a good demand for strictly fresh, but supplies are limited. We quote :—Montreal limed, 11c to 12c; cold storage, 10c, and western limed, 10c per dozen.

Provisions—The market is moderately active and steady. "I GAINED 25 POUNDS"

Tardy Development of Girls is marked by pallor of face, slimness of body, aching head, stomach pains, nervousness, irritability and despondency.

The regular use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help all such to roundness of form, erect, graceful carriage, elastic step and healthful glowing complexion.

VIGOROUS WOMANHOOD

Where is there a woman who does not desire the qualities of vigorous womanhood? She may not be handsome in face or feature, but when filled with the vigor and vitality of health she possesses a charm and attractiveness which make her beautiful.

Most women who are thin, scrawny and angular in form, weak, nervous and irritable, subject to attacks of sick, nervous headache, backache, dizziness and fainting spells, women who suffer greatly at certain times and experience weakness and irregularity of the feminine organism usually trace their trouble to the time when they were merging into womanhood. This is the most trying time in woman's life and careful use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at this period may save many years of suffering.

Woman's system demands an enormous amount of rich, red blood both to make up for the loss at regular periods and to keep up the nerve force—the controlling power of the body. Nine-tenths of the ailments of girls and women are due to lack in quantity or quality of blood and weakness of the nervous system and as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food actually forms new, red corpuscles in the blood and creates, new nerve force it is successful above all treatments in curing the ills and weaknesses peculiar to women.

GAINED 25 POUNDS

MISS ANNIE EVANS, 32 Gottingen St., Halifax, N.S., writes :— "About ten years ago I became very much run down in health and in spite of various treatments I could not get rid of my ailments. I could not sleep, was very nervous and so weak that I could scarcely drag myself about. Some months ago I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and persevered in the treatment, until to-day I am pleased to say that I am completely restored to health.

"I have gained over twenty-five pounds in weight, sleep well, feel strong and well and fully believe that I owe my present good health to the use of this medicine."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

By weighing yourself while using this great food cure you can prove positively that new, firm flesh and tissue is being added to your body. No treatment was ever put to a more severe test, but experience has proven that Dr Chase's Nerve Food can be relied upon absolutely to restore and build up the system, round out the form and instil new energy and vitality in every organ of the body. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or EDMANSON, BATES & CO., Toronto.

HISTORIC HITCHING POST.

One of the Familiar Landmarks of the National Capital.

One of the oldest signs in Washington is the cast iron figure of a Chinaman about three and a half feet in height that stands in front of a livery stable on Sixth street northwest between Pennsylvania and Louisiana avenues. It has been there since 1863 and is one of the familiar landmarks of the city.

During the civil war Generals Grant, McClellan, Hooker and others who patronized this stable a great deal tied their steeds to this hitching post, and since then other distinguished personages have had occasion to use this post during every presidential inauguration that has occurred since Lincoln's second term.

As a matter of fact, this much of Sixth street northwest, between Pennsylvania and Louisiana avenues, is a historic locality in more than one sense. It was on the corner of this street and Louisiana avenue that General Robert E. Lee bade farewell to his old commander, General Winfield Scott, when the former withdrew from the Union army to join that of the Confederacy. During the first two years of the war General McClellan and others came here regularly to purchase and inspect horses, it being at that time a sort of horse market.

A Savage Custom.

The Australian blacks do not allow a mother-in-law within a mile of her married daughter's hut.

Baking a Cake.

When a cake contains too much flour or has baked too fast, it will sink from the edges or rise up sharply with a crack in the middle. If cake has a coarse grain, it was not beaten enough or the oven was too slow.

Corticelli

SPOOL SILK

For dressmaking and family sewing Corticelli Silk is the best silk made. For hand or machine use it has no equal.

Corticelli Silk runs smoothly in the needle; it is always even in size, and always full length and full strength. Ask your dealer for "Corticelli," and politely, but firmly, refuse all substitutes, which some clerks may say are "just as good." You may be sure they all lack the many excellent qualities of the genuine Corticelli Silk.

GAVE HIM HIS OWN WAY.

And Then the Customer Brought the Shoe Clerk to Time.

"Now, there," said the shoe salesman, "is just what you want."

"Is it?" asked the prospective customer. "I thought I said"—

"Just let me put it on," interrupted the salesman.

"But it is my recollection"—

"Couldn't have a better fit," broke in the salesman. "Everybody is wearing them, and they're a bargain."

"Oh!"

"Let me put on the other." Then, after a moment: "There you are, sir. Couldn't be better. Three-fifty, please."

"For what?"

"For the shoes."

"But I don't want the shoes. You asked me to let you put them on, and I was courteous enough to let you do it. I always try to be obliging. You said they were just what I wanted, but that was your judgment, and I'm accustomed to back my own. Now, if you've had all the divertisement in this matter that you desire, will you please trot me out a pair of shoes according to the plans and specifications I gave you when I came in, and perhaps we can do business? I have found by experience that the only way to get what one wants from a shoe clerk is to let him have his own way for the first fifteen or twenty minutes, and then he may become tractable."

The Real Drummer.

"The term 'drummer,'" said a traveling salesman for a Market street wholesale house, "has come to be regarded as synonymous with cheek, flashiness and dissipation. Just why this should be I don't know, unless people get the idea from stage jokes and comic papers. Perhaps years ago there was some justification for it, but there is no room for that sort of man today. Competition is too keen. The traveling salesman who stands well with his trade and with his own firm must attend strictly to business. It may sound strange and contrary to general belief, but most men in my line of work are of a religious turn. Some get into the churchgoing habit while stopping over Sunday in small towns, where there is nothing else to do. They get interested in religion and wind up by joining the church. Then, too, the country merchant is usually a man of affairs in his town and is generally a pillar of the church, and the churchgoing drummer is apt to make a greater impression on him than does one who is more worldly."

New Bark In Trees.

It is not a new fact, but yet a remarkable one, that if a fruit tree—apple, pear or cherry—be stripped entirely of its bark in the second week in June a new surface of bark will immediately take the place of the older one. It is believed that the chief growth of deciduous trees in our part of the world takes place at midsummer.

HANGING WALL PAPER

Is quite as much our business as is selling it.

Decorating is very much our business—Our decorator is capable of designing and drafting any decorative work you may require and equally capable of executing the work designed.

Painting—graining—paper hanging and decorating is one of our important branches, ask for prices, estimates, specifications and drawings of your own rooms in color.

Our prices are as reasonable as our work is superior.

Here Is Your Opportunity

Yours for the asking and a little more.

Before taking stock February 28 we wish to close out a goodly portion of our much too heavy stock of Fancy Goods—comprising China, Art Pottery, Brass Goods, Lamps, Vases, Candlesticks, Candle shades, Pictures, Jardinieres, Leather Goods, etc.

We will make the inducement doubly tempting that all who wish may have and may buy abundantly.

To this end we open fire with the publication of this advertisement and offer all Fancy goods at the mammoth discount of 30 per cent. from regular prices.

This means $10 of goods for.................... $7
$1 of goods for.................... 70c

YES, and we will go one better—Will give you 40 per cent. off if you accept a due bill for the discount, same due bill being good at any time for any goods in our store, including Wall Papers, Picture Framing, Paper Hanging, Stationery, Books, etc. This means 10 dollars of goods for 6 dollars.

AGAIN—to this sale we add the balance of our 1902 wall paper stock at the same discounts—30 per cent. regular.
40 per cent. due bill.

We mean in this way to close out every roll of last year's papers, and have nothing but 1903 papers for our customers.

AFTER MANY DAYS.

I really am obliged to you for bringing back my book,
It moves me much to look where I thought no more to look.
It minds me of the early time wherein 'twas lent to you,
When life was young, and hope was fair, and this old book was new.

How well does memory recall the gilt this volume wore,
The day it first attracted me, at Fitch and Billing's store;
And also I remember how I could not buy, unless
I practiced some economy in articles of dress.

Nor have I yet forgotten how my foolish heart beat higher,
At owning what my cultured friends must certainly admire,
And vividly I recollect you called around that day,
Admired it, and borrowed it, and carried it away.

And now it comes to me again across the lapse of time,
Wearing the somewhat battered look of those beyond their prime;
O man, O book! The years go by and leave you both, alack!
With faded color, worn insides—a weakness of the back.

Excuse these foolish tears, they come unbidden as I find,
The finger marks—a silent proof of service to mankind.
Old book, you need a rest—but ere you're laid upon the shelf,
Just try to hang together, till I read you through myself.

—Mrs. George Archibald.

A Man Who Hustled.

On the North Carolina side of the Cumberland mountains I had to ask for food and lodgings of a squatter who lived in a miserable shanty and said I would have to sleep on the floor, but nevertheless made me welcome. All we had for supper was corn bread, but later on I heard the wife saying to her husband:

"Now, then, yo' git yo'self out and hustle fur sunthin' a heap better fur breakfast."

For breakfast there were fried chicken, roast pig, roast yams, fresh eggs and corn coffee, and when it had been eaten the man smiled on me and said:

"I'd hev done better if I could, stranger, but by the time I'd stole chickens, pig, eggs and yams the only feller around yere with any real coffee in his house was wide awake and watchin' out fur me with a shotgun."

A LINGERING COUGH

The cough that holds on in spite of all remedies needs energetic, and, above all, thorough treatment. A mere cough mixture won't do. Root out the cold that causes the cough.

How? Scott's Emulsion.

Why? Because Scott's Emulsion stops the irritation, soothes the tissues and heals the affected membranes.

When? Right away: Scott's Emulsion begins to help with the first dose. Its action is quick and effective.

In a word, Scott's Emulsion cures a cough because it cures the cold.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

How a Cold was Cured

(Deckerville, Mich., Recorder.)

One of the citizens of this burg who has been troubled with a severe cold on the lungs effected his recovery in the following simple manner: He boiled a little boneset and horehound together and drank freely of the tea before going to bed. The next day he took two pills, put one kind of plaster on his breast, another under his arms and still another on his back. Under advice from an experienced old lady he took all these off with an oyster knife in the afternoon and slapped on a mustard paste instead. His mother put some onion drafts on his feet and gave him a lump of tar to swallow. Then he put some hot bricks to his feet and went to bed. Next morning another old lady came in with a bottle of goose oil, and gave him a dose of it in a quill, and an aunt arrived about the same time with a bundle of sweet fern, which she made into tea and gave him every half-hour until noon, when he took a big dose of salts. After dinner his wife, who had seen a fine old lady of great experience in doctoring, gave him two pills of her make, about the size of an English walnut, and two teaspoonfuls of homemade balsam to keep them down. Then he took a half-pint of hot rum at the suggestion of an old sea captain and steamed his legs with an alcohol bath. At this crisis two of the neighbors arrived, who saw at once that his blood was out of order, and gave him a half-gallon of spearmint tea and a big dose of castor oil. Before going to bed he took eight of a new kind of pills, wrapped about his neck a flannel soaked in hot vinegar and salt and had feathers burnt on a shovel in his room. He is now thoroughly cured and full of gratitude.

No Reasonable Man expects to cure a neglected cold in a day. But time and Allen's Lung Balsam will overcome the cold and stave off consumption. Cough will cease and lungs be sound as a new dollar. 3

The Values We Give

Draw the dollars. Don't try to hold them for better bargains—they cannot be had.

There's no significance in prices. Anybody can make a price. A price is a word made of air—"Values are facts." This is our strong inducement—values. Not only do we talk values, but we give values and we urge your own comparisons to be the judge.

All odd lines of Overcoats and Suits can now be procured at a discount of 20 per cent. off regular prices.

Many lines of Underwear are now being sold at less than mill prices.

We do not make this sacrifice because the goods are undesirable styles, or because the assortment is limited. The only reason for it is our cast-iron rule that all of a season's goods must be sold within the season.

Bellevilles Up Against a Hard Combination.

Nine—four. That tells the story. The Red and White boys went down to defeat last night, and there are several reasons for it. One was the forward line of the Marlboros, which had speed and combination to throw away; another was the wide Mutual street rink, which had the local lads all at sea in their shooting; but the principal reason, in the estimation of a lot of people, was the damages inflicted on a few of the boys by that crowd of foul players from dear old Kingston, who couldn't beat a carpet themselves, but managed to smash Kennedy's thumb and cut Brown's head open, besides inflicting other minor injuries on some of the boys, with the result that they weakened in the mix-ups last night and faded away when the crucial moment came. But there! Let's take our medicine when it comes, like true sportsmen. The boys met a better team last night, a team which had the best of the luck and played the best hockey. Whether they can hold up their end with the Red and White boys on the Belleville rink remains to be seen. We don't believe they can, but paste this in your hat—they can play hockey of the up-to-date kind, which will compel the admiration of anybody, whether friend or foe. Straightforward Harry McGuire told the truth when he shook hands with one of their supporters in the dressing-room afterwards, and said "The best team won, but I think we can beat them when they come to Belleville."

Well, let's start at the beginning. The flyer was nearly an hour late, and it was 6.40 when she reached Toronto. Just before we got to Whitby everybody rubbered at the car windows to see the wreck of Thursday morning. And assuredly one will travel many a mile before he sees another sight like it. The great big railway cars were lying in the field alongside the track where they had rolled like so many building blocks that Santa Claus brings the boys, some off their trucks and right side up; some on their side, and some bottom side up, with the roof smashed. One could hardly believe that such a wreck could happen with a train going fifty miles an hour and nobody be killed, yet such was the case. Ald. Pope boarded the train at Whitby. He was going to Toronto to settle some of the cases. He looked worn and weary when the writer spoke to him. "You've had your hands full lately, Major," said the newspaper man. "Yes," was the reply, "and my heart, too." And he gave the details of the accident, now known to our readers.

Arrived in Toronto, the party put up at the Arlington, and at half-past seven a start was made, on a street car, for the rink. On the corner of Church and Yonge the party transferred. The lads were in high spirits, and sang merrily on the corner. The passers-by smiled good-naturedly, though one melancholy individual remarked that a hockey club which sang "The Good Old Summer Time" deserved to be, and would be beaten. It was a sure hoodoo. He might not have been the seventh son of a seventh son, but he was something of a prophet, just the same. There was quite a crowd in the rink when we arrived, and by the time the game began it was pretty well filled up. The Marlboros came out first, and they looked as fit as a fiddle in their white sweaters trimmed with green. They had a green streak in them, but there was no yellow streak. The Marlboros were loudly applauded, and they sprinted round a bit, showing a fine burst of speed occasionally. They were evidently very fast, though hardly so large as the Bellevilles. When our own lads came out they got a good reception, and had evidently many friends in the crowd. The Mutual street rink has a fine sheet of ice, about fifteen feet wider than the Belleville rink, and about the same length. It is not, however, nearly so well lighted as the local rink. It was 8.25 when Referee Telfer blew his whistle, and the teams lined up thusly:

Marlboro Goal
Gorrie
Bellrose
C. Earls
Ferguson
J. Earls Birmingham Reid
o
Kennedy McGuire Allen
Burrows
Brown
Wallace
Winchester
Belleville goal

The Toronto people evidently had a wholesome respect for the Bellevilles, for one individual said he had made the round of the rink, and could only get one $5 bet, though he had a couple of centuries to invest at even money if there were any takers. The Marlboro supporters demanded 2 to 1, and there was little of their money in sight at that.

There was a roar from the crowd and they were off with a rush. The Toronto man got the puck and down it went into Belleville territory. Wallace cleared and play went down to the other end, and there was the closest kind of a call for the Marlboros. The play was now end to end, and it was lightning fast. Wallace and McGuire were playing in wonderful style, and Brown made several neat plays. It was soon seen, however, that the remainder of the Belleville forward line was not playing up to their usual form. Allen was not beginning to play the game he played against Kingston, and Burrows, though he showed one or two glimpses of his true form, was not the old Burrows at all. Suddenly Kennedy was seen to drop his stick. He had got a crack on the sore thumb, which the gentle Kingston Ramblers had smashed, and the hearts of Belleville's supporters sank as they saw many chances missed by the Red and White boys. Winchester stopped many shots, and cheerfully bodied a Marlboro off his feet who had gone in on top of him. Then for a time the local men played in their old-time style, and the speedy Marlboros had a long spell of defence work. The Belleville forwards were pressing them hard, and shouts of "Go on Belleville" filled the air. McGuire was playing in a way which completely overshadowed the work of any other player on the ice, and the local defence was moving like clockwork. Belleville had four shots on goal, any one of which looked as though it ought to score, but the wide rink seemed to throw them out in their aim, and each shot skimmed the goal post by a few inches. It was a great game so far, and then suddenly the wings seemed to fade away again. The puck went down to Belleville's territory. There was some quick passing in front of the goal, and from a scrimmage the Marlboros poked the first one past Winnie. Time 20 minutes. McGuire had been playing about two-thirds of the forward game for Belleville, and it began to dawn upon the mind of everybody that sooner or later he was going to find the job too hard. They were off again, and after a little play in centre the Marlboros carried the rubber down. Brown lifted it back, the White and Green forwards got it and down they came like race horses. Wallace took it away from two of them and made the finest individual run of the night. He dodged the Marlboro defence in brilliant style and passed to McGuire, who banged it into the net. Time, 2 minutes. The crowd was generous with its applause. This seemed to wake the Marlboros up a bit. Their centre beat the whistle by about three seconds, and the forwards took the puck down. There was a bit of dazzling combination and a shot about knee high got by Winchester. Score 2-1. The next game was nearly a repetition, except that Brown broke up the combination but was tripped and fell just as he was about to clear. The Marlboro rover came up like a flash, tipped the puck to another at the side, and before you could wink your eye the score was 3-1. Half time came and the Belleville people had a chance to size up the situation. The Marlboros were fast and tricky, there was no denying it, but some of the Belleville team were not doing themselves justice at all. If they could come out of their trance and put up the game they were capable of, why it was anybody's game yet. One thing was sure, the wide rink had been a serious handicap to Manager Burrell's men. Then there was Kennedy's smashed thumb, and, alas, a couple of the boys seemed to have left their aggressiveness at home. However, it was a swift clean game, even if his team was getting it in the neck, so we shook out our red and white ribbons and hoped for better luck in the next half.

It was 9.20 when the boys started again, and a few seconds after the face Allen put a Marlboro into the fence so hard that he was out of business for a minute or so. The Bellevilles seemed to have livened up a bit and for a time both Burrows and Kennedy rained in shots on Marlboros' stronghold. But the boys were away off in their judgment, owing to the wide rink, and several shots which would have scored on Belleville ice went bang! against the boards, just so much energy wasted. Suddenly the White and Green fellows broke through again and came down the ice three abreast. The combination was pretty, though it made one wince to see it. The right wing man got to within six feet of Winchester. Biff! and they had another. They were off again and the referee got busy and ruled Brown off for an alleged cross check. The next minute Kennedy was bodied into the fence head first, and was knocked out for a minute or so. Brown came on again and then the referee ruled him off for tripping. This looked like hard luck, but the Belleville lads were more than holding their own at this stage of the game, and, could they have judged the net better, would have surely scored two or three times, both Burrows and Kennedy making swift and straight shots. Finally one of Wallace's lifts got by the Marlboro defence. Score 4-2. Shortly after this the referee sent a Marlboro man off for cross-checking Kennedy. "If we can only get another goal," said Harry Burrell, "and keep them from scoring any more, we're safe." The Belleville's men's hearts went down into their boots when the next minute saw McGuire ruled off for three minutes. Brown and McGuire both off! Wouldn't that trip you? The next game was easy for the enemy, and they went right down and scored. Score 5-2. They were off again and the Marlboro cover point sent a long lift up to Winchester, which he stopped and batted out. The referee thought a Belleville man collared it off-side, and he ordered a face right at the side of the Belleville goal. The Marlboro centre man again beat the whistle by something less than a quarter of an hour. He passed to a fellow directly in front, and almost before the whistle blew the puck was in Belleville's net. Score 6-2. Tough, wasn't it? Marlboros had scored two goals while two of Belleville's best men were off. Such is life, however. Away they went again, and Brown and McGuire came back. Brown tried a rush on his own account. He went right through the Marlboro forwards and defence, all by his lonesome, and scored. That made it 6-3, and we were not up against it so bad yet. Once more the local lads woke up to something like their old-time form, and for a time pressed Marlboro hard. Look out, there, here comes that confounded forward line again, tipping the puck from one to the other. The local lads were not checking back at all well, and in fact most of them failed in that all night. It looked like more trouble for Belleville. And it was. One of the White and Green Fenians shot, Win. stopped it, but another villain batted it through. Score 7-3. Marlboro got the next by a great rush and piece of dazzling combination, and the score had mounted to 8-3. This was repeated in about a minute. Score 9-3, and there was barrels of trouble for the people from Belleville. With dogged determination the boys stuck to their work, however, and just before time was up McGuire scored again, after one of the finest rushes of the night. The final score was 9-4.

Caught in the Net.

Red and White, red and white
We got licked on Thursday night,
But wait till you see us next Monday.

The Red and White boys have their revenge coming.

The Marlboro forwards will not show up so brilliantly on a narrower rink.

It's a safe bet that no man in Toronto can beat the game McGuire put up last night.

Well, defeat is a new sensation this year, but the boys won eight straight and have no kick coming. It will take a crowd of flyers to beat that Toronto bunch on their own ice.

If the Toronto men had had the courage they could have had a big wad of Belleville money.

The Belleville defence outclassed the Marlboro defence, but the Belleville forwards did not hold their checks at all on many occasions.

However, everybody is liable to have an off-night. With Sandy Burrows and Marker Allen in form, and Kennedy's thumb better the boys will come mighty near pulling down that lead, as sure as you're born.

The Mutual Street Rink always was Belleville's hoodoo.

Winchester's goal-keeping was quite on a par with his previous performances. The trouble was the Marlboro forwards came in so close before they shot that nobody could have stopped the puck.

The boys feel their defeat keenly, but they've given several other teams "that tired feeling" this season, and must take their medicine.

Give the lads the glad hand and a word of encouragement. Anybody can cheer for a team which wins; it takes a sportsman to pat a losing team on the back and say "Try again." Don't fade away because the boys lost a game. They're not "all in" yet, by any means, and will redeem themselves on Monday night.

About 25 local enthusiasts went up with the team, and many former Bellevillians, now resident in Toronto, came to offer their hearty good wishes.

The Globe's account of the match is not so fair as it might be. The Mail and World are much nearer the mark.

Wire screens are now placed in the tramway cars at New Orleans to separate negroes from white passengers.

CITY MISSION

ANOTHER MILESTONE IN ITS HISTORY PASSED — REPORTS ARE ENCOURAGING.

The 23rd annual meeting of the City Mission was held in the Mission building last evening and the attendance was good. Mr. A. G. Northrup, who has taken a deep interest in the Mission since its inception, occupied the chair. The reports from the various departments showed the Mission was steadily going ahead and was also accomplishing good work under the supervision of Mrs. Schuster, who was prevented from being present owing to illness. During the evening an interesting programme was presented. Misses Watson and Webster rendered a duet. Miss Sidna Brown gave a violin solo, whilst recitations were given by Misses Emma Evans, Julia Fitz and Emma Hutchison. Addresses were given by the Chairman and Mr. C. Clapp, who also presented a report of what was being done in the Sunday School.

Civic Committees

A meeting of the Waterworks Committee was held last evening presided over by the Chairman, Ald. Galbraith. The principal business transacted was the passing of a number of accounts.

The Executive Committee had a meeting last evening. The business under discussion was in reference to the civic offices and the duties pertaining thereto.

TURNING DOWN THE DOCTORS.

The marvellous cures of Catarrhozone are being much talked about. Thousands are daily recognizing the exceptional merit of this simple inhaler treatment, and instead of running to the doctor with their winter ills they protect themselves by Catarrhozone; it kills colds in the head in ten minutes, quickly relieves Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Lung Troubles, and cures even though all other remedies have failed. Catarrhozone is very pleasant, safe and convenient to use. Its best recommendation is its enormous sale; try it to-day. Price $1.00; small size, 25c., at druggists.

Fined for Assault.

Three young men, James Marlow, Fred Day and Fred McHugh were yesterday afternoon convicted of a common assault on John Connors and were each fined $2 and costs.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

EIGHT PUPILS KILLED.

TRAIN RAN INTO CAR ON WHICH THEY WERE RIDING.

Twenty or More Scholars Were Badly Injured—A Terrible Accident at Newark, N.J.

Newark, N.J., Feb. 20.—A fast express on the Lackawanna Railroad cut through a trolley car crowded with school children at the Clinton avenue crossing. Eight of the children were killed, and a score or more of them injured, some fatally. The motorman of the car, who stuck to his post, will die, and the engineer of the express was so badly hurt that there is little hope of his recovery. Both the express and the trolley were on a steep grade, going at right angles. The express was signalled, and the crossing gates were lowered, while the trolley car was yet half way down the hill. The motorman shut off the power and applied the brakes, but almost immediately the car began to slip along the icy rails. It gained tremendous momentum, and at the bottom of the hill crashed through the gates, directly in the track of the on-coming train. The locomotive ploughed its way through the trolley, throwing the children in every direction. The dead are: Viola Ill, 17 years; Maude Baker, 16 years; Ernestine P. Mueller, 15 years; Mabel E. Karschner, 17 years, Tiffin, Ohio; Alma Loehnberg, 16 years; Rosebud Kohn; Ella Werupp, 19 years; Evan L. Eastwood, jun., 16 years.

The wreck of the trolley car was complete. The pilot of the engine struck it almost in the centre, and turned it partly around, and then the ponderous engine cut it in two. The upper part of the trolley was reduced to fragments under the drivers of the locomotive. One-half of the car was thrown to one side and lay on the tracks. The other section was hurled some distance away. In every direction lay the dead and injured. The engine was brought to a standstill, and from the train and from near-by houses men rushed to the rescue. The spectacle was appalling, and many who started to work had to give up, unnerved. From the High School, where the crash had been heard, and from the windows of which some had witnessed the accident, came pupils and teachers to aid in succoring their companions. A lad who had been hurled to safety in a snowbank thirty feet from the crossing arose, brushed the snow out of his eyes, and, with a shriek, ran up to a fire box and ran in an alarm. Within five minutes as many dead bodies had been laid side by side in the snow alongside the track. One of the bodies, that of a girl, was found a block beyond. It had been carried there on the pilot of the engine. Load after load of the injured was sent away in patrol waggons and ambulances.

TRIAL OF THE HUMBERTS.

A Verdict Will Be Pronounced on Saturday.

Paris, Feb. 20.—Yesterday the Humberts were again before the public, when the hearing of Banker Cattaui's libel suit against them was resumed. Crowds surrounded the court. There were many prominent persons present. Mme. Humbert did not show any signs of her reported illness. Asked by the Presiding Judge if she wished to make a statement, she replied that she desired to wait until her lawyer had presented his case.

M. Cattaui's lawyer, Maitre Bernard, was then heard. He made a severe arraignment of the prisoners, who he declared to be the authors of untold ruin and business disaster, accompanied by the death, by suicide, of many of the victims. Counsel asserted that the operations of Mme. Humbert were similar to to those of a highwayman.

The plea of the assistant prosecutor, Loscouve, counselled leniency, which was considered favorable to the acquittal of the prisoners. When the court adjourned it was announced that judgment will be rendered Saturday.

A BIBLE SUNDAY.

Meeting of Bible Society Representatives in Montreal.

Montreal, Feb. 20. — Representatives of the British and Foreign Bible Society, Canadian auxiliaries, agreed yesterday to observe Sunday, March 6, 1904 as "Bible Society Sunday" throughout Canada and Newfoundland in unison with the rest of the empire. It was also agreed that in addition to the ordinary annual offering to the parent society, a special thank offering of at least $50,000 be raised in British North America during the centenary year to aid the parent society in translating and circulating the Bible. There was some misunderstanding in some auxiliaries regarding the formation of a Canadian Bible Society, which would unit all the auxiliaries in Canada and Newfoundland, and the matter was referred back to the auxiliaries to report to a future meeting. The parent society, having signified its intention to send three representatives to Canada this year, the Executive of the Upper Canada Bible Society, with Rev. Dr. Shaw, Rev. F. M. Dewey, Judge Forbes, Rev. Dr. Armstrong and Rev. Mr. Almon, were entrusted to make appointments throughout the Dominion. The question of supporting a monthly publication in the interests of all the Canadian auxiliaries was deferred until the federation of Canadian auxilaries is settled. The Executive of the Upper Canada Bible Society was entrusted with the selection of a suitable deputy or deputies to represent the Canadian auxiliaries at the approaching centennial celebration in England in March, 1904. Among those present: were Rev. Dr. Armstrong, Ottawa; Rev. Dean Innis and Rev. J. H. Orme, Western Ontario Society; Rev. Dr. Chambers, Rev. Jesse Gibson, Messrs. E. B. Biggar, J. C. Copp, John Harvie, of the Upper Canada Bible Society, Toronto.

Premier Balfour's promise of legislation against future similar cases saved the British Government from defeat on a motion regarding non-prosecution in the London & Globe Finance Corporation's case.

Brantford manufacturers banqueted members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association from the chief centres of the Province last night. A feature of the affair was the decorations, in which the city's industries were represented, and the reading of an original poem, written by Miss Pauline Johnson.

BELANGER CONFESSES.

AVENGED THE SEDUCTION OF HIS DAUGHTER.

After Slaying His Victim, Belanger Drove Him to His Own Barn—Endeavors to Have an Alibi Ready.

Montreal, Feb. 21. — The St. Eustache murder mystery has been solved. Theophile Belanger, brother-in-law of the murdered man, Antoine Seguin, has confessed the crime to Chief McCaskill of the Provincial Police Force. The immediate cause that led Detective McCaskill to finally make the arrest was the contradiction between his evidence before the coroner and his previous declarations to the detective. At the inquest Belanger changed his version as to the stained pieces of ice found near his house, and said that they had been brought by some one to his premises. In opposition to his former assertion, that the blood was the result of the killing of a pig, he said also that the blood-stained ice made him suspect a crime. Under the circumstances of these and other contradictory statements Mr. McCaskill thought that the time had come to place Belanger under arrest, and at 1 o'clock he was taken to Ste. Scholastique and lodged in jail there.

At Ste. Scholastique Belanger asked Mr. McCaskill for a private interview, and in the course of a long conversation told all about the deed. He affirmed that about three weeks ago he had discovered a criminal relationship between Seguin and the grown-up daughter of Belanger, a young woman of 22. The girl, of course, would be a niece of Seguin, which rendered the offence the more heinous. Belanger says he forgave Seguin, but warned him that anything further of the same nature would forfeit his life. On Thursday morning, Belanger claims, Seguin again molested the girl, whose cries brought Belanger to the spot. He told Seguin to say his prayers, followed him to the barn, and shot him. He left Seguin there all day, said nothing about it to anyone, and at night, having taken his wife and daughter to the village, returned, wrapped the body in hay and a lot of old sacks, threw it into a sleigh, and galloped to Seguin's barn, where he left it, galloped back, and rejoined his family in a neighbor's house at St. Eustache. He counted upon being able to prove an alibi, because nearly all of his time that night could be accounted for by one or other of a number of people. The night he spent in jail was a quiet one; he did not sleep much, and he did not cause any trouble. He seemd more like a man who thought he had done a distasteful but necessary task than a man who had committed deliberate murder. When brought before Judge Carrier this morning he again seemed calm and collected. His lawyer, Mr. Matthieu, asked that he be let out on bail, and offered as much as ten thousand dollars, but Judge Carrier stated that, although he would like to allow the request, it was impossible, considering the details of the case which had come to his notice.

The accused was asked to plead in the usual way, and, by the advice of his counsel, pleaded "Not guilty."

The defence was prepared to go on with the case at once, but Mr. J. D. Leduc, who is acting for the Crown, asked for a delay as the Crown had not entirely completed its evidence, and as the coroner's inquest was still going on. At the request of the Crown, Judge Carrier postponed the date of the preliminary examination to the 28th of this month.

INVASION OF ENGLAND.

Canadian Farmers Commence Their Campaign.

London, Feb. 21.—The invasion of England began last night, when eight Canadian farmers, the vanguard of fifty, who will arrive to preach the gospel of Canadian settlement, landed in Liverpool. Two reached London yesterday, to work in the south of England. One huge, bearded giant at once impresses Englishmen as a typical westerner; the other, a dapper little gentleman, illustrates the possibilities of Canadian farming, even for suburban Londoners. The delegates have already begun telling the world how originally they left England without a penny, and are now in comparative affluence. "Twenty years ago," said the bearded giant, "I landed in Canada with all my belongings wrapped up in a red pocket handkerchief. Last year my wheat crop alone brought me over ten thousand dollars." The delegates point out that not farmers alone are required, but all who are willing to work on the land will find Canada a source of fortune in the end. This delegation is bound to greatly assist in the movement of British emigrants to Canada.

BIG INSURANCE FRAUDS.

STARTLING REVELATIONS MADE AT NEW YORK.

An Insurance Agent Makes a Confession Unmasking a Wide, Long-continued Conspiracy.

New York, Feb. 20.—To-day testimony of a startling nature was given in the Police Court by witnesses in the examination of Joseph Trepani, an undertaker, one of the six men under arrest, charged with swindling life insurance companies, by substituting bodies. Francis B. Foster, formerly an insurance agent, testified that he had agreed, at Trepani's suggestion, to swear to the death of men insured in his company, while he knew the body of someone else had been substituted. Foster said he received sums of $100 to $600 from Trepani, when the policies were paid. Foster was arrested and Trepani was held in $5,000 bonds to the Grand Jury.

Dr. Moore testified that he was sent to St. Michael's Cemetery by an insurance company to identify [illegible] humed, which was said to be that of an old man named Trombirula, upon whose death insurance on a young man still living was collected.

"I found it to be that of a much older man," he said. "There were mittens on the hands, stuffed with cotton, and the right forearm was missing. The right foot also was missing, the shoe having been stuffed with a block of wood shaped like a foot. The lips had been sewed together, so as to conceal the absence of teeth. The mouth was stuffed with cotton, causing the cheeks to puff out and give the body the appearance of being that of a much younger man."

Assistant District Attorney Krotel made public to-night a confession made by Foster, detailing the methods pursued by the swindlers. Foster says that he has been for many years the chief soliciting agent for the Union Central Life Insurance Co. of Cincinnati, which has a branch office in this city. He admits that he made false identifications of seven bodies, and succeeded in effecting the collection of $10,000 of fraudulent insurance from his company. He also says that shortly before the death of Trombirula the conspirators, headed by the undertaker Trepani, made arrangement to place $10,000 additional insurance on his life.

NO ARGUMENT NEEDED

EVERY SUFFERER FROM CATARRH KNOWS THAT SALVES, LOTIONS, WASHES, SPRAYS AND DOUCHES DO NOT CURE.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or various throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy, which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics, scientifically known as Red Gum, Blood Root and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt, of Rochester, N.Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty-cent box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily, until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask, and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved, until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

SAFETY FOR LITTLE ONES

MOTHERS SHOULD EXERCISE GREAT CARE IN CHOOSING MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

Every little one needs a medicine at some time, and mothers cannot be too careful in making a selection. The so-called "soothing" preparations, invariably contain opiates and other harmful drugs, which stupify the little one, and pave the way to a constant necessity for the use of narcotic drugs. Undoubtedly the very best, and the very safest medicine for little ones is Baby's Own Tablets. They are mildly laxative and gentle in their action, and cure all stomach and bowel troubles, relieve simple fevers, break up colds, prevent croup, and allay the irritation accompanying the cutting of teeth. Where these Tablets are used, little ones sleep naturally, because the causes of irritation and sleeplessness are removed in a natural way. Experienced mothers all praise this medicine. Mrs. H. H. Fox, Otterburne Ridge, Man., says;—"Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I have ever used for children of all ages. They are truly a blessing to baby and mother's friend."

These Tablets are guaranteed to contain no opiate, and can be given to a new-born babe. Sold by all druggists, or sent post paid, at 25c. a box, by writing direct to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont

MR. BLAIR AND SENATOR ELLIS.

The Minister Criticizes the Course of The St. John Globe.

St. John, Feb. 21.—Hon. A. G. Blair, addressing a Liberal rally in the north end, took up the attitude of Senator Ellis and The Globe, of which he is editor, in the present local campaign. The Government leaders and Hon. Mr. Blair are making the present fight on straight party lines. The Globe has opposed this and comes out in opposition to the Local Government and to the appeal to Liberals to support the Local Government because they are Liberal. To-night a climax was reached when Hon. Mr. Blair in his speech referred to the attitude of The Globe and Senator Ellis, and said he would take no advice from them as to the leadership of the party. Mr. Ellis' advice would not be followed with benefit by any party, and that Senator Ellis was not adverse to accepting for his paper and himself the emoluments coming from the party in power.

BODY BURNED UP.

Death of Joseph Houle, a Montreal Plasterer.

Montreal, Feb. 21.—Joseph Houle, a plasterer, about 30 years of age, met a horrible death some time yesterday. The deceased was in the employ of Mr. Hormisdas Contant, and was engaged in watching a number of small furnaces, commonly called "salamanders," that were being used for the purpose of drying a newly plastered house on Prospect avenue, Westmount. These furnaces or stoves are used without pipes, and are kept very hot, so as to dry the plaster quickly. He was overcome by the coal gas from the salamanders, and while endeavoring, to make his escape, it is thought, fell over a pile of lumber across one of the stoves, and was roasted almost beyond recognition. One of his arms was almost burned away, and his body was terribly disfigured by the flames. No person knows exactly how the accident occurred, but there is no doubt, according to the morgue officials, but Houle had been asphyxiated.

Mr. Small Secures Brantford Theatre.

Toronto, Feb. 21.—The Stratford Theatre in Brantford has changed hands, and in future will be managed by Mr. A. J. Small, the Manager of the Grand Opera House in Toronto. The theatre is the property of the Stratford estate in Brantford, and had been leased to the Abbott brothers, who recently left Brantford, leaving a considerable number of unsettled accounts behind them. Mr. Small has now obtained a lease of the theatre for a term of years, and will operate it in connection with the Stairs-Small syndicate of theatres. He will take charge on March 2. The taking hold by Mr. Small of this theatre is expected to strengthen the circuit between Toronto and London, as it adds a one-night theatre in a city which is considered a good one from a theatrical point of view, while at the same time Brantford will be given a class of attractions which heretofore it has not been getting, and, in fact, will place it upon the same footing as an amusement centre as London and Hamilton.

TEN BURNED TO DEATH.

Fatalities at a Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Fire.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Feb. 21.—Ten lives, according to the best information obtainable, were lost in a fire which destroyed the Clifton Hotel in this city yesterday. Two persons were fatally and others severely injured by jumping from windows.

There were 120 guests in the building when the fire broke out, and most of the dead are buried in the debris. Owing to the destruction of the hotel register the names of the missing are as yet unobtainable.

MARTINEAU IN COURT.

DEFALCATIONS MAY AMOUNT TO $60,000.

The Young Man Had the Handling of the Department's Checks and His Method Was Easy—Also Charged With Forgery—A Bucket-shop Speculator.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—It is said that the defalcations alleged to have been committed by Arthur Martineau, jun., second-class clerk in the Militia Department, will amount to $50,000 or $60,000, and some people think the actual amount will be considerably higher. It is known for a certainty that during the quarter from 1st July to 30th September checks to an aggregate sum of $30,000 were forged and cashed. The first of them is dated July 7, only six days after Martineau was permanently appointed to a second-class clerkship at a salary of $800 per annum. Thirty thousand dollars is believed to cover all the forgeries during the period named. How many were committed during the ensuing months up to the present time is not known. If forgeries continued at the rate of $30,000 a quarter, the total sum misappropriated would reach nearly $100,000. The officials of the Militia Department think, however, that whilst there may have been several forgeries in the month of October, none occurred during the ensuing months up to the present, still no positive evidence exists upon this point. The work of investigation is greatly hampered by the fact that the forged checks, after passing through the bank, were destroyed, and some of the monthly statements furnished to the Militia Department by the Bank of Montreal, which does the Government's business, made away with. Martineau's duty in the Militia Department, as already stated, was to check over the vouchers of expenditures as they came in. In this way all cancelled checks would pass into his hands, and it was a comparatively easy matter for him to pick out the forged paper and destroy it. Martineau, it is thought, secured a blank check book, a number of which are kept in stock, and made each check payable to the order of Chas. D. Cote.

The signatures of the Deputy Minister and the accountant, which are indispensable, are alleged to have been forged. The checks were not torn out of the book, as is usually done, but the indications are that they were cut out in such a way as to leave a white edging at one end outside the body of the check. This, it is supposed, was done for the purpose of readily selecting the forged checks from the genuine ones when they came back from the bank at the end of each month. With the aid of the bank statement, the expenditures were supposed to have been checked monthly, but as the man who is supposed to have committed the wrongdoing secured the vouchers when they arrived and abstracted the forged checks, it was not an easy matter to detect the fraud. Martineau opened a deposit account with a number of Ottawa banks, including the Royal and the Sovereign. At the former his account was in the name of "A. Martineau." At the latter institution he was known as Chas. D. Cote. He appears to have been introduced to the banks as a reputable citizen or as an official representing the Government, and no suspicion was entertained at the banks that anything was wrong. The checks were drawn on the Bank of Montreal, but they were deposited to Martineau's credit at one or other of the banks where he had an account. The young man was known as a frequenter of stock brokers' rooms and he speculated largely on margins, which involved him in heavy losses. When arrested he had on his person $12,000, neatly done up in a package. Some of it is said to have been in American notes, and the police believe that he was meditating flight. If so, he delayed his trip too long.

Martineau was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday before Magistrate O'Keefe on charges of forging and uttering a check for $9,300 on or about July 7. Although the accused is 28 years of age, he has a youthful appearance, and would pass for 18. He is short and slim in appearance, clean shaven, with smooth hair carefully brushed and parted. His face is attractive, although somewhat effeminate, and by the ordinary observer he would be pronounced a bright, honest young fellow. He was attired in the overcoat and garments which he wore when arrested, and, except for a nervous movement of the lips, appeared to be totally unconcerned. At one stage of the proceedings he even smiled broadly, as though enjoying his arraignment. To the usual question, "Are you guilty or not guilty?" Martineau's counsel pleaded that he had not had time to consult with his client.

"Do you wish to postpone the election?" asked the Magistrate, and the lawyer replied in the affirmative.

Mr. J. A. Ritchie, who represented the Crown, asked for a week's remand.

"You are remanded until the 27th, in jail," laconically said the stipendiary to the prisoner, and the latter was led away.

THE ALASKA BOUNDARY COMMISSION.

Now that the United States Senate has ratified the Alaska-Yukon Boundary Treaty, and the United States Commissioners have been appointed we may expect ere long to hear of the selection of those who are to represent the British nation upon that important Commission.

The names of the gentlemen selected by the United States President do not carry with them a guarantee of even a fair consideration of the question, they having already given not only strong, but decided opinions upon the merits of the case, and judging from their past utterances, little in the way of an impartial judgment can be looked for. In addition to their individual declarations, it must not be forgotten that at the "back of the "American Commissioners there is a "tyrannous public opinion, at once ill-"informed and haughty, certain to "flame with anger at anything like "an acknowledgment of the justice of "the Canadian contention." It is this feeling, that in too many cases makes United States statesmen yield their better judgment, and say and do things that when removed from such influences would not be said or done. This is what Britain will have to meet and combat,

Who the British Commissioners will be is not yet known. Several names have been suggested, among them Mr. Justice Davies, and Mr. Justice Mills, both of the Superior Court. It has been urged that because Mr. Mills has written and published an article upon the subject of the Alaskan Boundary, that he is disqualified for the position. If this constitutes a disqualification, the gentlemen selected by the President to represent the United States should be tabooed at once. We know of no one on the Bench in Canada to-day, better, or so well qualified for the position, than Judge Mills. He is an ardent and industrious student, and has given the question of boundaries between Canada and the United States much thought and research, which eminently qualify him for the position. He rendered Sir Oliver Mowat eminently valuable services in England when the boundary between Ontario and the Northwest was under discussion. The study of that particular question was not alone involved, the whole range of treaties affecting the boundaries of the different portions of the continent had to be considered, hence we should look upon his selection as a wise and highly proper one, and hope that no squeamish sentimental idea will prevent its being made.

Discussing this subject the Toronto "News" puts the question fairly and forcibly, from another standpoint. It says:

"If ever it was necessary for Canada to be represented with power and acumen, this is the time. It is not desirable to imitate the baser element among our neighbors, and demand that the British jurists shall be distinguished by an obstinate resolution to win, rather than by eminence of legal attainments and high judicial character.

"Acuteness of perception, forensic skill, and exhaustive knowledge of all phases of the question are absolutely necessary, and will be in place in the counsel for Canada."

And it further adds:

"These qualities can be engaged on behalf of the country. Where could a better lawyer be found to present the Canadian case than Mr. Edward Blake? Let the Government secure him as its pleader. Mr. Blake stands practically unrivalled in his keenness of analysis and power of presentation of a case. Sir Wilfrid Laurier should press his appointment upon the British Government."

There are thousands who differ strongly from Mr. Blake's political views, but few who deny him the qualifications with which the News accredits him. Canada commends this appointment as counsel to the Commission.

Just Try To Get Well

Find out what I know.
Learn why my offer is possible.
Write me a postal—that's all.

Then I will mail you an order—good at any drug store—for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. You may take it a month on trial. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself, and your mere word shall decide it.

NOTE WHAT THAT MEANS!

No matter about your prejudice and doubts. They are natural—but put them aside for once.

Look at it this way:—If my treatment succeeds, you are well. If it fails, it is free. Your whole risk is the postal you write.

And consider this:—You see this offer everywhere, and thousands every week accept it. Don't you realize that I must be curing these thousands, else the offer would ruin me?

And can't you believe—in view of the faith I show—that my vast experience may have solved a way to cure you?

Don't be too hesitating when your health is at stake. Just try for a month to get well. Then, if you are still doubtful, let your druggist send the bill to me.

MY METHOD IS THIS:

My Restorative strengthens the inside nerves. It is my discovery—the result of my lifetime's work. Instead of doctoring the weak organ, I bring back the nerve power which alone makes each vital organ act. I give it the strength to do its duty, just as I would give a weak engine more steam.

I nearly always succeed. My records show that 39 out of each 40 who get my Restorative on trial pay for it gladly, because they are cured. The best of other treatments cannot cure one chronic case in ten.

My book will tell you why.

DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION

REV. MR. FRASER PRESENTS SOME MORE OF HIS VIEWS ON THE SUBJECT.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—When we find in the Epistles the new birth in Holy Baptism, which our Lord had said was to be necessary for entrance into His Kingdom, ascribed to the Gospel word of truth, this is just what we need expect in the circumstances of that age of Christianity, for the reason that very many of these Christians had been brought into Christianity from outside religions, through the coming to them of the Gospel preaching, which had told them of "the kindness and love of God, our Saviour toward man," which had "appeared," and so had been such a prominent and blessed and ever memorable instrumentality in bringing them into their present privileges, into which they had been introduced by the "washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost." (Titus, 3, 4, 6). God's word, which had done this for them, would naturally be magnified, and they would not misunderstand. In its own place the word of the Gospel is the instrument of bringing about the new birth, but not so as to shut out the more immediate agency of the Holy Spirit acting in Holy Baptism. (And, be it noted, this is not to deny that the word preached has in the hands of the Spirit its own efficacy in bringing about blessed results, which are of absolute necessity both before and after the reception of the new birth in Holy Baptism). The Gospel preached by St. Peter on the Day of Pentecost was instrumental in bringing about the new birth of those thousands who were baptized, that they might receive remission of sins and the gift of the Holy Ghost. (Acts, 2, 37—38). And it is by the Gospel dispensation, preached and taught, with its blessed Sacrament of Baptism, that so many millions through all the ages have been brought to Holy Baptism and born again of water and the Spirit. This blessed instrumentality of the preached word of Christ is invariably referred to in as to leave room for the more immediate agency and instrumentality, which come between it and the effect, the new birth. There are various things which have to do more or less indirectly with the bringing about of the new birth, but the water of Baptism is the direct instrumentality, and the Spirit the immediate agent. There is nothing that comes between them and the new birth, as a nearer instrumentality or agent in bringing it about, and this is signified in the Greek preposition, translated "of" in the phrase "born of water and of the Spirit." We have the same preposition in the phrase "born of God." And so we never find it said anywhere that we are begotten or born again of the "word," or of God's mercy and love, or of faith, or of repentence whatever these may have to do with bringing about the new birth, but we are said to be "born of water and the Spirit," while these other things, in so far as they are mentioned as having to do with the result, have their part in it indicated by a Greek preposition or case, which does not imply their being the direct and immediate instrumentality or cause of the result. In one of the passages quoted by Mr. Haines, I. Peter, 1, 22—23, and if "the word," there does not mean the Divine Word, viz., our Lord Jesus Christ (John 1), which seems its probable meaning—we have the direct and immediate agency of the Holy Spirit in Holy Baptism, in bringing about the new birth and the indirect instrumentality of the "Word of God," contrasted by means of the different prepositions used. The passage reads "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit into unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another, with a pure heart fervently; being born again (rather, having been born again), not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible by (or, through) the Word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever," then the immediate agency of the Holy Spirit in coming to them in Holy Baptism as the seed of their new birth, and the indirect instrumentality of the "Word of God," that which led them to Christ in Baptism to receive it, are contrasted by the use of the prepositions "of" and "by," or "through."

I trust you will give me space for further elucidation of scripture teaching on this important subject, and now close for the present.

Yours, &c.,
J. F. FRASER.

WOMEN, WHY SUFFER?

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

PERMANENTLY BANISHES NERVOUSNESS AND THE MANY FEMALE WEAKNESSES THAT AFFLICT WOMEN YOUNG AND OLD.

Nervous disorders and diseases are on the increase, and women of all ages are sufferers. Digestion gives out there are pains in the head, the tongue is coated, the muscles ache, there is constipation, heart palpitation, gloomy fears oppress continually, and sleep is broken and disturbed. The only reliable remedy that medical science has given to women for their emancipation from suffering and weakness is Paine's Celery Compound, now so largely prescribed by physicians with the happiest results. In critical cases Paine's Celery Compound has saved life and restored health when all other medicines proved failures. Jessie M. Ross, Quyon, Que., who found Paine's Celery Compound to be "woman's best friend," writes as follows:

"It affords me much pleasure to testify to the great good that Paine's Celery Compound has done for me. I was completely rundown in health and a victim of female weakness, and after using three bottles of your wonderful medicine I was completely cured. It is the best blood purifier I know of, and I recommend it to all who are troubled as I was."

A GUILTY CONSCIENCE.

In an Ohio town a saloon keeper was seen by a friend walking back and forth before his saloon, as if in deep thought. The friend asked him what was the matter, He answered: O, nothing.

The next day the friend saw him walking the same way, and again asked him what was the matter.

Have the crusaders been after you?

No; but I have received a postal, signed by three ladies. The husband of the first is one of my customers, and is rapidly becoming a drunkard. A son of the second is one of my customers, and is just started on a drunkard's course. The husband of the third was one of my customers, and died a drunkard. It cuts close, and I can't stand it.

A Great Wreck of Clothing Prices

Do you know the kind of Suits and Overcoats we will sell now for $7.50, they are the $9.00, $10.00 and $10.50 garments. Have you seen some friends wearing one of our $15 Suits and Overcoats which you admired, or did you buy one yourself a couple of months ago? You can get one now for $12 or some of them for $10.50. That's exactly what this sale gives you an opportunity to do, and it is your own fault if you don't do it. We can't afford to carry Winter goods over, so we would rather lose on them and let you make on them now. Oh, Yes! some storekeepers advertise cut prices all the year, lose money all the time, are in business for fun, etc., but we don't do it that way. Twice a year and for a few weeks each time, we can afford to and we do sacrifice profits.

This is our time to lose, as we want to make room for new Spring Goods which are arriving daily. Don't fail to take advantage of this situation.

PROPERTY OF THE COMPANY.

This Company has secured 10,000 acres of the choicest wheat lands in Assiniboia, Canada, having paid to the owners in addition to cash, 60,000 shares of its Capital Stock, for which the owners are completely equipping the property with all the necessary buildings, steam plows, steam threshers, drills, wagons, tools, fences, and everything necessary to operate the said 10,000 acres. In addition, the Company is to pay to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and the other vendors of the said lands $50,000 in yearly installments of $10,000 each, being the balance of the purchase money.

These lands are capable of producing, at a fair estimate, 30 bushels to the acre of the best wheat produced in the world, or a total capacity of 300,000 bushels per year. Owing to the rich, prolific nature of the Northwestern Canadian soil, this product can be duplicated each year indefinitely. The Company's property will always be equipped with all the latest improved steam plows, drills, threshers, and necessary machinery to produce wheat at the lowest cost. It is the intention of the Company to have its own elevator, of a capacity sufficient to store its entire production, thus enabling them to take advantage of the highest market prices from time to time. The market for wheat is the same as for gold—it is unlimited.

The Company also has an option on 10,000 additional acres of the same character of wheat land as the 10,000 acres above mentioned, the property being located seven miles from the Canadian Pacific Railway, where large elevators are ready to receive the product.

This is an investment that will enhance in value as time goes by, not only from the large production of wheat, but the increased value of the Company's lands from year to year.

APPROXIMATE EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY
Are Estimated as Follows:

The average yield of wheat in Western Canada varies but little under all conditions. In some years the average has been over thirty-five bushels per acre. Many individual cases report as high as forty-five and even fifty-five bushels to the acre. But, taking the lowest average, there is no industry that will produce better profits. Owing to the modern steam machinery and economical methods employed in cropping, harvesting, threshing and marketing, as well as the especial ease with which in the prairie country of Western Canada, wheat is produced, there is always a splendid profit. The cost of raising an acre of wheat, being placed by farmers and experts at about $5.00 per acre, there have been cases in the past few years where as much as $35.00 has been realized, less the cost of $5.00, leaving a net profit of $30.00 per acre.

A safe and conservative estimate of the Company's earnings, taken much below the above figures, is herewith given:

APPROXIMATE YEARLY STATEMENT.

ESTIMATED NET PROFITS PER YEAR.

It will be seen that, after paying the expenses of raising wheat on 10,000 acres, amounting to $50,000 each year, and paying $10,000 per year to the Canadian Pacific Railway (for 5 years) as yearly payments on the property, it is estimated there will still remain a profit of $120,000 per year, or over 20 per cent. per annum on the stock issued.

TREASURY ASSETS.

The Company now have, after paying the 60,000 shares to the owners for the lands, improvements and equipment, 140,000 shares still in the Treasury, the same being set aside as a Treasury Fund. 50,000 of these shares are now being offered for subscription in Canada and England, and are to be sold for the purpose of taking up the option, and acquiring the 10,000 acres of new wheat territory, and the equipment of the same, together with working capital.

By acquiring the additional 10,000 acres, making 20,000 in all to be owned and operated by the Company, the profits will be more than doubled, or over 40 per cent. on the 110,000 shares of stock issued.

The balance of 90,000 shares will be held as an asset of the Company, which can be sold when required for extending the operations of the Company.

DIVIDENDS.

Dividends of, say, 15 percent. per year, it is estimated, can be paid semi-annually, December 1st and June 1st of each year. Outside of the amount paid in dividends, the surplus earnings will be accumulated, and will either be divided among the shareholders as extra dividends, or used to purchase new wheat territory; or be otherwise employed as may be hereafter determined.

WESTERN CANADA

is fast becoming the Eldorado of Great Britain. Its wheat lands will create more wealth than all the gold and diamond mines of the Empire. The failure of a crop is unknown. (See the report of Hon. Clifford Sifton, Minister of the Interior, Canada, extracts of which are published in the prospectus of this Company.) The wheat of Western Canada is well known to be extremely Hard No. 1, the best quality grown in the world; the yield also being considerably more per acre than in the United States. The sub-soil throughout the intense heat of summer is kept moist by the slow melting of the deep winter frosts, the moisture ascending to the surface and moistening the roots of the grain, thus stimulating growth and producing a bountiful crop.

DEMAND FOR WHEAT.

The demand for wheat from England alone is over 160,000,000 bushels per year, and from other European countries about 250,000,000 bushels, most of which is obtained from the United States, but of a poorer quality than can and will be furnished by Canada. The Canadian Pacific Railway runs within easy hauling distance of the property and is doing everything in its power to increase wheat raising.

A RELIABLE INVESTMENT.

This Company has an advantage over other industrial enterprises through the fact that while the Company's earnings from its wheat products will be constantly growing, and advancing the price of the Company's shares, the land of the Company is continually enhancing in value, creating a double source of values.

There is no business in the commercial world so profitable as raising wheat, and the investment is as safe as first-class Railroad Bonds, for the reason that the land and improvements of the Company are always a security for its shares, besides its ability to raise immensely profitable crops. The possibilities of this Company are unlimited, as the surplus earnings can be devoted to the acquisition of additional wheat lands, thereby increasing the earning capacity of the Company and lowering the average cost of production.

Owing to the intrinsic value of the property of this Company, and its estimated vast earning power, a rapid advance in the price of these shares will doubtless take place, and we confidently expect that this issue of 50,000 shares will be largely over-subscribed.

SUBSCRIPTION TERMS.

The full amount of $5.00 per share must accompany the order. The right is reserved to allot a smaller number of shares than the amount subscribed for, in which event the balance of the money will be returned with the shares allotted.

Application will be made for a settlement of these shares on the London, Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges in due course.

Mrs. Langtry's Gowns.

A professional modiste thus describes Mrs. Langtry's gowns in "The Crossways:"

All the Langtry skirts are full, gathered on the belt at the waist, and all are of clinging materials. The sapphire blue in the third act is a wonder. Its curious shade is produced by the draping of an odd colored bluish-green net over a changeable blue and green taffeta silk. The effect simulates the richest sapphire velvet, without having its bulkiness or weight. The net is full and plain from the waist line to the hips, where it is latticed with rows of large black sequins to the bottom of the skirt. At the various points where this lattice intersects, black silk roses, with glittering black sequins as centers, appear, and lend a wonderful richness to the dress. The bodice is slightly fulled into the belt, which is a regulation girdle of soft silk, pointed top and bottom in front and narrow and straight in the back, where it fastens. The top is low in cut, showing the actress's fine back, and is finished with pointed capes, two in front and two in the back, which fall free quite to the waist. These are trimmed with the roses and black sequins. The sleeves are short in front and fall long in the back in exquisite bits of scintillating drapery, through which the pink flesh gleams. No neck jewels are worn with this costume, and only a few rings—sapphires and diamonds.

The cloak which completes this wonderful toilet is of black shirred chiffon and net, made over a sapphire blue satin lining of the exact shade of the gown. The collar is a fluffy mass of black ruffles and plaitings, and the entire bottom of its long skirt is made up of row after row of double ruchings and shirrings.

A delicate blue neglige, matching the color of Mrs. Langtry's eyes, is perhaps the most becoming of her toilets. The bodice of this creation falls quite straight from the bust, with a long bias seam up the front. A wide blue satin ribbon is passed directly around the bust and tied in a huge bow at the left front side, leaving wide ends falling to the feet. The neck is medium low in cut, and perfectly round, finished by three alternating rows of satin pipings and white chiffon shirrings. The white chiffon is also let into insertions to trim the very wide "angel" top sleeves, which fall gracefully over the smaller puffs of white net that form the elaborate undersleeves. The latter have deep cuffs buttoning to the wrist, and made entirely of pipings, a dozen or more in number, applied on white net. Turquoises and diamonds are worn with this costume.

The white water-lily gown, made of white net, showing green graduated rayons at intervals up and down the skirt, is exquisite. The bottom fulness of the skirt is a mass of yellow and black-hearted water lilies, with green-colored petals, outlined in silver spangles of a dull finish. The leaves of the lilies are made of white chenille, and stand out in exquisite relief. The bodice shows the same capelike effect back and front already described, with only slight modifications. The capes are made of rare lace, on which lilies and leaves are embroidered. The graduated flounces which form the sleeves are also of this material. The most charming and novel feature of the bodice, however, is the soft silver fringe which is united in some mysterious way with the lace and falls over the arms and in stunning festoons over the bust to the waist line.

With this Mrs. Langtry, who is not at all partial to hats, wears three clusters of scarlet berries in her hair and a handsome opera cloak of white chiffon, with pink rose petal trimming in the form of a huge boa about the collar and down the front. The cloak shows the most curious shirring about the sleeves and across the back at irregular intervals. The only hat in which she appears is a pink chiffon affair trimmed with a wreath of a dozen or more deep pink-hearted full-blown roses. It is of medium size, and droops slightly in front, while a pink satin chou raises it slightly from her hair at the left side.

The gown with which she wears this is of pink chiffon over silk. The skirt is trimmed with three ruffles of pink lace, headed by ruches made of tiny pink chiffon roses, and the bodice is trimmed in the same manner. This pink lace is also an innovation with which New York is not yet familiar. It is not so very pretty, but it has the charm of novelty.

The handsomest jewel Mrs. Langtry wears is a pendant attached to a slender gold chain which just encircles her fine throat. This has one large yellow center diamond of wonderful brilliancy, surrounded by many others, the entire pendant being about the size of a silver quarter. Her rings are magnificent, particularly those of emeralds and diamonds; but she wears only one brooch—a huge fleur-de-lis of diamonds. The necklace and chains and butterflies and pins, which formed so conspicuous a feature of her adornment on her last American trip, are left in her jewel box.

The Lady Chameleon is attracting attention in Paris. She is a young Rumanian, Marga Cerbus by name, whose coloring is determined by her emotions. Anxiety turns her green; she is pink when joyful, violet when afraid, and black when angry. The Boston "Journal" can see how such a woman would be a never-failing joy as a wife. Her husband would never be in doubt as to the precise nature of her mental condition. And then there might come a mildly polygamous feeling to a husband having a white wife, a colored wife and a red wife on different days. "Yet Miss Cerbus will, no doubt, marry a man that is color blind, and therefore unappreciative; such is the irony of life."

"It begins to look as though the brothers Lebaudy of Paris had already solved the problem that has baffled every airship inventor hitherto—sailing against the wind," says a writer in the "Scientific American." "Following up their first rather sensational success, they made an ascension at Nantes recently that gave striking testimony to the truth of the claim that they had made the most nearly perfect airship yet built. Several ascents were made, the balloon returning to a given spot each time. It moved in all directions above the fields and woods which border the Seine. In every instance the airship was brought back to its starting-point at a speed of twenty-five miles an hour, the turn being made against the wind."

MAR
HOL

But Katy had not, and with a toss of her head, which shook the raindrops from her capeless shaker, Aunt Betsy went on her way, and was soon confronting Morris, sitting just where Katy had left him, and looking very pale and sad.

"I met Catherine," Aunt Betsy began, "and mistrusted at once that something was to pay, for a girl don't leave her umberell in such a rain and g cryin' home for nothin'."

Morris colored, resenting for an instant this interference by a third party; but Aunt Betsy was so honest and simple-hearted, that he could not be angry long, and he listened calmly, while she continued—

"I have not lived sixty odd years for nothing, and I know the signs pretty well. I've been through the mill myself."

Morris laughed a loud, hearty laugh, which emboldened his visitor to say more than she had intended saying.

"You just ask her agin. Once ain't nothing at all, and she'll come to. She likes you; 'taint that which made her say no. It's one foolish idea about faithfulness to Wilford, as if he deserved that she should be faithful. They never orto have had one another—never; and now that he's well in heaven, as I do suppose he is, it ain't I who hanker for him to come back. Neither does Katy, and all she needs is a little urging, to tell you yes. So ask her again, will you!"

"I think it very doubtful. Katy knew what she was doing, and meant what she said," Morris replied; and with the consoling remark that if young folks would be fools it was none of her business to bother with them, Aunt Betsy pinned her shawl across her chest, and hunting up both basket and umbrella, bade Morris good night, and went back across the fields to the farm-house, hearing from Mrs. Lennox that Katy had gone to bed with a racking headache.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

"Are you of the same mind still?" Helen asked, when three weeks later she returned from New York, and at the hour of retiring, sat in her chamber watching Katy as she brushed her hair, occasionally curling a tress around her fingers and letting it fall upon her snowy night-dress.

They had been talking of Morris, whom Katy had seen but once since that rainy night, and that at church, where he had been the previous Sunday. Katy had written an account of the transaction to her sister, who had chosen to reply by word of mouth rather than by letter, and so the first moment they were alone she seized the opportunity to ask if Katy was of the same mind still as when she refused the doctor.

"Yes, why shouldn't I be?" Katy replied. "You, better than any one else, know what passed between Wilford——"

"Do you love Morris?" Helen asked, abruptly, without waiting for Katy to finish her sentence.

For an instant the hands stopped in their work and Katy's eyes filled with tears, which dropped into her lap as she replied:

"More than I wish I did, seeing I must always tell him no. It's strange, too, how the love for him keeps coming, in spite of all I can do. I have not been there since, nor spoken with him until last Sunday, but I knew the moment he entered the church, and when in the first chant I heard his voice, my fingers trembled so that I could hardly play, while all the time my heart goes out after the rest I always find with him. But it cannot be. Oh, Helen! I wish Wilford had never known that Morris loved me."

She was sobbing now, with her head in Helen's lap, and Helen, smoothing her bright hair, said gently:

"You do not reason correctly. It is right for you to answer Morris yes, and Wilford would say so, too. When I received your letter I read it to Bell, who then told what Wilford said before he died. You must have forgotten it, darling. He referred to a time when you would cease to be his widow, and he said he was willing—said so to her, and you. Do you remember it, Katy?"

"I do now, but I had forgotten. I was so stunned then, so bewildered, that it made no impression. I did not think he meant Morris?" and lifting up her face, Katy looked at her sister with a wistfulness which told how anxiously she waited for the answer.

"I know that he meant Morris," Helen replied. "Both Bell and her father think so, and they bade me tell you to marry Dr. Grant, with whom you will be so happy."

"I cannot. It is too late. I told him no, and Helen, I told him a falsehood, too, which I wish I might take back," she added. "I said I was sorry he ever loved me, when I was not, for the knowing that he had made me very happy. My conscience has smitten me cruelly for that falsehood, told not intentionally, for I did not consider what I said."

Here was an idea which Helen caught at once, and the next morning she went to Linwood and brought Morris home with her. He had been there two or three times since his return from Washington, but not since Katy's refusal, and her cheeks were scarlet as she met him in the parlor and tried to be natural. He did not look unhappy. He was not taking his rejection very hard, after all, she thought, and the little lady felt a very little to find him so cheerful, when sh scarcely known a moment's since the day she carried him custards and forgot to bring her umbrella. As it had rained day, so it did now, a decided, getic rain, which set in after h came, and precluded the possi of his coming home that night.

"He would catch his death cold," Aunt Betsy said, while I too, joined her entreaties, until ris consented, and the carriage came round for him at dark ret to Linwood with the message the doctor would pass the nigh Deacon Barlow's.

During the evening he did not address Katy directly, but he each time she moved, and w every expression of her face, a kind of pity for her, when, w appearing to do so intentionall family, one by one, stole from room—Uncle Ephraim and Aunt nah without any excuse; Aunt to mix the cakes for breakfast; Lennox to wind the clock, and to find a book for which Morri asked.

Katy might not have th strange of their departure, we not that neither one came again, and after, the lapse minutes or more she felt vinced that she had purposely left alone with Morris.

The weather and the family conspired against her, but afte throb of fear she resolved to the difficulty, and meet wh might happen as became a wo twenty-three, and a widow. knew Morris was regarding h tently as she fashioned into the coarse wool sock intended some soldier, and she could hear her heart beat in the which fell between them ere said to her, in a tone which r ed her:

"And so you told me a fals the other day, and your con has troubled you ever since?"

"Yes, Morris, yes; that is, you I was sorry that you ever me, which was not exactly tru after I knew you did, I was h than before."

"You knew it, then, before you?"

"From Wilford—yes," Katy ed.

"I understand now why you been so shy of me," Morris "but, Katy, must this shyness tinue always? Think, now, a if you did not tell more tha falsehood the other night—a count falsehoods?"

Katy looked wonderingly at and he continued:

"You said you could not b wife. Was that true? Can take it back, and give me a di answer?"

Katy's cheeks were scarlet, a hands had ceased to flutter the knitting which lay upon h

A Savings Bank.

Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality. Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims o handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, hich fact is all the argument necessary.

BETTER GOODS, BETTER VARIETY, BETTER ALUE ARE NOT POSSIBLE, OR WE WOULD HAVE THEM.

Daily Intelligencer.

TIMELY TOPICS

The Intelligencer heartily congratulates the officers and members of the local Philharmonic Society on the handsome surplus which remains after all expenses were met. Last night the society presented Mrs. (Col.) Campbell, the accompanist, with a purse of $50 (part of the surplus), as a token of their appreciation of her artistic and painstaking labor in helping to make the entertainment the huge success it was.

* * *

The Waterworks Committee is to be congratulated on the saving effected by the discovery and repair of the leak in the main. A saving of 500,000 gallons of water weekly is no small matter.

* * *

Considering the high price of cement the Council undoubtedly acted wisely in deciding to build no granolithic sidewalks this year. The Intelligencer, however, is glad to see that the suggestion many times made in these columns, re gravel walks on outlying streets, has been championed by Ald. Galbraith. The city now has excellent material, and the cost of laying the walks should be comparatively small. The walks, of course, will not be able to compare with granolithic or even asphalt walks, but, they will be infinitely better than the rickety plank walks, the loose boards of which now lie in wait for the unwary, looking for a chance to make him skin his shins and break the Ten Commandments.

* * *

The Intelligencer had a little conversation with a prominent railway official the other day, and took occasion to ask him one or two questions concerning the much-talked-of new rules on the Grand Trunk Railway. The way our informant explained matters it does not seem that the railway demands anything out of the ordinary from its employees. When the old rules were in vogue, we were told, the responsibility for moving the trains rested altogether with the different train despatchers. When a freight came into a station, and the conductor had been given orders to wait till a certain train passed, he waited there, no matter how much the other train was behind time, and it will easily be seen that a good deal of valuable time could thus be lost. Nowadays, under the new rules, a freight comes in, and the conductor is given an order by the despatcher reading this way: "No. 999 is twenty-five minutes late." If he thinks he can make Sidney Siding in that time he goes ahead, but mark this—No. 999 is ordered to run to Sidney Siding twenty-five minutes behind time, so that, if the railwaymen obey orders there is no more chance of a collision than there would have been had the first conductor waited here till No. 999 had passed him. The orders are made out in triplicate, one being given to the conductor, another to the engineer and another to the brakeman. The same officials on No. 999 have been given their orders in the same way. The above illustration shows, in a nutshell, the object and workings of the new rules, and, in our informant's estimation, they do not demand any more intelligence than the average man should have at his disposal. The object, of course, is to save time, and our informant was positive in the opinion that, with the old rules in force, the Grand Trunk would never, in recent times, have been able to keep up with its freight traffic at all.

* * *

As to the matter of alleged "overworked" operators, with their so-called "multifarious" duties, the gentleman could not see it that way at all. Operators in important positions, he said, had eight hours on and sixteen off; men in least important positions had twelve hours on and twelve off. One of the most serious of the recent accidents was caused by a man overhearing part of a message which was not meant for him at all. Had he ignored that which was not meant for him there would have been no accident. In another case a man had written orders lying alongside him on his desk. He forgot all about them, though they were staring him in the face. Strange things happen everywhere, both on the railway and off it, but no one could talk to the official in question, as we did, for twenty minutes, and not feel fairly well convinced that the new rules were very carefully planned and thought out before they were put in force, and that the Grand Trunk Railway is not such a terribly hard taskmaster, after all.

Died in Thurlow

Mr. John A. Brown, a well-known yeoman residing in the 3rd Concession of Thurlow, died yesterday afternoon. Nearly 87 years ago the deceased was born in Thurlow, and all his life had been spent in that township. During these years Mr. Brown had made many friends. Deceased had been for many years a member of the Methodist Church, filling many positions in church work. A family of three sons and two daughters survive, Mrs. Brown having preceded her husband to the tomb some 11 years ago. The sons are James W., of Creemore; Geo. N. and Marvel, of Thurlow; and the daughters are Mrs. Owen Reed and Mrs. Dennis Lucas, both of this city.

Died in Detroit

Mr. John A. McNeil, an employee of the G.T.R. in this city, this morning received the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. A. M. Judd, of Detroit, which occurred yesterday. The deceased lady is survived by three sons, who all live in Detroit. Mr. McNeil left to-day to attend the funeral.

Col. W. N. Ponton gave a very interesting lecture on the subject of "Wills" on Thursday night in the Association parlor. This was one of the lectures in the course of lectures on commercial law now running at the Y.M.C.A.

Last evening 12 of the best checker players in the city were present at the first checker contest held in the Secretary's room from 8 to 10 o'clock. There was some remarkably good playing. The youngest player present, however, won by one game over Mr. W. Ormand.

The Association Evangelistic Band conduct the men's meeting to-morrow at 4.15. The subject of "Our Opportunity" will be considered. Sacred phonograph selections will be given. All young men welcome.

A Prominent Labor Man of Toronto Speaks of the Great Benefit He Received Through the Use of O. R. Kidney Cure.

Toronto, Nov. 16, 1902.

To the O. R. Medicine Co., Limited:

Gentleman,—I certainly owe you a letter of thanks for the benefit I have received through the use of your O. R. Kidney Cure and Liver Pills. I am a carpenter, and have been greatly handicapped in my work through being troubled with lame back and sore kidneys. I doctored without receiving any benefit, and would be compelled to quit work for a week at a time. I was very bad, and could hardly walk when I heard of the O. R. Kidney Cure. I procured a bottle and in less than one hour after taking the first dose I was relieved of the pain, and in three days I was at work, and have been at work every day since. I followed up the Kidney Cure by the use of the O. R. Liver Pills, taking one after dinner, and have never felt better than at the present time. I believe that I am permanently cured.

Sincerely yours,
M. A. MERRITT,

STAGE AND PASSENGERS BROKE THROUGH THE ICE

NARROW ESCAPE OF PICTON-DESERONTO STAGE—FIRE IN A DESERONTO LIVERY STABLE.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Deseronto, Feb. 20.

About 4.30 o'clock this morning James Dryden was awakened by a reflection of fire in his bedroom window. The fire was in Bell's livery. It originated in the hay loft and quickly ran through the entire building. By 6 o'clock the livery was completely consumed. The horses were all got out before the blaze reached the stables. All the rigs and a portion of the harness were saved. Had there been a wind blowing there would have been a very serious loss.

When the Deseronto-Picton stage left the latter place on Tuesday evening there were three passengers on board. The stage took to the ice at Cole's dock, and when near Fredericksburg shore, went into an open place. It appeared the driver had become bewildered and lost the road in the darkness. When he discovered his plight he made an endeavor to get back to the road, but without avail. They were half a mile from shore when the horses went through, dragging the stage after them. Passengers and driver succeeded in getting on firm ice, but all thoroughly soaked with the chilly water. They made for the shore and were taken in by Mr. Walmsley, who dried them out and sent them to Deseronto.

Wednesday night was the coldest of the season. It registered 19 below zero.

While crossing the bay near the ferry on Wednesday, George E. Pearson had the misfortune to lose a fine horse. It broke through the ice, and before assistance could reach him, the horse had perished.

Work is being rushed at the Car Works. They are busy now on a lot of stock cars for the Intercolonial Railway, and when they are finished work will commence on a large order for box cars for the same railway.

Miss Mabel Twining has gone to New York City.

The Rev. Edward Costigan, L.S.T., conducted the service at Tweed on Sunday last.

It is expected that Napanee will play hockey here on Wednesday evening next. This game will probably decide who are the champions for this season.

COURTESY IN PUBLIC.

(Brockville Times.)

An Englishman visiting Canada praised the country heartily from a business and social point of view, but he told a Toronto man that he had one cause of complaint against that large town. He said:

"You have one blot in your city, fair as it is; that is your pedestrianism. I was more bunted on your pavements by well-dressed females than I ever experienced before."

He was an old man, but no consideration was shown to his grey hairs. The women jostled him without apology.

Toronto is not the only place where some women calmly monopolize the whole sidewalk. The simple act of courtesy of moving slightly aside when passing should be observed by women as well as men. Women with baby carriages, too, will charge straight ahead without the slightest disposition to avoid collisions with harmless pedestrains. We admire the ladies and we love the babies, but we poor men are entitled to the courtesy which so well becomes the fair sex.

There is another class of [illegible] for whom there is no ap[illegible] that is the people who hal[illegible] gies or carriages upon st[illegible] ings, compelling pedestrians [illegible] through filth, mud or slush in or[illegible] to get to the other side of the way. There is no manner of excuse for that.

Good manners are meant for the street as well as the drawing-room.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Grain is Firmer—Better Demand For Live Stock—Latest Quotations.

Friday Evening, Feb. 20.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Receipts at the market to-day were heavier than they have been for some time, and business was consequently somewhat more brisk. The total grain receipts amounted to 2,200 bushels.

Wheat—White wheat showed an easier feeling, 500 bushels selling at 72c to 72½c per bushel. Red is steady; 100 bushels sold at 72½c; 200 bushels of goose sold unchanged at 67½c.

Barley—The market is firm for good grain, which sold at 51c per bushel. Inferior quality sold easier at 47c. Altogether 800 bushels were on the market.

Oats—Continue steady; 500 bushels sold at 37c to 37½c per bushel.

Rye—One hundred bushels sold unchanged at 52½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Business was somewhat brisker to-day, the receipts being heavier. Prices are unchanged at $8 to $8.25 per cwt for light-weight butcher hogs and $7.50 to $7.75 for heavies.

Hay—The market for No. 1 timothy is firmer at $12 to $14.50 per ton. Mixed or clover is steady at $8 to $9. Receipts amounted to 20 loads.

Straw—Quotations are about steady at $9 to $10 per ton. Two loads were on the market.

Toronto Live Stock.

Trade conditions at the Toronto Cattle Market to-day were unchanged from those of the previous days of the week. Business was normally active, and prices are about steady for all kinds of cattle. The run of offerings was not large, and the quality was only moderately good. The total receipts on the market amounted to 49 cars, including 616 cattle, 522 sheep, 839 hogs and 15 calves.

Export Cattle—There was a firmer feeling on the market, although prices in most instances continued steady. About $4 to $4.50 per cwt was paid for the best choice cattle, but some fancy lots were sold at higher prices. Quotations generally are unchanged, despite the better feeling, while the prospects are for a slightly firmer market.

Butcher Cattle—The market continues about steady. The run was rather light, and the demand for the stuff offering, while fairly active, was easily filled by the supply. Prices were fairly well maintained at yesterday's slight drop, and quotations are unchanged. Choice cattle brought about $4.25 per cwt, and higher prices were paid for extra choice stock.

Milch Cows—The offerings of milch cows were of poor quality and rather few in number. The market is about steady, with an active demand for good cows. Quotations are unchanged at $30 to $56 each, but as high as $80 was asked for extra good cows with calves.

Stockers and Feeders—Good stockers are still in brisk demand, but the receipts of this kind are light. Prices continue about steady, with quotations unchanged.

Sheep and Lambs—A fairly brisk business was done to-day, nearly everything being sold early. The market continues about steady, with the exception of export bucks, which are about 50c per cwt higher. Prospects are steady.

Calves—Good veals continue in demand and the market is steady, with quotations unchanged.

Hogs—The market is firmer in places, the price of selects is unchanged at $5.80 per cwt, and of lights and fats firmer at the same price, $5.80 per cwt.

In addition to the number of cattle on sale, there were several loads in transit through from Chicago. Six cars were consigned to W. Levack. These cattle weighed from 1,400 to 1,500 lbs, and cost in Chicago from $4.50 to $4.80.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 20.—Cattle—Receipts light; steady. Veals—Receipts, 275 head; strong, 25c higher; tops, $9.50 to $10; common to good $5.50 to $9.25. Hogs—Receipts, 7,400 head; active at yesterday's closing; heavy, $7.55 to $7.60; mixed, $7.50 to $7.55; Yorkers, $7.50; pigs, $7.35 to $7.45; roughs, $6.25 to $6.60; stags, $5.25 to $5.75. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 16,600 head; active, 15c to 25c higher; top lambs, $7.10 to $7.15; cull to good, $4.50 to $7; yearlings, $6.50 to $6; ews, $4.75 to $5; sheep, top mixed, $5 to $5.25; culls to good, $2.25 to $4.90.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Cattle—Receipts, 3,000; good to prime steers, $5.50 [illegible]; poor to medium, $3.25 to $4.50; stockers and feeders, $2.35 to $4.50; cows, $1.40 to $4.60; heifers, $2 to $4.75; canners, $1.40 to $2.50; bulls, $2 to $4.25; calves, $3.50 to $8.65; Texas-fed steers, $3.50 to $4.25. Hogs—Receipts, 22,000; opened 10c higher; close advance lost; mixed and butchers', $6.90 to $7.25; good to choice heavy, $7.25 to $7.70; rough heavy, $6.95 to $7.25; light, $6.50 to $7; bulk of sales, $7 to $7.30. Sheep—Receipts, 7,500; opened strong; closed weak; lambs opened strong and closed weak; good to choice wethers, $5 to $5.70; fair to choice mixed, $4 to $5; native lambs, $4.75 to $7.

DOMINION OIL CO., LTD,
Chartered Under the Laws of Ontario,
PAID-UP CAPITAL . . . . $850,000.

Every shareholder of record Saturday, Feb. 21st, participates in the next monthly dividend, payable March 1st, of ONE PER CENT ON PAR.

This is practically THREE per cent on the investment at the present price of stock.

35 Cents Per Share,

(par value $1.00, fully paid and non-assessable). All mail applications for stock must in order to secure this dividend, bear date and postmark not later than FEB. 21st.

The Mail and Empire of Toronto says under the heading "Our Petroleum Industry":

"For several years past the average value of production has been about one and three-quarter million dollars per annum. With the large development now being actively pushed by the Dominion Oil Company, Limited, a Canadian corporation chartered for the purpose of acquiring a new discovery, known as the Raleigh Oil Fields, near Chatham, and which own an interest in the now far-famed Gurd Gusher, the largest well ever discovered in the Dominion, the value of the output should very shortly be doubled."

The Chatham Daily News of Jan. 20th says: "The Gurd Gusher is again at work, and demonstrating the fact that she is not a freak well, but a good, money-making proposition. The oil is all going to Sarnia, and so far the Petrolea refinery has not had a show. The good price paid and the compensation for the output prove the great demand for crude oil. The Dominion Oil Company has acquired interests in the Gusher and taken over the leases held by the Gurd Company."

The president of the Dominion Oil Company states in regard to the production of the Gurd wells, now about 100 barrels of oil per day, that he expects through the installation of an air compressor that this production will be increased to 400 or 600 barrels per day.

This product is now bringing the HIGHEST PRICE OF ANY OIL ON THE NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT.

The company has also just added to its holdings by securing leases on 360 acres additional in the Wheatley district, a very valuable acquisition, and contracts are now being made for active development upon this property. This has been done WITHOUT DRAWING A DOLLAR FROM THE RAPIDLY ACCUMULATING TREASURY FUNDS.

An early advance in the price of this stock is probable, and investors should secure it now while there is time. Remember that the books close Saturday, February 21st, for the March 1st dividend.

Address all enquiries for full information regarding this very profitable investment and make all checks, drafts orders payable to the

CEMENT MEN STILL AWARDING CONTRACTS

WORKS EXPECTED TO BE COMPLETED BY NEXT NOVEMBER OR DECEMBER.

The directors of the Belleville Portland Cement Company are busily engaged these days in considering and awarding contracts for various branches of work. Contracts for some $300,000 worth of machinery have been let, which consists of 50 Griffin mills, 10 rotary kilns, 10 coolers, two clay driers, etc. Various firms, both in Canada and the United States, have proved to be successful competitors.

To-day two large contracts were under consideration and will not be settled until a meeting to be held this evening. They are the electrical appliances and the steam engines for all power. There are five parties in the city at present who represent electrical concerns, the majority being from the United States.

Mr. J. W. McNab stated to an Intelligencer representative that he expected about all contracts would be let to-day, and the prospects were that the delivery of the machinery, etc., would take place early in the season. If no unforeseen delays occur he said the mills would be in operation by next November or December. In answer to an enquiry he stated that about $500,000 was being spent in machinery.

GIFTS TO THE POPE.

Thousands of Dollars in Gold and Silver Coins.

Rome, Feb. 21.—At yesterday's ceremony in connection with the Pontiff's jubilee celebration Cardinal Respighi, Vicar of Rome, read an affectionate Latin address, expressing loyalty and devotion, and offered the gold tiara, the jubilee present of the Catholic world, which cost $25,000, and $40,000 in cash. Cardinal Ferrari (Archbishop of Milan), in behalf of a pilgrimage from Lombardy, presented an address of felicitation to the Pope, and the gold, silver and bronze commemorative medals. The Pope thanked the Lombardy pilgrims and gave them his benediction. Cardinal Boschi read a third address, and presented to his Holiness the symbolic keys, one of gold and the other of silver, accompanied by an offering of $40,000 in gold coins. The Roman Committee for the jubilee fetes presented a rich parchment volume, with the signature of all who had contributed to the offerings, with another $40,000 to be devoted to the restoration of the basilica of St. John Lateran. Other committees followed with addresses and offerings.

The Kaiser's Faith.

Berlin, Feb. 21.—Emperor William's faith in God and Christ and in the authority of the Old Testament, as declared in his letter to Admiral Hollman, Councillor of the German Oriental Society, is accepted by the leading authorities of the State and church as satisfactory evidence of his Majesty's orthodoxy, which for months had been the cause of deep concern to theologians and pastors. The doubts began a year ago, when the Emperor first listened to Prof. Delitsch's lecture on the Babylonian origin of the Bible.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

"PINAFORE" REPEATED.

"Pinafore" was repeated in the opera house last night, and the bright and clever children again delighted the audience. The performance was even better than on Thursday night, the little lads and lassies evidently having more confidence in themselves, and things went off more smoothly. The entertainment, from first to last, reflected credit on all concerned.

A man is very apt to be cut by his best friend when he attempts to shave himself.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmalee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

A woman never knows where the match box is.

HAD LA GRIPPE.—Mr. A. Nickerson, farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months, when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

The land area of Hawaii is 4,000,000 acres.

Their gentle action and good effect on the system really make them a perfect little pill. They please those who use them. Carter's Little Liver Pills may well be termed "Perfection."

When one gets hopping mad his reason goes on a crutch.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 219 to 119 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.
Signed, JEAN VALCOURT,
Wotton, P.Q. General Merchant.

If thy friend is honey, do not lick him up altogether.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly, subdues the pain and disease.

Do not live near a pious fool.

Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing these troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

The best wheel of fortune is honest labor.

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in the pills. They affect the nerve centres and the blood in a surprisingly active way and the result is almost immediately seen.

THE INTELLIGENCER is printed and published for The Intelligencer Printing and Publishing House (Limited) by CHARLES JAMES BOWELL, of the City of Belleville, in the County of Hastings, Province of Ontario, at their Office, No. 403 Front Street, Belleville, Ont.

The late Dr. Joseph Parker was once arguing with a man on the problem of continued existence, and at the door the friend declared finally: "The fact is, I am an annihilationist. I believe that when I die that will be the end of me." "Thank God for that!" exclaimed the doctor, and banged the door.

The following effusion was addressed to the editor of a Southern paper:

"Sur an Frend—Do the Carnegie libberary lend Books teechin Matthewmattics, to Outside your Citie? I want Oalle Books on Matthewmattics, as I am all right on spellin and am a purty good Grammatician if I do say it Misef. I kin spell and Grammarize but Matthewmattics is one too Much for Me."

A country vicar discovered not long ago that one of his male servants was in the habit of stealing his potatoes. He mentioned the fact to his curate, and asked advice. "Well," replied the curate, "of course you must remember what the Bible says: 'If any man take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.'" "I see," mused the vicar. "Well, in this case, as the man takes my potatoes, I'd better give him the sack!"

When Dr. Lorenz, the distinguished surgeon, received the degree of doctor of laws from Northwestern University he said, in acknowledging the compliment: "I had the degree of imperial royal counselor of the Government from the Emperor Francis Josef. I think I am the worst counselor of government to be found. In receiving this degree of doctor of laws, I am the worst doctor of laws in the world. But it seems nowadays that the less a man knows the greater is his degree."

A Pittsburg physician was visited the other day by a very nervous man, who had dropped in to secure medical advice. After a brief examination, the doctor said there was nothing much the matter with his visitor. "Take a tonic and dismiss from your mind all that tends to worry you," concluded the physician. Several months later the patient received a bill for eighteen dollars, together with a polite request to "please remit." This is the reply the nervous man made: "Dear Doctor—I have taken a tonic and your advice. Your bill tends to worry me, and so I dismiss it from my mind."

E. S. Willard administered a well-deserved rebuke to some theater-goers of Hartford, Conn., at a matinee the other day, when, just before the last act, many of those occupying boxes and front seats decided that they had divined the climax and rose to leave. The disturbance was marked. Willard stopped suddenly, and, holding up his hand for silence, said: "I have stopped the play in order that those who are desirous of leaving may do so, and leave others to that which is their right—undisturbed attention." Those who were seated applauded, and the disturbers sank into their seats abashed.

Oliver Wendell Phillips, the abolitionist, never permitted a negro slave to wait on him. It is related that one day while in Charleston, S.C., he came late to the dinner-table at his hotel, and when a negro attempted to serve him, he asked: "How long have you been a slave?" "I ain't got no time to talk about dem foolish questions," the slave replied, "wid only five minutes for dinner." Mr. Phillips told the slave to leave the room, that he would not let him serve him at the table; that he would wait on himself. "I can't do dat, suh," said the waiter, "'cause I is 'sponsible for de silber on de table, suh!"

The thriftiness of a London shopkeeper is illustrated in a story told of a dry-goods dealer. The merchant was of an excitable temperament, and on hearing his assistant say to a customer, "No, we have not had any for a long time," was unable to countenance such an admission. He fixed his eye on the assistant, and said to the customer: "We have plenty in reserve, ma'am, plenty upstairs." The customer looked dazed for a moment, and the shopkeeper did not seem happy when his assistant informed him that the customer was speaking about the weather, and had remarked, "We haven't had any rain lately."

There is a story of a man of seventy who, when he was asked if his father lived to be an old man, replied that his father was upstairs putting his grandfather to bed. There is another setting of this old story—old enough to be new—which is told by the New York "Times" as coming from a Southern senator, who was explaining how healthy his part of the State is: A mountaineer, ninety-two years old, and his wife of ninety were returning from the funeral of their eldest child, who had died at the age of seventy-one. As they discussed their loss in deep grief, the wife said: "I always told you, John, that we should never raise that child."

At a Maine educational convention Rev. Nathaniel Butler, formerly president of Colby College, but at present professor of English literature in the University of Chicago, was down for an address. As he was about to speak, Hon. W. W. Stetson, state superintendent of schools, said to him: "Doctor, is your address like a cat's tail?" "How is that?" asked Dr. Butler. "Why, fur to the end," replied Mr. Stetson. Dr. Butler smiled appreciatively, but kept silence. He opened his address by saying, "Your superintendent just asked me if my address was to be like a cat's tail—fur to the end. I assure him that it is like a dog's tail—bound to occur."

Dr. Davidson, the new Archbishop of Canterbury and primate of all England, is a Scot, and in this connection it has been pointed out that a Scotsman is now Prime Minister; the leader of the Opposition is a Scotsman; the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Attorney-General, Secretary of Board of Trade are Scotsmen. On the other hand, the Lord Chancellor, the Solicitor-General, the Secretary for India, the Foreign Secretary, the Chief Secretary for Ireland are of Irish origin. Where does poor England come in?

The progress of the religious census of London being made by the "Daily News" shows, with almost unbroken regularity, that Londoners are not church-goers. Seven districts of London have been enumerated — Kensington, Hampstead, Battersea, Paddington, St. Pancras, Lambeth, Wandsworth—with the result that, in a total population of 1,340,699 in these localities, only 267,514 men, women and children have attended the churches and missions of all the denominations and faddy religious sects. From this attendance a considerable reduction has to be made on account of those who go to church twice daily.

We will make the inducement doubly tempting that all who wish may have and may buy abundantly.

To this end we open fire with the publication of this advertisement and offer all Fancy goods at the mammoth discount of 30 per cent. from regular prices.

This means $10 of goods for........................ $7
$1 of goods for........................ 70c

YES, and we will go one better—Will give you 40 per cent. off if you accept a due bill for the discount, same due bill being good at any time for any goods in our store, including Wall Papers, Picture Framing, Paper Hanging, Stationery, Books, etc. This means 10 dollars of goods for 6 dollars.

AGAIN—to this sale we add the balance of our 1902 wall paper stock at the same discounts—30 per cent. regular.
40 per cent. due bill.

We mean in this way to close out every roll of last year's papers, and have nothing but 1903 papers for our customers.

SPORTING COMMENT.

In a former issue The Intelligencer stated that the Kingston Times had not commented in any way on the outrage perpetrated on Brown in that city. We see now that in a later edition The Times condemned the act in unmeasured terms and says that the conduct of the Ramblers "disgusted the spectators." We thought it strange that a fair newspaper like The Times would ignore the matter. There is only one paper in Kingston which condones brutal play.

The Marlboros are not invincible by any means. They beat Niagara Falls intermediate team 30 to 5 in Toronto, and then got beaten 7 to 5 in the Falls. It is not time yet for Belleville to throw up the sponge.

Milder weather appears to be coming, and with soft ice the Marlboros will play a vastly different game to that they put up against Belleville the night before last. It may interest some people to know that the most sanguine supporters of the Toronto lads were astonished by the showing made by their pets. The general opinion was that they never played such a game before and probably never would again.

Here are a few fairly accurate comments on the game by an excellent sporting writer on The Toronto Telegram, and it may do the local lads no harm to study them a bit before Monday night:

The local team earned their victory. They were by long odds the lighter team, but they were infinitely faster, and Belleville did not make any attempt to take advantage of their avoirdupois. That was the only chance they had, and they either did not know how to use it or would not. At any rate they did not. Although the Marlboros have been showing some very fast work together this season, it can safely be said that they never before played a prettier, more effective or more faultless combination than they did last night. They went down the ice like a whirlwind, and, although Belleville had a particularly strong defence, they could not withstand the lightning passing of the smaller team. They introduced a feature in their combination work that is worthy of notice. Three men formed the rushing line and the fourth forward dropped back a few feet to take up any failure to catch the puck. The idea was an excellent one and was found to be of the greatest service. On a Belleville rush the line dropped back fast, following up and checking closely and continuously. The result was that the defence were relieved of a great deal of heavy work and the Belleville men were hampered in their shooting. Belrose and O. Earls took good care of the rest, and Gorrie played his usual star game in goal. Belleville played well individually, and their defence was particularly strong, Wallace and Brown putting up a clever game all through, but they were not assisted by their forwards as they should have been, and the full brunt of nearly every attack fell upon them and, under the circumstances they did remarkably well. All the same, the Bellevilles made the Marlboros' play for all that was in them, and the spectators—and it was by long odds the largest crowd that has turned out to see an intermediate match in some moons—got their money's worth. There was little let up. It was hard, fast, brilliant hockey all the time, but it was clever combination work against individual play."

There is a pretty fair and square opinion of the hockey match in question, and it points to one conclusion, which many who saw the game had previously formed: If Belleville can show the form they displayed against Port Hope they can win. But they must keep on their men all the time and NEVER LET UP. They've got it in them to win, and with the advantage of playing at home, with all their friends cheering them on, we expect to see them do it. But they must play hockey every minute of the time. If they do that, if they do what they can do and have done before, it will be Belleville and not Marlboro who will go into the semi-finals.

The Belleville Bankers will cross sticks with the Kingston Bankers in the rink to-night, and a good game should result. The local team will line up as follows: Goal, Williamson; point, Brymner; cover, Patterson; forwards, Bell, Hamilton, Lipscombe and Steele.

Toronto Star: Paderewski McGuire, the Italian gentleman on the Belleville forward line with the fuzzy, curl-paper hair, was partially responsible for the haze which hung over the ice at the Mutual street rink last night. The electric lights and the Mrs. Leslie Carter hair didn't blend worth a cent.

The green-eyed monster on the Kingston Whig hands out the following bunch of violets:

"Belleville is is mourning. It was always recognized as dead, but now darkness has fallen over Intelligencerville, and there's crape on every door. Its hockey team, the only thing that kept any life in the old Bay of Quinte burg, has bitten the dust at last. It met its Waterloo in Toronto last night, when the Marlboros virtually won the Intermediate O.H.A. championship by defeating Belleville 9 to 4. That's why an unusual stillness reigns in the dear, old town. A flag flies at half-mast over The Intelligencer office, and from within the houses come sobs and moans. The glory of an over-rated team hath departed."

WELL SAID, SIR!

Kingston News: At the skating rink on Monday evening, during the course of a hockey match between the K.B.C. Ramblers and the Belleville hockey teams, a dispute occurred among the participants in the game. The crowd rushed on the ice and surrounded the players. There was considerable excitement and one man, guided by a fiendish desire to do a desperate act, pounded the cranium of Harry Brown, of Belleville, so badly that a bad wound was inflicted and the young man was for a while put into a semi-conscious condition. The coward that did the deed escaped in the crowd, and is still at large. Whose fault is it that he is at liberty? We are told that his name is known, and if this is the case why is he not brought to justice? In the name of order, and in the interest of the reputation of this city, there should be an extra effort made to identify the man who clubbed Brown in the presence of five or six hundred people. If he is in the city—and it is said he is—there should not be any great difficulty in locating him. The public demand that an example be made of a man whose conscience is sufficiently seared to allow him to club a man nearly to death.

CIVIC COMMITTEES' REGULAR MEETING

No Granolithic Sidewalks to be Built during the Coming Summer

Big Saving in Water Effected Since the Leak Was Discovered

At the various Civic Committee meetings, held last evening, the following members were in attendance: Mayor Graham, Ald. Marsh, McFee, Panter, Chown, Sulman and Galbraith.

Many matters of interest were brought up and disposed of, the discussions upon the same being brief.

PUBLIC WORKS.

Ald. Panter, Chairman, presided over this committee.

The only account passed was:

Pay Sheet No. 4........................$63.50

The Clerk was instructed to write to Dr. Sprague in reference to the roadway leading from Dundas street to Zwick's Island. The Council is prepared to keep that portion of the road in repairs and allow the Doctor gravel to keep the other part of the road to the bridge in repairs.

The Mayor called attention to that part of land known as Bushy Island, near the bay bridge, and the Solicitor was instructed to ascertain who is the rightful owner, there being some dispute about it.

Ald. Panter brought up the question of purchasing cement. He stated that he had received some tenders, but all were rather high.

Ald. Galbraith suggested that the walks on the outlying portions of the city, that had to be built, be built of the gravel from Zwick's Island. He would favor the idea not to build any granolithic walks this year, as next year cement is liable to be cheaper.

The Surveyor said that if coal went down cement would also go down.

Ald. Chown moved that in view of the high price of cement, no granolithic walks be built this year.

After some discussion, the motion prevailed.

FIRE.

Ald. McFee, Chairman, presided over this committee.

The Chairman referred to the services performed by Mr. McCurdy as engineer at the fire stations. He, Ald. McFee, thought that the salary proposed, namely, $450, was too small for the services Mr. McCurdy did. Mr. McCurdy was a capable man in every respect.

The majority of the members considered that as the salary had been stipulated in the by-law no change should be made and no action was taken.

WATERWORKS.

Ald. Galbraith, Chairman, presided over this committee, and Ald. Sulman, Secretary, read the minutes of a meeting held the evening previous, which were endorsed.

An important item in the report was to the effect that since the leak had been repaired on Coleman street some 500,000 gallons of water less were pumped weekly.

Ald. Galbraith said the Inspector had pronounced the engines in good condition. There had been a saving in fuel.

MARKET.

Ald. Sulman, Chairman, presided over this committee.

The only business transacted was the passing of two accounts, namely:

Downey Co........................	$66.00
B. Sanford........................	6.00

EXECUTIVE.

Ald. Chown, Chairman, presided over this committee.

The accounts presented for payment were as follows:

J. W. London........................	$ 3.20
Assessment Dept.	224.39
A. Wardhaugh	3.50

In reference to the last item, Mayor Graham explained how that debt became contracted. Some time recently a tramp was found in his building on Front street nearly frozen to death. He had him removed to the hospital, where he was taken in after considerable difficulty, owing to an order from the Medical Health Officer, not to allow outsiders in from the east, especially as smallpox was feared. After the man was taken in all his clothing was burned and he (the Mayor) procured some from Mr. Wardhaugh and gave the man a pass to Cobourg. He hailed from Kingston.

Ald. Chown said he had arranged with Mr. W. H. Campbell for insurance with the Ontario Accident Company at $675 per annum.

The action of the Chairman was endorsed.

The Chairman of the Executive Committee was instructed to write to Mr. Kirkwood in reference to the insurance on the rolling mills, which is about to lapse, and requesting him to reinsure them to protect the city's interests.

The expenses of the civic deputation to Ottawa, re drill shed matter, amounting to $48.75, was ordered to be paid; also the Mayor's expenses of $5 to Peterboro, re Trent Valley Canal.

On motion the auditors, Messrs. T. Thomson and W. C. Mikel, were ordered to be paid $75 each for their work, and Mr. F. D. Diamond $28.10 for a special audit.

After some discussion, re civic offices, it was decided to insert in the city papers a notice that applications for the offices would be received by the Mayor up to noon of Friday next, 27th inst., and a special meeting of the Council will be held on that evening to fill the positions.

The committees then adjourned.

Here Comes THE Bovril

Will be the joyful cry in many a Canadian home this winter. What so delicious served hot at the noon luncheon? What so reviving after the afternoon walk or drive? What so healthful for the children at any hour, when they ask for food? And little stomachs are always clamoring. John Strange Winter the author of Bootles Baby says: "More fastidious "children about their appetite than my "own cannot be found. They all take "Bovril eagerly. A Cup of Bovril "with the addition of a piece of toast "makes a thoroughly good meal for "any small child."

The Canadian public has taken very kindly to the proposition of the British-Canadian Wheat Raising Co., Limited. We understand that the demand for shares has been very large since the advertisement for subscriptions appeared in this paper. The feasibility of this enterprise and the names of the gentlemen associated with it, should appeal to investors, and we are not surprised to learn that these shares are being rapidly absorbed.

CHARTER DAY CONCERT

A REMEMBRANCE OF AN OLD-TIME INSTITUTION AT ALBERT COLLEGE.

In the old University days of Albert College, Charter Day, celebrating the granting of University privileges, was one of note and was observed with ceremony. In later years, however, the importance of the day has gradually diminished with the disappearance of the degree-granting privileges, and now, except for the annual Charter Day concert the ceremonies are omitted. The concert held last evening in Massey Hall was pleasing both to the students and to the citizens who were present.

The programme was given by pupils of the musical, elocution and physical culture departments, assisted by Prof. V. P. Hunt, musical director. The first number was a song "The Rainbow Bridge" (Hardelot), by Miss May McCaw. Miss McCaw has a pretty though light soprano and also sang in a duet "Nocturne," with Miss Edna McNeal, a dainty number. Miss McNeal also sang Hawley's "Because I Love You Dear." Miss Margaret Wilson, who has a pleasing contralto, sang Hawley's "Were I a Star," and Miss Stork was well received in "Longing," by Ambrose. "Thy Will be Done," was given by Mr. Harry McKay, and Adams', "The Island of Dreams," sung by Mr. Charles McMechan.

The piano music included a charming number "Antoinne," well played by Miss Vera Riggs; a piano duet, "Finale Waltz," by Miss Elliott and Hunt, and a Mendelssohn number, "Capriccioso Brilliante," by Miss Laura Lavoie and Mr. Hunt. The last two numbers should have been particularly enjoyable but the effects were marred by the fact that one piano was slightly out of tune.

Nine young ladies of the physical culture class gave a "Scarf Fantasy," which with its dainty drapings and poses was perhaps one of the most interesting numbers of the evening.

The last number was a dialogue, "A Pair of Lunatics," in which the parts, taken by Miss Nita Badgley and Mr. B. J. Bott were done very well indeed. Miss Hattie Laine also recited "A Second Trial."

THE AGONIZING PAINS OF RHEUMATISM.

Swollen, aching joints, muscles are stiff and sore, every movement accompanied by pain. The most potent remedy is Polson's Nerviline, which has five times the pain-subduing power of any other preparation. Apply the Nerviline copiously, rub it on well and then bind in a hot flannel bandage. This will cure the worst cases in a short time. Try Nerviline for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica or Lumbago—it's all right and only costs a quarter.

In the Justice Shop

Drunk and Resisting Police.

James Guillett was arrested last evening between 6 and 7 o'clock, and Officer Cook, who made the arrest, was compelled to call assistance in order to take the man to the station. It appears that he was drunk and went into Mr. R. H. Vandewaters' restaurant, where he procured his supper and refused to pay for it. This caused his arrest. The Magistrate imposed a fine of $3 and 25 cents for his supper.

STRIKE AT C.P.R. ELEVATOR.

Forty-four Men Out at Fort William —Western Labor Troubles.

Winnipeg, Feb. 21. — Yesterday a number of men working on the steel tanks at the new C. P. R. elevator "E," Fort William, quit work. The men on strike are riveters, tuckers and helpers. They are engaged by the Macdonald Engineering Company and claim they were to receive more pay than their pay checks called for to-day. About 44 men are out.

The union carpenters of the city announce through the press this evening that they are looking for a very substantial raise in wages this season and are willing to meet a representative delegation of contractors and jobbers to arrange a schedule of wages to be put in force. WOMAN'S WORK

OFTEN LEADS TO A BREAKDOWN IN HEALTH.

Severe Headaches, Loss of Appetite, Dizziness, Palpitation of the Heart and Other Distressing Symptoms Follow.

Woman's cares about the household are many and often worrying, and it is no wonder that the health of so many give way under the strain. To weak, tired-out, depressed women everywhere the story of Mrs. Geo. L. Horton, the wife of a well-known farmer living near Fenwick, Ont., will come as a message of hope. To a reporter who interviewed her on the subject, Mrs. Fenwick said:—"Yes, I am quite willing to give my testimony to the great good Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done me, as my experience may help some other sufferer. A couple of years ago my health began to give way, and I suffered from anaemia, with most of the depressing symptoms of that trouble. I became much emaciated, had distressing headaches and a very poor appetite. At first I thought the trouble would pass away, but in this I was mistaken, as I continued to grow worse. My heart began to palpitate violently at the least exertion; my rest at night was broken, and finally a bad cough set in, and I was scarcely able to do a bit of work about the house. An aunt in England, who had been ill, had written me that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had restored her to health, and I determined to give the pills a trial. After the use of a few boxes I noticed a distinct improvement in my condition, and after using the pills for a few weeks more the trouble had completely left me. I could sleep well at night; the cough left me; the headaches that had made me so miserable vanished; my appetite returned, and I could again perform my housework with ease. I shall always feel grateful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me, and strongly recommend them to other ailing women."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have accomplished just such good results in thousands of other cases among ailing men and women, and sufferers from any of the numerous ailments resulting from poor, watery blood who will give these pills a fair trial will soon be on the high road to health and strength. Imitations are sometimes offered by unscrupulous dealers, who care more for their own profit than for their customers' health. Be sure that the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," is found on the wrapper around every box you buy. If your dealer does not keep these pills send to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and they will be mailed, post paid, at 50c per box, or six boxes for $2.50.

THE WHITBY ACCIDENT.

Truck of the Second Car Left the Rails.

Whitby, Feb. 21.—Manager McGuigan, Superintendent Blackstock and other prominent officials of the Grand Trunk Railway arrived yesterday from Montreal and inspected the scene of the wreck of yesterday. Careful examination of the track shows clearly that the accident was due, not to the spreading of the rails, though that was an after incident of the occurrence, but to something happening to the forward truck of the second car in the train, a combination coach for first and second class passengers. This truck jumped the rails eight inches to the south, and gradually increased this deflection until about half the space between the rails had been attained in a distance of 100 yards, when the plunge was made down the 25-foot embankment, dragging with it the four cars following, and pulling the baggage-express car from in front. This latter in turn derailed the locomotive, one of the great moguls. Fortunately the latter did not leave the line, the power truck actually being still on the rails when the end came. The point of departure from the rails is plainly discernible, and is just at the western end of the long curve which commences a quarter of a mile east of the station house at Whitby Junction. The ties are oak. The rails are the new ones recently laid, and the road is as good as any of the Grand Trunk's recently rebuilt main line along here. Looking over the scene of the wreck, with the half dozen cars lying at all possible angles after their precipitation from the track above, it appears to be by a miracle alone that no fatalities resulted, and that the passengers escaped with so slight injury.

SOME RESULTS OF IMPURE BLOOD

A blotched, pimply, disfigured face, feeling of exhaustion, wracked nerves, headache and a dull brain. The proper cure is one Ferrozone Tablet after each meal. Ferrozone clears and beautifies the complexion by making rich, pure blood. It restores the enfeebled brain and unstrung nerves to a healthy, vigorous condition. It invigorates all the physical and mental powers, and brings strength and ambition to the depressed. Refuse a substitute for Ferrozone—it's the best tonic, rebuilder and invigorator known. Price 50c., at druggists or J. S. McKeown.

JOSIAH COOK'S ESTATE.

Will Disposed of a Large Amount of Property.

Toronto, Feb. 21.—Application has been filed for probate in the Surrogate Court of the will of the late George Josiah Cook, lumber merchant, of Toronto, who died on August 19 last. The will was made on November 15, 1895, and three codicils were dated December 16, 1895, November 13, 1899, and August 17, 1902, respectively. The executors are Louisa Cook, widow, and G. E. Cook, nephew. The estate is valued at $789,300, of which $777,000 is realty. The estate includes 40 shares of stock in The Globe Printing Company, which are to be held in trust for Cook & Bros.' Lumber Company of Ontario.

The following bequests are made: The residence, 208 Spadina avenue, and an annuity of $7,000 to the widow; $1,000 each to the sisters, Catherine E. and Sarah P. Cook of Morrisburg, and an annuity of $1,500 to the survivor; George Elliott Cook, nephew, of Chicago, gets $1,000 and a 3-5 share of the residue of the estate; Gertrude E. Cook, niece, Chicago, $1,000, and a 2-5 share of the residue; these are children of a late brother, Simon Cook; Mrs. Frank E. McDonald, niece, of Toronto, and Mrs. (Dr.) Norry Worthington of Sherbrooke, Que., are given $1,000 each. A similar sum is given to Mrs. E. M. Casgrain of Montreal and George Wm. Cook of Morrisburg, children of a late brather, George Wm. Cook. Zacheus Casselman of Elmvale, cousin, and Margaret Casselman, cousin, of Morrisburg, are given $1,000 each, while another cousin, Christy Ann Styles, of Edwards, N.Y., is given $2,000.

Catherine, widow of Edward Milne, of Barrie, is bequeathed $1,000, Mary Harris, the cook of the family, is given $7,000, and Albert M. Hough, the coachman, $200.

Mrs. Simon S. Cook of Chicago, widow of a brother, is given $10,000, while the brother, H. H. Cook, gets $100,000, and Mrs. H. H. Cook $10,000. Mrs. Millie Cook, wife of a nephew, of Morrisburg, is given $10,000, and the same amount is given to the widow of a cousin, Reuben J. Merkles, of Sacramento, California. The following charitable institutions in Toronto are given $500 each: Home for Incurables, Protestant Orphans' Home, Hospital for Sick Children, and the Aged Women's Home. St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, of Williamsburg, Dundas County, gets $10,000; St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Morrisburg, $4,000; and St. Philip's Anglican Church of Toronto, $5,000.

The executors are given a right to interpret any clause and decide any dispute absolutely. One clause declares that any beneficiary questioning the provisions of the will will lose his or her share.

NOT IMPARTIAL JURISTS.

American Appointments to the Boundary Commission.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—The fact that Secretary Elihu Root and Turner have been nominated as representatives for the United States on the Alaska boundary tribunal is officially confirmed from Washington, and gives rise to a feeling of uneasiness and distrust here. The Alaska treaty provides that the boundary, as defined in the treaty of 1825, is to be defined by a tribunal composed of "impartial jurists of repute." [illegible] single member of the trio of Americans named come within the category of "impartial jurists." Secretary Root is a member of the United States Administration, one of the parties to the suit. How can he be regarded as impartial? It is opposed to all ideas of fairness and common sense that a man can be an impartial judge and a disputant at one and the same time. As to Senators Lodge and Turner both have expressed emphatical opinions against the Canadian case. It is believed that the Dominion will make a strong official protest against the personnel of the United States section, as at present constituted. The intention of our Government had been to appoint two eminent Judges as colleagues of Chief Justice Alverston, if engaged, but it now remains to be seen whether that idea will be carried out.

A Desperate Fight.

London, Feb. 21.—According to a despatch from Sofia published in this morning's Morning Leader, desperate fighting has occurred between a small band of revolutionaries and 800 Turks in a defile close to the village of Berik, near Kastoria, Albania. The Turks had 90 killed. The insurgents lost heavily, but succeeded in gaining the mountains.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC.

Definite Plans For Manitoba Lines Announced.

Winnipeg, Feb. 21.—Definite announcement is made here by Mr. C. E. Hamilton of St. Paul that he is acting in behalf of the Northern Pacific Railway Company in making application to the Manitoba Legislature for permission to build an extensive system of branch lines throughout the Province. The provisional directors of the new company will be C. S. Mellen, President of the Northern Pacific; James Fisher, Winnipeg; H. P. Upham, President of the First National Bank, St. Paul; C. E. Hamilton, St. Paul, and J. S. Ewart, Winnipeg. The company's intentions are, if granted a charter, to build lines crossing the international boundary at three different points from Pembina west. The Northern Pacific made application of a similar character last year, but their request was refused. Winnipeggers and Manitobans generally would welcome the re-entrance of the Northern Pacific to the Province.

MIDLAND OF MANITOBA.

NORTHERN PACIFIC WANTS TO BUILD 2,500 MILES.

Mr. C. E. Hamilton Explains the Bill to be Presented to the Legislature To-night—Local Control of Rates and No Subsidy.

Winnipeg, Feb. 23.—Mr. C. E. Hamilton of St. Paul, who has charge of the application for the charter for the proposed Northern Pacific Railway system, was seen by your representative. Mr. Hamilton said that the bill would be presented to the Legislature on Monday evening. The title of the railway would be the Midland Railway of Manitoba. One important provision of the bill gives the Lieutenant-Governor in Council the power to fix rates. No subsidies or exemptions of any kind are asked. The bill simply seeks permission for the company to build the lines outlined in the application. Mr. Hamilton said it was quite true that the Northern Pacific was interested in the proposition. If the bill passed the Legislature promptly it would enable the capitalists to make early arrangements for going ahead with the work this season. They would of course do nothing in the way of sending out surveying parties or preparing for construction until the consent of the Legislature to the application for a charter was assured. Mr. Hamilton thought it probable that the first line to be built would be from the boundary to Winnipeg. This is to be an air line. It will cross the Red River twice, and will shorten the railway distance from the boundary to Winnipeg by fourteen miles. The line from Winnipeg to Brandon will also be an air line. The whole system outlined aggregated some 2,500 miles, and will represent an outlay of some thirty million dollars.

BOUND AND GAGGED.

Attempted Robbery of the Seminary at Quebec.

Quebec, Feb. 22.—At an early hour yesterday morning an ecclesiastic of the seminary, named Maurice Lapalme, was found lying unconscious and tied securely to a staircase. He had been bound hand and foot, as well as gagged. The deed was done by two unknown men, who had gained an entrance to the building, evidently with the intention of robbery, and who were surprised by Lapalme in passing from his room to another apartment of the building.

COLLISION AT WINDSOR.

No One Hurt, Although Both Engines Were Smashed.

Windsor, Feb. 23.—A head-on collision that might have resulted in the loss of one hundred lives occurred Saturday in the Windsor yards of the Michigan Central Railway. The crews of both engines leaped through the windows of their cabs, with the exception of one engineer, who was thrown out by the force of the impact. Nobody was hurt, although both engines were demolished. Fast passenger train No. 11, with Engineer Wm. Kells and Fireman Wm. Richardson, was going through the yards, when a pony switch engine ran out from the coal pit to the main track. The switch engine was in charge of Engineer John McCormick and Fireman John Gray. McCormick applied his brakes, but the rails were slippery, and the pony went into the path of the express.

Engineer Wilson of the wrecking gang was bringing his outfit to raise the engine, which sank at the slip dock. He went into the cab of the express engine, expecting to find a dead crew. The cab was full of steam from an open cock. The steam was so dense he could not see, and in moving around his foot struck another cock, and he was badly scalded.

NEW GERMAN CABLE.

Complete as Far as the Azores—North Sea Cables.

Berlin, Feb. 23.—The German Cable Company has finished laying its second line to New York, as far as the Azores, 1,200 miles. The remainder will not be laid down for several months, as the cable is still being manufactured. The British and German postal authorities are arranging to lay new North Sea cables, to care for the traffic between Berlin and London.

Windsor, Feb. 21.—Gladys, the four-year-old daughter of William Bulmer, last evening found a box of tablets, which she supposed were candies. Each one contained a very small quantity of arsenic, but she ate forty of them, enough to kill her. Prompt medical attention was given her, and there is a chance that she will recover.

RESULT OF A QUARREL.

JOHN M'DONALD DIES IN NORTH BAY HOSPITAL.

George Williamson in Jail, Charged With Using a Knife on the Deceased—Coroner's Inquest Adjourned.

North Bay, Feb. 23.—A cutting affray took place on the Temiskaming road on Saturday, 14th instant, in which John McDonald was badly cut. Yesterday he died in the Victorian Hospital of his wounds, and George Williamson is in jail, charged with having been the cause of his death. Both were teamsters, and it seems they were riding out together to camp and a quarrel arose. McDonald, who is the larger man, had the advantage, and Williamson resorted to a knife, with the result stated. McDonald was brought to town yesterday. A Coroner's jury viewed the remains and adjourned until 2 p.m. on Friday, the 27th inst. Few details are available.

THE PRETENDER CRUSHED.

Sir Harry Maclean on the Moroccan Revolt.

Tangier, Feb. 23.—A despatch from Fez, dated February 16, and received here, says General Sir Harry Maclean, commander of the Sultan of Morocco's bodyguard, in an interview describes the situation as satisfactory. He considers that the power of the pretender, Bu Hamara, who, according to advices, is lying wounded near Tazza, has been completely crushed. The Moroccan War Minister, El Menebhi, is advancing at the head of a large force, punishing in turn the rebellious tribesmen, many of whom have never paid taxes, even in the days of the grandfather of the present Sultan. The opportunity is now being taken to crush them into absolute submission and to obtain hostages for their good behavior.

Sir Harry denies that the revolt was the result of the Sultan's progressive ideas. The general is convinced of the Sultan's sincerity in his aspirations for reform, and in his Majesty's determination to carry them out.

GUESTS OF THE POPE.

One Thousand Poor People at Pontiff's Dinner.

Rome, Feb. 22.—To-day was a great day for the poor of Rome, a thousand of them being the guests of the Pope at dinner in honor of the Pontiff's jubilee. The guests were waited upon by nuns, and the Swiss Guard in brilliant uniforms, kept order, their band playing during the repast. The dinner provided included wine and dessert. Great enthusiasm was displayed, and there were repeated cries of "Long live Pope Leo!" The Pope desired personally to administer his blessing on the gathering, but, although he was well, the doctors vetoed his desire, in order that he might husband his strength for the coming functions.

GREAT NORTHERN DEAL.

The Arrangements With Mackenzie & Mann.

Quebec, Feb. 22.—With regard to the reported transaction by which according to a city newspaper Mackenzie & Mann of Toronto will obtain control of the Great Northern Railway, a prominent official of that company has given the following information:

"The proposed transaction with Messrs. Mackenzie & Mann has been under consideration for some time, and with the knowledge of all the directors of the company. The transaction has not yet been closed, but it is hoped that it will be next week, as it will be very much to the advantage of the company and of Quebec that so large a business as Mackenzie & Mann's should be brought to this port for shipment. The nature of the transaction is that Mackenzie & Mann acquire a certain interest in the stock of the company, and have a representation on the Board of Directors. With this exception the present organization of the company and its officials will not be disturbed, and the head office and management and operating staff of the company will remain, as heretofore, at Quebec. Messrs. McNaught and Melville are about equal owners in the stock of the company, and neither of them disposes of his interest."

AT THE BOTTOM OF THE RIVER.

Big Engine and Two Cars Jump Off Windsor Ferry Slip.

Windsor, Feb. 23.—Friday afternoon a Michigan Central yard engine with two box cars was running along the river front at a good rate of speed, when Engineer Kelly noticed that a switch leading to one of the car ferry slips was turned. He and Fireman Hoppe had barely time to jump before the eighty-ton engine went over the slip to the river bottom, the two cars following, and landing on top of the engine.

INDIFFERENCE TO MAN.

Object of a New Spinsters' Club in England.

New York, Feb. 23.—The Sun has the following special from London:—The unmarried women of the ancient town of Guildford, the county seat of Surrey, have leaped into fame suddenly by an action which has caused London's laughter to be echoed on the Paris boulevards. They have formed a "society for promoting man indifference among women," secured headquarters, which they have named the Spinsters' Retreat, and have pledged themselves to assist "young women and those older in years to withstand temptations to enter the marriage state."

They scorn such a simple device to attain their object as the making of themselves unattractive in the eyes of the male sex. They stipulate in their first rule that all members must have attained the age of seventeen, must wear long skirts, and dress their hair in a becoming manner. They also say: "Members are invited to render their appearance as attractive as possible, but they must be maidenly in their conduct."

The rules of the order compel the members to have a wholesome contempt of love, to abhor marriage, and to display the society's badge at least one day a week. Nevertheless, "members are not debarred from conferring their friendship upon the opposite sex, but this friendship must be absolutely free of sentiment and everything appertaining to that very undesirable state of being."

LOSS OF THE MADIANA.

The Captain Censured — Gibbs Hill Light Defective.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Feb. 23.—The decision of the court which has been inquiring into the loss of the Quebec Steamship Company's steamer Madiana, which, having about a hundred tourists on board, ran on a reef off this island February 10, censures the captain's "indiscretion" in approaching the coast when the light had not been seen; in failing to become acquainted with the prevailing conditions; in the omission to make a periodic adjustment of his compasses and in the non-production of the steamer's log book. The court admits that the Gibbs Hill light was defective, and disapproves of the employment of a crew unable to speak English.

MARTINEAU'S DEFALCATIONS.

Militia Officials Think They May Reach $75,000.

Ottawa, Feb. 23.—The officials of the Militia Department think that the defalcations of Martineau will aggregate $75,000. It will be a day or two yet before the exact amount is known. At present the accountant and his staff are going over the entries in the departmental day book for the past twelve months and comparing them with the statement furnished by the Bank of Montreal of the checks which it has cashed within the same period. Until this comparison is completed the estimate of the defalcations is only an approximate one. It would appear that the first bank in which Martineau made deposits was the Quebec Bank. He did so under the name of Chas. D. Cote. He next opened an account at the Sovereign Bank, under the same name. To the local manager of the Sovereign Bank he was, it is stated, introduced by a former member of the staff of the Quebec Bank. In the Royal Bank he also made deposits. The amount standing to his credit in the Sovereign Bank is said to be $9,300. It is reported, but cannot be confirmed, that the sums in the other banks are larger. The extent of Martineau's transactions in stocks used to amaze some of his associates. They thought, however, that by reason of his having had considerable experience he was acting for wealthy clients. Martineau once boasted of having made as much as $18,000, but he confessed also to having experienced losses.

Canadian Northern Extensions.

Winnipeg, Feb. 22.—(Special.)—Speaking at Carberry last night, Hon. Robt. Rogers, Minister of Public Works, announced that the Canadian Northern Railway would build lines from Neepawa to Carbery, and thence north; also from Portage la Prairie to Brandon. President Mackenzie of the Canadian Northern would confirm this announcement upon his return from England.

It is reported that 4,000 armed Macedonians have concentrated near Sofia, with a view to attacking Turkish frontier towns.

The railway employees of Holland have decided to go on strike with the object of preventing the proposed law prohibiting railroad strikes.

A C.P.R. and a Grand Trunk train met at a crossing at Peterboro', and the Grand Trunk smoker and passenger car were upset in the ditch. No one was hurt.

The morality department of Montreal considered the posters of Mrs. Patrick Campbell's figure immoral, and plastered a date line across the top of her decollete gown.

Great Northern directors meet Mr. Mann in Toronto this week, probably on Thursday, and then an effort will be made to close the negotiations by which Mackenzie & Mann secure an interest in the road.

The outbreak of scarlet fever in the neighborhood of Peterboro' is still causing alarm. In Westwood, in Asphodel Township, five deaths have occurred in eleven cases of scarlet fever. Diphtheria is prevalent in the Township of Rawdon.

BUYING AND SELLING OFFICES.

Some years ago when the country was governed by the old Liberal party, when something like principle guided their public actions, an incident occurred in connection with the purchase of an office which when brought to light was condemned by the leaders of the Liberal party, and the guilty party punished by dismissal from the office so obtained.

Now the ruling powers in Ontario not only wink at such transactions, but approve of them, and lend their assistance to their partizans, in schemes which relieves the party purchasing an office from his moral obligations, by cheating the party from whom the office was purchased, out of the amount promised to be paid.

There are many who will remember the famous Mercier case in a Western County, where the Sheriff bargained with a friend to resign for a certain consideration, provided he, the friend, could get the Government to appoint him. This was accomplished, the facts subsequently transpired, and the new Sheriff was dismissed for improperly securing the office.

Contrast this wholesome policy of the past, with that pursued by the present men who govern Ontario. A case is now before the Courts which when tried will let some light in upon the nefarious practices of our present rulers.

The facts are that Mr. Smart, who was Sheriff of Leeds, agreed to resign on condition that Mr. Dana, who was then member of the Ontario Legislature and who was to be his successor, should pay him (Smart) $1200 per annum. This agreement, it is declared, the Ontario Government included in the commission to Sheriff Dana, and that a bond for $10,000 was given assuring the purchase money to Smart. This sum was paid for a few years, after which Dana found it inconvenient to continue payment. Then a scheme was devised by which, it was believed, Dana could be relieved of the payment of $1200 per annum, as provided in the agreement with Smart, and, strange to say, the Ontario Government aided him in the accomplishment of the swindle; for such it was. Dana resigned, and was reappointed, by which means it was believed the original bargain would be annulled. Smart has sued Dana for a fulfillment of the contract. Dana's defence is, that he is not now Sheriff under the original agreement, and consequently no longer liable for the $1200 per annum.

This case does not appear to be the only one which has been brought to light.

The Kincardine Review says "this case of trafficking and 'Harcourting' is not without parallel. Precisely the same sort of business was done in Bruce County, but the case never went into court. The late Sheriff agreed to pay a certain annuity to another man who was an applicant for the position. Then the Clerkship of the Surrogate Court became vacant and the gentleman who got it had to agree to help the late sheriff pay the annuity. This they did for a short time, and then they Harcourted.'"

The term "Harcourted," says another contemporary, "is a new word, derived from the name of the Minister of Education. It means to enter into an agreement and to break faith on the first opportunity, as he did, in relation to his agreement with the member-elect for South Bruce, to pair off their protests, and then flagrantly violated it. This practice of buying and selling offices under the Ontario Government was the subject of legislation at Ottawa in 1891. The Criminal Code was then amended, with a view to stopping it. But the Code is ineffective and should be further amended. It is not likely that the Government which authorizes or connects the sale will operate this law against the persons whose bargain it has negotiated and completed.'

TIMELY TOPICS.

A rumor was current this morning that two men had been in the city in connection with the Rolling Mills, and the writer lost no time in interviewing Ald. Sinclair in connection with the matter. It turned out that Ald. Sinclair had been waited on by the two gentlemen in question, one of whom was a Frenchman and the other a German. The object of their visit was to sell the Rolling Mills a lot of new machinery. The French gentleman represented a Parisian firm, and the Chairman of Industries, whose French is by this time nearly as rusty as some of the machinery in the Rolling Mills, had a little difficulty in keeping up with the pace set by the citizen of La Belle Paree. It was a case of "After you, my dear Alphonse." Finally Ald. Sinclair made the two transatlantic gentlemen understand that Mr. Kirkwood was the owner of the Mills, and they started out to look him up. Asked if there was anything new in connection with the Rolling Mills transaction, Ald. Sinclair said no, but he still had $2500 worth of confidence that things were all right.

How would YOU like to be buried for a couple of generations in a place of that kind? The concert was first billed for the opera house, but it was subsequently found that the date had already been given to another organization. EARLY DAYS OF METHODISM.

(Hamilton Spectator.)

Earlier, when Methodism recruited its ranks from the revivals and the summer camp meetings there "were giants in those days," in the ministry. They may not have been educated in Greek or Latin, and probably their training in even the English language would not secure for them certificates as teachers in the public schools, but they had the gift of speech and were on intimate terms with every chapter in the Bible. Give an old itinerant a Bible, a hymn book and a copy of the discipline and he was ready to lock horns with the devil or discuss the truths and doctrines of Christianity, from a Methodist standpoint, against all comers. Nothing suited him better than to tackle the heretical doctrines of Universalism and to prove that if there were no hell or punishment for sinners after death, then the good Lord had made a slip somewhere in planning this universe.

A Chapter of Accidents

Ex-Ald. Lewis Grills fell on the sidewalk on Front St. this morning, striking quite hard on his elbow. He thought nothing of it till suddenly he found blood dripping down his wrist. Then Mr. Grills made an examination and found he had sustained a severe cut, which went clear to the bone, and demanded medical attendance. A doctor put some stitches in and Mr. Grills will have to rest himself for some time.

Mrs. Cook, residing on North Front street, fell on the sidewalk close to her home and broke her wrist. A medical man reduced the fracture, and Mrs. Cook is doing as well as could be expected.

ONE COMMON CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

Perhaps the most general cause of headache and pain across the eyes is nasal catarrh. The simplest cure is to inhale the medicated vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and air passage of the throat, lungs and nose. It kills myriads of germs at every breath, clears away mucous discharges, preserves and heals the membrane. Catarrhozone is just a splendid remedy for headache, and its action is certain and unfailing in diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. A trial will convince the most sceptical that Catarrhozone is all right. Large size, $1.00; trial size 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

To Recognize Purity.

Adulteration has grown to such a fine art, that it is almost impossible for a woman now-a-days to detect the false from the true; but a chemical analysis will always detect adulteration. Prof. W. Cut All To Pieces

A Great Wreck of Clothing Prices

Do you know the kind of Suits and Overcoats we will sell now for $7.50, the are the $9.00, $10.00 and $10.50 garments. Have you seen some friends wearing one of our $15 Suits and Overcoats which you admired, or did you buy one yourself a couple of months ago? You can get one now for $12 or some of them for $10.50. That's exactly what this sale gives you an opportunity to do, and it is your own fault if you don't do it. We can't afford to carry Winter goods over, so we would rather lose on them and let you make on them now. Oh, Yes! some storekeepers advertise cut prices all the year, lose money all the time, are in business for fun, etc., but we don't do it that way. Twice a year and for a few weeks each time, we can afford to and we do sacrifice profits.

This is our time to lose, as we want to make room for new Spring Goods which are arriving daily. Don't fail to take advantage of this situation.

Marjory's Proviso.

Baby Marjory has been having her first experience of rural sights and sounds, of green things growing, of flowers hiding in the grass, of cows in the pasture, of horses in the stable. She was delighted with all but one of them, says a writer in the Philadelphia Telegraph.

The one exception was the big, surly dog that keeps watch and ward over the farm. She respected Hector in his own place, but that place is at a distance. She did not want him or his kind to approach near enough for intimate acquaintance.

Having been invited by a lady of the house to take a walk down to the village, Marjory hesitated a little.

"Why, Marjory," exclaimed the lady, in an injured tone of voice, "don't you want to go with me?"

"Yes," replied the little maid, "I want to go, but p'ease don't let any dogs happen to me!"

Oldest Inn in England.

In the village of Norto St. Philip is the George Inn. It claims to be the oldest licensed village alehouse in England, the license dating from 1397! Its appearance is eminently picturesque, each story overhanging that beneath, while the front is broken by bay windows, a porch and a flight of stone steps leading to a doorway in the wall. At the back are more quaint doors and windows, a turret built against the wall and inclosing an outside stair, while in the yard still remains a portion of the old gallery which in the middle ages was found in so many hostelries. Most of the front is timbered. Each gable is surmounted by a curious chimney. A curious feature of the interior is the upper floor, which is of plaster.

The Girl and Her Play.

Once upon a time there were a young lady and a young gentleman playing a two handed game of euchre.

"I offer you a solitaire diamond," said the young man as he played the ace of that suit.

"The best I can do is to give you my heart," the young woman answered as she played.

"Then your whole hand goes with it," he said.

"Yes, Charles, dear," she replied.

Moral.—There is such a thing as playing into the other player's hand.

GEORGE WASHINGTON.

"FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY" NOT BRILLIANT BUT WELL ROUNDED.

THE GROWTH OF HIS CHARACTER

Rev. Dr. Talmage Preaches a Most Eulogistic Sermon on the First President of the United States—Man Whose Life Has Won Admiration From Other Nations—A Blessed "Father of Many Nations."

Entered according to Act of Parliament of Canada, in the year 1903, by William Baily, of Toronto, at the Dep't of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Chicago, Feb. 22. — In this discourse, the preacher extols the patriotism, the statesmanship, and the Christianity of "the Father of His Country" as worthy of the emulation of all Americans. The text is Genesis xvii, 4, "Thou shalt be a father of many nations."

Among the monarchs of Europe there is only one whose lot I consider enviable. Justin McCarthy once wrote that the princes who were born to thrones ought to be the most pitied of all men. The kings and queens of Europe, as a rule, are doomed to lives of oppressive and circumscribed servitude. The would be assassins are always skulking around, ready to dig their graves. Kings cannot marry those with whom they fall in love, as other men are allowed to do. When they wed, considerations of state and policy and of international alliance govern the choice of a partner, and they must not marry simply to satisfy the cravings of their own hearts. Royalty has its drawbacks as well as its dangers; but there is one conspicuous example of their being overcome. Even a freeborn American citizen can afford to admire the domestic relations of the German Emperor. The six bright, healthy, intelligent boys and the lovely little girl who compose his family circle are a group to make a father's heart glad. To be the head of a family is more gratifying than to be the head of the German Empire.

It was so that the beautiful Cornelia felt when she declared that no wealth was comparable to being the mother of the Gracchi. What, then, must be the joy of that man who is told that he is to be "the father of many nations!" For that reason the Hebrew people honor the name of Father Abraham; for that reason the American people ought to honor the name of George Washington. As the Hebrews to this day venerate the man from whom their race sprang, so we have in the leader and founder of our commonwealth a man whose character is worthy of all our honor and veneration. Thousands upon thousands of pilgrims have journeyed to the shrines of Machpelah, in which are supposed to be buried Father Abraham and Sarah, his wife. On this national holiday in imagination we should be willing to journey to the Mount Vernon tombs in which slumber the moldering bodies of Father Washinton and Martha, his wife. We should on this Washington's birthday be glad to give up at least one service to the study of the life and the character of this great and good man, whose name not only towers above all other names in American history, but whose life has won the admiration of other nations as well as of our own.

George Washington was a well rounded man. His was not the brilliant genius of a Napoleon or a Richelieu or a Mazarin or a Cardinal Wolsey. His military career was not spectacular, like that of Arnold or Greene or Morgan or "Light Horse" Harry Lee or "Mad" Anthony Wayne. His pen was not facile, like that of Hamilton or Jefferson. He had no oratorical gifts, like those of Henry or Adams or William Pinkney, but, as he had not the dazzling talents of such men, neither did he have the moral weaknesses which marred their characters.

Wherever we touch the life and character of Washington there we find that if he had any genius, "his," as David Gregg wrote, "was the genius of character," and of character alone. As a boy he was not a brilliant boy. We do not have to refer to the fabled hatchet story to prove this. There are still preserved in his own boyish handwriting the famous rules he made to govern his future life, which he wrote out at thirteen. Among those rules are these words: "Endeavor to keep alive in your bosom that little divine spark called conscience." As a young man we do not find him a brilliant young man, but a conscientious and painstaking young man. He was appointed public surveyor by Lord Fairfax. Why? Because Lord Fairfax knew that when the plodder, George Washington, recorded a measurement there would never be a doubt of the one fact, that that measurement was right. As a matured man we cannot portray the well roundedness of Washington's life better than by quoting these words written by Mr. Lear, his private secretary, who lived with him as a member of his family in Mount Vernon: "General Washington is, I believe, almost the only man of exalted character who does not lose some part of his respectability by an intimate acquaintance. I have never found a single thing that could lessen my respect for him. A complete knowledge of his honesty, uprightness and candor in all his private transactions has sometimes led me to think him more than a man."

Washington's character was not the grandeur of a snow capped mountain, full of crevasses and fatal precipices. It was that of a well chiseled piece of marble, over which the sculptor's hand has gone again and again. His character was not developed in an instant, as a comet leaps into the existence and then disappears. But his character growth can aptly be compared to the sunrise, which grows brighter and brighter and sheds forth a more refulgent light until at last that light sinks away into the twilight after the glowing sunset has covered the clouds with garments of gold.

What the world most needs to-day is not brilliant men, but good men; not men with the scintillating genius of Aaron Burr, but men with the goodness of a Father Washington. The world does not need an orator who can make a brilliant speech and then with a dissolute private life repudiate all the noble sentiments he enunciated in that speech. But the world does need good men—men who are honorable in their homes, men who are honorable in their business dealings, men who are conscientiously faithful in every duty of life which confronts them. When the tidings of Bunker Hill were carried to Washington, he anxiously asked the courier this question: "Did the militia fight well?" When told that they did, he replied, "Then the liberties of the country are safe." That principle is our ground of hope to-day. On this national birthday we re-echo Washington's words and declare that "the liberties of the country are safe" when its citizens, from the humblest to the greatest, are good men doing their respective duties well. It was in Washington's "genius of character" that we find his greatest element of strength. George Washington was a well rounded man. That means in ordinary, everyday language he was a good man wherever you study him.

George Washington was ready to sacrifice his all for American liberty. I do not suppose he was any more willing to sacrifice his all than thousands and tens of thousands of other men. But the simple fact was that George Washington had more to sacrifice than almost any other man of his day. First, he was a home body. He had to give up all the endearments of his Virginia plantation life. The glory of war and the pride of statesmanship never appealed to him, as they often do to the selfish ambition of the modern politician. "How pitiful," he once wrote to a friend, "in this age of reason and religion, is that false ambition which desolates the world with fire and sword for the purpose of conquest and fame. I hope to spend the remainder of my life in cultivating the affections of good men and in the practice of domestic virtues." But though George Washington was essentially a home man, and loved his own fireside above all thronerooms, yet at the call of duty he sacrificed his life's desire and drew his sword as the commander of the American armies.

The sacrifice of his ease and comfort was not the only sacrifice he was willing to make. When he became commander of the American armies, he placed his head and life in jeopardy in more ways than one. When the Declaration of Independence was being signed in Independence hall, Benjamin Franklin, I think it was, turned to some of his colleagues and said: "We must all hang together now or else we shall all hang separately." That was a figure of speech that may not have been true of every signer of the Declaration, but it would certainly have been true of the man who was rightly regarded as the head and front of the revolt. If the Revolution of 1776 had failed, whosoever escaped, George Washington, as the leader of the American armies, would have been shot or hung or decapitated. As the greatest leader of that time, he would have had to lay down his life as a warning to all future conspirators. Washington not only ran the risk of the battlefield, but also the risk of the executioner's ax.

When a great crisis comes, are you and I similarly ready to make a sacrifice for principle's sake? When we see might triumph over right and injustice over justice, are we ready to say, "Here is my life. Here is my property. Here is the property of my loved ones. I stake everything in the struggle which I wage to make all men free"? Have we the same faith in a Divine Providence as George Washington had? Are we as true to principle as he, as ready as he to put liberty, poverty and life itself in peril for the sake of right? Do we feel it is better to die right than to live wrong?

George Washington was also steadfast, though he had to battle against and overcome the mismanagement of the American statesmen and the jealousies of his own generals. Some people think that the only battles Washington had to fight were those against the English and the Hessian soldiers. George Washington was not always "first in the hearts of his countrymen" as he was first in war and the first in peace. No sooner was he placed in command than his enemies at home began to conspire against him. After the capture of Fort Washington by the British these home enemies tried to wrest the commander's sword out of George Washington's hand and give it to Major General Charles Lee. When Burgoyne surrendered to Horatio Gates at Saratoga, the "Conway cabal" tried to supplant the old leader with this new conqueror from the north.

Here, for instance, is a true gospel minister trying to preach Jesus Christ in the village or city church. Who is the greatest enemy he has to fight? The saloon keeper? The proprietor who runs the low playhouse? The infidel who never sets foot inside of a church? Oh, no. The greatest retardment of an average minister's work is not to be found outside but inside the church. It is perhaps the church member who refuses to be reconciled to the minister because the congregation called him instead of another man to the pastorate. What is the greatest obstacle that mother has in the right development of her children? Is it the bad example set by her son's classmate's or her boy's employer? Oh, no. It is the bad example set by the boy's own father that does the most effective damage. And so, wherever we go, we find that our greatest struggles must often be waged against those people who ought to help us instead of trying to destroy us. And one of the chief reasons why we honor George Washington to-day is because he went forth bravely and faithfully to do his work and did not swerve one inch from the right path, no matter what his enemies at home might do or say.

As George Washington's memory is cherished for what he did as the first President of the United States, so may our memory be honored for the bravest deeds of heroism accomplished by us in times of peace. We may often be able to serve our country and people in the store and the home as unselfishly and bravely and nobly as if we donned a soldier's uniform and marched up to the cannon's mouth. When George Washington as a young man, was being thanked by the Virginian House of Burgesses for his gallantry during the French war and for having saved the remnant of Braddock's army, he could not speak a word. He stood up in the aisle, stammering and blushing and trembling all over like a child. With that, Speaker Robinson, noticing his embarrassment, came to his rescue and said: "Sit down, Mr. Washington; sit down. Your modesty is equal to your valor, and that surpasses the power of any language that I possess." So, like the modesty of Washington, our deeds in time of peace may equal any deeds of military conquest. We may be heroes and heroines in civilian's garb. George Washington upholding the financial policy of the Secretary of the Treasury, Alexander Hamilton, just as important to American history as George Washington leading his troops across the Delaware; George Washington in the political councils of state, just as important for American success as George Washington under the famous elm of Cambridge.

George Washington lived and died a Christian gentleman. If you knew nothing of the principles of navigation and should see a ship sail up New York harbor, you might be surprised. You might say to the commander of the ship: "Captain, how was it possible for you to steer your ship through the trackless deep? Miles and miles away is England, and yet you have pointed your ship's prow straight into the Narrows of New York harbor." Then the captain would take you to the box in which trembles the magnetic needle. He would explain to you all the laws of the compass; he would tell you that no matter which way the ship's prow turns that magnetic needle always points toward the north pole. Then the passage of that ship over the trackless deep can be made to you very simple and plain. When we attempt to explain George Washington's career without the aid of a divine compass, all is inexplicable, but when we find the cross as the magnetic needle, guiding him over the troubled sea of life, then "man's impossibilities become God's easies."

Henry Cabot Lodge summed up the character of George Washington in these beautiful words: "I see in Washington a great soldier, who fought a trying war to a successful end, impossible without him; a great statesman, who did more than all other men to lay the foundations of a republic which has continued in prosperity for more than a century. I find in him a marvelous judgment, which was never at fault; a penetrating vision, which beheld the future of America when it was dim to other eyes; a great intellectual force, a will of iron, an unyielding grasp of facts, and an unequaled strength of patriotic purpose." But, above and beyond that fine conception of Washington's character, I see a still higher beauty. I see in him a great mind and heart, but I see God in that mind and heart, using him to win supernatural triumphs. I see George Washington able to overcome the greatest obstacles of the Revolutionary war. Why? Because I see George Washington on his knees in the snows of Valley Forge. I see George Washington overcoming the besetting difficulties of his Presidential life. Why? Because I see George Washington as soon as he had taken the oath of office going to the sacred chancel. There, as a humble supplicant, he begged the protection of him who was King of kings and Lord of all. I hear George Washington turn to his old friend, Dr. Craik, and say, "I die hard, but I am not afraid to die." Why? Because the Christ who had been his guide through life was his comforter in death. Oh, my brothers and sisters, would that we might one and all have the same divine re-enforcement in life's struggles that George Washington had. Would that we might be able to use the cross as a magnetic compass to guide us over the troubled sea of time into the smooth, unruffled sea of eternity.

Thus we draw near to the close of the earthly career of the greatest of all Americans. His life and death in one sense shall in all probability be just the same as our life and death. He longed—earnestly and intensely longed—for the time when he could return to the beautiful fields of his dearly beloved Mount Vernon. When that delightful day at last seemed near, he wrote those happy words: "I have retired from all public employments and shall tread the paths of private satisfaction. Envious of none, I am determined to be pleased with all, and this, my dear friend, being the order of my march, I will move gently down the stream of life until I sleep with my fathers." But, alas, alas, less than three years after George Washington returned to his beautiful Mount Vernon there was heard a rustle in the air. The death angel flew down and knocked at his door, and within a few hours he was gone. So with our lives. We may look forward to a happy and glorious earthly twilight, but in all probability life for all of us means continued work to the close. It will mean hard work clear up to the end. Then when our work is done, whether well or poorly done, God will call on us, and we must go. We shall go in all probability as George Washington went—quickly, unexpectedly, without hardly a warning.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

A woman never knows where the match box is.

HAD LA GRIPPE.—Mr. A. Nickerson, farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months, when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

The land area of Hawaii is 4,000,000 acres.

Their gentle action and good effect on the system really make them a perfect little pill. They please those who use them. Carter's Little Liver Pills may well be termed 'Perfection.'

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 219 to 119 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months, previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

Signed, JEAN VALCOURT,
Wotton, P.Q. General Merchant

If thy friend is honey, do not lick him up altogether.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly, subdues the pain and disease.

Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing these troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

The best wheel of fortune is honest labor.

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in the pills. They affect the nerve centres and the blood in a surprisingly active way, and the result is almost immediately seen.

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes: "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

GRAND TRUNK AND C.P.R.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy has expressed himself as strongly opposed to the Government granting assistance to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway in any "shape, manner or form." The announcement is not altogether unexpected. The Canadian Pacific Railway has received from the Dominion of Canada at various times twenty-five million acres of land, part of which is now selling, we believe, at from five to six dollars an acre. This land has from the time it was granted, is now, and promises to remain for a considerable time, free from taxation of all kinds. There is a dispute as to the interpretation of the Act of Parliament under which the grant was made. The company's view practically is that its land should be free from taxation until it passes into the hands of people who would bring it under cultivation. That is really what its contention amounts to. Some of the more radical of the members of the party which insisted upon the bill of endowment going through Parliament in the indefinite form in which it was introduced in face of the protest of the Liberals that there would be a dispute over its interpretation, at the last session of the House were disposed to insist that the company should be compelled to accept the popular reading of the act. That is, that Parliament should interpret its own act. However, it was successfully urged that such a matter is usually left to the courts. And so the courts, after their own deliberate fashion, will settle the dispute between the people and C.P.R. Whatever the decision may be, it is apparent that the railway company for which Mr. Shaughnessy speaks has not been dealt with in a niggardly manner by the country.

But, in addition to the land grant, which has proved quite a valuable estate, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company received nearly sixty-three million dollars in cash from the Canadian Government. We do not cite the bestowal of this extraordinarily generous gift as an excuse for assistance of any kind being extended by the Government to the Grand Trunk Pacific, but rather as a reason why Sir Thomas Shaughnessy and all his organs should hold their peace while the subject is under discussion. It is but just to admit, however, that Sir Thomas contends that the great rival of the Canadian Pacific should not be enabled by public aid to penetrate a region which has been opened up and proved by his company, that if the Grand Trunk desires to profit by conditions not of its own creation it has no right to put its hand in the public treasury to enable it to do so. The weakness of Sir Thomas's argument lies in the fact that it fails to take into account the case of the public, which would be served by the new system. The people of the Northwest maintain that the existing transportation facilities are altogether inadequate for the transportation to market of the products of the settlers at present established. And they have the facts at hand to prove their case. Settlement is proceeding so rapidly that it is out of the question for the companies at present in the field to overtake the demands of the incomers for the conveniences, without which they can do little, and the absence of which may not only cause much distress, but give the most promising portion of the Dominion a setback from which it would not recover for years.

If a large portion of the Grand Trunk Pacific is to be built through just such a virgin territory as the C.P.R. was, can any just reason be given for granting public aid in the one case and withholding it in the other? The new line will pass through much of such territory in Ontario, the Territories and in British Columbia. The road will precede population. It will not be a result of the demands of settlers, but a pioneer line, an artery, letting in and spreading forth the tributary streams of life necessary to raise Canada to her true place in the great national sisterhood. Really the only substantial reason that can be urged against granting to the Grand Trunk Pacific just such an unreasonable, extravagant and wholly unnecessary subsidy as was voted by a reckless party to the Canadian Pacific is that the first transcontinental road seemed somewhat of an experiment to the unpractical men who thus sacrificed the money and the estate of the people.

The application of the new line for assistance will be one of the most interesting subjects Parliament will deal with at the coming session. The probable effect of the construction of such a road upon the fortunes of the people of the West and upon the future of that great storehouse of Canada will receive just as intelligent consideration as its speculative effect upon the stock of the C.P.R. A great cry has gone up for better transportation facilities. The Government is morally bound to do all in its power within reason to open up the country as speedily as possible to the land-hungry multitudes who are in search of homes for themselves and permanent establishment for their children.—Victoria, B.C., Times, February 3, 1903.

BROTHERS ON THE JURY.

They Refused to Sign the Verdict Against Belanger.

Montreal, Feb. 23.—The inquest in the St. Eustache murder case was concluded Saturday. The chief witness was Detective McCaskill, who testified to the confession of Belanger. The jury brought in the following verdict: "That Antoine Seguin came to his death on the 12th instant from gunshot wounds, and that there is every reason to believe that the deed was committed by Theophile Belanger." Fourteen of the sixteen jurymen signed this verdict. Two others, brothers of Belanger, declined. They urged that no name should be mentioned. Long after the jury had handed in their verdict they remained discussing the evidence, and as towards dusk they went their many ways they declared that the mystery could only be entirely cleared by the daughter, who at the trial would prove by her evidence whether Belanger had given the real reason for his deed. Both she and her mother assert that Belanger's story about her relations with Seguin is untrue. The preliminary criminal enquete will be opened at Ste. Scholastique on February 28 and all the witnesses heard during the inquest will again be called.

Belanger after his first day in jail at Ste. Scholastique had a long interview with his lawyer, Mr. F. X. Mathieu. The strain of the past week, during which he fought so hard to hold his secret, had made him suffer so much that in the reaction he seems to have forgotten his deed, or believes that because of his motive no evil can come to him because of it. He manifested great interest in the election that will take place in the county on Tuesday next, and one of the first questions he asked was whether he would be allowed out to vote. He has always been an active Liberal, and stated that he ought to be allowed to go to vote for Mr. J. A. C. Ethier.

Published on Steamer Etruria—News Received by Wireless Telegraphy.

New York, Feb. 23.—The Cunard Line steamer Etruria has arrived from Liverpool and Queenstown. She reports having encountered very stormy weather and squalls of hurricane force during the passage. The Etruria is the first steamer on which a newspaper containing news received by wireless telegraphy was published. On February 7th, while bound from New York to Liverpool with Signor Marconi as one of the passengers, various items, principally of American news, were received from the Marconi station at Crook Haven, when the vessel was twenty miles west of Fastnet. These messages were printed and copies were distributed among the passengers. This first midocean newspaper contained eight items of news, in all 116 words.

The Premier Anxious.

London, Feb. 23.—In view of the threatened defection of a number of the Unionist rank and file on the army debate to-day, urgent summonses have been issued to supporters of the Government to be in their places when the division bell rings. Premier Balfour is undoubtedly anxious, as he fully realizes that under the conditions which prevailed last week the transfer of a score of Unionist votes would place the Government in the minority.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Grain is Firmer—The Live Stock Trade—Latest Quotations.

Saturday Evening, Feb. 21.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Trade at St. Lawrence Market was fairly brisk to-day. A large number of buyers thronged the stalls, and the offerings were pretty well taken up. On the street the movement was rather less brisk, the receipts of grain and hay not being heavy. The total grain receipts amounted to 700 bushels.

Wheat—One hundred bushels of red sold about steady at 72c per bushel, and 100 bushels of spring sold easier at 70c.

Oats—The market is about steady; 200 bushels sold about steady at 37c per bushel.

Barley—Is slightly firmer; 200 bushels sold at 51c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Quotations for light weight butcher hogs are steady at $8 to $8.25 per cwt. Heavies are quoted 25c firmer at $7.75 to $8. To-day's receipts were light.

Butter—There was plenty of moderately good stuff at the market to-day and trade was fairly brisk. Prices continue about steady at 18c to 20c for pound rolls, and 16c to 18c per pound for large.

Eggs—New laid are rather more plentiful, but prices continue steady at 20c to 23c per dozen. Held stock are unchanged at 14c to 16c.

Hay—Most of the day's offerings was of poor quality, and was sold at a low figure. No. 1 timothy is quoted firmer at $12 to $15 per ton, and mixed or clover is steady at $6 to $9. Altogether 12 loads were on the market.

Straw—There was none offering, and quotations are steady at $9 to $10 per ton.

Curious Bits of News.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Kansas "saloon smasher," has bought for seventy-five hundred dollars a fifteen-room house in Kansas City, in which she proposes to establish a home for drunkards' wives.

It is reported that the Russian Minister of the Interior is considering a project for nationalizing the medical profession, so that all doctors and chemists would be state officials. A commission has been appointed to collect information.

A demonstration of the earth's rotation upon its axis will be given in the rotunda of the Capitol during the meeting to be held in Washington this winter of the National Academy of Science. The exhibition will be a replica of that given in the Pantheon in Paris some time ago. Suspended by a piano wire from the dome will be an iron ball several pounds in weight. As the earth revolves the ball will naturally change its position from time to time, the rotation of the earth being thus demonstrated.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

—"I meant what I said," she whispered; "for, knowing how Wilford felt, it would not be right for me to be so happy."

"Then it's nothing personal? If there were no harrowing memories of Wilford, you could be happy with me. Is that it, Katy?" Morris asked, coming close to her now, and imprisoning her hands, which she did not try to take away, but let them lie in his as he continued: "Wilford was willing at the last. Have you forgotten that?"

"I had, until Helen reminded me," Katy replied. "But Morris, the talking of this brings Wilford's death back so vividly, making it seem but yesterday since I held his dying head."

She was beginning to relent, Morris knew, and bending nearer to her he said:

"It was not yesterday. It will be two years in February; and this, you know, is November. I need you, Katy. I want you so much. I have wanted you all your life. Before it was wrong to do so, I used each day to pray that God would give you to me, and now I feel just as sure that he has opened the way for you to come to me as I am sure that Wilford is in heaven. He is happy there, and shall a morbid fancy keep you from being happy here? Tell me, then, Katy, will you be my wife?"

He was kissing her cold hands, and as he did so he felt her tears dropping on his hair.

"If I say yes, Morris, you will not think that I never loved Wilford, for I did, oh, yes! I did. Not exactly as I might have loved you, had you asked me first, but I loved him, and I was happy with him, for if there were little clouds, his dying swept them all away."

It was very late that night when Katy went up to bed, and Helen, who was not asleep, knew by the face on which the lamplight fell that Morris had not sued in vain. Aunt Betsy knew it, too, next morning, by the same look on Katy's face when she came down stairs, but this did not prevent her saying abruptly, as Katy stood by the sink:

"Be you two engaged?"

"We are," was Katy's frank reply, which brought back all Aunt Betsy's visions of roasted fowls and frosted cake, and maybe a dance in the kitchen, to say nothing of the feather bed which she had not dared to offer Katy Cameron, but which she thought would come in play for "Miss Dr. Grant."

CHAPTER XLIX.

Many of the captives were coming home, and all along the Northern lines loving hearts were waiting, and friendly hands outstretched to welcome them back to "God's land," as the poor, suffering creatures termed the soil over which waved the stars and stripes, for which they had fought so bravely. Wistfully thousands of eyes ran over the long columns of names of those returned, each eye seeking for its own, and growing dim with tears as it failed to find it, or lighting up with untold joy when it was found.

"Lieut. Robert Reynolds," and "Thomas Tubbs," Helen read among the list of those just arrived at Annapolis, but "Captain Mark Ray" was not there, and with a sickening feeling of disappointment, she passed the paper to her mother-in-law, and hastened away, to weep and pray that what she so greatly feared might not come upon her.

It was after Katy's betrothal, and Helen was in New York, hoping to hear news from Mark, and perhaps to see him ere long, for as nearly as she could trace him from reports of others, he was last at Andersonville. But there was no mention made of him, no sign by which she could tell whether he still lived, or had long since been relieved from suffering.

Early next day she heard that Mattie Tubbs had received a telegram from Tom, who would soon be at home, while later in the day Bell Cameron came round to say that Bob was living, but had lost his right arm, and was otherwise badly crippled. It never occurred to Helen to ask if this would make a difference. She only kissed Bell fondly, rejoicing at her good fortune, and then sent her back to the home where there were hot discussions regarding the propriety of receiving into the family a maimed and crippled member.

"It was preposterous to suppose Bob would expect it," Juno said, while the mother admitted that it was a most unfortunate affair, as indeed the whole war had proved. For her part she sometimes wished the North had let the South go quietly, as they wanted to, and so saved thousands of lives, and prevented the country from being flooded with cripples and negroes, and calls for more men and money. On the whole, she doubted the propriety of prolonging the war; and she certainly doubted the propriety of giving her daughter to a cripple. There was Arthur Grey who had lately been so attentive, he was a wealthier man than Lieutenant Bob, and if Bell had any discretion she would take him in preference to a disfigured soldier.

Such was the purport of Mrs. Cameron's remarks, to which her husband listened, his eyes blazing with passion, which, the moment she finished, burst forth in a storm of oaths and invectives against what, with his pet adjective, he called her "Copperhead principles," denouncing her as a traitor, reproaching her for the cruelty which would separate her daughter from Robert Reynolds, because he had lost an arm in the service of his country; and then turning fiercely to Bell with the words:

"But it isn't for you to say whether he shall or shall not have Bell. She is of age. Let her speak for herself."

And she did speak, the noble heroic girl, who had listened with bitter scorn, to what her mother and sister said, and who now, with quivering nostrils, and voice hoarse with emotion, answered slowly and impressively:

"I would marry Lieutenant Reynolds if he had only his ears left to hear me tell him how much I love and honor him! Arthur Grey! Don't talk to me of him! the craven coward, who swore he was fifty to avoid the draft."

After this no more was said to Bell, who, the moment she heard Bob was at home, went to his father's house and asked to see him.

He was sleeping when she entered his room; and pushing back the heavy curtain, so that the light would fall more directly upon him, Mrs. Reynolds went out and left her there alone.

With a beating heart she stood looking at his hollow eyes, his sunken cheek, his short, dry hair, and thick gray skin, but did not think of his arm, until she glanced at the wall, where hung a large-sized photograph, taken in full uniform, the last time he was at home, and in which his well-developed figure showed to good advantage. Could it be that the wreck before her had ever been as full of life and vigor as the picture would indicate, and was that arm which held the sword severed from the body, and left a token of the murderous war?"

"Poor Bob! how much he must have suffered," she whispered, and kneeling down beside him she hid her face in her hands, weeping bitter tears for her armless hero.

The motion awakened Robert, who gazed for a moment in surprise at the kneeling, sobbing maiden; then when sure it was she, raised himself in bed, and ere Bell could look up, two arms, one quite as strong as the other, were wound around her neck, and her head was pillowed upon the breast, which heaved with strong emotions as the soldier said:

"My darling Bell, you don't know how much good this meeting does me!"

He kissed her many times, and Bell did not prevent it, but gave him kiss after kiss, then, still doubting the evidence of her eyes, she unclasped his clinging arms, and holding both his poor hands in hers, gave vent to a second gush of tears as she said:

"I am so glad—oh, so glad!"

Then, as it occurred to her that he might perhaps misjudge her, and put a wrong construction upon her joy, she added:

"I did not care for myself, Robert. Don't think I cared for myself, or was ever sorry a bit on my own account."

(To be continued.)

Irritating Form of Itching Piles

A SOURCE OF CONTINUAL WORRY AND ANNOYANCE—SLEEP AND REST IMPOSSIBLE UNTIL RELIEF CAME WITH THE USE OF

Dr. Chase's Ointment

All classes of people are subject to piles, but especially those who are exposed to dampness. Teamsters, farmers, railroad men and laborers suffer greatly from this distressing ailment.

While there are plenty of remedies recommended as a treatment for piles, Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only actual and guaranteed cure. It is truly wonderful how the merit of this preparation has become known throughout this continent and Europe.

But when a person has endured the torture of piles, the itching, stinging sensation, the sleepless nights of misery, the annoyance during the day, when going about the daily work, he feels grateful for the relief and cure brought by Dr. Chase's Ointment, and does not forget to recommend it to his friends.

Mr. John Tuttle, expressman, 107 Stewart street, Kingston, Ont., states: "Like most men who do much driving, sitting a great deal, and often exposed to dampness, I have been a great sufferer from piles. As a matter of fact, I had piles for a number of years, and tried nearly everything I could hear of in a vain attempt to get cured, but only succeeded when I used Dr. Chase's Ointment. The first application of this grand preparation brought me relief from the dreadful itching, burning sensations, and less than two boxes made a perfect and permanent cure. I am grateful for the freedom from suffering, and desire others to benefit by my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cts. a box, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

The Englishman's Rasher.

From the tight little English island, in an editorial in the London "Daily Express," comes startling dietetic news. It is nothing less than that in the very citadel of Beefeaterdom, in the very vortex whence annually descend innumerable rashers and countless companioning eggs, a doubt has arisen whether "copious breakfasts of fried eggs and broiled bacon" (as Thackeray puts it), followed by two or three solid meat meals every day, is quite the proper thing. Our British friends, it appears, have at last begun to wonder whether emulation of John Ridd, in the matter of morning menu, is conducive to agile minds and a light and springy step. They are actually beginning to fear, 'tis said, that they eat too often, too much, and the wrong thing.

The "Express" finds text for its sober little sermon on over-eating in the report of the United States consul at Liverpool, which states that the English importations of bacon from America annually amount in value to ten millions of pounds sterling; and that most of this pork is absorbed by the British breakfaster. "On the whole," says the "Express," naively, "this is not a fact to be exulted in." It goes even further, and admits that there is a "kernel of truth" in the foreign accusation against Englishmen "of living mainly upon chops and steaks, Brussels sprouts and turniptops." "The eternal breakfast bacon," the "Express" continues, "is one striking instance of the shocking lack of variety in food, which may, with some truth, be alleged against England." This dietetic monotony it attributes, first, to "want of imagination" (to which we unanimously agree), and, second, to "railway rates" (which statement seems obscure).

But however "shocking" may be the lack of variety in food at English tables, still more of a shocker is the redundance in quantity of meat. Fifty millions of dollars' worth of breakfast bacon!—not to mention eggs, fried or omelette. No wonder the "Express" gravely asks "Do we eat too much meat!" and in conclusion declares for answer that, "it is very doubtful whether the English habit of three meals is a sound one either for health or business." For the English business man, it says, not only partakes copiously of bacon and eggs in the morning, but refuses to forego a substantial allowance of meat for lunch, and tackles a goodly chunk of Old England's roast beef for dinner. We quite agree with the "Express" that he is thereby "handicapped."

Among the carnivorous mammals, the North American certainly ranks low in the list in comparison with his voracious British brother, especially since we, in this country, have been assailed and taken prisoner by the innumerable army of breakfast cereals; while they, in Britain, are but just now fronting the attack.

Apropos of cereal foods, we note that another English paper, the "Daily Mail," speaks of the "many and wonderful" varieties of cereal foods of late introduced by "divers advertisements, somewhat to the bewilderment of the public;" and that it also announces, in an editorial, its plans for a series of practical articles by an "athlete and brainworker" on the "bewildering" new comestibles. "That the public may be guided in its choice by competent authority," says the "Mail" with great solemnity, "Mr. Eustace Miles has undertaken an heroic experiment." "An heroic experiment!" We sincerely trust that Eustace will survive the fourteen "new foods" which he proposes to test, one each day, during a fortnight.

But surely 'tis a long, long step for the British citizen from greasy fried eggs and greasier fried pork, to a light cereal breakfast. Perhaps, if he get through this successfully, he and all of us may later learn to listen heedfully to the wise words of the revered Edward Hooker Dewey, M.D., the original No Breakfast Plan man — a person who strenuously contends that only he who omits the morning meal has really mastered "the true science of living." And perhaps he's right.

Blunders on the Stage.

"Players are often guilty of amusing blunders on the stage. It is one of the traditions of our profession," says Julia Marlowe, the American actress, "that a new player is never really 'seasoned' until he has been the victim of some unusual or remarkable stage contretemps.

"On the first night of 'The Cavalier' I made a slip, which, fortunately, I recovered from by the rapidity of my subsequent actions. The ambulance had departed under the guidance of the treacherous villain, and I, as Charlotte Durand, was about to follow and save the men. The soldiers were rushing to make everything ready. I had picked up my saddle from the floor and threw it to one of the men.

"'Put my horse on my saddle!' I cried.

"If I had hesitated or had tried to repeat the line properly the audience would have roared. But that is one thing I have learned by experience, as every player does. If one makes a mistake, never go back to correct it. Everyone in the house will notice it then, whereas if you go right on the chances are that only a few people in the front rows have understood, and they have not time to laugh if you hurry.

"Old-timers can quote a score of incidents of this kind. 'I dabbed thee with my stagger,' said the eighteenth-century player, who thus ruined the great scene of a fine tragedy on the night of its first production at Drury Lane. 'A liss upon the kips' is another story told of the original Claude Melnotte, Macready.

"I have to confess that the extraneous influence which has sometimes drawn me out of the spirit of my part and once or twice has made me laugh in the midst of a serious situation, has resulted from the fascination which the faces of children have for me. Every emotion is poignantly and completely reflected in their little countenances as in a mirror."

"I don't know what there is about betting on horse races that should be so deleterious to health," said young Mrs. Forkins, pensively. "I never heard of such a thing," answered the visitor. "Neither did I until I heard Charley talking about it. Every time he makes a bet he comes home and says there is something wrong with his system."—

Interesting Items.

The lack of male heirs among leading English military men is remarkable. Lord Wolseley has but one child, an unmarried daughter. Lord Roberts has now no son. Lord Kitchener is a bachelor; and Sir Redvers Buller, who once was regarded as quite in the running for hereditary distinction, has an only child—a daughter.

James Brazil and Mrs. Aggie Turner, of Cashion, Oklahoma, have created a record by being married three times in one day. They first sought the probate judge at Kingfisher, Oklahoma, and as there was a contest over the office they got both the candidates to marry them. Not feeling satisfied as to the legality of the ceremony, they returned to Cashion and were married again by a minister.

Martin J. Cass, a man of fifty, has besought and obtained the protection of Judge Carpenter's Court, in Milwaukee, against the wiles of a Miss Ormond, who insists on marrying him whether he desire it or not. He avers that he loves her passionately when in her presence, and that her letters exercise complete sway over his mind, but that when the influence of both has departed he experiences the utmost loathing for the woman.

A funny story is going around in New York concerning a very sportily-inclined debutante who is extremely fond of a tete-a-tete. At a recent reception she and one of her men friends, not finding a more convenient place, ensconced themselves in a big mahogany wardrobe in one of the halls, where she was finally discovered by her chaperon, who was looking for her wraps. Not in the least disconcerted, the girl said: "Isn't this a nice quiet place? Won't you come in and join us?"

According to "Truth," a delightful method of dealing summarily with female kleptomaniacs of gentle birth prevails in certain West End shops. Every lady detected in the act is given the option of being prosecuted in a court of law or birched by the manageress, a person specially selected for her biceps. The birch is a formidable one. In a shop alone, it is said, 20 ladies have accepted the ordeal of the birch, in addition to two young girls of foreign nationality, who, in consideration of their tender years, were treated to a milder form of chastisement.

The "Indian Daily News" (Calcutta), in describing the Durbar great state ball in the Dewan-i-am, says: "Lord Kitchener took part in the state lancers, dancing with Mrs. Bourdillon. His knowledge of the figures was of the vaguest description, and, in consequence, whenever the call 'Sides' was given, all he succeeded in doing was to tie himself and his partner in the most absurd knot, to the intense amusement of the others in the set and of the large crowd looking on. The hero of Khartoum was beaming with delight, and so he blundered through to the end. When the music ceased he was in the middle of the room, looking for his partner, and laughed heartily when she came up and found him."

The Story of Adam and Eve.

The two compositions which follow were written by two girl pupils of the New York public schools, and their authenticity is vouched for in the New York "Evening Post:"

I.

God made the first person that was a man this man wanted a lady so when he went to sleep he cut out a rib and made a lady. There were a lot of fruit trees and one was a apple tree.

God said they may eat all the fruit but not the apple tree and those two people were forbidden not to eat the apples on the tree and Eve took some of the apples and gave then to Adam Adam eat them and they stayed down his throat.

God saw that some one has been eaten the apples Adem said that Eve gave it to him, and those two people were had to work for their own living.

II.

God made Adam he was fast asleep when God took the side bone and made a women The womens name was Eve She was Adams wife. God said they should go to the orchard and get all the fruit they wanted but do not touch the apple plant so Eve took one of the apples and gave it to Adam. He ate it they was a snake that told them that God said that thos apples are not to be touched, so God looked down at Adam and said Didn't I say you should not touch them apples So Adam said Eve gave me it so said you must leave this orchard So Adam and Eve left it and Angel gied them out the angel had a saw in his hand.

Was called an "idle dream" at first.

HANGING WALL PAPER

Is quite as much our business as is selling it.

Decorating is very much our business—Our decorator is capable of designing and drafting any decorative work you may require and equally capable of executing the work designed.

Painting—graining—paper hanging and decorating is one of our important branches, ask for prices, estimates, specifications and drawings of your own rooms in color.

Our prices are as reasonable as our work is superior.

Here Is Your Opportunity

Yours for the asking and a little more.

Before taking stock February 28 we wish to close out a goodly portion of our much too heavy stock of Fancy Goods—comprising China, Art Pottery, Brass Goods, Lamps, Vases, Candlesticks, Candle shades, Pictures, Jardinieres, Leather Goods, etc.

We will make the inducement doubly tempting that all who wish may have and may buy abundantly.

To this end we open fire with the publication of this advertisement and offer all Fancy goods at the mammoth discount of 30 per cent. from regular prices.

This means $10 of goods for.. .... $7
$1 of goods for.............................. 70c

YES, and we will go one better—Will give you 40 per cent. off if you accept a due bill for the discount, same due bill being good at any time for any goods in our store, including Wall Papers, Picture Framing, Paper Hanging, Stationery, Books, etc. This means 10 dollars of goods for 6 dollars.

AGAIN—to this sale we add the balance of our 1902 wall paper stock at the same discounts—30 per cent. regular.
40 per cent. due bill.

We mean in this way to close out every roll of last year's papers, and have nothing but 1903 papers for our customers.

Curious Bits of News.

At the International Congress of Americanists Dr. A. F. Chamberlain, formerly of Toronto, described the contributions of the Algonquin Indians to the spoken and written English of America. More than 130 of our words, he said, had this origin. Among the more common of these words are chipmunk, hickory, hominy, mugwump, powwow, racoon, skunk, squash, Tammany, terrapin, toboggan, totem and woodchuck.

Recent statistics prove that the United States possesses the most polyglot press in the world. Outside journals published in English (or American-English) it has been ascertained that there are 743 published in German, 63 in Swedish, 60 in Norwegian, 39 in French, 38 in Tzechish, 37 in Italian, 37 in Polish, 17 in Spanish, 19 in Hebrew, 16 in Dutch, 12 in Slav, 8 in Finnish, 6 in Portuguese, 5 in Lithuanian, 5 in Armenian, 5 in Hungarian, 5 in Croatian, 4 in Chinese, 2 in Japanese, 2 in Greek, 2 in Latin, 2 in Russian, 1 in Iroquois, and one in Gaelic. Babel must take second place to this.

It may be doubted whether the dictates of fashion have ever led to anything more cruel and repulsive than the practice described in a French medical publication as the one adopted to procure those sinister-looking animals whose fierce and hideous attitudes are reproduced in the jewelry worn to-day by fashionable Parisian beauties. The artist who provides these morbid designs lives in a village near Paris, and in different cages keeps cats, rats and many other animals whom he slowly starves to death. Though he lives among his victims, the artist has grown callous to their cries, and as the wretched animals writhe in their agony he gets the horrible and fantastic forms he desires for the jewelry destined to adorn the beautiful women of the French capital.

A telephone church service, whereby hundreds of people can listen to the services while at their own homes, has recently been instituted in an Indiana town. Those who listen can distinguish every word, and the result is altogether satisfactory. "This is the future of all our social services," writes E. P. Powell in "Christian Register." "In my own house my sons frequently play the violin and organ for a grouping of a dozen or more families scattered over a radius of two or three miles. The music is heard as perfectly in the most remote house as in the nearest. In the same way the women of a circuit have established telephone tea-parties. At a certain hour they sit down to their 'phones, drink their own tea, and distribute the gossip." Imagine how each one puts in an extra lump of sugar!

The case of Judge Campbell of Virginia, who horsewhipped the Rev. Mr. Crawford, is again beforethe courts. One of the witnesses, John L. Lea, described as a leading criminal lawyer of Lynchburg, gave testimony which throws some light upon the peculiar social relations which the duello creates in the South. On the cross-examination the defendant's counsel, Major Conrad, questioned him as to his personal relations with Campbell. "I prefer not to go into that matter," he said. "I regret, Mr. Lea, that I am instructed to insist," said the major. Then the Lynchburg lawyer answered the question as follows: "My relations with Judge Campbell have been rather peculiar. Some ten or twelve years ago, during the time of my service as commonwealth's attorney, I was forced to shoot and kill his father. I was promptly arrested, promptly tried and promptly acquitted by a judge and jury whose integrity has never been called into question. For months afterward Judge Campbell and I did not speak. Finally Judge Campbell came to me, held out his hand, and said he didn't blame me for what I had done and that he wished to be friends. I was placed in an embarrassing position, but, of course, I shook hands with him, and since that time we have been friendly in a way. There was never any intimacy between us."

As Business Developed.

"But why," asks the lawyer for the defendant of the eminent handwriting expert, "are you so cocksure that your decision on this chirography is correct?"

"Sir," replies the expert with some dignity, "I have had the i's examined by my consulting oculist, the p's by my gardener, the b's by my apiarist, the c's by a retired ship captain, the e's by a tramp that I picked up some time ago, the h's by a globe-trotter who has done England, the j's by a professional buncoman, the k's by a scientific cheese-maker, the g's by the best teamster I could find, the f's by a renowned musician, the l's by an elevated railway president, the m's by the president of the typographical union, the o's by three shrewd bill-collectors, the q's by a Chinese savant, the t's by one of our leading importers, the v's and x's by a committee of bank cashiers, the w's by a green-apple grower, the y's by a few members of a college faculty, and have relied on my own judgment as to the rest."

"Your honor," said the lawyer, "we have no further questions to ask."—"Judge."

Names of Teas.

In the Canton dialect, "Pekoe" means "white hair," and for this kind of tea the very youngest leaves of all are gathered, so young that the white down of babyhood is still upon them—whence their name. "Congo" means "labor;" considerable trouble and labor are taken in its preparation at Amoy, and these are perpetuated in its name. "Bohea" is named after a range of hills in Fo-Kien. "Soochong" expresses no sentiments, but a bald fact, being Cantonese for "the small kind." "Hyson" signifies "flourishing spring."

Uncomfortable.

Finnicus—I wonder why it is that those who attain the pinnacle of success never seem to be happy? Cynicus—Because the pinnacle of success is like the top of a particularly tall lightning-rod with a particularly sharp point, and those who succeed in perching temporarily upon it usually find that they are targets for all the world's lightning.—"Town and Country."

"This is the best stove in the market. It will save half your coal." "Is that so? Then give me two of them, so's I can save it all."—Chicago "Daily News."

Whipper—Do you think traveling on those ocean greyhounds is safe? Snapper—What kind of a poker game do you play?

A CHILD'S LIFE FOOD

Physicians speak of fat food as "life food" and say that all children ought to have it in abundance. They say too, that weak, thin, nervous children MUST have fat food and recommend Scott's Emulsion.

It promptly returns sickly; delicate children to rosy health. It is the life of flesh-creating food and keeps the scale of child-health evenly balanced.

Being prepared for easy digestion Scott's Emulsion is readily accepted by the stomach and quickly passed into the blood. There commences at once the repairing of wasted tissues, the enrichment of the blood and the strengthening of the whole system.

Any child who needs more and better nourishment than it seems to be getting from its ordinary food will be greatly benefited if given Scott's Emulsion:

A GREAT ART.

The Rare Ability to Select Efficient Executive Heads.

Many men mistakenly think that because they work hard and try hard they must eventually succeed to some extent. This does not follow. Some men carry on great enterprises with little apparent effort. Their success is due to skill in selecting efficient executive heads.

Many a business man breaks down trying to supplement the work of incompetent heads of departments simply because he does not know how to choose the right men. A man of commanding ability does not worry himself over details. He makes out his programme and then selects men who can carry it out to the letter. Indeed it is a sign of weakness for the head of a concern to bother about little details. It shows that he lacks the insight, the business sagacity, the ability, to select and to manage men who can do things efficiently.

Many heads of large concerns spend little time in their offices. They travel or remain at home, but the business goes on like clockwork simply because they know how to select men who can efficiently do the work assigned to them.

It is a great art to duplicate oneself in another and multiply oneself many times by selecting those who are vastly superior to ourselves, but who did not happen to have had our opportunity to do the thing themselves.

A Careful Old Lady.

An old lady applied at a registry office for a maid.

"I want a little girl, between eighteen and twenty-two years of age, who is fond of mushrooms."

"Fond of mushrooms?" inquired the agent. "That is something I never inquire about from my applicants. I don't understand."

"Well, I am very fond of mushrooms myself, and there are so many mistakes made. The idea came to me several years ago, and it was a dispensation of Providence that it did or I should have been killed. I make my maid eat a portion of all mushrooms brought to my house before any are served to me. I always require it," replied the old lady. "I have lost two excellent maids from toadstools during the last five years, and, of course, I could not think of taking the risk of eating mushrooms unless I had a maid to test them."—London Globe.

SPORTING COMMENT.

Mr. R. H. Telfer will referee the game to-night. The Bellevilles realize that they have a stiff job ahead of them, but will go on the ice ready to make the fight of their lives. The Marlboros still have a hard hour's work before they can claim to have won the round. Many things can happen in an hour. In all probability the game will be the best and fastest ever played on Belleville ice. Be on hand to give the boys the encouragement they deserve. They've made a fine record this season, and, win or lose to-night, the city should be proud of them. The local team, we are informed, will line up in its very strongest shape. Good luck to them.

Birmingham, who alternates as centre and rover of the Marlboros, was last season captain of St. George's senior team.

The Belleville Bankers made their Kingston college chums look like thirty cents on Saturday night. The spectators, of course, enjoyed it hugely.

Toronto Star: This is the season for red-headed hockey players. Every well-conducted team carries as a special attraction: "The Boy with the Auburn Hair." The St. George's have Jack Hynes, one of the very best players in Ontario. Ingersoll's pride is young Sherry, while Penetang has a brilliant forward in Smyth, or Smith, who has red, or auburn, hair, whichever way you look at it. Belleville's greatest joy is when Paderewski McGuire dashes down the ice with the puck, his golden-tinted baby curls flashing in the electric light like so many diamonds or other precious jewels. There are others, but space is precious and time forbids.

HOCKEY.

Belleville Bankers Victorious.

A team picked from the Bankers of Kingston came up on Saturday and got an artistic trimming at the hands of the local Bankers team. There was a small crowd of spectators, and they saw a rather one-sided game, which the local cash-handlers had no difficulty in winning. The local forwards were too swift for the Kingston gentlemen, and scored whenever they took it in their heads to do so. The final score was 10—3. Mr. J. O'Brien, of Kingston, made an impartial referee. The teams were:

Kingston		Belleville
	Goal
Taylor		Williamson
	Point
Dillon		Brymner
	Cover
Drury		Patterson
	Rover
Botts		Soll
	Centre
Mills		Hamilton
	Wings.
Doyle		Lipscombe
Gale		Steele

The return game, it is expected, will be played in Kingston on Wednesday night.

SPORTING NOTES.

Cornwall tied the Wellingtons in Toronto on Saturday night, 3—3 being the score.

Ottawa beat the Montrealers in Montreal, and the Senators now look like Stanley Cup holders.

McGill will play Harvard for the intercollegiate championship of America in New York next Saturday.

The Marlboros will play the same team to-night that they did last Thursday. They left Toronto at 2 p.m., with a crowd of supporters.

FOR PARTIES AND AFTERNOON TEAS.

Ice Cream in many varieties, Charlotte Russe, Fruit Trifles, Oyster Patties, Fruit Jellies, Macaroons, Vanilla and Rolled Wafers, and all kinds of fancy cakes.

Mint Wafers, Salted Almonds, Webb's Chocolates, Marrons and fruit Glaces, to order, etc.

CHURCH CHIMES OF YESTERDAY

Dr. Antliff, of Kingston, Preached Two Grand Sermons in Bridge St.

Notes of Other Services in Belleville's Different Places of Worship

Bridge St. Church.

Large congregations were the rule in the above church yesterday, it being "Educational Sunday." Rev. J. Cooper Antliff, M.A., D.D., was the preacher of the day, and the opinion is universal among those who heard him that two more able discourses have very seldom been heard in this city. At the morning service the Rev. gentleman preached an educational sermon, his text being: "If the soul be without knowledge it is not good." The evening service was largely attended, and the eminent divine delivered a discourse which is making many people think to-day. His theme was "Lovest thou Me? Then feed My Lambs." The first duty of all Christians was to love Christ and their fellow-men. By a man's actions towards his fellows could his sincerity as a Christian be judged. Church government or Church ritual made no difference; every man's salvation depended on his confession of Christ. In most churches you could count the workers on the fingers of your hands; the rest did nothing but sit round and find fault, then at the after meeting they would cheerfully sing "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," while some one else had done the work. It was the duty of every man and woman to love God and show their love by their works, both in the church and out of it.

The choir sang an anthem in excellent style, "Hearken Unto Me, My People," and Mr. Jessop, of Montreal, sang "The Lord is My Shepherd," very acceptably. During the offertory Miss Wheler sang "The Babe of Bethlehem," with chorus by a quartette composed of Misses Vermilyea and Watson, Messrs. Vermilyea and Burns. It was a very pleasing feature of the service.

Rev. Dr. Antliff is remembered by many Methodists as the gentleman who preached the union sermon here twenty years ago, when the Episcopal Methodists and Wesleyans united.

St. Andrew's Church.

Rev. Mr. Maclean was the preacher at both services. The solo in the morning anthem was taken by Miss Isabel Turner, Miss Nora Lazier being the soloist at night. Yesterday was Miss Turner's last Sunday in St. Andrew's, as she leaves in a day or two to become a nurse in a Kingston hospital. At the conclusion of the evening service the congregation sang "God be with you till we Meet Again," in remembrance of Miss Turner's removal.

The Tabernacle.

The preacher in the above church yesterday morning was the Pastor, Rev. Mr. Locke, Rev. Mr. Real exchanging pulpits with him at night. At the morning service the Bros. Gordon sang a pretty duet, "Jesus, the very thought of Thee."

John St.

At John St. Church last night the Pastor, Rev. A. H. Drumm, preached from the text found in Acts 20; 7:

"And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech till midnight."

The choir sang an anthem very acceptably, Mrs. Grant taking the solo.

St. Thomas'.

Large congregations were present at both services yesterday, the Rector being the preacher of the day. His discourses were in reference to the approaching Lenten season. Mrs. Chambers sang a solo at the evening service.

Emmanuel R. E. Church.

The services in this church yesterday were of much interest. At the morning service the Rector, Rev. Mr. Gilliland, preached on Lenten duties, his text being Hebrews 2; 10. At the close of the evening service the Young People's meeting was held, when Miss Hitchon delivered a very interesting and inspiring address on the subject of "Missions."

Other Church Notes.

At Christ Church last evening Mr. Ned Henthorne sang "Bohr's" "Thy Will be Done," as a solo, in a most acceptable manner.

Special services will be held in the Baptist Church every evening during the coming week.

DO YOU BELCH GAS?

If you have uneasy sensations in the stomach, a bad taste in the mouth, headache—remember that ten drops of Polson's Nerviline in sweetened water is a quick and certain cure. Nerviline aids digestion, dispels the gas, makes you comfortable and free from distress at once. Nerviline is just splendid for Cramps, Colic, Dysentery, Stomach and Bowel Troubles, and costs only 25c. Better try it.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills Cure Constipation.

INTERESTING, IF TRUE

YOU CAN TRY IT FOR YOURSELF AND PROVE IT.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or other wholesome food, and this claim has been proven by actual experiment which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner: Cut hard boiled eggs into very small pieces, as it would be if masticated, place the egg and two or three of the tablets in a bottle or jar containing warm water heated to 98 degrees (the temperature of the body) and keep it at this temperature for three and one-half hours, at the end of which time the egg will be as completely digested as it would have been in the healthy stomach of a hungry boy.

The point of this experiment is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg in the bottle it will do to the egg or meat in the stomach and nothing else will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectually. Even a little child can take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with safety and benefit if its digestion is weak, and the thousands of cures accomplished by their regular daily use are easily explained when it is understood that they are composed of vegetable essences, aseptic pepsin, diastase and Golden Seal, which mingles with the food and digest it thoroughly, giving the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate.

Dieting never cures dyspepsia, neither do pills and cathartic medicines, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines.

When enough food is eaten and promptly digested there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merit and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world wide and they are sold at the moderate price of 50 cts. for full sized package in every drug store in the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe.

Mr. Buskin Again

Mr. Geo. Buskin, of the International Colportage Mission of Algoma and the Northwest, is making his twentieth annual visit to Belleville in behalf of the work in those districts. Its operations during the past year have been more extensive than in any previous; 3,700 copies of Scriptural Books were supplied, in 7 languages, by its agency, and many more given and not recorded; 40,000 additional tracts and cards were also published for its work, which is for Godliness, and not denomination. Its influences during the past years have been stimulating to others to attempt similar work, for which a wide field is open in this and other lands. The expenses and indebtedness paid during the past year was $2,200, apart from missionary subsistencies, which was less than $500. Belleville's contribution to the same was $23.62, which the Missionary gratefully acknowledges. A dictionary in the Ojibway and English language is in course of publication for the Indians, to be sold at about 25 cents, which will incur extra cost. Further improvements are necessary in the work and will be undertaken, as means are obtained to do so. The Mission depot is at 202 King street East, Toronto, where all are welcome.

MR. THOMAS RITCHIE IS ENTHUSIASTIC

OVER THE GOOD SHIP CEDRIC, ON WHICH HE CAME TO NEW YORK.

Mr. Thomas Ritchie, who has just arrived home from the Old Country, is very enthusiastic over the White Star liner Cedric, on which he made his passage. They had a rough passage, he says, but, owing to the size of the big boat, no discomfort at all was experienced. As illustrating this fact, Mr. Ritchie says the smoke room steward placed a glass filled with water on one of the tables when they left Liverpool, and when New York was sighted the water had not been spilt. The Cedric is 15 feet wider than Front street, and is three times the size of the Allan liner Parisian. The New York Sun gives the following description of the new marine monster:

The new steamship Cedric, of the White Star line, the largest vessel in the world, is due at her pier in the North River to-day. She was sighted off Fire Island at 3 o'clock this afternoon. This is her maiden trip across. The liner left Liverpool last Wednesday, and much interest has been shown in shipping circles over the arrival of this new giant.

The Cedric is ninety-six tons heavier than the Celtic, the largest steamship before her, and 3,727 tons greater than the Oceanic, her sister ship. She was built in the yards of Harland & Wolff, in Belfast, and launched there on Aug. 21 last. She is classed as an intermediate steamship, not so fast as the Oceanic, but still speedy, and designed particularly for great strength, steadiness, regularity and comfort. She is 700 feet long, 75 feet in breadth and 49 1-2 feet deep, measurements which give her a displacement of 38,200 tons. She has accommodations for 3,000 passengers; 350 first-class, 250 second and 2,400 third class. Her crew numbers 335 men. It requires ninety-two of these men to operate her great engines. Capt. Paddock, who formerly commanded the Germanic, is in command of the Cedric.

The height of the liner's big funnels, of which there are two, is 131 feet above her keel, and their diameter is 14 feet 3 inches by 11 feet. The Cedric has nine decks, is built on the cellular, double-bottom principle, and is so divided into numerous air-tight compartments that a maximum of security is obtained. She is propelled by two sets of quadruple expansion balanced engines, driving twin propellers. There are eight double-ended steel boilers, capable of working to a pressure of 210 pounds to the square inch. The Cedric can maintain a speed, under favorable conditions, of nearly 17 knots.

She is arranged to have a large cargo carrying capacity and this permits a large proportion of her passenger accommodation to be had at moderate rates. But the Cedric is magnificently fitted up. The first-class accommodation is all arranged amidship on the upper, bridge, upper bridge and boat decks. The grand dining saloon is a very handsome apartment. It is situated on the upper deck and extends the whole width of the vessel. The saloon has a seating capacity of 300. This room, the library and the smoking room aft of the grand staircase form a very handsome suite.

The second saloon passengers are well taken care of aft, on the upper and bridge decks, and the large accommodations for third class are on the middle and lower decks, are furnished with all modern conveniences and are exceptionally comfortable. The Cedric provides for practically a new feature in ocean liners in having single berth staterooms.

The White Star line has now in course of construction another large steamship, the Arabic, and in the spring the Celtic, the Cedric, the Cymric and the new Arabic will comprise the White Star line fleet in the weekly service between New York and Liverpool.

CANCER GROWTH ARRESTED,

AND THE DISEASE COMPLETELY CURED WITHOUT KNIFE, PASTE OR PLASTER.

Every physician knows how almost impossible it is to stop the growth and progress of a cancer.

Our new constitutional treatment has overcome that difficulty. After taking it for a short time, it is soon evident that the development of the cancer has been checked. That is the first step in the cure.

Then as the treatment is continued, it will be observed that the lump is gradually getting smaller, the pain disappears and the health is renewed.

That is the sample record of hundreds of cases that have been cured by our new constitutional treatment. For full particulars and descriptive pamphlet send 6 cents in stamps to R. I. Stott & Jury, Bowmanville, Ont.

IRISH LAND QUESTION.

Good Hopes of a Settlement are Entertained.

London, Feb. 23.—As a result of interviews with the Duke of Abercorn, Lord Dunraven, John Redmond and others, the Associated Press is able to announce authoritatively that the following is the situation as regards the plan to settle the Irish land question finally:—

All the interested parties—Nationalists, Unionists, landlords and tenants—are now for the first time in the history of Ireland in agreement upon the lines of the Dublin conference. They have also joined forces in bringing pressure on the Government to make Secretary Wyndham's forthcoming bill agree in spirit with the recommendations of the conference, and all indications point to the bill conceding these demands. It will be introduced in Parliament at the end of March, and, if passed, will accomplish what Mr. Redmond and Lord Dunraven agree in saying will be one of the "most extraordinary peaceful revolutions ever effected." If Mr. Wyndham, for lack of funds or other causes, fails to meet the views of the conference, he will have on his hands, to quote Mr. Redmond, "an Ireland such as the world has never seen." In this view such a strong supporter of the Government as the Duke of Abercorn concurs.

Mr. Redmond was asked point blank if he thought the landlords were in earnest, and he replied:—"I have every reason to think they are just as anxious as we are to settle once and for all Ireland's troubles. If Mr. Wyndham brings in a bill on the lines of the decisions arrived at by the Dublin conference the greatest step in the industrial and social history of Ireland will have been accomplished. More than that, it will be a most important step toward home rule. Under the new system the landlords will live in Ireland, derive benefit from their property and begin to take a new interest in Irish affairs. They will then see the necessity for an extension of local government, and will eventually become as anxious as ourselves to secure home rule."

The Duke of Abercorn, who is President of the powerful Irish Landlords' Association, which at first declined to join the Earl of Mayo and Lord Dunraven in conferring with the Nationalists, but which later signified its assent, frankly admits that he is amazed at the results achieved and at the "happy topsy-turvydom" now prevailing in Irish politics. He thought the process of changing the holdings from the landlord to the tenant might possibly cost $3,500,000 annually, adding: "It surely would be cheap at that price."

Neither Mr. Redmond nor Lord Dunraven, however, believes the transfer of the land would involve more than $1,500,000 annually, and both think that the economies resulting from the cheaper administration would greatly reduce this figure, if they do not eventually quite wipe out the necessity for State aid in the payment of the difference between the maximum price the tenant can afford to pay and the minimum price the landlord can accept.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Ritchie, while sympathetic toward Ireland, now faces a more serious financial situation and more bitter protests against over-taxation than have confronted any Chancellor in recent years. The phenomenally small Government majorities since Parliament reassembled are indications of the storm which is brewing over Mr. Ritchie's head. He must also float a new Transvaal loan before Ireland gets an additional penny, and the Government, with reason, is keenly anxious in this respect.

ACCIDENT TO BLANCHE WALSH.

Lost Some of Her Hair While Playing at New York.

New York, Feb. 23.—Miss Blanche Walsh had a narrow escape from serious injury during the presentation of Tolstoi's "Resurrection." An overturned lamp in one of the scenes set fire to Miss Walsh's hair and she rushed off the stage. Jos. Haworth, her leading man, caught her in the wings and extinguished the flames before the actress had been seriously burned. As it was, she lost part of her hair.

Provincial Appointments.

Toronto Feb. 23.—The following Provincial appointments have been made:—A. Saunders of Watford, to be local registrar of the High Court, Clerk of the County Court and Registrar of the Surrogate Court for the County of Lambton; Anson Spotton of Harriston, to be a notary public; George Bigelow of Cornwall, to be Clerk of the Third Division Court for the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry; to be License Commissioners, William Cumming, Amos Marselis and Richard Gibbons, for Dundas, and G. A. Hunter, Alexander McIntyre and William Hallam for Sault Ste. Marie.

KILLED BY THEIR MOTHER.

Children Poisoned For Fear Their Father Might Take Them.

Davy, W. Va., Feb. 23.—The authorities here are searching for Mrs. Walter Dykes, whose two children were found dead this morning from poison. It is rumored that she administered drugs to the children rather than allow her husband to secure possession of them. Mr. and Mrs. Dykes separated a few weeks ago.

THE BOUNDARY COMMISSION.

Foreign Office Aware of Canada's Objections—No Action Likely.

London, Feb. 23.—The Foreign Office, which has received no official protest, is, however, unofficially aware of the fact that the Canadians are dissatisfied with the appointment of Senators Lodge and Turner as members of the Alaskan boundary tribunal, but the officials here do not see how they can take any action in the matter.

NEW ARMY PLANS.

UNIONISTS JOIN WITH LIBERALS IN SHARP CRITICISM.

The Government's Position Sharply Assailed—Mr. Brodrick's Speech in Defence—Proceedings in the British Parliament.

London, Feb. 24.—A vote of want of confidence was virtually raised by a group of the supporters of the Government yesterday. Mr. Brodrick's army reorganization scheme was condemned by the Liberal Opposition two years ago as a superficial plan for providing at a heavy expense six skeleton army corps, fully officered, but without soldiers. Mr. Beckett, the member for Whitby, and other Conservatives who have joined in the attack upon the War Office have taken up the Liberal argument, and have brought on a dangerous debate.

Mr. Beckett's amendment to the address was phrased with much dexterity, and offered broad grounds for criticism of Mr. Brodrick's scheme as unsuited to the needs of the empire, and yielding no proportionate return in strength and efficiency for a largely increased expenditure. Its force had not been broken by an official return showing that four army corps were incomplete, and that the fifth and sixth had not yet been formed.

The House of Commons entered upon the discussion of the complex subject with earnestness, and there was a general feeling that the most vulnerable point of the Unionist Administration had been exposed. Mr. Beckett opened the debate with an outburst of candor, and vigorously condemned Mr. Brodrick's measures for reorganizing the army on paper, and Sir Charles Dilke was incisive and well-informed in his criticism of War Office policies.

Mr. Brodrick made an elaborate defence of what he described as a series of drastic reforms, which had inevitably excited opposition within and outside of the army. There were many clever passages in the speech, and it was delivered with an earnest, even intense, manner, but neither the criticism nor the opposition was silenced by the unconvincing excuses for the present condition of a series of skeleton army corps. With much impressiveness Mr. Brodrick announced that Lord Grenfell would be placed in command of the fourth army corps on April 1st. Everyone shouted with laughter at this oddly inopportune date. Lord Roberts himself was highly amused, and the merriment was sensibly increased by the fact that Mr. Brodrick could not understand the cause of it.

RIOT-CARTRIDGES.

Will be Used by the U. S. War Department.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The War Department has sent notice to the Governors of each state that it is prepared to supply them upon demand, and according to their legal allowances, with "riot cartridges." This is a new form of ammunition prepared by the experts of the Ordnance Bureau, to enable officers of the law and soldiers to repel rioters with the least possible loss of life to the "innocent spectator." The shell is like that of the regular one used in the army rifle, with the important exception that instead of a long nickel-plated and steel-clad bullet, two balls are placed in the mouth. The design apparently is to secure something of greater range than buckshot, yet not dangerous to persons at a distance. It is effective as to accuracy up to 200 yards.

A SERIES OF FIRES.

Great Damage Was Caused in German Villages.

Berlin, Feb. 24.—Several gales swept over Germany Saturday and Sunday, and a series of destructive fires, spread by the wind, occurred. In the village of Huertgen, near Dueren, ninety-two houses were burned, and at Kleinenberg, Rhenish Prussia, forty-four buildings were destroyed. Smaller fires were reported elsewhere, with some casualties. At Dolina, in Galicia, more than a hundred houses were destroyed.

HALF A CENTURY

A PROMINENT POLITICIAN IS CONVINCED.

At a recent club dinner given by newspaper men at Washington, the conversation turned upon the subject of testimonials and their value in newspaper advertising. "I do not believe," said a prominent politician who was present, "that one newspaper testimonial in a hundred, is genuine."

The owner of one of the largest newspapers in the country was present and took up the subject vigorously, finally agreeing to let his opponent select any testimonial in his paper and wagering to establish its genuineness to the politician's satisfaction.

Quite by accident the case of Mr. Newton K. Young, of Pennington, N. J., was selected. He had been completely cured of a case of hemorrhoids or piles, by the use of Pyramid Pile Cure. The politician was especially skeptical regarding this case, as it was alleged that Mr. Young was a man over eighty years of age and had been cured of piles after fifty years of awful suffering and when all other remedies had failed. It was agreed that the politician should write to Mr. Geo. W. Scarborough, Ph.G., a prominent resident of Pennington and that the result of the controversy should rest upon his reply. The following was Mr. Scarborough's answer:

"Dear Sir,—Mr. Newton K. Young, of this town, a man nearly eighty years of age, and who has been a sufferer with piles for, perhaps half a century has been completely cured by the use of Pyramid Pile Cure. I felt especially interested in the case as it was upon my recommendation that Mr. Young began the use of the remedy after having used so many others. Yours respectfully, Geo. W. Scarborough, Ph.G."

The Pyramid Drug Company, of Marshall, Mich., have this letter in their possession and are willing to guarantee with a backing of one thousand dollars, the genuineness of Mr. Scarborough's testimony.

THE IRISH LAND BILL.

Lord Dunraven Expresses Hope of its Success.

London, Feb. 24.—The Earl of Dunraven was interviewed regarding the report of the Irish Landlord and Tenants' Conference in Dublin, of which he was Chairman. He spoke hopefully regarding the prospects of legislation, which, he thought, would end the difficulties in Ireland. Lord Dunraven said:—"The utterances of King Edward and of British public men, the temper of Ireland, the reception of the conference's report by the public, and the action of the Government since its publication are all favorable indications pointing to the success of the Government's Irish land bill, which, if it contains a just and generous offer, will make good the first impression on which all depends. The bill, if drawn on the lines of the report, will insure a final settlement and remove the cause of friction in Ireland, which is reacting unfavorably not only in Great Britain but throughout the empire and on our kindred in the United States."

Lord Dunraven replied to the adverse criticism of the report, saying that the conferees could not lay down a specific formula to be adopted. They were obliged to deal with the matter on the broadest lines, considering both the interests of the nation and those of individual landlord and tenants. He did not think that the Government would be able to specify a strict formula, which, if attempted, would confuse the issue. The minor details of any plan based on voluntarism must be left to the purchasers and sellers. The conference only sought to formulate the conditions under which it would be possible to complete the transfer of the land within a reasonable period. His Lordship concluded by saying that he did not think that the demand on the State treasury would be disproportionate to the benefits gained.

INSURGENTS DEFEATED.

The Venezuelan Rebellion Almost at an End.

Higuerote, Venezuela, Feb. 23.—Gen. Olivares, at the head of the Government troops from Barcelona, yesterday attacked at Tacarigua the rear guard of the revolutionist force commanded by Gen. Caribe Vidal. After a fight lasting ten hours the rebel force abandoned the field, leaving a number of wounded, among them Vidal and another rebel leader named Flores.

Gen. Olivaros is continuing his march on Caracas, in order to take the revolutionist army under Gen. Rolando between two fires, as the Government will shortly take the offensive in the direction of Guarenas.

Caracas, Venezuela, Feb. 24.—The last army of the revolutionists, under Gen. Ronaldo, recently advanced to within four hours' march of Caracas. The correspondent of the Associated Press yesterday visited its advance guard, camped at Esperanza, two hours distant from Petare, and about twenty-five minutes' march from the advance post of the Government forces. The revolutionists presented a sad spectacle, being almost naked, and practically without provisions. Gen. Rolando is still at Guarenas, with about 1,200 men.

SCHOOL LANDS VOTE.

Party Division in the Manitoba Legislature.

Winnipeg, Feb. 24.—On a straight party division in the Manitoba Legislature last night. Attorney-General Campbell's resolution, calling upon the Dominion Government to restore the rate of interest on school lands from 5 to 6 per cent., was adopted by a vote of 17 to 7. The Attorney-General and Premier Roblin seized upon the occasion to make a strong attack on the Department of the Interior over alleged irregularities in the sales of school lands.

Mr. T. C. Norris of Lansdowne, in seconding an amendment to the resolution, made a vigorous fighting speech, justifying the department and its officials from the reports of the commission, and pointing out that wherever there was any suspicion of crookedness the sales had been cancelled. Over two-thirds of the parcels sold had been bought by actual settlers and farmers, and Premier Roblin was bluntly charged with making sweeping accusations which were untruthful.

EXCRUCIATING LUMBAGO PERMANENTLY CURED.

A severe case which proves the power of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets to cure so that you stay cured.

There are very few people in Havelock, Ont., or vicinity, who do not know Mr. William Reynolds, the popular C. P. R. brakesman, whose picture appears here.

About two years ago he was laid up with a severe attack of lumbago, which caused him excruciating pain, so that to stoop over or turn in bed was agony.

He heard of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets being a splendid remedy for such complaints as his. He took the Tablets and they cured him. Since then Mr. Reynolds has had no return of his old trouble, and has recommended Dr. Pitcher's Tablets to many men on the road, such as firemen, engineers, conductors and fellow-brakesmen, all of whom, from the nature of their occupation, are liable to bad backs and kidney trouble, and, in every instance, the Tablets have proved effectual.

STATEMENT MAY 31st, 1900.

This is what Mr. William Reynolds had to say about Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets on May 31st, 1900, just after he was cured:

"I had lumbago so bad when I got Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets from A. C. Denike, the druggist, that I could hardly move. It was most painful to turn in bed. There was a dull nagging aching in the small of my back continually, and to stoop or assume an upright position after sitting was extremely painful. This was not the only time I suffered that way; my case was becoming chronic, and the remedies that formerly gave me relief did not help me now in the least. I found, though, that as soon as I started taking Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, they helped me at once. They have removed the whole trouble. I have neither pain nor lameness now. I cannot say too much for them, and I heartily recommend them."

(Signed) WM. REYNOLDS.

STATEMENT MARCH 29th, 1902.

When our representative called on Mr. Reynolds, recently, he did not hesitate to speak in the highest terms of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and the permanent cure they had made in his case. Said he: "I have never had any return of that lumbago and kidney trouble which attacked me so severely in the spring of 1900. Dr. Pitcher's Kidney Tablets made a complete and thorough cure then, and I have never been bothered since."

ENDORSATION OF A. C. DENIKE, DRUGGIST.

Mr. A. C. Denike, Phm. B., the well-known druggist and optician of Havelock, who sold Mr. Reynolds the Tablets, writes:

"I am acquainted with Mr. Wm. Reynolds, brakesman on the C. P. R., and know that about two years ago he suffered greatly from lumbago and kidney trouble. He purchased Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets from me, and claims that they were the means of curing him, and I believe this to be the case. I understand from him that since Dr. Pitcher's Tablets cured him he has had no return of the trouble."

(Signed) A. C. DENIKE.

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a bottle or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

NORTH YORK PROHIBITIONISTS FALSE TO PRINCIPLE!

Mr. Munns, the Prohibitionist candidate in North York, has received his sentence of condemnation, and that, too, from his own professed prohibition workers. In retiring from the contest he declares "that it clearly demonstrates that the Dominion Alliance is being used by the Liberal party to advance their interests, and that prohibition takes a second place, no independent person, free from party prejudice, will deny.

"From the very first commencement of the agitation for prohibition, since the Manitoba decision, no action has been taken by the North York branch of the Alliance to bring any pressure to bear upon the Government to induce it to fulfill its pledges to the prohibitionists of Ontario.

"Conventions have been postponed and called off because they might embarrass the powers that be.

"When held it has been agreed by a few present not to present any question or pledge on the subject of prohibition to the candidates. Organized for the purpose of promoting political action, it has been used to prevent such action, and to act as a buffer to protect the Liberal party."

This is the charge that we have repeatedly brought against the great majority of the Grit Prohibitionists. Prohibition is an admirable platform for Grits when it can be used against a Conservative candidate, not otherwise.

Mr. Munns has received rough treatment while attempting to address meetings and at the nominations. He was pummeled, jostled and even knocked down, and he says:

Cut All To Pieces

A Great Wreck of Clothing Prices

Do you know the kind of Suits and Overcoats we will sell now for $7.50, they are the $9.00, $10.00 and $10.50 garments. Have you seen some friends wearing one of our $15 Suits and Overcoats which you admired, or did you buy one yourself a couple of months ago? You can get one now for $12 or some of them for $10.50. That's exactly what this sale gives you an opportunity to do, and it is your own fault if you don't do it. We can't afford to carry Winter goods over, so we would rather lose on them and let you make on them now. Oh, Yes! some storekeepers advertise cut prices all the year, lose money all the time, are in business for fun, etc., but we don't do it that way. Twice a year and for a few weeks each time, we can afford to and we do sacrifice profits.

This is our time to lose, as we want to make room for new Spring Goods which are arriving daily. Don't fail to take advantage of this situation.

tenders or the drinking men of North York, but men high up in the various orders of the Sons of Temperance and Good Templars, and men in the ranks of the Royal Templars, who lent their names to documents that were false and misleading."

All this proves that party is, in the opinion and in the action of the Ross Government supporters, of much more importance that principle, or rather that they have no principle when party is to be served.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM A TERRIBLE DEATH

TUFTSVILLE MAN HAD PARALYTIC STROKE AND LAY ON SNOW AND ICE ALL NIGHT.

Our Tuftsville correspondent writes: Mr. Edward Bennett had a miraculous escape from a horrible death by freezing on Monday night last. He had been at the station, which is only a short distance from his home, assisting the agent, Mr. A. W. Andrews, to examine a horse's foot that had been pricked by a nail. Mr. Andrews had called for him at 8.15. He left the station at 9.30, when, in his own lane, he had a paralytic stroke and lay until he was found by his youngest son, who was on his way to school at 8.30 in the morning. His body was embedded in the ice as if in plaster of paris. His hands and feet were frozen. The snow which had drifted over the body probably kept him from perishing. The wisdom and skill displayed by his family and neighbor seemed to aid in assisting Dr. Zwick, of Stirling, who was summoned, and did all in his power to bring about consciousness which was restored after twenty-four hours. His recovery seems very probable, as he feels very well at present.

A GUARANTEED CURE For All Forms of Kidney Disease

We, the undersigned Druggists are fully prepared to give the following guarantee with every 50 cent bottle of Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets, the only remedy in the world that positively cures all troubles arising from weak or diseased kidneys: "Money cheerfully returned if the sufferer is not relieved and improved after use of one bottle. Three to six bottles effect astonishing and permanent cures. If not relieved and cured, you waste no money."

ONE COMMON CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

Perhaps the most general cause of headache and pain across the eyes is nasal catarrh. The simplest cure is to inhale the medicated vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and air passage of the throat, lungs and nose. It kills myriads of germs at every breath, clears away mucous discharges, preserves and heals the membrane. Catarrhozone is just a splendid remedy for headache, and its action is certain and unfailing in diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. A trial will convince the most sceptical that Catarrhozone is all right. Large size, $1.00; trial size 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

Bob looked a little bewildered as he replied: "Never were sorry and never cared!—I can scarcely credit that, for surely your tears and present emotions belie your words."

Bell knew he had not understood her, and she said:

"Your arm, Robert, your arm. We heard that it was cut off, and that you were otherwise mutilated."

"Oh, that's it, then!" and something like his old mischievous smile glimmered about Bob's mouth as he added: "They spared my arms, Bell," and he tried to look very solemn, "suppose I tell you that they hacked off both my legs, and if you marry me, you must walk all your life by the side of wooden pins and crutches!"

Bell knew by the curl of his lip that he was teasing her, and she answered laughingly:

"Wooden pins and crutches will be all the fashion when the war is over—badges of honor of which any woman might be proud."

"Well, Bell," he replied, "I am afraid there is no such honor in store for my wife, for if I ever get back my strength and the flesh upon my bones, she must take me with legs and arms included. Not even a scratch or wound of any kind with which to awaken sympathy."

He appeared very bright and cheerful; but when after a moment Bell asked for Mark Ray, there came a shadow over his face, and with quivering lips he told a tale which blanched Bell's cheek, and made her shiver with pain and dread as she thought of Helen—for Mark was dead—shot down as he attempted to escape from the train which took them from one prison to another. He was always devising means of escape, succeeding several times, but was immediately captured and brought back or sent to some closer quarter, Robert said; but his courage never deserted him, or his spirits either. He was the life of them all, and by his presence kept many a poor fellow from dying of homesickness and despair. But he was dead: there could be no mistake, for Robert saw him when he jumped, heard the ball which went whizzing after him, saw him as he fell on the open field, saw a man from a rude dwelling near by go hurriedly towards him, firing his own revolver, as if to make the death deed doubly sure. Then as the train slacked its speed, with a view, perhaps, to takq the body on board, he heard the man who had reached Mark, and was bending over him, call out: "Go on. I'll tend to him, the bullet went right through here," and he turned the dead man's face towards the train, so all could see the blood pouring from the temple which the finger of the ruffian touched.

"Oh, Helen! poor Helen! how can I tell her, when she loved him so much!" Bell sobbed.

"You will do it better than any one else," Bob said. "You will be very tender with her and, Bell, tell her, as some consolation, that he did not break with the treatment, as most of us wretches did; he kept up wonderfully—said he was perfectly well and, indeed, he looked so. Tom Tubbs, who was his shadow, clinging to him with wonderful fidelity, will corroborate what I have said. He was with us, he saw him, and only animal force prevented him from leaping from the car and going to him where he fell. I shall never forget his shriek of agony at the sight of that blood-stained face turned an instant towards us."

"Don't, don't!" Bell cried again. "I can't endure it!" and as Mrs. Reynolds came in she left her lover and started for Mrs. Banker's, meeting on the steps Tom Tubbs himself, who had come on an errand similar to her own.

"Sit here in the hall a moment," she said to him, as the servant admitted them both. "I must see Mrs. Ray first."

Helen was reading to her mother-in-law, but she laid down her book and came to welcome Bell, detecting at once the agitation in her manner, and asking if she had bad news from Robert.

"No, Robert is at home: I have just come from there, and he told me—oh! Helen, can you bear it?—Mark is dead—shot twice as he jumped from the train taking him to another prison. Robert saw it and knew that he was dead."

Bell could get no further, for Helen, who had never fainted in her life, did so now, lying senseless so long that the physician began to think it would be a mercy if she never came back to life, for her reason, he fancied, had fled. But Helen did come back to life, with reason unimpaired, and insisted upon hearing every detail of the dreadful story, both from Bell and Tom. The latter confirmed all Lieutenant Reynolds had said, besides adding many items of his own. Mark was dead, there could be no doubt of it; but with the tenacity of a strong hopeful nature, the mother clung to the illusion that possibly the ball stunned, instead of killing—that he would yet come back; and many a time as the days went by, that mother started at the step upon the walk, or ring of the bell which she fancied might be his, hearing him sometimes calling in the night storm for her to let him in, and hurrying down to the door only to be disappointed, and go back to her lonely room to weep the dark night through.

With Helen there were no such illusions. After talking calmly and rationally with both Robert and Tom, she knew her husband was dead, and never watched and waited for him as his mother did. She had heard from Mark's companions in suffering all they had to tell, of his captivity and his love for her which manifested itself in so many different ways. Passionately she had wept over the tress of faded hair which Tom Tubbs brought to her, saying: "He cut it from his head just before we left the prison, and told me if he never got home and I did, to give the lock to you, and say that all was well between him and God—that your prayers had saved him. He wanted you to know that, because, he said, it would comfort you most of all."

And it did comfort her when she looked up at the clear wintry heavens and thought that her lost one was there. It was her first real trial, and it crushed her with its magnitude, so that she could not submit at once, and many a cry of desolate agony broke the silence of her room, where the whole night through she sat musing of the past, and raining kisses upon the little lock of hair which from the Southern prison had come to her, sole relic of the husband so dearly loved and truly mourned. How faded it was from the rich brown she remembered so well, and Helen gazing at it could realize in part the suffering and want which had worn so many precious lives away. It was strange she never dreamed of him. She often prayed that she might, so as to drive from her mind, if possible, the picture of the prostrate form upon the low, damp field, and the blood-stained face turned in its mortal agony towards the southern sky and the pitiless foe above it. So she always saw him, shuddering as she wondered if the foe had buried him decently or left his bones to bleach upon the open plain.

CHAPTER L.

Those first warm days of March, 1865, when spring and summer seemed to kiss each other and join hands for a brief space of time, how balmy, how still, how pleasant they were, and how bright the farm-house looked, where preparations for Katy's second bridal were going rapidly forward: Aunt Betsy was in her element, for now had come the reality of the vision she had seen so long, of house turned upside down in one grand onslaught of suds and sand, then, righted again by magic power, and smelling very sweet and clean from its recent ablutions—of turkeys dying in the barn, of chickens in the shed, of loaves of frosted cake, with cards and cards of snowy biscuit piled upon the pantry shelf—of jellies, tarts, and chicken salad—of home-made wine, and home-brewed beer, with tea and coffee portioned out and ready for the evening.

In the dining room the table was set with the new China ware and silver, a joint Christmas gift from Helen and Katy to their good Aunt Hannah, as real mistress of the house.

"Not plated ware, but the gen-oo-ine article," Aunt Betsy had explained at least twenty times to those who came to see the silver, and she handled it proudly now as she took it from the flannel bags in which Mrs. Deacon Bannister said it must be kept, and placed it on a side table.

I Will Cure You of Rheumatism

ELSE NO MONEY IS WANTED.

Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer.

I am a specialist in Rheumatism and have treated more cases than any other physician, I think. For 16 years I made 2,000 experiments with different drugs, testing all known remedies, while searching the world for something better. Nine years ago I found a costly chemical in Germany, which, with my previous discoveries, gives me a certain cure.

I don't mean that it can turn bony joints into flesh again; but it can cure the disease at any stage, completely and forever. I have done it fully 100,000 times.

I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism, and I will mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure. Take it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is only $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it.

I mean that exactly. If you say the results are not what I claim, I don't expect a penny from you.

I have no samples. Any mere sample that can affect chronic Rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs, and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood.

My remedy does that even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. It has cured the oldest cases that I ever met. And in all my experience—in all my 2,000 tests—I never found another remedy that would cure one chronic case in ten.

Write me and I will send you the order. Try my remedy for a month, as it can't harm you anyway. If it fails, it is free.

Address Dr. Shoop, Box 69, Racine, Wis. Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the billiousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 68 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

The land area of Hawaii is 4,000,000 acres.

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

When one gets hopping mad his reason goes on a crutch.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

If thy friend is honey, do not lick him up altogether.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Wedding rings in St. Kilda used to be made of worsted.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body gives up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Do not live near a pious fool.

These two desirable qualifications, pleasant to the taste and at the same time effectual, are to be found in Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, Children like it.

The best wheel of fortune is honest labor.

When all other preparations fail, try Holloway's Corn Cure. No pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it.

Iridium, which costs $780 per pound, is the hardest metal known.

To get relief from indigestion, biliousness, constipation or torpid liver without disturbing the stomach or purging the bowels, take a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills, they will please you.

Attend no auctions if thou hast no money.

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.

Over 250,000 copies of Charles Dickens' novels are sold annually.

They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system.

A woman never knows where the match box is.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER. Belleville.

A Savings Bank.

Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality, Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

TIMELY TOPICS

General satisfaction will be felt at the severe sentence imposed upon the personators at the late Referendum election. The pity is that some of the rascals who practised the art at the general elections have not been punished in the same manner.—Toronto News.

So they would were it not that to punish them would be a condemnation of the "Machine," which was worked exclusively in the interest of the Ross Government.

"What are the issues they are discussing in North York?" asks the Toronto News. "They are," it replies: "Did the sum of $800 represent all of Mr. Lennox's costs? Did Mr. Lennox, on a certain occasion, speak through the telephone to Judge Morgan, or did he speak to the Judge's man? Whose version of an objectionable transaction is these,

Here are important questions, says The News which should be considered by the electors: "In the power question may be involved the future prosperity or stagnation of Ontario. Our legal system is cumbrous, and needs revision. Our Public School text books are printed under conditions which are far from satisfactory. Our whole educational system, from primary school to university, is becoming unwieldy, and needs overhauling. Our Provincial estate promises untold wealth if we continue to give it wise administration. These are some of the real questions of the day in Ontario politics."

It appears from telegraphic reports from Ottawa that the Hon. John Costigan is to introduce, during the coming session, a Home Rule for Ireland resolution. Upon a former occasion Mr. Gladstone, though afterwards a Home Ruler, told Canada in plain language to mind her own business, that they in England could attend to theirs. A second snub of a similar character would not be amiss. The land question is now the excuse for such a movement. Settle that, and then separation will be the cry. That is what one of the leaders declared the other day to be the policy of the Redmondites.

It was made in the United States, and will be produced in the future as evidence, incontrovertible, that Canada acknowledged the correctness of their contention, though it is known to have been a blunder.

About Drainage

You know the deadly consequences if a house is badly drained. Only a madman or a criminal would himself incur the risk, or subject others to it, for one unnecessary minute.

The Story of One Referendum Polling Booth.

Toronto, Feb. 24.—The referendum charges yesterday before Judge McCrimmon brought out some peculiar facts. It was admitted by Deputy Returning Officer Thomas Cavan that he worked for the license-holders for eight days before the vote was taken; that he did not administer the oath to voters suspected of being personators in the prescribed form; that he did not make and sign the declaration required at the close of the poll; that he allowed one Montgomery to vote, although his name was not on the voters' list for subdivision No. 26 in South Toronto, where Mr. Cavan was deputy returning officer, and other witnesses proved that a bottle of whiskey and milk was in the polling booth, and that several of those present drank freely of the mixture.

Cavan was formally charged with having refused to swear parties who tendered votes under the names of John P. Cassidy, George McCarthy and Den... Mahoney. The proper parties who are on the list as having votes under these names are three teachers at the De la Salle Institute, and the parties who voted and whom it was desired to swear were not the priests. He was also charged with refusing to examine the ballots to see if they were those he supplied to voters, although it was pointed out to him that there were more ballots in the box than had been given out; and he was further charged with counting ballots which had not his initials on them, as required by law.

This concluded the taking of evidence, and the Judge reserved his decision

DYNAMITE EXPLODED.

Two Men Killed and Others Fatally Injured.

Connellsville, Pa., Feb. 24.—Two Italians were killed, two fatally injured and a number of others slightly hurt by an explosion of dynamite today on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad double-tracking operations, near Rockwood, Pa. The men were thawing dynamite, when it exploded. Two were hurled into the Castleman River, a distance of 100 feet, and their bodies were horribly mutilated. The men are known only by their working numbers.

A NEW DEPARTURE

A NEW, EFFECTUAL AND CONVENIENT CURE FOR CATARRH.

Of catarrh remedies there is no end, but of catarrh cures, there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure.

The old practice of snuffing salt water through the nose would often relieve, and the washes, douches, powders and inhalers in common use are very little, if any, better than the old-fashioned water douche.

The use of inhalers and the application of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is no more reasonable than to rub the back to cure kidney disease. Catarrh is just as much a blood disease as kidney trouble or rheumatism and it can not be cured by local treatment any more than they can be.

To cure catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach, an internal antiseptic treatment is necessary to drive the catarrhal poison out of the blood and system, and the new catarrh cure is designed on this plan, and the remarkable success of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because being used internally, it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomach, liver and bowels.

Wm. Zimmerman, of St. Joseph, relates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of catarrh sufferers everywhere. He says: "I neglected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes, and finally even my stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me, and then I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position, as I was clerk and my hearing was absolutely necessary.

Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, another a catarrh salve, but they were no good in my case, nor was anything else, until I heard of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and bought a package at my drug store. They benefitted me from the start and in less than four months I was completely cured of catarrh, although I had suffered nearly all my life from it.

"They are pleasant to take and so much more convenient to use than other catarrh remedies that I feel I cannot say enough in favor of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets."

THE TAFF VALE CASE.

AMALGAMATED RAILROAD SERVANTS HEAVILY TAXED.

The Final Act in a Long-drawn-out Suit Arising From a Strike.

London, Feb. 24.—In accordance with an arrangement arrived at between the parties to the suit, the court has awarded the Taff-Vale Railroad Company $115,000 damages against the Amalgamated Society of Railroad Servants.

After a long trial in the King's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice the case of the Taff-Vale Railroad Company against the Amalgamated Society of Railroad Servants, involving many questions of great importance to trades unionism, resulted December 19 in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. The latter complained of malicious molestation, picketing, intimidation, etc., during the strike of 1900.

WHERE WINTER IS KING.

Traffic in Newfoundland at a Standstill.

St. John's, Nfld., Feb. 24.—The trains which were snowbound in the interior, having secured relief, are now moving backwards to their starting points, where ample food and accommodation for the travellers are available. It was impossible for the trains to attempt to cut their way through the snowdrifts across the summit of the island. Another fierce gale raged last night, adding to the snowdrifts. An eastern train with forty-three passengers reached Norris Arm and is now on its way to this city, but it is not known when it will reach its destination, owing to the rainstorm and the subsequent frost which coated the tracks with ice. A train leaving St. John's was unable to proceed half a mile from the station, owing to the ice, and had to return, abandoning further attempt to leave until to-morrow. The western snowbound express is slowly retreating toward the Bay of Islands, with fifty-five persons aboard. It was deemed unwise to keep the train near the summit, owing to a possible long delay before that section of the railroad is clear. The passengers will be housed at Bay of Islands, near which settlement the American herring fishing vessels are frozen. The passengers of the express, which also carries large American and Canadian incoming mails, are likely to be detained at Bay of Islands for some time yet. Business is greatly inconvenienced by the delay in the arrival of the mails.

Three thousand seal fishers to man the sealing steamers for next month's fishing operations are awaiting the clearing of the railroad tracks to reach St. John's.

GUARDS' STATEMENT.

Confesses the Shooting of Charles Shirley.

Quebec, Feb. 24.—The prisoner Guard was brought to the Police Court before any of the witnesses subpoenaed for the afternoon were around, and there he told a story in which he virtually confesses the shooting of Charles Shirley, and at the same time attempted to implicate the wife of his intended victim. He went so far as to say that he had been incited to the deed by Mrs. Shirley. Directly it was known what kind of a statement Guard was prepared to make Mrs. Shirley was sent for. She went from her home to the court, supposing that it was simply as a witness that she was required. On reaching the Court House she was taken into High Constable Gale's room, and there found herself virtually a prisoner. The authorities were apparently afraid that she might leave the city. When Guard had finished his deposition Mrs. Shirley was formally arrested and sent to jail. Her own side of the story has yet to be given, but even if innocent of the charge made by Guard she is considered by the authorities to be too important a witness to be left at large. Mrs. Shirley can say nothing at all about the shooting itself. She did not witness it, for it took place in the stable while she was in the house, but just before her husband managed to crawl into the house, wounded and bleeding, carrying three bullets in his head and limbs, the prisoner Guard walked in with the revolver in his hand.

To be Controlled by a New American Beef Trust.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—The Post says:—Plans practically are complete for the merging of the interests of the firms that comprise the so-called "beef trust." Unless something unforeseen arises, April 1st will see the official announcement of the incorporation of a securities-holding company which may eventually control the meat trade of the world. Unlike the popular idea of the packers' merger, however, for the time being it is not to embrace everything in sight, nor is it to be capitalized at $500,000,000, as announced for the United States Packing Company. Further, the plans contemplate no friction with the Federal Courts, because of the recent decision by Judge Grosscup against the packing house combination. The nucleus of the great combination of world-wide interests is to be the merger of the smaller independent plants, bought last year by the big packers preparatory to the general merger planned at that time. The securities to be held by the new corporation are those of the G. H. Hammond Packing Company, the Omaha Packing Company, the Anglo-American Flour Company, the St. Louis Beef Company, and the United Dressed Beef Company, and possibly several of the outside stock yards now controlled by Chicago interests. Chicago will be the headquarters of the combination, but as far as the public is concerned there will be no immediate change in the operation of the individual plants under the new regime. The capitalization is not definitely known.

SISTER OF THE KHEDIVE.

Took Poison, Got Divorced, About to Wed Again.

New York, Feb. 24.—Princess Djemil Toussoun, sister of the Khedive and wife of Prince Djemil Toussoun, recently made an unsuccessful attempt at self-destruction by taking poison, says The Herald's Cairo correspondent. The act is said to have been prompted by jealousy. The Princess subsequently left Egypt on board one of the royal yachts, refusing to see her husband. Her Highness went by way of Trieste to Vienna, where it is said she is about to wed an Austrian Count. A divorce has already been granted.

A Prominent Labor Man of Toronto Speaks of the Great Benefit He Received Through the Use of O. R. Kidney Cure.

Toronto, Nov. 16, 1902.

To the O. R. Medicine Co., Limited:

Gentlemen,—I certainly owe you a letter of thanks for the benefit I have received through the use of your O. R. Kidney Cure and Liver Pills. I am a carpenter, and have been greatly handicapped in my work through being troubled with lame back and sore kidneys. I doctored without receiving any benefit, and would be compelled to quit work for a week at a time. I was very bad, and could hardly walk when I heard of the O. R. Kidney Cure. I procured a bottle and in less than one hour after taking the first dose I was relieved of the pain, and in three days I was at work, and have been at work every day since. I followed up the Kidney Cure by the use of the O. R. Liver Pills, taking one after dinner, and have never felt better than at the present time. I believe that I am permanently cured.

Sincerely yours,
M. A. MERRITT,
1227 Queen St.

O.R. Kidney Cure will cure all diseases of the kidneys and rheumatism. For sale by druggists; 50c per bottle, or by mail, postage free,

HANGING WALL PAPER

Is quite as much our business as is selling it.

Decorating is very much our business—Our decorator is capable of designing and drafting any decorative work you may require and equally capable of executing the work designed.

Painting—graining—paper hanging and decorating is one of our important branches, ask for prices, estimates, specifications and drawings of your own rooms in color.

Our prices are as reasonable as our work is superior.

Here Is Your Opportunity

Yours for the asking and a little more.

Before taking stock February 28 we wish to close out a goodly portion of our much too heavy stock of Fancy Goods—comprising China, Art Pottery, Brass Goods, Lamps, Vases, Candlesticks, Candle shades. Pictures, Jardinieres, Leather Goods, etc.

We will make the inducement doubly tempting that all who wish may have and may buy abundantly.

To this end we open fire with the publication of this advertisement and offer all Fancy goods at the mammoth discount of 30 per cent. from regular prices.

This means $10 of goods for........................ $7
$1 of goods for........................ 70c

YES, and we will go one better—Will give you 40 per cent. off if you accept a due bill for the discount, same due bill being good at any time for any goods in our store, including Wall Papers, Picture Framing, Paper Hanging, Stationery, Books, etc. This means 10 dollars of goods for 6 dollars.

AGAIN—to this sale we add the balance of our 1902 wall paper stock at the same discounts—30 per cent. regular.
40 per cent. due bill.

We mean in this way to close out every roll of last year's papers, and have nothing but 1903 papers for our customers.

The Old D. S. B. G.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer.:

My Dear Sir,—There is a forlorn and melancholy place presided over by the goddess of despair, "The Dundas Street burying ground."

Beneath those rugged elms, that yew trees shade,
Where heaves the turf in many a
mouldering heap,
Each in his narrow cell for ever laid,
The rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep.

Perhaps in this neglected spot is laid
Some heart once pregnant with celestial fire;
Hands that the rod of Empire might have swayed
Or wak'd to ecstacy the living lyre.

Yet ev'n these bones from insult to protect
Some frail memorial still erected
nigh,
With uncouth rhymes, and shapeless
sculpture decked,
Implores the passing tribute of a sigh—

Among the tangled grass and weeds there are not even "frail memorials" erected over these forgotten graves. Vagrant cows violate the sanctity of "God's acre," and broken, crumbling cenotaphs attest the crassest negligence and utter disregard of all that is suitable and proper for such a sacred spot. Mr. O'Flynn's class, having secured an excellent musical organization for to-night, with the object of raising funds to make this "howling waste" into a park, which we trust will be a "thing of beauty and a joy forever," should have the patronage of our citizens.

Truly yours,
JOHN J. B. FLINT.

Nutrition For Nursing Mothers

Malt Breakfast Food

IS A MARVELLOUS STRENGTH-GIVER.

The large majority of our Canadian medical men are convinced that Malt Breakfast Food is the best morning diet for nursing mothers, as it provides a full measure of nutrition for the maintenance of health, strength and vigor. Malt Breakfast Food wonderfully increases the quality and flow of milk. Malt Breakfast Food is the most easily and most rapidly digested of all cereal foods, and no other so largely contributes to the health, comfort and happiness of mothers. Weak and frail women should use Malt Breakfast Food morning and night; it will quickly build them up, give them pure blood and a well-regulated nervous system. The Sun and Hastings Savings and Loan Company of Ontario.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Annual Meeting of this Company was held at the Head Office, Toronto, Feb. 16th. Among the Stockholders present were: Messrs. James Black, of Rockwood; H. D. Henderson, of Whitechurch; Geo. Robson, of Eglinton; Francis S. Wallbridge, of Belleville; Alex. C. Wilson, of Whitby; Dr. Chamberlain, Inspector of Prisons, Toronto; Sir Mackenzie Bowell, K.C.M.G., and Rev. Amos Campbell, Belleville.

The President, Whitford Vandusen, Esq., occupied the chair, and opened the meeting in the usual manner by reading the notice calling the same, after which the Manager, who was asked to act as Secretary, read the Financial Statement, from which statement the following extracts are taken:—

Total Assets as at 31st December, 1902	$1,001,825.00
Total Mortgage Loans and Real Estate	895,563.23
Total Subscribed Capital at close of the year	1,888,060.00
Paid-up Capital Stock at close of the year	787,650.39
Net earnings of the compay for the year (after providing for cost of management, salaries, advertising, commissions and other general expenses)	56,410.68
Reserve and Contingent Funds at close of year	31,904.34

A dividend of 6 per cent. per annum upon the Capital Stock for the year was paid in half-yearly instalments.

The President, in moving the adoption of the Report, referred to the amalgamation of the Hastings Loan and Investment Society of Belleville, and the Sun Savings and Loan Company, which took place during the year, the Company being now, "The Sun and Hastings Savings and Loan Company of Ontario," with Head Office in Toronto, and a Branch Office in Belleville, stating that this union of the two successful Companies made a very substantial, strong Company.

He referred to the general prosperity throughout the country in the past year, and said that this Company had reaped a large share of the advantages consequent upon such general prosperity.

He further made reference to the prompt and satisfactory manner that interest and principal payments on loans had been made by borrowers during the past year, an evidence that the Company's investments were safe, and of the very best character.

The motion for the adoption of the Report was seconded by Sir Mackenzie Bowell, who also referred to the Financial Statement as being a satisfactory one, emphasizing the importance of the growing Reserve Fund, and the valuable security this, with careful selection of mortgage loans, afforded to Depositors and Stockholders.

Remarks upon the report were also made by Ambrose Kent, Esq., Rev. Dr. Murdoch, of Simcoe; Col. Ponton, of Belleville, and others, expressive of general satisfaction with the Company's progress and its future outlook, all agreeing that never in its history were indications more encouraging than at the present time.

After the customary votes of thanks to the Board of Directors, Officers, General and Local Agents, the meeting proceeded to the election of the Board for the ensuing year, resulting as follows, with the officers elected at a subsequent meeting of the Board:—President, Whitford Vandusen, Esq.; Vice-President, Ambrose Kent, Esq.; General Manager, W. Pemberton Page, Esq.; H. Wilberforce Aikins, M.D., J. T. Gilmour, M.D., of Toronto, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, K.C.M.G., Rev. Amos Campbell, W. H. Biggar, K.C., Belleville, and W. J. Fawcett, Esq., Brigden; Solicitor, H. H. Dewart, K.C., Toronto, Branch Office, Belleville:—J. P. C. Phillips, Manager, and Wm. N. Ponton, Solicitor.

Baptist Church Meetings

An interesting series of meetings was commenced in the Baptist church last night by the Rev. Mr. Elliott. These will consist of Bible readings for Christians, on the fundamental truths of the Bible, taking up among others the subjects that have been discussed in the local papers in the last few weeks. Written questions may be sent in and will be answered. The meetings begin at 7.30 each evening and are open to all.

The Sunshine of True Health and Life After Sickness and Suffering

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

RESCUES A SUFFERER WHO WAS IN A PERILOUS CONDITION.

The liver, the largest and one of the most important organs of the body, is to thousands of young and old, a source of suffering. It has been truly said that a diseased liver means physical and mental tortures and dangers. The common symptoms of liver complaint are loss of appetite, nausea, vomiting, furred tongue, constipation, impure blood, headache, depression of spirits and a host of other evils.

Are you a victim of liver complaint? Do you experience any of the symptoms noted above? If so, do not fail to make immediate use of Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that directly strikes the root of the trouble, and that infuses new life into every inactive organ. Mrs. Rachel McRae, Guelph, Ont., cured by Paine's Celery Compound, writes thus:

"For nine years I had been troubled with liver complaint, and often had very bad spells from it. I called in a doctor, who relieved me, but I remained weak, and could neither eat or sleep, and suffered so much with my head that I procured a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had the contents used, I could eat and sleep well, and the pain in my head was gone. I took the second bottle, and have never been troubled with liver complaint since. Your Compound has built me up and completely cured me."

The world is sure to hear from the amateur cornet player.

Amusements

The "In Atlantic City" Company played to a small audience at the opera house last night, although it is an excellent organization, brim full of funny incidents and good singing and dancing; in fact it is somewhat on the lines of a musical comedy on a large scale, the choruses being tuneful and bright. Several pretty girls well costumed and half-costumed, add to the effect. Comedy runs throughout the piece, being chiefly hatched by H. F. Wills, a Dutch character. Mr. Richards appeared in the role of a soubrette and sung and danced as well as any female could. His toe, acrobatic, and serpentine dancing exhibitions were applauded. The company appear again to-night.

Bellevilles Showed the Marlboros a Trick or Two Last Night.

What did they do? What did they do?

They licked the Marlboros eight to two.

The Red and White Boys got into the game with both feet last night, and, to the intense delight of a tremendous crowd of cheering enthusiasts, both male and female, made the tricky and speedy visitors look like the time-honored thirty cents. It was no small job, mind you, to tackle a septette which had trimmed them 9—4 in the first game, and pull down that lead, afterwards winning out, but that was what Manager Burrell's men did, and did it in good old Bay of Quinte style, too. Great boys, the local team. If they had put up, in Toronto, such a game as they did last night—but there, everybody has an off day once in a while; the lads got back at the Toronto bunch last night and fairly played them off their feet. The result of the match was never in doubt, but it looked for a long time as though that awful lead was not going to be wiped out. It would have been a consolation to some people in the rink last night if they could have got within earshot of a few of those pirates in Toronto, who, on Thursday night last, when the game was over, gleefully shouted at us: "Say, Belleville, have you lost a game this year yet?" It's a good safe bet that those chaps were not nearly so demonstrative last night. To many people it may seem strange that the two teams showed such a decided reversal of form last night. Many things would have to be included in the explanation. For one thing, Belleville's real team was on the ice. Allen is a nice, clean hockey player, but he is not the equal of Marks. Then again, some of the lads were badly broken up last Thursday night, and a few others were suffering from what George Ade calls "Enlargiensis of the Coco." Confidence is a good thing, but anybody will tell you that too much of a good thing is bad. Then again, on Thursday night there was the big Mutual street rink, in which the Bellevilles felt like grasshoppers turned loose in a ten-acre lot, and then there were the jeers of the crowd, which, when our lads were behind, seemed to take the heart out of them. However, the licking seemed to do them good, for, though they brought home the short end of the score, they learned a few wrinkles up there in the way of checking back, which materially helped to defeat the Toronto men last night. Only one who saw both games could appreciate the difference. In Toronto, when the Marlboro forwards would break away with the puck, the Belleville forwards would skate after them in a perfunctory sort of way, which made their friends feel like swearing; last night, when the Marlboros tried a rush, the Belleville forwards checked back like a landslide, outskated the visitors and eight times out of ten took the puck away from them. And that beautiful combination of the White and Green Boys was pretty well coppered last night, for the Bellevilles skated into it and threw it up into the air. As a matter of fact the Marlboros were not in it. Their defence was a mark, and their goal-keeper a delusion. There was no comparison between he and Winchester. The Marlboro forwards were just as fast and tricky as they were on Thursday, but Referee Telfer declined to let the centre man beat the bell like he did in Toronto, and, though he allowed Ferguson to loaf about ten yards off-side about half the time, it did them no good. The smaller rink, the square corners and the slower ice may have had something to do with the defeat of the visitors, but they were not the real reasons; the real reasons for their defeat were seven husky young fellows dressed in red and white, with a large-sized "B" on their breasts, who played hockey as it was never played in Belleville before, and gallantly and fairly earned their victory. And just here the writer may be pardoned while he digresses long enough to gently murmur, "We told you so." And it is up to many Toronto sporting writers to take back one or two things they said after last Thursday night's game; also the green-eyed monster on the Kingston Whig, who gleefully wrote that "The glory of an over-rated team had departed." Back to the timber land, Reuben! To their credit, be it said, the sporting men of Port Hope had kind words for our boys in their temporary disaster; but it is up to a select crowd of Jonahs in this city to bag their heads and go away back, etc. However, with the flag of victory floating we can let by-gones be by-gones. Pat the boys on the back when you meet 'em. They're the Real Article, and any intermediate team which can beat them in home and home games is fairly entitled to the championship. And now, after these few preliminary remarks, let's get down to the game. At 8:10 o'clock, when the Bellevilles came out, the rink held a record crowd. Every reserved seat was sold and occupied, there was a jam of ladies and gentlemen everywhere else where people could see. The band was livening things up, and wherever you looked the red and white ribbons were in sight. One by one the locals came out, and each one in turn was greeted with a prolonged roar of applause. Marks, the clever and hardy left wing, got an exceptionally warm reception. The crowd evidently had not lost confidence in their favorites. Then came the Marlboros, and they also got a warm reception. The spare man of the visitors was no less a personage than the younger brother of our star goal-keeper, Winchester. He is a member of the junior Marlboros. Great hockey family, the Winchesters. Both teams wore an air of quiet confidence, and both seemed in fine form. The ice was good, but it cut up a lot when the game began. Just before the face Referee Telfer came over to Manager Burrell and announced that the visitors had protested Marks on the ground of professionalism. "All right," said Mr. Burrell, "let them protest." The referee handed over his Derby hat for safe-keeping, and the best game of hockey ever played in Belleville was on, the boys facing each other in this way:

Marlboro Goal
Gorrie
Bellrose
C. Earls
J. Earls
Ferguson Birmingham Reid
o
Kennedy McGuire Marks
Burrows
Brown
Wallace
Winchester
Belleville goal

The game started at 8.28, and in less than a minute Marks had put his check into the fence. A minute's rest made him all right, and they were off again harder than ever. It was a lightning game, and the eye could hardly follow the movements of the puck. It was soon seen that the Belleville forwards had come out of their trance, and were showing their true form. The speedy Mr. Birmingham and his merry men had bumped against a different proposition to that which they encountered on Mutual St. Belleville went down and nearly scored. Bellrose lifted the puck back, and the White and Green forwards went down like a flash. But Brown and Wallace met them like a stone wall. A Marlboro man went down and the referee ruled Wallace off for tripping. The play, however, did not get beyond centre, and the Belleville forwards were surely outplaying the visitors, even though they had only six to seven. A young gentleman in the grand stand, whose principal characteristics were a bunch of Marlboro colors and an English accent, could be heard above all the din: "Go on Mahlboros," he said, "you're all right, Mahlboros." Wallace came on again, and there was some fierce body-checking on both sides. The visitors, though lighter in weight, were cheerfully mixing it up, and by the same token, were seemingly quite holding up their ends. Then the play went into Marlboro territory, and their net had many close calls. "The boys are playing all round them," said the writer to Harry Burrell. So they are," was the terse reply, "but they're not getting goals, and they are what we want." The remark contained much truth. However, if the lads kept up their gait, goals were sure to come. A Marlboro man went down from a body check, bumping his eye on the ice. While the players gathered round him, Kennedy came over and told Manager Burrell that his skate was broken. The referee gave him a little time to put on a new one, the injured Marlboro man going off to keep his company. The game went on with six men a side. A visitor went off for tripping Brown, and from the ensuing face Belleville scored, by a beautiful pass from Burrows to McGuire. Time, 12 minutes. They were off again, and Sandy went to the fence for slashing. However, Belleville still kept up their attack, and from a scrimmage in front of goal Belleville scored another. Time, 3 minutes, and the lead had come down to three. The applause was loud enough to be heard in the D. and D. Institution. Kennedy and the Marlboro man with the bad eye came on again, and from a side shot Kennedy put the puck through the Marlboro net, but the umpire, a Toronto man, would not allow it. The umpire was removed, and the game went on. The third game was scored by the locals, right after the face, by a splendid bit of passing. Score 3-0. On the next face the Red and White forwards carried the rubber right down and scored in about ten seconds. The enemy were only one ahead on the round, and everybody cheered as though they would never need their voices any more. Ladies and all joined in. Every time there was a lull in the cheering the voice of the little Toronto man could be heard, "Go on Mahlboros, you're all right, Mahlboros." They were off again, and the Bellevilles were playing the speedy visitors right off their feet. And oh, boys! the locals were putting up the game of their lives. Every man in his place, not one of them weakening. Kennedy and Marks were following up in the most dashing way imaginable. To the hard, fast, fearless game put up by those two lads Belleville owes much of the victory gained last night. It was a sight for sore eyes to see them rush down and check the Marlboro defence. No better work has ever been seen on local ice. At the same time McGuire and Burrows were playing right up to form—everybody knows what that means. The Marlboros were fighting desperately, but at last Sandy Burrows got clear, dodged the visitors' cover point, and sent in a cannon ball shot which went by Gorrie's right leg into the net. The lead had been overcome, and if ever you saw a wild lot of people. Men and women stood up and shouted and waved their ribbons, while every once in a while could be heard the cry of our friend from Toronto (his voice was getting a bit shaky though) "Go on Mahlboros; you're all right, Mahlboros." One couldn't help admiring the little man's faith. Half-time came, and the boys went off for a well-earned rest. The situation was now easily sized up. Both teams were now even on the round, and if the locals could keep up the pace they were dead sure of winning. So far the brilliant Marlboro combination had been effectively coppered. Could the Red and White boys keep up their fast clip? We should soon see.

The second half started at 9.20, and for a while the visitors showed a burst of their speed shown at home. They scored in one minute, in which time Belleville didn't have a look-in at all. Again they pressed the Belleville defence, and "Winnie" turned aside several dangerous shots. Suddenly there was a change. The Red and White forwards broke away. Look at 'em come! Three abreast. A beautiful piece of combination, and Belleville had scored again. Score on the round 10-10. It was a bad place for anybody troubled with heart disease. A Marlboro man went to the fence for tripping McGuire, and the next minute another went to see the timekeepers for tripping Kennedy. The visitors were not playing so clean a game as they did in Toronto. There was an attack on the Belleville goal, and Wallace got a rest for tripping. The puck was lifted by Brown right on to the Marlboro goal, and Gorrie batted it out. Birmingham collared it off-side, and the referee ordered a face in front of Marlboros' goal. McGuire drew, passed to Burrows, and Sandy scored. Score on the round, 11-10, with the locals in the lead. They were off again, and Birmingham was given a rest for tripping, being shortly afterwards followed by Wallace. There was five minutes to play, and the visitors were working desperately. Marks went down from a combined trip and cross check, the Marlboro who did it being sent to the fence, while Marks went to the dressing room to recuperate. He came back in a couple of minutes, and Belleville scored right after the face. Score on the round, 12-10. There were only a couple of minutes left to play, and the visitors were wickedly aggressive. They rushed the puck down on top of Winchester, he knocked it out, and then there was an off side face right in front of Belleville's goal. The visitors' centre beat the bell, and in about one second the puck was in Belleville's net. Score on the game 8-2, on the round 12-11, and that was the way it ended. When the bell rang for time the spectators jumped the fence and carried off Winchester on their shoulders. It was a deliriously happy crowd, and with reason, for had not their favorites upset the calculations of a whole lot of sporting "authorities" in Toronto, and beaten the fastest and trickiest visiting team ever seen here? Yes, verily!

Caught in the Net.

Brown played a star game, and was not ruled off once during the match. Put a mark on the ceiling.

The Marlboros are a fine lot of players, but they should not have played the "tin horn" protest game. Why can't they take their medicine like sportsmen?

Our old college chums, the Kingston Ramblers, sent the following message to Manager Burrell: "Hearty congratulations from your old friends the Ramblers. Go on and win out."

Mayor Boulter, of Picton, sent his hearty congratulations to the Red and White Boys.

The officials were: Timekeepers, for Belleville Geo. Dulmage, for Marlboros W. Hewitt of The Star; goal umpires, for Belleville W. Hartford, for Marlboros Messrs. Waghorn and Smith.

The Marlboros were a surprised lot of lads. They thought Belleville might win the match, but the idea of them capturing the round never entered the heads of the gentlemen from the Queen City.

The trouble with the Marlboro defence was that they couldn't defend anything, while Belleville's defence played in a manner which (except in one or two instances) left nothing to be desired.

"Paderewski" McGuire kept his curls under his cap last night. But he got there, just the same. You can't keep the auburn-haired people down.

The nonsensical protest against Marks makes one feel sorry for the Marlboros. After the O.H.A. has allowed him to play all season it is foolishness to talk of protesting him now.

Keep up the good work, boys. The pace you set last night will land the O.H.A. championship, and that's no joke.

When last seen, the little Toronto man with the English accent was tearing his hair and muttering feebly, "Go on Mahlboros; you're all wrong, Mahlboros."

One of the Belleville defence men indulges too much in tripping. There is no necessity for it, and he weakens the team greatly when he goes off. Get down to business, old man. Tend to your knitting and play the game. We all know you can do it.

S. O. S. Enjoy Themselves

Mr. McDowall, D.D.G.C. of the Sons of Scotland, paid a visit to Camp Rob Roy, S.O.S., last night, and spoke to the brethren very flattering words about the flourishing condition of the order. After routine business refreshments were served. Those present spent an hour very pleasantly. John McIntosh was appointed delegate to Grand Camp, which meets in June at Brantford.

City Council in Regular Session

ALDERMEN PUT IN A TIRESOME EVENING PASSING LOCAL IMPROVEMENT DEBENTURE BY-LAWS.

The City Council had a long session last night, the principal business transacted being the passing of eight local improvement debenture by-laws.

The only absentee was Ald. Cooper, who is laid up with sciatica.

After the minutes had been confirmed the City Clerk read the following

Communications

From City Solicitor Masson, stating that he had written Mr. Aylsworth, County Clerk, in relation to the county drain on Campbell St., and had received a reply to the effect that the County Council would see to the matter in the spring.

From Mr. S. K. Jones, secretary of the Department of Railways and Canals, acknowledging the Council's memorial re the Trent Valley Canal.

Reports of Committees.

The reports of the various committees, as already published, were read and adopted, Ald. McFee being Chairman in Committee of the Whole.

Introduction of By-laws.

Ald. Chown introduced eight by-laws to provide for the issuance of debentures to pay for local improvements of last year. The by-laws were read, passed and numbered, no less than three chairmen, being used, namely, Ald. Panter, Pope and Sulman. The by-laws were numbered from 1069 to 1076, inclusive.

Motions.

Ald. McFee moved, and Ald. Panter seconded, the following motion; "That the committee in charge of trimming shade trees within the city are hereby authorized to cut down and dispose of those trees marked for removal, except those trees that the property-owners have objected to having cut down.—Carried.

Ald. Pope introduced a notice of motion providing for the licensing of plumbers in the city.

It was 11 o'clock when the Council adjourned.

A $5.00 SUIT.

The Oak Hall will not sell a man's suit so low in price that it will not give satisfaction. Most suits you buy at $5.00 to fit a man are so poor that it does not pay to buy them. It does seem a low price, but if you have just this amount, and would like a suit, we would just like to show you the wonder we are offering for this small amount. Solid wool and good appearing.

An Enjoyable Social

There was a large attendance at a social and entertainment held last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ford, Murney St. An excellent programme was provided, which was, however, somewhat interfered with by the hockey match. Rev. Mr. Gilliland was chairman. Miss Jessie Robertson delighted the audience with her inimitable Scotch dialect recitations; the Misses McMurray sang a duet very sweetly, indeed; Miss Grace Huff, of Massassaga, gave two charming vocal numbers; little Miss Una Bell delighted the audience with "My Girl from Dixie"; Miss Pearl Thompson sang very pleasingly; Mr. Harry McKay's fine tenor voice was heard to much advantage in two splendid songs, and Rev. Mr. Gilliland sang, with fine effect, a sacred solo. After the programme was over the young folks enjoyed themselves with games, etc., for a couple of hours, all apparently spending a pleasant evening.

THE ICEBOUND STEAMERS.

Stanley Out of Sight—Minto Off King's Head.

New Glasgow, N. S., Feb. 24.—No progress has yet been made to relieve the Government S.S. Stanley. The S.S. Minto is fast in the ice a few miles off King's Head, Merigomish harbor, but the Stanley is now out of sight of land. It was thought that possibly coal might be hauled out to the Stanley in teams from Little Harbor, but the idea was found impracticable. Captain Walsh of Charlottetown, with a lifeboat crew, is now at Pictou, and it is proposed that an attempt to reach the Stanley shall be made from Bailey's Brook, fifteen or twenty miles further east. The lifeboat will be taken by train to Avondale Station, on the Intercolonial, and thence by teams seven miles to the shore at Bailey's Brook. If Capt. Walsh establishes communication with the Stanley from Bailey's Brook, an effort will be made to coal her from that point. The attempt to reach her will be attended with great difficulties. The ice is rough and in some places piled fifteen feet high. The snow, which has just fallen, will fill up the crevices, and make ice-travelling difficult and dangerous.

NUCLEUS OF CANADIAN PACIFIC ATLANTIC FLEET.

Official Announcement—Price Paid For Steamers Not Made Public—Deal May Affect Fast Line Contract.

Montreal, Feb. 24.—The Canadian Pacific Railway has completed the negotiations with the Elder-Dempster Company for the acquisition of an Atlantic fleet, and Sir Thomas Shaughnessy was able to announce the purchase of fourteen vessels. The service itself, Sir Thomas said, would be both passenger and freight, and the transaction has been completed entirely without regard to the question of a Government subsidy. Among the other details which have yet to be arranged is that of remuneration by the Government for the carrying of the mails, which comes within the scope of the operations of the passenger steamers.

When asked about the price paid for the fleet, Sir Thomas said he would rather that information came from Sir Alfred Jones, the Chairman of the Elder-Dempster Company. Despatches from London stated that the price has not been disclosed there yet, but it is understood to be about $7,500,000. It is reported in Montreal that the price per ton was about one-third less than was paid by Mr. Morgan for the steamships in his combine.

The deal was put through in London by Mr. Arthur Piers, General Superintendent of the steamship department of the company, who has been on the other side for two months, and who is also arranging for the building of three passenger boats of 10,000 tons each. These will, it is said, be built on the Clyde.

There will be no change in the ports of call of the purchased steamers at present.

The following are some of the details of the steamers purchased:

MONTEAGLE: Twin screw; built in 1901; gross tonnage, 8,852 tons; dead weight, 10,000 tons; built by Swan & Hunter; passenger boat.

LAKE MICHIGAN: Twin screw; built in 1902; gross tonnage, 7,000 tons; dead weight, 10,480 tons; built by Swan & Hunter; freight boat.

MONTREAL: Twin screw; built in 1900; gross tonnage, 6,870 tons; dead weight, 10,622 tons; built by Swan & Hunter; freight boat.

LAKE CHAMPLAIN: Twin screw; built in 1900; gross tonnage, 6,546 tons; dead weight, 7,750 tons; built by Barclay Curle; passenger boat.

LAKE ERIE: Twin screw; built in 1900; gross tonnage, 7,550 tons; dead weight, 7,750 tons; built by Barclay Curle; passenger boat; fitted with cold-storage.

MILWAUKEE: Single screw; built in 1897; gross tonnage, 7,310 tons; dead weight, 11,800 tons; built by Swan & Hunter; freight boat.

MONTEREY: single screw; built in 1898; gross tonnage, 5,443 tons; dead weight, 6,185 tons; built by Palmers; freight boat; fitted with cold storage.

MONTCALM: single screw; built in 1897; gross tonnage, 5,466 tons; dead weight, 8,220 tons; built by Palmers; freight boat; fitted with cold-storage.

MOUNT ROYAL: single screw; built in 1898; gross tonnage, 7,044 tons; dead weight, 11,150 tons; built by Swan & Hunter; freight boat.

MONTFORD: twin screw; built in 1899; gross tonnage, 5,481 tons; dead weight, 7,910 tons; built by Palmers; passenger boat; fitted with cold-storage.

MONTROSE: single screw; built in 1897; gross tonnage, 5,431 tons; dead weight, 8,000 tons; built by Sir Raylton Dixon; passenger boat; fitted with cold-storage.

MONTEZUMA: twin screw; built in 1899; gross tonnage, 7,345 tons; dead weight, 10,900 tons; built by A. Stephen; freight boat.

MOUNT TEMPLE: twin screw; built in 1901; gross tonnage, 7,656 tons; dead weight, 11,146 tons; built by Armstrong Whitworth; freight boat.

Sir Thomas was asked whether any faster passenger steamers than those included in the list would be likely to be built for the company. "The present purchase," he replied, "is simply the nucleus of a fleet."

The introduction of the C.P.R. as such an important factor in the Atlantic trade naturally causes the deepest interest among the existing shipping companies, though their opinions vary widely as to the effect. A special cable states that The Pall Pall Gazette discusses the purchase from the point of view of the shipping interests, and says:—"It is generally regarded as a serious blow to independent Canadian shipping, for nearly the whole North Atlantic trade will be dominated by American railway companies. The Canadian Pacific is expected to indulge in the policy of wholesale rate-cutting, against which competition will be useless. The first result undoubtedly will be the retirement of the Elder-Dempster Line from the regular Canadian trade, and the partial, though perhaps only temporary, withdrawal of other vessels."

On the other hand, Mr. H. Montagu Allan of the Allan Line, when told of the announcement, and of the comment thereon by the London paper, said:—"I fail to see how the fast line contract is affected. So far as we are concerned, it does not change our position in the least.

Mr. John Torrance, representative of the Dominion Line, and now General Agent for Canada of the Morgan Syndicate of steamships, when told of the purchase and the price paid, said:—"The price is a very good one, but I suppose the Canadian Pacific knew what it was about."

"What will be the probable effect on the fast-line contract?"

"Oh, I suppose they will get that, too. I presume the sale of their best boats means that the Elder-Dempster Company will go out of the Canadian business altogether. The Canadian Pacific people, with the influence and advantages at their disposal, will then certainly acquire the whole Canadian trade, and it will be a foregone conclusion that they will capture the fast-line contract with the rest."

"A MOB OF VOLUNTEERS."

Mr. Brodrick's View of the Citizen Army.

London, Feb. 24.—During Mr. Brodrick's reply in the House of Commons to critics of his army reform scheme he ridiculed the suggestion that Great Britain could depend on her citizen army, which he described "as a mob of volunteers," and pleaded to be given time to carry out his army corps scheme, as the result of which "the army, for the first time in living memory, is above its supposed full strength in every branch except the infantry."

"MUSCLES IN KNOTS"

Joints all stiffened and swollen—dagger-like pains, sufferings that no man can describe—this is the experience of thousands of Rheumatism's victims.

Do you know that there isn't a case, no matter how acute or how long standing, that South American Rheumatic Cure will not relieve almost in a trice and work a permanent cure. Its action on a system so disordered is marvellous. It works quickly, quietly, effectually and harmlessly, and leaves no bad after effects. It does not cure all diseases, but it does cure rheumatism. 22

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

Mr. Chamberlain's Return.

London, Feb. 25. — Mr. Chamberlain will leave Cape Town for England to-day. The Cape Town correspondent of The Morning Post telegraphs in reference to Mr. Chamberlain's tour that the feeling of security in Cape Colony is greater than it has been at any time since the Jameson raid. The Standard's special correspondent in South Africa understands that Mr. Chamberlain will recommend a general amnesty for the rebels, but not their re-enfranchisement.

BIG STRIKE PROBABLE.

TROUBLE OVER EMPLOYMENT OF A MILITIAMAN.

Served With His Regiment During a Strike—His Discharge From Work is Demanded.

Schenectady, N.Y., Feb. 25.—The Building Trades Council, representing all men employed in any of the building trades, has made a demand upon Shaffer & Barry, the employers of William Potter, the militiaman expelled from the union because he served with his regiment during the Hudson Valley strike, for his discharge. The demand has been refused, and the Building Trades Council has decided that when the spring building season opens all union carpenters, painters, masons, lathers, plasterers, etc., will refuse to work on any building on which Potter has been employed. It is expected that the employers will stand together, especially since the formation of the Builders' Exchange, composed of all building trades employers, and the result will be to tie up operations. Over 3,000 men are involved, whose average wages are $2.50 a day.

The case of William Potter against Dennis Downey, President of the Painters' Union, has been set down for trial at the term of the Supreme Court to commence in this city on March 9. The original injunction, which was vacated by Justice Howard, was granted, pending this action.

A SERVANT GIRL'S BURDEN.

Her Mistress' Gowns, Jewels, Gold Watch and Silverware.

New York, Feb. 25.—When H. D. McKenzie, a wholesale liquor dealer, returned to his home, East 18th street, he was astonished to see a person whom he believed to be his wife standing in the hall. He expected she would be at a theatre, and he asked why she had returned so soon. The figure turned, and Mr. McKenzie recognized his colored servant, Annie Williams. "Why are you wearing my wife's hat and dress?" he asked the woman, and she replied, "I am going out for a walk." McKenzie says he summoned the janitor's wife, who took off the negress five silk skirts, three silk waists and the hat, all his wife's. Then came his wife's jewels, consisting of four diamond rings, valued at $500, a gold watch and other gems. From the woman's stocking came silver forks, knives, spoons and other tableware. The pockets of the skirts had been filled with silverware and household articles. The woman was turned over to the police.

TO ARGUE IN ENGLISH.

Procedure in Regard to Venezuelan Claims.

Washington, Reb. 25.—Minister Bowen has submitted the draft of the protocols, which he hopes will be signed by the allied powers, specifying the conditions under which The Hague Tribunal will be called upon to settle the question of preferential treatment in the payment of the Venezuelan indemnities, to Judge Penfield, solicitor of the State Department. The letter suggested a few changes. In its complete state the protocol, which will serve as a pattern for all three, has not yet been made public, but it is understood that, as one interesting feature it probably will provide for the conduct of the proceedings at The Hague in the English language. Mr. Bowen laid copies of these procócols before the allies' representatives this afternoon, and they were cabled to the respective Foreign Offices.

Mr. Bowen has proposed to the allied powers that the Czar of Russia be asked to name the three arbitrators who as The Hague tribunal shall decide the question of preferential treatment.

STRIKE CAUSES LOSSES.

Big Decrease in One Railway Company's Earnings.

New York, Feb. 25. — The stockholders of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad held their annual meeting here. All the directors and officers were re-elected. The annual report shows a decrease in gross earnings of $2,108,869, or 8.97 per cent., and in net earnings a decrease of $2,137,742, or 21.60 per cent., due to losses from the miners' strike. The report of President Truesdale says circumstances lead to the conclusion that the strike was incited by certain bituminous interests.

A HUMBUG AND SHAM.

MR. CHURCHILL'S OPINION OF ARMY REFORM PLAN.

Wanted to Know What Was to be Done With Three Army Corps.

London, Feb. 25.—During the debate on Mr. Brodrick's army reorganization plan Mr. Churchill declared that the whole army corps scheme was a "humbug and sham," and was only introduced with the object of militarizing England. He asked where the Government expected the three army corps intended for foreign service to operate. It was not in South Africa, and such a force was not needed on the Indian frontier, and they certainly could not contemplate the three army corps operating in Canada, for the United States was "no more prepared to invade Canada than Great Britain was prepared to invade the United States."

Mr. Churchill added, amid cheers:—"And long may that salutary neglect continue."

Premier Balfour, in winding up the debate for the Government, complimented Mr. Asquith on going to the heart of the question, namely, whether the army was too large and costly for the empire's needs. Of course, he said, the fleet stood first; but there were limits to the uses of the fleet. It was impossible to bring a war to an end with a fleet, which could not even strike a heavy blow at most enemies with which Great Britain might be engaged, without a strong attacking force of soldiers, and it would be folly to deprive the country of a means of offensive action in the event of an emergency. Mr. Balfour contended that three army corps were necessary for work outside the empire. They had to consider the defence of India. He regarded a war between Great Britain and Russia as in the highest degree improbable, but it was impossible to forget that the Indian frontier was the key of Great Britain's military position in the event of such a war, and, without being an alarmist, he wished to impress upon them that events moved rapidly in Central Asia. In conclusion, Mr. Balfour claimed that the Government deserved well of the country. The Government did not trim its sails to popular favor, and if the House desired an army on a scale that the Government thought inadequate the House must look to another Government.

The House finally rejected by 261 votes to 145, Mr. Beckett's amendment to the address, the terms of which were tantamount to a censure on the War Secretary, Mr. Brodrick. The division revealed fewer defections in the Unionist ranks than had been expected.

Lord Charles Beresford and several other Unionist members abstained from voting. Eighteen Unionist members, including Winston Churchill and Sir Gilbert Parker, voted against the Government. It is a curious circumstance that the amendment was rejected by precisely the same majority, 116, as Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's amendment on the same subject two years ago, but on that occasion the Nationalists supported the Liberal leader. The Government's normal majority is 205. Rumors that Mr. Brodrick will soon quit the War Office were again current in the lobbies to-night.

SIX BURNED TO DEATH.

Imprisoned in a Mail Car When it Caught Fire.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 25.—As the result of a head-on collision between a westbound passenger train and an eastbound freight train a mile or two east of Berea, Ohio, on the Big Four Railroad yesterday, four mail clerks were burned to death and several trainmen were more or less seriously hurt. The dead:—W. H. Blackwell, W. Kriesmann, T. W. Smiley, and L. W. Walworth, all of Cleveland, and two unknown men. All the injured are in a hospital in Cleveland.

The passenger train was well filled, and many of the passengers were school superintendents and teachers, on their way to Cincinnati to attend a meeting of school directors and teachers in that city. The unfortunate mail clerks were caught like rats in a trap within their car when it caught fire, and being locked in were unable to release themselves.

The injuries to the train crews consisted mostly of cuts and bruises and are not considered serious. All but two of the cars of the passenger train were destroyed by a fire which probably started from the overturning and explosion of oil lamps in the express and mail cars.

A bill appropriating $3,000 for a life-size statue of the late Frances E. Willard was passed by the Illinois Legislature. It will be placed in Statuary Hall at Washington.

Waterford's Heavy Loss.

Waterford, Feb. 24.—Fire broke out this morning about 5.30 in the Duncombe building, occupied by Hadden, tailor; Hill, butcher; Perkins, shoemaker, and the office of Marlatt & Duncombe. The building and contents were totally destroyed. The buildings south, owned by Mrs. J. P. Dean and Shibldrick & Colvers, hardware merchants, were also totally destroyed. Calley's, the shoeman's, premises were slightly damaged. Loss on block about $6,000; stock, about $10,000; partly covered by insurance.

DOMINION BYE-ELECTIONS.

CONSERVATIVES GAIN A SEAT IN NORTH GREY.

Liberals Retain Two Mountains and Terrebonne, Que.—Messrs. Thomson and Desjardins the Successful Candidates.

Owen Sound, Feb. 25.—A bye-election to fill the vacancy in the Dominion House caused by the death of Dr. E. H. Horsey took place in North Grey. Mr. Matthew Kennedy of Owen Sound, and the Conservative candidate, Mr. T. J. Thomson were the contestants. At the general election in 1900 Dr. Horsey polled 2,834, against 2,803 for his opponent, Mr. C. Gordon. To-day Mr. Thomson was elected by 217 majority, with six polls to hear from.

Following are majorities by townships:

Holland, one poll to hear from: Thomson's majority, 134.

Keppel, two polls to hear from: Thomson's majority, 8.

Sarawak, complete: Thomson's majority, 68.

Sullivan, complete: Thomson's majority, 68.

Owen Sound, town, complete: Total vote, Kennedy 945, Thomson 908; majority for Kennedy, 37.

Sydenham, 3 polls to hear from: Majority for Kennedy, 12.

Derby, complete: Majority for Kennedy, 12.

Total majority for Thomson, Conservative, 217.

Six polls to hear from will probably reduce this about 50.

Montreal, Feb. 25.—Corrected returns in Two Mountains show the election of Either, the Liberal candidate, by a majority of 128.

St. Jerome, Terrebonne, Que., Feb. 25.—The election in Terrebonne to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. Raymond Prefontaine, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who elected to sit for the County of Maisonneuve, resulted in the return of Dr. Desjardins, as follows, with St. Lucie to hear from:

Desjardins (Liberal) majorities: St. Jerome, town and parish, 223; St. Therese, 5; St. Agathe, 97; Cordan, 34; New Glasgow, 6; Ste. Anne des Plaines, 178.

Masson (Conservative) majorities: St. Janvier, 36; St. Jovite, 38; St. Adele, 41; St. Sauveur, 117; Piedmont, 9; Terrebonne, village, 10; St. Faustin, 5; Ste. Marguerite, 5.

Majority for Desjardins, 282.

FIRE AT ORANGEVILLE.

Several Fine Stores in Ashes—Hotel Damaged.

Orangeville, Feb. 25. — One of the most disastrous fires that has ever been witnessed in this town occurred at an early hour yesterday. From 2.30 until 9 o'clock the fire held high carnival, and as a result the fine buildings fronting on South Broadway, the main business street of the town, from Mills street east for fully 200 feet, are a mass of ruins. Tottering walls are all that remain of business places that a few hours ago were scenes of busy activity.

The fire originated in Jackson, Brett & Co.'s large hardware store, and was discovered between 2 and 3 o'clock. At that hour Mr. G. A. Holland, manager of the Bank of Commerce, while going along Broadway, on his way home from a meeting in the Town Hall, noticed smoke issuing from the store. Running across the street, he looked through the window, but although there was every evidence of intense heat, the flames were visible only in the workshop at the rear. Mr. Holland at once sounded the alarm, but had only left the window a couple of minutes when the force of the pent-up heat blew out the plate glass front. In an instant the whole interior was a mass of flames, and a little later the explosion of a quantity of gunpowder added to the fury of the devastating element.

J. E. Booth's liquor store and Mercer & Robinson's fine harness emporium, immediately east of the hardware store, were both on fire before the fire brigade got the hose playing. Mr. Robinson, a member of the latter firm, and family, who live in rooms over the store, had a narrow escape from death by suffocation. As it was, Mrs. Robinson was obliged to leave her room in her nightdress. With these two buildings afire, the firemen devoted their energies to saving the buildings on the east and west

The rear of the Grand Central Hotel on the east caught fire but the brigade was fortunately able to extinguish the flames before a deal of damage was done.

On the west they were not so successful and about 7 o'clock the fire found a lodgment in the roof of the Gordon House, a splendid three-story brick hotel, and in two hours the building was completely gutted from roof to cellar. The only place that escaped in the fire-swept area was Hugh Green's barber shop between the Gordon House and Brett's hardware store. Brick walls and an iron roof proved its salvation. By 9 o'clock the fire was under control and an hour later all danger to neighboring buildings had passed.

The total loss is estimated from $35,000 to $40,000. insurance so far as can be ascertained at present is as follows: Jackson, Brett & Co. Hardware stock, etc., $3,000, in the Equity Fire Insurance Company; T. T. King, on building $2,000, in Waterloo Insurance Company; J. L. Booth, liquor store stock, $1,750, in Royal, Orangeville.

$30,000 For Toronto Woman.

Toronto, Feb. 25. — Mrs. Lucy Young, who resides with her son, Mr. C. Young, at 120 Sherbourne street, has recently fallen heir to $30,000, on the death of her sister, Miss Kate Ohine, at North Adams, Mass. Of this $20,000 is in property and $10,000 in cash. Deceased was 60 years of age, and Mrs. Young was her only relative.

SHOT HIMSELF DEAD.

John Merritt Killed While Hunting in East Flamboro'.

Hamilton, Feb. 25. — Mr. John Merritt, a former restaurant man in this city also a teamster, was killed by the accidental discharge of his gun while going out rabbit-shooting in East Flamboro' yesterday. He was found dead in his sleigh. He was about 55 years of age, and had been living on a farm near Millgrove, East Flamboro'. The deceased was a brother-in-law of Mr. Wilber Snider of the T., H. & B. restaurant, this city. His wife was away from home when the fatality occurred.

BOY'S TERRIBLE CRIME.

Killed Father, Mother, Sister and Himself.

Frankfort, Ind., Feb. 25. — Earl Woods, the seventeen-year-old son of a prominent farmer, seven miles west of this city, yesterday murdered his father, shot and fatally wounded his mother and sister and then committed suicide. The motive for the crime is not known. After the shooting he went to the home of a neighbor and said that robbers had killed his father, mother and sister, and that he escaped after a running battle with the desperadoes. He apparently was greatly excited and said he was organizing a posse to pursue his father's slayers. He stopped at another house and told the same story. When questioned concerning the shooting the boy became confused and resented the inquisitiveness of the man to whom he told the story. He started away and disappeared behind a barn when a shot was heard. An investigation disclosed Earl dying with a bullet through his breast.

KILLED BY A FALL.

A Young Man Dropped Forty Feet From a Tree.

Tilbury, Feb. 25. — Albert Reaume, a young man, aged 20, residing on the St. Clair sideroad, Tilbury East, was killed yesterday by falling from the limb of a tree. He had climbed the tree, which was a large one, and had chopped off a hollow limb in which a coon was hidden, when the falling limb struck the one on which he was standing. He fell to the ground, a distance of forty feet, and was killed by the fall. The accident was witnessed by his little brother.

Toronto will do its best to keep Andrew Carnegie from dying rich, and will coyly hold out its hand for $350,000 of his money. Noble fellows, those Queen Cityites! It made their hearts bleed to think of the poor old grey-haired man, weeping because no one would take his filthy lucre!

One effect of the Cement Works construction, we hear, is that many laboring men are setting their faces towards Point Ann, and that farmers in this vicinity are beginning to understand some of the difficulties which beset the labor problem. Farm laborers are demanding $20 per month and board for a six month's engagement, and are rather independent, too.

It is now said that the Martineau defalcation in the Militia Department at Ottawa will reach $80,000. People may well ask what kind of supervision of public money is there in the Department?

The Treasurer of the County of Kent, Ontario, defaulted some time ago, and ran away, but was caught in Detroit and brought back. His defalcations amounted to $16,000 and he has been compounded on payment of $8,000, thus making $8,000 out of his swindle. The Councillors who compounded this theft should be made to pay the balance.

Senator Ellis, of St. John, N.B., proprietor and editor of the St. John's Globe, has dared to express an opinion of Blair and his "ways," for which Blair reads him out of the Grit party, and tells his admirers that "Senator Ellis was not adverse to accepting for his paper and himself the emolument coming from the party in power." This is Blair's ideal of political principle. The Globe gets some Government printing, and therefore should support the Government. Unfortunately that is the principle upon which the present Ministers govern.

A good deal is said just now about the decrease in the consumption of liquor. The latest Trade and Commerce returns for 1902 show that importations have been greater. Here are the figures:—

	Value.
1897	$1,207,545
1898	1,467,499
1899	1,720,548
1900	1,983,591
1901	2,166,589
1902	2,146,276

In the general prosperity of the country, of which we hear so much nowadays, what has the Fielding Tariff done for the furniture manufacturing industry? Latest returns show that our dealings with foreign furniture manufacturers during the past six years have been:

1897	$285,512
1898	282,565
1899	327,719
1900	395,509
1901	444,206
1902	489,306

A judicious Tariff would have decreased the importation of foreign furniture, and given the Canadian mechanic additional wealth.

THE SECRET OF HEALTH

IS PURE, RICH, RED BLOOD AND STRONG NERVES.

You can always tell anaemic men and women. They are pale, weak and languid—the victims of headaches and backaches, easily tired and always averse to exertion. They can't eat, or they can't digest what they do eat. Their unstrung nerves kill sleep; their temper is irritable, their vitality vanishes. And it all comes from poor blood and unstrung nerves. You can promptly banish anaemia by enriching your blood and toning up your nerves with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They bring good appetite, sound sleep, bright spirits and perfect health. They are incomparably the greatest health-giving medicine that science has yet discovered. All over the world, grateful people prove the truth of these statements. Miss A. M. Tuckey, Oxdrift, Ont., says:—"I do not know what would have become of me had it not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My blood seemed to have turned to water, and I was troubled with headaches, dizziness and general prostration. Eventually, I became so weak I could scarcely move about. I tried several medicines, but they did not help me. Then I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I soon began to find great benefit from them, and after taking them for a few weeks, all my old strength and health returned."

Don't waste time and money experimenting with other medicines, when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will surely make you well. You can get them from any dealer in medicine, or post paid, at 50c. per box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writing direct to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Losing Flesh

That means a low condition of health; the body is poorly nourished and thinness follows. The system is then susceptible to disease—any one of a number of ailments finds easy access. Get plump.

How? Scott's Emulsion.

Plumpness and health go together usually; it's safer to be plump anyway. And in Scott's Emulsion there are the very elements that make new flesh and repair wasting.

We call Scott's Emulsion a food-medicine because it does so much through nourishment. When there is a loss of flesh and wasting conditions exist it is an evidence of starved tissues and nerves; flesh and blood are hungry. They want the nourishment and food principles so perfectly blended in Scott's Emulsion.

The whole body soon feels the influence of the new force and a noticeable change for the better takes place at once. That is why Scott's Emulsion is so good for those who are losing flesh or suffering from any wasting disease.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

GLOBE CLOTHING HOUSE

Cut All To Pieces

A Great Wreck of Clothing Prices

Do you know the kind of Suits and Overcoats we will sell now for $7.50, they are the $9.00, $10.00 and $10.50 garments. Have you seen some friends wearing one of our $15 Suits and Overcoats which you admired, or did you buy one yourself a couple of months ago? You can get one now for $12 or some of them for $10.50. That's exactly what this sale gives you an opportunity to do, and it is your own fault if you don't do it. We can't afford to carry Winter goods over, so we would rather lose on them and let you make on them now. Oh, Yes! some storekeepers advertise cut prices all the year, lose money all the time, are in business for fun, etc., but we don't do it that way. Twice a year and for a few weeks each time, we can afford to and we do sacrifice profits.

This is our time to lose, as we want to make room for new Spring Goods which are arriving daily. Don't fail to take advantage of this situation.

PLANT PECULIARITIES.

The Reason Fruit Bushes and Vines Are Protected by Thorns.

Most persons think that the stem of a plant grows from the roots. On the contrary, the roots grow from the stem. In the case of a plant that dies down to the ground in autumn it is not the roots that send up a new stem in the spring, for a part of the true stem remains underground on the root crown, and from it grow up the bud bearing stems in the spring. When a seed germinates, it sends the light loving stem upward and the dark loving root downward.

Saw off part of a tree trunk and you will find a series of rings from the center to the bark, each ring marking a year of growth. But these rings indicate also which of the seasons through which the tree has lived were dry and which had plenty of rain. The rings are always of unequal width. The narrow ones represent dry seasons and the wide ones seasons when the conditions of growth were better by reason of plentiful rain.

Every rose has its thorn, and the same may be said of such fruits as blackberries, raspberries, etc., only they are not real thorns, but prickles, which strip off with the outer bark, while thorns will not strip off, being hardened, undeveloped branches.

But why do bushes and vines have prickles? Many people wonder at it, for they see no good reason for such a growth. But there is a reason, as there is in everything in nature. The prickles are given to them as a protection against plant eating animals. The stems have a pleasant, aromatic taste, and cows and sheep would be sure to eat them in winter, when they crave something fresh, if it were not for the prickles.

The Java Mangosteen.

"The most delicious of all the fruits of Java," writes a correspondent of the Pittsburg Dispatch, "is the mangosteen. For years an enormous reward awaited the man who would bring a basket to the court of Holland, but unfortunately the fruit is too perishable, and to taste it you must go to the country where it grows.

Incased in a hard purple shell, lined with an exquisite pink gauze, are a number of snow white sections something like those of an orange, only each one growing smaller as they round the core. Each section contains one seed incased in a substance like the pulp of the grape. To describe the flavor would be impossible, but if you can imagine a perfect blending of the flavor of the grape, orange, pineapple and banana you may have a notion of the delicious flavor of the mangosteen."

Purified ✻ ✻ by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES,

The coffee-urn was Katy's, so was the tea-kettle and the massive pitcher, but the rest was "ours," Aunt Betsy complacently reflected as she contemplated the glittering array, and then hurried off to see what was burning on the stove, stumbling over Morris as she went, and telling him "he had come too soon—it was not fittin' for him to be there under foot until he was wanted."

Without replying directly to Aunt Betsy, Morris knocked with a vast amount of assurance at a side-door, which opened directly, and Katy's glowing face looked out, and Katy's voice was heard, saying joyfully:

"Oh, Morris, it's you. I'm so glad you've come, for I wanted ——"

But what she wanted was lost to Aunt Betsy by the closing of the door, and Morris and Katy were alone in the little sewing room where latterly they had passed so many quiet hours together, and where lay the bridal dress with its chaste and simple decorations. Katy had clung tenaciously to her mourning robe, asking if she might wear black, as ladies sometimes did. But Morris had promptly answered no. His bride, if she came to him willingly, must not come clad in widow's weeds, for when she became his wife would cease to be a widow.

And so black was laid aside, and Katy, in soft tinted colors, with her bright hair curling on her neck, looked as girlish and beautiful as if in Greenwood there were no pretentious monument, with Wilford's name upon it, nor any little grave in Silverton where Baby Cameron slept. She had been both wife and mother, but she was quite as dear to Morris as if she had never borne other name than Katy Lennox, and as he held her for a moment to his heart he thanked God who had at last given him the idol of his boyhood and the love of his later years. Across their pathway no shadow was lying, except when they remembered Helen, on whom the mantle of widowhood had fallen just as Katy was throwing it off.

Poor Helen! the tears always crept to Katy's eyes when she thought of her, and now, as she saw her steal across the road and strike into the winding path which led to the pasture where the pines and hemlock grew, she nestled closer to Morris, and whispered:

"Sometimes I think it wrong to be so happy when Helen is so sad. I pity her so much to-day."

And Helen was to be pitied, for her heart was aching to its very core. She had tried to keep up through the preparations for Katy's bridal, tried to seem interested and even cheerful, while all the time a hidden agony was tugging at her heart, and life seemed a heavier burden than she could bear.

All her portion of the work was finished now, and in the balmy brightness of that warm April afternoon she went into the fields where she could be alone beneath the soft summer-like sky and pour out her pent-up anguish into the ear of Him who had so often soothed and comforted her when other aids had failed. Last night, for the first time since she had heard the dreaded news, she had dreamed of Mark, and when she awoke she still felt the pressure of his lips upon her brow, the touch of his arm upon her waist, and the thrilling clasp of his warm hand as it pressed and held her own. But that was a dream, a cruel delusion, and its memory made the more dark and dreary as she went slowly up the beaten path, pausing once beneath a chestnut tree and leaning her throbbing head against the shaggy bark as she heard in the distance the shrill whistle of the downward train from Albany, and thought as she always did when she heard that whistle: "Oh, if that heralded Mark's return, how happy I should be." But many sounds like that had echoed across the Silverton hills, bringing no hope to her, and now as it again died away in the Cedar Swamp, she pursued her way up the path till she reached a long white ledge of rocks—"The lovers' Rock," some called it, for village boys and maidens knew the place, repairing to it often, and whispering their vows beneath the overhanging pines, which whispered back again, and told the winds the story which though so old is always new to her who listens and to him who tells.

Just underneath the pines there was a large flat stone, and there Helen sat down, gazing sadly upon the valley below, and the clear water of Fairy Pond gleaming in the April sunshine which lay so warmly on the grassy hills and flashed so brightly upon the cupola at Linwood where the national flag was flying. For a time Helen watched the banner as it shook its folds to the breeze, then as she remembered with what a fearful price that flag had been saved from dishonor, she hid her face in her hands and sobbed bitterly.

"God help me not to think I paid too dearly for my country's rights. Oh, Mark, my husband, I may be wrong, but you were dearer to me than many, many countries, and it is hard to give you up—hard to know that the notes of peace which float up from the South will not waken you in that grave which I can never see. Oh, Mark, my darling, my darling, I love you so much, I miss you so much, I want you so much. God help me to bear. God help to say: 'Thy will be done.'"

She was rocking to and fro in her grief, with her hands pressed over her face and for a long time she sat thus, while the sun crept on farther towards the west, and the freshened breeze shook the tasseled pine above her head and kissed the bands of rich brown hair, from which her hat had fallen. She did not heed the lapse of time, nor hear the footstep coming up the pathway to the ledge where she was sitting, the footstep which paused at intervals, as if the comer were weary, or in quest of some one, but which at last came on with rapid bounds as an opening among the trees showed where Helen sat. It was a tall young man who came, a young man sun-burned and scarred, with uniform soiled and worn, but with the fire in his brown eyes unquenched, the love in his true heart unchanged, save as it was deeper, more intense for the years of separation, and the long, cruel suspense, which was all over now. The grave had given up its dead, the captive was released, and through incredible suffering and danger had reached his Northern home, had sought and found his girl-wife of a few hours, for it was Mark Ray speeding up the path, and holding back his breath as he came close to the bowed form upon the rock, feeling a strange throb of awe when he saw the mourning dress, and knew it was worn for him. A moment more, and she lay in his arms; white and insensible, for with the sudden winding of his arms around her neck, the pressure of his lips upon her cheek, the calling of her name, and the knowing it was really her husband, she had uttered a wild, impassioned cry, half of terror, half of joy, and fainted entirely away, just as she did when told that he was dead! There was no water near, but with loving words and soft caresses Mark brought her back to life, raining both tears and kisses upon the dear face which had grown so white and thin since the Christmas eve when the wintry starlight had looked down upon their parting. For several moments neither could speak for the great choking joy which wholly precluded the utterance of a word. Helen was the first to rally. With her head lying in Mark's lap and pillowed on Mark's arm, she whispered:

"Let us thank God together. You, too, have learned to pray."

Reverently Mark bent his head to hers, and the pine boughs overhead heard, instead of mourning notes, a prayer of praise, as the reunited wife and husband fervently thanked God, who had brought them together again.

Not until nearly a half hour was gone, and Helen had begun to realize that the arm which held her so tightly was genuine flesh and blood, and not mere delusion, did she look up into the face, glowing with so much of happiness and love. Upon the forehead, and just beneath the hair, there was a savage scar, and the flesh about it was red and angry still, showing how sore and painful it must have been, and making Helen shudder as she touched it with her lips, and said:

"Poor, darling Mark! that's where the cruel ball entered, but where is the other scar—the one made by the man who went to you in the fields. I have tried so hard not to hate him for firing at a fallen foe."

"Rather pray for him, darling. Bless him as the saviour of your husband's life, the noble fellow but for whom I should not have been here now, for he was a Unionist, as true to the old flag as Abraham himself," Mark Ray replied; and then, as Helen looked wonderingly at him, he laid her head in an easier position upon his shoulder, and told her a story so strange in its details, that but for the frequent occurrence of similar incidents, it would be pronounced wholly unreal and false."

Of what he suffered in the Southern prisons he did not speak, either then or ever after, but began with the day when, with a courage born of desperation, he jumped from the moving train and was shot down by the guard. Partially stunned, he still retained sense enough to know when a tall form bent over him, and to hear the rough but kindly voice which said:

"Play 'possum, Yank. Make b'lieve you're dead, and throw 'em off the scent."

This was the last he knew for many weeks, and when again he woke to consciousness he found himself on the upper floor of a dilapidated hut, which stood in the centre of a little wood, his bed a pile of straw, over which was spread a clean patch-work quilt, while seated at his side, and watching him intently, was the same man who had bent over him in the field, and shouted to the rebels that he was dead.

"I shall never forget my sensations then," Mark said, "for with the exception of this present hour, when I hold you in my arms, and know the danger is over, I never experienced a moment of greater happiness and rest than when, up in that squalid garret, I came back to life again, the pain in my head all gone, and nothing left save a delicious feeling of languor, which prompted me to lie quietly for several minutes, examining my surroundings, and speculating

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the billiousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 68 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

When one gets hopping mad his reason goes on a crutch.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These comes from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

If thy friend is honey, do not lick him up altogether.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Wedding rings in St. Kilda used to be made of worsted.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body gives up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

A woman never knows where the match box is.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. A Savings Bank.

Putting your money in a Savings Bank is next best to putting it in one of our suits or overcoats. You draw interest on the former; you draw satisfaction and comfort from what you buy here, because it is always the best for the money expended, and that is why we are looked upon as the RESPONSIBLE CLOTHING HOUSE of the City.

NEW SPRING SUITS

You'll like our new spring suits for more reasons than one, but principally because they're good in looks and quality. Of course if you don't care what kind you wear, you can buy an ordinary ready-made suit any where and pay as much for it as we aks for one of our finely tailored suits.

BEAR IN MIND

Did you ever notice that every clothing dealer claims to handle the best make of clothing? Now, there can be ONLY ONE BEST and every one knows that this store has the exclusive control of the celebrated Sanford Clothing, which fact is all the argument necessary.

BETTER GOODS, BETTER VARIETY, BETTER VALUE ARE NOT POSSIBLE, OR WE WOULD HAVE THEM.

TIMELY TOPICS

The action of the City Council in regard to thinning out the shade trees, reminds one of the famous Duke of York, who marched his army up the hill and then marched them down again. The Council passed a motion authorizing a committee to thin out the superfluous shade trees, and then passed another motion making it optional with property-owners whether the trees should be cut down or not. Rather a peculiar state of affairs, if you axe us.

• • •

It begins to look as though Mr. O'Flynn and his noble band of young men will have to organize an old-time "bee," put on their overalls and tackle the old d.s.b.g. themselves when the gentle spring time comes. If they wait for entertainments and such like things to provide the sinews of war it will be A. D. 2000 before the eyesore is removed. Even the burning periods of Mr. J. J. B. Flint failed to induce people to patronize the concert last night. Is it possible that people have got so used to the howling desolation of that awful place on Dundas street that they don't want to see it removed?

• • •

Curious coincidence, wasn't it? Just when the hens were beginning to lay again the Council resolved to lay no more granolithic walks!

• • •

Winchester, Belleville's star goalkeeper, has been so successful in keeping the puck out of the Belleville Hockey Club's net that some people think he would be able to keep the cows out of the old d.s.b.g. next summer. No use expecting impossibilities!

Several letters on the theological controversy are unavoidably held over. But, like all other good things, they will improve with age.

Lent began this morning. What are you going to give up? One of our staff bought a pair of creepers yesterday, and says he's going to give up falling on that opera house hill.

Interest in the civic appointments is growing intense, and is almost dividing the honors with hockey. The Council is coming in for a lot of criticism, some of it fair, some otherwise. The Intelligencer has always believed that the laborer was worthy of his hire, and is unalterably opposed to "cheap" methods. But it must not be forgotten that the Aldermen are themselves representative men, who have as much at stake in the city as any of their critics. Economy is a good thing, but it must not be carried to the extreme of parsimony. When the offices are given out they should, all things being equal, be given to the men who have for years served the city faithfully. If the Council has good grounds for discriminating against any of the old officials, let us hear them. If not, let the preference be given to the men who have, some of them for a generation, worked in season and out of season for Belleville's interests. Let us have no Star Chamber business; this is a public matter, and must be dealt with in the broad spirit of pro bono publico.

French Marriage Laws.

In France a man on entering the bonds of matrimony renders himself legally responsible not only for the support of his wife, but for that of her parents in case they should become destitute, and the same obligation is incurred by the wife in regard to the father and mother of her husband.

Tea and Coffee.

Keep tea or coffee in glass or china jars instead of tin canisters. By so doing the flavor will be greatly improved.

Elbows and Knees.

If the elbows of men's coats and the knees of trousers are out of shape, lay a damp cloth on them and fold up for a couple of hours. Lay on the ironing board, smooth and pull gently until they lie flat and take their original lines, then press, under cloth, with a hot iron. Dry thoroughly with the iron. Sponging with borax water will remove the shiny appearance of much worn coats and dress skirts.

INTERESTING, IF TRUE

YOU CAN TRY IT FOR YOURSELF AND PROVE IT.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or other wholesome food, and this claim has been proven by actual experiment which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner: Cut hard boiled eggs into very small pieces, as it would be if masticated, place the egg and two or three of the tablets in a bottle or jar containing warm water heated to 98 degrees (the temperature of the body) and keep it at this temperature for three and one-half hours, at the end of which time the egg will be as completely digested as it would have been in the healthy stomach of a hungry boy.

The point of this experiment is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg in the bottle it will do to the egg or meat in the stomach and nothing else will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectually. Even a little child can take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with safety and benefit if its digestion is weak, and the thousands of cures accomplished by their regular daily use are easily explained when it is understood that they are composed of vegetable essences, aseptic pepsin, diastase and Golden Seal, which mingles with the food and digest it thoroughly, giving the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate.

Dieting never cures dyspepsia, neither do pills and cathartic medicines, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines.

When enough food is eaten and promptly digested there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merit and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world wide and they are sold at the moderate price of 50 cts. for full sized package in every drug store in the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe.

WORKING IN THE DARK.

Discomforts of Mining Before the Davy Lamp Was Lit.

The difficulties under which coal mining operations were carried on before the scientist Davy had invented his safety lamp must have been very great. In many times the only alternative the mediæval miner had to pitch darkness was the phosphorescent gleam from dried fish. The miner's implements, originally of stone or hard oak, gradually improved, but he was forced to work in almost complete darkness until Sir Humphry Davy by his remarkable invention enabled him to light his way through the tunnels he had excavated with comparative safety.

Agricola, an author who wrote about the middle of the sixteenth century, has left an elaborate treatise on coal mining as it was practiced during the middle ages. From this we learn that the horse gin, which survives to the present day in some of the mining districts of Great Britain and northern Europe, was the engine chiefly employed both for lifting the coal and for getting rid of the water. This latter object was also sometimes effected by means of pumps turned by windmills or by tunnels driven with great labor to an outlet at a lower level.

Tombs of the Ancient Prophets.

There exist in parts of Islam many tombs of the prophet Daniel. Of these one of the most celebrated is at Cairo. This fact need not astonish us. The Mussulmans admit without hesitation the duplication or even indefinite multiplication of the bodies of holy persons without their veneration for each of the remains being diminished in the least. It is worth noting that the nature of the honorary qualifications accorded to the same saint varies in different countries. Thus, for example, Daniel has at Cairo the name of Nebbi-Daniel—that is, they give him the title of prophet, as being at the same time that which suits him best and is the most honorable they can confer. In Algeria or Morocco—feudal countries—the title they give to saints is sidi, which signifies lord, which is also the title there of military and political chiefs. In central Asia they give to those canonized persons whom they respect most, as to the prophet Daniel, the title of khodja, which means in Arabic writer or lettered.

Making Marble Out of Chalk.

In nature marble is made out of chalk by water which percolates through the chalky deposits, dissolves the chalk particle by parties and crystallizes it, mountain pressure solidifying it. It has been found that similar results may be accomplished by chemical means. First slices of chalk are dipped in a color bath, staining them with tints that will imitate any kind of marble known. For this purpose the same mineral stains are used as are employed in nature. For example, to produce counterfeit "verde antique" oxide of copper is utilized. In like manner green, pink, black and other colorings are obtained. Next the chalk slices go into another bath, by which they are hardened and crystallized, coming out to all intents and purposes real marble.

Jones—Charley fell from a street car last evening.

Brown—Oh, I'm awfully sorry!

Jones—But he wasn't hurt at all.

Brown—I wasn't thinking about Charley. I was thinking of the sufferings of those who would be told about that fall for months to come.

A Puzzler.

"Paw," said little Tommy Figg on being scolded, "I heard Mr. Watts say that great men's sons never did any good. I ain't a great man's son, am I?"

Up to a late hour Mr. Figg's mind had not found a sufficiently diplomatic answer.

Double Work.

First Decorator—I advised him to have his house decorated during his wife's absence as a surprise.

Second Decorator—Good! Then we'll have to do it all over again when she gets back.

Affection for a Pig.

When Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois was married he was in decidedly poor circumstances and his mother, an economical Quakeress, who was anxious to have him found a household, said to him: "Joseph, now that thee is married, thee must get thee a cow, a pig and a hive of bees." "I took mother's advice," relates Mr. Cannon; "I tried to milk the cow, but she kicked me over, and I had to give that up as a bad job. I tried to feed the calf, and it butted me all around the yard and tore my clothes nearly off. When the bees got ready to swarm, I thought I would go out among them like father used to do, and swarm them. The bees got among me; crawled up under my shirt, and stung me in a hundred different places, and I had to let them go. The only thing I could get along with at all was the pig. I could feed that, scratch its sides, and it would grunt. I got it good and fat and gave it away to a farmer. I didn't have the heart to kill it."

Mrs. Hatterson—I gave my husband an awful lecture yesterday. Mrs. Catterson—Did he need it? "No. But I did."

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Improvement in the Live Stock Trade —Wheat is Lower.

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 24.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Trade at St. Lawrence Market to-day was a little brisker, the receipts of grain and hay being quite heavy. The total grain receipts amounted to 1,700 bushels.

Wheat—White wheat is steady at 72c to 72½c per bushel; 300 bushels were sold. Two hundred bushels of red sold unchanged at 72½c, and 300 bushels of goose sold ½c easier at 67c.

Barley—The barley offering was of good quality, 400 bushels selling at 50c to 51c per bushel.

Oats—The market is unchanged, 400 bushels selling at 37c per bushel.

Rye—Is 1½c per bushel easier. One hundred bushels sold at 52c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—Receipts were fairly large and trade was rather brisker. Quotations are steady at $8 to $8.25 per cwt for light-weight hogs and $7.75 to $8 for heavies.

Eggs—The cold weather did not last long enough to affect the prices of new-laid eggs to any extent, and offerings are now becoming more plentiful. This caused an easier feeling in prices, but at present new-laid are quoted unchanged at 20c to 22c per dozen. Held stock are considerably easier at 11c to 13c.

Butter—There was not much doing on the market in this line to-day, the receipts being small and the demand rather quiet. Prices are a little firmer at 18c to 22c for pound rolls and 16c to 18c per lb for large rolls.

Straw—Prices are steady at $8 to $9 per ton. Five loads were on the market.

Hay—The offerings were very large to-day, totalling about 60 loads. Prices are firmer at $12 to $14.50 per ton for No. 1 timothy and $6 to $10 for mixed or clover.

The Visible Supply.

Wheat	48,954,000	54,355,000	57,536,000
Corn	10,481,000	10,789,000	18,218,000
Oats	5,974,000	4,064,000	10,567,000
Rye	983,000	2,258,000	1,156,000
Barley	1,853,000	2,116,000	1,650,000

Wheat decreased 16,000 bushels the past week; a year ago it decreased 1,117,000 bushels.

Toronto Live Stock.

There was a fair trade at the Toronto Cattle Market this morning in all lines of stock, and prices generally were pretty well maintained. The run of stuff was fairly large, and was met by a slightly increased demand, especially in butcher cattle. But no great activity characterized the day's business, although nearly all the stuff was sold fairly early. Dealers still say the drovers have been paying too much for the cattle in the country, but this is not so apparent as it was a week or two ago. The total run of offerings amounted to 61 cars, including 1,079 cattle, 366 sheep and lambs, 392 hogs and 12 calves.

Export Cattle—There is not a great deal of space offering, and the demand for cattle is not heavy. To-day's trade was fairly good, although a few loads of stuff did not sell until late. The offerings were mostly fair, and a few lots of extra choice cattle were on the market, and brought as high as $4.75 per cwt. The general run of stuff sold at about $4 to $4.50.

Butcher Cattle—There was a fairly large run of offerings on the market to-day, but the demand showed a little improvement, and nearly all the stuff sold early. Prices continue fairly steady, and the market presents no features. The stuff offering was moderately good, but there was no stuff warranting better than quoted prices. Most of the good stuff sold at about $4 to $4.40 per cwt, and some butchers' cows sold at low at $3.

Milch Cows—The run was light and generally of poor quality. Quotations are about steady at $30 to $55 each, with higher prices for extra good stock. There is a good demand for good cows.

Sheep and Lambs—Trade was fair, but the receipts, while plentiful, were of rather poor quality. There were too many unfinished barnyard lambs offering. Prices have a firmer tendency, but there is no quotable change.

Calves—The market is steady, and prices are unchanged. Quotations are $2 to $10 each, and 4½c to 6c per lb.

Hogs—The run was very light, and on account of this there was a decidedly firmer feeling in prices. Quotations, however, are unchanged.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 24.—Cattle—Receipts, 75 head; active at steady to strong prices; veals, 25c lower; tops, $9.25 to $9.50; common to good, $5.50 to $9. Hogs—Receipts, 8,500 head; slow, 20c to 30c lower, mostly on light grades; heavy, $7.50 to $7.55, a few $7.60; mixed, $7.25 to $7.50; Yorkers, $7.20 to $7.30; pigs, $7; roughs, $6.30 to $6.60; stags, $5.50 to $6. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 11,800 head; export ewes and mixed sheep, 25c higher; lambs 10c lower; top lambs, 6.90 to $7; culls to good, $4.60 to $6.75; yearlings, $5.50 to $6; ewes, $5 to $5.25; sheep, top mixed, $5.25 to $5.50; culls to good, $2.75 to $5.15.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—Cattle—Receipts, 4,500; steady; good to prime steers, $5.25 to $5.75; poor to medium $3.25 to $4.70; stockers and feeders, $2.25 to $4.60; cows, $1.40 to $4.50; heifers, $2 to $4.75; canners, $1.40 to $2.60; bulls, $2.25 to $4.25; calves, $3.25 to $7.75; Texas fed steers, $3.75 to $4.25. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 31,000; to-morrow, 35,000; left over, 7,000; 10c to 15c lower; mixed and butchers', $6.80 to $8.15; good to choice heavy, $7.20 to $7.35; rough heavy, $6.85 to $7.15; light, $6.45 to $6.80; bulk of sales, $6.95 to $7.15. Sheep — Receipts, 12,000; sheep steady and lambs 15c to 25c lower; good to choice wethers, $5 to $5.75; fair to choice mixed, $4 to $5; native lambs, $4.75 to $7.

Dropsical Swellings
Backache, deposits in the urine, pain, smarting and scalding when urinating, loss of flesh, rheumatic pains and headache are symptoms of Kidney Disease
When the swelling takes place about the heart death usually comes suddenly and unexpectedly in the form of Heart Failure or Apoplexy.

MR. TRENEMAN

The kidneys when in health filter from the blood the urea, which is in reality poisonous waste matter.

When the kidneys are weak and deranged the urea remains in the blood and causes it to become watery and deficient in nutritive quality.

Dropsical swellings are the result. At times the ill-effects are felt about the heart and death comes suddenly in the form of heart disease or apoplexy. With others the legs swell until they become of unwieldy proportions and require to be bandaged.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills prevent and cure dropsical swellings and all the dreadful symptoms of kidney disease. They cure thoroughly by striking directly at the root of the trouble and setting the kidneys right.

Mr. James Treneman, 536 Adelaide Street, London, Ont., states:—"Two years ago I was laid up with kidney disease and urinary troubles. Besides the pain and inconvenience caused by these troubles, I became dropsical, and my legs would swell up so that I could scarcely go around at all. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, I procured a box, and continued the use of this valuable medicine until now I can say for a certainty that I am entirely cured. I never took any medicine that did me so much good, and am firmly convinced that if it had not been for this medicine I would not be working to-day."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills
Are wonderfully successful in curing all diseases which arise from uric acid in the blood. They act directly on the kidneys and liver, invigorate these filtering organs to health and activity and insure their perfect working. In thousands of homes in Canada and the United States they are kept constantly on hand as a preventative and cure for kidney and liver derangements, Bright's disease, dropsy, biliousness, stomach troubles and constipation. There is no medicine that is so prompt and thorough in removing backache, bodily pains and all the distressing accompaniments of kidney disease as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose—25 cents a box. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

MAKE THIS TEST
Allow some urine to stand for twenty-four hours in a glass or bottle. If at the end of that time it becomes cloudy or smoky, or if a sediment like brick dust forms in the bottom of the vessel you can be certain that the kidneys are deranged and diseased.

The Widower—A Study in Natural History.

The Widower.—This interesting bird, concerning whose habits little that is authoritative has been written, is believed by ornithologists to belong to the Phoenix family (manibus easy consolibus) because it has the power to rise from its ashes in resplendent plumage and renewed youth.

The Widower is a migratory bird, and at intervals makes its appearance in every community, but so greatly is it esteemed as a household pet, and so keen is the pursuit after it, that it rarely escapes the net of the fowler for long, and few of the species are to be seen at large.

In appearance the Widower is what may be called interesting rather than beautiful, though it varies greatly at different ages. When it is young it has a sad and melancholy air, and utters plaintive notes that make every female who hears it long to console it. But this sorrowful swan song lasts only during the first few months. After that it grows chirpy and chipper, and blithely carols a merry roundelay that greatly resembles "A Hot Time in the Old Town To-night."

The plumage of the Widower is also worthy of note, for it has the peculiar, chameleon-like quality of changing under different conditions. During captivity it almost invariably wears a garb of sombre hue unfashionable in cut, and frequently conspicuously unpreened and unkempt.

The moment, however, it becomes free this strange bird blossoms forth in a beautiful and gorgeous coat of lively hues that is calculated to catch the eye from a distance; but as soon as it is again caught and caged it molts its fine feathers and resumes its unattractive appearance.

No one has ever been able to account for this idiosyncrasy, but the phenomenon of the Widower doing his lightning change act into a butterfly, or back into a grub, may be witnessed daily. This peculiarity, unfortunately, often causes great disappointment to the owners, as not infrequently a female goes to great trouble to capture a Widower, thinking it a Bird of Paradise, only to discover when she has got it home that it is nothing but a scarecrow. Thus, from this simple circumstance, does nature teach us not to buy a bird by its looks.

Concerning the anatomy of the Widower ornithologists differ greatly, though all agree that it is All Heart. Some authorities contend, however, that this organ, in size and shape, is like an omnibus, while others hold that it is of the elasticity and durability of a football. It is interesting to observe that some of the most earnest and painstaking investigators along this line of scientific research are women, and we may confidently look for valuable light to be thrown on the subject in the near future.

The chief characteristic of the Widower is, as has been stated, its ability to arise from the ashes of the funeral pyre—as long as it is its wife's funeral—with renewed youth. Reputable eye-witnesses declare that they have seen one of these birds, droopy, with draggled tail feathers, and one leg swathed in red flannel bandages for rheumatism, suddenly metamorphosed into a giddy young thing that could dance the two-step and stay up all night, and that looked like a two-year-old. It has also been observed that the oftener the Widower arises from the ashes the younger it becomes, until after about the third rejuvenation nothing but a debutante is young enough to attract its attention.

In its habits the Widower is a curious combination of the fly bird and the barnyard fowl, for while its giddy flights are interesting it is admirable because it knows how to scratch for a living. It has, too, generally a well-lined nest, instead of having to build one.

In a way the Widower has something of the predatory characteristics of the hawk, and knows that the only way to get a thing is to take it, and this causes it to often pounce upon the most charming young pullet in the bunch and bear her away, under the very eyes of her chaperon. On the whole, though, it conducts its love-making after the manner of the nightingale, and sings a song of such surpassing sweetness that no heart can resist it.

There are many reasons why women should have a great fondness for Widowers, and a desire to possess one. It is always much more comfortable to have a thoroughly trained pet about the house than one that one has to domesticate themselves.

A Widower's first owner has always taken the edge off of it and taught it little tricks, and it knows when to pipe up, and when to sit on his perch and keep mum, all of which render it a most desirable ornament for the parlor or boudoir.

Inasmuch as the Widower has once been caught in the matrimonial trap, it has been argued that it showed lack of intelligence in allowing itself to be snared a second time. The truth seems to be, however, that after having once had its wings clipped, it does not know what to do with freedom, and so returns to the cage through force of habit.

The Modern Method.

The 10, 20, 30 manager sat in his palatial office and knitted his brows.

When he had worked them into a sufficiently grotesque pattern he walked nervously to the window.

He was distinctly "on edge." Suddenly he gave a cry of joy.

He had caught a glimpse of the front page of a "yellow extra," in the hands of a newsboy two blocks away.

It took but a moment to summon his press agent.

When the Trust's promoter of publicity entered the room the following conversation ensued:

"Is the printing for that new play all ready?"

"Yes, sir."

"Have you got plenty of good photos of the people engaged?"

"Yes, sir."

"And a whole big bunch of the best kind of red-hot press stuff ready to feed to the papers?"

"Yes, sir."

"The scenery and costumes are all finished, I believe?"

"Yes, sir."

"Very well. The extras are out announcing that the prisoner in that murder case has been acquitted. Call the company for rehearsal to-morrow morning, and wire the manager of the opera house in New Rochelle that we open there on Monday night."

"Yes, sir, but——"

"Oh, yes, I had almost forgotten; ring up that author of ours and tell him to write the play."—"Dramatic Mirror."

He Owned "Jay Eye See."

Christian Science failed to save Jackson I. Case, the young millionaire of Wisconsin, from the sentence passed passed on him by the doctors some months ago. So thoroughly did he believe in Mrs. Eddy's dogmas that he was engaged in writing a letter to a local paper, denying there was anything the matter with him, when he dropped dead. He inherited a large fortune from his father, whose hobby was the Hickory Grove Breeding Farms, whence came the great pacer, Jay Eye See, and, brought up among horses, he became a noted horseman. He was an impulsive young fellow, and proved it by his marriage. At a roller skating rink he fell the victim to an obscure but bewitching divorcee who was many years his senior. Some months after his marriage to the woman he confessed it to his mother, whose first anger soon gave way to discretion. Jackson got the political bee, was elected mayor of his native city, Racine, and was the youngest mayor in the United States. He had designs on Washington, but the interests of the great threshing machine works which his father had built up, and the other enterprises in which the Case millions were invested, bound him to that narrow sphere against his will.

Jackson Case was as liberal-hearted as his father was penurious, and was preyed upon by every conceivable breed of crank and trickster that the Middle West harbored. They made his life miserable, for he never acquired the art of saying "No," which was ever on the lips of the elder Case, who loved to display his passion for parsimony to all men, even after he had many millions to his credit. One of the father's delights was to rise at daybreak of a winter morning, hang a basket on his arm, repair to his fine hot-house in the rear of his mansion, pick a couple of huge bunches of grapes, walk two miles to market to sell them, returning home with a porterhouse steak for breakfast. These eccentricities worried the daughters, who were socially ambitious and very susceptible to ridicule about the paternal thrift. Jackson was shrewd and brisk in business, and ambitious to make the most of his immense opportunities. He was undersized, sensitive and erratic, and his later years were tinged with sadness and cynicism brought on by ill-health, and a keen capacity for pleasure thwarted and circumscribed by the duty and hardship of keeping ten million dollars' worth of property from taking wings in a manner to delight the hearts of the million cranks that beset him. His short career was in strong contrast to that of the typical Eastern millionaire's son, who "puts not his trust in millions, but puts his millions in trust," and then goes motor-carring through Europe. At the age of thirty-seven one of the brightest careers in the West was crushed out by one of its biggest fortunes.—"Town Topics."

During his visit in Chicago, Sir Philip Burne-Jones has been exhibiting his painting, "The Vampire," which inspired Kipling's verses of that title, and also a portrait of Kipling. In an interview he remarked that there was no truth in the story that Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the English actress, had posed for "The Vampire." The model, he declares, was a Brussels professional.

Better Secure

Competent Decorator--than be Disappointed.

Ideas in decorating are the great factors of success, there is no successful decorating without thought--Everything in decorating has a meaning.

Whether of artistic decorating, painting, tinting or paper-hanging, we are prepared to give you the very best at most reasonable prices.

Our workmen are the skilled mechanics from Toronto, Chicago—and the other large cities.

Our Wall Paper Sale goes merrily on, everything left of 1902 papers at a discount of 30 and 40 per cent., we are determined to carry no 1902 papers over this month of February.

Our new 1903 papers are now on hand, thousands upon thousands of rolls—more new paper in our warehouses than you can imagine. One hundred thousand rolls to select from and that the finest made.

We carry in stock more Wall Paper than do any other twelve dealers in the County of Hastings combined—our output being greater.

Remember, with every roll of Wall Paper we sell a yard of border is given free of cost, thus if you require 20 rolls of paper you get free 20 yards of border.

Our FANCY GOODS Sale goes merrily on during the remainder of February, everything at 30 and 40 per cent off as has been duly advertised.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

We desire to thank Mrs. L. W. Yeomans, president of the Flower and Fruit Mission, for bags of candies and fruit sent to the sewing school at Christmas.

We received from the Upper Canada Tract Society, through Mrs. Potter, a package of tracts, cards and booklets, all very helpful.

The "Little Helper's" Mission Band for boys and girls, which was first organized about two years ago, meets once a month at the City Mission. Six months ago officers were chosen from members of the Band. Since then the average attendance is fifteen. Amount on hand $1.11. Before Christmas a scrap book was made and given to a child in another part of the city, who has been less fortunate than ourselves. The Sabbath School teachers take turns in giving suitable talks to the Band at each meeting.

On Friday evenings there is a teachers' meeting at Mrs. Schuster's for the study of the lesson, led by Mr. A. G. Northrup. A most profitable evening is spent by all present.

The regular services Sabbath morning and evening, and the Thursday evening prayer meeting are conducted by Messrs. Northrup, Graham, Chown, Hunt, Elvins, Deacon and Wilkie.

The Sewing School has been meeting Friday afternoon, with a good attendance of children. Useful garments are sewed by the older ones, and the smaller girls are taught to piece quilts.

The Bible Class of the Sunday School has been holding "Mothers' Meetings," at which numbers of yards of flannelette and factory cotton have been sold at reduced prices, and also many half-worn articles of clothing at a very small figure.

The Bible Class has been organized for one year and has a membership at present of fifteen. The average attendance for the last three months has been eight, with frequently one or more visitors. One gratifying feature of the Treasurer's report shows an increase in the Sunday School collections of $9.29. This, we believe, is partly due to the givings by the Bible Class. There is still room for new members, and a cordial invitation is extended to the parents, especially of the children of the Sabbath School, to join with us and spend an hour Sunday afternoon in the study of the Word of God.

M. LAMBLY,
Treas. Sabbath School.

In the early fall a night school was started by Miss Brown, who, with the assistance of a few other young ladies, carried on the work until Christmas. The attendance was good.

On an average 63 bright-eyed boys and girls greet us every Sabbath afternoon, most of them willing to learn and be taught the lessons. There are eleven teachers, all faithful to their duties. One of our teachers, Miss McCutcheon, has been absent, through illness, for the past three months. We hope and pray for her recovery. We are sorry to say that Miss Watson, a most faithful and successful primary class teacher for the past three or four years, is about to leave us and go to a distant city. We shall miss her very much.

Our picnic was held at Foresters' Island Park last summer and was very much enjoyed.

The Christmas tree was the most successful and entertaining one we have yet had.

We thank all the many friends who have contributed to the comfort and pleasure of our scholars.

CHAS. S. CLAPP,
Supt. of Sabbath School.

Died at Point Ann

Mr. Geo. McDonald, one of the oldest residents of Point Ann, died yesterday afternoon in his 83rd year. Deceased had been a resident of that portion of Thurlow township for the greater portion of his life. He was a gentleman who was favorably known. A family of three sons and eight daughters survive.

ONE COMMON CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

Perhaps the most general cause of headache and pain across the eyes is nasal catarrh. The simplest cure is to inhale the medicated vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and air passage of the throat, lungs and nose. It kills myriads of germs at every breath, clears away mucous discharges, preserves and heals the membrane. Catarrhozone is just a splendid remedy for headache, and its action is certain and unfailing in diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. A trial will convince the most sceptical that Catarrhozone is all right. Large size, $1.00; trial size 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

IT GETS AT THE CANCER ROOTS.

The New Treatment Throughly Eradicates Cancer From the System

The failure of the old methods of treating cancer by operation or plaster was because they only removed the surface indications of the disease and did not reach the roots.

The new constitutional treatment for cancers and tumors thoroughly and completely eradicates the disease from the system so that not a trace remains to again cause trouble. The treatment is simple, comparatively inexpensive, can be taken at home and causes no pain or inconvenience whatever. For full particulars send two stamps to B. I. Stott & Jury, Bowmanville, Ont.

Ants in Siam.

M. Charles Meissen, a French explorer, in traveling through Siam observed a species of small gray ants which were new to him. These ants were much engaged in traveling. They lived in damp places and went in troops. To his surprise he noticed among them from time to time an occasional ant which was much larger than the others and moved at a much swifter pace, and each of these larger ants M. Meissen saw always carried one of the gray ants on its back. While the main body of gray ants were always on foot, they were accompanied by at least one of their own sort mounted on one of these larger ants. It mounted and detached itself now and then from the line, rode rapidly to the head, came swiftly back to the rear and seemed to be the commander of the expedition. The explorer was satisfied that this species of ant employs a larger ant, possibly a drone of the same species, just as we employ horses to ride upon, though scarcely more than one ant in each colony seems to be provided with a mount.

If One Could Reach the Rainbow.

Many improbable and impossible things would happen if you could only get in reach of "the rainbow." The little Turk is told that if he would have a silver head, with gold teeth and ruby eyes, he has but to touch the orange stripe. In Greece they say that the person so unfortunate as to stumble over the end of the bow will have his or her sex immediately changed.

SPORTING COMMENT.

The Toronto Star, whose sporting editor was present at the game here on Monday night, gives a fair account of the match, and states that the Marlboros lost because they got an attack of stage fright when the tide of battle began to go against them. The old name for that kind of thing was chicken-heartedness. However, whatever name you call it by, we didn't notice the Marlboros displaying any of it. They played a grand game and lost on their merits, and it is pleasing to note, by the following from The Star, that they are manly enough to say so:

"The Marlboros had no excuse to make. They admitted they were beaten on their merits, although the ice and rink conditions were not to their liking."

The Star then goes on to jolly us in the following fashion:

The most important event in Belleville last night, outside of the defeat of the Marlboros, was the fact that "Dike" MaGuire had had his hair cut. He wore a knitted cap all the first half, and the astounding news was not broken to the spectators until the teams took the ice again. The cap was gone, and around the rink from mouth to mouth, like the muffled roar of a distant cannonading, went the cry: "'Dike's got a hair cut!" Closer observation disclosed the fact that he had more than one hair cut, but that was a natural mistake, as there was still enough left to keep a couple of tonsorial artists busy for an hour or two.

Surprises in hockey have been in order right along this season, and the decisive defeat of the Marlboro team at Belleville last night caused another big ripple on the wave.

Lack of experience beat the Marlboros more than anything else. They have lost all out-of-town games this season, even being defeated by such a mighty inferior team as Niagara Falls on their own ice. Last night they got a severe attack of stage fright as soon as the tide of battle turned against them, and before they had recovered themselves Belleville had them beaten to a standstill. Of course, there were other militating circumstances such as the soft ice, for instance, but if the team had had the inherent quality of steadiness which comes from experience, they would not have lost the round, although they would have undoubtedly been defeated in the match.

Bellevilles were a different team on their own ice. They were always on the puck, and every man fitted in with his neighbor like the fingers of a glove. They claimed to have been completely out of form in the Toronto match.

Before the game a protest was lodged by the Torontos against wing player Marks, on the ground that he was a professional baseball player. Last winter Marks played hockey on the Toronto Canoe Club team, and when "Chaucer" Elliott came here to be tried out by the Toronto Ball Club, Marks took his place as catcher of the Ponies' Baseball Club of Kingston. The Marlboros claim to have evidence that Marks was paid for his services. The club has decided to press the protest before the O. H. A. Executive.

Marks played a great game at Belleville last night, strengthening the home team's forward line remarkably.

It is safe to say that the Marlboros can make nothing of that protest. The Kingston people effectually settled that before, when they sent up enough affidavits to satisfy the Privy Council, let alone the O.H.A. It is altogether likely the Marlboros will drop the matter, they having tried to "run a bluff" on Manager Burrell. Anyhow, the O.H.A. could not well admit the validity of the protest, for if they admitted Marks' professionalism they would have to throw out all the games in which he had played this season. The "tin horn" methods of the Marlboros are very much out of order.

Only three clubs are now left in the intermediate series of the O.H.A., Belleville, in the east; Barrie, in the north, and Paris in the west. The Busy B's, Belleville and Barrie, will clash first, and the winners will tackle the Gay Parisians, who have been given the bye. A comparison of the record of the two teams will be of interest. The Bellevilles have played 10 games, winning 9 of them and losing 1. They have scored 63 goals to 28 for their opponents. Barrie has won twelve straight games, and has scored 81 goals to 36 for their opponents. The Barrie men, however, have gone against no such propositions as the Port Hopes, Peterboros or Marlboros. However, they must play good swift hockey, and there will surely be something doing when the Busy B's face each other. The Paris crowd are said to be a big, rough lot, who know little about the fine points of the game, but get there by sheer aggressiveness and main strength. It looks like either Belleville or Barrie for the blue ribbon.

And the finals are now in sight. Belleville and Barrie will play a "sudden death" game on the Mutual St. rink, Toronto, on Friday night next, and the winner of that match will play another s.d. game with Paris on the same rink. We don't like that. The Mutual Street rink always was Belleville's hoodoo, but they will be as much at home there as the Barrie lads will, so it looks like an even break. Manager Burrell telegraphed to Toronto this morning, asking if he could secure the big rink for a practice for his boys. If he can the team will go to Toronto to-morrow. Rather a good idea, that, if anybody asks you. And so the best hockey season ever known in Belleville nears its finish. By next Saturday morning one of the Busy B's will be waxed. We don't believe it will be Belleville, though that Barrie crowd have a great record. Notice, though, that will be their thirteenth game! It's up to the Red and White lads to win, and we believe they're going to do it. Good luck to them.

The Galt Reformer has gotten itself into trouble by making charges against Referee Hugh Rose, and the O.H.A. will make the Galt paper show cause. This was the paragraph which caused the trouble:

"There is a good-sized rumor that he had money up on the game, and it pleased him to throw it into Galt."

Everybody down this way who saw Mr. Rose at work is ready to swear that his work was the acme of fairness and impartiality, and no one will blame him for resenting the insinuation.

And in this connection it may well be asked: Why don't hockey players, one and all, play the game fairly? By using questionable tactics they only run long chances of getting ruled off and thus handicapping their own team more than they hurt the other fellows. In hockey, as in everything else, honesty is the best policy. It is quite safe to say that both Port Hope and Peterboro spoiled their chances against Belleville by rough, unfair work. In the game at Peterboro the Petes' best player was ruled off for no less than 13 minutes in the match. Who can tell what might have happened had he played his game squarely? Play the game, gentlemen, keep your tempers, and in the long run you'll get the best of all teams who go in "to use their opponents up a bit."

HOCKEY.

Mr. J. J. B. Flint Waxes Enthusiastic.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

My Dear Sir,—

Oh, oh, what shall we do?

Why, send Toronto up the flue. Sang all the little hockey fiends on Monday night in the rink; so UP THE FLUE Toronto went. I have seen audiences thrill under vivid eloquence, but I think I never before saw an immense multitude literally go frantic and mad with joy. Old and young, it was just the same. Our gallant heroes were called upon to perform a feat which the wisest and most skilled deemed impossible. Their task was to turn disaster into rejoicing. They were to answer the sarcasms, the sneers, the ill-concealed joy, of some of their defeated competitors, the taunts of the Toronto press, over their recent defeat. Well and nobly did they respond. They felt that all Belleville was watching them, that thousands of hearts were beating fast, eagerly noting every lift of the puck, every stop of the incomparable "Winnie," every rush of McGuire and Marks, and the splendid work of each and all; and when they felt the swing of victory in the air, when they saw our brave boys getting down to their work and exerting every atom of strength and power, and finally, when the "impossible" of many, was achieved, how the welkin rang with plaudits, how the boys carried "Winnie" on their shoulders to the dressing room, and how proud we were of dear old Belleville and her noble sons. The Toronto club did good work, they were fast and their combination tactics were admirable; but nothing could withstand the "get there" determination of the noble seven. It was a real pleasure to wring Harry Burrell's hand and to offer hearty congratulations upon the wonderful success of his "boys." Talk of enthusiasm of the men, why it was as soda water to champagne compared with that of the ladies. I have never seen the passage in Homer, or grand old Horace, which describes the kisses bestowed upon the Conquerors in the games of yore by the ladies; but I am sure it exists. If only a chance had been given them last night, when the score stood 8 to 2, would they not in the warmth of their hearts, have given a sisterly kiss to the glorious seven? And how much good it would have done them? How it would have nerved them for the great battle yet to be fought. We have confidence they will win the "final," but if they do not, we shall ever remember the grand victory of Monday night. I am yours,

JOHN J. B. FLINT.

SPORTING NOTES.

Cornwall and the senior Wellingtons will play in Cornwall to-night. The game will decide the senior O.H. A. championship

The Junior Marlboros of Toronto and the Beechgrove-Frontenacs of Kingston will play home and home games for the Junior O.H.A. championship, the first game being in Kingston to-morrow night.

Montreal and Victorias play to night in Montreal. A win for either team will give them a chance to tie with Ottawa for the championship.

Victor Trumper, of the Australian cricket team, scored fifteen centuries during the season.

Dr. W. G. Grace scored a century on six occasions during the year, and he wound up the season with an average of 100 runs per innings for London County in minor matches, and he also obtained 100 wickets in the same matches, so his presence on a side can easily be imagined.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

THE D.S.B.G. CONCERT.

Only a fair-sized audience gathered in the City Hall last night to hear the concert given by the Mrs. Bertha Cushing Child Company, the entertainment being under the auspices of Mr. O'Flynn's Bible Class, the profits to be used for renovating the old Dundas street burying ground. From a financial standpoint the concert was probably a failure, but from an artistic standpoint it was a success. Three talented ladies furnished the programme: Mrs. Bertha Cushing Child, vocalist; Miss Isabel Gordon, violinist; and Miss Helen Wyrick, reader. Mrs. Child is gifted with a remarkable voice, with a range from deep contralto to mezzo-soprano. She sang operatic and lyric numbers, and proved herself an artist in every sense of the word. Miss Gordon, the violinist, displayed superb technique, particularly in the "Gypsy Dance," but was not so sympathetic as she might have been. Perhaps the empty chairs accounted for that. The reader, Miss Wyrick, is the peer of any elocutionist ever seen in this city, being equally at home in pathos or comedy. Mr. Spencer Jones, of course, made a most efficient accompanist. The stage was handsomely decorated with flags and banners, and Mr. O'Flynn's young men deserved better recognition of their painstaking efforts.

THE SAVINGS BANK OF HEALTH

Is lots of red and vitalizing blood to nourish and invigorate the body. If your blood is thin and watery use "Ferrozone." It supplies the necessary elements such as phosphorus and iron, and quickly restores lost strength and spirits. Ferrozone is an unequalled restorative for the tired, the sick and run down; it stimulates appetite, aids digestion, soothes the nerves, and makes the system too healthy for disease to exist. No tonic does so much good in a short time as Ferrozone. Get it to-day from any druggist for 50c per box, or six boxes for $2.50. Sold by J. S. McKeown.

BODY ON COWCATCHER

OLD MAN KILLED NEAR KALADAR AND CARRIED TO TWEED.

Tweed, Ont., Feb. 24.—The westbound Canadian Pacific express struck and killed an old man who was walkon the track about a mile east of Kalada Station to-day. The man was seen about the station a short time before the train was due, but disappeared, and the next that was seen of him was when the express arrived with the body on the cowcatcher. The man's name has not been positively ascertained, but it is thought to be William Thompson.

MASS MEETING AT BANCROFT TO-MORROW

CONSERVATIVES WILL DISCUSS THE ISSUES OF THE DAY.

Messrs. W. B. Northrup, M.P., H. Corby, ex-M.P., of this city, and Messrs. Vandervoort and Tom Ketcheson, of Sidney, left to-day for Marmora, and to-morrow will be at Bancroft, where a large Conservative gathering takes place. Messrs. E. G. Porter, M.P., M. B. Morrison, M.P.P., and a number of other prominent Conservatives from this city and Trenton will leave in the morning for Bancroft. It is expected that some prominent speakers from a distance will be present at a mass meeting to be held to-morrow evening.

Wise Ways of Women.

No "prizes" offered with common soaps will long tempt the wise woman to use common soaps. The wise woman soon sees she has to pay dearly for "prizes" in the low quality of soap, in the damage common soaps do her clothes and her hands. The wise woman considers her health—so soon ruined if she were to continue breathing the steam of adulterated common soaps. The wise woman recognizes the difference between such soaps and Sunlight Soap—Octagon Bar. 212

KICKED BY A HORSE

WALTER POPE IS THE VICTIM OF A PAINFUL OCCURRENCE.

Walter Pope, a young man, son of Mr. Samuel Pope, who resides near Poucher's Mills, was yesterday evening the victim of a serious and painful accident. He was engaged in cleaning out a stable in which stood a two-year-old colt. The latter evidently disliked to have the young man around, as when he came to the colt it made a vicious kick, which landed fair upon young Pope's face. It was a severe blow and sent him to the floor, where he lay for some time, being insensible. When his condition was discovered he was as soon as possible brought to this city, where his injuries were attended to. His nose was badly smashed, whilst his face was otherwise seriously cut in places. The young man will be under the doctor's care for some time and will, no doubt, always bear marks of the vicious animal's work.

ABOUT GOOD CLOTHING.

Well, with every firm that sell clothing claiming they have the best, how are the public to judge? Just this way. Take in consideration the length of time the Oak Hall has been in business, the opportunities they have had for knowing the clothing trade, and the wants of the people. Then remember, they are cash buyers and have the control of Sanford's celebrated clothing, which is acknowledged by every one the best in Canada. Just use your ordinary everyday common sense. If Oak Hall don't sell good clothing, why not?

The Salvationists

Staff Capt. Manton, the singing evangelist, will visit Belleville on Wednesday night, Feb. 25th. The Staff Capt. has been conducting great revival meetings in Newfoundland, and he is just passing through Belleville, stopping off visiting his old friends. He is the oldest officer in Canada. The Salvationists are looking for a large gathering at this service. All are cordially invited.

The New Regulations

The police are at present busily engaged in notifying the various retail dealers in the city of the enactment of the new tobacco by-law, which comes into force here on March 1st. By its provisions, cigarettes, cigars or cut tobacco cannot be sold in any store without a license having first been obtained. Plug tobacco can be sold without a license.

SILICATE BRICK

Public Notice is given that I have acquired the exclusive right to manufacture and sell, within the Province of Ontario, Silicate Brick, made out of sand, lime and other materials, mixed and treated under the invention and process of O. Hugo Anderson, for which Letters Patent for Canada were granted on 10th December, 1901, under No. 74067. Companies have been formed at Montreal, Sydney and Ottawa, to operate under this Patent. The works at Sydney and Montreal will be turning out brick in February, and at Ottawa in April next.

I am prepared to sell rights under the above patent in Ontario and solicit correspondence.

BANISH THE CIGARETTE.

Deputation at Ottawa Sees the Government.

Ottawa, Feb. 25. — Over a score of ladies and several clergymen and laymen waited upon the Prime Minister, Hon. Mr. Fielding, and Hon. M. E. Bernier, yesterday, and asked that the manufacture and sale of cigarettes and cigarette paper or wrappers be prohibited. The deputation, which was under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Canada, included Mrs. Rutherford, Toronto, Dominion President of the W.C.T.U.; Mrs. Bascom, Toronto, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Dougall, Montreal, Vice-President; Mrs. McLachlin, Montreal, Secretary; Mrs. Geggie, Quebec, Superintendent of the Legislative Committee; Mrs. McKee of Barrie, Provincial President for Ontario; Mrs. Walters, Hamilton, Secretary of the Anti-Cigarette Department; and Rev. S. D. Chown, Toronto, representing the Methodist Church.

The interview lasted about an hour, and at its close Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he had listened with great interest to the petition, and to the able manner in which it had been supported. He must confess his total ignorance of the matter, not being a smoker or blessed with children. Every movement in favor of reform, he pointed out, had to be long fought. He promised that the matter would be taken into consideration. This might seem an insufficient answer, but he did not wish the deputation to take it in that way. There were over 200 members of Parliament, many of whom were smokers, and he advised the ladies to use their influence with the representatives of the people. The Government, he said, considering the matter in Council, would make it their duty to confer with the leading members of both parties as to what seemed an important question, and had been so well presented by this large, influential and fair delegation. (Applause.)

PERSONATORS CONVICTED.

Two of the Guilty Parties Fail to Appear.

Toronto, Feb. 25. — At yesterday's referendum investigation before Judge McCrimmon, Thomas Cavan, who was deputy returning officer for subdivision No. 26, South Toronto, charged with four violations of the law, was acquitted on all charges. David Cohen, a laundryman and shirtmaker, employed by his father, whose premises are on York street, failed to appear, and was found guilty of personating Jacob Cohen. He was sentenced in his absence to twelve months in prison, and a fine of $400, and three months more if he fails to pay the fine. Joseph O'Melia of 71 Lombard street, who worked for the Gas Company and the Street Railway Company, and who was nominated for Alderman in the Second Ward at last election, but was forced to retire owing to an informality in his nomination, was convicted, also in his absence, of two cases of personation in polling booth No. 7, East Toronto. He was sentenced on each charge to twelve months' imprisonment, a fine of $400 and three months extra in case of failure to pay the fine Cohen and O'Melia have, it is understood, gone to the United States.

CRUELTY TO ORPHANS.

Further Evidence Given at the Binghampton Home.

Binghamton, N.Y., Feb. 25.—A second hearing in the matter of charges of alleged gross cruelty and neglect against the management of the Susquehanna Valley Orphans' Home was held here by the managers and assistant managers. Further evidence of alleged ill-treatment was added to the evidence of the previous hearing, when several inmates testified that they had been beaten with horsewhips and knocked down by Caretaker Watson, and that no care was given the wounds thus received. Witnesses were heard to-day in an attempt to prove that the boys who told these stories of brutality are utterly untrustworthy, and four women attendants asserted that they knew of no abuses existing at the home.

Clinton Crandall, a recent inmate, testified that Carl Danfirg, aged six, was beaten by Watson until the blood ran down his legs, and that on some days Watson thrashed fifteen or twenty boys. Boys who made slight mistakes in the military drill, he said, were lined up in rows and thrashed one after the other. Four other boys identified a big horsewhip, loaded at the butt, as one that had been used on them.

Miss Sarah McConnell, an attendant, said she had been called to dress a deep cut two inches long on a boy's leg, said to have been caused by a whipping. The wound bled profusely.

MARTINEAU CONFESSES.

Admits that His Forgeries Amount to $75,000.

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—Aboudens Martineau, the Militia Department clerk now under arrest charged with forgery and malfeasance in office, confessed that he had forged and cashed checks to the amount of $75,000. This sum agrees with the aggregate as determined by Mr. J. W. Borden, accountant of the department, from an examination of the books. Martineau's confession was made in the presence of Mr. Borden and Lieut.-Col. Sherwood, Chief of Dominion Police, who went down to the jail to see him at 4 o'clock. The young man appeared to be very penitent and wept copiously. He volunteered to make a clean breast of it, and said that he obtained blank checks bearing the signatures of the accountant and a deputy Minister, and made them payable for certain sums to C. D. Cote, a ficticious personage. He also forged the endorsement to the checks. After a while, however, he corrected this statement, and said that his procedure was to alter checks made payable to other persons. He acknowledged that he had been well treated in the department, better, in fact, than he deserved, and he did not know how he came to succumb to temptation.

C.P.R. WANTS SWEDES.

Make Better Railway Laborers Than Those of British Birth.

London, Feb. 25.—Some comment has been excited by an announcement that the C. P. R. officials prefer Swedes to Britons as railway laborers, of whom 2,000 are now being advertised for. The officials say the Swedes are content with five or six shillings daily. They also make better agricultural settlers after they have finished working on the railway.

Transcontinental Railway Survey.

Winnipeg, Feb. 25.—(Special.)—Mr. R. Macdonald, C. E., has left Selkirk for Norway House to commence work on the survey of the transcontinental railway. He took with him three teams, carrying six thousand pounds of provisions. Mr. Macdonald will join the party, which left Selkirk a short time ago under Mr. Perry for the outlet of the Nelson River, near Norway House, to explore the country east of the

The RITCHIE COMPANY Limited.

Berlin.—The Crown Prince's infatuation continues. His Highness insists that he will marry an "American" or die in the attempt. Yesterday an adventuress eluded the vigilance of the guards and chewed gum noisily under the Prince's window. His Highness at once called down to her: "I perceive you are an 'American.' Will you be my wife?" "Why, cert," replied the woman. It was pointed out to the Prince that a genuine "American" girl would have said: "Aw, chase y'self!" But his Highness is quite blind to the imposture. The Kaiser is much prostrated, his total output during the past twenty-four hours being only six tragedies, fourteen comedies, two symphonic poems, twenty-three trilogies and eighty-five historical novels.—"Life."

THE MANITOBA BUDGET.

A Surplus of $289,686 For the Year Claimed.

Winnipeg, Feb. 26.—Provincial Treasurer J. A. Davidson brought his budget down in the Legislature. He claimed a surplus of $829,686 for last year. The revenue for the year was $1,890,720, being $669,780 in excess of the revenue for 1899, the last year of the Greenway Administration. This increase is made up of $224,000 received from the Dominion Government on school lands funds account, and $177,000 for H. & N. W. land sales accruing from the bargain made by the Greenway Government in 1899. The balance of $268,000 was derived from the increased revenue of land titles offices and other Provincial departments as a result of the increase in population and the great prosperity which has visited Manitoba during the last year.

A FRIENDLY WARNING.

MR. REDMOND'S REFERENCE TO THE LAND BILL.

He Hopes For an Honest Attempt to Solve Ireland's Problems—Mr. Wyndham's Reply.

London, Feb. 26.—The Irish leader, John Redmond, in the House of Commons moved an amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne, on the subject of the Irish land question. Mr. Redmond's speech was most conciliatory. He said the amendment was not intended as a hostile demonstration against the Government, but as a "friendly warning" to the Ministry that he and his friends believed the Government is engaged in framing a great measure of justice and appeasement for Ireland, which, in the words of the King's speech, will "complete the abolition of the dual ownership of the land." All he (Mr. Redmond) wanted was an assurance from the Chief Secretary for Ireland, Mr. Wyndham, that the Government is engaged in an honest attempt to solve the problem on the lines suggested by the report of the recent land conference, which, the speaker added, offered an unexampled opportunity to end the agrarian troubles and conflicts between classes in Ireland.

Mr. Wyndham, in replying, declined to commit himself to any wholesale approval of the land conference report, which, he said, avoided or skirted many considerations which must be taken into account. He expressed the hope that the spirit of good sense and good will animating the report would be emulated by the House in its consideration of the forthcoming measure, which would make it possible for Ireland to lay the social foundations upon which it was alone possible to rear the fabric of healthy national life. Mr. Redmond eventually withdrew his amendment.

CANADIAN CATTLE.

Can It be Admitted to the British Markets.

London, Feb. 26.—In the House of Commons Mr. Price (Liberal) moved an amendment to the address providing for the repeal of the law excluding Canadian store cattle from British markets. The debate occupied the night session. Mr. Hanbury, President of the Board of Agriculture, opposed the amendment, on the ground that it would be a dangerous precedent to admit Canadian cattle, thus giving them preference over others. He said he was anxious to meet the wishes of the colonies, but that ninety-nine per cent. of the farmers in Great Britain were opposed to the admission of Canadian store cattle, and nothing would induce him to abate a particle of the present act. The amendment was rejected by 190 votes to 38.

CHEEKY RESOLUTION.

To Ascertain Terms Upon Which Britain Would Cede Canada to United States.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Representative De Armond (Mo.) has introduced a concurrent resolution providing as follows :—

"That the President be and is hereby requested to learn and advise the Congress upon what terms, if any, honorable to both nations and satisfactory to the inhabitants of the territory primarily affected, Great Britain would consent to cede to the United States all or any part of the territory lying north of and adjoining the United States, to be formed in due time into one or more states and admitted into the Union upon an equality with the other states, the inhabitants thereof in the meantime to enjoy all the privileges and immunities guaranteed by the Federal constitution."

It has been decided to hold the Dominion convention of the W. C. T. U. in Ottawa in November next.

KILLED DURING RIOT.

GUARDS, SOLDIERS AND POPULACE IN CONFLICT.

Enraged Crowds at Vigo, Spain, Had to be Fired Upon by the Soldiers.

Vigo, Spain, Feb. 26.—Two persns were killed and four wounded here yesterday in a conflict between municipal guards and soldiers and persons taking part in the carnival, growing out of the ill-treatment of a masquerader by some of the guards. The guards charged the crowd, but were beaten back by showers of stones, and were obliged to seek refuge in the Town Hall. A detachment of soldiers was sent to their rescue and ordered to fire on the crowd. One of the killed was a thirteen-year-old boy.

Russia Gives Warning to the Balkan States.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 26.—It is officially announced that the Russian Government has instructed its representatives throughout the Balkans to give the widest publicity to the warning that while Russia is prepared to safeguard the interests of the Christians she "will not sacrifice a single drop of Russian blood nor the smallest portion of the heritage of the Russian people, if the Slav States should attempt by revolution or force to change the existing state of affairs in the Balkan peninsula.

A RAILROAD BRIGADE.

Announcement by the Premier of Holland.

The Hague, Feb. 26.—Premier Kuyper introduced in the Second Chamber of the Staats General three bills in connection with the recent railroad strike. He explained that the Government considered it necessary to oppose any unreasonable attack on society, which would sacrifice the well-being of the people to the desire of a certain class for influence, and to political tyranny. The Government, therefore, proposed to form a railroad brigade, to ensure a regular service of trains in case of need. The just complaints of railroad employees would be adjusted by a royal commission, which would be entrusted later with the settlement of the situation from a legal standpoint, as well as regarding the conditions of service of the employees. It also would have to decide what constituted criminal acts. The Government did not desire to be reactionary. It only aimed at effecting social reforms.

One of the bills provides for a modification of the penal code, with the object of affording a surer guarantee for the personal freedom of labor and preventing State officials or persons engaged in occupations affecting public interests from absenting themselves from their duties.

CANNOT SUPPLY BRAINS.

Better a Good Laborer Than Tenth-Rate Preacher.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 26.—The students of Boston University are discussing a talk which Prof. Marshall T. Perrin of the university gave to his class on the subject of indiscriminately sending boys and girls to college.

According to the noted educator, a great mistake is made by those parents who, knowing that their children lack brains, still think that they can have them trained to lives of usefulness by packing them off to a university. Mr. Perrin declared that careful judgment should be used in choosing between practical instruction and higher education. Among other things he said:

"Many a boy would do better to stick to the blacksmith shop, and many a girl to the millinery trade. Too many feel that going to college is going to redeem their lives. It sometimes ruins them. Some people are no good in college, but all right in other lines. It is much better to be a successful laborer than a tenth-rate minister, a fifteenth-rate lawyer, or a pretty schoolmarm."

ELI HYMAN'S MANY WIVES.

Another Widow Makes a Claim on the Estate.

Toronto, Feb. 26.—Another widow, Mrs. Sarah Hyman of San Francisco, has made her claim for a share of the hoarded thousands of Eli Hyman. She claims that she years ago married Eli Hyman in Poland, and is therefore the first wife of the dead miser. Another new claimant is a Mrs. Dora Gross of New York, who says that she is a sister. This makes six people who claim a share of the estate. They are :—Esther Wernberg, a sister, of Brooklyn ; Esther Wertheimer, a daughter, of New York; Sophia Hyman, a widow, of Churchill; Sarah Hyman, a widow, of San Francisco; Mrs. Hart, a daughter of Sarah Hyman, of San Francisco, and Dora Gross, a sister, of New York

Yesterday the Master in Ordinary appointed a commission to go to New York to secure material evidence. So far as he had been able to ascertain, the only survivors who were acquainted with the dead man in 1870 are Mark Cassel, Sinai Brookstein, Sophia Hyman and Rachel Miller of Toronto. Cassel resided in Toronto till about four months ago, when he went to New York. Brookstein lives in Toronto. These witnesses are over seventy years of age, and in very feeble health, and it is important that their evidence should be secured at once.

The widow, Sophia Hyman, who resides at Churchill, has entered a claim to be reimbursed for money which she alleges Eli Hyman stole from her.

ENGLISH TENDER ACCEPTED.

Temiskaming Railway Will Get Rails at $28.85.

Toronto, Feb. 26.—The Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway contract for 8,200 tons of 80-lb. steel rails has been awarded to Charles Cammell & Co., Limited, of Sheffield, England. The contract with Cammell & Co. is at $28.85 per ton f.o.b. at North Bay. The commissioners are therefore doing much better than last time, when the contract was awarded to the Clergue Company at $32 per ton, on similar conditions. Delivery is to be in three equal quantities during the months of May, June and July next. There were many more tenders this time than last, and the last two or three were very close. The rails are to cover sixty miles of track and five miles of sidings.

STORMS IN BRITAIN.

Much Damage Done in London and Elsewhere.

London, Feb. 26.—A severe gale prevailed here and along the coast yesterday, causing much damage to property. In this city trees were uprooted, walls of buildings in course of construction were blown down, and many houses were unroofed.

The Chatham & Dover Railroad was blocked for a considerable time by a brick shed which had been blown across its tracks. It required several hours for workmen to remove the debris. It is estimated that the wind attained a velocity of between sixty and seventy miles an hour at times during the night. This morning, however, the gale is abating.

The gale was very severe along the coasts, and it is feared that a number of vessels have been lost.

The British steamer Monadnock, bound from Blyth for Boston, Mass., which put into Stornoway after having been damaged in heavy weather, and which grounded in the Sound of Mull, while proceeding to Glasgow for repairs, was safely anchored later. The steamer struck a rock, but did not sustain serious damage.

ANARCHISTS TO MEET.

Story of Council to be Held at Paris Shortly.

New York, Feb. 26.—The Evening Telgram prints a story to the effect that Anarchists from all over the world are about to meet in secret convention in Paris, to devise plans that may radically affect the crowned heads of Europe. All preparations for the convention were carefully guarded, but the plans became known through the boastful talk of a youthful delegate from this city. He is an Italian, known as "Angelo" and "Rudolph." The Telegram says:—"Far-reaching Anarchistic plans are to be discussed and perfected at this world's convention, it is said, and it is even whispered that before an adjournment is taken a meeting of anarchy's inmost cabal will have been held and lots will have been drawn assigning men to deeds the full [illegible] of which may shape the destinies of the reigning houses of Europe."

The man was arrested later. He said his right name was Hertzel, and, while denying that he was one of the men selected to go to the Paris convention, said he knew four men who were going. He refused to give their names.

CHICAGO THREATENED.

Municipality Must Use Union-Mined Coal.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, and the Presidents of twenty coal teamsters' unions called upon Mayor Harrison and demanded that the municipality use none but union-mined coal. The demand was accompanied by a threat of refusal to haul coal for the city.

Divorced From the Baron.

New York, Feb. 25.—It has just been learned, says the Paris representative of The American, that the Baroness de Fontenillart, who is an aunt of the Duchess of Marlborough, and a sister of Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, has obtained a divorce from the Baron. The Baroness has been ordered by the Judge to resume her maiden name of Miss Mimi Smith.

BEER GLASS vs. PISTOL.

Bold Attempt to Rob a Hamilton Barroom.

Hamilton, Feb. 26.—This city had a little touch of wild western life about 7 o'clock last evening, when a hold-up was attempted at the muzzle of a revolver. It occurred in the Red Light Hotel, corner of Bay and Barton streets. According to the story of the hotel people, two strange men entered the hotel and ordered drinks. While they were being served a third stranger entered and stood at the further end of the counter. One of the original pair threw down 25 cents with which to pay for the drinks, and as the proprietor's son Fred, who was tending bar, went to make change at the till, the third stranger whipped out a revolver and ordered Fred to throw up his hands. Instead of complying with the order Fred started toward a door leading into the house, and called for his father, Thomas J. Littlewood, proprietor of the hotel, and Fred's brother John. One of the pair of strangers, who had first arrived on the scene, tried to intercept him, and Fred hit him with a bottle. Then he threw a glass at the "man behind the gun," who fired a shot in the bartender's direction, the bullet being afterwards recovered. By this time Proprietor Littlewood and his son John were on hand, and a well-directed glass from Fred hit the man with the revolver on the side of the head. This practically put him out of business, and the father finished the work by striking him and getting him down on the floor, assisted by the two sons. In the meantime glasses were flying, and Fred Littlewood was cut on the nose. The would-be robber had shot a second time, but no person was hit. He was held till Constable Cameron arrived, and placed him under arrest. The other two strangers made their disappearance long before this. The prisoner, who appears to be about 22 years of age, and is clean-shaven, gave his address as Matthew Thomas of New York.

MURDERED THREE WIVES.

Was Arrested at the Home of His Fourth.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 26.—Albert A. Knapp, formerly of Hamilton, Ohio, was taken by the police from the home of his bride, on a charge of murder. The police allege that the bride is Knapp's fourth wife, and that the others have disappeared in a manner which warrants investigation. Knapp, it is said, married the following women, in the order given :—Emma Stubbs, Jennie Connors, Hannah Goddard and Anna May Gamble. It is asserted, according to the police, that wife No. 3 disappeared December 21st last, and that the following day Knapp was seen to take from the house a large box. Wife No. 2 was found dead several years ago in the canal at Hamilton.

Live Stock Sale at Guelph.

Guelph, Feb. 25. — Quite a large crowd of stock-men are in the city today attending the sale of thoroughbred bulls at the winter fair building. Mr. Thos. Ingram, city, and Mr. George Jackson of Port Perry are taking charge of the selling. The average price was about $60 to $80. The crowd did not seem anxious to bid, the recent drop in beef prices perhaps having something to do with it, only about 25 animals being sold up to noon.

MANAGEMENT OF INTERCOLONIAL —WHAT IT COSTS UNDER GRIT RULE.

Much boasting has been indulged in of late by the Government press of the economical management of the Intercolonial Railway under the Hon. Mr. Blair.

All that is required to prove the incorrectness of the statements made in reference to Intercolonial surpluses, like Post Office surpluses, is to consult the public accounts. This the Moncton Times has done, and shows conclusively that instead of surpluses, every year shows deficits. It gives the figures of receipts and expenditures on that asset of the Dominion from 1898 to 1902 inclusively, adding that the true statement of the financial operations of the I. C. R. in the past five years, is as follows:

1892.

Working expenses	$3,327,648
Capital expenditures	252,756
Total expenditure		$3,580,404
Total earnings		3,117,669
Difference		$ 462,735

1899.

Working expenses	$3,675,686
Capital expenditure	1,091,989
Total expenditure		$4,757,675
Total earnings		3,738,281
Difference		$1,019,344

1900.

Working expenses	$4,431,404
Capital expenditure	1,796,348
Total expenditure		$6,227,752
Total earnings		4,552,071
Difference		$1,675,681

1901.

Working expenses	$5,460,422
Capital expenditure	3,652,313
Total expenditure		$9,112,735
Total earnings		4,972,235
Difference		$4,140,500

1902.

Working expenses	$5,574,563
Capital expenditure	4,626,841
Total expenditure		$10,201,404
Total earnings		5,671,383
Difference		$ 4,530,021

By these figures the receipts of the road for the five years were $22,051,639. The expenditure charged as working expenses was $22,469,723 and charged as to capital $11,420,247. The total expenditure was $33,889,970, or $11,838.33 more than the earnings. Half of this sum may be represented by increased plant and improvement on the railway as compared with the condition five years ago. The rest is deficit.

A correspondent writes alleging the scarcity of medium-sized houses in Belleville, with modern conveniences. Our correspondent says that parties are looking for houses of this description now, and that one family fear they will have to leave this city because they cannot get one to suit them, all the houses available being either too large or too small, or utterly without conveniences. This, if true, is a serious matter, which calls for immediate action. Belleville cannot afford to lose residents, and just now, when there is an excellent prospect of more families moving in, it would be deplorable if property-owners stood in their own light by being penny-wise and pound foolish. There are many houses in this city, we are told, which have not had a dollar's worth of repairs in years. No wonder the owners deplore the lack of tenants. Other landlords look after their houses well, and as a consequence the "To-Let" sign doesn't hang in their windows twenty-four hours after a tenant moves out. Think this over, you ladies and gentlemen who own property.

The result in North Grey has had the effect of making many Liberals look blue. The people are growing tired of a Government which tries to pull two ways at once. It is gratifying to see that, in Ontario, the electors are not led away by race cries, as they are in Quebec, where the fact that the Premier is a French-Canadian is sufficient to win bye-elections.

That election in North Grey must have put a kind of a Tarte taste in Laurier's mouth.

McKeown's DRUG STORE

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES,

upon the chance which brought me there. That I was a prisoner I did not doubt, until the old man at my side said to me cheerily:

"Well, old chap, you've come through it like a major, though I was mighty dubus a spell about that pesky ball. But old Aunt Bab and me fished it out, and since then you've begun to mend."

"'Where am I? Who are you?' I asked, and he replied: 'Who be I? Why, I'm Jack Jennins, the rariest, redhotedest secesh there is in these yer parts, so the Rebs thinks; but 'twixt you and me, boy, I'm the tallest kind of a Union—got a piece of the old flag sewed inside of my boots, and every night before sleepin' I prays the Lord to gin Abe the victory, and raise Cain generally in t'other camp, and forgive Jack Jennins for tellin' so many lies, and makin' b'lieve he's one thing when you know and he knows he's t'other. If I've spared one Union chap, I'll bet I have a hundred, me and old Bab, a black woman who lives here and tends to the cases I fotch her, till we contrive to git 'em inter Tennessee, what they hev to shift for themselves.'

"For three weeks longer I staid up in that loft, and in that time three more escaped prisoners were brought there, and one Union refugee from North Carolina. We left in company one wild, rainy night, when the storm and darkness must have been sent for special protection, and Jack Jennings cried like a little child when he bade me good-bye, promising, if he survived the war, to find his way to the North and visit me in New York.

"We found these Unionists everywhere, and especially among the mountains of Tennessee, where, but for their timely aid, we had surely been recaptured. With blistered feet and bruised limbs we reached the lines at last, when fever attacked me for the second time and brought me near to death. Somebody wrote to you, but you never received it, and when I grew better I would not let them write again, as I wanted to surprise you. As soon as I was able I started North, my thoughts full of the joyful meeting in store—a meeting which I dreaded too, for I knew you must think me dead, and I felt so sorry for you, my darling, knowing, as I did, you would mourn for your soldier husband. That my darling has mourned is written on her face, and needs no words to tell it; but that is over now." Mark said, folding his wife closer to him, and kissing the pale lips, while he told her how, arriving at Albany, he had telegraphed to his mother asking where Helen was.

"In Salverton," was the reply, and so he came on in the morning train, meeting his mother in Springfield as he had half expected to do, knowing that she could leave New York in time to join him there.

Those were happy moments which they passed together upon that ledge of rocks, happy enough to atone for all the dreaded past, and when at last they rose and slowly retraced their steps to the farm-house, it seemed to Mark that Helen's cheeks were rounder than when he found her, while Helen knew that the arm on which she leaned was stronger than when it first encircled her an hour or two before.

CHAPTER LI.

In the same train with Mrs. Banker and Mark, Bell Cameron came with Bob, but father Cameron was not able to come; he would gladly have done so if he could, and he sent his blessing to Katy with the wish that she might be very happy in her second married life. This message Bell gave to Katy, and then tried to form some reasonable excuse for her mother's and Juno's absence, for she could not tell how haughtily both had declined the invitation, Juno finding fault because Katy had not waited longer than two years, and Mrs. Cameron blaming her for being so very vulgar as to be married at home, instead of in church. On this point Katy herself had been a little disquieted, feeling how much more appropriate it was that she be married in the church, but shrinking from standing again a bride at the same altar where she had once before been made a wife. She could not do it, she finally decided; there would be too many harrowing memories crowding upon her mind, and as Morris did not particularly care where the ceremony was performed, it was settled that it should be at the house, even though Mrs. Deacon Bannister did say that "she had supposed Dr. Grant too High Church to do anything so Presbyterianny as that."

Bell's arrival at the farm-house was timely, for the unexpected appearance in their midst of one whom they looked upon as surely dead had stunned and bewildered the family to such an extent that it needed the presence of just such a matter-of-fact, self-possessed woman as Bell, to bring things back to their original shape. It was wonderful how the city girl fitted into the vacant niches, seeing to everything which needed seeing to, and still finding time to steal away alone with Lieutenant Bob, who kept her in a painful state of blushing, by constantly wishing it was his bridal night as well as Dr. Grant's, and by inveighing against the weeks which must intervene, ere the day appointed for the grand ceremony, to take place in Grace Church, and which was to make Bell his wife.

"Come in here, Helen, I have something to show you," Mrs. Banker said, after she had again embraced and wept over her long lost son, whose return was not quite real yet; and leading her daughter-in-law to her bed room, she showed her the elegant white silk which had been made for her just after her marriage, two years before, and which, with careful forethought, she had brought with her, as more suitable now for the wedding than Helen's mourning weeds.

"I made the most of my time last night, after receiving Mark's telegram, and had it modernized somewhat," she said. "And I brought your pearls, for you will be most as much a bride as Katy, and I have a pride in seeing my son's wife appropriately dressed."

Softly the night shadows fell around the farm-house, and in the rooms below a rather mixed group was assembled—all the elite of the town, with many of Aunt Betsy's neighbors, and the doctor's patients, who had come to see their physician married, rejoicing in his happiness, and glad that the mistress of Linwood was not to be a stranger, but the young girl who had grown up in their midst, and who, by suffering and sorrow, had been moulded into a noble woman, worthy of Dr. Grant. She was ready now for her second bridal, in her dress of white, with no vestige of color in her face, and her great blue eyes shining with a brilliancy which made them almost black. Occasionally, as her thoughts leaped backward over a period of almost six years, a tear trembled on her long eyelashes, but Morris kissed it away, asking if she were sorry.

"Oh, no, not sorry that I am to be your wife," she answered; "but it is not possible that I should forget entirely the roughness of the road which has led me to you."

"They are waiting for you," was said several times, and down the stairs passed Mark Ray and Helen, Lieutenant Bob and Bell, with Dr. Grant and Katy, whose face, as she stood again before the clergyman and spoke her marriage vows, shone with a strange, peaceful light, which made it seem to those who gazed upon her like the face of some pure angel.

In heavy rustling silk, which actually trailed an inch, and cap of real lace, Aunt Betsy moved among the crowd, her face glowing with the satisfaction she felt at seeing her neices so much admired, and her heart so full of good will and toleration that after the supper was over and she fancied a few of the younger ones were beginning to feel tired, she suggested to Bell that she might start a dance if she had a mind to, either in the kitchen or the parlor, it did not matter where, and "Ephraim would not care an atom," a remark which brought from Mrs. Deacon Bannister a most withering look of reproach and slightly endangered Aunt Betsy's standing in the church.

Irritating Form of Itching Piles

A SOURCE OF CONTINUAL WORRY AND ANNOYANCE—SLEEP AND REST IMPOSSIBLE UNTIL RELIEF CAME WITH THE USE OF

Dr. Chase's Ointment

All classes of people are subject to piles, but especially those who are exposed to dampness. Teamsters, farmers, railroad men and laborers suffer greatly from this distressing ailment.

While there are plenty of remedies recommended as a treatment for piles, Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only actual and guaranteed cure. It is truly wonderful how the merit of this preparation has become known throughout this continent and Europe.

But when a person has endured the torture of piles, the itching, stinging sensation, the sleepless nights of misery, the annoyance during the day, when going about the daily work, he feels grateful for the relief and cure brought by Dr. Chase's Ointment, and does not forget to recommend it to his friends.

Mr. John Tuttle, expressman, 107 Stewart street, Kingston, Ont., states: "Like most men who do much driving, sitting a great deal, and often exposed to dampness, I have been a great sufferer from piles. As a matter of fact, I had piles for a number of years, and tried nearly everything I could hear of in a vain attempt to get cured, but only succeeded when I used Dr. Chase's Ointment. The first application of this grand preparation brought me relief from the dreadful itching, burning sensations, and less than two boxes made a perfect and permanent cure. I am grateful for the freedom from suffering, and desire others to benefit by my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cts. a box, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the billiousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 68 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

Many a man's self-conceit is due to his ignorance.

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

When one gets hopping mad his reason goes on a crutch.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These comes from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

If thy friend is honey, do not lick him up altogether.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Wedding rings in St. Kilda used to be made of worsted.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Do not live near a pious fool.

These two desirable qualifications, pleasant to the taste and at the same time effectual, are to be found in Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, Children like it.

The best wheel of fortune is honest labor.

When all other preparations fail, try Holloway's Corn Cure. No pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it.

Iridium, which costs $780 per pound, is the hardest metal known.

To get relief from indigestion, biliousness, constipation or torpid liver without disturbing the stomach or purging the bowels, take a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills, they will please you.

Attend no auctions if thou hast no money.

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.

Over 250,000 copies of Charles Dickens' novels are sold annually.

They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system.

A woman never knows where the match box is.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER, Belleville.

TIMELY TOPICS

The Lenten season is once more upon us, and this annual season of fasting and prayer has both a positive and a negative significance. To the multitudes of Christian people throughout the world who observe Lent, the forty days' duration of this commemorative season means a reaffirmation of the faith which all profess and a withdrawal of the thoughts from the distractions of the world. But to those who do not particularly observe Lent, the season has none the less a meaning and an influence which it is impossible not to feel. Lent is a reminder both to the unworldly and the worldly that it is well for a time to call a halt to the vivacity of social life and to the merely physical and materialistic phases of existence. The mind needs time to collect and refresh itself—to retire as it were within its own citadel of quiet thought. This is a part at least of what may be learned from the general observance of the Lenten period by the Christian world.

Talking of ministers, an exchange tells a story of a minister who one Sunday morning preached only ten minutes, a most unusual thing for a Presbyterian minister to do. "Brethren," said the minister, when he stopped suddenly. "I have a dog at home that must be peculiarly fond of paper. He has eaten that part of my sermon that I have not delivered, and I'll have to stop here." The journal does not mention the breed of the dog, but it is safe to assume that no ministers in Belleville own one of the same kind.

BENJAMIN HOLMAN ARRESTED.

Dominion Express Agent at Windsor Charged With Embezzlement.

Windsor, Feb. 26.—In spite of the statement of Benj. Holman, Canadian Pacific agent in Windsor, on Tuesday that he was not short in his accounts Crown Prosecutor Clark ordered his arrest on the charge of embezzling $800 from the Dominion Express Company, of which he was also agent. Travelling Auditor J. G. McKay made the complaint. A preliminary examination was held before Magistrate Bartlet, with McKay and Clark as witnesses for the prosecution, and Holman was committed for trial. Bail was placed at $800, with two sureties. Dr. Charles E. Green and Albert E. Pigott furnished the required bond. The Magistrate said to the defendant, "I suppose that you can settle the matter by turning over the sum missing. I imagine that's all they want. They don't want your body." Holman would say nothing further than to insist again that he was not guilty. His attorney is J. W. Hanna. Nobody in Windsor seems to believe that Holman is guilty.

A NEW DEPARTURE

A NEW, EFFECTUAL AND CONVENIENT CURE FOR CATARRH.

Of catarrh remedies there is no end, but of catarrh cures, there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure.

The old practice of snuffing salt water through the nose would often relieve, and the washes, douches, powders and inhalers in common use are very little, if any, better than the old-fashioned water douche.

The use of inhalers and the application of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is no more reasonable than to rub the back to cure kidney disease. Catarrh is just as much a blood disease as kidney trouble or rheumatism and it can not be cured by local treatment any more than they can be.

To cure catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach, an internal antiseptic treatment is necessary to drive the catarrhal poison out of the blood and system, and the new catarrh cure is designed on this plan, and the remarkable success of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because being used internally, it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomach, liver and bowels.

Wm. Zimmerman, of St. Joseph, relates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of catarrh sufferers everywhere. He says: "I neglected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes, and finally even my stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me, and then I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position, as I was clerk and my hearing was absolutely necessary.

Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, another a catarrh salve, but they were no good in my case, nor was anything else, until I heard of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and bought a package at my drug store. They benefitted me from the start and in less than four months I was completely cured of catarrh, although I had suffered nearly all my life from it.

"They are pleasant to take and so much more convenient to use than other catarrh remedies that I feel I cannot say enough in favor of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets."

PRICE CONCESSIONS.

In some of the Standard Issues the past week, to some extent due to crippled wire service, offer excellent opportunity at present for purchasing some of the gilt-edged stocks. Pools in many stocks are again accumulating their specialties, preparatory to a spring bull campaign. To buy these special issues will be to make good profits. We will be pleased to enumerate the stocks we deem the most profitable to buy at present, giving our reasons for our opinions. We will also purchase and carry any of the active issues dealt in upon the exchanges, stocks in multiples of 10 shares and upwards, upon a minimum margin of 3 cents per bushel. Cotton in multiples of 100 bales and upwards, upon a minimum margin of $1.00 per bale. These three staples are especially active at present, consequently attractive to quick traders.

In his autobiography, "Citizen" George Francis Train says Emerson has had more influence on his life than any other man in the world. Here is his account of how he met the author under rather peculiar circumstances: "One day a gentleman, looking like a farmer, came into the office and asked to see Mr. Train. I remember that it was the fifth of October, '47. I replied to this question that my name was Train. 'I mean the old gentleman,' he said. I told him that Colonel Train was out of the office at the time, but as I had charge of the ships, I might be able to attend to his business. But I added that I was extremely busy, as the 'Washington Irving' was to sail in an hour. 'That is just what I am here for,' said he. 'I want to sail on that ship; I want passage for England.' I told him there was but one stateroom left, and that he could have both berths for the price of one—$75—but that he must get aboard in great haste, as everything was ready, and the ship was waiting for final orders. He said he was ready, and I started to fill out a passenger slip. 'What is your name?' I asked. 'Ralph Waldo Emerson,' he replied. Then he took out of his pocket an old wallet, with twine wrapped around it four or five times, opened it carefully, and counted out $75. I could not wait to see whether it was correct, but threw it in the drawer and took him on board. Mr. Emerson was then starting on his famous visit to England, during which he was to visit Carlyle."

Among the stories that most amused the late Queen, who had a keen sense of humor, was that told her by the late Duchess of Athole "of the comical advertisement regarding the Dunkeld and Blairgowrie coach, which was posted in the village of Dunkeld. The coach was named 'The Duchess of Athole,' and the inn from which it started was 'The Duke's Arms.' The notice ran as follows: 'The Duchess of Athole leaves the Duke's Arms every lawful morning at six o'clock.'"

In her reminiscences, Henrietta Cockran relates an amusing anecdote of Robert Browning. She relates that as she sat in the drawing-room of her London house one afternoon, she happened to look out of the back window. "And there," she says, "I saw Mr. Browning nursing a goose, absolutely carrying it in his arms. The poet came into the hall with the goose. I laughed, remarking that it was a queer kind of pet. 'It is so clever and affectionate,' answered Mr. Browning; 'it is not well, so I am looking after it. It follows me about just like a dog.'"

A Prominent Labor Man of Toronto Speaks of the Great Benefit He Received Through the Use of O. R. Kidney Cure.

Toronto, Nov. 16, 1902.

To the O. R. Medicine Co., Limited:

Gentlemen,—I certainly owe you a letter of thanks for the benefit I have received through the use of your O. R. Kidney Cure and Liver Pills. I am a carpenter, and have been greatly handicapped in my work through being troubled with lame back and sore kidneys. I doctored without receiving any benefit, and would be compelled to quit work for a week at a time. I was very bad and could hardly walk when I heard of the O. R. Kidney Cure. I procured a bottle and in less than one hour after taking the first dose I was relieved of the pain, and in three days I was at work, and have been at work every day since. I followed up the Kidney Cure by the use of the O. R. Liver Pills, taking one after dinner, and have never felt better than at the present time. I believe that I am permanently cured.

Sincerely yours,
M. A. MERRITT,
1227 Queen St.

Deputy Returning Officers Cannot be Prosecuted.

Toronto, Feb. 26. — Judge McCrimmon, after hearing long legal arguments, pro and con, decided yesterday afternoon that the liquor act of 1902 did not provide any punishment for deputy returning officers who failed to perform the duties required of them after the poll had closed. This decision was given in the case of Martin Healey, who acted as deputy for polling subdivision 66, South Toronto, and who, it was alleged, had failed to count the votes accurately, counted votes he ought not to have counted, and also failed to make the necessary declaration when he had finished the count. This disposes of the charges against M. S. Doyle, D. R. O. at subdivision 82, South Toronto; W. T. Clarke, D. R. O. at subdivision 62, South Toronto, and a further charge against Thomas Cavan, who was acquitted on Tuesday on four charges in connection with his duties as D. R. O. at subdivision 26, South Toronto

THE SOLE SURVIVOR.

Only Man Who Escaped Mont Pelee Disaster.

New York, Feb. 26. — Joseph Sibarace, said to be the only survivor of the inhabitants of St. Pierre, Martinique, who were in that city when the terrible eruption of Mont Pelee occurred, arrived here ragged and scarred, in the steerage of the steamship Fontabelle. He was in a dungeon of the St. Pierre Prison at the time of the catastrophe. He is 27 years of age. In his peculiar West Indian French the man, talking through an interpreter, tried to tell his story.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Grain Prices Little Changed—The Live Stock Trade.

Mr. Walter Barker, one of our prominent young men was united in marriage to Miss Hanna, of Stirling, on Wednesday last.

The post office here is still closed, but there is a hope that it will be speedily re-opened, as word has been received that the Government has received the petition of the ratepayers concerned, and that they will give it their careful consideration. This office has been in existence for thirty years and the people naturally feel sorely over the matter. This should awaken the people to the necessity of making a demand for rural delivery and some responsible person should see that a petition is circulated in every school section. The country people are to blame if they do not work for this much needed service.

The oyster supper at Mr. Gilbert Thrasher's home for the ladies and gentlemen who helped in the entertaining of the different institute meeting held throughout the township, was a decided success. A splendid supper was prepared by the ladies and an excellent programme rendered

ELMWOOD.

A number of young people invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald, on Friday evening last. Dancing was indulged in until the wee sma' hours. Recitations were also given by Mrs. Chas. Buscard and Miss Jessie Tuite, and added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Miss Kirby, of Belleville, visited her friend, Miss Mary McAvoy of this place, for a few days last week.

Miss Mabel Kidd, of Napanee, is the guest of the Misses Lynch.

Quite a number from here took in the C.O.F. ball on Monday night.

The sympathy of their many friends is extended to Messrs. Allen and Ezra Maybee, in the death of their sister, Mrs. Reddick, which occurred at her home in Trenton on Wednesday, 18th inst.

Old Rules For Night Policemen.

Old Boston is vividly brought to mind by the following excerpt from the selectmen's minutes, dated Nov. 1, 1709, containing instructions to watchmen:

"In going the rounds care must be taken that the watchmen are not noisy, but behave themselves with strict decorum, that they frequently give the time of the night and what the weather is with a distinct but moderate voice, excepting at times when it is necessary to pass in silence in order to detect and secure persons that are out on unlawful actions.

"You and your division must endeavor to suppress all routs, riots and other disorders that may be committed in the night and secure such persons as may be guilty, that proper steps may be taken next morning for a prosecution as the law directs. We absolutely forbid your taking private satisfaction or any bribe that may be offered you to let such go or to conceal their offense from the selectmen."

Japanese Wives.

The Japanese woman does not blacken her teeth under any mistaken idea that it makes her attractive; she does it to make herself unattractive. Her husband is supposed to know her value. If he doesn't, he divorces her. He makes no provision for her, and she has no dowry from her family. But a divorced woman in Japan nearly always marries again. She brings nothing but a gentle and obedient slave and takes nothing away with her but the same valuable commodity.

The reason why lower class women receive more consideration from their husbands than their upper class sisters is that they are capable of earning their own livings, which Japanese ladies are not. So thoroughly is this recognized that a lower class woman divorces her husband if she is not satisfied, a thing which never happens in the more select circles unless the woman is an heiress, when the husband is of as little consideration as a lady. It is only when she has no brothers that a Japanese woman may expect money from her parents. If they have only a daughter to leave their money to, the son-in-law has to take her name—and the consequences.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

Ananias.

Who is it sits from morning light
Along the creek till late at night
And never gets a gol-ding'd bite?
The fisherman.

Who is it tells his friends next day
He caught a fish which, truth to say,
Was a two footer anyway?
The fisherman.

Reason to Suspect.

"Sometimes," said Uncle Eben, "a boy has reason to suspect dat he's bein' scolded foh doin' what his fathuh would do hisse'f if he weren't too busy or hadn't the rheumatiz."

Seasonable Declaration.

Now is the time when we expect to meet
The ruffled shirt waist man upon the street;
But, though he is befrilled and loudly truffled,
Our feelings, more than his shirt waist, are ruffled.

A POUND'S A POUND.

But a Pound of Feathers Is Heavier Than a Pound of Lead.

That old question about a pound of feathers and a pound of lead takes on new interest when we look at it in a simple scientific way. It seems absurd, of course, that a pound of one thing could be heavier than a pound of another thing, and yet that is exactly what may be shown in this case; not that the pound of lead is heavier than the pound of feathers, as most persons would say on the spur of the moment, but just the other way—a pound of feathers is heavier than a pound of lead.

This apparently inconsistent statement may be quite easily proved. With accurate scales weigh a pound of lead, using ordinary shot for convenience; then with the same scales weigh a pound of feathers, putting them into a muslin bag for the purpose. The feathers and the bag together must weigh exactly a pound.

The next step in the operation will show apparently that there is no difference whatever in the weight of the two articles, for you put the shot in one pan of a balance and the bag of feathers in the other, and after a little seesawing they will come to an exact level.

Now, however, the scientific phase of the question presents itself, and you are reminded that in weighing the articles thus in the open air you have taken no account of the buoyant power of the air, which bears everything up in proportion to the object's bulk. As the bag of feathers is of greater bulk than the shot, it is borne up more than the shot is, and for that reason it is necessary to use a little more than a pound of feathers to balance a pound of lead.

This, however, is theoretical. The practical proof is obtained when you place the balance bearing the lead and the feathers on the receiver of an air-pump and cover them with the glass bell. Then exhaust the air, and you will find that the pan bearing the feathers will sink and the pan bearing the lead will rise, thus showing that when weighed in the ordinary way the quantity of feathers used to make a pound is actually more than a pound.

FINS OF THE FLYING FISH.

They Are Used as Parachutes Rather Than as Wings.

Out from the warmer seas fly the flying fish, the fish of which every one has heard, which yet none can see for the first time without a gasp of amazement, without a feeling as though beholding the miraculous, the fish which has given rise to more untruthful stories than any other fish in all the seas.

Undoubtedly the flying fish has wings like a bird; undoubtedly it flies, yet not as a bird. It does not flap the winglike, pectoral fins on which it is upborne, nor, once launched in the air, can it change its course by any movement of its wings until it dips again to the water. Yet it will pass a ship making ten knots in the hour and travel in the air as far as 500 feet at a time.

Astounding, indeed, is the sight of a shoal of flying fish taking to the air, skimming far over the surface when the sea is calm, leaping high over great waves when gales blow. Fish seem ludicrously out of their element in the air, but that fish should fly is not really more wonderful than that some animals and birds, like the otter or the penguin, dive and swim to perfection.

The flying fish's fins are really parachutes to support and steady its body rather than wings to propel it. The lobe of the tail gives propulsion to the body as it leaves the water. A flying fish measures about a foot in length, and its long, transparent pectoral fins reach almost to the tail; but, though very large when expanded, they can be folded up very neatly. Its flight is short and intermittent, and it must needs continually dip into the sea to give itself a fresh start.

Accurate Delay.

Many stories are told of the lack of punctuality upon southern railroads. It is said that when a New England man found his train, advertised to leave at 11 o'clock, starting at exactly that hour he complimented the conductor.

"Just on time, I see," he said genially. "All this talk I've heard of the lateness of your trains is without foundation, I've no doubt."

The conductor smiled at him gently.

"This train, sir," he said without a trace of embarrassment, "is not today's 11 o'clock train, sir. It is yesterday's 11 o'clock. Today's will probably not get here from way down until tomorrow, sir."

After the Dance.

"I hope you have enjoyed the evening, Miss Oliver."

"Not excessively, Mr. Roland. The men are such wretched dancers. I have had only one really good partner."

"My own experience precisely."

"Yes, Mr. Van Twister is the best dancer I ever saw. There he goes now with Grace Turner. It is a pleasure to watch them, isn't it?"

"Yes; he does very nicely—with a partner like your friend Grace. She is the one to whom I was referring just now."

"So I supposed."

PROPERTY OF THE COMPANY

This Company has secured 10,000 acres of the choicest wheat lands in Assiniboia, Canada, having paid to the owners in addition to cash 60,000 shares of its Capital Stock for which the owners are completely equipping the property with all the necessary buildings, steam plows, steam threshers, drills, waggons, tools, fences, and everything necessary to operate the said 10,000 acres.

This Company's property will always be equipped with all the latest improved necessary machinery to produce wheat at the lowest cost. It is the intention of the Company to have its own elevator, of a capacity sufficient to store its entire production, thus enabling them to take advantage of the highest market prices from time to time. The market for wheat is unlimited.

The Company also has an option on 10,000 additional acres of the same character of wheat land as the 10,000 acres above mentioned, the property being located seven miles from the Canadian Pacific Railway, where large elevators are ready to receive the product.

This is an investment that will enhance in value as time goes by, not only from the large production of wheat, but the increased value of the Company's lands from year to year.

DIVIDENDS

Dividends of 15 per cent. per year, it is estimated, can be paid semi-annually, December 1st and June 1st of each year. Outside of the amount paid in dividends, the surplus earnings will be accumulated, and will either be divided among the shareholders as extra dividends, or used to purchase new wheat territory; or be otherwise employed as may be hereafter determined.

Send for the illustrated Prospectus and Maps of the Company's property, which will be mailed Free on Request.

SUBSCRIPTION TERMS.

The full amount of $5.00 per share must accompany the order. The right is reserved to allot a smaller number of shares than the amount subscribed for, in which event the balance of the money will be returned with the shares allotted.

Application will be made for a settlement of these shares on the London, Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges in due course.

DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION?

REV. MR. TOMBLIN HAS AN OFFERING ON THE SUBJECT.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—The communications of the Rev. Messrs. Hutton and Fraser are in happy contrast to the acrimonious epistles of the first correspondent on that side.

The 10th Article of Religion is sound doctrine, and ought to settle the question at the head of these letters. It teaches that God's work is both antecedent to, and concurrent with, man's efforts for salvation. Regeneration, creating anew, is God's work. Conversion, turning to God, is man's.

But this is not the question under discussion, if I have perceived aright. It is rather: Is the baptism of the Spirit given only in conjunction with water baptism? Mr. Ackerill has taken the affirmative, and the Rev. Mr. Gilliland the negative. The question amounts to this: Has any man such a monopoly of Divine Grace as to enable him to shut his neighbor out of the Kingdom of Heaven by withholding water baptism? This question has cost our fathers too much to be regarded lightly. I am for the negative, because: 1. TRUE RELIGION IS SPIRITUAL IN ITS NATURE AND IS RECEIVED THROUGH FAITH. The Rev. Mr. Hutton states that the new birth establishes a new relationship. It does that, and much more. It brings new life to those who were dead in trespasses and sins, Eph., 2, 1. It purifies the heart, Acts, 15, 8, 9. It makes "a new creature," 2 Cor., 5, 17. It brings peace, joy, hope and sheds the love of God abroad in the heart, Rom., 5, 1, 5.

And all this is through faith. "To as many as received Him, gave He the power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." John, 1, 12. Here, then, is a fact that makes it impossible that water baptism and the new birth should always be simultaneous. When a person believes with the heart unto righteousness the Holy Spirit does not wait until some man is ready with a vessel of water before he fulfils "the promise of the Father." At Pentecost, when they "gladly received the Word" they received the Holy Ghost. This we know from the Word of Him who has promised to give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him. Doubtless some had to wait for hours for baptism. Does Mr. Fraser, or anyone else, believe that such persons had to wait their turn, for the new heart, and joy and peace in believing?

We all admit that the two baptisms may occasionally be simultaneous. But we cannot conceive of the Holy Spirit in saving a man, as being limited by the will, or convenience, of any second party, no matter what his pretentions. Faith has brought the love of God to the heart of multitudes, long before the seal of baptism could be set to the Spirit's work. Men have received the witness of their adoption on the ocean, or in the forest, months, or even years, before outward ordinances could be reached.

2. Again: If the Spirit's work be as above described, operating on the mind, the heart and the will, such regeneration cannot take place in infant baptism. Nor is it needed. "By the righteousness of one, the free gift hath come upon all men to justification of life." Unconditional salvation for infants, and salvation by faith to those capable of it. "The Lamb of God taketh away the sin of the world." Original sin. "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." We baptize them in obedience to the great commission—Christ's only command to His Church on that subject. "Go ye therefore and make disciples of all the nations." etc. They are capable of being disciples—learners. They can be baptized and taught. Education begins with life, and they have a right to the seal of discipleship and to Godly nurture from their earliest consciousness. The promise of the Spirit is to our children, as the light of Divine truth dawns upon their tender minds. But regeneration and baptism cannot be simultaneous in infants. The great commission and the parallel passage in Mark are the only recorded utterances of our Saviour on water baptism. Had he intended John, 3, 5, to teach water baptism, it is strange that he never refers to it again until he was about to be taken up, and that the apostles never repeated the convenient formula. Also, that he did not say in Mark, 16, 16, He that believeth not, AND IS NOT BAPTIZED, shall be damned. According to our ritualistic friends. He had said as much to Nicodemus.

No, His reasonable declaration at the end of His ministry is proof that he did not make the unreasonable one imputed to Him at the beginning. Baptism is not a matter of individual responsibility, like faith, or obedience, and Christ would not shut one person out of the kingdom for the fault of another.

The true key to the meaning of the expression "born of water" is found in Isaiah, 48, 1. "Born of the flesh" is the form used in the 6th verse of John 3, and three other forms with the same meaning occur in John, 1, 13. Nicodemus understood that to be born of the Spirit was the one thing needful.

I have not forgotten Mr. Fraser's reference to the baptism of proselytes. But that does not clear up the difficulties which I have pointed out. Nor does it account for the subject cropping out of the Saviour's discourse at that time and place, and never again until he was about to be taken up. To those who make so much of baptism, the Saviour's reticence on the subject must seem marvellous, as well as St. Paul's strong language on the same.

4. But the most decisive proof that water baptism and the Spirit's baptism are not necessarily concurrent, is the case of Cornelius, where the Spirit fell on him and his friends, during the preaching of Peter, Acts, 10, 44; and water baptism followed.

I am as anxious for Christian unity and Scriptural truth as Mr. Hutton, and if I have misapprehended anyone, I shall be glad to learn better. We expect the articles and formularies of a national church to be comprehensive. The Anglican Church contains some of the noblest Christians, clerical and lay. But some have set their faces toward the dark ages, and toward the muddy Tiber, as the goal of unity. It lies not in that direction. The day for that has gone by. Let us look for a unity that is not stagnant, but progressive; not ecclesiastical slavery, but evangelical freedom, and we shall not seek it in vain.

Yours truly,
WM. TOMBLIN.

THOMAS BROWN IS MISTAKEN

SHOOTING AFFRAYS DO NOT TAKE PLACE IN THIS GOOD CITY.

This morning Chief Newton received a communication from Mr. Thos. Brown, of Buffalo, asking information in reference to his nephew, one Patrick Francis Doyle, who, the letter states, was shot and killed here some 10 years ago. Mr. Brown desired some information about the affair. It is evident that a mistake has been made in the place as no shooting affray resulting in the death of a person has taken place here within the last quarter of a century.

Sports and Pastimes.

SPORTING COMMENT.

The Wellingtons took a brace and beat the Cornwalls on their own ice last night, and the Iron Dukes are now senior champions of the O.H.A. It is now up to them to go on a hunt for the Stanley silverware, but, judging by the way the Ottawas are playing lately, the cup emblematic of the hockey championship of the world is not destined to take a trip to Toronto this spring, though everyone in this province would like to see it do so.

Toronto Telegram: If Marks, of Belleville, played baseball for money, as the Marlboros alleged, down and out go both him and his club, and back in line come the clever young Marlboros. The latter lost their heads for a few moments in Belleville, and the team from the sleepy old town seized the occasion to run in five goals in those few minutes. For the rest of the time the Belleville contest was a corn-cracker, according to the critics. Some of the latter aver that if the little Dukes had scored the first goal they would have won the match as well as the round. But they didn't.

The proprietor of the Telegram is Mr. John Ross Robertson, who is also president of the O.H.A., and his paper is looked on as the organ of that body. The above paragraph would make it appear that the Telegram has not much love for Belleville, though its sporting man appears to dote on "the clever young Marlboros." It is hard to see how the O.H.A. Executive can consistently uphold the protest of the Marlboros. If Marks had been a "ringer" there might have been good grounds for a protest, but the lad had played with Belleville all season. If the O.H.A. finds him guilty and throws out the last game played, what about Port Hope, which lost two games to Belleville with Marks playing? If one game was unfair they were all unfair. Consequently Port Hope would have the right to claim that they had not lost a game this season, and could, in fairness, demand a chance to play for the championship. The Marlboros are a way offside, and their tin horn, squealing tactics will earn them more contempt than respect.

As to the statement that the Marlboros "lost their heads for a few moments," that is rank nonsense. The writer must have lost his brains when he wrote it. The Marlboros were fairly outplayed in both halves, and never had the ghost of a show of winning. The players acknowledged it themselves, and the other absurd claim was invented by a newspaper man with a fertile imagination.

Kingston Whig: Toronto Marlboros have protested the Belleville match on the ground that Marks is a professional. This was Port Hope's recent move, but the evidence prepared by Kingston parties to checkmate this caused a speedy withdrawal of the charge, and the Marlboros will gain nothing by repeating it. The Toronto team deserve no consideration whatever. It went to Belleville with a lead of five goals, played on a rink as large as its own, and allowed Belleville to win by eight to two. Marlboros must have been badly worsted, and their play on Monday night entitles them only to a seat in the defeated row.

The sudden death game scheduled for to-morrow night between Belleville and Barrie has been postponed, owing to the Marks protest. Concerning this The Globe says: "The Marlboros have followed up their notice of protest given before play started in last Monday night's game, by lodging a formal protest against the amateur standing of Marks, of the Belleville forward line. After Port Hope raised the question of Marks' eligibility, but without going on with a protest—on account, it was reported, of a threat of retaliation—this player was left off the Belleville team for both games against Kingston and the first game against the Marlboros. When he was put on for the home game at Belleville notice was given through the referee that he would be protested, but Manager Burrell said, "Let them go ahead and protest him." Marks played, and made enough improvement in the team to enable Belleville to win the round by one goal. A message from Belleville yesterday said that the protest would probably not be defended. If the objection to Belleville succeeds the Marlboros will meet Barrie in home and home games, and the winning team will meet Paris in the final. Secretary W. A. Buchanan was notified to-day that Belleville intend to fight the Marlboro protest. Marks denies that he played baseball professionally.

Belleville and Barrie were given a sudden death game, but the poor little Marlboros will play home and home matches. Yes, indeed, the protest will be defended, and there will be the merriest kind of a little fight on before Belleville goes down and out. Rumor says that one of the officials of the Marlboros was going around offering $10 and $25 apiece for affidavits. Nice kind of sportsmen, those fellows!

Whatever club holds the Stanley Cup next year, it won't be Montreal, for the Victorias of Montreal beat them last night by 3 to 2, and Dicky Boon and his "Little Men of Iron" can now hang up their sticks. If the Victorias can beat Quebec, which should be easy, they will be tied with the Senators. The winners of the play-off will clash with Toronto Wellingtons for the blue ribbon of Canada's national game.

TROUSERS.

A new pair of trousers with that old coat and vest which are yet too good to throw away, would make the whole look almost as good as a new suit. An extra pair of trousers is a good thing to have around the house, for the trousers need rest as well as a man; and then, do you ever think what would happen if the pair in use should get lost or stolen? The Oak Hall sell trousers that will please.

THE BARBER DIDN'T KEEP ON SHAVING.

STORY OF A SMOOTH TALKER AND MANY ANXIOUS "FRIENDS."

A few days ago a tramp barber struck this city and secured temporary employment in an up-town barber shop. Being of a jovial disposition he soon made friends with many whom he came in contact with. He left the city as suddenly as he arrived, and there are a few creditors mourning his absence. It has leaked out that he secured money from three or four parties, $10 being the sum obtained from one of his confidential friends. It was also discovered, after he was gone, that a return ticket to Assiniboia, which had been left at the barber shop for safe keeping, had disappeared. The tonsorial tramp is suspected of taking the ticket to assist him out of the city.

IN ONE YEAR.

Magnets That Are Attracting Capital—Western Canada Has Easy Access to Every Continent on the Globe.

Made $2,097.85 in one year from 160 acres, besides paying for the farm and its running expenses! This is the report of one farmer who has gone into the wheat raising business in Western Canada. Such returns are the magnets that are attracting capital into the country at a rate that is astonishing Canada and that promises a development unparalleled in any agricultural country. The risks attending investment in the western prairies for wheat raising are at a minimum. The soil is practically inexhaustible in fertility, the climatic conditions furnish all requisites for perfect maturing of crops and make crop failure an impossibility. The railroads are keeping pace with the rapid increase in production and are making extensions into the newer districts. The Canadian wheat is of the best quality and commands first place in all markets. She can ship her products from two seaboards and has easy access to every continent on the globe. Wheat raising on a large scale is attended by less expense proportionally than on the small form. The figures given above are not exceptional and indicate the possibilities in the case of extensive operations. Great aggregations of capital are going into the country for this purpose. Investments are regarded as safe as government bonds. One of the first companies to take advantage of the situation is the British-Canadian Wheat Raising Co., which represents 10,000 acres of the choicest wheat lands in Assiniboia, and is considering extensions. Its present holdings represent a wheat producing capacity of 300,000 bushels per year, and owing to the prolific nature of the western Canadian soil, this product can be duplicated each year for a century to come.

Varuna Will be Fast

Trenton Courier: Work has commenced on the steamer Varuna. The boiler is taken out and the bow is being remodelled and lengthened. The wheel shaft will be heavier and she will be driven at faster speed adding about two miles an hour to her speed. The upper deck will also be remodelled and a cabin built on deck. She will, in her reconstructed form carry over 100 more passengers, and show her stern to all other craft on the bay.

ONE COMMON CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

Perhaps the most general cause of headache and pain across the eyes is nasal catarrh. The simplest cure is to inhale the medicated vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and air passage of the throat, lungs and nose. It kills myriads of germs at every breath, clears away mucous discharges, preserves and heals the membrane. Catarrhozone is just a splendid remedy for headache, and its action is certain and unfailing in diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. A trial will convince the most sceptical that Catarrhozone is all right. Large size, $1.00; trial size 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

MARRIED AT CHATTERTON

A WEDDING YESTERDAY WHICH HAS SOME LOCAL INTEREST.

A pretty home wedding occurred at Chatterton yesterday, at the residence of the bride's father, when Mr. Donald Nicholson, son of Mr. Geo. Nicholson, County Councillor, was married to Miss Annie Leslie, formerly a student at Albert College, daughter of Mr. Thomas Leslie, of Chatterton. The wedding took place at high noon, and was witnessed by a large circle of relatives and friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Rennie, of Wallbridge, assisted by Rev. Mr. Goodwell. Miss Mary Leslie, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Charles McMechan, of this city, was groomsman. The bride was handsomely gowned in a travelling suit of blue ladies' cloth, trimmed with cream satin and applique, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid's dress was of navy blue ladies' cloth, trimmed with velvet and applique. She also carried a bouquet of white roses. Little Miss Gay looked very sweet as the flower girl. At the conclusion of the ceremony a recherche repast was served, after which the happy couple went east on a honeymoon trip. The presents were numerous and handsome. The groom's present to the bride was a set of black Persian lamb furs, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch studded with pearls, and to the best man a set of gold link cuff buttons.

DR. PITCHER CURES A LITTLE BOY

HIS MOTHER DELIGHTED WITH THE RAPID AND WONDERFUL RESULTS OF THE TREATMENT.

Mothers, anxious about their children who are suffering from weakness of the kidneys and bladder, should not hesitate in procuring Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. There is nothing to equal this remedy for healing and strengthening the weak kidneys, and giving the child vigor and animation.

Mrs. G. Grove, 11 Euclid Ave., Toronto, says: "My little boy Robbie, has been subject to kidney and bladder weakness for some time past which caused me much anxiety. I gave him half a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and he was completely cured and has not been troubled since. The Tablets not only have strengthened his weak kidneys, but in addition have made him healthier and brighter than he ever was before."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50 cents a bottle at druggists or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

The "Pinafore" Affair

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—In reply to Mr. John Cornelius' letter of Feb. 23rd, I wish to inform that gentleman that the statement to which he refers was never made at the "Pinafore" matinee. The following note, received from Master Russell Bell after the performance was ready to go on, will explain matters fully:

"Dear Sir,—I can't come down unless you will give me $5.00, as Mr. Cornelius won't let me unless you do.
"Yours truly,
"RUSSELL BELL."

As far as I can learn, Master Bell was not promised pay by the Band or by any other person, which would be impossible since there were nearly 140 other children deserving reimbursement fully as much as he. Great credit is due Master Horace Carroll, who took the part of Ralph Rackstraw at such short notice.

Thanking you for valuable space,
Respectfully yours,
H. D. TELGMANN.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

TWO MEN SERIOUSLY HURT NEAR PORT BRITAIN.

They Were Thawing Out the Stuff in a Blacksmith's Shop and the Building Was Demolished—Three Other Men Slightly Injured—At Toronto Hospital.

Port Hope, Feb. 26. — A bad accident happened on the new double track near Port Britain, while five men were eating their dinner in the blacksmith shop. One of the men had been thawing out some sticks of dynamite beside the boiler. The men were eating and talking, when suddenly the dynamite exploded, and Robt Hewson and K. Brownell were very seriously hurt, while the other three got off with less severe injuries. Robt. Hewson had his head and face badly torn. The side of the check was torn open. His injuries were dressed by Dr. Corbett. K. Brownell had his face badly cut, and it is not known whether his jawbone is broken or not. He was attended by Dr. Powers, and sent to the Toronto Hospital on the flyer this afternoon. The blacksmith shop was blown into fragments.

A DESPERATE FIGHT.

Two Miners And a Deputy Marshal Killed.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 26.—Two miners were killed, three fatally and three badly wounded, and one negro deputy marshal was shot to death in a pitched battle at Wright's coal works, Raleigh County, last night. Three officers were also fatally wounded.

The fight was betwen 100 deputy marshals and deputy sheriffs, under Chief Deputy Cunningham of Charleston and Sheriff Cook of Raleigh County, and 250 striking miners, who refused to permit Federal officers to serve injunction papers and who set a railway trestle on fire. The posse met a mob armed with rifles. The crowd defied arrest and service papers, and finally opened fire on the deputies. The battle lasted several minutes.

In the thickest part of the fight a striker crept up to special officer Smith of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad and aimed a shot at his breast. Smith dodged, and was wounded in the arm. He then killed the striker with a pistol.

After the posse had repulsed the miners they followed up their advantage and secured the arrest of fifty-nine who were brought to Beckley under guard. The mob consisted mostly of foreigners.

THE KING'S PROMISE.

Queen Victoria's Presents for St. Louis.

London, Feb. 26.—King Edward will send the late Queen Victoria's priceless collection of jubilee presents for exhibition at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition as his personal contribution towards the success of the exposition. The King personally announced this decision to D. R. Francis, President of the St. Louis Exposition, who, accompanied by Ambassador Choate, was received in audience by his Majesty at Buckingham Palace this morning. King Edward told Mr. Francis that he had been prompted to take this step by his keen appreciation of the affection and respect in which the American people always held his mother, and as a token of his intimate sympathy with American interests. His Majesty said that he thought nothing probably would be more appreciated by the American and Canadian visitors to the St. Louis Exposition than this national memento of Queen Victoria's reign. Mr. Francis expressed his thanks to the King.

NANAIMO STRIKE ENDED.

Company's Proposal Accepted by the Men.

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—The Nanaimo strike has just been declared off. Yesterday posters were placed around the coal pit calling the men to a mass meeing at 3 o'clock. It is also learned that the Western Fuel Company has made a proposition, and that the miners' Executive were prepared to recommend its acceptance. This proved to be acceptable to the men, and this evening the announcement was made that the strike was terminated, and the men would start work in the morning. The news has created a feeling of the greatest relief in this city, as well as at Nanaimo, at which latter place some miners were beginning to leave for work in the mines of Washington State.

A monster mining association was organized here, all parts of the Province, and even the Yukon, being represented. Between three and four hundred delegates were in attendance. The convention will be in session about a week. The object is to seek remedial measures, legislative and otherwise, to make British Columbia more attractive to investors.

TRAIN RAN AWAY.

Caused a Collision Which Resulted Fatally.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 26.—One man was killed and five were injured, one fatally, in a freight wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad at Kittanning Point, seven miles west of here. The wreck was caused by a freight train of thirty-six loaded coal and coke cars, which ran away down the western slope of the Allegheny Mountains and collided with another freight standing on the same track. Thirty cars were demolished, blocking traffic for several hours.

TELEPHONE CASE IN COURT.

Charge of Conspiracy Now on Trial at Whitevale.

Whitevale, Feb. 27.—That the telephone is a burning question in this vicinity was demonstrated by the large gathering of farmers and business men who assembled in the Oddfellows' Hall yesterday to hear the evidence offered in support of the indictment against Mr. C. F. Sise, President of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, who is charged, under the criminal code, with conspiracy in restraint of trade and transportation. About a hundred and fifty people were present, every one of whom displayed the keenest interest in the case, and, when opportunity presented, gave vent to their feelings in applause of points scored against the Bell Company.

But a few of the witnesses on hand having been heard, the Magistrates at 5 o'clock adjourned the case until tomorrow morning.

CINCINNATI'S LOSS.

FIRE CAUSES DAMAGE TOTALLING OVER $2,000,000.

Discovered in the Early Morning and Raged For Hours—No Loss of Life.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 26.—This city was to-day visited by the most destructive fire in its history, the damage aggregating over $2,000,000. About 1.30 this morning flames were discovered in the cellar of George Joffe's grocery in the Pike building on Fourth street between Vine and Walnut. An hour later there was an explosion, supposed to come from liquors in storage. The flames quickly shot up through the roof of the six-story stone-front building. The fire was not under control until noon. There was no loss of life.

The Pike building was destroyed, including the office of the United States Express Company, the Adams Express Company, White's restaurant, owned by Maynard & Kerr; Joffe's grocery, John B. Martin's restaurant, Empson's confectionery, Henry Strauss' cigar store and the offices of the Pike Theatre Company on the first floor, the Pike Theatre auditorium and green rooms and other offices on the second floor, and all of the offices on the third, fourth and fifth floors.

The Seasongood building, adjoining the Pike building on the west, Vine and Fourth, was badly damaged.

The building adjoining the Pike building on the east, owned by the J. B. Harrison estate and occupied by the Robert Clarke Company, publishers, and Duhme Bros., jewellers, on the first floor, and others in the upper stories, also was destroyed.

The Fosdick building, east of the Robert Clarke Company and Duhme Bros., and occupied by the Norfolk & Western Railroad and others, was badly damaged.

The Carlisle building, occupied by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and Smith & Sons, and the Cincinnati Company, on the first floor, and many offices on the other five floors, also was damaged.

The front stone walls of the Pike building and those of adjoining structures, owned by Robert Clarke & Company, and the Duhme Bros'. jewellery store and of the Seasongood building withstood the heat and did not fall. The rear walls of these structures, which are of brick, gave way with the falling floors. In all there were 400 individual losers.

The fire swept across the alley known as Baker street and burned the large publishing house of the American Book Company and other properties along Baker street, and did great damage to the telephone building. All telephones in the city were out of service for some time.

The escape of Will Jones, a well-known Cincinnati actor, just before the roof of the burning building fell was thrilling. After a hard rehearsal Jones went to the Pike building about midnight to get his valise, which he had left in a studio of an artist friend on the fourth floor. Being extremely tired he sat down in a chair and was soon asleep. When he awoke the building was filled with smoke and all escape by the stairways cut off. Almost suffocated, Jones climbed a narrow stairway and out upon the roof. A fall in the darkness stunned him and he lay for some time unconscious. Finally he crawled to the edge of the roof, but was unable to attract the attention of the crowds below. Tearing off one of his cuffs, Jones wrote upon it: "I am on roof, nearly dead from gas," and threw it to the street. A reporter picked up the cuff and found its message. The firemen hurried to the roof of the telephone building, placed a ladder across the alley to the roof of the theatre, and carried the actor to safety. He was removed at once to the hospital.

REVOLUTION NOW CERTAIN.

Macedonians Will Not Accept Proposed Reforms.

London, Feb. 27. — Public opinion in Bulgaria unanimously condemns the proposed reforms for Macedemns the proposed reforms for Macedonia as entirely inadequate. The Macedonians themselves declare they will not accept the reforms, which, even if much more extensive, would require European control to insure their being carried out. The extremist newspapers denounce the project as "international cynicism," and maintain that a Macedonian uprising is now all the more certain. They declare that the Macedonians should break with Austria and Russia, and seek the support of the other powers.

Will Move to London.

London, Ont., Feb. 26.—Rev. W. D. Moyer of Belmont, who has been pastor of the Methodist church there for the past three years, has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Centennial Methodist Church of this city.

CANADIAN NORTHERN.

Company Secures Another Important Charter.

Toronto, Feb. 27. — By the acquisition by the Canadian Northern Railway Company of the charter held by the Morden & Northwestern Railway Company the former company secures the right to construct, if it so desires, lines of railway from Winnipeg to Morden and from Morden northwesterly across Manitoba to its western border. The charter covers several other proposed branch lines, and, although in several cases the charter parellels the Mackenzie & Mann roads, there are immense districts for which the Morden & Northwestern charter is the only one at present secured. By the amalgamation of the two interests, the Canadian Northern will have a freer hand to proceed with their projected lines in various fine districts of Manitoba.

The Canadian Northern has pledged itself to the Northwest Territories Government to be in a position to handle the harvest of 1904 from the Edmonton district. Their line to that city is being pushed forward with every possible despatch.

The Canadian Northern will also have some vessels on the Atlantic service this season. Mr. Wm. Mackenzie, who is in Britain, will, with Mr. Petersen of the Turret fleet, make the necessary arrangements for the Atlantic service. It may not be possible to have all completed for this season, but some of the vessels will assuredly be on the route. This latter arrangement is the sequence of the arrangements with the Great Northern, and also the Canada Atlantic, which Mr. Mann virtually completed a few days ago.

POOR ARTILLERY.

IMPORTANT SPEECH BY EARL OF DUNDONALD.

Guns of Short Range—Admirable Material for the Service in Canada—Dominion Artillery Association Meeting.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—At the annual meeting of the Dominion Artillery Association yesterday an important speech was made by the Earl of Dundonald. He declared that the artillery of Canada were poorly equipped and the instructional corps were lamentably short of officers. There was admirable material in Canada and the force should be provided with good weapons.

In addition to the Earl of Dundonald, the following were present at the meeting:—The Earl of Minto, Major Myles, Toronto; Lieut.-Col. King, St. Catharines; Lieut.-Col. MacDonald, Lieut.-Col. Davidson, Major Merewether, Lieut. Ogg, Guelph; Col. C. W. Drury, Capt. L. Duplessis, Capt. Leslie, Kinston; Major Hendrie, Major Tidswell and Lieut. Carscallen, Hamilton; Major Rathbun, Deseronto.

Major Costigan, Montreal, moved a resolution welcoming Lord Dundonald on this his first attendance at a meeting of the association. Major Stephens, Montreal, seconded the motion. In reply the Earl of Dundonald said the association existed for the purpose of ventilating the needs of the artillery. "I am one of those," he said, "who believe that the more open you are with the people who have to supply your needs the better it is for the service and for the country. It is not fair to the people to keep silent and then when disaster occurs to say to them, 'It is all your fault. You did not supply what we wanted.' It is better to be open with the people and tell your needs in time, and an association such as this, open and free, is the best means by which you can inform the people of the artillery needs of the country. We have in Canada admirable material. We have self-sacrificing officers and men, but, gentlemen, they have to struggle against grave discouragements. (Hear, hear.) I may say in passing I have been all my life interested in mechanical work, and I have never met a people who are so adapted for the intelligent use of the highest mechanical instruments of war as our Canadian people. They are naturally mechanical in mind. Only give them good weapons, so that they can use them.

"It is difficult for me in my position to tell you, gentlemen, what I have recommended. In the report that I have sent in to the Minister I have recommended what I think is desirable for the country; not one gun too much, and I trust not one gun too little. I think nobody can imagine at the present moment that we have the necessary equipment. (Hear, hear.) When I see garrison artillery firing out of weapons that ought to be condemned to the scrap heap I feel that it is only my duty to recommend that they should be given weapons that at all events will fire a shell as far as the enemy is likely to be able to fire his. How is artillery that can only fire a shell 4,000 yards to successfully engage artillery that can drop shrapnel at 10,000 yards? It cannot be done, and therefore I look upon you, gentlemen, as the means by which the people of Canada may be instructed in your various districts by telling the facts—telling them that a man with an arm reaching for a distance of 4,000 yards cannot face a man whose arm has a range of 8,000 or 10,000 yards. It is impossible. You can explain these facts to the people, and then we may look for a proper equipment."

Lord Dundonald went on to say that the instructional corps were lamentably short of officers, and the two batteries of artillery at Kingston had but one subaltern. This was because the people did not understand the needs of the force. He inspected the cadets at the Royal Military College, Kingston, day before yesterday—as fine a body of Britons as one could wish to see — and he found that out of a total of 30 only three were going into the Canadian permanent force. The reason for this was that there was no future for them in the permanent force, so badly were they paid. This state of things would continue until the people understood that they must remunerate properly or they would not get men to do the work. Of the graduates of the Royal Military College 144 were serving in the Imperial service. That was the bright side of it. On the other hand, only 15 were serving in the active militia, and but 14 in the permanent corps. Lord Dundonald announced that there were twelve 4.7 guns on order, also two 6-inch guns and two 6-inch howitzers.

With regard to the question of establishments he had recommended to the Minister that they should all be of war strength. It was not necessary to call out the war strength. That would not be advisable. To call out 55 per cent. of the privates and officers and non-commissioned officers would be doing very well. The question of more range accommodation would be dealt with. "I should very much like," observed the General, "to see a large central camp, where arms could work together and all receive mutual instruction one from the other. I trust it may come to that; perhaps if Deseronto is not found suitable it may be favorably thought of by the responsible authorities and something may come of it." (Applause.)

In concluding, his Lordship referred to the dissatisfaction which had been caused by the marks awarded to the Winnipeg Battery in the efficiency competition. The incident occurred before his arrival in the country. An inspecting officer was not sent up from Ontario to Winnipeg, on the ground of expense, but the duty was performed by a local officer, who was most generous in awarding points on all grounds. The moral connected with the matter was that it was not wise to allow the matter of expense to interfere with the question of efficiency.

UNITED STATES NAVY.

Four New Battleships and Two More Cruisers.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Senator Hale, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, has reported the naval appropriation. The most important amendment recommended by the committee relates to the increase of the navy. The entire House provision is stricken out, and in its stead provision is made for four first-class battleships of the general type of the Oregon, and two first-class armored cruisers of the type of the Brooklyn. The battleships are to cost not exceeding $3,200,000 each, and the cruisers $2,750,000. The battleships are to be of 12,000 tons displacement, and the cruisers of 9,500 tons. There is a provision that not more than two of these vessels shall be built by one establishment, and for the building of any or all of them in the Government yards in case of a combination to deprive the Government of the benefit of fair competition. The bill carries $81,277,281.

Woman Fatally Burned.

Toronto, Feb. 27: — By the explosion of a lamp at her home, 63 Elliott street, last night, Mrs. John Hunt was so terribly burned that but slight hopes are held out for her recovery. Mrs. Hunt sat down in the dining-room about 9 o'clock to read a paper. The light was not satisfactory and she attempted to pull the hanging lamp in the room down to a point where the light would be thrown directly on the paper. The fixtures did not work properly, and while Mrs. Hunt was examining it the lamp exploded. The oil spilled over her head and clothing, and in an instant she was enveloped in flames. The woman's piercing cries were heard by her husband, who was upstairs, and he rushed down to her assistance. With the help of a table cloth Mr. Hunt succeeded in smothering the flames, but not before his wife had been terribly burned to the waist. Drs. Sneath, Rowan and Clements were summoned quickly, and the physicians did what they could to relieve the unfortunate woman's sufferings. About 10 o'clock Mrs. Hunt was taken to the General Hospital in the police ambulance. Early this morning the hospital doctor stated that the patient was suffering from shock, and could not live many hours.

Two hundred army reservists sailed from Liverpool to take positions at Cape Breton.

THE CIVIC OFFICES.

If there is one thing more than another which characterizes the gentlemen who compose the Liberal party in Canada, it is the persistency with which they snap, like a frog after a fly, at any office. Had the celebrated Oliver Twist lived in Canada it is morally certain that he would have been a Liberal. And, judging by the actions of certain gentlemen in Belleville just now, it is quite easy to see that the characteristics of their political brethren in other places are also the distinguishing features of the leading men of the Liberal party in this city.

Now, there is a certain civic office, the City Clerkship to wit, which a prominent Liber—beg pardon—Grit gentleman in Belleville is said to be canvassing for and moring heaven and earth to get. Two points present themselves in this connection, which, to our mind, point conclusively to his utter unfitness for the office. In the first place, he holds the position of Harbor Commissioner. That body often has dealings with the City Council, not always agreeable dealings, judging by past observations of members of the Council; in fact it has been openly charged that the Commissioners, since Mr. Geo. Wallbridge was deposed from the Board, have treated the city in a picayunish spirit, and have churlishly refused to render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's. And there must always be, while human nature continues to be human nature, differences of opinion between bodies whose members have to have dealings one with the other. Under such circumstances, we submit, would it be an act of wisdom to place one of the Harbor Commissioners in a position where he would of necessity be familiar with the inner workings of civic business, while he was connected with a body which might feel itself called upon to take adverse action in some matter which the City Council had recommended? We think not.

In the next place: The Intelligencer has never held that politics should play a strong part in municipal government, and has cheerfully lent its aid to secure the appointment of gentlemen who, from a genuine, though misguided sentiment, held opposite political views to those of the great majority of people in Belleville. Some cannot avoid their prejudices; ergo, is it reasonable, from what has occurred in the past, that anyone should be placed in a position where he might some day, through the little bit of human nature that is in him, act in a way which would be contrary to the wishes of the great majority of people in this city. In that respect the present City Clerk has always been eminently fair, and has pleased all parties. It would be a mistake, in case he were removed, to place a less fair man in the position. Should the present City Clerk be willing to continue in office at the reduced stipend, he should stand an equal, if not slightly better, chance than any of the other applicants. He knows his duty, and will no doubt perform it.

It may be seen by reference to the advertisement in another column, that the Council will to-night consider the applications of those who desire to serve the city at the emolument fixed. If what we hear is true, there will be a fairly large field of applicants for each position. All things being equal, The Intelligencer hopes (and we know we voice the opinion of a large number of our citizens in this matter) to see the old officials given the preference over the other applicants, unless, of course, some unanswerable argument presents itself. In that case the Council should make known its reasons for the change. This is a public matter, and the public have the right to know the ins and outs of it.

A Great Wreck of Clothing Prices

Do you know the kind of Suits and Overcoats we will sell now for $7.50, they are the $9.00, $10.00 and $10.50 garments. Have you seen some friends wearing one of our $15 Suits and Overcoats which you admired, or did you buy one yourself a couple of months ago? You can get one now for $12 or some of them for $10.50. That's exactly what this sale gives you an opportunity to do, and it is your own fault if you don't do it. We can't afford to carry Winter goods over, so we would rather lose on them and let you make on them now. Oh, Yes! some storekeepers advertise cut prices all the year, lose money all the time, are in business for fun, etc., but we don't do it that way. Twice a year and for a few weeks each time, we can afford to and we do sacrifice profits.

This is our time to lose, as we want to make room for new Spring Goods which are arriving daily. Don't fail to take advantage of this situation.

ROSS SAYS HE WILL HANG ON!

Premier Ross of Ontario has been addressing the electors of North York and referred to the rumor that he intended to resign, exclaiming, reports the World; "I am not going to resign. "Don't worry about that. I don't "propose to resign for a moment. I "propose to remain in my position as "long as I have the confidence of the "majority of the members of the "Legislature."

The Globe reports him to have said: "I propose to remain in my present "position as long as I have a majority in the House."

It will be observed that in both instances his words are guarded. "So long as he has a majority in the House," he will hang on to office. He refers not to the fact that he is holding on to office though the electorate of the Province has declared a want of confidence in him by a majority of from 6,000 to 7,000.

Let the Machine through ballot-stuffing, personation, dishonest returning officers, ballot burners, and other devices, so well known to the inner circle, secure him a majority in the House, and he cares not for the will of the great majority of the people, whether it be counted by the thousands or tens of thousands, but declares he will hold on to office? Such is Ross' position to-day. Not an enviable one, truly, but then he is a typical Grit, and cares not for public opinion.

TIMELY TOPICS.

The air is charged with suppressed excitement to-day, and it is not all owing to the hockey protest, either. To-night the Council will fill the civic offices, and it looks as though they have filled a lot of people with rage already.

• • •

Hon. Mr. Davis was elected again in North York, of course, and it serves the Conservative party right for allowing him to get off so easily. Why did they allow him to resign? The case should have been pressed to the limit, and disqualification would have been the result. What good does it do to unseat the "Machine" men, when they are allowed to run again and use the same old methods? Is it not about time the Conservative party managers in Ontario got their eyes opened?

• • •

The present standing of parties in the Ontario Legislature is: Government 51 seats; Opposition, 46 seats; Government majority, 5. North Renfrew is vacant. Mr. Whitney may win that. Then take off the Speaker and Ross has a majority of three, with the three "Norths" protests yet to hear from. With all his squirming and figuring and skunk-throwing the Hon. G. W. is not yet very far out of the woods.

• • •

Kingston Whig: About two weeks ago the Whig man went up to Belleville with the K.B.C. Ramblers to witness the hockey match between that team and Belleville. He loaned his $1.39 watch to the timekeeper, and has had no end of trouble with it ever since. It caught the Belleville affection and has been running slow since that night, losing as much as fifteen minutes a day. It keeps him late for meals, and worst of all, has been keeping him out late at nights, for which offence he has undergone a series of lectures. Next time he visits Belleville he says he will leave his watch at home.

Now we know the real value of The Whig man's watch. And he had nerve enough here to want to "soak" it for $5, after he had spent the 15 cents he brought with him.

Mr. Cowan, M.P. for South Essex, told an interviewer the other day "that the Liberal party would meet the views of the country in every way. The Liberal party was not against an increased tariff, as a matter of doctrine." Poor Cowan, we wonder if ever he read the platform of the Liberal party and the utterances of Sir Wilfrid, Cartwright, Sifton, Fielding, et al.

• • •

The emigration policy of Sifton in the past has even stirred up opposition on the part of the Toronto Globe. It says: "The efforts to induce immigrants to settle in Canada should be limited to the United Kingdom and the United States, and might hereafter in these countries be limited to the circulation in attractive form of perfectly trustworthy intelligence regarding the districts available for settlement. While the Dominion was staggering under a load of debt incurred to secure the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway there was some defence for a strenuous immigration policy and for paying little attention to the character of the immigrants; but that time has gone never to return, and now the immigration policy need not be overdone while undesirable immigrants may usefully be dispensed with."

LOCAL TALENT HAD BARRELS OF TROUBLE

STORY OF BELLEVILLE ENTERTAINERS WHO HAD SOME EXCITING EXPERIENCES LAST NIGHT.

A number of young people from this city had an experience last evening that they have no desire to see repeated. An entertainment was being held in Aikens' Church, 2nd concession of Sidney, and two carioles laden with young ladies and gentlemen left the city early in the evening for the above church. When within about two miles of the church the team in the rear became frightened and ran away. As they were in close proximity to the preceding cariole it was feared that a collision would occur, but the frightened animals went to the side of the road and ran into a bank of snow, which stopped them in their wild career. No person was seriously hurt, but, owing to a serious injury to one of the horses, and the conveyance being broken, the occupants were compelled to be transferred to the other cariole. This made an exceptionally heavy load, and they had not proceeded far upon the journey, when the rig upset in the ditch.

The occupants were thrown out, and some of the young ladies were injured, but not to any great extent. After considerable difficulty the party reached the church, but at a very late hour. The majority of the party returned to the city last night but a number did not reach here until this morning. It was fortunate that none of the party were seriously injured. There is no truth in the report that the horses ran away because a certain popular vocalist in this city was practising a new song.

SCROFULA

Bad air, poor food, insufficient clothing, dark, damp or crowded apartments are frequent causes of scrofula. Perhaps this explains why the ailment is so common in the poorer sections of large cities. It is but a step from scrofula to consumption and herein lies the great danger. It is just as well to avoid the step.

Scott's Emulsion contains the very things that nature requires in curing scrofula. The pure Norwegian cod liver oil helps to build up the whole body and enables one to acquire new, healthy, solid flesh: The hypophosphites of lime and soda act as a tonic, replacing the waste and giving strength and new structure where it is most needed.

There is nothing that will do more good in the case of scrofula than Scott's Emulsion.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

CHRIS AND LENA.

There was a fair attendance at the Opera House last evening to witness the play "Chris and Lena." Peter Baker as the German comedian was the whole show. He was fairly well assisted by John D. Griffin as "Tim Flaherty," and Miss Anna Williams, as "Lena." The performance closed by the recitation of the gallant deeds of the Highland Brigade at the Battle of Bloemfontein, and the songs of Nations, by Mr. Baker, which were well rendered. The audience appeared to be pleased with what they saw at this performance.

Died in Wellington

Mrs. Wm. Clinton died this morning at the family residence in Wellington, Prince Edward County, after a brief illness. Deceased had been in this city visiting her brother-in-law, Dr. Clinton, and only returned home on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Clinton was an estimable lady, who had a large circle of friends.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Mr. J. W. Johnston's lecture on "Bills and Notes," part 1, was delivered to a large audience at the Association rooms last night. His concise and accurate exposition of the subject secured for him a very hearty vote of thanks on the part of all present. The subject will be completed in the next lecture to be given Thursday, March 5th. All business men should plan to attend if possible.

FOOTBALL AND INSANITY.

During the year 1902 two men in America were killed in prize-fights; and, in a season of three months just passed, twenty-one men have been killed playing football. Fifteen of these died from broken necks or broken backs. How many men have been ruptured and permanently injured in various other ways no man can say. I know, says Elbert Hubbard, in the March Cosmopolitan, that two young men with whom I am personally acquainted are now in lunatic asylums as a result of football, and their ravings are the cries and signals of this game. If you still think that football is manly sport, you might interview the parents of these young men.

Well Posted.

That the next best thing to knowing the law is knowing where to find it was illustrated once when Judge Simeon E. Baldwin of the Yale Law school in an examination on corporations asked his class a question which was extremely difficult. A certain complex state of facts was given, and the question ended with: "A client comes to you and states the above case. What would you advise him to do?"

The best answer handed in was: "I would advise him to come around at 10 o'clock the next morning. In the meantime I would look it up."

A SKULL FOR "HAMLET."

The Odd Manner in Which the Elder Booth Acquired One.

The elder Booth acquired a skull for use in "Hamlet" in an odd manner, according to a story in Seen and Heard. The tragedian, somewhat in his cups, was traveling near Louisville when he took a horse from a field and rode off with it. Horse stealing at that time was a capital offense in Kentucky, and the greatest horse thief was a man named Fontaine. Booth was soon overtaken and when asked where he got the animal said:

"I captured him in a field back here."

"Indeed!" said one of the farmers. "And what might your name be?"

"My name is Fontaine," said Booth, without a smile.

"Fontaine!" ejaculated both men simultaneously. "Then you are the very man we want. Come back to town with us."

"Certainly," said Booth in the most good natured manner, and, wheeling his horse, he rode back to Louisville with his captors.

The city jail was then in charge of a Colonel Thomas, who knew Booth well. "We have brought you Fontaine, the horse thief, and claim the reward," said the farmers proudly, addressing the jailer.

"Where is he?" they were asked. Booth was produced. "Why, what does this mean, Mr. Booth?" asked Thomas.

"I haven't the slightest idea," said the great tragedian, with the utmost simplicity. "I met these two men with this horse, and they insisted upon giving it to me. I guess they stole it. I think one of them is Fontaine."

The rustics were about to be locked up when by the most singular coincidence a man rushed to the prison door on horseback and shouted out the information that the real Fontaine had been taken into custody. Booth made Fontaine's acquaintance in jail, and the horse thief, who was executed later, left by will his skull to the actor.

Regenerating Bengal.

It is a curious anomaly that such a rough and manly game as football should have become thoroughly acclimatized among the effeminate Bengalis. There is no longer any question about this remarkable fact; every little village now has one or more football clubs, and so popular is the pastime that even the most aspiring college students scamp their cramming in its favor. Odd to say, too, their parents raise little objection to this encroachment of physical development on book learning. Experience has probably informed them that the attainment of university honors does not by itself, constitute full equipment of youths with the whole battle of life before them. Graduates have become such a drug in the Indian market that many have to be content with very humble positions, instead of at once filling well-the singular thing is that the young paid posts, as they had expected. But Bengali should give preference to football before all other English games. Lawn tennis, and even golf, would also seem to present attractiveness to a race supposed to abhor any and every risk of personal injury. Instead, however, of devoting his energies to these comparatively gentle pastimes, Young Bengal now faces fast bowling at cricket without the slightest flinching, and accepts the rough-and-tumble of football in the same courageous spirit. It is hardly going too far to say that the physical regeneration of seventy millions of British subjects has been started by a couple of English games.—London Globe.

The Exact Truth.

Mr. Douglas Grand, who was the principal witness for the Crown at the remount trial at Ennis, tells a good story regarding the examination of one of the witnesses.

"Did you sell Major Studdert a horse?" asked the counsel.

"No, sorr," replied the witness.

"Did your father sell Major Studdert a horse?"

"No, sorr."

"Well then did your grandfather sell him a horse?"

"No, sorr."

"Did any member of your family sell Major Studdert anything?"

"Yes, sorr, I did," replied the witness.

"And what did you sell Major Studdert?"

"I sold him a mare," replied the witness, to the chagrin of counsel and the delight of the court.—London Express.

Ten Men and a Safe.

In the subbasement of one of our big life insurance companies is a safe so large that a theatrical company might perform therein. There are three doors, the combinations of whose locks are controlled by ten men. Each man, a high official of the company, is an integral part of the integral whole. In instance: Five men are required to open the outer door, each knowing a fifth part of the entire combination and no more. A, having set the gatings in his combination, is followed in turn by B, C, D and E, when the bolt may be moved. In the same manner the second door is opened by three men in combination and the third by two, in the latter case each being in combination with one or more of the other eight on the outer and second doors. The safe is regarded as safe.

Breaking Glass.

The following is an easy method of breaking glass to any required form: Make a small notch by means of a file on the edge of a piece of glass; then make the end of a tobacco pipe or a rod of iron of about the same size red hot in the fire. Apply the hot iron to the notch and draw it slowly along the surface of the glass in any direction you please. A crack will be made in the glass and will follow the direction of the iron.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the billiousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am [illegible] years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

Many a man's self-conceit is due to his ignorance.

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

When one gets hopping mad his reason goes on a crutch.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These comes from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

If thy friend is honey, do not lick him up altogether.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Wedding rings in St. Klida used to be made of worsted.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body gives up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected [illegible] and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

Our Yankee neighbors are quite equal in cheek and impudence to our own Premier Ross, who claims credit for prosecuting personators, and the Yankee Congressman has introduced a resolution authorizing the President to ascertain upon what terms Britain would concede Canada to the United States. This spread eagle gent. must think England is of the character of Spain, which sold the Philippines.

Judge McCrimmon has decided that there is no provision for punishing Deputy Returning officers for failure to perform certain duties. This is a radical defect in the law. Mr. Whitney should attend to this. There is no use looking to Ross for an amendment, as it would be providing for the punishment of his friends.

A motion in amendment to the speech from the Throne for the repeal of the law excluding Canadian store cattle from the British markets was defeated in the House of Commons. The time and manner of making the motion was to court its defeat. No motion could carry under the circumstances, as it would defeat the Government.

Premier Ross, in a speech delivered in North York, declared that much credit should be given to the Attorney-General for the prosecutions which are going on against the "personators" and "repeaters" at the referendum vote. Cheek and impudence could scarcely go further. It is known that not a step was taken by the Attorney-General or any member of the Government until the Prohibitionists waited upon them and insisted upon the rascals being prosecuted. It would have been well if Mr. Ross had explained to his audience why he keeps Duncan Bole, the worst of all the Machine crew, in the employ of the Company of which he is president.

While nearly every country in the world is legislating to keep Chinese out of the country, the Transvaal has shown itself exceptional by appointing a Commissioner to enquire into the practicability of using Chinese labor in the mines. Signs of petroleum deposits are being found in Ireland. It would be a great thing for the country, says a contemporary, if, in Ireland's case, the signs were justified by the facts. A gusher or two would throw so much oil that even the troubled waters of politics might be stilled thereby. Not a bit of it. Some of the agitators would swear it was the work of the "bloody Sassanach."

The Dominion elections in Grey, Two Mountains and Terrebonne, and the Ontario elections in York and Bruce are over.; now look out for an invasion of the whole army of boodlers, personators, telegraphers, ballot-box stuffers, etc., etc., etc., into North Ontario. Love Letters of a Business Man.

The course of true love, though beset with almost insurmountable obstacles, often rewards the faithful lovers at the last with supreme happiness. But, alas! sometimes the said true love proves nought but a toboggan-slide leading to a precipice, into which the true lovers' hopes are hurled and dashed into atomic smithereens.

We have before us, says "Punch," a volume of a "Business Man's Love Letters," a few extracts from which we give below. Reader, if you have a tear, prepare to shed it now! The burning passion which surges in the lover's heart, though embodied in phrases habitually used by a business man, is sure to touch your soul. But presently comes the pathetic ending, when she is no longer anything to him, and he—to use the imperfect but comprehensive vernacular—is to her as "dead as a door-nail." Reader, read on!

HALF A CENTURY

A PROMINENT POLITICIAN IS CONVINCED.

At a recent club dinner given by newspaper men at Washington, the conversation turned upon the subject of testimonials and their value in newspaper advertising. "I do not believe," said a prominent politician who was present, "that one newspaper testimonial in a hundred, is genuine."

The owner of one of the largest newspapers in the country was present and took up the subject vigorously, finally agreeing to let his opponent select any testimonial in his paper and wagering to establish its genuineness to the politician's satisfaction.

Quite by accident the case of Mr. Newton K. Young, of Pennington, N. J., was selected. He had been completely cured of a case of hemorrhoids or piles, by the use of Pyramid Pile Cure. The politician was especially skeptical regarding this case, as it was alleged that Mr. Young was a man over eighty years of age and had been cured of piles after fifty years of awful suffering and when all other remedies had failed. It was agreed that the politician should write to Mr. Geo. W. Scarborough, Ph.G., a prominent resident of Pennington and that the result of the controversy should rest upon his reply. The following was Mr. Scarborough's answer:

"Dear Sir,—Mr. Newton K. Young, of this town, a man nearly eighty years of age, and who has been a sufferer with piles for, perhaps half a century has been completely cured by the use of Pyramid Pile Cure. I felt especially interested in the case as it was upon my recommendation that Mr. Young began the use of the remedy after having used so many others. Yours respectfully, Geo. W. Scarborough, Ph.G."

The Pyramid Drug Company, of Marshall, Mich., have this letter in their possession and are willing to guarantee with a backing of one thousand dollars, the genuineness of Mr. Scarborough's testimony.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Live Stock Trade Dull—The Grain Markets Un changed.

Thursday Evening, Feb. 26.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

The receipts on the street at St. Lawrence Market to-day were fairly heavy, and business was accordingly a little brisker. The total grain receipts amounted to 2,200 bushels.

Wheat—Prices of white wheat are easier for lower grades. About 800 bushels sold at 68c to 72½c per bushel, 100 bushels of red sold steady at 72½c, 100 bushels of goose sold firm at 68c, and 100 bushels of spring sold 1c easier at 69c.

Barley—Was about steady; 800 bushels sold at 45c to 51½c per bushel.

Oats—The market is firmer; 300 bushels sold at 37c to 37½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—There was a medium run of offerings, and prices continue unchanged at $8 to $8.25 per cwt for light weight butcher hogs, and $7.75 for heavies.

Hay—Receipts totalled 60 loads. Quotations for No. 1 timothy are slightly firmer at $11 to $14.25 per ton. Mixed or clover is steady at $6 to $9.

Straw—There was none offering. Quotations are steady at $8 to $9 per ton.

Toronto Live Stock.

Trade at the Toronto Cattle Market today was rather dull all round. The run of offerings was light, and the demand was not brisk in any line of stock, and at the close of the day's business a few loads of cattle remained unsold. Prices have a slightly easier feeling, especially in export cattle, and dealers say the prices of cattle in the country must come down still further. The total run to-day was 49 cars, including 694 cattle, 564 sheep and lambs, 367 hogs, and 30 calves.

Export Cattle—The market was very dull, and not many cattle were sold. There is but little shipping space offering, and prices of Canadian cattle in England have declined. Consequently the demand was quiet. Prices all round show a decline of about 10c per cwt. About $4 to $4.40 was paid for choice cattle, one lot of extra good bringing $4.45.

Butcher Cattle—Trade was only fairly good, the demand for stock being about the same as that of the previous market. Prices continue about steady, with perhaps a slightly easier feeling. The offerings were of fairly good quality, and most of it was sold before the market's close. Prices are about on a level with those of the export trade. From $4 to about $4.45 per cwt. was paid for medium to good stock.

Milch Cows—The market was dull. The offerings were rather poor, none of the stuff warranting top quotations. Prices continue about steady, with quotations at $30 to $55 each. There is a demand for good cows.

Stockers and Feeders—Trade was dull and prices were easier. There was very little good stuff on the market, and the demand for other kinds is not brisk.

Sheep and Lambs—Trade was fairly active, but not much stuff was on the market. Lamb prices are quoted 15c per cwt firmer. The prospects are for a steady market.

Calves—The market is steady. The run of offerings was rather light, and prices continue unchanged. Good veals continue in demand.

Hogs—The market for selects is firmer at [illegible] per cwt, and lights and fats are easier at $5.[illegible] There was a fair run of stock and trade was moderately good.

Montreal Cattle Market.

Montreal, Feb. 26.—There were about two hundred head of butchers' cattle, 150 calves and a dozen sheep and lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir to-day. The market presented a deserted aspect this forenoon, there being no prime cattle on the market, and the butchers having already bought about all the beef they require this week, did not care to increase their supply of beef, but good veal and mutton were in active demand. The high rate paid to-day was about 5¼c per lb, but they were only middling; common to pretty good stock sold at from 2¾c to 4½c per lb, and 40 head of the poorer sorts were bought by canners at from 2½c to 2c per lb. There were a large number of "bob" veals on the market, and these sold at from $2 to $3.50 each. Mr. Rich paid $25 for three prime veals, or near 6c per lb; he also bought three good sheep for $18, or near 4c per lb; lambs sold at from 4½c to 5c per lb. Good lots of fat hogs sold at from 6¼c to 6½c per lb, weighed off the cars.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 26.—Cattle—Receipts, 75 head; steady. Veals—Receipts, 125 head; steady; tops, $9.25 to $9.50; common to good, $5.50 to $9. Hogs—Receipts, 4,800 head; fairly active and steady; heavy, $7.45 to $7.50; mixed, $7.30 to $7.40; Yorkers, $7.20 to $7.30; pigs, $6.85 to $7; roughs, $6.40 to $6.65; stags, $5.25 to $6. Sheep and lambs Receipts, 7,800 head; steady; top lambs, 7 to $7.10; culls to good, $4.50 to $6.90; yearlings, $5.50 to $6; ewes, $5 to $5.25; sheep, top mixed, $5.25 to $5.50; culls to good, $2.75 to $5.15.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Cattle—Receipts, 10,000; slow; good to prime steers, $5.25 to $5.75; poor to medium, $3.25 to $4.75; stockers and feeders, $2.55 to $4.50; cows, $1.40 to $4.60; heifers, $2 to $4.75; canners, $1.40 to $2.60; bulls, $2.25 to $4.25; calves, $2.25 to $7.75; Texas fed steers, $3.50 to $4.25. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 36,000; to-morrow, 25,000; left over, 7,500; 10c higher, closed weaker; mixed and butchers', $6.90 to $7.30; good to choice heavy, $7.30 to $7.55; rough heavy, $6.75 to $7.25; light, $6.50 to $6.95; bulk of sales at $6.95 to $7.30. Sheep—Receipts, 12,000; sheep steady and lambs weak and lower; good to choice wethers, $5 to $5.50; fair to choice mixed, $4 to $4.75; native lambs, $4.75 to $6.90.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS

Could scarcely walk or talk—Legs and arms were paralyzed—Could do no work of any kind—

NERVOUS SYSTEM COMPLETELY EXHASUTED

People surprised to see him around again, a living witness to the marvellous up-building influence of DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

MR. JAS. A. DEAL

Mr. Jas. A. Deal, a respected resident of Bridgewater, N.S., writes:—"About a year ago I suffered a stroke of paralysis, which left me in a very bad state of health. To add to my troubles, last winter I took la grippe, which completely exhausted my nervous system. I could scarcely walk or talk, my legs and arms were partially paralyzed, my blood did not circulate properly, and I could not do any work. In fact, I was so bad that the doctors gave me up and thought I could not live through the summer.

"I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and persevered in the treatment, until now I am at work again. The change in my condition has been most remarkable. It is a surprise to everyone to know that I am able to be around again. My nervous system has been built up wonderfully by this remedy. I am able to rest well, my circulation is normal, and my general health good. My appetite is first-class, and I have gained considerably in flesh.

"The results I have obtained from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food have been most gratifying, and I have no hesitation in stating that I believe I owe my life to this preparation. I am willing that you publish this letter, with the hope that it may be the means of helping others to regain their health."

DRUGGIST CERTIFIES.

MR. B. H. PORTER, Druggist, Bridgewater, N. S., certifies to this extraordinary cure by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and states that at one time "no one expected Mr. Deal to live for a month."

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Like other nervous diseases paralysis and locomotor ataxia are slow in coming on and dreadful in results. The warning comes by way of headache, sleeplessness, twitching of the muscles, irritability, nervousness, impaired memory, inability to concentrate thoughts, and general weakness. Then is the time to prevent the further development of nervous exhaustion by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. By increasing the quantity and quality of the blood it

Ivan the Terrible.

Ivan IV. of Russia, called Ivan the Terrible, was not a pleasant person. Even at his meals he was rather testy. On one occasion he threw over Prince Gorsdorf, who had failed to be witty, a tureen of scalding soup, and as the prince endeavored to escape the Czar plunged a knife into his side. The unhappy noble fell dead, and Ivan, remarking that he had carried the joke far enough, bade his physician attend to him. "It is only God and your majesty, replied the medical man, "that can restore the prince to life. He is quite gone!" The Czar, somewhat disconcerted, took a pleasant way of forgetting it. It chanced that a favorite noble came at this moment, whereupon His Majesty took hold of the corpse by the ear, and, using his knife, he cut the ear off and flung it into the face of his old friend. The noble received the ear with many acknowledgments of his master's condescension.

Ivan was still in the teens when he had one of his attendants worried to death by dogs on the public highway; and in one of his so-called frolicsome moods he would let slip wild bears among the affrighted citizens in the streets and would calmly say his prayers while gazing at the slaughter, making compensation, says a historian, "for any irregularity in the matter of flinging a few coins to the wounded after he rose from his knees." It is even said that Ivan went so far in his insane freaks as to compel parents to slay their children, and children to slay one another; and where there was a survivor "the amiable monarch," if he was not too weary, would slay him himself, and would laugh at this conclusion to so excellent a joke.

A Blow at Science.

"And the voltaic current," continued the lecturer, "was the discovery of Volta, and its development is a comparatively recent achievement of science."

A still, small individual hoisted himself to a chair in the rear of the hall.

"Hold on there, professor! What about the earlier discoveries of Noah?"

"I don't understand you, sir."

"Then brush up! Didn't Noah make the arc light on Mount Ararat?"

Corticelli SPOOL SILK

For dressmaking and family sewing Corticelli Silk is the best silk made. For hand or machine use it has no equal.

Corticelli Silk runs smoothly in the needle; it is always even in size, and always full length and full strength. Ask your dealer for "Corticelli," and politely, but firmly, refuse all substitutes, which some clerks may say are "just as good." You may be sure they all lack the many excellent qualities of the genuine Corticelli Silk.

Purified by Suffering

BY MARY J. HOLMES.

The carriage from Linwood stood at the farm-house door, and Katy, wrapped in shawls and hood, was ready to go with her husband. There were no tears shed at this parting, for their darling was not going far away; her new house was just across the fields, and through the soft moonlight they could see its chimney tops, and trace for some little distance the road over which the carriage went bearing her swiftly on; her hands fast locked in Morris's, her head upon his arm, and the hearts of each too full of bliss for either to speak a word until Linwood was reached, when, folding Katy to his bosom in a passionate embrace, Morris said to her:

"We are home at last—your home, and mine, my precious, precious wife."

The village clock was striking one, and the sound echoed across the waters of Fairy Pond, awakening, in his marshy bed, a sleeping frog, who sent forth upon the warm, still air a musical, plaintive note as Morris bore his bride over the threshold and into the library, where a cheerful fire was blazing. He had ordered it kindled there, for he had a fancy ere he slept to see fulfilled a dream he had dreamed so often, of Katy sitting as his wife in the chair across the hearth, where he placed her now, himself removing her shawl and hood; then kneeling down before her, with his arm around her waist and his head upon her shoulder, he prayed aloud to the God who had brought her there, asking His blessing upon their future life, and dedicating himself and all he had to his Master's service. It is such a prayer which God delights to answer, and a peace, deeper than they had yet known, fell upon the newly married pair at Linwood.

CHAPTER LII.

The scene shifts now to New York, where, one week after the wedding at Silverton, Mark and Helen went, together with Morris and Katy. But not to Madison Square. That house had been sold, and Katy saw it but once, her tears falling fast as, driving slowly by with Morris, she gazed at the closed door and windows of what was once her home, and around which lingered no pleasant memories, save that it was the birthplace of baby Cameron. Lieutenant Bob Reynolds had thought to buy it, but Bell said "No, it would not be pleasant for Katy to visit me there, and I mean to have her with me as much as possible. So the house went to strangers, and a less pretensious but quite as comfortable one was bought for Bell, so far up town that Juno wondered how her sister would manage to exist so far from everything, intimating that her visits would be far between, a threat which Lieutenant Bob took quite heroically, indeed, it rather enhanced the value of his pleasant home than otherwise, for Juno was not a favorite, and his equanimity was not likely to be disturbed if she never crossed his threshold. She was throwing bait to Arthur Grey, the man who swore he was fifty to escape the draft, and who, now that the danger was over, would gladly take back his oath and be forty, as he really was. With the most freezing kiss imaginable Juno greeted Katy, calling her "Mrs. Grant," and treating Morris as if he were an entire stranger, instead of the man whom to get she would have moved both earth and heaven. Mrs. Cameron, too, though glad that Katy was married, and fully approved her choice, threw into her manner so much reserve that Katy's intercourse with her was anything but agreeable, and she turned with alacrity to father Cameron, who received her with open arms, calling her his daughter, and welcoming Morris as his son, taken in Wilford's stead. "My boy," he frequently called him, showing how willingly he accepted him as the husband of one whom he had loved as his child. Greatly he wished that they should stay with him while they remained in New York, but Katy preferred going to Mrs. Banker's, where she would be more quiet, and avoid the bustle and confusion attending the preparations for Bell's wedding. It was to be a grand church affair, and to take place during Easter week, after which the bridal pair were going to Washington, and if possible to Richmond, where Bob had been a prisoner. Everything seemed conspiring to make the occasion a joyful one, for all through the North from Maine to California, the air was rife with songs of victory and the notes of approaching peace. But alas! He who holds our country's destiny in his hand changed that song of gladness into a wail of woe, which, echoing through the land, rose up to heaven in one mighty sob of anguish, as the whole nation bemoaned its loss. Our President was dead, and New York was in mourning, so black, so profound, that with a shudder Bell Cameron tossed aside the orange wreath and said to her lover: "We will be married at home. I cannot now go to the church, when everything seems like one great funeral."

And so in Mrs. Cameron's drawing room there was a quiet wedding, one pleasant April morning, and Bell's plain traveling dress was far more in keeping with the gloom which hung over the great city than her gala robes would have been, with a long array of carriages and merry wedding chimes. Westward they went instead of South, and when our late lamented President was borne back to the prairies of Illinois, they were there to greet the noble dead, and mingle their tears with those who knew and loved him long before the world appreciated his worth.

* * * *

Softly the May rain falls on Linwood, where the fresh green grass is springing and the early spring flowers blooming, and where Katy stands for a moment in the bay window of the library, listening to the patter on the tin roof overhead, and gazing wistfully down the road, as if watching for some one; then turning, she enters the dining-room. Aunt Hannah and Aunt Betsy are visiting her this rainy afternoon, while Morris, on his return from North Silverton, is to call for Uncle Ephraim and bring him home to tea.

Morris and his young wife are very happy together, and Katy finds the hours of his absence very long, especially when left alone. Even to-day the time drags heavily, and she looks more than once from the bay window, until at last Brownie's head is seen over the hill, and a few minutes after Morris's arm is round her shoulders, and her lips are upturned for the kiss he gives as he leads her to the house, chiding her for exposing herself to the rain, and placing in her hand three letters, which she does not open until the cosy tea is over and her family friends have gone. Then, while her husband looks over his evening paper, she breaks the seals one by one reading first the letter from "Mrs Bob Reynolds," who has returned from the West, and who is in the full glory of her bridal calls.

"I was never so happy in my life as I am now," she wrote. "Indeed, I did not know that a married woman could be so happy, but then every woman has not a Bob for a husband, which makes a vast difference. You ought to see Juno. I know she envies me, though she affects the utmost contempt for matrimony, and reminds me forcibly of the fox and the grapes. You see Arthur Grey is a failure, so far as Juno is concerned, he having withdrawn from the field and laid himself at the feet of Sybil Grandon, who will be Mrs. Grey, and a bride at Saratoga the coming summer. Juno intends going too, as a bridesmaid of the party but every year her chances lessen, and I have very little hope that father will ever call other than Bob his son, always excepting Morris, of course, whom he has adopted in place of Wilford. You don't know, Katy, how much father thinks of you, blessing the day which brought you to us, and saying that if he is ever saved he shall in a great measure owe it to your influence and consistent life after that great trouble came upon you."

There were tears in Katy's eyes as she read this letter from Bell, and with a mental prayer of thanksgiving that she had been of any use in guiding even one to the Shepherd's Fold, she took next the next letter whose superscription brought back so vividly to her mind the daisy-covered grave at Alnwick. Marian, who was now at Annapolis, caring for the returned prisoners, did not write often, and her letters were prized the more by Katy, who read with a beating heart the kind congratulations upon her recent marriage, sent by Marian Hazelton.

For a long time Katy held this letter in her hand, wondering if the sorrowful woman whose life was once so strangely blended with that of Marian Hazelton, could be the Katy Grant who sat by the evening fire at Linwood, with the sunshine of perfect happiness resting upon her heart. "Truly He doeth all things well, to those who wait upon Him," she thought, as she laid down Marian's letter.

There were great tear blots upon that letter as Katy put it aside, and nestling close to Morris, laid her head upon his knee, where his hand could smooth her golden curls, while she pondered Helen's closing words, thinking how much they expressed, and how just a tribute they were to the noble woman whose life had been one constant sacrifice of self for another's good— "The soldiers call her an angel, but we know her as Marian."

TYPHOID AT KINGSTON

FORTY-SEVEN CASES HAVE OCCURRED DURING THIS MONTH.

Kingston, Ont. Feb. 26.—As near as can be ascertained there have been forty-seven cases of typhoid fever in Kingston since February 1st. Of this number twenty-one are at present in the General Hospital, and eleven in the Hotel Dieu. It has been found that more than half of the cases are teachers, students and school pupils, and that most of the remainder are people much confined at their work. Doctors state that most of the cases are different from the old typhoid fever, being more of an influenza of the stomach, but the results are the same. Samples of city water have been sent daily to Toronto for the past week for bacteriological examination, which is being performed under the directions of the Ontario Board of Health. It is thought the water is the cause of the disease.

The Civic Offices

The City Council meeting this evening will be a most important one, in that the various civic offices will be filled. Applications for the positions were received by His Worship up to noon to-day, and from what could be learned there were more than one application for each of the various offices.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

DOES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION?

MR. W. P. YOUREX CONTRIBUTES A FEW REMARKS ON THE QUESTION.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—Having noticed in your paper an article written by J. F. Fraser, on the subject of Regeneration and the new birth, which he makes possible only through baptism, I contend, that water baptism has no part in the work of regeneration, or the new birth. Perfect redemption consists first, in paying the price of ransom; secondly, in bringing out of bondage and setting the captive free. Our Saviour paid the first by His death and sacrifice, and He performs the last by the effectual operation of His Holy Spirit in the hearts of those who receive Him and resign wholly to Him.

When the Sovereign Legislator first added a positive law to Adam, He pronounced immediate death on him in case of his transgression; "in the day thou eatest thereof thou shalt die." This seems to imply a much deeper and more important meaning than what relates to the body; a meaning more immediately affecting to the rational soul; the privation of a life which before transgression is happily enjoyed, and which, by disobedience, it must certainly lose. What, then, is the proper life of the soul? and what is the death of that which must forever exist? Merely to be cannot be the life intended. It must be, to live in that life which immutably exists only in the divine nature, the Spirit of Him, who is the life, and our life; that life which the Evangelist declares to be the true light of men. This supernatural, spiritual, heavenly power and virtue of the great Illuminator is the true life of the immortal soul of man; and the total want and deprivation thereof is its death. As the body dies when deprived of its animal life, so the soul is left in a state of spiritual death, when that which is its proper life departs from it; saving this difference, that the deceased body remains wholly insensible; but the soul, in the full state of its death, still exists under the unavoidable sense of its guilt and misery.

And this is what moved the great heart of God to make that infinite sacrifice for sin. The death was a spiritual death, therefore it must be a spiritual restoration. Jesus says, "Except a man be born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God."—John 3, 3. The learned Rabbi could not understand it because it was spiritual: then Jesus explains it, saying, "That which is born of the spirit is spirit," and in v. 5 he saith, "Except ye be born of water and of the spirit, ye cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Being born of water must not be understood to mean litural water; but, mystically, of an inward cleansing and washing. Even as Christ speaks of being baptized with fire, it is not to be understood of outward material fire, but of, only of purifying, by a mysterious moving power belonging to the Infinite; because to purify is a proper effect of fire, as to wash and make clean, is of water; therefore the Scripture alludes to water, where it can as little be understood, as where we are said to be saved by the washing of regeneration.—Tit., 3, 5. The Prophet Malachi, 3 and 2, speaking of the coming of Jesus, saith, "He is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' sope"; and in the next verse, "He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and He shall purify the sons of Levi and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness. Now, the old process of refining gold is, the gold was never considered pure gold until it reflected the refiner's image. Then how beautiful is the analogy like as sope and water cleanseth a filthy garment, even so will the blood of Christ through the operation of the Holy Spirit, cleanse us from all sin, or as fire purifies gold, even so will the Holy Spirit purge our hearts until we are made partakers of the Divine nature; and reflect that immaculate life and character of the Lord Jesus Christ. This is regeneration, the death was a spiritual death, and it must be a spiritual restoration. It is the life of Jesus Christ taking place in the heart; that makes the Christian.

This is that order and method of salvation held forth by the Apostle in that Divine saying—Rom., 5, 10; "For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by His life." For the Apostle first holding forth the reconciliation wrought by the death of Christ, wherein God is near to receive and redeem man, holds forth His salvation to be by the life of Jesus. Now that this life is an inward and spiritual thing, revealed in the soul, whereby it is renewed, and brought forth out of death, where it has been by the fall, and so quickened and made alive unto God's. And the same Apostle shows, Eph., 2 and 5, "Even when we were dead in sin He hath quickened us together with Christ, by grace ye are saved. Now this, none can deny, to be the inward work of renovation, and therefore the Apostle gives that reason of their being saved by grace, which is the inward virtue and power of Christ in the soul. And 2 Cor., 4, 10, he saith that the life of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. Now, this inward life of Jesus is that whereby we are saved.

As the original and fundamental cause of our justification and salvation is the love of God manifested in the appearance of Jesus Christ in the flesh, who by His life, death, suffering and obedience, made a way for our reconciliation, and became a sacrifice for the remission of sins, that are passed and purchased unto us, this blessed seed of grace, from which this birth arises, and in which Jesus Christ is inwardly received, formed and brought forth in us, in His own pure and holy image of righteousness, by which our souls live unto God, and are clothed with Him, and have put Him on even as the scripture speaks.—Eph., 4, 23, 24; Gal., 3, 27. We stand justified and saved in and by him, and by His spirit and grace.—Rom., 3, 24; 1 Cor., 4, 11; Tit., 3, 7. So again, reciprocally, we are hereby made partakers of the fullness of His merits, and His cleansing blood is near to wash away all our sins and to keep us by His power. Those then that find Him thus raised, ruling and reigning in them have a true ground of hope to believe that they are saved by His blood. But let not any deceive themselves, so as to foster themselves in a vain hope and confidence, that by some outward means or ordinance, they are saved.

But blessed forever are they that having truly a sense of their own unworthiness and sinfulness, and having seen all their own endeavors and performances fruitless and vain and behold their own emptiness, and the vanity of all their vain hopes, faith and confidence in outward things, while they remained inwardly pricked, pursued and condemned by God's holy spirit in their hearts, and so having applied themselves thereto, and suffered His grace to work in them, are become changed and renewed in the spirit of their minds, passed from death to life, and know Jesus arisen in them working both the will and the deed; and so having "put on the Lord Jesus Christ," in effect are clothed with Him, and partake of his righteousness and nature; such can draw near to the Lord with boldness, and know their acceptance in and by Him, in whom, and in as many as are found in Him, the Father is well pleased.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for space in your valuable paper, I remain,

Yours truly,

W. P. YOUREX.

The "Pinafore" Affair

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:—

Dear Sir,—Will you please allow me to correct a mistake made by Mr. Telgmann in last evening's issue. I wish to say that I understood from the very first that there would be a good thing in it for me, or I would not have wasted my evenings and missed other enjoyments by attending the practises. It was no honor for me to take part in the "Pinafore," as it was for most of the children, because it is a common thing for me, as I am in the profession.

Thanking you for this space, I remain,

Yours truly,

RUSSELL BELL.

BOYS' KNICKER PANTS.

Hard to get the right thing in boys' knicker pants. Labor has advanced so much lately that it seems almost impossible to get as good value in low priced lines. However, the Oak Hall made a good strike a few days ago on lines to sell at 50 cts. and 75 cts. We think they are grand value, all sizes up to 33.

SPORTING COMMENT.

Toronto Telegram: Barrie's hockey team averages 158 pounds avoirdupois per man, and as Wag's Marlboros, their next probable opponents, tip the scales at 132 for each, it looks as if the little Dukes would have to go some faster than Grindy's gang to win out.

That, from the quasi official organ of the O.H.A., would make it appear that the executive of that organization has already condemned the Belleville club, without waiting for the formality of hearing their side of the story. It may be easier to understand, now, why many places have revolted against the decisions of the O.H.A., and formed independent organizations.

The more one studies this protest, the shabbier looks the action of the Marlboros, and it is not possible to see how, in fairness, the O.H.A. can condemn Belleville. Manager Burrell submitted his list of players to that body before the season began, and they were O.K'd and declared fit to play. How can the O.H.A. consistently go back on its own permit? Even if Marks were acknowledged to be a professional, which is not done, by any means, how can the O.H.A. throw out Belleville for playing a man who was playing under the sanction of its executive? The fairest course left to President Robertson and his satellites, it seems to us, is to allow Belleville to finish the season with the same team with which it started and refer the case of Marks to the Amateur Athletic Union, which body alone has the power to take away the amateur standing of anybody. In case that is refused, and Marks is declared to be a professional, which, as we said before, is not yet proved, the next fairest thing would be to order the protested game to be played over, with Marks left off the Belleville team. But to disqualify Manager Burrell and his club for playing a man who had received the official sanction of the O.H.A. executive would be nothing more nor less than rank injustice to this city.

The Beechgrove-Frontenacs, of Kingston, beat the junior Marlboros in Kingston last night by 6 to 4 in the first game of the junior O.H.A. finals. This lead is hardly big enough. When they go up against that big Mutual street rink next Monday the Kingston lads are liable to find themselves very much to the bad. Still, they have a speedy team and may win out. Good luck to 'em, anyhow.

Albert College and O.B.C. will clash in the rink to-morrow afternoon, and the Theologs claim to have all sorts of surprises up their sleeve. It should be a good game, for the O.B.C. lads say they will show up with the strongest team they have played this season.

One of the charges made against Marks is that he played baseball with the Toronto Crescents against the Kingston Ponies, in the latter city, the players, it was alleged, afterwards dividing the gate receipts.

INTERESTING, IF TRUE

YOU CAN TRY IT FOR YOURSELF AND PROVE IT.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or other wholesome food, and this claim has been proven by actual experiment which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner: Cut hard boiled eggs into very small pieces, as it would be if masticated, place the egg and two or three of the tablets in a bottle or jar containing warm water heated to 98 degrees (the temperature of the body) and keep it at this temperature for three and one-half hours, at the end of which time the egg will be as completely digested as it would have been in the healthy stomach of a hungry boy.

The point of this experiment is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg in the bottle it will do to the egg or meat in the stomach and nothing else will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectually. Even a little child can take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with safety and benefit if its digestion is weak, and the thousands of cures accomplished by their regular daily use are easily explained when it is understood that they are composed of vegetable essences, aseptic pepsin, diastase and Golden Seal, which mingles with the food and digest it thoroughly, giving the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate.

Dieting never cures dyspepsia, neither do pills and cathartic medicines, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines.

When enough food is eaten and promptly digested there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merit and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world wide and they are sold at the moderate price of 50 cts. for full sized package in every drug store in the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe.

That's a true word on the Quaker's Scroll

For Quaker Oats is the best oats, chosen from the Canadian harvest fields,—patiently milled at the Quaker mill in Peterborough, free from black specks and hulls, roasted to a rich, nutty flavor and rolled in pure, rich flakes.

Pure when it leaves the mill, pure when you get it,—for it comes in air-tight packages—as safe as if it came in glass.

No other food gives so much all-around strength or keeps the system so pure and strong as oats. No other oats can give so much of this benefit as

Quaker Oats

Never sold in bulk. Look for the Quaker on each package—and the Cereta Spoon Coupon inside.

The following despatch from Kingston seems to effectually settle that matter.

Kingston, Feb. 26.—The charge alleged to have been made by the Toronto Marlboros against Marks, of Belleville, that he received a share of the gate receipts of the Crescent-Ponies game last summer, is denied here, and affidavits, denying it, will be immediately supplied by J. H. Geoghegan, manager of the Ponies, and "Chaucer" Elliott, captain.

A meeting of the O.H.A. executive will be held at 2.30 to-morrow afternoon, at which Belleville's defence will be presented and the protest decided one way or the other. If what one hears is true, the Toronto papers are altogether too swift in their assertions that things look black for Belleville. There is good reason to believe that, with justice—and who gets anything else in Toronto?—the local team will be declared O. K. and ordered to finish the season.

SMILES ARE IN ORDER.

Kingston Whig: Kingston hockeyists who witnessed the Cornwall-Wellington match declare that neither team is by any means the equal of Queen's, who are far faster.

Napanee and Picton are tied for the championship of the Bay of Quinte Hockey League, and will probably play off in Belleville.

ICE TROTTING.

Deveras Won the Free-for-All at Kingston.

Kingston, Feb. 26.—The ice races today were not as keen as expected, owing to the heavy track, consequent on the thaw. In the free-for-all fair time was made, and in the last heat Deveras led by 100 yards, and had he not been checked would likely have equalled the best time at the Ottawa races. In the 2.30 class four heats were run, and a fifth will be run tomorrow morning. Johnny P. won the fourth heat, but was put back to third place for running. It is quite likely he will win the race. The summary is:

Free-for-all—

Deveras, A. Wendling, Brockville	1	1	1
J.B.F., G. H. Curtis, Lindsay	2	2	2
Sir Knight, W. J. Lyons, Harrowsmith	3	3	4
D.L.C., S. Harkness, Kingston	4	4	3

Time—2.19 1-2, 2.18 3-4, 2.19.

2.30 class (unfinished)—

Johnny P., Dennis Lake, Napanee	1	3	1	3
Minnie Keswick, G. W. Curtis Lindsay	2	1	2	2
Billy M., W. Metcalfe, Kingston	3	2	3	1

Time—2.23, 2.24, 2.23 1-2, 2.25 3-4.

Snowball Throwing.

A boy named Ross Leavens was charged with striking Albert Horne in the eye with a snowball. The accused did not deny the charge, but alleged that it was not done intentionally. The Magistrate stated that it might have proved a serious affair and it could not be overlooked. He was fined $1 and $1.25 costs, or in default five days in jail.

Alleged Sale to Minors.

Frank Moore, a bartender, was charged with selling liquor to a lad named Fred McHugh, who was under 18 years of age at the time of sale. McHugh testified that on Saturday evening the 14th inst. he procured a bottle of liquor from Moore, paying 35 cents for it.

The result of the investigation was that Moore was found guilty of the charge and fined $10 and costs. Mr. Anderson appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. Carnew for the defendant.

ONE COMMON CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

Perhaps the most general cause of headache and pain across the eyes is nasal catarrh. The simplest cure is to inhale the medicated vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and air passage of the throat, lungs and nose. It kills myriads of germs at every breath, clears away mucous discharges, preserves and heals the membrane. Catarrhozone is just a splendid remedy for headache, and its action is certain and unfailing in diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. A trial will convince the most sceptical that Catarrhozone is all right. Large size, $1.00; trial size 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Respected Farmer Dead

Mr. Hugh Morton, a very highly respected farmer residing near Wellman's Corners, died yesterday morning after about two weeks' illness from pleuro-pneumonia. He was about 50 years of age and unmarried. A family of brothers and sisters, all living near the homestead, survive. Mr. Morton's mother, an old lady of 84 years, who lived with him, was buried on Monday of this week, her death being the result of a paralytic stroke some two weeks before. The family have the deepest sympathy of a large circle of friends in the double affliction which has fallen upon them.

Died in Montreal

Mrs. Fabien Gauthier, a former well-known resident of this city, died on Monday morning at Montreal. Deceased was about 47 years of age. Mrs. Gauthier removed from this city about 15 years ago, since which time she has resided in Montreal having been the mistress of a boarding-house where numbers of Bellevillians were in the habit of staying. Previous to leaving the city Mrs. Gauthier was engaged for some time in conducting the old Kyle house in this city. Last summer she was a visitor here and her many friends will regret to learn of her demise. No family survives, but Mrs. Gauthier, of this city, is a sister. The late Mrs. Gauthier was a warm-hearted woman, who had many friends.

CANADA AND THE EMPIRE.

Interesting Addresses at the Colonial Club.

London, Feb. 27.—Lord Strathcona presided at a dinner at the Colonial Club to the Canadian members of the House of Commons, namely, Messrs. Bonar Law, General Laurie and Sir Gilbert Parker. Lord Strathcona emphatically repudiated the idea of risks from American settlers in the northwest, or the assertion that they would become disaffected with the empire. He said the American settlers became as loyal subjects as those present at the dinner. He asked Britons if it were wise in their own interests to leave Americans to secure so many fine locations and profitable investments in Canada.

Discussing Britain's food problem, Lord Strathcona said that all the mother country could or must do was to have the navy strong enough to keep the ocean lane from Canada clear, and also to safeguard other portions of the empire. Canada is able to produce bread and meat enough to sustain the whole people of the mother country. Perhaps Canadians were not quite ready yet to tax themselves heavily for maintaining Imperial forces, but when necessity arose, and when a practical proposition was put forward, Canada would not be backward in doing her duty.

General Laurie said Britain should frown down any attempt on the part of the Imperial Parliament to dictate to the self-governing colonies. Whatver steps are taken will be taken in union for the defence of the empire, and any movement in that direction must come from the colonies. As regards a union for trade, the initiative must come from the mother country, and what had the mother country done? Britain had done nothing. However, Canadians felt they now had in Bonar Law a sympathetic friend on the Board of Trade.

Bonar Law humorously suggested that perhaps future generations would find one British Board of Trade, with offices in the Dominion, and added that the British Government recognized the benefit of Canada's preferential tariff, but thought the colonies should see they had not given a full reciprocity until all agreed to contribute to a war defence.

Sir Gilbert Parker supported Gen. Laurie in contending that arrangements for the proper protection of the colonies must come from the colonies themselves. He felt sure they would come to the fore on the matter of the empire's defence. Imperial federation would only hinder the object desired. The colonies might be especially relied on to defend another colony, though they might not leap to arms for service in India or Persia.

KILLED FIVE WOMEN.

Terrible Confession Made by Albert Knapp.

Hamilton, Ohio, Feb. 27.—Five murders, the victims of which were all women, and two of them is wives, is the revolting record of Albert Knapp, given in a sworn confession before Mayor Bosch. He is also believed to have murdered three other women. Knapp, according to the police, is a degenerate of a pronounced type. The murder of his third wife, Annie Goddard Knapp, which led to his arrest yesterday at Indianapolis, was done for no apparent reason.

The confession, which was sworn to before Mayor Bosch, is as follows :—"On January 21, 1894, I killed Emma Littleman in a lumber yard in Cincinnati. On August 1, 1894, I killed May Eckert in Walnut street, opposite to the Y.M.C.A., in Cincinnati. On Aug. 7, 1894, I killed my wife, Jennie Connors Knapp, under a canal bridge in Cincinnati, and threw her into the canal. At Indianapolis in July, 1895, I killed Ida Gebhard. On Dec. 28, 1902, I killed my wife, Annie Knapp, in Hamilton, and threw her into the river at Lindenwald. This is the truth. I make this statement by my own freewill, and not by the request of any officer or anyone else."

Knapp is also suspected of strangling three women at Evansville, Ind., and of having killed women elsewhere.

He was in the Cincinnati House of Refuge when seventeen years of age, and new records are being discovered almost hourly. Among other things he said :—"I met the Littleman child in the lumber yard and choked her to death when she made an outcry. I cannot tell what made me kill these people. I could not help it. Some kind of a desire to kill took hold of me and I could not resist the temptation to kill. I am sorry for my crimes." He says his first wife, whose fate had been overlooked, is still alive.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 27.—The parents of Knapp said Albert was insane, and his confession should not be believed. He had given them so much trouble, they believed he would be better dead. Mrs. Sadie Wenzel, his sister, on hearing of the confession, went to the Cincinnati police headquarters, and thence to Hamilton. She said her brother, when five years of age, was kicked by a colt, and later was struck by lightning, and but for her parents she would have had him adjudged insane.

PEOPLE'S TAVERNS.

Company Projected to Establish Them in Toronto.

Toronto, Feb. 27. — It has been decided to launch a company with $100,000 capital for the establishment of people's taverns in Toronto on somewhat similar lines to those in England. This is a new temperance movement, begun, it is said, by the late Bishop Sullivan, but growing more immediately out of the referendum, and the meeting held on Wednesday was the successor of a number of others held to get the project into shape. Mr. Stapleton Caldecott presided, and others present were Rev. Canon Welch, Rev. F. G. Plummer, Rev. Robert Sims, Rev. W. G. Wallace, Messrs. John W. Cowan, J. W. Dyas,

SMOOT A POLYGAMIST.

Objections to His Entering the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Senator Burrows, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, has presented to the Senate a sworn protest signed by Rev. J. L. Leilich in the case of Senator-elect Reed Smoot of Utah, urging that Mr. Smoot shall not be permitted to take his seat in the Senate. Mr. Leilich is in charge of Methodist missions in Utah, and resides in Salt Lake. He is in Washington as the representative of the Ministers' Association of Salt Lake. Mr. Leilich declares Smoot is a polygamist, and now has a plural wife, although he deems it inexpedient to give the maiden name of the lady at this time.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Woman Killed in a Fire at Lowell, Mass.—Others Missing.

Lowell, Mass., Feb. 28. — One of more persons lost their lives in the fire in the Burbank block. The building was used for business, lodging house and social purposes. The street floor contained stores; the second, third and fourth floors, lodging rooms, and the top floor a dance hall. There were 75 lodgers in the house when the fire broke out, but all apparently had escaped. When the ruins cooled off sufficiently to permit a search, the body of Mrs. Sarah F. Kittredge, local correspondent and agent for several periodicals, was found. Later it was reported that four other persons were missing, and a search of the ruins was continued without result. Several persons sustained burns and other injuries.

DEATHS IN THE STORM.

FURIOUS GALES SWEEP BRITAIN AND IRELAND.

Church Lifted From its Foundation and Thrown to the Ground—Train Blown Over.

London, Feb. 28. — A gale of almost unprecedented violence swept Great Britain throughout the night and did great damage, caused several fatalities and injuries to numbers of persons. Telegraphic communication northward of Leeds was entirely interrupted. The continental service was interfered with, and large numbers of ships were forced to seek shelter in the harbors. Many minor wrecks occurred and the lifeboats and rocket apparatuses were busy all along the coasts.

There were several fatalities inland caused by falling chimneys and debris. Many houses were unroofed. The wind in the north of England blew with cyclonic force. The Lancashire mills and churches suffered greatly. The grand stand of the Lancaster football club was lifted bodily and deposited outside the grounds.

At Ulverton, Lancashire, a passenger train was blown over, a number of passengers were injured and ten cars were wrecked.

Scores of shop windows at Liverpool were blown in and the goods scattered about the streets.

Great damage is reported from the coast resorts. A newly-erected church at Holyhead was lifted from its foundations and fell in a heap of ruins.

A number of the supports of the suspension bridge over the Menai Straits, separating the Island of Anglesea from the Welsh coast, were carried away, and traffic over the bridge has been stopped.

The gale swept over Ireland from north to south. At Cork a three-story building collapsed, burying fifteen persons in the ruins. One of them was killed and one fatally injured. Various coast points report vessels ashore. The rivers in the interior are flooding.

THE M'DOUGALD INQUEST.

Verdict Implicating George Williamson at North Bay.

North Bay, Feb. 28.—The adjourned McDonald inquest was held yesterday. The jury found, after viewing the body and hearing Constable Kinsella and Dr. Smith, who made the post-mortem examination, that John McDonald came to his death by blood-poisoning, superinduced by a knife wound from the hands of George Williamson. E. H. Shepherd, proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, was foreman of the jury.

SLAUGHTERED BY REBELS.

Chinese Soldiers Ambushed and Massacred.

Pekin, Feb. 28. — Advices received here show that 300 Imperial troops were caught February 16, in an ambush in the Yangying Pass, by the rebels of the Province of Kwangsi, south China. All the soldiers were killed and the rebels captured large supplies of arms, which the troops were taking to the besieged garrison of Chiyuen.

The official reports admit that the rebellion in Kwangsi is increasing, and has spread over the border into the Province of Hunan. The Viceroy of Hunan has sent troops to the boundary to check the rebels' advance.

THE CATTLE EMBARGO.

Federation of Meat Traders Will Work For its Removal.

London, Feb. 28.—The National Federation of Meat Traders' Association have resolved to support all efforts in England and Canada for the removal of the Canadian cattle embargo.

Germany's Foreign Trade.

Berlin, Feb. 27.—Returns of Germany's foreign trade for January show the imports to have been 3,203,692 tons, against 2,966,956 in January, 1902, and the exports 3,149,758 tons, against 2,474,238 tons in the same month last year. The exports of raw sugar dropped 36,361 tons, chiefly in the trade with England and the United States.

The Democrats of the United States House of Congress, owing to the unseating of J. Butler of Missouri, are doing all in their power to block legislation.

C. M. Hays and Wainwright met the Prime Minister and his colleagues at Ottawa and brought forward the subject of Federal aid towards the construction of the proposed Grand Trunk Pacific line. Various propositions were made, but nothing of a decisive nature was done.

THREE MEN ASPHYXIATED.

FOUND IN THEIR ROOM WITH THE GAS TURNED ON.

Minnesota Land-seekers at a Winnipeg Hotel—Doctors Hard at Work and Hope to Save One of the Patients.

Winnipeg, Feb. 28. — Three of a party of land-seekers from Minnesota, who arrived in the city and registered at the Imperial Hotel, are lying at death's door. They were found at 6.30 o'clock locked in their room, with the gas turned full on. The names of the men are Messrs. Wolson of Hoffman, J. M. Peterson and A. J. Nilsson, Barrett, Minn. It was at first thought that the men were dead, but after an examination it was found that life was not extinct.

Doctors were summoned and every known restorative was used to bring back to consciousness. Until a late hour the doctors were at work without avail on the almost lifeless bodies of the unfortunate land-seekers. They are all sturdy, robust men, about 40 or 45 years of age, and have families residing in the south. It is hoped that at least one will recover.

A BRUTAL MURDER.

Buffalo Man's Brains Were Beaten Out.

Buffalo, Feb. 28.—Edwin L. Burdick, President of E. L. Burdick & Company and of the Buffalo Envelope Company, was murdered early at his home in Ashland avenue. The theory at first advanced, that the crime was the work of a burglar, was abandoned as the police probed deeper into the case, and to-night, while the police claim to have several important clues, no arrest has been made. Burdick was last seen alive last night at 10.30, when he bade the other members of the household good-night and started for his room, apparently with the intention of retiring for the night. This morning his body, clad in an undershirt, was found lying on a couch in a small room off the lower hall used by Burdick as a smoking room. The body was covered with a rug and a number of sofa pillows. The couch was saturated with blood, and the walls and floor of the little den were bespattered with Burdick's brains and blood. The body when uncovered presented a ghastly sight. His head had been crushed in with some blunt instrument, and the blows were delivered with such force that the skull was fractured in several places and the brains were oozing out upon the couch. At the foot of the couch were found the drawers and stockings. The trousers and other articles of clothing which Burdick had worn were in his bedroom on the floor above. The bed had not been occupied. On the table in the smoking room the detectives found a bottle, partly filled with whiskey, and the remains of a light lunch. Members of the family declare that Burdick never partook of the food of which the lunch was composed, and never drank liquor while eating. Mrs. Burdick, the murdered man's wife, left home two months ago, with the intention, it is said, of not returning. It is known that they did not live happily together. On Dec. 3 proceedings for divorce were filed in the County Clerk's office by Mr. Burdick. It is understood that Mrs. Burdick went to Atlantic City. What connection the domestic troubles of Mr. Burdick may have had with the crime the police do not pretend to say.

WANTED MOTHER TO STAY.

For this Reason, Little Girl Drank Carbolic Acid.

Toronto, Feb. 28. — About 6 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Robert Armstrong, 14 Regent avenue, noticed that her fourteen-year-old daughter, Rone Mills, was not looking well, and noticed the smell of carbolic acid. Suspecting that her daughter had probably taken something by mistake, she put her to bed. Immediately the child became unconscious. Dr. Coatsworth in the meantime had been sent for, and used every effort to revive the little patient. He finally decided that it would be better to send the girl to the hospital, and she was removed to the General in the police ambulance. There every effort to bring her back to consciousness failed, and she died about 10.15 o'clock.

The story told by Mrs. Armstrong, mother of the girl, throws an exceptional sadness over the case. It seems that Mrs. Armstrong was about to leave home, and her supposition is that her little doughter, who very much objected to being left behind, drank a concoction of carbolic acid and glycerine, which was used in the house for sores, in order that she might make herself ill so that her mother could not go away and leave her.

STRIKE ON THE C. P. R.

BROTHERHOOD OF RAILWAY EMPLOYEES OUT.

Trouble Arose Over the Discharge of a Clerk Named Forrest—Freight, Transportation and Telegraph Departments in the West Affected.

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 28. — The Brotherhood of Railway Employees of the C.P.R. went out on strike at noon. Three hundred clerks left the freight, transportation and telegraph departments. The trouble arose, according to Supt. Marpole, over the dismissal of a freight clerk named Forrest for cause. The brotherhood demanded his reinstatement. This demand was refused at 9.30 this morning. The brotherhood gave the railway management until noon to reinstate Forrest. Forrest not being reinstated at noon, the strike was ordered along the whole length of the line, which will involve over one thousand clerks in the system. Not many as yet belong to the brotherhood in Toronto and Montreal, but the union is thoroughly organized between Vancouver and Winnipeg. The strikers state that when Mr. Marpole was approached in regard to Forrest he told them that he would not now or at any other time recognize the brotherhood, and that this would end the brotherhood with him. They state that Forrest was dismissed only because he refused to resign from the brotherhood at the company's request, and that the railway were threatening many of their clerks that they must resign from the brotherhood or from the C.P.R. Some time ago Forrest was spokesman of a committee from the brotherhood who demanded the reinstatement of two officers, a request to which the railway consented. Thus Forrest, they say, was picked out for the first victim in the company's war against the brotherhood. The brotherhood claim they were compelled to strike or disband, as the railway gave them no choice. All the offices are open, being run by the official heads with the scant help rapidly collected.

Montreal, Feb. 27.—(Special.)—A despatch from Vancouver states that the employees of the C. P. R. Telegraph Co. went out on strike. Mr. McNicoll states that a few may have struck, but that the matter is not serious.

JUDGMENT RESERVED.

Movement Now on Foot to Indict Bell Telephone Company.

Whitevale, Feb. 28.—Justices of the Peace Davidson and Parker, after listening carefully to the evidence submitted in support of the charge of conspiracy against President Sise of the Bell Telephone Company, have reserved judgment. They will make known their decision at Pickering on Thursday next at noon. County Crown Attorney Farewell, in summing up the case, argued that the evidence clearly established that a telephone is a necessity in the conduct of modern business. The refusal to allow the telephone to be installed in the Locust Hill station unduly limited the facilities for conducting trade and commerce by depriving subscribers of means of rapid communication with the railway company and telegraph station.

It was learned this evening that steps will be taken at once to secure the indictment of the Bell Telephone Company for conspiracy before the Grand Jury at the next sessions for Ontario and York Counties. The evidence elicited in the case against Mr. Sise is such that the promoters of the Co-operative Company have been advised that the case against the company will be exceptionally strong.

BRITAIN BUYS WARSHIPS.

Battleships and Cruisers to Add to the Fleet.

New York, Feb. 28. — The Herald has the following from London: A despatch to The Central News from Rome states that the Argentine Minister there has notified the ship-building firm of Ansaldo Brothers, at Genoa, that the armored cruisers Rivadavia and Moreno, new under construction there for Argentina, have been sold to the British Government. It is also announced in Rome that Chili has sold to England the two battleships in course of construction to the order of the Chilian Government at the shipyards of Armstrong & Co. and Vickers' Sons & Maxim.

No confirmation has been obtained here. Questions will be asked in Parliament next Monday as to the correctness of the report.

KNAPP'S CONFESSION.

Would Soon Have Killed His Present Wife.

Hamilton, Ohio, Feb. 28. — Alfred Knapp, the self-confessed multi-murderer, was asked whether, if he had not been arrested, he would have killed his latest wife. He is quoted as saying: "She woke up several times since we were married and found my hands on her neck, when I was asleep, too. She would awaken me, and ask me what I meant by taking hold of her neck that way, and I could not tell her why, because I was asleep, and did not know. Last week she woke up just in time, or she might never have woke up at all. I was choking her so that she was nearly dead when she came to and woke me up."

In anticipation of Knapp having to be tried elsewhere, he was interviewed to-day on the three cases at Cincinnati. He went over each of the Cincinnati murders, to which he has confessed, giving minute details. As to his motives, he said he was afraid of the victims for what they knew about him. He said his wives were good to him, worked hard, and were kind, but when he got afraid of them he put them out of the way, and never had any fear of being detected.

DEFENCES OF GIBRALTAR.

A French Newspaper Says They Are Overrated.

London, Feb. 28. — The Paris correspondent of The Times writes:

The Petit Journal recently published an article on Gibraltar, in which it argues that that fortress no longer deserves to be regarded as the key of the Mediterranean. It denies that it is now capable of preventing the junction of the French Northern and Mediterranean squadrons. While admitting its strategic value and its importance as a point d'appui for the British Navy, the writer insists that Gibraltar has within the last dozen years lost much of the formidable character forferly attributed to it. It was still very dangerous 12 or 15 years ago, when the highest speed of men-of-war did not exceed ten knots. That is no longer the case to-day, when naval progress has enabled French vessels to keep out of the range of the British guns, and when that same progress has obliged the English to arm Gibraltar in such a manner that they have almost as much to fear from the measures taken to defend it as from the attack of a hostile fleet.

INQUEST AT LONDON.

Mrs. Dunn's Death Due to Criminal Operation.

London, Ont., Feb. 28.—The second session of the inquest on the death of Mrs. John Dunn of Ingersoll was held at the police station before Coroner Ferguson Friday. The jury found that the deceased came to her death on Feb. 14 from blood-poisoning caused by a criminal operation, but by whom induced the evidence did not warrant them in determining. Dr. C. F. Neu, who, with Dr. Waugh, performed the post-mortem, was the first witness. A juror referred to Dr. George Wilson's statement that he could have saved the woman had he been called in on Thursday. To this Dr. Waugh replied that Dr. Wilson had not seen the post-mortem examination and did not know that it was a virulent case.

Dr. Alex. Graham was the physician who attended Mrs. Dunn just previous to her death.

A STRONG APPEAL.

Serious State of Affairs in the Philippines.

Washington, Feb. 28. — The President late yesterday sent the following message to the Senate:

"I have just received a cable from Governor Taft, which runs as follows: 'Necessity for passing House tariff bill most urgent. The conditions of productive industrdy and business considerably worse in November, the date of last report, and growing worse each month. Some revival in sugar and tobacco prices, due to expectation of tariff law. The interests of the Philippines in sugar and tobacco are extensive, and failure of bill will be blow in face of those interests. Number of tobacco factories will have to close, and many sugar haciendas will be put up for sale at a sacrifice if the bill will not pass. Customs receipts have fallen off this month one-third, showing decrease of purchasing power of islands. General business stagnant. All political parties, including labor unions, most strenuous in petition for tariff bill. Effect of its failure very discouraging.'

In conversation with some of his Congressional callers to-day, the President dwelt with serious emphasis upon the necessity of the enactment of the pending Philippine tariff legislation.

CHAMBERLAIN'S MISSION.

Kipling Celebrates it by a Poem in London Times.

London, Feb. 28.—The Times publishes a poem by Rudyard Kipling in celebration of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's mission to South Africa. It begins:—

"Where my fresh-turned furrows run and the deep soil glistens red,
I will repair the wrong that was done to the living and the dead."

The very best medicine for the relief and cure of chronic coughs and bronchitis; dry, harsh throat coughs; irritating coughs of grippe and consumption; whooping cough; croupy coughs of children, is Angier's Petroleum Emulsion.

It soothes and heals the inflamed and irritated membranes of the throat and air passages, promptly relieves the cough, removes foul mucus, makes breathing easy, and puts the respiratory organs in a strong, healthy condition, so that they are able to resist further attacks. It is pleasant to take, agrees with weak stomachs, aids digestion, and has a healthful action upon the bowels.

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is indorsed and prescribed by physicians, used in hospitals, and sold by druggists everywhere.

A THRILLING JOURNEY.

Long Walk From Icebound Steamer to Land.

St. John, N.B., Feb. 28.—Thrilling in the extreme was the experience of three young women and four men who reached here to-night after a perilous trip over the ice floes from the imprisoned steamer Minto, thirteen miles off Pictou Island. The sun's rays almost blinding them, great crags of ice baffling the strongest climbers, streaks of open water threatening them, nearly frozen as night fell and the darkness added to their terrors, the adventurous band were well nigh exhausted when they reached the mainland. While their imprisonment in the [illegible] of the ice floes was wearisome, scarcity of coal and provisions threatening, it is not probable the party would have ventured to make the hazardous trip over the ice had not two of the young women previously received word that members of their families were seriously ill in Boston.

The steamer, which runs from Nova Scotia to Prince Edward Island, became fast in the heavy ice last Monday. Among the forty passengers on board were the Misses McKay, Perkins and McInnis of Boston. The two latter had heard that their parents were dying in Boston, and as the prospect of freeing the Minto grew less and less their anxiety increased. Tuesday they determined to set out for Pictou Island and thence make their way to the mainland and catch a train for Boston. They were urged not to attempt the trip, but when they said they were bound to try it four young men from St. John volunteered to accompany them.

Shortly after noon the party started, with many misgivings from the other passengers and warnings from the officers of the Minto. They were anxiously watched with glasses by those on shipboard, as it was believed they would soon become convinced that the feat was futile and would return to the steamer, but they stumbled along, scaling high ice islands with ragged and precipitous sides, sometimes falling, and each assisting the other, like guides and their sightseers in the Alps.

Half way across the jam some of the men were ready to give up, but the women shamed them into continuing. They rested a while, and then trudged along with indomitable spirit. The glare half blinded some of them, but the others led them along, and all pushed on as rapidly as they could through the lanes of soft top snow, avoiding the open places as much as possible.

It was 9 o'clock in the evening when Pictou Island was reached. They found some fishermen's huts open to receive them. After getting warm clothes and food and drink the party rested for the remainder of the night. Early the next morning they [illegible] the journey to the mainland in safety.

A Great Wreck of Clothing Prices

Do you know the kind of Suits and Overcoats we will sell now for $7.50, they are 00, $10.00 and $10.50 garments. Have you seen some friends wearing one of our $15 Suits and Overcoats which you admired, or did you buy one yourself a couple of months ago? You can get one now for $12 or some of them for $10.50. That's exactly what this sale gives you an opportunity to do, and it is your own fault if you don't do it. We can't afford to carry Winter goods over, so we would rather lose on them and let you make on them now. Oh, Yes! some storekeepers advertise cut prices all the year, lose money all the time, are in business for fun, etc., but we don't do it that way. Twice a year and for a few weeks each time, we can afford to and we do sacrifice profits.

This is our time to lose, as we want to make room for new Spring Goods which are arriving daily. Don't fail to take advantage of this situation.

"PLAYING THE GAME."

Honor must be found in the high places of any country aspiring to ultimate true greatness. Opportunism, the exploitation of public services for the accomplishment of personal ends, the corruption of the electors and the abandonment of sacred pledges can only result in one thing—the destruction of the moral fibre of the country so afflicted.

The Liberal party in Canada, since assuming power in 1896, has been guilty of all four offences against good government. And the most serious phase of the situation lies in the apparent pride with which a large section of the party views such conditions. If the Government is reminded that such and such a promise was made and has not yet been carried out, the matter is treated in a jocular vein. Certain Liberals will tell you with unconcern, that the platform which embodied so many radical departures from the fixed policy of the country as it was 1896, has served its purpose and is now obsolete, the purpose referred to being the return of the Liberal party to power. They laugh when such a thing as consistency is spoken of and point to the fact that, had the Conservative party "played the game" with a little more discretion, they might yet be in control of the administration.

What is meant by "playing the game"? In the first place it is based on the presumption that the electorate delights in being fooled. If money is needed for the process of throwing dust in the eyes of the people, money is used; if an election is to be stolen, the trick is performed; a policy that promises to please the majority is adopted, only to be abandoned the minute it is found dangerous; the accounts of the country are juggled and distorted; criminals are pardoned; others are elevated to positions of trust; the public funds are used to corrupt the voters of constituencies favorable to the Government; one policy is devised for one part of the country, while a diametrically opposite course is offered for the consideration of some other section holding different views; and every other known artifice of a doubtful character is resorted to, in the hope of covering up questions of vital importance to the healthy future of the country.

Only a short time ago, at a banquet held in Sydney, Nova Scotia, Conservative leaders recommended to their followers, the necessity for united and consistent action in all matters relating to Canada's welfare. "It is far more preferable that the Conservatives remain in Opposition for years, than have them sacrifice the principles for which they have fought since Confederation," was the advice given to the Opposition supporters.

This advice is in striking contrast to that contained in the exhortation of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his followers, "to play the game." The "game" is a thing to be dreaded and treated as a dangerous pestilence. If Canadians have faith in the future of this country as a nation, they will resent at the earliest possible moment a policy founded on such a flimsy foundation. If a "game" must "be played," let it by all means be a "game" calculated to develop the best that in us lies. Let it be a "game" looking to the upbuilding of our national welfare, to develop our great resources, and make this broad domain a "Canada for the Canadians," and the Empire as well. Let it be robbed of opportunism, corruption, and criminal expenditure, and clothe it with the respectable garb of truthfulness and honesty.

It is for you, Canadians, to see that the "game" is "played" on such improved lines.

J. ARTHUR MARSH.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Well, the suspense is over, and the Civic offices are filled once more. It will be seen by the report in another column that Mr. D. B. Robertson was last night reappointed City Clerk by the Council. During this many years in the City's employ Mr. Robertson has not spared himself to advance Belleville's interests, and now that the duties are clearly defined he may be expected to perform them with credit and ability. Assuredly, had he been deposed, it would have been a poor return for more than a quarter of a century's performance of duty.

In filling the position of City Treasurer the six gentlemen who voted for ex-Ald. Price probably knew what they were doing. Mr. Price, we understand, has a thorough knowledge of accounting, and, it is to be hoped, will prove a worthy successor to the late Treasurer. If he keeps up to the standard set by Mr. Thompson there can certainly be little fault found. But The Intelligencer was strongly opposed to Mr. Price as an applicant for the City Clerkship, for the reasons given last night. There is, so far as we know, no reason to question Mr. Price's ability to fill the position of City Treasurer; certainly, if he performs the duties as well as the late incumbent did, he will deserve well at the hands of his fellow-citizens.

With the new City Solicitor, fair-minded and reasonable people will have no fault to find. Had Mr. Masson again offered himself, The Intelligencer—and nearly everybody else—would have hoped to see him reappointed. But Mr. Masson did not feel like applying for the position at the reduced salary. There is good reason to expect that Mr. Mikel will make a worthy successor.

• • •

No changes were made in the other offices, and, so far as can be seen with the naked eye, none were necessary. Viewing the matter dispassionately, it is not exactly clear where the Council has, on the whole, bettered things to any alarming extent. True, they have reduced expenses somewhat, probably as much as 8 or 9 cents per annum to the average tax-payer, something, no doubt, for which the average tax-payer will go down on his marrow-bones and offer up thanks, but in bringing about this magnificent result they have stirred up much bad blood and set afloat rumors which will be a long time dying. And the worst of this matter is, people say this was caused by a lack of courage on the part of a few of our municipal rulers, who, recognizing that drastic action was necessary in a certain direction, cheerfully put their hands to the plough and ploughed up a whole field when only a small spot in the middle needed their attention. It is to be hoped that in future, should it ever happen that any city official needs a touch of discipline, our municipal rulers will single out the one who needs punishment, and not condemn the whole of the civic staff to the unmerited suspicion which some people appear to think they have for the last six or seven weeks or so lain under.

• • •

It will be remembered that last night The Intelligencer objected strongly to Mr. David Price holding the position of City Clerk while he at the same time sat on the Board of Harbor Commissioners. We have not yet changed our minds. But the positions of City Clerk and City Treasurer are vastly different. There can, so far as one can see, be no objections to Mr. Price retaining his seat on the Board and at the same time holding the City Treasurership, as the two positions in no way conflict, therefore that he will retain his seat at the Harbor Board.

• • •

In allowing the salaries of the firemen to remain at the figure they have been placed at in recent years the Council undoubtedly acted wisely. The fire fighters have no sinecure, and richly deserve their $62.50 per year. But in looking after the drones (if there are any) the Council acted wisely. The laborer is worthy of his hire, but he should not be allowed to play the "old soldier."

Pale, Nervous School Girls

OVERTAXING THE MIND AT THE EXPENSE OF BODILY HEALTH AND STRENGTH—THE BENEFIT DERIVED FROM

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

It is during the last years of school life that many a girl undermines her health, and prepares for herself years of suffering and weakness.

Just at the time when important physiological changes are taking place, there come the school examinations, consequent confinement indoors and excessive mental strain and anxiety. Instead of there being a sufficiency of rich blood to meet the requirements of physical change, the blood is consumed in the brain, and the demands are greater than the system can meet.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is of inestimable value to woman at every period of life, and, more especially at this critical stage. It forms new, rich, life-sustaining blood, restores color to the blanched cheeks, fills out the angular forms and restores health and vitality to the weak and emaciated.

Mrs. H. W. Bell, Harriett street, Belleville, Ont., and whose husband is a moulder in Walker's Foundry, states: "My daughter, Mona, suffered a great deal from nervous headaches and at times dizzy spells would come over her and she could not rest or sleep well at nights. We are more than pleased with the effect of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in her case. This treatment has built up her system wonderfully. She sleeps splendidly and the headaches do not bother her any more. We consider Dr. Chase's Nerve Food an excellent remedy."

Miss Mona Bell.

By noticing your increase in weight, while using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, you can prove for a certainty that new, firm flesh and tissue, not artificial fat, is being added to the body; 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

RUSH OF IMMIGRATION

GREAT POSSIBILITIES OF WESTERN CANADA—WHEAT RETURNS HAVE RAISED INTEREST TO THE POINT OF ENTHUSIASM.

Her great wheat crops have turned out to be seven-league boots in the march of Western Canada towards prosperity, and the rush of immigration in that direction during the past year indicate that her neighbors and friends desire a share in that prosperity. The estimates approximate 65,000 as the number of people who have gone to Western Canada in the past year. The record crop of 1901 fastened attention on the great possibilities of that vast prairie country, and the returns of 1902 have raised interest to the point of enthusiasm. That this enthusiasm has a solid basis only a glance at official figures will demonstrate. The wheat crop for 1902 is officially estimated at 68,000,000. 60,000,000 will be exported. 54,000,000 was produced by Manitoba alone, and 2,000,000 of the 2,500,000 acres under cultivation, is located in that province. But the region for three hundred miles west of Manitoba and for four hundred miles northward of the Canadian Pacific Railway is capable of the same results. The average yield of wheat per acre in these districts this year is nearly thirty bushels. Such figures have made Western Canada look very attractive in the eyes of farmers wishing to better their condition, and Mr. E. F. Stephenson, Inspector for the Department of the Interior, reports 14,725 entries of land sales for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1902. The total area disposed of Mr. Stephenson estimates at 7,000,000 acres. A part of this, of course, represents the large holdings of companies organized for carrying on the industry of wheat raising on an extensive scale. The British-Canadian Wheat Raising Co. is one of the large corporations of this character.

Accept My Help

And Get Well Without the Risk of a Penny.

You can secure the utmost that medicine will do by simply writing a postal card, or sending me the coupon below.

All I ask is your name and address, and to know the book you need. I will then mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. You may take it a month on trial. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself. And the sick one's mere word shall decide it.

You must realize that this offer would be impossible if I did not know that my Restorative will cure. A man doesn't take a risk involving $5.50, and with hundreds of thousands of people, without knowing what a remedy will do.

I spent a lifetime in perfecting my Restorative before such an offer was possible. I tested it thousands of times, in hospitals and homes, in cases as difficult as physicians ever meet.

Then I let the world know of it. For twelve years I have offered it on terms so fair that no reasonable sick one could neglect it. About 550,000 people have accepted that offer, and 39 out of each 40 have paid for it gladly, because they got well.

My success comes from strengthening the INSIDE nerves. My Restorative brings back this power which alone operates the vital organs.

The common way is to doctor the weak organ itself, and many of you know how temporary are the results. I give the weak organ power to do its duty, and the results are not only sure but enduring.

In this little trouble my Restorative is the quickest help. In difficult troubles it is usually the only way to a cure.

A NEW DEPARTURE

A NEW, EFFECTUAL AND CONVENIENT CURE FOR CATARRH.

Of catarrh remedies there is no end, but of catarrh cures, there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure.

The old practice of snuffing salt water through the nose would often relieve, and the washes, douches, powders and inhalers in common use are very little, if any, better than the old-fashioned water douche.

The use of inhalers and the application of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is no more reasonable than to rub the back to cure kidney disease. Catarrh is just as much a blood disease as kidney trouble or rheumatism and it can not be cured by local treatment any more than they can be.

To cure catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach, an internal antiseptic treatment is necessary to drive the catarrhal poison out of the blood and system, and the new catarrh cure is designed on this plan, and the remarkable success of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because being used internally, it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomach, liver and bowels.

Wm. Zimmerman, of St. Joseph, relates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of catarrh sufferers everywhere. He says: "I neglected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes, and finally even my stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me, and then I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position, as I was clerk and my hearing was absolutely necessary.

Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, another a catarrh salve, but they were no good in my case, nor was anything else, until I heard of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and bought a package at my drug store. They benefitted me from the start and in less than four months I was completely cured of catarrh, although I had suffered nearly all my life from it.

"They are pleasant to take and so much more convenient to use than other catarrh remedies that I feel I cannot say enough in favor of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets."

PROPERTY OF THE COMPANY

This Company has secured 10,000 acres of the choicest wheat lands in Assiniboia, Canada, having paid to the owners in addition to cash 60,000 shares of its Capital Stock, for which the owners are completely equipping the property with all the necessary buildings, steam plows, steam threshers, drills, waggons, tools, fences, and everything necessary to operate the said 10,000 acres.

This Company's property will always be equipped with all the latest improved necessary machinery to produce wheat at the lowest cost. It is the intention of the Company to have its own elevator, of a capacity sufficient to store its entire production, thus enabling them to take advantage of the highest market prices from time to time. The market for wheat is unlimited.

The Company also has an option on 10,000 additional acres of the same character of wheat land as the 10,000 acres above mentioned, the property being located seven miles from the Canadian Pacific Railway, where large elevators are ready to receive the product.

This is an investment that will enhance in value as time goes by, not only from the large production of wheat, but the increased value of the Company's lands from year to year.

DIVIDENDS

Dividends of 15 per cent. per year, it is estimated, can be paid semi-annually, December 1st and June 1st of each year. Outside of the amount paid in dividends, the surplus earnings will be accumulated, and will either be divided among the shareholders as extra dividends, or used to purchase new wheat territory; or be otherwise employed as may be hereafter determined.

Send for the illustrated Prospectus and Maps of the Company's property, which will be mailed Free on Request.

SUBSCRIPTION TERMS.

The full amount of $5.00 per share must accompany the order. The right is reserved to allot a smaller number of shares than the amount subscribed for, in which event the balance of the money will be returned with the shares allotted. Application will be made for a settlement of these shares on the London, Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges in due course.

MONEY MAY BE SENT BY POST OFFICE ORDER, EXPRESS, REGISTERED LETTER, OR BY CHEQUE.

Ex-Congressman John Allen tells this one about a widow in his district who desired a position in the Agricultural Department:—

"There was no vacancy at that time," said he, "and I was consequently compelled to advise my constituent that I could do nothing for her until later. But she persisted in her efforts to obtain a position, and for two weeks thereafter met me at every turn. One morning I had just finished breakfast when I was told by the servant that she was awaiting me in the reception hall. So I assumed as pleasant a demeanor as possible, and entering the room, said in a sympathetic voice:—

"'Well, my good woman, what news?'

"'Good news,' she said; 'good news, Mr. Allen.'

"'Well,' I said, 'I'm glad to hear that. And what is the good news?'

"'Oh,' she said; 'good news, Mr. Allen, good news; a woman in the Agricultural Department died yesterday!'"—New York Times.

A Canadian Ghost Story.

In Lake Huron there is an island called Main Station. On this island is a stone structure which is supposed to have been a fort to shelter United States troops in the war of 1812. The Indians tell many stories of the spirits which are supposed to gather round this fort. The structure is built of solid stone. It is divided into two compartments by a stone partition, and in each of these is found a fireplace. In and around this structure have been found the bones of many human beings. Also some distance below the surface have been unearthed a number of cannons of solid brass, and the other weapons of warfare.

In the summer of 1889, says a correspondent of the Chatsworth "News," a camping party visited the island. "We purposed remaining for some time. On the first night we were determined to sleep within the walls of the old fort. As the darkness gathered round, driftwood was brought and bright fires were soon ablaze in each of the fireplaces. Story-telling, song-singing, and whist-playing were the amusements of the evening. At last, the hour for retiring having arrived, camp-beds were arranged and all retired. We had lain for several hours; a number were in the world of forgetfulness, as was shown by their heavy breathing. The wind moaned among the trees, and the waves beat upon the rocks below the cliff. Just outside the walls was heard a strange and unearthly noise, which awoke several of the campers, who arose to see, if possible, the cause of the disturbance. On opening the door a bumping noise was heard a few rods away, but as the night was dark nothing could be seen. After gazing into darkness for some time and seeing nothing, all again retired to their beds, with the hope of no further disturbance for the night. In this, however, they were disappointed, for only a few minutes elapsed when the strange noise was again heard. This time it sounded like one crying for help. The door was again opened, and a white figure of a human being was seen. It disappeared as if the earth had opened to receive it. Those who were awake and saw the sight remembered the stories told of the haunted island. These weird sounds were continued during the rest of the night, and sleep forsook the frightened campers. As soon as daylight all concluded to leave the island, which they did, selecting another some distance from this one, where they pitched their tent and finished their stay at Lake Huron."

God's Care of Us.

Rev. Henry Everton Cobb, D.D., Collegiate Church, Seventy-seventy street and West End avenue, New York.

"All these things are against me."—Genesis, xlii., 36.

"We know that to them that love God all things work together for good."—Romans, viii., 28.

What makes this difference between the gloomy outlook of Jacob and the cheerful confidence of St. Paul? It seemed to the one that all things were at enmity with him; it seemed to the other that all things were his servants and friends.

It is not that Jacob had more than his share of adversity and St. Paul less Look at the life of St. Paul from a material standpoint and you see that he had the rougher experience. Sum up the life of Jacob and you see that the things which seemed against him all had turned to his benefit. St. Paul, on the other hand, ended his life in a Roman dungeon. His life seemed a failure. Yet it is St. Paul who says, "All things have worked together for my good."

It might seem as though the difference of outlook were wholly a matter of mood. There are days when the skies seem to smile upon us and everything goes our way. There are other days when everything seems against us and we are at odds with everybody. Has the world changed its complexion overnight? We know, rather, that the change is due to something within us—that it is we, not things, who are crooked and cross-grained and need regulating. If God's providence is not to our liking the cure is not to be found in changing the order of things to suit us, but in being ourselves changed into the likeness, i. e., to the liking of God.

So St. Paul tells us. The confident optimistic outlook which we associate with a cheerful mood may become habitual with us. Think of yourself as within the circle of God's love. Let nothing shake your faith in the fact that God cares for you. The conviction must follow that "all things are yours." The Father of men is also the God of things. Nothing is left to chance. Nothing is indifferent or meaningless. If He is for us nothing can be against us. All things must be working together for our good.

When things seem against you, then try to discover the purpose of a loving God in them. The mariner compels the wind which seemingly would hurl him back upon the shore to carry him to his haven. In doing this he has but learned how to use the forces which God sent to his help. The thing he supposed his enemy is in reality his friend. Remember how the world's best work has got itself done in the face of adversity, of poverty and discouragement. Men have been thrown back upon their own unsuspected resources. Hardship has set the mind free to discover and invent and plan. A man loses his health; how shall he make that loss serve him? The little work he can do he must do better; he must waste nothing; he will find at the end that the fragments he economized count for more than the whole. A man loses his friends; he may find better friends in good books, in his own home, or among neglected people. They will give a better return for his investment of sympathy. Every setback is a hint that unworked mines of treasure are at our feet if we have sense to look for them.

This is God's world and everything in it is a friend to the man who loves God. Everything must help the man who wants to be the kind of man God wants him to be. There is no surer way to make the world against us than to forget its Maker and set our heart on the things that are in it. "Who follows pleasure follows pain." Do the will of God and all things will be your helpers and your friends. All things shall work together for your good.

And the night shall be full of music,
And the cares that infest the day
Shall fold their tents like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away.

Castro a Hustler.

Of President Castro of Venezuela a writer in The Los Angeles Sunday Times says:—Castro is a man beloved by his army. He treats his soldiers as comrades; they have free access to him. He commands, and he also acts. He orders a charge and leads it. It is known that cowards have been transformed into good fighting men by the valor displayed by their leader. His first characteristic as a ruler is his tireless energy. He is an early riser, and generally takes a morning gallop on his favorite white horse about the suburbs of Caracas. Returning, he devotes himself to State correspondence, dictating all his official documents to his Secretary, and depending little, for his memory is marvellous, upon subordinates for details. In the afternoon, every day in the year, there is a meeting of the Cabinet. After this a carriage ride generally lasts until 6 o'clock. His evenings are given over to State receptions, and to consultations with various officials. He is very fond of dancing, and his entertainment in "Medo Flores," the handsome residence built by Gen. Crespo and rented by the Crespo family to Gen. Castro, have become famous all over the country. The home life of President Castro is ideal. His beautiful wife was orphaned early in life, and was adopted by the powerful Arocha family of Maracaibo. Mme. Castro is exceptionally well educated. She is beloved by the people of Caracas for her charity. All Gen. Castro's unofficial life is passed beside her; what time she is alone is given over to benevolence. The couple have no children.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. Da Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "F the benefit of others I wish to say few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a yea ago I took a very severe cough, an a virulent sore on my lips, was be with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought o trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. B the time that bottle was done, it ha about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and ha used quinine and lemon juice with ver little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the billiousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 6 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

Many a man's self-conceit is due t his ignorance.

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil ha nothing in common with the impure deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, beside being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body give up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, bu will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected ... the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

THE 'PRENTICE BOYS' CONCERT.

Only a fair-sized audience attended the above entertainment last night, and those who stayed away missed an enjoyable affair. The performers were Miss Marie Wheler, of this city, soprano; Miss C. W. Haynes, also of this city, reader; Mr. Bert Harvey, of Toronto, comic vocalist, and the I.O.O.F. Band. The Band was in good form, and played two selections in fine style. Miss Wheler was in excellent voice, and very sensibly sang numbers not so severely classical as to be tiresome to people who like "popular" music. Her rendition of the ever popular "Creole Love Song" was pleasing in the extreme. Miss Haynes, the reader, is gifted with a prepossessing appearance, and received liberal applause for her efforts, which were mostly in a comic vein. Mr. Bert Harvey is by no means a stranger in Belleville. He has improved greatly since he last appeared here, and fairly captured the audience last night, especially in "Our Beautiful Ome" and "Calligan." Mr. Harvey's costumes are good, and he really has an excellent baritone voice, something many alleged comic singers are totally innocent of. Miss Lulu Chalaupka was a perfect accompanist, except that once or twice she played a trifle loud. Taken altogether, the concert was highly successful, and deserved a full house.

"77" FOR GRIP

"77" PREVENTS PNEUMONIA

The effective treatment of an ordinary "Cold" is a matter of a day or two against a possible subsequent sickness for weeks.

The indications of a severe attack of influenza are headache, chilliness, general muscular pains, fever, sore throat, cough and systematic lassitude.

It is folly to risk Grip or Pneumonia, when the use of Dr. Humphreys' "SEVENTY-SEVEN" will prevent and cure Grip and Colds. The best results are obtained by keeping "77" handy (it fits the vest pocket). Taken early, it cuts it short promptly. Taken during its prevalence, preoccupies the system and prevents its invasion. Taken while suffering, relief and cure are speedily realized. At druggists, 25c., or mailed.

ONE COMMON CAUSE OF HEADACHE.

Perhaps the most general cause of headache and pain across the eyes is nasal catarrh. The simplest cure is to inhale the medicated vapor of Catarrhozone, which traverses every air cell and air passage of the throat, lungs and nose. It kills myriads of germs at every breath, clears away mucous discharges, preserves and heals the membrane. Catarrhozone is just a splendid remedy for headache, and its action is certain and unfailing in diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. A trial will convince the most sceptical that Catarrhozone is all right. Large size, $1.00; trial size 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co. Kingston, Ont.

Sports and Pastimes

SPORTING COMMENT.

Toronto Star: Jack Marks, the Belleville hockey player, who has been protested to the O.H.A. as a professional baseball player by the Toronto Marlboros, is in Toronto to-day in connection with the protest, as is Harry Burrell, the manager of the team.

The Marlboros charge him with having received money from the Cadets of the Senior League and from the Kingston Ponies. The first charge is supported by affidavits by Fred Hickey and H. M. Lamont, who were fellow-players on the team. Marks denies most strenuously ever having received a cent either in Toronto or Kingston, and has made affidavit to that effect. He is looking up evidence in Toronto to-day and is assured of some in his favor from Kingston.

The Marlboros are being condemned on all sides for going after Marks.

Of course they are. Who but a lot of cry-babies would protest a lad who had played with a team all season? However, a message received from Manager Burrell last night stated that things looked very favorable, and that the Marlboros would in all probability lose their protest.

However, if this kind of weather keeps up the boys may have to pull straws for the championship, unless the Marlboros can get it by leg-pulling.

Brockville Times: There seems to be an idea prevalent in Canadian sporting circles that the main thing in any sport is to win,—win, by hook or by crook. That is all wrong; it is pleasant and gratifying to win, but the essential principle in clean, amateur sport is recreation and amusement. To play the game properly is the correct idea. It is no disgrace to lose so long as the game has been played fairly and squarely and in friendliness. This "win at all hazards" principle in amateur sport is responsible for crooked work and rowdyism and is the certain death of clean amateur sport.

Not long ago a writer in a Boston newspaper commented at length upon the amazement of the British amateur sportsmen who came to the United States and noted the desperate feverish anxiety of the United States sportsmen to win, and their hysterical, tearful grief when they lost. "What's the matter?" asked the stolid John Bulls in open-eyed astonishment, "What do they feel so badly about? It's only a game, don't you know!" And we seem to have caught the infection from the United States and to take a defeat in a sporting contest as a disgrace, and a calamity. Sport should be sport and not cut-throat hostility. Sport should teach self-control and the exercise of good temper as well as afford recreation and amusement.

What would the Times man think of a team which, having no chance to win, went in "to use their opponents up a bit?"

Mail and Empire: A full meeting of the O.H.A. Executive will be held this afternoon, when the Marlboros' protest against Marks, of Belleville, for alleged professional baseball playing will be decided. There promises to be some lively developments, and Manager Burrell and Marks, of Belleville, were in the city yesterday securing evidence. There will be a big bunch of declarations to be considered by the Executive, and from present indications one of the Marlboros' declarations will receive a rude jolt owing to a former declaration made to the O.R.F.U. by this same party. These two declarations on the professional question do not coincide. Belleville may also ask for an enquiry into the status of one of the Marlboro' players, who formerly played lacrosse. It would not be at all surprising if the Executive should order the last game played over on neutral ice.

THE CITY'S TREASURY.

AN OPEN LETTER TO ALD. GALBRAITH, ALD. POPE, ALD. SULMAN, ALD. PANTER, ALD. McFEE AND ALD. COOPER.

Well, gentlemen, now that it is over, are you satisfied with the work you have accomplished, and for which we, the citizens of Belleville, will hold you individually responsible? Were you elected with any mandate to dismiss our tried and true and most efficient City Treasurer? Can you realize anything sufficiently clearly to know that you have shocked the whole community? Now it is our turn. You are only temporary trustees for us. Now give an account of your stewardship. Why did you do it? What is the underlying purpose and motive? Speak out to the public who elected you, and if you are not ashamed of your reasons, give them to the public whose appointees you are, through the recognized medium of communication, the public press—and over your own signatures, gentlemen, please.

Speak out Ald. Galbraith, yours was the pivotal and deliberate vote that decided the matter. You are accustomed to express yourself in speech and letter. What lofty moral or business reasons for your action can you give? Let us have the facts.

Speak out Ald. Pope. You can do it if you will. Let us hear where your investigations have led you. Justify yourself.

Speak out Ald. Sulman and Ald. Panter. Let us hear wherein City Treasurer Thompson failed to satisfy the business ideals, no doubt formed in your own establishments.

Speak out Ald. Cooper. In your brief municipal experience what has induced you to substitute an inexperienced man for one who has proved himself to be all that a Treasurer could be.

Speak out Ald. McFee. You are supposed to have the courage of your convictions. What in this particular case, happen to be your convictions?

Where, gentlemen, are your protestations that you only wanted to rearrange duties, forsooth? What civic duty have YOU performed? Why did you wish to get rid of this faithful guardian and strong man? WHY DID YOU DISCRIMINATE? What is your standard? Was City Treasurer Thompson too firm and too strong?

Fellow citizens, generally, it is our money that is being administered—our affairs that are at stake. Do I not speak for all of you when I say that the municipal standing of Belleville has retrograded during the past few weeks—that the elements of distrust, uncertainty and injustice have been introduced, and that the calibre of our municipal executive officials has not been improved by these boasted and boasting reformers? Have we not a right to know what the object is? Do I not represent you when I ask these six Aldermen, who occupy their transitory positions through our suffrages, to speak out, or by silence stand condemned by the better opinion of the whole community. Honestly, fellow-citizens, are there twenty of you in all Belleville really satisfied with last night's work? Has justice been done either to us or to our civic officials? If we are to be the reproach of the province, then let us drive home the responsibility for this mockery of municipal reform. Let us rouse the old public spirit!

Yours, &c.,
W. N. PONTON.

Messrs. Frank Narcross and Scott Gilbert left yesterday for their homes in Lennoxville and Sherbrooke, Que.

Picton Gazette: We are sorry to report the serious illness of Capt. James Benson, Clerk of the Township of Ameliasburg. He has not been in robust health for some time, although attending to business as usual; but now he is prostrated by an illness which, we trust, will not be more than temporary. His many friends will hail the news of his recovery with great satisfaction.

Canadian Mute: Our good old friend the Rev. Canon Burke has not forgotten us. He sent an Easter address to the pupils of the English Church, which they appreciated and received gladly. We regret that the reverend gentleman is still confined to his home in a somewhat crippled condition, but glad that his general health is fairly good. We all have kindly recollections of Mr. Burke at the Institution.

Forgot Where He Had Found Gold.

"There's a man with a hard luck story beside which our troubles look like 30 cents," said one human derelict to another as they stood in front of a cheap lodging-house. The man to whom he referred had just emerged from the building. He slouched along in a despondent way, with downcast eyes, stooped shoulders and that look of resigned hopelessness peculiar to those who have long been well-nigh penniless and never expect to be anything else. As he disappeared into a neighboring saloon, the man who had pointed him out to his companion resumed his story.

"I knew that fellow well when we were both prospecting for gold in Southwestern Arizona. He, like most of us, had been at it a long time without having any luck, and was down to hard pan, when one day he suddenly turned up with a bunch of nuggets rich enough in gold to make your eyes pop out of your head. He started in to whoop it up, and whoop it up he did until his stake was gone. Meanwhile he had told enough to convince us all that he had found a bonanza, but no amount of persuasion would induce him even to hint at its location. About the time he went broke the 'rot gut' he'd been drinkin' got in its work and he had the 'Willies' as bad as I ever saw a man have 'em. When he came to, his memory was gone. Not a single event in his past could he recall for months, when some portions of it began to come slowly back to him. The location of his bonanza, where nuggets of the richest kind could be picked up from the surface, could never again be recalled by him, not even a general idea as to its direction, and to this day it remains among the many lost gold mines of that locality."

"Gee, that's enough to make a man swear off forever, and I'd do it if I thought I could remember where there is a gold mine," said the second derelict as he and his companion followed the "man with a history" into the saloon.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

ALEX. RAY

The Appeal of Paul.

Cyrus Townsend Brady.

Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.—Acts, xvii., 23.

The relative significance of events is not appreciated by the participants therein. As distance throws enchantment upon the view, so time gives accuracy to the judgment. If you were asked the name of the most important place in the history of the world from a secular point of view you would say Greece, and representing it, as Paris does France, Athens.

There the human mind reached its greatest development; there the greatest bodily perfection was exhibited; there the profoundest philosophies flourished; art, poetry, song there attained their maximum. At the sound of Athens the memory is thronged with brilliant and glorious figures. It was the home of Pericles, Miltiades, Aristotle, Demosthenes and Phidias—the catalogue is endless. Yet Athens will be remembered forever, even should the names of these men and their exploits be forgotten, for the visit of an ailing, wandering little Hebrew, who was greater than them all.

Visitors to the classic spot seek first not the groves of Academus, the temple crowned Acropolis, the gardens of Epicurus or the Stoa of Zeno, but Mars Hill, the rock of Areopagus, where Saint Paul preached one of the greatest sermons that ever burst from human heart. Yet the sermon had no result. There were only two converts. It was greeted with laughter, mockery, contemptuous indifference. Saint Paul could fight against opposition like the soldier he was, but he could not face these things, and he promptly left the city. He founded no church there. He never went back. As far as humanity can judge, his words were futile, yet the visit of Saint Paul distinguishes Athens in the minds of millions who care little for the other worthies. The thing that was of so little importance to his contemporaries that no local chronicles mention it, so far as we know, has dominated every other fact in the history of that commonwealth. Why?

Because the situation in Athens is one which is reproduced in millions of individual cases to-day; because we typify in ourselves that Athenian population—but with a difference. We can put ourselves in the place of the sneering, scoffing Greek multitude and listen again to that sermon. It appeals to us if it did not to them. The words had no effect then, but they burn in the human soul to-day.

Countries live on, governments exist by inertia, long after the national spirit or the vitalizing force which brought them into being has spent itself. It was so with Athens. The old love of liberty was gone. That beautiful natural religion which in its highest development produced philosophers like Socrates and Plato had vanished. The Athenians followed indifferently Epicurus or Zeno, embracing, as men do in all human systems, the weak and the bad, disregarding the good and noble. The Epicureans apotheosized lust; the Stoics made a religion of indifference or despair. If these were the principal religions, the city was full of other gods. Athens was like New York in that. You could scarcely cast a stone in any direction without hitting somebody's god. These gods were embodied in statues that stood in every possible place of display.

The heart of Saint Paul sickened at the sight. He disputed, as the ancient philosophers had done, in the market place, proclaiming the truth of his great message. The people listened, and, in accordance with ancient custom, they took him to the Areopagus, a spot where of old a court had been charged with the duty of hearing the advocates of any new religions. The court was merely a name then, but they took him there, and there on that rock that ugly little Jew, Paul, who was the greatest of all Jews, stood where four hundred years before that ugly little Greek, Socrates, who was the greatest of all Greeks, had stood, to proclaim Christ's gospel.

There was one altar he noticed in the city that had no statue on it, that bore the inscription "To the Unknown God," as if to indicate that there was something higher and greater which could neither be localized nor described in marble nor comprehended in the schemes of the philosophers, which appealed to the thoughtful even among the careless, sceptical Greeks. That God was He whom Saint Paul preached so unavailingly. So it is to-day.

This is technically a Christian nation. Stop the passersby in the street with the question and you will find few who will avow an absolute disbelief in God. But most of us worship Him as an unknown God. He is an idea, an abstraction, not a reality. We have other gods, Plutus, Venus, Bacchus, some few Minerva, but every one has an altar in some corner to the unknown God, which is Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Is there a decay in public religion? Are men indifferent to Christ? Will they, like those ancient Greeks clustered on Mars Hill, turn away with sneer, with laughter when the truth is proclaimed? With mock or real courtesy, but with fatal procrastination, will they promise to give the subject their attention at a more convenient season? What will you do who read? The greatest thing about a man is his attitude toward religion, for that determines the man. The greatest discovery that man can make is the individual discovery of God in Christ Jesus. It is a personal religion that we want, no systems of ethics or codes of laws, but knowledge, personal knowledge, of God. Let us seek until we find. The voice of Paul is lifted up on printed page, in Christian pulpit, in human life, in a thousand ways to-day. Let us "Stop! Look! Listen!" until the unknown God becomes to us the reality that He stands for in the church and that He has been to millions who follow in His footsteps to-day. Let us heed Paul and surmount the hidden altar in our hearts with its mysterious inscription, with the image of Jesus Christ, the only True, so that we ourselves, as all other men shall "see and believe!"

In Danger's Hour.

[Being a true account of one hundred and twenty minutes in the life of Gaston le Strenuous, by the author of "Will'-yum and Me," "The Stovepipe of Papa," "To Get and to Hang On To," and "The Conceit of Omaha."]

It was a mild morning in April, 1610, around ten o'clock, when I, Gaston le Strenuous, arrived at the outskirts of the capital of Buritania. I was speculating on my chances of future greatness when I observed a cloud of dust rapidly approaching. Nearer and nearer it rolled, and nearer and nearer the thunder of hoofs resounded. At length a fiery jennet flashed into view. One glance at the fair rider's face revealed to me Elizabeth de Sauterne-Moselle, whose image was destined never to fade from my heart. When opposite where I stood the noble steed fell exhausted. But a few paces behind in frantic leaps sped the form of a royal Bengal tiger. It sufficed but an instant to dismount, and the ready sword of my ancestors flashed in the sunlight. The combat was strenuous. Backward and forward we swayed. Finally the tawny beast grasped the sword and wrenched it from my hands, when with a last despairing effort I seized him by the throat, and, bending his head backward, broke his neck.

Scarce had the combat terminated and I was resting from my labors when suddenly as though sprung from the earth there encircled me a troop of horse whose badge, the famous two crossed, sky-blue mackerel rampant, bore sufficient testimony to the fact that they were the minions of him whom men then named with bated breath as the "pea-green cardinal."

"Ha! what is this!" exclaimed the leader, in whom I was not at a loss to perceive the notorious ruffian, Charlatrousse de la Vin Ordinaire. "A violation of the edicts relative to the killing of Bengal tigers! Surrender, caitiff!"

"Never," I cried, and the attack began. They were fifty-three of the most renowned swordsmen in Europe, so it took fully ten minutes before they were placed hors de combat.

As my dagger was clicking merrily against the gorget of the last I accidentally paused to note the worried look which was spreading over the fair face of Mlle. de Sauterne-Moselle. Like a flash the situation presented itself to me. A similarity of feature, form and bearing revealed that unwittingly I was about to slay her brother-in-law.

"S'death," I cried, "young man, your life is spared."

"But not my honor, gadzooks," he answered. "I had sworn to take thee alive."

"Gramercy for thy courtesy," and we were about to re-engage when the pleading expression of my loved one's countenance determined me.

"My sword, i'faith, I will never surrender," I cried, breaking it across my knee. "But, fair youth, I follow you."

As the iron doors of the royal prison for inebriates clanged behind, I indeed felt that all hope had departed. Thrust into a narrow cell half full of water and half of air I began speculating on the chances of escape. But one opportunity presented itself. Unbuckling my strong leather belt, I detached the buckle, which was soon fashioned into a serviceable pickaxe. Ten feet of solid granite were soon pierced, and before my friend the warden again passed on his rounds I was swinging by the leather thong over one hundred feet of space. A quick drop into the moat and I breathed the air of freedom. But not for long.

Cannon-balls rained around me as I sped up the street. I count it no cowardice that I did not stop to pick up my hat, which one had knocked off.

Turning into a narrow street I was congratulating myself when a noise like thunder pealed forth. Huge cracks opened in the pavement. Trapped at last. I had unwarily entered upon a section of the city where a rapid-transit road was being constructed. Suddenly, after a frantic effort to regain my footing, I fell into a yawning cavern that opened before me.

When I awoke all was darkness. The damp earth encompassed me close about, but by strenuous exertions I finally managed to wriggle first one, then all ten toes. And now began a forward burrowing which was necessarily slow. One, two, three, four, and five miles were toilsomely traveled within the bowels of the earth. At length a stone wall seemed to bar further progress. Wrenching away a giant bowlder, however, I fell forward into a damp void. One glance around sufficed to convince me that I was in the dungeon of the palace. Had I but exchanged a Scylla for a Charybdis?

But soon the sound of voices recalled me to myself. The speaker could be none other than the pea-green cardinal.

"For reasons of state," he was saying, "it is expedient that King Bardolph die." A click of steel seemed to give answer.

Remembering the sage advice of my second cousin one remove, never to count odds, I plunged at them. A noble fight we had in that grim old dungeon. The last of the dozen bravi was but rendering his expiring sigh when lights flashed and the king entered with Mlle. de Sauterne-Moselle on his arm.

"Ha! what is it methinks I see? Treason! Take this as an eternal evidence of thy sovereign's gratitude," and he joined our hands. One instant our entire being surged up within us. "My love, my queen," I said; "Gaston, my king," she answered.

"And now," said our gracious liege, "it being just twelve o'clock, let us to dinner."—H. Gerald Chapin in "Judge."

Erasing the Evidence.

Deep in the bark of the old beech tree that stood on the river bank the young man carved the initials of her name.

Then he called her attention to them.

"But your initials just above mine," she said, "look as if they had been cut there a year or more ago."

"They were, dear," he replied.

"And mine," she continued, looking at them a little closer, "seem to have been worked over from others already there."

"Yes, dear," he replied with noble candor. "I have to change them every year. That is one of the penalties of these summer resort engagements."

ES REGENERATION PRECEDE CONVERSION?

NAPANEE GENTLEMAN BREAKS INTO THE DISCUSSION.

the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—Having read most of the ters appearing in your paper on oes Regeneration Precede Conversion?' I venture a few remarks. question admits of a very simple wer. It does. Just as cause pre- s effect. Regeneration, or new birth, is a new life from God. Conversion is a new life for God. There can be no new life for God, unless first a new life has been received from God. For, who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Not one.—Job, XIV., 4. The modus operandi of the new birth is defined in John III. The closing verse of John II, says Jesus, "Needed not that any should testify of man; for He knew what was in man." He knew man to be a fallen, depraved and irreparable, undone creature, and that nothing short of a new birth can give him access into the Kingdom of God. Of this birth Nicodemus was ignorant. A teacher of Israel, a professed guide of the blind, yet confessedly knows nothing of that great change, which alone can give entrance into the Kingdom of God. Jesus says, "Except a man be born of water and of the spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God." Water in the New Testament is used as a symbol of the Word of God and also of the spirit of God. See Eph., V, 26, and John VII., 38 and 39. In what sense it is used here is conclusively settled by I. Peter, I., 23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever." Also James, I., 18, "Of His own will begat He us (or brought us forth) with the Word of Truth." This is simple, the Word and spirit of God effect the new birth. To use an illustration:—In a surgical operation there are three things necessary—the subject, the operator and the instrument. So likewise in the new birth. We have, 1st, the subject to be operated upon, "the sinner"; 2nd, the operator, "the Holy Spirit"; 3rd, the instrument by which the new birth is performed, "the Word of God." The Holy Spirit uses the Word, applies it to heart and conscience, and thus convinces of sin, righteousness and judgment to come and also points the convicted one to the Lamb of God, who on the cross made expiation for sin. This is just what follows in our Lord dealing with Nicodemus, and says, "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the son of man be lifted up, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life." Nicodemus was now consciously the bitter Israelite believing sins, wages to be death, but believing also in Him, symbolized by the serpent lifted up, and as a consequence receives eternal life, is born again.—John, I., 12; I John, V., I, That Nicodemus was born again, as a result of this interview, is plain, from John, VII., 50, and XIX., 39. Baptism has nothing whatever to do with it. Baptism has its place in Scripture, but not here. To introduce baptism with those early verses of John III. is simply a ruse of Ritualism. The writer was cradled and nursed under such teaching, taught that "by baptism he was made a member of Christ, a child of God and an inheritor of the Kingdom of heaven." Through the Lord's mercy he was later in life led to see the fallacy of such teaching, and though baptized and confirmed, learned from God's Word that he was a lost sinner, on his way to hell. The sandy foundation of Baptismal Regeneration would not stand the test. But faith in Christ crucified did. Luther's doctrine of Justification by Faith is the way to God, and the only way. Any other is climbing up another way, and such, says Christ, are thieves and robbers.

I am, dear sir,
Yours truly,
R. IRVING.
Napanee.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Rapidly Repairs Wasted Tissue, Puts it in Firm Condition and Expels Waste Poisons From the System.

The tissues of the human body are rapidly wasted by fevers, and great quantities of waste poison are poured into the blood. The rapid breakdown of tissue and the charging of the blood with poisons, bring unfortunate victims to a condition of weakness and helplessness that is pitiable to behold. Thousands of young and old who have just passed the critical stages of typhoid, inflammatory, gastric, typhus, intermittent and other forms of fevers, demand the closest attention and best treatment if life is to be saved.

With true candor, honesty and earnestness we suggest and urge the use of nature's nerve food and nourisher, Paine's Celery Compound; the only medicine in the world that has proved its value as a builder of wasted tissue, a bracer of weak and irritated nerves, a never-failing blood purifier and enricher. Paine's Celery Compound has made tens of thousands well and strong; it has saved afflicted ones from the grave when everything else has failed. No other medicine so quickly fortifies feeble men and women; it gives them that robust health that makes life a joy.

MR. DAVID PRICE IS CITY TREASURER

Council Filled the Civic Offices at an Adjourned Meeting Last Night.

Mr. W. C. Mikel is the New City Solicitor—No other Changes.

Mr. T. M. Kirkwood Would Like His Time Extended for a Month.

At the adjourned Council meeting, held last evening, Mayor Graham and all the Aldermen were in attendance.

Mayor Graham said that the object of the meeting was to consider the applications which had been received for the various civic offices, which had been declared vacant.

On motion the Executive Committee met first to consider the applications.

The following applications for the various civic offices were read:

Mr. J. P. Thompson for City Treasurer.

Mr. A. C. Baker for City Treasurer.

Mr. F. M. Clarke for City Clerk or Treasurer.

Mr. D. B. Robertson for City Clerk.

Mr. D. Price for City Clerk or Treasurer.

Mr. R. C. Hulme for City Surveyor and Manager of Waterworks.

Mr. L. Soule for City Surveyor and Manager of Waterworks.

Mr. W. C. Mikel for City Solicitor.

Mr. J. Williams for City Solicitor.

Mr. J. McCurdy for Engineer of Fire Department.

Mr. A. J. McDonald, Niagara Falls, for City Engineer.

Mr. J. F. Roblin for Engineer of Fire Department.

Mr. J. F. Backshaw, of Winnipeg, for City Surveyor.

Mr. Thomas Sullivan for City Surveyor.

Mr. W. H. Campbell, for Chief of Fire Department.

Mr. J. Cummins, for Assistant Chief of Fire Department.

Dr. Ross, for Medical Health Officer.

The various applications were, on motion, referred to the Council.

Rolling Mills Matter.

Ald. Chown said he had received a communication from Mr. Kirkwood, in reference to renewing some $15,000 insurance which was now lapsing, which was to the effect that he (Mr. Kirkwood) failed to see in the agreement where he was bound to do this. He was at present keeping a person on watch upon the premises day and night.

The Mayor stated that he had received from Mr. Kirkwood a communication asking for a month's extension of time for commencement of operations.

Ald. McFee said he would certainly oppose an extension of one hour's time.

On motion the matter was laid over until the opinion of the Solicitor is obtained as to the agreement, etc.

The Gas Company.

The Mayor said that there was another matter which should be attended to. The present lessee of the Gas Company intended to discontinue the lease when it expired, which would be shortly. The Gas Company, as a company, would not run the works.

On motion of Ald. McFee a committee composed of Ald. Galbraith, Chown, Pope and Sinclair was appointed to look into this matter in the city's interest.

It was suggested that His Worship be added to this committee.

The Mayor stated that by virtue of his office he was a member of the Board on behalf of the city.

This concluded the work of the Committee.

THE COUNCIL MEETING

On motion the Council resumed and proceeded to the 5th order of business, namely introduction of by-laws. Ald. Cooper in the chair.

The first by-law taken up was the procedure by-law, which was a lengthy document defining the duties of the various civic officials.

A by-law regulating the duties of the Chief, Assistant Chief and members of the Fire Brigade was read a first time.

A clause in the by-law was read to the effect that any member of the brigade who was not present at a fire must present a doctor's certificate if absence is caused by illness, otherwise the member's salary to be docked for non-attendance.

Ald. McFee asked the Council not to interfere seriously with the Fire Department. The men were not paid much for the services rendered.

The Mayor stated that he had taken some interest in this matter, and stated that all the men did not attend at fires.

In the discussion which ensued it was discovered that under the by-law appointing the members of the Brigade the salary was fixed at $50 per annum, whereas the men had for some years been paid at the rate of $62.50 per annum.

The Mayor—"We have evidently stirred up a mare's nest."

An effort was made to ascertain when the increase took place, but, after searching the records for some time, such information was not found.

The clause in the new by-law was made to read so as to fix the salary of the men at $62.50 per year.

The by-law was read a first time.

The by-law regulating the duties of the Medical Health Officer was considered, and the various clauses were adopted without much discussion.

The by-law was read a first time.

On motion the committee rose and reported. The report was received and adopted.

The by-laws were then read a second and third time, and numbered 1079, 1080 and 1081.

Ald. Chown moved the suspension of the rules for the introduction of by-laws, appointing the various civic officials.—Carried.

The various by-laws were introduced and read, and on motion the Council went into Committee of the Whole on By-laws, Ald. Galbraith in the chair.

On motion the time of the Council was extended for two hours.

Medical Health Officer.

The first by-law taken up was that appointing a Medical Health Officer. The blank in the by-law was filled in by the name of Dr. J. W. Ross, and the salary fixed at $100 per annum.

City Clerk.

The by-law appointing a City Clerk was considered.

Ald. Sinclair moved that Mr. D. B. Robertson be appointed City Clerk.

Mayor Graham moved in amendment that Mr. D. Price be appointed.

The amendment was lost and the original motion carried.

Those voting for the present incumbent were Ald. Cooper, Pope, Panter, Sulman, Marsh, Sinclair and Green. Those against were the Mayor, Ald. Chown and McFee.

The Mayor asked for the yeas and nays but it was shown that they could not be obtained in Committee.

The salary was fixed at $700 per annum.

City Treasurer.

The by-law to appoint a City Treasurer was introduced.

Ald. Chown moved that Mr. J. P. Thompson be appointed.

Ald. Sulman moved in amendment that Mr. D. Price be appointed. to the amendment that Mr. F. M. Clarke be appointed.

The amendment to the amendment was voted down, Ald. Cooper alone voting for it.

The vote on Ald. Sulman's amendment was a tie, Ald. Sulman, Cooper, Pope, Panter and McFee voting for it, and the Mayor, Ald. Green, Sinclair, Marsh and Chown against it.

The chairman, Ald. Galbraith, gave his casting vote in favor of the amendment, and Mr. D. Price was declared elected.

The salary was fixed at $700 from the Council and $200 from the Waterworks department.

The by-law was then read a first time.

Street Surveyor and Manager of Water Works.

The by-law to appoint a City Surveyor was taken up.

Ald. McFee moved that Mr. R. C. Hulme be appointed.

The Mayor asked if any of the other applications were to be considered.

Ald. Chown said he had seen Mr. Backshaw when he was in Winnipeg, and he did not consider he was the man we wanted. He was assistant engineer of Winnipeg, and had been dismissed by the Chief Engineer.

Mayor Graham asked if any person knew anything about Mr. A. J. McDonald, who was an applicant.

No person appeared to know anything about Mr. McDonald.

There being no other person nominated, Mr. R. C. Hulme was selected for the position.

Ald. Cooper thought that, as Mr Hulme was not a practical engineer, the salary of $800 per annum was sufficient for both positions, and should not be $1000.

A number of the Aldermen said that the Council had fixed the salary for the position at $1000 per annum and the applicants had applied for the position upon that understanding.

On motion of Ald. Chown the salary was fixed at $1000 per annum.

City Solicitor.

The by-law to appoint a City Solicitor was considered.

Ald. Sulman moved that Mr. W. C. Mikel be appointed.

Ald. Sinclair moved that Mr. J. Williams be appointed.

Upon a vote being taken Mr. Mikel was selected the vote being as follows:

For Mr. Mikel—Mayor Graham, Ald. Cooper, Pope, Panter, Marsh and Sulman.

For Mr. Williams—Ald. Sinclair, McFee, Green and Chown.

The Fire Chiefs.

A by-law to appoint a Chief and Assistant Chief of the Fire Department was introduced.

Mr. W. H. Campbell was appointed Chief at a salary of $200 per annum, and Mr. Jas. Cummins Assistant Chief at $100 per annum.

Mr. Jas. McCurdy was unanimously appointed as practical engineer of the Fire Department, and the salary was fixed at $450 per annum.

On motion the Committee rose and reported. The report was received and adopted.

The by-laws were then read a second and third time and numbered 1082, 1083, 1084, 1085, 1086 and 1087.

Whilst the by-laws were being numbered Ald. Sinclair asked that the yeas and nays be taken upon the by-law in reference to the appointment of a City Treasurer.

The Mayor stated that it could not be done. If the yeas and nays were desired they should have been taken upon the motion to adopt the report.

The Assessment Commission.

Mayor Graham said the Assessment Commissioner desired to go to Toronto and Picton in order to make some searches and he desired the City to pay his expenses. It would probably cost $15 or $20. This assessment commission was an expensive affair, and he could not tell where the end would be. The next pay sheet presented would no doubt be a large one.

Ald. Pope said he anticipated that it would cost a considerable sum, but thought the end accomplished would result in benefit to the city.

The Mayor stated that he had had considerable trouble in this matter. Some of the G.T.R. engineers had waited upon him and had stated that if they were assessed upon their income they would move out of the city.

Ald. Pope said he did not think they would do so.

A motion prevailed that a sum not to exceed $25 be allowed the Commissioner for the purpose of visiting Toronto and Picton.

Treasurer's Audit.

Mayor Graham stated that it would be necessary to have an audit of the Treasurer's books before the new appointee took office.

On motion Messrs. T. Thomson and F. D. Diamond were appointed auditors, and Ald. Chown was instructed to instal the newly-elected Treasurer in his office when everything was ready.

Ald. Galbraith asked if anything was to be done in reference to Mr. L. Soule's position.

This matter was referred to the Water Works Committee to deal with.

This concluded the business of the session, and the Council adjourned.

A GUARANTEED CURE

For All Forms of Kidney Disease

We, the undersigned Druggists are fully prepared to give the following guarantee with every 50 cent bottle of Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets, the only remedy in the world that positively cures all troubles arising from weak or diseased kidneys: "Money cheerfully returned if the sufferer is not relieved and improved after use of one bottle. Three to six bottles effect astonishing and permanent cures. If not relieved and cured, you waste no money."

NATURE'S BLESSING

IS FOUND IN HEALTH, STRENGTH AND FREEDOM FROM PAIN.

This Gift is Meant for all—On it the Happiness and Usefulness of Life Depend—Without it Life is an Existence Hard to Endure.

Health is nature's choicest gift to man and should be carefully guarded. Ill health is a sure sign that the blood is either insufficient, watery or impure, for most of the diseases that afflict mankind are traceable to this cause. Every organ of the body requires rich, red blood to enable it to properly perform its life-sustaining functions, and at the first intimation that nature gives that all is not well, the blood should be cared for. Purgative medicines will not do this—it is a tonic that is needed, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been proved, the world over, to surpass all other medicines in their tonic, strengthening and health-renewing qualities. From one end of the land to the other will be found grateful people who cheerfully acknowledge that they owe their good health to this great medicine. Among these is Mr. Elzear Robidoux, a prominent young man living at St. Jerome, Que. He says: "For some years I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia. My appetite became irregular and everything I ate felt like a weight on my stomach. I tried several remedies and was under the care of doctors, but to no avail, and I grew worse as time went on. I became very weak, grew thin, suffered much from pains in the stomach and was frequently seized with dizziness. One day a friend told me of the case of a young girl who had suffered greatly from this trouble, but who, through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, had fully regained her health and strength, and strongly advised me to try these pills. I was so eager to find a cure that I acted on his advice and procured a supply. From the very first my condition improved and after using the pills for a couple of months I was fully restored to health, after having been a constant sufferer for four years. It is now over a year since I used the pills and in that time I have enjoyed the best of health. This I owe to that greatest of all medicines, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I shall always have a good word to say on their behalf."

Through their action on the blood and nerves, these pills cure such diseases as rheumatism, sciatica, St. Vitus' dance, indigestion, kidney trouble, partial paralysis, etc. Be sure that you get the genuine with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on every box. If your dealer does not keep them they will be sent, post paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mrs. Hatterson—I gave my husband an awful lecture yesterday. Mrs. Catterson—Did he need it? "No. But I did."

FOR THE FARMER.

The farm, with its animals and plants, its various labors, cares, tasks and pleasures, summons to action every faculty. The thinking brain and working hand must act together, and thus the symmetric growth is secured which actual life requires.

If any spraying of vines or fruit trees is contemplated to check fungous diseases, it should be remembered that such treatment is only preventive, and that the first application should be made when the buds are swelling.

A Coltswold ewe owned by Mr. J. Harrington of Fairbury, Ill., produced in eleven successive seasons five pairs of twins, four triplets and two fours, or, in all, thirty lambs in the eleven seasons. This is pretty nearly, if not quite, a record.

The winter is the time to prune grape vines, and it should not be delayed, as they cannot be cut back with safety after spring opens. Vines put out last spring may be cut back to three eyes, and older vines may have their new wood cut back to six or eight buds.

Profit in Egg Culture.

To make the egg business pay you must have well-flavored eggs. Strange to say, the freshest of eggs many times are eggs that are unfit to eat, and yet people will say an egg is an egg. Little they know, evidently, concerning a really fresh egg at its best. Eggs too vile for food go every day to market, no matter when they were gathered. Many who keep hens for fresh eggs are very careful about furnishing strictly fresh eggs to their customers, but take no heed to their probable or possible flavor. We farmers are responsible for a great many little abuses that we are all too apt to give no heed to, and we need to mend our ways. We may begin in real earnest at the poultry yards and houses in turning over a new leaf. If it means you, reader, take the suggestion kindly, and begin at once, and it will not only pay you in dollars and cents, but in reputation. We know that putrid flesh food, musty grain food, decayed grains and all manner of filthy things that fowls will eat if they come under their eyes are ruinous to eggs and unhealthful for the fowls themselves. Should an animal die, our fowls should never be permitted to eat thereof. Should a fowl die we should bury it deep. Keep every manner of unfit food from your fowls, old and young. I think the poultry fruit ought to be inspected just as much as milk. I had a letter from a person in New York who wanted some good fresh eggs, and would give fancy prices for them. He wanted to know how I fed the fowls. He wanted them fed food that would make good eggs, and not have the white of the eggs as thin as water; he wanted the yolks a good golden yellow color. I stopped buying eggs two years ago, because everybody thinks his eggs are better than his neighbors'. These eggs would get mixed with my own and spoil the market of my good ones. My customers would write back not to put in any of my neighbors' eggs. Why are so many bad eggs sent to the market? A lady told me this summer that the eggs she was buying were not so fresh and good as in other years, and I asked her what she meant by bad eggs. I soon found that the eggs were newly laid, but the feed had not been of the right kind to make a good egg. I believe many eggs are spoiled by farmers who take no notice of what kind of a place they are laid in. The hens lay their eggs in filth and dirt, and if not gathered as soon as laid will be sure to have the taste of their surroundings. If some people saw where half the eggs are laid they would never eat them. A few days ago I was in a chicken house where it was cruel to keep them. The horses were above them, and they were in water, dirt and lice. There was no ventilation, and they had to sleep and lay their eggs as best they could. From such places as these bad eggs come. I was in a chicken house the other day that looked as if it had not been cleaned out for ten years. Some will give a dead horse to the hens to eat. Such food and such care are what make bad eggs. They are not fit to eat.

Now, to make a success of the poultry business your hens in their houses should be as clean and comfortable as you are in your house. To many the raising of poultry seems to be a very easy task. It is not everyone that will make a success, try as hard as he may. There will be a leak somewhere, and he will not understand it. The man that makes a success in the poultry business must first be a lover of the business, then must go at it carefully. A man will never succeed in any kind of business who is simply a shark, and cares for nothing but his own pocket. The poultry business is just the same as any other kind of business—it must be done on business principles. Honest, square and upright dealing is the road to success. When your customers write to you for prices on fowls or eggs, give them their money's worth every time. If you have not got what they want, tell them yours are not up to their standard. Relative to the food the fowls are to construct the eggs out of, give them wholesome grains, well-balanced rations, and keep the houses free from lice. The best thing I have found to free the hens from lice and to keep them healthy is the following mixture:—Paint the roost poles with it just before the fowls go to roost. Put a little in the nest boxes on the sides; if you put it on the bottom the scent will go through the eggs: Crude petroleum, 3 quarts; oil of tar, 4 ounces; carbolic acid, crude, 1-2 pint; bisulphide carbon, 4 ounces. Mix together and keep tight in a can. Shake before using.

BRIGHT BABIES

ONLY THOSE PERFECTLY WELL ARE GOOD NATURED AND HAPPY.

When a baby is cross, peevish or sleepless, the mother may be certain that it is not well. There are little ailments coming from some derangement of the stomach or bowels which the mother's watchful eye may not detect, which nevertheless make themselves manifest in irritability or sleeplessness. A dose of Baby's Own Tablets given at such a time will speedily put the little one right and will give it healthy, natural sleep, and you have a positive guarantee that there is not a particle of opiate or harmful drug in the medicine. Thousands of mothers give their children no other medicine, and all mothers who have used the tablets praise them. Mrs. A. McDonald, Merton, Ont., says; "Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine for little ones I have ever used, and I always keep them in the house in cases of emergencies." Good for children of all ages from birth upward. Sold at 25 cents a box by medicine dealers or sent post paid by writing direct to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DETROIT RIVER BRIDGE.

Application For a Charter Probably by the Pere Marquette.

Amherstburg, Feb. 28.—The Echo yesterday contained the notice of application to the Parliament of Canada for an act incorporating a company having power to construct a railway and general traffic bridge across the Detroit River at or near Amherstburg, with all necessary powers. Blake, Lash & Cassels are solicitors for the applicants.

It is probable that the Pere Marquette Railway is behind this application. The Pere Marquette recently acquired the Lake Erie & Detroit River Railway, from Walkerville to St. Thomas, and from Sarnia to Rondeau, on Lake Erie, where connection is made with ferry boats to Conneaut, Ohio. Notice has already been given that authority will be asked to build a branch line from Walkerville to Sandwich, and from a point east of Walkerville to the Detroit River at Amherstburg. It is probably the intention of the Pere Marquette to connect its Michigan system with the L. E. & D. R. division by a bridge across the river at this point. The latter road is to be extended to Buffalo from St. Thomas, giving the Pere Marquette a new through line to the east.

PRESENTATION AT PORT HOPE.

Rev. Mr. Dayfoot Honored on His Departure For Orillia.

Port Hope, Feb. 28. — The many friends in Port Hope of Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, M.A., late pastor of the Baptist church here, who leaves for his new home in Orillia to-day, assembled at the Methodist parsonage, the home of Rev. E. B. Lancely, who inaugurated the movement, and presented Mr. Dayfoot with a purse of $130 in gold. An address was read by Rev. E. Daniel, rector of St. John's Church, and short speeches followed by prominent citizens, expressive of the general regret felt in town at the loss of a liberal and broad-minded minister.

Court Refuge, No. 198, Independent Order of Foresters, to-night held a farewell social in honor of Mr. Dayfoot, who is High Orator for Central Ontario, and presented him with a handsome Morris chair in recognition of his services to Independent Forestry.

QUARRYMAN BLOWN UP.

Mr. John French Probably Fatally Injured.

Kingston, Feb. 28.—While Mr. John Birch, quarryman for the Rathbun Company at Gananoque, was engaged in blasting, a charge failed to go off. Birch went to see what was wrong, and while examining the charge it went off, blowing him some distance, along with the debris. The injured man was brought to Kingston General Hospital. His injuries were found to be severe, consisting of a fractured skull, a broken arm, injured hand, eye, chest and forehead. Little hope of recovery is held out. Birch is fifty-four years of age.

A FRIEND PERSUADED HIM TO TRY O. R. KIDNEY CURE.

A COMPLETE CURE FOLLOWED—READ WHAT HE SAYS:

Belleville, Aug. 26, 1899.

I have been troubled with Sciatica Rheumatism for over twenty years in my back and hip, sometimes unable to dress my own feet for days at a time, having consulted some of the best physicians I got but temporary relief. In July and August of 1899 I was a complete cripple, having to walk with a cane. I was induced by friend to try the O. R. Kidney Cure. I bought one bottle and when that was used felt so much better that I got two more, when the third bottle was about half gone my aches and pains had gone also, and I have had no rheumatism since. I have recommended it to dozens of people, and I cannot speak too highly of it to all who are troubled with pains in the back or hip as I was.

Yours truly, J. W. MALLOY.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Grain is Firmer—Live Stock Trade—Latest Quotations.

Friday Evening, Feb. 27.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market.

Trade was fairly brisk at St. Lawrence Market to-day. The receipts were fairly large, those of grain totalling 2,300 bushels.

Wheat—The market for white wheat is about steady; 200 bushels sold at 72½c per bushel. Red is firmer, 300 bushels selling at 72½c to 73½c, and goose is about steady, 400 bushels selling at 67½c to 68c per bushel.

Barley—The receipts were quite heavy and prices are ½c easier; 100 bushels sold at 46c to 51c per bushel.

Oats—Are about steady; 1,000 bushels sold at 36½c to 37½c per bushel.

Dressed Hogs—There was a good run of stuff offering and trade was fairly brisk. The market is about steady, with perhaps a little easier feeling. Quotations are unchanged at $8 to $8.25 per cwt for light weight hogs and $7.75 to $8 for heavies.

Hay—About 40 loads were on the market and prices show an advance of about $1 per ton. No. 1 timothy is quoted at $12 to $15 per ton and mixed or clover at $6 to $9.

Straw—The market is quoted steady at $8 to $9 per ton. About eight loads were offered to-day.

Toronto Live Stock

Trade at the Toronto Cattle Market today continued rather dull, the demand all round being no better than it was yesterday. The run of offerings was light and the percentage of good stuff was not large. Dealers say, however, the market is holding up better than might be expected considering the conditions at other markets. Prices generally are about steady. The total run amounted to 38 cars, including 518 cattle, 371 sheep and lambs, 830 hogs and 20 calves.

Export Cattle—The market showed very little change from yesterday's dulness. The offerings were light and there was not much stuff wanted. There is very little shipping space offering. Regarding the English Government's refusal to admit Canadian cattle, dealers express the opinion that the embargo cannot long exist, and that it will soon be removed. Prices to-day were fairly well maintained, about $4.30 to $4.50 was paid for good cattle, with perhaps as high as $4.60 for a few lots of extra good stuff.

Butchers' Cattle — The demand for butchers' cattle was brisk enough to absorb the rather light run on the market this morning. The offerings were of fairly good quality and most of the stuff was sold. Prices were fairly well maintained, possibly on account of the short run. About $4 to $4.40 was paid for good cattle, with perhaps a little more for a few extra choice stock.

Milch Cows—The market continues about steady. There were few cows on the market offering and prices are about steady. Some good cows are wanted.

Stockers and Feeders—The run was light and generally of poor quality. Prices continue about steady.

Sheep and Lambs—The market was about steady, with prices unchanged. Trade in lambs was rather dull, the receipts being somewhat too heavy for the demand. Prospects are about steady all round.

Calves—There is no change in the market and prices remain steady at $2 to $10 each, and 4½c to 6c per lb.

Hogs—There was a fair run of stock, which which was all sold early. Prices continue unchanged, with prospects steady.

East Buffalo Cattle Market.

East Buffalo, Feb. 27.—Cattle—Receipts light, demand good at steady to strong prices; veals, receipts, 510 head; 25c lower; tops, $9 to $9.25; common to good, $5.50 to $8.75. Hogs—Receipts, 9,600 head; active and steady; heavy, $7.45 to $7.55; medium, $7.25 to $7.45; Yorkers, $7.20 to $7.30; pigs, $6.90 to $7; roughs, $6.40 to $6.60; stags, $5.50 to $6. Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 11,500 head; sheep steady and lambs 5c higher; top lambs, $7 to $7.15; culls to good, $4.50 to $6.90; yearlings, $5.50 to $6; ewes, $5 to $5.25; sheep, top mixed, $5.25 to $5.50; culls to good, $2.75 to $5.15.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Cattle—Receipts, 2,500; good to prime steers, $5 to $5.75; poor to medium, $3.25 to $4.75; stockers and feeders, $2.25 to $4.70; cows, $1.40 to $4.60; heifers, $2 to $4.75; canners, $1.40 to $2.60; bulls, $2 to $4.25; calves, $3.25 to $7.50; Texas fed steers, $3.50 to $4.25. Hogs—Receipts to-day, 23,000; 10c to 15c lower; mixed and butchers', $6.80 to $7.20; good to choice heavy, $7.25 to $7.42½; rough heavy, $6.85 to $7.20; light, $6.50 to $6.85; bulk of sales at $6.85 to $7.20. Sheep—Receipts, 8,000; good to choice wethers, $5 to $5.50; fair to choice mixed, $4 to $4.75; native lambs, $4.75 to $6.85.

The British steam collier Otter Caps was driven ashore off Feuntenot, France, and her crew and passengers, numbering thirty, drowned.

Attorney-General Campbell has given notice that a redistribution bill will be introduced in the Manitoba Legislature on Monday next.

A despatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, denies the report that the Russian Consul at Mitrovitza, Albania, has been murdered by Albanians.

Sir Augustus Lackcash (to tailor)—My son tells me that your have allowed him to run a bill for three years. I have, therefore, come——. Tailor—Oh, pray, Sir Augustus, there is really no hurry. Sir Augustus Lackcash—I know that, and therefore I have come to tell you that in future I want to get my clothes from you, too.—"Tit-Bits."

"TASTY TABLET DOSES"

An eminent physician, whose schooling has always been along the line of "strong tonics and bitters" for stomach troubles, now prescribes what he calls tasty tablet doses—Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets.

And he is only one of thousands of the medical profession who are "getting out of the rut" and taking the common-sense view of things, and instead of strong doses are prescribing for stomach troubles and the ills that are akin, this pleasant and never failing treatment. Every day sees the walls of prejudice crumbling, and nature getting the recognition she merits—for nature's cures are surest. Sixty tablets, 35 cents. 16
